Chapter 671: 12.73 Unknown Star – Modern ABO World: Second Case – Repairer and Executioner

After hearing the explanation of the situation from System Yue, the real Ying Wu was in disbelief. He never expected his younger twin brother to do all of those things after he died. Though he didn't tell him when he took his place in that mission, his family should have been informed about it as he told them his wishes before he left.

Ying Wu said, "I can't believe A'Su did such a thing. Yuyan and Hei Yuhua I'm sorry for my brother's selfishness that affected your life. I'm not going to ask you to forgive him as what he had done is unforgivable but please... Please give him a chance to repent. I will talk to him about this."

"Brother Wu, I think he wouldn't listen to you right now. He might not even believe that you are alive. I mean he also knew about the existence of Systems and their capabilities and I'm sure he had wished for your revival as well. But his system wasn't able to fulfill that, so he might not believe that you have returned to life." said Hei Yuhua.

Ye Yuyan said, "I believe my wife is right on this point. As for a person, he might listen then... It can only be Yu Xi who lives with him all this time. I do not know the extent of their relationship but I know they've been living together after you've died."

"Hm? He is already living with his beloved and still trying to ruin you? That brat... What is wrong with his head." said Ying Wu in disbelief.

System Yue commented, [This might be a hatred his evil system had instilled in his soul so he can use him to gather enough negative emotions not only from this group but also from his host himself.]

Yun Jie frowned and asked, "Are you saying he is psychologically burdened?"

.....

"This is possible. I mean their Syndicate had that mad scientist on their side right? How strong is his mentality to watch you die multiple times without breaking? I think that evil system of his had done something to him." said Lou Wei.

System Yue said, [That might be possible. If it is indeed like that then... There must be something wrong with his soul.]

Ying Wu worriedly asked, "Can A'Su be cured?"

[That is possible but... You will need someone's help with it.] said System Yue.

Ye Yuyan asked, "Whose help?"

[Lord Hei. He is skilled in healing problems with souls. As long as your soul isn't missing a fragment he can help you cure it or merge it.] said System Yue.

While his thoughts are: 'Right. Lord Hei is proficient when curing broken souls because he had lived his life gathering, protecting, and stabilizing Lord God Ye's soul all this time. But he couldn't even heal his own soul as he sacrificed his own soul core for Lord God Ye's revival. That orb just now could only temporarily wake up Lord Hei but... It couldn't mend his faded soul. Milord knows that but he can't do anything for him as he doesn't know anything about healing the soul. He used to only destroy and capture them for punishment. But he does everything to stabilize Lord Hei's soul from disappearing as if holding on to the last strand of hope to keep him by his side.'

No one knows about System Yue's thoughts. Hei Yuhua and the rest started talking about what they should do this time. They must rearrange their plans and with Ying Wu on the team, things would be much easier to do with his help. The person himself is willing, which is good as well.

Hei Yuhua said, "For now let's focus on the current case and capturing the executives under him. Sir Warden Lou and Sir Yun Ming are about to return to the country. I also need to complete my second mission."

"That's also true. So let's focus on capturing Datura but we lack information," said Ye Yuyan.

Shi Wuya spoke up, "We can help you with that. Xiao Jin and I will capture Iris for you. Give us one day."

"Eh? Is one day enough?" asked Bai Jin about his former system.

Shi Wuya said, "Yes, it's enough for me. Just do the usual thing you do online."

"Okay, I will help you hack the whole stock exchange and freeze Iris's shares~," said Bai Jin.

Shi Wuya said, "Go bait him to meet us."

"I will! Let's do it later," said Bai Jin.

Just like that the mission for capturing Iris was left for Bai Jin and Shi Wuya to do. Since they've already helped them capture the System of Ying Su, it is better to help them all the way. They've noticed that the Supreme Lord was in a hurry to finish everything in this world and return to their place. He and Shi Wuya also need to return to the God System and report about the changes in his System's status.

The Demon General Shi Wuya had been pardoned by Ye Xiajie. He used to not have this kind of authority but ever since his souls had merged together his memories started to return to him. This includes his credentials as Supreme Lord of Darkness which is the alter ego of the current Sovereign Ruler, Shen Siwang.

Hei Yuhua spoke, "A'Jie, Brother Lou. Can you guys go to Aster? Ask the Director for help and bring the agents to work together with Brother Lou's subordinates. Your mission is simple. Protect the dummies at the Prime Minister's House and Miss Su's side. Some of the executives would most likely target them again. Try to capture them if you could and kill them if not. As long as they don't escape then anything is allowed."

"Is that okay? How many of the executives do you think would move to kill our family?" asked Ye Yuyan.
novelusb/c/o/mm

Hei Yuhua answered, "Maybe two to three. The possibility of Nightshade leading that assassination mission is 50 percent but Poppy's mentality lately had been unstabilized if he is calm then he wouldn't come for the witness's life on his own. He accidentally showed his head for that. With this, Nightshade would most likely stay by his side to protect him. Her loyalty towards Poppy is almost an obsession at this point."

“Hyacinth is non combatant and Azalea is a doctor. If only these two moves were to do the elimination mission then Xiao Jie and Lao Wei would be able to handle them. The problem is on our side. We have Datura, Poppy, and possibly Nightshade. There is also Oleander. Is he an Assassin? You and I might not be able to handle four at once.” said Ye Yuyan.

Ying Wu suggested, “Let’s ask Xi for help. I will also help you suppress them. There are even some unexpected variables. We should handle it together.”

“Wait. Even though your body is healthy right now, are you sure you can fight as it is?” asked Ye Yuyan

Ying Wu said, “No worries. My recessive nature had been cleared after rebirth. I can still remember the training we had in those days.”

“Well, if you say so. I’m sure, Yu Xi would definitely be happy to see you,” said Ye Yuyan.

Ying Wu said, “Are you sure? He might not be happy to see his future brother-in-law though.”

“Pfft! Well, that’s his problem,” said Ye Yuyan.

These two friends who used to be separated by life and death are now together on the same side. They had the same goal and that is to stop Ying Su’s plans for destruction.

Ye Yuyan said, “I guess I need to meet Yu Xi tomorrow personally. You should accompany me.”

“Sure. My pleasure,” said Ying Wu.

Hei Yuhua said, “Then I will handle Officer Ying Su for you two. Have fun with the reunion.”

Meanwhile at the abandoned warehouse where the Red Poppy Syndicate temporarily used as a hideout...

Ying Su was causing chaos in his room as he saw that the news about Student Xu Meiji’s death was not being played on the evening news. He had killed Xu Meiji by impulse and felt that things had completely gone out of his control ever since his system had gone missing.

His usual calmness was replaced with uncontrollable fierceness as if something snapped inside his brain. He started destroying things in his room. Sounds of things were being thrown, something broken, and something cracking was heard coming from his office.

CRASH! Thud! BAM!

Ying Su said, “What the hell is happening? Where is the news? Who fucking block the news of Xu Meiji’s death!? His death was enough to show the incompetence of the police force and make the public hate them. Who is hindering my plans!? Is it that damn Prosecutor again? Ye Yuyan!!! We are not finished!!!”

BAM! THUD! Crashed!

Just outside his room, his executives felt awkward by the sudden aggressiveness of their leader. He was usually calm and collected as if everything was under his control. This is the first time they saw him act his age. Short-tempered and a bit naive. There are some executives that felt the unease of his sudden changes like Azalea and Oleander. But the loyal Nightshade seems to worry more about Poppy's well-being above everything.

Nightshade said, "What happened to Poppy? Is he stressed lately? He should have sent Oleander to kill that brat instead of going there on his own."

"Sis, I don't think that's the only problem. Though it is really unexpected of him to make a move on his own," said Iris.

Datura said, "That's because the Poppy Leader knows I'm the most important pawn among us. I help him with everything~"

"Nonsense. The leader doesn't need you at all!!" Hyacinth said.

Azalea said, "So noisy. I'm returning to the hospital. Contact me if there's a mission to do."

"Wait. I'm returning to the studio as well." Hyacinth said.

No one stopped the two as they were free to come and leave anytime. The Syndicate never restrain their movements with their private life.

Iris who was playing with his laptop suddenly jumped up and exclaimed, "Hah!! I finally caught you! You fucking thief you dare to touch my money!!"

He then prepares to leave and packs his things in a hurry, "I'm leaving early today. I will give the next hit list tomorrow instead. Bye~"

Even Iris left in a hurry, obviously, Bai Jin played him online again and this time let Iris see his frozen account and started transferring his shares. He was hacked without him noticing and counter hacked the enemy and found his location. He is now on the way to confronting this online thief.

Seeing the members decreasing as time passes. The three people who were left behind felt awkward with each other. Nightshade is in a bad mood and doesn't want to talk. Datura is busy thinking about his paused experiments and Oleander is a person of few words.

Silence descended in the area. It broke when a cold-faced lady with silver eyes forcefully opened the door of the laboratory in anger.

BANG! This is the sound of the door hitting the wall.

Datura looked in her direction and said, "My darling apprentice, don't destroy the door of my lab. I'll kill you."

"Kill me huh? Why don't you take a look at what your precious mate did with your experiment? He moved something in there and it exploded. Your medicine had gone poofed." said the young lady in a white coat.

"WHAT!?" shouted Datura as he ran into his laboratory and only his anguish screams could be heard coming from the inside.

"Hmp! I'm not helping you clean that. I'm going home." said the young lady as she only glances at Nightshade and Oleander fearlessly from a distance and walks away as if she didn't see them.

Nightshade commented, "That's beautiful Hydrangea's younger sister right? Why did that madman bring her out of the main laboratory?"

"Isn't it because the case he is involved in had Hydrangea in it? Datura hates Hydrangea for destroying his face after all. I'm also bailing for tonight." said Oleander as he also prepares to leave.

Nightshade said, "Sure. Don't forget to drop by at Iris's place tomorrow for the lists."

"I will," said Oleander as he disappeared within the darkness as if he had merged with it.

Somewhere in the darkness, the moonlight that evening hits the road Oleander is about to walk into. A small black spider with some red pattern on its back comes out of his hair and lands on his shoulder.

[Your target had been eliminated by someone else. The Hidden Villain, Ying Su's System had disappeared from this world.]

"I failed my execution mission just like that? Is it another world hopper but isn't only the God of Wealth who entered this world with me?" asked Oleander to his system.

[No. A supreme being descended in this world. That's why I told you to no longer get entangled with this plot. It's time to leave.]

Oleander said, "Let's go meet, Bai Jin. He might know what is happening right now."

[Then I will show you the way, Host.]

Every time a Repairer from the God System descended in a world, he would always be paired with an Executioner to protect him from unknown variables. The ones assigned in this world are the following people:

Lin Jiya (Bai Jin): Repairer [System Wuya]

Oleander (???): Executioner [System Zhizhu]

Chapter 672: 12.74 Unknown Star – Modern ABO World: Second Case – The Fu Brothers and Agent Y.

Morning, at the Crossfield Private High School...

Prosecutor Ye Yueyi personally brought his wife to the school to take his place temporarily. He needs to be away for that day as he would be visiting Yu Xi secretly. Hei Yuhua would be taking his place as that day's school doctor.

Hei Yuhua said, "A'Yan, I want to talk to Student Fu Miyan and Student Fu Tian. Can you please bring him here before you go and meet Brother Yu?"

Ye Yuyan kissed his mate's forehead affectionately with a smile and said, "Sure. Then stay in the infirmary. Even though your feet have been healed in the eyes of those who don't know, you still believe your wounds haven't healed yet. After all, I brought you here in a wheelchair."

"Okay. I don't mind playing with the pig before the tiger. Be careful on your way. Ying Su might already have his eyes on us. Just used the teleportation scroll somewhere away from the eyes of the others. System Yang said that it is better for you to tell Brother Yu about the System and the real situation. After all, he is a man who had been living with the anomaly all this time. There is no way he wouldn't notice Ying Su using weird items from the system mall," said Hei Yuhua.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan said, "Don't I will ask System Yue to appear if he doesn't believe my words. He would most likely believe it. After all, if there is someone who knows Ying Su so well, it would be him."

"Then go ahead. I saw Student Fu Miyan called by his Chemistry Teacher to his laboratory on our way here. He might still be there," said Hei Yuhua.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan hugged him tightly and said that "Datura might also approach you if he heard you are in school. Be careful, Yu'er."

"I will. You also have to be careful," said Hei Yuhua as he hugs back his husband and sees him out of the infirmary room.

Meanwhile, at the Chemistry Laboratory, an unexpected event is taking place. No one would believe that Student Fu Miyan an honor student would be prostituting himself at a time like this. Pressed on the cold wall by his middle-aged Chemistry Teacher, his upper uniform was disheveled as it was pulled apart by the perverted teacher he sold himself to.

Student Fu Miyan would do such a thing to make sure his actions of selling drugs in high school are hidden from the others. Sleeping with his teachers is the best way to conceal things. The people whom he slept with would help him conceal the fact that he is selling drugs. Of course, Student Fu Tian never agreed to such a thing but Student Fu Miyan had long lost his mind with all the pressure the mad scientist Datura is giving them.

