

Worlds Plot 661

Chapter 661: 12.63 Unknown Star – Modern ABO World: Second Case – Datura and Yi Rouya

Within the city, at some abandoned warehouse on the outskirts of the city...

Inspector Yi Rouya couldn't remember when he had lost consciousness and where he had been brought to. When he once tried to open his eyes, he almost couldn't open them due to the bright light in his surroundings. Later he noticed a hard sensation behind him when he tried to move.

But he knew that he wasn't lying down on something but instead chained to the cold wall behind him as he could feel his weight pulling him down due to gravity. He could feel metal rings around his wrists and ankles obviously pinning him to the wall. The scent of blood from his surroundings was too strong and an intense fear hit his heart. He almost did not want to open his eyes due to terror.

He started trembling so badly that Inspector Yi Rouya couldn't hold back his whole body from shaking from instinctively fear. For a coward like him, he is most afraid of death. So the situation he is in right now almost frightened him to death.

His eyes were completely closed, fear prevented itself from opening them until a warm thing fell on his face. It was a warm droplet of liquid but when the scent of rust assaulted his nose, Inspector Yi Rouya couldn't hold back and shrieked. No longer able to continue pretending to be unconscious he could only fearfully open his eyes.

Through the blurry and distorted vision, he saw that familiar pale white face and gold-rimmed glasses of that delicate-looking doctor. It was the same one with a missing right eye and a huge wound vertically lining his right cheeks connected to his nonexistent right eye. His remaining light lavender left eyes look dull under the light clearly he is almost half blind with these eyes as well. novE\usb/c\o\m

That white coat usually worn by doctors looks out of place from the scene on the street before, now completely compatible with the setup of the area he could now see with his eyes. Spotlight is used during hospital surgeries. A clean table full of knives of different types of scalpels and tools for surgery. The white rubber gloves this man in front of him was wearing and the strong scent of blood in his surroundings.

The glaring light on himself was so strong that Inspector Yi Rouya could only narrow his eyes instinctively. He recognized the man in the white coat before him. It was the same person he not only offended in the alleys and the same person who kidnapped him.

He heard a voice that was both excited and cheerful, saying, "You are awake."

Inspector Yi Rouya once again trembled to hear the voice talking to him. Those thin lips curled up into a smile frightened him to almost crying but he still held back in fear of angering the person who kidnapped him. His fear makes him cry with soundless tears.

He really couldn't hold back his tears as the scene in front of him was too frightening. Those slender pale white hands covered in white gloves were holding a scalpel soaked in crimson blood. The cheerful smile on this man's face made him look friendly in normal circumstances but it only turned Inspector Yi Rouya's blood cold. Now he knew where the strong scent of blood was coming from.

Not far from the wall where he is pinned, a metal table can be found near the man in a white coat. Well, his white coat could not be called white anymore as some parts of it were long soaked in scarlet blood making him no different from a serial killer who killed for fun.

This man in a white doctor's coat is one of the executives of the Red Poppy Syndicate. His codename is Datura, the mad scientist of the syndicate. His main forte is creating unknown drugs with illegal components but he had a very bad hobby. He loves slicing people's bodies. Corpses would never end up good in his hands as he would slice here and there until all limbs, fingers, toes, and more were cleanly sliced apart in a perfect manner.

The stained pants of Inspector Yi Rouya this morning were once again wet by the same yellowish thing from before. He once again peed on his pants in fear. Moreover, it is much worse than now as he was truly terrified by the scene.

"Yah! You peed. How funny ba~ when I first saw your pants are also wet. So you love peeing in your pants ba?~" asked the mad scientist, Datura.

Datura approached him and using his white gloves tainted with blood he touched Inspector Yi Rouya's cheeks and pinched them as if playing with them. Another wave of the strong scent of rust rushed into his nose making him almost hurl on the spot. For a delicate omega like Inspector Yi Rouya, this reaction is normal.

In his unconscious fear, his pheromones spread out as if trying to mask himself from the strong scent of blood. The smell of a pleasant honeysuckle-like scent spreads in the area. There is also a fantasy note of a very sweet narcotic scent. When Datura smelt it he fell in love with it. This is the scent that he loves the most. The scent of datura flowers in reality. He loves the Datura flower the most so when this fragrance suddenly comes out from this weak-looking omega with ordinary beauty before him, he felt he found the one he had been looking for all this time.

He chuckles in happiness.

"Hahaha~ this scent? You have this smell that is similar to that of datura flowers! I like it very much, darling~ even though I look this petite, I am still an alpha. I love your scent the most. So you can only become mine~" said the mad scientist, Datura.

But Inspector Yi Rouya is too afraid that he already couldn't hear what the man is talking about. He only heard the metal ring on him click open and his weak body fell on that man with the scent of blood and cold evening night mixing together near his nose. He suddenly felt hot all over his body and knew what was happening right now. His heat arrives unexpectedly at this moment.

"Ahn~"

He couldn't hold back a moan when he tried to move in Datura's embrace just now. He finally realized that the weird scent of blood mixed with the scent of the evening night breeze was this man's pheromones.

“Shush~ wait for a bit darling~ this place isn’t suitable for me to take you. Hehehe~ Who would expect I’ll find my fated mate in this kind of circumstances? I’ve always wanted to do an experiment about two fated mates and their instinctive closeness with one another. I wanted to see their limits and to what extent this intimacy and dependence lasted. Now that I have the perfect subject including myself I’m going to have fun~” said the mad scientist, Datura.

Even if he had found his most important mate, unlike in the past when he had lost his passion for experiments, the current Datura had a strong passion for it. This is because he found Inspector Yi Rouya more entertaining than that hateful Agent Hei Yuhua who took away his right eye.

He is mad about human experiments the most that Datura doesn’t even care about using himself as a subject for his experiments. He had missed a few screws in his mind and grew up without knowing what emotions are and what feelings humans have. That’s why the existence of fated mates who love each other instinctively as if their bonds were connected through their souls made him truly interested. He had always wanted to feel what these bonds are.

Finding out that Inspector Yi Rouya is his fated mate made him extremely happy because this means he found the two perfect subjects for that dream experiment of his.

In their past lives, Datura would always find himself watching Yi Rouya happily interacting with Ye Yuyan. Making him feel jealous and envious of such a loving relationship between the two and wanted to get it for himself. He also kidnapped Inspector Yi Rouya this time. But at that time his obsession with Yi Rouya’s love was stronger than his love for experiments. So when it was found out that the two were fated mates he pampered Yi Rouya to the heavens giving him whatever he wanted regardless of anything.

Datura of the past is a love-struck fool that would be delighted enough as long Inspector Yi Rouya smiles at him. He lost his mind in love and the Yi Rouya of that timeline made use of him.

But in this timeline, everything was different. Ye Yuyan openly shows his hate for Yi Rouya. He treated him as an enemy at any point and would have killed him on the spot if he wasn’t a public servant. The movement of Ye Yuyan had always been watched by the people from the Red Poppy syndicate. Even to Datura’s eyes, Inspector Yi Rouya is nothing but a persistent pest that clings to the strong. So there was no obsession or envious of the once scripted love between Yi Rouya and Ye Yuyan. Without the world plot backing Yi Rouya, he would be nothing in the eyes of Ye Yuyan and the rest of the alphas in the world. His halo was destroyed as the world plot was ruined the moment Hei Anjing and the rest descended on this world.

Datura made a black room only for his fated mate, Yi Rouya. As for what he did inside the black room only the two inside know the contents of it.

On the other hand, Jie Yun and Wei Lou had to move separately to gather information about the second case their group was given. Jie Yun went to the schools and visited them one by one. On his way, he needs to walk past a road where a train would pass through and stand before the metal horizontal post blocking his way.

The metal post was preventing him from passing through a road as a train is scheduled to pass at this moment. He was eating a soft-serve cone of ice cream while waiting for the train to pass. Jie Yun could even hear the fast-approaching train that is about to move through the rail in front of him when he saw a high school student running under the metal post and passing down the road as if he was suicidal.

Jie Yun in his shock had to run after the kid and run faster to the other side almost getting hit by the train, both of them almost got hit. He could feel the turbulence of his heartbeat due to such a dangerous situation. In his anger, he grabbed the suicidal student's collar and was about to punch him.

"Don't fucking play around! Damn Brat!"

He paused his fist from punching the kid when he saw traces of bruises on his face and tears strolling down his cheeks.

Jie Yun asked, "Hey, are you okay!?"

But the young man did not reply and instead pushed Jie Yun away before making a run for it. Jie Yun hit the back of his head on the metal pole and forgot to stop the kid as he had no reason for it.

Hiss!

"My head. That hurt. That punk!!" said Jie Yun as he could only watch the kid's back running away from him.

He recalled the contents of the report on the drug case their team had gotten from Officer Ying Wu this morning. Those brown-colored white striped pants are obviously that high school which was involved in the case their team was dealing with and that kid just now happens to be the closest person to one of the young sellers of the New Ecstasy Flower drug spreading around the city.

"Are these brats for real!? They are going to bars at such young ages. Those bars allow minors to enter. I'm gonna report this to my brother later. That punk suddenly pushed me. I was just trying to save him." mumbled Jie Yun as he remembered the bruises on that boy's eye and the corner of his lips.

"Is he being bullied? And he seems to be an omega. The weak would always be bullied unless they stood up for themselves. Schools are the miniature version of social relationships in society. Once you failed in that, it would be harder after you graduated from there."

"Crossfield Private Highschool was it? Let's make that the first stop for my investigation."

Jie Yun stood up from the ground and patted the dust on his clothes. He made a call and contacted Officer Ying Wu.

Click!

{Jie Yun? Why are you calling?}

Jie Yun responded, "I need some help with something."

Chapter 662: 12.64 Unknown Star – Modern ABO World: Second Case – Crossfield Private High School

Jie Yun had asked Officer Ying Wu for help with something. He only went to Crossfield Private High school after his request was approved.

Meanwhile in the back alleys...

Wei Lou, who was checking the bars listed on the paper in his hands, caught a small group of high school students gathering at the hidden section of the alley. They were crowding at each other and obviously doing illegal interactions of buying and selling the illegal drug Ecstasy Flower's new version.

Seeing this Wei Lou contacted his little brothers to block that alley's entrance and exit as he grabbed a few of his brothers to catch these brats.

Wei Lou wrapped around the two nearest boys' shoulders and said, "Oi~ Selling drugs in Broad daylight!? You have some guts."

He focused on one of the children who was the main seller of the drugs among the rest. The student's name is called Xu Meiji.

At lunch, Wei Lou and Jie Yun went back to the condominium building. They were being summoned back by Prosecutor Ye Yuyan to report. Even Officer Ying Wu was told to come back as well. His task is to bring back whatever information he had found about the current case and the notorious Red Poppy Syndicate.

During the report, Jie Yun didn't hide anything and told everyone about the suicidal child from among the reports.

Jie Yun said, "That boy on the case report, the one called Fu Miyan. I bumped into him this morning at the crossroad train rails. He wanted to kill himself. I had no other choice but to save the kid. Just based on his outer appearance alone, the kid seems to be bullied himself. I do not think he could be a drug dealer with that kind of personality."

"I also caught a kid called Xu Meiji but since the boy is a minor I had to reach him temporarily as Officer Ying Wu said," tattled Wei Lou.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan questioned, "You release the kid that was caught during the dealing itself!? Are you kidding me?"

"Prosecutor Ye, I can explain. The one that was captured yesterday was this boy called Xu Meiji. He was caught red-handed yesterday but was released at the same time after a severe warning. These days these high schoolers and college students are not only selling drugs they are also using them. They were at the age when they could be me the most impulsive."

"But this high school student, Xu Meiji, had another three more friends selling the same drugs. One of them is not that kid Jie Yun saved this morning but instead a leader figure these kids call 'Fu Tian'. In short, these guys are in a group that is most concerned with drug dealing and extortion in this city. They are a team made up of a few members."

"Their team name is called 'Ecstasy' with three main members. That Xu Meiji that was caught this morning is just a minion for those three. The most dangerous one is that guy called 'Fu Tian'. He is the supplier but there is no information about him. Everything except the fact that he is a student from Crossfield High School, there is nothing more to him.” explained Officer Ying Wu.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan and the rest understand everything after the explanation of Officer Ying Wu.

Only Hua Heiyu reacted coolly and said, “Releasing that guy named Xu Meiji as bait might be good. But Wei Lou and Jie Yun’s faces were known by two of their members. If they suddenly appear at the Crossfield High School after bumping into them then... That Xu Meiji guy... He might lose his life. Be careful~”

The others answered him with silence. They were once again dumbfounded by Hua Heiyu’s brain process. This time the warning had arrived on time.

Hua Heiyu said, “What are you looking at me like that? This time you provided me with enough information to speculate about the kid’s future death. Just keep an eye on him to save his life. Plus... Since those children have a supplier then... The maker of the drug might have close contact with them. Keep an eye on the clinic nurse or doctor of the school, frequent customers of those bars or a person that acts strangely who appeared at the moment the drugs had started spreading. Moreover, since they could freely supply these children without fear of the cops that means they have a huge backer behind them. A syndicate perhaps?”

“Heiyu is right. The possibility of a syndicate getting involved is high and it is that the notorious Red Poppy Syndicate that had secretly entered our country might have done it. According to the headquarters, there is an executive from this syndicate that is a master when it comes to making drugs. Ecstasy Flower was made by him. This executive’s codename is known as ‘Datura’. Red Poppy Syndicate’s Mad scientist, Datura” said Officer Ying Wu.

