

BLESSING OF YURI GODDESS

Chapter 10: Chapter 9 - Fox Mask

Right now, I was in Mio's room. Because my scream was too loud, I made a little commotion.

Mio was sleeping unconscious and her nose was bleeding. That incident made me panic and scream.

That scream called Mio's father. He carried Mio and took her to her bedroom. I followed his every step and brought the equipment that Mio gave me.

In the middle of that short journey, Mio's father said something that made my heart beat faster, and a little embarrassed.

"My daughter must like you... she dared to give you her first handmade clothes and her first craft weapons."

That little sentence made my heart calm and warm. Clothes made by Mio's hands. Just thinking about it made me feel happy.

But, how do I wear it? These clothes are very unique to me.

[Then, leave it to me Lily-chan!]

Eh? This voice? Goddess.. you're back?

[Nyaa.. I'm back! After being busy taking care of troublesome souls from another world. Why do people like them have weird ways to die from being hit by trucks so much? Is that a hobby or a mental disorder?]

Truck? What is the Goddess talking about?

[Oh, Lily-chan must not understand it. Anyway, there is someone from another world coming to your world. Well.. you guys might meet each other later. But.. forget that!

time to turn Lily-chan into a cute girl!]

Eh??

Right after Mio's father left Mio's room, my white robe suddenly opened and flew away. I was only wearing plain normal clothes because my white robe was enough to cover my body. But, if it was forcibly opened like this. As a woman... I feel a very deep sense of shame.

[Ah.. I want to buy this robe and inhale Lily-chan's natural scent. Can I buy it?

"G-Goddess.. what are you doing?"

[Ah! How about exchanging it with an item that makes Lily-chan even cuter?
Yup! Let's do that! In exchange... Lily-chan's white robe will be mine.

Suddenly, my white robe disappeared and a fox-face mask fell in front of me.

[Fufu.. Lily-chan smells so good..]

Somehow, it feels so embarrassing if a Goddess says that.

"Uh.. my body odor isn't that bad right?"

[UWAAAA!! I'll die if I inhale it any longer!]

"Uuuuuuhhhh" I unconsciously covered my face and sat down curled up. It feels.. this is so embarrassing.

[Ahem! Back to the main problem. I didn't expect Lily-chan to conquer Mio this quickly or Mio was too weak in front of Lily-chan. Right now, all of Mio's skills have been completely obtained. Congratulations Lily-chan!]

I could hear the sound of goddess clapping in my head.

[Because Mio's affinity reached 200%. Then.. the Legendary Sword and Swordmaster Armor were successfully obtained.]

"Eh? Did I get something like that?"

[Didn't Mio give it? The clothes and sword that Lily-chan received... those two items is actually Legendary Sword and Swordmaster Armor.]

"Ehhh??"

"I-I didn't expect Mio to give me all this."

[Now.. let's move on to the next step. Lily-chan.. please look at Mio's information.]

"Information?"

[I added something important to it a little, now.. by making physical contact with Mio's body you will get Yurification Points. Yurification Points are a currency that can be used to exchange skills, equipment, upgrades, and other supporting needs. The main requirement to get Yurification Points is to conquer women until they reach 200% affinity.]

"Uh, I don't understand."

"Can you explain a little more?"

[Sorry, my explanation might be too difficult for Lily-chan's current condition. Then, let's just go straight to the practice target.]

[Kuh! Mio! I'm so jealous of you! Why can you see Lily-chan pants while I have to deal with souls from another world. Its unfair!]

[Forget that, now... Lily-chan. The fox mask in front of you is one of the examples of items inside the Mio Exclusive Gift. Why don't you try it?]

Hearing the Goddess' request, I took the fox face mask in front of me and put it on.

I could feel something strange happening inside my body. Suddenly, the mask clamped my face and merged into my face.

What is this strange feeling?

And.. why is my head itchy? It feels like.. there is something strange growing on my head.

[UWWOOOOO!! THIS IS SO CUTE! I HAVE TO RECORD IT!!]

I could hear Goddess excited voice.

Unintentionally, I looked at the mirror. The figure of a cute fox girl was in front of me. I immediately looked behind my body but there was only Mio there.

Wait...

This fox girl is.. me?

I couldn't believe my eyes and walked closer to the mirror. The movements she made were very similar to mine.

There's no mistake... Did I become a fox girl?

"G-Goddess! What happened to my body?"

[Fufu.. cute isn't it?]

"Please don't joke around in a situation like this, can my body return to normal?"

[Of course it can, but.. this fun will continue little bit...]

Suddenly, my body floated in the air. The clothes given by Mio flew towards me. The clothes moved as if something was controlling them. The clothes wrapped around my body and threw away the clothes I was wearing.

Reflexively, I was shocked and covered my body. However, the clothes kept moving and wrapping around my body as if adjusting to my size.

[It's done... Taraaa!! Oh My!! This is so cute! Don't let Mio see it or she'll bleed to death.]

[The Fox Shrine Maiden version of Lily-chan has arrived! Then.. it's time for Mio to wake up. I'm curious about her reaction.]

"Eh?"

"I don't want Mio to see me like this."

"It feels.. weird and so embarrassing."

"Uuuh, what should I do?"

"Umph... Uh..."

I could hear Mio's voice waking up. She rubbed her eyes and looked around.

"Uh, L-Lily-sama??"

"Y-Yes.. M-Mioo?"

"I-Is this Lily-sama?" Mio asked me as if she was unsure. She rubbed her eyes again.

I walked a little closer to Mio.

"Good morning, Mio.. how was your sleep?" I smiled at Mio.

Hearing this question, Mio's nose started bleeding again. Unlike before, this time.. long blood came out of her nose.

"MIIIIOOOOOO!!" once again... Mio fell back asleep in a state of unconsciousness.
