

Y Master Qin 341

Chapter 341: She Has To Cooperate With Me

Caoye said, "I think the two of them are in a mutually beneficial relationship. Since the Fengjiang ship became popular, Jiang Xun's popularity has remained high. Although her value is not as high, her popularity alone is not inferior to that of an A-list celebrity. Qin Yang's stock price has been rising. At first, the netizens only knew a little about Qin Yang's business, but ever since Qin Mufeng became popular, the netizens have become curious about the Qin Yang Corporation. After checking, they've learned a lot about the various businesses under his name."

"As long as the conditions allow and they happen to need it, they will even choose the products under Qin Yang first, be it hotels when travelling, shopping malls, supermarkets, convenience stores, and so on," Caoye said. "There are many benefits for Qin Yang in this. Perhaps it is because of this that Qin Mufeng has been cooperating with Jiang Xun."

Mengyao sneered. "Hasn't Qin Mufeng always been cold and aloof? He didn't like anyone and even caused the reputation of two top female celebrities to be such that no one cares about them anymore."

Xiuse was originally very popular in the industry.

But now, she was not even a C-list.

All business deals with her were canceled.

All the movies and TV dramas had replaced her with other actresses.

At most, she could only go to some third-and fourth-tier cities to perform for commercials.

Rumor was that she was preparing to start livestreaming and selling goods.

Film contracts and business deals were constantly being entertained, who would have the time to livestream 24/7 to sell goods?

At most, she would be a guest in some livestream rooms.

Caoye guessed, "It's probably because Qin Yang's business has never been involved in the entertainment industry before, and Qin Mufeng has never participated in any movies or TV series investments, so Qin Mufeng doesn't know how much benefit the popularity of the entertainment industry can bring to Qin Yang. He accidentally got into a ship with Jiang Xun and started to cooperate after he got the bonus."

"If there's no relationship between the two, then let's continue to hype up the Xunmeng ship."

Mengyao was relieved to see that everything was fine.

1

"It doesn't matter even if Qin Mufeng is Jiang Xun's financial backer. Anyway, it's impossible for Jiang Xun and Qin Mufeng to be in a proper relationship." Mengyao said, "Many of the female stars in the industry have rich men. But their sugar daddy doesn't care about their relationship at all. As long as they can be at their sugar daddy's beck and call, they can do whatever they want at other times."

"If Jiang Xun and Qin Mufeng have such a relationship, Qin Mufeng would not care about Jiang Xun."

"He definitely won't," Caoye said confidently. "The Xunmeng ship was hyped up so much before that even the Fengjiang ship had to make way. I didn't see Qin Mufeng having any opinions about it. He wasn't even angry."

"He suddenly appeared in a variety show this time, probably because he felt that the search for your ship was too popular and was going to overshadow the Fengjiang ship, so he came out to pull Fengjiang's popularity back up." Caoye pursed his lips and blew on his tea cup. He took a small sip and said, "After all, he's a big CEO. He doesn't have the time to watch the entertainment industry all day long, let alone participate in variety shows."

Caoye took out his phone and checked his schedule. "There's a building-sweeping event the day after tomorrow. Su Youlan's couple, Zhang Jian's couple, and you and Jiang Xun as a couple. The three couples in the show are going to visit the offices."

Feng Videos won the exclusive online broadcasting rights of "Path of Life," and the number of views was very good.

Not every drama could have such an event. One had to have a certain result in order to do it.

They were going to visit the building to do some publicity.

"We can make good use of the opportunity the day after tomorrow." Caoye put down his teacup and touched his chin. "The day after tomorrow, everyone will be visiting the building as couples. Jiang Xun must cooperate with the publicity and can't tear down the ship on the spot."

Mengyao smiled and smugly pressed his thumb against his lips. "She has to cooperate with me if she doesn't want to affect the broadcast of the drama."

On the day of event, Boliang drove to the Feng Videos building. Jiang Xun and Xin'an got out of the car and happened to meet Mengyao.

"Jiang Xun," Mengyao came over and called out to her with a smile.

When he participated in "Find A Way Out," he suppressed the negative news in time. Later, he deliberately lied to Su Youlan that he could only resurrect himself. Although he was scolded by a small number of netizens, through the guidance of the marketing account, he successfully changed his image in the show to that of a wise and cunning person. His fans and a large number of netizens praised him for being smart and quick to react.

Mengyao's character in the drama was very good. He was a gentle and considerate man who could tolerate Lin Xuyan's slightly strong personality. No matter what, he would always stand firmly behind Xuyan.

Mengyao's character had attracted a lot of attention from the audience.

It seemed that not many people could remember his previous antics in "Find A Way Out."

At that moment, Mengyao was in high spirits.

“Teacher Huo,” Jiang Xun nodded slightly and called out indifferently.

“We’ll be in pairs later, so you have to save me some face,” Mengyao smiled and said. “We’re a couple in the show and it’s not over yet. We have to maintain the setting and don’t let the audience down.”

“As long as you doesn’t suddenly say anything that makes things difficult for me, I won’t make things difficult for you.” Jiang Xun said with a faint smile.

Feng Video’s staff and security ran over to welcome them.

“You’ve worked hard, teachers. Please come with us to the lounge.” The staff member said.

“Have the other teachers arrived?” Mengyao asked.

“Teacher Su Youlan is still on the way and will be here soon. The other teachers have just arrived and are in the lounge,” The staff member said.

After Youlan arrived, the six of them were interviewed in the lounge.

They mainly talked about the characters in the movie and the future development.

The show was already halfway through its broadcast, and the audience was very curious about the subsequent plot.

When they were talking about Xuyan, Mengyao said, “Lin Xuyan’s personality is very similar to Jiang Xun’s. I heard from Teacher Yu that he created the character Lin Xuyan based on Jiang Xun. When I was shooting scenes with Jiang Xun, I felt like I was looking at Jiang Xun when I looked at Lin Xuyan. It was so real.”

The reporter’s eyes flashed with the light of gossip. “Teacher Huo and Teacher Jiang’s roles in the show has attracted a lot of fans, and even turned into the Xunmeng ship outside the show. Teacher Jiang, do you prefer Teacher Huo’s character’s type, or Teacher Huo’s type?”

The reporter’s question was tricky, and it seemed that Jiang Xun would step into the trap no matter how she answered.

“Lin Xuyan would definitely appreciate the character played by Teacher Huo more,” Jiang Xun said unhurriedly.

The reporter’s eyes brightened. “But Lin Xuyan is a character that Scriptwriter Yu created based on you, does that mean you like Teacher Huo’s character more?”

“It’s my honor to have Teacher Yu create this character based on me. But Lin Xuyan is Lin Xuyan, and I am me. Lin Xuyan has her own independent personality, and Teacher Yu didn’t create Lin Xuyan by copying me completely. In my opinion, Lin Xuyan is more like a confidant to me. Even though she’s just a character, she’s a real person.”

Chapter 342: Big Boss Xun Dissed Two People At Once

The reporter was a little confused by Jiang Xun's words. Jiang Xun seemed to have answered her question, but it also seemed like she didn't.

So, the reporter threw the same question at Mengyao.

Mengyao finally found an opportunity and said, "I really like girls like Lin Xuyan. She's strong, independent, and has personality. Her experiences make people's hearts ache, and it makes people want to protect her. To make up for all the pain she has suffered in the past."

"Didn't Teacher Huo just say that Teacher Jiang is a lot like Lin Xuyan? When you're filming, you often couldn't tell who you were facing," The reporter asked with a smile.

"Yes." Mengyao nodded. After a few seconds of silence, his eyes glowed with warmth and his lips curved up slightly. "Jiang Xun's and Lin Xuyan's experiences are too similar, so I feel really bad for her."

Mengyao turned around and looked at Jiang Xun affectionately and gently. He raised his hand as if he wanted to touch Jiang Xun's head, but he suddenly realized something was wrong and retracted his hand.

This series of actions was full of restraint.

"I only hope that Jiang Xun will be fine from now on," Mengyao said affectionately.

Jiang Xun smiled coldly. "I'm really fine now. Thank you, Teacher Huo."

[Oh my God, Brother Yao's expression really got me. My heart hurts.]

[Brother Yao is gentle and restrained. He's trying to restrain his feelings for Jiang Xun in front of the camera, but his eyes are so gentle that he can't hide it no matter how hard he tries.]

