Chapter 2411

Hearing Su's words, Su Shoudeh was thrilled and asked after him, "Dad, what's the best way for you to make Du Haiqing's death impeccable?"

Master Su sneered, "I had someone find a Class A wanted criminal who had committed a capital crime in advance, and gave his family ten million dollars to settle his family and let him flee to Jinling."

Su Shoudeh hurriedly followed up, "Dad, are you trying to get that wanted criminal to do it?"

Master Su said calmly: "It's good to let that wanted criminal do it, but the whole plan is not as simple as you think."

He said, "I've also had the news leaked to the local police in Jinling, and I believe that soon the Jinling police will be searching for this wanted criminal all over the city, he is responsible for many murders, and if he is caught, he will die, so he will naturally flee desperately under the police's pursuit." [avracity.com]

"He will then be like a headless fly running for his life around Jinling and then, coincidentally, escape to the auction site."

"When he arrives at the auction, the Jinling police will also send a large number of men to surround the entire treasure house, so he will be like a turtle in a jar, and it is normal for him to take a few hostages in a panic."

"When the time comes, this wanted man will naturally take hostages and drive away with them in order to stay alive, and he'll make sure that he brings Du Haiqing to the car by then!"

Su Shoudeh hurriedly followed up by asking: "So when will he finish Du Haiqing? After getting into the car or after escaping?"

Master Su's eyes were stern as he said coldly, "The plan I have for him is to kill Du Haiqing after he escapes, then I'll send a boat to send him to the Philippines, but this man increases the risk of our exposure if he lives, so I've arranged for the others to create a car crash directly after he gets on the bus with Du Haiqing, and take him and Du Haiqing to the Philippines. All together!"

At this point, the old man smiled sinisterly and said, "At that time, these two will go to hell together, and our plan will never be revealed, even if the whole world suspects that we killed her, it doesn't matter, as long as we can't find any evidence, I'll let them say whatever they want."

Su Shoudeh said excitedly, "Dad! What a brilliant move you've made! Firstly, he secretly instructs a class A wanted man to flee to Jinling, accidentally escapes to the auction house and kidnaps Du Haiqing, then the wanted man, in his haste to escape with Du Haiqing, is killed in a car accident, and Du Haiqing is killed with him. I don't think anyone would suspect the Su family! It really is perfect!" [avracity.com]

Master Su nodded his head with a cold smile and said seriously: "I've been floating in the business world for half a lifetime, but whenever I want to do something, I think a few more steps forward and a few more steps backward to make sure it's foolproof before I do it."

At this point, he stifled a long sigh and said, "Hey! The only mistake I ever made in my life was that one time with Su Ruoli! I had it all planned out with the JDF and it was foolproof, but I still can't figure out what went wrong!"

"Not only did Su Ruorui go missing, but even my whole plan was discovered, what a loss!"

"What I'm most worried about now is that not only is Su Ruo Li not dead, there's even a hidden behind the scenes behind her."

"If that's the case, then it's very likely that this person will become our Su family's future fatal enemy!"

When Su Shou De heard this, he nodded repeatedly in agreement while sneering and slandering in his heart: "Although I don't know which part of the process went wrong that time, or whether there was a pusher behind the scenes or not, but if there was, I'd really have to thank him."

"If he hadn't ruined the old man's plans, why would the old man have pushed his elder brother out as a scapegoat?"

"If the old man doesn't push big brother out as a scapegoat, then how will I have a chance to replace him as the heir?"[avracity.com]

However, Su Shoudeh didn't dare to show his inner joy and asked with great concern, "Dad, that wanted man, when will he do it?"

Chapter 2412

Master Su looked at the time and said, "If there are no deviations in the plan, that Class A wanted criminal should arrive at the auction site in ten minutes."

Su Shoudeh hurriedly followed up, "Dad, ten minutes, Du Haiqing won't be gone, right?!"

