

Worlds Plot 761

Chapter 761: 14.37 Last Violet Star – Outside the forest

Ancestral Mound of Luan City...

The battle was still ongoing above the graveyard of the Lu Clan. The three monster kings were defeated and the rest of the group gathered above the black snake Crown Prince Hong had said to have defeated.

Among Sect Master Lu Er, Sect Master Jin Baihua, and Crown Prince Hong, the first two were covered in injuries and their robes were wrinkled there, full of dust here, cut there, and soaked in blood. On the other hand, Crown Prince Hong was as clean as he is. As if he had never fought at all.

Sect Master Lu Er and Sect Master Jin Baihua were staring at Crown Prince Hong Longqing with disbelief. They couldn't believe that this youngster was able to defeat a golden core monster on his own without suffering from any injuries like theirs.

Lu Er said, "His Highness is quite powerful. You were able to defeat a golden core monster without a hitch. The dynasty has a bright future. Hahaha~"

"Hmp! No one knows what kind of witchcraft this one had used. How can he immediately defeat something even though we Sect Masters had a hard time doing so!" said Jin Baihua.

Sect Master Lu Er responded sarcastically. He had always hated this two-faced bitch that dares to covet his second brother Yun.

.....

"Just because one is stronger than you doesn't mean they use tricks to overwhelm you! Does the lesson taught by Brother Bai still haven't sunk in your brain!?" said Sect Master Lu Er.

Sect Master Jin Baihua snorted, "Strong ne?~ Didn't that powerful Senior Brother Bai still die ten years ago?!"

"Watch your tongue!!! Jin Huayu!! Do you think you can still be sitting here alive if not for the sacrifice of Brother Bai!? You're proud so be it! But don't be ungrateful!!!" said Sect Master Lu Er. His face had turned dark in anger and he was so close enough to strangling Jin Baihua who was in front of him.

Sect Master Jin Baihua knows that he had overstepped and shut his mouth but even his face was ugly to the point of distortion. Sitting beside them was Crown Prince Hong who was from the younger generation. He doesn't know the details of that tragic event from more than ten years ago as he is from the younger generation.

Thoughts of the crown prince, 'Brother Bai? Is it that same person from the tragedy ten years ago? I wanted to ask more but this atmosphere is too awkward. Forget it! I will just ask Imperial Father when I got home.'

The Crown Prince wanted to ask more about that event but the awkward atmosphere around them prevented him from doing so. He would only watch the others fight like the other two.

—

Meanwhile, just outside of the barrier, Lu Yi was looking gloomy as he looked towards the barrier surrounding the whole forest. When countless mutated monster bugs, snakes, and bats suddenly flew out from the forest, the sheer number of them frightened everyone outside the village. They didn't expect such a huge number of monsters when what the scout had found were merely hundreds or more.

There were some young disciples who couldn't help but tremble at the sight of the monsters but none of them had run away. Running away means that the ordinary people behind would be killed. That is a huge amount of karma. For cultivators who practice techniques of becoming immortal, karma and merits are the most important.

Thankfully the function of the black barrier has come to use. Those monsters immediately turned to ashes when they touched the black barrier.

Disciple Yun Fan commented, "Wow! This barrier is so powerful. Those monsters were all the Foundation Establishment's strength. But they all turn to ashes once it touches the black barrier."

"The number is too much. I heard only 100 or so monsters were found. How come that there seems to be more than a hundred," said Yun Anjie.

Du Sang said, "Maybe... Instead of saying that the monsters were living underground, it's most likely that there is some kind of passage underground. If that's the case then it would be more dangerous for everyone in Luan City."

"The zombie siege in that countryside was weird enough. Is someone controlling them?" mumbled Yun Anjie.

Lu Yi, who was standing not far from these children, overheard their conversation and commented.

"No. Both are true but different. What are your names?" asked Lu Yi.

Yun Anjie led his small group and cupped his hand and greeted them. The other two followed after him.

"Senior, I am Disciple Yun Anye from the (Blue Fleeting Cloud Sect) Lan Zhuayun Sect."

"Disciple Yun Fan from the same sect."

"Likewise, I am Disciple in name, Du Sang."

Lu Yi cupped his hands to return their greetings and even introduce himself to them.

"Great Elder of the Lu Weifeng Sect (Green Wind Breeze Sect), Lu Wang (Courtesy name)."

Most cultivators introduced themselves using their courtesy names as only their family and Dao Companion is allowed to call their birth name. Calling one's birth name is a show of intimacy. Unless you are family, only your dao companion can call you by your birth name. Otherwise, it would be considered ill-manners.

"Your ideas are plausible. There is indeed a passageway created underground. Your senior brothers and sisters were already working on it. We on the other remain here to guard the city if ever this black barrier falls."

“You brats are quite smart as expected of the disciples of Chun Hongyun-Jun.”

“As for the siege of zombies in the southern countryside, we don’t know much details. You guys are the disciples saved by Chun Hongyun-Jun in that place right? Can you tell me what happened?” asked Lu Yi.

Hearing this Yun Anjie and Yun Fan looked at Du Sang who smiled and nodded in agreement. He is allowing them to tell everyone what happens after all it involves his maternal clan and his mother. The children didn’t hide anything from Lu Yi and told him what happened.

Lu Yi looked at Du Sang and gently rustled his head.

“Your mother would go to a nice place. Don’t worry, child.”

Listening to these kind words almost every day Du Sang who grew up with bullying and taunts couldn’t help but feel his eyes hot. This kindness was the first for him.

“Hm. Thank you, Senior,” said Du Sang.

Suddenly they felt coldness spreading in their surroundings. Everyone couldn’t help but hug their arms crossed.

Yun Fan said, “Hoo~ why did it suddenly feel so cold!?”

“There is no way for this temperature to happen. The season is for harvest. Even if it’s evening it shouldn’t be this freezing...” said Yun Anjie.

Du Sang, who felt an overwhelming presence coming over, turned around and saw the veiled figure of Hei Anjing approaching their direction. Zhi Yue as a faithful servant stood by the side holding a lantern to illuminate the path for his lord. His head was a bit lowered showing his position as Hei Anjing’s subordinate.

He pulled Yun Fan and Yun Anjie’s sleeves and whispered, “Senior Hei?” calls Du Sang.

Everyone near him followed the direction he was looking at and saw Hei Anjing wearing a black robe with a snowflake pattern. The only difference is that the snowflakes at the edges of his robes become alive creating an ice road for Hei Anjing to walk through.

The elders of the Lu Weifeng Sect (Green Wind Breeze Sect) lowered their backs and greeted this immortal in a polite manner.

“Greetings to the Divine Doctor Hei!”

Even Lu Yi who had the highest standing among everyone in the area cupped his hands and greeted him respectfully.

“Welcome Daoist Hei. Lu Wang is honored to be in your presence.”

Hei Anjing nodded his head at them and only returned the elders and Lu Yi’s greeting. The first one is politeness while the one with Lu Yi is due to closeness. Thanks to the memories he had digested he knew that Lu Yi was a good friend of his in his previous life.

"I cannot remember much about my previous life as a mortal but... I at least remembered your name, Brother Wang," said Hei Anjing.

Though his face is still as expressionless as always since he was veiled, no one felt that his words are unsynchronized with his face. Lu Yi can see the friendliness within those silver eyes. Though it wasn't as explicit as in the past. He knew that this person still treats him as a friend.

Lu Yi chuckled and said, "Then I will call you the same as before. A'Wuan would this be alright?"

"Hm. Do as you wish. Hand..." said Hei Anjing as he stretched out his hand towards Lu Yi.

The latter placed his open palm below Hei Anjing's eyes and saw that he was given a small white jar that holds pills.

Lu Yi said, "Pills?"

Once he opened the jar cap a strong scent of herbs and medicine spread in the area. A refreshing scent entered Lu Yi's nose and felt the lethargic qi in his body revitalized.

Hei Anjing spoke, "Qi Replenishing Pills. Eat one and come inside with me. There are devils who invaded the mortal realm." novel usB\C/o/m

Everyone was startled by what he heard Lu Yi felt that things had gone seriously dangerous and ate a pill as Hei Anjing suggested. In just a few minutes he felt his body's vital return to normal as his qi which he had lost had also come back in an increasing manner.

Lu Yi looked at the elders of his sect and the other sects.

"Seniors, I shall leave the protection of the city and disciples in your care. Lu Wang would definitely be most grateful and will return this favor in the future."

The elders who heard Hei Anjing's words instantly understood the situation. Now that the devil race had indeed appeared then this is a problem not only for the Luan City but the whole Mortal Realm.

"Go. Leave the things here to us."

"We shall inform the others about the surfacing of the Devil race and warn the others about them."

"You can leave without worries. We shall send all the young disciples back to the Lu Weifeng Sect (Green Wind Breeze Sect) until the other elders come out."

Lu Yi cups his hands towards the elders. Hei Anjing only waited for Lu Yi to finish his conversation with the elders before walking inside the forest with Zhi Yue.

"Brother Wang, follow me."

"Let's go!"

Only then did these two enter the deprived forest and small mountains of ashes. As soon as Hei Anjing walked past the barrier those small mountains of ashes turned to ice and melted to nothingness. Only the backs of Hei Anjing and Lu Yi getting farther were watched by everyone.

—

On the other hand, back inside the forest, Yun Huaxia and Bai Qiyin were fighting the twin devils. They might not be high-ranking devils but they should be at least mid-ranked ones. Most devils who were ranked at the middle of their hierarchy all have nascent soul stage strength. If not for the weakness of devils towards Ice elements, Bai Qiyin would be able to contend against a mid-ranked devil. Moreover, his physique is special. He had an overwhelming advantage towards ice elements; he was using them to weaken his opponent despite his golden core stage cultivation.

The twin devils, Gai Yin and Ya Bo couldn't immediately defeat their enemies. They've just recently reached mid-ranked thanks to the help of his highness Tanlan. But their opponents are not easy to defeat. One is a step stronger than them. Sect Master Yun Huaxia had the strength of Mid Nascent Soul almost reaching his peak. While Bai Qiyin even though he only possesses the strength of Peak Golden Core Stage, his special physique, the Nine Yin Meridians, allows him to lord over the ice elements and his control over it was above anyone from his clan except for one. His Senior Brother was born with Primordial Yin Physique which is even rarer than Extreme Yin Physique.

The Devil race had always lived in an inferno where the land and sky itself were made of fire and lava. Because of this, fire elements had no effect on them but they are extremely weak against ice. This is the reason why Bai Qiyin is able to contend with a mid-rank devil because of his special physique.

Yun Huaxia said, "Darling, are you still okay?"

"Yes. I have enough qi. Let's do that!" said Bai Qiyin.

Yun Huaxia nodded his head and said, "Since they are weak to ice. I will help you maximize your range of attack. Just focus on controlling it."

Panting and covered in scratches, Yun Huaxia and Bai Qiyin step back for a moment.

Chapter 762: 14.38 Last Violet Star – Devil Race's Weakness

Panting and covered in scratches, Yun Huaxia and Bai Qiyin step back for a moment. Gai Yin and Ya Bo didn't look good either. Devil Gai Yin had sword wounds on their stomach and waist. Ya Bo had some frozen parts on him as well and even his wings are covered in frost. novel SB/C/o\M

Ya Bo said, "Bro, that human in the blue robe. You must kill him! He is weaker than me but his control over ice is overwhelming, we would be a great enemy of our race!! He possesses a strong physique of Yin."

"What?! A Yin Physique!? What kind is it? But he is a man, how could he still be alive after possessing a Yin Physique which only females would be born with!?" said Gai Yin.

Ya Bo said, "Bro don't you remember what happened to His highness Jidu? He has also killed the vessel that absorbs him during the transfer of the vessel is a Yin Physique as well and that human is also a man!"

"Do humans now have a way to control Yin Physique without dying!? That's the only special being and male that the heavens accept to possess Yin Physique is that Venerable. Royal highness, King Wuan of the Heavenly Realm! Are you telling me that tyrant is willing to help the mortals he looks down upon!?" said Gai Yin.

Ya Bo said, "Bro that's not the problem!? The point here is that humans in blue robes cannot exist. He is using ice elements and is a yin physique possessor! We need to kill him here!"

"Okay. You are the smarter one. I will listen to you," said Gai Yin.

.....

The twin devils decided to focus their attacks on Sect Master Bai who is like a nemesis of their race. Sect Master Yun couldn't understand their language but their body language was enough for him to decipher that these two devils wanted to kill his other half. His killing intent had spread in the area, making Chun Hongyun-Jun and the Devil Tanlan look back and stare at them.

Yun Huaxia pulled his Dao Companion behind him.

"Darling, support me from behind. Don't confront them. They are targeting you because you can hurt them with your attacks."

"Hm? I did remember my brother saying that the Devil Race's weakness is ice and my (White Frozen Water Sect) Bai Lengshui Sect is their greatest nemesis in the human realm. I didn't expect it to be real," said Bai Qiyin.

Helpless, Yun Huaxia smiled and said, "Darling, it is not the time to be surprised. Do you have any more talisman to halt their movements even for a moment?"

"No more talisman. I've used it all up. But I can restrain them for you. Only 5 seconds at most," said Bai Qiyin.

