

Worlds Plot 501

Chapter 501 - 11.27 First Green Star Haunted Asylum \(16\)

The contract was finally signed. The four following players are now bound to each other. After the singing was done they were prepared to finish this movie, unfortunately, even if they were to continue the game one of them was unable to join. After all, Yan Lou is only able to enter the game because Hei Anjing's resting room was created in another dimension. It would never affect the situation in the movie but once they get out of the room they would be able to return to the movie's location.

Yan Lou could only see his wife out of the door. An Yuan and Han Ya plus the rest of the managers had all already gotten out of the room but Hei Anjing was being hugged back with only his figure hovering at the space outside but his feet are unable to land as Yan Lou is carrying him from behind.

Hei Anjing could only sigh seeing his husband's actions. He knew that this huge vinegar jar didn't want to part with him but unfortunately he is unable to join the current game as the players allowed to enter in this movie are limited. Only 6 players could enter the game and adding one more would cause an error and the movie would no longer function so Yan Lou couldn't join his wife to play.

Everyone had been looking at this pair for another half an hour but Yan Lou doesn't seem to have any intention to let his wife go. Hei Anjing had always been extremely patient when it comes to his man and let the former hug and carry him while lingering at the boundaries of two spaces. Anyway, the space fissures did not affect him as he could control space elements to some extent. He is a Hei after all.

Everyone's thoughts at this scene: 'How long are they going to continue to hug!?''

In the end, it was System Yue who had convinced his lord.

[My Lord, thought Lord Hei wouldn't mind being in that position as long as he didn't finish this game role-playing, he wouldn't be able to officially enter the Abyssal City. As a newbie player, if he couldn't complete at least one game his soul would perish as punishment.]

Hearing the words punishment Yan Lou finally starts moving. As the creator of this world, he knew what would happen to a soul that isn't protected by the Abyssal world. Though he had the feeling that those things wouldn't affect his lover's soul. It is better to be sure than sorry.

And so he could only reluctantly let Hei Anjing go. He gave him a tender kiss on his forehead and said,

"I will pick you up after finishing this game. Enjoy, Wife~" said Yan Lou with a smile though he looks so hesitant to be apart from him.

Such a cutie, Hei Anjing gave him a fleeting kiss on the corner of his lips and pushed him back inside the room. With a playful smile on his face, Hei Anjing winked as a farewell to his husband. Within the room, Chu Mo stood on stand-by as soon as he returned. He could only bow his head to the direction of Hei Anjing to show his respect to the other lord.

Hei Anjing said, "Make sure you can pick me up, My love~"

BANG!

As the door to that other-dimensional room closed, everything in the Haunted Asylum had returned to normal. They were now at the staircase going to the fourth floor.

Hei Anjing spoke, "Pardon him for me. He has always been like that."

Manager Gou whispered, '[Always like that? That's Abyss. The cruel and cold-blooded human player that kills both humans and abyssal monsters without distinction. Many boss monsters fear him as he always kills them for gold coins. He never smiled and had always been alone.]'

'But what the hell did I see just now? Throwing tantrums? Acting like a child? Is he still the same Abyss we knew!? Fuck! Just who the hell is this Hei Anjing!?!'

Sui Rou covered the mouth of her manager and said, "Speak less. I don't want to die yet."

Only then did Manager Gou notice Hei Anjing looking at them with his usual mischievous smile on his beautiful face. Manager Gou, this little wolf couldn't help but shiver under that gaze. Only when Hei Anjing averted his eyes and moved it on An Yuan that Manager Gou felt relief.

Shivers~

Hei Anjing spoke, "We are about to reach the boss room. So you should prepare your props to record the NPC boss. By the way, how long do you need to record her?"

"Hm, 15 minutes should do. But... I don't know if we can fight her without dying at that time."

answered Professor An Yuan.

Hei Anjing said, "There is no need to worry about that. Xiao Han and Sui Rou would fight with it for 15 minutes for you. Just take your time recording it."

Han Ya said, "Leave it to me, A'Yuan."

"15 minutes should be fine but as promised... The NPC boss' life is mine to take," said Sui Rou.

An Yuan smiled and said, "Yes, the Boss NPC is all yours." Then he moved his gaze in the direction where he heard Hei Anjing's voice and asked, "What about you Sir Hei? What will you be doing?"

"Well~ keeping you three alive should be enough. I've already fought her once and got bored of it. The rest should be done but you guys. My main mission is complete already."

System Yang spoke, [That's right. Master had completed his main mission and some sub-mission. He can leave anytime but decided to stay here to keep you guys alive.]

The other three players were speechless. This little sun, manager of Player Hei never minces his words.

An Yuan said, "Then let's go." as he held Han Ya's hands as usual.

"Um~" Han Ya grips his hand back and once again escorts on the way. This pair leads the group. Sui Rou glanced at Hei Anjing and followed the two in front of her. It is better to walk near these two weird newbies than the last one who is a lot more dangerous than a real killer. Hei Anjing followed them and stayed in the rear, securing their safety from behind. He had a conversation with his System.

Hei Anjing asked, "Yang, how's my husband?"

[He's sulking. After you closed the door he was in the bad mood and almost beat up Warden Lou who tried to stop him from following you. Then Yue'er had teleported them back to their original location.]

Sigh~

"Let's finish the things here soon. Send a message to him at the next location. But since the shared contract was signed the punishment would be applicable even if one of the players had failed to join the game right? We need 3 complete main missions in this game as my love of not being here is considered as a failed mission. We need to complete 3 of 4 main missions. I and the little professor can complete it but... The one who took over Han Ya came late and the original Han Ya had already failed his main mission. So regardless of whether the protagonist shou could complete his main mission or not it would cost our group to suffer the punishment with the protagonist gong. Hehehe~" whispered Hei Anjing.

[Master, you intentionally didn't mention that to those two on purpose right?]

Hei Anjing has an entertained smile on his face and said, "Wouldn't it be fun to see how can he protect his fated one surrounded by players who are no different from being a murderer who kills for fun~"

[I think the master just wants to play more wildly in the insane mode.]

"Well~ that's also right? I heard that the insane mode is much more fun than regular games," murmured Hei Anjing.

The group of four players and managers had climbed up the stairs moving on to the final stage of the game. The said cursed room 402 where the Boss NPC is said to live.

After Yan Lou had separated from his wife, System Yue had teleported him back to the original room where he had been admitted in the same hospital yet in a different dimension. He was still in a bad mood after he sent his wife away to play his games. He had already asked System Yue multiple times if he could crash in the Haunted Asylum Movie but received the same answer that he couldn't interfere with it.

He could just destroy the game itself but that would mean he would be destroying the toys his wife had found. If he really does so then Hei Anjing would definitely get angry with him. So he could only sulk on his bed and opened the interface that shows his wife's channel.

Since they had signed a shared platform as a group, opening the channel allowed Yan Lou to see the members under the shared contract. On his platform, he could see Han Ya and An Yuan blocking his wife's perspective and was about to explode in rage once again.

Yan Lou, "Tsk! Why are they blocking my wife? I don't care about this shitty couple. Let me see my wife!!!"

[My Lord calm down. You can control whose point of view you want to see. Here, choose Lord Hei's perspective.]

System Yue had to manipulate the whole platform for the fuming Lord God. Only when he saw his wife's image in the holographic video in front of him did he finally calm down.

The picture is clearer than before. This is because Hei Anjing's channel had lots of views more than other players. Because of that, the Abyssal World is more biased toward him than the other players.

Lightly caressing the face of Hei Anjing on the recording, he once again started missing him already. He didn't understand his yearning for this human. He just felt that he was meant to be his and should never be away from his side.

Yan Lou spoke, "I can bear it for one game. As for the rest of your time, you should spend it by my side, my wife~"

Standing by the side are Chu Mo and System Yue. They could never interfere with the relationship between their bosses. They were only there to follow their orders. But the Warden is getting worried as his lover got separated from their group.

System Yang informed them about Lord Hei's plan to enter the punishment game, which is an insane mode that most players try to avoid. This is a punishment system that the Abyssal world uses to the losing gamers. They would be thrown into this crazy mode and would have to do everything by any means to escape from there.

Insane mode. Just by hearing it alone stays that this type of game would put lives in danger. Moreover, in this punishment game, the concept of death is true. Dying in this game mode would mean one would completely get their souls perished. The soul would be erased forever and they would never be able to enter reincarnation.

His kind of game which puts lives on the line is thrilling and terrifying and only someone like Hei Anjing would love this kind of game mode. As the God of Destruction, he is closer to negative energies than positive ones. He loves blood and death. Things like these are extremely entertaining for him.

On the other hand, Yan Lou or Ye Xiajie is formerly the God of Void. He is also the God of Darkness. These kinds of things would never affect him. But he would be so willing to accompany his crazy wife to play around, indulging him the whole time.

The Warden and System Yue could only shake their heads helplessly. They were only here to look for the Lord God's soul fragments which were already found. But even if the Lord God, Ye Xiajie, is awake or not his actions of solely pampering his wife to the heavens would never change.

[If I told the Lord God about Lord Hei's plan of entering the punishment game after this movie he would definitely not hesitate to follow right?]

Chu Mo's lips twitched and replied, "Maybe I should go now and make plans with Ming'er to enter the massacre mode together."

[Get going then. I will tell the Lord about your departure. Well at this moment he wouldn't care about us or the others. He even didn't recognize his former general who had to change his skin.]

"Then I will leave it to you. Maybe I should ask the boss to upgrade the contract to intermediate and sign it together with Ming'er," said Chu Mo.

[I will also inform the boss. Maybe when he is no longer glaring at the screen just because he misses Lord Hei. Sigh~ wouldn't things be worse if Lord God's main soul woke up as well.]

The two subordinates of the Lord God recall the scene of their Lord God's possessiveness. He would definitely not allow anyone to approach Lord Hei when he woke up. Even that pair of protagonists would not be spared.

Sigh~ "Worry it when the time comes. I'm going to see my honey instead." said Chu Mo.

[Sure. Sure. Go ahead.]

WHOOSH!

The Executioner, Chu Mo had suddenly pulled a teleportation talisman. He disappeared on the spot and System Yue couldn't help but peek at their Lord God. As expected he didn't even notice his subordinate suddenly leaving, his all focus was on the screen where the appearance of Lord Hei is being shown.

Yan Lou murmured, "What the hell? Why are making my wife look after the blind man!? That's your partner, stay away from my wife!!" He is scolding Han Ya as he watches the man ask Hei Anjing to protect An Yuan who was holding a camera in his hands.

[Lord, calm down. You are acting like crazy fan!]

Chapter 502 - 11.28 First Green Star Haunted Asylum \(17\)

Haunted Asylum. Fourth Floor.

In front of the sealed metal door of room 402, Han Ya and Sui Rou were doing their best to pry open the door of the aid cursed room. They used whatever could be used. Black Widow weapon collections were even brought out. There are axes, swords, chainsaws, metal poles, and more. They tried using it just to pry the door open, unfortunately, nothing seems to be useful.

In the end, Han Ya had to use the full-strength current body could manifest to pull the door open. But what could a human strength do? Even if he used to be an undead knight who possessed overwhelming strength before, the limit of human capabilities is hindering him.

After all, the original Han Ya is a newcomer who hasn't even officially entered the Abyssal City. His identity is that only of a weak ghost. noveL\USBdotc/o\M

Han Ya said, "It can't be opened forcefully. You said this movie is something you had opened. Do you have no idea how to open the boss room?"

"I know. But it can't be done now. The requirement is to kill half of the players. Half of six is three. Only two had died." answered Sui Rou.

Han Ya raised one of his eyebrows and said, "Is that why you killed the two female players?"

"Yes." The black widow didn't deny it. It was indeed her original plan to kill half of the players not only to complete her former main mission and also to complete the requirements to open the Boss Room.

Sui Rou ignored this cold man whose eyes only softened in the face of that blind man and looked for Hei Anjing. Han Ya also shrugs his shoulders and looks at An Yuan. The two just happened to be together at the distance watching the two of them pry open the door.

But as they turned their heads, they were shocked to see An Yuan and Hei Anjing enjoying their time at the corner. They were holding ice cream cones that were obviously bought or sent by the audience to them as gifts. They were like children enjoying a cold treat under the shade. Completely relaxed and leisurely.

Han Ya and Sui Rou looked at each other covered in dust and sweat feeling the unfairness of the world. Even the audience in their platforms were laughing at their expressions. Obviously envious of these two men who were enjoying everything just by watching from a distance.