[Wuwuwu, did you guys notice Brother Yao's actions? He raised his head as if he wanted to touch Jiang Xun's head, but he put his hand down halfway. He must not want to cause Jiang Xun any trouble!]

[Brother Yao is so gentle and meticulous. He was afraid of causing trouble for the other party, so he tried his best to restrain himself. Why can't Jiang Xun try it out with Brother Yao?]

[Because she is still in a ship with Great CEO Qin. If she really gets together with Brother Yao, how can she be in Fengjiang with Great CEO Qin? How is she going to eat the dividends from the Fengjiang ship?]

[Yeah, the Fengjiang ship is so popular now. It's rare that Great CEO Qin doesn't reject it, so she has to seize this opportunity. She won't give up so easily.]

[Jiang Xun's past experiences are indeed pitiful. She's also strong and easily attracts the desire to protect her. I understand that Brother Yao likes her.]

[But I feel that she's not worth it for Brother Yao.]

[Huo Mengyao has been secretly trying to pair up with her. He's betting on how long Big Boss Xun can endure.]

[Big Boss Xun has never been used to it. This time, in order not to affect the production, she really can endure it. It's not my Big Boss Xun's style.]

The reporter asked a few more questions.

When it came to Youlan, he asked her, "The six teachers have never worked together before this movie. Have you met them at other events?"

Youlan shook her head. "I've never met the five of you them. I've never interacted with them before."

"How is the relationship between the six of you now?" The reporter asked again.

"It's definitely not bad," Youlan smiled and said. "After all, we've been together for a long time. We're already familiar with each other. When we were on set, Teacher Huo was very nice to Teacher Jiang and was very considerate."

The reporter's eyes lit up. "Does Teacher Huo interact a lot with Teacher Jiang?"

"You don't happen to be a Xunmeng shipper, do you?" Youlan laughed.

"Not exactly, but I'm more engrossed in the drama," the reporter said with a smile.

"They had quite a lot of interaction while in the crew," Youlan said with a smile.

"And when was that?" Jiang Xun asked suddenly.

"What?" Youlan was stunned.

"Let me ask you, when did I interact more with Teacher Huo? What are the standards for you?" Jiang Xun smiled. "I mean, if you're talking about interactions with Teacher Huo before filming, that's indeed quite a lot. I'd try my best to finish the shoot in one take, so that everyone could get off work earlier."

"At first, I didn't know much about Teacher Huo, and I only rehearsed one or two scenes before shooting. But after the shooting, Teacher Huo basically had many NGs for each scene. In order for the shooting to go smoothly, I'll practice with Teacher Huo a few more times before shooting to reduce the number of NGs Teacher Huo had during the shoot." Jiang Xun smiled faintly. "Maybe that's why Teacher Su thinks that I had a lot of interactions with Teacher Huo."

1

Youlan: "..."

Mengyao: " ..."

If you're scolding Youlan, then you're scolding her. Why did you have to hint at my acting skills?

[What do you mean, Jiang Xun? Su Youlan just wanted to say that she's on good terms with the crew.]

[No way. Su Youlan is clearly hinting that Jiang Xun and Huo Mengyao are close. Why didn't she mention the interactions between the other crew members and only Jiang Xun and Huo Mengyao? Especially now that Xunmeng's ship is so popular, it's obvious that she wanted to tie Jiang Xun and Huo Mengyao together. I don't know what she's up to. Jiang Xun obviously doesn't want to be shipped with Huo Mengyao.]

[What do you mean by shipping? Brother Yao had never hyped up such a thing as a ship ever since he started his career. On the contrary, Jiang Xun had been hyping up Fengjiang to increase her popularity.]

Jiang Xun wants to tie Brother Yao up, but she doesn't want to give up on Great CEO Qin. So, while she's tying Brother Yao up to cook, she's also acting like she doesn't want to. Isn't that her?]

[Jiang Xun said that Brother Yao's acting skills aren't good. What did she mean by Brother Yao had to do several bad takes when she only needs one take? In terms of acting, Brother Yao is her senior! How can he not be better than her?]

[However, Jiang Xun's acting skills are indeed outstanding in the drama. There were many times when Mengyao couldn't handle her acting.]

[Jiang Xun's acting skills are well acknowledged by all the directors and actors that she has worked with. What's there to criticize? Is there any relationship between when one enters the industry and one's strength? Jiang Xun is obviously talented and hardworking. Her acting skills have been improving at a visible rate. She is already talented in acting, but she doesn't become complacent because of her talent. Instead, she works even harder. Her performance improves in every film. After watching "Path of Life" and then going back to the "Turbulent Shendu," you can see that Jiang Xun still had many shortcomings in her first acting. Of course, this is only in comparison to herself. Compared to others, she already did better than many people in her first time acting in "Turbulent Shendu."]

[Jiang Xun only said that to refute the rumors, okay? Su Youlan was lying through her teeth, and you didn't allow the person involved to refute the rumors?]

[It's too difficult for Jiang Xun. No matter what she does, people always say she's wrong.]

[As expected, my Big Boss Xun defeated two people at once.]

[Hahahahaha, I was still wondering how long Big Boss Xu could hold it in, looks like she's had it.]

[Big Boss Xun, have you been bearing with it for more than ten minutes already?]

[Big Boss Xun, you're really something! You're dissed two people at once!]

Chapter 343: Are You Treating Me Like A Bodyguard?

[Big Boss Xun: To be honest, I think ten minutes is long enough.]

[Big Boss Xun: I couldn't even bear it for a second in the past.]

[Big Boss Xun: who asked you two to create trouble in front of me? Do you really think your big boss can't lift a knife?]

Seeing that the interview had become awkward, the reporter had just finished asking all his questions and quickly ended the interview. He let the six people begin going around the building.

Feng Videos' staff all came out to see them. Although they had seen many celebrities, there were many of Zhang Jian, Youlan, and Yuxi's fans among them.

Therefore, many people ran to the corridor to wait for them.

There were many staff members on both sides and it was crowded, leaving only space in the middle for one person to pass.

It could be said that Mengyao was very persistent.

He even acted like a gentleman and blocked the crowd on both sides of Jiang Xun so that she wouldn't be squeezed.

Although Jiang Xun never cooperated with him to hype up their ship, Mengyao still got some benefits from the way he treated Jiang Xun.

Mengyao, who had tasted the sweetness of deep feelings, naturally wouldn't let go of any opportunity.

Jiang Xun saw Mengyao's actions and pushed his arm away. She said loudly, "Teacher Huo, you don't have to block anyone. We're all Feng Videos colleagues, it's fine if we all squeeze together. It's not like I'll be hurt."

The employees in the corridor were talking and screaming.

Jiang Xun's raised voice covered these voices perfectly, and it even penetrated the entire corridor.

Everyone in the corridor heard Jiang Xun's words.

The netizens who were watching the livestream especially heard it very clearly.

Mengyao was speechless.

Are you treating me like a bodyguard?

[I'll be honest with you. Mengyao really did look like a bodyguard when he was shielding Jiang Xun from the crowd.]

[Huo Mengyao sure is smug. You're sweeping the building in Feng Videos' territory, and you're blocking their staff. What can they do to you?]

[It's true. If Jiang Xun doesn't say this, he'll be throwing her weight around and spreading scandals all over the place.]

[Did everyone realize that in Xunmeng, Jiang Xun has been scolded. But in Fengjiang, Jiang Xun is well protected.]

[Now that you mention it, you're right. And it's even an overbearing CEO frequently brooding over his small and delicate wife's past.]

[So, no matter if Huo Mengyao truly likes Jiang Xun or not, how can he still cling onto Jiang Xun after all the negative effects he has brought to her? And you say you feel sorry for Jiang Xun?]

The staff of Feng Videos was a little unhappy when Mengyao blocked them, but after hearing what Jiang Xun said, they felt that Jiang Xun was a good girl.

No wonder she could attract so many fans even though she had only started for a short time.

“CEO!” In the noisy corridor, someone suddenly called out in a hubbub of voices. The voice was full of shock and helplessness.

As soon as the word “CEO” came out, the corridor instantly fell silent.

She looked around the corridor and finally saw a man in front.

Jiang Xun followed everyone’s gaze and looked over. She realized that the man standing in front had a similar aura and temperament to Mufeng. Even his age was similar.

