

Young Master Qin Keeps Coveting Me After I Beat Him Up

Chapter 31: Who Is Qin Mufeng?

The banquet started at 7 o'clock, so the guests were expected to arrive at the hotel before that time.

However, the Jiang family, as the host, had to come over early to prepare and receive the guests.

In Shengyue Hotel, in one of its guest rooms, Yuexi had already changed into her dress. As the main star of the night, she had to look her best, so she'd even specially invited a stylist to come over and do her makeup.

In the meantime, Jiang Xun had picked out a small dress that would be suitable for the banquet. She'd bought it with Jiang Chengye's supplementary card the other day. It was a good thing that she'd predicted that Nianzhen and Yuexi would use such an important occasion to squash her down, which was why she'd bought a few suitable dresses in advance.

It just so happened that she would be wearing them today.

It was just not as grand as Yuexi's dress, but it was definitely suitable for attending the banquet. It would not be rude to others.

Yuexi, for her part, was standing in front of the floor-to-ceiling mirror, admiring her unique style of dress. The more she looked at it, the more satisfied she was.

As the main character today, she was bound to surpass Jiang Xun ruthlessly.

She would let people know that she was the real daughter of the Jiang family. Even if Jiang Xun was the eldest daughter, there was no way she could present herself properly when compared to her.

"Where's my sister? has she not changed her clothes yet?" Yuexi pretended to be curious and asked.

She could not wait to see Jiang Xun dressed like a bumbling village woman. Usually, Jiang Xun always wore a t-shirt and jeans and also ran around every day. She had never seen her in a dress before.

Yuexi could already imagine how much Jiang Xun would stick out like a sore thumb.

Moreover, she had been staring at Jiang Xun the whole time and didn't see her buying any gowns. The only time she'd seen Jiang Xun buying clothes was the day after she came back. After that, she didn't buy any clothes again.

With all this in mind, she came to the conclusion that Jiang Xun must be wearing things from whatever she'd bought at that time.

Yuexi wasn't worried at all about how she would look in them.

Nianzhen also urged through the door, "Jiang Xun, have you changed?"

"Yes." Jiang Xun's emotionless voice came from behind the door. She didn't need to see them to know that Nianzhen and her daughter were just waiting to see her embarrass herself.

She pushed the door open and walked out.

Yuexi was stunned when she saw what Jiang Xun was wearing. While she hadn't picked out a floor-length dress like Yuexi herself had, she was a knee-length dress, which made her look light and comfortable in this hot summer.

The shoulder straps were slightly wide, but were just narrow enough to display Jiang Xun's exquisite and distinct collarbone, including the slightly protruding bones on her shoulders, which made her shoulders appear even thinner and more delicate.

The waistline of the dress emphasized her slender torso. Her figure was so delicate that it almost seemed as if one could easily hold her wrists in one hand.

However, although Jiang Xun was thin, she didn't seem weak at all.

Although ordinarily, one would expect a thin girl's arms to be equally as twig-like, one could see that the flesh on Jiang Xun's arms was firm. Her arms were similarly thin, but when compared to Jiang Xun's arms, Yuexi's own arms appeared rather soft and flabby.

They were both slender, but Jiang Xun was stunning at a glance. When Yuexi stood next to her, Jiang Xun made her look like wallpaper in comparison.

The knee-length skirt exposed Jiang Xun's legs, which were unusually straight and long, pretty enough to become a model.

One of the reasons why Yuexi had put on a long dress was that it was more grand, but another reason was that she had always felt that her calves were not straight enough.

Jiang Xun was wearing high heels, which made her long calves even longer visually.

Yuexi looked at Jiang Xun with an ugly expression on her face. She'd thought that Jiang Xun wouldn't be able to shake off her village girl image no matter how she dressed. But now, Jiang Xun didn't look like a village girl at all!

She hadn't noticed it until now, but Jiang Xun's skin was also so much fairer than hers.

At this moment, Jiang Xun looked utterly stunning.

Even Jixuan had to admit that when the two sisters stood side-by-side, it was obvious that Jiang Xun looked superior.

Even though Yuexi was dressed more grandly, she was suppressed by Jiang Xun.

It could only be said that the two of them were dressed in a way suited their respective personalities.

But no matter what, Yuexi would never admit that Jiang Xun was better looking than her.

Her heart was filled with jealousy, and she could only delude herself into thinking that Jiang Xun had just so happened to dress in a way that wasn't torture on the eyes.

Chengye hadn't expected Jiang Xun, who was always so rebellious and rude, to look like a real person when she cleaned up properly.