Hei Anjing was merciless and ignored their ugly expression. He even asked, "Are you guys done? Did the door finally open?" currently spooning an ice cream to eat.

Seeing his devil may care attitude the other three don't know how to react. But An Yuan was shy and felt shrinking as he heard Hei Anjing's words. He knew that their other teammates were now looking at them. Then he remembered the huge cone of ice cream in his hands given by Hei Anjing from the audience. He was very kind to share it with the other two who had done all the hard work.

Carefully walking towards Han Ya and Sui Rou, he pulled out the other two cones of ice cream from the platform gift space.

An Yuan said, "T-There are a lot. We have a small fridge of ice cream. What flavor do you want to eat? Let's take a short rest first and try it again."

The two silently agreed and voiced the flavors they wanted to eat.

Han Ya, "Coffee Crumble." Following the information from the memories, the original Han Yan had left.

"Red Velvet. Thank you," said Sui Rou.

An Yuan said, "Okay" as he pulled out the ice creams of the following flavors and gave them to the two.

The audience of their platform just now had given them a small fridge of ice cream cones with tons of different types of flavor inside. This happened when Hei Anjing had gotten bored of watching them pry the door and commented that it was too hot and wanted to eat ice cream.

As if instantly some wealthy viewers had gifted him some. Since they were from the same group platform the gifts were shared with the team as well. Hei Anjing's gifts are so abundant. So except for those expensive gifts, ordinary gifts like food and necessities were shared. The ice cream cones are one of them.

The four players were enjoying themselves with ice cream and totally forgot about the boss NPC beyond the door. Without them knowing this boss NPC was glaring at them from the small window of the door. She was looking at the ice cream in the hands of the players.

Abyssal monsters born in this realm are not much different from humans. Except for their appearance looking like a monster or ghost, they are able to consume human food as well. Moreover, even if they die in the game after the game was finished they would be revived by the Abyssal World itself.

During their vacations, they could also enter the Abyssal city in human disguise and eat food made by humans. The only ones who can die for real in the Abyssal world are humans. Which is there would be new batches of human players being pulled in this world most of the time.

But it wasn't completely unfair for human players, they are able to gain inhuman strength and abilities in this world as long as they completely finished a game. Increasingly attaining strength, the possibility of becoming a god is not impossible. Didn't the abyss be now considered as the Evil God? He was born as a former human in this world and climbed up the peak and became the sole ruler of the Abyssal World. It was just that after becoming a God his past life memories were refreshed and all he knew is that he used to be called abyss as a human and Yan Lou as the Evil god.

Hei Anjing pretends not to notice the glowering pair of eyes from the small window of room 402. Of course, the other three players had also felt her glares and chose to ignore her. They knew that the reason they couldn't open the door in room 402 is that the boss NPC herself is blocking the door, so the only way to open it is to make the Boss NPC do it herself.

Seeing that the Boss NPC is very interested in food, Hei Anjing chooses to bait her with more food.

"I'm hungry. Let's eat our meals here for a bit. We can try opening the door after eating." suggested Hei Anjing.

An Yuan who realized his plans helped him to accomplish the goal of getting the Boss comes out of her room.

Professor An Yuan said, "Sir Hei, is correct. You've been trying to pry it open. Let's eat first and think what should be done again later."

Han Ya didn't speak a word and just stood beside An Yuan, silently agreeing with his words.

Sui Rou also didn't speak, instead, she pulled a mat in her storage and placed it in the middle of the hall. She is prepared to eat anywhere. As a veteran player, though her food storage isn't as rich as Hei Anjing's, she would still have the utensils used for it. She even brought out plates, spoons, and forks.

Followed by that Hei Anjing happily pulled up food from his dimensional space. Since he has a lot of resources in his dimension plus a farm, Hei Anjing would never run out of food. He brought out a portable grill and stove. Asked Yang to bring out some pots, uncooked meat, uncooked kinds of seafood, and even ramen.

Seeing such a huge pile of food coming out of Hei Anjing's storage the other three including their managers were dumbfounded.

Sui Rou's thoughts: 'Why did you fill up your storage tool with food!?'

Han Ya was confused. As a former undead who doesn't need to eat at all and suddenly getting bombarded by human food that assaulted his nose. His tummy instinctively growls in hunger.

GROWLS~

Three sounds are coming from Han Ya. Sui Rou and An Yuan. They reflectively covered their stomach crying out for food. Hei Anjing gave them a teasing smile and gave an order.

"Go cook. Help me grill the meat, shrimps, squid, and clams there. There are condiments available as well. Don't hesitate. I'm going to cook the noodles." said Hei Anjing.

"Okay~"

Everyone could only watch as they saw Hei Anjing bring out a chopping board. String onions and other veggies that can be included in the ramen. Though they were used to eating this kind of human food, the meals made by Hei Anjing are top class. Even better than those cooked in five-star restaurants.

Chop. Chop. Chop.

Pours~

Boiling! Clang!

Hei Anjing spoke, "Okay! The noodles are ready. Prepare your bowls!" Beside him, the other three players including their managers were all holding their own personal bowls staring at the huge pot of ramen with glowing eyes.

The series of the step-by-step process of seeing luxurious noodles with golden-red soup appeared before them. Everyone including the viewers couldn't help but drool upon such a sight. Even the Boss NPC beyond the closed door was holding on to her stomach and her saliva strolling down from her slightly open mouth. She felt, even more, hungrier than when she saw those delicious-looking humans.

The Boss NPC's thoughts at this moment: 'Wuwu~ Would I become the first game boss being lured by human food?'

'That noodles have a golden-red shade. It looks spicy yet cheesy. Did that human just put cheese on the ramen!?!'

'Wu~ the last time I ate human food was 100 years ago. That was during my last vacation. I also want to eat that ice cream. It seems sweet and fruity. I want strawberry flavor~?'

*'What is that? That squid is too big. Isn't that an octopus!?! Buttered soy sauce clams drools* this smell... I want to eat too~?'*

She couldn't stop herself from peeking at the small window of her room and saw humans happily eating golden soup noodles and various grilled foods over the fire. She truly wanted to kick her door open and grab all those food and kill all these humans who were enchanting her to go out.

The sound of her teeth gritting echoes within the dark area of room 402. Behind her direct subordinates, the other mental patients' ghosts and monsters were all standing in line waiting for the boss's commands. They would sometimes slurp back their dangling salivas and rub their stomach secretly. This is the first time in their lives that they were tortured with the smell of food. Sadly, it is extremely effective. Who says that ghosts and monsters don't need to eat!?

A mid-boss monster spoke, "Boss, let us kill them now and steal their food! It smells delicious!"

"Ah~ they're about to finish everything up! BOSS, I'm hungry~"

"Boss~ I want to eat too!"

"Boss..."

"boss..."

The Boss NPC was suddenly enraged and finally couldn't stop herself and kicked the door of room 402 open.

KICKED!

BANG!

With her hair extending towards the human, he had grabbed everything on the top of the picnic mat.

"DAMN HUMANS!!!" she shouted as she attacked.

Her eyes were red in anger and hunger, after pulling all humans including the food inside her territory, she slammed the door back open. In an instant, that door which is almost impossible to be opened from outside was kicked open. Dragged all humans and their food inside then once again closed the door.

Only the loud slamming sound of the door was left outside the fourth floor of the Haunted Asylum and the rest including all the human players were dragged inside. In the end, Gonjiam: Haunted Asylum Boss NPC becomes the first boss to be lured by human food. It was embarrassing as everyone who was watching the shared channel of Han Ya, An Yuan, Hei Anjing, and Lou Yan had all witnessed this scene leaving all of them flabbergasted.

The platform's viewer's thoughts:

'Fuck! You can lure out a Boss NPC with food! This is amazing!'

Chapter 503 - 11.29 First Green Star Haunted Asylum \(18\)

The viewers of the streaming platform of all players playing the RPG called Haunted Asylum were all pulled inside the Boss NPC room while eating their meals. Everyone had watched as long black hair had wrapped around Han Ya, An Yuan, Suir Rou, and Hei Anjing dragging them inside the cursed room.

Now the streaming platform is showing the scenery inside the NPC Boss room of the Haunted Asylum.

Inside Room 402.

The darkness inside the place surrounds the whole area. There is nothing inside the room except for pillars that support the floors. The temperature is humid but there are no clear windows in the place. They could hear the sound of water dripping from somewhere but there was no light to check the area except for the flashlight props that were given to them before the movie had started.

The room was so silent that they could clearly hear the sound of water and wind in the enclosed space.

Well, things are supposed to be like that but instead they... Un, they stole the pot of ramen, stole and surrounded the grill, ate the meat and seafood on it. They were like scavengers and worst of all the Boss NPC was like a thug boss throwing away her minions who dared to steal her food.

Shrieks~

"Mine. Mine. Mine! Everything's mine!!!" yelled the Boss NPC of the Movie Haunted Asylum.

The group of players was standing together at the corner where the Boss NPC had let them go as soon as she saw her minions crowding around the food. They were stunned as if watching unbelievable before them. Only Hei Anjing was fearless enough to laugh at this scene. On the other hand, Han Ya didn't know if he should beat these guys up or just directly kill them all to remove the embarrassment their kin had taken due to this action of theirs.

Hahaha~ This is Hei Anjing laughing

An Yuan asked, "What is happening?" Only the blind man doesn't understand why his teammate Hei Anjing is laughing and someone shrieks as if angry in the area.

Asked this question, Han Ya didn't know how to answer. As a former Undead from the same side, he could just completely destroy the image of abyssal creatures in the eyes of a human player but at the same time, he couldn't lie to the adorable creature before him.

Han Ya answered, "They... They are fighting over our food after stealing it from us."

"Who?" asked An Yuan.

Covering her lips, preventing herself from laughing, Sui Rou had answered, "The Boss NPC and her minions. They are fighting over our food."

Professor An Yuan was silent for a while and murmured, "No wonder Sir Hei cooked too much food. It was a bait ha~"

Han Ya and Sui Rou glance at Hei Anjing who is still laughing at the corner while taking a recording talking to his viewers. One of the viewers just happened to be the same man they've met in his resting place who is a player like them, Lou Yan.

"Husband, look~ hahaha. Aren't they funny!?"

"Huh? You want to eat ramen as well? Sure, wait for me to finish this movie."

"What do you mean right now? Sending gift function. I have that in my platform as well?"

"No. The pot had been licked clean. I cannot send some for you right now!"

"Okay. Okay. I promise. I will cook you a full course when I get out here."

"Wait! Didn't Yue inform you? What do you want me to cook there? Tsk! Fine. Sigh~ isn't it just food..."

His teammates didn't know that even in this midst of danger there would still be dog food raining in their direction. Moreover, they had not already forgotten they are currently inside the boss NPC territory where she is the strongest.

The movie only resumed when the food was all gobbled up by the Boss NPC and the minion. They had followed the script and surrounded the players with the Boss NPC in the lead they started acting as antagonists they should be.

Seeing them surrounded, Han Ya and Sui Rou were finally serious. They pulled out their weapons and protected the two behind them. Though Hei Anjing didn't need any protection, An Yuan, this blind little one, had to be protected well or Han Ya would definitely go insane. One held a metal spear in his hand while the other held a twin dagger in her hands.

They were ready to fight any time. Hei Anjing was still smiling with a nonchalant aura around him and was even sipping a cup of milk tea that came out of nowhere. Beside him, An Yuan was holding some talismans and was ready to support the two if they had engaged in the fight.

The Boss NPC was coming so strongly towards them when suddenly they saw her flinch as she looked in horror looking at the two people among the human players. Her eyes were swimming around as she recognized Han Ya and Hei Anjing within the group.

Her thought had gone awry, 'Isn't that the human whom the Big Boss had taken over!? There's an undead knight boss inside that body!? Can I even defeat him?'

Plus that mesmerizing devil is here too. I saw him laughing so happily when he dismembered my minions and my clone. Shit?! Why is this devil still here?! QAQ QAQ wuwuwu~ Mommy I'm scared.'

Under the gaze of the players, they witnessed the Boss NPC of the move stepping away from the human players and suddenly fleeing as if something is there to kill her. She even forgot to order her minions to escape with her.

Hei Anjing spoke, "Hey~ stop wasting time. Kill her minions and then... We can hint for her afterward ~ it is not like she can escape this Boss Area as she is connected to this place herself."

The three finally made their move upon hearing those words. The mid-boss monsters had all jumped on them from all sides. Han Ya and Sui Rou attacked the ones closest to them while An Yuan based his throwing talismans at the dots showing his enemies in his virtual maps. His movements were a bit clumsy as he could see his surroundings and even where he was stepping on but Hei Anjing who was standing behind him was helping him avoid stepping on rocks or cracks on the floor.

