

Ye Chen 2451

Chapter 2451

At this moment, Su Zhiyu did not know whether she was in reality, or in a dream, or whether she was already out of her soul and on the verge of death.

However, the face of Ye Chen in front of her, she could see it truly.

"This is the benefactor who once saved herself and her brother from a group of Japanese ninjas, like a divine soldier descending from heaven!"

"This is the same benefactor who once scolded me on the streets of Tokyo for being shallow and calling me a leaf!"

Thinking of this, Su Zhiyu did not care whether everything in front of her was a dream or real, and subconsciously raised her hand.

When Su Zhiyu's somewhat cold fingertips touched Ye Chen's side face, she couldn't help but exclaim, "So So real."

Ye Chen was about to put her on Du Haiqing's side when he didn't expect Su Zhiyu to wake up, which caught him a little off guard.

At this time, Su Zhiyu shouted excitedly, "Eunuch, it's really you!?!!"

Ye Chen frowned slightly: "False! You're dreaming! Go on and sleep!"

After saying that, he reached out and gently nodded on her forehead.

A little spiritual energy seeped into Su Zhiyu's brain, causing her to fall asleep instantly.

Ye Chen looked at the sleeping Su Zhiyu at this moment and couldn't help but smack his lips, "Why is this woman waking up so quickly."

To avoid unnecessary trouble, he gave Du Haiqing's forehead another light nod to ensure that she would not wake up even in a short time.

Ye Chen had just finished doing this when a loud noise came from the other end of the tunnel.

Chen Zekai hurriedly said, "Young master, the tunnel entrance side should have already started clearing operations, let's hurry and retreat."

Ye Chen nodded, not bothering to put Su Zhiyu down first, he carried her on his left shoulder with one hand, and picked up the unconscious Du Haiqing on his right shoulder with the other, then said to Chen Zekai, "Go!"

At this moment, at the other end of the tunnel, a helicopter had already carried four of Su Chengfeng's men to Hong Wu's dog farm, and two other helicopters remained at the scene, one parked on the highway and the other hovering in mid-air on guard.

Ye Chen hurriedly put the mother and daughter inside the helicopter, and then jumped in with Chen Zekai.

Chen Zekai sat directly into the cockpit's co-pilot seat and said to the pilot, "Go! Back to the hotel!"

The pilot immediately pulled the aircraft up in place and flew at top speed towards downtown Jinling.

During the flight, Chen Zekai had already called the hotel staff to inform them that originally, Su Ruoli and a few crew members who had betrayed the Su family were staying on the isolated executive floor, and there were still quite a few rooms available on this floor, so Chen Zekai had someone immediately prepare the largest executive suite for Du Haiqing and Su Zhiyu's mother and daughter.

Twenty minutes later, the helicopter landed at the helipad on the top floor of Richard Chen Hotel.

The entire top floor had been completely cleared by now, from the top floor to the closed and isolated executive floor, there was not even a single attendant except for Richard Chen's most trusted men.

Ye Chen carried the mother and daughter on his shoulders and took them directly to the room Chen Zekai had already arranged.

After settling the mother and daughter down, Ye Chen looked at the time and said to Richard Chen, "I reckon that the two of them won't wake up before eight o'clock at night, so you should arrange for a few trusted female staff to keep a good eye on them."

Chen Zekai immediately nodded and said, "Yes, Young Master, don't worry, I'll make the arrangements."

At that moment, Ye Chen's mobile phone suddenly received a push message with a few lines of big letters on it: "Major car accident in Forbidden Mountain Tunnel! The scene is horrific! Class A wanted criminal Liu Zhan was killed! Two hostages are nowhere to be found!"

Chapter 2452

He hurriedly opened this tweet and found that it turned out to be a first-hand account of the scene released by the local media in Jinling.

Over at the tunnel, the clearance work had opened up one of the lanes and the police immediately entered the scene and found the crash site of the Rolls Royce.

Immediately afterwards, they also found Liu Zhan, who had been shot through the back of the head.

This sent their scalps into a tizzy!

They had thought that Liu Zhan had only been involved in a car accident, but they had never thought that Liu Zhan would be killed by someone with a gun!

This instantly made things even more complicated.

Why had Liu Zhan been shot? Who could the person who shot him be?

What was even more incomprehensible to them was that the two hostages had disappeared out of thin air!

