

Ye Chen 2501

Chapter 2501

Early morning.

Jinling City Village.

Ye Changmin, who had lost at least a dozen pounds, walked out of the darkness of the alleyway empty-handed.

Five minutes earlier, Hong Wu's men had opened the door to her room and told her she could leave.

At that moment, Ye Changmin cried out in pain.

She had long since had enough of this cold, shabby, dark and damp city village in Jinling.

She had spent so many days in this rundown place, and her body reeked of cheap mould, a smell that made her feel sick and sick to her stomach all the time.

Originally, she could have left a long time ago, but Ye Chen had delayed her for several days for no reason, and then added an extra seven days to the original deadline.

In fact, if you did the math, it was now past midnight, which was the same as going over time again.

However, this time Ye Changmin had learnt her lesson and did not dare to shout a word to Ye Chen or even to those subordinates who were guarding her.

So, the moment she got permission, she almost didn't even think about it, she just grabbed the door and ran out.

Only after running out did she realise that she had no idea where she should go at such a late hour.

She wanted to return to Yanjing immediately, but there could not be a flight at this time of night, and her family's private plane would take at least two to three hours to transfer from Yanjing, so where would she go for the remaining two to three hours?

Thinking of this, she immediately gave Richard Chen a call.

She thought that Chen Zekai had a private jet in Jinling, so she could ask him to send a plane to take her back.

However, what she did not expect was that Richard Chen's mobile phone was switched off.

Chen Zekai knew that Hong Wu was going to release Ye Changmin tonight, so he had already set his phone to Do Not Disturb mode.

Under this Do Not Disturb mode, only Ye Chen could get through to him, any other number calling his phone would prompt the user to turn off his phone.

When Ye Changmin saw that the call was not working, he cursed under his breath, "This damned Chen Zekai, how can his phone still be switched off? Is he deliberately avoiding me? What an asshole!"

She was angry, but Ye Changmin didn't have time to argue with Chen Zekai right now, the most important thing was to return to Yanjing.

So, she sent a video call to the old man, Ye Zhongquan.

At that moment, the old man had already fallen asleep and when he received the video, he asked sleepily, "Changmin, what's the matter at this late hour?"

Ye Changmin cried, "Dad! Ye Chen, that little bastard, finally let me out, but I can't go back to Yanjing now, ah, that bastard Chen Zekai's phone is also turned off, see if you can arrange a plane for me to come and pick me up"

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market. Then how about this, you take a taxi to the airport first, I will arrange a plane to pick you up."

Ye Changmin choked out, "Dad! I've never been in a taxi before, it's already broken, and it's not worth as much as the four tyres on my car.

Ye Zhongquan said helplessly, "Changmin! You're in a special period, you've lived in a dirty and messy urban village for so many days, are you still afraid to take a taxi?"

Ye Changmin let out a cry, "Dad! This time I came to Jinling as you requested, I really ate all the hardships I have never suffered in my life"

Ye Zhongquan also had a headache and said, "Okay, okay, say what you have to say, you're so old, don't cry at every turn, crying won't solve anything."

After saying that, he yawned and said somewhat feebly, "Hey, I'm too sleepy, people, when they get older, if they don't sleep well, it will affect their health too much, so I won't talk to you anymore, you take a taxi to the airport, I'll sleep first."

Chapter 2502

Although Ye Changmin is very aggrieved in his heart, but seeing that his father has said so it is not good to continue to force anything, can only aggravate the bar and say, "Then Dad you must not forget to order the plane before sleeping ah"

The first thing you need to do is to call Tang Sihai and let him make the arrangements."

When Ye Changmin heard this, his heart became even more aggrieved.

"Of course I know that, just go directly to Tang Sihai for such matters."

"But isn't the reason why I went directly to the old master, is it because I want to play the poor man in front of the old master?"

"This will also make the old master's impression of Ye Chen, a little worse."

"Moreover, when the old master knew that I had suffered so much in Jinling, he would definitely give me some compensation."

"But I never thought that the old master would pay so little attention to me"

Although Ye Changmin's heart was full of dissatisfaction, he didn't dare to continue messing around with the old master at this time.

He was about to say good night to the old man and hurry up to end the video, but he didn't expect that at this time, the landline at the old man's bedside suddenly rang.

The landline at his bedside was an emergency communication line for him.

