

Young Master Qin Keeps Coveting Me After I Beat Him Up

Chapter 21: He Didn't Expect To Meet Her Here

[Merit Points + 2]

Jiang Xun blinked and stepped on him again.

"I was wrong, I was wrong! I'm sorry! I won't say that about you anymore!" "Master Shao" did not care about his image in front of his friends anymore.

1

He really did not know that Jiang Xun was so good at fighting. If he had known earlier, he would not have provoked her and lost so much face.

Because of this, he could not help but hold a grudge against Yuexi.

[Merit Points + 1]

Jiang Xun did some mental calculations. Just now, "Master Shao" had admitted he was wrong twice and had said "Sorry" once. In total, he had apologized three times, but it seemed that this only counted as one merit point.

It seemed that she could not get anything more out of him.

Jiang Xun glanced at him with disdain before finally removing her foot. After that, she turned and coldly glanced at the others. "You guys, will you still dare to look down on people like this in the future?"

"No!"

The three people shook their heads in unison like well-trained pets. They were extremely obedient.

Jiang Xun glanced at the table full of dishes that had not been eaten yet. "I'm going to the washroom first. I'll be back in a while. All of you, stay there obediently."

Everyone hurriedly nodded. "Yes, we will."

After Jiang Xun left, the faces of these people immediately changed.

“Master Shao” was still a little afraid. At this moment, his face suddenly darkened. He looked at Yuexi with an unfriendly expression. “Did you bring her here to cause trouble?”

She had caused him to lose so much face!

“That’s right,” the blue-gray beauty-eyed girl complained. “She’s so good at fighting. Why didn’t you tell us this earlier? She made us suffer so much, and we still treat you as a friend.”

Yuexi stomped her feet angrily. “I didn’t know either! She tricked me!”

1

She felt like her thoughts were all jumbled up. She hadn’t thought about the incident where Jixuan was beaten up, otherwise, she wouldn’t have provoked Jiang Xun today.

“I’m sorry, everyone,” Yuexi hurriedly said. “Master Shao, I’m really sorry. I didn’t know that things would turn out like this. Today’s meal is on me. I know that you don’t care about the money, but I can’t express my apologies enough. In the future, if anyone needs anything, I’ll do my best. I’m really sorry for tonight.”

Since Yuexi was so sincere, the others couldn’t say anything.

“Master Shao”, however, was still depressed and couldn’t be bothered to talk to her.

With Jiang Xun’s words lingering in the air, however, they didn’t dare to move their chopsticks or leave.

They were afraid that Jiang Xun would beat them up. Thinking of this, Master Shao grimaced. When has he ever suffered such injustice!

In the meantime, Jiang Xun left the room and went to look for the exit of the restaurant. Was she going to leave? No, but she wanted those people to wait for a while.

No matter how much she liked to eat, she didn’t want to eat in front of a group of people she didn’t like. Her appetite would be greatly reduced.

Jiang Xun planned to go home and eat the snacks and fast food that she had stocked up; there were still a lot of things that she hadn’t eaten yet, after all.

However, as she walked through corridor after corridor, she still couldn’t find the elevator that would take her downstairs, let alone the exit of the restaurant.

As she walked, she muttered, "The corridors here are like a maze. Is the restaurant afraid that people will leave without paying or something?"

3

Just as she finished mumbling, the door of the room next to her suddenly opened.

A drunk man staggered out from inside.

Jiang Xun went on high alert almost instinctively, and she looked at the man's face.

When the drunk man saw Jiang Xun, he was also stunned. Then, his drunken eyes lit up for a moment, and a greasy smile appeared on his face.

"Little girl." The drunk man was intoxicated, so all his inhibitions had long abandoned him. When he saw Jiang Xun's beautiful face, he couldn't help but want to see how pure she was.

Seeing her clear eyes looking over him, he wanted to bully her a little.

The drunkard stretched out his metaphorical claws at Jiang Xun. "Come on, I'll treat you to a meal."

As he said that, the drunkard grabbed her arm. Now, with Jiang Xun's skill, she could've easily evaded this man even in her sleep, but she didn't want to beat up a good person by mistake.

"Treat me to a meal?" she asked, puzzled. "Why would you do that?"