CRASH!

They suddenly heard something falling and glass breaking somewhere in the room. When they looked for the source they saw Hua Heiyu’s hands bleeding when he crushed the glass cup in his hands. The glass fragments had scratched his palms but he acted as if he was not in pain at all. Everyone can feel that his dull and expressionless eyes now look especially glacial.

Even Prosecutor Ye Yuyan who would most of the time scold him acted calmer at this moment. He carefully held his hand and picked the shard of glasses in his hands.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan said, “Do you not feel pain at all? Look at how you wasted my glass cup.”

“It’s just a cheap cup anyway. So fragile.” retorted Hua Heiyu. Their usual banter continues,

Jie Yun took the first aid kit hidden in the house while Wei Lou took a few clean towels and a basin to wash Hua Heiyu’s hands. But no one in the group dared to ask this little psycho why he had reacted that badly just now. His cold face and eyes at that split moment were enough to render all of them speechless.

While treating Hua Heiyu’s hands, Prosecutor Ye Yuyan started issuing orders for the team.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan said, “We will do an undercover while wearing a disguise and do role play. Jie Yun would act as an insider with me. Wei Lou would remain outside to focus on protecting Student Xue Meiji. Officer Ying Wu, you stay with Hua Heiyu within the premises of the high school and try to capture all those who made weird movements and all the guys Hua Heiyu would point out to capture. You will work with him for this case as his feet are not fully healed yet. Get the Intelligence division, Aster, to work with us. We need to capture Datura in the end.”

The three responded, “Understood.”

Hua Heiyu suddenly said, “Are you sure you can leave me with Wuwu alone for this case? What if I go crazy and start killing people out of nowhere? I’m sure Wuwu wouldn’t be able to stop me on time.”

“No. This time you won’t play roughly. Because you now seem to have found a prey that caught your eyes for the first time.” said Prosecutor Ye Yuyan.

Under everyone’s eyes, Hua Heiyu, this expressionless and spoiled little brat, suddenly smiles evilly. His argent eyes looked like it was a glowing full moon under the evening sky. Beautiful and attractive. But to the eyes of those who can see this rare yet crazy smile of Hua Heiyu made them realize once again that Hua Heiyu is a psychopath. The type to enjoy torturing his prey.

Hua Heiyu said, “I promise I wouldn’t touch any of the students but... You might have to prepare to stop me if I caught Datura. He might end up dead under my hand.”

Silence and tension.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan remained calm and said, “As long as the one you bite is a bad person you do as much as you want.”

“Prosecutor Ye! He can’t do that!” exclaimed Officer Ying Wu.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan commented, “Then you try to stop him. You will be the one working with him in this case.”

Officer Ying Wu glanced at Hua Heiyu and saw him smiling at him like an angel unlike his evil grin from before. He now once again looks like an innocent young man who only has naivete within those silver orbs. He couldn’t help but feel shivers as if a poisonous viper was staring at him and Officer Ying Wu could only shut his mouth.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan said, “We will do a behavioral observation for the four kids on the list, especially be more serious when it comes to the life of this student, Xu Meiji. Wei Lou, your main priority is him.”

“Sure~ whatever. As long as my sentence gets reduced,” said Wei Lou.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan said, “In addition, we must find out the identity of this ‘Fu Tian’, find out his source of supply and grab the person that might be Datura among the hidden suspects. Ying Wu made preparations with Crossfield High school.”

“Affirmative, Prosecutor!” saluted Officer Ying Wu as he received his orders.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan said, “Do it as fast as possible. Go now. The meeting would end early for today. Don’t forget to drop by the Crosfield Private High school on your way. I wanted to infiltrate it as soon as tomorrow.”

“Will do. I will leave ahead of time for today. See everyone tomorrow.” said Officer Ying Wu.

Wei Lou said, “See you~”

“Be careful on your way,” said Jie Yun.

Hei Yuhua on the other hand had exchanged for an extremely mini drone the size of a mosquito with his points from the system mall and attached it to Officer Ying Wu’s hair.

System Yang asked through his thoughts, [Are you thinking he might have a connection with the Red Poppy Syndicate?]

‘I have no evidence but... For now, it is just an intuition of mine. Better safe than sorry,’ replied Hei Yuhua.

[Okay. I’ve also attached an invisible mode function for that mini drone. Tell the others that Bai Jin and his system haven’t sent a message yet about the identity of who might be the hidden villain. So tell them to be careful.]

‘I will.’ said Hei Yuhua.

Only when Officer Ying Wu left did the four people inside the room finally remove all guise on them. Ye Yuyan worriedly looked at his wife’s wounded hands.

Ye Yuyan asked, “Does it hurt? Sound I call a doctor for you? Better let’s exchange a pill to completely heal your wounds. We just need to wrap a bandage on your feet and hands to pretend you are injured. Please don’t hurt yourself anymore. I can’t bear it, Yu’er.”

This usually dominant alpha was now to meek in front of his mate. He was even very careful when hugging Hei Yuhua as if he was something so fragile that would be broken with one touch.

Hei Yuhua left badly seeing his husband this way and hugged him back. He compromised and ate a pill to fully heal his wounds. Seeing on his husband’s lap, Ye Yuyan keeps on checking on his hand whether the wounds were all fully healed. novelus·dotC/o\m “I’m okay now. It’s healed. Look!” said Hei Yuhua as he spread his hands in front of Ye Yuyan’s eyes.

Ye Yuyan wrapped those slender and smaller hands with his intertwining their twenty fingers together as if locking them in.

“Yes. I see it. Just now when you broke the glass you don’t seem to be just acting. Is there something wrong with this Datura?” asked Ye Yuyan.

Hei Yuhua frowned as expected when Datura was mentioned.

“He is the drug maker. He also knows poison so be careful when getting entangled with him. Eat the blood cleansing pills for emergencies if you got poisoned or affected by any of his drugs. Most of his drugs cause hyper reactions and one might lose mind even for a few seconds.” explained Hei Yuhua.

Ye Yuyan said, “Are you determined that Datura is involved in this case?”

“Yes. I’ve reread the information about the case. Most victims and murderers that had already happened have one common thing.” said Hei Yuhua.

Yun Jie asked, “What common thing, brother?”

“The victims and the drugged overdose murderers are all at least lovers or mates. Datura’s most disgusting hobby aside from human experimentation is... testing the special bonds between omega and alpha. This is especially true for those fated mates. A’Yan, he would most likely use your bond with me to provoke you. Don’t listen to his nonsense as he might have a special ability like mine as well. As for what that is, even I don’t know.” said Hei Yuhua.

Ye Yuyan said, “We will be extra careful.”

“By the way, Saozi. Did this Datura have any special feature or something which made him different from the rest?” asked Lou Wei.

Hei Yuhua answered, “There is! His right eye is completely blind. He might use prosthetics or something but he no longer has his right eye. In the past, I had plucked it out for him and destroyed half of his face in rage.”

Lou Wei commented, “Whoa~ that’s brutal.”

“Shut your mouth,” said Yun Jie.

Ye Yuyan said, “We will keep that in mind.”

Chapter 663: 12.65 Unknown Star – Modern ABO World: Second Case – Poppy’s Identity.

The group of four ended up eating dinner together as they continued their conversation at the dining table. A hotpot feast was served in the middle and everyone could serve themselves but all four people were couples. Most of the time Ye Yuyan and Lou Wei feed their mates and serve them food.

Hei Yuhua was the first one to speak within the group.

He says, “System Yang told me that the God of Wealth and his system had seen the true face of the hidden villain and his system. But at the moment, they were busy fighting that said system with the hidden villain. After they left yesterday, it seems that the system of the hidden villain had gone after the two of them and until now there isn’t any message coming from their end.”

“This means that the enemy has no support right now?” asked Prosecutor Ye Yuyan.

Hei Yuhua responded, “Must be. Maybe it was because of this that the executives of that Syndicate are now showing their heads instead of their tails. That man... must have wanted to use everything in his power to destroy our past life.”

“But what can he get from destroying us? Doesn’t this world enter in a loop whenever the two of you die?” asked Yun Jie.

Wei Lou said, “That sounds weird indeed.”

System Yue suddenly appeared and explained things to them.

[He might need the negative energy coming from everyone in this world. For the main protagonists like Ye Yuyan and Hua Yuhua, the level of emotions would be stronger as you are the beloved sons of this world. We, System, need a certain resource to continue living. Think of it as food, we need to get it to continue existing. I and System Yang had no problems. Our lives are connected to the life of our masters. We wouldn't disappear as long as they are alive.]

[But this system is different, he was born under the natural laws of this world. He needs to get involved in this world to keep living. It seems he had chosen negative emotions as his source of food. He would continue doing so until he ascended to the Highest Upper Realm. But evil beings get stronger faster but are forbidden to enter Vearth without permission. He just hadn't known that.]

[I do not know how much he had reset this world and treated everyone in it as livestock. He especially like Ye Yuyan and Hei Yuhua. He grinds your life experience and makes you feel what it is like to live in hell. But a system not born in Vearth had no emotions, so he could only use that hidden villain to plant the seeds of sufferings to the two of you and slowly grind you and kills you in the end for a new life cycle.]

System Yue explained the current situation of the enemies for the four to understand. Though they didn't know what kind of place is Vearth? How to ascend? Or the reason why this keeps happening. Now they know why they were forced to relive their lives an unknown number of times.

Hei Yuhua asked, "We were killed just to increase his energy!?"

"Since that system can be considered God in this world, would the God of Wealth and his system who were stalked gonna alright?" asked Ye Yuyan.

System Yue answers, [Don't worry about that pair. Non-combat Gods are always paired with War Gods or Demon Gods. You guys should focus on informing your family members about the hidden dangers of the possibility of them being targeted by the Red Poppy Syndicate.]

Lou Wei said, "I had the cars ready."

"The routes were also covered up and prepared," said Yun Jie.

Ye Yuyan said, "Let's go."

Only then did all four of them head to the Prime Minister's mansion to inform them about the incoming danger to their lives.

Meanwhile at the same abandoned warehouse where Datura had taken Inspector Yi Rouya.

The rest of the Red Poppy Syndicate had gathered except for Hydrangea. Datura was waiting at the gathering area, sitting comfortably on one of the couches with Inspector Yi Rouya seated beside him like a good and quiet wife. One could see clear bite marks on his nape where his glands as omega are located. He was dazed and only had Datura in his eyes as if he was drugged by some kind of love drug or something.

So when Nightshade, Iris, Oleander, Azalea, and Hyacinth arrived this was the scene they had seen.

The right hand of the Leader, Nightshade, spoke, "What is that thing beside you, Datura?"

"Hm~ isn't that the Inspector from the Police Headquarters that was hated by Prosecutor Ye Yuyan the most?" said Iris, the informant, and hacker.

Oleander, the killer, spoke, "Don't make me receive the elimination order from Poppy with you as the target, Datura."

"No way~ I'm one of the most useful pawns of the Poppy Leader. He wouldn't kill me just yet~" replied Datura.

The Witch doctor Azalea noticed the scent of pheromones coming from Inspector Yi Rouya and said, "You've marked him and it's the permanent mark. You've inputted too much of your pheromones to him and made him bloated. Look at his eyes it's in a daze and a state of intoxication. Is he your fated mate?"

When the word fated mate was mentioned, everyone was silent for a moment and looked at Datura. They could see his eyes full of fanatical expression and excitement as if he found the most precious subject in his life.

Datura responded to Azalea's question with a crazy smile and said, "Yes. I found him the greatest subject of my life. I would now be able to concoct a drug that can erase the feelings of the bond between mates."

"Okay. He is a mad doctor and it's certified," mumbles Iris.

"Wow~ our mad doctor has finally completely gone bad~ Didn't the leader summon all of us today? I wonder how he would react about this Datura~" said Hyacinth, the sweet talker with his usual coquettish voice.

Datura was pissed hearing Hyacinth's obvious jeering.

"What do you know? It was the leader who told me to kidnapped subject #0," said Datura.

Nightshade said, "Poppy said to bring that Inspector over and not kidnap him. You have to let that one return to the police Headquarters and make him work as a spy for us."

"Eh~ I'm only halfway through the experiment," said Datura.

Nightshade said, "No one is preventing you from seeing him but he needs to come back to the Police Headquarters before he gets reported missing. Aren't you currently on the mission at that high school? I heard those students you've chosen are now under the surveillance of Prosecutor Ye Yuyan and his team."

"No worries. Fu Tian cannot be caught that easily. The rest of the students were just baits for them to get Prosecutor Ye Yuyan on the field." said Datura.

"Is that the leader's order? That's a bit weird. I thought we weren't supposed to get involved with that Prosecutor directly," said Iris.

"I know right? But the Poppy Leader gave me a call yesterday to make a situation where I can have direct contact with Ye Yuyan," said Datura.

"I did that for a purpose. I called everyone here for that very same thing." said the voice that was coming from the entrance of the room. Clearly, the speaker had just arrived.

Then suddenly they heard a callous and cold voice coming from behind them. When the executives saw who it was they hurriedly lowered their heads in greeting.

"Greetings to the leader (Poppy)!" everyone collectively said.

These notorious executives of the Red Poppy Syndicate are now like tamed puppies in front of this man who just arrived. All the people who had gathered in this area already knew about Poppy's appearance but among them, there was one that did not. Inspector Yi Rouya who was under the intoxication of his alpha's pheromones just now was jolted awake when his man left his side. He regained a bit of his sanity and saw his man together with the rest of the people in the room to be so respectful of the man who had just arrived.

