

Worlds Plot 351

Chapter 351: 8.76 First Blue Star - Nightmarish Memories I

Zhi Yue had started panicking about everything that was happening before him. The Lord Hei he knew is someone who would never treat his life like this. But he knew the reason for it. Ever since that night the interaction between his host and the Lord God's soul fragment's vessel had either been cold or warm.

This reaction is based on the result that angered his host. Zhi Yue knew that Lord Hei hadn't completely forgiven him or Marshal Altair Sirius for what happened that night. To him, the move that the marshal had taken is nothing but a suicidal move. I mean who would be foolish enough to come to the enemy's hideout after knowing that the latter possess a bloodline skill that could kill any sentinels in this world. Mania, as a mental illness caused by being inflicted by a qi filled with evil thoughts.

Once this evil qi entered a Sentinel's spiritual domain, it slowly destroyed their soul until they went insane and killed themselves in the end. Only a guide can cleanse a Sentinel's soul but this action needs compatibility. Not all Guides could suddenly invade someone else's spiritual domain.

This is a risky action after all. A sentinel's spiritual domain is full of qi, this can kill anyone who would try to invade their minds. Guides are weaker than a Sentinel this is because their spiritual qi's attribute is soft than the fierce qi that the Sentinels possess. It was because of this that sentinel and guides would complement each other.

Falling in a state of mania is extremely dangerous for a Sentinel especially for the unpaired ones. When Marshal Altair Sirius was directly attacked by the skill from the Siren King, his defenses were lowered at that time as he was in mecha. He thought that the mecha's defensive program could protect him but who would have expected that the soul inside that Siren King's body is no longer an original soul. But an outsider soul like them, someone who is bound to be their enemy.

Thankfully, Feng Jing had found them before it was too late. This is the reason his host is angry at them. Because at that time, Feng Jing felt that his lover despite sharing each other's affection had not trusted him well enough. To Feng Jing this is almost a betrayal, after all, he had given the latter his full trust, loyalty, and love. It was unfair that Marshal Altair Sirius had treated him that way.

And because Zhi Yue had not informed him as well, Feng Jing felt that his little moon guide hadn't believed in him enough. When both his love and his friend don't trust him the way he does, this is Feng Jing's source of anger.

Now Feng Jing wanted to use these Heavenly Laws to make them feel what it is like to know that someone important to them chooses an action that may cause his own death. He wanted them to feel what he had felt that time. The panic almost made him mad. The sadness of knowing that he didn't trust them enough and the fear that he might lose him because of one foolish choice. He wanted them to experience them all.

A barrier was erected enclosing Feng Jing inside, the rumbling of the dark clouds above him getting stronger with each minute that passed. Despite that, Feng Jing stood at the center with a huge Phoenix-Dragon Hybrid Quantum beast looking at the black sky above him. His face was devoid of emotion as if overlooking a passing cloud, he stares at the thunder tribulation which is about to hit him at any moment but there is only sleepiness tainting those silver eyes. The corner of his lips trickles a spill of blood as if blood would flow out once he parted those thin yet bloodless lips.

His phoenix eyes had hints of tiredness as he stared at Marshal Altair Sirius and Zhi Yue just beyond the barrier he had erected. Unless someone stronger than him appeared it is close impossible for someone else to destroy the barrier. When he moved his gaze to stare at the pale face of the Marshal, Feng Jing's lip slightly upturned. No one else knew if it's a taunt or just a simple smile but it was able to stir Marshal Sirius's heart completely.

Rumbles~ Crack! A huge bolt of lightning finally comes down. Targeting the lonesome figure of his beloved at the center of the enclosed land. This scene made Altair Sirius helpless at the same time terrified. His eyes lingered only at Feng Jing's smiling figure.

The Marshal grabbed the clothes above his heart, at this moment the pain within his chest is beyond what he had experienced before. As if someone had directly dug out his beating heart stabbing it multiple times for him to suffer unbearable pain then followed with an extreme feeling of numbness, he couldn't move his body as if he was paralyzed. Only the slow-moving scene of lightning bolt targeting his lover almost took his breath away.

His formerly dull black eyes suddenly glint with a glow as if a polished obsidian full of luster and elegance. The frightened expression on his pale face faded as only coldness and calmness were present. Zhi Yue is still banging at the barrier wanting to get inside, but this barrier is made purely from his host's qi unless he is stronger than the caster, others can't destroy it.

Zhi Yue was yelling from the outside, "My lord. My lord... please stop this!" But his host turned deaf ears on his pleas. He suddenly turned his head to ask his Lord God's soul fragment to work together with him so they could at least make a small crack on the barrier but when he looked at the Marshal, Zhi Yue was dumbfounded.

The sharp and piercing glance from Marshal Sirius is so familiar to him. It was the usual authoritative gaze he receives from his big boss, the Lord God.

He started stuttering in shock, "Y-You are...?" Zhi Yue asked but he was ignored.

Marshal Sirius turned back his gaze on the figure of his beloved inside the barrier. He reached out to touch him. Once the tip of his fingers landed on the invisible barrier, darkness taints it and spreads fast enough that everyone witnessed this scene. Marshal Sirius entered the barrier and unlike before he was able to go inside unhindered.

Before the barrier turns completely back, Reine, Feng Jing's quantum beast, felt a strong qi throwing him out of the approaching black barrier. The strength coming from that qi was so strong that it left the quantum beast helpless. A loud bird cry was heard echoing paired with the figure of a huge phoenix flying away like someone grabs its neck and throws it away. Roi, the Black Dragon King, who was encircling the barrier near the dark clouds saw its shrieking partner and came over to comfort it.

CAAAAWWWSSSS~

RROOOOAAAAARR~

Roi felt that his master had changed but at the same time not. It is his master but this master is a lot stronger and fiercer. The aura this Marshal possesses is different from before. It is eerier and much more dangerous.

Everyone could only watch as a black dome appeared out of nowhere. The tribulation thunder continuously struck on the black dome but it left nothing on the black barrier. It kept striking until loud sounds of cracking were heard in the area. But the dark dome is like an immovable fortress, not even the largest lightning bolt left a scratch on it.

Meanwhile, inside the black dome, countless will-o'-the-wisp appears floating scattered in the area providing light. Feng Jing who was greatly weakened by breaking the heavenly laws just stood at the center of the darkness without any expression on his face. But his silver eyes now emit frostiness that could rival the glaciers.

Feng Jing murmured, "Darkness and fire elements? Is it the enemies from the outside of this world? Did they come for me?"

When all of the sudden he was attacked by the darkness within the dome, Feng Jing tries to defend himself by freezing the area around him but unfortunately, his vessel is thoroughly spent this time. He was able to turn a part of the area into ice but the power of darkness overpowered him. When Feng Jing tries to use qi beyond his body, the darkness could no longer hesitate and restrain him, including his godly abilities.

The darkness gently wraps around him even blindfolding his eyes and gently restraining his qi. Feng Jing closed his eyes waiting for death. Unless the one who kills him is his sole weakness no matter how many times he is killed, he would revive. What Feng Jing didn't know is that this gesture of him welcoming his death without any second thought makes someone extremely uncomfortable. Feng Jing didn't know why the qi coming from this darkness is making him relax and comfortable. It didn't take a while for him to completely fall asleep. To him sleeping in his death or dying in someone's hands had no difference. He wouldn't be able to die no matter what was done to him.

Marshal Sirius who was watching silently in front of him suddenly trembles when he tries to reach out for Feng Jing's blindfolded figure. At this moment, the current marshal is able to utilize the black snowflake insignia to heal the latter. This is something that the original Marshal couldn't do. On the Marshal's face, a small black snowflake appears under his left eye paired with the same one that suddenly appeared in the same position on Feng Jing's face.

Once Marshal Sirius knew that his wife had completely fallen asleep, he controlled the darkness bidding him and gently caught him in his embrace. As if a precious treasure finally returned to his arms, this man who wears the face of Marshal Sirius cradles the beautiful sleeping man in his embrace.

This person is no longer Master Sirius alone, but the man Feng Jing had been waiting for. Someone whom he loves with all his life and eternity. The Lord God of the Nether System, Ye Xiajie, who is supposed to be asleep for two worlds. He had awakened early this time. As soon as he woke up the two worlds' memories had merged for him to experience himself. He had seen the scene of his lover's death under his own command in front of his eyes in the last world. Or when that sword of that old bastard cleanly stabbed through his wife's heart when he tried to protect them.

His memories surge like waves coming into his mind without hints of stopping. He could hear his own voice and his subordinate, Warden Lou's voice. It wasn't the same as their original voice but based on their memories this is indeed his own.

'Araysh'

'You call my Lord.'

He can hear him issuing orders of testing the saintess in memories and Araysh accepting the tasks without a complaint. movelusb.com

'My Lord, how about the other one (Eirwen)? The one who wasn't summoned but got brought here by accident, Should I kill him tomorrow?' asked Araysh.

Damian replied, 'End him cleanly. Just a single stab should suffice.'

Ye Xiajie knew that these words came out of his own mouth. The current vessel that used to house his soul fragment. He couldn't believe what he was hearing. He ordered the death of his own wife with his own mouth. He wanted to kill him at this moment. He never expected things like this would happen the moment he left his dominant soul asleep for meditation.

Then like a movie playing before him, he could only watch his wife be stabbed by his own subordinates from behind. The blood gushes from his chest like a waterfall tainting the pure white dress within crimson blood. He could still feel the warmth of his wife's blood on his hands when he caught him before he fell. He could also feel the turmoil his heart had suffered at that moment. He wanted to scream to stop this nightmare but the memories continue to flow out like water in his head.

His wife's blaming tone when he was dying within his embrace that time, the words he had spoken in a form of a whisper is like a scream lingering in his ears.

'You said... you'll never... harm me... You're a liar... My... love.'

The sleeping figure of Feng Jing in his arm overlaps the bloodied dying figure of his beloved from the last world. Ye Xiajie yelled as if losing his mind.

AAAAHHHHHHHHHHHHHHH!!!!

Chapter 352: 8.77 First Blue Star - Nightmarish Memories II

AAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHH!!!!

A scream comes out of Ye Xiajie's mouth. No one else could hear it as the inside of the dome is isolated and no one could control it except for the owner himself. Countless memories which worthy two lifetimes flashes within his mind.

The sweet moments, sad scenes, and things he could only regret after seeing all flow in his mind like a movie. The worst of it, every memory that he is receiving has already happened.

Ye Xiajie murmured, "What the hell is this!? My wife died? Died twice in the last world!!!"

His wife's first death is already too much to bear and the second death is even worse.

After that, the memories of his current vessel also flashes in his head. Most of his memories in this world are cuddly and sweet until he had seen what happened that night when he left a permanent mark on his lover.

Though what happened that night was sensual as his lover did it to save him, the process is still painful for Feng Jing. If it was without his wife's consent it would be nothing but rape...

He could still see his soul fragment's decision. His arrogance and confidence towards his strength. As a hero revered by the whole Empire, he understands where this all came from but asking Zhi Yue not to inform his wife is indeed a bad move after all his wife's most important thing in this world is only him.

No wonder his wife is not willing to forgive Altair Sirius... not willing to forgive me.

Ye Xiajie looks at the sleeping precious figure within his embrace. He checked his vessel just now when he was healing him. His cultivation had been downgraded to a mere Godking but that itself is not stable enough. He knew his wife's ability to control the blood element but unlike the Ice element that left no backlash on him thanks to his bloodline, the blood element still had opposing effects on his soul. Since blood is one of the main sources of life, yang, contrasting to the ice element which is ying.

Ye Xiajie hugs Hei Anjinhmg tightly in his embrace while whispering, "I'm here now. There is no need for you to work hard. I will do all the work this time. Sleep well, baby~"

He kissed his wife's lips and then his forehead. After carrying his wife securely in his arms. He broke the dome of darkness and looked at the dark clouds above him. He controlled the darkness which was completely under his control.

Marshal Sirius murmured, "Darkness, eat the Heavenly Laws."

Rumbles.? cracks. Rumbles.

Under his command, all the shadows including the night had followed his words. Everyone had witnessed a mystifying scene before them. They watch as the night eats the clouds and the moon. Total darkness within Planet Citlali took place but only for a split second. Before everything had resumed to normal state.

Stunned by the following events everyone stared at the source of that darkness. Only an emotionless yet murderous Altair Sirius stood at the center carefully carrying his wife in his embrace. His devoid eyes only show ripples of emotion when looking at Feng Jing, as he becomes human again coming out of his persona as an otherworldly being.

When the marshal is not looking at Feng Jing the aura around him feels suffocating. The thickness of his bloodlust and killing intent deprive the others of their breathing. In the miraculous scene of total darkness just now, they clearly feel that the culprit for it is none other than the Marshal.

Zhi Yue urgently pays his respect to his Lord God. Even if he could scold or shout at the soul fragment of his lord, it is close to impossible to do the same thing to this person. He is like the former host who only has his Lord in his eyes.

