

My Ex-Wife and Kids Came In Like A Wrecking Ball Chapter 837

After they watched Luther's car leave, Rosalie brought the boys into the living room.

Thinking of Luther's words just now, Rosalie squatted down and looked into the eyes of the little boys with an apologetic expression on her face. "During this period of time, have I spent too little time with you?"

Throughout the Lancer Corporation project, Rosalie devoted most of her time to work.

'If it wasn't for Byron's reminder to Luther, I don't know when I would realize this.'

The sensible little boys noticed Mommy's self-blame and shook their heads. "Mommy's work is more important. We'll be alright."

Nox said sweetly, "We can take care of ourselves, and we'll will take care of Mommy too! "

Lucian also echoed. "Mommy's job is to cure diseases and save people. We know that, and we hope that you can save more people."

Moreover, they had long been accustomed to this kind of life. They did not feel anything at all.

However...

The two little boys thought of Estie at the same time.

'For Little Estie, Mommy may be really busy during this time.

She's had no chance to meet Mommy.'

Just as Rosalie was about to breathe a sigh of relief, she saw the little faces of the boys gradually collapse. She asked with concern. "What's wrong? Do you think Mommy is too busy?"

Rosalie frowned and apologized. "My work during this period is indeed very important. When this project is over, I'll take some time out to spend with you!"

The little boys put away their thoughts and nodded innocently. " We know! But Mommy, can we also bring along Little Estie?"

Rosalie inevitably thought of Byron at the mention of Estie, and the look in her eyes was a little hesitant.

"Mommy, Little Estie misses you very much during this time." The little boys rarely acted like this.

Hearing this, Rosalie thought of Estie's pitiful little face. Her heart softened, and she agreed with a smile, "okay, I promise you, I'll take the three of you out to have a good time together."

The little boys cheered out loud excitedly.

As Rosalie looked at the little boys, she could not help but wonder. "What did you say to Little Estie just now?"

'Why did Little Estie agree so easily?'

The two little guys looked at each other and smiled mysteriously at their mommy. "It's a secret!"

Rosalie was taken aback when she heard this.

'It seemed to be the same last time. I don't know what the boys said to Little Estie previously either.'

'These three little ones seem to be hiding something from me.'

Realizing this, Rosalie pretended to be serious and pulled a face. "Come on, are you hiding something from Mommy?"

The boys took advantage of the fact that Rosalie would never get angry with them and ignored her stern face. They giggled as they sprinted up to their room. "Mommy, we're so sleepy now. We're going to bed first! You should rest early too. Goodnight!"

They did not even give Rosalie a chance to respond. They turned around and ran upstairs.

Looking at the backs of the little ones, Rosalie was amused and helpless.

'These two little fellows have completely figured me out. They don't even take my word seriously!'

'The thing is, from their behavior, it's obvious they have something to hide from me.'

'I really don't know what's going on.'

Rosalie still believed that the boys were sensible children and would not do bad things, she just wanted to know if she could help them.

At the same time, the two little boys ran all the way back to their room, then let out a long sigh of relief.

Sure enough, Mommy found out that they were conspiring!

However, as long as they did not say anything, Mommy would never guess what they were thinking.

They would not take the initiative to tell Mommy that the reason why Little Sister agreed to go back was to inquire about Uncle Byron's attitude!