The disappearance of the hostages was also reported in detail. According to the report, the police found the blood and hair of the two hostages in the back seat of the deformed Rolls Royce, and even one of Su Zhiyu's shoes was left inside the car. From the vehicle, valid evidence that the hostages were in the car at the time of the collision was also found.

This proves that the two hostages were in the Rolls Royce at the time of the crash, as was Liu Zhan.

However, the two hostages had disappeared into thin air!

Judging from the force of the impact of the vehicle, even if they were not dead, they must have been seriously injured, so how could they have disappeared into thin air?

Originally, the news of Liu Zhan appearing in Jinling and escaping with explosives to take the hostages had already sparked huge attention in the country.

So, when this news was sent out locally in Jinling, it immediately spread throughout the country!

The local news, which had just been sent out, was quickly reprinted and published by all the major news media in the country, the number of comments quickly surged, and the Weibo hot search quickly shot to number one!

All of a sudden, the whole country started to pay close attention to where the two hostages had gone.

Seeing that this matter had sparked so much attention across the country, Ye Chen immediately said to Chen Zekai, "Old Chen, you should first find a water army and spread the true identities of Du Haiqing and Su Zhiyu all over the net, and make sure to let the nation's netizens know that the ones who were kidnapped were the Su family's daughter-in-law and eldest granddaughter!"

Chen Zekai asked, "Young master, should we also release the video you shot? That would be the end of the Su family!"

Ye Chen waved his hand, "Don't release it yet, the video I'm holding is a real killer, it's a bit too early to use it now!"

After saying that, Ye Chen sneered and continued, "I want to let the influence of this matter ferment to the extreme, so that the disappearance of Du Haiqing and Su Zhiyu will become a suspenseful event that attracts the attention of the whole country, triggering wild speculation and discussion among netizens, making everyone extremely eager for the mystery to be revealed, then I will release the video and directly put the Su family into the grave! "

After that, Ye Chen immediately instructed, "Old Chen, you find me another group of brainy water forces, go and bring me crazy rhythms!"

"Let them speculate wildly about Du Haiqing and Su Zhiyu's whereabouts, as well as the conspiracy behind the whole thing!"

"Some could say that this matter must have been manipulated by the Su family's rivals!"

"Others could venture a guess that this mother and daughter were saved by a worldly superior!"

"Some could even predict that the mother and daughter must have died and it wouldn't take long for the bodies to be discovered!"

"And then, to mix the truth in with all this speculation! Let some of them speculate that these two mother-daughter duo were, in fact, killed by the Su family!"

"Once this matter becomes a mystery that haunts everyone, then once I make the mystery public, the Su family won't be able to turn around this time!"

Chapter 2453

Meanwhile, the Su family in Yanjing.

Holding his mobile phone, Master Su resisted the urge to drop it and read through the news content, then cursed angrily, "Damn it! This damned Ma Chongxin, how the hell did he do it! Why is Zhiyu in the car too? Where the hell are Du Haiqing and Zhiyu now? Where did Ma Chongxin and the others go?"

Su Shoude was already scared out of his wits, but he said, "Dad, Ma Chongxin can't be contacted at all, and his sister-in-law and Zhiyu are still alive, so do you think someone might be working against the Su family?"

Master Su only wanted Du Haiqing's life, it was Su Shoude who had someone find Liu Zhan's family and add 20 million dollars to get Liu Zhan to get Su Zhiyu killed along with him in order to put an end to future problems.

Now that the incident has come to light, Su Zhiyu's whereabouts are still unknown, and if word of this really gets out, then he will be finished.

So he could only deliberately change the subject to draw the attention of Elder Su to the opposite side of the entire Su family.

Elder Su said with a dark old face at this time, "I can't say anything about this issue, now that people are missing, there are no valuable clues at all!"

"I don't know what's going on, this whole thing is fucking bizarre everywhere! It's weird as hell! I, Su Chengfeng, have been around the world for dozens of years, but I've never encountered anything so bizarre!"

He said in a cold voice, "I have a lot of questions that I can't understand right now."

"For example, why was Zhiyu in the car?"

"That Liu Zhan was buttressed by Ma Chongxin, I gave Ma Chongxin a very clear mission, I told him long ago that as long as Du Haiqing's life, whether it was Zhiyu or Zhifei, if they went to the auction site, don't hurt them!"