The Lord God that he knows is ruthless and merciless and only softens before Lord Hei. An extremely dominant existence that could rival the Ruler Gods himself.

Zhi Yue fell on one of his knees and lowered his head. He couldn't raise his head to meet the eyes of his lord. He had clearly blamed his soul fragment just now and is currently regretting that he didn't hold back his tongue well enough.

"G-Greeting to the Lord God," said Zhi Yue.

He had forgotten that he shouldn't be here and that he could not call the Marshal, Lord God openly.

A tone akin to zero degrees temperature was heard lingering in Zhi Yue's ears. "Watch your mouth," said the Marshal as he walked away intending to return to the camp and let his wife sleep.

No one in the area stopped the Marshal when intends to leave. There is only the sound of his footsteps echoing within that silence. The pressure and tension in the area remain as long the Marshal is there.

Only when those obsidian orbs landed on Lieutenant General Xue Ying and his partner, Student Lin Yven that the others flinched. Even Xue Ying couldn't help but slightly tremble under the eyes of his marshal.

Xue Ying's thoughts, 'Is this still the Marshal Altair Sirius I know.'

The remaining visage the marshal has as a human being cannot be seen or felt any longer. Even under his black eyes, he feels so little that he could only avoid meeting his marshal's eyes.

Marshal Sirius murmured, "I cannot believe you choose to harm yourself for a mere mortal, baby~ Now I want to kill them to calm the anger in my heart."

Those who heard his words flinched in disbelief as if they couldn't understand what the Marshal had said. He is speaking in the ancient language and among them, only Zhi Yue understood what his Lord Gog had said.

Lin Yven could feel the Marshal's disdain and dislike towards him. They're also an irrefutable aura around the marshal which he would only sometimes feel towards his Lord, Feng Jing.

Lieutenant General Xue Ying stuttered a bit when he tried to call his boss who was now acting weird at this moment. The coldness and indifference within those black orbs are making him want to run for it.

"M-Marshal?"

Thought of Zhi Yue, 'Damn! The Lord God must be in rage right now. The memories of the last life and this one aren't good ones after all. His soul fragments' actions from before might have made his Lord God this mad. But he cannot kill these two mortals of the Host will also not forgive him easily. What should I do?' movelusb.com

Zhi Yue also started panicking as he could feel that his Lord God truly wanted to kill some original residents of this world to calm his anger. He knew that the Marshal really intended to kill Xue Ying and Lin Yven who became the source of pain for his wife. Ye Xiajie is about to command the darkness to eliminate the couple when suddenly a small sneeze was heard from within his arms.

Achoo~

Sigh~

The killing intent that surrounds the Marshal instantly faded as his gaze turned tender while looking at Feng Jing. He pulled out a thick blanket from his wife's dimensional space.

As his husband, he also has full control over Feng Jing's special dimensional space. Only once he did this that the dangerous aura around the Marshal had disappeared.

"Yue."

"Yes, my lord!"

"Bring everyone back to the camp. Imprisoned everyone under Major General Navi and the Navi Clan. This includes their descendants. If someone steps in to save some, detain them as well. Whether they are royalty or not, those who help the traitors must be punished. I will take all the responsibility for it." ordered Marshal Sirius but his eyes never left Feng Jing's figure.

Zhi Yue respectfully responded, "Everything would go as you wish, my lord."

"Xue Ying, you shouldn't initiate your other half's rebirth until I and Jing'er return. For now, his state would be kept at normal until we return." said the Marshal.

Bewildered Lieutenant General Xue Ying still accepted his superior's order. Even Lin Yven whose current vessel is about to fade to enter the ancestral nest of the Phoenix Family suddenly becomes normal. But among everyone in the area, only Zhi Yue knew that the mortal Lin Yven's time was stopped temporarily by his lord. The Lord God's main elements are Darkness and Time but his lord is also proficient in using Light and Fire elements.

Lieutenant General Xue Ying saluted and said, "Yes, Marshal!"

The other soldiers in the area had all saluted the Marshal even Lin Tian who hadn't officially joined the military had instinctively saluted with the rest.

Marshal Sirius said, "Return to the camp. We will be back a bit later." Then everyone could only watch as the Marshal who was cradling the sleeping Feng Jing in his arms entered deeper into the dark forest. Following beside them is Roi, the black dragon king, and Reine, the phoenix-dragon hybrid.

Once the figure of the marshal had disappeared everyone in the area collectively let out a sigh. Even Zhi Yue, who was on his knees trembling, stood up from the ground. It can be seen from his limbs how nervous he is from what just happened.

Lin Tian helped Zhi Yue to stand properly, "Careful. Are you alright, Sir Zhi Yue?"

"Thank you, Student Lin Tian. My legs just gave out a bit because I'm too nervous just now. Sigh~ too many things happened tonight. I feel so tired~" said Zhi Yue who was massaging his numbed legs in comfort.

The other soldiers were already informed about Zhi Yue's existence. He would sometimes disappear and would also appear out of nowhere. But things about this weird teenager were explained by Young Lord Feng Jing. He works as espionage for both the Marshal and the Young Lord. That's why he would disappear and appear without anyone knowing.

Xue Ying said, "You were around, Zhi Yue."

"Yes~ I was also tasked to look for Student Lin Yven ahead of time but in the end, you found him before everyone. Just in case you should have the military doctors check on him. The phoenix insignia stabilized Student Lin Yven's broken spiritual domain temporarily." said Zhi Yue as he was making excuses for things his lords had done. After all, the concept of elements in this world isn't widely known and they are based more on bloodlines instead.

Student Lin Tian went to his young brother and asked, "Are you uncomfortable somewhere, Yve?" His eyes were full of worries and love for his brother.

Lin Yven smiled and felt that the torturous pain from before had suddenly faded, he could now stand up on his own but Xue Ying is not allowing him to do so. He could only remain within his embrace and let the man carry him back to the camp.

"Big brother, I'm okay. The pain had disappeared," replied Student Lin Yven. There is a manifested phoenix feather insignia on his forehead.

Xue Ying looked at his lover gently and said, "Even then... don't move abruptly. Carrying back to the camp is not hard for me, Yve. Let's allow the doctors to check on you before we return." He kissed his forehead affectionately.

"Sigh~ okay," said Lin Yven with a gentle smile on his face.

Seeing that he couldn't really ask this worrywart man, Lin Yven could only let him do as he wants. The doctors once again checked on Lin Yven's body and the results were beyond what they had expected. Though the healing concoction they made him drink is effective, it wouldn't instantly regenerate his internal organs and fractured ribs but when they've checked just now all of his physical injuries were cured miraculously.

"This is unbelievable. Everything is back to normal!"

"Even his smashed organs had been regenerated."

"Is this even possible!?"

As someone who possessed half of the phoenix bloodline, Xue Ying explained, "Phoenix bloodline's regeneration is extremely fast. Before I got shot countless times on the battlefield. I even got used to personally taking out the bullets myself. As long as the bullets are out my regeneration abilities would instantly heal my wounds."

"That's amazing..." said Lin Tian in awe. He had heard rumors about the Phoenix Clan's immortality but never to this extent. "Then what about the direct descendants of Feng?" he asked curiously.

Xue Ying also noticed his lover was interested in this and could even feel everyone's gaze on him.

"Well~ they aren't called an immortal clan for no reason. Their regeneration capabilities allowed cut limbs to regrow. I watched A'Yang blow up his fingers before after a few days it regrew and returned back to normal. Insane right~" said Xue Ying.

Seeing that everyone is diverting from their original task because of gossip, Zhi Yue can only pop their bubbles and let them return to reality.

"Are you sure it's okay to stay in this place like this? If the Marshal still saw us here, I guess we would be suffering collective hell punishments from him. Let's grab the traitors and return to the camp. Then you can continue to gossip afterward," said Zhi Yue.

Upon hearing this threat, everyone had no other choice but to grab all the traitors and return to the camp. When they got back to the camp, the news about the Navi Clan's betrayal instantly spread not only within the camp but even in the Empire. Nova Seren also reported to her father about this event. Because of this, the whole Navi Clan was courted with the sin of treason. Everyone in the Navi Clan was captured, this includes those people in the Empire under the orders of the Old Marshal Janus.

Chapter 353: 8.78 First Blue Star - The Ye and Gui

Lieutenant General Xue Ying had led the rest of the team back to the camp. The traitors were all chained up as they were dragged back with them as well. A huge commotion took place in the campsite especially when they heard about what Major General Navi had done. There is solid proof of his attempts to kill Feng Jing, one of the main pillars of the Oberion Empire. It was the video System Etoile took under the orders of Lin Yven.

Once the recording from Lin Yven was played for everyone to see, everyone in the empire and federation wanted to execute Major General Navi. Who was Young Lord Jing? He is the only living SSS above guide potential in the Empire. As long as he existed the probability of their strongest Sentinel, Marshal Altair Sirius falling to the state of mania is zero. Not only that this young lord possesses a hybrid quantum beast that is above everyone except the Dragon King itself. A phoenix-dragon quantum beast, there is only one like it in the world.

These are only the things the common people knew. Those from Interstellar Federation knew more. Feng Jing is not only an SSS-ranked Guide but also a genius programmer who created the absolute defensive systems that can be installed on houses, ships, and even mecha. This program is widely used in the Empire and it is something the Feng Clan had shared with Marshal Janus which the latter sold to the Federation.

Marshal Janus did this so the Interstellar Federation would know the importance of the Feng Clan to Feng Jing. After all, this program is something the young man made for his family's safety. As long as the Federation chose to protect the Feng Family, Feng Jing would definitely side with their Empire. Plus, the rumors about his mate pairing with Marshal Sirius allowed those old men in the Federation to be based on the Feng Clan. This is after all the strongest man in their Empire. Altair Sirius.

It is because of this that the imprisonment of the whole Navi Clan was done instantly. Because the one backing the Old Marshal is the other elders who created the Federation. They are truly angered when they've heard that their most precious one was being targeted.

In Oberion Empire.

In the Imperial Palace, Emperor Regulus Sol had steadily watched everything at the sideline. Even after knowing that one of the pawns of the Imperial Family was caught, they didn't take any action to try to save them. The reason why the Navi Clan is too proud despite their descendants being merely decent is that the royal family used to back them up.

They used the youngest queen, the mother of Navi Naja as the catalyst to control the Navi Clan. Just as Navi Itri thought that his clan and the royal family were at equal standing after the intermarriage, the Imperial Family only used this married to take over the control of their clan. This is the reason why most descendants of the Navi Clan though they are royals as well.

But Emperor Sol only used their clan as camouflage to his real plans of overtaking the federation. Without even anyone noticing that most members of the imperial family are no longer the original but was replaced by other souls, not from this world. Among the royalty, only Regulus Zenith is the only remaining original of the Imperial Bloodline.

As for why this is because this person is too close to the Feng Clan. It would be easily seen through once this person met Feng Jing even once. When that happened they would instantly get annihilated. That is after all the God of Destruction. Once they were killed, they would permanently die. This includes their immortal soul and would no longer be able to enter reincarnation as their soul would perish under this cruel evil god's hands.

Emperor Sol had gathered every king and queen available in the place. Their souls were all replaced and no one was spared. Now a group of outsiders controls the imperial family.

At the throne, Emperor Sol sat firmly as he stared uninterestedly at the people kneeling before him. There are the two wives of the Emperor, Empress Tang Adhara and Concubine Cosmos Dayla. The first king, Regulus Aera, and Third Queen, Regulus Tifa. All of their souls were replaced and none had noticed it.

Emperor Sol stared down at the pale-faced Empress Adhara before him.

"I heard that you had a hard time killing the soul of the original owner of that vessel. Are you that useless, Hei Lian?" asked the Emperor.

The Empress trembling replied, "M-My Lord... it was a bit of a mistake. She was able to send a message... to her son before I... completely killed her soul. We weren't able to intercept it on time!" she closed her eyes waiting for death. The only reason he joins this mission this time is to avenge her sister, Hei Suyu who was said to be killed together with her boyfriend in one of their missions.

Hei Suyu is that lady in the Apocalypse world with a man named Ye Yan. They were badly hurt by Hei Anjing's attack at that time. At that time, Hei Anjing thought his husband had killed that couple but he didn't know that he had surrendered those two to Hei Jue and An Liang. The two spread in the System Worlds about their fake deaths. This is the reason why Hei Lian thought her younger sister had died and wanted to avenge her and join this mission.

The Hei Clan had been working with the Ye Gui's race secretly for the longest time. As the current clan head, Hei Jue didn't know about this. All he knew was that some elder of his clans were plotting against his cousin and tried to stop them. When they've caught Hei Suyu and Ye Yan together, Hei Jue realized that his Clan had stooped low enough to harm their own relatives.