To Student Fu Miyan, Fu Tian is not a simple personality born from him. But a real existence that lives to protect him. He also wanted to protect his brother. This is the only way he knew he could use it. Thankfully, he was born a bit feminine and slender. He had awakened as an omega and this made things easier for him. Most Teachers in Crossfield Private High School are Alphas. It is simple for omegas to seduce Alphas who are well with loose relations such as sex friends or something.

Despite the willingness to sell himself, his eyes look dull and lifeless as if he was in a daze. Letting the person above him do whatever he wanted. In his mind, he could hear his beloved elder brother begging him to stop doing this thing. But no matter how much he tries to take over the body, Student Fu Miyan isn't willing. He is still the original owner of the body after all. As long as Student Fu Miyan is willing to do something, it would be a bit hard for Fu Tian to take control over him.

The conversation of Fu Miyan and Fu Tian in their minds while the former is dazed in reality.

"Brother, don't you think our lives are like being one inside a cage? It's stuffy and restrained. We couldn't even ask for help and there is no one to help us," said Fu Miyan.

Fu Tian responded, "That may be true but... this imprisonment should not remain long enough. Isn't I here to be with you? You are not alone. You and I are the same yet at the same time different. Mimi, stop this foolishness and don't let others take advantage of you."

“Brother... this is the only way. Datura is never a good person. We might be useful now but... once we used up our use, he would throw them away without any hesitation. Just do what he orders you to and I will open up the way for you regardless of what it is I had exchanged for it.”

“This is enough! Mimi, there is no need for you to do this! There are some other ways or channels to sell his drugs. I had never agreed with you doing such a thing! Stop this! I found someone to help us. We only need to reach out now.”

“No! That person is with the police. He would not completely help us!”

“That might be true but... My guts are telling a different story.”

“What does brother mean?”

“Someone is coming!”

The conversations between the two were suddenly cut off. It wasn't only because Fu Tian suddenly stopped talking but someone with a familiar cold handsome face appeared and forcefully opened the tightly closed doors of the Chemistry Laboratory. His face remained collected even after seeing the scene before him. It was Prosecutor Ye Yuyan followed by Yun Jie playing the role of Teacher Hei who was on his way to class.

Infirmary Doctor Ye Yuyan spoke with an emotionless face, “You two... are Chemistry Teacher Cen and Student Fu Miyan of Teacher Hei's class.”

The Chemistry teacher grumbled in annoyance seeing this new Infirmary Teacher stopping his fun. Now that there is an audience. Suddenly the Chemistry Teacher Cen stood up pretending he did nothing and grabbed the collar of the infirmary doctor who was wearing a white coat and then threatened him.

The chemistry teacher said with a low voice, “You didn't see anything! Got it!? If you want to continue working in this school. You better shut your mouth. There are lots of us who are customers of this damn brat!”

Seeing this fearless offender grabbing the big boss's collar, the disguised Yun Jie behind could only shake his head.

Teacher Hei muttered, “This is the first time I saw a criminal threaten a Prosecutor face to face. Pfft!”

“Don't laugh, brat!” said Prosecutor Ye Yuyan said to his brother-in-law. He used the handcuffs which were with him and placed them at the chemistry teacher's wrist locking both his hands together.

Chemistry Teacher Cen was rendered speechless by the current event and seeing the metal handcuffs encircling his wrists he felt the sky had fallen.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan didn't say a thing and twisted off the hand holding his collar and threw the man at Yun Jie behind him.

“You give this man to Ying Wu. Tell him to Interrogate him deeply and capture all those involved in prostitution and child sexual abuse,” commanded Prosecutor Ye Yuyan.

Yun Jie saluted and glanced at the stunned Student Fu Miyan inside the laboratory and walked away while dragging the chemistry teacher that seemed to have lost his soul. Prosecutor Ye Yuyan nonchalantly walked inside the room and stared emotionless at Fu Miyan. There is no expression on his face at all, just calmness and indifference.

He sat at the chair available and faced Student Fu Miyan as he lit a cigarette to smoke. He looked so distant and had a devil may care attitude before the young man.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan said, "It must have been easy for you to seduce that perverted teacher huh? With that face of yours, it must be really easy to do so."

The timid Fu Miyan suddenly turned rebellious before Prosecutor Ye Yuyan. He saw the changes right away as he was observing the young man in front of him. His wife explained the difference between the two souls inside this student's body.

Fu Tian rearranged his clothes unhurriedly and said, "Is it okay? For a teacher like you to smoke in a room full of chemicals?" He said with a sarcastic tone.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan narrowed his eyes as he stared at Fu Tian and smirked, "Even if you failed to protect your alter ego completely you shouldn't blame me for what you can't do. Right? Student Fu Tian. The one just now was Fu Miyan? He was timid to see me and you had to take over. Hmm~ my wife is indeed correct. You are both Fu Miyan and Fu Tian yet have a different souls. Is that your ability?"

Both Fu Miyan and Fu Tian didn't expect the man in front of them to recognize and differentiate the two of them. Fu Miyan wanted to check if this person can indeed tell the difference between him and Fu Tian.

Fu Miyan once again took over the body and acted differently from his timid self. He smiled seductively as if tempting the person in front of him.

"Teacher~ do you want me too?" asked Fu Miyan with a lascivious expression on his face.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan stared at him coldly and said, "Hm? So you weren't completely timid ha, Fu Miyan? Or is that another facade? At least Fu Tian wouldn't be able to act that way."

"Haha~ you can really differentiate me and brother! You're amazing. I don't know anything. So talk to my brother, okay?~" said Student Fu Miyan as he gave the body's control to his other self.

Student Fu Tian took over and his face once again turned arrogant instead of smiley.

"You are not a teacher or a doctor aren't you? Are you a police officer?" asked Fu Tian.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan replied, "Well, something like that with a higher position. Come with me. My wife wanted to see you both."

He stood up without waiting for the two to comprehend what was happening but they indeed believed that someone else wanted to see them. Moreover, even though this man says he is with the police, he doesn't seem to indeed catch them. novelusb\c\o\m

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan saw them dawdling and said, "Walk faster. I still have to go somewhere after I send you to my wife."

The two souls in one body followed Ye Yuyan and arrived in the infirmary room. The scent of medicine and disinfectant assaulted their nose and felt a bit uncomfortable until they saw the familiar beautiful face of Hei Yuhua seated in the wheelchair. His silver eyes were crescent-shaped as he smiled fakely at his husband.

Hei Yuhua said, "You smoke again, didn't you?" He said to his husband.

"Just one stick. No more," said Ye Yuyan as he coaxed his pissed wife. He tried to hug him but was glared at.

"Move away, you smell bad," said Hei Yuhua, who hated the scent of cigarettes mixed with menthol.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan pats his clothes trying to remove the smoke and even sprayed some alcohol all over himself to disinfect.

"No more smell. Yu'er, Where's my goodbye kiss? I will be leaving now." said Ye Yuyan as he hugged his lover and exchanged a kiss before leaving with a silly smile on his face. "Wife, I'll pick you up later."

The Prosecutor spread dog food without care for his audience and took his leave as he planned to do so. He needs to meet his friend Yu Xi without Officer Ying Wu noticing. He went to the rooftop of the school and used a teleportation talisman he had exchanged his points from the system mall and disappeared in thin air.

After Ye Yuyan left, Hei Yuhua smiled at the student in front of him. He gestured for him to sit at the free chair not far from him yet at a certain distance away from him.

Hei Yuhua said, "No need to be cautious. Do you free a cripple like me to harm you?"

"You are not a cripple. But injured at most, the muscles on both of your legs are balanced and obviously, you are the type to train. You might be a close combat expert or a skilled agent as you have proportional strength all over your body." said Student Fu Tian.

Fu Miyan took over for a second and stared at Hei Yuhua for a moment and said, "Brother, be careful. I can't explain something wrong with him, but one thing is for sure. He is an ability user like us."

Hei Yuhua lightly claps his hands and smiles gentler than before.

Clap. Clap. Clap.

"Good job. One is cautious and the other is sensitive. You complement each other well. Let me formally introduce myself. My name is Yuhua and my surname is Hei. I am an agent from Aster as well as the double agent of the Red Poppy Syndicate. Agent Y."

Chapter 673: 12.75 Unknown Star – Modern ABO World: Second Case – Fu Brothers jump ship.

Hei Yuhua finally meets with Fu Miyan and Fu Tian formally. They didn't speak openly the first time they met and both were interested in each other yet no one expected to recognize one another. First off, they were in public at that time and the second one is that Student Fu Tian had just beaten up Student Xu Meiji intending to send him away from school intentionally. So he wouldn't get involved with his black business and get himself killed for real.

The Fu Brothers looked at Hei Yuhua with reluctance and disbelief. They couldn't understand why the man in front of them would introduce himself in such a way but for Student Fu Tian this information is extremely useful. He just needs to clear up a few more things.

Student Fu Tian asked, "Aren't you supposed to be working for that Prosecutor just now? As an agent for Aster I can understand if you are in undercover while with the Red Poppy Syndicate but why hide your face before the police like the man just now? Moreover, he called you his wife. If you are an omega that's understandable but aren't you an undercover agent? Aren't agents mostly alphas and betas?"

"That's a bit prejudiced. I am indeed an omega. I married that Prosecutor who brought you here. He is my fated mate and my alpha. I wouldn't indulge much in our private life but... You can say we are on the same side. We are both from. The police and intelligence division yet not as well. You can say we made a team made up of police officers and agents," explained Hei Yuhua.

Student Fu Miyan asked, "H-How... How about Teacher Hei? Maybe that's not his real name as well."

"Well, he didn't change his name much. He just used my surname and used his real name. He was originally called Yun Jie. He used my name to undercover as a teacher here and use the name Hei Jie," said Hei Yuhua. "He is from Aster like me and my confidant. There is another man called Lou Wei. He is a field police officer and the right-hand person of my husband. As for my husband you've already met him, he is that Prosecutor who brought you here. His name is Ye Yuyan." said Hei Yuhua.

Student Fu Miyan said, "Big brother... That uncle just now... He is scary as he doesn't even smile."

"No worries. He is like that to everyone except me. Well~ we should discuss more important things just now. Are you willing to answer my questions honestly?" asked Hei Yuhua.

Student Fu Tian answered with another question and said, "Can you protect us from the Syndicate?"

"I can promise to keep you alive. Before we continue you should meet someone first," said Hei Yuhua as he looked at the covered bed in the infirmary. He called for the one napping in that place.

"I know you are awake. You should at least show your face if you came for them. This room is at least secured right now." said Hei Yuhua towards whoever was the person on the bed.

A young man's voice responded to Hei Yuhua.

"I haven't thought about what I should say yet. Let me think for a bit more."

The voice coming from the curtained bed made the Fu Brothers stunned at first but could feel their heartbeats beating faster than normal. The voice coming from the direction of the voice seems familiar. Student Fu Miyan took over and his tears started gathering in the corner of his eyes as he hurriedly opened the curtain.

As for the man on the opposite side of the curtain, he jumped back a bit when the curtain was forcefully spread open revealing a shocked Student Xu Meiji behind the curtain.

Student Xu Meiji felt a bit overwhelmed by the eyes that fell on him, especially Student Fu Miyan's worried yet excited eyes staring at him.

Xu Meiji calls, "Mimi."

Student Fu Miyan hugged Xu Meiji and started wailing. When he first heard from Datura this morning that Xu Meiji was already killed by someone from the Red Poppy Syndicate, Student Fu Miyan despaired. Because of this he no longer cared when a teacher from school asked him to sleep with him.

Xu Meiji was caught off guard because he knew that it was his Mimi that he couldn't help but hug him back.

"Don't cry, Mimi. I'm alright. Brother Lou had saved me from the hospital before someone arrived to end my life." said Student Xu Meiji.

Hei Yuhua let the two take their time. They had all the day after all when suddenly someone called him. It was Officer Ying Wu.

Ring. Ring. Ring.

Hei Yuhua gestured for the children to keep quiet.

"Hello. What's wrong, Wuwu?"

{Heiyu? You're in school right? I can't contact Prosecutor Ye. Is he with you?}

"Yes. He is napping. Wait, let me wake him up for you."

{Eh? No there's no one...}

Then he heard a crash from his call. He knew that Hua Heiyu must have hit the Prosecutor to wake him up. After the crash, he can hear Prosecutor Ye's angry voice over the phone. It was quite a distance from the phone as Hua Heiyu must have put his phone on some table and wheeled his wheelchair towards the bed to wake up people.

On the opposite side, Student Fu Miyan and Student Xu Meiji watch as Hei Yuhua takes over two people's identities on his own. He could even change his voice and demeanor accordingly to what he wanted. It was such a bizarre yet awesome scene.

Hei Yuhua uses his husband's voice. He copied his way of speaking as he speaks.

"What is it? You should have called me instead of this little brat!"

{S-Sir... I did call your phone. N-No one answered.}

Then he heard Hua Heiyu's voice saying, "His phone is dead. No use calling him."