"Zhi Fei is fine, he flew back to Yanjing in advance and didn't go to the venue at all, but why was Zhi Yu in the car? This is clearly against my orders!"

Su Shoude hurriedly said, "Dad, could it be that Liu Zhan who went AWOL?"

"Impossible!" Elder Su said firmly, "I know something about this man, his ruthlessness is one thing, so is his clean and unobtrusive actions!"

"And for every case he has done before, he has had excellent pre-planning and has steadfastly followed the plan, never doing anything impromptu!"

"This is also the fundamental reason why he can always be wanted and still remain uncaught, such a person will do things and calculate every single minute, there is no way he would go AWOL and bring Zhiyu on board as well!"

When he said this, Elder Su's expression was astonished and he shouted sternly, "Someone else must have instructed him to do this!"

Su Shoude was so scared that he couldn't help but shudder and said, "Dad, since Liu Zhan has always been contacted by Ma Chongxin, then I guess Ma Chongxin is probably involved in this matter, and now that he has disappeared, I suspect that he is probably paid by our competitors and secret enemies!"

After saying that, Su Shoude immediately observed the change in the expression of Master Su's face during the period.

With this move, he was trying to focus the spearhead on Ma Chongxin's body.

"Anyway, this Ma Chongxin didn't get the job done, he was already doing a bad job himself, plus he disappeared for no reason and his whereabouts are unknown, the old man must be very dissatisfied with him, dumping the pot on him at this time is definitely the best solution!"

"Moreover, who knows if this Ma Chongxin is still alive? If he's dead, it's better to dump all the pots on him, and he won't even have a chance to explain!"

Chapter 2454

At this time, however, Elder Su shook his head gently and said indifferently, "It's true that Ma Chongxin didn't get this done, but I still have little doubt about his loyalty as a person."

Su Shoude hurriedly added fuel to the fire, "Dad! As the saying goes, you don't know who you know! You have always valued Ma Chongxin, but who knows if Ma Chongxin will betray you when tempted by the interests of others?"

Elder Su snorted coldly, "Shou De, can't you even see through such a basic issue? What a disappointment to me!"

"Huh?" Su Shoude didn't know why the old master suddenly said that, and hurriedly said with a nervous face, "Dad, forgive my stupidity, but please clarify."

Master Su questioned in a cold voice, "If someone could really buy Ma Chongxin to deal with the Su family, then why would he let Ma Chongxin deal with Zhiyu? Ma Chongxin is my personal bodyguard, and he is also the captain of the guard team! He could have bought Ma Chongxin to kill me, even if he couldn't kill me, he could at least create a big threat to me, so why bother putting so much effort into Zhiyu, a girl?"

Su Shoude instantly understood, cold sweat immediately soaked his back, his heart secretly thought: "I did not expect the old man to be so difficult to fool It seems that we cannot continue to forcefully dump the pot on Ma Chongxin, otherwise the old man will definitely notice the abnormality!"

The fact that he didn't betray you, and that his whereabouts are unknown now, proves that the person who is secretly running the whole thing is very strong! We must be cautious!"

Elder Su rubbed his temples, "I'm not at the point of considering the mastermind behind this, I still have many other questions I can't figure out, I can't figure out why Liu Zhan was shot and killed? From the pictures at the scene, the car crashed into that damned state, Liu Zhan would definitely die even if he was the king of heaven, so why would someone still give him a shot? Why was it necessary to give him this shot?"

Su Shoude also said with a puzzled look on his face, "That's really true! On the high-definition picture you just asked for, you can clearly see that Liu Zhan's abdomen and lower half of his body have crashed into a puddle of mud, there was no need to give him a shot to the head at all"

Elder Su frowned and muttered, "Let me think about it Since the crash happened as scheduled, it proves that everything was still going according to plan up until the time of the crash, in other words, Ma Chongxin must have been present at the scene when the crash occurred"

Said the old man and a little bit in his mind to review: "Ma Chongxin since he was at the scene, then when he saw Zhiyu also sitting in Liu Zhan's car, what would be his reaction?"