It was probably because she was used to being with Mufeng, so Jiang Xun did not feel pressured when faced with such an aura.

Jiang Xun had some impression of the man in front of her. He seemed to be the CEO of Wei Feng Group, Wei Zhiqian.

Feng Videos’ crowd called out to him.

Zhiqian nodded lightly and walked over.

Youlan was a little excited, but she tried her best to control herself and make herself look calm.

However, the makeup on her face couldn’t hide the flush on her cheeks from her excitement. Her eyes were so bright that they couldn’t hide her thoughts that were filled with ambition.

She had hit a wall with Mufeng. If she really could not count on Mufeng, Zhiqian was not inferior to Mufeng.

Yuxi’s eyes brightened. She had her own thoughts, but they weren’t as obvious as Youlan’s. She was still more reserved.

It would be good if she could leave a good impression on Zhiqian, but otherwise, she also would not be so persistent.

However, when Zhiqian walked over, he didn’t stop at all. His eyes didn’t even stop on Youlan and Yuxi for a second.

They didn’t even look at them as kindly as he did the ordinary employees of Feng Videos.

Yuxi thought to herself in a self-deprecating manner that this was normal, so she did not feel too regretful.

Youlan thought to herself that Mufeng had the same reaction as Zhiqian.

What’s wrong with these people?!

Was beauty really not worth anything in their eyes?

Youlan had just thought of this when she saw Zhiqian stop in his tracks when he passed by Jiang Xun.

He even turned to look at Jiang Xun.

Then, Zhiqian’s cold eyes fell on Mengyao, who had been following behind Jiang Xun like a guard.

Mengyao: "..."

He didn't know why, but he was scared.

Zhiqian looked at him as if he was saying, "I'll remember you."

When Zhiqian passed by Jiang Xun, his footsteps paused slightly, but it was almost unnoticeable.

No one noticed anything different about Zhiqian when he walked past Jiang Xun.

Mengyao was the only one who thought that Zhiqian had glanced at Jiang Xun.

But he wasn't sure.

He just looked at Jiang Xun suspiciously and felt that it was impossible for Jiang Xun to have any relationship with Zhiqian.

If they were really knew each other, would Zhiqian have ignored her just now?

So he must have been mistaken, and Zhiqian didn't even look at Jiang Xun.

It was very likely that he saw him, he just happened to see Jiang Xun as well.

Everyone: "..."

Everyone still didn't know why Zhiqian had suddenly come to Feng Videos.

He left without a word.

However, everyone immediately threw this matter to the back of their minds.

Anyway, their CEO often did things that people could not understand.

This was not the first time.

Zhiqian left and turned a corner in the corridor. When there was no one else, he couldn't wait to take out his phone and enter the WeChat group called "8×8=64" that his buddies had formed.

Zhiqian: [I saw Jiang Xun in person.]

Nan Jingheng: [Brother Zhiqian, you're still chasing after celebrities? But that's not right, there are so many artistes that Feng Videos has worked with, do you still need to chase after a celebrity?]

Zhao Gushen: [Does Tanmo know that you like celebrities?]

Zhiqian: [What are you saying? Don't you guys usually go online? Don't you know about the Fengjiang ship between Jiang Xun and Mufeng?]

Everyone was silent.

They really did not know.

Zhiqian: [Look it up on Weibo.]

After that, the group fell silent for a while.

After a while, the rest of the people started to send Weibo links to the group.

Han Zhuoli: [What the fuck?]

Qi Chengzhi: [Mufeng is actually doing this.]

Chapter 344: I Have A Boyfriend. If You Want To Create A Ship, You Can Find Someone Else.

Chu Zhaoyang: [?]

Zhiqian: [Now you know, huh? [proud] Today, a few actors from their drama came to sweep the building, but the building was right next to Wei Feng, so I went to take a look.]

Yan Beicheng: [So how was she?]

Zhiqian: [Qin Mufeng is a beast. An old cow eating young grass.]

Mufeng: [Who are you talking about? Take a look at yourself in the mirror.]

Yan Huaian: [@WeiZhiqian, you're the least qualified to say that.]

Zhiqian: [...]

Zhiqian: [Do you guys still want to hear it?]

Zhaoyang: [Go on]

Zhiqian: [The little girl is not bad. She didn't even get nervous when she saw me. Her aura is quite strong.]

Mufeng saw Zhiqian's words and laughed. He moved his fingers and typed, [Don't go see my girlfriend behind my back in the future.]

Zhiqian: [...]

Human language?

Mufeng added Jiang Xun into the group.

Jiang Xun was still in the middle of the event and didn't notice.

Jiang Xun and the others would distribute small gifts to every office they went to.

This time, they brought coffee and macarons.

As soon as Jiang Xun took out a cup of coffee from the bag, Mengyao took it from her and said gently and gentlemanly, "The coffee is hot, let me distribute it."

Jiang Xun: "..."

"The coffee cup is covered with a heat-resistant pad," Jiang Xun said with a straight face.

"Pfft!" In the crowded and chaotic crowd, someone laughed.

Mengyao: "..."

This woman, couldn't she just cooperate with him for once?

Why did she have to not give him face?

Youlan said to Zhengqin, "Brother Qin, look at Teacher Huo. You've never been so considerate to me."

"It would be wrong of me to be considerate to you," Zhengqin said with a smile. "But I can help you distribute the coffee."

After they had gone round, the other guests all had work to do and left.

Mengyao was the only one following Jiang Xun. Jiang Xun turned her head slightly and her cold eyes landed on him.

For some reason, Mengyao felt nervous. He subconsciously stopped and realized, why was he afraid of Jiang Xun?

She was just a little girl.

"Jiang Xun." Mengyao followed Jiang Xun to her car and called out to her when she was about to get in.

Jiang Xun didn't stop. She got into the car and sat down in a single seat near the door. She saw Mengyao standing by the car with his hand on the door.

He was eager to get into the car.

Under Jiang Xun's gaze, he lifted his leg and stepped up.

"Teacher Huo," Jiang Xun said coldly, "I don't want anything bad to happen during the broadcast of the drama. You'd better stop too. After all, the drama isn't my own drama. You're also in it. If it turns ugly because of you and affects the results of "Path of Life," it won't be good for anyone. I'm not the only one who's going to suffer a loss. The director, Scriptwriter Yu, the other actors, and even you will suffer a loss."

"But if you really annoy me, I won't care anymore. You can try and see." Jiang Xun's cold eyes fell on Mengyao's face.

Mengyao suddenly felt the air around him turn cold.

Jiang Xun's gaze was so cold that it did not seem to contain any human emotions.

She looked more like she was looking at a corpse.

Seeing Mengyao's hesitation and disbelief, Jiang Xun sneered. "Do you believe that even if the drama is affected because of you and me, my resources will not be affected at all? But you're different. If you had the ability, you wouldn't have to try so hard to create a ship with me, a small-time actor who's an influencer."

When Jiang Xun said this, she seemed to think that she was degrading him.

"What gives you the confidence to say this to me?" Mengyao's eyes darted back and forth uncontrollably. His mind was spinning. "Because of Qin Mufeng? Did he really become your sugar daddy?"

“What sugar daddy? He’s my boyfriend.” Jiang Xun looked at him with a faint smile. “I have a boyfriend. If you want to create a ship, you can find someone else.”

At first, Mengyao was surprised that Jiang Xun actually managed to hook up with Mufeng.

If that was the case, he really had to think carefully. If Jiang Xun really made a scene and both sides fought to the death, would he be able to take it?

If Mufeng was really willing to support Jiang Xun, even if the results of “Path of Life” declined because of him and Jiang Xun, the industry would not dare to ban Jiang Xun, but they would definitely make life difficult for him.

But now that he heard Jiang Xun say that Mufeng was her boyfriend, Mengyao suddenly wasn’t afraid.

Even if Jiang Xun wanted to find a excuse, she should have found one with high credibility.

If she had said that Mufeng was her sugar daddy, he might have believed her.

But she just had to say that Mufeng was her boyfriend.

Hahahahaha!

Mengyao just wanted to laugh out loud.

This was the most ridiculous thing he had heard this year!

Did Jiang Xun really think that people would believe her if she claimed to be Mufeng’s girlfriend, because they were shipped by netizens?