At first glance, people would look at her face and think that she was a cute, pure, innocent girl. They wouldn't be able to tell that she had fearsome skill in martial arts if they'd never seen her skills beforehand.

Especially when she looked over in confusion, her innocent expression would be enough to tickle one's heart.

People with dirty thoughts would only become even worse when they looked at her.

"After you eat, Big Brother will dote on you." The drunkard laughed, his breath stinking of alcohol.

Jiang Xun had an idea as to what this man was implying, but she decided to confirm it nonetheless. "You want to take advantage of me, right?"

The drunkard chuckled and said, "Why would I do that? Big brothers are supposed to dote on little girls and make you feel comfortable. Girlie, you must have never felt comfortable before, right? Trust me, I'm very good at my job. I will definitely make you..."

"Bang!"

Before the drunkard could finish his sentence, Jiang Xun threw him over his shoulder and flung him to the ground. It turned out that her instincts weren't wrong.

1

"Then I won't hesitate."

The drunkard was stunned by the throw. Although he was still drunk, his temper flared up immediately as he cursed her out. "You little b*tch! How dare you fight me! D*mn you, I'll kill you—"

Before he could finish his sentence, a man's leather shoe suddenly appeared on the drunkard's mouth.

Jiang Xun silently retracted her own foot and looked up at the owner of the leather shoe.

She didn't expect someone to be one step faster than her. It seemed that she still needed to work hard to train.

But when she realized who she was looking at, she asked in surprise, "It's you?"

Qin Mufeng, the man who'd donated a lot of money to her high school, nodded lightly at Jiang Xun and ordered his assistant Zhang Chengnan to call the police.

As soon as he came out of his own private room, he heard the drunkard's dirty mouth.

When he looked at who he was harassing, it turned out to be Jiang Xun.

Previously, he had asked Chengnan to investigate Jiang Xun, which was when he came to know that she was Jiang Chengye's daughter.

He didn't expect to meet her here. It was likely that Jiang Chengye had brought her back from the village.

Chengnan was in the middle of calling the police when Jiang Xun said to Mufeng, "Let him go first."

Mufeng curled the corners of his mouth up and let out a small snort.

She was indeed a little girl. She was being too soft-hearted to such a piece of scum.

However, since Jiang Xun, the victim, had spoken, Mufeng would not refuse her request. He moved his foot away from the drunkard's mouth.

When Jiang Xun saw that the drunkard's mouth was only slightly swollen from being stepped on and there was not even dust around him, she muttered softly, "The soles of the shoes are quite clean. There aren't even any prints left behind."

Mufeng could faintly hear her say something, but he wasn't very sure. Just as he was about to ask what she was mumbling about, she saw Jiang Xun suddenly raise her leg and stomp down hard on the drunkard's mouth again.

Both him and his assistant could only stare in silence.

...So, she wanted to do it herself.

1

Chengnan couldn't help but touch his own mouth and let out a hiss of sympathy.

The drunkard was in so much pain that his face felt like it was going to break, but his mouth was blocked by Jiang Xun's shoe, so he could only endure the pain silently.

1

Chapter 22: She Doesn't Look Like She's Trying To Get Close

Borrowing the strength of the alcohol, the drunkard also went on a rampage. If he couldn't beat that man, then he definitely wouldn't lose to this little girl!

Not only that, she was so thin and frail, and her wrist looked as if it would snap at the slightest motion.

When he heard her tell the man to call the police, the idea of using this girl to make his escape popped up in his mind.

With crazed eyes, his hand snapped up, about to grab her ankle, but the girl had managed to predict his actions, somehow, and moved her foot away from his mouth before stomping down on the hand that he'd raised. Using her other leg, she promptly kicked him in the ribs, careful not to use too much strength so she wouldn't accidentally cause internal injuries.

Even so, it was enough for the drunkard to howl and tremble in pain.

“Behave yourself!” Jiang Xun kicked him again. “Tell me, how many times have you done this?”

“No...This is my first time.” This time, the drunkard completely sobered up while sobbing.

He couldn’t admit it now, regardless of whether he had done it before or not.

He could not lift his hand no matter how hard he tried, not even if he used all his strength. It was only then did he realize that the little girl in front of him was far from harmless.

When he saw Jiang Xun’s other foot about to kick him again, he arched his body like a shrimp. He was in so much pain that tears involuntarily flowed out from his eyes. Sobbing, he begged for mercy. “Don’t kick me... Don’t kick me...”