When he saw the face of the said leader of the Red Poppy Syndicate, Inspector Yi Rouya was in disbelief. He didn't expect that he knew this man these notorious criminals treated as a leader. Inspector Yi Rouya was in great denial. He didn't want to believe what he was seeing.

Inspector Yi Rouya looked like he had gone crazy seeing the face of Poppy.

"No. NO! I don't believe it. How can it be you!? Impossible! No, I don't believe this. I'm only seeing things. You cannot be that Poppy!!" Exclaimed Inspector Yi Rouya as he tried to suddenly grab Poppy's collar.

But before he could even grab Poppy's collar the executives behind him had all moved. Inspector Yi Rouya didn't even react when Nightshade twisted his arms behind him, locking them to his back. Azalea even injected a tranquilizer and inhibitor into him.

Nightshade said with icy eyes, "You are quite bold, Inspector Yi Rouya. What do you treat us as? Air?"

"I've injected a tranquilizer and inhibitor on him. Datura you've injected too much pheromones in him so intoxicated that he almost couldn't think straight," commented Azalea.

Slapped!

Datura slapped Inspector Yi Rouya awake, "How dare you do that to the leader. You don't want your hands anymore!"

Inspector Yi Rouya can feel his mate's rage assault his whole being. He felt lost as he couldn't understand why the alpha who is fated to love him and pamper him treat him like this. Aren't fated mates supposed to be an unbreakable bond between two souls?

"No. It's not like that. Darling, I... You are supposed to be on my side!" said Inspector Yi Rouya.

Datura looked at him with eyes full of disdain, completely breaking his heart and hope. "So what if you are my fated mate? As long as one's will is greater than instincts, you wouldn't be controlled by subconscious instincts. I, Datura, at least don't believe I cannot control my feelings and emotions. The fated mate you keep talking about could never tie me down."

Inspector Yi Rouya heard something in him break whether it was his heart or his soul no one could say what it was. But the paleness of his skin had become evident. As if he had lost his will to live after losing the love of his mate. He suddenly turned quiet and wordless.

The witch doctor Azalea who is a well-known doctor was also proficient in the field of psychology and noticed the changes in Inspector Yi Rouya's Psychology.

"If you don't want your mate to become suicidal stop talking Datura. He had already entered the Denial state to extreme depression," said Azalea.

Poppy also noticed the changes in Inspector Yi Rouya and said, "Datura, take away your mate. He cannot be used in his current state. You need to make him voluntarily do what you want him to do. Only then that would be useful."

"Understood, Poppy Leader!" said Datura as he carried away the stunned Inspector Yi Rouya who is now no different from a broken puppet in his arms.

"Everyone take your seats. We are continuing the meeting," said Poppy.

No one called Poppy's real name or declined any of his orders. Except for Datura, the other executives had taken a seat after Poppy took the only single couch in the room. novelUSB\c\o/m

Nightshade looks like a young lady in love while staring at Poppy. Since she was saved by him in the past, she had always been loyal to Poppy. To Nightshade no one is more important to her than this savior of her. He is her hero and her source of light.

"Why did you suddenly summon all of us out of nowhere, Poppy? Should I call you officer instead?" asked Nightshade with a flirty voice.

Only when it comes to Poppy wouldn't she lose to that man in drag, Hyacinth, in being coquettish when talking to her beloved and God.

They had long known the real identity of Poppy being an ordinary officer in the Police Department. Poppy had been undercover ever since he was young. He left the international missions to Nightshade and let her control the Syndicate instead of him. He only needs to issue some orders through a video call and the extremely loyal Nightshade would move for him.

The usual kindness and innocence that Officer Ying Wu portrays when working with Prosecutor Ye Yuyan and the Police department had completely disappeared at this moment.

The naivety he shows when working as a police officer is now replaced with a passionless face and an indifferent demeanor. He looks sluggish and bored yet within those eyes is a strong hatred that was hidden in the depths of his eyes. His gaze looks like he was looking at something that only he can see but his executives had been used to this kind of Poppy.

Inherently cold and indifferent as if life and death matter had nothing to do with him. No one would believe he is the infamous Poppy wanted in numerous countries.

Ying Wu spoke, "You can call me my real name at times like this Nightshade."

"Okay. Poppy no... I should call you Ying Su instead." said Nightshade with a beautiful smile on her face.

Chapter 664: 12.66 Unknown Star – Modern ABO World: Second Case – Capturing the White Snake.

The meeting of the Red Poppy Syndicate's upper echelon had resumed when Datura rejoined the group. The executives knew that Poppy would be making huge changes in their plan since they've all summoned them tonight.

Nightshade said, "Jokes aside. Why did you gather all of us here, Poppy?"

"I want a few of you to move at the same time. The police might already know of my existence though they did not know my identity. They also know that all of the executives of the Red Poppy Syndicate are in this country." said Poppy.

Nightshade said, "Impossible! How can they know? Did someone tell them? Is it Hydrangea?"

"Not Hydrangea. Ye Yuyan is watching over him 24 hours a day. He couldn't even keep up with him without fighting. Much less help him in catching us. There's another interference but I'm already handling it" said Poppy as he remembered his system leaving to capture the two, God and system pair a few days ago.

Poppy's thoughts, 'Hei Yuhua was still the same as before. He still has a love and hate relationship with Ye Yuyan.'

"Datura... You will personally handle the things in Crossfield Private School. You would bump into Prosecutor Ye Yuyan as he would be undercover at that time. There is also a contract killer from his team named Jie Yun. Jie Yun can be handled much easier than Ye Yuyan, just send a few of your subordinates to handle him. He is just an omega." said Poppy.

Datura smiled when he heard the Prosecutor their Syndicate hate would be his target for the next mission.

Poppy said, "Inject Ye Yuyan that new drug of yours but with a much stronger dosage. Make him suffer like he is in hell. Though make sure he is kept alive."

"Sure~ I can do it. As long as he doesn't die, right? Would someone from the police department go crazy if they ended up killing a few innocent students~" said Datura with an excited grin on his face.

Azalea commented, "Whoa~ your personality sucks a lot."

Oleander spoke, "By the way, leader! Lou Wei and Yun Jie from Aster are scheduled to return home this weekend, Sunday."

"Today is Wednesday. There are still three days before they come back to the country. Did Hydrangea accept his second mission?" asked Iris.

Hyacinth spoke, "Hydrangea is a man of few words. But he is more decisive than anyone..."

Iris said, "Of course, he is! He had nothing to lose anyway if he got caught. He considered himself an orphan and had been living his life undercover."

"Do you pity him, Iris? That is not like you~" asked Hyacinth.

Iris responded, "No really. I only listen to money."

Oleander clicked his tongue and said, "It is always money which is your first priority."

"Of course! Money might not be able to buy you life but it is extremely useful for other things~" said Iris.

Nightshade asked, "Should I approach Hydrangea this time again, Poppy?"

"No need. Just send him a message about his second mission. This time includes a change in his mission. His target this time is two people. Lou Wei and Yun Jie." said Poppy.

Azalea asked, "I heard Yun Jie used to be his subordinate. Would he be willing to kill him as well?"

"He should be as long as I am willing to see him afterward," said Poppy.

Nightshade asked, "You are finally going to meet him?"

"Yes, I'm going to reunite him with his parents for the last time," said Poppy as his red eyes glinted with some unknown emotion.

"Iris, I want information about everyone with a good and close relationship with Ye Yuyan and all members of his team. Once you get it, give the list to Oleander."

Iris paused for a bit and asked, "Then my money?"

"I will send it to you tomorrow," said Poppy.

Iris smiled and said, "That's okay then~" as he started typing on his computer once again. No one knows if he had begun hacking or not.

Oleander asked, "Are those people going to be my next assassination targets?"

"Yes. Bring Hyacinth with you and do a live broadcast. Get Iris to give you an untraceable IP Address. Just make sure Ye Yuyan and his team watch the broadcast. They need to feel what despair is." said Poppy.

Azalea asked, "How about me? What should I do?"

"Create a diversion when necessary and prepare our escape route. Once Ye Yuyan lost everything... That would be the time to take our leave." said Poppy.

Iris asked, "We are leaving the country after killing everyone from his side? Isn't it better to kill him as well?"

"No... Killing Ye Yuyan is just a consolation for him. Making him suffer while still alive is the real hell," said Poppy.

Nightshade asked, "Poppy how about that... the one in your house. Are you living with him too?"

Poppy was silent for a moment. Everyone in the Syndicate knows that all this time Poppy stayed in this country not only for revenge but also for another reason. He had been living a peaceful life under the protection of that man. Even if that man didn't know about Poppy's real identity, among everyone in this country Poppy treated that man more carefully.

Nightshade said, "If your identity is revealed, that person would be placed under investigation for a long time and Ye Yuyan might end up torturing him in the end."

"I know. But he will definitely not agree to go with me. I need to think more about what to do with him for a bit," said Poppy. "That would be all for today. Meeting adjourned."

After the meeting was ended by Poppy, he immediately left to resume his current identity as Officer Ying Wu. His executives were left behind looking at the clear look on his back. He might look thinner than most men but this is due to his young age and gender. He is a recessive omega while hiding his real face in the face of his elder twin brother.

On the other hand, the side of Bai Jin and his system. His mini apartment was almost torn apart when he and his system opened a domain they've worked together as one. Bai Jin still looks the same as his current vessel. He looks weak while sitting on the broken wooden floor of his house. All his things were broken except for the laptop he saved in the midst of the fight. Standing in front of him is his system which was allowed to materialize only in this world.

Wearing an armored robe of black and red, System Wuya stood before the God of Wealth protecting him from behind. His long charcoal gray hair was tied up behind his back flowing like a river of mercury. His features were stern and serious as his sharp gaze which seemed like a blade landed on the other man on the opposite side who was full of stab wounds from the spear he was holding.

The white snake system had an androgynous appearance that is close to demonic snake beasts in their human form. Pale white skin and slit scarlet irises. noveLUsb/c/o/m

The God of Wealth, Bai Jin complained while looking at his former abode.

"Ah!! Our house... Wuya you destroyed our house!!" said Bai Jin.

System Wuya spoke, "Stop complaining. That was beyond me just now. Who would expect he would suddenly attack out of nowhere!? It was him who destroyed the house, not me!"

"I don't care. I don't want to live in the streets!" complained Bai Jin.

System Wuya said, "You have lots of money! Use a few to buy us a new house."

"No way! I'm saving those just in case," said Bai Jin.

"So you want to live in the streets?"

"I don't want to!"

"Then spend some money, you stingy God of Wealth!"

“Can we just ask that protagonist to go to a room in his condominium unit? He had lots of free rooms anyway~”

“That is not impossible...”

System Wuya thought seriously of this suggestion and thought of something. He looked at the pale white-skinned man in front of them struggling while chained with divine ropes that restrain divinity. Even though this system wasn't a full-fledged God, he could already be considered as a demigod at least.

“Good idea. But we need a gift in exchange...” said System Wuya.

The God of Wealth, Bai Jin looked at the direction his system is walking and said, “For real? Isn't it illegal to take over a system?”

“We aren't going to take over it. Let's surrender it instead. This is an unregistered system whose danger level is at least S rank. If we surrendered it to that lord I think we should be able to secure a house at least until they finished what they promised their vessels for.” said System Wuya.

System Wuya helped Bai Jin to stand up from the floor and Bai Jin cling to his system's side.

“How are we going to bring him there? Once we leave this room our domain would be deactivated,” said Bai Jin.

System Wuya said, “No worries. I found a talisman in the System Mall which is useful in hiding one's aura from the eyes of the Heavenly Laws.”

A glowing golden talisman appeared in thin air. This is the Heaven Concealment Talisman they've redeemed from the System Mall.

“How many points is that thing?” asked Bai Jin randomly.

System Wuya hesitated to say the price as he knew how stingy his host was.

“Don't worry... It's not much...” said System Wuya while avoiding Bai Jin's gaze.

Bai Jin narrowly looked at his system avoiding his gaze and pinched his muscled arm.

“Don't tell me you've used up our points?!!”

“Of course not! But this thing... Un, it is under the special category so you know. It was a bit expensive. 100,000 GP (God Points) per talisman.” said System Wuya. “I bought a few just in case and prevent him to escape. I also bought a teleportation talisman. We can arrive at the location at the fastest time possible.”

Hearing his system's explanation, Bai Jin almost exploded on the spot as he saw that a quarter of his total points had been used up, the points his system had used were a few million from their total God points.

Bai Jin scolded, “Buying the Heaven Conceal Talisman was expensive enough and you still bought a teleportation talisman!? Return the goods. Let's at least return the Teleportation Talisman and use a cab to go to the Protagonist Gong's place!!!”

“Return is not possible for special category items,” said System Wuya as he pointed at the extra rule written in the system mall.

In anger, Bai Jin bit System Wuya’s arm like a cat whose tail was stepped on. The target of the bite could only hiss in pain as he could flail his arm in fear he might hurt Bai Jin.

Hissed~

“Careful there. Don’t bite too hard you’ll hurt your teeth...” said System Wuya as he tried to coax his host to calm his anger.

Only when he finished coaxing Bai Jin did he pass the golden talisman on the white snake system’s forehead. Only then did Bai Jin and System Wuya deactivate their domain and suddenly hit by overwhelming fatigue. This is the first time they’ve used God’s Domain in a mortal world.

