

Worlds Plot 91

Chapter 91: 4.29 Third Blue Star - Room 0373's Reunion

Metropolitan Police.

Supernatural Investigation Department Unit.

Everyone was following the figure of Xie Ye who was carrying a young man in huge hoodies on his back while carrying a huge pillow and blanket with another hand. The man on Xie Ye's back had his face all covered by the former's wide shoulders and only the slight stray cobalt hair strand could be seen. Last night Gui Lan had revised the Authority he used on the heavenly laws. He made sure that everyone would recognize Hei Lan as Gui Lan. Since both Hei Lan and Gui Lan's identity had merged, his qualifications and origin were released. As the young heir of Gui Clan and the next seat to the Minister's throne everyone adored Gui Lan. He became the idol and model figure of the Esper world.

The reason why Xie Ye is carrying him to work is because he overtaxed himself with last night pleasure and frolic for a few hours with Xie Ye in the bathroom. He is now tired as hell. novelusb.com

Surrounding them were officers who heard about Hei Lan's real identity as Gui Lan.

"Isn't that Special Officer Xie?"

"Indeed. I heard he was busy with the preparation for the D-Day."

"If that's Special Officer Xie, then that person on his back must be...!!"

"It's Special Officer Hei Lan!!"

"Is it true that he is the prime minister's son?"

"It's true! Our espers comrades said that the one who saved them 15 years ago is him."

"15 years ago? He was only 6 years old that time. Are you playing with me?"

"I'm not. Don't treat him like normals. Even among the Espers he's above everyone else. They've said he had awakened so many abilities and was almost equal to Gods."

"How many did he have?"

"In the records it says that he has Telepathy, Retrocognition, Teleportation and Ice Element."

"Amazing~ he could use all those?"

"But wasn't Sir Xie's abilities amazing as well? It's not a lot but aside from mind reading his second skill is a badass. He could copy the abilities of other espers and make it his own."

"Indeed, though he doesn't have 100% control over it, I heard that he could use at least 70% of its original strength."

All of the sudden the crowd heard a voice in their minds. It was Xie Ye's voice.

Xie Ye: {Get back to work! Stop loitering around during work hours!}

The stern and cold voice of Xie Ye resounds directly to their minds, scaring these little officers to death that they've saluted instinctively in response.

"Yes sir!" They disperse in an orderly manner after they've finished their salutations.

Once the people in the are left, only the quietness of the empty hallway remains. Somebody suddenly giggles breaking the silence in the area. It was Gui Lan who just woke up.

"I've let you copy my skills this morning and you're already using it. There is something you need to promise me." said Gui Lan.

Xie Ye pulled the one on his back to move in front of him and princess carried him.

"What is it? I'll promise you anything Lan'er." responded Xie Ye.

"Promise to never use Authority with Telepathy. These two abilities have conflicting nature. One seeks control while the other creates links for stability. It cannot be used at the same time. The backlash from doing so is a bit too much for the brain and body."

Xie Ye was about to respond but then he remembered Gui Lan using Authority with Telepathy when they were children. Now learning about the backlash of these two abilities made him remember Gui Lan's paleness that night. His usual body warmth is almost gone, his skin is so pale as if he has no blood even his lips were a bit purple. At that time Gui Lan was only 6 years old, he used to love sleeping but he never takes too many unusual naps. He also doesn't oversleep beyond normal times but after that day when they fought, he noticed Gui Lan's body seems weaker than before.

Knowing this Xie Ye wrapped the blanket in his arms around Gui Lan. He held his hand and put it to his cheeks checking his temperature through Gui Lan's palm. He sighed in relief when he felt the hands were warm unlike from the last touch in their childhood.

"Okay I promise you." replied Xie Ye.

"It's too hot! Why did you wrap me in a blanket like some kind of cocoon, A'Ye!?" complained Gui Lan.

Passing the pillow to Gui Lan's arms, "Bear with it for a moment. I'll bring you somewhere to give you a full body check up." said Xie Ye who left in the hurry carrying Gui Lan in his arms.

[Host since your injured soul affects your body, with a full body check up they will see that your vessel state isn't normal and might declare you as a dying person. Your soul damage percentage was suppressed down to 38% after self repairing and physique upgrade for 15 years despite it healing your soul inside this world is impossible.]

Gui Lan responded like he didn't care but he knew that his lifespan in this world had greatly reduced.

"How long could this vessel last? Give me an exact duration." he asked.

[If the host continues to live as a normal esper using your ability without overworking yourself the host should be able to live until 70, but if the host uses the other skill card and the damage in your soul increases then you can only live only until 40.]

"Either at 40 or 70 years old? But the normal lifespan of espers in this world is above 100. Normally, for someone of my level I should be able to live until I am 150 years old."

[The host's soul injury is caused by the Divine Laws of the highest realm. Since the host had received the punishment in this little star unless you left this place there aren't any possibilities to cure your soul.]

"I know." replied Gui Lan.

Hearing this Gui Lan could only divert his lover's attention to something else and acted like he was panicking. He started striking Xie Ye with the pillow in his arms.

"No. no. no! I won't agree with the full body check up! My body is covered with your love marks. Even though I'm shameless I won't agree letting others see by body!" said Gui Lan.

Xie Ye paused for a moment upon remembering the events that happened last night and this morning. Now looking at his lover's blushing face he was very reluctant to let others see his lover's current state. Despite his hesitation, Xie Ye could still feel uneasiness in his heart. It was something extremely uncomfortable like for some reason he knew that Gui Lan was hiding something from him. He was being indecisive until he heard Ye Xiajie's voice in his head.

'Don't let him notice. If he knew that we have awareness that he is hiding something then, it will be harder for us to know the truth. Seek for the opportunity and wait. I have a way to check his current state if it's a must.'

Upon hearing Ye Xiajie's voice in his head he understood what he should do next. To secretly look for the answers of his question he must act like he didn't notice anything.

Taking the pillow away from Gui Lan, he pulled the latter into an intimate kiss. Since no one else is around in the hallway they've indulged themselves to each other's existence. It wasn't until Gui Lan was out of breath that Xie Ye let him go. Xie Ye kissed Gui Lan's forehead before hugging him tightly in his embrace.

"Indeed. No one else aside from me can see your body. No one else." murmured Xie Ye, no one else could see his crimson eyes turning into a darker shade as if being mixed with the color of darkness.

Office of the Chief

As the couple reached their destination, at the moment they've opened the doors, what welcomed them is a huge crowd of familiar people. Inside the room is not only the usual couple, Yi Zheng and Li Xing, there's Yun Li, Xu Lun, Professor Sen, Ke Lou and Lin Ye around. After Gui Lan altered the content of the Authority he used to the heavenly laws, aside from the enemies everyone on his side were now able to see through him as Gui Lan.

"Welcome Home, Gui Lan!"

They've all said to Gui Lan. Xie Ye let Gui Lan down but still held his waist. He didn't allow the latter to leave his side at all.

"Aside from Yun Li no one else seems to recognize me though. But looking through your past memories I can only say: You've done well in surviving! I'm proud." said Gui Lan with his usual sly smile as Hei Lan.

Seeing Gui Lan standing before them, some of them couldn't stop their tears from falling. After all, the person who saved their lives 15 years ago and the person who have been protecting them in the shadows have always been Gui Lan. They knew that SID was created for them because Gui Lan requested it. The Minister's Household has always protected them because Gui Lan wished for it. All this time the syndicate wasn't able to learn who and where they are because Gui Lan and Xie Ye were controlling things in the shadows. They were under Gui Lan's wings the whole time.

Li Xing was the first one who ran towards Gui Lan in tears. Following Yi Zheng who have the same expression these two hugged the couple before them. Among the group these two were the most attached to these pairs.

"A'Lan! Sobs~ where have you been? Are you hurt? Welcome back~ Wuwu~" said Li Xing.

Yi Zheng spoke, "Sniff! A'Lan... I didn't notice... You've been with us... for a few months... already... No wonder... dage have been... bullying me... those clothes... were his~ I will look for it. I promise."

"What clothes?" asked Gui Lan.

"The one you let me borrow the last time I took a bath during my first meeting with you as Hei Lan." replied Yi Zheng who immediately shrank behind Li Xing upon meeting Xie Ye's warning eyes.

"Oh~ those. Don't worry about it. Those are just A'Ye's spare clothes. He wouldn't mind..." Gui Lan was suddenly cut off by Xie Ye.

Xie Ye interrupts, "I mind. You've picked those clothes personally for me! Those are mine. A'Ye must return it!" he said.

"It's been months already since the day he borrowed it. I'm pretty sure Yi-ge had lost it somewhere. Forget about it already." said Gui Lan who looked up to Xie Ye.

Xie Ye averted his eyes and didn't reply, Gui Lan took his silence as yes.

Gui Lan said, "Don't worry about the clothes anymore, Yi-ge."

"O-Oh... O-Okay. Hehe~" replied Yi Zheng while stuttering.

Gui Lan looked at Yi Zheng who was covered in sweats with his eyes swimming around. What Gui Lan couldn't see, above his head Xie Ye is glaring at Yi Zheng.

There's an obvious message within those warning eyes:

"Return my clothes! Don't you dare tell Lan'er! I'm going to beat you up if you do."

From the sidelines:

"The boss is still a bully even at this age." said Xu Lun.

"I dare that you speak a bit louder. Let's see if your situation would be any different from Yi Zheng." retorted Yun Lin.

Hearing this Xu Lun instantly shut his mouth off as he couldn't afford his boss being pissed at him. Let Yi Zheng suffer instead. Seeing this close interaction between the children, Lin Ye and Ke Luo couldn't help but laugh. This little group have always been like this. Gui Lan and Xie Ye have always been the leaders and center of this group while the rest follow and adore them. Yi Zheng acting silly in this age is because of his undeniable trust towards the two. Li Xing is the same as he took Gui Lan as his emotional pillar when they were children. Yun Li and Xu Lun might be a bit detached but they watch the group and support them from the side.

It's been awhile since this group had reunited. This reunion is a short peace before they enter the final battle that will lead them to a peaceful future.

Chapter 92: 4.30 Third Blue Star - Serene evening

With Gui Lan on the group the preparations for the plans were completed ahead of time. Gui Clan had given them their full support and manpower under Gui Lan's orders. Even though Gui Lan was under the lead of Xie Ye, the highest authority in the clan is still Gui Lan. As long as the young master returned to the family, all the elders, even the prime minister, followed his command without question. This is a bit different when Xie Ye was taking the lead. There are still a bit of skirmishes here and there for Xie Ye's every request but when it comes to Gui Lan no one exists.

But there are some changes that happened when Gui Lan returns to the clan. First is that, his manor behind the institute was given to the Yi Zheng and Li Xing couple because the Prime Minister commanded that Xie Ye and Gui Lan could only live with him in the Gui Mansion. At first Gui Lan didn't want to agree but his lover talked to him about it and the former could only agree to it. Gui Lan actually doesn't mind where he lives as long as Xie Ye is with him. Xie Ye on the other hand only did this because of the promise he made with the prime minister 15 years ago.

Evening.

Gui Clan's Mansion.

Dinner time.

In the huge luxurious dinner hall, a long table at the center. On the table a grand, delectable feast was served. Seated on the main seat is the Prime Minister, Gui Shi. On his right is Gui Lan followed by Xie Ye, Yun Li, Xu Lun, Yi Zheng and Li Xing. On his left is Old Man Ke, Ke Lou, Lin Ye and Professor Sen. On the sideline were servants on stand by for orders.

It is a magnificent family dinner with few guests.

Gui Shi lifted his wine glass and said, "This is a small banquet for the return of my son, Gui Lan."

Everyone followed after him and raised their wine glass as well.

"Cheers!"

After a short opening the feast began. Gui Lan was being served with food by both Gui Shi and Xie Ye on his both sides. Gui Lan just ate whatever was placed on his plate without question.

Gui Shi said with a smile, "Xiao Lan dear, papa had the kitchen prepare your favorite grilled salmon. Have some."

Gui Lan chomped on the salmon in his bowl and ate, "Thank you, papa." he replied.

Gui Shi was delighted enough that he almost couldn't stop himself from grinning. He even averted his face immediately as he covered his nose. There's some trails of blood on his hand. Old butler Ke at once passed the tissue to his master to cover up his embarrassing moment.

"My boy is so cute~" murmured Gui Shi, breaking his serious facade as the prime minister. This old man has always dote on his son but the original is no different from the machine. After Gui Lan was changed this is the first time he shared a meal with this awkward old father.

"Master your nose." whispered Old Butler Ke.

Thankfully received the tissue, "Thanks Old Ke." said Gui Shi.

"Lan'er drink some soup for smooth digestion." said Xie Ye who passed a small bowl of soup and help Gui Lan drink it as he held the bowl.

"A'Ye is there a dessert?" asked Gui Lan.

"I've asked them to prepare some mooncake for you. You can only eat it after dinner." replied Xie Ye.