This is the real reason why Hei Jue wasn't able to enter worlds with Hei Anjing and Ye Xiajie. He is busy cleaning up the Hei Clan. The blood of the traitors flowed at the Hei Clan's territory when Hei Jue returned and suddenly started the massacre. Hei Anjing didn't know anything about this as his cousin and Lord An Liang kept all this as a secret to him. They didn't want to burden him further with how greatly weakened he had become.

Those traitors from the Hei Clan who had escaped had now sided completely with the Ye Gui race. They are now working for this notorious race.

The Empress started prostrating before the Emperor and said, "Please give me another chance. My Lord... Please just give me another chance..."

"Hmp! You trash of the Hei Family, we shouldn't have accepted you at all. Not one was more useful than the other. Ye Yan that stupid fool did he die because he choose to stay with that stupid weak woman named Hei Suya! Because of your annoying sister, my elder brother has died!" said Emperor Sol. It seems that the soul inside this vessel is someone from the Ye Gui Race as well. He is a Young Master with Ye in his name.

Only the direct descendants of the Ye Gui race possess a 'Ye' in their names. They are the strongest among their race and were born with the purest bloodline. Their strongest element is fire.

"Unlike that traitor Ye Xiajie, this mixed breed scrooge my elder brother is a pureblood! His death is a loss to our race!" said the Emperor.

Amid their leader's outburst, only King Regulus Aera stepped in and tried to calm down his lord.

movelusb.com

"My Lord. Please calm your anger. Since things had come to do this, let's just summon that last remaining king and replace him as well. Once he is replaced it would be easier to blend with the Feng Clan where the God of Destruction resides. This is an opportunity!" said King Regulus Aera.

The emperor at the throne suddenly stopped talking and fell into his deepest thoughts. He also realized that this is a great opportunity for them.

"The risk is big but... if we make it, it can be considered half successful."

"That's right, my lord," said King Regulus Aera.

The Emperor said, "Then I will leave it to you, Gui Xiajun."

"Of course, as you wish my lord Ye Tianyu," responded King Regulus Aera.

Ye Tianyu is a direct descendant of the Ye Gui Race while Gui Xiajun is of mixed blood. The mixed blood of their race will be given a Gui surname at birth; only those who awakened the special fire of the Ye Clan can bear the Ye in their names. Ye Gui's are the possessor of the Hell Flames. This is the hottest and strongest fire in the world. The only fire that could contend against the Eternal Ice which the Mo bloodline has.

---

Planet Citlali.

Evening in the middle of the forest. As Marshal Sirius walked away from the crowd, he halted his steps when he noticed they were already gone. Then he stares at the dragon and phoenix pair quantum beast following a meter distance behind him. Once his cold eyes landed on the two beasts they flinched and hugged each other. They were looking vigilantly at the Marshal as if they couldn't recognize him.

They weren't that insensitive like those humans before. They knew that this person who wears the skin of the Marshal is no longer the same one from before. There is something about this man that greatly frightened them. This is why they weren't willing to approach him closely.

The Marshal looked at the black dragon whose connection is related to him and said, "Do you no longer recognize your master, Roi?"

[...Master? Is it really you? But your aura and demeanor had completely changed. You have more darkness now than before... and much more dangerous...]

"Believe it or not. The connection you have with me as my ego is still there," said Marshal Sirius.

[Hm? There is indeed a connection. You are definitely my master but... the soul has gotten stronger. Yes, as strong no... even stronger than Master Feng Jing!]

The marshal responded, "My soul was half sealed. Now I have fully awakened, this is normal. As for my wife... his soul is injured and this world cannot heal it at all." as he gently caressed his wife's cheeks. "Follow me closely or I will leave you here."

Once the marshal had said this a space crack appeared out of nowhere. This is something he created to connect a portal to the dimensional space of his wife. The dragon and phoenix quantum beasts had followed after him and were welcomed by a paradise-like world. This is the first time these two beasts had seen such a surreal land, the air is cleaner than the world they came from and the qi in this place is a few levels higher than in the original world. There are also many unknown creatures living in the area. But these creatures didn't dare to approach them, each of these monsters was highly powered and a lot more powerful than they are.

Roi and Reine knew why these beasts and monsters were not approaching them. This is because of the man before them. Those things were extremely afraid of the Marshal.

The Marshal glanced at the quantum beasts and said, "You can roam around but do not destroy anything. This is our family's backyard." said the marshal as the two saw their master walk towards a huge glowing tree.

The tree roots of the white colossal tree are a clear pond but the qi in this water is much richer than the ones on the air. They watched as the marshal removed his and Feng Jing's clothes and went into the pond. He leaned his back on the tree trunk and let Feng Jing sleep on top of him.

They watch as that cold-blooded man who looks at them like bugs suddenly turn to love when caring for the exquisite beauty in his arms.

"Do not disturb us. We need to meditate here for a bit. Do your own things." said the Marshal as he crossed legs and placed Feng Jing on his lap in the same position. He is helping him gather the divine qi emitted by the world tree. This is to help him accumulate qi faster to nourish his wife's soul and heal his wounds.

After saying those words he closed his eyes and focused on what he was doing. He left the quantum beasts to his own. They've stayed inside the dimensional space for a while to heal. As for the problems in the camp, everything was left for Xue Ying and the others to control.

Chapter 354: 8.79 First Blue Star - Emergency Meeting

At the camp base.

The Lieutenant Generals and Major Generals had all gathered at the Main Camp. Lieutenant General Xue Ying was the one who had called them all over. As soon as he returned to the camp he had placed his lover, Lin Yven, to Fallen God's Battleship infirmary closely protected by his subordinates and friends. Bai Yuyan and Feng Wu stayed there as well. Then ordered the isolation of the people from the Black Turtle unit and the descendants and members of the Navi Clan were commanded. Even the name of Marshal Sirius was used by Xue Ying.

Navi Naja who had connections to the crown was not spared and Price Regulus Rigel who wanted to save his cousin was reprimanded by his own Imperial Uncle and was also detained but the people under the royal family. This is to assure everyone that the crown had nothing to do with the betrayal of the Navi Clan.

At the Main Tent, everyone inside watched the recording System Etoile took, the faces of the people involved were clear enough for everyone to recognize them. Among the familiar faces is Major General Navi Itri.

"These are the elders of the Navi Clan," commented King Regulus Zenith when he saw the other faces of the men in the recording.

The contents of the video show that Major General Navi Itri indeed plans to assassinate one of the main pillars which protect the empire and it was the only above SSS ranked guide in the history of the Oberion Empire.

"This fools! Trying to kill someone who is protecting them are they stupid or what!?" exclaimed Feng Yang in anger.

This time his face had darkened in rage. His younger brother hasn't even been completely mature yet but because of his boss' self-centered action, they didn't end up with a permanent mark at the wrong time. He wasn't even fully healed yet and he had to come out of the camp to look for a friend only for these fools to plan an assassination attempt on his adorable brother during the war.

Don't they know that if they lost Feng Jing, his partner the Marshal itself would have gone insane and that would be the end of humanity!

With a stern expression on his face, Xue Ying said, "The Marshal had ordered the imprisonment of those involved and said he will take all responsibility for it if someone from the Empire got involved with this." When saying this his gaze couldn't help but move on to the only member of the royal faction. "Brother Zen."

King Regulus Zenith's expression also isn't good. "Don't look at me like that. Between the Feng Family and the Royal Clan, I would always choose the former. If Regulus Rigel still gets involved in this you may punish him according to the Empire's Laws," he said.

Lieutenant General Xue Ying nods his head in agreement. As the actions taken under the marshal had been finalized, everyone moved their topic from another. Major General Lin Tang started asking about the current situation of his youngest grandson.

"Lieutenant General Xue Ying, this old man would like to ask what happened to my youngest descendant. You said he is okay but at the same time, you didn't say he isn't unharmed. What happened to Lin Yven?" asked Major General Lin Tang.

Once this question was asked, Lieutenant General Xue Ying's expression turned gloomy yet confused. He could still recall the deadly state of his lover a few hours ago. He decided to tell everyone honestly.

Xue Ying, "When I met Yve in the forest he was being pursued by Navi Itri and his minions. They must have attacked him the moment they realized that he had heard about their plans to assassinate Feng Jing. He was fatally injured to the point he is covered with his blood. The military doctors who were with us at that time said that all his internal organs were destroyed and his ribs were cracked.

Some fragments of the cracked rib bone pierced his lungs and there's internal bleeding beyond normal. He was already on his last breath... When I saw Yve. Thankfully the doctors brought a 100% concentrated Healing concoction which had extended Yve's life for a bit longer. But worse of it was the situation of his spiritual domain... It was broken beyond repair."

Major General Lin Tang was stunned and in disbelief at the same time. There is also a rage gathering within himself as he imagined the scene of his youngest grandson as Lieutenant General Xue Ying detailed explained. Everyone knew that broken spiritual domain had no cure.

BAM! A loud sound of someone banging the table was heard. It was done by the angered Major General Lin Tang faced with this fact.

"That old bastard Navi Itri!!! I want to kill your whole clan myself!" said Major General Lin Tang while gritting his teeth in rage. Even his eyes were fierce and bloodshot at this moment as if he would explode any time. The murderous intent this old general is excluding was enough to spread pressure that suffocates those who were weaker than he does but no one is weaker than him inside the tent but they could still feel his anger.

Major General Drake spoke, "Calm down, Major General Lin. Isn't your grandson back to the camp alive? This means that either Marshal Altair Sirius or Young Lord Feng Jing had succeeded in saving him though I don't understand why the couple didn't return with the rest."

"That's right, A'Ying. Where's Xiao Jing and Brother Sirius?" asked Feng Yang. He was obviously worried about these two family members of his especially the youngest one.

Lieutenant General Xue Ying avoided his cousin's gaze when he was asked about this. After all, he knew that his younger cousin's state must have worded the moment he tried to save Lin Yven as per his request. He had witnessed Feng Jing coughing blood after all. Plus they weird dark clouds from before, it is obviously targeting his younger cousin. Thankfully the Marshal was there to save them all.

"The Marshal took Xiao Jing somewhere. He might be looking for something that could heal him," said Lieutenant General Xue Ying.

Feng Yang yelled, "What do you mean!?"

With this answer, almost half of the people inside the tent had frowned. Feng Yang was about to explode in rage, Nova Seren, Regulus Zenith, and Drake Izar all had serious expressions when the words of healing were mentioned. It means that Young Lord Feng Jing's injuries had worsened.

Thoughts of Major General Drake, 'Lord Hei is injured again. Did he violate other Divine Laws? This is not good. The Lord God is still asleep in this world until the next. Moreover, with what happened in the last world and this world once the Lord God had woken up things wouldn't be this quiet.'

Nova Seren who is cool and relaxed as she is suddenly looking at Xue Ying and said, "What are you keeping silent for? Tell us what happened to Jingjing!?" her tone remains cold but there is urgency added this time.

King Regulus Zenith asked, "For the Marshal to not bring back Xiao Jing as soon as he could mean that something indeed happened. Tell us everything that happened, A'Ying."

Lieutenant General Xue Ying hesitated to inform everyone about what happened in the forest. After all, this pertains to the secrets of the Phoenix Bloodline. He looked at the faces of everyone in the tent, most of them were family members except Major General Drake.

Major General Lin Tang can be considered as an exception as one of the people involved in his grandson. Lieutenant General Nova Seren, even though no one is informed about her real standing in the Janus family, is considered Feng Jing's elder sister or aunt. King Regulus Zenith is an in-law of Fengs, he should have known about this after marrying his cousin sister, Feng Yue. Only General Drake was an outsider.

Feeling the reluctant stares of Xue Ying on him, Major General Drake had instantly understood that he couldn't stay to hear the following next conversation. He politely took his leave and took this chance to speak with his lover, Prisoner Yun Ming which in this world is currently called Feng Wu.

Major General Drake prepares to leave seeing this, "It seems you will need me to step out for a while. I will be with Feng Wu. You can send someone to get me if there are still things needed to be done in camp." he said as he stood up intending to get out of the tent to give the rest their privacy.

Seeing this Xue Ying couldn't help but look admiringly at this cool Major General Drake. If not because he learned that Marshal Janus is not really their enemy but their ally, Xue Ying would have misunderstood this person.

With a thankfully smile on his face, Xue Ying said. "I'm sorry about Major General Drake."

"No worries. If it's a family secret it is normal for me to step back. I will protect the children for you so you can focus on the meeting for a while. Now I have time to woo my wife~" said Major General Drake while whistling as he walks out of the camp.

As soon as Major General Drake is out, Feng Yang couldn't help but comment.

"He is really doing his best to court Feng Wu. If they got married he would become a family as well," said Feng Yang.

King Regulus Zenith responded, "If that happens all great clans will be connected by marriage and things would be easier as the other noble factions would finally shut up."

"Indeed. Those old things are getting more annoying as they age," said Nova Seren.

Major General Lin jokes, "Let this old man present the older generation and apologize to you brats. Hahaha~"

The atmosphere in the main tent had lightened a bit but it didn't take long as Lieutenant General Xue Ying told everyone the details of the events that took place in the forest a few moments ago.