"No!" Master Su sneered, "Du Haiqing should still be working on the property changes now, this set of procedures is very tedious, it's impossible to get it right for a while, she wanted that old house so much, and now that it's finally been successfully photographed, she will definitely be very serious about cooperating with the change process."

Su Shoudeh nodded gently and was relieved at the same time.

However, he quickly remembered something and asked after him, "Dad! Will there be any accidents when the fish are also with her?"

Su Shoudeh knew that the old man was very fond of Su Zhiyu as his granddaughter, and what he was really worried about was not Su Zhiyu's safety, but whether the old man would call off the whole plan in an emergency because of Su Zhiyu.[avracity.com]

He said: "I've already asked someone to inform the wanted man, gave him pictures of Du Haiqing as well as Zhi Fei and Zhi Yu, and told him clearly that he only needs to take Du Haiqing's life from these three people. The photo will not do anything to Zhiyu."

Su Shoude hastily pretended to be relieved and exclaimed, "That would be perfect, to be honest, I still like this child Zhiyu, this child is really one of the smartest and most resourceful among the descendants of our Su family."

"Yes!" Master Su couldn't help but feel the same way: "If only Zhiyu were a boy, it's a pity."

Su Shoude caught the look of regret in the old man's eyes, and a malicious thought flashed in his heart.

From the depths of his heart, he wished that Du Haiqing and Su Zhiyu would all die.

That way, even if the eldest brother, Su Shoudao, didn't feel sorry for Su Haiqing, he would definitely feel sorry for Su Zhiyu.

If the Old Master had Du Haiqing killed along with Su Zhiyu, then Su Shoudao would definitely hate the Old Master to the bone.

When that happens, Big Brother won't just be exiled to Australia, he'll fight the Old Master to the death.

In order to save his own skin, the Old Master will expel Big Brother from the Su family, leaving him with nothing and no chance to turn over a new leaf.

That way, his future position as head of the family would also be more secure.

So, he looked at the time and said to Master Su, "Dad, I'm going to the bathroom first and will be right back."

Su Shoudeh immediately came out of the old man's study, after which he hurriedly pulled out his mobile phone and sent a text message to his beloved.

"The old man spent 10 million the other day to find a Class A wanted man, immediately find out who that wanted man's last name is, then contact him as fast as possible and tell him I can call his family for another 20 million, but only on the additional condition that he will take out Du Haiqing as well as Su Zhiyu."

Chapter 2413

At this moment in time, Jinling.

A man wearing a mask appeared at the entrance of the underground station near the Jumbo Pavilion.

The underground station entrance had a large number of surveillance cameras, partly security footage of the underground, partly the city's Skynet surveillance, and a few new high-end cameras equipped with face recognition features.

Over the years, with the rapid development of technology, facial recognition has successfully moved out of science fiction movies and into the lives of ordinary people.

Not only do mobile phones support facial recognition, but more importantly, the police also have a whole suite of facial recognition systems that are connected to big data.

The greatest use of this system is to quickly screen large numbers of people.

If, for example, hundreds of people come up to you and there is a wanted criminal in the mix, it is not only inefficient to rely on police officers to check them one by one, but it is also particularly easy to miss them.

However, with the facial recognition system now in place, hundreds of people quickly walk past and the system is able to identify them all directly through facial recognition.

At the same time, the system will immediately verify the identities of hundreds of people, and if there are fugitives or suspects in the area, the police will be alerted by the system in the quickest possible time.

A typical example is when a famous Hong Kong singer came to the mainland for a concert, and the police were always able to catch a few fugitives from the tens of thousands of concert-goers at each concert.

Why is this so efficient?

Almost all of them rely on the power of facial recognition!

So, as society becomes more and more technologically advanced, the possibility of criminals trying to escape justice becomes less and less.

The man, who was wearing a mask, looked around, then reached into his pocket and pulled out a very dry and somewhat wrinkled pack of cigarettes.