Beside them Yun Li and Xu Lun were eating silently while for some time Yun Li would only need to glance on a certain plate and Xu Lun would serve it near his lover to eat. Ke Lou and Lin Ye this pair is like that as well. Though Ke Lou would tease his wife first before giving him what he wants. Meanwhile the most awkward couple is Yi Zheng and Li Xing. This is the first time they dine with the prime minister much more to eat such luxurious meals before them. They were moving like robots as they served each other and ate their dinner.

Professor Sen on the other hand was fed by dog food on all sides. Only him had no one to serve him or help him pick his food. He is the sole lonely dog among the rest. In his mind his system is teasing him nonstop that he even halted his eating.

[My host, you sure have a sad life. No one is there to serve you your meal. Your favorite is even on the other side of the table. No one can help you get it for you. Fufufu~]

"Tsk! Why did I even agree to upgrade you in the first place? Your bullying got worse and worse every world."

[Yes. The host had gone to hundreds of worlds but never had a relationship at all in those worlds. My host would be forever alone if this continues.]

"You shut up! I'm not alone! If I don't find someone to marry in the future I will just marry you!!!"

[...---...]

"What? Are you speechless now, Baize? Oi~ are you still there?"

[If the host wants to marry me you have to redeem me first. But are you sure? I am a criminal who is listed under the Nether System. I become a system to redeem for my crimes. Are you not afraid of me, Liu Yan?]

"...I heard that there are levels of crime under the book of Nether. Those who did the worst crimes had their memories completely sealed and had to suffer in countless worlds under the strict surveillance of a warden. Then the lightest begins to do service to the Main System as an auxiliary guide system like you. Obviously your crimes are the lightest you cannot scare me! Hmph!"

[Then I will wait for you to redeem me, Yan'er.]

"Of course you should wait. When I've reached God King stage I would have enough points to redeem from the Nether Prison."

Professor Sen noticed his favorite butter grilled abalone suddenly appearing near his plate. Obviously this dish is placed on the other side of the table. For it to suddenly appeared near him only two people in the place could do so. There is no way for Gui Lan to waste his time on him when his lover is beside him. Then it can only mean that it was his shy system who made the move. He didn't need who he did it, he only need to know that it was given to him by Baize. Thinking of this Professor Sen's lips slightly upturns as he delightfully enjoyed the dinner that night.

The banquet ended successfully. The guests went home as they wished despite the offer for them to stay the night. Ke Lou and Lin Ye also excuse themselves for the evening as they still need to make some final adjustment for the plan. They needed to return to the metropolitan headquarters to do their job. In the mansion aside from the owner and those who live there, only the Xu Lun and Yun Li couples stayed for the night. They've remained just in case Xie Ye and Gui Lan would send out some orders.

In Xie Ye and Gui Lan's room, Xie Ye left for a while to prepare Gui Lan's midnight snacks and get him a hot drink. Gui Lan was seated on a couch looking outside the scenery from the opened veranda door. He looks so serious and no one knows what is in his mind.

[Host, is there a problem?]

"I was just thinking of something. It's not much of an important thought."

[Host, did your memories really returned?]

Gui Lan looked at his system and just gave him a mischievous smile but didn't give him a straight answer.

Instead he asked, "Are you afraid that I would kill your Lord if my memories returned?"

[...---...] System Yue gave him silence as an answer but silence when being questioned is often synonymous to yes.

"If there is one being in all realms that I couldn't kill outside of my family. It would only be Ye Xiajie, Yue."

Gui Lan's reply left System Yue astonished. He doesn't understand the meaning of the words his host means nor he could ask him again the reason why. He had a feeling that even if he asked his host wouldn't give him an answer. System Yue watched his host look at the horizon paralleled to his line of sight but couldn't see any different from that direction. He could only retain in silence waiting for the next command of his temporary host.

Meanwhile within those teal orbs was a calculative glint as if predicting things that might happen in the future. Followed by excitement and annoyance of knowing things that would be normally hidden for other people.

'If they learned that I am the one by his side, would the mastermind of this farce come out himself or... would he run away like all others who are scared of me? Let's wait. It won't be too late to kill them all off in the future. I wanted to spend a few more worlds together with A'Xia.'

The slight glint of silver within those teal irises diminishes as Gui Lan blinks his eyes. He decided to turn a blind eye on a few things to enjoy more time with his lover. When Xie Ye returns, Gui Lan joins him to enjoy the dessert and share a drink before they enter their slumber.

Eternal Palace.

House of the President.

Inside the dimmed lighted office of the president, a familiar looking man was kneeling on the ground with his head even touching the floor. The one on the floor is none other than the destroyer whose clone was erased by Gui Lan 15 years ago. After losing half of cultivation he who used to be a God King had degraded to just being a God with half of his soul completely gone. Right now he is even weaker than Professor Sen who just ascended as a God a few years ago. This man is named Lu Gian.

Lu Gian is currently kowtowing before the man in front of him. The features of the man before him is covered darkness except for his forest green eyes which looked down on Lu Gian.

While trembling badly in fear, Lu Gian kowtowed before the man even ignoring his bleeding forehead.

"Master. Master please little to this slave's words. There is someone strong in this star that was intentionally protecting that man's soul fragments. He is able to enter an original resident's vessel and he is able to command his system without consequences." Explained Lu Gian.

The emerald eyed man responded, "How strong is he? Did you witness anything else about that person you are talking about?"

"This slave didn't know how strong he was. When that person killed my clone he only used a High God cultivation to defeat my God level clone. I didn't notice anything weird except..."

"Except what?"

"His eyes turned into silver when he was very angry."

As Lu Gian mentioned this, the man before him suddenly staggers as he steps back as if he was shocked out of his mind. It took a while before his master spoke to him once again.

"What shade of silver? Is it the same color of the glistening moon!?"

Lu Gian flinched but his master's voice suddenly roared. "I-I... I don't remember. But this slave is sure that it was silver!!!" he replied as he lowered his head in fear that he might be killed. movelusb.com

"Useless."

Lu Gian was suddenly kicked away from the man. He heard his ribs breaking but he still worked hard to crawl and kowtow before the man.

"Please forgive this slave. Please forgive this slave. Spare my live master. I will be useful..." pleaded Lu Gian.

Lu Gian's begging echoes in the whole quiet room but the man didn't reply at all. As when he thought that he would be killed for failing his mission the green eyed man spoke.

"I will give you one more chance to repent. Kill the soul fragment's vessel in this world and you shall be forgiven."

Lu Gian felt that he was given one stroke of hope and was delighted that he could redeem himself.

"Thank you, Master. I will do my best to kill that person!!!" said Lu Gian.

"You can leave."

"Yes, Master."

After saying those words Lu Gian left the room. The man's green eyes glints with mockery as he watches Lu Gian leave.

"If you could really kill a man under the protection of the destruction itself then there would be only peace in this world and no death."

Chapter 93: 4.31 Third Blue Star - Not human

Gui Lan and the rest of the team enjoyed the short moments before the final day. On this day they would implement the plan to destroy the core of all madness in this world. The Inferno Syndicate. This organization is an evil one who treats human lives as experiments. He created man made espers and hypnotized those to look at normal people as someone lower than they are. They wanted to take control of the authority of not just this country but of the whole world. At the beginning they've increased the crime rate by a few folds and wanted to scare the normals about the difference of an espers to a normal person.

They would have been successful if not for the SID unit existing. With the backing of the Prime Minister itself the newly made unit composed of normals and espers working together had controlled the crime rate stabilizing it at an acceptable rating. The relationship between the espers and normals haven't completely gone bad. With Yi Zheng's protagonist halo these kinds of things were easily solved even when he was on his own thought every case took longer to solve than when he got the help of Gui Lan.

At dawn the preparation to surround the estate of the president has been done. The rest were just waiting for the leaders to give the command. Xie Ye took the lead together with Yi Zheng and Xu Lun. They've led a vanguard team into the palace of the president while Professor Sen, Li Xing and Yun Li at the rear for support. Ke Lou, Lin Ye and people of the Gui Clan were at the borderline to separate the normals near the vicinity.

Xie Ye led the team and entered the palace capturing those who surrendered and killing those who didn't. He let Yi Zheng and Xu Lun focus on raiding the whole place while he looked for the President's office to look for that man who caused him to be separated from Gui Lan for 15 years.

"A'Yi, A'Xu, divide into two groups and clean up the palace. I will look for their head." said Xie Ye.

"Be careful, dage." said Yi Zheng.

"What about the president, Boss?" asked Xu Lun.

Xie Ye replied, "Capture him and gather all necessary proof to condemn him. I will leave him to father-in-all after this raid."

"Father-in-all? The minister agreed to A'Lan and dage's relationship!" said Yi Zheng.

"Did A'Lan agree?" Xu Lun asked the most important question.

Xie Ye smiled when he heard what Xu Lun asked, apparently Gui Lan agreed to it. Yi Zheng and Xu Lun sighed in relief seeing this. Only when Gui Lan agreed that there should be no other problem afterwards. At least a problem that will come from the Gui Clan will never happen.

"Congratulations!" The two said.

"Father-in-all and the elders will make the preparation for the wedding. I and Lan'er decided to go abroad for honeymoon if you guys are coming clean up your schedules yourselves. I'll be going now." said Xie Ye as he separate from the group to look for the mastermind. His smile disappeared as soon as he got separated from the group.

Yi Zheng and Xu Lun divided the rest of the team to do their orders.

Meanwhile in the sky,

Gui Lan watched from above observing the whole scene at wide range. He would support the three teams if needed. This is Xie Ye's request. His lover wanted to kill that man from 15 years ago.

"Yue, are you sure that destroyer is in the president's office?"

[I am sure, host. But there is something wrong with his aura.]

"Is that so? Yue go and support A'Ye since he knows your existence the Heavenly Laws wouldn't care about the restriction on him as the punishment was already bestowed on me."

[But host I cannot leave your side. I am your system.]

"I might be your host but now that I am giving you orders to support your lord. In the first place my existence is never under your jurisdiction. Just go Yue." said Gui Lan.

[I... sigh~ Understood, host. I will leave the skill card: Limit Breaker in your possession instead.] System Yue left to offer his service to his lord as his host orders.

The moment System Yue had left his side, Gui Lan's expression became devoid of emotions and feeling. There is only cold calmness and aloofness. Like nothing was worthy for him to lay his eyes upon. He didn't even move his head as he speaks in an austere manner.

"Come out. I even personally send away my little moon to cater your nonsense."

Behind Gui Lan a man in pure black robes appeared. His hair is untied, pure black hair flowing behind him. His green eyes were looking at Gui Lan with adornment and high regards. This man obviously knew Gui Lan's real identity. The man instantly fell on one knee as he greeted Gui Lan.

"Please accept my greetings, esteemed Young Prince Hei. This one is called Hei Wanyu from the Hei Clan."

"Hei Clan? Why would the clan that chose to banished my father be the one to approach me without fear of death? Do you think this Lord would not kill you?" said Gui Lan as he twisted his body to look at Hei Wanyu's angle. His formerly teal colored irises now have the hue of moonlight, argent coldness and detachment.

In that split moment Hei Wanyu's whole being felt the pain of being ripped apart even his internal organs weren't spared and one by one exploded inside him.

'It's him! It's really him! Fuck! I'm going to die. I'm really going to fucking die! He even has precise control over his powers as he only used the pressure only on him alone not even a hint of aura spills in this little star. Shit! I don't want to die! I need to report this person's existence to master. He is extremely dangerous.'

"Thinking of escaping? In front of me, are you sure of that?" said Gui Lan as he took complete control of the space around Hei Wanyu, preventing not even a hint of his soul to escape his grasp.

Hei Wanyu in a state of stupefaction said, "Y-You can control space elements? Didn't they say you can only use Ice and Blood!?"

Gui Lan gave him a mocking smile, "I wonder who was the fool who told you such incomplete information. Ice is the main element of my Mo Bloodline. Blood from the Hei and Space is my second main after Ice. I will have a private talk to you later for now. You have to sleep until I tell you to wake up."

The last sentence of Gui Lan was done using his authority ability at full force. Even a Mythical God like Hei Wanyu could never disobey.

In his stupor Hei Wanyu saw those legendary silver eyes, only those of direct bloodline of Hei Clan could possess.

'Those argent orbs... hah~ It's really beautiful like... that person's eyes...'

After Hei Wanyu entered a deep slumber state as Gui Lan commanded. He threw the man in his personal domain. It is a private space that only he could control. As soon as the space rift that connects to his domain disappears Gui Lan coughs a mouthful of blood. This time is needed for hands to bear it.

He used an ice element to freeze the blood and let it turn to a blood mist to disperse it. After cleaning himself up Gui Lan continues to watch his lover who was about to reach the president's office. The whole event wasn't noticed by anyone else even the Heavenly laws of this world as he prevented everyone to do so. This is also the reason why he used his real cultivation as a Celestial God. Because he wanted to capture Hei Wanyu.

"I guess using my real cultivation with this state is indeed too much. I wonder how many years could I stay with you in this world? At least I had captured someone who might give me the lead of why you are being targeted. You just need to focus on healing. I will collect your soul fragments and block all your enemies for you, A'Xia." murmured Gui Lan only the wind is able to hear his words as the skill card on his hand which his system passed to him had turned to ashes upon activation duration finished.

