Chapter 651: 12.53 Unknown Star – Modern ABO World: First Case – Failure

Jie Yun frowned when he saw a man come out of his elder sister's house. He knew that the victims of the killer were usually single parents or widowed pregnant ladies.

The man said, "Yes, please wait. Eh? Police officers? Is there another problem again?"

"Who are you?" asked Jie Yun with an icy tone of voice.

Officer Shen standing beside Jie Yun answered his question, "It's the victim's husband. He had just returned and reconciled with the victim."

Jie Yun, "...."

Officer Shen spoke to the victim's husband and explained the situation to him. In fear, the victim's husband welcomed the police inside the house afraid that the serial killer would visit their house next.

"Actually, we are not supposed to tell you this but... That serial killer was killed once again tonight. He is on the run as our comrades are out there searching all over for him. We were worried he would come over to target your wife. Can you let us inside?" said Officer Shen.

The victim's husband nods his head and lets the police officer and Jie Yun inside the house. Jie Yun didn't notice the weirdness of the interaction between the two men as he was more frightened by the fact of meeting his foster elder sister from his childhood. They entered the house together to meet the last surviving victim.

Once Jie Yun had entered the house, he suddenly felt that his feet were heavy especially when a woman with a familiar face went over at the door to welcome them.

The woman asked, "Husband, who came over? Ah~ Mr. Police Officer and... Who is this, Sir?"

'It is really her. Elder Sister. I need to talk to her alone.' Thoughts of Yun Jie upon seeing the face of the lady who suddenly appeared.

"I am also one with the Police. I am surnamed Jie and named Yun. I dropped by to check up on your safety. The serial killer was on the run again. I would like to ask a few questions about the case with you alone. Would that be possible?"

Officer Shen spoke, "Then I will guard the door of the house."

"Let me accompany you, Officer. Wife, you can speak with this sir about the case. It is very dangerous to hear that another woman was once again killed. Your life would never be peaceful unless the serial killer was caught." said the victim's husband.

The lady of the house reluctantly nodded her head and said, "Officer, please follow me. I will tell you everything I know in my room."

"Thank you," said Jie Yun.

The lady and Jie Yun head to the other room to talk about the case while Officer Shen and the victim's husband stay in the living room. As soon as the two went inside the room, Doctor Shen fell weakly on the couch. He could feel the throbbing pain in his right shoulder.

"Agh! You... Get me bandages, a first aid kit!" ordered Doctor Shen.

The victim's husband was shocked, "You... You were injured! Tsk! Wait here! I'll go get what you need."

While the husband of the house owner left to get a medical kit, Doctor Shen headed to the bathroom and sat down inside the bathtub without the police uniform. He still needs to wear it again as a disguise. While seated in the tub, the handmade bandages he used from an article of ripped clothing were now soaked in blood.

When Hei Yuhua stabbed the tip of the needles on his shoulder, he didn't hesitate at all to use strength at that time.

Doctor Shen checked on his wound and was relieved to see that his bone wasn't damaged but the wound is a bit too deep that the tip of that umbrella almost passed through his right shoulder. He used the things the victim's husband had given to him. He let the running water flow to flush the blood from his wound leaving no trace of these injuries. It took a while for him to completely stop the bleeding and wrapped his right shoulder with thick bandages to avoid the scent of blood.

He then recalls Wei Lou and Hua Heiyu whom he just bumped into in the alleys and was almost caught by these two.

Doctor Shen murmured, "That undercover police thug officer is not a problem. He is quite skilled in close combat and has a good instinct but he can be controlled. The problem is the young man in hoodies... He is definitely an omega but my pheromones did not affect him. Plus, that strength and accuracy. He is also a man who has been killed multiple times. If I didn't dodge the umbrella the one it would have been my head. If he didn't hurt his feet he would have been able to capture me. I can't stay here for long. Though that man called Jie Yun also looks like an omega, there is a bit of blood scent on him. It would be bad if he is the same as that young man in hoodies."

When he finished treating his wound and bathing, Doctor Shen returned to the living room and spoke with the victim's husband.

"Are you done? Don't leave traces of blood in the bathroom. We will be caught if the police investigate this house. By the way, where did you get that police uniform?" asked the man, the victim's husband.

Doctor Shen responded, "Got the clothes outside. Killed an officer in the alley. His body should be found tomorrow morning. I will leave at dawn. But is there something I need you to do for me?"

"What is it? You better give me more money for this!" said the man.

Doctor Shen suddenly approached as if he was going to whisper something to the man. The victim's husband wasn't on guard as he had been this person's accomplice all this time. He went back to this house to spy on the second victim's situation. It was Doctor Shen you paid him money to do it.

As Doctor Shen leans over as if simultaneously a knife was stabbed at the man's heart while on the other hand, Doctor Shen covers the mouth of the man preventing him from screaming.

With an evil smirk on his face, he watches as his accomplice dies under his knife.

“You are only useful when dead. Sleep forever, bastard,” whispered Doctor Shen.

Doctor Shen had a sad childhood. After his mother is gone his father becomes a drunkard and abusive as time passes. He would always beat up his son whenever he was lacking booze to drink and would also beat him up when he drank too much. His childhood was extremely sad and unfortunate. This continued for years until Doctor Shen wasn't able to hold back.

But everything ended one night, his father was dragging him away to be sold for money in the brothel but dumped into a doctor on the way. His father wanted to con the doctor for money and decided to fake an injury when he intentionally bumped into the doctor. But who would expect that instead of getting money out of the doctor he lost his life instead?

This is the first generation of a serial killer called Doctor Shen. He kills for fun and wouldn't even hold back at killing anyone he hated. He is the most unreasonable Serial Killer of modern times. This was also the doctor who adopted the current Doctor Shen and inherited his mantle as a killer.

But this old man died of terminal disease, he died last year after teaching everything he knew to his adopted son. The current Doctor Shen is this Killer's foster son and he continued his legacy of acting as a savior by killing people. To these madmen, death under their knives is salvation. They are saving people through death. That's what lunatics do.

Doctor Shen dragged the body of the husband of the victim and threw him in the bathroom. He filled the bathtub with running water and threw the corpse in there. Then he made preparations to kill his final prey but before that, he needed to kill Jie Yun first.

“That omega is the way. I need to at least make sure he isn't armed before killing him...” murmured Doctor Shen.

Meanwhile, Prosecutor Ye Yuyan and the rest who had to regroup in the suburbs did not include Jie Yun. Once they heard he went to the second victim's house to protect her, no one disagreed with it.

They failed to catch the killer they are pursuing but everyone was surprised to hear Hua Heiyu being able to hurt the murderer to save Wei Lou. Prosecutor Ye Yuyan's face was not good when he heard what happened to Wei Lou. He knew that despite having the chance to catch the killer Hua Heiyu didn't run after the man.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan asked, “Why didn't you run after him?”

“My feet hurt. Can't run,” answered Hua Heiyu.

“Are you kidding me!? You let a serial killer who killed more than 20 people because your feet hurt!?” said Prosecutor Ye Yuyan.

He thought this man was making excuses to play around more about the case or he is too lazy to run and let the serial killer go. As an extremely righteous police officer, Ye Yuyan hates people who waste the time of people and cause many deaths that can be prevented.

Impatience can be heard in his voice, "I told you can't run," said Hua Heiyu as he was disappointed at his husband's reaction. It wasn't intentional that he didn't run after the killer at that time. He just couldn't run after him as he wished to.

Officer Ying Wu didn't want to hear Hua Heiyu's explanation as he felt he did the wrong thing as well. That was until he saw his white shoes covered in both mud and blood.

"What happened to your feet!? It's bleeding so bad! Take off your shoes, Heiyu!" Exclaimed Officer Ying Wu.

Hua Heiyu said, "I don't want to. It hurts a lot."

"What are you saying!? Look how much blood your shoes are soaked through!" said Officer Ying Wu. He wanted to remove Hua Heiyu's shoes as he went to him and kneel down to check on his feet.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan and Wei Lou finally remembered something. There are only two cars available for their team. One is the car of Prosecutor Ye and the other is the police car of Officer Ying Wu. The first one to leave at that time was Prosecutor Ye Yuyan, Wei Lou, and Officer Ying Wu using his car.

"You didn't come with Jie Yun to the district? Did he leave alone to head to the victim's house? How did you get to the district without a car and in the middle of a heavy rain!?" asked Wei Lou.

Hua Heiyu answered, "Walking. I tried to wait for a car to give me a lift by the highway but there were no cars at all. I can only walk all the way to the slums district for a few hours."

"What!?" Exclaimed the three police officers.

"Ahh! Your feet... Your skin has ruptured in many places and your toenails are broken. If not treated it might get infected. Just how long did you walk on feet without rest. Let's go to the hospital and get..."

Officer Ying Wu's words were cut off as Prosecutor Ye Yuyan suddenly walked toward them and carried Hua Heiyu in his arms to the car. He didn't even wait for the other two to come with them as he drove to the highway.

On the way to the hospital, there is a suffocating atmosphere inside the car. Hei Yuhua was staring outside the car window looking at the flashing scenery before him. He was ignoring his husband as he felt disappointed at his reaction today.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan was peeking at his wife and knew he had disappointed her and this hurt his wife a lot.

"Yu'er, I... I'm sorry."

"Don't apologize. This is not your fault."

"I... I didn't mean to grab your collar just then and... I shouldn't have blamed you just now."

"I know. I already know that you prioritize your work, and the civilians even above your own self. Since I've longed to know, I have never blamed you for it. That just now... I had no other choice but to walk. Not only were there no cars on the road, I had no money to hire a cab. It was my decision to walk all the way. Don't blame yourself... But... I'm sorry I wasn't able to catch him for you. But he shouldn't kill for now as I wounded his dominant arm."

"By the way, I forgot to give the phone back to Officer Ying Wu. He left it behind before. You should return it to him. As for A'Jie, I feel a bit uneasy. Tell Brother Lou and Officer Ying Wu to go to the victim's house to meet A'Jie there. That killer... He is not only trained but also a professional. Tell them to be... Careful!"

Brakes!

The car suddenly stopped in the middle of the road, surprising Hei Yuhua. Thankfully, he had worn the seat belt or he would have flown head first in the space in front of him.

Hei Yuhua complained, "Hey! Drive carefully!!!" noveLU&B.c/o/m

When he turned around to complain at Ye Yuyan, he was suddenly pulled into a hug and heard the Prosecutor whisper like a cry in his ears.

"I'm sorry. I promise... It would never happen again. Don't get angry, Yu'er. I was wrong." whimpered Ye Yuyan as he hugs his wife. His voice is full of remorse.

Hei Yuhua didn't respond but his current emotions didn't look good either. The disappointment in his heart was a bit too overwhelming. Tears strolled down his face uncontrollably despite the coldness of his face. He was so used to hiding his disappointment and pain that when Ye Yuyan suddenly gave him warmth, he couldn't help but shed tears.

His tears were like knives stabbing Ye Yuyan's heart. Ye Yuyan didn't want the past to repeat all over again. In his heart, he decided to make his mate his topmost priority above anything. But as a civil servant, could he even keep that promise?

Chapter 652: 12.54 Unknown Star – Modern ABO World: First Case – The Victim's Perspective.

At the victim's house...

Master's bedroom,

Jie Yun followed the only surviving target of the serial killer of the case they are currently handling. The victim was about to retell the information she knew to the officer only to be surprised to see that this man named Jie Yun suddenly changed in appearance once she turned around to look at him. But what surprised her is not that this person can see his face but instead that very familiar face that matches the one in her mind.

The long-lost younger brother she had been looking for all this time. If not because she was pregnant and is targeted by a serial killer, his pursuit of looking for this younger brother of hers would continue. They separated when they were very young but they love each other as real siblings. The two didn't want to get separated but the man who wanted to adopt Yun Jie only wanted him after learning that the boy is a genius when it comes to computers.

Yun Jie was taken despite his disagreement and she wasn't even allowed to visit him as if the man who adopted Yun Jie had cut him off from the whole world. As more years passed by, she believed that her younger brother had been sold by the orphanage to that bad man. So she tried all means to know where Yun Jie had been brought and even secretly entered the dean's office to check on Yun Jie's information. She only saw the district name and nothing more was written. Thinking that her younger brother was in danger, she escaped from the orphanage and went to the district that was written on her younger brother's file.

But never would she expect to have an even harder life outside the orphanage. She can only live by stealing to buy food. If she got caught she would be beaten up. She learned the hardship of living in a city with no one to lean on. It was by then that her elder sister had taken her home. The young lady who brought her home isn't even wealthy. It can be said that she is very poor but she could at least feed the two of them with her job.

At that time, she finally felt once again how to live with a loved one, a family perhaps is the right word. This elder sister of hers is very kind. When she told her that she came to the city to look for her younger brother, she helped her post some missing flyers all over the district. But as time passed, no one still came to her to tell her news about her younger sister. Then that gruesome night happened, just when she and her elder sister were just celebrating her future nephew or niece, her beloved elder sister was killed by a robber.

