My Ex-Wife and Kids Came In Like A Wrecking Ball Chapter 1569-Rosalie felt strange. It was the first time that the little ones called Daddy and Mommy in front of so many people.

This was equivalent to revealing to the kindergarten teachers and parents that she and Byron are a family.

Regardless of whether they remarried or not, in the eyes of these people, she was already a member of the Lawrence family.

Before Rosalie could adjust her mood, the three little ones rushed out of the queue and hugged their legs affectionately.

“Daddy, Mommy, why did you come here together today?” Nox loved calling his parents out loud, he took every chance to do so.

Rosalie turned her head and took a look at Byron.

The man replied easily. “Daddy left work early, and it just so happens that your mommy doesn’t have to work overtime, so we came to pick you up together. Why, don’t you like that?” “We love it!” The three little guys spoke in unison.

Then, Little Estie asked them in her sweet naive tone, “Can Mommy and Daddy pick us up every day from now on?”

Rosalie originally wanted to say that she would come when she had time, but Estie’s expectant eyes changed her mind. “Okay, I will do my best.”

Miss Leigh Ann’s eyes were filled with joy at the sight of this family of five enjoying themselves happily.

Although there were many opinions about their relationship, Miss Leigh Ann knew they were meant to be after witnessing how Estie improved over time.

Rosalie greeted her and left with the little ones.

Miss Leigh Ann, as usual, did not show any unnecessary reactions, which made Rosalie feel very comfortable.

On the way back, Byron suddenly said to Lucian and Nox, “I prepared something special today so that when we get home, I can begin teaching you basic courses.”

Rosalie was stunned for a few seconds before realizing that he wanted to teach Lucian and Nox about computers.

She never expected him to take it so seriously and even made special preparations.

Rosalie turned her head and glanced at the two little boys at the back.

Their eyes secretly pleaded for help.

Obviously, these two little geniuses did not want to learn from scratch at all.

Rosalie smiled knowingly and said, "Let's not rush today. They were in school all day, so let them have a good rest. If you want to teach, it's not too late to start on the weekend."

The two little boys quickly agreed. "Daddy, we are so tired, we want to rest early!"

Byron would not force them, so he nodded and agreed. "Alright, then get yourselves ready to start learning this weekend."

The little guys were reluctant inside, but they smiled obediently. "Okay, we will prepare well!"

Estie was beside the two boys. She could see the changes in their expressions and knew that the two little brothers did not want to learn at all. Although she was puzzled, but she kept quiet.

Back at the manor, the little ones were afraid that Byron would bring up teaching them computers again, so they ran to the bedroom in a hurry right after dinner.

"Did they not like computers? Or is it too soon for them?' Byron could see the conflicting emotions in the two boys, and asked Rosalie in puzzlement.

Rosalie looked upstairs, but the boys had disappeared.

"They don't need to be taught at all.' She turned around, smiled and explained to Byron.

"Lucian and Nox were raised in my teacher's research facility. They have demonstrated exceptional computer skills since they were little, particularly Nox. My colleagues at the research institute volunteered to teach the boys some skills after they discovered this. Nox's computer skills are quite formidable now."

My Ex-Wife and Kids Came In Like A Wrecking Ball Chapter 1570-Rosalie meant what she said.

Byron became a little curious and wondered how powerful their computer skills were.

Meanwhile, upstairs in the little ones' bedrooms.

"Brother, don't you want Daddy to teach you?' Estie looked at Lucian and Nox curiously.

The two little boys had nothing to hide from their sister and nodded frankly.

Estie felt more and more puzzled. 'Don't you boys like computers? Daddy is amazing! If he taught you in person, you both will definitely be great hackers in the future!"

Daddy had previously taught her, but due to her condition, it became difficult for her to concentrate, so the lessons were cut short halfway through.

Otherwise, she would have been a very powerful hacker by now!

That's what Daddy told her.

Lucian and Nox looked at each other and moved closer to her ear.

"We'll tell you, in fact, we are already very good now. We just don't want to learn from scratch.'

Hearing this, Estie's face was full of disbelief.

'I have Daddy teaching me, so I am much better in computer science than my peers, but where did my two brothers learn?'

Nox saw her doubts and immediately took out his computer to demonstrate his skills.

"Watch carefully!"

That being said, the little guy has not figured out how to show her yet.

On the side, Estie waited eagerly.

After waiting for quite a while, she became gradually suspicious because Nox did nothing. "Nox, if you don't want Daddy to teach you, let me teach you!"

The little girl's tone was serious.

Although she had not reached Daddy's level, it should be more than enough to teach children!

As she spoke, she was about to take the computer from Nox's arms.

Nox came back to his senses, and quickly hugged his computer tightly. His eyes darted, as he exclaimed childishly, "I do know how!"

Lucian and Estie were puzzled.

In the next second, Nox turned on the computer and typed furiously on the keyboard. After a while, multiple rows of codes rolled on the screen.

The other two kids stared at the screen without blinking.

Nox's eyes sparkled, and his little face was full of excitement.

He was the world's second-best hacker. He had heard that the technical department at Daddy's company was very powerful. He has not yet attempted to hack into Daddy's company's system!

Anyway, the employees must all be off duty at this time, so let's play a little prank!

At eight o'clock in the evening, all of Lawrence Corporation's computer screens went black. Everyone stood there in stunned silence as the screens turned back on, and three bare-bottomed babies were holding hands and jumping around on the screen.

"Who is it? Having the nerve to breach the Lawrence Corporation's computer system?"

Someone soon realized that this was man-made and asked in surprise.

This was not a case of nerves. Who has the technology to hack into the corporation's system, which has always been the most stringent in the industry?

Furthermore, after all that effort to hack into the system, the goal was only to play a prank on them!

All the employees in the technical department who were still working overtime were aroused, and their exhaustion was swept away. Their fingers flew across the keyboard frantically.

As time passed, everyone's faces were filled with utter disbelief.

According to their experience, the other party just threw a small virus into the system.

Yet, none of them could override it!