As expected, once Xue Ying finished telling everyone what happened their expression turned grim and Feng Yang was rendered speechless. Especially about the part where his younger brother can awaken someone's bloodline and allow them to mix someone's bloodline.

He was stunned as no one in the family could do such an absurd thing but now his cousin is telling him that his baby brother did all that. Moreover, what's with those dark clouds and huge thunder Xue Ying had just told him. It is more like a divine punishment just based on the descriptions. movelusb.com

Feng Yang exclaimed, "You are saying Xiao Jing did all those??!! He awakened your dormant phoenix bloodline which allowed you to share your only chance of rebirth to give it to your lover. This is impossible! Even my grandfather is not able to do this."

"But Xiao Jing says his bloodline is the purest, plus he is a guide with above SSS ranked capabilities. I do think this is possible," commented King Regulus Zenith.

Nova Seren totally agreed with King Zenith's words. "If this is true then that means Jingjing had also helped the Marshal to further awaken his bloodline. That scene when you've said that is akin to darkness descending might be the Marshal's doing. That dark cloud must have been destroyed by him as well." she said.

Feng Yang said, "I am not talking about the awakening of bloodline! What I am shocked about is Xiao Jing mixing it. No one can do such a thing. If there is a technology to do so it might be believable but he did nothing of such. But didn't Ying say his and Student Lin Yven's bloodline were mixed by my younger brother? I want to check. If this is real then... we cannot tell anyone about it."

Only after thinking about it seriously could they finally understand Feng Yang's source of bewilderedness. Xue Ying just told them that Feng Jing made a cut on both their hands and did something to mix their bloodlines. This allowed Lin Yven to have a direct connection to the Phoenix bloodline allowing him to be legible to use the special skills only a direct descendant of Feng could use. Even when the blood of Feng is dormant in Xue Ying's body, he wasn't able to use the Feng Bloodline in him but with Feng Jing's help, both he and Lin Yven were suddenly able to use it.

This is like an action made by a Godly being. Changing someone's bloodline is like changing someone's destined fate. That dark cloud and thunder must have been a divine punishment. Feng Jing who had done the taboo was targeted by it. If they think about it like this, the explanation behind the weird clouds in the middle of the night can be explained. But what makes Feng Jing us? A prophet? Messaid or the God itself. These are the thoughts of everyone in the area.

Silence descended in the tent. No one was speaking at this realization is a bit hard to accept. While everyone is in their deepest thoughts someone suddenly spoke from outside the tent.

It was Feng Yue, the wife of King Regulus Zenith, "Dear~, are you in? Can I come for a while? There is something weird going on in the Imperial Palace." she said.

As a descendant from one of the great clans, Feng Yue's appearance is extremely well known that none of the soldiers on guard stopped her from approaching the meeting area for their superiors.

The voice of Major General Drake can be heard as well but unlike the lady, he entered the tent and gestured for the titled Queen to enter before him.

"Something happened in the Imperial Palace, you should really see the letter. By the way, the Marshal and his wife had returned as well," said Major General Drake.

Lieutenant General Xue Ying and the others were delighted that the real leader of this camp was back. When everyone looked at the entrance, Queen Feng Yue walked towards her husband with a face full of worries. While cold and expressionless Marshal Sirius stood beside Major General Drake.

"M-Mar----..."

Xue Ying was about to call his boss when he saw that the atmosphere around the Marshal had changed to something human. It makes him or the others look directly at his face. They collectively saluted politely by instinct.

"Salutes to the Marshal!"

A tone that was devoid of all emotion and voice full of indifference and detachment echoed in the tent paired with firm footsteps which made everyone nervous.

"Take your seat. The meeting will continue," said Marshal Sirius as he took the lead position of the table which Xue Ying had left vacant for him.

The atmosphere inside the tent had become not only quiet but also smothering and confining. Everyone could only follow the orders and remain silent until the cold man at the center position spoke.

Chapter 355: 8.80 First Blue Star - A message from a mother.

Before Marshal Sirius and Young Lord Feng Jing...

Feng Jing woke to feel the pure spiritual qi around him. His injured body was now fully healed but a bit weakened due to his soul. He felt the coldness of his body drenched in water but at the same time, there was a source of warmth coming from behind him with his waist pinned over something. He tries to struggle only to make the thing around his hip tighten more.

Suddenly he heard a hoarse yet sexy voice near his ears. It was a familiar voice that instantly calmed him down, "Stop moving. You'll regret it if you don't, baby~"

When that sickeningly sweet pet name entered his ears, Feng Jing's eyes opened immediately and looked at the one holding him. He saw the face of the Marshal but his usual coldness that is akin to abstinence is gone. It was replaced by an irrefutable aura that is full of haughtiness and dangerous feeling. The arms encircling him on his waist were like a cage that imprisoned him to this man. The feeling of intense possessive love and obsession and being felt within that endless darkness that those black orbs glowing with life have.

A stunned expression appeared on Feng Jing's face for the first time in this world. His mouth was slightly parted as the Marshal hugged him from behind chuckles and immediately invaded his parted mouth. His tongue was instantly caught by Altair Sirius but unlike the usual gentle beginning of their kisses, this kiss was aggressive all the way as if the latter was lamenting about something. His tongue was sucked and bitten until it was numbed.

The kiss only halted when Feng Jing was about to feel what it was like to get drowned alive in saliva.

Cough, cough.

"W-What's... wrong with... you, A'Xia?" asked Feng Jing as he could no longer feel his tongue and his lips were swollen.

The Marshal didn't answer and only pulled him in an even tighter hug and felt his neck being bitten in a gnawing manner. It made him ticklish and sensitive. But the question asked wasn't answered at all by the man.

"Ouch! Enough! Are you a dog!?" yelled Feng Jing as he hit the silent man's head who kept biting him on the neck and collarbone. When he pulled away from the head he saw countless shallow bite marks and hickeys on his neck and collarbones.

But despite being hit the man didn't speak a word at all and just stared at him. His gaze met with Altair Sirius's obsidian's eyes as he spoke. Although they were gentle as usual, there seems to be a force of flame burning in their depths mixing with darkness full of negativity. Emotions like regret, anger, and guilt entangle in it making his gaze gloomier and lonely.

Seeing this Feng Jing instantly held the cheeks of his husband's face and bumps their forehead and stares at each other's eyes. They stare at each other like they were the only ones in the world and they could only see each other regardless of others. Feng Jing finally surmised why his husband is acting like this. The memories of the last world and this one world must have greatly hit him. The reason for his deep sleep was after all to accompany him in his space. Who would have expected that his soul fragments would act so foolish when he is asleep.

Causing the death of his wife.

Not being able to protect his love until the end.

Almost end up raping his own lover.

If not because his wife is okay that Ye Xiajie would have gone mad with all those memories of his soul fragments. He wanted to destroy those useless fragments himself but that will waste his beloved's hard work in making sure those fragments were safe. Plus that annoying stupid man who dared to harm his wife, he will make sure he is dead the next time they met. This includes all his minions which he sent to kill his wife. He will make sure that no of them would be able to approach his love now that he is awake.

Feng Jing pecked his lover's lips and smiled at him affectionately as before.

"My love you didn't do it on purpose. Without your main soul dominating those soul fragments, it is normal they wouldn't act completely the same way as you do. Plus, I had given them suitable punishments for it. Though the latest one seems a bit too much that he had forcefully awakened you," said Feng Jing as he gives his husband some fleeting kisses on the face like a spoiled child. "I'm happy now that you can accompany me in each world and in the Nether System."

Ye Xiajie gave his wife a helpless smile and stopped him from playing around. After giving him a big smack on his lips he hugs him carefully within his embrace. His wife's body in this world is still a bit immature. The marking incident from before wasn't intended and he is not willing to hurt him the second time. But his mischievous wife loves to tease him until he can't hold back any longer.

"Stop teasing me, baby~. It would be bad if I couldn't hold back and hurt your body for the second time. I don't want to hurt you anymore. This time I will be the one to protect you. My memories haven't completely returned yet but I have a few of my memories of you crying in it. It's making me extremely uncomfortable as if I have wronged you the big-time before." said Ye Xiajie and once these words came out of his mouth his wife within his embrace slightly stiffened which didn't escape Ye Xiajie's eyes. "So I indeed made you cry before huh...?"

"It... It's nothing like that... You've never harmed me before. Instead, you had saved me multiple times in the past. It's just that..." Feng Jing didn't continue his explanation and suddenly stopped talking. He obviously didn't want to continue this topic.

Sigh~ "Okay. There is no need to tell me for now. I love you no matter what and regardless of what happened in the past. Jing'er you are mine for this lifetime and in all our eternity." said Ye Xiajie.

"Um~" Feng Jing hugs his lover's waist back as he hides his face on his husband's shoulder.

The Marshal could feel the warm tears falling on his shoulder. He didn't ask why his wife was crying. He only gently pats his back comforting him until he once again falls asleep.

Clearly, he didn't blame him too much about it but had given him punishment for his every wrongdoing.

Ye Xiajie whispered, "This time you don't need to do anything. I will do the protecting. There is no need to tell me something you don't want to say. As long as you are mine, what happened in the past, in the present and even the future... you shall still be mine, until the end, my Jing'er~"

---

Marshal Sirius returned to the Camp before anyone knew about it. He had brought back his wife who wanted to see his injured aide Lin Yven and left the job of explaining to his husband. He heads to the tent where everyone is. As soon as he entered, silence descended in the tent and no one was willing to speak first. Even Feng Yang who had shouted at him multiple times for what happened with his wife. He had also heard the weird message the Empress had sent to his son.

"Let's first start talking about the most urgent one. Sister Feng Yue, go ahead..." said the Marshal as he closed his eyes intending to listen.

Once he did this the pressuring aura around him had lessened and the rest were able to breathe normally like before.

King Regulus Zenith pulled a seat for his wife to use. He then urges her to share the news about the weird message sent to him.

"Dear, what happened?" asked King Zenith with his usual pampering tone.

Feng Yue first glances at his scary brother-in-law then towards her husband, brothers, and elders. After taking a deep breath to calm her nerves she finally started talking.

"Actually, it is a message for you, dear. A personal message from Mother Empress. I watched it first as it is a video recording. Anyway, you should watch it yourself instead." said the Imperial Crowned Queen, Feng Yue.

Everyone watched the recording played before them. The figure of Imperial Empress Mother, Tang Adhara appeared on the holographic screen. Everyone could see that there was something weird going on as the Empress's face was pale and covered in a cold sweat as if bearing something painful. Her pants were heard and the tormented expression appeared on her beautiful face.

[My beloved Zen'er~ Don't return... to the Palace. Everyone is... no more. They've all changed. Something in them... argh~ pants~ Son, don't come here. The Imperial Family... aah~ is no more. I love you... my son~]

She hurriedly pressed the sent message with her trembling hands only the gentle smile at the end signifies the Empress is still herself.

Then the Empress in the recording had gone mad as she grabbed her hair and her eyes turned bloodshot as she glared at the video. Using the same voice but different temperaments can be seen.

[Fucking bitch! She sent a message to her son before I took over her body! Someone blocked this message, it mustn't... ----!!!]

The recording was cut off at that moment and the video turned black signifying that the message had been sent successfully to the receiver which is the Crowned King Regulus Zenith.

Everyone's expression turned gloomy and dark. Only the Marshal who opened his eyes to watch the recording suddenly emits an even more dangerous aura around him. There's a hint of rage burning in his eyes as he glares at the black screen before him. He knew what that scene meant, especially when he witnessed how the empress's personality changed in that split second.

The Marshal's thoughts, 'Most human vessels with roles were occupied by us. This means if those bastards entered this world they can only use the body of the aliens. This must be a mistake by someone young and inexperienced from their side.'

Marshal Sirius glanced at his subordinate wearing the vessel of Major General Drake. He saw him nod as he knew that his lord wanted him to warn the Old Marshal whom this body works for. But before he could do so everyone saw Nova Seren pulling out a personal line connected to her foster father and husband.

The faces of the Old Marshal Janus and Lieutenant General Nova Revel appeared in front of her. She sent the same video recording that the empress had sent.

Marshal Janus noticed the other faces shown on the screen of her daughter and saw the annoying face of that damn brat Altair Sirius. Nova Revel revealed a happy smile seeing his wife on the screen but before they could even speak, Nova Seren broke the news to them. Just based on her tone it must be extremely urgent.

"Father, Dear, watch this video for me and tell me everything that you might know about this," said Nova Seren.

The two had received the recording and everyone witnessed their expression turning serious. Nova Revel even cursed in disbelief.

"Fuck! Isn't it the same as those spies I've captured!" exclaimed Nova Revel. "Is this the Empress!? If this is real, that means everyone in the Imperial Palace is no longer human!"

Everyone was shocked by what they heard.