“... I was wrong, please stop kicking me... I was wrong...”

[ Merit Points + 1 ]

Jiang Xun raised her eyebrows fiercely. She had only gained one MP. She was about to kick him when the system reminded her, “Host, be careful of what will happen if you kick him again.”

“But even the surveillance cameras captured the incident. He attacked me first. I was acting in self-defense. I kicked him later because he wanted to escape.”

After the police obtained the surveillance cameras, they would see that she was in the right. But indeed, making too many unnecessary moves wouldn’t help her case, either.

At this moment, the police finally arrived.

They did not expect to see someone they knew.

When they saw Jiang Xun, the police were stunned. “Jiang Xun?”

They owed their thanks to Jiang Xun, who had been running all over the capital and fighting crime. There were figures of her arresting lawbreakers everywhere.

As a result, even though she wouldn’t say that she knew all the police officers in the district, she still knew about 70-80% of them.

This time, she happened to be quite familiar with the ones who'd arrived at the scene.

"I was just about to leave when I bumped into him coming out drunk. Not only did he harass me, he even made a move on me, but I subdued him. I wonder if this is his first offense."

"We can testify." Chengnan raised his hand. "When we came over, we just happened to hear him say something dirty about doing good work and making Jiang Xun...comfortable or something..."

Chengnan felt dirty when he repeated these words.

The police officer's face darkened when he heard that. "Okay, thank you."

The police officer and his colleagues took statements from Jiang Xunshu, Mufeng, and Chengnan, after which they understood the whole story. They also got the security footage from the restaurant.

1

This drunkard was 100% in the wrong.

When the police officers took the drunkard away, one of them flashed Jiang Xunshu a thumbs up. "Every time I see you, you're always catching bad guys!"

Jiang Xun nodded. "... I know."

After the drunkard was taken away, Jiang Xun thanked Mufeng and Chengnan again. "Thank you for what you did just now."

"Are you here to eat, or are you going to leave?" Mufeng remembered that Jiang Xun had told the police that he was going to leave.

"I'm going to leave." Jiang Xun was a little regretful. She should have left with the police just now. Wouldn't she be able to find the elevator then?

Looking at her regretful expression, the corner of Mufeng's mouth twitched. If he had to guess, Jiang Xun had probably gotten lost again and was regretting not leaving with the police.

She must've been looking for an exit but ended up walking deeper and deeper into the restaurant.

It was a skill for one to be so stupid with directions.

6

“We were just about to leave too. Let’s go together,” Mufeng said.

Jiang Xun’s eyes lit up. She could finally get out!

She immediately followed Mufeng out, quickly realizing that she could’ve found the elevator so easily by going straight to the end of the hallway and turning right.

4

They took the elevator to the first floor and went through the corridor before they completely exited the restaurant.

Jiang Xun took a breath of fresh air.

She was finally out.

“Thank you. How are you going to leave?” Jiang Xun asked politely.

Mufeng pointed to the parking lot on the left. “My car is there.”

Jiang Xun nodded and waved at Mufeng and Chengnan with a smile. “I’ll be leaving first, then.”

After saying that, she ran away.

Looking at her back, Chengnan said in a low voice, “President, it doesn’t seem like Jiang Xun is intentionally getting close to you. Otherwise, she wouldn’t be leaving by herself. This would be the perfect time for her to get into your car.”

Mufeng looked away from Jiang Xun. “Let’s go.”

The two of them got into the car and the driver drove out of the parking lot. After driving for a while, Mufeng saw her running by the roadside.

He pinched the corner of his eyes. Did this girl not know how to walk? Every time he saw her, she was running.

Chengnan also caught sight of her and couldn’t help but ask, “Could it be that Jiang Xun is planning to run home?”

“Although Jiang Chengye didn’t treat her very well and left her at her uncle’s house in the countryside for 11 years, since he brought her home, he wouldn’t be so harsh that he wouldn’t even give her some pocket money, right?” Chengnan thought to himself. Was Jiang Chengye really that overboard?

“Jiang Chengye is such a shameless person. How could he let his daughter run around like that outside? If someone saw her, wouldn’t his image be torn up?” Chengnan muttered.