He tore open the packet and found that there was not a single cigarette inside.

The boss hurriedly asked, "Soft or hard?"

The man said, "Soft."

The boss said, "Sixty-five." as he took a packet of soft Chinese out of the glass case and handed it to him, "Sixty-five."

The man threw him a hundred-yuan note and said, "Keep the change." The man was delighted.

The boss was delighted, but he was too busy smiling and said, "Oh, thank you."

The man took the cigarette, turned around and at the same time had removed the plastic film from the outside of the cigarette and then ripped open the right side of the cigarette pack.

He took the cigarette out and removed the mask he was wearing, revealing a somewhat fierce national face.

He held the cigarette in his mouth, lit it and took a hard drag, then turned his head left and right to look at it.

He had been on the run for three years.

He had lived like a ghost for three years, hiding and hiding, and was already exhausted.

He wanted to find a chance to sneak overseas so he could breathe a sigh of relief, but he simply didn't have the ability or the opportunity to do so.

So he had to go hungry and hide everywhere.

The only thing that brought him comfort was a very secret contact with his family that even the police didn't know about.

It was because of this contact that his family contacted him two days ago and told him that he had been offered 10 million dollars to kill a man and, afterwards, to use his connections to send him abroad.

Since his family had already received the 10 million, he was moved almost instantly.

Chapter 2414

He was tired of hiding out anyway, and there was no reason to turn down the chance to make 10 million for his family and a chance to set himself free once and for all.

So, he rolled over to Jinling yesterday, ready to play the game!

According to the Kingpin, he had to find a security camera to expose himself before fleeing to a place called Jumbo House.

Now, all he is doing is exposing himself and letting the Jinling police know he is here!

At this moment, the Jinling Police General Command Room.

The police facial recognition system suddenly emitted a piercing warning tone and the officers on duty were shocked at the sight of it!

On the computer screen, a system prompt has popped up with a line that reads, "Identified by the facial recognition system, Class A wanted criminal Liu Zhan is in our city, please verify immediately!"

The police officer on duty rushed to access the scene footage automatically intercepted by the system, took a closer look, was shocked, hastily picked up the emergency phone on the desktop, and blurted out: "Class A wanted man Liu Zhan appeared at the Li Dong Road underground station in our city! Please make an arrest immediately!"

The entire police force in Jinling blew up at once!

The presence of a class A wanted criminal in Jinling is definitely the last thing the local police want to see, because if this wanted criminal makes a big case in the area, not only will the local people suffer, but the local police will also have to endure tremendous social pressure!

So the police immediately mobilised the city's police force and decided to arrest Liu Zhan.

At this time, Liu Zhan's mobile phone in his arms received a text message: "Jinling police have found you! There's a patrol car on its way to catch you, watch your right, 800 metres away!"

Soon, a police car came into view in the distance and was approaching.

However, the policeman didn't turn on his lights or siren, and it didn't look like he was on any emergency mission.

However, Liu Zhan knew in his heart that the person who paid for his services was very astute, and since the other party said that the car was here to arrest him, there must be no mistake.

He watched as the car got closer and closer, and his heart was in his throat.

He was in no hurry to flee because he knew that the man who had hired him had requirements that he had to be chased by the police officers into the nearby treasure house, rather than running over there himself first.

So, with his cigarette in his mouth, he kept puffing on it while calculating the distance and timing.

He was now standing on the pavement, higher up, and there were a large number of shared bicycles on the roadside.

Therefore, it was impossible for the police car to pull up directly in front of him after following him from the driveway, so he had to pull over to the side of the driveway and come over on foot.

The ten metres or so that he had to walk over was his chance to escape.

He knew that this was a downtown area and the police would not shoot directly, so with the advantage of 10 metres and a faster start, the police would not be able to catch up with him and he would be able to run into the treasure house.