He wasn’t one of those shippers whose brains were flooded with water!

“Jiang Xun, even if you want to scare me, you should find a reasonable story.” Mengyao stopped pretending to be affectionate and showed his mean side in front of her. “Even if you really say that Qin Mufeng is your sugar daddy, I’d believe you more. You said he’s your boyfriend?”

Mengyao didn’t hide his sneer. “I don’t even believe that he’s your sugar daddy anymore.”

Mengyao looked at Jiang Xun and smiled. “I’ve accepted the invitation of having a celebrity love interest. The production team also wants to invite you to form a ship with me. I should be contacting you soon. Actually, even if the production team didn’t say anything, I would still recommend you. You should consider it carefully. It’s good for both of us to participate in the coupling.”

Mengyao left after he finished speaking, leaving Jiang Xun to think about it.

Jiang Xun pressed the button on the car door, and the door closed automatically.

“Mengyao is just asking for it,” Xin’an pouted. “You told him the truth, but he didn’t believe you.”

Jiang Xun took out her phone, opened WeChat, and found that a new group had appeared in the chat list.

Before she could look at it, she first looked at the WeChat message that Mufeng had sent her half an hour ago. I added you into our friends’ group. Their other half is also in the group.

Jiang Xun moved her fingers and replied, “8×8=64?”

Mufeng replied, “It’s this. Has the event ended?”

“Yes, I just got in the car,” Jiang Xun replied.

Jiang Xun then clicked into the “8×8=64” group.

The people in the group had all expressed their welcome to the group half an hour ago.

Jiang Xun saw that they were all familiar names.

One of them was Zhiqian, whom she had just met today.

Jiang Xun suddenly understood why Zhiqian had suddenly appeared in Feng Videos and even looked at her.

Jiang Xun: [The event just ended. Thank you, everyone.]

Chapter 345: Don’t Think Too Much

As soon as she sent the message, a new chat was immediately launched in the group.

Everyone seemed to know her very well. She didn’t know how much Mufeng had told them.

Jiang Xun went to ask Mufeng.

Mufeng: [Of course I told them a lot. You are my girlfriend. My friends should also understand my girlfriend.]

Jiang Xun smiled. Zhiqian and the others weren’t unfamiliar with her at all, and the tone of their conversation was completely different from their usual image to outsiders.

As they spoke, the topic would even change to ridiculing each other.

It was quite interesting to see these people ridicule each other.

Jiang Xun learnt that Mufeng’s circle of friends was actually like this.

*

In previous years, the year-end celebration of all major video shows was held before the new year.

However, this year, Feng Videos uncharacteristically arranged for it to be after the Spring Festival.

Yicheng said that Feng Videos was waiting for the broadcast of “Path of Life.”

Path of Life had been highly regarded by the industry ever since it was established, but Feng Videos had spent a lot of money to buy the exclusive online broadcasting rights.

In order to cooperate with the TV station’s broadcast, they had to wait until the Spring Festival. Otherwise, Feng Videos would definitely have broadcast it before the new year.

However, the internal audience of Feng Videos had watched “Path of Life” before it was broadcast. Therefore, they were very confident in “Path of Life” and thought that it would definitely be a hit.

In order to increase the popularity of this year's year-end celebration and suppress the other two video platforms, Feng Videos had specifically waited for "Path of Life" to air before holding the year-end celebration after the new year.

Even Jiang Xun sighed. "Path of Life" was so influential that it could cause Feng Videos to make an exception for a drama.

"I've contacted the styling team for you. When the time comes, a stylist will help you borrow the gown for the grand ceremony," Yicheng told Jiang Xun.

Jiang Xun's endorsement contract with Yi Lan had already expired. Although they had a pleasant cooperation, they did not renew it.

Jiang Xun had signed a one-year endorsement contract with Yi Lan, which was considered quite long.

With Jiang Xun's current abilities, if she were to renew the contract, the price would definitely increase, and by a lot as well.

Jiang Xun's current market value was obvious. If the price did not rise, it would affect Jiang Xun's future business cooperation.

However, the current endorsement price was a little expensive for Yi Lan.

It just so happened that Yicheng also wanted to discuss a higher-end endorsement for Jiang Xun. He could not let Jiang Xun's position be trapped by Yi Lan's market position all the time.

However, even if the endorsement deal with Yi Lan had not ended, Yi Lan still did not have a dress suitable for Jiang Xun to wear to the ceremony.

Now that Jiang Xun did not have a fashion endorsement, she could choose any fashion brand she wanted.

When attending such events, most of the time, the stylists they worked with borrowed dresses for them to wear.

Very few people would spend a lot of money to buy a piece of clothing that could only be worn once.

Jiang Xun checked her favorability.

With the popularity of "Path of Life," she gained favorability points every day.

She now had a total of 113597 favorability points.

She had finally reached the mission objective.

This mission could be said to have taken the longest for her to complete.

Jiang Xun opened the mission list and the ongoing mission, paying enough favorability points.

[The mission to obtain 100000 favorability points has been completed. Mission reward: Increase lifespan by 10 years, and an ability panel.]

Jiang Xun saw that there were only two abilities left on the panel.

[Hearing]

[Vision]

“If I max out these two abilities, can I become clairvoyant and clairaudient?” Jiang Xun asked.

The system replied, “Don’t think too much, host. These two abilities belongs to the consumption type. A person’s vision and hearing would deteriorate with age and other various reasons. When these two abilities are maxed out, ability points will be deducted first when they degenerate. This is to ensure that your vision and hearing will not be affected. Your vision and hearing will only start to decline when all your points are deducted.”

Jiang Xun: “...”

“I’m still young,” Jiang Xun said. “But my vision and hearing are still quite good.”

The system replied, “Not necessarily. Modern people spend most of their time playing with their phones every day. Staring at the phone screen for a long time every day can damage their vision. Host, you’re also staring at your phone every day, so you need to pay more attention.”

Jiang Xun: “...”

Jiang Xun chose [Vision] and added it to the ability panel.

Then, she exchanged 10 ability points and added them to her vision.

If her vision really did deteriorate slightly, she would let the system hold onto it slowly.

She was still young and had good eyesight.

When she went to the hospital for a physical examination, her vision in both her eyes was 5.3.

Even if she played with her phone for a long time and her vision deteriorated slightly, she estimated that the deduction of ability points would not be too much.

The system said, “Oh, right. Host, I forgot to tell you. Vision and hearing are items that consume ability points. Ability points can be added continuously. For example, if you have already maxed out 100 points, but after you use them up and you still have extra merit points, you can still exchange them for ability points.”

Jiang Xun suddenly had a bad feeling about this. After all, this was a system that secretly focused on taking as much as it could.

“So, if your vision or hearing is damaged, how many merits do you need to consume each time?” Jiang Xun asked.

The system replied, “10 points will be consumed each time.”

Jiang Xun: “...”

Hehe!

She knew it.

In the eyes of that scamming developer, it was already a blessing from the system that she did not have to spend 100 points at once.

She only had 927 merit points left.

Since these merit points couldn't do much, Jiang Xun exchanged 900 merit points for 90 ability points and added them all to [Hearing].

Now that her [Hearing] panel had been maxed out, Jiang Xun left it alone and let the system deduct the points.

With her current situation, the system could not deduct much ability points.

Jiang Xun couldn't help but sigh when she saw that she only had 27 merit points left.

The system must be doing this on purpose.

Every time she became rich, the system would use various methods to take away all her merit points.

She now had 13597 favorability points left.

Jiang Xun exchanged 13000 favorability points for 13 merit points.

Jiang Xun sighed again.

Favorability points were really worthless!

13000 favorability points could only be exchanged for 13 merit points.

She only had 40 merit points in total. What could these merit points do?

The system said, "You're too arrogant, host. You were so happy when you got more than ten merit points."

Jiang Xun laughed, "Hehe, I didn't ask for 10000 merits for a mission! Tell me honestly, in front of 10000 merit points, do you think 40 merit points are even worth looking at?"

"I'm a system that's been programmed. I have no conscience," the system replied.

Jiang Xun: "..."

It was rare for Jiang Xun to be rendered speechless by the system.

Jiang Xun clicked on the next mission, which was still gray.

As expected, it required 10000 merit points to open.

Therefore, Jiang Xun could not see the content of the next task at all. She could only continue on the path of accumulating merit points.