Only when there was a major incident and Master was already resting, the subordinates who reported the matter would look for Master through this special line.

At this time, Ye Zhongquan also realised that something important might have happened, so without thinking, he hung up the video and picked up the landline directly, asking, "What happened?"

On the phone, Tang Sihai said out of the blue, "Master! I just received news that Su Shoude, the second son of the Su family, has disappeared in Jinling after going there tonight!"

"What?!" The second before, Ye Zhongquan, who was still tired, sat up straight away and asked in excitement, "Su Shoude disappeared in Jinling? Is that true?"

Tang Sihai said, "It's absolutely true! The Su family has sent many people to Jinling overnight, just to search for Su Shoude's whereabouts in a carpet search!"

Ye Zhongquan instantly became incredibly excited and laughed, "That's great! That's wonderful! Su Shoudao has taken the blame and gone to Australia, and Su Shoude has disappeared in Jinling, the Su family has lost two people in a row this time, so that's half of that old fox Su Chengfeng's hand!"

After saying that, he couldn't help but sigh, "This matter of Su Shoude must have been done by Chen'er! In the whole of Jinling, he's the only one with this kind of strength and courage!"

Tang Sihai said, "Master, there is no clear evidence yet that young master Chen must have done it."

Ye Zhongquan laughed with unmistakable certainty, "It must be him! It must be him! Apart from him, there won't be another person!"

After saying that, Ye Zhongquan added, "Chen's son even dared to touch the second son of the Su family! He's really a newborn calf that's not afraid of a tiger!"

Over the phone, Tang Sihai said solemnly, "Master, Young Master Chen is the Second Prince's son! It has long been said that the Second Prince is the life of a true dragon, Young Master Chen is the son of the Second Prince, so he's not some newborn calf, he's He's a dragon!"

Ye Zhongquan laughed loudly, "Yes, yes! Sure enough, he is the son of Chang Ying! Just as brave as his father!"

Speaking of this, Ye Zhongquan said excitedly, "With Chen's son, the Ye family will be able to take off in no time! It's just around the corner!"

Hearing this, Ye Changmin's entire body was stunned and blinded.

She no longer had the energy to feel sad and upset about her father's current excitement.

Her entire being was now completely shocked by what Ye Chen had done.

Her heart was appalled beyond measure, and she was also scared beyond measure: "This guy Ye Chen Has this guy gone insane! Even Su Shoude dared to move? That is the second son of the Su family! This guy doesn't even care about Su Shoude, and he's tying up just like that, what am I going to do to make him pay for the humiliation he's done to me?"

Chapter 2503

At this moment, Ye Zhongquan did not have any extra energy to take care of Ye Changmin.

He was so excited that he had only one thought in his mind: "The Su family has been hit hard one after another, and the opportunity for the Ye family to surpass the Su family is close at hand!"

With this in mind, he immediately said to Tang Sihai, "Sihai, we must closely follow the movements of the entire Su family, and quietly send more people to Jinling just in case, if they find Chen's head, we must not stand idly by!"

Tang Sihai immediately said, "Yes, Master, I'll make the arrangements!"

After saying that, Tang Sihai added, "Master, why don't I go there myself?"

Ye Zhongquan said, "You should not go, your identity is rather sensitive, if you go to Jinling at this time, the Su family will definitely think that this matter is related to us, so you should stay put in Yanjing, join me and wait and see what happens. "

"Good!" Tang Sihai hastily agreed and spoke, "Master, do you have any other orders?"

Ye Zhongquan instructed, "You should now inform the others to come to my meeting here in twenty minutes, in addition, if there is any movement over in Jinling, you must report to me in time!"

"Yes, Master!"

Ye Zhongquan hung up the phone, before Ye Changmin on this side said in a resigned voice, "Dad What am I going to do?"

Only then did Ye Zhongquan realize that the video call with Ye Changmin had not yet hung up, so he spoke, "Isn't that a good thing for you to do? Call Sihai directly and ask him to arrange a plane to pick you up."

After saying that, Ye Zhongquan remembered something and blurted out, "By the way, Chen'er asked his men to let you go, right? Then you didn't see him in person?"

"No" Ye Changmin said in a jarred voice.

Ye Zhongquan hummed and instructed, "This way, call Chen'er and tell him that you are leaving, call him to apologize for the previous offense, and don't forget to say again that being in Jinling for so many days has caused him trouble as well."