The police deemed the matter as a robbery case but only she knew that the murderer had come to their house and targetted her sister and her unborn child. It was a nightmare she would never forget in her life. After she lost her elder sister and her only family, she lived her life as a waste. A man saves her from her misery. She thought that the man was her salvation and gave everything to him. She surrendered even herself only to be left behind like a used rag. It was at that moment that she realized that she can only live her life alone. No one would really help her, the people whom she loves either are fakes or had long left the world. She even forgets her missing younger brother as time passes. So when he heard that the orphanage she used to live in had been closed due to certain circumstances, she no longer felt anything.

Then a new change in her life appeared. She was just living her life waiting for her death to come when she suddenly got the news from the famous Doctor in their slums area that she was pregnant. Her pregnancy brought happiness to her life. This unborn child would be her source of happiness and her only family after losing both her elder sister and younger brother. But before she could celebrate, as if fate is playing with her, news about that former serial killer had started once again. Her nightmares from last year started returning and they would hunt her dreams every night. Until finally the police came to her place saying they would protect her in exchange for her giving information about anything she could remember in the case she was involved in a year ago.

It was a police officer who introduced himself as Ying Wu who came over to her house with his team. At first, she was frightened by their sudden arrival but remembering what this officer had said on the phone, she knew that they were sent here to protect her from the serial killer. She honestly told Officer Ying Wu everything she knew. but neither would she have expected that the most probable suspect as that serial killer happened to be Doctor Shen who was kind enough to provide her free supplements.

Moreover, the Shen Clinic is very famous in the slums district, she couldn't believe what Officer Ying Wu had deduced.

Because if it was the Shen Clinic who killed those girls from the news including the ones from the last, doesn't that mean it was she who had become the tool of murder that had killed her elder sister. She only told them their address just in case her elder sister wanted to get an in-house check-up for her baby. But was it a coincidence, because three days after they last visited the Shen Clinic, the night murder had happened.

Even if she wanted to deny it with her everything, the clues would never lie to the case. Everything points out to the Shen Clinic no matter how much she thought about it and in the end lost consciousness in remorse and overwhelming sadness.

Then when she woke up that useless man had come back. Though she didn't want him around, her current state is not ordinary. She wouldn't be able to protect her baby alone and decided to accept him back temporarily.

But God is fair. After all the pain and sadness she had undergone, God had returned her younger brother to her. That was her greatest wish and happiness.

Yun Jie and the lady hugged each other after all this time. Her tears fall down from her eyes like a waterfall and her grip on Yun Jie's clothes are like eagle claws unwilling to let him go.

"Xiao Jie. Xiao Jie. It is really you. I miss you so much!"

Yun Jie pats his elder sister's back trying to calm her down.

"Su-Jie, calm down. I will explain everything to you okay?" he said.

It took a few minutes of coaxing for her to stop hugging Yun Jie, but her grip on his hands was strong and she wasn't willing to be separated as if she is afraid that all of this is only a dream.

"Okay. You can tell me now. Tell me everything."

Yun Jie nodded his head and told her everything that had happened in his life. That he was adopted by someone from the government and was trained to become a secret agent when he was young. Though he didn't mention Aster, Yun Jie mentioned Hei Yuhua and their current situation. It might be a bit confusing and surreal for an ordinary person like the lady in front of Yun Jie but everything is a fact and she could only believe it.

"So you are saying you are currently working with the police and working as undercover agents to make a connection with that Red Poppy Organization? Then why are you working on Serial murder cases like the current one?"

"This is because my elder brother, Agent Hei, wanted to work with his husband together to capture this Red Poppy Organization. But Prosecutor Ye Yuyan is still a person with high standing and fame in the police headquarters, getting cold cases to solve as extra work was normal to him. Moreover, if not for this I wouldn't be able to meet Dajie. When I came back to the country, I only received the news that you had run away and that the orphanage was closed. I tried looking for you all these years but who would have thought you would be in the slums area with less connection to technology devices like surveillance cameras and such,” said Yun Jie.

“I didn’t want to leave this place unless necessary. This small house is the only thing my elder sister left for me.”

“But you will have children in the future, the slums area is not for the group of the babies. Come with me okay? I will arrange a house for you within the city. As your younger brother this much should be given,” said Yun Jie.

“Okay. Let’s talk about this again later. Is the reason you wanted to speak privately with me only because of this?”

Yun Jie had eaten another disguise pill to return his appearance to that of Jie Yun, the contract killer.

“No. I need you to separate from that useless husband of yours and that police officer who came with me,” said Yun Jie.

“What? Is that police officer not with you? But he looks so close to you?”

Yun Jie said, “No, I came alone. My teammates were pursuing the serial killer within this district and there are no new updates about it. Jie, can I borrow your phone?”

“Sure,” said the lady who brought out her phone from her cabinet and passed it to Yun Jie.

After receiving the phone, he called for Officer Ying Wu as Hei Yuhua had no phone on him.

Ring. Ring. Click!

{This is Officer Ying Wu speaking. Is there a problem, Ms. Su?}

Yun Jie: “It’s me, Jie Yun.”

{Oh? Jie Yun? This number is Ms. Su. Are you in the victim’s house? Good. Good. Wei Lou and I are on our way.}

Yun Jie: “What are you talking about? Didn’t you just call me using an officer number just now?”

{I called? Impossible! My phone has been missing since this morning. I just got it back from Heiyu who picked it up from the church. I didn’t call anyone today. Anyway, be careful. The serial killer was not caught. He is still on the run and might be secretly hiding within the slums district.}

When he heard about the killer not being caught yet, he remembered something weird just now about the officer. The scent of disinfectant and herbs. It was so strong that it couldn’t be covered up by the scent of the rain. A frown appeared on Yun Jie’s face.

Yun Jie: “Is the killer injured or something?”

{Why do you know? Wei Lou almost got himself killed thankfully Heiyu arrived on time and use the tip of his umbrella to stab the murderer but he was still able to run away as he knew the routes of the back alleys like a professional. Why did you ask? Did something happen?}

Yun Jie: “You left a few police officers to guard the victim right? Check their situation if they are all alive. There is something weird going on in the house. The possibility that the serial killer is now in the victim’s house is large. Immediately, come over to back me up.”

{What!? Eh? Wait! Wei Lou what are you doing!!!?}

Another male voice which is different from Officer Ying Wu’s voice can be heard in the call. It was Wei Lou who stole the phone from the owner.

{A’Jie, don’t engage in a fight with that suspected killer in the house. The murderer is a professional one. I will be there in 10 minutes.}

In the police car...

Wei Lou had a serious expression and his mood didn’t look good. The call was ended by him one-sidedly. Beside him, Officer Ying Wu did what Yun Jie had asked him. He called the team he left in the victim’s house to protect. He was supposed to hear that one of their comrades was killed and his uniform was taken from him.

Officer Ying Wu is still talking on the phone, “I understand. Surrounded the victim’s house. I repeat, surround the victim’s house. I allow you to be armed. Don’t let anyone from inside the mansion leave. The serial killer is inside that house! We would be there in 10 minutes. Capture anyone who leaves the house no matter who it was!” he commanded in the call.

He grinds his teeth in anger and his face looks gloomy with the news he heard just now. He never expected that he would lose a brother to that serial killer.

Officer Ying Wu spoke, “Jie Yun’s guessed it right. One of the officers tasked to protect the victim was killed in cold blood. His uniform was taken away. The murderer must have disguised himself as police. But how come the husband of the victim didn’t notice anything. He had met all the police officers tasked to protect them even more so than the victim herself.”

“There is another reason. That husband is a mole hired by the killer. They are in cahoots.” said Wei Lou.

Officer Ying Wu said, “Two against one. Jie Yun is in danger. Step on the gas!!!”

“I know!!!” said Wei Lou. “Inform the Prosecutor and the one with him. If we failed to catch the man. We will need their help again.”

“I will make another call!” said Officer Ying Wu. Once again making a call this time he is calling his superior.

At Ms. Su, the victim’s house.

The call was suddenly cut off. It seems that something on the other side had happened. Officer Ying Wu was on a hands-free call when Ms. Su called and wanted his teammates to hear the conversation just in case he missed something. Who would have thought it was Yun Jie who would answer the phone and say that the murderer might be in the house of the victim hiding from the police.

Since Wei Lou who had fought with the serial killer once said that the suspect is a professional killer then even Yun Jie wouldn't get closely involved. He might be an agent but he is more of an intelligence agent who sits in front of a computer to gather information. He wasn't like Hei Yuhua who engaged in fighting and death on every mission.

But as a technology geek, he would have hidden weapons on him. He took out the cross necklace hanging on his neck and took out a few needles. These are paralyzing needles that would even put a huge elephant numbed when pricked. He hid it between his fingers.

Ms. Su overheard their conversation as she was standing close to her younger brother and learned that the Police Officer who came with his younger brother might be fake police and instead a murderer in disguise

"Xiao Jie?"

"Don't be afraid, Jie. I'm here. The others would be here in 10 minutes. As long as we survive for 10 minutes he would be caught. Help me block the door." said Jie Yun while Ms. Su helped him push the wardrobe and bed blocking the door.

Chapter 653: 12.55 Unknown Star – Modern ABO World: First Case – Doctor Shen

After having a conversational call with Officer Ying Wu and Wei Lou, Jie Yun and Ms. Su worked together to block the door. This prevents anyone inside from coming into the room, especially the serial killer waiting outside.

Ms. Su stood behind her younger brother and looked at the heavy rain outside. She walked towards the wardrobe and took out a few raincoats and umbrellas. The house had no second floor so if they got out of the window, they would be able to get out of the house.

Jie Yun was a bit confused seeing his sister's actions but when he saw what he had taken out, he instantly understood what her sister was planning.

Ms. Su spoke, "Stop looking and wear it. There is another way out aside from the front door. The house had been renovated from the old one and I had blocked a few spaces towards the backdoor but my room had one, this is to ensure an escape route for me as I live alone."

"Does your former husband know about the backdoor?" asked Jie Yun as he wore the raincoat and carried an umbrella with him. He also helps his sister be completely covered and keep her body warm as her situation is very special.

Ms. Su answered, "He doesn't know. He only got her last night and he had stayed by my side the whole time. Let's go out quietly. There should be some police officers waiting outside. We can ask for their help."

Jie Yun no longer wasted more time. He helped his sister climb out the window of the room and secretly ran out of the house. They've used the backdoor Ms. Su had made for her secret escape route without anyone from inside noticing that they are gone.

It took only a few minutes for them to meet the police officers outside the house and immediately sent Ms. Su to safety.

Jie Yun said to the police officers, "Please send her to the hospital as soon as possible. She is pregnant so be careful on the road."

"We will. We will leave half of the team to help you watch over the house." said a police officer then glanced at the cold body of one of their comrades with sadness in their eyes, "Also to send Xiao Jin to the morgue and inform his family."

"Go. Leave everything to us. We will definitely capture him." said Jie Yun.

"Please don't let him escape and be careful." said the other police officers who lost a friend today.

Ms. Su said to his younger brother, "Don't overdo it. Don't come in there alone. Wait for your teammates."

"I will. Rest well. I will come to visit after work, Su-jie," said Jie Yun with a rare smile.

Unknown to Doctor Shen, the last target on his list had longed to escape his grasp. He was still inside the house waiting for Jie Yun and Ms. Su to come out of the door all this time.

Doctor Shen, who removed the police officer's uniform and wore a white shirt from the dead husband's clothes, walks around the house. He even took an apple in the kitchen and waited, especially at the door of the master's bedroom.

Crunch!

"They are taking too long for a private talk about my case. Hm~" Doctor Shen tried listening at the door of the bedroom and heard nothing at all.

He felt something that made him uneasy had happened. He followed his instinct and kicked the door of the Master's bedroom. His strength had increased abruptly with that one kick.

BAM!!!

It was a strength beyond ordinary alpha could use. The sound of something breaking was heard when he destroyed the door of the bedroom. As expected, the room was empty and there was no such thing as a presence inside of it.

He clicked his tongue as he recalled Jie Yun's bewildered eyes before they entered the house. He had an inkling that the man had noticed something weird about him but decided not to pursue it.

Tsk!

"I would have waited for my wounds to heal before I had approached him. He must have smelled the scent of herbs and medicine on me. But would he notice something is weird with just that? Or had he learned that the phone call from before is recorded instead." murmured Doctor Shen as he noticed a few traces of wet areas near the window. Obviously, the two had longed to escape and it was through this window that they climbed out of the house.

Doctor Shen narrowed his eyes and thought of something, "Who would have thought she had made a backdoor after I killed her sister a year ago. Tsk! I shouldn't have waited for long and killed her then. It is better to escape before that dangerous lad in hoodies comes over."

Unknown to him is that the whole house had been long surrounded by the police. As soon as he stepped outside the house multiple guns had been pointed at him. Standing in front of the group of uniformed police are a few people in casual clothes.

The thug undercover police were there looking at him with a smug expression. Standing beside him is Jie Yun who had escaped from the window with his target and the persistent police officer who protected his target since yesterday. But what caught his eyes the most were the two men standing at the center of the crowd. One looks like an alpha who possessed a presence much more powerful than the other alpha he had met before and that dangerous young man with argent eyes staring at him coldly. Those eyes were like vipers looking at him like prey. A dead prey to be exact.