That way, the other side would chase all the way, and he would flee all the way, directly into the treasure house.

At this time, the police car had almost reached his front, he pretended to be surprised at the police car, seeing that the police car pulled over to the side and stopped, he began to cautiously retreat continuously.

At this time, the door of the police car opened and a few police officers, pretending to be on routine patrol, slowly got out of the car, ready to paralyse Liu Zhan and then wait for an opportunity to approach.

However, Liu Zhan showed great nervousness as he took a puff of smoke, slammed the butt of his cigarette on the ground, turned around and ran backwards.

A few police officers wanted to approach quietly, but they didn't expect Liu Zhan to be so nervous.

Several police officers hurriedly chased after him.

With his lead, Liu Zhan led the police officers around twice before rushing straight towards the Treasure House not far away!

The lead police officer, who was desperately trying to catch up, reported over the intercom: "Liu Zhan has a strong sense of counter-surveillance and started fleeing when he saw us, but now he's fled into the Treasure Pavilion! Request the City Council to immediately dispatch police forces to cordon off the Jumbo House and carry out full-scale arrests!"

Chapter 2415

In the eyes of the police officers, Liu Zhan was being chased by a man who was so desperate that he randomly ran into the Treasure Pavilion.

But in fact, the Treasure Pavilion was Liu Zhan's ultimate goal.

At this moment, the Treasure Pavilion.

In the lobby, the auction was still going on, and Du Haiqing was still signing various documents.

When Liu Zhan arrived at the door and took a step to go inside, the security guard at the door stopped him and spoke, "Sir, please show us the entry code for this auction, we need to verify it before we can enter."

Liu Zhan looked back and found that the police officer chasing him had followed and rushed in, so he immediately pulled out a pistol from his bosom, pointed it at the security guard's head and said coldly, "If you talk any more fucking nonsense, I'll shoot you!"

At that moment, the police officers at the back noticed him pulling out a pistol and looked shocked.[avracity.com]

Then, holding a gun in one hand and a switch with a wire in the other, Liu Zhan snapped, "Listen up, the explosives I'm carrying are for opening mountains! If you police officers dare to come in, I'll make sure everyone in the building is buried with me."

This Liu Zhan was already a bandit, carrying several lives, and in his past experience in handling cases, he had often used guns and explosives, so the police officers did not suspect him of carrying explosives.

So, the people became very scrupulous about him all of a sudden.

Not far from each other, they could all see the waistcoat Liu Zhan was wearing, which was bulging and covered with strips of something like a long ham sausage, which could be seen at a glance as potent explosives.[avracity.com]

This type of explosive is so powerful that a hole in a boulder could easily blow it apart, and if it were to detonate here, the consequences would be unimaginable!

So, one of the police officers immediately shouted, "Liu Zhan, don't be impulsive! If you have something to talk about, take your time and be careful with the switch you hold!"

Liu Zhan sneered, "Damn it, what's there to be careful about? I've been an outlaw for a long time anyway, and with so many murders on my back, I don't mind dying at any time! So you'd better be sensible, otherwise I'll just drag all these people to bury me with me, just as well as saving me from having to hide around!"

Immediately afterwards, he pointed a gun at the security guard's head and shouted, "Get in there and close the door."

The security guard was robbed against the back of his head, so how could he dare to make a faux pas, and hurriedly led Liu Zhan into the door with him, then locked the door tightly at Liu Zhan's request.

Liu Zhan snatched the key from this security guard's hand and said in a cold voice, "You, follow me inside!"[avracity.com]

The security guard did not dare to disobey and immediately followed Liu Zhan, stepping into the auction to ask questions.

Liu Zhan rushed into the auction hall with his gun and shouted to the crowd of people who were taking part in the auction, "Everyone, listen up, squat down with your head in your hands, whoever dares to run, don't blame my bullets for being blind!"

The whole hall was in chaos and everyone was screaming and ready to scatter.