Su Shoude could only follow the words of the old man and said, "If Ma Chongxin did not betray you, then he must have been very shocked to see Zhiyu"

"Right!" Elder Su nodded, "Ma Chongxin must have been shocked, angry and even scared when he found out that Liu Zhan had gotten Zhiyu on board as well"

Speaking of this, Elder Su continued, "In that case, Ma Chongxin and Liu Zhan will definitely clash, and he will definitely question Liu Zhan as to who ordered him to hurt Zhiyu"

When Su Shoude heard this, he was instantly shocked!

"If we go by Master's analysis, then Ma Chongxin has probably already extracted the key information from Liu Zhan's mouth"

"Although I didn't contact Liu Zhan directly, I did have someone contact Liu Zhan's family, then asked him to do that stinky girl Su Zhiyu together under the pretext that the Su family wanted to kill one more person"

"If the old man knows this information, he must know that the person who wants to harm Zhiyu is someone from the Su family"

"When that happens, I will be the biggest suspect"

Thinking of this, Su Shoude hurriedly said, "Dad! I see that now there are already netizens who are starting to suspect that our Su family is behind this, now our top priority is to hurry up and do crisis PR ah!"

Master Su nodded gently and said offhandedly, "Immediately carry out crisis PR, and at the same time, through the media, express strong condemnation of criminals like Liu Zhan, and at the same time, offer a reward of 50 million dollars for valuable clues! Whoever saves them, mother and daughter, I'll reward them with a hundred million!"

Chapter 2455

To a sophisticated old fox like Su Chengfeng, a thief calling out to catch a thief is just a very common trick.

The reason why the condemnation and reward were issued was actually to divert the attention of the public to the greatest extent possible.

In Su Chengfeng's view, most of the people are wallflowers, and they do not have too strong an ability to distinguish right from wrong. They only rely on the amount of information they receive to vaguely judge whether a matter is right or wrong, true or false.

If they have heard too much from the right side, then they will feel that the result is positive.

But if they have heard too much of the opposing side, then they will naturally feel that the opposing side is the right one too.

Now there are so many people speculating on the internet, everyone has a mouth and hands, they can say and speculate whatever they want on the internet.

Even if the Su family is capable, it is impossible to influence everyone.

So what the Su family needs to do now is to do everything they can to post more statements on the internet that are favourable to the Su family.

As long as there are enough statements that are favorable to the Su family, then it will naturally be able to overwhelm those statements and speculations that are unfavorable to the Su family.

This is like yelling at someone on the street. If 10 people yell at you, you can't beat 10 mouths with one mouth.

But if you can get 10,000 people to help you curse, the curses of those 10 people across the street will soon be completely drowned out.

When Su Shoude heard the old man's command, he immediately said without hesitation, "Yes dad! I'll find some more well-connected media reporters, as well as internet vloggers, and ask them to help us voice out as well!"

Elder Su nodded gently.

At this point in time, he couldn't think of any other better way.

Afterwards, he hurriedly said to Su Shoude, "There is another thing I want you to do immediately!"

Su Shoude hurriedly said, "Dad, if you have any orders, just say it!"

Master Su said in a cold voice, "If Zhiyu and Du Haiqing have met with an untimely death, then the person who took them away must not have run far with the bodies, and must have chosen to find a way to dump them in Jinling and the surrounding areas;"

"If Zhiyu and Du Haiqing are still alive, then judging from the photos at the scene, the two mothers must be seriously injured now!"

"Such serious injuries are definitely not something that can be solved by a small clinic or a black hospital, the other party will definitely send them to a regular tertiary hospital, and there is no way they can run far away for treatment when they are seriously injured, so you should send someone to Jinling right now and search for them in Jinling and the surrounding areas, especially the regular hospitals in Jinling, I want to see people alive and dead bodies! See the corpse!"

Su Shoude hurriedly nodded and said, "Then I'll make the arrangements!"

Master Su waved his hand, "You don't just have to make arrangements, you have to go there yourself! If this matter leaks out, it will be a crushing blow to our Su family, so you must not take it lightly!"

Su Shoude nodded, "Then I'll arrange a plane and fly directly to Jinling!"

Just then, outside the door of Elder Su's study, there was a sudden clamour.

Su Zhi Fei shouted eagerly from the doorway, "Don't you stop me, I want to see grandpa!"