He doesn't need to touch him. He could just use his strings to lightly pull An Yuan whenever he is about to trip, about to get hit, or about to get hit by something. Among them, the most leisurely one is Hei Anjing who promised to leave the rest of the monsters to these three. He doesn't lack gold coins after all. His husband can give him any time. novεlusb/C\o\M

Hei Anjing would sometimes help An Yuan steal a kill.

"Throw a thunder talisman at 3 o'clock."

An Yuan would really throw one in that direction and followed by it is the sound of monsters screaming before their deaths.

GYyaaa~ A monster creature was electrified to death

"Another purification talisman at 10 o'clock."

KYAaa~ A ghost monster turned to ashes after getting purified by the Holy element inside the talisman.

"Use a fire talisman. Throw it in front of you."

AAHHHHH~ Another monster was hit by a set of fireballs instantly getting burned to death.

Hei Anjing said, "Oh~ not bad. Come back here. Leave the rest to Xiao Han and Sui Rou. There's only a bit left among the monster's side anyway~"

"Okay!" responded An Yuan and looked into his virtual map to look for the direction where Hei Anjing is. He noticed that Player Hei had never moved from where he was right from the beginning.

"Sir Hei, you're so amazing. How can you see the monsters in the darkness?" asked An Yuan as he finally stood beside Hei Anjing.

Hei Anjing spoke, "Haha~ what do you mean it's dark? Sui Rou had thrown some light orbs on the ceiling before the fight."

"Eh? REALLY?"

"Yes! This place is so dark. It's hard to fight without a source of light plus the floor is a bit slippery." said Hei Anjing.

The two were so relaxed having a conversation at the corner. Meanwhile, Han Ya was waving and swinging his spear at every monster who could hit him. One swing per one head. His movements were so swift that it is hard for an ordinary person or creature to dodge his attacks.

Sui Rou, the black widow is not bad as well. Her figure would sometimes blend with the monster's shadow and instantly appear behind them. Before the enemy could react a pair of daggers would be coming down towards them and their throats would be sliced open. Only a fountain of blood would splurt from the open wound before the monsters died.

But Sui Rou and Han Ya can only target monsters with physical bodies which is why Hei Anjing had helped An Yuan kill all the ghostly creatures in the field. His purification talismans are the most useful when it comes to fighting ghosts.

As expected, it didn't take a while for the group of monsters to be eliminated by the players. Han Ya and Sui Rou didn't even break a sweat with all those exercises. Now they could move on and look for the NPC boss that had run away.

As soon as the monsters were all killed the silence within that dark room had returned. Only the footsteps and voices of the human players echo within.

Manager Tian spoke, [Sigh~ finally cleaned! Even if their numbers are not much, they are still mid-level bosses.]

[Aren't they this Asylum's Mental Patients?] said, Manager Gui.

Manager Gou, [Anyway we still need to look for the boss to be able to leave this place. Why did she even run away before?]

Then all the managers couldn't help but turn around and sneak peek at Hei Anjing who was looking around as if visiting a haunted house and enjoying the show.

[Must be because of him.]

[It is definitely him.]

[Didn't he just cut out the Boss NPC clone to pieces!? No wonder the Boss would flee.]

They were walking around the area looking for the boss NPC. They can only hear their footsteps as none of them are talking. But as much as they walk the echoes of their steps can be heard all around them. But for some reason, there is an extra footstep coming from behind.

Han Ya had been holding An Yuan's hand as they walked. As long as they need to move forward he would never help An Yuan on the way. Among them, the professor had the sharpest hearing. This is a skill he was born with.

TAP. TAP. TAP. TAP.

TAP. TAP. TAP. TAP. TAP.

TAP. TAP. TAP. TAP. TAP.

An Yuan suddenly stopped walking which made Han Ya halt his strides as well.

Han Ya asked, "What's wrong, A'Yuan?"

"There... There's another footstep following us from behind." answered An Yuan.

Hearing this Han Ya and Sui Rou both turned around and only saw a yawning Hei Anjing on the rear. He looks a bit out of it but they could see a shadowy figure from behind him.

Hei Anjing asked, "What's wrong, why did you stop walking?"

Everyone was stunned to see a pair of white hands trying to cover Hei Anjing's eyes but as if the latter could not see it, he was looking at them with languid eyes.

"What is it? Is there something behind me?" asked Hei Anjing about turning around.

Sui Rou yelled, "No! Don't turn around!"

"Hm?" but Hei Anjing pretended not to hear and turned around but saw nothing behind him.

TAP. TAP. TAP. TAP. TAP.

An Yuan spoke once again, "There is a footstep again but not from the rear anymore. It's coming from the right side."

"Oh~ So that's what you mean by a pair of hands," said Hei Anjing his tone is as lighthearted as always.

Then they all turned around to look in the direction of Sui Rou. They were stunned to see her standing there dazed. A pair of white hands had covered her eyes but she wasn't moving at all. Seeing this Han Ya had pulled An Yuan away and pushed him towards Hei Anjing's direction.

"Ow!"

"Woa~ Careful."

The first one is An Yuan who was pushed and the second one is Hei Anjing who helped him up.

Then can only watch as Han Ya attacks the black figure behind Sui Rou but it flashes away before his spear could stab it.

SWOOSH~

Han Ya said, "It escaped."

Hei Anjing spoke, "Arara~ look at Sui Rou her eyes are weird ba~"

Then everyone witnessed Sui Rou suddenly opening her eyes. But her eyes were unlike humans. It was pure black all over and there was a strange smile on her face. She then started attacking the weakest among the group which is An Yuan.

SHAAA~

Obviously, there is something wrong with Sui Rou.

Chapter 504 - 11.30 First Green Star Haunted Asylum \(19\)

Something had gone wrong with Sui Rou. With her eyes completely black, she held her daggers intending to harm An Yuan who was in front of Hei Anjing. She looks like someone who has lost her mind. Han Ya immediately moved to block the attack for An Yuan.

His spear parried the daggers that were about to reach An Yuan and suddenly kicked Sui Rou away from them. She flew in a distance but her fall was stopped as she spread her hands and legs, Sui Rou started moving in four legs.

Han Ya looked at Hei Anjing and said, "Please protect A'Yuan." He didn't even hear a reply as he started attacking Sui Rou again.

The managers were all panicking at this moment, especially Manager Gou who was bound to Player Sui Rou.

Manager Gou, [Rourou!? What happened to you!?]

Manager Gui, [I think that shadow ghost just now did something to her.]

[Is she possessed then?!] asked Manager Tian.

System Yang spoke, [She is indeed possessed. But why would a Veteran Player like her be so careless that she would lower her guard in this place?]

Manager Gou asked, [Hey! My player is still alive right!!? Right!!!?]

[For now at least, but if her mind gets completely corroded then... It would be too late for her. We need a light magic spell to wake her up.] said, System Yang.

Manager Gou, [Light Magic Spell? But those under the skill category are too expensive.]

[There is no need to buy skills. We can just use a one-time light spell scroll or something.] said Manager Gui.

Manager Tian was already looking at the store and said, [Found the least expensive one. A holy light ordinary class 500 gold coins. Would this be enough?]

System Yang looked at his lord and asked, [Master, should we buy it?]

Hei Anjing replied, "Sure. While you're at it buy me some popcorn and cola. All large."

[As you wish.]

Then System Yang did as he was told. First bought the holy light scroll which he passed to the confused An Yuan and happily accepted the popcorn and cola. With a wave of his hand, a couch appeared out of nowhere. He sat on it even pulling the confused blind one beside him and started munching on popcorn.

Hei Anjing said to Han Ya who was fighting the possessed Sui Rou.

"Do your best, Xiao Han! We're rooting for you~"

Meanwhile, beside him, An Yuan asked, "Sir Hei, what did you just give me? Is Player Sui Rou really possessed?"

"Yes, she is now fighting with Han Ya. The one I gave you is a holy light scroll. It's a consumable item that is useful to remove a dark entity in one's body. In short, it's useful for possessed people~" explained Hei Anjing.

Upon hearing this Han Ya and An Yuan tacitly understood the situation. They looked at each other for a moment before Han Ya resumed fighting with the possessed Sui Rou.

An Yuan said, "Manager Tian I can't see please pass the scroll to Xiao Ya."

[Leave it to me!] said Manager Tian.

The little angel Manager had flown towards his player and passed the holy scroll which was almost thrown by Han Ya upon contact. As a former undead, this kind of spell made of light elements is the most deadly for him.

[Boss, don't throw it away. Those are expensive! Just open it before Player Sui Rou and she would wake up as long as what possessed her is gone.]

Han Ya with a dark expression on his face said, "Do you want me to disappear too?"

[Boss, that body is completely yours now. You wouldn't melt because holy magic would only be able to heal you but at the same time your soul is born in an abyss so curses and debuffs wouldn't be effective to you either.]

Han Ya frown, "The scent coming from this thing is making me puke."

[Just do it, boss. Player Hei is so bored that he already brought out the popcorn and treats everything as a play. Worse of it, he pulled your beloved to sit with him.]

"What!?" exclaimed Han Ya and looked around to see two people on the couch looking so comfy. Holding a large bucket of popcorn each and their area was even covered by a barrier made from a talisman. This way no matter how much he and Sui Rou fought the two wouldn't get affected by them.

They could only do such things because Hei Anjing has a wealthy lover. He is not lacking in gold coins and he already said a word that he wouldn't be helping them fight the boss NPC but keep them alive at least.

Han Ya spoke, "Is he that bored?"

[Well Yes. Player An had to entertain him with things about science. To us managers, it feels like they were talking to something gibberish we couldn't understand. Do geniuses talk weirdly like that as if they are in their own world?

In the end, Gui Gui changes their topic and talks about what should be done after this movie is finished. Then Player An suggested we should go shopping afterward while waiting for Player Abyss to come to pick up his wife.

Then Player Hei said we might be able to go shopping in the city and suddenly said he would lend Player An some gold coins so he could buy his sense of sight as soon as possible. Since things would be more fun when we get out of here.]

Han Ya asked, "What does he mean by that?"

[This... I don't know...]

Han Ya was once again attacked by the possessed Sui Rou. They could already see her climbing on the ceiling of the room like a spider just when she is about to rotate her head 360 degrees. Han Ya pulled open the scroll and blinding light came out from it.

Sui Rou or whatever is possessing her screamed under the light. They saw a shadowy figure coming out of her body. There was also a shriek coming from her. Only when the shadow had faded Sui Rou had taken back her body's control. She fell from the ceiling unable to move and Han Ya had to catch her midway to lessen her fall. In the end, this ungentlemanly monster in the human body let go of her and she still fell on the muddy ground.

"Argh~ finally got my body back. Un, Than..." before she could complete her words Han Ya had retracted his hands and Sui Rou still fell.

BAM!

"Ouch! BASTARD! What's wrong with you?!" complained Sui Rou only to see a disgusted expression on Han Ya's face as if he had touched something unclean.

No one would be able to stop this man from going to bathe if there were at this moment. He truly treated Sui Rou this supposed to be a gorgeous beauty not different from a germ.

"Tsk! What the hell did you make me touch!" said Han Ya to his manager.

[B-But she would die if she had fallen in that height and no one would help the boss to kill the NPC boss.] novelusbdotC\o\M

Manager Tian was shrinking himself as he got bellowed by this hidden big boss. Obviously, as a former undead, he hated humans and disdained touching them. The only exception is An Yuan.

Han Ya said, "You think I can't kill a mere woman!?" He is talking about the Boss NPC of this Movie.

[But boss you are (a) weak (human) right now.]

Han Ya didn't deny his manager's words as he himself knew that his strengths were greatly lessened and after giving An Yuan his mark his black mist had been sealed inside of him. A line in his head was saying he must unlock his qi first to be able to unlock his other skills. Right now, except for his inhuman strength and speed, he is no different from a human being.

"If you are awake, let's go kill the boss. That person is already so bored. If we still take our time he would definitely steal the NPC Boss from you. You also need to repay his holy light scroll that was used to save your ass." said Han Ya.

Sui Rou was a bit startled and looked around and indeed saw Hei Anjing already lying on the couch. Their eyes met for a moment only then did she realize that this person was hurrying her to make her move.

Just as when the two of them were about to look for the boss, a few talismans suddenly flew around the room and instantly lit up the whole area. Han Ya and Sui Rou both covered their eyes from the brightness as they heard a loud agonizing scream in the area.