At this time, Liu Zhan directly picked up his pistol and fired three shots at the ceiling, shouting angrily, "Whoever tries to fucking run away again!"

As soon as the gunshot rang out, everyone was frightened silly, and the vast majority of them immediately crouched down on the ground without hesitation, holding their heads in their hands.

However, there were one or two people who thought they would have a chance to escape from Ascension, so they planned to flee through the side door. Liu Zhan directly raised his gun and shot, bang, bang and two shots, directly killing the man closest to the side door.

Now, the scene was even more horrified.

According to the information given to him by the other party, the target he wanted to kill today was in the office next to the corridor.[avracity.com]

At that moment, Du Haiqing and Su Zhiyu heard the gunshots and immediately realised that there had been a change of heart.

Su Zhiyu also knew what was at stake and followed her mother outside without hesitation.

However, as soon as she ran out, she saw that there were already a number of people outside the corridor who were panicking and trying to run out.

Just then, Liu Zhan, who was holding a gun, suddenly appeared at the entrance to the corridor, raised his gun and aimed it directly at a man who was fleeing hastily, and with one bang, he shot the man directly in the back of the head, creating a bloody mist!

With this shot, the man who was shot in the back of the head fell to the ground with a thud, and the surrounding panicked crowd let out an ear-piercing scream.

Liu Zhan coldly shouted, "Listen up, all of you, gather in the hall, no one is going to run away! Otherwise, you'll end up like this guy!"

Originally, they were all fleeing for their lives in a panic.

At a time like this, every one of them would have to settle an account in their hearts.

If they still insist on fleeing at this time, it is very likely that they will be shot dead.

But if you cooperate well, there are at least a hundred people on the site, including the auctioneer and staff, and it is impossible for the other party to kill so many people at once.

So, if you cooperate well, you will have a much better chance of survival.

So, none of the group dared to try to escape again, and one by one, with their hands on their heads, they turned around honestly and walked towards the hall one by one.[avracity.com]

The exit door of the hall had been locked and the key snatched by Liu Zhan, so it was impossible for the gang to escape.

I'm not going to say anything about it, but I'm going to say something about it, and I'm going to say something about it. "

Afterwards, he added: "I'll tell you the truth, I'm not after any of you today, I was just cornered by the police and fled here to hide, as long as you cooperate with me honestly, I'll let you go when I've negotiated with the police."

"But if any of you people dare to play petty games with me, I'll absolutely shoot him, and I'm a Class A wanted man anyway, and I'm carrying several lives on my back, so I don't care if I get a few more!"

Hearing him say this, many of the people in the offices on either side of the corridor honestly opened the door and walked out.

This included the owner of Treasure Pavilion, Bao Fugui, who also gave up the idea of hiding in his office and left with his head in his hands.

At this time, the two staff members who were handling the formalities for Du Haiqing exchanged glances with each other and walked out together.

Su Zhiyu asked Du Haiqing in a low voice: "Mom, what should we do?"

Without hesitation, Du Haiqing said: "Let's go out too, at a time like this, it's natural to cooperate properly to ensure maximum personal safety!"

Su Zhiyu nodded gently.

Then, mother and daughter also held their hands high, and the two staff members walked out behind them.[avracity.com]

Liu Zhan kept his gun in his hand, keeping an eye on everyone coming out of the rooms on both sides, and when he saw Du Haiqing and Su Zhiyu, he was immediately relieved.

He knew that the stunningly beautiful woman in front of him called Du Haiqing was the only thing he could rely on this time to turn over a new leaf!

Chapter 2417

Most criminals who commit felonies will be targeted by the police, so those like Liu Zhan who are able to escape all the way without being caught have a very deep sense of sophistication and counter-surveillance, and know how to hide themselves extremely well.

Therefore, the moment he saw Du Haiqing, although his heart was so excited that he could not wait for his eyes to shine, he could not see any ripples on the surface.