Back to the Palace,

Xie Ye finally reached the office of the President but before he could open the door he looked somewhere above him with puzzlement in his eyes.

[Sire Xie Ye what's wrong?] System Yue calls him by his name instead of his title as Ye Xiajie's soul hasn't completely awake yet.

"Are you sure that Lan'er is okay alone?" asked Xie Ye.

[The host is stronger than you think. Please worry about yourself instead Sire Xie. Your opponent is an outsider that is considered as God in this world.]

"I know. I will still kill him even if he is a God." responded Xie Ye.

[Be careful in front of you!]

But the moment Xie Ye opened the door something huge jumped towards his direction pushing out of the palace with him even destroying the wall behind him due the force coming from before him. He covered himself with Ice barrier to prevent being hurt by the debris of broken things behind him. Xie Ye couldn't see the figure before him because of dust and rubbles.

Xie Ye was pushed out until he was outside the palace. Before he got thrown completely he had already informed the people outside to give a huge space for him and the thing they considered as an enemy. Gui Lan who was watching the whole scene had issued the order of retreat as well even before Xie Ye does.

Thankfully Yi Zheng and Xu Lun who heard the warning had gone out of the palace before it totally collapsed. Xie Ye who was thrown outside had already supported himself before he hit the ground. He used his arms as leverage to flip backwards as he created a distance away from the enemy.

Yi Zheng, "DAGE!?"

Xu Lun, "Boss!!"

"Spread! Prepare for battle!" ordered Xie Ye.

"What is this thing? It seems huge." said Li Xing.

Yun Li responded, "I don't think it's human at all."

The people in the audience didn't even notice that the sun was slowly turning black and the sky is turning dark. They've all waited for the dust and rubbles to lessen. But everyone could see a mountain-like figure buried in dirt and dust quivering as if removing the sand on him. As the figure was revealed everyone in the area was shocked. Before them is a beast with the size as tall of a 4 floor building. Large claws and sharp teeth. long fur with a similar figure of a dog. The thing before them is obviously a huge wolf like monster, but their surprise didn't end with just that because the beast suddenly...

"Humans~ you can only blame yourselves for bringing out my existence to your life~"

The huge beast suddenly talks like a human, leaving everyone speechless in shock, fear and disbelief.

"What the hell is this thing?" asked Xie Ye.

[It's a Tiangou. It has a lot of names but it's most common name is Sky Wolf. It's a black dog which caused eclipses by trying to eat the sun and moon. A heavenly beast which reached ascension to become a mythical being.]

Chapter 94: 4.32 Third Blue Star - Sky Wolf

[It's a Tiangou. It has a lot of names but it's most common name is Sky Wolf. It's a black dog which caused eclipses by trying to eat the sun and moon. A heavenly beast which reached ascension to become a mythical being.]

Before them is a ruined site of the former estate of the President and a huge wolf-like creature whose features were only depicted in the legends.

Xie Ye whispered, "Sky Wolf, a beast which is considered as a Myth."

All of the sudden Xie Ye heard his wife's voice in his mind. They were connected with Telepathy and unlike the rest, his connection to Gui Lan is a permanent one.

Gui: {A'Ye, this beast can be considered a Beast God in this world. But the Heavenly laws restrict its strength as it's not an original being born to this world. It's strength is just a few stages stronger than yours. If you work with Yi Zheng and Xu Lun you should be able to kill it. Or do you want me to support you instead?}

Xie: {There is no need, Lan'er. This is the creature that forced us to get separated 15 years ago. I wanted to end it's life with my own hands. The Vanguard Team will kill this beast.}

Gui: {...Sigh~ I understand. I will protect the rest of the group. Just focus on the beast and be careful.}

Xie: {Baby~ do you have some weapon I could borrow?}

Gui: {What kind do you need?}

Xie: {A sword would be better.}

Gui: {I get Yue to pass it to you.}

Xie: {Baby, one last thing. Could you separate this beast and me to the rest of the group.}

Gui: {I will prepare the stage for you, A'Ye.}

Xie: {Great! Baby wait for me to skin this animal and prepare a new fur carpet for our bedroom!}

(Telepathic conversation ends.)

"Dage!?" calls Yi Zheng.

Xu Lun asked, "Any injuries boss?"

Yi Zheng and Xu Lun who just rejoined him overheard their leader's rumbles. Only then did they recognize the being before them.

"A Mythical Being? It's a God Class creature then!?! Holy Shit!" exclaimed Yi Zheng. movelusb.com

Xu Lun stared at the creature before then with shock.

"I've seen large sized gorillas and snakes in the Amazon Rainforest but not in this humongous size!" uttered Xu Lun in surprise.

It didn't take a while for the vanguard team to regather and surround the beast. But even though he is surrounded the sky wolf acted like he didn't care about their numbers. He was even looking down on them.

The beast spoke, "Hm~ there are still humans in this mid tier world who know this deity's origin. Not bad~" The beast grinned, showing his fangs to his prey. "But this doesn't mean I will spare your little lives~"

The first one to sense danger is Xu Lun because of his ability.

Xu Lun shouted, "Be careful! The ones behind! It's going to start attacking!"

As soon as he spoke that the huge wolf suddenly appeared before the vanguard team. Using it's inhuman speed to appear before the weakest link in the crowd intending to lessen their numbers. This Sky wolf seems to know tactics as well as the first target of his attack is the support group whose duty is to heal others.

The sky wolf who suddenly appeared on the rear with its almost unparalleled agility had it's huge paws about to land on the healing group.

"Too late, human!!!" the wild beast exclaimed.

Among the group in that area happens to be Li Xing. Seeing such a dire situation of his lover, Yi Zheng had a look of despair in his eyes.

Yi Zheng screamed in desperation, "XING'ER!!!"

Li Xing saw the huge paws above him, he felt the weakness of an ant in front of a humongous monster. He couldn't even hear his lover's voice shouting his name with anguish. He could only feel his life flashes before him.

'Am I going to die?' Li Xing's thoughts at the last moments.

He closed his eyes preparing for death and that awaited pain he would suffer in a few seconds. But after waiting for a while even lasting a few minutes Li Xing and the rest didn't feel the pain they should be inflicted with. Then there's a sudden stillness in the area. When Li Xing opened his eyes a barrier made of ice appeared surrounding the area the wolf had targeted. Even the strength of his claws were unable to break the ice.

Stunned Sky Wolf, "What!?"

Li Xing and rest, who had the idea who protected them.

"A'Lan?" murmured Li Xing who fell seated on the ground as he felt relief of being out of the grasp of death. "Thank you."

Then in everyone's mind Gui Lan's cold voice resounded. Before they've gone to this place everyone else including in this part of the plan made a temporary link with Gui Lan using his telepathy. Xie Ye took the overall command to him while he and his vanguard team focused on fighting in the front lines.

Xie: {Everyone retreat! Leave the beast to Xie Ye and the vanguard team. Vanguard Team follows Xie Ye's orders strictly. Healing group. Don't scatter around, you will need to provide fullest support for the Vanguard team. The rest of the group, don't move I will teleport you to different coordinates. Your task is to capture all the strugglers and escapees from the syndicate. Return to the headquarters before the sun had completely set.}

Vanguard Group: {As you wish!}

Li Xing and the Healing team: {Understood!}

The rest of the team: {Yes Sir Gui!}

Only the sky wolf didn't hear Gui Lan's voice but was quiet the whole time as if remembering something. The moment he saw this barrier made of indestructible ice made him remember the memories he got from his clone which was killed 15 years ago. He started trembling as he remembered those tortures he had suffered under that child's hand. He knew that the boy isn't what he looks like. That thing is a monster. The same kind as that master who picked him up. A higher being.

The larger group have been teleported away to do their tasks while the rest prepare for the battle.

While the wolf is distracted with his harrowing memories, Gui Lan who was watching the scene from above wipes the corner of his lips as blood trails are still left behind. System Yue who returned to his side saw his host's state. He immediately understood that his host mist had used the skill card once again.

[Host! Are you okay!? The suppression in your soul has wavered. The soul damage percentage had reached 50%.]

"It's fine. A normal backlash from using the skill card. The master of that wild wolf is a bit harder to kill."

[A master? That Sky Wolf had a master?]

"Yes! A Mythical God from the highest realm."

[Someone from Vearth!? But that is impossible no one should know the current state of the Lord God except for my boss!]

"You have traitors in your side. After we leave this small star you should go return to your boss and report about this personally. I will also need a short break to heal my soul during that time."

Gui Lan used a space element to let his hand enter in a separate space moving his hands around inside. This small dimension was connected to Gui Lan's personal inventory. He was looking for a sword that will become useful for Xie Ye to use. After rampaging around he pulled out a pure black sword with scarlet gemstone on the handle. The sword is flawless and sharp as if it could cut anything in its way. Its blade down to it's hilt is black as if the whole thing is made from obsidian stones. The sword had the aura of death, blood and darkness. This is obviously a demonic sword.

"Give this to him." said Gui Lan.

[B-But this is a? demonic sword. T-The Lord God's soul hasn't awakened yet and his mortal soul fragment would not be able to control the evil aura in this sword.]

Gui Lan smiled as he heard a joke. Just based on his expression Gui Lan didn't believe that Ye Xiajie hadn't awakened yet. Just the fact that Xie Ye suddenly recognized him when he decided to leave his side in anger, there is no way Ye Xiajie didn't wake up that time. That man has always been afraid of him leaving for some unknown reason. He didn't explain anything to his system and just gave him the black sword for him to pass it to Xie Ye who is looking for a weapon.

"By the way Yue."

[Yes, Host]

Gui Lan used Authority on System Yue. He even used his real cultivation to suppress him despite the consequences.

"Authority: {You are forbidden to inform A'Xia about this body's current state while I'm still alive. Nothing should be informed. Not allowed to report that I used Authority on you and your state will remain normal when asked.}"

System Yue was shocked upon receiving the orders through Authority. Even if a system using this kind of skill is usually useless, that is only if the former is weaker than him. Obviously this doesn't fall in this category as the person in front of him is a lot stronger than he is. Not just a few levels but a difference of stages.

[...---...] System Yu who was bestowed an irrefutable order could only accept it in silence.

His host ignored his silence, "Go on. Pass the sword to A'Ye." said Gui Lan.

[Oh... Sigh~ I understand. Please leave it to me.]

As soon as System Yue left his side, blood still continued to flow from the corner of his lips. Gui Lan nonchalantly wipes it with an expressionless face. He remembered his system's last report about his soul damage percentage.

"50%... Which means I could only live to be 40 years old at least. If I bear with it then there should be no problem with living until 50." murmured Gui Lan.

His eyes then wondered at Xie Ye's figure below him. When Xie Ye didn't recognize him and even dared to reject him, Gui Lan was honestly disappointed. He was disheartened by the fact that Xie Ye wasn't the first one to recognize him as Gui Lan when he was the person he spent most of his time with in their childhood. Despite that Gui Lan didn't get angry at Xie Ye and instead forgive him right away. Even returning to his side as soon as his identity was revealed.

Gui Lan slyly smiled and uttered, "It's true that I am not angry but... that doesn't mean there is no punishment. Would you get angry at me if I don't tell you that I could only stay by your side for at most 30 years in this world, A'Xia..."

Below

System Yue had successfully fulfilled his task of giving Xie Ye the black sword though he is very reluctant to do so. He sighed in relief when he saw that Xie Ye remained sane even after holding a demonic sword in his hands. He didn't even notice Xie Ye's serious expression when System Yue gave the sword.

[Is there something wrong with the sword Sire Xie?]

"You said Lan'er told you to give me this sword."

[Yes. This is the sword the host prepared for you sire.]

Looking at the extremely compatible sword on his hands, Xie Ye could only groan.

[The sword doesn't suit your taste, Sire?]

"It's because it suits me too much that I'm depressed. Giving me this kind of sword at this time means he already knew."

[What does sire means?]

"It means he knew that I've already woken up, Executioner 13."

When System Yue heard his real title being called by Xie Ye made him understand that his Lord God had already awakened and based on his state his Lord and Xie Ye's soul had already merged.

[Greetings my Lord!!]

"You can report to me later but there is still something I want to ask first."

As if System Yue already knew what kind of question his lord would ask, even though he wanted to report all details because of the authority used on him his body refused to follow his commands.

[...Please ask my Lord.]

"What is wrong with Jing'er?" asked Xie Ye as his eyes in this very moment turned obsidian in color.

As the effect of Authority was placed on him System Yue replied without hesitation and monotonous like always.

[Nothing is wrong. Everything is fine. My Lord.]

Chapter 95: 4.33 Third Blue Star - Death of the Sky Wolf

Xie Ye led the Vanguard Team and fought with the Sky Wolf. Gui Lan supported the team and erected a tall transparent ice dome while enclosing the beast and the Vanguard team in it. The healing team is outside the dome watching for the whole fight. As soon as one of the members of the vanguard team is hurt the rest would work to pull him out of the dome and heal him right away.