Officer Ying Wu commanded, "Capture him!"

The police surrounding Doctor Shen slowly get closer to the serial killer. They were cautious when approaching, this is after all a killer who was deemed professional by their captain. Hua Heiyu, who was observing him from a distance, noticed that Doctor Shen's lip suddenly curled up into an evil smile.

Hua Heiyu shouted, "Jump on him!"

The police officers paused as they don't recognize his voice but when they were about to jump on the murderer.

Hahahaha~

Doctor Shen suddenly laughs. Jie Yun noticed what was wrong with this man and immediately pointed it out.

"He injected something on himself!" said Jie Yun.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan no longer hesitated and said, "Shoot him down!"

The sounds of guns and the scene of bullets flying at one target were witnessed by everyone. But what happened next shocked them more. As if an invisible force field protects Doctor Shen and the bullets all halted in the air. Only a trail of blood coming out of his nose and lips was found different from Doctor Shen

Wei Lou Exclaimed, "What the hell is this?!"

Everyone except Hua Heiyu and Jie Yun was shocked by such a magical scene.

"How is he doing that!? Is it a drug? It's the drug, right!?" said Officer Ying Wu in astonishment.

Hua Heiyu commanded, "Don't stop! Rain a few more bullets on him! That force field isn't invincible!!"

"Fire! Shoot him down. Use up all your bullets!" commanded Prosecutor Ye Yuyan.

Following the command of their superior another rain of bullets was fired but this time they didn't stop until the forcefield completely disappeared. When they halted their attacks Doctor Shen longed to be covered in bullets. What was shocking about it is that his body would expel the bullet on its own and his body regenerates at a fast speed under everyone's naked eyes.

"He is healing?! But how!?"

"Is he a monster? Maybe an alien?"

"What should we do next?"

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan looked at his wife seeking an answer but he only saw him shake his head.

"It is too late for him. What he had injected into himself is one of the most forbidden drugs on the black market. It could temporarily enhance his overall constitution whether it is his physical or mental strength but only for a short period of time." said Hua Heiyu.

Officer Ying Wu said, "Where did he get it then? The black market is strictly unknown and he is only from a poor family."

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan walked forwards and squatted down to Doctor Shen's level. He could see him barely breathing and his skin started to dry up.

"Talk. Who gave you that drug? Don't you know that its effects are deadly after use?" said Prosecutor Ye Yuyan.

Doctor Shen responded with disbelief in his eyes and said with broken words.

"N-No... Life saves... -ing. They... lied..."

"Tell me something about those people or men who gave you those drugs!? You are already dying, at least be useful at the end," asked Prosecutor Ye Yuyan.

Coughing~

"Gah! Red... Tattoos... Flower... Drugs." said Doctor Shen but he wasn't saying it to Prosecutor Ye Yuyan but instead to the young lad in hoodies who stood behind the Prosecutor.

"I understand. Rest and repent in hell," said Hua Heiyu.

Hah... ahah~

Hearing his cruel words, the doctor couldn't help but laugh. His laughter sounded hoarse yet happy until he finally took his last breath and his eyes turned lifeless. Leaving only a dry-up corpse on the cold and wet ground.

Silence descended in the area; only the sound of rain could be heard all around them. Prosecutor Ye Yuyan spoke when he saw Hua Heiyu's feet getting wet from the rain. His bandaged feet were now soaking wet with even a little mud splashed on them.

Tsk!

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan suddenly carried Hua Heiyu in his arms and said with an ugly expression on his face while scolding Hua Heiyu.

“Don’t waste my money! How much do you think was wasted on treating those feet of yours? That’s why I told you to wait in the car.”

“Shut up! I’ll walk if I want to walk!” retorted Hua Heiyu.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan said, “Talk back more and your dinner for today is gone!”

Hua Heiyu looked bullied as he glared at Prosecutor Ye Yuyan. For a foodie like him not being able to eat is the worst threat he can get.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan ignored his glares and looked at Officer Ying Wu.

“I will leave the aftermath to you. Bring the next case tomorrow,” said Ye Yuyan.

Officer Ying wu saluted and said, “Understood, Prosecutor!”

Then the Prosecutor looked at Wei Lou and Jie Yun as if telling them to follow him but Jie Yun spoke out.

“I would like to visit Su-jie... I mean Ms. Su,” said Jie Yun.

Wei Lou nonchalantly said, “I will accompany this one to the hospital and return together.”

“Return before 11 pm,” said Prosecutor Ye Yuyan as he walked away carrying the pouting Hua Heiyu like a child in his arms.

Only when the two had left the scene that Officer Ying Wu commented,

“Don’t you think there is something weird going on with those two? They hate each other so much yet... Would sometimes care too much for each other? Am I seeing it wrong?”

Jie Yun glanced at him expressionlessly and said, “You are seeing things.” novelsplus.com

“It looks to me like an adult coaxing a child to think. Anyway, Officer Ying Wu sent us to the hospital~” said Wei Lou.

Officer Ying Wu said, “Can you guys take a cab there instead? I’m busy.”

Wei Lou reached out a hand and said, “Sure. Lend me some cash~”

.....

Tsk!

“Nevermind. I’ll send you there!!!” said Officer Ying Wu in anger.

He issued some orders to his subordinates to clean up the scene and go home early after they finished their tasks. He, on the other hand, had brought Wei Lou and Jie Yun to the hospital where Ms. Su was confined.

She was stressed this time and suffered from depression and insomnia. Plus, she is a pregnant lady. She needs a long and peaceful rest. But Ms. Su was extremely happy to see Jie Yun. Only afterward that Wei Lou and Officer Ying Wu that Ms. Su is from the same orphanage as Jie Yun and that they are siblings with different blood.

Chapter 654: 12.56 Unknown Star – Modern ABO World: First Case – Epilogue

Somewhere within the capital city.

The executives of the Red Poppy Organization would only meet when they were summoned by Nightshade or when receiving their missions. Aside from that summons they usually had nothing much to do and lived an ordinary life like other people.

At some Presidential suite in some 5 stars hotel. A young man wearing a loose hoodie and shorts had a laptop on his lap. His ten fingers were rapidly moving on the keyboard as if he doesn't only have two hands but four instead. Just based on his looks, he seems to be a young man in his teens unknown to others. This young-looking man is a person who is already in his fifties and he is beta like an ordinary person found anywhere.

His light brown hair is currently hidden within his hoodie and his cat-like orange eyes were focusing on the stock exchange market on the screen of his laptop. The sound of him biting the lollipop inside his mouth was very obvious. Clearly, he could see his account losing a large amount of money.

“Argh! Who the hell is it? Stealing Laozi's 1money! How come I can't find your information at all!!! Bastard! Don't let me catch you or you would be sorry to steal Laozi's money!!!” yelled Iris in his own room.

As for everyone in the Red Poppy Syndicated only he had the interest of money. Aside from that, he had nothing he cared about at all. He is desperate for it as if money is the only thing that is important to him. Something in this world which is as important as his life.

Iris laid down on his bed and slowly calmed his nerves. He is so pissed off just now that his overused brain is aching for a bit. Now that he had calmed down he realized a few weird things he never expected would have existed in this world.

Iris murmured, “Was there a hacker in this country who is stronger than my skills? If not that then... The person who manipulated the whole stock market to end in his hands must be someone special. These kinds of people were either taken by the syndicate or eliminated by them.”

“Normally, this kind of information must be reported to the leader right away but... Lately, the leader's actions were beyond the normal boundaries of dark humanity. I can still accept drugs and human trafficking but... I am not fond of human experimentation. Tsk! Making me remember annoying things. Let's sleep it off!” murmured Iris to himself. He didn't care if no one was listening or else.

Somewhere in the city...

Lin Jiya who just finished taking over control of his stocks in the stock market was still staring at the black screen on his desktop pc. We were actually playing around with some things in the stock market when he noticed that his account was being hacked.

As soon as a few lines of codes flashed on his screen, he immediately counterattacked. His hacking skills can only be compared to Hei Anjing who is like a God in the technology world as second best but... Compared to the original residents of an S-class world, he who came from Vearth is cut above the rest. He is after all a God in his world and was only playing a character in this world.

But his role-playing was immediately cut off the moment Hei Anjing and Ye Xiajie descended into this world. The plot had been long broken before he could be acting the script on him. But at the same time, he wasn't allowed to return to the God System's space as a superior god descended in this world he had entered. He has to wait for those sovereigns to take their leave first before he can go back.

Most of the time Lin Jiya spends more time making money. He is an Amateur God of wealth so to him playing with this world's international stocks is no different than playing puzzles to pass time. It didn't even take long for him to take full control of the stock market

Lin Jiya was pressing a few keys on the keyboard and commented about Iris's failed counterattack just now.

"This Iris hacker... He has a good foundation when it comes to breaking through firewalls but not enough to defeat me. But to think he would dare to steal my money under my eyes... I wonder who dares do so. Though I can't defeat the God of Destruction in the cyber world I wouldn't allow others to take the second place from me." novELuSbdotc\o/m

He started typing a few more codes on the black template and the result was immediately pulled out by him. But for some reason, his system appeared frantic.

[Stop getting involved with the higher Gods and this world's characters! Didn't I warn you multiple times!?!]

Lin Jiya responded, "What nonsense!? Which eyes you used saw me getting entangled with anyone about this world's original plot."

[But you had already gotten involved in it. It wouldn't take long for those supreme beings to notice what you did!] his system scolded him badly.

Lin Jiya spoke, "You want me to watch as someone tries to steal my money? Dream on!"

[Ah! You? If those supreme beings had gotten you involved I wouldn't be able to save you at all. We can't escape either.]

"Come on! This is a crime omegaverse world. Why would they get concerned with stocks? They should be busy trying to catch criminals," retorted Lin Jiya.

[Ah! I don't care anymore.! Do as you wish!?!]

Then his system turned silent as if it was deactivated. His system didn't speak to him all day after that.

Meanwhile, back at the condominium owned by Ye Yuyan.

He carried Hei Yuhua until they got home. He gently placed him in the living room and ran off to the bathroom to get something to clean his wife's feet and once again treated his wounds like how the doctor had taught him.

Hei Yuhua wanted to do it on his own, but his husband didn't allow him to. Seeing him kneel in front of him while carefully cleaning his feet. The pain from his wounds is much more vivid. He is tolerant of pain but seeing his most important man in the world treat him like a delicate person made him happy and embarrassed.

The two didn't talk with each other until Ye Yuyan finished rebandaging his feet.

Ye Yuyan said, "You are staying at home until your feet are healed."

"What about the next case? We still need to solve it. I will ask Ying Wu, Lou Wei, and Yun Jie to gather all information. I will accompany you home. Next time, you don't need to walk such a long road, especially on a rainy day. Don't you know how worried I am to see you hurt like this!?" said Ye Yuyan. One could hear complaints and helplessness in his voice.

Hei Yuhua had to hug him at least to help his mate calm down his emotions. There are too many things happening right now. This case is too weird. Not only is it a serial killing case, but even a forbidden drug was also involved in it.

"Okay. I will not be stubborn next time. I will bring cash with me. I promise not to do it again!" said Hei Yuhua.

Ye Yuyan felt he couldn't win against his wife at all and he hugged him and squeezed him in his arms.

"Keep your word this time."

"Haha~ I will."

Sigh~

"Let me cook dinner first," said Ye Yuyan.

Hei Yuhua replied, "Okay."

The couple returned to their daily lives and ate an ample dinner before resuming their talk. There are lots of things they need to talk about, particularly about the case and scene of Doctor Shen's weird death. By the time they finished eating dinner, Lou Wei and Yun Jie got home. Officer Ying Wu had dropped them off at the entrance of the condominium building before going home himself.

It was System Yue who called them over after they ate dinner. The four of them had gathered in the living room of Ye Yuyan's room as if having a meeting.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan spoke, "I heard the surviving victim is a woman with a sibling relationship with you, Xiao Jie. How is she right now?"

"Su-Jie had finally felt relieved but she had suffered depression and stress for a long time including her insomnia. The doctor says she needs to stay in the hospital for days," responded Yun Jie.

Wei Lou said, "I've asked a few of my people to protect her secret until she leaves the hospital. Well, she should be able to return to her normal life afterward."

"That's good. But Yun Jie don't frequently visit her or others might take it as if she is your weakness," said Hei Yuhua

Yun Jie said, "I've also explained that to her. That I would only be able to visit her until she gets pregnant."

"She would be placed under the Protection case. She would have to change her name and live somewhere far away until we caught the Red Poppy Organization. I'm sorry, Xiao Jie," said Ye Yuyan.

Yun Jie spoke, "I know. I understand, Brother Ye. Don't blame yourself for this. It was my fault for telling her about my involvement with Aster."

"Don't worry, Jie'er. I will send the best men to protect her in silence. She would be safe and be able to live her life normally. Then after everything has ended we can visit her openly much more often," said Wei Lou.

A smile appeared on Yun Jie's face and said, "Then I will leave it to you, Brother Wei."

Ye Yuyan asked, "Did you guys stay at the scene of the crime after we left? Is there something else that was left behind?"