He shook the gun in his hand and said coldly, "All of you in the back hurry up, don't fucking dawdle there!"

Neither Du Haiqing nor Su Zhiyu noticed anything unusual and hurriedly followed the others to the auction hall.

Seeing that Du Haiqing was already under his control, Liu Zhan did not search for other rooms, but waited until everyone had entered the hall, then followed them directly inside and closed the door tightly.[avracity.com]

At this time, there were more than 100 men, women and children in the hall, all of whom were looking at Liu Zhan nervously, not knowing what he was going to do to them next.

Liu Zhan walked up to the auction table at this time, picked up the microphone and said arrogantly, "Gentlemen, it's not a bad fate that we can meet in this place today in this way, so I will first introduce myself to you all."

At this point, Liu Zhan cleared his throat and spoke, "My name is Liu Zhan, I'm from the north, I'm a police listed Class A wanted criminal, I fled all the way to Jinling, I didn't expect to be fucking discovered by the police while buying a pack of cigarettes at the underground entrance, I had no choice but to hide here and take you all hostage."

I just hope that everyone will stay here honestly and use it as a bargaining chip for me to negotiate with the police, and when the police agree to my terms, I will naturally continue my escape career and everyone can leave here safely. "

Liu Zhan's words made the vast majority of people feel slightly relieved.

These people all felt in their hearts that since they were going to cooperate as hostages, they should cooperate honestly, and when this Liu Zhan got what he wanted, they would naturally be able to go home safely.

Du Haiqing and Su Zhiyu also didn't notice anything unusual, but like everyone else, their mothers just felt more or less unlucky.

It's like coming out to get money and encountering a bank robber, although the chances of it happening are small, it's not impossible.[avracity.com]

Now that it has happened, the most important thing at the moment is to ensure their personal safety as much as possible.

Liu Zhan continued, "As I said earlier, I just need everyone to cooperate with me, so you just need to keep your hands on your heads and don't make any small moves.

Everyone knew that Liu Zhan was ruthless and murderous, so naturally they did not dare to make any moves.

Liu Zhan was worried that he might not be able to fully deter the gang, so he revealed his explosive-rich waistcoat again and said coldly, "I see that there are quite a few young people in their twenties and thirties among you, and I also came from this age, so I know that people at this age are often hot-headed and impulsive. By joining forces, we can find a way to subdue me!"

"I'll admit I'm a bit of a two-fisted wreck and the bullets in my gun are nowhere near enough to kill everyone here, but I've got enough explosives strapped to my body to blow this place to rubble, enough to get you all on the road with me, and even if you snatch my gun away and shoot me in the head, with a flick of my wrist and the flick of a switch, I'll get you all! Bring it along for the funeral, do you understand?"

The crowd was horrified when they heard this!

No one expected that Liu Zhan would not only have a gun, but also such a weapon of mass destruction![avracity.com]

All those present were flesh and blood, and if the weapon had actually exploded, it would have been almost impossible for anyone to survive!

So, at this moment, everyone's innermost thoughts of resistance are completely snuffed out!

Even among the security forces, a few ex-military boys who had been in the army gave up on the idea of finding a way to turn the tide.

For many young men who have joined the army, it is not difficult to subdue a person.

Chapter 2418

After all, even with a bullet to the head and unconsciousness in the brain, the nervous system can make the entire torso twitch for a few minutes, which can trigger a switch even if the person is dead.

Therefore, no one dared to risk their own lives, or the lives of so many people.

Liu Zhan was relieved to see that everyone was shocked.[avracity.com]

A vicious person like him was actually worried that an accident might happen.

After all, although he was an outlaw, he wasn't really afraid of death, and he also wanted to smuggle himself out of the country smoothly and regain his life, which was why he had taken on such a mission.

Seeing that he had taken complete control of the situation with over 100 people with just a few words, he knew that he had achieved more than half of what he had set out to do.