Yun Huaxia smiled and said, "That's enough. Darling gets ready."

"Um. Just give me the signal," said Bai Qiyin.

Yun Huaxia nods his head at his dao companion before flying towards the two devils. Gai Yin and Ya Bo wanted to ignore Yun Huaxia but there was a sudden increase in pressure coming from them. The incoming human flew towards them. Yun Huaxia used the flying sword technique to confront the two demons. He wanted to distract them while he was writing a talisman in the air with his other hand.

Ya Bo could feel his wings numbing when he turned around he saw the frost on it spreading at a very fast pace.

"Bro! Burn my wings!!! That human wanted to turn me into ice!!!" screamed Ya Bo.

A ball of red flame flew toward Ya Bo's wings. The feeling of ice melting wasn't painful but Ya Bo can feel the ice spreading faster when he did that.

AAGGHHH!!

'No! This ice spreads faster when melted! I have to stop it with qi!' Thoughts of Ya Bo.

Gai Yin had no choice but to stop his pursuit seeing his brother's wings half covered in thick ice. He couldn't help but glare at Sect Master Bai Qiyin who caused this scene.

Sect Master Yun Huaxia took this opportunity and finished his talisman.

“Twin Water Dragons! Yin’er, Now!” shouted Yin Huaxia.

ROOAR~

After the two water dragons flew toward Devil Gai Yin and Ya Bo, Sect Master Bai Qiyin unleashed his sword intent. It was in the form of an ice phoenix and ordered it to fly after the two water dragons.

Seeing how dangerous the situation they are in Ya Bo pushed away his brother and brunt the attacks of the water dragons and ice phoenixes. After being cut by the water dragons, his body turned to ice at a very visible speed.

Gai Yin shrieks, “No~!!! Ya Bo!!!”

GYAAAA!!!

Ya Bo can only scream in pain when he turns into ice and then falls to the ground. He immediately dies within it after the ice breaks together with his body.

Devil Tanlan’s reaction to the death of his subordinate is only lukewarm. In his eyes, those who are weaker than he is are all dispensable.

“Oh~ Ya Bodies. That’s too bad. He was more useful than his stupid brother~” said Devil Tanlan.

Chun Hongyun-Jun frowned and said, “Do you not care for the life of your people?”

“In the infernal realm, only the strong can survive. If one dies it means that you are weak. That’s all~” said Tanlan with an evil smirk in the corner of his eyes.

Yun Xiajie didn’t retort or agree. He just stares at Tanlan coldly and expressionless.

“By the way~ you are holding back too much. What is wrong with you? Did you get weaker as you get older?~ hahaha,” said Tanlan.

Chun Hongyun-Jun said, “No... I’m just afraid that someone would be awakened by the noise of our fight.”

Suddenly Zhi Yang’s voice resounded in his head and said, ‘My Lord. He is awake. Yue’er told me they are on their way.’

“But it seems he still woke up regardless of my worries...” said Yun Xiajie.

Confused, Devil Tanlan tilted his head and said, “What do you mean?”

Suddenly Devil Gai Yin went berserk. Seeing his twin brother who had been born with him and protected him all this time die before his eyes made him crazy. His sanity slowly crumbles as his crimson irises slowly spread from his black pupils. He glares at Bai Qiyin as he knows that those water dragons aren’t enough for Ya Bo. Only that Ice Phoenix Sect Master Bai reaps the life of his twin brother.

AAAARRGGHH SHRRRIIEEKKSSS!!!

Suddenly a humongous skeletal crow replaced Gai Yin. It was an undead monster crow. Its size was twice larger than the forest. At first, the black barrier halted its increase in size but Gai Yin burned his life to temporarily increase his strength. Devils are a long-lived race when Gai Yin burns most of his life force his original cultivation of Early Golden Core strength greatly increased reaching Peak Soul Transformation Stage.

SHRRRIIEEEKKSSS!!!

The black barrier broke and the sound of glass shattering was heard. The Sect Masters thought it was broken by the huge skeletal crow in the sky but Yun Xiajie thought otherwise.

Yun Xiajie spoke, “Zhi Yang. Why did you break the barrier?”

Zhi Yue’s figure suddenly appeared behind Chun Hongyun-Jun and kneeled in the air. His sudden appearance startled Devil Tanlan making the sarcastic devil turn serious as he looked at Zhi Yang.

Devil Tanlan’s thoughts, ‘I didn’t notice this one appearing here? He is not human?’

“Answering Lord Ye’s question. This subordinate didn’t destroy the barrier intentionally but... Lord Hei felt cramped when the skeletal bird in the sky morphed and intentionally destroyed it with a wave of his hands. This subordinate is weaker than Lord Hei... Not capable of stopping the lord from doing so...” explained Zhi Yang.

A few minutes after Gai Yin returned to his normal form. Hei Anjing and Lu Yi were running across the dried forest when the moonlight suddenly eclipsed their heads. The sudden dimness spreads above them and the area feels cramped as the bird gets larger and larger.

Being suffocated in such a small place adding up the mixed scent of dead monster bodies, rotting blood and rotting bones made Hei Anjing’s silver eyes turn colder.

Lu Yi and Zhi Yue only heard him whisper a single word.

‘Repulsive’

Then ice under Hei Anjing’s feet spread so fast that Lu Yi and Zhi Yue couldn’t see. The next thing they heard was the sound of the barrier shattering. The three of them disappeared from that forest.

—

Back at the center of the forest...

The moment Gai Yin morphed into such a huge being, Sect Master Lu Er, Sect Master Jin Baihua, and Crown Prince Hong Longqing stood up in fright. That was the first time in their life that they had seen such a huge undead creature.

“What the hell is that!?” Exclaimed Sect Master Lu Er.

“Is that an undead!? How come it’s so big?” said the Crown Prince.

The small black viper sneaks a peek from Hong Longqing’s robe and pikes out his small black head from the collar area of the Crown Prince’s royal robes.

The black viper said, “That is Lord Gai Yin’s original form. The twin undead crows of the Infernal Realm. Gai Yin, and Ya Bo. But he is using his life force to increase his strength. He wouldn’t live past tonight.”

“Self Sacrifice?” whispered Crown Prince Hong Longqing.

The black viper shook its head, "No. It is self-implosion. It's too late to escape."

Gai Yin's crazed laughter echoed from the evening sky. His glowing red eyes were like a red fire flickering and was about to run out but his laughter didn't stop at all.

Hahahahahaha~

"I want you humans to die. All you humans should die. You killed my twin brother. It is right that you accompany us to death!!! Hahaha~" said Devil Gai Yin.

Once the size of Gai Yun keeps getting bigger and bigger, Devil Tanlan knows that this stupid subordinate of his didn't think of him when he planned to self-destruct.

Devil Tanlan cursed, "This stupid bone is trying to get even me killed! Dammit!"

When he was about to escape, Yun Xiajie noticed and wanted to stop him. Who would have thought that black chains suddenly reached from the ground and restrained the Devil of Greed, Tanlan, and pulled him to the ground? Everyone was startled by such an event.

Clang! Clang! Clang!

Stunned and taken in surprise, Devil Tanlan fell to the ground helplessly. He tries to move his body but the black chains on him become heavier as if a mountain was placed on his back. Suddenly he saw the corner of a black robe with ice snowflake shaped ice elements dancing around the black robe. He used all his strength to look up only to meet those mesmerizing yet glacial silver eyes.

The feeling of someone extremely powerful than him looking down on him like an ant made Tanlan barely able to breathe much less speak. But he couldn't move his eyes away from those exquisite silver irises as if it were the moon itself.

Hei Anjing teleported himself together with Lu Yi and Zhi Yue immediately after noticing what that huge thing above his head was planning to do.

"Yue, watch over this Devil. Though he can't escape from my chains, one couldn't say otherwise..." ordered Hei Anjing.

Zhi Yue, like a faithful servant, appeared as he was called. He stood beside the restricted Devil and lowered his head.

"As you wish my lord!"

Lu Yi had looked around for his younger brother and saw him covered in injuries. Though none of it was fatal, it also didn't look good to see.

"Dage? Why are you here?"

Sect Master Lu Er was shocked to see his brother running towards him full of strength. His former paleness faded as he looked like he returned to his normal state.

.....

Lu Er asked, "Is it because the barrier broke that you went in? No, if that's how coke you've arrived so fast."

"A'Wuan came with me. Come here. Eat these pills." said Lu Yi who brought out a blood coagulation pill to replenish the blood of Lu Er and heal his wounds. The second pill is the one Hei Anjing gave him. He without hesitation gave it to his younger brother.

"A'Wuan?"

In an instant, Lu Er's injuries all healed up. Lu Yi only gave Jin Baihua some ordinary pills. Though he wasn't fully healed like Lu Er the pain coming from his wounds was gone. Lu Yi gave him an ointment for his open wounds but did not give him the pill Hei Anjing gave to him. He saves the last pill for an emergency.

Chapter 763: 14.39 Last Violet Star – Calling his name.

The sudden arrival of Lu Yi surprised everyone but when they noticed the veiled Hei Anjing and Zhi Yue who wore the same clothes as Zhi Yang who appeared behind Yun Xiajie, everyone understood that they came together after the barrier was broken.

Chun Hongyun-Jun remained silent and stood in the corner watching Hei Anjing who was looking coldly at Gai Yin in the sky.

Lu Er said, "Brother Hei came too. Where is he?"

"There. He left to capture the devil," said Lu Yi nonchalantly.

Sect Master Lu who heard that Hei Anjing came to look around and saw him looking at the humongous skeletal creature above their heads.

Lu Er asked, "Dage, isn't that thing above our heads dangerous? I heard it wanted to self-destruct itself."

"Don't worry. A'Wuan is here. Chun Hongyun-Jun as well," said Lu Yi.

.....

Yun Huaxia and Bai Qiyin had also landed on the ground the moment Gai Yin had gone berserk. Bao Qiyin ran towards his brother leaving Yun Huaxia to have no other but to stand beside his younger brother who was silently watching Hei Anjing.

Bai Qiyin wanted to dive to hug his brother but a hand held his head preventing him from doing so.

"Eh? Eh? Brother, let me hug~" says Bai Qiyin.

Hei Anjing didn't speak but observed the irregular surge of Bai Qiyin's qi. He frowned for a moment and said, "Though adding elemental qi with sword intent is not a bad technique. The ratio of sword qi and elemental qi must be reached. You've roughly measured both and unleashed an ice phoenix sword intent. But it was so unstable that caused your sword intent and elemental qi to reject each other. Don't do such a stupid thing again!"

Scolded by his Senior Brother, Bai Qiyin could only lower his head as he received a flinch on his forehead as punishment.

Flicked!

(QAQ)

Hei Anjing said, "I'll scold you more later. Mediate at the side under the protection of your dao companion. I will clean things up here."

"Brother, do you remember?!" asked Bai Qiyin.

"Talk later. Go to the side. Now!" said Hei Anjing.

"Wuwu~ I will. I will be okay!" said Bai Qiyin as he ran back to where Sect Master Yun was and started meditating.

Suddenly, Gai Yin who noticed the new arrivals from the human side cannot avoid sneering at them. He didn't even notice his master, Tanlan tied up by black chains on the ground.

"More reinforcement? Good~ that means more human cultivators to die. Hahaha~ die mortals for killing my twin brother!!" said Gai Yin.

Hei Anjing murmured, "Winter, come forth."

He didn't even notice that the weather above Luan City had changed. In the middle of the night, snow suddenly started falling. Frost whom Gai Yin didn't notice before finally felt the piercing coldness throughout his bones and couldn't help shrieking in the evening sky.

Gai Yin mumbled "What is this? Snow?"

ARGH! AAGHHHH!!! SHRIEEKSS~

Under everyone's naked eyes they saw the snow that fell on Gai Yin slowly turning into ice. In just a few seconds parts of his bone body had been covered in ice. Seeing this Gai Yin looked down on the man with long black hair which was slowly turning white.

The land below his feet was covered in ice and snowflakes were dancing around him. His black robes made his already pale skin even whiter and only his lips had the shade of red. Like the sole cherry within the winter snow.

The snow falling above their heads gets stronger and all beings aside from humans were affected by coldness. Even the powerful Devil of Greed Tanlan was now covered in frost and was trembling nonstop as his limbs were constrained by black chains. He was unable to move but his human vessel is logically still affected by the coldness around him. His lips had long turned purple.

Gai Yin screams, "What are you? Who the hell are you? Why are you able to control the weather in the human world!?"

"I can't control the weather. But anything connected to ice is all under my control. This includes winter itself."

"It would be bad if you choose to self-destruct. I can only freeze you wholly and melt you into a mist," said Hei Anjing as his argent eyes suddenly glowed a silvery light and the ice on Gai Yin's body spread even faster.

Before the devil could even beg his whole giant self was encapsulated within the ice. He could no longer scream the moment the ice in his body moved. Under everyone's eyes, Gai Yin's body broke apart, and in the sky like numerous stars appearing it faded under the black heavens.

Once the huge skeletal monster disappeared the shadows covering them disappeared. The moonlight shined down illuminating the center of the forest but everyone's eyes fell on one man.