Feng Yang asked, "Uncle Revel, what do you mean by that?" novelusb.com

Ping!

Then as if giving them an answer the communicator on the Marshal's wrist rang. He received a compilation of reports which includes pictures about zerg race special types. He had shared the report for everyone to see. Everyone exhaled in disbelief.

King Regulus Zenith was the most surprised as he read the reports before him. He fell dazed as he covered his face.

"Parasitic Zerg. Anyone who was taken over is dead." murmured the crowned king who was suddenly orphaned before he knew it. His queen beside him was also crying as she read the news in front of her.

"No fucking way~," said Xue Ying in hysteria.

Feng Yue knew that this document must be sent by their Grandfather Janus and everything is real and the proof for this weird video. It can only be meant that the Imperial Family had perished and their vessels were taken over by the zerg race. While they were stuck here on the Planet because of the impending war.

The silent old Marshal looked at everyone and his gaze landed on the one who remained calm despite this unbelievable news. He truly admires this young man's steel-like nerves and calmness regardless of any situation except when his wife is involved. Though he is rash most of the time, he could still make sure he would be alive in the end.

[Sigh~ This old man will explain everything now that this situation happened]

Chapter 356: 8.81 First Blue Star - Like a Demon God

The news about the Imperial Palace and the royalty in it being replaced by the alien race left everyone in the Main tent quiet and speechless. The meeting was taken over by the Old Marshal who had explained the existence of the parasitic zergs.

[This is the case that had been hidden all along by the Interstellar Federation years ago. The first parasitic case of the Alien race happened in mine, my wife, Old Feng, and Old Xue cadet days. At that time, the elders of the Federation had mistaken my wife, Alula Celeste, as an Alien Zerg himself. If not because I and Old Man Feng insisted that Celes is not a zerg that things would not end as it is.

At that time, the Feng and Janus Clans including the Xue and Alula Clan almost destroyed the Interstellar Federation. This is because they tried to experiment on my wife, Celes, at that time. Thankfully before they cut him open I and Old Feng arrived on time.]

Everyone was shocked by what they were hearing. Especially the reason why the four mentioned clans hated the federation. Knowing this reason, everyone couldn't help but think twice about their loyalty towards this inhuman organization called Interstellar Federation.

[Don't show your doubts towards the Federation right now. This organization is already completely under my control. Those spies from the alien races had been cleaned up and the strongest power in the Federation is me.

But as for what happened to the Imperial Family, this is my negligence. The Imperial power the Royal family possesses is half what the Oberion Empire has. I had never reached out my control over the Imperial Family and never thought their ending would be like this. Perished under the domination of the Parasitic Zerg Race.

They took the opportunity while this damn brat (Sirius) is not in the Empire. This means someone from their side had met the damn brat on that planet and chose the time while he was not on the human race planet. Quite smart. Brat, did you let someone in that Planet leave who had seen you alive?]

Marshal Sirius replied while his expression is calm as the quiet sea. "Before my second Mania, I've met the first and second zerg princes and their partners. At that time, the Siren King was also present. They knew that I am alive and here on this planet.

The Zerg Princes and Princesses were all killed by my Jing'er; this only left the Siren King. He must have left Planet Citlali after attacking me. That Siren King must be a vessel or indeed another alien race which is the enemy of the human race."

[If this is the case then it's no wonder this happens. That Siren King must be just another vessel they've been using. The problem is this old man is not in the Empire, I have left things about the Empire to Old Feng and the Feng Clan. Brat, you arrange things for this. This old man is going to disappear somewhere until then you hold the fort. I will pass the mantle of the highest authority to you temporarily. No, ignore that, I will pass it to Xiao Jing instead. You will listen to our Xiao Jing right?]

The Marshal responded without any hesitation, "I will agree to anything my wife told me to do."

[Good! This old man had been getting old lately. You, youngsters, should start working hard to replace this old bone. Revel, how are you still on Planet Citlali?]

[If nothing goes wrong I should arrive before evening the next day.] said Lieutenant General Nova Revel.

Seeing that the Old Marshal is about to leave, everyone inside the tent had stood and saluted towards the old leader.

"Salutes to Marshal Janus!"

[Sirius, the rest of the problems are for you to solve. Don't disappoint this old man.]

Marshal Sirius said, "I understand, Grandfather Lan."

[Brat! Who allowed you to call this old man, Grandfather!?! You haven't married Xiao Jing yet! We will talk after this old man returns. Hmph!]

Then the old marshal one-sidedly cut off the video call on his side after glancing at his daughter who gestured to him that he understood. Once the call is cut off silence once again descends inside the room. No one is in the right mood to start the conversation, especially King Regulus Zenith who just learned that he had lost his own family to parasitic zergs and occupies the Imperial Palace as their nest.

The Marshal leads the meeting once again and said, "The Imperial Clan is no more. The Feng's would protect the common people but they aren't enough to confront the zergs who wear the skin of the Imperial Family. I will contact them later for further plans. For now, let's focus on what to do next. Lieutenant General Xue Ying, Major General Lin Tang, and Major General Drake would return to the Empire to support the Feng Family. Do not let the people of the Empire be swayed by the sweet nothing those insects would be saying."

"In worse case scenarios, you can reveal this report about the parasitic zerg but it is better to capture one alive and should everyone live that the contents of the vessel had been changed. Major General Drake, can I leave his mission to you?" asked the Marshal.

Major General Drake's expression turned serious as he saluted the Marshal and said, "I will complete it without problems, Marshal."

"Good. You can bring anyone with you but if you want Feng Wu to come, you must ask my wife's permission first," said Marshal Sirius.

Major General Drake responded, "I will ask for permission."

Lieutenant General Xue Ying said, "Marshal, I understand sending Major General Lin and Major General Drake but I am your right-hand person. I cannot just leave your side."

"You will be returning to the Oberion Empire because your other half needs the permission of the Feng Clan's elders to enter the Ancient Nest for rebirth. The only one allowed to enter the nest is the person entering rebirth and their other half. You need to go home, A'Ying." said Feng Yang, who understood the real situation about Student Lin Yven's state. "During the process of your other half's rebirth, you must accompany him for at least a year there. Did you think that the process of rebirth is painless?"

Once the heir of the Feng Clan said things like that, everyone finally understood that rebirth isn't just a special skill, the process and result needs to undergo pain and torment.

Marshal Sirius spoke, "Lieutenant Xue Ying, Major General Lin Tang, and Major General Drake should leave the planet as soon as possible. Make the necessary preparations to leave. You three may now leave."

Those that were mentioned looked at each other and saluted to the Marshal. Afterward, they left the tent and started their preparations. Lieutenant General Xue Ying heads to his unit's ship's infirmary to check on his partner. Following him are the two Major Generals. Major General Lin Tang wanted to see his youngest grandson while Major General Drake wanted to see Feng Wu and seek the permission of Young Lord Feng Jing to have Feng Wu follow him in the Empire.

Those that remain in the Main tent all look at the marshal waiting for their designated mission. The ones left behind in the tent are Feng Yang, Nova Seren, King Regulus Zenith, and his wife, Queen Regulus (Feng) Yue.

Feng Yang spoke, "Why did you send Major General Drake back to the Empire with the rest. I wasn't sure that he wasn't an enemy or something."

"Izar is not an enemy. He is the hidden subordinate that is not known by anyone except for me. He had been working as a double agent for me when I'm not sure if Marshal Janus is an enemy or not." said Marshal Sirius.

He used this excuse to let Warden Lou's action of following his orders without questions. This might anger the Old Marshal but it would also give Major General Drake the camouflage as the Lord God's servant.

Only Nova Seren slightly believed his words, her actions as Major General Drake started acting differently when the news about Marshal Sirius's death had spread all over the capital. Saying that he wanted to resign from his position and become a common person. No wonder his former serious persona broke one day.

"No wonder he started acting weirdly these past weeks. He must have wanted to leave his unit to help look for the Martial," murmured Nova Seren.

Feng Yang asked with doubt painted on his face, "Is this for real?"

"Seems like it," replied Nova Seren to her dumb nephew or brother, Feng Yang. Before moving her gaze back to the Marshal, "You didn't dismiss us means you would be allocating missions of our own is that it. Doesn't this mean that only you and Jingjing will remain in this abandoned star to fight the war against the zergs?" said Nova Seren.

Once Feng Yang heard this he immediately disagreed and said, "No this is not possible. I will stay here even if it's against the superior's orders!" said the eldest young lord of the Feng Clan. He would not leave his younger brother here alone. novelusb.com

Marshal Sirius spoke, "Jing'er is stronger. More powerful than anyone. Mightier than you and much stronger than I do. You had seen what happened to the hidden mansion in the Central Region right? If there are too many people with us on this planet, it would only restrict his capabilities as he needs to use his power more to protect than to fight. Only a limited number of individuals are staying on this planet. The rest would be doing a different mission."

The content of his words and his tone were so serious that no one could stay otherwise against it. Even Feng Yang who wanted to disagree felt that his words were stuck in his throat making it hard for him to breathe. He could only grit his teeth together as he might curse at this person in front of him.

Among them, only King Regulus Zenith's eyes slightly glowed in hope when some thoughts entered his head. Even though the Imperial Family is a trash clan and King Zenith doesn't care about anything that happens to them, his Imperial Mother is different. Only his mother protected him from the rest of the royal family and allowed him to meet the Fengs. She was his only family in the Imperial Clan.

Now that she is gone all of the sudden, Regulus Zenith couldn't accept it simply like the rest of the deaths of the royal family. He wanted to avenge her for it. King Zenith is an intelligent man, he could somehow guess what are the other plans of the Marshal before him.

King Regulus Zenith said, "Were you planning to use this war as a chance to fully destroy the Zerg Race? In this war, you are so sure that one of the Imperial Zerg pairs would come over. Leaving only one Imperial to zerg pair in the nest of the Zergs.

Since most of their guardians would attend this war, their nest would only be left with a few zergs. This is a good opportunity to destroy their planet."

As if enlightened, Nova Seren and Feng Yang finally understand why the three of them were asked to stay here with the Marshal. They looked at the Marshal in disbelief as if looking at this stupid idiot who was planning a suicide mission.

Nova Seren stood up and yelled for the first time, "Are you crazy!? You want only you and Jingjing to fight the whole military force of the Zerg race on your own!? Do you want to di-----!!!!?????"

Suddenly an overwhelming pressure that causes earthquakes on the planet itself can be felt. The whole star is affected and cracks on the land under feet can be felt, this is caused by the sudden force of aura the Marshal is emitting at this moment.

The marshal sat in front of them like an immovable mountain that could crash them any time he wanted. A haughty yet cold expression was imprinted on that handsome face as he looked down on the three who were left inside the tent with him. Once the three felt that they were almost dead, the marshal had taken back his aura and everything else had returned to normal except for the cracks on the land that cannot be repaired on their own.

To the eyes of the three in front of him, the Marshal at that moment is more like a Demon God.

Chapter 357: 8.82 First Blue Star - The consequence of angering this lord.

Hours ago, before Marshal Sirius had joined the meeting with the rest of the authorities at the camp. As the couple returned, Feng Jing told his lover to check on Lin Yven. They had headed immediately to where Lin Yven was.

Battleship of Fallen God's Unit.

Infirmary Room.

Lin Yven was resting inside the healing pod when Marshal Sirius and Feng Jing arrived. Inside the room, Feng Wu and Solaris Vega were tasked to look after Lin Yven. Before this pair, it was Tang Si and Bai Yuyan who were looking after Lin Yven. They made a rotating schedule of which pair should accompany Lin Yven in the infirmary room while the others are in training.

But of course, only members of Feng Jing and Lin Tian's group were included in the list. When the marshal and Feng Jing appeared in the room the two were startled.

"Leader~ you're safe. Wuwu~" said Solaris Vega as he suddenly hugs Feng Jing. The marshal who was standing next to his wife suddenly had a dark face witnessing some hugs from his lover. But the silly child didn't notice the danger at all.

Solaris Vega is happy that their leader is back safe while Feng Wu slightly stiffened when he noticed that the Marshal's presence had completely changed. He recognized that the one vessel of the Marshal is no longer the soul fragment called Altair Sirius but the Nether System Lord God, Ye Xiajie instead.

Feng Wu fell on one knee and said, "Greetings to the Lord and Lord Marshal."

Feng Jing, who was patting the back of Solaris Vega, asked his aide to stand up. "No need for such formality. Stand up, A'Wu."

"You may stand," said the Marshal who didn't forget to gesture to the side that he must pull away this bug hugging his wife.

Feng Wu, who understood the gesture, instantly pulled Solaris Vega away from Feng Jing. Lest he got killed by this extremely dangerous Vinegar jar called Marshal. As soon as the silly child was dragged away the marshal reached out his hands and embraced Feng Jing from behind and ended up receiving a fierce glare from his wife. In the end, he could only follow Feng jing closely like his shadow.

Feng Jing said, "A'Wu, can you send Xiao Vega to the training grounds and return here. I need to give you a task."