Xie Ye while holding a black sword is fighting the wolf one on one while the rest supported him from the sideline, attacking the wolf randomly. It's huge body was a perfect target for a group attack. Since Xie Ye is holding the beast in one place, they could target the enemy without precise targeting. They only need to avoid accidentally hitting their teammates.

The Sky Wolf howls in anger seeing these puny little insects attacking him but was still vigilant enough as he remembered the fear towards that ice ability user who killed his clone 15 years ago might be lurking in shadows watching him make a fool out of himself.

Everyone could hear the wolf's rambling.

"Bastard. bastard. Bastard. Why are you interfering!? If not for you I wouldn't be in this state! You've already killed my clone. What the hell do you still want from me!? Fuck. fuck. You're a higher being, why are you caring for these puny insects when they are not even useful for you!!! Dammit!" yelled the Sky Wolf.

Yi Zheng yelled back, "You are the bastard! How are you calling insects!?"

"It's you. All of you! You are just insects. An Ant! Do you not know that child who I fought before!? He is not human. He is even stronger than an ordinary God! Fuck! I do not understand why he is protecting you guys and this little world at all!" screamed the Sky Wolf despite being injured all over his body.

ROOAARR!!!

The Sky Wolf was about to enter his berserk mode when his neck and limbs were suddenly bound by chains made of Ice. This control attack is something Xie Ye didn't at the moment the beast is the weakest. He restrained the wolf at the split moment of opportunity when its guards at the lowest during the initial stages of his berserk. The Ice cooldown the raging emotion of the wild beast. With the sudden restriction his berserk mode went wary and the sky wolf ended up suffering a backlash.

CLING. CLING.

Struggling to move, "What is fuck!? Chains made of ice!?" The Sky Wolf glared at the human holding the black blade. He witnessed this human using Ice elements to restrict his movements.

"Who are you? Why can you use the same element as that person!?" asked the Sky Wolf.

Xie Ye's face is cold and ruthless as he waves his sword to cut off the legs of the wolf. The Sky Wolf could only howl in pain as he lost his limbs. Giving Xie Ye a death glare as if he wanted to eat him alive. Chewy him like a snack. But within those eyes were mixed emotions of shocked, disbelief and agony. This Sky Wolf couldn't believe that he lost to a human being.

Sky Wolf looked at Xie Ye like he was something weird.

"You are definitely not... that boy whom... I fought ...15 years ago but... the ice element you've used... had the same purity. That ice is not... just someone could... wield..." said the Sky Wolf in between his breath, he could even feel his body turning cold at every second.

Xie Ye understood what the dying wolf was trying to say and replied to him.

"My ability is copy. Ice element is my wife's ability."

The Sky Wolf's eyes widened in surprise as saw the eyes of the human before him slowly changing from crimson to pure darkness. As if feeling the abyss looking back at him the Sky Wolf felt an undeniable strength within those darkness filled orbs. It was a strength that is beyond his and that man he calls as master. But this person's strength is not yet at the same level as that smiling devil. Not yet. At least not for now.

Only then he understood the real identity of the human before him. It was this person, that the little devil is protecting with everything. Just now he totally felt that the aura of his master was gone. His master had made his move to find that child from 15 years ago. Now that his master's aura completely disappeared all of the sudden means that he is either dead or captured. The Sky Wolf feels that more of the latter instead.

"Wife? Hehe~ you have an extremely powerful wife. Then I have only one last thing to say to you. Are you willing to listen?" said the Sky Wolf.

Xie Ye responded coldly, "Speak beast."

The Sky Wolf snorted at him and said, "15 years ago when you didn't wake up. Everything had already been decided. You will never be able to change the future now."

15 years ago if I remembered it correctly, that little devil who killed my clone had a fatal wound in the soul which means he wouldn't be able to live long in this little star. While this bastard will have to live even longer than his other half.

HAHAHAHAHA!!!

SLASH

Xie Ye's stygian irises glinted with ruthlessness and mercilessness, he slashed the beast's neck with his black sword. Separating the head from its body. Then Sky Wolf is no more.

Everyone watched as their leader took the head of their enemy with the Master of the Inferno Syndicate gone, Inferno will no longer exist. Everyone in SID celebrated their victory despite the fact that the coldness deep within Xie Ye's eyes is not without a reason. This mythical creature said that the future is set on stone 15 years ago. He even knew that he had just recently awakened. This can only mean that this wolf knew that he is a soul fragment that just woke up.

"Everything was set to stone 15 years ago. What does he mean?" murmured Xie Ye. The black sword disappears out of nowhere but Xie Ye could summon it back if he wished to. That is a demonic sword that could be called by the owner anytime. The moment he held the sword and didn't die means he was accepted as the owner of such a cursed weapon.

Before he could mulled over things someone fell from the sky to his arms. Xie Ye carefully catches the falling person in his embrace. It was Gui Lan.

"Good job, A'Ye!" said Gui Lan as he wrapped his hand around Xie Ye's neck and gave him a kiss on his cheeks.

Muaa! Xie Ye couldn't help but smile as his beloved gave him a kiss but he still thinks it's not enough.

After celebrating for a short notice they finally remembered their leaders who worked the hardest for this plan. One fought in the frontlines while the other supported everyone, preventing the possible deaths of their unit. They thanked God that they could finally be free from those psychopath espers who only kill for joy and blood. With the end of Inferno, those psychopaths would no longer be created by humans anymore. They could finally have a normal life with fear of losing their lives because of the syndicate. As after today inferno will be no more.

Looking at Xie Ye and Gui Lan's interaction. Everyone is joyous for this pair as they know what kind of hardships they've suffered even getting separated from each other for 15 years.

Xie Ye complains, "Baby~ is that all for my reward? Not even a proper kiss." he is looking at his lover with pleading and unsatisfied eyes.

Gui Lan used his left index finger and pushed up Xie Ye's chin. With a taunting smile on his face, he looked at Xie Ye with a passionate and haughty gaze.

"What do you want? A'Ye~ tell me... What. do. you. want?~" whispered Gui Lan while mischievously blowing on Xie Ye's ears.

Everyone around them felt embarrassed for no reason. Some shy ones even covered their faces only peeking through the slit of their fingers. Some were bold enough to record the scene while some were giving Xie Ye a playful smirk and teasingly eyes. movelusb.com

They can see that Xie Ye was dumbfounded for a moment. He could even see him gulping as his Adam's apple moved up and down when he heard Gui Lan's playful voice directly to his ears.

Seeing his lover's slightly tinted ears, Gui Lan felt that he hadn't teased him enough and whispered a few more words of temptation. Only Xie Ye experiences the seduction directly from a little devil.

Gui Lan whispered, "Can't decide~ I'll wait for you at home. So think about it well. A'Ye~" he then chomped on Xie Ye's ears before kissing it coyly.

Then everyone watched Gui Lan suddenly disappear from Xie Ye's arms and then all that was left behind was a blushing tomato called Xie Ye.

Seeing this kind of Xie Ye, Yi Zheng couldn't stop himself from laughing. Clearly he isn't the only one trying to hold back their laughter but only he lost control of his mouth and the sound of joy comes out from his mouth.

Pfft! Hahaha~

It didn't take a while for the rest to follow his steps and laughed together with him. Forgetting that their target of laughter is none other than their boss. But instead of getting angry Xie Ye steps in huge strides towards Yi Zheng and pats his shoulders with force to choke his laughing.

Pat. Pat. Pat.

"Good~ You now even dare to laugh at me ha~ A'Yi..." said Xie Ye with a bright smile on his captivating face but unlike when he is looking at Gui Lan this expression is clearly false. Behind that smile is a demon who is raging in anger.

Yi Zheng's face turned ashen right at this moment while the laughter from before had all paused.

Everyone's thoughts while looking at the pale Chief of SID:

'Rest in place, Chief!'

Yi Zheng raised both his hands and shook his head like a machine with few loose screws.

"No. no. D-Dage. I won't dare anymore." responded Yi Zheng.

Xie Ye ignored his gesture and responded, "Remember, A'Yi. I and Lan'er are going to retire. Do not visit us for a week or so. I will meet you when our wedding preparations are done."

Yi Zheng's nervousness instantly disappeared when he heard Xie Ye's words. Xie Ye and Gui Lan suddenly retiring from SID mean all the work for the aftermath will fall on him and Li Xing.

"D-Dage. T-This... you don't need to retire. I-I'll give you a yes! A long vacation." said Yi Zheng, trying his hardest to keep the two in his unit.

Li Xing who was standing beside Yi Zheng giggled but still stopped his lover from convincing Xie Ye to remain in SID.

"A'Zhe let them go. I will help you with work." said Li Xing.

Yun Li and Xu Lun who understood Li Xing's reason for agreement of their bosses' retirement also speak.

Yun Li said, "If you don't mind me helping. I would lend you a hand."

"Hehe~ I will partner up with Li'er and help as well." said Xu Lun.

Yi Zheng was still very reluctant to let go of the two. Only when his lover whispered a few things that he let it go.

"Okay! I will make necessary preparation for it. Dage, please be happy with A'Lan." said Yi Zheng with a huge grin on his face.

Xie Ye's expression slightly softens and replies, "I will make Lan'er happy."

After finishing things here and there he also disappeared from the place and used teleportation to leave the location like what Gui Lan did before. Once Xie Ye disappeared from their sight, Yi Zheng could only let out a deep breath of resignation.

Li Xing, who understood his lover's reluctance could only comfort him by patting his back.

"They've been separated for 15 years already. Let them spend more time together." said Li Xing.

"They should live for their happiness this time." said Yun Li.

Xu Lun spoke, "It's not like we can't ask for help if there is really a case we couldn't solve. They would be in the Minister's estate anyway."

"Sigh~ indeed I shouldn't be making selfish decisions. They had suffered enough. But... you guys would really help me right?! I don't want to work overtime alone! We still need to schedule our vacation to join them in their honeymoon getaway!" said Yi Zheng.

Hearing this the other three had a smile on their face, apparently they also had this on their minds.

"Of course!"

Afterwards they cleaned up the rest of the things regarding the president's estate. Gather all evidence and capture all members of the syndicate. though there are some who escape those people would be put under the wanted bounty list. With the help of the Gui Clan and the Psyche Institute cleaning the aftermath had gone smoothly even when the two former core of the group had left the team.

Chapter 96: 4.34 Third Blue Star - Bathroom (M)

Gui Clan's Mansion.

Gui Lan and Xie Ye's floor.

After the success of their plan, Inferno is no more. The destroyer who is known as the Sky Wolf is dead. Gui Lan's task for this world is completed. Teleporting and appearing inside a huge and grand master's bedroom, Gui Lan fell directly on the nearest couch and immediately covered his mouth.

Cough!

From the slit of his fingers crimson liquid slips through. Dyeing the couch cover under Gui Lan. The scent of rust spreads inside the place.

[Host!]

"I am fine, Yue. Clean up all the blood. Don't leave any traces, even the scent must be removed." responded Gui Lan.

System Yue did as he was ordered and all traces of blood including the scent and traces on the couch disappeared. Gui Lan sat on the clean couch and? circulated his qi trying his best to suppress the injury in his soul. He had to meditate fast before Xie Ye came over and acted. nothing is wrong.

System Yue hovers around his host checking on his. The soul damage index of his host had reached over half. It is now 73%, this index will continue to exist as long as his host continues to use his esper abilities.

"Yue, how long can this body last? The exact duration if you can." asked Gui Lan while meditating his eyes close at the moment but could still pinpoint his system's exact location.

[25 years. 160 days. If the host continues to use your abilities then it will decrease more. Even if the host successfully suppressed his injuries then 30 years at most.]

"It's not the same as what you've said. Before the minimum is 40 years."

[This is because the host unsealed his real cultivation. Even if it was for a few seconds the backlash of your overwhelming qi is almost impossible to bear for such a fragile vessel. Host, did the enemy you've met is...]

"Yes. It's a high tier being. He has the cultivation stage of Mythical God. Don't worry I've killed him." responded Gui Lan as he finished suppressing his injuries within his soul.

[Is he after the...] System Yue shut his mouth right away and didn't continue asking his question. Just the fact that his host killed the man means that the latter was after their Lord God (His host's other half).

Gui Lan speaks, "A'Ye should be returning soon. I need to prepare." Then he stood up and took a towel and bathrobes from the closet and entered the bathroom intending to take a bath.

The bathroom in the floor where Gui Lan and Xie Ye reside is huge. Like a circle shaped swimming pool, the people who intended to take a bath could be soaked in it with warm water coming out of the angel fountain at the center of the natatorium. Jade plated walls, slightly patterned floor which allows people not to slip easy even with wet feet. The water from the fountain is constantly running and the excess water was used to water the plants outside the mansion. There's a bit of steam converging above the pool which signifies the warm temperature of the water.

Gui Lan is wearing a one piece silk like dress over his body without anything under. He walked carefully towards the pool and slowly dipped the tip of his toes to test the temperature whether it was too hot or just right. Gui Lan's body temperature is slightly cold by nature. As soon as his toes touch the water it curls instinctively in response to the sudden change of temperature. Slowly put his jade like foot into the water. Gui Lan was satisfied with the hotness and walked deeper towards the pool. He sat down and soaked half of his body under the warmth of the pond. He leans himself on the inner walls of the pool and uses his arms as a pillow before closing his eyes.