His long white hair flutters on his back like white silk, his silver eyes are like diamonds. Pure and tantalizing. Though half of his face was covered with a thin black veil, even a mute wouldn't deny his beauty. Unfortunately, his exquisite face was devoid of emotions. As if a living doll breathing yet no feelings.

Everyone instinctively held back their breathing the moment those eyes moved around them. Only it landed lasting on one person. Hei Anjing stares at this man with crimson irises. Yun Xiajie also stares at him.

No one breathed a word even Bai Jinhua wasn't stupid enough not to recognize the man before him.

His eyes widened with shock as he covered his mouth to hide his gasp. Within the depths of that peach blossom eyes were fear, disbelief, and astonishment. Who would expect the man who died more than ten years ago to come back alive and even more extremely powerful than before?

Meanwhile, Hei Anjing waves his hand to imprison Tanlan within the ice. He was frozen inside but not dead. He can breathe but cannot move. The black chains faded as he was frozen. But the ice itself was restraining his strength, Tanlan couldn't move at all inside the ice. Worse of all, the man who imprisoned him was not looking at him at all. He was ignored completely.

In Hei Anjing's head were countless sweet memories but sadly he could understand the feeling behind them. Only a sharp pain in his heart remains as if something inside was sealed away.

He used his godly powers while his divinity was sealed. The backlash was so much that Hei Anjing felt pain all over his soul but his high tolerance for pain just made him suffer from dizziness and lethargy.

Intuitively he calls the only name ringing in his dizzy head,

"A'Xia?"

After calling the name with all his heart, Hei Anjing's eyes slowly closed as his body tilted to fall down. His white hair once again turns black. He lost consciousness due to the backlash of using his divine powers in a mortal body. noveLuSB/C\o\m

"Finally... I found you, my... Jing'er..." whimpered Yun Xiajie.

Everyone was shocked to see him falling but faster than anyone, even faster than Zhi Yue who is only an arm away from his master, Yun Xiajie caught Hei Anjing within his embrace. He hugged him tightly and everyone could see his tears falling. Everyone felt tense and awkward. This was the first time in ten years or so that they'd seen a clear emotion on Xhun Hongyun-Jun's face.

After Bai Wuan's death, Yun Xiajie disappeared. Everyone says he lost his mind saying he was looking at every corner of the mortal realm for the reincarnation of his deceased lover. Everyone felt devastated especially his family and Sect. Until one day, he came back but as if he lost his soul he no longer showed any emotions on his face unless he was angered greatly and lost his temper. He buried himself with duties within the sect and even if Yun Huaxia tried to stop him from working, he would just leave the sect to help with external problems.

Because of this, Chun Hongyun-Jun was considered a savior in the Mortal Realm. He helps with subduing undead and ghosts, solving mysteries, and even killing monsters and mutated beasts. He worked himself to the bone that Yun Huaxia as his elder brother could only bring him back to the sect and allow him to continue his duties. At least within the sect, he can still control his madness for work. He can watch him eat and sleep on time. Even resting disappeared from this man's daily life.

Now after waiting all this time, the person he had been waiting for had come back to his side. The oath the two had promised before had been continued in the next life of Bai Wuan.

Sect Master Yun upon seeing his brother's state had ordered him to go back to the sect with their disciples. Bai Qiyin was at first against it. Even though his Senior Brother was no longer called Bai Wuan and instead Hei Wuan, the soul remains the same. For him, Hei Anjing is still his Senior Brother Bai Anjing. He wanted to bring back home his brother but was shot down by Yun Xiajie. He was given a death glare and an extremely fierce one that he could only hide behind his dao companion. In the end, Hei Anjing was brought away by Chun Hongyun-Jun.

The matter of cleaning up the scene was left to the Sect Masters of the alliance. They stayed all awake that night and the frozen Tanlan was brought back to the territory of the Lu Weifeng Sect.

The result of this event was all reported to the elders of each sect. But only the (Blue Fleeting Cloud Sect) Lan Zhuayun Sect received a report with extra information.

—

Former Sect Master Yun. Father of Yun Xiajie and Yun Huaxia, Yun Huajie. Courtesy name: Yun Huye.

Former Great Elder of the (Blue Fleeting Cloud Sect) Lan Zhuayun Sect and younger brother of the old sect master, Yun Xiayu. Courtesy name: Yun Xiarou.

—

These two received the information about Hei Anjing's return to the mortal realm and that their youngest descendant, Yun Xiajie is bringing home his future dao companion. But they've also heard about the circumstances of Hei Anjing. The fact that he couldn't clearly remember anything of his past life and he lost his feelings of emotions.

The time they've got the letter from the current Sect Master Yun, Yun Huaxia.

At the pavilion within the (Blue Fleeting Cloud Sect) Lan Zhuayun Sect's territory...

Old Sect Master Yun and the former Great Elder were playing chess surrounded by luscious green bamboo. There is also a steaming tea prepared for them to take. They were wearing the same mourning-like white robes with cloud patterns and their white beards were covering half of their faces.

The Former Great Elder Yun said, "Brother you can't take back the stone you've put on the board!"

“It hasn’t landed yet. That was just my finger stretching on the board. I wasn’t cheating!” said Old Sect Master Yun.

Hmp!

“I don’t want to play anymore!”

The two old men were fighting like children until a messenger bird landed on their chess board completely destroying their game.

The Former Great Elder Yun grabbed the pigeon with an angered face, “You bird! How could you destroy my winning game!”

“Hahaha~ come one little brother. How can you be sure you are going to win if we hadn’t finished the game at all.” said the Old Sect Master Yun.

Hmp!

“Is this the report from Huaxia? Jieye is with him, there is no way something happened right?” said Yun Xiayu, the former great elder of the Bai Lengshui Sect.

A frown appeared on the Old Sect Master, Yun Huajie’s face, and said, “What did it say?”

Yun Xiayu unrolled the message after seeing that it was personally written by his eldest nephew. He was calm in the beginning, he frowned when he got to the part where the devil race had appeared and a shocked but excited expression appeared on his face when he read that last paragraph.

“B-Brother... Brother... He... He... That child... That child is back!!!” Exclaimed Yun Xiayu even forgetting the rules of his own sect.

Chapter 764: 14.40 Last Violet Star – Flying Ship

The (Blue Fleeting Cloud Sect) Lan Zhuayun Sect was well-known for its practice of discipline and manners. Their sect follows more than a thousand rules and this itself was all followed by the disciples of the Sect.

Because of this tradition, most disciples in this sect were all well-mannered and disciplined. The (Blue Fleeting Cloud Sect) Lan Zhuayun Sect is considered as a place where immortals were made. According to the history of human cultivators, a lot of Gods ascended from this sect.

The God of Judgement was said to come from this sect and even those in the ice royal jade palace in Heavenly knows the hidden secret of the royal family. The immortal emperor used to be the first mortal to become immortal and his origins were the (Blue Fleeting Cloud Sect) Lan Zhuayun Sect.

Their sect is so famous that their discipline when it comes to cultivation is very strict. But because of this, their sect was considered the most righteous one among all other sects.

Ten years ago the other sects had seen that the people of the (Blue Fleeting Cloud Sect) Lan Zhuayun Sect were also humans. Because the Old Sect Master Yun was the first vessel that the Devil of Envy, Jidu, used to possess before Bai Wuan of the (White Frozen Water Sect) Bai Lengshui Sect absorb the devil’s soul to his body and ask Yun Xiajie to help killed himself.

Because of this event, Old Sect Master Yun Huajie was saved and the person who died in his place was Bai Wuan.

Now hearing that Bai Wuan has come back alive from the letter of his eldest son which his younger brother had read first shocked him to the core. He could still hear Yun Xiayu's voice lingering in his ears saying,

.....

"B-Brother... Brother... He... He... That child... That child is back!!!" said the Old Great Elder of the (Blue Fleeting Cloud Sect) Lan Zhuayun Sect.

Old Sect Master Yun Huajie took the letter from his brother's hand and read it himself. His hands were shaking as he read what was written by his son. The news about the event in the south was resolved. The only problem is that the devil race once again surfaces in their mortal realm.

But his eyes did not linger on that part of the message, instead on the last paragraph. He was in denial until he read the paragraph word by word.

"Father, I'm sure you will be surprised by this news. I will tell you now since Jieye and he is already on their way back... Bai Wuan is back but his name is now Hei Wuan. Once you see him yourself you would definitely recognize him. But there is a small problem, A'Wuan seems to have forgotten his memories about his past life. There are parts he can remember but the biggest problem is that he lost his emotions as a human. This is because A'Wuan is an Immortal who had descended from the Upper Realms."

"We don't know why that happens but... We can only ask him when he wakes up. Jieye will be there soon. I leave the rest to father and uncle. A'Wuan had lost consciousness after capturing the Devil of Greed. Please leave the things here to me. This son would be back soon after things had been solved."

The Old Sect Master and Old Great Elder looked at each other. They did not expect that Bai Wuan's real identity is that of an Immortal from the Heavenly Realm.

The Old Great Elder, Yun Xiayu said, "No wonder that child promised Jieye that he would be back even after he died. Because even if he died he would still come back to life as he was originally an immortal."

"Sigh~ to think I have a daughter-in-law who is immortal. I don't know if this is a coincidence or fate. Now the devils are coming out and A'Wuan once again descended, this time as God. For some reason I feel that everything is changing too fast," said the Old Sect Master Yun Huajie.

"Either way... For now, let's prepare the welcome of A'Wuan."

"Leave it to me, Brother. I will ask the sect to prepare for a banquet. But since A'Wuan is still unconscious, I wouldn't tell them to cook for now."

"Then I will leave it to you. I will have someone arrange Jieye's place and prepare some necessities for him there."

Only then the two old men separated and started making preparations for Hei Anjing's arrival.

—

Meanwhile, Yun Xiajie and Hei Anjing together with the young disciples of the (Blue Fleeting Cloud Sect) Lan Zhuayun Sect. They were riding a flying ship prepared by Zhi Yue and Zhi Yang from Hei Anjing's possession and left the rest to ride with them.

Yun Xiajie was staying in the Master's bedroom looking after Hei Anjing who lost consciousness. He could see his beloved's skin had traces of cracking and his qi kept it from breaking. A bit of aura made of divinity was leaking from those cracks making him even more worried than seeing Hei Anjing faint. Standing by the side of them was Zhi Yue who was waiting for orders.

Yun Xiajie's expression is not good. He is holding onto the hand of Hei Anjing as he sits on the edge of the bed.

"Zhi Yue, what is happening to him?" asked Chun Hongyun-Jun.

Zhi Yue trembled for a bit when he heard his lord's cold voice yet full of worry.

"Answering Lord Ye's question, this is because Lord Hei's current body is only that of a human. Though he possesses a constitution stronger than any human it would still break once he uses his divine powers as a God. Before he descended on this realm, the heavenly laws sealed the divinity his body possessed and it would take a few months to convert it to one which would allow him to wield his divine powers. He used his God's Domain just now but his body is just human so, his vessel is currently rejecting his body. He entered a deep sleep to heal his vessel." answered Zhi Yue.

Chun Hongyun-Jun finally understands his beloved's situation.

Yun Xiajie asked, "How long would he need to sleep?"

"Lord Hei only used his domain for a few seconds and within a limited space. He would need at least 2-3 days to sleep," said Zhi Yue.

"I see. That's good," said Yun Xiajie.

Once their conversation ended the atmosphere in the room turned serious and too quiet. It made Zhi Yue uncomfortable and wanted to find Zhi Yang. He was crying inside while looking so servile on the surface.

Zhi Yue's thoughts, 'A'Yang save me! This kind of Lord God is too depressing~ (QWQ)'

Before Zhi Yue died from stress, Lord God Ye started talking to him once again.

Yun Xiajie spoke, "Yang said you had descended together with Jing'er from the Upper Realm. Does that mean you know what happened to him in that place?"

"Yes, my lord," answered Zhi Yue.

"Are you allowed to tell me about it?" he asked with a bit of confusion. After all, the difference between Hei Anjing and his standing is different.

One is an immortal above all beings and the other is just a mortal who is strong among all mortals.

Zhi Yue said, "I was ordered by Lord Hei to answer anything the lord will ask. Lord Hei never had any intention of hiding from Lord God Ye."

“Lord God Ye? Are you talking about me?” asked Yun Xiajie.

These kinds of questions made Zhi Yue panic for a moment. He looked like a cat whose tail was accidentally stepped on.

‘Damn! This tongue of mine!’ Thoughts of Zhi Yue.

Gulps!

Zhi Yue pretended to hear wrong things and said, “Lord Yun is hearing things. This subordinate had called my lord, Lord Yun.”

Chun Hongyun-Jun stared at Zhi Yue who stood before his eyes like a statue and wasn’t even willing to meet his eyes as he kept his head lowered. He knew that he wouldn’t be able to force the man to tell him a few things and decided to act the way the latter wanted him.

Yun Xiajie says, “If that’s what you say then it would be. Then I want you to tell me about Jing’er’s life in the Immortal Realm. You should at least know what happened to him after he died in the mortal realm. I want to know about that and why those who had died like the former Sect Master of (White Frozen Water Sect) Bai Lengshui Sect and his madam as well as my uncle, Yun Xiayu were all able to come back alive after dying under the hands of Devil Jidu ten years ago.”

Zhi Yue started his explanation.