Tsk!

"You heard him. Why did you call me?"

{Not much, boss. Just this morning the witness, Student Xu Meiji, was found dead in the hospital together with the guards that were left to protect him.}

"I will send Wei Lou there. Gather all clues. Check thoroughly for hidden traces. You must report everything without missing anything to me this evening. Don't go to school. I'm looking for Datura's hidden laboratory. Don't come here and make a scene. I don't want to scare the snake into hiding."

{As you command, Prosecutor Ye.}

From the opposite side, he heard Hua Heiyu shouting, "Give back my phone" and the call abruptly ended.

The call was ended by Hua Heiyu. It was him who was talking to Officer Ying Su as his Ye Yuyan.

Xu Meiji said, "Sir, that's amazing."

"He is an agent. Voice changing skill is required as a skill set," commented Fu Tian.

Even though Fu Tian took over, Xu Meiji didn't show any fear. He knew that Fu Tian didn't hate him as much as the others though. He is only cold on the outside but warm inside.

Xu Meiji asked innocently, "Why is such a skill a required skill set for agents?"

"There are types of agents. He is an undercover one. He needs different kinds of identities according to different kinds of situations. He could even speak as a woman if needed." said Fu Tian.

Hua Yuhua spoke in a woman's voice and said, "He is correct about that. I've also undergone acting lessons as well. Either way, are you guys finished with your reunion?"

"We are." answered the two young men

Hua Yuhua said, "Then let's talk. I need everything that you know, Fu Tian. In exchange, I will make sure no one from the Red Poppy Syndicate will find you two and protect you regardless. The choice is yours."

Fu Tian stared at Hua Yuhua and then glanced at Xu Meiji who smiled at him. He didn't reply right away as he didn't know the extent of Hua Yuhua's capabilities.

Xu Meiji spoke, "They are different from the police we know. That person who brought you here is the only son of the prime minister and this person in front of you is his wife. They have been married since last year."

Once Xu Meiji said these words, Fu Tian who knows that Prosecutor Ye Yuyan's family was supposed to be killed by the Syndicate realized that the side he is currently with must have schemed.

Fu Tian asked, "Are you really Prosecutor Ye Yuyan's wife?"

"I am. The real one. We also have a daughter but she lives with her grandparents at this moment. You can't meet her yet." said Hei Yuhua. "You might be a bit confused but didn't you learn about that one beside you? He is supposed to be dead in their eyes too."

Fu Tian said, "It is impossible for the people of the Syndicate to mistake killing puppets for real humans."

"The dummies are well made with real flesh and blood. Their actions were programmed carefully as well. Except for having no soul, they can be considered humanoid cyborgs instead." said Hei Yuhua.

Fu Tian said, "Okay. I will tell you everything I know. In exchange, you will protect us and Xu Meiji."

"I promise," said Hei Yuhua.

Fu Tian said, "Datura's hidden laboratory is in the old building. The Biology laboratory side storage. It was an abandoned room. He stays there all morning but goes back to the abandoned warehouse at the outskirts of the city. He meets his other friends there. Poppy also appears there. You know too well who Poppy is right?"

"Officer Ying Wu... or should we call him Ying Su instead?" said Hei Yuhua.

Fu Tian said, "His real name is Ying Su."

"T-That's... That's the man whom I and Brother Lou had seen that night. He is the one who killed my dummy and the other police officers that night," said Xu Meiji.

Fu Tian didn't expect this. "What?! It was him! I thought it was someone else who tried to kill you. But that's impossible... He said he wouldn't harm you at all. Datura said..."

"It was the head who made the decision. Do you think that Datura cares if he breaks his promise?" said Hei Yuhua.

Fu Tian shut his mouth when he heard that but he knew that Hei Yuhua was telling the truth. The lives of the people which Poppy did not even consider pawns are nothing in his eyes. But this fact still angered Fu Tian a lot.

"You guys are the ones who broke the promise first. You cannot blame me for what will happen afterward," murmured Fu Tian.

He suddenly stood up and asked Hei Yuhua to follow him. They followed him to the school library and took a book from one of the corner books within the sea of books. Within that book is a folded map of the school. It shows the hidden routes which Datura can take to leave the school premises unhindered. When Hei Yuhua saw the map, he knew that it was a legit one.

Hei Yuhua asked, "Anything else?"

"These are the locations for the hidden warehouse where the Syndicate hides their drugs as well as the location of their secret laboratory. Also... Datura is planning to use the new drug for your lover and... he called his apprentice from the secret laboratory. This lady... I think she might be... connected to you by blood. Be careful." said Fu Tian.

Hei Yuhua received too many clues at once and feels that these things from Fu Tian and the ones he got from his own investigations are enough to sweep through everything about the Red Poppy Syndicate.

Hei Yuhua ruffles Fu Tian's hair gently and says, "Good work. For now, rest properly and you can't leave the place Xu Meiji is bringing you to unless we allow you to."

"A place Meiji would bring me to?" asked Fu Miyan, confused. novelupdates.com

Holding a teleportation talisman in his hand, Xu Meiji held Fu Miyan's hand.

Xu Meiji asked, "Can we go back now?"

“Yes. Though no one would dare to enter the condominium without permission, just in case I got some defensive items I left in the living room lower cabinets. There are guns and things like that there. Keep it within reach. Go back for now. I will check on Datura’s laboratory. Ah! Right? I forgot to explain a few things.” said Hei Yuhua.

Xu Meiji nods his head but no longer heard what Hei Yuhua had said after he was told to go back while Fu Miyan is still confused about the conversation between the two.

“What are you guys talking about?” asked Fu Miyan.

Before he could ask more Xu Meiji had already torn the teleportation talisman and the figure of the two students disappeared in thin air.

“Wait... I’m not done... talking!” Hua Yuhua felt helpless at Xu Meiji’s actions and sigh, “Let Meiji explain things to his friend then...”

Then he left the library with the things Fu Tian had given him and headed back to the Infirmary to prepare a few things before he checked on the hidden laboratory of Datura within the Crossfield Private High School.

Chapter 674: 12.76 Unknown Star – Modern ABO World: Second Case – Crazy Ye Yuyan

Yesterday after the meeting with Hei Yuhua and the rest. At dawn, Bai Jin received a message from his mission partner, Executioner Bai Yin that they wanted to meet each other. Bai Yin is Bai Jin’s elder brother in reality. He works as an Executioner from the God System and would always pair up with him during missions.

They’ve decided to meet the next morning when both of them are free. Oleander is like Bai Jin, he is an outsider who is registered under the God System working as an Executioner who is doing a mission with a repairer like Bai Jin. In reality, they are connected by blood.

From their original world, before they ascended to Vearth, Bai Jin is the God of Wealth of his world likewise his elder brother is the God of War of their worlds. Their former world is one of the interstellar worlds connected to Vearth who when they’ve reached Godhood they’ve ascended to Vearth which is the highest upper realm in the whole universe.

At some cafe within the city...

The brothers decided to meet as planned. As Shi Wuya could already turn human anytime he wanted, he decided to accompany Bai Jin in his human form. His long hair was casually tied on his back while wearing a simple charcoal gray shirt and black pants. His body structure is more masculine than Bai Jin’s current vessel making him a bit smaller than Shi Wuya whose body is full of solid muscle.

Bai Yin recognized his younger brother from a distance. He already knew he had taken over a minor villain’s vessel of the original plot. But unfortunately, it seems that after a few bigshots entered this world the world plot had become completely useless. They were even told not to get involved. For a serious workaholic like Bai Jin, not doing anything even for a single lifetime makes him more tired which is why he still followed his role and joined the Red Poppy Syndicate.

Oleander calls reluctantly because he couldn't recognize the person seated beside his younger brother.

Bai Yin, "Xiao Jin?"

"Ge! You're here. Seat with us!" said Bai Jin.

"Um~ who is that beside you? We can't talk if you bring a resident with you," said Bai Jin. The residents he is talking about are people who were original residents of this world like Hei Yuhua and Ye Yuyan as well as the other mob characters in this world.

Bai Jin delightedly clings to Shi Wuya's arm and said while grinning, "As expected, even Ge doesn't recognize him in this form. Hehehe~"

Sitting in the opposite chair before Bai Jin, Bai Yin looked at his younger brother with confusion on his face. Meanwhile, the white dove that was sitting on Oleander's shoulder had a human-like stunned expression on its face when looking at the man beside Bai Jin. He recognized who that person was as soon as he saw him.

[He... He is...!!!!]

Chirp!!!

System Gezi (Little White Dove) almost exclaimed on the spot but his beak was held by Shi Wuya's big hand.

Chirp! CHIRP!!!

Inside Bai Yin's mind, his system's thoughts were already chaotic.

[No way! NO WAY!! Is that him? Why can he use his human form!? So unfair!!! Wuya! Shi Wuya!!! How can you use your real form!?! I want to become human as well!!!]

Screaming in the minds of Shi Wuya, Bai Jin, and Bai Yin, System Gezi was almost hysterical but what other people can only see and hear is a little bird's almost endless chirping.

Shi Wuya whispered to the damn hysteric little white dove, "Quiet. Or I'll roast you."

System Gezi responded, [Bastard.]

The brothers ignored the two systems and had a conversation on their own.

Bai Yin asked, "What happened? How did your system end up like this?"

"Ge, we've met the bigshots! The hosts they're temporarily in the characters Hei Yuhua and Ye Yuyan's vessels. Wuya and I caught the illegal system and gave it to them. In exchange, he pardoned Shi Wuya for his sins and let him have his human form as a reward. That's amazing right!?" explained Bai Jin, this silly God of Wealth.

Bewildered, Bai Yin spoke, "Pardoned Shi Wuya? Does that mean the bigshot that descended to this world had authority in the Nether System? But that's impossible. Only the Lord God of the Nether System had that kind of Authority even the Celestial God of Destruction, Venerable Lord Hei couldn't do so."

"Moreover, there are rumors saying that the Lord God of Netherworld had fallen into a coma for a long time and the one in control of the Nether System is the son of the God of Punishment and the God of Judgment. Are you sure you met the same person?" asked Bai Yin.

Bai Jin nodded his head and said, "I'm sure of it. Didn't they say that the Lord God of Netherworld and the Supreme God of Void are the same people?"

"They are indeed the same person. Xiao Jin isn't lying. That esteemed being is indeed his majesty of the Abyss World," said Shi Wuya.

Bai Yin thought for a long time before he decided to meet him.

"Let me meet him. You don't need to introduce me, just bring me to where he is. I want to see for myself what kind of being the Strongest Executioner had chosen as his other half. It was said that the Supreme God of Darkness is the chosen counterpart of the Celestial Lord Hei."

"Actually, Ge. Celestial Lord Hei might also be around. Last night when we surrendered the illegal system to Lord God Ye, he converted it into energy. He gave away the world's energy to a System called Yang and said to give it to him. There might be another God and that God must be Celestial Lord Hei," said Bai Jin.

Excitement and anticipation flash from within the eyes of Bai Yin. His current vessel is an expression person who couldn't openly express his feelings on his face.

Bai Yin said, "If it is really them then the information I've heard about that race might be useful to them. I at least wanted to meet Celestial Lord Hei myself even once in my lifetime."

He murmured, as an executioner himself, Bai Yin knew the records left behind by the God of Destruction as the Strongest Executioner in the God and Nether System. He had a 99.99% mission completion and many young Executioners idolized him a lot. Bai Yin is one of those fans who wish to follow in his footsteps.

Bai Jin, seeing that he couldn't stop his brother, said, "Then I will inform them about Ge but... your current vessel might be a bit inconvenient. I have to report it ahead of time. If they agree, you might be able to meet tonight."

"I don't mind waiting. I am a very patient person after all. But to think you stole my prey... you have to pay me for that. Why would a repairer like you get involved with an illegal system like that!? You are not even a combat host," said Bai Yin, currently scolding his younger brother about what he had done.

Scolding continues.

"Thankfully, the illegal system was a newborn and not from the upper realm or it would be impossible to defeat it without a real domain. You two are too reckless. Don't do this kind of thing again next time!" said Bai Yin.

Both Bai Jin and Shi Wuya had their heads low as they got scolded by Bai Yin. Bai Yin is an Old God from the same Generation as Hei Anjing so the two in front of him are indeed younger.

“Un! We understand!” said Bai Jin and Shi Wuya.

System Gezi spoke, [Boss, I want to have a human body as well.]

Bai Yin said, “I have enough points but lacked a little bit more. Don’t worry, by the end of this world mission I should be able to redeem you from the Nether Prison and be like Shi Wuya.”

System Gezi was delighted to hear those words. The hosts from the God System rarely help their system redeem themselves from the Nether Prison. Their original vessel was sealed and they could only use their avatar form. Some systems would collect points for helping their host and redeem themselves but this took a long time for them to regain their freedom.

Once a system got pardoned by the Nether System, their bodies would be returned to them and they would be free of whatever sins they had made and continue on with their new life. Then they can choose to continue working with the God System or Nether System. Either that or they return to their former world and stay there instead.