Mufeng’s eyes darkened. Although he didn’t ask Chengnan to continue investigating, he could guess that Jiang Xun’s position in the Jiang family was awkward.

She had been thrown to her uncle’s house in the countryside when young and was only brought back now.

The house had long been occupied by her stepmother and half-siblings, and there was no place for her.

“Stop in front for a while,” Mufeng suddenly said to the driver, who quickly found a suitable spot by the roadside to park the car.

Mufeng lowered the window and waited for a while before seeing Jiang Xun run over.

No matter how fast she could run, it was impossible for her to be faster than a car. Even when he was talking with Chengnan just now, their car had already passed her by a short distance.

Fortunately, this was a straight road, so he wasn’t worried that she would turn halfway.

When he saw her running over, she didn’t seem to see him.

Without turning her head, she ran straight ahead, so Mufeng had no choice but to call out to her.

Jiang Xun stopped when she heard the voice. After looking around for a bit, she saw that it was Mufeng again.

“Are you planning to run all the way home?” Mufeng asked.

“Yes.” Jiang Xun nodded. “To strengthen my body,” she explained.

“...”

It was only then did Mufeng carefully examine Jiang Xun. He realized that she had indeed changed a lot compared to the first time he met her.

Although her figure was slender, she looked much healthier now. Her small face was much paler than before. Under the illumination of the neon lights at night, it actually seemed to glow.

Because she had just been running, the blush on her face was even thicker.

Chapter 23: Qin Mufeng Is A Roadblock

Her originally pure and innocent appearance was now tinged with a bit of lustiness.

Pure and lustful. It was probably what Jiang Xun looked like.

It was hard to imagine that such contradictory words could be used to describe a person.

Mufeng had also seen such words on the internet—things like “Innocent Lustiness” being thrown around. But he’d always scoffed at such words. It was just a self-proclaimed title. It didn’t live up to its name.

He felt that there shouldn’t be such a person in this world.

The word “Innocent Lustiness” was simply up to one’s perception.

But now, standing before Jiang Xun, Mufeng finally understood what they meant.

After being slightly stunned, Mufeng said, “Get in the car and I’ll send you back.”

Jiang Xun really wanted to refuse. She really wanted to strengthen her body.

This Mufeng always offered to send her back every time he saw her. He was a roadblock on her way to strengthening her body!

1

Mufeng’s brows twitched slightly. “Even if you want to train your body, now is not the time.”

“Fine.” Jiang Xun had no choice but to get in the car.

Mufeng blinked at her. Look at how reluctant she was.

Chengnan could only watch them speechlessly. How many women were begging for the chance to get into Mufeng’s car, yet were unable to even touch the door handle?

When Jiang Xun got into the car, the car didn’t start immediately, so she hurriedly fastened her seatbelt.

It was the same last time. Because she'd forgotten to fasten her seatbelt, Mufeng didn't say a word and just stared at her for a long time.

However, even when Jiang Xun finally managed to fasten her seatbelt, the car didn't start yet.

Only then did she prompt, "Are you going to start the car?"

"Address?" Mufeng finally spoke.

Jiang Xun hurriedly told him her address, inwardly grumbling. She didn't know what was wrong with this man. Couldn't he just ask her for the address instead of making her suffer in silence?

1

Only then did the driver start the car.

Back in the restaurant.

Yuexi and the others had been waiting for half an hour, but Jiang Xun still hadn't come back.

"Why isn't she back yet?" the blue-gray-eyed girl asked a little anxiously.

No one dared to eat the dishes on the table, so the dishes had already gone stone-cold.

However, Jiang Xun had told them to wait here, so no one dared move a muscle.

"I'll give her a call," Yuexi finally said, then took out her phone and dialed Jiang Xun's number.

"Hello?" Jiang Xun answered.

"You've been in the bathroom for a long time. Why aren't you back yet?" Yuexi asked.

"Oh, I'm constipated."

3

Mufeng: "..."

Chengnan: "..."

Yuexi took a deep breath. "...Okay."

After saying that, she obediently hung up the phone.

Jiang Xun promptly looked at the time displayed on her phone. Half an hour had already passed, but those people hadn't left yet. Were they still waiting obediently? She'd forgotten about them, to be honest.

Mufeng cleared his throat. "You have an appointment?"