“Then Lord Ye should first know about Lord Hei’s real identity in the Upper Realm. My lord’s real name hasn’t changed. The only difference is that he was born as a Hei and used the surname Bai after he was adopted by an old couple of the Bai Family in the mortal realm.”

“He is Hei Anjing. His title in the Heavenly realm is His Highness, King Wuan. He is the God of Punishment of this world and... The youngest son of the Immortal Emperor.”

“Lord Hei is a pureblood immortal.”

Zhi Yue expected Yun Xiajie, this amnesiac God of Judgment to be surprised when he heard about Lord Hei’s identity in this world. After all, he believes that he is nothing but a mortal right now. But the surprised look he was anticipating didn’t happen and so he asked the latter why his face remained apathetic upon hearing this truth.

“Are you not surprised about this, Lord Yun?” asked Zhi Yue.

Yun Xiajie slightly shook his head and looked at his sleeping lover with a gentle gaze.

“No. Only that kind of standing fits him. The others believe he is an orphan with no one to back him up. His talents are above anyone in this human world. The others could help but be in awe and envious. On the other hand, Jing’er had never once put them in his sight. Even if he cares for Bai Ying and Lu Tian since they are his sworn brother and childhood friend, his gaze was always beyond what the mortal world possesses and nothing in this world is able to enter his eyes. So on that day, he chooses to die... When he promised me he would come back... I’ve already somewhat guessed his identity,” said Yun Xiajie.

Zhi Yue smiled and said, “Lord Yun is wrong about one thing. In this mortal realm, it is true that no one was able to enter his eyes. But when Lord Hei met you, you became the sole being who was able to enter his world.”

“I know. He always... indirectly tells me this.” said Yun Xiajie then he asked, “Can you tell me what happened in the Upper Realm?”

Zhi Yue nods his head.

“I’ve only witnessed what happened after Lord Hei had to wake up. But I’ve investigated what happened before Lord Hei came out of Purgatory.”

Yun Xiajie didn’t like the word ‘Purgatory’ for some reason. A rare frown appeared on his face and asked, “What is this Purgatory?”

“Purgatory is the only demised realm the Upper World possesses. This is where... Where sinners regardless of whether they are gods or mortals ended up going. It is the land of torture,” answered Zhi Yue.

His voice gets lower and smaller as he notices Yun Xiajie’s face becoming darker with every word he says about purgatory.

“Why did he end up in Purgatory!?” shouted Yun Xiajie.

Chun Hongyun-Jun exclaimed with rage his aura as the strongest man in the mortal realm spread within the whole flying boat causing tremors in the sky.

Rumbles~

The flying ship was shaking as Yun Xiajie was in a rage. It shook badly that Yun Fan who was afraid of extreme heights could only hug Du Sang while trembling.

At the open area of the boat...

Yun Fan screamed, “Ah!!! The ship is falling!! It’s falling~~~ Sang’er save me!!!”

Du Sang hugged him back but Yun Anjie slapped the back of his head in anger.

Yun Anjie says, “Don’t say such unlucky words!”

“A’Fan, don’t worry it won’t fall. Moreover, we have four seniors with us. We will be alright,” said Du Sang.

Zhi Yang, who was controlling the flying ship, looked at the closed doors of the Master’s bedroom. He can feel the rage of Lord God Ye.

“Why is he making Lord Ye angry? Sigh~ that idiot,” mumbled Zhi Yang.

Chapter 765: 14.41 Last Violet Star – (Blue Fleeting Cloud Sect) Lan Zhuayun Sect

Rumbles~ RUMBLES~

The flying ship kept shaking as Yun Xiajie was in a rage. His aura continued to spread making his surroundings shake even Zhi Yue felt instinctive fear whenever the Lord God was angry. But his eyes accidentally wander to the shaking bed which made him realize the only way to curb Lord God Ye's anger.

Zhi Yue said urgently, "My lord! Lord Yun! Calm down, please! Lord Hei is still sleeping!!"

Yun Xiajie immediately took back his aura and looked at his beloved on the bed. The shaking made the blanket covering his Jing'er fall down to his legs even though his arm was out of place. He stood and helped his beloved return to his usual position even pulling up the blanket that fell to his legs.

He keeps looking at his lover as he helps him swipe the stray hair that covers his cheeks. Then look guilty that he had disturbed his beloved's slumber.

Yun Xiajie spoke, "Are you telling me, Jing'er was in purgatory for ten years and just recently got out of it?"

"Yes. Lord Hei was in Purgatory all this time. Just recently, the Immortal Empress had gotten the imperial court to get her son out of that place. Together with the eldest king and his other half, they brought out Lord Hei."

.....

"Please don't take it wrong. Though it was the order of the Immortal Emperor that Lord Hei ended up in Purgatory, the hall of righteousness originally wanted him to get punished with banishment and destroy his divinity. By doing so, Lord Hei would perish beyond what this world has. To protect Lord Hei he could only punish him by entering purgatory and this is something Lord Hei had suggested himself. Because banishment means he would be forced to leave this star and live a life as a Stray God."

"Lord Hei did not want to leave this star and choose to enter the purgatory itself."

Yun Xiajie asked, "If he was stripped of his divinity and left this star would he be able to survive?"

"Yes. After all, Lord Hei is a God unrestricted by anything in this world unless he allows them to restrain him," answered Zhi Yue.

Yun Xiajie as if knowing the reason why his beloved chose to stay in this world made his heart uncomfortable. If there is one being that tied him up in this star then it can only be him. The oath bearer whom he had promised to.

Seeing that the Lord God had stopped asking Zhi Yue to tell him what he knows about Lord Hei's life in the Upper Realm because he knows that the latter is still listening.

"Before Lord Hei descended the lands of mortals as Bai Wuan, he and the god of punishment were summoned to the Imperial Palace. In which the two had received their duties which can only be fulfilled when they enter the mortal realm."

"As the God of Punishment and God of Judgement, their role is to keep the peace between the three realms. They had to descend because of the news of the Devil Race wanting to invade the Mortal Realm. But in order to do that without wasting time for their bodies to be converted they were reincarnated as a mortal. King Wuan was reborn as Bai Wuan of the (White Frozen Water Sect) Bai Lengshui Sect."

“Of course, they were reborn without their memories as immortals. Only their mission was left imprinted in their souls. So their mission is to kill the vessel of any Devils who would come to the mortal realm. Lord Hei had been killing the vessels of the lesser devils who entered your world. Only...”

Yun Xiajie knew the following words after what Zhi Yue would say next and said, “He felt that the devil race had trapped him and used the person who is the most important to him in this world, which is me. The Devil Race targets the humans in the (Blue Fleeting Cloud Sect) Lan Zhuayun Sect and among all the humans the devils seduced, my father was the one who ended up getting bewitched and Jing’er couldn’t just kill him because of me.”

“In the end, to complete his mission, he absorbed the devil’s soul into his body and asked me to kill him. This way he would be able to complete his mission without harming my father.” novelusb/c/o/m

“If this is the case, why did he still get punished? Didn’t he complete his mission?” asked Yun Xiajie.

Zhi Yue said, “He did complete his mission, but the first thing he did after returning to the Heavenly Realm is to steal all the souls of the mortals from the underworld of those who died because of him and threw them all to the reincarnation pool and helped them resume their life before they’ve died. He broke the rules of the heavens and destroyed the book of life and death so those whom he revived wouldn’t get pulled back to the underworld as their names were all removed from the list of dead souls. Immortals who get involved with mortals for self-justification is a taboo. He got punished because he did this and was thrown to Purgatory as punishment for 10 years in accordance with the time of the mortal realm.”

“The reason my uncle, my sect members, and his foster clan all come back to life is that he went against heaven. There is no need for him to do this! I never blame him for my uncle’s death. That was done by the demon cultivators who sided with the devils,” said Yun Xiajie.

Zhi Yue said, “That’s Lord Hei’s decision. He has never been one to change his decision because of others. It wouldn’t change even if Lord Yun got involved.”

“You weren’t able to stop him when he decided to absorb the devil’s soul from Lord Yun’s father. Stopping him from reviving the family who took good care of him and the people whom Lord Yun cares for, is also impossible.”

A helpless expression appeared on Yun Xiajie’s face because he knew that every word Zhi Yue had said was all fact.

Chun Hongyun-Jun said, “You are right, Yue. Jing’er is a very decisive person especially when it comes to his family and me.”

Zhi Yue said, “Lord Yun had nothing to worry about this time. Because after what happened the Imperial Empress had given those who are connected to Lord Hei and to Lord Yun a blessing that prevents the devil’s from getting involved with them. They wouldn’t be able to use the same plan as what they did in the past.”

“Though... If Lord Yun is planning to ascend back with Lord Hei, I hope the Lord would be prepared. The Imperial Emperor, Imperial Empress, Imperial King, and Imperial Queen were all quite well... Disappointed... No, it is more correct to say that they hate Lord Yun a bit because of what happened with Lord Hei. I hope you become a bit stronger than you planned to be before you ascended. The Imperial King and Imperial Queen wanted to beat you up. Do your best, my Lord! GANBATTE!” said Zhi Yue.

Yun Xiajie was a bit dazed. Before he could meet his in-laws he had longed to make them upset especially his brothers-in-law, he would need to get prepared to be beaten if he ever ascended to the upper realm.

“Hm. I need... to thicken my skin for a bit,” mumbled Yun Xiajie.

The flying boat was quite fast but Zhi Yang still controlled it at a speed that would allow Lord Hei to sleep peacefully. It still took half a day to get back to the territory of the (Blue Fleeting Cloud Sect) Lan Zhuayun Sect.

—

Arriving at the mountain ranges in the Western Lands...

The disciples of the (Blue Fleeting Cloud Sect) Lan Zhuayun Sect were quite startled to see a flying boat appear above their heads. The flying boat itself was quite large and was enough to cover a whole mountain peak.

Their arrival caused commotion among the disciples.

“What is that? Something is flying over?”

“Intruders? Let’s report to the elders!”

“Stop! Didn’t the elders announce the return of Chun Hongyun-Jun and his Dao Companion!? Prepare to accept the guests!”

“But the ship is flying away... Towards the direction where the Red Cloud Peak is located.”

“Then it must be Chun Hongyun-Jun as expected!”

Suddenly, they heard familiar voices coming from above them. Leaning at the edge of the ship looking down on the mountain are Yun Fan and the other young disciples.

Yun Fan shouted, “Guys! Look up! Look up, we are here!!! Hehehe~”

“Stop! Don’t lean too much! You’re going to fall off!!!” said Yun Anye.

“Ah!! It’s Yun Fan!”

“So enviable. I wanted to try riding a flying ship too!!!”

“A’Fan!! Senior Brother Anye!! Everyone, Welcome Back!!!”

“Hey! Go report to the elders! Chun Hongyun-Jun and the rest had returned!”

Yun Xiajie told Zhi Yang which mountain to stop. They’ve decided to stop at his peak first and allow his beloved to properly rest.

Zhi Yang followed his order and went to the red cloud peak which is owned by Yun Xiajie. On this mountain, only a few disciples live. Among the young disciples who were on the ship with them, Yun Anjie and Yun Fan were disciples of this peak. The others were disciples of the other peak and went to night hunt with Yun Anjie as the mission requirements.

Zhi Yang conjured a cloud and helped the ones on the ship to get down. They couldn't land the flying ship as there are no flat surfaces on the mountain. Once everyone had gotten off the ship, Zhi Yue minimized its size to a size he could hold in his hand and gave it to Lord Ye. This is a flying ship shared by the couple. It is natural to give it to Lord Ye for possession.

As soon as the clouds landed on the ground they disappeared in thin air. What welcomed them is a wooden courtyard made simple yet made up of the most expensive wood in the cultivation world even in the upper realm. This is because when Zhi Yang had descended he felt that the abode the Lord God lives in doesn't match his standing and rebuilt everything from scratch. The materials were all taken from the system mall and made sure to incorporate the designs which would be liked by his master, Lord Hei.

He knows that as long as Lord Hei likes it there is no way the Lord God would decline anything he would make for the master. As expected after hearing that the renovation is in preparation for Lord Hei's return, Chun Hongyun-Jun didn't decline the plans Zhi Yang had made.

Yun Xiajie wasn't surprised to see his father and uncle waiting in front of his courtyard. Their eyes didn't linger on him longer than 3 seconds as they stared at the sleeping man in his arms.

It was the Old Sect Master, Yun Huajie, who was wearing a poker face. Yun Xiayu, the former Great Elder who is looking so strict as always but within those golden eyes were delight, guilt, and doting emotions and expressions mixed up as they stare at the sleeping Hei Anjing.

Poker-faced Old Sect Master Yun Huajie said, "He must be tired. Bring him to rest, Jieye."

The young disciples greeted in unison. "Supreme Leader! Supreme Elder! Greetings."

"Father. Uncle. Forgive my inability to currently pay respect," said Yun Xiajie but he still bowed his head to show his manners.

Supreme Elder Yun Xiayu said, "We understand." Looking worriedly at Hei Anjing in his nephew's arms. "His soul hasn't stabilized within his current body. Let him rest, Jieye. Stay with A'Wuan until he wakes up until then you are forbidden from doing any work in the Sect."