System Gezi said, [Thank you, Boss! I will still stick to the boss even after I get my freedom back!]

“Whatever your choice. You are free to do so,” said Bai Yin.

On the other hand, at the Police Headquarters.

In Director Yu Xi’s office.

Ye Yuyan is currently having coffee while letting the latter check on the information their group had gathered. Among those reports is the truth behind Officer Ying Wu’s real identity. That the current Officer Ying Wu is Ying Su instead.

With a stern face, Prosecutor Ye Yuyan asked, “You do not seem surprised when you see that Officer Ying Wu by your side is Ying Su himself, Yu Xi.”

“Um? Well, I’ve been living with him for years. I at least know the difference between a recessive alpha from an omega. Sorry, Yuyan. I wasn’t trying to hide from you but... my instincts are not allowing me to betray him,” said Police Director Yu Xi.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan asked, “What do you mean?”

“A’Su... He seems to be my... Fated omega. He is my fated mate,” answered Police Director Yu Xi.

A fated alpha and omega would disregard other binds with other people. They would instinctively feel that their other half is their everything and could never betray them. Those who were fated mates are pairs connected by soul. They could never betray each other much less harm one another.

After learning that Ying Su was Yu Xi’s fated mate, Ye Yuyan’s cold face turned dark and then became a helpless expression as he himself could understand what being a fated mate means.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan spoke, “All this time... All this time, you knew all along what he had been planning against me and never even tried to mention or warn me about it. Yu Xi, you don’t know the feeling of losing your fated mate multiple times. Seeing your beloved die countless times before your eyes and you couldn't do anything about it!"

With bloodshot eyes, Ye Yuyan grabs Yu Xi's collar and glares at him with a look that could kill. At this moment, Ye Yuyan looks like the madman he was in their past lives. Insane and broken. His feelings were only hatred for himself, the Syndicate, and even the world itself. He could no longer recall how many times he had watched Hei Yuhua take his last breath before his eyes. It was a suffocating feeling as if someone was directly stabbing his heart multiple times.

In his head, System Yue was trying to calm down his host. He didn't know if Ye Yuyan was affected by the negative energy that Ye Xiajie had hidden in his possession. But System Yue can see that Ye Yuyan is on the verge of going insane. He was holding on to Yu Xi's collar and was about to strangle him to death. It was as if by hurting the man in front of him that his pain would also fade.

System Yue spoke, [Calm down, Yuyan! You're gonna kill your friend!]

"Let him die then! As long as he dies, Bastard Ying Su would know what kind of pain I had felt when I lost Yu'er in those timelines. By hiding Ying Su's identity this bastard indirectly killed my mate multiple times as well. He doesn't deserve to live!" said Ye Yuyan.

His words were outspoken which started not only System Yue but also the person itself. Unlike Ye Yuyan, Yu Xi didn't know about the existence of the system and their past lives. He was stunned in confusion as to why his best friend acted like a crazy man at this moment. To Yu Xi, his only sin is just hiding Ying Su's real identity and nothing more. He couldn't understand the reason for the immense anger Ye Yuyan is showing at this moment.

Cough! Groans~

Ye Yuyan said, "Die. Because of you, Yu'er had to suffer deaths multiple times in our past lives. I wouldn't be able to forgive you that easily!"

"Urg! W-what... are you... t-talking... a-about?!" said Yu Xi in between his repressed breathing.

Seeing that Ye Yuyan intended to kill Yu Xi that System Yue and the hidden real Ying Wu could no longer just watch. A small floating little moon slammed at Ye Yuyan's face while Ying Wu forcefully separated the two men.

Taken aback from suddenly getting hit on the face Ye Yuyan lessened his strength with his hands, Ying Wu was successful in separating him from Yu Xi who started coughing after being suddenly freed.

Ying Wu said to Ye Yuyan, "What are you doing, Yuyan!? Calm down!!!"

"Ah... A-Wu? Are you the real Ying Wu!? You're still alive!!!" exclaimed Yu Xi as he saw the familiar face of his fated mate yet possessed a different scent and demeanor.

If Ying Su had an aura of innocence and aloofness then Ying Wu had a silent and gentle aura. They had identical faces but different personalities and gender.

Chapter 675: 12.77 Unknown Star – Modern ABO World: Second Case – Yu Xi and Ying Wu's Roles.

Police Headquarters.

Police Director Yu Xi's office.

Three men and a small floating moon gather in one room. There's an intense atmosphere between Prosecutor Ye Yuyan and Police Director Yu Xi. While the newly revived Ying Wu was standing in between the two separating them from the madness just now.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan said, "Do not stop me! I want to kill him! It was because of him that Yu'er died multiple times and... they've schemed to shoot at my own fated mate which led him to die. I will never forgive them both!"

In front of him, Ying Wu was trying to block Ye Yuyan from approaching Yu Xi who was out of breath from almost dying. The hand that held his throat just now was no joke. The strength of a dominant alpha like Ye Yuyan was not a joke. He is the strongest alpha that had ever existed even for an A-grade physique of an alpha like Yu Xi, he is still no match.

Yu Xi was confused the whole time because he didn't understand why Ye Yuyan would suddenly flip out like that and how Ying Wu would suddenly appear before him alive. He had seen the man's corpse and even attended his funeral but suddenly one day he would come back alive like now.

Yu Xi said, "I don't understand why you are acting like this, Yuyan. And, how did you come back to life A'Wu? I'm sure you were dead. Yuyan and I found your cold body that day. There is no way he made a mistake about it!"

.....

But despite his shock, Yu Xi still noticed that weird little moon that was floating against gravity. He even pointed it out.

Police Director Yu Xi said, "Moreover, what the hell is that thing? How can it float? Is it a toy? A machine? Whatever it is it looks weird. It gave the same vibe as that white snake toy of A'Su. Though lately, I can't see it anymore."

System Yue upon seeing the involvement of this man to the hidden villain especially when he mentioned that illegal System's avatar.

[That is not a toy nor I am a toy myself. I am an AI with a soul known as System. Prosecutor Ye Yuyan is my temporary host and it's my duty to help him complete his wishes. That white snake your fated omega possessed is something like me thought that thing was now destroyed and would no longer exist anymore. Human, you should learn to accept facts.] said System Yue.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan recalled a useful item from the System Mall. An item that could show past lives to the target. He exchanged for two and threw them at the police director Yu Xi and Ying Wu.

Before Yu Xi and Ying Wu could react, the item that Ye Yuyan had thrown at them had activated. They were suddenly in their soul form while they lost consciousness in reality. They opened their eyes to a hazy place that looked familiar but at the same time not. Their surroundings were strange as if it was the end of the world itself.

Yu Xi murmured, "What is this place?"

"I don't know. But Yuyan was saying about letting us see the past, don't tell me this is the past?" said Ying Wu.

Yu Xi said, "This ruined world is his past life?"

They watch Ye Yuyan's figure run past them. He was holding Hei Yuhua's body within his arms as he ran away from something. Yun Jie and Lou Wei were protecting them from other men who looked like police holding a gun. The difference is that their eyes were lifeless as if they were puppets instead of living.

To let Ye Yuyan and Hei Yuhua escape Yun Jie and Lou Wei decided to bomb the whole place to kill as many people as they could. Ye Yuyan with tears covering his face had no other choice but to keep running and remember the sacrifice of two men in his heart for their safety.

Ye Yuyan continued to run away while the weak Hei Yuhua in his embrace finally woke up. Asking him to leave him there and escape on his own. Ye Yuyan didn't agree. He didn't want to leave his beloved alone. They keep running until they've entered a forest but those people chasing them still follow them intently and want to kill them. There's a cliff before them with unknown running water below. They could no longer run away and the people chasing them surrounded them and prevented their escape.

Suddenly the man who issued this endless chase finally showed himself. It was the familiar face of Ying Su with a white snake moving around his neck. Seeing this scene Yu Xi and Ying Wu were dumbfounded. Prosecutor Ye Yuyan is telling them the truth. Ying Su is indeed hunting the life of Ye Yuyan and Hei Yuhua.

Yu Xi calls in disbelief, "A'Su? Why... Why is he... doing this?!"

"Shush! Listen!" said Ying Wu.

The scene before their eyes continues and they hear the conversation between Ye Yuyan and Ying Su.

Angry to the point of death, Ye Yuyan said, "Why are you doing this to us, Ying Su!? A'Wu's death wasn't intentionally done by us. He died on the field mission to protect me and Yu Xi. We didn't kill him!!!"

"You... are only targeting A'Yan but not Yu Xi? Aren't you biased? Yu Xi was also there when your brother died but you only keep hurting A'Yan. Why is that?" asked Hei Yuhua.

Ying Su said, "Xi-ge is my fated mate. I can't harm you but Yuyan is someone I hate. In the first place, Xi-ge would always choose you over me. It was unfair! I am his fated mate but he chooses friendship over love. So as long as you don't exist he would be mine. Plus, you didn't protect my brother well, that is also your fault."

"You are unreasonable! Are you hearing what you are saying?" shouted Ye Yuyan while Hei Yuhua thought otherwise. He felt that the weird white snake around Ying Su's neck was doing something. He couldn't help but stare at it more.

Ying Su said, "Either way, as long as you die, it's okay." Then he gestured to the people with him to kill them.

Before a rain of bullets landed on Ye Yuyan and Hei Yuhua, the latter suddenly pushed Ye Yuyan off the cliff. The two of them fell towards the river under them. Ye Yuyan was still okay but Hei Yuhua who covered him had bullet wounds all over his body and legs. He wouldn't be surviving too long. Despite that, Hei Yuhua hugs Ye Yuyan and smiles at him. He keeps saying 'Live', 'Don't plan for revenge, 'That white snake is weird', and 'I love you.'

In the end, Ye Yuyan couldn't bear the death of his fated mate and killed himself to follow him. Once Ye Yuyan and Hei Yuhua died together, the world would undergo a reset, and the world plot would once again be restored. In this restoration, only the white snake and Ying Su's soul were protected by an unknown power. This is the doing of the white snake.

Yu Xi and Ying Wu heard the white snake speak.

[This soul is not bad. He can be easily controlled as his negative emotions are always at their peak. I can use him until he goes crazy and becomes my food in the end. Negative Energy is the most delicious when the target is in despair.]

This is the first end of the world when the white snake was born and took over the world plot. He designed the tragic ends of all the characters of this world including the deaths of the Protagonist Gong and Protagonist Shou. Even if Ying Su became the hidden Villain of the world, he was still under the control of that White Snake. Everything was under the control of that white snake.

Then Yu Xi and Ying Wu were forced to watch a few more tragic endings of Ye Yuyan and Hei Yuhua's deaths. The latest past was also seen by them. It was the past life that Ying Su had controlled the events forcing Ye Yuyan to kill Hei Yuhua with his own hand. Yun Jie tried to avenge his brother but was at the end killed by his own lover, Lou Wei.

In the end, Lou Wei died early because of guilt and grief while Ye Yuyan ended up living his life in a mental hospital where he killed himself in the end. The two had seen the details of their own involvement which gradually pushed these endings. They finally understood the immense anger in Ye Yuyan's heart. noveluSb\c\o/M

It was after this scene that Ying Wu and Yu Xi were brought back. They woke up to the common interior design of Yu Xi's office. They felt heavy as if something hard had hit their heads. But they saw Ye Yuyan's grim expression as soon as they woke up.

Ye Yuyan spoke as his voice was cold and indifferent.

"You're both awake. Did you like what you've seen?" asked Ye Yuyan with sarcasm.

The two felt guilty even when they heard Ye Yuyan speak in such a way. They've seen themselves selfishly doing what they wanted without caring what would happen to others. Ying Wu would repeatedly die thinking he would be able to help his brother for the last time but his recklessness in going on the field with his weak body held back Ye Yuyan and Yu Xi during the mission putting them in danger. Meanwhile, Yu Xi would indulge Ying Su and help him hide his identity which leads to countless deaths of a lot of people involved with the Red Poppy Syndicate. Not only did Ye Yuyan and his team die, but a lot of ordinary people also died as well.

Yu Xi spoke but his reluctance is obvious on his face and words.

"Yuyan, I... I'm sorry. I... didn't know that... A'Su did all those... things. I..."

“Don’t apologize. What you have seen has longed before. You can no longer change what you do. Just focus on the present. At least in this timeline, we can correct everything that was wrong,” said Prosecutor Ye Yuyan.

Ying Wu remembered that weird white snake in those scenes.

“That white snake... Isn’t that a system? How could it act in such a way? Doesn’t a system exist to restore the plot of the world?” asked Ying Wu.

He learned a few new things in the Netherworld branch of this world and heard about systems and the Upper Realms.

System Yue spoke, [Only a registered System does. Illegal ones are dangerous as they become viruses that cause world errors. That White Snake was one. That’s why this world had gone weird and entered an endless loop. The past lives you had a scene in that world were just a part of it. If I get it right this world has entered the 100th loop which is right now.]