Meanwhile when Xie Ye got back into the house, he saw Yue hovering around the room above the plates of snacks on the side table. It took a while for Xie Ye to return because he needed to issue a few last orders in the headquarters and talk with Uncle Ke, Uncle Lou and Professor Sen about the result of their plan. These three middle age adults were delighted by the news he brought to them. Before he returns to the mansion, Xie Ye drops by the Minister's office to meet his father-in-law informing the success of their plan and as well as to resume the progress for their wedding that was scheduled to happen this year.

After completing all his duties he returns to their room looking for his lover, only to see no one by the system.

Xie Ye asked, "13th where is my wife?"

[The host is currently taking a bath my lord.]

"I see. You can report when my wife has gone to sleep. For now I need privacy with him." said Xie Ye who is slowly removing his armor and vest before intending to join his wife to bathe. "Clean those up as well."

[As you wish my lord.]

Xie Ye went to the bathroom after issuing some orders for System Yue. After cleaning up the dirty clothes and etc. inside the room, System Yue left the place with the plate of snacks he was munching on before the lord returned. He gave them the privacy they wanted. It is clear what these couples would be doing when they are alone together. He needs to leave before things inside the room get rated 18.

Bathroom.

The warmness inside the place could be felt through the air as the steam spread inside the area. Xie Ye entered the bathroom with only a tower covering his lower half. Unlike Gui Lan, he isn't afraid of the cold, so exposing his body naked would be normal to him. As he gets closer Xie Ye was welcomed by the bewitching scenery of Gui Lan's wet look with his eyes close as if sleeping by the edge of the pool.

His turquoise dyed hair was slightly wet because of the steam inside the room. Few droplets were seen hanging on some strands of his teal hair. His divine features are picturesque. White jade skin, perfect and glowing. Languid eyelashes of feather-beryl atop his phoenix shaped eyes. Tall nose and pouting lips. They were sumptuous, sensuous and velour soft. The steam left moist on it giving a sultry feeling to those who see. Gui Lan's sleeping figure by the edge looks so serene that it makes Xie Ye think that a siren is unintentionally seducing him by napping at such a place.

But this siren is his beloved, Xie Ye would never hesitate to come over and join him within the waters. Whether it was heaven, earth or hell, he is willing to accompany this person who is the source of his boundless love and obsession. He walks slowly intending to prevent the former from waking up because of the noise. Xie Ye didn't wake Gui Lan up and inside went directly into the water and gently carried the latter allowing him to straddle on top of his body as he sat within the pool. His back leans on the inner walls of the pool and let Gui Lan continue his nap on top of his body. Not forgetting to wrap his arms around that sylphlike waist, pulling Gui Lan tightly into his embrace.

Xie Ye's actions were so gentle as if holding a baby in his hands. Gui Lan didn't wake up right away until he smelled the familiar scent of sandalwood and rust mixed together. Slowly Gui Lan opened his eyes welcoming him are those pair of jet-black orbs imbued by countless stars and galaxies. He moves slightly to take the most comfortable position while wrapping his arms around those firm muscles and lean waist of his husband.

Xie Ye's magnetic voice lingers in his ears as he hears the man speak.

"Awake? Baby~" asked Xie Ye. Since Xie Ye and Ye Xiajie soul had merged completely Xie Ye can now also be considered as Ye Xiajie.

"Hum~ Awake." replied Gui Lan who moved his head to look directly at Xie Ye. He is leaning his chin directly on the man's solid chest as he raises his head to move his eyes to Xie Ye's direction.

Seeing his wife's languid but sultry look made a smile appear on Xie Ye's face and lowered his head to capture those saccharine sweet lips, enjoying the delicacy before him. Their lips touched and grind together. Tongues intertwine as the sounds of pants and sucking echoes within the room. Gui Lan's arms were placed between his and Xie Ye's chest as he propped up himself to meet the man's lips above him. He could feel a pair of hands wandering on his back to his waist slowly going downwards to reach the edge of his thin dress. As those calloused hands caressed his bare skin on his legs to inside his clothes moving upwards as his dress was pulled up at the same time those ticklish caresses fell on his body.

Gui Lan's body suddenly trembles when those fingers skimmed through his chest and teasingly fondles the pair peaks on his body. When Xie Ye suddenly pinched his nipples, Gui Lan couldn't stop a moan from coming out of his lips. Their kiss halted the moment Gui Lan moaned.

"Ahh~"

"Baby raise your arms for a moment please." whispered Xie Ye as he nibbles on Gui Lan's earlobes.

Raising his arms in response to his lover's request, Xie Ye removed the only clothing on his wife's body. Revealing a supple, mermaid's figure before him. Gui Lan's skin was perfect and glowing white. Only those pinkish now pinched red peaks look like cherry on top of a flawless smooth skin. Gui Lan placed his hand on his husband's shoulder as he twitched at every rub this pervert did onto his chest. His face is now tinted with slight crimson as he blinks his eyes enticingly towards Xie Ye clearly playing with him.

Xie Ye seeing his wife's temptress countenance made his already heated body even more aroused. He hugged Gui Lan's waist and nibbled on those peaks. Kissing and sucking on to it while rubbing the other one. Xie Ye's actions made Gui Lan giddy that he could only hug his husband's head as he tried to hold back his voice. Only his fast paced pants and Xie Ye's sucking sounds resound in the closed room. One of Xie Ye's hands remained holding Gui Lan's slim waist while the other hand slipped downwards to that secret place of his wife. He gently rubs and grinds the opening. The warm temperature of the water had longed soften that part making it easier for Xie Ye to slip his fingers one at a time. He motioned his finger in, impelling inside the secret place to wide the space within.

Gui Lan's voice small suppressed in low tone, "Ah. ah."

"Baby~ you don't dislike it? That I'm making you twitch like this do you? You're rocking your hips on your own, Jing'er~" whispered Xie Ye directly to Gui Lan's ear making the latter jolt in response.

Gui Lan pants as he stifled his moan within his mouth, "No, don't say all this in my ears~" he complains while suffering from great pleasure.

Chuckles~

"Heh~ only in this way I could tease my Jing'er into tears." said Xie Ye in undertone.

They once again shared a kiss this time, it was Gui Lan who initiated it. Xie Ye gladly replies to his wife's kisses. In the middle of the kiss Gui Lan slyly smiles as he held the thing poking under his butt. Xie Ye was startled when his wife suddenly held his proudly raised little brother. He could feel his wife's petite fingers sliding up and down on his member. His aroused part was about to reach its peak from his wife's agendas when he felt it entered a hot, tight cave, squeezing him at the timing of his peak. Gui Lan brazenly pushed Xie Ye's inside him when he was about to be released. Because of the overwhelming pressure within that ardent place, he freely cum inside Gui Lan.

Groans~

Xie Ye's unbearable pleasure made him groan in response. Then he heard his wife's flirty voice near his ears coupled up with his panting.

"It's been poking me for a while~ So I could only let this rude thing inside as punishment. Does it feel good, A'Xia~?" rambled Gui Lan to his lover's ears while continuously twisting his hips teasingly.

Groan. Hmp!

Gui Lan, "How is it?~ You still want~ to tease me~ hah!"

Xie Ye who had been teasing for a while retaliated and grabbed Gui Lan's waist. He pushed him in up and down motion provoking the lust between them even deeper. This time Gui Lan no longer suppressed his voice as he welcomed every thrust under him by lowering his hips in response to Xie Ye's upwards motions.

Pa. Pa. Pa. Pa. Pa.

Their movements within the pool are so vigorous that the water even spills out the edges of the pond. But despite that their movements didn't pause until they both reached their peaks and satisfied each other's desires together.

"Pants~ can I do it... inside? Pants~" asked Xie Ye.

Pa. Pa. Pa. Pa. Pa.

Gui Lan who is already a moaning mess but still had a bit of rationality.

"Um~ Ah~ Ha~ Go. You'll be... cleaning it afterwards~" replied Gui Lan in between his breath.

Xie Ye who smiled with satisfaction said, "It will be my pleasure~ Jing'er~"

"AAH~" They finally reached the ascension to the highest peak.

Only the sound of panting and water falling is heard inside the bathroom. Xie Ye and Gui Lan's eyes met and then their lips met. They've shared a passionate kiss full of longing, love and obsession.

"Baby~ let's do it again~" said Xie Ye while nibbling on Gui Lan's cheeks.

Gui Lan didn't reject him and instead hugged him tightly.

"Let's do it on the bed. Want to lay down. So tired~" replied Gui Lan.

Afterwards Xie Ye could only carry his wife back to the bed room and continue their nightly exercise on the bed. The two didn't know how many times they did it or whether the sun was already out when they decided to stop. But that is only an endless night of pleasure, desire and lust.

Chapter 97: 4.35 Third Blue Star - Aftermath [End]

Gui Lan and Xie Ye completely retreated from the duties after retiring. They've stayed in the Gui Clan's estate spending all the time together. No one bothered them and everyone gave them full freedom. Though there are times where Yi Zheng would come over with the rest of the team to complain and visit them, there are no other problems aside from that.

Ke Lou, Lin Ye and Professor Sen worked together to pacify the frightened civilians during their plan's implementation. Thanks to Gui Lan's meticulous planning almost all espers that work for the syndicate were caught. There were some who escaped but what caught thanks to the wanted bounty list the Gui Mansion had released.

The president was brought to court for supporting such inhumane syndicates and was forced to abdicate from his position as the country's leader. When the voting for the new leader was implemented, it was decided anonymously that Prime Minister Gui Shi will take the throne as the president seat. Because of that the Gui Clan had been promoted from a minister's household to a presidential household. The Minister's seat was passed to Lin Ye instead.

It only took half a year for everything to return to normal. SID remains as a special unit in Metropolitan Police. After all there are still many unresolved supernatural cases. Most of this case was put into the category of cold cases in ordinary police departments. These kinds of cases were passed to the SID unit keeping Yi Zheng and Li Xing busy for another half of the year. Xu Lun still works for Xie Ye but because his boss chose to retire, his former duties of gathering intelligence reports change to gathering information about famous honeymoon spots and dating spots to visit. Yun Li still works for the institute as he loves the library of that place. He also helps with his lover's errand in listing a travel schedule for the honeymoon of their bosses. This couple is together most of the time as well, in the library.

Gui Lan and Xie Ye's wedding was finally scheduled to be done in the first week of the new year. It was just a few days after new years as Xie Ye could no longer wait. He even wanted to marry Gui Lan even without the ceremony and pulled the latter the next day after they've retired. Before Gui Lan was tired of the nightly exercise that day, Xie Ye had to carry him on his arm as they ventured to the place called the Civil Bureau. Xie Ye wanted their marriage to be concluded even without the ceremony. The staff of the Civil Bureau who didn't know the couple even thought that the beautiful lazy man was kidnapped and forced to marry this cold handsome man. Old Man Ke heard the news on the same day and immediately reported it to the president. Gui Shi almost beat up Xie Ye when he heard that he brought his sleeping son to the Bureau's office and asked his half asleep son to sign those papers.

Their lives continue until the next year.

When the new year comes, a few days later a big wedding with the president in entourage broadcasted his only son's wedding ceremony. This ceremony is so grand and luxurious as the two men who will be getting married are the heroes who decimated a large syndicate called Inferno. The marriage was recorded in history as the wedding of the century. Right after the wedding Gui Lan and Xie Ye left the country to roam around the world. Following them are their guide and subordinates, Yun Li and Xu Lun, who created the whole schedule of this long journey and the other couple who join for fun, Yi Zheng and Li Xing.

They've roamed around the world. From famous honeymoon spots, famed dating spots, to scenic gardens and beaches, rainforest to desserts and even took the adventure of visiting forbidden zones. it took them ten years to finish this action packed, thrilling and almost life threatening journey of their lives.

After finishing this adventure, Yi Zheng and Li Xing retired from the unit and passed their mantle to the next generation after them. These couples remained in the central city and lived a normal life in their middle age years until they got old. Yun Li and Xu Lun also left the institute to continue serving Gui Lan and Xu Lun as always. Gui Lan and Xie Ye went treasure hunting after their honeymoon as Gui Lan hates boredom more than anything. Xie Ye made sure to complete all of his wife's requests and never left his side the whole time...

At the age of 45, Gui Lan and Xie Ye returned to the country together with Xu Lun and Yun Li. They left the city in request of Gui Lan wanting to live in a quiet place. They've lived within a forest and had a quiet life as a couple.

At the age of 50, Gui Lan asked Xie Ye to return to the Gui Clan to see his father, Gui Shi, with a reason for missing him. They've lived back together with the old man making the latter completely joyous of such events. But Xie Ye knew that his wife has never been close to other people except for him in the other worlds. This time Gui Lan asking to return to Gui Clan made him uncomfortable but his wife never told him the reason and just smiled at him whenever he asked the reason of why?