Bai Jin picked up his bed and removed the dirt in it with his qi. He laid on it like a sleepy cat in the afternoon. System Wuya laid down next to him also looking so tired despite the serious expression on his face.

“So tired~ let’s take a nap first before coming to see the protagonist gong and them. Since it’s already evening they might be asleep already. Let’s go tomorrow instead.” said Bai Jin.

System Wuya allowed the man to pull on his arm intentionally using it as a pillow. Once Bai Jin laid his head on his arm he pulled him closer to him and helped him pull up a blanket over him. Bai Jin had a weaker physique than the two of them plus he is using a mortal’s body. It is inevitable that Bai Jin would be spent after activating the domain which they still haven’t achieved themselves as Gods. After all, only GodKings and above possessed a Domain. The two of them worked together to create a pseudo domain just so they can catch this white snake System and use up all their qi.

“Sleep well. I will wake you up later, Xiao Jin,” whispered System Wuya to the God of Wealth within his embrace.

Chapter 665: 12.67 Unknown Star – Modern ABO World: Second Case – Fu Tian

While everyone was busy with their own things that evening, everything had returned to normal by the time the sun had risen once again to the sky.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan and the rest had left the house early in the morning. Officer Ying Wu was the one who came to pick them up. He drove towards the Crossfield Private school where he had dropped Prosecutor Ye Yuyan and Jie Yun in their disguised form as teachers.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan would now be temporarily called Doctor Ye. He chooses to be the school’s infirmary doctor on duty. While Jie Yun would call Teacher Jie, he would be teaching psychology undercover.

Inside the classroom which had Xu Meiji and Fu Miyan Jie Yun took over one of the teachers as planned.

Jie Yun spoke, “Good morning. I would be your temporary psychology teacher, Hei Jie. Teacher Lu had a bad slip disk and would be confined in the hospital for a while. Since I’m new I would be calling your names. You guys should raise your hand and answer so I can remember your face paired with your names.”

“Okay, Teacher Hei!” said the students collectively.

Some female students were whispering to one another saying, “Wow~ this teacher doesn’t look bad. He had the aura of a mature elite man.”

.....

“Hey! Have you heard of it? The school doctor was also replaced. I heard it was a hot alpha~”

“How nice~ we have two new good-looking teachers...”

Jie Yun called, “Miss Wen.”

“Hey! You’re being called.”

“Yes. Here, Teacher Hei!” said a female student surnamed Wen.

“Mr. Sun.”

“Here!”

“Mr. Xu.”

“Here, Sir!”

“Mr. Fu.”

“...”

“Mr. Fu?”

“...”

“Are you present, Mr. Fu Miyan?”

“Ah? H-H-Here, Teacher...”

Jie Yun spotted the kid whom he saved by the train rails the other day and saw him wearing unprescribed glasses to hide his eyes and made himself look like a nerd.

“Please don’t take a nap during my class, okay? If you aren’t feeling well, feel free to head to the school infirmary,” said Jie Yun.

Student Fu Miyan said, “I-I am okay, T-Teacher Hei. I just fell asleep a bit. I won’t do it again.”

“Okay. Let’s continue,” said Jie Yun as he restarted calling the students’ names until everyone’s name was called. novelusBC\o\m

Only then did Jie Yun start the class. Holding the book which is given to him by the teachers in the faculty. He started teaching the page intended to be taught today. While teaching he secretly observes the targets of their investigation. He didn’t expect that all of the students listed who were involved in the case were all in the same class.

Jie Yun's thoughts, 'No wonder Brother Ye says only the two of them are enough. My task is to watch over the children and to look for Fu Tian and Datura who are supposed to be the suppliers of the New Ecstasy Flower Love Drug.'

"Today you turned your textbook to page 33. Xu Meiji read the third paragraph of page 33," said Jie Yun.

Xu Meiji who was watching Fu Miyan all this time was startled when his name was called.

"Y-Yes, Teacher Hei... Ahno? I..." said Xu Meiji as he didn't hear which part he was supposed to read.

Jie Yun sighed and said, "Page 33. Third paragraph."

At lunch, Jie Yun's was the last class before break time where students can eat for at least an hour. He left and went to an empty laboratory room near the infirmary room. After going inside he spoke out of nowhere,

"Tailing be as soon as I leave my class, I've chosen a place where it wasn't crowded and desolated for you to show yourself," said Jie Yun.

He leaned on one of the sink rows in the lab nonchalantly and waited for the little tail who followed him all this way. As expected, the sound of the sliding door of the laboratory was heard a few minutes after he spoke.

Slides~

It was Fu Miyan that entered the room wearing his thick-framed, unprescribed glasses.

"Teacher Hei, I have something to ask you," said Fu Miyan.

Jie Yun glanced at him as he started chatting with Lou Wei on his phone.

On his phone screen:

Yun Jie: I've just finished class. I will be there after I finish something.

Lou Wei: A'Jie, what do you want to eat? I will buy it for you. There are skewers on my way. Do you want some grilled squid and buttons?

Yun Jie: Sure. Buy enough for five people. You can choose several others. Let's eat together afterward.

Lou Wei: Sure~ (Kissing you.jpg)

Yun Jie: Where did you get these cringy emoticons?

Lou Wei: I made it. Cute right?

Yun Jie: Yea, be careful on your way.

Lou Wei: I should be saying that to you.

Jie Yun didn't hear Fu Miyan's question right away and the student repeated it twice for him to hear it.

“I’m sorry. What did you say, Student? I’m sorry I didn’t hear you just now,” said Jie Yun as he stopped looking at his phone.

Fu Miyan said the second time, “Teacher Hei, I have something to ask you.”

“Well~ what is it? You are from Class A. Hm... If I remember correctly, your name is Fu... Student Fu Miyan. Are you here to get to know a new teacher like me? Because I’m sure there isn’t anything you don’t understand as someone in the top student of your Class...”

He was suddenly cut off while talking and heard student Fu Miyan asking,

“Is it just a coincidence? Or was it inevitable?” asked Fu Miyan.

Jie Yun finally looked at him and said, “What do you mean?”

“About you coming to this school, Teacher Hei!?” said Student Fu Miyan.

Jie Yun said, “As per custom, teaching in my alma mater as training might be just temporary. Therefore my coming here is inevitable.”

He approached Student Fu Miyan and took away his thick-rimmed glasses.

Jie Yun said, “Just as I thought, this is an unprescribed glasses. Your wounds are healing well, aren’t they? A student who attempted suicide by jumping in front of an incoming train — Student Fu Miyan~ fancy meeting you here~ but you shouldn’t hide your face behind these lame glasses...”

Student Fu Miyan suddenly jumped into him trying to snatch back his glasses.

“Give them back!” said Student Fu Miyan.

Jie Yun held his face gently and whispered, “It was such a waste of such a beautiful face to hide them~”

It was such a flirty mood but Jie Yun was checking something through this close contact.

His thoughts at these split-second interactions, ‘Hm? His piercings are not fresh but recently used. These are old piercings. There are too many holes. Did he use to be a delinquent? And this unknown scent of astringent and sweet mint, where have I heard it before?’

Student Fu Miyan on the other hand didn’t expect such a move from a handsome teacher like Jie Yun. The quiet hoarse low voice paired with a warm breath made him blush in embarrassment. He immediately steps back away from Jie Yun with red cheeks.

Jie Yun spoke, “I’m sorry for throwing cold water on your suspicion but that day you bumped into me. I was on my way to register for this school. In the first place, saving you was just a coincidence and I’m also not so overly self-conscious, Mr. Honor Student.”

Feeling ashamed, Student Fu Miyan runs off after hearing Jie Yun’s sarcastic words. He even bumps into the new infirmary doctor, Ye Yuyan in a white coat holding his phone recording them this whole time. On Student Fu Miyan’s way out he overheard their conversation.

With a calm face, Ye Yuyan in the white coat said, “That was a bit of sexual harassment. Should I call the police on you, Teacher Hei?”

“Shut up. What the hell are you recording? Erase that, or I’ll tell Brother that you were busy chatting with female and omega students in your infirmary!” shouted Jie Yun.

“Come on. I’m your brother-in-law, you can’t do that,” said the Infirmary teacher.

Student Fu Miyan’s thoughts as he overheard their conversation.

‘The new psychology teacher and infirmary doctor are families? Maybe it was really a coincidence that they came to work here.’

Not long after Student Fu Miyan had left Jie Yun noticed Prosecutor Ye Yuyan with a knot between his eyebrows staring worriedly at his phone. Peeking at the phone Jie Yun noticed that Ye Yuyan’s finger are hanging above the call button under the name of his brother’s number labeled as ‘Wifey’.

Jie Yun spoke, “If you miss brother you can call him any time.”

“A’Jie, do you also think something is wrong with Officer Ying Wu?” asked Prosecutor Ye Yuyan.

Jie Yun asked, “Did my brother say something? I didn’t feel anything weird about Officer Ying Wu but... my brother’s intuition is usually correct.”

“I thought so too. Now I am worried that he is alone with him. Let’s go and leave to meet them ahead of time for lunch,” said Ye Yuyan.

Jie Yun said, “Let’s go I’m famished.”

.....

Ye Yuyan and Jie Yun left school to eat lunch with their other teammates including Officer Ying Wu who kindly bought some cups of coffee for the team. While looking after Hua Heiyu, he was forced to bring different kinds of stalls and cafés in the vicinity all morning and he got scolded by the Prosecutor saying he is spoiling Hua Heiyu too much.

After class dismissal.

After making sure that Fu Miyan left the class, Ye Yuyan and Jie Yun once again met at the same laboratory as this morning. They lean on the laboratory window hiding behind the curtains. The laboratory was located on the third floor of the building and its window was facing the back of the school building.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan asked, “You said at lunch just now that Student Fu Miyan is weird. What did Yu’er say about that? I was called out ahead of time by the school because of an injured student so I didn’t hear anything about it.”

“I told the brother about Fu Miyan’s overall profile including my personal observation of him as well as his personality I’ve seen in class. Student Fu Miyan was an introvert yet he had the confidence to pull through as long as he wanted to know something. He is sometimes completely innocent yet he seems to be hiding something. When we met in the laboratory in the morning I think he wanted to tell me something but he still didn’t trust me completely and decided to not say a thing.

But something is not compatible with his personality and his physical body. He looks lean yet his muscles were a bit trained and those thin arms had hidden strength on them. There are calluses in his fist as if he was used to fighting bare-handed. His ears were full of piercings at such a young age but only delinquents do such a thing. So it felt weird for me to see such traits on him.” explained Jie Yun.

A serious expression appeared on Ye Yuyan’s face and the person itself thought that Yun Jie

“What did my wife say about this?” asked Prosecutor Ye Yuyan.

Jie Yun replied, “Brother says that he had some guesses but just to be sure. He needs to see Student Fu Miyan himself.”

“I see. I will arrange it so they will meet tomorrow,” said Prosecutor Ye Yuyan. “For now, let’s focus on the scene at hand.”

They finally saw the Student they’d been waiting for. The back of the school building is a good location to do bad things like bullying and such. As expected they saw the three other students on the case list including Xu Meiji. On the school building grounds, they saw three students forcing Xu Meiji to kneel down.

Xu Meiji said, “Please... Please forgive me. It is true that I was caught but... I didn’t tell them anything! I swear I didn’t!!!”

“Is that so? Honestly, you are a disgrace to us. You even made Brother Fu Tian clean up your mess!” said one of the other two students on the list that was involved in this illegal drug case.

“So what if you didn’t say a word? Now the police are all under our asses. They are watching over us!”

While the other two students were scolding and kicking Xu Meiji kneeling on the ground, another student who wasn’t even wearing his uniform but instead delinquent clothes of a printed skull black shirt and pants plus some metal accessories hanging on his wrist and waist approached Xu Meiji.

The other two students just now who were beating up Xu Meiji made a way for this dangerous-looking student. It seems to be the man they call Fu Tian.

“Fu Tian-ge?”

Xu Meiji looked a bit happy seeing the man in front of him as if he had seen hope but before he could become happy he noticed that the man in front of him wasn’t the person whom he loves. It was someone else.

His hair was suddenly grabbed abruptly, making Xu Meiji feel the pain in his head.

Xu Meiji said, “N-No you are not him. Not him! Are you the other one? I... I’m begging you. It’s the truth that I didn’t say a thing!!”

“Honestly, you are a disgrace to us. I do not see any worth of keeping you alive. If he didn’t beg me to not kill you, you would have longed to be dead.” said Fu Tian as he started punching and kicking Xu Meiji.

“Tian-dage!!!” screamed Xu Meiji as if asking the man in front of him to stop.

Unlike the other two before who knew how to hold back as they were afraid of killing him, this man in black had no such fear. He seems to be a psycho who had a few loose screws in his head.

Jie Yun and Ye Yuyan who was watching the whole scene saw that things were getting out of hand and Ye Yuyan decided to show himself. He opened the window from the third floor and shouted.

“What the hell are you students doing!? Stay your hands!!!” bellowed Ye Yuyan from the third-floor window.

The students were frantic when they heard someone shout and when they looked up they saw the new infirmary doctor at the third-floor laboratory holding a breaker and chopsticks. Obviously, using the laboratory pieces of equipment as cooking tools for his instant noodles.

“Shit! There’s someone at the laboratory at this time!”

“I think that’s the new infirmary doctor!”

“What is he holding in his hand? A breaker and a chopstick? Is he using the laboratory tools to cook noodles!?”