Yu Xi stared at the little speaking moon. After seeing those scenes in the past he knew that this thing is what they call a system. A similar thing that is the same as that White Snake but stands on their side.

Police Director Yu Xi said, “That little moon is a registered system right? Does that mean you know the God that owns that system?”

“Know. That God is sleeping inside me. He is also the one who brought A’Wu back to life and controlled time to make me and A’Yu come back to life. A’Yu also has a God inside of him and a little sun System helping him. There are also a few more people but you should meet them yourself in the future.” said Ye Yuyan.

Yu Xi said, “This is good. At least everything is better this time. Does that White Snake still exist?”

“Not anymore. It was destroyed by the God inside me,” said Ye Yuyan.

System Yue spoke, [The White Snake might be gone but his control over the hidden villain is still there. He had maximized Ying Su’s hatred and jealousy over Yuyan. That’s why he keeps targeting him and everyone connected to him except you. If this keeps up he would go completely insane in hatred.]

“How can we save him?” asked Ying Wu.

System Yue answered, [Clear up the source of his hatred and jealousy. It means we need Ying Wu and Yu Xi to help us in this mission. Only you two would be able to move Ying Su to his current state and prevent him from going crazy.]

Chapter 676: 12.78 Unknown Star – Modern ABO World: Second Case – Hei Yumei

After learning from System Yue that the two of them, Ying Wu and Yu Xi, were the only ones who can move Ying Su, the two agreed without question. With the help of these two, it would be easy to make the new plans work.

Though Ye Yuyan had some misgivings about these two people, what happened in the past can no longer be changed. Now they had to work together for the present. They had to make plans by predicting what Ying Su would be planning to do. As for trying to see what Ying Su might have planned to do in the future, it would be left to Yu Xi what he would find out from his side. He lives with Ying Su all this time pretending that in his eyes, he is Ying Wu who differentiates from being an alpha to omega. Though this itself is a piece of fake information.

After all, Ying Su was an omega right from the beginning but since he is using his twin's identity who was born alpha, he could only make a situation where he had to become an omega all of the sudden. A situation such as changing genders only happens when one has undergone differentiation in a natural way or through illegal drugs. Ying Su chooses the latter with Datura backing his story up.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan said, "Yu Xi will have to gather clues from his side while A'Wu would have to make Ying Su notice your presence. To him, you are dead after all. You can appear by his side from a certain distance but remember... you are not allowed to approach him until I allow you to."

"I understand the plan but what kind of clues do you want me to gather?" asked Police Director Yu Xi.

"Just whatever you can get. Whether it was about the Syndicate itself or changes in Ying Su. No matter what you got just inform me. My wife would decide whether your report would be useful or not." said Prosecutor Ye Yuyan.

Police Director Yu Xi felt helpless as he could feel that Ye Yuyan created a gap between the two of them. They are still close friends but the trust between them has long been broken. When he, Yu Xi, chooses to hide Ying Su's identity, he knew that it was a betrayal of his best friend. He chose to love or friendship and the current situation is the result he sowed which he planted right from the beginning.

.....

Ying Wu spoke, "Yuyan, I will follow your plans but can I ask you something? Think of it as a favor."

"What is it?" asked Prosecutor Ye Yuyan.

Ying Wu replied, "Don't kill A'Su, okay? He was controlled by that illegal system. What he did before is... Is something beyond his control."

"Who told you that I want to kill him? In his current state, death is a luxury for him. It is better for him to be alive and suffer as much as he lives. He should know what I felt when I saw Yu'er die countless times before my eyes." said Prosecutor Ye Yuyan.

After they've finished talking, Ye Yuyan prepares to leave. He left some Teleportation Talisman to the two of them to use whenever they planned to meet and left nonchalantly using the same item. Prosecutor Ye Yuyan didn't even say goodbye to the two who were left behind.

Police Director Yu Xi and Ying Wu understood what Prosecutor Ye Yuyan was feeling. All three of them used to be very good friends but both of them chose to side with Ying Su even if they didn't speak a word. This left a crack in their friendship and it's understandable that Ye Yuyan wouldn't be as close as he is to them as in the past. They had different priorities after all.

Once the Prosecutor disappeared from the office, Yu Xi and Ying Wu looked at each other and sighed deeply. They really feel too guilty around Ye Yuyan.

Yu Xi covered his eyes with a depressing aura coming from him and said, "A'Wu I'm not a good brother to Yuyan. In the end, when I choose to hide the fact about A'Su real identity from him, our brotherhood was affected and could never be repaired. I didn't expect A'Su would do all those things to Yuyan and Saozi (Wife of his brother)."

"Those scenes were that of our past lives. Since it already happened we can't change it anymore but at least... in the future I wanted Yuyan and Yuhua to be freed from their tragic past lives. I wanted them to be carefree and happy in this lifetime yet at the same time I... I didn't want for A'Su to die as well. Both of us are selfish. We can't help but wanted both." said Ying Wu.

Yu Xi said, "Yuyan already gave his word. He wouldn't kill A'Su which is a relief. I do not know what Yuyan plans to do in the future. For now, let's help him end the case and freed him from his responsibilities."

"I agree with this," said Ying Wu.

Meanwhile, Ye Yuyan teleported back to Crossfield Private School. He instantly arrived at the infirmary and saw his wife, not in a good mood.

Ye Yuyan asked, "Yu'er, what happened you do not seem to be in a good mood?"

"Hm? You're back, A'Yan. You must have heard something that made you have such a bad expression. It seems we both heard something we don't like." said Hei Yuhua.

Ye Yuyan asked, "Did the conversation with those brats didn't end up nicely?"

"No. Everything from that side is a done deal. Fu Tian had given me everything which would be helpful for us. I've let Xu Meiji bring them home. It's just that Datura is making me angry. I saw someone I didn't expect in his laboratory," said Hei Yuhua.

"Who did you meet?" asked the Prosecutor.

Hei Yuhua replied, "A'Yan, I've met a woman who called herself my younger sister. Those people who called themselves my parents seem to still be alive. I've thought of myself as an orphan all this time."

"What do you want to do, Yu'er?" asked Ye Yuyan.

Hei Yuhua responded, "...I don't know."

"Then think about it for a while. I will be by your side no matter what your decisions are," said Prosecutor Ye Yuyan as he comforted his wife in his embrace.

Hei Yuhua hugs his husband and finally calms down the unknown emotion that sprouted in his heart. He never expected that the parents connected to him by blood are still alive, much less give him a younger sister who is only a few years younger than him. He closes his eyes and recalls what happened a few hours ago.

A few hours ago just after Student Fu Miyan and Student Xu Meiji took their leave, Crossfield Private High School's Old Building, at the Biology Storage Laboratory.

Hei Yuhua after Student Fu Miyan and Student Xu Meiji had left, decided to check the hidden laboratory the mad scientist, Datura, uses when he is in this school. Hei Yuhua was extremely careful as he investigated the place and even used an invisible talisman on himself.

Hei Yuhua mumbled to himself but asked System Yang who was with him.

“Is this the right place?” asked Hei Yuhua. “I wish I could know how many people are inside?”

System Yang responded, [This is the correct place. There’s a hidden door behind this shelf. Don’t worry there is only one person inside but... It doesn’t seem to be your target at all. Datura is currently at that warehouse Student Fu Miyan is talking about, he is playing with his fated mate, Yi Rouya.]

Hei Yuhua said, “If it was not him inside then who is it?”

System Yang advised, [It’s better for you to meet the one inside on your own. It will depend on you whether this person would be an enemy or not.]

“What do you mean, Yang?” asked Hei Yuhua. `novelusb/c/o\m`

System Yang said, [See for yourself.]

Hei Yuhua was a bit confused by how System Yang was acting but decided to follow his advice. He entered the room without touching the door and instead used a Teleportation Talisman to get inside.

The interior of the secret laboratory isn’t that big but it was enough for two to three people to move unhindered inside the place. The whole room was fully renovated. Only a long table at the center filled with tools for creating medicine and a few shelves full of raw materials for making drugs are too eye-catching, especially the tools for creating medicines even the government doesn’t have this high technology tools such as these. Most likely these tools were smuggled into the country when Azalea and Hyacinth arrived.

Hei Yuhua didn’t notice the person right away as he was surveying the whole room with cameras and other tools for surveillance. Only then did he notice the young lady inside the laboratory wearing a white coat that protected her from the experiments. This lady looked like in her early twenties yet her expressions were mature which does not match her age. But what caught Hei Yuhua’s attention was her face. This young lady looks like a female version of himself especially those silver eyes of hers.

This young lady is called Hei Yumei. The young genius of the Hei Family. She had been born with almost 200 IQ, not less than Hei Yuhua’s 250 IQ. Their parents were famous scientists before they were kidnapped by the Syndicate. They weren’t able to escape this group no matter what. When they first had Hei Yuhua, leaving the Syndicate at that time was their first attempt. In the end, they were only able to safely bring out their son before they were recaptured by the Syndicate.

The Hei Couple were the main scientists who created multiple drugs the Red Poppy Syndicate sells. But this wasn’t their original goal, before they were kidnapped the goal of this Hei couple is to create medicine to cure cancer. That was their lifetime goal but it ended before they completed it as they were taken away by the Syndicate and imprisoned for a very long time.

After their first failed attempt to escape was not achieved, the Syndicate frightened them and told the couple that their son was killed as a punishment for trying to escape. The Hei Couple was greatly saddened by such an event and they wouldn't ever expect that the famous Agent Y of Aster was their supposed deceased son. When Hei Yumei was born her parents had warned her to keep on guard against the Syndicate. Don't believe them whole-heartedly as they were the ones who killed her elder brother, Yuhua.

Because of her skill at such a young age, Datura had taken her under his wings as a disciple but deep inside her heart, she knew that Datura's reason for getting her to his side is for some other reason. She would always see Datura staring at her with eyes glinting with hatred and excitement as if seeing another person in her.

She wasn't able to understand his reason for taking her as his disciple until she heard some news about an extremely skilled Agent from the Intelligence Division of her homeland. Agent Y, is the most powerful agent in the whole world. He had a 99.99% mission completion percentage. After investigating Agent Y's history, she learned that the reason why Agent Y's mission percentage was less than 0.01 is because of the interference of the Red Poppy Syndicate. They've gotten involved and saved the mad scientist Datura from his clutches.

When Hei Yumei saw Agent Y's life history, she recalled what her parents had said. She had an inkling that Agent Y is supposed to be her deceased elder brother. She wasn't sure until Hei Yuhua appeared before her right at this moment. She had even forgotten the fact that the figure of Hei Yuhua had appeared in thin air as she couldn't move her eyes from his face that looked one-third similar to hers.

They both asked at the same time.

Hei Yuhua asked, "Who are you?"

"Are you my elder brother?" asked Hei Yumei.

Chapter 677: 12.79 Unknown Star – Modern ABO World: Second Case – Siblings

Crossfield Private High school's old building.

Abandoned Biology Laboratory. Secret Storage and Laboratory of the mad scientist, Datura.

Hei Yuhua and Hei Yumei finally meet each other. It was an abrupt meeting and both sides didn't expect this to happen. They could only stare at each other's faces which look similar to each other. The only clear difference is their gender.

They both asked at the same time.

Hei Yuhua asked, "Who are you?"

"Are you my elder brother?" asked Hei Yumei.

The question of the young lady froze Hei Yuhua in shock. He had the feeling that the woman in front of him was indeed connected to him by blood. Her appearance alone says everything. It wasn't just a simple similarity but instead, a certain inexpressible feeling was filling his heart at this moment. When he heard her call 'Elder Brother' Hei Yuhua didn't know how to react at all.

With a slightly trembling voice he asked, "What are your parent's names? Who are you?" asked Hei Yuhua.

Hei Yumei would feel this person's denial yet his shock is countless times stronger than the former. She answered his question honestly.

"My father's name is called Hei Yun and my mother's name is Bai Ruri. My name is Hei Yumei."

"Hei Yumei. Hei Yun. Bai Ruri. Hah! Haha~ So they are still alive! Much more... Have another child. No wonder. They've never returned to pick me up. No wonder. Hahahah~" said Hei Yuhua.

Obviously, his current mental state isn't good. His words sound normal yet the meaning is too sarcastic and full of sadness and detachment. It was at this moment that Hei Yumei realized that something she did know was hidden from her. Her parents would always say that she had an older brother. All along she thought that he was just outside the Syndicate only now did she know that her parents must have thought her elder brother had died and likewise, her brother thought their parents were also dead.

Learning about her existence, Hei Yuhua thought otherwise and thought that he was abandoned by their parents instead. Only when she realized why that annoying self-proclaimed master of hers suddenly summoned her to this small city.

Hei Yumei tries to explain, "That's not it! Please listen to my elder brother's explanations!"

"Watch what you call me. I don't believe you yet," said Hei Yuhua coldly, which immediately rendered Hei Yumei silent.

With an expression that is about to cry, Hei Yumei nods at her elder brother's words. She understands why he is acting so coldly at her. All this time her brother believes that their parents had abandoned him while their parents thought her elder brother had died a long time ago. Everything was the fault of the Syndicate. They not only caused her family to get separated and restrained their freedom, but they've also made enemies with her elder brother.