At Gui Lan age of 51, Xie Ye finally understood the reason for his uneasiness. On Gui Lan's birthday, he suddenly collapsed. The famous doctors of their country and prominent international doctors haven't found the reason why Gui Lan's body suddenly withered in such a state. All doctors who've checked on Gui Lan only gave Xie Ye one answer.

"I'm sorry but we cannot do anything about this."

Evening of Gui Lan's birthday.

Gui Lan was lying on the huge bed with pale skin and lips. Sickly figure as of his withering. Seated at the edge of the bed is Xie Ye who is holding his wife's hands while trembling. His eyes were red from crying and anger. Even when Xie Ye used his Godly powers as Ye Xiajie, there was no effect on Gui Lan's dying vessel.

That night Gui Lan finally woke up from his deep sleep and saw his husband's ugly expression.

"A'Ye don't cry. This is something even... I couldn't change." said Gui Lan with a weak smile on his face.

Xie Ye with his voice hoarse as it is, said, "Tell me. What is happening, Jing'er?" he asked.

"Hehe~ Okay. I will tell you. You have Xie Ye's memories so you should remember. It was on that day I first entered your soul domain. Even before both of your soul fragments merged."

"I remember. That is the day I regret the most in this life." replied Xie Ye.

Gui Lan asked, "Why?"

"Because that is the day I first harmed you in this life." replied Xie Ye with a dark expression of regret and agony in his eyes.

"Is it? But that is the day I made the choice to choose you over everything." said Gui Lan.

Xie Ye was stunned with what he heard.

"W-What do you mean?" he asked.

Gui Lan smiled as if he remembered something. "It was the day that I chose to violate a Divine Law by telling an original resident of a world about the secrets of the higher realms."

"...!!!..." Xie Ye instantly understood the reason for his wife's current state. Knowing this, Xie Ye couldn't help but blamed himself after realizing that he is the reason for his wife's weakened situation.

Gui Lan, "That day I was so scared that you would hate me. Which is why I didn't want to lie to you and told you everything you wanted to know. At that time only your soul as Xie Ye is awake and the other fragment is still asleep. I was afraid that maybe it would leave a doubt in your heart that I didn't tell you any truth. That if I keep my silence it would be considered as lying to you and a seed of doubt would be planted in your heart."

Hearing this explanation the tears of Xie Ye could only fall as he held his wife's cold hands. Clearly this person is about to leave him again. Just like before, this person always chose to live just so he could protect him from harm. Whether it was towards people or negative emotions. This man had always kept him in his protection.

"I would never want to let feel even that tiny hint of doubt in your heart. Which is why I made that choice. I didn't regret that choice of mine. Never regret it. Only... I was a bit disappointed when... you didn't... recognize me at all. It was Yun Li... who noticed me before everyone else and even you. I didn't tell you about this and even used... my Authority skill on Yue... so he wouldn't... be able to... tell you... anything." explained Gui Lan.

Xie Ye, who was crying soundlessly, held his wife's hands while trembling.

The life within Gui Lan's eyes is slightly fading but he still continues to speak.

"It was... intentional. I... didn't want... you to... know... It's not... like... we wouldn't... meet again... in our next... live... be sure... to find... me first,... okay? So,... this is only... a small... punishment... A'Xia... I... lov-----"

Gui Lan took his last breath and wasn't even able to complete his words. As soon as his vessel died because his soul was injured the heavenly laws ejected him right away from that star's administration's control. System Yue even remained in that place for a bit to speak with his boss. Now that his host's body died in this world, the authority placed on him before is no longer applicable.

[I'm sorry my lord but... Sire had been ejected by this world already. I couldn't report everything to my lord because of the command sire had put on me.]

"Executioner 13th. I will not blame you. No, I couldn't even do so. Just tell me everything that happens while I am asleep!!!" said Ye Xiajie.

This time his anger is too much and his sadness is too unbearable as well. This is not the first world for him to wake Hei Anjing dead before him. But unlike before he couldn't follow him right away as the lifespan of his vessel isn't even half of its original lifespan. Because of his high level of attainment of his esper's ability, his body had strengthened to the point that he would only die when he is at the age 200. He couldn't even die prematurely as the world energy he worked hard to gather would be gone and his soul as Xie Ye would once again enter reincarnation if he chose to die right now.

He was happy to know that the lifespan of the esper in this little world could live until 200 made him happy. Just based on the fact that both he and his wife were strong enough to live past 100, delighted him that he could spend more time together with his wife in this world. Now his wife was only 51 when he left the world. within that 51 years, they were separated from each other for 15 fucking years. Now he is only 54 years old and he could only leave this body at the age ranging of 150 to 200. Leaving before that age means all his hard work would disappear. Now he will live in this damn star alone for 100 more years and so.

"Report! Executioner 13th!!!" said Ye Xiajie.

System Yue who was frightened by his big boss's anger could only tell him all the details that he knew. All the information that was held back because of his host. He didn't hide anything. Even reported that his host used a skill card: Limit breaker in this world twice. He even reported Professor Sen's identity. Everything. He told him every single detail!

Hearing the contents of his subordinates' report made Ye Xiajie face dark with anger and fury. He released his cultivation at peak and chose to destroy this little star that caused him to be separated from his wife and even cause him to injure his soul. It is because of the asshole heavenly laws of this world and that damn divine laws!

[My lord, are you going to destroy this world?!]

"By destroying this star means I could forcefully collect its world's energy. Don't bother me. Inform Warden Luo to bring out his prisoner of this world and that world hopper called Sen. They only have 10 minutes to leave before I destroy this world completely."

[Yes sir! Right away My Lord!] System Yue immediately leaves the place and passes the messages from their lord.

Ye Xiajie watched his crumbling surroundings with a calm and emotionless gaze. This world had no importance under his sight. After all the only important thing he had in this world had already left, leaving him alone in this useless world. The house and his surroundings had all turned to ruins in seconds then to ashes. The sky had fragmented like a broken mirror and a huge black cloud gathered on top of his head. These cumulus clouds are the avatar of every heavenly law in each world. This is the set of rules brought to life by this small star.

'Outsider? No result. Original resident? Not applicable! Scanning! Identity error! An error occurred initiating erasure mode. Delete the error to repair the world! Issuing elimination for this Unidentified being!'

A black sword appeared on Ye Xiajie's hands. This is the same sword which his wife had gifted to him. He only waves his hand once and slashes the will of this world.

"So noisy. You are just a collection of human wills." said Ye Xiajie.

With one slash from him the heavenly laws of this world was destroyed. Now without the protection of the heavenly laws the world's destruction had progressed even faster. The cracks on the sky had exploded revealing the empty space outside this little star. Ye Xiajie was looking at the horizon at the distance.

He then uttered as he looked above him.

"Baby~ I will meet you again soon~ This time I promise I will find you first." murmured Ye Xiajie.

The moment System Yue returned to his side, Ye Xiajie completely destroyed the star and gathered the world energy within it. Afterwards no one knows where he disappeared to. System Yue after escorting the Lord God out, he returned to his system space to continue his duties and serve as Hei Anjing's temporary system.

Chapter 98: 5.0 Prologue - In the System Space before the Fifth World

Back in the System Space.

As soon as Hei Anjing's soul was sucked out of the little star, he opened his sapphire eyes in the usual pitch black space overflowing with stars and galaxies before him. But this time Hei Anjing wasn't able to enjoy it as nonchalantly as before as his leg's suddenly weakened and he fell seated on the black water like floor under him. In his soul's original form he wouldn't be able to spit blood like in a human vessel. Instead he could see that the figure of his hands and legs was a bit translucent unlike his solid soul form from his original healthy state.

Hei Anjing sat down properly and pinched the space between his eyes, clearly showing his stress and lethargic state.

SIGH~~

"I didn't expect that the Heavenly Laws of that little star would suddenly pull me out without permission. Such rudeness! Tsk! I wasn't even able to say goodbye properly. Dammit!" complained Hei Anjing. Even ignoring his current translucent state because of his injured soul.

After looking around Hei Anjing didn't see his round and cute moon system, Yue.? He thought of things for a moment and realized that his husband must have caught his little system to be interrogated.

"That is not my fault right? Getting Yue in trouble~ Hm~ Though I don't believe my husband is going to get angry at me or Yue. Since Yue haven't returned means something must have happened in there. Anyway forget it. Let's go meditate to heal my soul and cancel the punishment the Divine Laws had bestowed on me. Thank God it only had an effect while I am in that little star now I could heal myself~"

Hei Anjing whistled for a few seconds as if bored. Only when he got in a state of meditation that he closed his eyes while sitting in a lotus form as he circulated his qi all over his body. He only needed to meditate for a few hours for his soul injuries to be cured. Though his memories haven't completely unsealed, just that information he got from Liu Yan's system is enough for him to rationalize his current situation and his real origin.

With those facts in his brain, he now doesn't need to worry much about his sealed memories and choose to focus on unsealing his original abilities and cultivation instead. As he meditates, Anjing uses his qi to slowly pierce through those seals in his cultivation. Slowly upgrading his cultivation stage from being a mortal state to an awakened cultivator. He continued to meditate in System Yue's space.

Meanwhile System Yue, who just got back from that ruined little star is now glowing dimly at his moon avatar form. He took half a day before he could return. Obviously he is so tired from the events that happened after his host left the star.

[Tired~ I never thought the Lord God would destroy the little star due to anger. That's the first time I've seen him that angry~ Scary! It is good though that the Lord God wasn't angry because the host kept that a secret. Instead seeing him slash that Heavenly Laws like a piece of paper is so horrifying.] grumbled by System Yue as soon as he returns in his space.

After he finished talking to himself, he finally remembered his host's existence and looked around. He let out a breath of relief when he saw his host meditating in the middle of the space. The qi he emits is stable and there is no other problem at all. Seeing this System Yue decided to leave the host for a moment to report.

[Host. Yue is going to report to the boss for a bit. I will be back soon.]

No one replied to him but System Yue still waited for a few seconds before leaving the space to report to his higher ups. After a few hours more, Hei Anjing once again opened his eyes as he finished his meditation. His former translucent state turned solid once again. In the middle of meditating he heard Yue's voice but didn't reply as he couldn't just cut off his concentration. After checking that his current state had returned to normal, Hei Anjing stood up and waved his hand once to create a fissure in space. Put his hand in and pulled something out.

The thing that was pulled out is that man he captured in the last star. It is a man who called himself Hei Wanyu. Someone from the Hei Clan. Hei Anjing's paternal clan. Hei Wanyu was still unconscious when he was pulled out from Hei Anjing's personal domain.

After completing his 4th world Hei Anjing's memories are now unsealed about 40 percent. He could unseal 5 percent at each world normally but if it's a high tier world he might be able to unlock a higher percentage instead. Anyway he doesn't need to worry about his memories except for a few personal ones, the main ones can be understood through the data he got from the God System's database.

Which is why he knew about Hei Wanyu. This man is from the clan of his father, Hei Sian. But aside from his father being a Hei. He had no other connection to the Hei Clan after all his father is a banished person from that clan. He grew up under his mother's clan instead. Moreover his bloodline from his mother is stronger than that of his father. As for the reason why, this is because his birth is not through natural way but through gene combination of his father and mother. Because his mother is a male as well. In short is he an artificially borne being.

He is someone with the bloodline of Mo Clan. This is the reason why in his human form he had an azure eyes while silver eyes in his God form.

Mo Bloodline Features:

Hair Color: Silver or Brown | Eye Color: Blue

Hei Bloodline Features: Black Hair and Silver eyes.

-----

This is why in his human form, Hei Anjing had raven hair paired with sapphire orbs. On the other hand in his God form he had long brown hair and silver irises. It's a mixture of two bloodlines.

Hei Anjing glacial blue eyes stared down on Hei Wanyu's sleeping figure and unhesitantly gave his stomach a mean kick.

KICKED!

The strength hidden within that kick is not normal. Hei Wanyu instantly woke up from the pain coming from his stomach.

AH! Hei Wanyu's eyes were covered in tears because of just one kick. The pain that originates from that kick of Hei Anjing isn't normal. He used his qi special's initiative. He is born with Yin qi which is rich in Ice elements. That kick just now slowly froze Wanyu's internal organs, veins and meridians. In short Hei Wanyu will become a half crippled with his lower body completely useless if he didn't circulate his qi to stop the cold qi from invading his body.

AAH. HAH. AH.

Hei Anjing smirked at him as if he couldn't see his pain. "Wake now? You sleep well for a prisoner." he sarcastically said.

With tears filled eyes, Hei Wanyu glared at Hei Anjing. He couldn't speak well because of the pain originating from his veins and meridians.

"Y-You... b-bas...tard..." responded Hei Wanyu.

Gui Lan treated him indifferently, "I suggest that you tell me everything that you know. Why are you targeting A'Xia's soul fragments when he has nothing to do with you so holy Hei Clan. Or is it because of me? No... if it is because of me you wouldn't dare do so. After all, dad wouldn't mind eliminating your so-called clan if he heard you've touched me."

Hei Wanyu's contorted breathing resounds in space. Hei Anjing calmly watches the man on the floor twist his body in agony.