All that was left was to negotiate with the police for a car and escape with Du Haiqing.

Just as he was about to go to the main gate to negotiate with the police outside, his mobile phone suddenly rang in his pocket.

The phone, which he had bought from the black market, was stolen from its owner and had nothing to do with him, so he wasn't afraid of being traced by the police.

As for the phone number, only a few of his immediate family members know about it, and their contact details are very secret.

He never allows his relatives to contact him from mobile phones, landlines or payphones, only from Internet phones that he can call anonymously, so that no one can check for clues.[avracity.com]

The moment the phone rang, he looked down to see that the caller ID was for an out-of-country number and pressed the answer button.

Although the call looked like it came from outside the country, it was actually made by his relatives using a VoIP phone.

Liu Zhan answered the phone and just after saying hello, he heard a woman ask in a low voice, "Honey?".

Liu Zhan hummed and asked in a disgruntled whisper, "Why are you calling at this time? Didn't know I had big things to do?!"

The one who called was Liu Zhan's wife.

Liu Zhan is thirty-five years old, married for eleven years, has three children and his parents are still alive.

After all, his parents are old and his wife doesn't have much education, so after he fled the country, his family is almost sitting on the sidelines, and the financial situation is getting worse and worse.

However, after taking over the mission this time, the other party gave his family 10 million yuan, which has already arrived in his account, almost enough for his family to live carefree in a small place for the rest of their lives.(a v r a c i t y. c o m)

On the phone, Liu Zhan's wife said with some excitement, "Hubby! The man who asked us to do something has put another 20 million in my account!"

"What?!" Liu Zhan was shocked and asked, "Really!"

"It's true!" Liu Zhan's wife said excitedly, "They said they're giving the family the 20 million because they want to add one more condition to you, and if you agree, the money will be given to our family.

Liu Zhan was also excited and asked, "What are the conditions?"

Liu Zhan's wife said truthfully: "They said to kill the target's daughter along with you!"

Chapter 2419

Liu Zhan was so excited that he almost laughed out loud at the words.

He subconsciously asked after it, "That's it?!"

The wife on the other end of the phone said with conviction, "Yes, it's that simple!"

"Great!" Liu Zhan said excitedly, "It's just a matter of hooking up!"

After all, he had already seen the photo files of Du Haiqing, Su Zhifei and Su Zhiyu, the three women, Su Zhifei wasn't here, but Du Haiqing and Su Zhiyu, a mother and daughter with an extremely eye-catching face value, he had just confirmed at a glance.

Now, these mother and daughter are among the more than a hundred hostages, as long as he can take them both away as hostages later after he gets a car from the police!

Originally it was 10 million with one, now it's 30 million with two!

Liu Zhan has never made such easy money in his life!

So, he immediately spoke up and said, "I know, just tell them that I'll do it!"

Liu Zhan's wife was equally excited.

It was 30 million after all!

Living in a fifth-tier city in the north, a house is only a few hundred thousand and a villa is only two million!

So, 30 million would almost allow her to live a carefree life with her three children and, locally, a superior life!

She has even started to calculate that after Liu Zhan finishes this matter and leaves the country successfully, she will take 1.5 million to buy a Porsche car that she has liked for many years!

It was a luxury car that she never dared to dream of. She had seen a beautiful woman drive it in a shopping mall, and at the time, that woman drove that Porsche with an air of unexplainable nobility and pride that made her heart envious for a long, long time.

But now, with thirty million dollars in her account, buying that same Porsche would be almost as easy!

So, her voice trembling, she instructed, "O husband! They've given us so much money, you must help them make it happen."

Liu Zhan immediately said, "Don't worry, I will do it well, the parents and children at home are counting on you."

Liu Zhan's wife said excitedly, "Don't worry, husband! I'll take good care of our parents and our mum and our three children!"

"Yes!" Liu Zhan laughed and said, "I'll hang up first, I'll get in touch with you after I leave the country."