Jiang Xun gave the matter a bit of thought and decided that she didn't have anything to hide, so she then said, "My half-sister brought me here to meet her friends, but they mocked me for coming from the countryside and looked down on me, so I made an excuse to go to the washroom and left them there to wait."

Chengnan recalled that she'd said that she was constipated. His lips twitched a little as he said, "Then they were quite obedient. You told them to wait, and they waited obediently?"

If they looked down on Jiang Xun, why would they wait obediently?

Jiang Xun nodded. "Because they already know their mistake and promised me that they would stop mocking people."

Chengnan's mouth twitched again.

How obedient.

Even if he didn't know them, Chengnan knew that these young rich kids were all arrogant, so they would naturally treat everyone as beneath them.

Since they looked down on Jiang Xun who came from the countryside, why would they so obediently listen to her?

As Chengnan was thinking about this, the image of Jiang Xun kicking that drunk man suddenly flashed in his mind.

Could it be that she had used force to subdue them?

However, Chengnan shook his head. There was no way.

The drunkard didn't dare to make a move because he and Mufeng were still there. The drunkard had probably known that he couldn't hide from them.

However, Yuexi definitely had a lot of friends, while Jiang Xun was alone. There was no way she could possibly fight off that many people, right?

Chengnan looked at Mufeng through the rearview mirror, but he couldn't tell what the man was thinking.

Mufeng was looking at Jiang Xun with a complicated expression.

She was...constipated? In his car?

2

Jiang Xun somehow understood the meaning behind Mufeng's gaze and shifted away from him. "I was just saying it casually," she said. It was rare for her to feel uncomfortable under Mufeng's gaze. "Why are you taking it so seriously?"

Mufeng looked at her for a few seconds before snorting. "Heh."

After he finished laughing, he turned his head away from her.

Jiang Xun could only stare at him incredulously. What did he mean with that "Heh"?

At the same time this was happening, Yuexi and the others were waiting in the room for another 20 minutes.

The girl in a one-piece dress frowned impatiently. "Even if she's constipated, she should be out by now, right?"

"I'll go look for her." Yuexi stood up after saying that.

At this moment, the guy in the branded clothes suddenly remembered. "Wait, something's not Right."

Everyone looked at him and heard him say, "Isn't there a washroom in our room? Why did she go out for one?"

"Master Shao" stood up immediately. "We've been played!"

"Let's go out and look for her." The guy in the branded clothes also stood up and said.

"The three of us will go to the female washroom," said the girl with blue-gray eyes.

"The two of us will go and ask the waiter," said "Master Shao".

With that, they scattered.

Yuexi and the girls went to the female washroom at the end of the corridor, but found that there was no one inside.

The three of them exchanged a look and quickly left the washroom to meet up with “Master Shao” and the others.

“How did it go?” Yuexi asked quickly when they ran into the others.

“I just asked the waiter,” the boy dressed in branded clothes said with a sullen face. He gritted his teeth. “The waiter said that she left with two men about half an hour ago.”

“Two men?” Yuexi was surprised. “She’s only been in the capital for a little more than a month and doesn’t know anyone. Why would she leave with two men?”

Could it be that Jiang Xun had actually been meeting some wild men by going out every day?

Jiang Xun had been harassed by the drunkards and the police had arrived, so it was only natural for the manager and the staff to know about it. However, having a guest being harassed on their premises wasn’t a good look for the restaurant, so they didn’t go into such detail and had only told “Master Shao” that Jiang Xun had left with two men.

“Your sister seems to be quite capable,” the girl in a dress commented, her tone dripping with ill intent. “She came to the restaurant and left with two men at once.”

Yuexi understood what she was implying. “Since she’s already left, I’ll go home first. I have to tell my father about this.”

“Let’s go too,” the girl with blue-gray eyes complained, a gloomy look on her face. “It’s all because of her that we haven’t eaten anything yet. The dishes on that table are cold. I’m not touching them.”

Chapter 24: Not Even The Village’s Gossipmonger is Like You

The others also did not want to go back and eat a table full of cold dishes.

“I’m the one who let everyone down,” Yuexi apologized again, “All of you were trying to help me, but in the end, you were insulted by Jiang Xun. I don’t think anyone’s in the mood to hang out anymore today. I’ll be the host some other day, so let’s get together again.”