“So what if he is!? Let’s run. Tian-dage, let’s go!”

Some students drag away Fu Tian who was looking up with one of his eyes hidden in an eyepatch. He glares at Ye Yuyan before running away with his minions. They’ve left behind the barely breathing Xu Meiji on the school ground.

Chapter 666: 12.68 Unknown Star – Modern ABO World: Second Case – Almost Caught

Ye Yuyan gave the breaker with noodles to Jie Yun as he jumped out of the laboratory’s window.

Jie Yun panicked for a bit, “H-Hey! What are you doing!? That’s too eye-catching!! Remember you are just a doctor right... now?”

Whoosh!

It was too late as this dominant alpha in front of him had already jumped out of the window. Seeing one of their bosses jump out of the window from the third floor of the school building, Jie Yun could only cover his eyes in exhaustion. He didn’t expect Prosecutor Ye Yuyan to be harder to control than his lover, Wei Lou.

Jie Yun mumbled, “I’m not brother. I can’t control his husband for him.”

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan jumped down from the building and fell safely to the ground. He went to the student on the ground and found that Xu Meiji was still alive. He called an ambulance for him and asked a few policemen to protect this possible witness.

“He is still alive. Call an ambulance!!” shout Ye Yuyan at Jie Yun on the third floor.

.....

Jie Yun called for the ambulance and sent the Student Xu Meiji away. As expected things had become something like a big deal and the principal was concerned as the two new teachers saw what those students from his school had done. Moreover, these new teachers were public officials undercover even if the school wanted to cover up this mess it is impossible in the presence of Prosecutor Ye Yuyan.

As expected a few hours later, the police found the students involved in the intentional injury case hiding in some bar but the student in a black shirt called Fu Tian was not found at all. As if he had disappeared in thin air.

Officer Ying Wu heard that one of the students was not found.

“You didn’t find a young man wearing all black with lots of piercings on his body!? He is the mastermind of this intentional injury case. Find him! He must haven’t gone away!” said Officer Ying Wu.

Hua Heiyu commented, “You won’t find him anymore. Someone must have helped him and those two students were drugged by a mind control illegal medicines so they had become stupid. They couldn’t become your witness for the case. Just protect the victim, Student Xu Meiji.”

Officer Ying Wu and the other teachers were stunned by what Hua Heiyu had said. But as if giving a back up to his words, a police officer tasked to bring the two newly caught students away came running to Officer Ying Wu and reported.

“Reporting to Captain Ying! The two students caught at the bar just now started acting crazy. One started giggling nonstop while the other started smashing everything as if he was angry at everything. The doctor says they might be drugged but the laboratory still needs time to find out what kind of drugs it is. Moreover, the parents of these two students started complaining. Captain, please help us!” said the police officer who came to report.

Officer Ying Wu said to Hua Heiyu, “Sorry I need to clear up these things. Are you going to come with me?”

“No. Let me wait here. Just call Wei Lou to help me push the wheelchair,” said Hua Heiyu who is now eating a bowl of ice cream.

Officer Ying Wu nodded his head and called Wei Lou. After a while, he bid his farewell to Hua Heiyu.

“Wei Lou says he is on his way. Is it okay for you to wait here at the school gate or do you want me to push you inside instead?” asked Officer Ying Wu.

Hua Heiyu said, “Inside the school gates.”

“Okay. I will push you there. Be careful. Don’t let someone bump on you. Your feet are not healed yet.” said Officer Ying Wu worried about his injuries.

Hua Heiyu said, “I will be okay. With these feet, I wouldn’t be able to run around on my own anyway.”

After helping Hua Heiyu at the school entrance, Officer Ying Wu left the school premises to handle the parents of the two students suspected of international injury or in the worst case attempted murder cases.

Hua Heiyu watches the back of Officer Ying Wu walking away with a cold expression on his face. Because of the incident of extreme student bullying the students were tasked to stay in their classroom while the teachers roamed around to investigate the case.

So no students or teachers were found at the school entrance during these times and Hua Heiyu was the only one in the area looking uncaring and forlorn.

Hei Yuhua asked System Yang about the contents of the small drone he left on Officer Ying Wu that day. At first, it was only his intuition saying that this person hates his husband a lot but when System Yang reported what the contents of the video recording taken by the drone were. He was shocked to his core and even felt chills all over his body.

Who would expect that the person they thought wasn't involved directly in this case but was suddenly pulled in and gotten involved would become someone who was deeply manipulating everything about these cases?

Hei Yuhua asked, "System Yang, are you sure that he is the hidden villain of this world?"

[Yes. According to the surveillance video of your mini drone Officer Ying Wu is the leader of the Red Poppy Syndicate. Ying Wu wasn't his real name but instead Ying Su. He is also Poppy himself.]

Hei Yuhua said, "What is his real connection to Ying Wu? Where is the real Ying Wu and why does he hate A'Yan to such an extent?"

[I will investigate it for you but it is better to ask your husband about who Ying Su is. Ying Su is the former comrade of Prosecutor Ye Yuyan and Director Yu Xi.]

Hei Yuhua said as he used his hands to skillfully wheeled the wheelchair towards the school building to find his husband.

Meanwhile at the other building's laboratory. In the biology storage room. Student Fu Miyan was hiding in the corner of the room hugging his legs while trembling all over in fear. Not far from him, a small long table is full of high-technology tools for making medicines.

The biology storage room is a closed and air-conditioned room to store samples of specimens like internal organs and such. Though most of it was fake, a few real ones were hidden within the fakes.

Standing in front of the long table with the apparatus to create medicine was Datura. He was humming as he was playing around with his tools obviously making more drugs and concoctions of unknown use. Datura had been hiding in this place ever since Prosecutor Ye Yuyan and Jie Yun arrived at Crossfield Private School. He would only go out of the room after Ye Yuyan and Jie Yun left the school premises. Plus, no one knew he was in this room in the first place.

This storage room was rarely used and would only be cleaned every 3 months. So no one expected someone to know this secret place only Student Fu Miyan does.

Humming~

Datura noticed Student Fu Miyan trembling like a caught rabbit in the corner of the room. There's a trace of blood on his fists obviously both injured and tainted with the blood of someone he had beaten up.

"You were not careful this time. You've lost all your limbs and almost got caught yourself. So careless~" said Datura, the mad scientist.

Student Fu Miyan was still trembling in the corner of the room ignoring the mad scientist, Datura, who was talking to him.

The madman was a bit pissed about being ignored by the brat and approached Student Fu Miyan. He was about to kick the kid lightly when his foot was stopped by a hand that grabbed his foot but Datura had an evil smile on his face.

“Tsk! You are finally awake,” said Datura as he pulled out his foot from the hand, grabbing it.

Student Fu Miyan raised his head from his knees and glared at the mad scientist Datura. Despite the traces of tears on his face, his expression looks cold and dangerous. His face is still the same one as Student Fu Miyan but his personality, his demeanor, and presence were replaced by something much more sinister.

Datura said, “If you’re awake then stand up. I can’t believe you made a careless mistake like that. Why didn’t you swiftly kill that Student called Xu Meiji.”

“...”

“Stop ignoring me, Fu Tian!”

Fu Tian responded like a rebellious young man as he stood up from the corner of the room, patting the specks of dust off his clothes.

“Shut up! I heard you. I’ve always wanted to kill that useless thing but my younger brother would always stop my body from landing the final blow on his head. He is indeed lucky. Why would those teachers be there at that time?” said Fu Tian.

Fu Tian isn’t someone else. He is a split personality created by Fu Miyan as his elder brother figure. Fu Miyan is born an introvert and he has been bullied all his life he wishes to just suicide and end everything. At his lowest point, he met Datura, this madman, and injected something into his body. A few days later Fu Tian was born. It was that day when a group of students tried to rape him at one of the physical education storage houses after he had awakened as an omega.

He didn’t want to be dirtied and treated in such an inhumane way. But before he bit his tongue and slammed his head into the pillar, a voice spoke to him in his mind saying to let him take over. Fu Miyan was so desperate at that time that he surrendered his body to that voice. It was after that day that Fu Tian was born. They shared each other’s bodies.

Fu Tian is completely different from him. He is confident, strong, and wild. He would beat up anyone to death who had offended him regardless of who they are. Then Datura was again looking for them when he saw Fu Tian’s existence he was delighted saying that I had awakened a nice power and asked me to repay him by selling more of that drug to anyone in the city as repayment for giving him Fu Tian.

Fu Miyan didn’t want to agree in the first place but his elder brother Fu Tian thought otherwise. The latter was fierce and bloodthirsty right from the beginning and saw the thought of selling illegal drugs as nothing more than a game to entertain himself at least that’s how it looks like for Fu Miyan. Even if Fu Miyan wanted to stop him it was already too late. Fu Tian had a stronger influence on his body and could already come out anytime he wanted. For the times Fu Tian needs to sleep, it would be Fu Miyan who would control the body but when Fu Tian is awake he would be in control. novelusb/c\o/m

Datura raised an eyebrow and said, “Teachers, which ones?”

“New teachers. One in psychology and another in the infirmary. The names are Hei Jie and Ye Yun,” replied Fu Tian.

Datura mumbled the two names, “Hei... Jie? Ye... Yun? Pfft! Don’t tell me it was them. Hahaha~”

“You know them? Fu Muyan said these two teachers are weird. One of them saved him once and suddenly appeared in the school the next day. Who are they?” asked Fu Tian.

The mad scientist, Datura answered, “Cops...”

“The most annoying ones out there. Their real names are Jie Yun and Prosecutor Ye Yuyan. They already knew that the source of the New Ecstasy Flower drug is connected to you and came to him to personally investigate. Be careful and don’t get caught. In that group of policemen, there are two you should be wary of. One is that Infirmary Teacher of yours~ he is the only dominant and strongest alpha in the country. If you fight him face to face you will get caught regardless. So I suggest you don’t fight him. His name is Ye Yuyan.”

“There is also another one. Technically, this one is on our side. But his mission is related to Prosecutor Ye Yuyan, so you can’t openly fight the people around him as he was undercover for our Syndicate. He is a moody psychopath so it would depend on his mood if he would help you or not. Better to not get involved with him. He had extremely rare exquisite Silver eyes so you wouldn’t mistake him for someone. He is a beautiful dominant omega so his strength is similar to that of an alpha. He isn’t weak like all other omegas. By the way, he is extremely smart and I don’t think you can control him. Even the leader was wary about him. In short, he is even more dangerous than Prosecutor Ye Yuyan to some extent. His current name is Hua Heiyu and his codename is Hydrangea.”

Fu Tian listened well to his words and learned that a spy was hiding within the police side without them even knowing about it. Deep inside his heart, he had always wanted to leave the Syndicate as Fu Miyan hated this kind of life but couldn’t find a way to leave this place. But now he found one, as for how he can convince that person would result in a future that involves his and Fu Miyan’s life changes.

Chapter 667: 12.69 Unknown Star – Modern ABO World: Second Case – Fu Tian meets Hei Yuhua.

Fu Tian left the Biology Storage Laboratory after seeing that the police had already left the school’s vicinity. He had changed his clothes and wore Fu Miyan’s uniform after taking a bath. Datura kicked him out saying he must find new minions so they could continue selling drugs to people. His job in the Syndicate is to be an errand boy for that mad scientist, Datura.

He was on his way back to class when he bumped into Hei Yuhua. Hei Yuhua was in a wheelchair and was thinking about how he would climb up the stairs before him on his own. He was just chatting with Ye Yuyan when he heard footsteps behind him. He knew someone was about to approach. He pretended that no one was picking him up.

Hua Heiyu mumbled, “Why isn’t he picking up the call? Did he want a cripple like me to crawl up? That stupid Prosecutor.”

“Do you need help? I can push you up the stairs at least. There’s an elevator inside the building.” said Fu Tian, he just wanted to see what this cripple looks like as he possesses a weird aura around him that does not seem compatible with his current state.

Fu Tian tried to smile but he didn’t look good at it, making Hua Heiyu look at him weirdly. When the former saw those pair of argent orbs looking at him coldly yet scrutinizing, he was reminded of what that mad scientist, Datura, had said about the Syndicate’s spy in Prosecutor Ye Yuyan’s team.

The thoughts of Fu Tian as he was staring at Hua Heiyu’s face.

‘Silver eyes and overly refined features. A beautiful young man is it? This must be Hydrangea.’

.....

“Please don’t look at me like that. I just want to help you climb up the stairs, Sir,” said Fu Tian pretending to be Fu Miyan but despite his acts, his attitude and way of talking are completely different from an introvert like Fu Miyan.

Hua Heiyu’s eyes narrowed for a bit and asked, “You are a student right? Why are you not in class when the rest of the students who haven’t gone home yet were forbidden to get out of their classrooms after being recalled.”

“Really? I didn’t know that. I was at the other school building to return a few laboratory tools we used in the last class. I was about to return to class to get my things and go home. Did something happen?” asked Fu Tian.

“That smile doesn’t suit you but whatever...”

Hua Heiyu nodded his head and paused for a moment as if thinking of whether he would tell the student or not about what happened.

Hua Heiyu said, “Something bad happened. A student was killed in a case of extensive bullying. I think the student’s name is... what was it again, Xu... Xu...”

“Xu Meiji?” asked the student in front of him but his voice was totally different from before. It is a bit timid and trembling.

Hua Heiyu was closely observing the student in front of him as he said that.