Feng Wu placed his hand over his heart and lowered his head, "As you wish, my lord!"

"Xiao Vega, continue your training. I will watch over Lin Yven for you," said Feng Jing with a gentle smile on his lips.

Solaris Vega, who never questioned his leader, agreed right away. He left with Feng Wu and returned to the training area as they were told to. As soon as the two left the room, Feng Jing looked at his husband behind him.

"Heal him, my love," said Feng Jing.

The marshal suddenly showed a frown and said, "I don't want to. He should be grateful that I am not killing him." said Sirius as his voice turned cold at his last sentence.

Feng Jing also frowned and couldn't understand why his husband was being like this, "Don't play around. Heal him already!"

"Baby, I'm not playing around. I will not heal him, let him enter the ancient nest of the Feng Clan as planned. You've gone against the heavenly laws for a mere mortal and got hurt. Me not killing this mortal is already me showing kindness!" said Marshal Sirius.

Feng Jing realized that his husband is still angry about what happened just now. He also understood that as a God a mortal's life is not something they would care for. At that time, Feng Jing only made his move to save Lin Yven to keep the original's wish of keeping his loved ones happy.

Now that Lin Yven is no longer dying, he would not get involved further in the life of these mortals. Sighing a bit in relief he looks at his pouting husband and hugs him. He knew that he had greatly frightened this man with his actions in the forest.

Hugging the hips of Marshal Sirius, Feng Jing tightly hugs the pouting man. He kisses his chin as he apologizes.

"My love, I'm sorry. I promise I would no longer get involved with the mortals. Don't get angry anymore~" said Feng Jing with his coquettish voice. Acting spoiled towards his husband.

Marshal Sirius who was successfully coaxed hugs back his wife and gives him a kiss on his forehead. He squeezed him a few times in a hug.

"Sigh~ get bigger faster, baby~" whispered the Marshal who cannot do anything right now except for kisses and hugs. The torment of being able to see but not eat is like hell for this Marshal.

A bit pissed by what he heard, he kicked his husband out of the room and said, "Do your work properly, my dear marshal! Hmp!"

Then he saw the glowing little moon hovering beside him, Feng Jing grabbed it and threw it towards his husband who was hit directly on his forehead. Like a little ball, System Yue who wanted to resume his duties as his host's system was thrown out together with his Lord God.

BAM!

OW! movelusb.com

Feng Jing's voice from inside the room said, "Go back to work. I'm staying here to meditate. Shoo!"

BANG! The door closed with a bam.

The marshal and the little system had no other choice but to go to the meeting and do their jobs. On their way, the way they bumped into Feng Wu just returned from escorting the student to the training area. Then the meeting had resumed like what had happened.

---

Feng Jing stayed in the infirmary while meditating. Lin Yven who just finished a session in the healing pod wakes up and is delighted to see his lord in front of him.

"My lord I..."

Lin Yven wanted to salute his lord but was stopped.

"Stay where you are and rest. After this you and Ying-gege will return to the Empire and start the process of rebirth," said Feng Jing who opened his eyes from his meditation a few minutes ago and was now watching the live recording of the meeting happening at the main tent.

Feng Jing felt later to get out of the pod. He helped Lin Yven to lie down on one of the beds inside the infirmary. Obviously, the latter is still a bit dizzy from the aftereffects of the healing pod.

"My lord, I am not going to war?" asked Lin Yven.

"You are not and so is Ying-gege," said Feng Jing as he was watching the whole process of the meeting with the help of the subsystem left on him by System Yue. The meeting progression is playing on the holographic screen before him.

Feng Jing frowns after hearing the contents of the meeting. He was a bit annoyed and stopped watching. He let Lin Yven watch it instead as he pulled out a set of tea and dessert from his dimensional space. In other people's eyes, he pulled out the things to his inventory gadget on him.

Lin Yven, who was watching the meeting on his behalf, understood why his leader lost interest in the meeting. He had never expected the zergs to infiltrate the capital and successfully replace the members of the Imperial family.

"My lord, what should be done for this?" asked Lin Yven.

Feng Jing replied, "You won't be getting involved in this. Just focus on your rebirth and when you wake up things will be finished by then."

"But I...!?"

"Lin Yven, do not waste the chance Xue Ying had begged the Gods to save you. To me, you have done well already. Thanks to you the plans for my assassination were halted before it could even take place. This contribution is big enough to excuse you from the war. After all, if I indeed died as they've planned, the whole human race would be gone as my Sentinel would go mad with me gone." said Feng Jing.

Student Lin Yven recalled that scene in the forest. The Marshal at that time was so inhuman that no one would dare to go against him at that moment. The scene of his lord coughing blood was something he couldn't forget.

"My lord, your injuries..."

Feng Jing smiled and said, "It's been healed. Do not worry about it. That was my choice. Like how you've chosen to risk your life to tell us the hideous plan of Major General Navi and his clan to save me. Thanks for your hard work, my aide."

Lin Yven finally sighed in relief knowing that he was able to help his lord even at the risk of his life. He might not be able to accompany his lord and comrades in war but at least he knew that his teammates would be safe because his lord is alive. He knew that Feng Jing would let their little team die in the incoming war.

Lin Yven saluted towards his lord with a smile and said, "I wish you for your safety and victory for the war!"

Feng Jing returned the salute and said, "You've worked hard. Leave the rest to this Lord."

This was the scene that Xue Ying and the rest had witnessed when they arrived at the infirmary. Knowing that these guys are coming, Feng Jing ended his conversation with Lin Yven like that. Letting Xue Ying and Major General Lin Tang inside the room, Feng Jing decided to leave to clean up the Navi Clan who dared to target him fearlessly. After learning that his grandfather Janus Stellan had given him his authority as his proxy means that his words are the same as Marshal Janus.

Marshal Janus is a Senior Marshal who possesses authority a bit higher than Marshal Sirius. He can lead the whole Interstellar Federation with the authority Marshal Janus had given him. In short, the power of the Federation had now fallen in his hands. This is the power of the highest authority that Marshal Janus held after cleaning up all the spies in their house.

It wasn't announced yet but the position of Marshal Janus had been promoted one ranked above the Marshal and called him as the Grand Marshal. Now the power of this position was given to Feng Jing, the proof of the letter was sent to his communicator with a letter from his Grandfather Lan. He was reading the message as he walked out of the room.

Before he got out of the room, Lieutenant General Xue Ying and Major General Lin Tang thanked Feng Jing before he left.

"Young Lord Feng Jing, this old man bows his head as thank you for saving my grandson, Lin Yven," said Major General Lin Tang.

Feng Jing stopped the old general before he could even lower his head and said, "Please don't. It was my life that was saved by Lin Yven. I owe him this debt. Thankfully I wasn't too late."

Xue Ying said, "Xiao Jing, thank you. For the chance of letting Yve live. We knew you had definitely suffered some consequences but still... Thank you very much."

"We are family. Such formal gratitude is something I would not accept. Just return home soon and bring Yven with you at that time," said Feng Jing with a smile as he stepped out of the door and closed it after him.

Xue Ying and Lin Tang can only show their appreciation this way. Even if it's only words of thanks, it was enough to exchange between the two parties.

What they didn't know was that as soon as Feng Jing closed the door behind him, the gentle smile on his face had faded. There is only coldness and dormant anger within his crimson eyes. Those who knew him well know that Feng Jing was offended by their attempts to take his life which led to the situation that forced his husband to wake up early from his meditation. He doesn't know if his other half had suffered some backlash because of this.

Feng Wu and the newly arrived Major General Drake had fallen on one knee in his presence.

"Greetings to Lord Hei!"

"I heard about your missions. Keep those vessels that were replaced on the list and send them to me as soon as possible. Do not attempt to fight them openly, they might be people from the notorious race, Ye Gui. With your sealed state, you wouldn't be able to fight them head-on. I will allow you only in this world to use your abilities as God but do not cross the line or... I will end you myself." said Feng Jing as his piercing cold gaze landed on the two at the ground.

The two didn't raise their heads in fear but responded, "As you command, Venerable Lord."

"A'Ming you can come with Warden Lou. I give you my permission," said Feng Jing.

Feng Wu, "Thank you, my lord."

"But before you leave, gather all those from Navi and everyone involved with them at the open area. As soon as Sirius's meeting had ended, I will execute all of them as an example. Everyone will be recorded, the star network and everyone in this world shall witness the consequence of angering this lord," said Feng Jing as he walked away with every stride as elegant and graceful as always.

It is as if he wasn't the person who just decided the life and death of the traitors who dared to touch him.

Chapter 358: 8.83 First Blue Star - I shouldn't have awakened the devil.

Once the earthquake had stopped, Major General Feng Yang, Lieutenant General Nova Seren, Lieutenant General Regulus Zenith, and Queen Regulus (Feng) Yue were rendered speechless in fear and shock. They stared at the stern cold faced man seated unmoved at the center. They were slightly trembling under his gaze especially after witnessing such inhuman capabilities. The cracks on the land under the feet are enough proof that the youngest marshal before them had the strength to destroy a star by himself.

Marshal Sirius said his tone is devoid of emotions and feelings unlike before, "Is this enough proof for you? Actually, I and Jing'er in the same place are already against the norms. This is also the reason why I am sending most of the soldiers and students away from the battlefield. Because with me and Jing'er here, there is no way this star would remain after the war. Sending them with you with a much safer target is better than here. Seat properly."

The three who fell from standing or off their seat followed the order and sat back properly on the chair. The meeting resumes as if nothing happens.

"Lieutenant Nova Revel will be here soon. I asked Lieutenant General Nova Seren to inform him about the plan once he got here. There are two parts to this mission. The first is to infiltrate the Zerg Planet with a smaller and elite group. The mission of this group is to secure the retreat route of the Alula Clan who works undercover in the enemy's camp for years. Save everyone in Alula Clan, they are all heroes who helped the Empire divert the danger all these years. The fleet led by the Old Marshal will cover you. Lieutenant General Nova Seren, can I leave this mission to you and your unit?" asked Marshal Sirius.

Nova Seren replied, "This mission I shall accept wholeheartedly."

"Good. As for the latter part, you should also know what to do next..." said the Marshal.

Feng Yang and King Regulus Zenith clenched their fists with excited smiles on their faces.

"I know! I agree with this mission! I've always wanted to destroy the planet where those stupid insects live!" exclaimed Feng Yang.

King Regulus Zenith silently accepted his mission as well. He nods his head quietly as he is nonchalantly receiving the task of obliteration that will be the end of the Zerg race. But his Queen beside him knew that her husband wanted to use this event to show his rage for losing their Imperial Mother. She could only comfortably hold her husband's hand showing her support to anything her lover had decided to do.

Seeing his wife giving her silent support to his decision, the fiery anger in his heart had subsided a bit. He clasps at that slender hand giving warmth to his heart and soul.

King Regulus Zenith's thoughts, 'That's right. I am not alone. I still have my wife and our future children.'

Marshal Sirius said, "For the latter half, Lieutenant General Nova Revel, Lieutenant General Regulus Zenith and Major General Feng Yang. Your mission is to massacre everything in the Planet Zerg and destroy the star afterward. Do you accept this mission?"

"We accept the mission, Marshal!"

"With this, the meeting is adjourned!" said the Marshal.

As soon as the meeting had ended, a soldier came running to report something to the marshal with a pale and terrified face.

"MARSHAL!!!" yelled the soldier who had forgotten all the decorum as a dignified soldier.

Feng Yang scolded the soldier for his rudeness. "What are you shouting for!? Do not disrespect your superiors!"

The soldier upon seeing the mad Major General, the soldier with lower status immediately saluted and stood straight as a rod. But his eyes were still looking at the marshal and everyone could see the extreme fear within the soldier's eyes.

The Marshal also noticed the fear within their eyes and asked, "What happened?"

[Lord God, it's the host he... he started a stage of execution for the Navi Clan in front of the eyes of everyone from the Oberion Empire no... the whole interstellar world.]

Marshal Sirius, "..."

"P-Please head to... The open area. Y-Young... Lord Feng Jing is... Had started killing...the captives from the Navi Clan," answered the soldier.

When they heard about this except for the Marshal the rest of his superiors were in disbelief.

Major General Feng Yang grabbed the soldier and said, "You! Tell us what happened. What really happened?"

The soldier who was suddenly grabbed almost chokes when Feng Yang grabs his collar.

Cough* "J-Just now... Major General Drake asked... Some people dragged the prisoners out and tied them up then placed all of them in an open area where Young Lord Jing was waiting. At first, we thought the marshal had ordered it as even Major General Navi was dragged out as well.

Then we noticed that Young Lord Feng Jing had somehow for unknown reason had some control of the Star Network and created a live stream showing this camp. We tried to stop him at the beginning when suddenly he brought out a signed document of power transfer from the Grand Marshal to him. We couldn't believe it and were shocked at first and then he started playing video recordings of each prisoner's hidden crimes that no one would have expected.