The Su family's housekeeper said bitterly, "Young master, the old master is talking to the second master about important matters and has instructed me that no one can go in"

"No!" Su Zhi Fei said in a trembling voice, "My mother and sister are now alive or dead, I want to ask grandpa for clarification!"

Chapter 2456

The steward had to beg, "Young master, please calm down and wait a little, I will go in to inform the master after he has finished his business with the second master!"

Su Zhi Fei shouted, "No! I can't wait any longer! I want to go in now, if you stop me again, then I will not be polite to you!"

The housekeeper was at a loss as to what to do when Master Su said to Su Shoude with a black face, "Shoude, go and bring Zhi Fei in."

"Yes!"

Su Shoude hurriedly turned around and went out of the study and said to the housekeeper, "Master has said to let Zhi Fei in."

Only then did the housekeeper breathe a sigh of relief and hurriedly gave way to the passage.

Su Zhi Fei rushed into the study with a single step, and as soon as he entered, he questioned Su Chengfeng with some fervour, "Grandpa! Where the hell are my mother and my sister?"

Master Su said seriously, "Zhi Fei, I have only just learned of this matter, as for where your mother and your sister are now, and how they are, I know nothing about them."

"Just before you came in, I just told your second uncle to immediately put out a reward to the public, to put out fifty million to collect useful clues, and I will directly give one hundred million to anyone who can save your mother or your sister."

Su Zhi Fei clenched his fist and questioned indignantly, "There are many people on the internet now saying that it was you who tried to kill my mother, is that true?!"

Master Su's face changed dramatically and he said in a stern voice, "Bastard! What are you talking about? I am the head of the Su family, would I do such a disgraceful thing?"

Su Shoude, who was looking at his father's righteous anger and majestic face, was appalled!

"Old master is indeed an old master, to speak with his eyes wide open, how can he speak so righteously! If I didn't know everything, I would have thought it was really impossible for him to do such a thing"

"Ai, it seems that the gap between me and the old man is not just a little bit!"

Su Zhi Fei said aggressively at this point, "If it was before, I definitely wouldn't have believed it! But the betrayal of Su Ruoli just happened some time ago, and although the outside world now thinks that my father did it, I know my father better than that, even if he's bad, he's not so bad that he would plot against his own daughter! So, he is simply taking the blame for you!"

Speaking of this, Su Zhi Fei gritted his teeth and said, "Su Ruoli is your granddaughter, you can[avracity.com] even do it, let alone my mother!"

When Elder Su heard these words, his entire expression instantly became furious!

He angrily grabbed a piece of embossed dragon inkstone worth over ten million dollars on his desk and slammed it onto the ground, smashing it to pieces with a loud snap.

At the same time, he pointed at Su Zhi Fei and roared in anger, "How dare you! How outrageous! Do you still have me as a grandfather in your eyes? In your eyes, do you still have me as the head of the family?"

Su Zhi Fei did not back down and angrily rebuked, "If my mother and sister were really killed by you, not only will I disown you as a grandfather, I will also fight you to the death!"

Master Su was furious and pointed at Su Shoude, shouting, "Shoude! Give me a slap! Slap your mouth a hundred times!"

Su Shoude immediately stepped forward and grabbed Su Zhi Fei's collar, cursing through clenched teeth, "You rebellious son who has no respect for his elders! Your father is not here, so I, as an uncle, will teach you a good lesson for him!"

Su Zhi Fei gritted his teeth and pushed Su Shoude away from him, then immediately took a few steps back and retreated to the door of the study, pointing at Master Su and yelling word for word,

"Remember what I said! If you are responsible for my mother and my sister's death, I will have your life!"

After saying that, he immediately turned around and darted away!

Su Chengfeng covered his chest in indignation and tried to speak, but he coughed several times in a row because he couldn't pour out a breath: "Cough cough Ah cough cough The rebellious son You are indeed a rebellious son! The boss's family, all of them are born with fucking rebellious bones!!!"

Then, after another violent and violent cough, he immediately said to Su Shoude, "Go! Go! Quickly bring this bastard back to me!!!"

Chapter 2457

By the time Su Shoude rushed out, Su Zhi Fei had already disappeared.

He chased after him for a couple of hundred metres, but seeing that he had no chance of chasing his nephew back, he could only turn around and walk back.