"Yes, Uncle," responded Yun Xiajie.

"Jieye. You made the promise. You can never break it yourself. Our family owes A'Wuan too much. This old man would never forgive you if you hurt, A'Wuan," said Yun Huajie to his youngest child.

"He has always been my life. I will protect my life," replied Yun Xiajie to his father who nodded in acceptance to his words before leaving the place with Yun Xiayu and the young disciples who returned with him.

Chapter 766: 14.42 Last Violet Star – (White Frozen Water Sect) Bai Lengshui Sect

Hei Anjing keeps dreaming while in slumber. As if living for that moment, Hei Anjing opened his eyes and heard someone calling his courtesy name intimately.

“An’er? An’er? An’er, are you alright?” a gentle older male’s voice asked.

A stern yet pampering voice of a lady was heard next, “An’er Darling, are you really alright? If you are not feeling well Mother will summon the doctors.”

When Hei Anjing opened his eyes, the scene four pairs of aquamarine eyes were staring at him with worry. There are two ladies. One looks like a mature madam wearing a light blue robe with light make. Her hair is braided up on her head with a few ice lotus hair pieces attached to her braids. Sitting beside her is a gentle-looking handsome uncle. His features were soft and currently looks at him with worry the same as the madam beside him. They must be an old couple.

Seated to his left is a young lady who looks a younger version of the gorgeous madam he had seen when he opened his eyes. This young lady calls his dear brother.

The young lady had a similar appearance as the madam but she didn’t inherit her sharp features which made her look strict inside, she inherited her father’s gentle features making her look like a soft and friendly young lady.

“Dear elder brother, are you okay? It is like you’re dazed.”

.....

“Brother, are you sleepy? You keep reading those endless scrolls in the library. You should take a nap sometimes too!” said the young man on his right.

This young man is handsome and looks exactly like the old gentleman that seems to be his father. But he inherited his mother’s sharp features making him look a bit grumpy and cold-faced. Hei Anjing immediately recognized who this young man in a blue robe was. He had met him at the Li Weifeng Sect’s Territory when they came over to his temporary courtyard uninvited. This young man is the younger version of Bai Qiyin. noveLusBdotc\o\m

Hei Anjing was about to speak when his mouth moved on its own. He was in a body hut unfortunately the control over it wasn’t under him. He can only watch himself speak on his own.

“I’m fine, Mother, Father, Xiao Lili, and Qiqi. Might be a bit tired. I shall take a short rest after the meal.”

That was what the vessel he is in now said, after seeing these people and recalling a few memories he got from that white space, Hei Anjing realized that this must be a part of his missing memories of his previous life. His life as Bai Anjing, whose courtesy name was Bai Wuan, and the eldest disciple of the (White Frozen Water Sect) Bai Lengshui Sect.

This is a scene from an event more than ten years ago in the past. At this time, the current Sect Master wasn’t Bai Qiyin yet but instead his foster father Bai Yuyan.

Sect Master Bai Yuyan said with his usual gentle smile.

“You should take the rest of the day, An’er. My mother and I aren’t too busy today. We can do the work our sect has piled up.”

“An’er, your father is right. Because mother had to enter seclusion with your father all of the sudden that we’ve left the sect affairs to you children. Now that we come out we shall resume our duties. Rest well, An’er,” said Madam Bai with a small smile on the corner of her lips making her usual cold aura fade softly.

Unlike Yun Huaxia’s almost permanent soft and friendly smile, Bai Yuyan’s face is natural. His nature is kind and serious. While Madam Bai is well known as the Ice Queen of their sect because she only smiles in front of her husband and children.

Bai Wuan says, “It’s okay. It’s not that much work anyway.”

“How could you say it’s not much? Those towering piles of paper scrolls almost buried brother countless times at night,” murmured the young Bai Qiyin.

Bewildered Bai Lili said, “Isn’t that because Yin-gege keeps playing with it when you are bored that it toppled multiple times? Yin-gege wasn’t even helping Dear Elder brother do the job and you are always asleep all the time.”

“H-Hey! You talk too much!” said young master Bai

The Young Bai Qiyin panicked for a moment and tried to cover his younger sister’s mouth. Unfortunately, she seats directly opposite where he is and there is a table of food separating the two of them.

“Qiqi, how many times did Mom tell you to learn from your elder brother? You are the next Sect Master of the (White Frozen Water Sect) Bai Lengshui Sect. You can grow up uneducated about the affairs of our clan’s affairs!”

Madam Bai lost her smile at this moment. The heir of their Sect is Bai Qiyin. Even if Bai Wuan is the eldest disciple and he is an adopted son, he cannot become the Sect Master of the (White Frozen Water Sect) Bai Lengshui Sect. But it was Bai Wuan who helped Bai Qiyin fully awaken his special constitution.

Bai Qiyin who was born with the Nine Yin Meridians Physique was about to die of coldness. This is a rare constitution that is only found in female babies of the Bai Bloodline. If a girl was born with it, they would be able to control ice elements as easily as breathing and their cultivation journey would be smoother and unhindered than the others.

But if a boy was born with it, they can only wait to die. Males were born with yangs. They can never be affiliated with Yin. Moreover, only Gods and Goddesses from the Upper Realm had ways to put the Yin qi in their bodies under control but even that is hard to achieve. Bai Qiyin was extremely lucky because he met Bai Wuan who is an immortal and a possessor of a Yin Physique like his. So he had a technique that can convert his yang to the yin and allowed his vessel to store Yin qi. Though the male who possesses a Yin Physique would be born with weaker bodies they are undefeated in water and ice fields.

Bai Qiyin pouted and said, “Why can’t Brother inherit it instead? He is so talented and still chooses me instead.”

“That’s impossible. Brother is lazy. That was an emergency so I took over. I wanted to leave it to you but you always go out for outside missions that I had to do your job for you. Now this is good timing, you can finish the rest of the paperwork and brother will take a nap,” said Bai Wuan with an evil smile on his beautiful face.

Sect Master Bai nods his head in agreement, “That’s a good suggestion. Qi’er does the rest of your brother’s job.”

“Don’t worry Yin-gege, Lili will help too!” said Bai Lili.

Madam Bai happily said, “Then Mom will supervise your work.”

The young Bai Qiyin felt like he had fallen into a nightmare seeing his parents’ and sister’s smiles. He grabbed his brother’s sleeves wanting to ask for help.

“B-Brother, save me~”

“Nope. Don’t forget to continue your sword training after your duties are okay~” said Hei Anjing with an evil smile.

With tears gathering in the corner of his eyes, Bai Qiyin grabbed his hair and screamed, “NOooo~!!!”

“Well~ save the joke aside. An’er can you bring your siblings with you to the west and join the Clans and Sects exchange this upcoming weekend? This time the sect in schedule is the (Blue Fleeting Cloud Sect) Lan Zhuayun Sect,” said Sect Master Bai.

Bai Wuan spoke, “This disciple doesn’t mind, but... what should be done with the Xie Sect?”

“That Xia Sect had been blowing their horns ever since their Clan Leader reached the Nascent Soul Stage! Did that old man Xie believe that he could prevent everyone from reaching the same stage!?” complains Madam Bai.

Bai Wuan said, “Mother, please calm down.”

Sigh~

“Pardon me.”

Sect Master Bai comforted his wife whose heart was in a rage. The Xie Clan tyranny had started to be out of control ever since their Clan Leader became the current strongest cultivator in their cultivation world. Even the current sect leaders and old ancestors of the following clans only had the strength of the Golden Core Stage. Sect Master Bai and Madam Bai are among those cultivators at Golden Core Stage. With the Sect Leader at the peak stage and the madam at mid-stage. They were quite strong themselves.

What was surprising is that Bai Wuan, as young as he is, is also at the same stage though only at an early step. He is among the youngest generation who have been deemed too talented for their age.

Bai Wuan finished his meal and put down his chopsticks. After wiping his mouth with a clean cloth, he continued to speak about the situation with the Xie Clan.

“While father and mother were in seclusion, this disciple had sent people to scout the Xie Clan. It wasn’t easy and some of them lost contact as they’ve suicide to hide their origins. The most recent information

I got from them was something even this child couldn't believe. I would like to officially report about the rest in the office if possible," said Bai Wuan.

Sect Master Bai said, "Let's move into my office then. Are you done with your meals?"

"I'm full, father. There are no worries," answered Bai Wuan.

Sect Master Bai Yuyan stood up and said, "Follow me into my office then."

"Yes, Sect Master!" said Bai Wuan.

Only after Bai Yuyan and Bai Wuan had left the dining hall that the other three were able to speak. The atmosphere in the hall turned serious when Bai Wuan mentioned the Xie Clan. The young Bai Qiyin and Bai Lili know about the Xie Clan but not as much as their elder brother knew. But rumors that Clan's tyranny had been wild spread in the lands of mortals. Almost every big city knows about them.

Madam Bai also wanted to hear what the eldest child wanted to report. She finished her meals ahead of the other children and prepared to leave.

"Qiqi, Lili, go to the library and continue the paper works your brother left behind. Mom will check it before dinner."

"Eh!?But Mom! Even if Brother finished most of it, there is still a lot left to do... There is no way I and Lili can finish it all before dinner," said the Young Bai Qiyin.

Madam Bai said, "Of course, mom is not expecting you two to finish it. Just get a part of it done and leave the rest to me. Just don't be too lazy and leave too much to work on. Your elder brother can't always be with you. You must at least learn how to stabilize the Sect even if we three are gone. Especially Qiyin, never forget that you are the next in line to your father's position. Your brother would never sit in that position no matter what happens, you know that, don't you?"

"Yes. Because the brother does not possess the bloodline as the direct descendant of the (White Frozen Water Sect) Bai Lengshui Sect. He is only an observer of our clan and our current guardian," responded Bai Qiyin.

Madam Bai smiled and pats her son's shoulder, "The duty of your brother is to protect you and Lili. As for leading the clan, that is your responsibility as a Bai. This is the position your father, I, and your brother wish for you to inherit. Do your best, Qiqi."

"I will not disappoint my father, mother, and brother!" said Bai Qiyin.

Madam Bai said, "That's good. By the way, your father and I had chosen a dao companion candidate for you. Hoho~ this child is very talented. He is as strong as your elder brother but he is a bit older than him. Just a few years though, it shouldn't matter. You should be able to meet him in the Clans and Sects exchange this weekend. Make sure to greet him properly okay? His birth name is Yun Huaxia and his courtesy name is Yun Huaye. He is the eldest son of the Sect Master Yun from the west. The Eldest Young Lord of the (Blue Fleeting Cloud Sect) Lan Zhuayun Sect. Get along well~"

Only then did Madam Bai leave the dining hall to follow her husband and eldest son into the office leaving Bai Qiyin uncomfortable after being informed of his blind date's identity.

Bai Qiyin mumbled with a red face and fierce expression, "Why do I get to get involved with blind dates when my brother himself doesn't even have one!?"

"That's because... Dear elder brother says he would only consider if there is someone who is the same age as him with the same strength as he does because of this Mom and Dad were having a hard time looking for a candidate for Dao Companion because of this requirement while Yin-gege's requirement is to have a dao companion which is as strong as Dear elder brother which is much easier to look than what Dear Elder Brother had requested," said Bai Lili.

"AHhhh~ my head hurts~," said Bai Qiyin.

Chapter 767: 14.43 Last Violet Star – (Past) Arrival at the Western City

At the North City...

Bai Lengshui Sect's Territory

Sect Master's Office

The office of Sect Master Bai Yuyan had a simple layout. There's a tea table at the center of the room and the two opposite side walls were opened. The whole room is surrounded by a cold pond with numerous ice lotus flowers floating above the pond. The north and south walls were left open, with the south as the entrance and the north as an open viewing area of the ice lotus pond.

On the west wall are a few shelves full of books and scrolls. On the east wall is some weapons shelf for the Sect Master's use. His personal sword and spare weapons as well as his flutes were neatly arranged in this area.

The father and son sat at the table and Bai Wuan served tea to three people.

Sect Master Bai Yuyan asked, "You've served three cups. Are you waiting for a guest to join us?"

.....

"Yes, but not a guest. A family member. Right, Mother?" said Bai Wuan as he looked behind his father.

Madam Bai morphed from a small swirl of snowflakes and reached out her slender hand while holding the sleeve of her left hand and sat beside her husband.

"My eldest still has the sharpest senses as always. This old man of ours didn't even notice me coming over~" said Madam Bai as she slowly sip the tea her son had served on the table.

With a wave of Bai Wuan's hand, a few small-sized moon cakes appeared on the table.

Bai Wuan said, "Mother can have these moon cakes as snacks as well. I've made it recently."

"Hm~ delicious. Your pastries and sweets are top-notch. Before you leave, make some more snacks for mother," said Madam Bai while enjoying the moon cakes and even reaching out to serve her husband.

"Dear, try it~ it's good!"

Sect Master Bai Yuyan helplessly smiled at his wife and eldest son's actions. He opened his mouth and let his wife feed him. The moon cakes were freshly baked warm and soft. It melted instantly on his tongue. It wasn't too sweet, just a bit mild, there was a bit of rose and milk taste.

"It is indeed not bad. Wife, give me one more," said Bai Yuyan.