SWISH. SWOOSH. SWISH.

SHRIEKKKSSS~

Only when their eyes adjusted to the brightness could they finally see their surroundings. Few talismans are scattered in the room and a bowling-size fire torch appears afloat. It had illuminated the whole room and even saw the Boss NPC wiggling on the ground in pain. She is covering her eye and one could see crimson blood strolling from it.

She got instantly blinded by the sudden light. As she is a Boss NPC that hates light the most which is why her territory is underneath the ground.

AAAAAHHHHH~

Hei Anjing who was wearing 3D sunglasses was unaffected by light much more than the blind person beside him.

"Go... The Boss NPC is found. Get your manager to guide you and start your recording. Those two would hold back the Boss for 15 minutes for you until you completed your main mission." said Hei Anjing as he lightly pushed Professor An Yuan towards the direction where the Boss NPC is.

Then he gladly stretched his legs on the couch and restarted munching on the popcorn bucket in his hands. System Yang stayed by his side watching the other from a distance.

[Master. Are you not interested in this Boss NPC?]

Hei Anjing replied, "Nope. Too weak."

[That is also true. After all, this is a beginner stage game. But the insane mode in the massacre game field is different. In the original plot only Han Ya entered that place but this time even the protagonist shou is entering it. Would he be okay?]

"Don't look down on heaven's beloved sons. Sometimes their halo is too strong and would pass all hardship to another person. It just so happens that the only ones beside them are me and my husband. I wonder how much fun it is in there~" said Hei Anjing his deep blue irises were flashing with glints of silver and there's an unhidden mirth within the depths of it.

System Yang remained silent but his thoughts were the following:

'[That's right. It's been a while since the Master had seen blood and death. In the last world, he didn't do much fighting. His urges for destruction can no longer be suppressed by Lord Ye's existence. After all, he is the God of Destruction.]'

From the distance, Han Ya and Sui Rou were fighting with the enraged Boss NPC. The Boss NPC had lost her eyes because her greatest weakness was used against her. She is extremely weak against the light and that sudden explosion of luminosity had caught her in surprise and lost her sight.

She immediately fell into a rage and her attacks started to become fearless and stronger. Together with the buff of her territory, Han Ya and Sui Rou were thrown multiple times. Only Professor An Yuan who was covered in an invisibility cloak was not spotted by the boss and continued filming.

This invisibility prop was lent to him by Hei Anjing. This is one of the gifts he had received from his fans. He lent it to An Yuan to prevent the boss from seeing him but his teammates of course could see him. There are controllers that can be used to adjust the props' usability. Hei Anjing made it so only the Boss NPC is affected by it.

The two fighters of the group were now covered in wounds and bruises from parrying the attacks of the boss. They did not attack back with fatal attacks afraid they might kill it.

Sui Rou shouted, "Is it okay already?" she asked while looking in the direction of An Yuan.

Only when An Yuan had gestured an okay sign that Sui Rou had once again blended in the dark. Some of the torches in the area started disappearing. Their effect durations are almost used up after all. Seeing that they could stop holding back Han Ya finally stopped using his spear as a pole to block attacks. He started executing some spear techniques and stabbed the two arms and legs of the Boss NPC.

SHRIEKS!!!!

Han Ya yelled towards Sui Rou, "Do it now!!!"

A shadow moves past behind the badly injured monster and Sui Rou suddenly appears behind the Boss NPC. Before Boss NPC could react a pair of blade glints appeared before her eyes.

Sui Rou murmured, "Skill Activated. Assassination Technique - Chain Critical hit!"

GYAAAAAAHHHH~

Once the agonizing scream fades the Monster Boss had slowly faded and the remaining players heard the world announcement they'd been waiting for.

Ding! Ding! Ding!

{Congratulations to Players: Hei Anjing, An Yuan, Han Ya, and Sui Rou for completing the movie.}

A black fog surrounds them and suddenly all players disappear in the movie location they were in.

Game Mode: Beginner.?

Title: Gonjiam - Haunted Asylum

Type: Role Playing.?

State: Complete!

Surviving players: Four

Dead Players: Two

Please wait for a while for the calculations of the rewards for each player. Players are now able to return to Abyssal City.?

For the newbie players, Welcome to the Abyssal World. An infinite world of horror and thrills. In this world, everything can be bought with gold coins. If you have enough money you can get anything you want.}

As soon as Han Ya and Sui Rou killed the NPC Boss the Movie had finally reached an end. The world announcement was heard by all players in the game mode and all the viewers on the player's streaming platforms. The movie venue started to distort and the whole place was covered in black fog. Before the players could react they were teleported to some other place instead.

All four of them were transported to the Central Game Station where most players would go to choose what game they would be playing next. The Game Station is separated into levels: Beginners or Newbies would appear in the Green Zone. Expert Gamers would appear in Blue Zone and Veterans in Red Zone. Only the top 10 can enter the Black Zone.

Sui Rou who is one of the Top 10 appeared in the Black Zone. She immediately got separated from the other three who are classified as Newbie Players.

Groggily opening her eyes, Sui Rou found herself in her private game room in the Black Zone. She could still feel some remnant curse debuff on her after getting possessed.

"Manager Gou, redeem a bottle of Holy spring water for me and give me the rundown of my rewards"

[Sure thing! Here you go, Rourou.]

A bottle of water emitting a golden light appeared out of nowhere. Sui Rou didn't waste any more time and drank some. The sound of sizzling comes from her body as a black mist comes out from her. Only then did she feel that the heaviness in her body faded. She even pukes some black matter. The spring water with holy elements cost 300 gold coins a bottle. It can be used for purification for curses and poison. But it is only useful for low-level curses and debuffs.

Sui Rou spoke, "I did not expect to be the only one to fall in possession. Though I knew that Player Hei and Player Han wouldn't get possessed, who would have thought I would be the one to fall instead of a blind man. That Player An isn't an ordinary player at all. He had never shown fear in the presence of Player Hei."

Manager Gou said, [Maybe because he can't see?]

"Stupid. You saw how Player Hei looks. Anyone who saw him would be fascinated at first instead of fearing him. I'm talking about that unapproachable and cold aura on him. You don't need to see as long as you can feel it. Blind people were even more sensitive towards those things." said Sui Rou.

[But he can't even see! How could he have judged him?]

"I noticed that he had a special skill which wasn't too noticeable," said Sui Rou as she pointed to her ears. "Player An's sense of hearing is top-notch. Except for him, no one was able to catch the footsteps of that shadowy figure that took possession of my body. Even Player Han Ya who was beside him at that time didn't notice. Though I am not sure about Player Hei. He had been treating everything as entertainment the whole time."

[Rourou, do you think it's a skill?]

"He is a newbie. There is no way he could buy a skill book as those were so expensive. His hearing must be something he is born with." said Sui Rou. *"Sigh* for now there is nothing we could do. Manager Gou please tally my rewards."*

[Your rewards this time are too little. But since it's a beginner mode I guess that's normal.]

Main mission completed. 3000 gold coins plus a skill book. Skill Book random ticket.

Side missions:

You had killed 50 monsters in the movie. Reward: 500 gold coins.

You had killed two players. Reward - 200 gold coins.

You have killed the Boss NPC. Reward 1000 gold coins.

Accumulated rewards: 4700 gold coins and 1 skill book random ticket.

Congratulations on completing Gonjiam: Haunted Asylum, a Role-playing game.

You have failed to complete the hidden mission: Perfect Movie.

Penalty: Half of the rewards. novelusBdotc\o\M

Total rewards: 2000 gold coins and Skill Book Ticket random.

The extra 700 gold coins were taken off to keep the ticket rewards.]

Sui Rou was a bit disappointed with the ending but it is better than falling to the punishment massacre mode which is like hell to the players.

[So many were taken off. Rourou~]

"It is better than failing the main mission. I do not want to enter the massacre mode during this time," said Sui Rou.

[Right. Your injuries from the last Black Game haven't completely healed yet. What do you want to do now? Rest for a while?]

Sui Rou nods, "Yes. Let me rest for three days. By the way, what happened to those guys?"

KNOCK. KNOCK. KNOCK.

Her words were cut off when she heard someone knocking in her game room. There was a serious expression on her face as she pulled out her dagger. His vigilance was put on the highest as she was currently in the Black zone. This is after all the most dangerous place in the whole Abyssal game station.

Sui Rou whispered, "Manager Gou, please check who it is?"

[Let me check. Hm? Eh!!! Fuck! Why is this bigshot here! Damn!]

"Who is it?!" asked Sui Rou. Even she was frightened by her manager's words after all in the whole top 10 list. She is ranked 5th. Only 4 are ahead of her and three are stronger than her. The fourth-ranked player had as much strength as she had.

[I-It's that person! IT'S LORD ABYSS!]

"Abyss?! Why is he here!?" said Sui Rou.

Another round of knocking was heard and this time a husky and deep voice can be heard beyond the door.

Knock. Knock.

Abyss said, "I know you're in there. Open the door and pay for the skill scroll my wife bought for you. It's 500 gold coins."

[Skill Scroll? Wife??]

Only then did they remember the scene between this man and Player Hei. Because his personality is too different from his ruthless reputation from before, these two had unconsciously erased that scene in their heads. They could still recall this cold-faced man hugging Player Hei Anjing looking so reluctant to let go of him.

Abyss's voice was once again heard outside the room.

"Open the door and pay. I still need to look for my wife after."

Only then did Sui Rou open the door. As soon as she pulled the door open, the overly refined and handsome face of Lou Yan appeared before her. His thin lips were pursed in a horizontal line. His downcasted eyelids made him look fierce yet lazy but those pairs of monotonous irises can give one a chill in the spine when meeting them.

Having two different eye colors is rare even in reality but this uniqueness just made Lou Yan look more mysterious. Paired with his dangerous aura and sharp gaze everyone could see that he isn't a person to get involved with unless one wants to die. Sui Rou stretched a trembling hand and gave the 500 gold coins she owes.

Sui Rou said, "H-Here"

As soon as he took back the coins, Yue took charge of it and he left without saying another word. His usual comrade the top 2, Reaper, was not with him. She only overheard them talking.

Lou Yan spoke, "Yue, Where's my wife?"

[Lord Hei had just appeared in the green zone. They've just come out like Player Sui Rou just now. Actually, the lord doesn't need to go to the Green Zone at all. You had signed the shared contract with Lord Hei and would definitely be pulled in all his games.]

"No more talk. I'm going there because I want to see him regardless. By the way, where is Reaper?" asked Lou Yan, he finally noticed that his direct subordinate was missing.

[The reaper had gone out to look for his partner. They would be joining the lord in the next game and would like to sign the same contract with the rest of the team.]

Lou Yan said, "He had a lover? Don't tell me it's that mad doctor from before?"

[It is him.]

"Whatever. As long as I can see my wife. Teleport me now, Yue."

[As you wish, My lord.]

Only then did the figure of Lou Yan disappear in the black zone together with System Yue. Sui Rou and the other players in the Black Zone were shocked to see the biggest boss of their zone leaving this place to go to the lowest zone.

Ranked 3rd player, Miss Mystic asked, "What did I just hear? Wife!? That demon has a wife!?! Black Widow! Share the gossip!"

Ranked 4th player, Jackal spoke, "Who is blind enough to marry that demon???"

"Hey! Jackal~ watch your words. What if the demon lord heard about it and you get beat up again~" said the ranked 6th player known as Magician.

Butcher, the 7th ranked player, spoke, "Hmp! If his wife is a mere Green Zone player would he have to protect her all the time!? How useless!"

"It is not her. I've seen the live stream of his so-called wife. It's a man." said the ranked 8th player, Dreamer.

A disgusted look appeared on the 9th ranked female player, Foxy, and said, "Fuck! Gays!! Don't us ladies have the right to have handsome men!!!"

"What are you complaining about? Your first crush is that Reaper but he is interested in a male doctor in the Red Zone then you change target to the big boss. In the end, he is also a married man. How lucky of you~ hahaha." said the 10th player known as Lucky.

Finally, the 5th ranked player I, Black Widow finally spoke and said, "You haven't seen his wife yet? Be careful not to look down on him too much or you'll lose your heads! Hmp!" She then slammed closed his game room's door leaving a group of speechless and curious people outside.

Everyone thinks as one: 'For real!?!'