Chapter 346: It's Useless No Matter How He Begs For Mercy

On the day of Feng Videos' grand ceremony.

The red carpet event would start at 4:30 pm and end at 6 pm.

They would rest and wait for an hour in the hall, during which there would be a performance by idols.

At seven o'clock, the awards ceremony would officially begin.

The few variety shows that Jiang Xun had participated in so far were all produced by Feng Videos, except for "Path of Life," which was exclusively broadcasted by Feng Videos. "Turbulent Shendu" and "Hell on Earth" were not exclusively broadcasted, but they had also been bought by Feng Videos to broadcast.

Jiang Xun arrived at the hotel in the morning and waited in the room for the styling team to come and style her.

The stylist had borrowed a white, hollow-out, embroidered fishtail long dress for her.

"Although this one isn't a high-end luxury brand, it's one of the better brands," the stylist explained.

The stylist was too embarrassed to say that Jiang Xun was still inexperienced and not famous enough. High-end luxury brands would not lend to an artiste of Jiang Xun's status.

These brands had their own positioning for the artistes who could wear their clothes, from the celebrity's status to the celebrity's image and style.

Of course, this also depended on the stylist's fashion network.

The stylist that Yicheng had found had a good network in the fashion world, so he could borrow a dress from this luxury brand for Jiang Xun.

Otherwise, based on Jiang Xun's position in the circle, it would be difficult for her to even borrow this token.

Jiang Xun understood the meaning behind the stylist's words, but she didn't mind.

She wasn't interested in these things. Earning merit points was the way to go.

After Jiang Xun finished her makeup, she put on her dress with Xin'an's help.

Jiang Xun stood in front of the full-height mirror, and Xin'an praised her from behind. "You're so beautiful."

"To be honest, I can't tell that it's a luxury brand at all." Xin'an touched a corner of the dress. "From the cutting to the workmanship, it's very detailed."

The stylist didn't expect Jiang Xun to look so good in it. He smiled and said, "To be honest, Teacher Jiang is wearing this dress too well. No one else would have such an effect wearing it."

"I'm not saying that as flattery. I've been a stylist for so many years, and I have the ability to judge an artiste's figure with one look." The stylist smiled and said, "When I saw this dress, I knew that not everyone could wear it well. But Teacher Jiang, you are obviously a fitness person. Your body is in good shape."

Jiang Xun's body was top quality. She bulged out where she should bulge and is slim where she should be slim.

And because of her fitness, her back was straight and her neck was long.

Her hips were raised high, perfectly showing off the cut curves of the long dress.

The stylist also sighed. No wonder Xin'an said that it did not look like a luxury brand when Jiang Xun wore it. It looked like a new model from a high-end luxury brand.

After the styling was done, Jiang Xun set off for the venue of Feng Videos' grand ceremony.

On the way, Xin'an saw a few artiste studios posting their artistes' red carpet styles.

Jiang Xun's photo had been taken, but it had not been posted yet.

In theory, it needed to be refined, but Xin'an really couldn't find any place that needed to be fixed.

After Xin'an saw the photos posted by Youlan's studio, she immediately handed her phone to the stylist.

The stylist also followed them. Before Jiang Xun walked the red carpet, the stylist still needed to tidy up a little.

"Look at this dress, doesn't it look a little like Jiang Jiang's?" Xin'an asked.

Jiang Xun also looked over when she heard this.

The stylist nodded. "It does look a little similar. This is a C brand dress, but the original isn't like this."

The stylist searched on his phone and found the dress on C brand's official website. "Look, the original looks like this, but the other party has made some slight changes."

"But before I borrowed the dress, I asked around with my colleagues. It doesn't matter if someone else is wearing the same color, but it can't be the same style. I only borrowed this dress after I was sure that no one was wearing the same style. I didn't expect Su Youlan to be wearing C brand."

"So the brand doesn't have any objections to her changes?" Xin'an asked. "She wouldn't be so rich as to buy this set of clothes that can only be worn once, right?"

"I've never heard of her buying it." The stylist had his own network. He could basically hear news of things in the industry. "If you talk to the brand in advance and they agree, there's no problem. Moreover, this kind of small change that is hidden in the dark is usually stuck with some clips. It is basically undetectable and would not hurt the fabric. Otherwise, she'll have to pay for the damages."

"Su Youlan's outfit doesn't just clash in color with mine, it's almost the same design." Jiang Xun also found Su Youlan's studio's Weibo. Looking at the photo, she said, "There's only difference in the fabric, craftsmanship, and the details of the style."

It was obvious how awkward it would be for the two of them to meet.

"So, she probably knew what I was going to wear," Jiang Xun said.

"I'll go ask my colleagues at the studio." The stylist's face darkened.

This was no small matter.

Youlan deliberately used a high-end brand to compete with Jiang Xun's lower-end style. It was obvious how the netizens would mock Jiang Xun.

If the information was really spread from him, who would ask him for styling in the future?

Wasn't he afraid that his style would be known by the other party?

The stylist immediately made a phone call.

After a while, he got the results.

The stylist's face turned cold. "He's fired immediately! Since he is so willing to work for Su Youlan, he should go to her studio! He tricked me like this, what a fucking coward! If we make this public in the industry, I'd like to see which other styling studio would still use such a traitor!"

"It's useless no matter how he begs for mercy! Don't you know that it's a big taboo to reveal your style in this industry?" The stylist said in a deep voice, "I don't know how to explain it to them. Not only did he set me up, but he also set Jiang Xun's team up! If this gets out, who will still use me?"

"You can tell him directly that he tricked me and I'm not having a good time. I won't let him have a good time either!" The stylist was really angry, but he wasn't going to put on an act in front of Jiang Xun. He was so angry that his jaw tightened, and his upper lip twitched uncontrollably. "If this makes it difficult for me to survive in the industry, I'll make him disappear from the industry! If I'm lucky enough to survive, I'll still make him disappear from the industry!"

Without waiting for the other party to say anything, the stylist hung up the phone angrily.

The stylist took a deep breath, adjusted his emotions, and apologized to Jiang Xun. "Teacher Jiang, I'm really sorry. I didn't manage my subordinates well and let someone leak the style I was going to do for you to Su Youlan."

Chapter 347: Mr. Qin Contacted Our Brand Headquarters

"What do we do now?" Xin'an said anxiously. "Jiang Jiang, even if you don't meet Su Youlan, as long as the photos are out, Su Youlan will publish a statement to mock you. The netizens will also mock you."

"Su Youlan did it on purpose. She's wearing the same style as you. She's wearing a high-end brand, and you're wearing a lower-end one. She's got the upper hand."

"It's not just that," Jiang Xun pursed her lips. "I'm wearing a light luxury dress to match her high-end luxury dress. It's just like how I can't afford to wear luxury clothes and can only wear a similar style to imitate her. It isn't appropriate to compare it to a counterfeit, but it would be almost the same in the eyes of the netizens. This is the effect she wants."

"What do we do now?" Xin'an looked at the stylist again. "If they are wearing the same brand and style, then the uglier one will be embarrassed. Anyway, Jiang Jiang will definitely not be embarrassed. However, our situation is different. Do you have any alternative clothes?"

"I do, but the alternative is definitely not as good as the current one." In order to avoid any accidents, the stylist had definitely prepared a second set of clothes. "I didn't borrow the clothes from the brand. They're just my backup."

Jiang Xun thought for a while and called Mufeng.

Mufeng was in a meeting. His phone was placed on the meeting table and was on silent mode.

His phone screen lit up. Seeing that it was Jiang Xun calling, Mufeng picked up his phone. "Stop for a moment."

Mufeng picked up his phone and left the meeting room.

Everyone in the meeting room looked at each other.

What important matter could make Mufeng interrupt the meeting and go out to answer the phone?

"Is there any big business that's very important for our group?" Manager Guan of the finance department asked Manager Yang of the marketing department.

Manager Yang was dumbfounded. "Don't we always have big business deals? But none of them are worth it for the CEO to pick up the phone even if it means interrupting the meeting."

Mufeng did not know that everyone in the meeting room was shocked to death.

"What's wrong?" Mufeng asked with a faint smile.

Jiang Xun rarely called him during his working hours.

If she wanted to contact him, she would send him a text message on WeChat and wait for him to see her message before replying. She had never rushed him.