Madam Bai smiled and fed her husband as he wished. She had always enjoyed pampering this silly and naive husband of hers.

Bai Wuan covered his face with a white fan and said, "Oh please! Please spare this bachelor of such overwhelming sweetness~"

"Hmm~ it wouldn't be a problem if An'er finds his own other half. There is no need to pressure yourself with your missions. Mother wants you to enjoy your life too. At least relax while you are in this realm," said Madam Bai.

Bai Wuan was a bit startled when suddenly the control of his body loosen and Hei Anjing who was resting inside took over. Immediately his expression faded into nothing as his fan closed and looked at the couple smiling at him.

"You know... I am not him?" asked Hei Anjing.

Madam Bai reached out her hand and helped Hei Anjing move his stray hair to the back of his ears. He stiffened for a moment because of the sudden closure but instinctively trusted this lady's presence as well as the gentleman seated opposite of him.

Chuckles~

Sect Master Yuyan said, "To say you are not him is wrong. Since you and An'er are the same person. At least your soul had been the same in my eyes."

His eyes glowed in slight gold, Hei Anjing knew that this gentleman before him had fully opened heavenly eyes. Only then did he realize that the whole Bai Clan is connected to the Upper Realm to be exact they are connected to the lineage of his mother, the Imperial Empress.

"An'er... You must have suffered a lot. For you to lose your emotions all of the sudden. But don't worry our White (Bai) Clan knows the way to solve the curse of the Hei Family's bloodline," said Madam Bai, Xue Wuyue, who held his right hand which was supposed to holding a teacup.

Hei Anjing asked, "Why should I believe you?"

"Because we are the Guardian of the Xue Clan and I am your mother's younger sister. In short, I am your maternal aunt," said Madam Bai.

Bewildered, Hei Anjing asked, "But you are a mortal... Wouldn't you die once in the past?"

"Well, that was fated. We need to report to the Underworld once every decade. We also need to have a sufficient reason to return so... That happened... or will happen in the future based on the current timeline. Though our children don't know about this yet. They were recently born after all," said Sect Master Yuyan.

Madam Bai, Xue Wuyue said, "Okay. This is not what is important right now. Mother can help you get back your emotions. Come meet me and father together with that chosen dao companion of yours. What was his name again? X-Xia... Ye Xiajie! That's right, that's his name. Wait, it's rude to drop the boy's birth name without permission so what is his courtesy name again?"

"Jieye. Yun Jieye. Please don't get his surname wrong. He is from the (Blue Fleeting Cloud Sect) Lan Zhuayun Sect. You should know about him. The younger brother of Qiqi's blind date," said Hei Anjing.

Madam Bai's words paused for a few seconds and smiled at his son. She seems to have noticed something yet she decided to act like she didn't notice it at all.

"I see~ so my sons~ hooked up the two heirs of the (Blue Fleeting Cloud Sect) Lan Zhuayun Sect. As expected of my children~"

"For some reason, I feel that those brats are stealing my daughters instead of sons," mumbled Sect Master Bai.

He groaned when his wife suddenly elbowed his tummy.

Urg!

Madam Bai said, "An'er be sure to come to meet mother and father when you woke up and bring that lad with you."

Hei Anjing unconsciously nods his head and stares at the smiling kind couple before him.

Sect Master Bai Yuyan said, "Though you might have seen this memory yourself already, do you still want to experience it again, An'er?"

"Of course, he would~ my An'er should be having his first meeting with his dao companion in this timeline. Darling, are you excited?" said Madam Bai.

He didn't reply and averted his eyes obviously didn't want to answer her question. Madam Bai wanted to continue teasing her nephew but had to stop as the memories were distorting to a new scene.

Madam Bai said, "Well then... See him for yourself~"

Hei Anjing felt that his surroundings turned dark once again. Meanwhile, after Hei Anjing disappeared in front of them, the Bai Couple lean at each other. They can only use this way to meet their eldest son in reality. They noticed the changes in their recently revived son.

Madam Bai said, "Sigh~ this is not bad yet not good either. Not only he lost his emotions part of his memories in his past life as an immortal and a mortal was missing."

With a dark expression on his face, "He stayed in Purgatory for that long. It isn't impossible to lose a few memories. That place is hellish even if he tolerated the pain the process of torture is still there," said Sect Master Bai.

Madam Bai said, "I do not know what brother-in-law was thinking agreeing to that child's suggestion of entering Purgatory as punishment. Either way, it is good that he is back. The Devil Race is starting to get annoying recently."

—

Hei Anjing within that similar darkness then once again hears someone calling for his attention. It was Young Bai Qiyin's voice. He could only feel his body swaying, obviously, he is no longer on land anymore.

Bai Qiyin calls, "Shixiong? Shixiong!? Brother, come on! Wake up! We're here!"

Hei Anjing slowly opened his eyes and was welcomed by the festive scene in a mortal's market. The scene of stalls and the crowd gathering and walking past each other unfolds before his eyes. His silver eyes were in a daze for a moment only to realize he was on a small boat that the siblings had ridden on.

There's an extra person standing beside the young Bai Qiyin and Bai Lili. It was the young version of Lu Er. Wearing a light green robe and holding a paper fan in his hand.

Lu Er said, "Big Brother Wuan! I can't believe you really fell asleep on the boat."

"It was swayed so gently as if I'm on a hammock and fell asleep immediately," said Hei Anjing but this wasn't what he wanted to say but this is the line of Bai Wuan at this moment.

Different from before though he can't control his mouth completely, at least he can move his body accordingly. Bai Qiyin helped him leave the boat. The young Bai Wuan doesn't wear any veil at this time. Though his appearance was downgraded to the levels of mortals, he is still above anyone from the mortal realm. But if one would compare his appearance to his immortal self he would look a bit average. At least he didn't have the elegance and holiness of a God in this form.

Bai Qiyin asked Bai Wuan when he noticed that his brother is rarely quiet in such a harmonious scene of the river market. Before they arrived in the West, his brother had been excited to see the market above the river.

He asked worriedly, "What's wrong?"

"Big Brother Wuan? Is there something wrong with the mountain ranges?" asked Lu Er.

Hei Anjing has been secretly observing the surrounding mountains and saw hidden formations that protect and desolate the whole mountain range under the territory of the Lan Zhuayun Sect.

"Nothing much. I was just wondering why your sect sent you here?" said Bai Wuan.

Lu Er answered. "I was sent here by brother. He heard that Senior Yun Xiayu of Lan Zhuayun Sect has brought up many excellent disciples of the Lan Zhuayun Sect."

While the other disciples who came together with Lu Er said, "They say that all those who've studied a year or two in his class. No matter how useless they were when they went in, when they came out at least they looked proper."

"Qiqi, don't I look proper?" asked Bai Wuan.

Reluctantly, Bai Qiyin answered, "For brother, if you don't act frivolous and untamed all the time you would be a proper cultivator."

"I do act with proper demeanor depending on what kind of person appeared before me though," replied Bai Wuan.

Hah~

Bai Qiyin sighed. "You will definitely be a mark of shame within his teaching career."

"Don't mind it. To me, manners can only be given to those who deserve them. Giving to an animal is just a wasteful attempt. I can just return home if I was indeed sent out. but just in case I am indeed sent home, Qiqi you should remain vigilant at all times. I've just finished observing the outer layer of this sect. There's a defensive formation surrounding the whole mountain and there is a need for a marker to be able to enter. In this case, I supposed it's with the invitation you have with you. There are traps in the back mountain, northeast, south, and southwest. Be sure to avoid those places when you look for cultivation areas," said Bai Wuan.

Bai Qiyin responded, "I will remember, brother."

Frightened Lu Er, "A-Are... Are those.. Those places you've mentioned really dangerous?" asked Second Young Master Lu.

Bai Qiyin said seriously, "If brother says it's dangerous then it is."

Hei Anjing continues to look around. As much as he observes the city the more he felt nostalgic about it. This unknown feeling keeps his heart filled with anxiety. Sadly, he had no way to cleanse his heart of such negativity.

Bai Wuan once again started talking without his concern, "But this land... is a nice place. The purity of qi in this land is the greatest. Qiqi has to cultivate here for 3 months seriously. I'm sure that after 3 months you'll be able to break through to the Foundation establishment."

After hearing his brother say that, Bai Qiyin is unexpectedly happy. He had always been frustrated with his slow progress during his training. Even with his Senior Brother's help he still could increase his cultivation at all leaving him depressed for a few days. Bai Wuan and Bai Lili spend their time coaxing him not to worry about it.

Learning that this place is able to help him get stronger made Bai Qiyin extremely happy.

"Really!?"

"Yes. I'll ask one of the seniors if they'll be able to allow you guys to enter seclusion at a certain period," said Bai Wuan.

Chapter 768: 14.44 Last Violet Star – (Past) Jin Sect's Young Heir

Walking around the market, their small group had caught too much attention. Not only because of the uniformed blue robes with wave patterns and green robes with yellow vines patterns, these disciples wear but also because of the high face value of the ones in lead.

Lu Er and Bai Qiyin were a bit young and looked like boys instead but no one could deny that their appearance is beyond what ordinary people possess. These two had lived a life of luxury back to their homes, they could proudly raise their head in full confidence and looked around trying to be serious making them look even more adorable to observe.

Bai Lili might be a bit young but her gentle features and soft expression made others swoon over her presence. Moreover, she got her mother's beauty plus the bloodline of Xue in her veins, to the ordinary people at the market she looks no different from a little fairy that got lost in the human world.

If Bai Wuan wasn't standing beside her, there would be lots of men approaching her to court her. Among them, the one with the strongest presence is Bai Wuan without a doubt.

He looks like he barely reached his teenage years yet he walks with poise and grace. This is because currently the one housing this vessel is none other than the immortal Hei Anjing. Even though he was using a mortal vessel no one could ignore the majestic aura and elegance in his soul. He would sometimes look expressionless as his eyes looked straight and openly ignored everyone's eyes on him.

"Ah~ who is this man? He is so... Beautiful~"

"The little girl beside him is quite adorable too."

.....

"Looking at their luxurious robes they must be some disciples from some big sects."

"Did they come here for the (Blue Fleeting Cloud Sect) Lan Zhuayun Sect?"

"Must be... It's just I don't know where they come from."

Both Bai Wuan and Bai Lili turned deaf ears to the crowd watching them from a distance. Bai Qiyin and Lu Er from the Lu Weifeng Sect who were following behind them heard everything. The former was glowering and showing his fangs toward those reckless men and women who tried to follow his siblings.

Lu Er whispered to him, "Um, you had it quite hard~ bothering your elder brother and younger sister would attract this kind of crowd no matter where they are. How are you back in the North?"

"Back at home, the people of our city know that Shixiong is very strong. No reckless person would dare to touch him or us. Even. If they feel he is too captivating, they know their life is the most important. Though there are some wanders with wild imaginations, those kinds of people had been turned into ice statues by my brother," replied Bai Qiyin.

Lu Er said, "At least Big Brother Wuan's reputation is good. My big brother was instead infamous for his savage ways and our people liked and hated him all at the same time. I had to help him clean up most of the time too. Now I'm worried... With me around Dage, things would be hard on that side. Especially with how that clan is suppressing our sect's fame in our own town. That abominable clan of Xie, it would be better if they don't exist."

"Shss! Watch your mouth. The walls have ears as my brother says..." said Bai Qiyin.

The two behind were having a quiet and serious conversation that they didn't notice that the two in front had been trying to converse with them.

Bai Lili spoke, "Yin-gege! Are you listening!? Dear eldest brother was asking if you guys are hungry?"

"Ahh?!???"

Bai Wuan said, "If you guys are tired we can go to the inn ahead of time to rest and eat there. If not, we can go to a restaurant first before going to the inn. Either that or you guys wish to roam the market on your own. It is fine by me. But I need to check the itinerary with the (Blue Fleeting Cloud Sect) Lan Zhuayun Sect, which guys do you think is better? The restaurant or the inn?"

"Brother, I'm hungry!" said Bai Qiyin.

Lu Er also agreed with the former, "The restaurant is better."

"We will wait for you in the biggest restaurant in this city, brother," said Bai Qiyin.

Bai Wuan nodded his head and pulled up his wallet. He gave Bai Qiyin 5 paper money worth 10,000 each and 3 gold ingots. The other disciples were dumbfounded while disciples from the (White Frozen Water Sect) Bai Lengshui Sect had been used to it.

Bai Wuan says, "Use this to enjoy yourselves. Though I will be back soon, things might not go my way. If I'm still not back by the time you finish your meals, you can just meet me in the biggest inn. I had already made some room reservations. You just need to show your sect jades and give them your courtesy names. Is this money enough, Qiqi?"

"O-Okay, brother! It is more than enough!" said Bai Qiyin who immediately hid the paper money and gold ingot as soon as it landed in his hands. He looked around to make sure no one had seen it.

Stunned Lu Er mumbled, "Isn't that too much already? It's not like we're in the capital or East City."

The capital is where the Imperial Palace of human emperor exist does this city is the largest and most developed while the East City is a merchant city, most new and interesting can be bought here. The Jin Tiangui Sect (Gold Heavenly Turtle Sect) is the richest sect among the rest of the big sects and the East City is under their control. Both cities had expenses cost higher than that of the other cities. In these places, gold is mostly used as currency.