---

On the other hand at the Green Zone's Game Station. Players Hei Anjing, Han Ya, and An Yuan had suddenly appeared in the open station together with the other newbie players. But unlike the other new players, they were unexpectedly unharmed except for some dust on them. Among the three only Hei Anjing was completely clean from head to toe. It is as if he was just here for a vacation even holding a large cup of cola in his hand currently sipping it.

Slurps~

Their surroundings were full of players. There are so many players surrounding the central station wanting to fish for fresh blood to join their agencies. But most of the players that had appeared in the center were either half dead. Missing an arm, lost an eye or ear and some even arrived dead.

Only a few rare and capable players like Han Ya and the rest caught everyone's attention. While looking around the sounds of painful cries and groans can be heard all over the place but despite that Hei Anjing and the rest were expressionless at this scene.

Hei Anjing spoke, "So what should we do next?"

Slurps~

He was asking everyone on the team but his tone is so relaxed as if asking what is for dinner tonight kind of question. His devil may care attitude caught everyone's attention. Now all eyes had fallen on their group. Whether those gazes are full of malice, interest, or curiosity, all of them were staring at their small group of three.

System Yang spoke, [For now, let's tally the rewards for the whole group and individually. After that, the other managers can sign or offer whatever contract they need with their players. My Master and I had already finished all those things.]

[Agreed. That is indeed necessary] said Manager Gui.

Manager Tian spoke, [Then let me tally the rewards for now.]

Chapter 506 - 11.32 First Green Star Game Station \(2\)

Green Zone, Central Game Station.

The sounds of groaning and moaning can be heard at the game station. Players who are obviously new were scattered on the floor either badly injured, missing a limb, or came out of the beginner game mode as a corpse.

'Ugh~ Ha! Fuck! Where is this place!?' '!

'Someone help me! I lost my arm to a monster!!'

'Where is this!? Where the hell am I!? This is not real. NOT REAL!?'

'I don't like this! What is happening!? Where am I?'

'You...!! Are the guys that kidnapped me? Get me back home! I will pay you... Thousands? Millions!? I have money!!'

'Wuwuwu~ Mommy, I want to go home~'

The ones speaking above were new players who couldn't believe the existence of the Abyssal World. They might have been lucky and survived their beginner mode games. But this doesn't mean they believe what is happening right now. Most of them were in denial of the truth before them.

Meanwhile, the other players who were watching were either recruiters from the other game zone or old batched players in the green zone. They were jeering at the reactions of these newbies.

'Pfft! These newbies are hilarious! He said he will pay millions. Does he think RMB or yuan is the useful currency here?'

'Don't laugh. They are new. What would they know about this world?'

'What a goody-good man! Protecting these kinds of newbies is a waste of time...'

'Look most of them are badly injured and this is only beginner mode games. How would they survive in a world like this if they are this weak?'

'As if you weren't weak like them in the first place! Didn't you also get support from the strong!?'

'You!?!? What did you say!?'

'Enough fighting. Look for some decent players to recruit. Lost limbs can be regained with regeneration pills. Aren't those distributed from your agencies!?'

'As expected most of them were abandoned by their temporary managers ha.'

'What can they do? Those managers only stand at the side of the strong and talented. But it seems that in this batch there is no one...'

As soon as Hei Anjing, Han Ya, and An Yuan appeared at the central station within the safest zone in the whole Abyssal City, everyone couldn't help but compare them with the other newbie players.

'Hey! Look at that small group. Fuck! They don't have any injuries at all! Only some dust and mud on their clothes. Wait! Is one of them blind? Look at that man who carries a spear, his blade is soaked in monster's blood.'

'Idiot what are you looking at!? The one behind. Look. He... He... Is he a human!? S-So gorgeous... His clothes look clean from the top and below as if he didn't fight at all.'

'Shit! Did you see his face!? This is the first time in my life that I feel like I'm bent!'

'Is he a male!? With that appearance!?! No fucking way!'

'Wait! Look at his collar bones! There's a marking!!! A black and red shade!? What is a monster or a player!?!'

'Two colors! It might be a player. It was red and black. Means fire and darkness elements? Is there a ranked player who used those elements?'

'I don't know. I haven't met those rankers in my life.'

'What are you guys looking at!? Contact the seniors! These guys are the strongest newbies!!'

A commotion and chaos are happening around them but Hei Anjing and the rest don't seem to care at all. They were waiting for Manager Tian to announce their rewards. They are under the shared contract, after all, their rewards would be tallied as a group.

Congratulations! New Players Hei Anjing, An Yuan, and Han Ya. Welcome to the Abyssal World!!!]

All the managers and the other players who heard their rewards were rendered speechless, especially the one to awaken a bloodline. Bloodlines are extremely expensive and only the players in Black Zone and some in Red Zone have an Awakened bloodline.

[DAMN! FOR REAL!?!] exclaimed the little angel.

Manager Gui was also stunned, [They were given a bloodline each. How is this possible!? Isn't this a beginner mode game?]

[I've contacted the world consciousness and they said. Player Hei Anjing had accidentally ripped the mirror dimension to rest in the Abyssal Hospital while in the game. This is something no one had done before. When Player Han and Player An were pulled in the Master's resting place you had been considered as someone like him who had escaped the game venue and returned to resume the game. The bloodline is a reward for being able to do such a thing.] explained System Yang.

Everyone looked at Hei Anjing with surprised expressions.

An Yuan asked, "Did Sir Hei do this intentionally?"

"No. I just want to look for a place with a clean bed and a bathroom. The original game venue is too dirty and doesn't have it so I just destroyed one of the mirrors and found a room to rest." replied Hei Anjing with a casual attitude.

The little devil and little angel managers were flabbergasted at this answer. This only means Player Hei had enough strength to destroy dimensional boundaries inside the game. He is a big cheat no... the strongest bug in the Abyssal world.

'[Monster! What the hell is this human!? He could destroy space boundaries!! His rewards are too abundant!! Shit! This is too unbelievable!]'

Hei Anjing glanced at An Yuan and said, "I will lend you 5,000 gold coins. Buy the sense of sight as soon as possible."

"O-Okay..." said An Yuan who received another 5,000 gold coins from Hei Anjing and had his Manager Gui buy the Sense of Sight for him. Then he noticed Han Ya quietly staring at the rewards panel with an ugly expression. He thought that the latter might be upset with such low rewards under his name.

But Han Ya was looking at the first sentence of the reward panel. His eyes were lingering in the main mission part. He wasn't upset with the total rewards he got. He is wealthy and now he is back in the city. His personal storage has returned to him. Except for some of his abilities locked, his weapons and armors were all intact. He can use it anytime. He had piles of gold coins in his storage so the little 4,000 gold coins he had received as rewards were nothing in his eyes.

He is now worried about a different thing. The main mission countdown was 2 of 4. This means Player Abyss was counted in the group mission task list which he didn't expect.

This could only mean that with him failing his main mission and Player Abyss not being inside the last game meant another main mission failure. 2 of 4, the requirement to avoid the Punishment mode is 3 of 4. This means everyone in their group would be pulled to the massacre insane mode as punishment.

When he saw Hei Anjing wearing a sly smile on his face, Han Ya realized that this human knew about this result. He couldn't help but become fierce as he tried to grab Hei Anjing's neck.

Han Ya bellowed, "You! You know about the Punishment Mode why did you ask A'Yuan to sign the shared group contract!?"

Professor An Yuan blocked his path and prevented him from hurting Hei Anjing. He knew that this person is not only powerful, his lover is even more dangerous than he is. Who is Lou Yan? Manager Gui had told him who he was. He is the strongest player in Abyssal World for newbies like them is like an ant fighting an elephant. noveU&b.c\o\M

An Yuan said, "Stop! Xiao Ya! What's wrong? Why are you angry at Sir Hei?"

"It is his fault! If we didn't sign that contract you wouldn't have to come to the punishment world with me!" said Han Ya.

"Punishment World? What do you mean? Didn't we complete the main missions?" asked Professor An Yuan in confusion.

Manager Gui felt something was wrong and checked the reward platform once again and panicked when he saw 2 of 4 main missions written on it.

[This is impossible! How can there only be two completed main missions!? Didn't you three complete your main mission?] asked Manager Gui.

System Yang spoke, [My master completed his. Your player has done it as well. This only leaves one person.]

All eyes had fallen on Han Ya. Even the Professor was shocked. The protagonist himself was avoiding his beloved's gaze.

An Yuan was in disbelief. He had never thought Han Ya would fail his main mission.

"Xiao Ya, what is your main mission?" asked An Yuan.

Han Ya didn't speak. "..."

Manager Gui grabbed Manager Tian and said, [Give us an answer!]

Manager Tian: (QAQ)

The thoughts of Manager Tian were in chaos. Thankfully, he and the boss had decided what made-up story was there to cover up this mission failure.

[We are the unlucky player among all the six. Player Han Ya was teleported directly inside the Boss NPC room. I know we are going to fail so I lend him some gold coins to buy a resurrection pill. After Player Han Ya was killed once after getting ambushed. The resurrection pill had revived Player Han Ya outside the Boss NPC. Our main mission was deemed a failure. We can only focus on the side mission to gain coins.] explained Manager Tian.

This little angel was quite an actor. He portrays a figure whose face had no other choice but to do that. Manager Tian thought this excuse was enough but Player Hei Anjing rolled his eyes at him and smiled like watching a play. Player An Yuan was silent, his eyes were closed as he was waiting for his new sense of sight to be adjusted to his body. But he was so silent and obviously did not believe Manager Tian's lie.

Instead, the Professor moved his face in Han Ya's direction and grabbed his hands. He then asked a question that startled everyone.

An Yuan asked, "Xiao Ya... Are you really a newbie player? Not a Veteran Player like Player Sui Rou?"

Han Ya didn't reply right away but a few memories of the original Han Ya flashed in his head and understood the real identity of the former.

At the sideline, Hei Anjing had brought out a fruit crepe he took from his dimension storage. Something his System Yang had made while he was napping.

[Master, I just found out that the original Han Ya used to be a Veteran Player of Abyssal World. He is a player who lives in the red zone. When he was having a vacation in reality to see his crush that accident happened. He didn't want to lose An Yuan and brought him into the Abyssal World as a newbie player. But the world consciousness had punished him by throwing him inside the boss room with sealed skills. He ended up dying and was replaced there by the undead knight who is the real protagonist gong of this world.]

Hei Anjing spoke, "No wonder~ and here I thought this would be enough to make him reveal his real identity to the protagonist shou. The Heavenly wills are so biased with their beloved children."

[Should we interfere, Master?]

"Forget about it. It would be more fun to watch for the protagonist shou to dig out the secrets of his fated lover~"

"By the way, where is that husband of mine?"

[He is on his way. He tried teleporting here but his heavenly laws were halting him as his actions were completely different from his original programmed movements and thought he is a bugged existence. Yue'er is using your authority to pressure them so it would take a while for them to come here. You might meet in the Punishment world instead.]

"Well~ that's also okay. Please prepare some ingredients from the dimensional space. I would be cooking sooner or later." said Hei Anjing as the little sun landed in his palm while System Yang's consciousness entered the dimensional world in his snowflake earring.

In front of him, Professor An Yuan is still confronting Han Ya who was staying quiet as he looked through the original's memories.. They look like a couple having a lover's quarrel.

Chapter 507 - 11.33 First Green Star Game Station \(3\)

An Yuan asked, "Xiao Ya, are you hiding something from me? Why can't you answer my question?"

"This... Can you promise me not to get angry?" said Han Ya. His cautious tone made An Yuan's fierceness subside.

An Yuan spoke, "Okay. I will decide to get angry or not after listening. You can confess now."

"I like you, A'Yuan." said Han Ya.

SILENCE~

He indeed confessed leaving everyone in astonishment. They were rendered speechless at this sight.

GASPED!

The audience reaction:

"Damn! He really confessed and it's straight to the point!"

Whistle* "Not a bad loverboy!!!"

"This batch of newbies are truly daring~ have they forgotten where they are?"

"Pfft! This is the first time I've seen someone confess their love surrounded by fatally injured people."

On the other hand beside them, Hei Anjing almost choked to death when the crepe he was about to swallow stopped at his throat.

Choke! COUGH! cough!

[Master!? Please drink water!]

Glug! GLUGGED!

Hei Anjing who freed himself from choking, "W-What's with this world's protagonist gong? Is there something wrong with his brain?"

[Master, you are too straightforward.]

"Who told him to confess his love? Isn't he being Interrogated by what identity he is hiding?" said Hei Anjing, a bit astonished.

As expected Professor An Yuan was dumbfounded when Han Ya suddenly confessed to him. He didn't know what to say and was completely speechless.

"Eh?"