"Bro... Agent Y, I know you wouldn't believe my words but... I wanted you to know that our parents never abandoned you but they thought you were dead. Please be careful. Datura is planning on using the Prosecutor on your side as an experimental subject for his new ability enhancer drug. As well as... call me here most likely to catch you off guard." said Hei Yumei.

She unhesitatingly told him all the plans of her master. It was as if she didn't worry about her own life and death. novelusb/C\o/m

"You are not afraid? Betrayal means death for the Red Poppy Syndicate," said Hei Yuhua.

Hei Yumei smiled helplessly and said, "We might be alive but... We don't have our freedom. Some of us even choose death free. The Syndicate had never been humane."

"You should take your leave. Datura would be returning soon," said Hei Yumei as she resumed her job of creating drugs as the mad scientist, Datura, ordered her to.

Hei Yuhua was caught off guard by her sudden indifference. He wanted to say something but couldn't do so as the awkwardness between them spread. For some reason, he wants to blame himself for treating this young lady with coldness due to his unstable emotions. In the end, Hei Yuhua could no longer ask the young lady about this anymore and took his leave under the sad gaze of his sister.

Hei Yumei murmured at his leaving sight, "Take care... elder brother."

It was after this event that Hei Yuhua returned to the school infirmary in a bad mood until Prosecutor Ye Yuyan arrived and comforted him for what happened. Prosecutor Ye Yuyan listened to his wife's story and didn't expect his in-laws to still be alive. Sadly, they were imprisoned by the Red Poppy Syndicate for too long, and after their first attempt ended in failure, they longed to stop thinking of escaping. But the young lady named Hei Yumei seems to think otherwise or else why would she allow herself to play the so-called relationship with Datura just so she can get out of restraints from the Syndicate?

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan asked his wife, "What do you want to do? Do you wish to save them, Yu'er?"

"I want to save them but... I don't think I can forgive them yet. Is this okay, A'Yan?" asked Hei Yuhua.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan responded, "Anything you wish my mate. Let's put saving the Hei Family on our agenda as well."

"Sure," said Hei Yuhua and he stared at his husband.

He felt that Ye Yuyan's mood was also not good after he had returned from his meeting with his best friend, Yu Xi. Moreover, the real Ying Wu didn't even come back with him, which is weird.

Hei Yuhua said, "Enough with my problem. A'Yan, did something happen with your conversation with Brother Yu Xi?"

"There is no need to call him brother. He is not worth it," said Prosecutor Ye Yuyan with a glacial tone of voice.

This reaction of Prosecutor Ye Yuyan showed that he had indeed had an ugly conversation with his friends, Yu Xi and Ying Wu.

Hei Yuhua gently rubbed his husband's chest to help him curb his rage.

"You can tell me anything, A'Yan. I am willing to listen to you anytime," he said.

Hearing these words from his beloved, Ye Yuyan felt a bit better than before and hugged the sweetheart in his life within his embrace.

Prosecutor Ye Yuyan took his time before telling his wife what happened. Hei Yuhua also did not rush him to speak and patiently waited.

"Yu Xi... That bastard! He knew all along that the Ying Wu by his side is Ying Su, all this time. Not only in this life but in our past lives as well. He didn't give me a single warning or clue all this time and was even protecting Ying Su all this time. If he had at least informed me or even warn me indirectly then... Then Yu'er wouldn't have to suffer too much in our last time. The misunderstandings between us wouldn't have piled up and... I wouldn't have to pull the trigger at that time. Yu'er am I selfish as well? After all, like Yu Xi, I would have chosen you over anyone after all. I shouldn't have gotten angry but... I couldn't hold back my anger at all." said Ye Yuyan.

Hei Yuhua said, "No. You aren't selfish. You were just upset that the sworn brother you accepted in life would betray you in such a way. There is no need to destroy your brotherhood but... it wouldn't be the same as before since this happened already."

"Um. Yu Xi and Ying Wu say they would help us gather information from the Syndicate but... just in case they end up siding with the other side, let's make preparations for it," said Ye Yuyan.

Hei Yuhua felt that Ye Yuyan had been disappointed too much that he is having a hard time trusting them completely like before. But he could understand it. Yu Xi is a brother whom he grew up with since college. Ying Wu is the man who sacrificed his life to save Ye Yuyan and Yu Xi. He had trusted them for their lifetimes unconditionally yet the tragic ends of them and their families are because these people indirectly side with the enemy while pretending to be neutral.

Hei Yuhua said, "I will follow your plans and stay by your side until the end."

"Thank you, Yu'er!" said Ye Yuyan.

Hei Yuhua said, "I'm your wife. If I'm not siding with you, who will?"

The couple spends a lovey-dovey time at the infirmary as if they had nothing to do with the happenings outside the room.

At the underground parking of Ye Yuyan's Condominium Building.

Iris woke up tied up on a chair and opened his eyes in a small empty room with only a dim light hanging above his head swinging as if he was inside an Interrogation room.

Urgh~

Iris cursed, "I feel sick. Who fucking hit me on the head!?"

It took a few minutes before Iris realized that he was taken away. When he found the locator of the person who stole all his money, he didn't hesitate to meet the person when found that the locator was in a crowded place. He didn't have to fear getting kidnapped if there were lots of people around.

The locator pointed out a cafe in the middle of the city so Iris was a bit fearless and barged in about to jump at that annoying person who took away all his money. But who would have thought that all those things in the cafe were fake? It was an illusion made by something, not of this world. He had only experienced those kinds of supernatural things when Poppy was involved. Poppy can teleport at a short distance, make things move on their own, or make others forget a part of their memories.

Iris, who recalled the scene in the café being distorted into an aurora of illusions mumbled, "That weird phenomenon... Is it not something only the leader can do?"

"Of course not. Are you a fool? Your leader is only a Fake God. Now his system is gone, he is already nothing," said Bai Jin who suddenly appeared in front of Iris.

Iris was stunned that he didn't notice the man's arrival as soon as he woke up. He didn't even feel his presence until he spoke just now. The young man in front of him looks like an alpha but what caught his attention is the small crow on the top of his head staring at him like a human. Then he recalled that white snake with crimson eyes that used to appear sometimes with Poppy.

“Who the hell are you? No, who the hell are you two?” asked Iris.

Bai Jin grins and says, “Me? You can think of me as the God of Wealth from the other world.”

Snap!

With a single snap of Bai Jin’s fingers, the whole room was suddenly filled with gold coins, gold bars, jewelry, and antiques. The number was enough to drown Iris to his death.

Iris was dumbfounded and looked around him in shock, “God of Wealth? A real God?”

Snap! With the second snap of Bai Jin’s fingers, all the riches that appeared before Iris’ eyes had disappeared. Even the rope tying on the chair had loosened.

Bai Jin said, “By the way, Oleander is my big brother. In short, he is not a human as well. He is the God of Misfortune. All those he doesn’t like would lose all their luck in life and suffer a short life.”

“Not only did your leader lose his system, your enemies, the Human Prosecutor and that Human Agent, are both backed up with two bigshots Gods. Ones that are stronger than me and my brother. Your Syndicate is destined to be destroyed.”

“That illness of yours that makes you younger as each time you don’t spend a large amount of money is caused by a curse. Iris, you are not originally from this world right?”

The words of Bai Jin about Iris’s original identity made the latter turn pale. He never expected to meet a real god in a world like this. This is only a mid-tier world after all. What Iris didn’t know is that the birth of the White Snake System and his transmigration in this world caused world error and forcefully upgraded the world into an S-class one.

It was because of this that the endless loop of this world was unsolved and more errors kept appearing. For a World repairer like Bai Jin, it is his job to solve world errors.

Iris also used to be a God but died on one of the battlefields which only Gods and goddesses enter. He had already forgotten who he was in his past life and how he ended up with a curse of greed. He needed money to extend his life or else his body would decrease in age.

Iris keeps frowning as some blurry memories of fighting and an extremely beautiful and majestic man with long light hair wearing a white robe and a black scythe keep appearing in his head. This person stood in front of them fighting monsters made of shadows and darkness. They look like humans yet are malevolent. The last thing he saw was that he was eaten alive by one of the monsters and the pained yet expressionless face of this silver-eyed immortal-like man.

Iris spoke, “I might not be a human after all. I keep seeing endless battlefields and me wearing silver armor. Covered in blood and surrounded by countless black creatures that had human faces. I died while protecting that person. In his white robe tainted by blood, he looks like a war god as his eyes seem to be made of moonlight that shines brightly in the darkness.”

Chapter 678: 12.80 Unknown Star – Modern ABO World: Second Case – Oleander’s Visit.

The God of Wealth, Bai Jin, and his system, Demon General Shi Wuya, were speechless with what they'd just heard from Iris. They didn't know if they heard it right but this unknown variable that caused world error seemed to be someone from Vearth. Much more a being that used to be a God that is much more powerful than them both.

The immortal in his memories isn't someone else but a well-known figure that everyone in Vearth idolized as the strongest Executioner of all realms. The God of Destruction's God form.

The God of Wealth, Bai Jin, and Demon General Shi Wuya looked at one another. They were both stunned by what this mortal before them was saying.

Bai Jin asked, "Do you clearly remember those dreams? Memories? Can you tell us what you remember in your surroundings? Tell us whatever detail you saw?"

"Calm down and think about it carefully. Your answer would affect what kind of ending you have," said the former Demon General Shi Wuya.

Iris was bewildered by their words but he could feel a bit of politeness coming from these two men.

"I saw only a land of lava and fire. Burned earth and reddish sky," replied Iris.

.....

Once Bai Jin and Shi Wuya heard his answer they were even now sure this mortal in front of them is indeed a former God from Vearth who had died in the last war against the Ye Gui Race led by the God of Destruction, Hei Anjing. It was said that everyone except the God of Destruction had died in that place. The Ancient Inferno is the original birthplace of the notorious Ye Gui race.

Rumors say that the Lord God of Netherworld had died that day as well. But since no one except Celestial Lord Hei Anjing knows what happened, no one can say that the Lord God of Netherworld indeed died. Plus, Bai Jin and Shi Wuya had recently met his Majesty Lord God Ye himself. He might be a bit weakened but he is still alive and kicking.

Bai Jin asked his system, "What do you think, Wuya?"

"A world of lava and fire with black earth and crimson sky. It's the Ancient Inferno. The original world was owned by the Ye Gui race but that world had been destroyed by Celestial Lord Hei a thousand years ago. It no longer exists. Even I haven't seen it with my own eyes as it was destroyed before I even ascended to Vearth. But according to the history books what he had said is indeed the Old Land of Inferno," said Demon General Shi Wuya.

Bai Jin asked, "What should we do with him?"

"Asked the Venerable Lords themselves. Let's bring him over to them," said Demon General Shi Wuya said. nove~~l~~ Usb.C/o\m

The two decided to bring Iris to Lord God Ye and have him decide what should be done to this person.

Meanwhile, during the evening. Those who have a home have gone home. Those who don't have returned where they are supposed to be. At the usually abandoned warehouse, Poppy and his subordinates had once again met for a meeting but this time there were few people missing.

Poppy spoke, "Iris and Oleander cannot come?"

"Yes, I've tried contacting them but no one is replying. They might be quite busy on what they are working on," said Nightshade.

Poppy spoke, "I know Oleander is busy with his assassination list but what happened with Iris?"

"This... The last time he was here, he said that he finally found the person who stole his money. He left in a hurry and no one knows where he went," said Nightshade.

Hyacinth spoke, "That money-grubber. He might be coercing that man whom he caught off now. There was nothing more important to him than money after all."

"Leader, why have you gathered us tonight? Is there a new mission?" asked Azalea.

Poppy spoke, "There is. I don't want to repeat myself so someone among you should inform Iris and Oleander about the new mission. After this mission, you guys can leave this country and resume your former lives abroad."

"Poppy, is this the last mission in this country?" asked Nightshade.

Poppy replied, "It is. Complete the mission and you would be able to go on vacation until the next time I call for you. Datura explains."

"Yes. Yes sure~" This mad scientist, Datura, brought out two vials of an unknown drug. One is red and the other is blue. "I've finally completed it. The Ability Enhancer and the Ability Tranquilizer. The red one is able to forcefully awaken one's hidden potential. It would allow one to get a power that is related to their daily lives.

If one successfully awakened their power then that is good but failing to do so would leave one become a mindless ability user. These people who failed would get an enhanced strength and overall prowess while also increasing their blood lust and killing intent. In short, once they failed to awaken they would become mindless murderers.

The blue drug is the only thing that can be used to stop one from berserking. It can fully deter the effect of the Ability Enhancer but only if it was injected within a day after the red drug was used. Let's call the red one the Hell Potion and the blue one the 'Heaven Potion'. The composition of this drug is only known to me and my disciple, Yumei. I'm planning on taking her back to the main laboratory tonight."

The explanation left everyone in the room amazed. These two drugs were extremely useful yet deadly at the same time.