Hei Anjing's face remained stony despite his sly smile. "If you vowed to answer my questions honestly I would temporarily suppress the cold qi in you. Otherwise then you can just wait to die slowly after being crippled." he gave him an option to choose.

The trembling in Hei Wanyu's body became uncontrollable as he knew that the one before him would never joke around because he is nothing but a stranger to this person. Remembering the Mo bloodline this guy possesses the unimaginable fear that spreads in his heart. Cold Temperament and Mercilessness towards their enemies. They would never hesitate to take action towards those who oppose them. This family is only kind to their own and treated the rest coldly. Even if he is someone from Hei.

Hei Anjing never treated the Hei Clan as his own family as his father had long been banished from their clan. They were even more than strangers and close to the boundary line of being their enemies. Just one wrong step and they would be treated without any mercy when getting punished. This is what the Hei Clan is afraid of. Hei Sian no longer cares for the clan and stays with his wife 24/7. To him they are nothing but strangers with the same blood.

But Hei Anjing is different. He wasn't banished or anything. He just grew up outside the clan. He had no feeling towards the clan. No affection and no hate. He treated them as distant and shameless relatives but at least he still saw them as a relative even in name only. To the Hei Clan that much is okay for now but they still wanted more. This is why they wanted someone from the Hei Clan to court Hei Anjing.

This is because they knew about Mo Clan's special trait towards their other half. A Mo can only love one person in their eternity. Their heart beats only once in their whole existence. As long as someone from Hei Clan is able to capture Hei Anjing's heart they would be able to promote themselves as a royal clan like the sole Supreme Clan like the Mo Family, whose authority even equals the origin of all realms which the God of Creation, Siwang.

Hei Wanyu nodded in desperation. Hei Anjing waved his hand once to suppress the cold qi in the former's body allowing him to be able to speak without problem.

"Explain to me everything that you know." said Hei Anjing coldly.

"...I am only following orders from above. I do not know the details about what the clan wants to do. The order only says to capture that man's soul fragments." replied Hei Wanyu.

Hei Anjing's face turned dark, "Who gave the order to cease A'Xia's soul fragments?" he asked.

"The Clan Ancestor, Hei Jue!" replied Hei Wanyu.

For the first time Hei Anjing's smile fades from his face not because of anger but instead of disbelief. He staggered for a moment as he covered his forehead as if he suffered a revelation he would never have expected.

"W-What?"

In the first place. Hei Jue is his only friend. The only one in his whole life. He grew up treating this person as his closest confidant and his elder brother figure. This person is also the only reason why he never completely desolated the Hei Clan in his heart. It is because Hei Jue exists that Hei Clan still exist.

His face was full of skepticism. "You are lying! Jue-ge would never do that!?" exclaimed Hei Anjing.

He tried to convince himself but was unable to do so. The turmoil in his heart even causes ripples inside the space as it causes enough disturbance for it to shake as if a huge earthquake strikes on it. Hei Anjing's mood completely turned sour to being akin to murderous. He grabbed Hei Wanyu's collar as he lifted him up. His eyes turned to leaden in the same shade of the moonlight. His eyes glinted in wild rage as he glared at Hei Wanyu.

Hei Wanyu who didn't expect Hei Anjing to react like this was dumbfounded and speechless. He could hardly breathe with the tightness of Anjing's hold in his collar. He felt being choke akin to some grabbing his throat directly.

"You lied. Tell me the truth!" said Hei Anjing.

With his face slowly turning purple from choking, he tried his best to respond.

"It's true. I answered you honestly!" replied Hei Wanyu.

This is the situation System Yue had witnessed when he returned to his space. But this time he isn't alone. A man with light blonde long hair and purple irises with one of them hidden in a glass lens firmly held by the bridge of his nose while wearing a white and violet colored robes appeared in the space.

This man is called An Liang. He is a Nether God who works as a substitute lord god while Ye Xiajie is gone. He is Zhi Yue's [System Yue's real name] Superior.

An Liang grabbed Hei Wanyu out of Hei Anjing's grasp, saving him from getting killed. But this action of his made Anjing's anger move towards him. An Liang flinched when he saw those pair of murderous silver orbs falling on him. He felt that his whole body was covered in ice but he choose to ignore it as he couldn't let Hei Anjing to lose himself in anger.

"Sire! Please calm down. An Liang will explain the whole thing after you've returned to this space once again. Please forgive me for my sudden rudeness. Excuse me." said An Liang who controlled the space to pull over a violet star from the horizon.

It was a star that was not among the usual varieties of stars where Anjing could choose from. It is a newly arrived star. He directly pushed the furious Hei Anjing to be sucked in that star as he captured Hei Wanyu. System Yue was stunned by the whole event. He could not believe that his boss dared to do that to an esteemed being like his host. Even their Lord God never dared that before.

A savage glare from Hei Anjing was given to An Liang before he got completely pulled inside the violet star.

Hei Anjing yelled. "You fucker! Surnamed An, I will kill you!!!" those were the last words Hei Anjing spouted before he disappeared from the space.

The moment Hei Anjing disappears except for Hei Wanyu's disorderly coughs there is only silence in the space. Zhi Yue looked at his boss with a pitiful gaze as if looking at a dead man. An Liang used his free hand to squeeze his throbbing temples.

"Don't look at me like that. If I didn't do that he would have destroyed this space in anger and those group of annoying old men will think that his memories and strength had returned when it wasn't yet." said An Liang.

Zhi Yue didn't completely believe his boss's excuses.

"Since you force him that way. I need to coax him with something or his anger wouldn't subside." replied Zhi Yue.

Sigh~

"Unseal one or two special ability or talent he has. Only at the extent his soul could bear. His soul isn't completely awake yet and his current vessel wouldn't be able to support his full strength yet. Just one of each." said An Liang as he cuffed Hei Wanyu with Anti-god chains. This will completely restrict his cultivation and make him a mortal.

Zhi Yue looked at An Liang. "How much could I say to the host?" he asked his boss.

"Not everything but don't lie to him. Be sure to ask that person's soul fragment to talk to his lover about it. Tell him that I offended his lover and I don't really want to die young yet. Say to A'Ye that! Haa~ my head has been aching too much lately. Is it stress? This is definitely stress~" said An Liang before disappearing from the space with the new prisoner, Hei Wanyu.

"You guys all left all the hard work for me to do. Don't you know only the Lord God can coax that Sire's anger. I also don't want to die yet." murmured Zhi Yue who turned himself back to his full moon avatar and followed his host to that violet star his boss threw him in.

After he left, that space had become quiet once again.

Chapter 99: 5.1 First Violet Star - Become my Sandbag

After getting pulled into the world within the violet star without his consent, Hei Anjing's anger almost exploded. He doesn't really have any memories about that man called An Liang but according to the data he got from before, he knew that the man is his husband's close friend and Nether System's second in command. In short, while his husband is currently in a state of unknown, that man called An Liang is working as his substitute. Just seeing the noticeable dark circle under his eyes is enough proof. That person is overworked.

But he doesn't care. He just wanted to beat the man half dead to show him his anger.

When his soul synchronized with his new vessel he heard the words that came out of his mouth.

"I like you. Even if you don't like me I would not marry Laohu!" These were the words that came out of his mouth when Hei Anjing just woke up from his new body.

A voice replied to him. "I don't like you and will never do. You are not worthy!"

When his sight completely recovers Hei Anjing finally sees his surroundings. He saw two men before him wearing cold and annoyed expression on their faces. There's a clear disgust within their eyes. The body of the original was talking to a tall man with inky hair and golden irises when he overtook. This man is bare above his waist and only shorts made of fur worn below. The raven haired man had powerful shoulders above a six-pack muscled stomach. A gladiator's biceps and iron muscles, but despite that, his body isn't muscular instead it has a perfect proportion of muscles in his whole body. His features are fierce and ravishing. He is a very manly man who could spread his pheromones just by standing alone.

At this moment this man looks down on him with revulsion in his aureate feline eyes. Behind this person is a man with bronze colored short hair and eyes is looking at him with a mocking gaze as if what he heard is the lamest joke in history.

The man with raven twisted his head to look at the guys behind him and said, "Laohu, you heard his nonsense. Can you get this female of yours away from me? He is disgusting!" he said with a tone of dislike on his voice.

Laohu replied with a clear loath on his voice, "Even if you say that! He is not my female as we haven't done the mating ceremony yet. Don't call him my female! Because he is undeserving! Useless shit!"

Hearing such obvious jeering in his ears, even though he was not the original, Hei Anjing's anger from before flared once again. He have yet to clear his bad moon and had to hear this kind of things. He have always been short tempered but still tried his hardest to suppress his irritation. Even though he tried to suppress his murderous intent, what already spread for few seconds had been already felt. The result those who were vigilant against danger whipped their heads to stare at him seriously, even that man with inky hair looked at him with a gauging gaze. As one of the two who is standing near him, this man had clear felt that split second of bloodthirstiness from the female beastman in front of him

But since the killing intent was instantly suppressed, those who weren't near Hei Anjing thought they felt things wrong. But only Laohu and the man with black hair clearly felt that danger coming out from him that moment. Which is why they were looking weirdly at Hei Anjing with their guards up.

Hei Anjing, whose expression turned colder and undisturbed looks around the audience. The people in the area are mostly bear above their waist and just wore shorts or shirt made from animal furs. Just judging from their clothes Hei Anjing somewhat realized that he must have entered a primitive world. Among the crowd his eyes picked up the weakest among the rest. He saw a man with fawn color hair and pink eyes. To him this man feels like a rabbit. What made him interested is that among the rest, only this weak looking young man wears normal clothes on him. A T-shirt and shorts. Anjing made his move and walked towards that man with elegant and graceful steps. The other males wouldn't help but stare at those slender white legs and plump ass which wiggles as his every step. They couldn't helped but gasped in amazement. The raven haired man frowns instead.

Standing before the weak looking young man with fawn colored hair, Hei Anjing looked down on him and spoke.

Using his right index finger to raise the man's chin, "Tell me. How could I dismiss an engagement?" asked Hei Anjing, his voice had a seducing feeling on it.

The fawn haired man first shivered seeing Hei Anjing's icy eyes but seeing the obvious modern gesture his fear faded temporarily.

"There are three ways: First the tribe leader calls off the engagement. Second for the male beastman to dismiss his female and lastly, if the female beastman defeated the male which signifies his unworthiness." the man replied.

After hearing what he wanted to, Hei Anjing removed his finger on the man's chin and wiped it on his fur shorts. He no longer looks at the man as he walks back to the center where the other two are.

"I will save you once in exchange for this debt. Come to me if you wish to redeem it." said Anjing as he walked away with a cat-like grace.

The fawn haired man blushed red as he nodded in agreement in dazed. No one knew what was going on in his little mind. But there were some females that felt envious towards him because of what Hei Anjing had done. This time when Hei Anjing returned to face the two men, he totally ignored the man with black hair and focused his gaze on the man called Laohu.

Staring at Laohu with unconcerned eyes, "You heard right? Since I don't want to get married. Become my sandbag!" said Hei Anjing as his sky-like eyes turned fierce and dangerous.

He suddenly jumped on the man called Laohu and attacked him. Seeing Hei Anjing initiating an attack, the black haired man jumped away from the center leaving the field for the two. Laohu was caught off guard and could only raise his hands to block the incoming fist on his face with his arms. At first he was startled, when that small fist made contact with his arms, he felt the heavy strength coming from the female's petite body. He almost couldn't block it and had to use both his hands to stop him from falling back. In spite of his attempts to block, he still took a few steps back from the force of the fist.

Laohu raised his head and looked at the female beastman before him in disbelief. The female before him looked calm and emotionless. The sudden increase of strength could not be bear by his thin body, as his right arm dislocated after that attack. Now hanging loosely at this female beastman's shoulder.

Clearly such a thing should be extremely painful but the female before him remains apathetic to his dislocated arm. They even watch him use his left hand to reconnect his right shoulder. Click. Click! The sounds of bones clicking could be heard. Everyone couldn't helped but look at this weird female beastman, who remained calm even with the pain of bone settling. They didn't even see his white eyebrows twitch when he reconnected his shoulder.

Hei Anjing, after reconnecting his dislocated shoulder, looked at his hand and checked if it was working properly. Opening and closing his hands, as he checks whether he reconnected his arm correctly.

"This body is really weak. I should finish this fast." Hei Anjing silently uttered but everyone was a beastman and could hear his silent whisper.

Those who could intuitively feel the danger coming from Hei Anjing couldn't helped but started shivering as those pairs of sky blue eyes fell on them. Laohu was especially frightened as his expression turned grim and serious while looking at his supposed to be fiancé.

Laohu asked in disbelief, "Xuebao. Were you hiding your strength this whole time because you are a female?"

Hei Anjing turned deaf ears on him and instead gave him an evil smirk. Then continued to increase his speed as he threw punches and kicks on Laohu. The latter was completely defensive as Hei Anjing's speed was faster than his. But the strength on those punches were solid leaving bruises on his arms and body.