Han Ya continued his words. He isn't like the original. He isn't timid to say what he wants and hates. He doesn't care about embarrassing himself as long he knew to himself what he wanted. Since the feelings, memories and Han Ya's life itself is already his then his obsession and passionate yearning for this man named An Yuan, he would never hide it like the original.

So he told him everything the original was hiding. With a serious expression on his face, his words look more believable than the original's casual teasing. According to his memories to gauge the attraction of An Yuan to him, he would love to joke around. Something like a half-hearted confession is frequent, light flirting is normal, etc. The original had done all this but since his actions seem to be a joke most of the time, An Yuan had treated all of his confession as a casual joke. noveluSbdotc\o\m

With a slight frown on the professor's face, he pinched Han Ya's arm and said, "Okay. Stop joking and just tell me what you want to say."

Han Ya held his hands and said, "I like you. I'm serious. I've been a veteran player from the red zone. Players from the red zone and above would be able to return in reality for a certain duration as long as you have enough accomplishments and gold coins."

"Are you serious?" asked An Yuan in disbelief.

"Our first meeting at the cafe. That time I had lost all hope to live. I used to have a team. We were known and called 'Return', our group channel is quite powerful. You could say that we are famous enough to be compared to the ranked players in the black zone. But all dreams had to end.

My former teammates had been massacred in the punishment mode and only I was able to survive. After escaping the punishment mode I've used my remaining gold coin to return to a reality where I was planning to end my life. But that day you saved me and since then I would return to reality frequently just to watch you from a distance but you would always spot me.

After that day I've done everything in my abilities to gather enough gold coins so I could frequently return to reality to see you. Those days were short yet it was peaceful and I was greedy for it. Spending too much time, in reality, made me greedy for it and I wish I could stay longer by your side.

And so on that day of the Olympiad Competition, I was planning to say goodbye to you as I wanted to be promoted to the Black Zone. If I become a black zone player, I would be given the special privilege to return to reality 5 months per year.

But who would have thought that you would have an accident that day." storied Han Ya.

Professor An Yuan asked, "Aren't you in the car that day?" he asked with a trembling voice.

"I wasn't. I was waiting for you at the competition venue only to receive a message from A'Tian that you had died in a car accident," said Han Ya.

An Yuan asked with ragged breathing as he realized something, "T-T-Then are you... One who..."

"What you are thinking is right. I didn't want you to die so... I..." Han Ya's words were left incomplete as they suddenly heard a world announcement.

{Shared Channel Group, 'Unnamed', had deemed to fail to complete the main missions requirement and completed only 2 of 4 main missions.

You will be pulled into the punishment mode for this failure. You have 3 hours to prepare.

Countdown now starting.

2 hours, 60 minutes, and 59 seconds.

2 hours, 60 minutes, and 58 seconds.

2 hours, 60 minutes, and 57 seconds.

2 hours, 60 minutes and....}

The countdown was still ongoing when their group of three was suddenly pulled into the standby white room for preparations. When all three of them had opened their eyes, a world of pure white had surrounded them from all angles.

Even An Yuan who just got his sense of sight back was confused and thought that he is still blind.

An Yuan said, "All white. Or am I dreaming? Am I still blind?"

"No. Look at me. Do you see me?"

said Han Ya as he pulled the professor's arm to make him face himself.

An Yuan was welcomed with the familiar face of Han Ya. But unlike before the friendly aura and gentle demeanor he used to have is replaced with arrogance and indifference yet those gold eyes were tenderly looking at him.

Han Ya asked, "Can you finally see me now?"

"Un!"

The professor dazedly nods his head. He was staring at Han Ya's expressionless yet good-looking face. Short yet silky light blonde hair that glitters under the sunlight. Slightly angular yet a bit European features. Those phoenix-shaped eyes were a cheat. It made him look more tantalizing and hard to forget.

This man is obviously half Asian and half foreign with a more prominent Asian bloodline but his height and features are definitely foreign. Plus that arrogance to look down on anything in this world made him even more handsome paired with golden orbs that look holy like those angels written in the books.

If he had returned in reality, most people regardless of female or males would definitely fall for this type of prince-like face. He had the opposite attractiveness that Player Abyss possesses. If Player Lou Yan had a dangerous aura and perfect features like an exotic yet deadly poppy flower then Han Ya is arrogant yet noble like a purple gladiolus flower.

Han Ya is like a proud being that shouldn't be chained to my side. I'm not worthy. After all, I am just an ordinary person who only knows how to teach. Someone among the regulars, who would never be someone like Hei Anjing who is unhindered by anything and would do everything he wanted to achieve, regardless of reason or reality.

So An Yuan could give away a smile even if his real feeling is hidden behind it.

"I can see you, Xiao Ya," said An Yuan smiling

But for Han Ya, this kind of smile from the person he likes is too painful to see. He had to pull this person within his embrace to keep him by his side.

Seeing his reaction, An Yuan could only sigh and lightly pat Han Ya's back as if comforting him.

Only he heard Han Ya whisper to his ears, "I will wait for you to accept me. So let me stay by your side, A'Yuan."

The magnetic yet low-toned voice of Han ya lingers near An Yuan's ears leaving a tickling feeling making him giddy. He had totally forgotten that Han Ya hadn't completely told him how he was brought here as they had a more urgent situation at the moment.

It was until Hei Anjing's voice brought them to the reality that they remembered the penalty.

Hei Anjing spoke, "I do not mind you two flirting and I am not jealous! About it. Hmp! But unless you want to enter the world of Punishment without any preparations then you may continue."

[Master, are you envious of them?]

Gritting his teeth in anger, Hei Anjing replied, "I. Am. Not!"

Seeing his lord's about to lose his temper no longer teases him. System Yang knew that his lord must be missing his husband at this moment. Well, they would be meeting inside the game anyway, though it might take time for them to meet.

Hei Anjing could only absorb the energy inside the bloodline crystal. Since he had no other choice to entertain himself, he chose to try this thing to know whatever bloodline he could awaken. He sat in the lotus form and closed his eyes using his qi to look through the crystal.

Seeing Hei Anjing's actions, Han Ya and An Yuan finally recalled that special prize to open a bloodline suitable for them. The two followed Hei Anjing's lead and used the bloodline crystal as well.

Half an hour later, Hei Anjing opened his eyes. His deep blue eyes changed to silver and a cold white mist spread in the area. In a while, few snowflakes had hovered around him as if revering him for his existence.

[Isn't this... the Mo Clan's Bloodline? Does it even need to be awakened? I mean Master had longed to awaken your bloodline.]

"No. This is not a bloodline. It allows me to use my domain as a God while in my human soul form. This world is so weird. The Heavenly Laws of this world are treating me as their master. Did you do something, Yang?" asked Hei Anjing.

[I did not do anything of that sort, Master. Maybe because the highest authority of this world is Lord Ye's Soul fragment, Master who is his other half is also considered as their other master.]

"Possible. With this, I can at least use my domain even without changing to my God Form. How about the two protagonists?" asked Hei Anjing.

[They haven't woken up yet.]

The two moved from their original location and went to where An Yuan and Han Ya are. They haven't finished their awakening yet. Manager Gui and Manager Tian were startled because of their sudden arrival but they were curious at the same time.

Manager Gui spoke, [That was fast. Have you awakened a bloodline already?]

[Done already! What bloodline did you awaken?]

Hei Anjing and System Yang decided to lie. After all, this is a world that has no connection to Vearth. The Mo Bloodline is considered one of the most powerful bloodlines in the whole realm. It is a God-level bloodline.

With a sly smile on his face, Hei Anjing touched his ears, as expected System Yang understood his intention and helped him get that bloodline and alter it so his master could use it in this world.

Under the gazes of the little angel and little devil, some of Hei Anjing's features change as a small breeze of snowflakes surround him. His ears turn long like those high elves and his hair had turned completely white and become longer almost reaching the floor thankfully it braided with a few icicles to keep it together. Even his deep blue eyes turned completely silver. His features had changed from a heavenly beauty to a cold ethereal beauty that the elves possess.

[Ice Elves Bloodline!!!]

[That's a Royal grade bloodline!]

Exclaimed the two managers that handle Player An Yuan and Player Han Ya's needs.. They were astonished to see one awaken a royal grade bloodline on their first try.

Chapter 508 - 11.34 First Green Star Game Station \(4\)

Learning that Hei Anjing's first bloodline is that of a Royal grade shocked the other managers. Though the live streaming platform is only open inside the game, Manager Gui and Manager Tian guessed that once Player Hei's first bloodline was used, the viewers would definitely go crazy.

Manager Tian asked, [Is it your main bloodline or a sub-one?]

The one who answered the question is System Yang. As someone pretending to be a manager, he knew most of the information about the Abyssal World, especially things regarding the managerial society.

System Yang, [It's a sub bloodline. Do you think an ordinary bloodline crystal would awaken the main one?]

The little devil and little angel look so embarrassed when they've heard what System Yang had said. After all, he is indeed right that what was rewarded to them is an ordinary bloodline crystal.

Manager Tian whispered to Manager Gui beside him, [Just how high are his capabilities?! Royal Grade bloodline at first try with an ordinary bloodline crystal!!]

[How about you shut up and wait for our players to finish their bloodline awakening instead?! You keep on gossiping, don't you know what game mode we are going to enter? It's a massacre. Massacre Mode! It is even beyond the insane mode in the black zone game station.] scolded Manager Gui.

Well, he is so worried as he is the only ordinary human in the team. Han ya is a big boss who has taken over a human vessel. This game mode wouldn't hold him down even though he had restrictions as being in a human vessel.

The couple Player Hei Anjing and his lover Player Lou Yan are both insane players. One enjoys blood and death while the other is ruthless and aloof. Would they be afraid in that hellish game mode? No! They would only enjoy it.

Manager Gui murmured, [Tsk! My player is like a baby cub in a flock of aggressive beasts.]

System Yang approached Manager Gui and transferred another 5,000 gold coins.

[What is this for?] asked Manager Gui.

System Yang replied, [Master said to use it well for the preparation of your player, after all he is the most venerable one among the team members. You can repay it by installment or whenever you have money. There are no problems with interest. Master doesn't even care about such little money.]

After saying his part he floated back to his master who had returned to his human form. They saw Hei Anjing had changed his clothes to a huge black sweater with long bunny ears and a short underneath revealing his long and slender white legs making him look adorable and sexy at the same time. There's that usual pillow in his embrace, one with the face of the Evil God.

In this world, Hei Anjing acts like a childish character. He is always like this whenever he wants to play around. But as usual, he doesn't have any weapons at hand but instead black elastic gloves that cover his whole hand.

Manager Tian asked, [Does he not need any weapons?]

[I've just noticed. For a few times, he had touched his black hanging snowflake earring whenever he wanted to eat something. Then it would appear in thin air as if he wished for it. I thought it was his manager providing those things but just now when Manager Yang had spoken to us I noticed him touch his earring and that pillow in his embrace appeared out of nowhere.] said, Manager Gui.

Manager Tian was astonished, [A storage tool! But aren't those rare?]

[Might be given by his lover. Isn't his man the strongest player in this world?]

[That might be true but... When I first saw him in the last game he... He is already wearing that earring. Or did I remember it wrong?]

The two weren't able to continue their conversation as their players started to wake up one by one. The second one to finish his awakening is Han Ya. As soon as he opened his eyes his first priority was to look for An Yuan. Seeing his beloved seating beside him his fierce expression instantly fades.

His manager, the little angel hesitantly approached his player. This person is their former superior after all, even if his body had changed he is still that strongest undead knight in the Abyssal World.

[B-Boss... how is it? What bloodline did you awaken?] asked Manager Tian in a servile manner.

Han Ya moved his head to look at his own manager and didn't speak right away instead he just showed it directly. He closed his eyes for a while as a black mist appeared from the shadows surrounding him. His nails turn to black claws, his slightly bronze skin turns pale and a few black veins can be seen on it. When he opened his eyes his white pupils had turned to black making his aureate irises even more prominent surrounded by darkness.

The managers instantly recognized what bloodline this is. It is something very like this bigshot to awaken such a compatible bloodline.

Manager Tian happily exclaimed, [It's the Undead Bloodline! Its Special Passive skills are Fast Regeneration and poison! This is very good. For a vanguard player like the boss, this is the best bloodline under the darkness category.]

[This is a Rare Grade Bloodline. A special type with strong passive skills. Not bad at all. I wonder what would my little cub awake as?] said Manager Gui while waiting for his player to open his eyes.