Azalea asked, "Have you tried this on a human?"

"Of course~ I've tried it on myself. It was successful at the first vial of Heaven's potion. I've also tried to use it on my mate, Yi Rouya. He failed as expected and I observed the effects and injected the Heaven potion into him as well. The effect is as I explained earlier," answered Datura.

Hyacinth said, "You didn't inject the Heaven Potion into him within a day, didn't you? How is he right now?"

"Well~ he is a bit mindless most of the time but maybe because of our bond he wouldn't attack me like others. His overall physique was upgraded because he lost the ability to think like a normal human," said Datura.

Hyacinth said, "Whoa~ so cruel~ isn't that your fated mate?"

"My fate mate is science alone," said Datura.

Nightshade asked, "What's the mission, Poppy?"

"Spread the drug in different channels. Cause chaos in this whole country. Asked the main laboratory to spread it in the other countries as well. We would sell the Heaven Potion as an antidote once the Chaos interrupted all over the world. Only then would the governments all over the world be forced to accept the existence of the Syndicate and everything would be under our control," said Poppy.

"For world domination!" said his executives.

They've started injecting the Hell Potion into their own bodies. The one they've used is a special sample that was created without a side effect. It would fully awaken their abilities with little pain and no possibility of failure. The one their organization would release is the undiluted one with bad effects and the result would be based on the receiver's luck of whether he would survive or not.

Somewhere within the warehouse, Hei Yumei was eavesdropping on the meeting of the Syndicate. She was included in the process of making those two drugs her master had presented for tonight's meeting and she knew too well how awful those two drugs are. She had also seen the human subjects her master had used drugs too and most of them didn't have a peaceful death. They've become mindless monsters before they were killed on the spot.

Hei Yumei looked at the two drug samples she had secretly taken when her master completed those drugs. Four small vials, undiluted and diluted ones. Now Hei Yumei didn't know how she could pass these drugs to her elder brother. Then he looked at the yellow talisman her older brother left in the laboratory this morning.

She had seen how he had used this yellow paper called talisman. This is what her brother used to teleport from one place to another.

Hei Yumei mumbled while looking at the yellow talisman in her hand. "Maybe, if I give my brother these drug samples I can ask him to save our parents in exchange."

At Ye Yuyan's Condominium Building. The house unit of Hei Yuhua and Ye Yuyan.

The team went home after they finished their jobs this morning. Hei Yuhua showed Ye Yuyan the things Student Fu Miyan had given to him. The whole team was delighted to receive all that information as they knew that with these clues they should be able to capture all of their enemies in one swoop.

There were a lot of surprises that came to them that night. Not only Iris was caught by Bai Jin and Shi Wuya, but they've also even brought Oleander with them. Now they had gathered in the living room with a tense and awkward atmosphere.

Student Fu Miyan and Student Xu Meiji were peeking from their room looking at what was happening in the living room filled with adults.

Xu Meiji heard Fu Tian saying, "I can't believe this. How can Sir Oleander appear in this place? Is he on their side all along?"

"A'Tian, do you know this big brother? He looks um~... Scarier than Prosecutor Ye." said Xu Meiji.

Fu Tian rolled his eyes at Xu Meiji when he heard how he intimately called his name.

"He is from the Syndicate. The executioner who kills all traitors, Oleander," said Fu Miyan.

Hearing this Xu Meiji's face turned pale and pulled Fu Tian back inside their room and locked the door.

Fu Tian complained, "What are you..." he was speechless when he saw Xu Meiji's expression which was now showing a terrified face. He watched him block the door with a table and all which made him realize why he is suddenly acting this way.

"Calm down. Since he came here it means he is from this side. Moreover, Agent Y, Prosecutor Ye, and their teams were all outside. They wouldn't allow Oleander to touch me," said Fu Tian as he hugged the frightened Xu Meiji.

The trembling Xu Meiji hugs Fu Tian tightly. He was definitely scared when he learned Fu Tian would be in danger.

Fu Tian said while patting the back of Xu Meiji, "Calm down. We are safe now. There are adults protecting us. The Syndicate would no longer find me and Mimi."

"Um, I will be with you no matter what," said Xu Meiji.

Back in the living room, the adults noticed what the two children had done when they saw Oleander.

Bai Jin teasingly said to his elder brother, "Ge, those children are afraid of you. Hehe~"

"It would be weirder if they didn't. My role in this world is Oleander the Assassin of the Red Poppy Syndicate. They might have thought that I came to an end Fu Tian," said Bai Yin.

Bai Jin said, "That's Ge's fault, why did you choose a vessel that is from the Villain's side? Hmp!"

"My goal is to eliminate that illegal system, this vessel is the most suitable one for me to approach the target but before I did so you stole my job now I don't have to pretend anymore," said Bai Yin.

Hei Yuhua and the other three were a bit tense around Oleander.

"Are you... really a God like Bai Jin?" asked Lou Wei.

Yun Jie asked, "Which God?"

Bai Yin nodded his head and said, "A former God of Misfortune. Now I am an Executioner that works for the God System in Vearth. My job is to eliminate illegal systems and destroyers. Completely opposite of this silly brother of mine."

"Then those who were killed before were all humans or not?" asked Ye Yuyan.

Bai Yin said, "If you are asking if I know you've replaced your relatives with real-life dummies from the System Mall then I know. But the owner doesn't know because his system mall had fewer items than a registered system."

"Let me officially introduce myself. My vessel in this world is the Assassin under the Red Poppy Syndicate, Oleander. My real name is Bai Yin, the God of Misfortune and an Executioner from Vearth. Bai Jin's biological brother. This is my system a white dove called Gezi. Nice to meet you all."

Chapter 679: 12.81 Unknown Star – Modern ABO World: Second Case – Hei Anjing wakes up.

After Oleander or the God of Misfortune, Bai Yun introduced himself and his system to the team, everyone hesitated at first until System Yue and System Yang appeared and approved of Bai Yin's identity. A small moon and small sun appeared in thin air and hovered around Ye Yuyan and Hei Yuhua.

System Yue said, [He is not lying. He is indeed someone from Vearth and works as an Executioner in the God System like Lord Hei.]

Bai Yin was startled to hear the name of his idol. All executioner classes in the God System all look up to Hei Anjing. He is after all the strongest Executioner in all realms.

"Lord Hei? Are you talking about Celestial Lord Hei!? Is he here? Please let me meet him. I want to ask for an autograph!" said Bai Yin with a rare excitement in his eyes.

Bai Jin felt embarrassed with how his elder brother reacted when he heard Lord Hei's name but he also felt sad for him.

"Ge, you can't meet Lord Hei. He is... sleeping," said Bai Jin.

"Oh~ too bad," said Bai Yin but the anticipation within his eyes dimmed almost instantly when he heard what his younger brother had informed him.

System Yang spoke, [I can ask the lord to give you some when he wakes up.]

Bai Yin smiled for a split second when he heard about that. He knew that the system Celestial Lord Hei possessed had the form of a small sun. When System Yang promised him, he knew he wasn't lying.

"Thank you, System Yang," said Bai Yin.

System Yang said, [It's just an autograph. Not a problem. If it was a photo that would not be possible because his husband wouldn't allow you to have one.]

"Husband? Celestial Lord Hei is married!?" said Bai Yin.

A cold and menacing voice was suddenly heard, "Jing'er is married to me. Do you have any complaints? Hm~" said Ye Xiajie in his usual black and red robe looking down on everyone inside the room.

It was at this moment that Ye Xiajie materialized before them once again. He still looks dangerous and aloof as before. Unapproachable as if he and they were from different worlds.

Bai Jin and Shi Wuya had met him before they immediately fell on their knees with their heads lowered and said,

"Greetings to the Lord God of the Nether System and God of Void, Supreme Lord Ye!" said Bai Jin and Shi Wuya.

Bai Yin was only stunned for a moment and kneeled down together with his younger brother and Shi Wuya.

"This humble one greets the Supreme God of Void. Please do forgive my rudeness just now," said Bai Yin as he lowered his head and could still feel the pressure Ye Xiajie was emitting towards him alone.
novELusB\c\o/m

It was at this tense moment that Iris suddenly exclaimed and started pointing at Ye Xiajie.

Iris said, "Ah! It's you. You! I saw you in my dreams. You are the dead man in the arms of the silver-eyed immortal in my dreams!"

Everyone looked at Iris who dared to point his fingers at Ye Xiajie. System Yue immediately made his move and hit Iris's hand forcing him to lower it.

(QwQ) owie~

Iris asked in a pouting voice, "Why did you hit me?"

System Yue said, [It's rude to point at people.]

"Sorry~"

At this moment, Ye Xiajie who was expected to get angry was instead dumbfounded. The Iris before him might look like a mortal young man but for him who can peer into one's soul, he could see the divinity surrounding his soul as if protecting him. The only problem is that the soul before him had cracked due to a curse affecting his rebirth, growth, and memories.

Ye Xiajie floated before Iris and stared at him with those blood-like gem eyes. Being stared at like this by a Supreme being made Iris frightened but for some reason, his heartbeat is calm as an immovable mountain.

Iris himself was shocked, 'I'm supposed to be scared, that's what my brain is telling me but how come I feel nothing but a bit of pressure? What happened to me?'

Ye Xiajie frowned for a moment as if trying to remember something. He then glances at Hei Yuhua. To be exactly in the direction where his wife's soul is asleep. Unlike Xia Jieye, he doesn't have their full memories, especially their past lives and what happened after he died. This is exactly the part Hei Anjing was not willing to tell him at all. It was as if something he didn't know was being hidden by him, it was something he must not remember until he merged with his body and soul core.

Ye Xiajie asked, "Zhi Yang, Zhi Yue, do you remember what happened after I died in Inferno a few thousand years ago?"

System Yue answered, [No sir. I had fallen asleep when you've lost half of your soul and shut down to protect your remaining soul fragments.]

[I know but... My master had erased that part of my memories and taken it away. It was the Sovereign Ruler Mo Baojun who took it.] said System Yang.

Ye Xiajie frowned when he heard about this, then he suddenly recalled what Hei Jue had told him in the fifth world. In the beast world where Hei Jue tried to kill him but failed to do so.

{I will back away this time. Ye Xiajie, a word of warning. I suggest that you leave his side before you completely merge all your soul fragments... or else you would --- the person you --- the most.}

Ye Xiajie mumbled, "I would --- the person I --- the most? Just what is it that they are trying so hard not to let me know? I already know that my mother in this life died under the weapon of my wife because that bastard used her as a shield at the last moment. But that doesn't seem all. What happened in the past? I need to know all details."

System Yue asked worriedly, "My lord is there a problem?"

Ye Xiajie shook his head and stared at Iris who was staring back at him fearlessly. It is rare for someone to not fear him instinctively due to some reasons. He is a Pureblood Supreme God from birth like Shen Siwang. Only irregulars like the Mo Bloodline don't fall into coercion naturally coming from him. And the Gods and Goddess who swore their lives to protect someone from the Mo bloodline would get their fate altered to be placed under the Mo Family's protection. So only purebloods and those who swear their lives to them cannot be suppressed by his aura alone.

This mortal Iris happens to have a soul with divinity. A soul that does not fear his aura could only mean he is either connected to him or to his wife. Aside from Warden Lou most of his subordinates now work in the Nether System while it was said that all gods who used to protect Hei Anjing had died in Ancient Inferno when he collided with that useless father of his in this life.

Ye Xiajie thought of something and asked Iris, "You... You are not originally human. You said you saw me before. Tell me everything that you had seen in that dream of yours. In exchange, not only will I remove the curse in your soul but I will also fulfill one of your wishes."

"If I told you... Would you be able to help me with why I have such kind of dreams? It does not seem like a normal dream to me because each scene is vivid and too real for me to deny it." said Iris.

Ye Xiajie said, "If you are what I thought you are then I would help you get back your past life memories. Because if you happen to be a person that used to protect my wife means your merits are quite high that even I will never ignore it. To this Supreme One, the people who protected my wife while I'm away are the greatest merit you can have. I will reward you abundantly if you do so."

“Thank you. But I think it would be faster for this esteemed lord to check it yourself. I will not resist whatever you wanted to see,” said Iris.

Ye Xiajie nodded his head and felt that it is indeed better for him to check it with his own eyes. Just by reading someone’s past memories, he could easily do such a task. He reached out his right hand and placed it on Iris’s head who had closed his eyes. He felt a slight pain in his head when Ye Xiajie started reading his memories.

Ye Xiajie said, “Your soul is injured, it would be a bit painful for you once I’ve touched your soul directly. Don’t worry I will heal it in the process.”

Iris heard Ye Xiajie’s voice and relaxed as he let this supreme being do whatever he wanted. He surrendered his life for a chance to know his origin. After all, no one knew how he was born in this world. Even the orphanage said that they only found him outside the house and when he tried to check his own origin when he grew up, he found no traces of his family which is supposed to be impossible in this world in which everyone’s profile had been recorded by the government.