In that moment Laohu could no longer hold back his irritation. He suddenly turned into his beast form, a huge tiger. The tiger has glowing, amber eyes. Glaring at Hei Anjing. It was so large that a shadow loomed at Hei Anjing. It's fur is a flame-and-coal mix and muscled body looking so powerful and it stood fearless and proud before Hei Anjing. The tiger has a large and heavy head. It suddenly roars and growls displaying its terrifying presence, but Hei Anjing looks back at it nonchalantly. Seeing such a huge tiger Hei Anjing showed a short moment of astonishment which instantly turned into an understanding smile. He watched Laohu in his beast form flicking his tail before he leapt at him.

ROOAAR!

Before Laohu could seize him, Hei Anjing jumped at the side gracefully and turned into his own beast form. A gorgeous snow leopard. It's size is only half of the huge tiger. The fur is smooth and exquisite like snow. Pure white, glittering under the sunlight with a bit patterned dark rosettes fur. The spots signifying the color of the night. Its feline eyes were alluring with the color of the sky and seas. This leopard smirked as his speed doubled than the original. Those who are not battle trained couldn't even follow his movements. At his every jump, a deep gash appeared on the tiger's body.

Even when the tiger tries it's hardest to dodge, the difference in strength and speed is overwhelming. To accommodate Hei Anjing's soul, the vessel he had now had upgraded to its peak to match the soul. He now had the strength to kill even an adult dinosaur in such a body. In this match, Hei Anjing is obviously playing around with his strength. Using only the minimal level and treated Laohu as his precious sandbag.

It took a whole hour of beating before Laohu returns in his human form. As he returned to his human form, countless wounds, scratches and gashes all over his body could be seen. He looks hideous with all his wounds. Currently out of breath and strength as he laid on the ground with his back, looking so frail. Meanwhile the snow leopard is unstained by dirt or blood, only his white claws soaked in crimson as he used it to attack Laohu.

The audience couldn't believe that their second strongest warrior was defeated by the notorious scum female beastman of their tribe. The fight didn't even take hours to finish and the one who lost is unexpectedly Laohu. A male beastman against a female beastman. This battle is unexpected enough and the result is out of blue.

They've watched as the snow leopard jumped on Laohu and turned human before it fell directly on Laohu's chest. Hei Anjing was sitting directly on the latter's chest with an evil smile on his enchanting face. He is a bit out of breath and was obviously weakened but the cheerfulness and excitement within those blue eyes is tempting. This female beastman is not only extremely beautiful but had the strength that wouldn't lose to the warriors of their tribe. They now looked at this unsullied white flower as if he is an unattainable being.

Hei Anjing looked down on the ashen face Laohu under him. What he didn't know is that someone is extremely unhappy with his current position.

"I defeated you. How about you give up? Since there is no way in hell I'm going to marry someone weaker than I do. Loser! Admit defeat." Tauntingly spoken Hei Anjing.

But the arrogant Laohu refused to admit defeat. This female is his. There is no way he would accept a loss and lose his engagement to him.

"No! I will not dismiss you! I want to marry you." responded Laohu.

Hei Anjing's smile faded when he heard that. Even the raven haired man watching by the side had his aura suddenly turning cold upon hearing Laohu's words.

"I thought you said I am undeserving. A useless piece of shit!" coldly replied Hei Anjing as his eyes slowly turned vicious at each word.

Laohu was speechless as he heard Hei Anjing's words. "... He indeed remembered saying those words a few hours ago. But he refused to admit defeat, he wanted this female even over his dead body.

Seeing Laohu refusing to admit defeat made Hei Anjing last line of control snapped. His rage had gone beyond his control.

"I see you've made your decision not to dismiss me then..."

They watched as Hei Anjing raised his right hand revealing his bloody claws. This time within those aqua irises were emotions of rage, ruthlessness and viciousness.

Hei Anjing's voice echoes in area, "As long as you die there will be no marriage happening as the supposed to be groom would be considered dead, right?~"

Laohu's eyes widened in shock and terror. He saw the killing intent within the eyes of the enticing man before him. There is only pure cruelty and cold ferociousness shown within those azure eyes. This female beastman is really intending to take his life at this moment. He felt death drifting over him so closely in this life. He knew he would be dead when that slender jade white arms fall. A single moment of regret flashed within Laohu's amber eyes.

'Ah! I shouldn't have said those words.' Thoughts of Laohu in that point of death.

Chapter 100: 5.2 First Violet Star - A Weird Guy

Everyone in the crowd panicked when they saw the female snow leopard lose himself in anger and watch him raise his claws intending to take Laohu's life. But according to the tribe's rules no one is allowed to take someone's life unless it is in a life and death arena. The female snow leopard obviously forgot about it and wanted to kill Laohu because he didn't want to cancel their marriage agreement.

Laohu closed his eyes in his impending death but what everyone didn't expect is that for their strongest warrior to capture the female snow leopard's wrist stopping his attack. Laohu opened his eyes when he didn't feel the death falling on him. He saw his friend, Meizhou holding on the female snow leopard's wrist.

Laohu calls, "Meizhou."

But his friend just rolled his eyes on him before looking at the female on top of him.

"Let go. Unless you wish to die with him!" said Hei Anjing as he whipped his head and gave Meizhou a death glare.

Meizhou was startled only for a moment but didn't let go of Hei Anjing's wrist. Instead he tried to convince him.

"It is against the tribe's rules to kill a tribesman." replied Meizhou's expression turned grim as he continued his words. "The punishment for that is death penalty."

"I don't care. As long as I could kill this asshole then it is worth it." said Hei Anjing as he freed his hand from Meizhou's grip intending to kill Laohu once again.

But this time Laohu didn't play around anymore and raised his hand in surrender. He admitted his defeat.

"I admit defeat! I admit it!" yelled Laohu afraid that the female won't be able to hear it.

The claws of the female landed near his cheeks and buried half of it under the soil. Laohu could see how much strength was in that last attack of Hei Anjing. He fainted in fear this time. Hei Anjing pulled out his hand from the ground and flicked the dirt with disgust on his face. He then looked around and found what he was looking for.

He pointed at that yellow colored young female beastman from before.

"You come over." said Hei Anjing.

The fawn colored female beastman happily walks towards Hei Anjing as he was called. This young man is called Tuzi. He is a rabbit female beastman.

Tuzi said, "What do you want me to do, Male God?"

Hei Anjing reached out both his hands towards Tuzi and said, "Carry me by the river. I want to take a bath."

"But... you look tired." responded Tuzi worriedly.

Hei Anjing replied, "I only need a few minutes of rest. My strength will return after taking a bath. I don't like being dirty. Bring me to the river!"

Tuzi flinched when he heard him raise his voice all of the sudden.

"Yes sir!" responded Tuzi as he put Hei Anjing on his back.

Tuzi is a female that is taller than Hei Anjing. Despite being both female beastman the original Xuebao is considered a scum, useless female because of his bad reputation and frail body. But Hei Anjing didn't know about this as he hadn't received the world plot and memories from his missing System Yue.

He was carried on the back of Tuzi as they walked towards the direction of the river. The man called Meizhou watched Hei Anjing until he completely left his line of sight. Then he looked disdainfully at the unconscious friend of him on the ground. For some reason he feels hate towards this fool right now.

"Someone bring Laohu to meet the doctor." said Meizhou as he gestured to some male beastmen to come over and do the tasks.

No one dared to decline his orders as he is considered the strongest warrior in the tribe. Meizhou's authority is only below the Tribe Leader and the priest of their tribe. A small group of beastmen approached and helped in carrying Laohu back to the doctor's tent.

"Meizhou, what are you looking at? Xuebao had already left with that weird Tuzi."

"But no one expected for that scum Xuebao to be that strong. He could even defeat Laohu!"

"Right!? Are the rumors about him being shameless and stalking Meizhou before are all lies?"

"Who cares if it's true or lies? If someone that beautiful stalks me I don't mind mating with him?!"

"You wished! Not only is he attractive, he also has strength do you think he will like a bear like you!?"

"What's wrong with a bear? I have enough strength in bed and could sell 'Meng' if needed!"

[a/n: Selling Meng means selling cuteness.]

"You guys shut up and do what I told you too." said Meizhou. His tone is clearly cold then everyone watches him walk away.

After they've seen Meizhou out of sight,

"What is wrong with Meizhou?"

"Of course there is something wrong? What would you have done if the one you detest confessed to you and rejected, suddenly turned out to be someone who is as strong as you do?"

"Well~ I will regret it."

"Right~ who would believe that Xuebao is that fierce? He seems to be as strong as Meizhou just now."

"Eh? Is Meizhou interested in Xuebao?"

"Unfortunately he said wrong things like Laohu."

"Indeed. Didn't Xuebao beat up Laohu that bad not only because he is against their engagement but also because he called Xuebao undeserving and useless. Look how Laohu ended us!"

"Let not call Xuebao names anymore. He is scary when angry."

"He really tried to kill Laohu."

"You guys. Stop talking and bring Laohu to the doctor!"

"AH! Yes. yes."

"I almost forgot about him. Hehe~"

This group left and followed their task while the rest of the audience dispersed.

Meanwhile by the river.

Tuzi slowly let Hei Anjing down on the river. As soon as his toes touched the water, ripples were made but what Hei Anjing didn't expect is for the water not to be completely cold instead it was lukewarm. Tuzi noticed his surprise and explained to him.

"You didn't expect it don't you? The river water's temperature is lukewarm in the middle of the day because of the sun." explained Tuzi.

Hei Anjing soaked his entire body in water only his neck and above was not dipped into it. He even removed the only cover on his private part as he felt dirty because of the animal smell on it. But heard Tuzi's explanation and understood that this man must be someone important in this world. Like a protagonist shou or something and obviously from his words that his setting is transmigration. This Tuzi is a Transmigrator.

"I know what you wish to share but can you please let me take a bath first. Could you prepare me some change of clothes?" asked Hei Anjing.

Tuzi's eyes sparkled when he heard that and instantly agreed to Hei Anjing's request.

"I will get you some of my spare clothes. You must also be uncomfortable wearing nothing inside the shorts and being bare above the waist." replied Tuzi.

Hei Anjing responded as he leaned his back on the edges of the river while closing his eyes. "I want thick ones with sleeves and covers most of my skin."

"So you are afraid of the cold. I will prepare you some long sleeves and pants. Bring some shoes as well." said Tuzi who ran back to his cave and got Hei Anjing some clean clothes.

After Tuzi left, Hei Anjing ignored the pair of eyes watching him secretly from a distance. As he knows who the owner of those eyes are. In the mind space, he saw his moon avatar system hovering at the distance before him. System Yue is obviously afraid of getting near him because of what happened before he got thrown into this little star.

[H-Host... I...]

"I'm no longer angry. After beating up someone the steam of my rage had left my mind. I realized the situation after I calmed down. I would not ask you anything. Just pass to me the world plot and memories."

[Yes, Host. Please receive the world plot and memories.]

[(World Plot): This is a harem world. The Protagonist Shou is a female rabbit beastman called Tuzi. He is a Transmigrator from a modern universe. A former manga artist and an open Male BL lover who loves read any BL of all kinds. This is his journey to gather all the top rated men in the Beast World.

In this world the guys are called Male beastman while there is no female or girl. All beastmen are male in body but they could still propagate as there is a certain beastmen that is called female. They had male bodies but were able to conceive. They were called female beastmen.

The males in this world had strength and built for fighting and hunting.

The females had a weaker strength and only worked on giving birth, household, farming and curing. Some special ones could even use light elements for healing. They had two types of relationship: A mate and a protector. One is permanent while the other is temporary. This is only applicable if the female is unbound by marriage or mate relationship.

Male Leads of this world:

The cheerful and caring tribe's future leader: (Tiger) Laohu.

The Ice cold strongest warrior: (Jaguar) Meizhou.

The silent and calculating tribe doctor: (Snake) Sheya.

The cute and lovable priest's apprentice: (Bear) Xiong

The arrogant and straight forward Tribe Assault Captain: (Wolf) Lang

The enemy tribe's leader: (Lion) Shizi

The host's original Xuebao is just a minor villain who was used by this world Villain, Huli, a fox female beastman, who was extremely jealous of the men around the protagonist shou. The original Xuebao had a huge crush on the tribe's strongest warrior, Meizhou, but had an arranged marriage with the future tribe's leader, Laohu.

In the end the villain put him in a trap of asking him to accuse Tuzi as a hidden spy only to be punished as he was found concluding the death of the protagonist shou with the enemy tribe leader, Shizi. He was betrayed by Shizi and exposed his identity as a spy. Xuebao died under the laws of the tribe as a traitor while Shizi agreed to an alliance in exchange of becoming Tuzi's mate.]

Hei Anjing who is rendered speechless by the world plot provided for him. System Yue didn't notice his host's weird reaction and continued to report to his task.

[The wish of Xuebao is to be freed of the arranged marriage with Laohu and marry someone he loves.]

There is still no reaction coming from Hei Anjing.

[Host? Are you listening?]

System Yue only heard his host murmuring.

"So that stupid looking rabbit is a weird man. What should I do now?" rumbles Hei Anjing in amazement.