Manager Tian comforted his friend and said, [He should be alright. No matter what bloodline he awakes there is the boss to protect him. Moreover, he regained his sense of sight. Nothing should be able to hinder him anymore from taking action.]

[I hope so...] said Manager Gui.

They waited for a while and two hours passed when An Yuan opened his eyes. There is a bewildered expression on his face as if he is confused about something.

Manager Gui's eyes floated towards An Yuan and asked, [What bloodline did you awaken, An?]

The Professor didn't know how to explain. So he honestly told them what he had experienced.

"I do not know the difference of our awakening but when I used that crystal I suddenly opened my eyes in a huge library with a different language. There's a weird old man in an ancient robe inside the library.

I was told to start reading and just continue reading until I finished a whole shelf of unknown books. There is too much knowledge inside the head which I couldn't explain yet could understand. " stori ed An Yuan as he kept looking around at everyone.

His gaze would stay at Han Ya and Hei Anjing the most and he had a disbelieving expression painted on his face.

An Yuan looked at his manager and saw a different figure than his cute furball. He can see him having black bat wings on his back and a black horn on his head plus he is extremely sultry.

"Gui Gui. I can see bat wings, a tail, and horns on your head with a human figure. He looks so much like you if I ever imagine you as a human. Looking like a seductress, like an incubus!" said An Yuan with big eyes. He was completely interested in such a piece of new knowledge.

An Yuan didn't notice that almost everyone had backed away from him when he said those words.

Manager Tian couldn't stop cursing as he flew around like a mad ball.

[Fuck! Fuck! Dammit! This is impossible! That bloodline had gone extinct for hundreds of years! How come this human brat seems to be a descendant of those annoying old men!!!] yelled Manager Tian.

Han Ya also knew what his little angel meant and grabbed this pest-like manager and placed him in front of An Yuan.

"A'Yuan, how about this one? What do you see?" asked Han Ya.

Everyone watched as they noticed An Yuan fell in trance. They saw his violet irises flash with ancient runes. They couldn't stop their gasp when they witnessed this. Now they are sure what kind of bloodline An Yuan had awakened.

An Yuan finally saw another human figure before him. But unlike the incubus figure he had seen when looking at Manager Gui, there are white-feathered wings behind this man's back. Blonde hair and eyes as well as a golden halo on the top of his head.

"Wow~ This is the first time I'm seeing an Angel!" exclaimed An Yuan.

Manager Tian screamed, [What the hell!? You are really an Ancient Human descendant!!! Fuck! Stop staring. I feel like you are stripping me naked and wanting to dissect me!]

The professor's manager, Gui, flew towards his player and said, [Hahaha~ it seems my little cub had awakened the rarest bloodline! Moreover, it is an extinct bloodline that would make everyone jealous~]

An Yuan said, "Eh? It's really a bloodline. What kind did I awaken Manager Gui?"

[You are amazing, An! The bloodline you've awakened is that of an Ancient Human. They have the passive skill called learning. Regardless of what race or what element, you are to use everything as long as the skill or technique isn't required by a bloodline you can use it.] explained Manager Gui.

The professor mumbled, "Ancient Human Bloodline...? Why did it go extinct?"

A crucial question was suddenly bestowed upon them. The answer to this question is an open secret and some even treated this as a taboo.

Manager Tian and Manager Gui hesitated in answering, for them this secret is taboo. But System Yang is different, he does not care about any taboos in this world. He is not an original resident after all.

[Ancient Human bloodline is the sole prerequisite to awaken divine grade bloodline called Ancient God. Awakening this divine bloodline meant the restrictions of this world would no longer be applicable for you and the possibility of enlightenment and ascension is not impossible.] said, System Yang.

Hei Anjing added with a smile, "It is an opportunity for a human to become a God. The Ancient Human bloodline that is. Many wanted to know their secret, that's why this bloodline ended up in extinction. But it seems that they didn't want to share the secrets of becoming Gods, instead it is an impossible method for someone not having the bloodline of an ancient one. It's not like you can share the huge library you have gone to, right?"

"I do not even know where it was," said An Yuan.

Everyone in the team is not dense. They now knew that the Ancient Race did not claim the shortcuts in becoming a God for themselves but instead they are unable to tell how they can help the others how to reach enlightenment. They might have explained it multiple times to the other races but for the other races, they might have thought that the Ancient race did not want to share the secrets and then war arrived which killed everyone in the Ancient race and ended up in extinction.

Manager Gui asked, [It is said that an Ancient bloodline had the skill to look through everything in this world. Which is why you could see mine and that stupid angel's true form. So there is something I wanted to ask, what do you see when you look at Player Han and Player Hei?]

Everyone was waiting for the professor's answer, especially Han Ya who could feel his heart beating so fast beyond his control. The fear of being hated by his beloved slowly eats his heart away. He was even hesitating in meeting An Yuan's eyes.

They only saw An Yuan shook his head and said,

"I cannot see anything. There is only a thick black mist when looking at A'Yuan and a thick blizzard when looking at Sir Hei. I couldn't even see their figures." said An Yuan.

Manager Tian spoke, [This might be the difference in strength? Power or Level? You need to get stronger to see through those who are stronger than you are. The only reason you are able to see through me and Gui Gui must be because our powers were completely restricted in this form so that you can see our real appearance.]

An Yuan spoke, "I saw ancient runes in your hands, legs, and neck. Are those restrictions?"

[Yes, it is. We are forbidden from helping players within the games regardless of the reason. Else we would be punished for it.] said Manager Gui.

An Yuan nods his head in understanding.. He then approached Han Ya and Hei Anjing to make their final preparations before they were pulled to the punishment game.

Chapter 509 - 11.35 First Green Star Punishment World: Hell \(1\)

The three hours preparations were finally finished. Player Han Ya, Player An Yuan, and Player Hei Anjing waited for the world consciousness who controlled the announcements for the game to arrive.

System Yang spoke, [Please be careful. According to what the past game records left under this Massacre game the possibility of getting split is the largest. Though some props might allow you to appear in the same game, that itself is a rarity. Listen to the advice of your own manager. In this game mode, you can only trust your teammates and manager.]

When all the players had entered the punishment world, each of them had split regardless of group. Each other woke up in a stone cage and their limbs are all chained with thick rusting metals.

An Yuan's point of view.

He held his throbbing head in pain. His every movement is accompanied by the sound of metals moving. Only then did the professor feel the heaviness on his arm. Thankfully only his hands were chained. The hand he used to hold his head had instantly fallen due to the weight of the chains.

An Yuan said, "Ugh~ so heavy. Manager Gui, I can't move my hands. Where are we?"

The little devil avatar floated before An Yuan and said, [Shss! You have company in this cell.]

"Cell? I'm in prison?" said An Yuan as he looked around.

But his eyes haven't fully adjusted to the darkness yet and he could only see blackness around him. He was a bit panicky with his movement but An Yuan was able to instantly calm his nervous heart. It only took 5 minutes for him to calm down and start thinking rationally. He used his all-knowing eyes which is one of his skills as an Awakened Ancient Human.

"A chain made of chromium. No ordinary humans can break this one unless they aren't human at all." said An Yuan.

[Is that what your eyes tell you? What do you wish to do now, An? Player Hei had lent you some gold coins. Most of your weapons and armor were given by your boyfriend...]

"Xiao Ya is not yet my boyfriend!" retorted An Yuan.

[So not yet huh? So when will you give him a title? Heh~]

With his cheeks blushing red in embarrassment, An Yuan complained, "Stop teasing me. Stop changing the topic! Ugh! Can you please buy that virtual mapping skill for me? Is the gold coin in my name enough?"

[Thankfully, Player Hei had lent you some. The Virtual Mapping Skill is 3,000 gold coins. It no longer has restrictions. You can use it anytime.]

"Then..." An Yuan's childish demeanor had completely disappeared as he looked straight at the darkness before him but under his ancient lineage's eyes, he could see through even within the darkness.

He can see a man on the opposite side of him sitting at the edge of the stone bed and like him, his wrist is chained on the wall with metal chains. This man's features are not bad. He looks gentle and friendly but unfortunately, the smile on his face is not from his heart but one used by professionals towards other people.

He is wearing formal long sleeves and gray pants plus a pair of leather shoes. What is eye-catching about this man is his white robes which only doctors wear and scrutinizing orange irises under his pair of glasses.

An Yuan, who is a professor in reality, had met this kind of person in a high-class circle. They would use a formal attitude towards strangers and treat everything as business. As long as there is merit in them, this person would not go against him.

"Shall we introduce ourselves before talking about what should be done next? Is that alright? I am An Yuan. A newbie player. A college professor is XXX University within the capital. I am currently under the contract of four players."

The doctor thought for a moment when he heard his name. He didn't follow up an introduction right away until he recognized An Yuan's name. It was only for a split second that An Yuan noticed this doctor's eyes widened for a bit as if he recognized his name.

"Pardon me. I was thinking for a moment. My name is Lan She. Surgeon. Solo Player from the Red Zone. You can call me Doctor Lan."

"Red Zone?"

[An, be careful. The one in front of you is a Veteran Player.]

Lan, She spoke, "Don't worry little devil. I wouldn't harm your player. I'm not the type to seek death. Anyone who had watched the Haunted Asylum Live stream knew that Player An here had signed a shared channel with Player Hei. Even though I am a Player from the red zone, fighting someone that powerful is impossible for me. My main specialty is healing, not fighting."

"Then can you work with me to escape this cave prison?" asked An Yuan.

Lan, She spoke, "I can help you remove the chains on your wrist but I suggest that you don't come out of this cave for a while."

"What's wrong outside the cave?" asked An Yuan.

Lan She before him stood up and with a glint of silver, the metal chains on his wrist were cut off like tofu. He stood and walked towards An Yuan and raised a scalpel in his right hand.

"Do not move, please. Or I might cut the wrong place." said the man doctor

Manager Gui had heightened his vigilance ever since he saw this player's face. Everyone in the managerial society knew him. He is a player that killed his own manager. He is infamous for his mood swings and would always act mad whenever something interests him.

Rumors say this person had killed everyone in the game and dissected them when they all forced him to heal someone in one of the games. He is a crazy doctor whose skills in medicine are top class yet his personality is that of a madman.

The metal that held An Yuan's wrist had fallen on the stone bed under him. He saw Lan She gesture him to look beyond the prison walls and saw a scarlet moon on the crimson sky. It is as if the sky itself was dyed in blood.

"The color of blood?" murmured An Yuan as he suddenly heard inhuman growls coming from the shadows outside the stone prison.

Growls~

Groan~

Roar~

The professor couldn't point out where the sounds come from an animal or some kind of monster. It was only when a sudden shadow leaped towards the cell walls that An Yuan felt he was pulled backward, he saw that it was Lan She who pulled him away.

A few seconds after the owner of that inhuman growl appeared before him bashing the metal prison in front. It's a huge dog with three heads. Each head had full sharp teeth making this creature menacing and aggressive. An Yuan also saw the dog head trying to pull away from the metal prison with all they might as they glared at An Yuan and Lan She inside like they were food for them to eat.

Their drools stroll down from their huge mouths and they reveal their fangs and claws trying to destroy the metal prison but unfortunately, it seems that no matter what they do they are unable to open such a thing.

Lan, She spoke with an I told you so the expression on his face, "They are the reason why we cannot go out of here. They might be guard dogs as we are prisoners or we might be the food for this kind of monster. I don't even know what kind of thing that is."

"It's Cerberus. A three-headed dog that guards the Hell Gates. We might be in hell." said An Yuan.

Lan, She asked, "Hell ah~ does it mean it has levels then?"

"Nice idea. That seems possible. I am also not a fighter-type player. I'm more of a support type." said An Yuan as he pulled a yellow blank talisman from his pocket. He controlled his qi and tried to recreate some of the symbols to protect what he had read in that library.

He did it on his first try and threw the talisman towards Cerberus. As soon as the yellow talisman landed on the monster, it flew away as if it was rejected by some kind of power and a thin veil of golden aura protected the metal prison which was bent by the monster just now. It seems to be some kind of barrier.

An Yuan said, "With this, we should be okay for now. I'm going to wait for my teammates to pick me up. How about you, doctor?"

"...I think I should leave with you when you get picked up. If I'm lucky maybe that idiot would come for me as well," said Lan She.

"I thought you're a solo player?"

"Yes. But there is that annoying man who keeps coming for me. If he comes in this game then he might look for me. Either way I can just leave when you leave."

"That's also true. Let's just wait."

Hei Anjing's point of view.