Bai Wuan looked at Lu Er and said, "Xiao Er, Brother Wang told me to arrange your lodgings in the same inn as Qiqi and Lili so just go with them after you play around."

"We will, Bai-Shixiong!" said Lu Er with a grin. He was delighted that it was the elegant Bai Wuan who arranged their inn. If it was his elder brother, he and his group would have to live in some empty cave nearby.

Bai Wuan says, "Then I will send you to the restaurant first before taking my leave."

"Then let's go dear elder brother!" said Bai Lili as he held onto the sleeves of Bai Wuan with a sweet smile on her face.

Upon arriving at the largest and most expensive restaurant in West City, Zhuzi Jade Pavilion. Everyone was welcomed by a gorgeous scene of green bamboo swaying as it followed the wind's direction. There are some bear cubs of black and white fur roaming around the restaurant courtyard and seemingly mascots or pets of the restaurant owner.

Everyone was surprised and amazed by the mesmerizing scenery before them. The exterior designs of the restaurant were enough to catch their attention now that cute pandas are roaming around the garden, adding up more plus points to the ambiance of the place.

Lu Er spoke, "Wow~ this place... Is quite amazing~"

"I heard it was the most expensive restaurant in this city so I thought it would have gold-plated pillars and walls. This is better... The feeling of being close to nature is the best place for us," said Bai Qiyin. "Brother, do you know who owns this place?"

"Um. You know him as well," said Bai Wuan.

Bai Wuan tilted his head and looked confused, "What do you know about the owner as well?"

Suddenly they heard hurried footsteps welcoming them. The one in lead is a young master of Bai Wuan's age though a few years younger than him and a bit years ahead of Lu Er and Bai Qiyin.

This young man was wearing a gold robe with purple peonies at the edges and sleeves of the robe. A gold-hilted sword and a gold-plated bow and arrows on his back. Obviously, a disciple of the Jin Tiangui Sect (Gold Heavenly Turtle Sect).

The eldest heir of the Jin Tiangui Sect (Gold Heavenly Turtle Sect), Jin Shiyan. Courtesy name: Jin Shilu.

Jin Shiyan stops in front of Bai Wuan and cupped his hands politely. The disciples and some elders of his clan that were tasked to look after the store had also come out to greet Bai Wuan. Regardless of age, Bai Wuan's standing in (White Frozen Water Sect) Bai Lengshui Sect is the same as the elders. Though he doesn't have any connection to the Bai Clan through bloodline, he is the direct disciple of Sect Master Bai and the Bai family's half-son.

Adding the fact he is stronger than them as an elder is enough to show their politeness in such a situation. The (White Frozen Water Sect) Bai Lengshui Sect and Jin Tiangui Sect (Gold Heavenly Turtle Sect) are going to be family in the future anyway when the eldest young master Shiyan married the youngest princess Lili.

"Greetings to Senior Brother Bai and everyone. I am Jin Shilu of Jin Tiangui Sect."

"Greetings to Eldest Young Lord Bai!" said the elders of the Jin Tiangui Sect.

"Greetings to Senior Bai and everyone!" said the young disciples of the same sect.

Bai Wuan and his group all returned the greeting and cupped their hands to the group in front. Though Bai Wuan seems to be only returning the greeting of the elders politely. There is no need for him to return the greetings of his juniors and usually, a nod would suffice.

"Elders of Jin Tiangui Sect, please forgive our sudden arrival. This junior apologies..." said Bai Wuan.

The elders from the other side smiled and stopped Bai Wuan from lowering his stance. They were quite surprised by how well-mannered this rumored Ice Demon is in front of his elders.

The elders of the Jin Tiangui Sect said,

"Hoho~ Eldest Young Lord Bai doesn't have to apologize. This restaurant is right for people to come over to eat."

"You were informed ahead of time about your arrival. The Young Lord had already reserved the best table for his future brothers-in-law~"

“Young Master Shiyan should invite the guests in! The dishes and desserts will be served soon. Everyone doesn’t need to wait.”

Jin Shiyan said with a smile, “Elder Brother Bai, A’Ying, Li’er, and everyone welcome to my restaurant!” His eyes would sometimes wander to look at Bai Lili standing beside Bai Wuan.

Bai Lili noticed it and felt embarrassed by how her fiance was acting. Her cheeks flush with red and slightly hide behind her elder brother. Jin Shiyan’s smile was almost reaching his ears when he saw the cute and shy reaction of his future wife. He would see Bai Lili’s silver hair titled behind Bai Wuan peeking at him. novelC/o\m

Jim Shiyan’s thoughts, ‘My future wife is so adorable~ so cute~ I want to hug~’

As if reading his thoughts, Bai Wuan suddenly says in a teasing voice, “You can’t hug Xiao Li without her permission. You can’t force her. But if she agrees I will turn a blind eye~”

Soft punches fell on Bai Wuan’s back and knew that Bai Lili was so embarrassed by his teasing. Even Jin Shiyan’s face turned red, feeling the same embarrassment and shyness as Bai Lili.

Bai Qiyin, this straight man who had no romantic bone in his body, asked innocently, “Brother Shilu, why are you turning red? Lili you too? What is this? Heatstroke?”.

Hahahaha~

The rest couldn’t hold back their laughter hearing such a naive question from Bai Qiyin. Jin Shiyan and Bai Lili looked like cooked shrimps at this moment and even covered their faces. Making the others laugh more.

Chapter 769: 14.45 Last Violet Star – (Past) Yun Brothers

The joyous atmosphere in the group was enough for the others to forget about the awkwardness. Even if Lu Er and the disciples of his Sect weren’t close with Jin Shiyan and his Sect with the Bai Siblings as middlemen they were able to communicate with each other without any bias. Seeing these young disciples getting along well, Bai Wuan was relieved to leave these guys here and continue what he had planned to do. He wasn’t planning on joining them in their meals.

“Go inside now. I will leave when I see you’re all settled,” said Bai Wuan.

Everyone went inside the restaurant under Bai Wuan’s smile but as soon as they saw him all inside his smile faded. The elder who stayed to see him out also realized that something is wrong with the two.

Bai Wuan said, “Senior, there were a few Demonic Cultivators hiding in the city when we got here. They are obviously targeting the disciples of the sects. Please protect them until I come back.”

“What would the eldest young lord do?” asked the elder.

Bai Wuan’s eyes turned cold as his black hair turned white, “I will clean up the pests for a while. Scare them enough not to come in this city while I’m around.”

The elder bowed his head as he sent Bai Wuan and said, “Please be careful on your way.”

.....

Bai Wuan immediately disappeared after bringing his siblings to safety. The elder who sent him out had a slightly frightened expression. He had seen the sudden change of expression and change of demeanor of Bai Wuan with his own eyes. The pressure of his presence and aura was enough to overwhelm him.

“Sigh~ Now I feel pity for those demonic cultivators that dare to target the Ice Demon’s siblings. Don’t they know how overprotective that demon is toward his family? I think the air tonight would be bloody.”

The elder mumbled before going back inside the restaurant to help serve the guests.

—

On the mountain ranges, the hidden territory of the (Blue Fleeting Cloud Sect) Lan Zhuayun Sect.

The two princes were summoned by their Sect Master and Sect Elders. Obviously, they’re here for the mission which the Sect would give to them. Standing at the guidance hall, Yun Huaxia and Yun Xiajie appeared. Waiting for them are their seniors and family members. All of them were wearing white robes with cloud patterns, and the color of the clouds differed for each person, there are a few who have the same cloud color but this can only be done if they are the other half of the other party. There are various colors and shades of the cloud pattern that everyone possesses.

Yun Huaxia is wearing a blue cloud pattern robe which is the main color of the clan, this is because he is the next in line to the seat of the Sect Master and the eldest heir. He wore his usual gentle smile and was surrounded by a friendly atmosphere. He looks so approachable that everyone likes him.

On the other hand, standing beside him is the quiet Yun Xiajie. On his white robe, the crimson-colored clouds were so vibrant that it is hard to ignore. Not only he is quiet but his whole demeanor is cold with his face which is almost the embodiment of Asceticism, Others feel that it was rude to approach him without anything reasonable to ask. He looks like the symbol of righteousness. Untainted with any dirty, clean, and pure. Pure white would have matched his demeanor but for some reason, he had chosen the color of crimson right from the beginning. noveLUSBdotC/o\m

The young disciples of the (Blue Fleeting Cloud Sect) Lan Zhuayun Sect can only wear a uniformed white robe with gray cloud patterns they are only able to choose another color of their cloud pattern when they’ve reached a certain level of strength and become a disciple with a strength of an elder.

Yun Huaxia and Yun Xiajie say, “Greetings to the Sect Master and Elders!”

Sect Master Yun said, “You’re here. I called you here to give you a mission. I want to have you two capture or kill all demonic cultivators that entered the city discreetly. The one who informed me about this news had started hunting those people. You two should support him.”

“Father, who was the informer? Is he trusting?” asked Yun Huaxia.

Great Elder Yun answered instead of the Sect Master.

“His background is trustworthy. I believe you should have heard about him. He is very famous. The Ice Demon of the (White Frozen Water Sect) Bai Lengshui Sect, Bai Wuan.”

As a pioneer of his generation, Yun Huaxia heard about this genius of the younger generation. Though he is from a different generation than him, his fame is quite widely spread in their cultivation world. On the other hand, Yun Xiajie who was usually in seclusion didn’t know about the man mentioned and stayed silent even though he was confused. It would be rude to get involved in the conversation between elders. He could only ask his elder brother about this man's identity later.

Yun Huaxia said, "So it's him. The Senior Brother of the (White Frozen Water Sect) Bai Lengshui Sect. I heard he is a few years younger than Jieye but his cultivation had already reached Peak Foundation Establishment or even Early Golden Core. If it's the latter then he is more than just a genius but a monster. Even at my age I only had Early Golden Core. Lu Wang who is the eldest in our generation is at Mid Golden Core and he already represents his Sect at that age."

"But Junior Brother Bai Wuan is different, no one knew his real strength. What I've mentioned before are just a few guesses I and Lu Wang had made. What do you think, Father?"

"I believe that your guess is right, Hua'er. I've received a personal letter from Sect Master Bai, he told me that Junior Bai Wuan is able to speak as an authority or representative of the whole (White Frozen Water Sect) Bai Lengshui Sect itself. He was indirectly telling me to treat him as the Sect Master Bai himself. That much says his strength," said Sect Master Bai.

Great Elder Yun spoke, "The report about the demonic cultivators had been sent using his name. He even sent one alive person as proof. This child's actions are so efficient that it is hard to deny his means. Don't let our guests get ahead of things within our city. That is such an embarrassment! Immediately remove all intruders. There is no need to keep them alive."

"We shall complete our task as it's supposed to be!" said Yun Huaxia before exiting the hall with his younger brothers.

After the brothers had left, the Sect Master and the elders had a short conversation. They've noticed that Yun Xiajie doesn't know about the Ice Demon. But even they had heard about the notorious rumors about this disciple. Possessing beauty beyond average means, as if an otherworldly being descending in the land of mortals. He is extremely beautiful enough to cause chaos in cities and is loved by everyone yet at the same time is the most merciless against his enemies. A unique beauty covered in the blood of his enemies, everyone called him the Ice Demon. A cold and attainable being whose cruelty is beyond normal means. That's what he is called.

Great Elder Yun asked, "Though it is true that cruelty cannot be avoided in battles, I do not think Jieye would be able to accept whatever scene would welcome them. Despite his talent, Jieye is overwhelmingly righteous, unlike Huaye who had experienced a lot. I think this event would frighten him, Brother."

"Hm. But Hua'er isn't the one who would stand beside that child, they are from different generations. Ye'er had to get used to him sooner or later. Or they wouldn't be able to fight along each other's side when the time comes and the Xie Clan removes all pretense in the relationship of the other clans and sects. It would definitely happen soon," said Sect Master Yun.

Great Elder Yun snorted angrily and said, "Their open tyranny had been happening more lately. They don't want to save the face of our old sects!"

"Things wouldn't remain the same. When the balance is broken there would only be a war to fight. We are actually at a disadvantage. Unless only of use Sect Masters or hidden hermits would reach the Nascent Soul Stage like the Clan Master of Xie Sect," said Sect Master Yun.

—

Just a few hours after sundown. Bai Wuan had been roaming around the hidden alleys and forest of the West City chasing after a few groups of Demon cultivators, here and there.

Sounds of hurried escape can be heard all over the dark forest. There is a small group of demonic cultivators that bump into the Yun Brothers as soon as they investigate the dark alleys of the market.

The main road is booming with excitement and festivity. Everyone in the city, whether they are ordinary people or cultivators, is enjoying the peak of the night. Contrast to this joyous scene is a bloody and dangerous pursuit in the darkness.

“Run! Those two guys wearing white robes had pigmented clouds on them. They are definitely high-ranking disciples and might even be elders of the (Blue Fleeting Cloud Sect) Lan Zhuayun Sect.”

“Boss! I’ve recognized them. They are the twin clouds of the (Blue Fleeting Cloud Sect) Lan Zhuayun Sect. Yun Huaye and Yun Jieye. They are both at least peak Foundation Establishment Stage!”