“That’s right. Xu Meiji. Some teachers saw him getting beat up behind this school building. It was said that he badly hit his head which caused a hemorrhage in the brain. He wasn’t really dead yet when he was brought away by the ambulance but I heard from a police officer at the scene just now that he died on the way to the hospital. That’s why most police officers in this area left because two of the suspects, who are also students, were caught. Student, your school bullying is a bit too much don’t you think?”

Hua Heiyu suddenly held one of his hands startling Fu Miyan who took over the body at this moment. He accidentally pushed Hua Heiyu from his wheelchair which turned them over with a single push.

THUD!

Hua Heiyu exclaimed, “Owie~ why did you push me like this student?”

"I... I... I did not mean to... do that..." murmured Fu Miyan as he lowered his head.

Hua Heiyu said, "Alright, you didn't, can you help me up?"

Just Fu Miyan was about to nod his head and reach out to help Hua Heiyu back to the wheelchair someone bellowed at him from the school entrance. It was Prosecutor Ye Yuyan and Jie Yun.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan shouted, "Stop! What the hell are you doing, that student there!?"

"Aren't you Student Fu Miyan of my class? Your classmates say you left to return tools from the next building. But why would you push my brother off his wheelchair? Did he offend you or something?" asked Jie Yun. His expression was a bit serious seeing Student Fu Miyan push off his brother like that.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan and Jie Yun just received a message from Hua Heiyu that Officer Ying Wu left him in front of the school building as he was recalled to the headquarters. He also has to visit the hospital and speak with the minor suspects' parents and could only leave Hua Heiyu with them as he cannot go with him to the police station.

"I...I didn't..." whispered Fu Miyan.

Fu Miyan was stunned to see Teacher Hei scolding him like that. He thought this teacher was different from the rest but it seems that he was wrong. He runs away after being questioned like that, Fu Miyan isn't like Fu Tian. He lacks self-confidence and his heart is full of anxiety. Prosecutor Ye Yuyan carried his wife in his arms after petting off the dust on him.

Jie Yun was about to stop Student Fu Miyan and continue asking him more but was stopped by Hua Heiyu.

Jie Yun said, "Student Fu Miyan! I'm not done talking!"

"Enough, A'Jie. You scared the kid too much. Get my wheelchair back up please," said Hua Heiyu.

Jie Yun said, "But brother... I think he is Fu Tian."

"Well he is yet at the same time not him," said Hua Heiyu.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan asked, "What do you mean, Yu'er?"

"Let's talk in your office. The school infirmary would do," said Hua Heiyu. novelusb/c\o/m

"Okay."

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan carried his wife away while Jie Yun had no other choice but to push the empty wheelchair as he followed these bosses. Only then did he notice that his lover hadn't arrived yet. When Officer Ying Wu messages to him just now he said that Wei Lou would be accompanying his brother outside the school but he and Prosecutor Ye Yuyan were both called over by Hua Heiyu.

Jie Yun asked, "Brother, where is A'Wei?"

"Send him to protect Student Xu Meiji. He is now the sole witness of the case. There would be someone who would try to kill him to silence him." said Hua Heiyu. "Okay. Stop talking. Let's continue the rest in the school infirmary."

The three of them head to the school infirmary to talk about the case. On the other hand, Student Fu Miyan who ran away from them was in a panic as he could hear his brother's voice in his head.

{Why did you run away, Mimi?}

Fu Miyan said, "Brother, they are looking at me weirdly just now. Do you think they know? About the drugs? About you and me in one body?"

{They don't. They were just a bit angry as they saw you push Hydrangea off the wheelchair. He is their teammate after all. It would have been done if you had apologized.}

Fu Miyan stopped running and hid in the school library. He sat in the corner and spoke to his brother in such a silent location.

"I'm sorry. I-I didn't mean to push him just now. He... He suddenly grabbed my hands just now. Brother, did you really kill Xu Meiji?"

{No. He is lying. I didn't deal a good blow on that brat's head. I just wanted him out of the team as you are worried for him most of the time. Plus, the person touched our hands just now to check if we have calluses in our hands. I might have taken a bath to remove the smell of blood but our hand is covered in calluses as I use it to fight. He is extremely smart. He must already know about my existence.}

Fu Miyan was shocked, "Who is he brother?"

{His codename is Hydrangea. He might be a double agent for the police and the syndicate. He is our only way to escape Datura, that madman.}

Fu Miyan asked, "S-Should I approach him, big brother?"

{No. He will come to us in the future. As for Xu Meiji, don't worry about him. He is still alive. I didn't kill him. I wouldn't kill our alpha.}

Fu Miyan said, "Thank you, Big brother."

Back to the infirmary room. Jie Yun and Prosecutor Ye Yuyan ensured that nothing was hidden in the infirmary and also claimed that the infirmary was school as they were talking about the case. Just to be sure Ye Yuyan redeemed an item from the system mall to place soundproofing within the infirmary room.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan asked, "Did you get hurt from the fall? Let me see your elbow, Yu'er" as he gently lifted up his sleeve and saw scratches on it. Thankfully it was not bleeding at all. "Let me clean up the wound for a while."

"Okay as you wish," said Hei Yuhua with a gentle smile.

Yun Jie suddenly asked as he remembered what his brother said about Fu Miyan just now.

"Brother, what do you think about Student Fu Miyan being him but not him?" asked Yun Jie.

Hei Yuhua explained, "Fu Tian is a split personality of Fu Miyan. They share the same body but have different personalities. Fu Miyan is introverted, timid, and hates people's touch. This might have something about his growth years and experiences at home. Fu Tian might have been born due to someone outside variables. It can be a drug or something else. It can also be both. The reason I say both is because Fu Tian is different from someone with a split personality. He had full control over the body unless Fu Miyan was agitated like a while ago. Before I was pushed, the one I'm talking with was Fu Tian. After lying that Xu Meiji is dead Fu Miyan took over. You saw how he reacted when A'Jie questioned him right?"

"He indeed has low self-confidence," commented Prosecutor Ye Yuyan as he finished Treating his wife's elbow.

Jie Yun asked, "But why would Fu Tian approach you, Brother?"

"Because I am Hydrangea. A double spy for both the police and the syndicate. To the Red Poppy Syndicate as long as I haven't completed the last two missions I would be out of their fence. I am temporarily an executive but at the same time, not a real one. Fu Miyan and Fu Tian might have been forced to sell drugs by Datura, if this is the case the existence of Fu Tian had something to do with that mad scientist and they could only repay him through this means by selling his drugs." said Hei Yuhua.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan asked, "Do you wish to save them, Yu'er?"

"Yes. They are a good seedling to take my place in Aster after we retire," said Hei Yuhua with a smile.

Hearing this Ye Yuyan smiled and thought of something as well.

"Indeed. This idea is also good. We need to find people to take out the place after everything is over." said Prosecutor Ye Yuyan.

Somewhere at the hidden laboratory of Datura in Crossfield Private High School. Datura seems to be talking to someone on the phone.

The mad scientist, Datura, asked on the phone, "Poppy Leader~ can I ask for Hydrangea's help with my mission of drugging Prosecutor Ye Yuyan?"

{If he agrees then go ahead. But you know how difficult it is to handle Hydrangea as he still wasn't officially included in the upper echelon of our group. Even Nightshade has a hard time convincing him to do missions.}

Datura said, "Don't worry, Poppy Leader. I have a way to make him move."

While talking on the phone with his leader Datura was holding a family photo of a couple in white coats. In the photo, the couple is carrying a young girl who looks a bit similar to Hei Yuhua. She also possesses rare silver eyes like him.

{Then try your best to convince him. If you can do it then tell me how you did so.}

Datura said, "Roger that, Poppy Leader."

Then the call ended from the other side. Only then did Datura call someone else based on the voice. It was definitely a girl.

“Dear Apprentice. Master wants some help with a few materials. Come to Crossfield Private High school for master’s.”

{Fine. What materials should I bring?}

A cold tone of a female voice can be heard from the phone.

Datura said, “Just bring the materials on Zone A for me and the one you currently have on hand. You will work with me for a few days~ Master has a surprise gift for you. Something you would love the most and miss the most.”

{Are you sick again, Master? That omega of yours is as annoying as you are. Poppy sent him away already. Just to inform you.}

Datura chuckled and said, “No worries, he wouldn’t be able to escape. I had inputted a locator in his flesh unless he scrapes his own skin he can’t remove at all.”

{Madman.}

.....

“Yes, I am,” said Datura before ending the call.

He has an excited grin on his face as he thinks of an evil plan in his mind. In this world, there is no one he hates much more than Hei Yuhua.

Datura mumbled, “You need to at least pay for destroying my life work once right? Hydrangea or should I call you Agent Hei~ hehe...”

Chapter 668: 12.70 Unknown Star – Modern ABO World: Second Case – Witness Xu Meiji

In the middle of the night, at the city hospital.

Student Xu Meiji was confined in a VIP room of the city hospital. The Police Headquarters covered everything and as an important witness to the case, Xu Meiji was protected by Prosecutor Ye Yuyan’s team.

His bed was placed at the center with an oxygen tank on the right and a few machines to observe his heartbeat surrounding the bed. His eyes were still currently closed and his bloodless pale face is still very obvious at this moment despite receiving a few blood bags to replenish his blood. His head was also wrapped with thick white bandages and on his face is a mask connected to the oxygen tank.

He slowly opened his eyes and saw a blurry sight of white. It took a while for him to get back his clear eyesight and noticed the white ceiling and dull light in the room. Student Xu Meiji tried to move only for him to feel intense pain all over his body, especially in his chest part.

Groans~

Student Xu Meiji groans in pain.

Wei Lou who was protecting him secretly had appeared from the dark area of the room.

.....

“You’re awake, kid? You’ve almost died on the operating table but still survive in the end. You have a few fractured ribs so be careful when you move. Plus with a crack on your skull, the doctors thought you wouldn’t wake up tonight,” said Wei Lou.

Student Xu Meiji stared at Wei Lou’s familiar face thinking about where he had seen him then he remembered the scene he was caught that day in the back alleys when he was selling drugs.

With a raspy voice and broken words, Student Xu Meiji replies, “Y-You... That... Back... A-Alley... Police...”

“Correct. I’m Wei Lou. Do you remember what happened to you?” asked Wei Lou.

Student Xu Meiji stares at the ceiling as if he was dazed and remembers the scene of that person whom he chose as his beloved to do that to him. He felt immense sadness and despair. Wei Lou who had been observing him realized that he remembers. He recalled the message he received from Hua Yuhua and learned that it was Student Fu Miyan’s other personality called Fu Tian who had beaten him up.

But he also explained that Student Fu Tian had beaten up Student Xu Meiji to protect him and get him out of the reach of the man behind the illegal drugs which is most likely the mad scientist, Datura.

Wei Lou took a seat on the couch beside the bed and said, “The students who beat you up had been caught.”

Student Xu Meiji was shocked when he heard about that and stared at Wei Lou with bloodshot eyes. Wei Lou was now sure that this boy knew who Fu Tian was. But Hei Yuhua had already told him about the living Split Personality of Student Fu Miyan and was not surprised that this student before him knows him as well.

Wei Lou said, “Those students who beat you up were all under probation in the police station for attempted murder and intentional injuries. You had indeed almost died after all.”

“I’m still... alive so... that murder thing is not... true...” said Student Xu Meiji who pulled off the oxygen mask on his face so he would be able to talk more clearly but even this simple movement caused pain spread all over his body by chose to bear it.

Wei Lou said, “It was because you are alive that’s why it’s called attempted murder. If you had died then it is just a real murder instead. The latter crime is heavier than the former. Either way, don’t worry Fu Tian wasn’t caught but his two minions are. Though it seems that someone had drugged them now they had become drug addicts with problems in the head. They’ve gone stupid literally.”

Student Xu Meiji knew that the police officer beside him was fishing for information and was a bit pissed that he got hooked just now. What he didn’t know is why it seems this man and the people on his side already know about Fu Tian and Fu Miyan.

“You guys... seems to already... know who Fu Tian is...” said Student Xu Meiji said.

Wei Lou said, “Well there’s a little brainiac monster in our team. He only needed clues to solve the case but this little monster on our side had personally met Student Fu Miyan already and theorized his connection with Fu Tian. We are only protecting you because you seem close to Fu Tian so... You might be a witness in name but not really.”

“If you promise to save Mimi. I can tell you where the supplier is hiding and the hidden routes he uses to escape everyone’s eyes in the school,” said Student Xu Meiji.

Wei Lou looked at him with Eagle-like stares and asked, “How sure are you that your information is legit and not false.”

“I am willing to go to jail if what I said is false. I only knew these routes because I was stalking Mimi because I’m worried about him. I even saw that person in a white coat with one dull lavender eye who makes the drugs. If I remember correctly Mimi calls him Datura.” said Student Xu Meiji.

When the name Datura was mentioned, Wei Lou’s face finally turned ugly.

Wei Lou asked, “Kid, are you sure you heard the name Datura?”

“I’m sure. His name is Datura. Mimi no... Fu Tian calls him that,” said Student Xu Meiji and realized that the case of illegal drugs in his school isn’t simply involved with drugs and all.

Under the eyes of Student Xu Meiji, Wei Lou called Prosecutor Ye Yuyan and reported what the witness had said.

“Yes. He said it was Datura and the description was always the same as we know. The witness had seen him with his own eyes. Okay, I understand.”

After his call with Prosecutor Ye Yuyan had ended, he looked at Student Xu Meiji.