He nodded in satisfaction at Jiang Xun's outfit. "Not bad."

As long as Jiang Xun did not open her mouth, she would still be able to deceive people into thinking she was a rich young lady.

Chengye thought of the banquet tonight, and his face darkened as he instructed Jiang Xun, "You are different from Yuexi. You have never interacted with people in our circle since young, and your etiquette and upbringing are not up to standard. It's easy for people to laugh at you, which will make our family lose face. So, tonight, you will follow your mother..."

Chengye was halfway through his sentence when he saw Jiang Xun glare at him and open her mouth to say something.

The words "Mother" that had not been completely said suddenly stopped. Chengye was afraid that Jiang Xun would say something stupid again, so he quickly changed his words, "Just follow behind Aunt Feng and don't say anything so that you don't make a fool of yourself. If anyone talks to you, let Aunt Feng deal with them. Don't open your mouth so easily."

He was afraid that Jiang Xun would reveal the truth as soon as she opened her mouth at the banquet, which would be embarrassing for him. As long as she didn't open her mouth, judging from her appearance and attire, she looked like a young lady from a wealthy family.

Nianzhen despised Chengye in her heart. He'd actually looked at Jiang Xun's expression and changed his words accordingly. If he didn't have to, why do such a thing?!

On the surface, Nianzhen put on a serious expression and reminded Jiang Xun, "Even Qin Mufeng will be coming this time. He is someone who stands at the top of the pyramid and hates women approaching him. Don't think of using this opportunity to curry favor with him. While many young women have tried their chances, those who've tried end up having their reputation damaged."

"Besides, losing face is a small matter. If you implicate your family and make us lose business opportunities, you won't be able to bear the responsibility," Chengye said in a deep voice.

Jiang Xun curled her lips. "Who is Qin Mufeng? Why should I curry favor with him?"

Jiang Xun rolled her eyes at Nianzhen and Chengye. "I'm not a nymphomaniac. If I don't know someone, why would I curry favor with them? Yuexi's probably done this kind of thing before, so why aren't you telling her about this? If I haven't done it, then don't put the blame on me!"

"What nonsense are you talking about?!" Yuexi's face turned red with anger. She stomped her feet. "I've never done such a thing!"

"Your mother said it herself. Young women are all trying to curry favor with him. You're about the right age, too." Jiang Xun crossed her arms. "You must have done it before, which is why they are so nervous. They are afraid that I will do it too."

Chapter 32: What Good Could Possibly Come Out Of This?

“I only just turned 18 today! I wasn’t old enough before!” Yuexi said angrily.

“Oh, then you’re old enough now,” Jiang Xun said coolly, completely blocking Yuexi’s attempts at fighting back. After holding it in for a few seconds, Yuexi said, “I’ve had a boyfriend since childhood.”

Jiang Xun knew that she must be talking about the one that the original Host had wanted to snatch, but couldn’t.

Even though Jiang Xun had never seen him before, what good could he be if he had taken a liking to Yuexi?

Nianzhen saw that Jiang Xun had actually gotten into Yuexi’s head with just a few words, so she hurriedly said, “I’m just giving you a reminder. Don’t fall for Qin Mufeng just because he’s good-looking, rich, and powerful. You’re only slightly pretty, and there have been many women who are more beautiful than you and have feelings for Mufeng. However, none of them have had a good ending with him.”

Jiang Xun raised her eyebrows. “After saying so much, which one is Qin Mufeng?”

Nianzhen blinked. So Jiang Xun really didn’t know who he was at all.

That was to be expected, she supposed; Jiang Xun had just come from the countryside, so what would she know?

Before now, how could she have had the opportunity to come into contact with such things?

“When we talk about Qin Mufeng, we have to mention the Qin family,” Nianzhen said, “The Qin family is one of the top eight families in China,” Nianzhen explained. “Every family in China has a hierarchy, and the eight families are all the way at the top. There’s a tangible gap between them and all other families. No matter how hard a family tries, there’s no way to bridge the gap between them, not even if they’re only a tier below.”

“The Qin Yang department store that you went to buy clothes from belongs to the Qin family. That department store has a branch in every first-tier city in China. It’s also the most high-end shopping mall in those cities. Second-tier cities lack the requirements for a branch to be opened in them.”

“Many of the middle and high-end shopping malls in the first and second tier cities are also owned by the Qin family. There are already so many first and second tier cities, so you can just imagine just how many stores have been opened in total.”