"We left as soon as you did but I heard from the after reports that they had found the dead body of the husband's victim in the bathtub of the restroom. His heart was stabbed through. The autopsy said it was instant death. Anyway, that Doctor Shen is weird. He is only supposed to be an ordinary alpha with at least a C-grade physique. But during the confrontation with me, he was able to overwhelm me with strength and speed. If not for my sister-in-law coming on time I would have lost my neck by then," said Wei Lou as he unconsciously touched his neck as if he felt chills on it.

Yun Jie spoke, "Maybe he had taken another drug before or after the murder of his last female victim. Or else he shouldn't have been able to escape from his brother. Didn't you say that he was able to avoid a fatal blow from my brother?"

"He did. He suddenly turned his head and avoided the tip of the umbrella. But based on his movements it seems his brain moves faster than his body. His head avoided the attack but his body wasn't able to escape on time. Plus, he had used the Berserk Concoction in the end. Those medicines cannot be found even on the Black market. There should no longer be any supply in any route as I've personally destroyed the laboratory that was making it. Burning everything in the fire," said Hei Yuhua.

With a frown and worried expression on his face, Ye Yuyan spoke, "Why have you never told me about this, Yu'er?"

"I was not hiding it intentionally. This is just one of the cases I've handled as a mission as I work as an undercover agent for Aster," said Hei Yuhua.

Ye Yuyan asked, "Is that why you recognized that concoction? Don't tell me... Yu'er, have you been injected with that same drug before!?"

At this question, Wei Lou and Yun Jie were stunned. Why didn't they think of such a situation after knowing that Hei Yuhua recognized that forbidden drug? That's right? Why would he suddenly panic when he saw what Doctor Shen had injected into himself that time. As if he already knew the effects of the drug that's why he reacted quite strongly about it when Doctor Shen had used it.

This is because Hei Yuhua knew the extreme effects of those forbidden drugs himself. But the only bewildering thing is that if he indeed got injected with that drug before then how can he still be alive. They had witnessed the gruesome scene of Doctor Shen drying up leaving only a human-shaped skin as his insides including his bones and organs melted into a puddle of blood. They could only shut their mouths and waited for Ye Yuyan to ask Hei Yuhua. If there is someone who is more worried about Hei Yuhua it can only be his mate.

As expected, Ye Yuyan asked his wife straightforwardly, "Yu'er answer me, please. Did you get injected with that forbidden drug before!?"

There is a tense and deafening silence inside the house after Ye Yuyan asked such a question. Everyone stared at Hei Yuhua's face which had suddenly turned apathetic and emotionless. Only a single word was given as an answer to this question.

Hei Yuhua answered, "Yes."

Chapter 655: 12.57 Unknown Star – Modern ABO World: Second Case – Berserk Potion

Hei Yuhua answered honestly and said, "Yes."

It was just a single word but this answer alone was enough to cause turmoil in the hearts of the three people in front of him. This is especially true in Prosecutor Ye Yuyan's case. As his fated mate and husband, this kind of answer devastated him.

Silence~

There is only a deafening silence inside the living room yet Hei Yuhua can see clearly the changes that happened on the faces of the three people in front of him. Their faces were so rich in variation that they entertained Hei Yuhua. Wei Lou was stunned speechless. Yun Jie was frowning a bit thinking deeply about something but he could see hatred glinting within his eyes.

Ye Yuyan had it worse. He looks sad and guilty at the same time. There is also regret and blame as if telling himself why he couldn't be there for his mate when he was suffering from all that pain. Why hasn't he found him ahead of time!?

If he had found him ahead of time, he would have been able to protect him from all loneliness and pain.

Hei Yuhua noticed that his husband isn't willing to ask more questions about that part of the past; he actually didn't want to tell others about his past, especially the days when he hadn't met Ye Yuyan yet. But since this forbidden concoction had gotten involved then he needs to tell everyone the origin and effects of the Berserk Potion.

"It was a mistake in one of the undercover missions abroad. At that time, we heard that traces of the Red Poppy Organization were found in that secret laboratory. To infiltrate, I had to pretend as one of the test subjects this laboratory was supplied with. Human Trafficking is more abundant abroad. So getting in was easy. It's just that things had gotten wrong and there is one crazy scientist who loves to create or invent potions and decoctions. This man is known as Datura."

Hei Yuhua continues his story about the past events in his life.

"Datura was the only person who survived in that mission of mine as... I killed every scientist and the human subject in that laboratory before burning the whole thing to the ground."

Silence descended in the room. Hei Yuhua as he told them this part of his past was expressionless this whole time even the light within those argent orbs dimmed and icy as he storied this forgotten past of his. It felt awkward and uncomfortable in the living room. No one spoke a word and only listened to Hei Yuhua's story. Ye Yuyan also didn't say anything but instead approached his wife and hugged him from behind. The warmth coming from his most beloved mate thaws a bit of the coldness coming from Hei Yuhua.

Even though it was only a bit. It was enough for Hei Yuhua not to fall into a state of depression because of this painful past.

Hei Yuhua held his husband's hand and smiled, "I'm okay. It's already in the past."

"If... If it's no longer painful for you. Please tell me anything. Whether it is your past or plan for the future, I'm willing to stand by your side no matter what." said Ye Yuyan.

Hei Yuhua replied, "I know. I know you will stay by my side. For now, listen to my story okay?"

Ye Yuyan nodded as his arms were kept wrapped around his mate's waist.

"The reason I wasn't able to kill Datura was that the Red Poppy Syndicate had taken him away before the day I blew up the whole laboratory. At the present, Datura is an executive member of the Red Poppy Syndicate. I've met him before but he must have not recognized me. I was the one who plucked one of his eyes after all. He is the only existence in the syndicate who excels in making weird drugs. That berserk concoction and the Ecstasy flower were a few of his works." said Hei Yuhua.

"Ecstasy Flower suddenly appeared in this country a year ago. Does that mean he was already here last year?" asked Lou Wei.

Hei Yuhua answered, "Yes. That berserk concoction Doctor Shen had drunk must be something he made as well. He is the only person who can make that kind of annoying drug."

"The effects of berserk concoction are deadly to anyone with constitution grade below A. For those with constitution grades A to S, you have a 50-50 percent chance of being able to survive. Surviving had two results. Either you become a cripple for life as a vegetable man or become someone like me... An ability user. Domination through pheromones is ability. I can command them through words." explained Hei Yuhua.

Ye Yuyan asked, "Was it painful?"

"It hurts as hell," answered Hei Yuhua. "The other subjects who were with me that time all died. Only I was able to survive. I had to watch them dry up alive while screaming for help. I was a government agent and wasn't able to do anything for them. I can only... watch them suffer and die. Now... I don't feel anything seeing the death of strangers..."

Hei Yuhua started to tremble a bit while within Ye Yuyan's embrace. The warmth was able to calm him down but those traumatic scenes in his head flashes as if they just happened yesterday. Ye Yuyan comforted him and coaxed him to sleep. He had been too tired for today after walking through almost hundreds of meters just to reach the nearest slum district by foot from the suburbs.

"You're too tired. Sleep. Sleep Yu'er I will be by your side." said Ye Yuyan.

Hei Yuhua, as if the fatigue finally kicked in, slowly closed his eyes with a few traces of tears and fell asleep. Ye Yuyan continues to pat his back to soothe him with his sandalwood pheromones surrounding his wife to ease his anxiety. For Alpha and Omega, they would only feel safe and unguarded towards their own mates.

Ye Yuyan raised his head and looked at his and his wife's subordinates. Though the effects of the disguise pill had been used up and are now using their real appearance the worry in their eyes cannot be hidden.

"Don't worry. My wife will be fine after sleep. But there is something System Yang wanted to tell us. It seems that the Red Poppy Syndicate had once again contacted Yu'er. Because of his trauma resurfacing, he must have forgotten to tell us. System Yang will tell us the story." said Ye Yuyan.

System Yang spoke as a small floating sun and moon appeared in thin air. The two magical systems materialized in their avatar forms. It was made so everyone in the living can see and hear them.

[It happened before Hei Yuhua left the church. He heard someone's phone ringing. It was Officer Ying Wu's phone. Obviously, hacked by someone from the other side. Hei Yuhua picked it up and as expected it was that human female who calls himself Nightshade who spoke from the other side. They give him Hei Yuhua's second mission. The mission is to kill Ye Yuyan's closest confidant Lou Wei.]

Lou Wei cursed, "Fuck! For real!!!"

[It's real. They wanted you dead, maybe next time he would ask for the death of Yun Jie. But you guys are already prepared for it, right? That's why you're dummies roaming around abroad controlled by Yun Ming and Warden Lou intentionally followed their left behind tracks and would be coming back to the country in a few days.] said System Yue. novelusBdotc/o\m

System Yang said, [Don't worry. Yun Ming and Warden Lou were already prepared for it. But you still need to prepare for the stage death of the dummy.]

Yun Jie asked, "Are Brother Yun and Brother Warden gonna be okay?"

[They are Gods. Even if their vessels died they would be okay. Only Gods and God slayers can kill a God. In your world, there is no one like that among the original residents of this world.] said System Yang.

Ye Yuyan said, "Let's do it at a place with fewer people. The Airport would be the greatest choice. If the dummies went through the VIP area we should be able to let Yu'er snipe them down as soon as they get off the plane."

“Boss, you will have to do that world-best acting you did before once again. Are you going to cry in my death?” said Lou Wei. Totally does not care about his rudeness of teasing his superior.

As expected Ye Yuyan got pissed and stood up while carefully carrying his wife in his arms and kicked Lou Wei.

(QAQ) (QAQ) (QAQ)

Ye Yuyan said before heading to the bedroom, “You both go back and rest. Come here after breakfast. Good night.”

“Hiss~ that hurts!!!” said Lou Wei.

Yun Jie commented, “You deserve that for acting like a fool. It’s not that you didn’t know that there are no records of your death in our past life. Even then only you and Brother Ye survived in the end. That time you two only have each other for support and how important you are to him, it is not as if you didn’t know. Don’t joke our like that.”

Lou Wei was expressionless as he carried Yun Jie on his shoulders. The word past made him extremely grumpy as in their past life like Ye Yuyan had killed Hei Yuhua. He had also killed Yun Jie to protect Ye Yuyan. In the end, they both lost their mates together and live a life as if they are in hell itself. The latter was taken aback but shut his mouth when he saw his lover’s usual silly smile gone. He allowed himself to be carried away by his lover towards their room next door.

Only System Yue and System Yang were left behind in the living room.

[These humans are a bit like that group. It is as if seeing a human version of Lord Hei, Lord Ye, Warden Lou, and Officer Yun.] said System Yue.

[Maybe this is a Parallel Universe version of them. This world is not recorded in the world databases under the God and Nether System after all.]

[What should we do now, A’Yang?] asked System Yue.

System Yang answered, [Didn’t they prepare to bait that human called Iris? We should make preparations as well. When I last checked this world’s data I found out that an outsider soul took control of the Stock Market. If Ye Yuyan and Hei Yuhua wanted to pull him to their side we must get involved. Do you think a God would listen to mortals?]

[I know that man. His vessel’s name is Lin Jiya. According to the original plot, he is a minor villain who helped Yun Jie take revenge for Hei Yuhua’s death, but in the end, got caught after Yun Jie died. Now that most world hoppers in this world were given a warning from the above echelons, they stayed away from the script trying not to get involved in the lives of Ye Yuyan and Hei Yuhua.] said System Yue.

System Yang pulled out the man’s profile and saw a weird comment in it.

[So he is a man who loves money the most. He is a God of Wealth so it’s understandable. But after taking over the stock market he already got entangled with Iris from the Red Poppy Syndicate.]

[He is a fool for money. But since he got involved we should go and talk to them.] said System Yue.

System Yang said, [That can be arranged. How's the Supreme Lord?]

[Lord God Ye is awake but he is still meditating. I can speak with him sometimes but I was told not to bother him unless his wife is awake. Is Lord Hei still in deep sleep?] asked System Yue.

System Yang said, [Yes. Still asleep. He covered himself with ice and slept inside the ice. But he should be waking up soon. Though I think we can't stay in this world for too long. Lord Hei must return to the Nether System as soon as possible.]

[I will go out to find the Red Poppy Syndicate boss and their main hideout. Once they were caught, the Lord should no longer need to stay in this world.] said System Yue.

[Be careful. We don't know if there is something weird going on in this world. I will also watch that human called Yi Rouya. He had been gone for a long time. He must have gotten involved with the Syndicate if he had followed those dreams of his.] said System Yang.

System Yue commented, [Ah~ so busy. It's so boring without Lord Hei making fun with people.]

Chapter 656: 12.58 Unknown Star – Modern ABO World: Second Case – Special Guest novel UsBdotc\o\M

Morning arrives.

A married couple of the Ye Family had woken up together in bed, Ye Yuyan cooking for his wife and eating breakfast together. Ye Yuyan is always gentle and affectionate towards his mate. Since their little girl is not around they felt like returning on the days of their honeymoon. Sticking at each other and would always be together as if no one could separate them at all.

Ye Yuyan didn't forget to inform his wife about them already knowing of the phone call Hei Yuhua received from the Red Poppy Syndicate's number two. Codename 'Nightshade'.

