My Ex-Wife and Kids Came In Like A Wrecking Ball Chapter 1594- Can We Bring My Brothers Along

Melody, on the other hand, did not hear from her son or granddaughter for several days after returning home from Lawrence Manor.

The more she thought about it, the more she became restless. So she simply went to the manor again on a random weekend.

Rosalie was working overtime in the research institute, looking for medicinal material suppliers to replace the Lancer Corporation. Byron was also working overtime at his workplace.

Only Mrs. Zora accompanied the three little ones in the manor.

"Hello, Madam." Mrs. Zora greeted Melody respectfully and then looked worriedly at the little ones beside her.

She knew that Madam disliked Lucian and Nox.

Now that the young master and the young lady were not here, she was worried that Madam Lawrence would make things difficult for the boys...

Melody glanced at her coldly, then focused entirely on Estie. She completely ignored Lucian and Nox, who were beside Estie.

"Estie, do you miss grandma? Come here and hug me." As she spoke, she stretched out her hand affectionately.

Estie stood there and refused to approach her at all.

Seeing this, Melody's complexion sank slightly. She tried again. "Grandma will take you to eat something delicious. Do you want to go?"

The little girl remained timidly still beside Lucian and Nox. She even grabbed onto Lucian's sleeve, unwilling to approach her.

Melody's eyes flashed with displeasure as she saw the little girl's dependence on the boys. She wanted to go forward to hug her, but she was afraid that it would backfire. She could only resist the impulse in her heart and patiently talk to her.

“Grandma will take you out for delicious and fun things, okay? Don’t you like ice cream very much?” Melody had a friendly smile when she spoke.

Estie’s eyes moved at the idea of ice cream, and she turned to look at Lucian and Nox.

She liked ice cream, but...she liked her brothers even more.

Melody became even more enraged when she saw her granddaughter seeking permission from those two little b*stards even for ice cream.

In order to appease Estie, she had to calm down and took out two tickets to the amusement park from her pocket.

“Grandma bought tickets to Wonderland. You’d always wanted to go, right?”

Estie’s heart became more and more shaken. She stared eagerly at the tickets in her hand.

After hesitating for a long time, the little girl finally shook her head. “No, Daddy and Mommy will take us there.”

Melody was angry. “The two of them are so busy with work, we don’t know when they will be free to take you there. Now is the best time, Grandma can take you there now. If you miss it, you will have to wait until next year.”

The little girl’s face gradually collapsed.

Lucian and Nox turned to look at their little sister. “If you want to go, go ahead. Right now, We have to study home because Daddy has arranged a class for us.”

Estie shook her head and muttered softly, “I want to be with my brothers...”

She was still afraid of Grandma, and she did not want to be separated from her brothers.

Melody frowned, took the ticket back, and pretended to be regretful. ‘If you don’t want to go, then Grandma will give it to other children.’

With that, she turned and walked out.

Seeing this, Estie called anxiously. “Grandma!”

Melody’s plan succeeded, she stopped slowly and turned her head to look over.

Estie was so anxious that she was about to cry. “Estie wants to go...”

However, can we bring my brothers along too?"

Melody looked at the two boys with disgust and was about to refuse immediately.

However, she could not bear her granddaughter's red watery eyes. She could only nod and agree. "If you don't cry, Grandma will take them along with us."

My Ex-Wife and Kids Came In Like A Wrecking Ball Chapter 1595-Estie sniffed, held back her tears, and smiled at Lucian and Nox with red eyes.

The happiness on their little sister's face made Lucian and Nox feel a little uncomfortable.

They knew that Grandma disliked them, so even if she took them there, it might not be fun at all.

However, their little sister wanted this very much, so they had no choice but to go with her.

The two boys looked at each other. With smiles on their faces, they comforted Estie. "Okay, we can go together, don't cry!"

Estie nodded vigorously. "I'm not crying! I'm so happy, Wonderland would be so fun!"

Melody tried to hold Estie's hand. This time, the little girl did not refuse but looked back at Lucian and Nox from time to time.

"What are you looking at?" Melody looked down and asked her.

Estie was rather upset. "Grandma, walk slowly. Let's wait for my brothers!"

Melody's expression darkened, and she tightened her grip on Estie. "Don't be ridiculous, they are not your brothers. You don't have a brother."