“Other than that, the family also owns a large-scale supermarket, the Qin Market. It has self-service stores and also houses Huamu Furniture, which all the major cities are vying for. The family also owns Qin Shi Convenience Stores, which are open 24/7, and they also own luxurious five-star hotels, the Mu Feng Hotel Group and Qin Yang Real Estate. The Qin Family has also invested in some businesses that the general public may not be aware of, but they’ve also invested in some of the more well known companies.”

“And Mufeng is the next head of the Qin family. He’s the current president of the Qin Yang Group, so he’s the one who’s in control of everything I just listed down,” Nianzhen said, puffing her chest out proudly. “Mufeng has already done us a huge favor by coming to Yuexi’s birthday party this time.”

“Go ask around. How many people can succeed in inviting Qin Mufeng to their birthday party?” Nianzhen took the opportunity to suck up to Chengye. “Isn’t it because our family has good business relations with him? Speaking of which, how many companies are fighting to cooperate with Qin Yang but are unable to do so? The reason Qin Mufeng is here is because of your father.”

As expected, Chengye couldn’t help but show a smug expression after Nianzhen said that, but it quickly faded as he looked back at Jiang Xun. “In short, stay away from Mufeng. Aunt Feng didn’t tell you all that for you to attach yourself to his side,” he warned.

“Ha!” Jiang Xun sneered.

Nianzhen and Yuexi had a bad feeling when they saw her reaction. They didn’t know what she was going to say this time.

However, it was too late for them to stop her now. “You’d better control Yuexi, then. Nianzhen herself saw how rich you were back then and decided to attach herself to you. It’s hard to say whether she passed this gene down to Yuexi or not.”

“Jiang Xun!” Nianzhen screamed, her eyes red. “Chengye, I... I really didn’t expect to be stabbed like this because I couldn’t control my heart and made a mistake out of love. “If I had known earlier, I... I would have controlled my heart no matter what, even if I had to go far away!”

“I’ve really indulged you too much!” Chengye was so angry that he raised his hand and was about to hit Jiang Xun.

“Dad!” Jixuan didn’t have time to think before he subconsciously blurted out to stop him.

Chengye’s palm moved down, but his wrist was grabbed by Jiang Xun before it could hit her.

“Did I say anything wrong? Why are you trying to hit me?” Jiang Xun looked at Chengye coldly. “You broke my mother’s heart, and now you’re trying to hit me! I wonder what would happen if this were to get out! Does the Qin family know about your character? If they knew, would they still be willing to cooperate with you?”

“Dad, today is Yuexi’s birthday,” Jixuan said hurriedly. “Calm down. We’re going to the banquet in a while. Don’t let the guests see that something is wrong.”

Jiang Xun shook off Chengye’s hand coldly.

Chengye was forced into a corner by Jiang Xun, so he could only take the opening that Jixuan had given him. “I’ll deal with you later!”

Jixuan let out a sigh of relief and pretended to look at his watch. “Dad, it’s almost time. We should go and welcome the guests.”

Chengye nodded heavily and said coldly, “Let’s go.”

Nianzhen looked at Jixuan strangely. After Chengye walked out, she deliberately took a few steps back and asked in a low voice, “Why are you protecting Jiang Xun?”

“I’m not,” Jixuan explained in a low voice. “I just think that since it’s my sister’s birthday in a while, if everyone goes out looking angry, I’m afraid that people will start speculating on us. I don’t want my sister’s 18th birthday party to become a mess.”

Nianzhen thought about it and agreed. She trusted Jixuan and said with relief, “You’ve really grown up.”

Jixuan smiled. This issue was finally dealt with.

As the main character, Yuexi stayed in the room.

Chengye and Nianzhen only brought Jixuan and Jiang Xun to the entrance of the banquet hall on the first floor to welcome the guests.

The guests who had come earlier knew that the rumored eldest daughter of the Jiang family, who had returned from the countryside, would also be present tonight.

When everyone arrived, they couldn't help but look at Jiang Xun's face for a long time.

"This is Jiang Xun, right? She looks so much like your father."

"Director Jiang, you actually have such a beautiful daughter. It must've been hard keeping this from us."

The guests spoke nicely and politely in front of Chengye.

All of them knew Yuexi, so if she had been here in place of Jiang Xun, all of them would have been able to greet her without needing any introductions.

These people were praising Jiang Xun, but from the way they looked at her, there was only disdain and contempt.

Seeing their hypocritical expressions, Jiang Xun couldn't help but wonder if she could get some merit points from these people.

At this moment, a young man walked over with a middle-aged couple.

The middle-aged man saw Chengye and Nianzhen from afar and called out to them with a smile. "Brother Chengye, sister-in-law."