“Kid, you’re lucky. The boss’s wife said to get you involved. We need you on our side to be able to save your Mimi. But I suggest what you would see next was something you wouldn’t tell anyone. Either way, if you did, no one would believe you anyway~” said Wei Lou as he approached the kid and placed a pill near his lips.

This pill was redeemed from the system mall and it could cure all injuries in a few minutes. This is an elixir only found in the cultivation world but was allowed to be redeemed as the stocks themselves came from Hei Anjing’s warehouse.

Wei Lou said, “Eat, kid. We need to leave as soon as possible. You want to save Student Fu Miyan right? The only way to do so is to work with us.”

Student Xu Meiji only hesitated for a moment before eating the pill near his mouth. He is not afraid that he would be poisoned as he knew this man in front of him is someone from the police side. Though he doesn’t believe cops that much as they never helped him whenever he reported about the drug case before, this man named Wei Lou seems different from the rest.

The effects of the pill took only a few minutes and the pain all over Student Xu Meiji’s body faded as he was finally able to not only sit up but also stand up.

Student Xu Meiji was in awe, “I’m completely healed? How is that possible!?”

“Get up kid. We need to get going,” said Wei Lou as he used a Substitute Talisman to take Xu Meiji’s place and programmed it to the injured version of Student Xu Meiji.

Xu Meiji looks at the dummy that looks like him on the bed. It was moving on its own and pretty much look like him.

“What is this? A puppet? It looks real...” said Student Xu Meiji in marvel.

“Ask questions later, kid. We need to leave before someone who comes to kill you come,” said Wei Lou.
novel.usbdotC/o/m

After everything was in place Student Xu Meiji and Wei Lou were about to leave when they heard a commotion from outside the room of Xu Meiji. When Wei Lou heard that people outside were saying they’ve heard the guard outside called Officer Ying Wu.

Wei Lou had longed to replace the guards of Xu Meiji with dummies as Hei Yuhua ordered. He also listened to his warning of keeping things distant from Ying Wu. Even though Wei Lou didn’t understand why, if he had to choose whom to believe between Officer Ying Wu and Hei Yuhua then he would choose his sister-in-law regardless.

“Officer Ying Wu, greet... Argh!”

“What are you doing!? Captain!! Why did you shoot at urgh!!”

Based on sounds alone the two dummy guards outside were killed.

Upon hearing people were in chaos outside, especially the silent gunshots. Wei Lou used his life-saving invisible talismans on him and Student Xu Meiji immediately hid in the darkness in one of the corners of the room.

Wei Lou whispered to Student Xu Meiji who was trembling beside him and even covering his mouth. He had a grim expression on his face. Though Hei Yuhua had already warned him that someone would definitely come to eliminate the witness, Wei Lou would never be expected it to be someone he knows. That was Officer Ying Wu, a supposedly naive and righteous young police officer. For him to come to this place to kill Xu Meiji means that he is directly involved with the Red Poppy Syndicate.

“Don’t speak. This bastard hid too well. Damn it.”

Once they’ve turned invisible, the door finally opens revealing a cold-faced Officer Ying Wu in casual clothing. He was wearing blood clothes from top to bottom. In his right hand is a gun with a silencer attached to it. Staring at Xu Meiji on the bed coldly.

The dummy Xu Meiji looked terrified at Officer Ying Wu in front of him. The familiar face was the same as ever. Gentle features yet the naive and innocent feeling before were replaced with iciness and indifference for life.

“Who are you!? I don’t know you at all!” shouted the dummy Xu Meiji.

“Someone to clean up the traces Datura left. Sadly, you knew too much, boy.”

ARGH!

With a few droplets of blood on his cheeks, he steered lifelessly, panicking and frightened to death Xu Meiji on the bed. With just one bullet of a gun, the dummy on the bed had died. Student Xu Meiji saw himself die on that bed and was shocked to the core that he couldn't help but whimper lightly.

Whimper~

But such a light sound was enough for Officer Ying Wu to point the gun in their direction. The first shot missed but seeing that the man with the gun had no intention of stopping to shoot at all, Wei Lou decided to leave the place immediately and used the teleportation talisman on him. The next gunshots were in their direction thankfully they escaped before a rain of bullets fell on their body.

'SHIT!!!' Thoughts of Wei Lou in that split second.

Ying Wu after being a hidden villain for a few lifetimes was cautious as hell. Plus, he was exposed to supernatural things like invisibility and such, because of this reason he wouldn't allow even a single person of carelessness on his side. So he started shooting that corner where he heard a sound.

If someone supernatural is hiding there, then blood will flow regardless if not the bullets would be blocked instead. But none of it was the same as he had expected. There is not even a trace of blood in the direction he had rained bullets and only heard the sound of the wind from the slight opening of the window in the room.

With his eyes slightly narrowed, Officer Ying Wu mumbled, "Wind? Then that whimper must be my imagination. Either way, the cleaning is complete. Let's leave the rest to Datura."

Ever since Officer Ying Wu's system had gone out, the items in his possession had become limited. His points were about to run out and because of this, he chose to remove all witnesses or traces that would lead to the destruction of his syndicate.

"I haven't seen the despair in Ye Yuyan's eyes yet. Until then... My pawns must remain to exist." mumbled Officer Ying Wu as he left the hospital unhindered and no one knew he came there. He used a tool to cut off the surveillance and made him invisible to the NPC of this world.

Unknown to him characters like Lou Wei are around and with Student Xu Meiji getting involved with their team his original plot was also destroyed. That's why they were unaffected by the tool Officer Ying Wu used in the hospital.

Chapter 669: 12.71 Unknown Star – Modern ABO World: Second Case – The Ying Twins.

The teleportation talisman worked greatly this time. Before the rain of bullets fell on him and Student Xu Meiji, they had successfully transferred to another location. They were directly teleported to the hallway of the condominium building where their room was located.

As soon as their feet landed on solid ground Student Xu Meiji felt his legs turn to jelly and fell seated on the floor. There was a graze wound on Wei Lou's left cheek and it was only right now that it started bleeding.

Hiss~

Wei Lou cursed, "Damn?! Was that Officer Ying Wu just now!!? This is crazy! He is from the Red Poppy Syndicate! Should I report it to the captain!? No, wait, what if my call is traced? Let's just wait for them to come home. It would have been great if I had a telepathy skill like the bosses."

He kept on talking to himself and didn't notice the one he saved was too scared on the floor and another two pairs of eyes staring at him while crouching in the hallway. The two guests were the God of Wealth, Bai Jin, and his System Wuya. Seeing Wei Lou around System Wuya returned to his avatar form and landed on his host's head taking over his hair as his little next, the ball-like little crow nodded off to sleep after giving his host instructions about the one they've caught.

Bai Jin said, "Hello~, Lou Wei. We're here again."

Wei Lou heard a familiar voice talking to him but he looked around and saw no one. He felt creeped out as if there was a ghost around him.

.....

Bai Jin said, "Down here. Look below~"

Wei Lou followed the voice and said Bai Jin or Lin Jiya seated on the floor with a sleeping crow on his head and a small but weird golden cage with pasted talisman in it. Inside the cage is a fierce-looking white snake with red eyes which is a rare sight to be seen.

"Venerable Bai Jin?" calls Wei Lou.

The God of Wealth, Bai Jin said, "Un! By the way, is this child okay? He fainted."

He said while pointing at Student Xu Meiji who was scared to death witnessing someone who had his face get killed like that in front of him. It was like seeing his own ending if not for Wei Lou coming over to save him.

Wei Lou panicked for a moment and checked on Xu Meiji when he saw he only fainted and carried the boy to his condominium next door.

"Please come with me next door. The boss and his wife as well as my lover haven't gone home yet. Let's wait for them to return." said Wei Lou as he opened the door to the unit next to the one owned by Prosecutor Ye Yuyan.

Bai Jin followed and said, "Let's go. Do you have food? This mortal vessel feels hunger..."

"Um, there should be something in the fridge I think?" hesitating, Wei Lou replied.

Inside Wei Lou's condominium, he went to the kitchen to raid Wei Lou's fridge for food. They had been waiting for half a day for these guys to return after all.

Bai Jin asked in disbelief upon hearing Wei Lou's words. "Why are you not sure? Isn't this your house?"

"It's my lover who does the groceries so I don't know if there is still something in the fridge," responded Wei Lou.

Bai Jin who saw the fridge full of food including reheated Bentos was delighted. He took a few out to reheat and commented, "Your lover is great. You should marry him. He will be a great wife."

“Do you think so too?” said Wei Lou with a smile.

The two waited for the rest to come back. Wei Lou had already messaged his lover that he had returned to the condominium ahead of time. They’ve already received the news of the death of Student Xu Meijie from Officer Ying Wu.

Officer Ying Wu reported that everyone including all the guards that were left behind to protect the witness Student Xu Meiji and the witness himself had died last night. Today was the third day they’ve been undercover in Crossfield Private High School.

Bai Jin and Wei Lou heard the conversation in the hallway.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan said, “Good work for today. Ying Wu takes a long rest. We’ve watched them so closely lately that they’ve stopped selling drugs for these three days. We will take a day off tomorrow. Leave some people to watch over the school and report anything strange immediately.”

“Understood, Prosecutor Ye! Please excuse me for today!” said Officer Ying Wu as he left for today as usual.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan and Jie Yun watched Officer Ying Wu leave while Hua Heiyu was sitting in his wheelchair bored yet his eyes were observant of his surroundings, especially about Ying Wu.

Hei Yuhua asked to System Yang, “Is he gone?”

System Yang said, [Yes, he even used Teleportation stones to leave. Though the distance of the teleportation stone is limited to at least within 10 meters, it is still useful for escaping. He had a few tools with him but his system had been away for quite a long time. Their connection would be cut off soon.]

Hei Yuhua looked at Yun Jie and said, “Call your lover and the people with him over for dinner, A’Jie.”

As he stood up from the wheelchair and walked inside his family’s condominium leaving the left behind wheelchair for Ye Yuyan to dispose of. He doesn’t look to be in a good mood.

Yun Jie said, “Okay, Big Brother.” as he went next door while Ye Yuyan followed his wife inside the house.

Lou Wei and Bai Jin were eavesdropping at the door just now and heard what Hei Yuhua had said. They opened the door when they heard Yun Jie’s footsteps.

“What’s wrong with the boss’s wife?” asked Lou Wei. novel.usbdo.com

Yun Jie replied, “We’ve received news from the dummy left behind at the Prime Minister’s house. The Syndicate caused an explosion in one of the halls at the Prime Minister’s Palace but thankfully no one was hurt.”

“The Syndicate is now revealing all means to harm us? This didn’t happen in our past life,” said Lou Wei.

Bai Jin spoke, "It might be because he had lost contact with his system and this was out of control for him. He wanted to end everything much faster in this timeline. You guys should hurry and catch them all."

Yun Jie recognizes Bai Jin and salutes him as a greater being. He then asks them to go with him next door.

"Venerable Bai. You are here. Please come with us next door as well."

"A'Jie actually Student Xu Meiji is alive. He is with me too," said Lou Wei.

Yun Jie said, "Bring him over as well. We might as well get him involved since they wanted him dead and are already dead in their eyes."

In the usual living room in Prosecutor Ye Yuyan's condominium, everyone had once again gathered to talk. It is just that there are new members included this time. One of them is Bai Jin and his System Wuya and the other one is supposed to be a dead witness of the currently illegal drug case, Student Xu Meiji.

Everyone was looking at Bai Jin and his system except Hei Yuhua who already knew about the identity of the hidden villain of the world.

Bai Jin smiled timidly and said, "I think there is no need for me to point out who the hidden villain is right? Some of you guys seem to know already."

He looked at the calm Hei Yuhua seated beside Prosecutor Ye Yuyan and the flustered Lou Wei who just witnessed something he couldn't believe who it was.

Lou Wei spoke, "Is it, Officer Ying Wu? The leader of the Red Poppy Syndicate."

"Yes. It is him," answered Bai Jin.

Ye Yuyan and Yun Jie were shocked but both of them looked at the silent Hei Yuhua as if he didn't expect him to already know.

"Is this why you left a mini drone on him? Can I see the recording, wife?" asked Prosecutor Ye Yuyan.

Hei Yuhua light nods his head and gives him the phone as he says, "At first, it was just my intuition telling me something is wrong with him. I left him a mini invisible drone just in case. Who would expect it was indeed him? The real reason I left surveillance on him is that I saw him glaring at you with eyes full of hatred. A'Yan, do you know why he hates you so much?"

Frowning, Ye Yuyan just finished watching the video recording of that day when Ying Wu gathered his executives. He saw that he called himself Ying Su instead of Ying Wu.

"I might know. If he is indeed not Ying Wu but Ying Su then... He must have really hated you say." said Ye Yuyan.

He passed the phone to let Lou Wei and Yun Jie watch the recording as well though they couldn't believe it fully as the person mentioned is someone who had been working with them for days but seeing is believing. Ying Wu is indeed their enemy.

Hei Yuhua asked, "Do you know why he hates you?"

"The Ying family had twin brother descendants. The eldest is Ying Su and the youngest is Ying Wu. That's what we know but based on this it seems that it was vice versa. The eldest is Ying Wu and the youngest is Ying Su. They are identical twins. The difference is that Ying Wu is a sickly Alpha while Ying Su is a beta."

"Ying Su is my and Yu Xi's former comrade and best friend. He is a beta but his personality is much more of the recessive kind. Before we graduated from the police academy as one of the few star students were allowed to go on field experience. Of course, you need to sign a life and death contract before agreeing to it."