Estie pouted. Her little face was full of displeasure. "Grandma, you lied! I want my brothers!"

The little girl was about to break free from Melody's hand and turn back to look for Lucian and Nox.

Melody had no choice but to suppress her disdain inside and put up with Estie for now.

“Okay, Grandma is wrong, they are your brothers.”

She coaxed Estie. Then, she simply picked the little girl up into her arms, fearing that she would run away.

Lucian and Nox were only two or three steps behind them, so they could hear their conversation.

The little boys lowered their eyes. They were deeply disappointed that Grandma would not even let their little sister acknowledge them.

Melody ordered the driver to take them to Wonderland and took the three little ones in by herself.

She only bought two tickets. So, she added two more for Lucian and Nox at the entrance.

The kids did not notice the difference between the four tickets.

As they entered the park, Melody took Estie on various rides without any hindrance. However, Lucian and Nox kept getting stopped by the staff.

“Boys, you need to line up!”

Lucian and Nox’s faces were full of puzzlement, and they pointed to Melody’s back in front of them. “We are with that grandma.”

The staff checked their tickets again, feeling confused as well. “Their tickets are VIPs, yours are just ordinary tickets, you need to queue up.”

Lucian and Nox understood what happened. They took the tickets and obediently went to the back of the queue.

In the maze, Estie suddenly realized that her little brothers behind her were gone. She anxiously shook Melody’s hand. “Grandma, where are my little brothers?”

Melody did not bother. “They must still be outside. Maybe they don’t like this one, so they went to find another ride on their own. They won’t be lost, the security here is high.”

As she spoke, she turned to glance at the crowd queuing at the door.

It was peak season. The queue was bustling with people, those two little b* stars can line up slowly!

She was about to take Estie in, but the little girl broke free from her hand and ran out with her little legs. "I'm going to find my brothers!"

Melody freaked out and hurriedly chased after her. She carried the little girl in her arms. "They will come to you in a while. Be good, Grandma will take you inside. It will be fun."

Estie looked at the crowd at the door, but there was no sign of her little brothers. Her eyes turned red with anxiety as her voice broke shakily. "Estie wants to go with my little brothers..." 'There are so many people, what if my little brothers got lost? Daddy and Mommy will be very worried!'

My Ex-Wife and Kids Came In Like A Wrecking Ball Chapter 1596-Melody noticed Estie was about to cry and that there were a lot of people around her. She could only make a compromise by holding her and waiting at the entrance.

After more than half an hour, Lucian and Nox finally caught up in the queue.

"Brother!"

Estie hurriedly ran to Lucian and Nox, her little face full of worry. "Why did you come in so late?"

Lucian and Nox looked at each other, and Lucian comforted her. "We accidentally missed you, and we found you after searching for a while."

Estie sniffed and grabbed their hands tightly. "We will hold hands, so we won't get lost!"

Lucian and Nox did not refuse either, they just glanced at Melody in the distance.

Melody's face changed.

She never wanted to take those two little b*stards along in the first place. Since the boys were kind enough to cover up, she allowed them to play for a while. 2

However, they should stay away from her and Estie!

Now that they have entered a ride, Melody let the three of them walk together hand in hand without saying anything.

As they came out of the ride, Melody immediately picked Estie up into her arms again, and said affectionately, "Let's go see the princesses, okay?"

Estie nodded and said innocently, "I'm a little princess too!"

Melody was amused by her granddaughter, and scratched her nose with a smile, "That's right, Estie is a little princess too! Now let's go to see the big princesses!"

With that, she hugged Estie and walked towards the princess park.

She left Lucian and Nox far behind again.

Estie's face dropped. 'Brother! Grandma, wait for brother!"

Melody had no choice but to slow down her pace and waited for a while. When Lucian and Nox caught up, she lowered her head and asked them, "I'm going to take Estie to see the princesses now. You boys wouldn't be interested, right?"

Without giving Lucian and Nox a chance to speak, she continued. "Go and find a ride you want on your own. I have upgraded your tickets, so you don't need to queue up. You can play whatever you want!" "Then, I don't want to see the princesses anymore!"

Estie immediately struggled in her arms. "I want to be with my brothers!

Grandma let me down!"