Yuexi's expression turned gloomy. "Jiang Xun made us unhappy today, so I won't let her go! I'll go back and let my dad know that she left with two men. No matter what, I'll make sure her private life isn't private anymore!"

"You're not to blame for what happened this time. We'll put it all on Jiang Xun's head," the boy wearing a name tag said with a sullen face.

The others nodded in agreement.

Yuexi finally heaved a sigh of relief.

The five of them then dispersed and she hurried home.

At this moment, Qin Mufeng's car had already stopped at the entrance of the Jiang family's villa.

This time, Jiang Xun remembered to unbuckle his seatbelt before alighting from the car.

She stood outside the car door and scratched her head in embarrassment. "Thank you so much. I've only met you twice, but I've had to trouble you to send me off."

Mufeng smiled faintly. "It's nothing. I'm going back now."

Jiang Xun nodded. When Mufeng saw her enter the courtyard, he told the driver, "Let's go."

When Jiang Xun entered the door, Jiang Chengye and Nianzhen saw that she was the only one who came back, but they didn't see Yuexi with her.

"Where's your sister?" Chengye asked with a frown. "Why didn't she come back with you?"

"I came back first." Jiang Xun pouted. "Why would I stay there and be ridiculed as a country bumpkin?"

After saying that, she ignored them and went straight upstairs to her bedroom, thoroughly famished.

Nianzhen hurriedly said to Chengye, "Yuexi will definitely not let her friends say that about Jiang Xun. I don't know what exactly happened. With Yuexi's personality, she will definitely stand on Jiang Xun's side and help her. "If her friend really said that, Yuexi would also feel bad."

At the mention of Yuexi, Chengye's expression was gentle. "I know. How could I not know our daughter? It's not like Yuexi could control what other people say."

Jiang Xun didn't care what the two of them were talking about, however. Back in her room, she fished out two boxes of spicy beef instant noodles from under her bed, one box of fish-flavored eggplant noodles, and one box of turkey-flavored noodles. She also took out three self-heating small hotpot boxes and carried all of them downstairs to the kitchen, where she boiled the water necessary to cook all of it.

She ate directly at the bar counter in the kitchen and didn't go out.

After waiting for three minutes, she started eating the instant noodles. Once she finished eating that, she started on her hotpot.

Chengye didn't expect her to not only eat a lot of actual food, but also have a ridiculous appetite for junk food.

She was like a black hole!

While Jiang Xun was eating three boxes of small hotpot at the same time, Yuexi entered the house.

She smelled the thick aroma of hotpot soup, but didn't think much of it. Maybe the family was having hotpot for dinner tonight.

"Dad, Mom." Yuexi changed her shoes in a hurry and went straight to the living room, not bothering to look elsewhere.

"Dad, I...I want to tell you something. Don't be angry." Yuexi sat next to Chengye with worry written all over her face. "Also, promise me that you won't be angry with Jiang Xun. If you have anything to say, talk to her properly."

While Jiang Xun was eating, she realized that it was related to her.

Not even three mini hotpots were enough to sate her!

Jiang Xun moved the small hotpot to the side of the bar, which was near the kitchen door. She pricked up his ears and continued to eat while listening.

Auntie Zhang could only look on in silence.

"What's the matter?" Chengye's face darkened. "What did she do this time?"

"Didn't I take my sister out for dinner today and introduce her to my friend?" Yuexi looked embarrassed, "Before we had dinner, my sister excused herself to go to the toilet and left. My friend and I waited for her for almost an hour, but she didn't come back. After asking the waiter, we found out that she left with two men."

Yuexi was acting as if she'd dropped a bomb. She blushed and looked at Chengye awkwardly, "I don't know how Jiang Xun met the two men. Did she know them before or at the restaurant? But no matter what, she can't go with them..."

"Previously, she was out every day, leaving early and returning late. I don't know what she was doing, but from what happened tonight, I'm worried that she did...something bad outside. She left with someone so happily and skillfully tonight, so it's obviously not her first time," Yuexi said, so anxious that her eyes were reddened around the rims. "She's only 18. How can she...how can she do such indecent things? And two at once, too!"

Nianzhen understood what Yuexi meant, but Jiang Xun had come back long ago!