If it wasn't an emergency, she wouldn't have called him during work hours.

"Su Youlan knew what I was going to look like today, so she put on a C brand dress that is similar to mine. Right now, my stylist can't find a suitable outfit for me in time. Do you know anyone who can help me get a suitable one as soon as possible?" Jiang Xun was not willing to trouble Mufeng with such matters.

Hence, she did not let Mufeng interfere with the styling this time.

However, the situation was more urgent now. She could only ask Mufeng's connections.

"Go to Qin Yang department store now," Mufeng immediately said. "Leave the rest to me."

Jiang Xun wanted to ask him what she should do next.

However, Mufeng had already hung up the phone.

"Brother Fei, let's go to Qin Yang department store first," Jiang Xun said to Boliang.

Mufeng returned to the meeting room and whispered a few words to Chengnan.

Chengnan nodded and left the meeting room.

"Continue." Mufeng sat down and raised his eyelids slightly as he spoke to everyone.

After more than 20 minutes, Chengnan rushed in, and the meeting was interrupted again.

Mufeng said to Manager Yang of the marketing department, "Continue."

“Yes.” Manager Yang could only continue.

Chengnan sat back down beside Mufeng and whispered, “CEO, it’s been arranged.”

Mufeng nodded and listened to Manager Yang’s report attentively.

*

Boliang drove to the gate of Qin Yang department store.

The general manager of Qin Yang department store was already waiting at the door with some people.

Seeing that the car had stopped, the general manager hurriedly went to the door and waited.

The car door opened automatically. Jiang Xun got out of the car and saw the general manager as a stranger.

“Miss Jiang, I’m the general manager of Qin Yang department store,” the general manager said. “The CEO has informed me about your matter. Please follow me.”

The stylist followed Jiang Xun out of the car and was stunned by what he heard.

CEO?

Which CEO?

The CEO of Qin Yang department store?

Was Jiang Xun on such good terms with the CEO of Qin Yang department store?

Jiang Xun still didn’t know how Mufeng was going to solve this for her, so she could only follow the general manager into Qin Yang department store.

Qin Yang department store was positioned as a high-end department store, and all the high-end luxury boutiques that could be called high-end were all stationed there.

It was not as crowded as the high-end shopping malls.

The shopping environment was very quiet and comfortable.

With Jiang Xun’s current popularity, she could be recognized at any time on the street.

Fortunately, there were not many customers in Qin Yang department store at this time, so they had not encountered any wandering customers.

The customers were already shopping in the boutiques they liked.

“This way, please.” The general manager brought Jiang Xun to the entrance of ES.

The stylist and Xin’an were both stunned.

This was ES!

The stylist was so excited that he couldn’t help but tremble.

If he wanted to borrow ES's clothes, he would have to rely on the artistes he served to be of high status. And even if they were of high status, they would only be able to borrow clothes.

Only A-list female stars could borrow ES's ready-to-wear clothes.

If one was a top tier player in the A-list, she would be lucky enough to borrow ES's haute couture from last season.

If it was the current season, she would either be an A-list female star with international popularity or a VVIP customer of ES.

The general manager led Jiang Xun and the others into ES.

"Miss Jiang." The shop assistant immediately greeted her.

Another shop assistant closed the door and closed the curtain with the model's poster.

The situation inside the shop could no longer be seen from the outside.

"It just so happens that the new season of ES will be exhibited here the day after tomorrow," the general manager said. "Try it on. If it's suitable, you can wear it and leave."

The stylist was speechless.

So who was the CEO?

"Miss Jiang, please follow us." The shop assistant took Jiang Xun to the inner room where VVIP guests were served.

The moment Jiang Xun entered, she saw the long black dress in the middle.

The long dress was nailed with layers of black feathers, which looked extremely heavy.

It looked like an elegant black swan.

Under the illumination of the lights in the shop, the feathers glowed with golden and silver dots.

It was like a Black Swan swimming elegantly in the lake.

The lake water shimmered with golden light under the sun. The black swan's feathers were stained with the lake water and shimmered with silver light under the sun.

"This one was originally for the exhibition the day after tomorrow," The shop assistant explained. "But Mr. Qin contacted our brand headquarters and bought this dress. It won't be displayed anymore."

Jiang Xun knew that this brand had always been arrogant, as if it didn't need to give face to anyone.

Many artistes had come to borrow clothes, but if the brands felt that it was not appropriate, they would not lend it to them.

If they felt that the artistes' style could not express their brand's design, they would not lend it to them.

According to the haughtiness of this brand, the haute couture pieces used for the exhibition would definitely not be easily sold to the outside world.

Chapter 348: The CEO Bought It

Who knew that they would agree to sell it to Mufeng.

Because this dress was really too heavy, it was really not easy to wear it alone.

With the help of the shop assistant, Jiang Xun finally put on the dress.

However, the size was a little off.

It was mainly around her waist. Jiang Xun's waist was too thin, so the dress looked a little loose on her waist.

The three shop assistants were in disbelief.

"This dress was prepared for models to wear on the runway. The waist is already very thin. Even a dummy model would have a hard time wearing it." The shop assistant grabbed the loose part of the dress in surprise, showing off Jiang Xun's waist. "I didn't expect it to be so loose on you."

However, the point was that Jiang Xun's chest and buttocks were completely supporting her clothes, and there was no room for her to relax.

What kind of devilish body proportions was this?

When they were helping Jiang Xun change her dress, the three shop assistants could not help but blush when they saw Jiang Xun's figure.

The staff then called the general manager, the stylist, and Xin'an in.

"Heavens!" The stylist was full of admiration. "I see a black swan!"

The black of the dress was pure, an extreme kind of black, without any color deviation.

Jiang Xun's neck and shoulders, which were exposed outside her dress, looked even whiter, so white that they seemed to be glowing.

Her arms hung by her sides, and they were wrapped in black feathers.

Her fair arms were faintly visible among the black feathers.

Such a Jiang Xun had a kind of mystery in the dark night, like a sea demon in the deep sea that could hook the souls of travellers.

She was like a dangerous yet charming female demon who had just walked out of hell.

"I don't think the headquarters will regret agreeing to sell this dress to Mr. Qin," The shop assistant looked at Jiang Xun in a daze and muttered unconsciously.

Mr. Qin?

The stylist's first reaction was, could it be Qin Mufeng?

He also knew about the Fengjiang ship!

Moreover, other than Mufeng, he really could not think of any other Mr. Qin who could directly ask the headquarters to sell the super-seasonal haute couture to him directly.

Jiang Xun pinched the loose part of her waist and said to the stylist, "This part needs to be tightened a little, it's a little loose."

The stylist: "..."

Jiang Xun's waist was indeed thin. Otherwise, the outline of her original white dress would not be so outstanding.

"Leave it to me," Since they had already bought it, the stylist didn't have to worry so much.

He asked for a needle and black thread from the shop assistant and carefully wrapped around Jiang Xun's waist area.

When the stylist was done, it was completely impossible to tell that it had been modified.

It was as if the original version was this size.

The stylist looked at the dress in fascination and asked the shop assistant, "May I ask what the gold and silver glows on the feathers are?"

The shop assistant smiled and shook her head. This is our brand's special craftsmanship. I can't tell others.

The stylist nodded and didn't ask further.

"Miss Jiang, please wait here for a moment." The general manager left after he finished talking to Jiang Xun.

Ten minutes later, the general manager came over with some people.

The person brought by the general manager was wearing a suit from Qin Yang department store and a pair of black cotton gloves.

The man was holding a square velvet box that was slightly bigger than two palms.

The T brand logo was printed on the box.

He opened the box and there was a necklace made of several diamonds of more than two carats.

More and more diamonds were gathered towards the main diamond.

The main diamond that looked like it was at least 10 carats.

Beside the necklace was a pair of raindrop-shaped diamond earrings.

On the other side was a pair of spiral-shaped diamond bracelets.

The shop assistant helped Jiang Xun put them on.

For this reason, the stylist changed Jiang Xun's hairstyle and combed it all to the back of her head. Her hairstyle was very simple, but it exposed her slender swan neck. Together with the necklace worth tens of millions, it glowed.

He couldn't tell if her fair skin or the diamonds on her body were more dazzling.

