

BLESSING OF YURI GODDESS

Chapter 11: Chapter 10 - Mio Holy Water

Mio fainted again with a smile on her face.

[Lily-chan! This is bad! If this continues... Mio will die!]

Suddenly the Goddess shouted in my head.

"Hawawa!!" I panicked and my body shook. Even my tail and fox ears moved aimlessly.

Mio will die??

No! I don't want that to happen!

Goddess! Please don't take Mio's life. If Mio dies, who will look for me?

[Calm down, Lily-chan. There are several ways to save Mio. One of them is to use the item in the Mio Exclusive Gift.]

In front of me, there was a flying transparent text. I tried to hold the border text but my hand went through it. This scene was similar to the hidden information on Mio and the other girls that I had seen flying in their head.

Is this what is called the Yurification System? I'm not used to this scene. It feels very uncomfortable if only I can see it.

[Lily-chan will get used to it.]

Uh, this Goddess knows what I'm thinking.

Now! How do I save Mio?

[Inside the Mio Exclusive Gift feature, there is an item called Mio Special Holy Water. This item can cure any wound and disease if given to Mio. However, there is one small condition to activate its special effect.]

I will do anything for Mio!

[Kuuuh.. I'm so jealous of Mio right now. Why is she receiving special treatment from Lily-chan?]

I don't know why the Goddess said this, but..

If it's for Mio..

Ugh.. imagining Mio leaving me makes my chest hurt. I'm not ready for this, the blood coming out of Mio's nose doesn't seem to stop flowing. Could this be what the Goddess meant when Mio was about to die?

I don't want that to happen.

My eyes moved along the words text in front of me. Until an item that said "Mio Special Holy Water" was in front of me. I wanted to take the item out but.. how?

[Um... Lily-chan. To access the Mio Exclusive Gift item, you need enough Yurification Points to purchase it..]

My Yurification Points are still not enough right now.

[Um! Very clever.. Lily-chan has understood it]

Uhm.. how do I get enough Yurification Points? If I'm not mistaken... I have to make physical contact with Mio, right?

But.. right now Mio is unconscious and blood is flowing from her nose.

I also don't have enough Yurification Points to buy that item.

[Then.. I'll teach you how to get Yurification Points from Mio.]

[First.. return to Lily-chan's original form. Remove the fox mask that is attached to Lily-chan's head.]

Fox Mask?

I looked at the mirror in Mio's room. A mask shaped like a fox's face was on my head. When I took it off, my fox ears and fox tail disappeared. My appearance returned to normal as usual.

[As I thought! Fox Shrine Maiden Lily's version is indeed interesting. But the original is much cuter!]

[Should I create a new avatar skin to feel Lily-chan's cuteness?]

Once again... I don't know what the Goddess said.

I followed the Goddess's instructions and waited for her next order.

[Now.. put Mio's head on Lily-chan's lap!]

I moved onto Mio's bed and removed the pillow that was supporting her head. Based on the Goddess's instructions. I put Mio's head between my thighs and wrapped my legs around Mio's neck. It felt.. a bit inappropriate if my thighs and legs locked Mio's head.

"L-Like this?" I mumbled a little and confirmed my position.

[T-This is much different from what I imagined but.. THIS IS GOOD TOO!!]

[Yurification Points +10,000]

"Eh?" a message containing writing appeared in front of me.

So, this is the easiest way to get Yurification Points?

[There is an easier way, it is just one of the many ways to get Yurification Points.]

Um, I understand this way. That means, I just need to make physical contact with Mio, right?

Wait...

Didn't we do that often?

But, after thinking about it. This is so embarrassing!

"Uuuuh.." I muttered a little and noticed Mio's facial expression.

She fainted with a bloody nose but was smiling. That seemed to indicate that Mio was very happy.

I immediately looked for the item in question and when I wanted it. A small glowing dot appeared in front of me. The small dot gathered and formed a glass tube filled with liquid inside.

My hand reflexively received the glass tube so that it wouldn't fall on Mio's face.

"This is Mio Special Holy Water?"

[Yup! Now.. since Mio is unconscious. Why don't you try feeding Mio?]

"Huh?" I was surprised by the Goddess' words.

Feeding Mio? How?

[It's so easy! Lily-chan just puts a small amount of Mio Special Holy Water liquid in mouth and presses Lily-chan's lips against Mio's lips. After that, slowly channel the Mio Special Holy Water liquid to make it easier for Mio to drink it.]

Hearing the Goddess' explanation, I then followed her instructions.

Before that, I cleaned the blood flowing from Mio's nose with my hand. Seeing Mio's smiling face, I wanted to save Mio's life immediately!

I slowly opened the lid of the glass tube and put some of the liquid into my mouth. I hurriedly directed my lips to Mio's lips and pressed our lips together.

Eh, isn't this like the Linked Ritual?

The soft sensation on my lips and the water flowing out of my mouth made it a little difficult for me to control it.

I heard Mio's gulp and the water in my mouth was gone.

I released my lips from Mio's lips and...

Mio's eyes opened and looked at me. The remains of my saliva stuck to my lips and Mio's lips, leaving a fairly long trail of saliva between us.

For some reason, Mio's face suddenly turned red.

"Li-Liiiily-samaaaaa!!" Mio woke up and tried to stand up. However, her head hit my head.

Duuukk!!

Ugh!! It hurts so much and makes me a little dizzy. Why did Mio suddenly move like this?

"Owuuu!!" I groaned a little in pain and rubbed my head.

Wait.. this doesn't hurt at all. Is this the effect of the Yurification System?

"L-Lily-sama, I'm sorry! I-I panicked a little and suddenly tried to stand up" Mio panicked and rubbed my head.

"It's okay, Mio. It doesn't hurt at all and luckily Mio survived death" after seeing Mio wake up from her fainting. I rushed to hug her.

"Huh? D-Death?" Mio looked confused by my words.

"I-I don't know what happened, but-"

"Uhm.. sorry for making Lily-sama worry." Mio returned my hug and stroked my hair slowly.

This is so comfortable.

I want to feel this feeling every day.

"Anoo.. Uhm.. Lily-sama." Suddenly Mio said a few soft words in my ear.

"C-Can Mio get that kiss one more time? It's not fair if Lily-sama kisses Mio while she's unconscious."

I loosened my hug a little and looked at Mio's face. Unexpectedly, Mio's facial expression said to do it immediately.

I immediately stroked Mio's face and...

Kreeek!!

"Oy! Mio! How long are you going to sleep? It's almost lunchtime and hurry up and deliver Mom's lunch.. EH??!"

Unexpectedly, Mio's father opened Mio's room door and saw the two of us in a position about to kiss each other.

I didn't expect Mio to have a unique and funny side at home.

"GET OUT!!" Mio shouted at her father while throwing a pillow.