If Jiang Xun hadn't come back, she would have supported Yuexi's words and would have fanned the flames, but now, she could only hurriedly say, "Yuexi, Jiang Xun, she..."

But Yuexi had suffered so much tonight, and her mind was filled with the need for revenge. She wasn't in the mood to listen to Nianzhen at all, and she even said to Chengye anxiously, "Dad, I don't know where she went with those two men. Let's find her quickly."

"Don't let her do something that will embarrass our family." Yuexi grabbed Chengye's arm anxiously.

Her heart was cold. If Jiang Xun could hit Chengye where it hurt the most, she could do it too!

While Chengye was frowning, Jiang Xun put down her chopsticks and slowly walked out of the kitchen. "I'm here. Where are you going to find me?"

Yuexi was stunned. "You...why are you here?"

Jiang Xun raised her eyebrows and sneered. "If I wasn't here, where would I be?"

"You clearly left with two men. The waiter saw it with his own eyes!" Yuexi said in shock.

"When I was in the restaurant, I ran into a drunkard who tried to take advantage of me as soon as I left the room. There were two other men who happened to be there. They helped me and even called the police for me. When I left, they were about to leave too, so we left the restaurant together. Could it be that they did something indecent?"

Jiang Xun looked at her with disdain. "What kind of feudal thinking is this? Not even the most notorious gossipmonger in my village is as bad as you."

Yuexi was furious when she processed everything. “Then...Since you clearly left early, why did you lie to us? I called you, and you said that you were...that you were constipated!”

“Oh? Then since you called me after I left, why did you act so anxious just now when you couldn’t find me?” Jiang Xun asked with a sneer.

“I...When I called you, I didn’t know you were already gone!” Yuexi defended herself in a panic. “I only found out after waiting for you for a long time and asking the waiter! If you had told us before you left, I wouldn’t have misunderstood you,” she cried.

Chapter 25: Trolling is Fun

“You brought me to meet your friends, but I just entered the house, and they all looked at me with contempt. They even mocked me for being from the countryside,” Jiang Xun said mockingly. There was no trace of anger or resentment in her voice.

“They clearly know that I’m the eldest daughter of the Jiang family. Even if I’m from the countryside, I’m still your daughter.” Jiang Xun looked at Jiang Chengye with a mocking smile and raised an eyebrow. “Who do you think they’re looking down on? If they actually liked you, how would they dare look down on me? How would they dare say all that to my face?”

“They said that I’m from the countryside, but who was the one who sent me there to begin with?” She smiled. “Who do you think they’re really talking about? And what does Yuexi think after having brought me along?”

1

Yuexi hurriedly explained, “They... they were just worried about me getting bullied.”

She did not dare push all the blame onto her friends yet. She could still get a lot of use out of them.

“I wasn’t looking down on you, nor was I looking down on our family,” Yuexi hurriedly explained, seeing that her father’s face was becoming increasingly angered. “Besides, I’ve already told them off when you weren’t around. They won’t do it again.”

Those people might hold grudges against Jiang Xun, but they might not dare pull anything against her to her face.

Jiang Xun had scared them.

When Jiang Xun heard that, she smiled mockingly. She'd been the one to "persuade" them otherwise, but Yuexi was quite good at taking the credit for herself.

At the same time, Yuexi's heart was beating exceptionally fast. She stared nervously at Jiang Xun, observing her reactions, afraid that Jiang Xun would say something to expose her.

However, that didn't happen.

Since Yuexi was willing to take credit for herself, Jiang Xun decided to let her do so. It also happened that she didn't want to expose her true strength too much.

Of course, Yuexi and Jixuan had already seen her in action, but that wasn't her true strength. There was no need to unleash all of it in one go.

But Yuexi was willing to hide it for her, which was exactly what she wanted.

Yuexi turned her head to Chengye, distress written on her face. "Dad, my friends really won't be like this anymore. I've already told them off. I feel awful for making my sister go through all that. I'm really sorry."

Chengye pursed his lips and took a deep breath before saying, "That's enough. You've always been obedient and didn't do it on purpose."

Jixuan puffed his chest out proudly as he stared at Jiang Xun. Look at how Chengye dotes on his sister! Jiang Xun must be very upset—

"There's more," Jiang Xun said, not paying him a single hint of attention.