"Yes! Take care of yourself, Honey!"

Chapter 2420

He thought, "Today is a very lucky day for me, Liu Zhan! As long as I take these two women with me to a designated place and get rid of them, I'll be able to take a boat out of the country tonight! Life after this is all about the sea and the birds!"

Thinking of this, he quietly took a glance at Du Haiqing and Su Zhiyu and muttered in his heart: "These two women are so beautiful! I've never seen such a beautiful woman in fucking real life! That Du Haiqing, mature and sexy, is no worse than any of the beautiful Hong Kong stars of the 90s! That Su Zhiyu is even younger and more beautiful, the most beautiful of all! It would be a shame to kill it off like that!"

At this moment, the police officer's voice was heard outside speaking over a loudspeaker: "Liu Zhan, listen carefully, you are now surrounded! I urge you to give up resistance and come out and surrender immediately, and you can still get a lenient sentence!"

Liu Zhan sneered, stepped straight to the window, opened a window and cursed in a cold voice, "What's the shouting about! Ask me to surrender? I'm telling you, even if I die, I won't surrender! And I'm not going to die alone! I'll drag over a hundred people here to die with me!"

The constable tensed up and spoke up, "I would advise you not to be impulsive! Don't let yourself fall into the abyss of doom!"

Liu Zhan snorted, "Cut the crap! Listen up, you guys! Get me a fully fuelled Rolls-Royce immediately! As long as you get the car ready for me, I will naturally leave Jinling and won't hurt anyone in it! If you don't do it, I'll have these people buried with me!"

Liu Zhan looked at the time and added, "I'm a man of limited patience, you only have 20 minutes to prepare, if it's longer than that, you'll have to wait to clear the rubble and corpses."

Liu Zhan was a smart man.

He named a Rolls-Royce because Rolls-Royces were rare, and the police could never have such a luxury car as a Rolls-Royce themselves, so they had to go and find one for themselves on a temporary basis.

Finding a Rolls-Royce on a whim is already difficult, so it was rare enough for the police to find a car in a hurry, so naturally they couldn't have time to do anything more with the vehicle.

So it would have been safer for him.

Moreover, a Rolls-Royce is a car with high performance and stability, so it is not easy to break down on the road when fleeing in such a luxury car, and it is impossible for an ordinary police car to catch up with it once it is up to speed.

As soon as the police officers heard this, they began to discuss it urgently.

One of them whispered: "Now that Liu Zhan has a gun in his hand and a weapon of mass destruction on his body, it is definitely impossible for us to attack by force.

"Right!" Another person also whispered, "We can't attack by force and there's no good offices strategy, in my opinion, why don't we just do as he says, prepare a car for him, let him leave first, and then look for opportunities to make arrests along the way!"

Even if he is allowed to leave first, he must not be tracked and arrested immediately. Even if he detonates a weapon of mass destruction in his car, as long as it is in the downtown area, the killing and destructive power is immeasurable.

"Right! Let's get the car ready for him and get him out of the centre of town where there's so much traffic! We don't want to catch this plague god now, but as long as we can send him away safely and prevent him from causing more serious consequences in Jinling, we've done a good thing for the people of Jinling."

The person in charge nodded and spoke up, "The priority now is to get him out of the Treasure Pavilion, otherwise it's really too dangerous for the hundred or so hostages inside."

As soon as he said that, he immediately gave the order: "Coordinate and prepare the vehicles! Get it to the Treasure Gallery as soon as possible!"

A police officer said awkwardly, "Captain Wang, where are we going to get a Rolls Royce? There are not many of these cars in the city and not one in the police system."

The person in charge, known as Captain Wang, thought about it and said, "I have a good relationship with Richard Chen, CEO Chen, so why don't I borrow one from him? In any case, meet Liu Zhan's needs first so that he doesn't cause further damage!"