Jiang Xun raised her hand to touch the necklace under her collarbone. The general manager smiled and said, "The CEO has also bought this set of jewelry. He asked you to wear it without worry."

Mufeng would naturally not let anyone else wear something that Jiang Xun had worn before.

Of course, he had to buy it directly.

Jiang Xun took out her phone, took a picture of herself in the mirror, and sent it to Mufeng.

In order to complete the entire set of photos, the phone was held in front of her face, blocking one-third of her face.

Jiang Xun wasn't very satisfied, so she passed the phone to Xin'an. "An'an, help me take a picture."

Xin'an took the phone, and Jiang Xun stood in front of the full-body mirror with her back facing it.

Xin'an looked for the angle back and forth a few times and adjusted the height to take a picture of Jiang Xun.

"Wow, it's not bad to shoot here. It's much better than the background when we took the picture at the hotel." Xin'an showed her phone to Jiang Xun. "Don't you think so, Jiang Jiang?"

The stylist also came over to take a look. "Indeed, the background here looks especially high-end."

The staff immediately said, "Before you came, we've already informed our customers that we'll be rejecting all customers this afternoon. If you don't mind, you can take some photos here."

Xin'an looked at Jiang Xun with bright eyes. "Jiang Jiang, the photos we took previously can't be used."

Jiang Xun nodded.

After Xin'an took a set of photos for Jiang Xun, Jiang Xun thanked the general manager and the staff, then returned to the car and headed to the venue of the ceremony.

Jiang Xun looked at the time. Fortunately, she had left earlier, so there was no delay.

"Jiang Jiang, you choose which photos to post on Weibo," Xin'an said to Jiang Xun. "Give it to me after you've chosen it. I'll send the pictures to the studio for retouching."

Jiang Xun had also set up a studio, which was more convenient, but it was not as big as other celebrities'.

The staff was relatively simple.

Jiang Xun didn't want to fatten up in one go. She planned to take it slow and gradually increase the number of employees as her career progressed.

With her current situation, the few people in the studio were enough.

Jiang Xun selected a few and sent them to Xin'an.

She also sent the photo that she had asked Xin'an to take for her to Mufeng.

"I'm wearing this to the ceremony," Jiang Xun said.

Mufeng came out of the meeting. It had been about half an hour since Jiang Xun sent him the photo.

He returned to his office, opened his WeChat, and saw the photo that Jiang Xun had sent him.

In the photo, Jiang Xun's back was facing the full-body mirror. She looked like an elegant black swan with a hint of darkness.

Her exposed arm was slender but strong. Her collarbones did not need to be caved in to be very clear, and they were slightly caved in to form a beautiful shallow ravine.

The mirror behind her clearly showed her back.

The front and back of this dress were V-shaped.

The V-shape on her back was deeper, and the tip of the V-shape reached her lower back.

The shoulder blades on her back were protruding, faintly visible under the black.

Chapter 349: It'd Be Awkward For The Uglier One

The black color wrapped around her skin, making it look as white as if it was immersed in cold moonlight.

Mufeng looked at the photo and the corners of his mouth slowly curved into a gentle arc.

He saved the photo and replied, [It's very nice.]

Mufeng: [Do you like it?]

[Of course!] Jiang Xun replied. [It's much better than the one the stylist borrowed for me!]

However, in the backstage lounge of the grand ceremony.

Youlan was wearing a C brand long white dress. In order to match the lace style of the long dress, it was specially made into a "knight era" retro style, and she had a feather-shaped hairpin with a diamond on it.

Xiaoxiao was accompanying Youlan, following her everywhere.

She sat next to Youlan and scrolled through the red carpet photos posted by the studios of the artistes who were attending the ceremony.

Basically, all the studios had posted except for Jiang Xun's.

"Sister Youlan, Jiang Xun hasn't posted her photos yet," Xiaoxiao said in a low voice.

Youlan sneered. "She has to have the face to do it after all."

“Yup,” Xiaoxiao pouted gloatingly and put on a mean look. “Although the two of you have similar styles, yours is from C brand. The K brand that Jiang Xun is wearing is like a counterfeit when compared to C brand. Anyone who sees it will think that Jiang Xun was deliberately imitating you, but she didn’t have the ability to borrow clothes from C brand, so she could only pick something similar from those small brands.”

Youlan smirked smugly. Wasn’t this the reason why she had asked about Jiang Xun’s style?

When the press release was released, it would be said that Jiang Xun deliberately imitated her and wore the same clothes as her.

“One of them is wearing a dress from a high-end luxury brand, while the other is wearing one from a low-end brand.” Xiaoxiao curled her lips. “Jiang Xun, just wait to be embarrassed!”

“What time is it now?” Youlan asked.

Xiaoxiao glanced at her phone and said, half past three.

Youlan frowned and looked unhappy. She put on a mean expression and even squeezed out her smile lines. “Why isn’t Jiang Xun here yet? She can’t be thinking that she can come late for Feng Videos’ red carpet, and they’ll push her spot back, right?”

“They’re on their way,” Xiaoxiao said. “She should be here soon.”

“How do you know?” Youlan asked.

“I saw the Weibo post from her assistant, Yao Xin’an.” Xiaoxiao showed her phone to Youlan. “She said they’re on their way.”

Youlan lowered her head and saw that Xin’an had only posted a selfie. Jiang Xun’s outfit were nowhere to be seen.

Xin’an: [Our Jiang Jiang is so beautiful today! I’m looking forward to it!]

Jiang Xun’s fans all knew that Xin’an was Jiang Xun’s assistant, so they followed her as well.

Eating Jiang:[An’an, why hasn’t the studio released Jiang Jiang’s red carpet photos yet?]

Spicy JJ: [Sob sob sob. Hurry up and send it to us. Let us see.]

Xin’an replied Eating Jiang: [Let’s keep it a secret for now. Just watch the livestream on the red carpet. It’ll give you guys a super big surprise!]

Xin’an replied Spicy JJ: [If we post it now, it’s going to destroy the surprise!]

Youlan sneered. “You still want to keep it a secret? What secret is there to keep about Jiang Xun’s K brand clothes? Will Jiang Xun wear flowers?”

Xiaoxiao pursed her lips. “Jiang Xun and the others might think it’s pretty. After all, Jiang Xun has never attended such a serious ceremony before. She has only attended the Shanpin’s Influencer Day, which was attended by influencers. How can it compare to this? This is full of celebrities and not some random red carpet. During Shanpin’s Influencer Day red carpet, those influencers were all dressed in tacky clothes. It's Jiang Xun's first time attending such a grand ceremony. She borrowed K brand clothes and wore them in a way that she had never worn before. They should already be very surprised."

Youlan sneered and said, "I'll go find her when she gets here. You take the opportunity to take photos of us standing together. Later, we'll release a statement saying that we're wearing the same outfit."

It wasn't scary to wear the same clothes, but whoever was of a lower class would feel awkward.

"Understood." Xiaoxiao held her phone and nodded. She was always ready.

After a while, a staff member's voice could be heard from the door. "Teacher Jiang, this way please. You can rest for a while. There are drinks and snacks at the buffet table."

Hearing that, Youlan gave Xiaoxiao a look.

Xiaoxiao understood in a second and quickly opened the camera function.

Youlan got up with a smile and went to look for Jiang Xun, but she was stunned when she saw Jiang Xun.

Wasn't Jiang Xun wearing the K brand white dress?

Why did it change to black?

And it was so gorgeous!

As it was a super-seasonal designer from ES, it had not been publicly displayed.

Youlan really couldn't tell that it was an ES dress.

Just by looking at the workmanship and cutting, one would know that it was definitely not something that could be made by the likes of K brand.

Even C brand that she was wearing probably didn't have such standards.

Moreover, she had never seen C brand sell this style.

From the design style, it looked like ES.

But how could Jiang Xun wear ES's dress?

She remembered ES's ready-made clothes and the past season's haute couture. She had wanted to borrow ES' haute couture from them more than once, but she had not been able to do so.

She couldn't even borrow ones from the previous seasons.

The only time she managed to borrow some ready-made outfits was when she went to an International Film Festival.

And she had only managed to borrow it once.

If she had not seen Jiang Xun's outfit before, it could only mean it was a super-seasonal haute couture or even a style that had not yet appeared.

But was that possible!

Even if Jiang Xun wanted to buy it, ES would not sell it to her.