“Tsk! How unlucky! Escape to the rendezvous spot. Once we rejoin the main group, we can use our numerical advantage and surround these two!”

“There hasn’t been any contact with the Main camp since the sun had set. Do you think something happened to them?”

“Don’t be such a crow’s beak! The Big Boss is at least Peak Foundation Establishment himself and the strongest demonic cultivator. It would be hard to kill him. Just shut your mouth and run! Don’t get caught now.”

“Yes!!!”

A few meters from the Yun Huaxia and Yun Jieye were closely chasing. The two of them can easily capture a small group of Foundation Establishment cultivators at the fourth to sixth stage. They’ve intentionally let them go and let them lead the way to their hideout.

Yun Huaxia spoke, “Hm~ these guys would definitely lead us to their den. The problem is it would be hard to fight if we got surrounded.”

“I will go ahead, brother. You stay out and I will give you a signal if their main force all showed itself,” said Yun Jieye.

Yun Huaxia nods his head in agreement with this plan. This is the only way since they lack people to fight against a group. They’ve decided to divide and conquer.

Since their plan is made, Yun Huaxia slows down while Yun Jieye dashed in to follow their targets. He followed them until they all reached the center of the forest.

He could even hear their delighted voices as they approached their den.

“Ah! We’re close! We can live!!!”

“Everyone get ready to counterattack!”

“Yes!!”

But as soon as they reached the center of the forest the temperature around them dropped. They could even their skin slowly getting covered in frost and their breath turning into a cloud of white smoke. They couldn't help but hug themselves in this situation.

“W-W-Why is it's-so-cold!?”

“I'm w-wearing s-s-sleeveless. I getting frozen~”

“What is happening here!?”

“B-B-B-Boss... L-Look behind you. Behind you!!!”

Everyone turned around to look at their secret den, even Yun Jieye who usually controls his expression suddenly showed a dumbfounded expression.

Before them is a scenery of a beautiful winter and ruthlessness. There is a big pile of corpses covered in crimson-colored ice obviously this ice is made of frozen blood from the corpse itself. Standing above the small hill of the ice mountain is a gorgeous man wearing a blue robe with a wave pattern. Unfortunately, the edges of his robes were soaked in blood, even changing the white waves into scarlet-colored ones.

The sharp silver blade of his sword was leaning lightly on his shoulder and on its tip was blood trickling down fresh and warm but this beautiful person even colored by blood looked untainted. With the moon as his witness, the cruelty within that cold world made him look extremely captivating yet dangerous at the same time.

“What in hell—!!!”

Chapter 770: 14.46 Last Violet Star – (Past) Conflict

Bai Wuan found out the location of the hideout from one of the captured prey this afternoon. He sent one alive to the (Blue Fleeting Cloud Sect) Lan Zhuayun Sect as proof of his sudden report. He tortured the other one which lead him to this place. He was surrounded as soon as he arrived and had no other choice but to kill everyone who attacked him. He keeps a few who seem like the real boss of this den while killing the rest.

To prevent the scent of blood from spreading in the forest, he had to freeze all the corpses, and the only source of liquid he can use as a medium was the blood of these dead men which lead to this scene. A depiction of death, beauty, and cruelty itself.

He just finished the cleanup and the others suddenly arrived on the scene.

Tsk!

“I still have to meet my siblings and have dinner with them. You guys are seriously in the way ah~,” said Bai Wuan with a dangerous glint flashing within those argent eyes of his yet the corner of his lips was curled up in a smirk as he looked down on the men who just arrived. Of course, he noticed Yun Xiajie who was wearing a familiar white robe with a cloud crest.

“Ahh!!! Brothers! Who the hell are you!?”

“You demon! How could you treat us like this? Are they not humans in your eyes!? Such ruthlessness at such a young age, you would definitely be brutally killed in the end!!!”

.....

“Monster! Ah! Save me! I don’t want to die!!!”

Bai Wuan’s smile turned even wider at their words. He clearly didn’t care about what they thought about him.

“I’ve never cared about the last words of the people who would die under my hands~”

“Am I cruel? At least you bastards have no right to call me as such! Don’t worry~ You’ll be joining them soon~” said Bai Wuan.

He raised his hands and a few blades made of ice appeared in the air which is created by the moisture in the atmosphere. Under his command, these swords of ice had all rained down on the men wearing black and red robes.

“AHH!! NO!!! I don’t want to die!!!”

The remnants of the Demonic Cultivation group all wanted to escape for their lives but who would have thought that even before they’d gathered their thoughts this mesmerizing young man in blue robes would attack them without hesitation. There isn’t any ounce of pity or kindness within those silver eyes!

Just a few meters from the outskirts of the center point of the forest, Yun Huaxia was patiently waiting for his young brother to give a flare signal so he could start his attacks. Who would have thought he would instead feel his younger brother’s qi in a fierce manner making him uncomfortable? A sudden surge of two auras clashing was felt from the center of the forest. But what bewildered Yun Huaxia is that the two qi that are fighting fiercely are both familiar to him.

Yun Huaxia mumbled, “This qi is Jieye’s... The other one seems to be a yin qi which is only someone from the (White Frozen Water Sect) Bai Lengshui Sect. Are they fighting?” he had to hurry towards the source of two conflicting auras.

Only to see a disciple of Bai Lengshui Sect attacking the men whom he and Yun Xiajie were chasing just now. Moreover, his younger brother was standing in front of me who is supposed to be his enemy and protecting them.

In this scene, Bai Wuan’s smile faded, and looked coldly at Yun Xiajie. Such a sudden change of expression startled Yun Xiajie and even Yun Huaxia who just arrived. It wasn’t only Bai Wuan’s eyes and expression that turned glacial even his whole demeanor had turned cold.

“Why are you protecting them? You from a sect of righteousness would protect those evil beings!? Or maybe you aren’t from the (Blue Fleeting Cloud Sect) Lan Zhuayun Sect. If you aren’t... then you can die with them, you fake disciple of Yun!” said Bai Wuan as his qi suddenly materialized and a few more swords made of ice appeared above him. The number of these ice swords was twice the ones Yun Xiajie had parried before.

Yun Xiajie remained expressionless in such a deadly situation. He could only use his sword intent to destroy those countless ice swords in the sky.

The two were about to clash for the second time only to be stopped by Yun Huaxia. He forcefully tried to suppress the two with his high cultivation. Yun Xiajie was suppressed but Bai Wuan only waves his hands to reject his suppression.

Hmp!

Stunned Yun Huaxia looked at Bai Wuan in shock, "How!?! Are you already in the Golden Core Stage as the rumors say!?! Impossible! You are so young!"

Bai Wuan didn't recognize Yun Xiajie but he recognized Yun Huaxia and because of him, he realized the identity of the man who had opposed him.

"(Blue Fleeting Cloud Sect) Lan Zhuayun Sect's Yun Huaye then... this man is Yun Xiajie?"

Yun Xiajie suddenly frowned and said, "Who allowed you to call me by my birth name!?"

"Oh~ sorry... It wasn't on purpose~" said Bai Wuan teasingly, his bad mood completely disappeared after knowing who the man in front of him was.

Bai Wuan's hidden thoughts, 'It's my amnesiac husband~ How fun~'

The two were exchanging swords with Yun Xiajie mostly chasing Bai Wuan. Yun Huaxia who witnessed this scene didn't know how he should react. Meanwhile taking this as a chance, the remnant Demonic cultivators try to escape while the two are busy fighting among themselves. Yun Huaxia noticed their actions and his gentleness was replaced with seriousness. He wrote some talismans and streaks of light landed on the small group of bad guys. They were immediately tied up with the talisman Yun Huaxia had written on the spot.

"Trying to escape. Stay where you are!" said Yun Huaxia.

He can only continue to watch as Yun Xiajie and Bai Wuan chase after one another around the forest. The former is obviously pissed while the latter is clearly playing around.

Yun Xiajie spoke, "You... Who are you? Why do you know my name?"

"Of course, I know~ I always investigate where my siblings would go regardless of place. I know the key persons of your sect just in case," answered Bai Wuan.

Hei Anjing who was watching from inside Bai Wuan noticed the sudden changes in mood and emotions inside him. Upon seeing this person called Yun Xiajie, Bai Wuan was truly delighted in his heart. He overheard what this body's thoughts are.

'What is this? That stern God of Judgment ended up in such an adorable state. Haha~ I did the right thing to make sure my memories would not be sealed after reincarnation. Thankfully, my brother-in-law helped me with it~. My husband looks so cute. Want to tease more~.' This is Bai Wuan's thoughts at this moment.

Hei Anjing, who was supposed to be a passerby from the future timeline, was dumbfounded by this scene. He didn't expect himself to be this... Cunning enough to fool around the upper realm and the heavenly laws themselves.

'How could a God descend into a new identity with his memories as a God? If he wanted to he could destroy this realm anytime he feels like it. Is it because of this that I got thrown to Purgatory? If the. The reason is so shallow. Moreover this evil yet playful personality... is this really me?' Thoughts of Hei Anjing.

Bai Wuan suddenly stopped playing around and seriously parried away Yun Xiajie's sword.

"Okay. Stop swinging your sword and follow me. You wanted to know why I wanted to kill them all right?" said Bai Wuan.

Yun Xiajie thought for a moment and restrained his sword. He followed Bai Wuan in some kind of tent. Once he saw the people inside, Yun Xiajie's calmness was completely broken.

Trembling women crowd in one corner while looking at them with terrified expressions. They all huddled together covering themselves with a huge blanket. There are some children inside the tent with either a missing eye, arm, leg, or nose. At least one part of the body, they are obviously tortured to the point of insanity.

They didn't know when Yun Huaxia had followed after them. Unlike Yun Xiajie's astonishment, Yun Huaxia was completely in a rage. These are all innocent women and children but those guys treated them this way.

Yun Huaxia said, "Tsk! Was it them!? They did such... Such heinous acts. They really don't deserve to live!!"

As the next heir to the sect, Yun Huaxia is clearly more decisive than Yun Xiajie. He once again came out of the tent and killed those men whom he captured as they tried to escape.

Yun Huaxia approached Bai Wuan and smiled, "You are Bai Wuan from the (White Frozen Water Sect) Bai Lengshui Sect, aren't you? It's a pleasure to meet you. I am..."

"Senior Brother Yun Huaye. Nice to meet you too. You must have received my report. I first noticed these people when I was in the market with my siblings and other young disciples who are supposed to attend classes in your sect. They were targeting my sibling so I could barely hold back. In the first place, I only planned to sneakily investigate this place but... When I saw them I... My anger filled my brain and I ended up almost killing them all. At least, I keep their big boss alive. We can ask him some questions. Plus I need to prepare a few things to cure these children but... I don't know how to calm the women," said Bai Wuan.

Yun Xiajie who was ignored in the corner spoke, "I will help you calm their minds and you treat them. Brother should start questioning that boss that was still alive."

"Okay. It's better to do everything in the end and get over this thing. Do you know who might be the mastermind of this event?" asked Yun Huaxia.

Bai Wuan said, "I don't have proof but... I think the Xie Clan is involved with this. If there is someone who can order things like kidnapping heirs to the other sects and clans then only they can do it."

"Plausible but we don't have proof," said Yun Huaxia.

Yun Xiajie spoke, "Just get from the one whom you would interrogate, brother. At least he must know the identity of the mastermind."

"Leave it to me. Look after the victims," said Yun Huaxia before leaving.

As soon as Yun Huaxia left the tent, Bai Wuan started bringing out a cauldron and various herbs from his space. Then he started making some limb regeneration pills for the lost parts of the children. Yun Xiajie also sat beside him and brought out his guqin to play some soothing melodies to calm the minds of the victims. None of the two speak with each other as they work but they continue to observe each other. Bai Wuan would smile once in a while whenever his eyes met Yun Xiajie's eyes. The latter would shyly avert his gaze whenever it happens.

When Yun Huaxia came back, the scene of Bai Wuan finishing his pills welcomed him. This is the first time he had seen a young pill refiner make pills in a manner as if he was frying some beans. Even Yun Xiajie who was watching the whole time was astonished even then his fingers which were playing the guqin continued to play. novelupdates.com

Bai Wuan exclaimed, "Yosh! It's done. My ultimate limb restoration pills. I'm still amazing as always. Hahaha~"

"Too loud. They are backing away," said Yun Xiajie.

Bai Wuan scratched his face and said, "O-Oh~, sorry... Hehe~"

"Amazing! Your attainments with pill Refinement are top-class. I've also heard your medical skill is also not bad. What do you think about their injuries?" asked Yun Huaxia.

Bai Wuan explained, "The pills I made are enough to cure all injuries whether it is a missing limb or hidden internal injuries it would be cured. I've used up all my herb stocks but I can just gather more. Gave it to them that there should be no pain in the process of the limbs growing. I made it that way..."

"I and Jieye will help you distribute the pills. The girls seem to be more afraid of us than of you, can you look after them?" asked Yun Huaxia.

"Sure!" said Bai Wuan.

The traumatized females slowly calm down and regain their sanity under Yun Xiajie's music. But they are still extremely afraid of men but for some reason, they aren't afraid of Bai Wuan. Well compared to the Yun Brothers he looks a bit feminine and too beautiful to be considered a man.