With the lesson learned just now, Melody hugged her very tightly this time and did not give her a chance to break free. "Estie, behave! Your brothers don't like watching princesses. Grandma will watch it with you. Let them play by themselves!"

Estie kicked up a bigger fuss.

People around looked over and assumed that Melody was a bad person.

Melody gave them all a death glare and finally stared at Lucian and Nox. "Why are you still standing here? If you don't want to go for any rides, you can go home by yourself!"

Lucian and Nox knew that Grandma disliked them. When they saw Estie was about to cry, they could only comfort her. "Don't cry, Estie. We're going to ride the little roller coaster, then we'll find you in a while!"

Lucian tenderly wiped away Estie's tears, then took Nox's hand and waved to her.

Melody carried Estie in her arms and left without looking back.

Only Lucian and Nox were left standing in place.

As they watched Grandma and their little sister leave, Nox's face was filled with worry and disappointment.

"Brother, will little sister cry later? What if she cries a lot? Let's follow them secretly?"

Lucian frowned and shook his head. "Grandma will coax her. If Grandma finds us following them, she will only get angrier."

He turned to look at Nox. "Is there anything you want to play?"

Nox shook his head.

He did not even want to come out today. He only came out with them to accompany his little sister.

Lucian said, "Okay, then let's wait here for our little sister to come back!"

My Ex-Wife and Kids Came In Like A Wrecking Ball Chapter 1597-Let's Not Wait Any Longer

Melody took Estie to see a few princesses, but Estie's attention was not there at all. All she wanted was to find Lucian and Nox.

Melody became furious at the little girl's tearful face.

"If you don't like it, then we won't watch it." She pretended to be affectionate and patted the little girl's head, then turned and walked towards the exit.

Estie thought that grandma was finally going to take her to find her little brothers, so her crying stopped.

After a while, she realized that this was not the way back at all, but the exit of the amusement park!

"Huu...I don't want! I want to find my brothers! Bad Grandma, I don't want you!" Estie cried and struggled to get out of her arms.

Melody held the little girl tightly in her arms and her tone was harsh. "What brother are you looking for? You've been with them all day since that woman and those two little b*stards appeared. I believe you have forgotten that you are the Lawrence family's Young Lady! You don't even want to see Grandma! I believe they taught you this nonsense! You must stay with Grandma today!"

Melody strode out with Estie in her arms as she spoke.

Within a few minutes, the two walked out of the amusement park.

As the gate of the amusement park drifted farther and farther away, Estie cried until she had no strength left. In the end, the girl was whisked away into the car by Melody.

"Ma'am, the other two..." the driver asked cautiously when he saw that they were the only ones coming back.

Melody ignored the driver and ordered in a cold voice. "Take me to the nearest shopping mall!"

The driver was compelled to obey by her aggressive attitude. He agreed to her request and drove away.

Along the way, Estie sobbed softly.

, Lucian and Nox waited for a long time in the amusement park. Grandma and their little sister were nowhere to be seen.

Nox suggested looking for them. The two boys searched around the amusement park, but they could not find them.

The two little guys couldn't help feeling a little anxious.

"Brother, did something happen to our little sister?" Nox looked at his brother nervously.

He got lost last time, but he was much stronger than the little sister!

If their little sister gets lost by herself, she would have passed out from crying!

Lucian was also very worried; however, he kept calm to think of a solution.

A few seconds later, he took out his phone watch and tried to call Estie.

He called her several times, but there was no answer.

Nox became even more anxious. "Let's tell Mommy..."

Lucian pondered for a moment, then looked at his younger brother to reassure him. "Don't worry, little sister is with Grandma. We haven't found Grandma yet, maybe..."

He did not have the heart to go on.

Nox already guessed what he meant. "Did grandma take our little sister away?"

The little guy asked him dejectedly.

Lucian did not answer, but the expression on his face already gave him the answer.

This was the biggest possibility.

Melody disliked them, so she quietly took their little sister to another venue and left them in the amusement park.

"Grandma hated us that much?" Nox muttered.

Lucian could not help but sigh in his heart.

He knew Grandma didn't like them, but he never expected her to abandon the two children alone in the amusement park and leave on her own. 2

Isn't she concerned about what might happen to them?

His little heart broke for a while before pulling himself together and taking Nox's hand. "Let's not wait any longer, let's go home! Perhaps Grandma has already brought little sister home." 6