On the way back to the old man's study, Su Shoude was in a particularly good mood and could not help but think in his heart, "Oh, I am really lucky, I was worried about how to divert the old man's attention, but Su Zhi Fei, this son of a bitch, coincidentally came to touch the old man's bad luck at this time, and made the old man so angry. "

The first time I saw him, he said, "Dad, that kid Zhi Fei is running faster than a dog, I can't even catch up with him."

Master Su chided coldly, "You're also a waste!"

After saying that, he immediately called the housekeeper in and ordered in a stern voice, "Inform all the subordinates, if you see this rebellious son Su Zhi Fei, bring him back immediately to be dealt with by the family law!"

The butler dared not disobey him and immediately bowed and said, "Don't worry, Master, I will convey this to you."

Immediately afterwards, he said to Su Shoude, "Hurry up and prepare for crisis PR as I said, the stronger the better! Also, get to Jinling immediately! I want to see Du Haiqing and Zhiyu alive, and I want to see their bodies dead!"

Su Shoude hurriedly nodded and said, "I know, Dad! You'll see!"

At this moment, Su Zhi Fei had already driven away from the Su family and sped towards the airport.

As he drove, he took out his mobile phone and prepared to call his family's crew chief.

The Su family had several private planes, and Su Shoudao had one of his own, but he was currently in Australia, so the private plane was left in Yanjing.

However, just as he was about to make the call, Su Shoudao's phone suddenly called in.

Su Zhi Fei hurriedly picked up and said in tears as soon as he came up, "Dad! Mum and sister are missing"

Su Shoudao's heavy voice came out of the phone, "Zhi Fei, I already know the situation, where are you now?"

Su Zhi Fei busily said, "I'm on my way to the airport, I plan to go to Jinling now, no matter what I have to find my mum and sister!"

Su Shoudao immediately instructed, "Listen to me, don't go to the airport, I just received news that your grandfather has the entire Su family looking for you and is going to take you back to be dealt with by the family law, what exactly did you do to offend him?"

When Su Zhi Fei heard this, he said indignantly, "I heard that something had happened to my mother and Zhiyu, I always felt that grandpa had something to do with it, so I went to confront her about it, but I didn't expect him to get angry and have second uncle slap me a hundred times on the spot, I didn't pay any attention to him and ran out."

"Confused!" Su Shoudao immediately rebuked and scolded, "You are over 20 years old, have you lived in vain for these 20 years? What kind of character is your grandfather, don't you still have a little bit of it in your heart?"

Su Zhi Fei said angrily, "But"

Su Shoudao immediately interrupted him, "But what? Your grandfather's only real concern in his life was himself, and all he cared about was his absolute power in the Su family!"

"Once anything and anyone affects him and his power in the Su family, he will not hesitate to get rid of the other party, am I not the best example of this?"

"You know that even I am not a match for your grandfather, so why do you still confront him without thinking of yourself? Do you not want to stay in the Su family anymore?"

Su Zhi Fei gritted his teeth and said, "If mum and Zhiyu were really killed by grandpa, not only will I not remain in the Su family, I will even kill him myself to avenge mum and sister!"

"You" Su Shoudao was instantly anxious, but then, he deliberately lowered his voice and warned in a low voice, "Even if you have such thoughts, you must not say it out loud, a real man relies on doing, not on saying!"

Chapter 2458

However, even if we want to fight against him, we have to think long and hard before we act! Otherwise, if you really die before you get there, how can you avenge your mother and your sister?"

Su Zhi Fei was silent for a moment before he said resentfully, "Dad, I know"

After saying that, he couldn't help but choke up and asked in tears, "Dad! When the hell are you coming back?! I'm now I really don't know what to do now"

Su Shoudao sighed and said, "I can't go back now, it will take me more than ten hours to fly back to Yanjing from here, but as soon as I leave here on the first foot, your grandfather will immediately receive the news on the second foot, it is likely that as soon as I get off the plane, I will be caught by the Su family and repatriated back to Australia, or directly arrested back to the Su family and put under house arrest

Su Zhi Fei asked, bewildered and helpless, "Dad So what should I do now? I want to go to Jinling to look for Mum and Zhiyu Their current whereabouts are unknown, at least there is a possibility of survival"

Su Shoudao thought about it and spoke, "This way, don't go to the airport, drive straight to the highway and drive all the way to Jinling."