Those people from the Navi Clan are seriously disgusting! They kidnapped children with no special background experimented on them, used them for human trafficking, and more unbelievable things. Afterward... the young lord started announcing the Empire's rules. Most of the crimes shown were punishable by death and everyone in Star Network agrees to it. There was chaos all over the Star Network and in the open area.

T-This is because... the 18-year-old Young Lord Feng Jing started executing each of the captives on the spot. No one was able to stop him. He was covered in blood all over but his eyes remained cold yet entertained. He kills them while smiling..."

The soldier had told them every detail of the story from the beginning to the current. Feng Yang and Feng Yue were speechless after hearing this. That was their adorable younger brother.

Feng Yue mumbled, "Impossible. impossible! Jingjing is after all only 18!"

"Wife, calm down. Xiao Jing is a soldier, moreover, he is an awakened being. Isn't this normal? Plus he must be extremely angry with how things resulted. Lin Yven is his teammate and friend." said King Regulus Zenith as he tries to calm his wife.

The marshal looked at the nervous queen and said, "I suggest you both take a rest. I will go there myself."

King Zenith nodded his head and said, "Then we'll leave it to you."

Feng Yang grip his hands into a fist allowing the pain to wake him and said, "I... I want to go with you."

"Let's go!" said Marshal Sirius while hearing System Yue's explanation in his head.

[The host had started this a few hours ago before the meeting had ended. The letter of authorization was something the Old marshal had sent to him as we were told to. He must have taken over the Star Network since the beginning but... even I didn't notice that he has full control over it.

But the host is smart, he used the public... common people's opinion and had them side with him. The recordings of each crime he is showing are real as well. He levels called the victims family and the sounds of crying for justice can be heard.]

Marshal Sirius replied in his head, "But his vessel this time is only 18 years old, no one thought this is weird?"

[There is no problem. There's a precedent case with regards to this. The ancestor of the Phoenix Clan was said to be righteous and caring to his family but extremely ruthless and merciless towards his enemies. At the age of 19, he killed everyone who tried to harm his friend who became his partner in the end. It was a kidnapping case and this Feng Ancestor killed every kidnapper who tried to harm the students. This is what was dug up from the historical records and the people of the Oberion Empire and the Interstellar Federation accepted his action as something that is due to his special bloodline as Feng.]

"Take control of the network progression. Do not let anyone blacken my wife's reputation. Those guys hiding in the Empire but take this a chance to do so."

[As you ordered, Lord God!]

---

Planet Citlali, Outer Region's open area.

The students and soldiers surround the men kneeling on the ground with their hands tied behind their backs. They were all wearing pale and ghastly faces as they looked at the young yet beautiful young man at the center of the blood pool. Under his feet are numerous headless men. Just based on the cuts on their heads, it was either got cleanly cut off by something sharp or plucked off using an unbelievable strength. moveluslb.com

The sight of human heads still connected to the spine bones, flesh, and limbs cut off like how a doll could do, beating hearts being dug out and a more gory scene was witnessed by everyone. There is even one head grip within his hand and not far from him is a small mountain of heads. The scariest of all, the culprit of all this bloody scene is none other than the young man who is famous for being trash before who in the end became the strongest genius in the history of the Empire, Feng Jing.

Feng Jing talks to himself while holding some bloody parts and head here and there. Dug her. Pull out there. Chop here. "This is a murderer who killed a small peaceful family for fun. This one rape underage girls and boys. Tsk! This one sold his illegitimate children for money... God~ you guys are worse than trash ha~"

The pure white fire slowly burns the corpses under him but almost half of his body is covered in crimson blood. Both his hands were soaked with the sticky, rust-scented thing making the whole scene frightening. Like a hell on earth and at the center of that nightmarish scene is a young man like Feng Jing.

The open area was as silent as it could get. The audience and even the sinners were as quiet as a mute. They would all unconsciously cover the area above their hearts as if afraid that their heartbeats might be heard by the little devil at the center of all this mess.

Because the scene is too scary some soldiers had prevented students from witnessing such a scene but some had already seen it and ran off somewhere to puke. This is the first time they had to see such a stomach-churning scene. Those who were just watching were already scared to death but how about those sinners who haven't received their punishment yet. Of course! they wanted to die as soon as they could lest that devil would torture them badly like how he did to their comrades.

'What the hell is this!?'

'Is he a devil? He just plucked a human's head like a flower in a garden!'

'He was even smiling when he did so!'

'Fuck! Am I dreaming? Is this a nightmare?! Someone, please wake me up!'

"AAAAAAHHHHHHHHH!!! DEVIL!!! MONSTER!!!"

A collective scream from the captives was heard, they tried to stand up and escape from here. Running away from the devil who rips life nonchalantly with a smile.

'AHH! They are trying to escape!'

'Stop them!'

But unfortunately, as soon as they tried to take their lives, Feng Jing would control Ice to freeze their bodies, and instantly they wouldn't be able to move at all. The soldiers had nothing to do at all. Everything in this area is under the full control of the devil-like young man at the center of all this chaos.

"Where are you going ba~?"

Feng Jing with a playful smile at the corner of his lips looks at those men who were captured by ice only their eyes and nose were free from being frozen. They were all looking at the exquisite visage of the young man covered in blood not far from them. The pretty smile was like a nail hammering in their hearts and the coquettish echoing in the area was like a death call.

At this moment, the father and son, Navi Itri and Navi Naja couldn't help but stare at the beautiful young man walking towards them. Navi Naja was already covered in his own puke, tears, and pee. He tried to stand up and run away but his legs couldn't stop shaking at the bloody scene playing before him. If he was like a crazy person obsessing towards the marshal before? Right now, he had gone mad in fear towards Feng Jing. He started screaming sorry and started pleading for his life. He regrets every action he had taken against Feng Jing.

Navi Naja, "I'm sorry. I'm sorry. I'm sorry. I shouldn't have done that... Please forgive me... I will never do it again... Wuwuwu~"

Major General Navi Itri feels the same way. At this moment, witnessing this kind of Feng Jing makes him remember that marshal who fought in war covered with the blood of his enemies. They were both cruel to their enemies and unforgiving.

"I shouldn't have awakened the devil~" murmured Major General Navi Itri while staring lifelessly at the approaching Feng Jing.

"Don't worry~ This lord hasn't done enough yet~" said Feng Jing with an evil smile on his face.

Chapter 359: 8.84 First Blue Star - Navi Clan's father and son.

Feng Jing suddenly stops in front of the father and son. As soon as he saw Feng Jing before him Navi Naja acted like a madman and started kowtowing in front of him even ignoring the pain and blood on his forehead.

"Feng Jing! No... My Lord! I'm sorry. I won't do it again. I would try to steal your man again. I'm sorry. I shouldn't have bullied you at the academy. I shouldn't have spread the bad rumors about you. I shouldn't have killed all those students with a common background for fun. I will never do it again. I really would not! Spare me... Please spare me!!!" Navi Naja started tattling about every sin he had done and tried to plead for his life. What he didn't know was that the more he speaks the more his sins increase.

Of course! Feng Jing didn't stop him from talking and happily listened to every word Navi Naja was saying. His father beside him had longed had his face turned dark in anger and wanted to stop his son from saying things he shouldn't tell.

Navi Itri was about to bellow at his son, "YOU STOP TALK---!! Hmpff!!" The ice suddenly covered his mouth, preventing him from talking. He could only glare at his own son wanting to use his ugly expression to tell the boy to stop talking. Sadly, Navi Itri is busy begging for his life to notice such things.

Feng Jing's voice seems to have bewitching effects but in reality, is only using his supernatural skill called Authority in an indirect method.

"Hm~ sparing you will need some thinking but~ if you confess everything you know well~"

Navi Naja raised his head which was covered in blood and dust. He looks at Feng Jing who is wearing a gentle smile like an angel despite being a devil. Hope sparks within his eyes, the desire to live.

"I will tell you everything. Everything I know!!" said Navi Naja.

Once Navi Naja said this everyone from the Navi Clan glared at him. But as if he couldn't see it, he continued to stare at the angelic countenance of Feng Jing before him.

Nodding his head like a pecking chicken, "I know everything. Everything my clan had done! I promise to tell you all of it. Please spare my life!" said Navi Naja.

HHMMMMPPPPPP!!!

Navi crawled like a worm wanting to get closer to Feng Jing ignoring the dirt and things on the ground. It was at this moment that his father had kicked him on his stomach with everything looking like a prancing bug like his son does. Their image as nobles from a former great family had been forgotten completely with these actions of theirs.

Kicked!

"URK! What the hell are you doing, dad!?" yelled Navi Naja in pain while glaring at his father.

Seeing the ugly scene between the father and son, Feng Jing melts the ice covering Navi Itri's mouth and lets him talk back to his foolish son.

"You useless shit! Do you know what you are saying!?" yelled Navi Itri.

Navi Naja could still feel the pain on his stomach from where his father had kicked him and glared at the latter with bloodshot eyes.

"I know. To save my life alone, I will tell them everything! Everything you and the elders had done. You were the ones who told me to destroy Feng Jing's reputation at school. To bully ordinary people without any background and place all blame on him as well. When you fancied some woman from the lower background you kidnapped them then rape them when you get tired of it you would just throw them to a mass burial. The elders are the same. They used the children as a source of money and sold them as well. Right, you were never afraid! Because the Imperial Family is backing you up. Mother is covering up everything you do. Even though she despise you doing all those things!"

Navi Itri tried to kick his son for the second time but this time the boy dodge and kicked him back instead.

"You dare to kick your father!!!"

"Fuck your father!"

"Do you think you can whitewash yourself and that whore mother of yours!? She was the first one to bring home men at home! I was only retaliating at her. By doing the same thing! This old man asks you to kill? NO! You love bullying those lower-class shit and hated them so much that you tortured them until they broke like toys! Hahaha~ you are not clean, you are a damn shit like this old man!!!"

The father and son continue to throw curses at each other revealing all disgusting secrets their clan possesses. Everyone's expression turned ugly, pale, and in the end angry after hearing all the inhumane things the Navi Clan had been doing. Even the Imperial Family was complicated except for King Regulus Zenith who sides more with the Feng Clan than his own family. The exchange between Navi Itri and Navi Naja caused commotion all over the Star Network. Because of this, the aloof countenance of the royal clan blackens in just a few words of exchange between the father and son.

Star Network's ongoing comments:

-Are these father and son for real!?

-Both are disgusting! They did all those as a clan. Young Lord Jing executing them to death is definitely deserving of their sins.

-They should die.

-Those things they did made me vomit my dinner. Fuck this clan is hideous! The Imperial Clan is not good as well.

-Tsk! They kill ordinary people for fun. Dammit? They are the ones who should die.

-Young Lord Jing, kill them. KILL THEM ALL!!!

-They deserve to die. Both the Imperial Clan and the Navi Clan. The stars of calamity!!

-Stop! Don't involve King Zenith. He might be a royal but he is more of a Feng. If not for the fact that the Crown Title requires him to live in the Palace, King Zenith and Queen Yue would have lived together with the Phoenix Clan.

-Hey! Don't you think Young Lord Jing is quite hot! He is so beautiful yet so dangerous.

-Ahhh! I know~ Did you see him smile gently then smile mischievously like a naughty and playful God.

-So handsome~~ Young Lord Jing please look here!

-So unfair! How could someone strong, beautiful, dangerously hot, and sexy exist in this world? I have a new Male God! LORD JING!!!!!!

Comments in Star Network are being controlled in the way Feng Jing's reputation isn't being tarnished but this isn't the work of System Yue but the real truth and thoughts of the masses. Feng Jing had enough influence to move the crowd to side with him.

In Planet Citlali...

The father and son after exchanging curses and spouting facts that are supposed to be hidden finally noticed that their surroundings are too quiet. When they looked around everyone's eyes were full of anger and disgust. As if staring at something extremely revolting.

The two were taken aback as they both looked at Feng Jing, those crimson eyes were glowing like the garnet gemstones under the moonlight but those eyes were devoid of emotions yet condescending and only frostiness can be felt under his gaze.

Despite that those thin cerise lips were upturned into an entertained smile as if he was watching a movie playing before him. What made the father and son shiver in chills is that those eyes felt like it was staring down at some bugs that weren't interesting under Feng Jing's gaze. They look like clowns acting in a play.

Navi Itri's thoughts, 'This child... He doesn't see us as humans ha?'

'Scary~ why is he looking like that to me? I look so small under his eyes. So frightening as if meeting a nonchalant God who could decide my life and death with mere whims.' Thoughts of Navi Naja.

"Moreover, his eyes aren't smiling at all..." mumbled Major General Navi Itri.

As if finally noticing that everyone including the father and son combo is staring at him, Feng Jing reacted. Even though there is a smile on the corner of his lips, he still looks bored.

"Hm? Are you guys done? Played enough ba~?" asked Feng Jing.