Bittersweet nightshade is a slender perennial vine or semi-woody shrub found throughout King County, especially in creeks and wetlands, as well as field edges, gardens, parks, and roadsides. This plant is toxic to people, pets, and livestock. Leaves are dark green to purple-tinged.

In the language of flowers, nightshade symbolizes silence or falsehood. A Victorian may interpret a gift of belladonna as a warning, a sign of death, or a meditation on the nature of good and evil.

It is a poisonous flower known for its purple beauty and toxicity. As someone who uses this codename, Nightshade is not much different from its flower meaning. She is the most loyal person under the Red Poppy Syndicate as well as the only person who had been by the side of the leader of this Syndicate right from the very beginning. Rumors in the Syndicate say that she is the lover of the Red Poppy Syndicate leader. Some weird murmurs say she is the leader itself.

But Ye Yuyan and Hei Yuhua knew that she wasn't. They didn't even know she was a woman in their last life plus, they also haven't seen the appearance of the Leader that the Syndicate revere except for knowing his codename as Poppy. This is why Hei Yuhua chose to become the Red Poppy Syndicate Executive, though he planned to enter the Upper echelons of the Red Poppy Syndicate, which he chose to ignore in his last life.

But becoming a real executive that could meet the leader is still too hard. He must complete three complementary missions from Poppy itself. The first one had been completed by Hei Yuhua when Azalea and Hyacinth safely entered the country. Right now his second mission was recently passed to him by Nightshade. That mission is to kill Lou Wei. Whether it was open killing or through assassination as long as Lou Wei died, his second mission can be completed.

Since Ye Yuyan and the rest of the team already knew about Hei Yuhua's second mission, preparations for it had been started in secret; they had also contacted Yun Ming and Warden Lou to play around abroad. At this moment Ye Yuyan and Hei Yuhua had just finished eating breakfast and were watching TV in the living room. Hei Yuhua had eaten a disguise pill to hide his real appearance. They are waiting for Officer Ying Wu and the rest to arrive.

In just another half an hour, a knocking was heard coming from the front door.

Knock. Knock. Knock.

Ye Yuyan was the one who opened the door this time as Hei Yuhua's feet are currently injured and it is inconvenient for him to walk. He could exchange some points to instantly heal the medicine but Officer Ying Wu also saw the extent of his wounds on his feet, it would be unbelievable if the wounds disappeared in just one night.

Once the door was opened, the one standing outside the door was someone Ye Yuyan didn't recognize and he frowned for a moment as he stared cautiously at the smiling alpha in front of him.

Ye Yuyan had forbidden the entrance of outsiders, especially unregistered people entering the condominium building. He obviously does not recognize the man in front of him.

"Who the hell are you? How did you enter my building?" asked Ye Yuyan as he was reaching out for his gun in the compartment near the door.

He had hidden lots of weapons in all parts of the house. This is in preparation in case someone broke through into his building.

The man in front of him spoke but he was calm right from the beginning to the end. This unexpected visitor is none other than Lin Jiya.

Lin Jiya spoke, "Please don't pull a gun on me. It's useless~"

Suddenly a cute little black crow popped into thin air and fell on the top of Lin Jiya's head.

Plop!

Caw!

[Please forgive my host for not introducing himself properly to the protagonist gong of this world, Mr. Ye Yuyan. I am System Wuya. This vessel of my host is called Lin Jiya. We are here to answer the summon of Celestial Lord Hei's System, Zhi Yang.]

A small moon appeared in the air from Ye Yuyan's side and floated in between Ye Yuyan and Lin Jiya.

System Yue spoke, [Yuyan, stop. They are allies. These two would help you catch Iris. Isn't the time for the full moon about to come?]

"Are they the same as Lord Hei? Gods descending in a mortal's body to the mortal lands?" asked Ye Yuyan.

Lin Jiya said, "Wow~ they aren't really restricted by this world's heavenly laws. How envious~"

"What do you mean?" asked Ye Yuyan.

System Wuya(Crow) felt his host was not up to anything good again and tried to stop him as usual.

[Oi! Stop it. Don't joke around at a time like this!]

Lin Jiya smiled evilly and said, "For example if I say I want to kill the protagonist gong of this world, Ye Yuyan. This happens~"

After Lin Jiya finished talking, the sky above the condominium building had turned abruptly into black with surging thunder and a storm that appeared out of nowhere. Suddenly a thick bolt of lightning fell from the sky intending to destroy the whole condominium which Lin Jiya is in for breaking the laws of this world. This is his divine punishment.

GRUMBLES~ Grumble~ Crack!!

Ye Yuyan felt an impending danger he never felt before. Even Hei Yuhua panicked when he saw the scenery outside the window suddenly turning dark.

Hei Yuhua was stunned speechless while Lou Wei cursed out loud from the room next door and his shout can even be heard outside.

"WHAT THE FUCK!!!?"

"Run! We need to get out of the building!?" said Yun Jie though deep inside his heart he knew that it was already too late.

He grabbed Lou Wei's collar and ran out the door even forgetting his slippers. They stop when they see an unknown man and Ye Yuyan confronting each other. There is a weird yet cute black ball that looks like a crow on top of the stranger's head while a little moon is floating in front of Ye Yuyan.

System Yue and System Wuya were astonished by the scene of the approaching heavenly thunder as punishment to Lin Jiya.

[Ah! You're crazy... Fuck! A'Yang! Heavenly Thunder Punishment! Heavenly Thunder Punishment!] screamed System Yue.

System Wuya was pecking Lin Jiya's head with his beak, [You fucking lunatic?! Even though we no longer need to do missions the restrictions of the heavenly laws are still there!!! Ahhh!!!]

But Lin Jiya is not listening to any of their complaints as he was waiting for the God inside of Ye Yuyan to make his move. As expected, under the gaze of Lin Jiya, Ye Yuyan's original golden irises turned a deep crimson. It is more like a dull red with a blackish mixture and the fear on his face immediately fades into an indifferent and apathetic one.

It was Lord God Ye awakening in Ye Yuyan's body, "Boring."

He only snapped his fingers and a black shadow dragon appeared from the darkness and ate the whole tribulation thunder. In just a split second everything returned to normal.

ROAR!

The dark clouds, thunder, lightning, and the shadow dragon above the building all dispersed into nothingness. Everything seems like an illusion yet not at the same time.

System Yu delightfully called for his Lord God. [Milord!!!]

"Greetings to the Supreme Lord of Netherworld!" said Lin Jiya and System Wuya who immediately kowtowed in the presence of Ye Xiajie.

Ye Xiajie looked uninterested at Lin Jiya and said, "If you failed to show your usefulness I will throw you to the last layer of Netherworld for offending this sovereign."

Hearing this kind of life imprisonment punishment made both Lin Jiya and his little crow system tremble in undeniable fear. This man in front of them is none other than the Lord of Nether Prison land, the Netherworld.

"W-W-We will do our best, Sovereign!" said Lin Jiya and his system. Especially his system which knew what kind of hell the last layer of Nether Prison has.

Ye Xiajie ignored them.

System Yue spoke, [My lord you are awake!]

"Um. Don't bother me until my wife wakes up," said Ye Xiajie.

His voice and tone are colder than usual as his wife is not around. His eyes and face show no emotions and remain cold and aloof. As if he doesn't care for anything aside from his wife. Ye Xiajie only glanced at the shocked Hei Yuhua and noticed that his wife was not awake and decided to continue his meditation. He closed his eyes and returned the control of his body to Ye Yuyan.

Once the eyes once again opened the scarlet orbs from before were once again replaced with golden irises. Ye Yuyan took over the body once again.

The suffocating aura that comes from Ye Xiajie faded in the whole building. Yun Jie felt his legs soften in instinctive fright while Lou Wei could barely hold on as his legs were shaking so badly when Ye Xiajie took over.

Lou Wei murmured, "W-Who... was... that?"

"M-Must be... the sleeping God... inside Brother Ye. Yes, the same as Lord Hei." guessed Yun Jie.

"That's a God. Is he more unapproachable than Lord Hei?" said Lou Wei.

System Yue commented, [Don't think badly of Milord. He doesn't like almost everything, he would only change if Lord Hei is around.]

Lin Jiya commented, "So the rumors about the God of Void being only affectionate towards the God of Destruction is real?"

System Wuya pulled his host's hair using his beak as they really almost died just now. The rumors about the God of Void had been worse than that of the God of Destruction. Everyone says he is an apathetic man regardless if you are a human or a divine beast, the living or not.

[Control your mouth! We wouldn't know how we died if you keep speaking nonsense out of nowhere!] scolded System Wuya.

"Well~ I won't speak nonsense anymore," said Lin Jiya.

Only the bewildered Ye Yuyan who can't remember what happened after Ye Xiajie was overlooked anxiously and in incredulity.

Ye Yuyan asked, "What happened? What are these new memories in my head?"

System Yue answered, [Lord Ye woke up and temporarily took over your body. It was too dangerous a few minutes ago. This building was almost destroyed by Divine punishment.]

"Divine Punishment?" mumbled Ye Yuyan as he looked in front of him only to not see Lin Jiya who looked so proud and confident a few minutes ago.

"Look down. I'm here. Hi~" said Lin Jiya while kneeling on the ground.

Ye Yuyan asked with a confused expression on his face, "Why are you kneeling?"

"Because I was rude," said Lin Jiya.

Ye Yuyan nodded and said, "Okay. Continue kneeling inside the house. You are in the way."

He then noticed Yun Jie on the floor as well as Lou Wei who was half kneeling due to the trembling of his legs.

Ye Yuyan spoke, "Why are you two on the ground as well? Get inside the house!"

"Captain? You are captain right now, right?" asked Lou Wei.

Ye Yuyan looked at his subordinate weirdly, "What are you talking about?"

"His eyes aren't red. That's Brother Ye alright," said Yun Jie.

"Really?" asked Lou Wei. He could still feel the fright when Ye Xiajie woke up just now.

Yun Jie reached out his hands as he still couldn't feel his feet.

.....

"Brother Wei, carry me inside. My legs are still numb."

Lou Wei smiled and squatted down in front of his lower body facing his back on him. He allowed Yun Jie to jump on his back and carried him inside the condominium of his captain. Lin Jiya and his System Wuya stood up to follow inside.

Lin Jiya whispered to his system, "Don't you think they are too calm about us?"

[If the calculations are right. They had been living with the two Gods for more than a year. The two Gods are both levels higher than you. One is a born Celestial God and the other is born a Supreme God. Why would they care about a High God like you?] reasoned System Wuya.

Lin Jiya said, "You have a point there."

[Okay. Stop being a moron and get inside.]

Only then do they follow them in and even close the door after them.

Chapter 657: 12.59 Unknown Star – Modern ABO World: Second Case – Hidden Villain's Obsession.

Ye Yuyan and Hei Yuhua's Condominium Unit.

In the living room, everyone had gathered whether it was the owner of the house or the guests. They were all at the same table facing each other. Ye Yuyan and Hei Yuhua sat on one couch. Lou Wei and Yun Jie sat at the other. The special guests Lin Jiya and his System Wuya didn't occupy the other free couch instead kneeled on the carpet as they had said before.

Hei Yuhua stared at this host and system combo weirdly and asked, "Are you still going to continue kneeling there?"

"Yes. At least until we leave. We had offended a Lord Sovereign. Either way, it was all my fault." said Lin Jiya.

System Wuya sighed and said, [Just let my stupid host kneel. He deserves it anyway.]

[This room is under the authority of Lord Hei. The Heavenly Laws would turn a blind eye to anything in this place.] said System Yang, which floated out from Hei Yuhua.

Lin Jiya spoke, "Hehehe~ well then let me officially introduce myself. The vessel I am in right now is the original plot's minor villain, Lin Jiya. My original purpose in coming to this world is to prevent the loop tragic end of the true protagonists of this world.

I am from the highest SSS class world called Vearth. A High God of Wealth and a repairer from the God System. My name is Bai Jin."

Lou Wei spoke with confusion on his face, "Vearth? Highgod? God of Wealth? Repairer? Why couldn't I understand a thing of what you wish to say."

"Is this world called Vearth a place only a God can live?" asked Hei Yuhua.

Lin Jiya will now be called by his real name Bai Jin.

Bai Jin responded, "No. But only Gods can enter it. Vearth is the highest realm. You mortals can consider it as the real heaven realm. The minimum requirement to enter Vearth is to be a God. I myself had entered Vearth after ascending from my own world. Because only in Vearth a God can achieve Immortality."

“Immortality...? One can really exist for eternity?” asked Yun Jie.

System Wuya spoke, [Yes. But even Gods have a lifespan. We would only ease our fear of life once we entered the Celestial Immortal God Stage. For your information, the two esteemed beings inside Ye Yuyan and Hei Yuhua are a few of those immortals and they are one of the best.]

Everyone looked at Hei Yuhua and Ye Yuyan, it was more like they were trying to look at the hidden Gods sleeping inside them.

Frowning for a moment, Hei Yuhua thought of something.

Hei Yuhua asked, “Are they immortal, how come they appeared in our world. Lord Hei once told me that they weren’t supposed to enter our world. What does that mean?”