"What else do you want?" Chengye warned, displeased. "Stop looking for trouble! Isn't it good to have a harmonious family? Do you have to make the house restless before you're satisfied?"

"Jiang Xun, don't make your father angry." Feng Nianzhen also pretended to persuade him, "Since you came back, there hasn't been a day when the house hasn't been noisy. Everyone has to take a step back. Let's be amiable and let the house be more peaceful."

"Okay. If Yuexi doesn't look for trouble with me, I definitely won't take the initiative to look for trouble." Jiang Xun said indifferently, "However, this is also a matter for the future. There is one more thing at the moment, and I need an explanation."

"What do you want to say now? !" Chengye was tired and irritated. He pinched the corner of his eyes and said impatiently, "Hurry up and finish what you want to say!"

1

“Yuexi slandered me for doing something indecent with two men. Don’t you have to apologize to me?” Jiang Xun crossed her arms and didn’t take a step back, “I’m a girl, and some people are spreading rumors about my indecency. Shouldn’t I get an apology?”

“I didn’t spread any rumors. I only came back to say...” Yuexi realized something was wrong and quickly tried to make up for it. “Also, it’s not a rumor. I just misunderstood.”

“You said I was indecent without any evidence. What else could it be but a rumor? Can you guarantee that your four friends won’t tell anyone?” Jiang Xun narrowed her eyes. She looked at Chengye and said, “You’ve always cared about your reputation the most. Your eldest daughter has rumors about her that say she’s sleeping with two men!”

“Shut up!” Chengye’s temples were throbbing. He had a headache! What did she mean, “sleeping with two men?” She’s a girl, so how could she say such things?!

He was so angry that he was on the verge of hyperventilating.

Nianzhen quickly sat over and calmed Chengye down. “Jiang Xun, please just shut up for a bit.”

“If Yuexi can talk about this, then why can’t I?” Jiang Xun snapped. “Who’s the one with dirty thoughts here? When you pass by a restaurant and see a girl walking out with a group of men, I wonder what goes through her mind! Bah! Shameless!”

Jiang Xun couldn’t be bothered with propriety at this point as she spat on Yuexi’s face. Even Chengye, who was sitting next to her, ended up taking some splash damage from Jiang Xun’s attack.

2

“You... Why are you like this?!” Yuexi was so disgusted that she didn’t dare to touch her face. She felt utterly revolted from the wet feeling on her face.

She quickly took out a lot of tissues and bunched them up before wiping her face. She pinched them carefully with her fingertips, afraid that Jiang Xun’s saliva would soak through the tissues and touch her fingers.

“I thought I’d help you clean your image up a bit.”

As soon as Jiang Xun opened her mouth, Yuexi was afraid that Jiang Xun would spit at her, so she quickly used the tissue paper as a shield.

Jiang Xun couldn’t help but think that trolling her like this was fun.

The system watched on helplessly. The sins of the Jiang family would probably be punished by Jiang Xun!

Even the dignified system couldn't do anything to this unscrupulous host, let alone a mere mortal of the Jiang family.

1

"Enough!" Chengye finally shouted angrily.

Yuexi trembled for a moment, she said to Chengye pitifully, "Dad, I'm sorry. It's all my fault this time. I misunderstood my sister and made her so angry. It's my fault that everyone's had to bear the brunt of my mistake I... I'll be more cautious in the future. I won't say anything without evidence."

"Yuexi was just too worried about Jiang Xun," Nianzhen said to Chengye softly. She didn't have time to double check the facts because she only wanted to find Jiang Xun as soon as possible. That's why there was a misunderstanding."

"Yes," Yuexi nodded. "But I know that a mistake is a mistake. I won't make excuses for myself. Dad, I'm sorry."

"Okay, I know you mean well." Chengye stroked Yuexi's head.

He'd seen her grow up before his eyes, unlike Jiang Xun.

Yuexi had been obedient, cute, and kind since she was young. She never had the heart to do anything to hurt people or animals.

2

Naturally, his feelings for Yuexi were different from his feelings for Jiang Xun.

Chengye raised his head and said to Jiang Xun with a sullen face, "Yuexi already knows that she was wrong. Moreover, she was just too worried about you this time. You heard it too. She won't do it again in the future."

"The person she has let down is obviously me. Why is she apologizing to you?" Jiang Xun couldn't take it anymore.

2