But no one replied to his questions, he looked around his surroundings and recalled that he is still in the middle of executing sinners but after watching the father and son fights without care for the blood ties, he had already gotten bored of it.

Feng Jing said, "Everyone here had heard what they had rattled right? Then there should be no one foolish to stop me from punishing them according to the laws of our Empire..."

Most soldiers saluted at him and responded, "There are no problems, Young Lord Jing. Everything shall go your way."

Snap!

Feng Jing nodded his head once and then snapped his fingers. As soon as he did that every sinner in the open area except for the father and son was suddenly covered in white flames burning them alive. It only took a few seconds before they turned to small piles of ashes. They couldn't even scream for a very long time.

AH--!!!

Silences~~

The scene of instantly turning humans into a pile of ashes in a moment had once again left everyone stunned. Such a magical scene, they couldn't even react before the young man covered in blood made his move. If Feng Jing happens to become their enemy they wouldn't even know how they would die. This resulted in a defeating silence in the area once again, Navi Itri and Navi Naja looking at Feng Jing as if seeing a monster. Their bodies were shaking too badly and a pool of urine was pooling under their butts.

Feng Jing glances at the father and son duo, "As for you two... you shall do that slowly with a torturous death. Don't worry~ I will make... extremely painful for you~" a smirk emerges on the young man's angel visage but this kind of expression makes him look like the devil himself.

"N-NO! No. You said you'll spare me just now! Liar. You're a liar!" screamed Navi Naja.

Feng Jing looked confusedly at the yelling, tied young man moving like a bagworm on the ground.

"Hm~ if I remember it right~ this lord had not spoken a word of sparing you thought. I've just approached you and this student here started talking on your own. Saying stuff like 'I will tell you everything please spare me' but this lord hasn't said a word of agreement at all before you start having a verbal fight and domestic violence with your father here. I even waited until you stopped fighting. Who would have thought you would yell each other's crimes for everyone to hear. Even all the sins your Clan did were heard by everyone.

But why would you think I would spare you? Funny kid~" said Feng Jing.

He slowly approached the two and lowered his position to reach them. He lightly flicked the forehead of Navi Naja. Everyone thought Young Lord Feng Jing was just teasing Navi Naja until the latter suddenly curled in pain. His face turned red as all his veins were protruding. It didn't take a while for him to start bawling in agony and pain. The tormenting feeling of your own blood boiling and moving faster within your veins feel like countless bugs were crawling within your veins and an unimaginable twinging sensation spreads all over Navi Naja's body.

Ahh...? AAHH.... AAAAAHHHHHHH~~

"AAHHH! Make it stop. STOP! It hurts~ Hot!! It hurts a lot~" Navi Naja started wailing in pain.

Feng Jing asked, "How was it? The feeling of your blood boiling... I'm sure it hurts a lot~ but if I let you die while suffering the greatest pain those who you killed before would never be able to take their eternal rest peacefully. It would take at least a whole night for blood to vaporize until then... you would still be alive experiencing such a painful death."

AAHH.... AAAAAHHHHHHH~~ HAAAA~

Navi Itri wanted to crawl away with a terrified expression on his face. The distorted expression on his son's face shows how much pain he is suffering right now. It's agonizing enough that his eyes almost bulge out. But would Feng Jing be merciful towards him? movelusb.com

As expected that the devil's gaze had fallen on him next, "As for you a thousand cuts and slow freezing should be enough~" said Feng Jing.

The scene of him joyously torturing the Navi Clan's father and son was witnessed by the newly arrived Marshal and the others.

Feng Yang reluctantly calls, "Xiao Jing?"

Chapter 360: 8.85 First Blue Star - Everyone's Mission

Feng Yang calls for his younger brother who is covered in blood from head to toes.

"Xiao Jing?"

The echoing wails of the former Major General Navi Itri and his spoiled prince-like son, Navi Naja resound all over the place. The soreness and discomfort are evident with how much their struggles are on the ground. The pain was tormenting enough that they couldn't even hold back their screams until their voices had gone hoarse.

Feng Jing, who heard someone call his name, looked at the source and saw his relatives and husband coming over. The expression on his face couldn't help but be mellow at their presence especially upon seeing his other half.

"Sisi! Big brothers! Big Sis! Your meeting is over?" asked Feng Jing with a gentle smile. If not because he is completely dyed in the blood that this scene would look warm but right now it also felt surreal and a bit eerie.

It's like seeing a child covered in blood when he gets home with a huge smile on his face after playing outside until he is satisfied. Feng Yang and the rest stiffened when they saw Feng Jing walking over to them. The latter of course noticed their reactions and also halted his steps. His smile remains friendly regardless of his siblings' reactions. Among the newly arrived group, only Marshal Sirius steps out without fear nor hesitation at his movements. He walks slowly yet urgently when he sees his wife's awkward situation.

Stopping just in front of his wife, the marshal reached his hands and carried Feng Jing in his arms. He acted as if he didn't see the blood on Feng Jing's clothes and treated him precisely as he had always been.

"Had enough fun? Let's go take a bath and eat dinner after, baby~" said Marshal Sirius who kissed his lover's cheeks unmindful of blood staining his cuddly cheeks.

This sweet gesture made Feng Jing happy and gave his husband a short kiss. "A reward~"

"Not enough," said Marshal Sirius.

Feng Jing smiled truthfully towards his husband, "Let's continue in our room, My love."

"Um!"

The Marshal ignores everyone's gaze on them and walks away carrying his wife in his embrace. Everyone looks at the couple weirdly yet yearning. Such undying love, to like and cherish someone regardless of what, how, and why. Feng Jing and Marshal Sirius possess this kind of immortal affection between the two of them. Everyone stared at the couple until they disappeared from their line of sight. They were only brought back to reality when they heard the two remaining members of Navi struggling in pain on the dusty cold ground.

AARRGHHH!~

The expression on Feng Yang and the rest instantly turned cold...

"Someone threw the trash back to the prison. Since Xiao Jing, they would die tonight, let them suffer and wait for them to die on their own. The rest clean up! After dinner, there would be a special announcement for everyone. Disperse!" said Major General Feng Yang as he also left to look for his lover. Lieutenant General Nova Seren stayed to supervise while waiting for her husband to come.

After a few hours, Lieutenant General Nova Revel arrived on the planet. His wife had welcomed him warmly with dinner prepared for him and his fleet. After greeting the marshal and exchanging a few words to each other, Lieutenant General Nova Revel accompanied her wife all night. There he heard the mission his wife had received from the Marshal. He seriously thought of things before ending up accepting the mission given to them.

When the dinner was over, an announcement about the varying missions was declared. First, they could come home to the Empire and help the group led by Lieutenant General Xue Ying, Major General Drake, and Major General Lin Tang in protecting the people at the capital.

Second, is to join the infiltration mission led by Major General Feng Yang, Lieutenant Generals: Nova Seren and her husband Nova Revel as well as King Regulus Zenith and Queen Regulus (Feng) Yue. The target location is the Zergs Planet.

Lastly, to remain in Planet Citlali to fight a war with the Zerg race and kill as many of the zergs as possible. Marshal Sirius and Young Lord Jing would be leading this battle for life and death.

Some students who were frightened of war joined the first mission but most students choose the second mission as it feels the safest among the rest of the missions. The only ones who choose to stay on Planet Citlali as expected are the little group led by Feng Jing and Lin Tian. Most members of the Fallen Gods Unit had also stayed to fight with their Marshal until the end. By dawn, the presence in Planet Citlali had lessened enough that the quietness of the abandoned star had returned. At the center is a bonfire surrounded by a few students who were grilling some delicious meat and seafood with the tantalizing aroma that made everyone drool.

These were some marinated meat and seafood that Feng Jing had made for them to eat. Feng Jing rarely cooks but when he does everyone feels like they are in heaven. Though the one who did the cooking is the Marshal instead of Young Lord Jing who got lazy after preparing all those skewered meat.

During such an ample feast, everyone enjoyed the meal and talked. The sounds of talking and laughter were echoing in the middle of the forest. At the corner, Marshal Sirius is serving his wife and feeding him himself. The two watched everyone laugh as if they weren't here to fight for their lives.

Feng Jing said, "They look so happy but... how many of them would be able to go home alive?"

Holding a barbecue near his wife's lips, the Marshal spoke, "Well~ with just this much I can make sure everyone would be able to go back to the Empire alive at least. As for their injuries, you can also leave those to me. Just enjoy what you want to do, Baby. I'm here~"

"Even if you try to flirt with me all day you can't eat meat. This body is still young in the eyes of the people in this world. You have to wait for three more years, my love~" said Feng Jing with a mirthful expression on his face.

The Marshal couldn't help but pout when he heard that, "You can still give me hugs and kisses right? Baby~" He started staring at his wife with puppy eyes which he latter is so weak too,

As expected Feng Jing jumped within his embrace and gave him the hot kiss he wanted. They kissed as if no one was watching while the others who had witnessed this scene had choked over their food and also died for overeating the so-called dog food from this shameless couple.

Han Ling murmured, "I thought the Marshal is a strict type but never expected him to be such a romantic~"

"What's wrong with being romantic? At least they look sweet together!" said Si Shen.

A veteran soldier from the Fallen God Unit added, "No! The marshal is only like that towards madam. He is still stern and cold as usual if the madam is not around."

Tang San said, "What is this called again? Double happiness? Double whammy? Huh~"

"It's double standards!" said Tang Si.

Qu Yeon said, "You guys~ you do know that they could hear us at this distance right?"

With this important question, silence had once again descended on the star. Only the sound of the wind and roasting meat and seafood can be heard in the area.

SILENCE~~~

Wu Liu and Qu Yul exclaimed, "Ah~ it's burning. Your meat is turning to charcoal~"

Then everyone resumed eating and decided to ignore what Qu Yeon had just said. After all, the demon couple was busy clinging to each other to bother the rest of them.

Xue Ran noticed that Solaris Vega was a bit silent in the corner and helped him cool some food for him as he sat beside him.

"What's wrong?" he asked worriedly.

Solaris Vega responded, "I kind of misses Yven. Do you think he would be okay?"

Xue Ran answered, "Yes, he is okay. Didn't the leader say so many times? He just needs to be away for a few years to heal his injuries. Plus Lieutenant General Xue Ying his Sentinel is with him. He would be alright."

The silly child finally smiled which relieved Xue Ran.

"Here, eat a lot. You like the food the leader makes, right?" said Xue Ran.

Solaris Vega replied, "Thank you, A'Ran~"

The smile on his face is so cute and his gaze is clear as always. Though he hasn't fully accepted Xue Ran yet, he treated the latter with more importance than the rest of the group. But to Solaris Vega, his priority is still the leader he admires the most.

---

A few light-years away from Planet Citlali.

A huge fleet of battleships gathered in the space above the Zerg Race. The largest ship leads the fleet, inside this ship is the first imperial king zerg and first imperial queen zerg. They are the parents of the First prince that was killed by Feng Jing. They had brought out all the military strength their race could. Leaving only a few guardians to protect their planet.

They weren't worried about intruders after all the second imperial king zergs and second imperial queen zerg and their descends were left on the planet to protect their hive. Among the imperial prince zergs that remain, Alula Celeste was within the group. He had already received the secret message from his grandson, Feng Jing, about someone escorting him back to the Empire. As well as the mission of the younger generation to destroy the planet zerg. For that, he and the Alula clan also made some changes in their plans. Before they completely retreated they had hidden tons of bombs all over the planet. They would detonate it the moment everyone completed their mission.

With that, the first imperial king zerg and his huge fleet left their hive to head to Planet Citlali to avenge their son. Not knowing that this will be the last time they would be able to see the planet they had lived on for thousands of years.

As soon as the huge fleet had left, a small fleet was hiding not far from the planet. This is the battleship owned by Marshal Janus himself. He had only led a small elite team and used the fastest battleship they could use for instant retreat. They were also informed about the missions Marshal Sirius had issued. Feng Jing who agreed to all those missions made the progress they needed to complete themselves.

Marshal Janus who was waiting for his wife's signal to appear was silently in health within the asteroid formation near the Planet Zerg,

"Those two brats are really bold! They would hold the fort until everyone in Alula Clan is saved. Damn~ I kind of wanted to fight too~" said Marshal Janus.

His aide, someone who grew up serving him from the Janus clan commented, "Please calm down, Marshal. Young Lord Jing and Marshal Altair Sirius would be okay. They are after all the strongest pair the Oberion Empire has."

"I know. I don't worry about those brats. What worries this old man the most are those parasites in the capital. Tsk! did they think they would be able to do whatever they wanted just because I am not in the Empire? Foolish~ Old Man Feng is a lot stronger than I do," said Marshal Janus.

"Right? The silent former marshal is indeed more dangerous than the Marshal. He is well known for his ruthlessness during his younger days."

Marshal Janus said, "Indeed, if not because he needs to protect his Ancestral Nest that he would be the one most suitable to become the Grand Marshal instead of this old man."