“Simple. Because those venerable lords were from the Nether System while this world is under the jurisdictions of the God System. Moreover, this is the problem of your world. Every time it entered a loop, everything in this world resets and the plot would repeat. Did you not know how many times you had been killed and revived?” said Bai Jin as he suddenly started pointing at the people in the group.

Bai Jin continues his explanation, “For example. In the first loop, the protagonist gong and protagonist shou of this world are Ye Yuyan and Hei Yuhua. You have lived a happy ending of capturing the Red Poppy Syndicate and was about to live a peaceful life. But a problem occurred, this is the Origin of your loop reincarnation.”

“An unknown variable entered this world and played with the plot. The original villain’s obsession was used by that unknown variable and gave him power beyond what your world should have. The power of the system and a reborn soul. After killing you guys in the first loop the villain didn’t expect the world to collapse.”

“He is an original resident of this world after all, why would he know that the life of the world was connected to the life of the Heavenly beloved sons which are the two of you. So, to prevent the destruction of the world, he used a time spell called reversal. But in the end, he is nothing but a human even though the system itself couldn’t use such a profound technique. In fact, time-related spells weren’t something an ordinary god could use. I can even use it.” said Bai Jin.

System Yue spoke, [Even in Vearth, there is only one person who can control Time elements with absolute proficiency. You had actually met him already. The time scroll we’ve used before is something he made for fun. It is the God of Void inside Ye Yuyan.]

Bai Jin said, “But I thought that the God of Void’s main element is darkness. Everyone deemed him as the Supreme God of Darkness.”

System Yang said, [That is also true. But the darkness is something he is born with. It would be his main strength even if he doesn’t control it. Lord God Ye’s proficiency for Fire and Time Elements was top class too. Especially the Time elements, there are even times that he was called the God of Time even though it wasn’t officially entitled to him.]

[I remembered hearing from Lord Hei that Lord God Ye can control three god domains. I wonder if it’s true?] said, System Yue.

System Yang answered, [It's real. Likewise, Lord Hei could also control three domains for elements of Ice, Space, and Blood.]

The mortals like Ye Yuyan, Hei Yuhua, Lou Wei, and Yun Jie were shocked but it's more like they are confused as they know nothing about cultivation, the god realm, and upper worlds. But Bai Jin and System Wuya were different. They are Gods of their own origin yet the power of domains is something they haven't achieved at their current strength yet. Even Gods had hierarchy and it just so happens that Lord Hei and Lord God Ye were few of the Gods standing at the peak of strength.

[We should resolve the problems of this world as soon as possible and stop the error of it looping. There is a requirement for the loop to begin that is... The death of Ye Yuyan and Hei Yuhua. If only one of them died then the loop would happen but if both of them died then the world would once again begin from the start. So be sure to keep at least one of you alive.] said System Wuya.

With a knowing smile, Bai Jin said, "That might be an impossible goal, Wuya. This is an omegaverse world and the two of them are fated, mates. When one dies the other would definitely follow that why that hidden mastermind had enjoyed tormenting their soul for a large number of times."

Hei Yuhua and Ye Yuyan's faces turned black while Lou Wei and Yun Jie's expressions were that of disbelief.

"No wonder you say this world keeps looping. Because if either of me or A'Yan dies, the world would be reset and all memories would go. Only the villain would be able to remember everything, is that it?" asked Hei Yuhua.

Bai Jin spoke, "Smart. But you are mistaken about one thing. Even if the real mastermind could remember, his control over his fate is no longer his. When he sells his soul to the devil due to his obsession, he is nothing but a slave to that system that had gone out of control. Our main mission is to capture that system and the second is to repair this world.

But well everything had gone out of hand and I had no control over it, don't you know how much I panic whenever you control the time of this world. If not for the notifications from above I would have thought that numerous destroyers had entered this world. I am only a weak god of wealth whose forte is to repair and heal."

"This world is no longer in your control? Then on whose control did it fall too?" asked Ye Yuyan.

Bai Jin spoke, "To the God with the highest authorization present in this world. It's the esteemed being you call Lord Hei. Only thee had the power to authority for both God System and Nether System."

"He is that powerful?" asked Hei Yuhua.

The people from Vearth collectively responded, "He is!"

System Yang said, [If it is authority alone he is even above the Lord God Ye who is the Sovereign of Netherworld.]

"How did he have that kind of authority?" asked Ye Yuyan. novelUsBdotc\o\M

Answered System Yue, [Because his uncle is the creator of God System and married the Supreme Sovereign of Vearth at the same time he is the wife of the Supreme Sovereign of Nether System.]

System Yang commented, [We should stop the conversation about the Upper Realm to this point and focus on what we are supposed to talk about at this moment.]

Bai Jin said, “Okay. Let’s make a plan on how to capture one of the Red Poppy Syndicate Executives whose codename is Iris!”

System Wuya said, [There should be enough time before the full moon arrives. The reason we can help you is that my host had full control of the Stock Market both locally and internationally. For Iris who loves money this situation where he cannot get money was the worst for him.]

Bai Jin said, “In fact, he had tried to hack into my account multiple times. But that is impossible, hacking is my second most favorite hobby after making money~”

Hearing that Bai Jin had full control over the Stock Market, everyone in the room was surprised though it might be because they know that the person in front of them is the God of Wealth that things end like this.

Bai Jin seems to notice their thoughts and comments, “My~ please don’t look at me like that. I might be a God of wealth because my powers are completely restricted when I enter a mortal’s body. Plus, I am only fulfilling this vessel’s original soul’s wish to become rich. Gods who descended had to complete the wishes of their vessels after all~”

Those meaningful gazes were staring at Ye Yuyan and Hei Yuhua and the married couple immediately knew what his words meant. The reason why the time of the world reversed even before the loop and why they were able to retain their memories is because Lord Hei fulfilled the wishes of the two.

Bai Jin commented, “But you four are extremely lucky. Even I am not able to reverse the time much less allow your soul to remain in your body after the time regression with your full memories attached and your soul unharmed. But I guess that should be expected right?~ Just thinking of the Esteemed Beings inside you, even an impossible can be possible.”

“Okay, let’s resume the meeting. I am willing to provide all the wealth of this world to be under your control. With this, you should be able to capture that human called Iris and get full control over him.”

Yun Jie asked, “Is that... possible?”

“Yes! I am the God of Wealth after all!” said Bai Jin.

System Wuya said, [Believe him. Nothing can go wrong with his brain as long as money is involved. As for the other problems, never believe him. My host is a nutcase!]

Bai Jin said, “Come on~ that’s not true!”

[Said by the moron who intentionally called for Heaven’s wrath to fall on his head.] said System Wuya.

Seeing their carefree interactions, the people inside the living room were laughing delightfully at such a sight. They would have never expected to see a God this carefree and who doesn’t even look down on mortals like them.

These guys got along well until Bai Jin and his system prepared to leave as they completed the task they had come from. System Yue was the one who sent them out.

Bai Jin recalled something and warned Ye Yuyan and Hei Yuhua as well as the rest of the group.

“By the way, be careful. That system staying with the mastermind must have already noticed my existence just now. I can be your decoy to get his system’s attention while you guys can do whatever plans you have with his host. The villain’s name was never mentioned right from the beginning so I cannot help you identify him or her. Wuya do you not know anything about that hidden villain’s identity?” asked Bai Jin to his System.

System Wuya responded, [Nothing much different from what you know. AH! I think his obsession is about his hatred for the Protagonist Gong. He hates Ye Yuyan a lot!]

Chapter 658: 12.60 Unknown Star – Modern ABO World: Second Case – System Baishe

Somewhere within the city...

When the dark clouds suddenly gathered above the condominium which was owned by Ye Yuyan, a few special existences noticed that it was a punishment from the heavenly laws. Those peering eyes notice that not only had the divine punishment indeed fallen down from the sky, but they’ve also witnessed the scene of a shadow dragon appearing from the darkness flying towards the heavenly laws and eating the heavenly tribulation lightning as if it was a snack.

A man was near the scene and saw this kind of scene.

The man was obviously in shock as that was his first time seeing such a thing.

“Was that a Divine Punishment and a dragon from the darkness?!” exclaimed the human connection to the system unrecorded anywhere. The true mastermind of this world’s changes.

This system had an avatar of a white snake yet with a menacing aura spoke.

[Indeed. This is the house of the Protagonist Gong and his team members. That means an outsider had approached them. Someone is trying to help destroy the ploy I made for you.] said the White Snake System.

.....

His host responded, “What!? What should we do, Master Baishe?”

[Wait outside the condominium building and don’t get seen. We should at least know how this God looks and estimate how strong he is.] said System White Snake (Baishe)

His hidden villain host spoke, “Master Baishe is already a God of this world and you are almost a High God. Who would be able to defeat you?”

System Baishe responded, [Don’t look down on outsiders. Though they’ve borrowed a mortal’s body to descend, that doesn’t mean they are weak. It’s just that their powers were restricted in this world unlike me who was born in this world.]

His hidden villain host said, “Let’s go. Since we are near already I will help you look at that so-called outsider of yours.”

By the time they reached the entrance of the condominium building, they had bumped into Lin Jiya with a black crow laying on his head. Since systems are something, not mortals can see, System Wuya would love to stay on top of Bai Jin's head.

The hidden villain asked in his mind, 'Are these them?'

System Baishe had disappeared in thin air after feeling the strength of the host and system duo in front of the hidden villain. He had hidden himself in his own system space. But he didn't expect it was already too late and that he was already seen by System Wuya.

[It's them but act naturally as if you came here before you want to meet the protagonist gong. Don't clash with them. They are both High Gods.] said System Baishe.

Unknown to the two of them, System Wuya is a much more upgraded system and its specs are higher than a newly born System like System Baishe. Any system whether it was hiding or not would be noticed by him. This helps the registered Systems to know if the system near them is a legal or illegal system. System Baishe is obviously one of the latter.

System Wuya's thoughts, {An illegal system? No, a newly born one made from his late obsession. But he already made himself the enemy of those two esteemed beings. It is too late for him to repent.}

Bai Jin asked, "Something wrong, Wuya?"

[Nothing. We've finished our business. Time to go home. Whether the Protagonist gong and the Protagonist shou survive depends on them already.]

"We can still help them right? How about I hack the International system and get information to all executives of the Red Poppy Syndicate and send it to the Protagonist gong? It wouldn't be interference that way. Plus, my role as the minor villain is already useless." said Bai Jin

System Wuya said, [Do what you want? I will protect you regardless.]

"Is that so? Don't worry. After we completed this world I should be able to redeem you in the Nether System and official become my system." said Bai Jin

System Wuya said, [Sigh~ it's because you saved too much of your points and didn't exchange it with resources that you are stuck in High God cultivation and we can only linger more in lower grade worlds.]

Bai Jin said, "It's fine. I'm not in a hurry anyway~ beside I have you by my side."

[I will be with you until the end.]

"Hahaha~ that's good then!" said Bai Jin as the two of them disappeared in thin air after passing by some people who were lingering around the road.

The hidden villain and host of System Baishe were stunned by what they'd just heard. Their pair was always ahead of Ye Yuyan and his group because he had System Baishe helping him with everything. Now with the interference of another God with the system, it would be hard for them to continue the plan they had already decided before. They wanted to put Ye Yuyan through more suffering and squeeze more negative feelings from him to feed the System but now they must get what they could and once again force the whole world to enter a new loop.

The hidden villain asked, "What should we do now, Master Baishe?"

[Change of plan. We must get what we can. Kill the people around Ye Yuyan one by one. Let's start with Lou Wei. Afterward, kill that lady, the sister of Yun Jie to make Yun Jie hate them. Use Hei Yuhua well. Make him kill as many people as he can from Ye Yuyan's side. Including his current team, that Director Yu Xi, and the Prime Minister. Since it would be too late if the information about your executives are revealed, make the move first. Let them feel despair and then we can kill them all over again.]

"I understand, Master Baishe," said the hidden villain of this world.

[You focus on your enemies. I will try to stop the side which involves the other god and his system. During those times you can only rely on your connections in this world. I might have to focus on the other side and not be able to contact you for a while. But you can still use the exchange mall. I will be back soon.] said System Baishe as he decided to separate from his host to follow Bai Jin and System Wuya. Stopping them from getting involved with the world plot any further.

"Be careful, Master Baishe."

[Hm... Do your task.] said System Baishe before disappearing in thin air. He turned invisible as he tried to follow after Bai Jin and System Wuya.

They didn't know that this result was something Bai Jin and System Wuya had planned to do. As long as they occupied the System that helps the hidden villain, they should be able to handle this villain that wreck their lives for so many lifetimes

The hidden villain thickness left behind suddenly brought out his phone and started calling one of his executives. He called for Nightshade and issued a command to gather. Their plans must be executed all at the same time.

Ring. Ring. Ring.

Click!

{Leader!?!}

Poppy spoke, "Gather everyone excluding Hydrangea. We will have a meeting at my place at midnight."

{Affirmative, Poppy.}

The call ended abruptly after that conversation. The hidden villain looked at the tall building, the condominium owned by Ye Yuyan, with an unsympathetic gaze and eyes full of hatred.