While Ye Xiajie was checking through the memories of Iris, Hei Anjing who was sleeping within Hei Yuhua’s soul suddenly opened his eyes. Most of his subordinate’s souls were connected to him by soul contract when they all died in the past he didn’t let them reincarnate directly to Vearth but transmigrated their souls to the lower worlds to help him look for the traces of the Ye Gui Race.

But who would expect their souls would either be affected by the transfer as someone once again interfered? But just now he clearly feels one of his general’s souls.

“This feeling... Is Wan Yi reborn in this soul? And... Is A’Xia trying to see what happened after he died? It seems like I can no longer hide what his life mission as a Ye Gui must fulfill. Sigh~” murmured Hei Anjing.

He disappeared from Hei Yuhua’s soul domain and reappeared in the world outside. Everyone was surprised to see Hei Anjing appearing right now. Those who recognized him were shocked.

Hei Yuhua calls, “Lord Hei?”

“Lord Hei!”

Everyone looked in the direction where Hei Yuhua was looking and saw Hei Anjing in his usual white and black robes sitting cross legs on the free couch while hugging a pillow in his arms. He was staring at his husband’s figure with a helpless smile.

System Yue was the happiest among them, he had a close relationship with Lord Hei for becoming his system while System Yang is not around.

[Lord Hei! You are finally awake. Milord would always wake up grumpy when he saw you are still sleeping.]

A little moon almost rammed towards Hei Anjing’s head. This silly moon really did accidentally hit Hei Anjing’s forehead.

BONK!

System Yue, [(QoQ)/ It’s not on purpose! Lord Hei, I’m sorry~]

Hiss!

An ice surface on Hei Anjing's forehead to stop a bump from forming. With a wicked smile on Hei Anjing's lips, he squeezed the rude little moon and threw it out of the window in anger.

"Reflect outside," said Hei Anjing.

Aaahhh!!!

Everyone watches without a word of help to forgive System Yue.

System Yang could only sigh as he floated in front of Hei Anjing and asked permission to pick up the flying moon outside the house.

[Master, please let me pick up, Yue'er.]

"Go ahead. While you're at it contact Warden Lou and A'Ming to return as soon as possible," commanded Hei Anjing.

[Yes, Master. But is it alright for Lord God Ye to see the memories of that past?]

Hei Anjing said, "He would know sooner or later. He had to make a decision as soon as possible as well. It was his curse which he could never run away from because of his current bloodline."

System Yang asked, [Are you alright now, Master?]

"At least the soul is currently stable. Go! Pick up that silly moon." said Hei Anjing.

[Then Please excuse me for a moment, Master.]

After saying those words he flew out of the window and looked for System Yue who was thrown out by his master. Everyone's eyes were still on Hei Anjing and he especially felt the burning gaze of Bai Yin who was already revering him in the corner. Seeing all this Hei Anjing didn't know whether to laugh or to cry.

Chapter 680: 12.82 Unknown Star – Modern ABO World: Second Case – Forgotten Past (1)

Ye Xijie was focused on watching their past memories of Iris. He had entered the dream world and watched the scenes of the past he didn't know. He had already died when these things had happened. He even didn't notice that outside, in reality, his wife had woken up waiting for him to return.

In the dream realm, he saw the familiar world in his memories as Ye Xijie. This was the place he was born and raised. A world that is only filled with fire and lava, even the earth under him is burned. It has become a black and eerie blood-dyed sky with dim sun and few stars.

He saw the battle of Hei Anjing and the Gods that served him against his father, Ye Mo who was accompanied by his mother and another woman. These two goddesses are obviously his wives. Hei Anjing had obviously fallen under a trap as their group was surrounded by people from the Ye Gui race.

Despite being surrounded, the soldiers that protected Hei Anjing weren't even losing against the Ye Gui race. But things become dicey when he sees himself appear in the middle of the two groups.

Ye Xiajie murmured, "How come I don't remember this part? That's right. I don't remember what happened during their confrontation and how I died. I thought I died because I lost against that bastard old man. But things don't seem to be that simple."

He watches his figure standing in front of Hei Anjing and his people. He was clearly on their side. After helping his wife fight against his own race the numbers of Ye Guis that surrounds them had lessened greatly weakening Ye Mo's side. He saw his mother panicking when he appeared and the other woman snickering at him.

Then he heard Ye Mo saying, "You are bold! Just because we have reached the Peak Celestial God and are stronger than I do doesn't mean you can kill me, Xiajie. Have you forgotten about your life mission?"

As if Ye Xiajie and the version of him within the memories synchronized, they both frowned and their faces became dark. Every Ye Gui of the younger generation after Ye Mo's was forced to surrender a piece of their soul to the clan leader to ensure there wouldn't be any traitors as Ye Mo held the reins of the whole race.

This was a new rule that was made after Ye Mo sat on the seat as the Clan Leader of the whole race. The betrayal of some elders and the death of his father had caused their race to weaken. This is to ensure that Ye Mo had the sovereignty within their race and he himself held all their lives in his hands. His children were not even spared and Ye Xiajie, the deemed most capable heir, had the worst mission among all his children. Because he is the strongest among the heir candidates, Ye Mo gave him the life mission that targets a person from the bloodline he hates the most.

Ye Xiajie's mission is to Assassinate the youngest descendant of the Mo Clan, Celestial Lord Hei Anjing.

He reminisces about the scene when they first met in Vearth.

In the first place, Ye Xiajie and Gui Xiajun didn't enter Vearth just to escape from their race's criticisms. Ye Xiajie wanted to see the target of his life mission and decide what to do afterward but who would have expected that the first time he met Hei Anjing in the God System's Plaza everything would be out of control.

His heart, which was frozen all this time, suddenly started. As if Hei Anjing was the only person in his world and he could only see him. The fate between them doesn't seem too simple. He also didn't know why... This cold-hearted man that was rumored to be a person of few words and an aloof prince of ice would suddenly meet his eyes.

Within those exquisite silver, orbs were emotions that he couldn't understand himself. There was longing, deep affection, and extreme delight when looking at him. Based on Hei Anjing's reaction alone, he seems to have known him for the longest. Even he himself had felt a deja vu, but sadly he couldn't remember anything and this just left Ye Xiajie frightened.

It was because of this that he ignored the sprouting feelings in his life and choose to distance himself from Hei Anjing. A fear that appeared within his soul is caused not only by his life mission. There was something else. Because he couldn't understand, Ye Xiajie chose to ignore him despite liking him.

But who would have thought that after that meeting Hei Anjing would continue to approach him? He would greet him almost every day and send him presents. Such a rare occasion was heard by everyone in Vearth. What was weird is that everyone had accepted Hei Anjing's actions like it was normal. It was only then Ye Xiajie heard about the Mo Bloodline and the importance of the other half to their clan.

To everyone else in Vearth, obviously, Ye Xiajie was chosen by Hei Anjing as his future other half. After hearing that the Mo Bloodline's sole weakness happens to be involved with their other half, the fear in Ye Xiajie deepens even more and he avoids Hei Anjing much more until they rarely see each other for hundreds of years. Despite such obvious avoidance, Hei Anjing didn't stop looking for him. He would casually peek in secret and would see sadness within those beautiful argnet eyes making it even harder for Ye Xiajie.

He had no other choice but to disappear somewhere. Until Hei Anjing's feelings for him fade. To keep him safe from himself, there was no other choice but to completely separate. Because of this Hei Anjing chooses to come back to his world. The land of fire and lava, an SS-class world called Inferno. This is where the Ye Gui race lives and hides after their whole race was kicked out of Vearth.

But destiny didn't let things end that way, Hei Anjing who was doing his Executioner mission received one for this world. He didn't even know that Ye Xiajie and the Ye Gui Race lived here. But rumors about the Ye Gui race's crown. Prince was living in this world and had been tipped to the God System. So they had sent their strongest executioner, Celestial Lord Hei.

At that time the God of Destruction didn't know that his target, the Crown Prince of the Ye Gui race, was someone he knew too well. It was the only person who had melted his frozen heart, the being who had seen in his dreams dying before him, and the only man who had protected him ever since he was a child but gone missing as he grew up.

Everyone says that the God of Void had returned to the abyss. Some say he had died but more say he had just disappeared somewhere and didn't want to get involved with the people who live outside the abyss. Hei Anjing once asked his Uncle Siwang, the one who was said to have the strongest connection with the God of Void.

But when Hei Anjing asked about things regarding the God of Void, Shen Siwang only spoke two sentences.

Shen Siwang said, "The seal is broken?! You remember him already!"

It was just a slip of tongue from his uncle's husband. But before he could ask further what Shen Siwang's words meant his Uncle Baojun had taken him away. These actions meant clearly that he wasn't allowed to ask any further and Hei Anjing gave up asking. It was almost impossible for someone to make his Uncle Baojun open his mouth to say something he is hiding.

But just based on Shen Siwang's words, obviously, the God of Void had connections to him. He wanted to investigate but most information about Supreme God Xia Jieye had been taken away by his Uncle Baojun and there is only one place that might know or have information about Supreme God Xia and that is his strange connection with the Ye Gui race. This is why Hei Anjing accepted the mission to eliminate the Crown Prince of the Ye Gui race and come to Inferno.

Who would think things would end in a war that involves huge changes in the lives of Hei Anjing and Ye Xiajie?

Upon entering Inferno, Hei Anjing who had just arrived in this world was testing the new existence they call systems. He is one of the beta testers and as expected errors cannot be avoided. Hei Anjing was supposed to enter the best vessel that will not restrain much of his powers but in the process of soul integration, his soul was pulled into a weak vessel that completely restrained his divinity making him as weak as ordinary humans.

More things happen afterward and Hei Anjing had no other choice but to continue his mission in this weak vessel. But during his mission, he never expected that his heart would once again move. He thought that he would only love the person called Ye Xiajie his whole life but the thought of Xia Jieye his heart ached so much and now meeting a young demon in Inferno his heart was once again moved.

Hei Anjing never thought that his heart would be quite fickle as everyone knows that the Mo Bloodline can only choose one to love in their eternity. He himself couldn't understand. Why would he yearn for Ye Xiajie at first sight, why would his heart ache thinking of Xia Jieye and why would his heart be moved in front of an ordinary demon who called himself Gui Xia?

In the end, Hei Anjing couldn't help but indulge in it. Gui Xia is different from the other two men in his heart. He isn't missing like Xia Jieye nor avoided him like a plague as Ye Xiajie did. Instead, Gui Xia would care for him, protect him and pamper him. He had no other choice but to be intoxicated, this love made Hei Anjing want to indulge more. He wanted more, no he wanted everything. He wanted Gui Xia.

From the perspective of the hidden subordinate of Hei Anjing, Ye Xiajie watched the scenes of the past he had forgotten.

Ye Xiajie could feel himself flattered yet annoyed. How come the him in this memory is able to be happy beside his wife when all he did was hide the fact he is Ye Xiajie and used another persona as Gui Xia? What's the worst is that both he and Hei Anjing did not realize each other's identity and choose to fall in love as they hide both their real identities.

Ye Xiajie mumbled with intense pain in his heart, "Why... Why is it that we can only love each other by hiding real identities behind another mask and cannot be together with our real selves."

He can only watch as the version of himself and his wife living in fulfilling happiness all these years. It was as short as a human lifespan but they had truly freely loved each other in this world.

But the peace was suddenly broken when Ye Xiajie and Hei Anjing were forced to return to their original identities. Ye Xiajie is the Crown Prince of the Ye Gui Race, after Ye Mo found out about the existence of the outsider entering their world he ordered its elimination. Yr Xiajie as the crown prince of their race had no other choice but to agree but when he saw that his target was his lover he felt the heavens had fallen and his whole soul was burned in hell. He couldn't believe it. He chose to love this person because he was so sure that this man's feelings for him were real.

But now reality is telling him that he is an outsider using a vessel from their world. In short, this is someone from Vearth. As the deemed strongest executioner in Vearth there is only one person and that was Celestial Lord Hei whom he was avoiding to protect all this time.

Ye Xiajie had hesitated to kill someone once again.

Unknown to him, Hei Anjing's situation is also the same as his. His system had finally found out the identity of the crown prince of the Ye Gui race. He himself was shocked to see the information about his target. It was the demon whom he thought was ordinary but in the end, this person he loved all this time happened to be the same person he was yearning for all this time.

For the first time in his life, Hei Anjing felt he was a fool. Fate played his life. In his deep sadness, the seal that restrained his memories of the past was broken. This is the seal Shen Siwang and placed on him in the wish of his brother, Xia Jieye before he entered reincarnation. Memories of his childhood had returned to him, he saw a man that looked exactly like Ye Xijie yet looked more mature and with crimson eyes appeared.

Waves of memories of his forgotten past returned to him. Only then did Hei Anjing remember that the Supreme God of Void had died to protect him and that Ye Xiajie is his reincarnation after he died.

Hei Anjing felt insane with happiness. Only now did he know that his heart was never fickle. He had only loved one person in all his life even after he was born in this world.

"I see... the curse of my bloodline. To only love one person for our whole eternity is real."