He said, Su Shoudao took another calculation and said, "From Yanjing to Jinling, if you take the highway, it's about 1000 kilometres, you can drive faster, you might be able to get there in 10 hours."

Su Zhi Fei immediately said, "Okay Dad! I'll drive straight to Jinling!"

Su Shoudao hurriedly instructed again, "When you go to Jinling, you must keep a low profile and keep a low profile again, don't try to call on any Su family forces, because once they know you are in Jinling, they will definitely take you back."

Su Zhi Fei was dumbfounded for a moment, "Dad, if I don't call on the power of the Su family, how can I find Mom and Zhi Yu ah"

Su Shoudao said helplessly, "Zhi Fei, the only person you can trust now is yourself, no one else is reliable."

Saying that, he added: "By the way, I heard that grandpa has sent your second uncle to Jinling, he will definitely go by plane and will arrive in Jinling in two or three hours, you must be careful when you arrive in Jinling!"

Su Zhi Fei felt very helpless all of a sudden, he choked up and asked, "Dad Do you think Mum and Zhiyu are still alive"

Su Shoudao was silent on the other end of the phone for about ten seconds, then, he spoke, "Zhi Fei, as long as things are not yet finalized, you must hold on to hope."

He added, "But remember, you must be prepared for the worst possible outcome!"

Su Zhi Fei said solemnly and unmistakably, "Dad, I know!"

Just as Su Zhi Fei was driving his car fast towards Jinling, the Su family's crisis PR had already started to kick in.

An overwhelming army of water soldiers brought up the tempo on the internet, and although each of them said something different, the core view they wanted to express was that the Su family was the victim, and that the person who kidnapped Du Haiqing and Su Zhiyue's mother and daughter must be someone else.

More than two hours later, the private plane Su Shoude was on landed on the first runway of Jinling International Airport.

Coincidentally, at the same time, another private jet landed on the second runway of the Jinling International Airport at almost the same time.

This private jet had flown all the way from New York, USA, for more than ten hours to get here.

After landing, the plane was directed by the tower to stop at the apron reserved for private jets.

Interestingly, this plane, and the private plane Su Shoude was on, were parked next to each other in two adjacent spaces.

The American plane was the first to open its doors and a Jewish man in his fifties stepped out of the cabin.

He stood on the spiral staircase for a moment, looked around and whispered, "Walter, my son, Daddy will find you and bring you home!"

Chapter 2459

The Jewish man who spoke was Walter Hogwarts' father, Steve Hogwarts.

Since Walter and his men had all disappeared, the entire Hogwarts family had been trying to find out everything they could about them and their whereabouts.

But no matter how much they inquired, the feedback came back with the same result.

No one had seen Walter and his men, and no one had seen how they had evaporated, and even the Skynet surveillance cameras in every corner of the city had no images of Walter.

This immediately made the Hogwarts family realise that it was highly likely that Walter had attracted someone very powerful to the Golden Mile.

Therefore, Walter's father Steve personally rushed to Jinling to do everything he could to find Walter and bring him back to the United States.

At this moment, the plane next to him also opened its rotating ladder.

Su Shoude stepped out of the hatch and walked straight down.

At this moment, a welcoming convoy of six bulletproof Cadillac Presidential One vehicles had already driven up to Su Shoudao's plane, and nearly twenty black-clad men of similar height and build came out of the vehicles at once, each standing straight beside the convoy.

These were the security team Su Shoudao's men had temporarily prepared for him, and during the time Su Shoudao was in Jinling, these men were responsible for the explicit security work.

However, these were only superficial security forces, mostly window dressing. The Su family had sent twenty of their top experts to Jinling twenty minutes earlier, and these men would be protecting Su Shoude in secret and following Su Shoude's instructions and dispatches to find Du Haiqing and Su Zhiyu in Jinling.

Walter's father, Steve, noticed Su Shoude and he did[avracity.com] not expect that the unassuming Chinese man would have such a big presence.

So, he hurriedly stopped and spoke to the assistant behind him, "Check the registration number of that plane next to you, and be quick!"

Every aircraft, whether it was a civilian airliner or a private jet, had to have a registration number.

Moreover, the registration number is usually painted on the fuselage of the aircraft.

Generally speaking, the registration number takes the combination of one letter, plus four numbers.

For example, the combination B-2233.

The letter B stands for the country.