"You have killed my twin elder brother. I would never make you feel happy in your whole life, Ye Yuyan."

After Bai Jin and System Wuya left the area, they noticed someone was chasing after them.

Bai Jin commented, "En~ he indeed followed us as you have said, Wuya."

[It's to be expected. He didn't know that Systems aren't allowed to be too far from his host or they would lose connection. Plus, the longer he is away from him the harder for him to reconnect. Our task is to capture him. Don't look at it. Even if it's a newly born system, it has been backed up by this world as he was created from all the negative thoughts of the mortals of this world. This world is his territory,] explained System Wuya.

Bai Jin asked, "What should we do then, Wuya?"

[You can already make a pseudo-domain right? I will help you make it a real domain. But do it on my signal, as long as he entered our domain he would be powerless against us. Don't forget to buy that Deity binding rope from the mall. Don't be thrifty. The Systems of the two Venerable Lords promised to give us one wish each.] said System Wuya.

Bai Jin smiled as this promise from System Yang and System Yue can be considered a promise made by the two Venerable beings. In short, as their wishes don't go against the Divine laws any wishes are possible.

"I know already. You are so naggy, Wuya," said Bai Jin.

[I will contact the other side for a bit and inform them about the appearance of the hidden villain boss. I think they would be surprised to know who it was.] said System Wuya.

Bai Jin said, "True. I didn't even expect it was him. He looks so naive and like a good person."

The meeting continued in the living even after Bai Jin and System Wuya. They were waiting for a message from the duo who just left whether they had fished their target well. While they wait, System Yang informs the group about the certain changes that would happen after the hidden villain learned about the existence of Bai Jin and his system.

System Yang spoke, [Let's talk about the possible changes once the enemies learned about the existence of the God of Wealth and his system. The villain that was helping the hidden villain would definitely ask his host to start killing people on our side. Lou Wei must be the first. This time it might involve everyone including those not involved in your past life like the newly saved sister of Yun Jie, even the Prime Minister.]

Ye Yuyan slammed the table in anger.

BAM!

"They dared!!!" said Ye Yuyan while grinding his teeth as he held back his rage.

Hei Yuhua asked, "Would our daughter be exposed to this as well?"

System Yue honestly answered, [It's unavoidable.]

Hearing this, Hei Yuhua and Ye Yuyan's moods were the ugliest. Most involved people are the ones they are trying to protect and remove from the eyes of the enemies. Now they would become one of the targets their enemies would most likely focus on.

Silence and tension descended in the room.

System Yue felt these guys were too pitiful and did not know how to comfort them but System Yang is different. He spoke straightforwardly even if his words would harm them yet at the same time advised them as well.

[You weren't able to capture any executives in your past lives before. It was because they toyed with your relationships and made a fool out of all of you. In the end, you can only kill one another. But this time is different, they might have one system helping the enemies but you have at least three on your side this time.

Though we cannot openly get involved with other mortals aside from you guys as long as we have not seen it is possible to help you. The only problem is to make your family believe in something they couldn't see and trust in you that we would definitely help them. If you can do that then we would keep your family members alive.] said System Yang.

Yun Jie asked, "When I showed the effects of the disguised pill to my sister, you didn't comment. Does that mean we can use the things exchanged from the system and show them the effects of it?"

"Is that allowed? Some things in the system mall are beyond what this world could achieve," said Ye Yuyan.

System Yue spoke, [The things you have exchanged are things that are allowed to exist in this world. Those which are not compatible with your worlds were filtered by me. Things like cultivation techniques that use qi are not usable here since this world does not possess qi. So, I had it removed from the mall and you guys had never seen it before.

As for the rest of things, it might be impossible for now but your world is semi-futuristic and semi-supernatural. Once your world upgraded in a few more years those you bought in the System Mall would be replicated as time passes by. That's why it wasn't against the heavenly laws when you use it.]

Thinking of the effects of the pills and things they've exchanged in the system mall, Ye Yuyan and Hei Yuhua found a way to convince the Prime Minister and the rest of their family members.

Ye Yuyan spoke, "Let's go home tonight and meet with Father."

"I will accompany you, A'Yan." said Hei Yuhua.

Lou Wei spoke, "Then we will also come over after picking us, sister-in-law."

"Whose sister-in-law?" asked Yun Jie.

Lou Wei said, "Sister-in-law Su! You're elder sister." he said grinning, making it hard for Yun Jie to get angry. He could only snort at him for his shamelessness.

Chapter 659: 12.61 Unknown Star – Modern ABO World: Second Case – New Ecstasy Flower

They were having a conversation about their plans of what to do tonight. They've all decided to come back home and prepare for the enemy's side retaliating against them and their family members.

Then suddenly someone knocked at the door of Yr Yuyan's condominium unit.

Knock. Knock. Knock.

System Yue said, [It's Officer Ying Wu. He came bringing the files for the second case the group needs to solve. But that annoying Yi Rouya is here again.]

Lou Wei commented, "Why is that lunatic here again? He had been rejected by the captain multiple times already." He said as he stood up preparing to open the door.

"You should expect that of him. Isn't he a shameless person who even blocks people to get what he wants? He's a slut even in the past." said Yun Jie.

Hei Yuhua said, "Okay. Don't forget to act as you usually do. We are currently hiding our identity."

.....

Ye Yuyan said to Lou Wei, "Don't allow that surnamed Yi inside the house. I don't care if you point a gun on his head."

Lou Wei grinned evilly and said, "Yes Sir!"

He first peered at the peephole and saw Yi Rouya standing in front of the door like a proud peacock while Officer Ying Wu looked expressionless standing behind this little peacock. He obviously gave up fighting with this fake superior of his.

Lou Wei thought of something bad and grabbed the toy gun near the shoe cabinet. As soon as he opened the door he pointed the gun at Yi Rouya's forehead with an evil grin on the corner of his lips he said,

"What is this?~ Aren't you that slut that persistently annoyed that old man Ye? I heard him saying to shoot you down if you were seen near this building. How did you get up in the building again? Using force authority, is it? But remember I am only following orders~"

BANG!

Ahhhh!

Yi Rouya and Officer Ying Wu could see that Lou Wei is planning to pull the trigger. Yi Rouya was terrified to death while Officer Ying Wu tried to move the direction of the gun to the sky but grabbed Lou Wei's wrist. He did it perfectly but the sound of the gun firing was still too loud which immediately frightened Yi Rouya to the core. He had fallen seated in the cold hallway and an unknown yellow substance came out in the middle of his pants while trembling so badly at that certain point of death.

Officer Ying Wu asked in anger, "Wei Lou!!! What are you doing? Are you going to kill someone in broad daylight!?"

"Come on, Officer Ying Wu~ look at my gun again. Do you think this toy is real?~" asked Wei Lou teasingly. In front of Officer Ying Wu, the guys in the group use their second identity and hide their real one.

Officer Ying Wu was bewildered at first but pulled down the wrist of Wei Lou and saw a small confetti banner coming out of the gun hole. This is clearly just a toy gun for parties.

"It's a toy gun?" said Officer Ying Wu as he snatched the toy from Wei Lou's hand.

Wei Lou moved his gaze to Yi Rouya who wet himself in front of everyone and was now red-faced in anger and rage. He is glaring at Wei Lou as if he wanted to eat the man alive.

“Y-You... You bastard!!!” screamed Yi Rouya.

Wei Lou smirked at him and said, “Don’t tell me you are shameless enough to enter your crush’s room after peeing on your pants~ how embarrassing. Tsk! tsk!” Then he ignored the glaring man on the floor and walked back into the room ignoring the curses behind him.

Officer Ying Wu doesn’t know what to say in this situation but he knew that the Prosecutor must have done this on purpose. The reason Yi Rouya was able to climb up the building is that an old superintendent from the police Headquarters had personally dropped Yi Rouya at the condominium building.

The guards before they could even contact their lord were scolded silly by the old man and Yi Rouya took this as an opportunity to get inside the building. It was by coincidence that Officer Ying Wu was also on his way to meet Prosecutor Ye.

Officer Ying Wu suggested politely to Yi Rouya.

“I-Inspector Yi, I suggest you come back first. Your current situation doesn’t look good at all.” said officer Ying Wu then he also went inside the condominium unit following Wei Lou inside.

From inside the room, Ye Yuyan’s cold voice can be heard from the inside.

“What the fuck is that smell!? Close the door of my house for me!” said Ye Yuyan.

Officer Ying Wu could only follow the orders and gave Inspector Yi Rouya a pitiful gaze before closing the door to his face. Yi Rouya who was shut out was about to explode in rage but he couldn’t do anything to the owner and the people inside the room.

After screaming a mountain of curses he left the condominium building under the scrutinizing and disdainful gazes of all the guards and staff in the area. He felt that he was slapped on the face multiple times and Inspector Yi Rouya could only run away from the scene.

On his way home, Inspector Yi Rouya is still making a scene as he continues cursing all the way. Everyone on the street was looking at him like a lunatic. He is an omega but his mouth is already too poisonous no one would marry someone this annoying!

“What the fuck!? Fucking hell!!! Why do I always end up like this!? I did everything! How come it ended up completely different from what I had remembered!! AHH!!”

He bumped into a man wearing a long white coat for doctors. This man looks a bit delicate with his white skin which is obviously not too exposed to sunlight, slender physique from lack of exercise, and a pair of glasses with both ends attached to a thin golden chain looped around his neck.

Bumped!

Inspector Yi Rouya hit his head at whoever blocked his way and glared at the man in the white coat before him.

“Are you blind? What is the use of your eyes if you can’t even see what’s in front of you!?” screamed Inspector Yi Rouya in anger.

The man in the robe is blind in his right eye. There’s a trace of a wound on the corner of their eyes creating a vertical line that gashes through his right cheek from his missing right eye. His only remaining light lavender left eye helped him see his surroundings. This man’s delicate face was destroyed by that large wound on his face.

“Is it my problem? Hmm~” asked the man in the white coat but now a cold smile was hanging at the corner of his mouth.

Inspector Yi Rouya thought this man was creepy, especially with that fake smile and cold yet glowing eyes looking at him like a test subject.

While trembling Inspector Yi Rouya tried to run away but suddenly felt his body unable to move out of nowhere. The man in the doctor’s coat leaned near his ears and whispered, “I always used scentless drugs on me that put those who approached me in an unacceptable range to suddenly feel numb all over until he could no longer feel his limbs. How does it feel!? Of course! Even your tongue is numbed, preventing you from speaking. Hehehe~”

Feeling that he lost complete control over his body, Inspector Yi Rouya feels terrified of the man in front of him. He knew that this lunatic is the same kind as those insane doctors who even experimented on living humans even though it is forbidden. Like the famous figure of Doctor Frankenstein.

“Either way... I will enjoy playing with you~” said the doctor in a white robe who had kidnapped Inspector Yi Rouya on the road. novel.usb\dotc\o\m

Back to the condominium building.

Ye Yuyan’s place...

Officer Ying Wu introduced the next case the team would handle next and completely chose to forget Inspector Yi Rouya’s unwelcome visit to the Prosecutor’s place.

System Yang’s voice can be heard speaking in Hei Yuhua’s mind.

[That Inspector Yi Rouya had finally made contact with one of the Red Poppy Syndicate’s executives. This executive wore a doctor’s white coat and a pair of gold framed glasses himself. But unlike what your memories say that he came to them, someone kidnapped him instead.]

‘I see. A lot of things had changed ever since we destroyed the world plot. This might be the butterfly effect,’ responded Hei Yuhua in his thoughts.

[I will send a drone to follow them closely and get a few video recordings of this man.] said System Yang.

Hei Yuhua, ‘Thank you as always, System Yang.’

[Just doing my duty.]

Only Hei Yuhua can hear System Yang's voice. He couldn't help but show a stunned expression which Officer Ying Wu noticed.

Officer Ying Wu asked, "Are you alright, Heiyu?"

"Hm. My feet were throbbing. The effect of painkillers must have gone out." said Hei Yuhua.

Ye Yuyan instinctively prepared to stand up and get his wife his medicines but a hand stopped him from doing so. It was Yun Jie who stopped him. This one touch was enough to bring Ye Yuyan to the reality that right now Hei Yuhua isn't his wife but his most hated person, Hua Heiyu.

Yun Jie said, "Where's your medicine? I will get it for you?"

"Kitchen. Upper cabinet on the right side. Thanks." said Hua Heiyu.

"Um."

Ye Yuyan said, "Tsk! It's just a few opened blisters. You are overreacting."

"I hate pain. So I complain. What can you do about it!" retorted Hua Heiyu.

Ye Yuyan was pissed by his reply but was stopped by Lou Wei who was about to jump on Hua Heiyu thinking of spanking him.

Lou Wei said, "Old man. You are fighting with a child again. Can't you get along?"

Ye Yuyan and Hua Heiyu both replied, "No!"

Sigh~

After Yun Jie came back with Hua Heiyu's painkillers, Officer Ying Wu resumed the meeting.

"The second case is about drugs. I don't know if Wei Lou, Heiyu, and Jie Yun heard about it but the Prosecutor should know. It's that extremely famous love drug in the market, Ecstasy Flower."