"I and Yu Xi choose to join. Ying Su on the other hand wasn't allowed to join as he was in the middle of differentiating gender. It was said that he is about to become an alpha that is wanted. That's why his family didn't agree but not agreeing to join means he will lose the opportunity to get merits. Without it, he would be left behind by the two which he never wanted to happen. But his family never agreed and brought him back forcefully. We cannot even convince him not to come."

"Then on the last day of registration, Ying Su suddenly appeared. He put his name on the life and death contract and joined the onfield mission. We thought he had escaped from home but he said that he didn't and his parents agreed for him. He looked a bit sickly at that time as he was pale and all. He says that his parents had put him on house arrest and to force them to let him join he didn't eat for a few days until they finally did so."

"At that time, Yu Xi and I didn't think something was wrong with what he said and agreed to let him join our team. But mishaps cannot be avoided in a mission, at that time we were investigating a warehouse that was included in the mission when suddenly the evil organization we are after had blown out the whole warehouse. Ying Su, unfortunately, died in that place to save me and Yu Xi. Before the warehouse exploded, Ying Su, who had fainted from high fever, woke up. He sacrificed himself to block the guys who were coming for us. I was shot in the leg at that time and Yu Xi was carrying me. Before we could even react Ying Su stole our guns to block the guys behind and then we only heard an explosion. The last thing we saw when we came back was his cold body riddled with bullets yet he had a smile on his face as if he was only sleeping. We were saddened by his death, especially Yu Xi. He had always liked Ying Su after all."

"But now it seems that the real Ying Su is still alive and the one who was with us at that time was Ying Wu who was sickly at birth. No wonder he hates me so much. His brother died because of me." said Ye Yuyan.

Hei Yuhua said, "Is he insane? Yu Xi is also there. How come he poured all of his hate only to you!?"

"That... it might be because he likes Yu Xi as well that he couldn't hate him and me, who is only a friend to him ended up bearing all the hate?" said Ye Yuyan.

"How absurd!" said Hei Yuhua as he was now totally in rage at seeing how unreasonable this Ying Su is.

Ye Yuyan said, "Or maybe he is jealous of me and Yu Xi. At that time, Yu Xi is closest to me as we treat each other as real brothers. He might treat Ying Su a bit distant because of me."

“Still it’s unreasonable for him to hate only you. Is he a child?!” said Hei Yuhua.

Ye Yuyan said, “Wife, calm down. Anger is bad for the body.”

Chapter 670: 12.72 Unknown Star – Modern ABO World: Second Case – Revival

After Prosecutor Ye Yuyan told everyone the story of his past which includes the relationship between him, Yu Xi, and this Ying Su who hated him so much, Hei Yuhua was pissed with what he had heard. Even Yun Jie and Lou Wei were in disbelief.

Lou Wei said, “Isn’t his source of hatred too shallow? He wanted to kill us because his brother chose to sacrifice his life for his friend and beloved.”

“He is indeed... Unreasonable,” said Yun Jie.

The God of Wealth, Bai Jin commented, “Really? But don’t you humans sometimes kill each other as long you have a reason to do so? Humans would be greedy as long there is money. You would be envious as long as others have what you don’t. You would be angry as long as there’s a misunderstanding. You would be sad as long as someone important to you dies. Mortals are made of emotions. That’s what makes you humans. There is no need to question what you are.”

“Do Gods have no affection or emotions?” asked Ye Yuyan.

Bai Jin asked, “We have but only to those who are fated to us. There are also some rare cases of God-loving humans but those eccentric beings usually don’t end well. Humans cannot live for eternity but Gods do. What we feel towards those who had the same strength as us and those who were weaker than us is different.”

He was smiling but the depths of his eyes were aloof and indifferent. As if he was being friendly to them for a reason. The reason would be most likely the two other Gods sleeping inside Ye Yuyan and Hei Yuhua. Then Hei Yuhua and the rest remembered the playfulness of Lord Hei. They’ve never found any other emotions in his eyes whenever he looks at them with only a bit of interest and entertainment.

.....

As for Lord God Ye, he had only met him once before and he wasn’t even willing to let them end in his line of sight except for Hei Yuhua who is the host of Lord Hei. As for Warden Lou and Yun Ming, they treated them amiably yet distant as well. While System Yang and System Yue would never spend time with them every day unless they called for them or they had something to say to them. No matter how one sees it there is a gap between Immortal beings and Mortals.

Hei Yuhua mumbled, “Either way I’m not going to forgive him that easily... He must at least pay the prize.”

“Okay. Do as you wish, Yu’er.” said Ye Yuyan.

Then he noticed Bai Jin who was unexpectedly here in his house and remembered that the system of Ying Su was supposed to be tailing them. Now that this pair is here means that the enemy must either have been captured or destroyed.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan asked, "Is that White Snake System dealt with? Destroyed or captured?"

"Captured," answered Bai Jin as he pulled out a small golden cage with a golden talisman and bound a white snake inside.

The cage was most likely pulled out from his own storage device or from the System's storage. Bai Jin placed the item on the table which stunned almost everyone, especially the forgotten Student Xu Meiji who doesn't know the existence of the system and stuff like that. He was so shocked that he forgot to speak and just watch silently enough for everyone not to notice him.

Bai Jin said, "This is his system. This thing is so close to becoming a God. An Evil one no less. A lot of my God Points are used up to capture him. I would like to surrender it to the Lords. The world energy this little thing had gathered is quite large. I don't know if it would be useful for the esteemed lords that are with you."

System Yang and System Yue materialized in their avatar forms. A small moon and sun floated above the golden cage and observed the system inside. As expected the white snake which was hissing at everyone around him just now had turned silent as it looked at the floating moon and sun in dazed. This is the first time it had met systems of their caliber. They are a hundred times stronger than that little crow he had fought before. He could only meekly stay silent inside the change.

System Yue commented, [It is quite intelligent for a newborn. It had at least the Intelligence of a 5-year-old child.]

[His source of power is both world energy and evil energy. He is already on the verge of exploding. How stupid.] System Yang.

System Yue asked, [A'Yang, do you think Lord Hei can use these energies?]

[He can use the world's energy but I don't know about evil energy,] said System Yang.

It was at that time that something came out of Ye Yuyan. A man in overall black ancient robes with red patterns of fire at the edges. His long black hair was semi-tied up behind his back. His eyes were downcasted as if he was sleepy yet those pairs of rubies struck at everyone coldly and apathetically.

Seeing the man whom they knew as Lord God Ye finally appearing before their eyes stunned everyone inside the room. Ye Xiajie looks like an immortal himself. His appearance and bearing were spectacular as if they were meeting a supreme being they could only deem as perfection himself. His body emits darkness that can cover even the whole light in this world, like a demon king that overlords all of the darkness in this world. This man's presence cannot be ignored, he gave a feeling of danger and the smell of death.

Upon seeing the God of Void, Bai Jin this God of Wealth immediately kowtowed in his presence while the mortals were unable to move at all as if they've lost control over their whole bodies. Plus meeting those pairs of eyes that were crimson as if they were dyed in the blood itself made them shiver. Just at one sight, they knew this man could kill them with a single motion of his hands.

System Yang and System Yue greeted him with their usual servile voice.

[Greetings Lord God Ye!]

Bai Jin followed after, "Greetings to the God of Void. This humble servant Bai Jin welcomes the Supreme Lord Ye."

On the other hand, Ye Yuyan and Hei Yuhua were shocked upon seeing Ye Xiajie. They've thought that Lord Hei was powerful enough but this man is a class on his own. Just his presence alone is enough to suffocate them and based on his cold eyes he doesn't seem to care about them at all.

Ye Xiajie remembered that his wife's soul resides in the body of this human called Hei Yuhua. He narrowed his eyes as he thought of something lessening the pressure of his aura making others able to breathe normally. He ignored all humans except the one who hosted his soul and the one who hosted his wife's soul. He even turned a blind eye to the youngest, the forgotten Xu Meiji, among them who fainted from overwhelming pressure.

"Raise your head, God of Wealth. Good work in capturing this illegal system. As a reward, your System shall be pardoned and returned to being human. As for what he will choose to do after will depend on you both." said Ye Xiajie as he waves his hands one and the tiny crow sitting on Bai Jin's head turns to the human.

A human form but not completely human. After all, System Wuya used to be a Demon General in Vearth who killed his own incompetent Liege to save his subordinates. His real name is Demon General Shi Wuya.

Demon General Shi Wuya was shocked as he suddenly became human. But seeing Ye Xiajie, this Supreme Lord, he immediately went down on one knee and saluted this mighty being.

"Salute to the Supreme Lord of Darkness!!" said Demon General Shi Wuya. Besides him, Bai Jin was extremely happy to see his partner freed from the restraints as a system. He now doesn't need to redeem him using the points they've gathered together.

Ye Xiajie hummed once to acknowledge his greeting. His eyes laid on the small golden cage on the center table and made a grabbing motion to get the white snake even destroying the God prison cage they've bought for a huge number of points.

Hiss~ hiss!!! Hiss!!!

The white snake tried to struggle yet failed to escape under the clutches of Ye Xiajie. He only needed to squeeze the thing in his hands to kill it, yet everyone could only watch as an array floated in front of Ye Xiajie and placed the snake into it. The energies inside the system were being pulled out and after extraction, only two glowing orbs remained. A pure white orb made from world energy and a pure black orb made from dark energy.

Ye Xiajie spoke without moving his eyes to the energy orbs before him.

"Yang. Give this energy to my wife. Though it's insufficient it should be enough to wake him up even without a vessel." said Ye Xiajie as he passed the white orb to the little sun.

System Yang took away the white orb and said, [As you ordered, Lord God Ye.] Then he once again disappeared in thin air, obviously returning inside Hei Yuhua to see his sleeping lord.

As for the black orb, Ye Xiajie glanced at his current host and thought of something.

Ye Xiajie said, "Mortal, I haven't given the reward of you agreeing to let me reside in your soul. What Yue had given cannot be considered as something I gave but he used my spell to bring you back including your memories so it can be said it was my doing. I will give you two more chances to voice what you wanted. Speak if you thought of something as a reward."

Everyone was looking at Ye Yuyan and the latter even felt the jealous gaze of Bai Jin and Shi Wuya. A Supreme Lord allowed a human to make a wish.

Ye Yuyan asked, "Can you bring someone back to life?"

"I can. If it's just one then I can but if you wanted to bring back many alive then the current timeline would be gone and a new timeline with those you wish to revive would begin," said Ye Xiajie.

Ye Yuyan spoke, "I only want one person back alive. Please revive a man named Ying Wu."

Ye Xiajie didn't agree right away as he didn't know who this Ying Wu is. System Yue stepped forward and whispered the information of the man called Ying Wu into his ears. Only then does he realize that this Ying Wu is the brother of the enemy of Ye Yuyan.

Ye Xiajie asked, "To revive the brother of your enemy, are you alright with this?"

"Yes," answered Ye Yuyan.

Ye Xiajie spoke, "You do know that I can end your current situation and bring you all the members of that Syndicate you hate too much."

"I will capture my enemies with my own hands," said Ye Yuyan.

Ye Xiajie unsympathetically no longer talked with Ye Yuyan and gave him what he wanted. Using the time spell, Ye Xiajie controlled the time elements of the world and used them on one soul. Ying Wu's soul which was originally waiting for reincarnation was pulled away by something and under the eyes of Ye Yuyan and the rest, Ying Wu who looks exactly like Ying Su appeared before them.

The person himself was shocked when he appeared in a place completely similar yet not to what he remembered when he was alive. When he saw Ye Yuyan's face he was even more shocked.

Ying Wu said, "Ye Yuyan, did you also die?"

"No, Brother Wu. It was you who came back to life," said Ye Yuyan as he was extremely delighted to see Ying Wu, this righteous man, alive before him. His tears couldn't help but fall. This was a good brother, one that can sacrifice himself for his own brothers.

Bewildered Ying Wu looked at his hands and body as he felt the solid feeling which is completely different from when he is a ghost.

"I'm back alive? But I'm in the Netherworld just now waiting to be reincarnated. They say I need to wait a hundred years more before my turn arrives." said Ying Wu.

Then he noticed that his body is totally different from before. He wasn't sickly as he remembered, instead he is completely healthy.

"Eh? I don't feel pain. I've become healthy." said Ying Wu.

System Yue cleared his confusion, [You have merits when you had died before. After reviving your life was based on the merits you have and fate to have a healthy body and rich future.]

Ying Wu was stunned to see a talking moon but after being in the Netherworld for a while, he was used to strange things like this.

“Wow~ this is the first time I saw a talking moon. Is this what they call the system in the Netherworld?”
novel

Ye Xiajie no longer wished to stay with them and cut off Ying Wu’s words and said to Ye Yuyan.

“Tell me your last wish. If you can’t think of anything yet I’ll leave now.” said the God of Void.

Ye Yuyan said, “I haven’t thought of my last wish yet.”

He stared at Ye Yuyan calmly before averting his gaze to look at the floating little moon. “Yue, tell me if Jing’er wakes up,” said Ye Xiajie.

After saying those words Ye Xiajie disappeared in thin air. As for where he had gone no one knows. System Yue was once again left behind to clean up after his lord.

[Eh? Milord? Please wait!]

System Yue tried to stop Ye Xiajie from leaving but the one he was calling for had long disappeared. He had no other choice but to explain the situation to the newly revived person Ying Wu and erase Xu Meiji’s memories of their existence.