The area is so dark and only the red moon and sky illuminate the whole place but unlike some other places, this area's temperature is below zero degrees. There would be blizzards coming down every eight hours and the land itself is covered in white snow but under the reddish moonlight, even the snow itself looks like it was dyed in blood.

The disgusting smell of molds and blood assaulted Hei Anjing's nose. After observing his surroundings, the molds under his palms. The muddy water drips almost falling on his face and the scent of fresh blood. In an instant, the excited mood of Hei Anjing had immediately turned bad.

After all, the area is extremely dirty. If it is only the scent of blood and blood itself, Hei Anjing wouldn't even mind but the muddy water, humid moss in his hands as well as the scent of corpses made him lose his smile.

For Hei Anjing who loves cleanliness was about to go mad surrounded by all this dirt around him.

Even System Yang, who was calm at all times, felt nervous at this moment. He could see Hei Anjing about to lose his temper completely.

[M-Master... C-Calm down. I can... Clean up the cave~]

Unfortunately, the mud that dropped on Anjing's forehead was the last straw. His deep blue eyes had instantly turned to silver and his fake bloodline as an Ice Elves had been used.

Drips~

...

...

SILENCE~

Out of nowhere, the unknown energy had exploded from Hei Anjing.

"Whoever retard puts me in this kind of dirty place, you'll die in my hands!!!" yelled Hei Anjing as his qi burst out destroying everything in the cave and even the cave itself.

BOOOOOOM!!!

The cave that imprisons Hei Anjing. The chains that restrained his movements had all turned into dust. The whole area had shaken under the pressure of Hei Anjing's rage and the whole hell had trembled under his aura.

Once the whole hell had shaken, everyone was terrified. Whether it was the other players who had entered the punishment world with him or the world consciousness that handles all game details felt threatened under his aura.

In that scarlet snowfield, only the lone figure of a white-haired elf stood. He looks lonely yet serene.. Like the sole pureness in that crimson world.

Chapter 510 - 11.36 First Green Star Punishment World: Hell \(2\)

The whole world of punishment had quavered under Hei Anjing's sudden outburst. The area Hei Anjing is the Hell of Ice. The 10th level in the Eighteen Levels of Diyu.

A land of neverending frost, no other living things only ice mountains and everlasting snow. The temperature in this tenth level is below 0 degrees Celsius. No ordinary human or creature would be able to survive in this place.

Hei Anjing in his elven form was spreading a domineering aura that shook and cracked the land under his foot. Some creatures who had been frozen into ice were able to break free but some had long died. Even though they were able to break free, the dangerous aura Hei Anjing spread is enough to make them explode. In the end, only Hei Anjing was left alive in that Ice Hell.

System Yang hadn't done his best and brought every Cleansing Talisman and alcohol from his Master's dimensional space. He used all of it on Hei Anjing until the whole figure of his master was disinfected from head to toe. He personally used a soft handkerchief and used alcohol to clean his Master's face tainted with mud. Only when Hei Anjing smells the scent of disinfectants does his rage slowly fade at a controllable level.

Hei Anjing had the time to finally look around and saw that he must have destroyed the cave he is in as he was so pissed off just now.

"Good job, Yang. But I can't stay in this kind of place, should I leave?" said Hei Anjing and looked at the scarlet sky.

He circulate his qi in his eyes and saw that above him is another area like he is in now but the contents are different from his Icy Hell land. He then looked down and witnessed the same thing under his foot. There are other areas below him as well.

Hei Anjing spoke, "Nine above and 8 below. 18 levels. The Eighteen levels of Diyu. How fun~ there are so many levels to play with~"

He then lightly stomped his feet and controlled the ice and snow within the land. He made an ice mansion for him to use temporarily.

[You're not leaving, Master?]

"No. I haven't heard of the missions for this game mode yet. I can wait for it. It is better to take a bath properly instead. By the way, let out Oreo's parents patrol in the land for a bit. Though my son brought Oreo with him home, Snowy and Blackie had stayed. They haven't left the dimension for a while. Let them play by themselves in this area. They can't be killed anyway as I gave them immortality." said Hei Anjing.

[As you ordered, Master.]

After Hei Anjing entered the Ice mansion, two huge mutated Tibetan Mastiffs appeared in thin air. One had fur white as snow and the other had fur as black as the midnight sky. These were some mutated animals Hei Anjing had brought away with him from the Apocalypse world they had gone to. The parents of Oreo, who is Ye Jingxia's pet dog.

System Yang temporarily materializes his human form and the two huge beasts cuddle him. Every time System Yang enters his Master's dimension to cooking he would give these little ones some dog food from Vearth. Those are high-class divine beast food enjoyed by mystical beings. Snowy, Blackie, Roi, and Reine love eating it. Because of that, most beasts under his Master and Lord God's ownership were close to him.

Zhi Yang, "Patrol the area and clean up the monsters. Go!"

ARFOOAAR!!!

Chu Mo's Point of View

"Arg~ Where the hell is this!?" said Chu Mo as soon as he woke up. But the moment he made a movement he bump his head directly on the metal cage walls hurting his head.

BANG!

Chu Mo complained while holding the bump behind his head, "Why the hell put a warden inside a cage!?! This is insane ba~"

When Chu Mo opened his eyes he saw himself stuffed in a small metal cage hanging above with the other multiple metal cages like his. They were hanging above the ground for at least 10 floors above the ground. In short players without any means of flight are unable to escape the cave even if they were to pry it open.

Same as the other areas, heaven and earth are dyed in blood. Only the moonlight can help them see their surroundings. Chu Mo who is now using his human player identity as Reaper was wearing all black clothes on him. Even his head was covered in a hood and half of his face was covered in a black cloth.

Though Chu Mo wasn't chained like the others his cage is so small that even though he is crouching he had to bend his back and knees to fit the metal cage.

Sighed~

RUMBLES~ The sound of heaven and earth-shaking madly.

Chu Mo let out a long sigh and was thinking what he should do next when suddenly he felt the whole world shake and a familiar overbearing aura touched his skin, he could hold back the shiver climbing up his spine.

His surroundings are full of screams and cries from the newbie players that died in their games and fell in this land of punishment.

AAAAHHHH!

WHAT IS HAPPENING!?!

EARTHQUAKE!?!

Would this cage fall? I don't want to fall on my death!?!

Idiot! Some say things like that!?!

Wuwuwu~ I swear I died. Why am I here?

The whole world is still shaking but Chu Mo was calm as he recognized whom the owner of this aura possessed.

"That's... That's Lord Hei just now. What happened? Why did he get angry?" asked Chu Mo about the sub-system he got from System Yue. This sub-system is just an A.I. without a soul but it can converse with him and answer all his questions.

He used this sub-system to pretend as a player when he took over Player Reaper's identity. That was the original Chu Mo's human identity like his boss Yan Lou. His sub-system took an avatar form of a star. While Yun Ming's guide system took the form of a cloud.

The sub-system star replied, [Answering to the Warden's questions. Venerable Lord Hei was suddenly in rage when he woke up surrounded by dirt. For an OCDic person like the Venerable, it wouldn't be surprising that he would lose his temper. He woke up in an icy cave and the interior was covered in rare moss. The worst part is that most of his limbs were chained and mud dripped from the ceiling to his forehead.

In his anger, his cave and chains even the near land before him had turned to dust. The Venerable also threatened to kill the Heavenly Laws who put him in such a place. Report end.]

Chu Mo's lips were twitching with what he just heard. Though he knew how bad Lord Hei hates dirty things, he never thought it would be bad enough to destroy a world. After all, he is someone who used to live on the battlefield.

"Isn't he an infamous Evil God? How could he hate dirt that much?"

[In the battlefield, the dominant one is more blood and death. Moreover, his arm had an option to keep itself clean of dust, mud, and dirt. I heard from System Yang that he wanted to remove blood on it too but stop so as it would destroy the other people's minds due to the huge disparity of strength. Only the powerful can control what is around them after all.]

Hearing this Chu Mo couldn't help but think that thankfully the one he is serving is the Lord God. At least, Ye Xiajie wouldn't care as long as he completed his tasks and mission. But betrayal equates to death.

The tremors suddenly halted and the screams around him had slowly stopped but the commotion in the clusters of hanging cages continues.

[Is the Warden not going to look for your partner? Because he allowed me to leave a tracker on him before entering this world, I can pinpoint his location.]

Chu Mo's mood brightens, "Really? You know where Ming'er is?"

[According to the result of the locator, Prisoner Yun should be a few hundred meters below the land.]

The warden observed the eerie forest below them. The trees were black from the roots to the top and its peaks were pointed like spearheads. One who couldn't fly would definitely get skewered to death if they fell out of their cages. But for someone like him, Chu Mo had no problems with the flight. He could use wind elements after all.

Chu Mo asked, "How thick is the land below? The levels were layered hah."

[Each layer is 10 inches thick. The warden could create a hole on the layer with one punch.]

"I see. Let's wait for the announcements first. Learn the mission then look for my wife next. Once I found my wife we can look for the big bosses next. They wouldn't be in danger in this kind of playground after all. Moreover, we might end up angered ourselves if we took the fun Lord Hei wanted to enjoy." said Chu Mo.

[Affirmative!]

Han Ya's Point of View

The moment Han Ya opened his eyes, he saw himself chained upside down hanging above a huge boiling pot of water. His face was expressionless and his eyes were deadpan as he continues to observe his current situation and surroundings.

Manager Tian spoke, [Boss, you're awake. Please be careful your situation at this moment is not good.]

The water below him was bubbling due to its high temperature obviously it was boiling enough to melt anything. Looking around him there are few players like him. Hanging upside down looking fearful at the boiling water below. There are some skeletons with little flesh remaining on the bones clanging their jaws as if trying to speak. These skeletons are still alive.

HIH!! What is this!?

Where the hell am I!?

It's so hot in here!!

Fuck! It is boiling water in that pot!!

What the hell is happening here!? Let me go! FREE ME!!

CLANG! CLANGS~ The sound of metals shaking crazily.

Suddenly the world shook and the dangling chain had all loosened their hooks. All players regardless of being bones or full of flesh felt the gravity pulling them down to the pot of boiling water.

[Boss. Activate your bloodline! That boiling water would instantly melt all your flesh! DAMN! What in the world is happening! The whole place is shaking!!!]

Aaaaahhhhhhhh!

No. No. No way!!! Save me!!

I want to go home!!!

No! We're falling! I don't want to die!!!

PLOP!!

Han Ya reacted right away and activated his bloodline. When he fell inside the extremely hot pool, he felt his flesh burning and churning as it melts. Even his skin instantly peels within the water. The extreme pain of burning and drowning can be experienced together in this state. Despite all this suffering Han Ya's expression remained emotionless.

The players that fell in the water were immediately pulled up after the shaking of the land stopped. It was the demons who worked for hell who had pulled them all out.

GUGGLED~

These demons were speaking in demon language and most players couldn't understand them but these are the translation of their conversation.

"These sinners are so unlucky! They fell in the cauldron when the world shook!"

"Ayayaya~ Some of them instantly died! What to do~?"

"Forget about these weaklings~ Did you feel that just now!?"

"You mean that icy aura that shook the whole Diyu? Of course! I was napping just now and suddenly woke up because of it."

"Gosh! I've only felt those when facing Lord Yan Lou okay!?"

"Even Lord Chu didn't possess that kind of strength!"

"I heard it came from the Icy Hell layer. They also said most demons who were on patrol instantly died when that aura exploded like that."

"Most of the sinners in the Hell of Ice had all died too."

"Don't tell me!? That's a sinner!? With that much strength, he should be placed in the Hell of Weighing Scales instead."

"Yes, we should prevent him from leaving this place!"

"But I heard that the place is already occupied. The strongest player, Abyss, was said to be imprisoned there!!!"

"Hiss! For real! That Lord Abyss!!!"

"Unbelievable right!?"

"What's more surprising is that they said he went to this place to look for his wife and allowed himself to be thrown to the lowest layer of hell. There is also a signed contract as proof."

"Is this for real!? He is so arrogant!! Can he even escape the Hell of Weighing scale? The prisoners who were imprisoned there had to shoulder the whole weight of hell and all the other seventeen layers!!"

"You can't believe it right? After all, Lord Abyss is still a human."

Han Ya and Manager Tian, who overheard that conversation, were stunned. They knew who Lord Abyss they were talking about. That player's real name is Lou Yan and he happens to be the lover of Player Hei Anjing. Player Han Ya and his manager can only stare at each other speechless and stunned.. They didn't expect to hear something about Player Abyss first than the other members of their team.