Youlan firmly denied it in her heart. This definitely wasn't ES's clothes. It could only be an imitation.

Youlan didn't want to talk to Jiang Xun anymore.

She turned around and was about to leave when she heard Jiang Xun call her, "Teacher Su."

Jiang Xun walked over.

There were many reporters in the venue who took pictures.

When the two of them stood together, the contrast between the black and white was too good.

However, Youlan's white dress looked plain and boring in comparison to Jiang Xun's black dress.

"Jiang Xun." With the cameras around, Youlan could only force a smile.

She really wanted to know why Jiang Xun had suddenly changed her clothes!

Could it be that the people in Jiang Xun's stylist's studio had given her false information?

Jiang Xun's fingertips gently brushed the feathers on the dress. Without waiting for Youlan to ask, she took the initiative to answer her question. "The stylist got me a long white dress he borrowed from a brand, and it just so happened to be quite similar to the style of your dress, Teacher Su. I saw the photo that your studio posted, so I quickly changed it. It's a good thing I did not wear that, or else we'd be wearing the same outfit, and it'd be awkward for the uglier one."

Youlan was furious. She gritted her teeth, but she had to maintain her image.

Her eyes fell on the jewelry Jiang Xun was wearing.

The sudden discovery that Jiang Xun had changed her clothes was so shocking that Youlan didn't notice the jewelry Jiang Xun was wearing at first.

Looking at it now, she almost went blind.

Youlan was also someone who often wore jewelry from big brands, so she could tell at a glance that they were real or fake.

Chapter 350: Mufeng Insisted On Giving It To Me

She was sure that Jiang Xun's set was not only made of real diamonds, but the diamonds were also of the best quality.

This set of hers was definitely worth tens of millions.

Youlan didn't expect Jiang Xun to be so capable.

Youlan smiled sweetly.

The reporters who didn't know the truth couldn't hear the content of her words. They only saw her smile and thought that the two of them were close.

“Your set of jewelry doesn’t look cheap. You have to pay attention to it. Don’t scratch it accidentally. The compensation won’t be a small amount,” Youlan said maliciously.

A pheasant would still be a pheasant even if they were covered in jewelry!

Jiang Xun was surprised. “It’s just some jewelry. Do I need to borrow from the brand? It’s not like I can’t afford it.”

Youlan was speechless.

Did Jiang Xun buy this?

Jiang Xun raised her chin slightly and deliberately smiled smugly at Youlan. “I didn’t want to wear such an expensive one, but Mufeng insisted on giving it to me. He even said that if I didn’t wear it, it’d just be left at home as a decoration. That’s such a waste, so might as well wear it.”

Jiang Xun showed off her dress again. “He was the one who insisted on buying this dress for me to wear. I asked the stylist to borrow some clothes and didn’t want to wear this one, but who knew that you’d wear the same style as me, so I had to put on this one.”

Youlan gritted her teeth. She couldn’t take it anymore!

Looking at Jiang Xun’s smug face, she really wanted to step forward and tear her apart!

In that case, she was the one who urged Jiang Xun to change her clothes?

If she didn’t wear the same one as Jiang Xun, would Jiang Xun have worn the K brand one?

Now, Jiang Xun didn’t come wearing the K brand outfit. Instead, she came in this outfit, which attracted a lot of attention.

Jiang Xun gave Youlan a mocking smile that said, “You just can’t kill me.” Then, she led Xin’an to find seats.

Youlan was furious and went back with a dark face.

Xiaoxiao was holding her phone. The screen was still showing a photo of Youlan and Jiang Xun standing together.

“Sister Youlan, do you still want to keep these photos?” Xiaoxiao asked carefully.

“Why should I keep them?” Youlan said unhappily, “Do you think my clothes are worse than hers?”

She had been shocked when she saw Jiang Xun’s dress.

Now, looking at the photos, the comparison between the two was more obvious.

In contrast to Jiang Xun’s style, her style seemed dull and boring.

Xiaoxiao didn’t dare to say anything more. She quickly deleted the photo.

“Why did you post my red carpet look so early?” Youlan asked again. “Jiang Xun saw my style in advance and change her clothes. But now, she’s even better than me, and she’ll probably be able to crush everyone.”

Xiaoxiao had no choice but to explain, "The other studios had already posted theirs. Also, according to logic, we just posted it not long before the red carpet started. If nothing went wrong, Jiang Xun wouldn't have had time to change her clothes. Who knew..."

However, Jiang Xun had a ready-made gown that was even more gorgeous and could beat everyone in the audience.

"I really don't understand what she's thinking," Xiaoxiao muttered in a low voice. "Since you already had such beautiful clothes, why didn't you wear them in the first place? Why did you have to go and borrow from K brand?"

Was there something wrong with her brain?

Youlan sneered. "What else could he be thinking? She's doing this on purpose!"

Xiaoxiao was surprised. "Sister Youlan, are you saying that she deliberately let us know that style? In fact, she never thought of wearing that set?"

"That's right." Youlan's jaw tightened, and her tightly pursed lips formed a stern line. "She leaked her style, and if I make things difficult for her by choosing a similar design, I'll be the one who loses in the end."

"Ha!" Youlan sneered. "I've been tricked, haven't I? I've already lost when I was compared to her style just now."

At 4:30, the red carpet officially began.

The staff members held the name list in their hands and guided the guests to walk the red carpet in the order of the name list.

At this moment, the staff member received a call from the planning manager.

"Move Jiang Xun's red carpet appearance to the back. She'll appear after Youlan," The manager of the planning department said.

"Yes." The staff made a mark on the list to indicate that the order had been adjusted. "But will this cause the other guests to be dissatisfied?"

"If anyone is unhappy, they can come to me," The manager said. "Forget it. I'll go over personally later. We'll talk after Jiang Xun is done. I'll see who's unhappy."

The manager laughed. "Jiang Xun's outfit is a premium design from ES. It was originally meant for the exhibition at Qin Yang department store the day after tomorrow. I didn't expect Jiang Xun to wear it. Without looking at Jiang Xun's status, just based on her seasonal haute couture dress, it's not too much to give her the finale."

However, if Jiang Xun was really the finale, the artiste who was the supposed finale act would probably have an opinion.

The finale artiste invited this time was Gao Zishan. She was a real best actress and a movie star like Youlan couldn't be compared to her.

Originally, Youlan was arranged to walk the red carpet as the second last, but now it was changed to the third last.

Jiang Xun was the second last.

A staff member came to Jiang Xun and whispered to her about the change in order.

"I'll be the second last?" Jiang Xun was stunned for a moment and said in a low voice.

"Yes." The staff member nodded.

Jiang Xun laughed, not hiding the mischievousness on her face. "When is Su Youlan going on stage?"

The staff member's mouth twitched.

Jiang Xun was so straightforward in bearing grudges that she didn't even try to hide it.

"Teacher Su appears before you," The staff member said.

"That'll do!" Jiang Xun was very satisfied with this.

Not long after, the person in charge of this event, Manager Hu from the planning department, arrived personally.

If Youlan didn't have any objections, that was fine, but if she did, she would have to say it herself.

Jiang Xun was supposed to walk the red carpet early, so she sat there without eating much.

Now that the order had been changed, she would have to wait for a long time, so she went to get something to eat.

When she was almost done eating, the stylist reapplied her lipstick.

As he did so, the stylist smiled and said, "You're the first female celebrity I've met who's eating during the red carpet."

"I exercise a lot, so I'm not afraid of getting fat." Jiang Xun said after touching up her makeup.

At this time, there were not many people in the room. Most people had already gone to walk the red carpet.

Jiang Xun's voice wasn't too loud, but it wasn't too soft either. Youlan, who had been paying special attention to Jiang Xun, happened to hear her.

Youlan snorted. Jiang Xun was really taking every chance to show off.

As the number of people finished their turns, only Youlan, Jiang Xun, and Zishan were left in the end.

Youlan was surprised. Why hadn't Jiang Xun gone to walk?

Soon after, the staff came in.

Xiaoxiao whispered, "Sister Youlan, Jiang Xun is arranged to walk the red carpet in the last three? They're praising her too much."

Youlan's face turned ugly. "What's with Feng Videos? Just because Jiang Xun had participated in a few popular variety shows? Or did she sign a contract with Feng Videos for the platform, so Feng Videos wants to support her?"