As expected Ye Yuyan's face was covered in black lines when he heard about this.

Ye Yuyan said, "Impossible! We've caught every single one of those men on that last raid that year!"

"We also thought of such. But the proof of its once again spreading in this city's bars and back alleys buy and sell rumors are once again circulating. This news is legit." said Officer Ying Wu.

Ye Yuyan asked, "Where is that rumored location? Which are their targets this time?"

"Young adults. They are targeting high school and college students," replied Officer Ying Wu.

Hua Heiyu spoke with his usual nonchalant voice, "I know about that drug. It's an extreme stimulant for excluding pheromones. They are most likely targeting Alphas and Omegas. Since young ones had no absolute control over their pheromones, unlike adult ones. It must be a more diluted version than the original one. Either that or this Ecstasy Flower spreading now is a new version instead. What's the effect of the Ecstasy Flower, in this case, Wuwu?"

Officer Ying Wu said, "You are right. There are some changes in this Ecstasy Flower for this case. It was not the usual extremely strong love drug. But it had a mild effect on both the Berserk Concoction and Ecstasy Flower. The last victim was found in the back alley of a bar. He had raped an omega who was passing by the road. Not only had he forced himself on the victim, but the traces left behind were also gruesome. Please look at the photos yourself.”

With an uncomfortable expression on his face, Officer Ying Wu showed the photos of the latest victim to the team. In the photos, the scene of limbs being ripped off with undeniable strength. It was like a beast biting off the flesh from the bone yet it did not eat the meat. The two arms and legs were ripped off and the nape had a huge gash or bitten part at the gland area of the Omega. This victim no longer looks like a human.

Wei Lou hurls upon seeing this scene. Jie Yun looked pale as saw the photos and immediately averted his eyes. The picture on the table was too inhumane. Ye Yuyan’s face is completely serious but he remains calm. Hua Heiyu stares at the photos with apathetic eyes as if he doesn’t care what photos are before his eyes. But he focuses on looking at some clues that can be found in this photo.

Ye Yuyan raised his head and look at Officer Ying Wu, “What about the murderer? Was he caught?”

“Yes but... Ended up looking completely different from before,” said Officer Ying Wu as he placed another two photos on the table.

The photo on the right is a bright smiling face of a young and confident alpha while the photo on the left is an old man with wrinkled saggy skin as if it was about to fall off his body.

Wei Lou and Jie Yun noticed the huge difference in the two photos but recalled Officer Ying Wu’s words just now.

Wei Lou said in shock, “Don’t tell me this man...!!!”

“Are they the same person?” asked Jie Yun.

Officer Ying Wu nods his head and said,

“They are the same person. The photo on the current him after he took the Ecstasy Flower.”

Chapter 660: 12.62 Unknown Star – Modern ABO World: Second Case – Nothing. I’m thinking too much.

Wei Lou and Jie Yun were still looking at the huge difference between the two photos that the current victim and murderer. They could hardly see the similarities these two men have.

“The age gap between these two people is too large. Is this the same person for real!?” asked Wei Lou.

Officer Ying Wu responded, “Same person we had checked his DNA and all. Everything matches 100 percent. Only the current state of this man had traces of unknowing compound drugs in his system. The laboratory hasn’t gotten breakthroughs about those components yet.”

“You can’t get the component of that drug with this country’s current technology. I suggest you ask for the international alliance group’s help when it comes to this kind of thing,” suggested Hua Heiyu.

Officer Ying Wu said, “I will mention it to the Upper echelons.”

“What else can you see about this case?” asked Ye Yuyan. He was seriously asking the brain of their team for his theories.

Hua Heiyu said, “Diluted effects of both the Berserk concoction and Ecstasy Flower drug. Obviously, the people behind this case would no longer be ordinary people. Thinking of the world, the deceased Doctor Shen said before he died the medicine he used on himself which took his life was given to him by someone.

.....

This someone is clearly a person with no simple background. It wasn't an ordinary case like the ones before. There should be a big man or a big group behind this case. Do you have someone or something that came into your mind? Possible suspects at least.”

He was asking this question to Ye Yuyan who had been working the longest for the police. He wouldn't achieve his position as a Prosecutor for nothing.

Ye Yuyan thought for a moment and said, “There is a syndicate in my mind but those guys usually work on international grounds. Though, recently they might have descended in this country instead seeing this kind of weird drug circulating in the black market and back alleys.”

Ye Yuyan answered, “Internationally Wanted Syndicate in more than 8 countries including ours. The Red Poppy Syndicate. Their goal is world chaos.”

“A Syndicate this crazy exists!?” said Wei Lou.

Officer Ying Wu with a frown said, “They do. What's the worst is that no one knew the identity of the leader and his executives. All the Police Department and the government knew is that the main criminals of this group use poisonous flowers as code names like Poppy, Nightshade, Iris, Hydrangea, Oleander, Azalea, Hyacinth, and so on and so forth. The leader had the codename ‘Poppy’.”

“I heard a bit of them while I'm still an activated contract killer. To be exact they even send work to the organization I used to be in. They venture into most illegal industries like drug selling, human trafficking, human experiments, hacking, assassination, and more. They are the worst of the bunch. Lunatics who kill for an unreasonable reason.” said Jie Yun.

Wei Lou commented, “This sounds crazy. No wonder they are internationally wanted!”

“So? Since they handle drugs, do you think that the medicine that Doctor Shen used at the end was given from them and this Ecstasy Flower love drug they made as well? Heh~ sounds interesting~” said Hua Heiyu as he showed a rare smile yet it looked so evil and dangerous.

Ye Yuyan said, “Don't think about it. Even if that Syndicate indeed had come into this country then the government would have made a move from their side. I'm just a tiny Prosecutor who just got recently reinstated. I had nothing to do with them.”

“I don't think so. Just your identity as the sole son of the Prime Minister of this country alone was enough to get their eyes on you. I have a feeling that one of their executives must be involved in this case given to you. Or such a weird case would be considered closed and forgotten if you didn't exist~" said Hua Heiyu.

To Officer Ying Wu, the team made by Prosecutor Ye Yuyan is only created to solve cases the Police Headquarters couldn't solve. They aren't supposed to get involved with a notorious syndicate like the Red Poppy Syndicate. The team talking about this Syndicate is to connect the current case to them allowing their team to be concerned with the Syndicate in a way forcing Officer Ying Wu to collect information about this Syndicate for them. In short, the team is acting a skit on the spot.

As expected Officer Ying Wu finally asked for that sentence the whole team had been waiting for.

"Are you trying to say that the case about the serial killer, Doctor Shen, and this illegal drugs case had involvement of that Red Poppy Syndicate? They are in our country?" asked Officer Ying Wu.

Ye Yuyan said, "Maybe... Didn't the coast guards say they've seen an unregistered ship by the piers suddenly appearing one night? It might be them who was riding that ship."

"This... I will investigate it further. I need to return to the headquarters. What should you guys be doing afterward?" asked Officer Ying Wu.

Hua Heiyu said, "I can't walk with these feet. Staying here to heal~"

"That's okay but you can be left alone. The Prosecutor needs to stay with you 24/7. It is the orders from above." said Officer Ying Wu.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan clicked his tongue in annoyance.

"This cripple is blocking me from doing my job!" he complains.

Hua Heiyu rebuked, "Who asked you to stay here with me!? You are free to fuck off!! Bastard!"

"What did you say!?" Exclaimed Prosecutor Ye Yuyan after being called a bastard by the man he hates. He jumps on Hua Heiyu and strangles him on the couch. The other three had to work together or separate two.

Officer Ying Wu said to his superior, "Prosecutor Ye! You promised not to kill Heiyu in exchange for him joining your team. Please don't forget!"

Tsk!

"He is not dead yet. You are thinking too much," said Prosecutor Ye Yuyan.

Officer Ying Wu recalled the warnings the higher-ups had given him about the hatred of Ye Yuyan towards Hua Heiyu and their conditions to allow Hua Heiyu out of the prison.

"Prosecutor Ye, please don't be like this, or I will have to bring back Heiyu to the City Prison."

"I know already. I won't kill him as long as he holds back his tongue!" said Prosecutor Ye Yuyan.

Only to see Hua Heiyu giving him a pair of middle fingers with an expressionless face. Prosecutor Ye Yuyan could feel the veins in his temples throbbing about to explode due to intense anger.

The two were about to jump on each other again and brawl but the other three stopped them on time. Hua Heiyu finally chose to ignore Prosecutor Ye Yuyan when Officer Ying Wu gave him a box of donuts. He happily munches on them while sitting on the couch ignoring everything except for the donut box on his lap.

Without Hua Heiyu pissing off Prosecutor Ye Yuyan, the latter started issuing orders to the three of them. Officer Ying Wu will need to return to the headquarters to gather more information about the case and the Red Poppy Syndicate. Wei Lou would check the back alleys in the case. Jie Yun would visit the schools involved in the case.

System Yue spoke to Ye Yuyan through his mind and said, [Make a reason to meet Lou Wei and Yun Jie alone without Officer Ying Wu's presence around. I need to give them something.]

Ye Yuyan heard System Yue's request and chose to do something about it.

"This case is much more dangerous than before. I cannot give you a weapon that can be used to directly kill someone but giving some baton should suffice. Follow me." said Prosecutor Ye Yuyan to Wei Lou and Jie Yun.

Wei Lou said, "It's better to give me metal knuckles instead of any weapon."

He and Jie Yun followed Prosecutor Ye Yuyan to the storage room while Officer Ying Wu waited in the living room with Hua Heiyu.

Officer Ying Wu was staring at the back figures of the three people with serious expressions and almost forgot about Hei Yuhua who was left behind with him.

System Yang commented through Hei Yuhua's thoughts, [This man's eyes had hidden hatred whenever he looked at your mate. Be careful.]

Hei Yuhua slightly narrowed his eyes in contemplation but he reacted normally as if his face hadn't changed in that split second.

Hua Heiyu asked Officer Ying Wu who was sitting beside him, "Do you want some, Wuwu?"

"Then just one. Thanks, Heiyu!" said Officer Ying Wu while Hua Heiyu just nodded his head as he continued eating his donut.

A smile replaced that serious expression on Officer Ying Wu's face for a split second but he didn't expect Hei Yuhua to be observing his actions quietly all this time.

At the storage room, System Yue had asked Ye Yuyan to exchange some things in the system mall like hidden weapons, pills that resist all kinds of poison as well as a small detector that would show some signs if there is something or someone eavesdropping or tailing them. All for safety purposes.

After all, they even heard from the God of Wealth, Bai Jin, that the hidden villain of this world had a system by his side. This could only mean that special things that can be redeemed in the system mall are also available to him though it might be a lower class than what their team uses. System Yue and System Yang are both divine class systems, they are made differently from the beginning.

As a cover, Ye Yuyan gave the two some melee weapons as weapons to hide their hidden weapons. On Lou Wei's hand is a police tonfa which is customized not to break easily even if he used it to hit metal. In Jie Yun's case, he was given a retractable baton with electric shock as special effects.

Officer Ying Wu whispered to his superior when he saw the weapons in Wei Lou and Jie Yun's hands.

"What is that really alright? To give them weapons?"

"It's only some blunt weapons for self-protection. Just warned them not to use it on civilians. Now go away and do your work. I can't even leave because I have to babysit a fucking brat!" said Ye Yuyan.

Officer Ying Wu glanced at Hua Heiyu and said, "Boss, don't fight with Heiyu anymore. If you are pissed just give him food and he will be quiet."

Tsk!

"I know. Go do your jobs!" said Ye Yuyan as he ushered them to leave his house.

After the three left his house, Ye Yuyan went back to the living and sat on the couch. He carried his wife and placed him on his lap helping him remove the crumbs at the corner of his mouth. novelUs&.c\o\m

Hei Yuhua offered a bitten toffee-flavored donut to his husband and asked, "Coffee flavor. Not too sweet. Try it, A'Yan. Ahh~"

Chomped!

"It's not bad. But don't eat too much before lunch, Yu'er," said Ye Yuyan.

Hei Yuhua obediently nodded his head in agreement and said, "System Yang said just now that Inspector Yi Rouya had been kidnapped by one of the executives of the Red Poppy Syndicate this morning."

"Hn? Isn't he supposed to have a good relationship with them acting as a spy for them? What happened?" said Ye Yuyan.

Hei Yuhua replied, "Must be a butterfly effect of the changes we've made in the storyline. They might have kidnapped him not to be used against us but instead towards the Police Headquarters instead. After all, you openly showed your disdain for him."

"It should be fine. Except for Yu Xi, the others do not know about our real identities anyway. They won't get anything from those useless old men in the upper echelons of the Police Department." said Ye Yuyan.

Hei Yuhua asked, "Your friend, Director Yu Xi won't tell anything to Officer Ying Wu right?"

"No, I told him to not tell anyone, including his people. Is there something wrong with Ying Wu?" asked Ye Yuyan.

Hei Yuhua didn't answer right away but he recalled the weird serious expression of Officer Ying Wu a few minutes ago and System Yang's warning.

"Nothing. I'm thinking too much," said Hei Yuhua.