No matter where you are in the world, if you see an aircraft with a registration number that starts with B, you can safely and boldly confirm that it is an aircraft registered in China.

So, Steve Hogwitz wanted to conclude which company the aircraft actually belonged to by looking up the registration number, and subsequently presumably deduce the identity of Su Shoude.

Luckily, this kind of query was not too difficult, and just as Su Shoudao was walking down the spiral staircase, Steve's assistant finally found out the result and immediately reported, "Boss, this plane is registered under the name of the Su family's business in Yanjing!"

"The Su family!?" Steve was instantly shocked, and immediately spoke, "No wonder it has such a big show!"

After saying that, he immediately quickened his pace and ran down the spiral staircase in three or two steps, heading straight for Su Shoude.

Before he could get close to Su Shoude, several men in black immediately rushed forward and surrounded him, scolding him in a stern voice, "Who are you? Please step back immediately, or else don't blame us for treating you badly!"

Steve hurriedly explained loudly in Chinese, "Don't misunderstand, I don't mean any harm, I just want to say hello to Mr. Su!"

Su Shoude was about to step into the car when he heard Steve's words, looked at him curiously and asked, "Do you know me?"

Chapter 2460

Steve hurriedly said, "Mr. Su, I am the head of the American Hogwarts family, I don't know if you have heard of our family."

Su Shoude could not help but frown.

"The Hogwarts family in America? I don't seem to have heard of such a number one family Is it very powerful?"

As he was wondering, Steve hurriedly added, "My mother, is from the Rothschild family!"

In the whole world, the Rothschild family's popularity can be said to be unknown to everyone.

As expected, once Su Shoude heard this, the American introduced himself as being related to the Rothschild family by blood, he immediately took it seriously.

Then, Su Shoude quickly walked up to Steve, took the initiative to extend his hand and introduced himself, "Hello, I am Su Shoude."

Steve hurriedly shook Su Shoude's hand in a flattered manner and at the same time said, "Hello Mr. Su, my name is Steve Hogewitz! It's a great honour to meet you!"

Su Shoude nodded and asked curiously, "Where did you come from, Mr. Steve?"

Steve hurriedly responded, "I flew all the way from New York and just landed at Jinling Airport."

"Yes." Su Shoude smiled faintly, "The two of us are back and forth."

Saying that, he asked, "Does Mr. Steve have any family business in Jinling?"

"No." Steve explained, "My eldest son had been expanding the family business in Jinling some time ago, but he suddenly disappeared a few days ago, and I came to Jinling this time to find out his whereabouts."

"Oh?" Su Shoude became curious all of a sudden and thought to himself, "What a coincidence! This Steve actually came to Jinling to look for someone too? A person with blood ties to the Rothschild family would go missing in Jinling?"

"But when you think about it, this hellhole of Jinling is indeed a bit weird, not only is someone with blood ties to the Rothschild family missing here, even the daughter-in-law of the titular Su family, the eldest granddaughter of the Su family, has also disappeared in this place, it seems that this small place is really hiding a dragon and a tiger!"

Thinking of this, Su Shoude suddenly had a flash of light: "Could there be any connection between this Steve's son's disappearance, and the disappearance of Du Haiqing and Su Zhiyu?!"

At this thought, Su Shoude immediately felt that the two incidents might be related in some way!

So, he immediately said to Steve, "To be honest, I am also here to find someone in Jinling this time, it seems that we both have the same purpose, maybe there is some kind of connection between the people we are looking for!"

"Is that so?!" Steve exclaimed, "Mr. Su, this matter even bothered you to come in person, could it be that Could it be that someone from the Su family also disappeared in Jinling?!"

Su Shoude nodded, "Indeed!"

After saying that, Su Shoude immediately said, "Steve, I think we can exchange information with each other on the matter of finding someone, and perhaps we can find any valuable clues!"

"Right!" Steve said without hesitation, "If I can investigate this matter with Mr. Su, then my heart will be much more secure!"

Su Shoude asked him, "Which hotel did you stay in when you came to Jinling this time?"

Steve blurted out, "I stayed at the Jinling International Hotel, where my son was staying before he disappeared!"

Su Shoude nodded, "Coincidentally, I've also booked the Jinling International Hotel, in that case, why don't we go together! On the way we can just as well have a good chat!"