Ye Changmin was dumbfounded and said, "What?! Dad! He has screwed me up so badly and you want me to apologise to him?"

"And! He has held me in Jinling for so many miserable days, how come I've caused him trouble?"

Ye Zhongquan said in a cold voice, "You really need to change your character. I will not forgive you either!"

Ye Changmin's whole body almost collapsed.

However, as soon as she thought of Ye Zhongquan's tone just now, she knew that if she did not do as she was told, the old man would definitely not forgive her.

So, she could only say resentfully, "Okay I'll call him right now"

"Well, that's more or less the same." Ye Zhongquan nodded in satisfaction and said, "Alright, that's it, I'll prepare to get ready for the meeting."

After saying that, the old man hung up the video.

While drying his tears, Ye Changmin reluctantly found Ye Chen's mobile phone number and called him.

At this moment, Ye Chen was editing the video when Ye Changmin's phone suddenly called, he couldn't help but frown, hesitated for a moment and still picked up the phone.

"Hello."

When Ye Changmin heard Ye Chen's cold voice, he was even more annoyed in his heart, but his mouth did not dare to be slack, he could only say with a smile, "Chen'er, this is your aunt"

Ye Chen coldly asked, "What's the matter?"

Ye Changmin busily said, "Auntie is calling to apologize to you This time when I came to Jinling, it was aunt who didn't grasp the right degree and caused you a lot of trouble and didn't make you angry, I still hope you can forgive aunt this time."

Saying that, he also instructed, "And that is, aunt is going back to Yanjing tonight, this period of time really caused you trouble."

Ye Chen did not expect that this aunt would call to soften up with herself.

Moreover, it was after she had already regained her freedom.

According to reason, it was unlikely that this aunt would really know her mistake and repent.

Chapter 2504

If she had made the call before she regained her freedom, it was probably to get herself to let her off the hook.

However, it was a bit unbelievable for her to call herself after she had regained her freedom.

It was possible that she had been forced by the old man to apologise.

However, Ye Chen was too lazy to argue too much with her, after all, he still had an explosive video to release, so he said indifferently, "I hope you can keep a low profile in the future, don't be so arrogant and domineering, be good to yourself."

After saying that, he simply hung up the phone.

On the other end of the phone, Ye Changmin was gnashing his teeth in anger, stomping his foot while secretly thinking, "Good boy, wait for me, I'll get this out sooner or later!"

.....

Ye Chen hung up Ye Changmin's phone and continued to start editing the video.

Just at that moment, he received a news push.

Upon reading the headline, he immediately couldn't help but laugh out loud.

The headline read: "Su Group suffers back-to-back assassinations, following the disappearance of Du Haiqing and Su Zhiyu, Su Shoude, Vice President of Su Group, was also kidnapped in Jinling!"

Ye Chen curiously clicked on this headline and found this news article, which wrote about Su Shoude being kidnapped and disappeared in Jinling.

In addition to that, the news writer speculated that there must be an extremely powerful corporation, family or organisation that was deliberately launching an attack against the Su family at the moment.

First Du Haiqing and Su Zhiyu were kidnapped, and now Su Shoude has evaporated, all this is aimed at the Su family!

He called on the netizens to discern the truth and not to be misled by those who deliberately smear the Su family on the internet, and also said that all conspiracies will be shattered and those behind the scenes will eventually come to the surface and be sanctioned by the law.

Originally, some netizens did not believe that the Su family was really innocent.

However, when they saw the news that Su Shoude had also disappeared in Jinling, they changed their views.

In their opinion, this was definitely someone deliberately screwing the Su family.

The Su family is really miserable, their daughter-in-law, granddaughter and son, have been kidnapped, their lives and deaths are uncertain, and they are also close to being framed and mistaken as the culprits of the murder of their daughter-in-law and granddaughter

Within a short time, the comment section was full of sympathy and support for the Su family.

When Ye Chen saw this, a smirk could not help but appear on his face.

In his opinion, the more the Su family desperately seized every opportunity to whitewash itself, the more miserable it naturally fell in the end.

But this old dog, Su Chengfeng, was really a contemporary lord.

Su Ruoli, his granddaughter, could be sold when he said so.

Du Haiqing, his daughter-in-law, could be killed at his whim.

Now that his own son has disappeared, he does not forget to take this opportunity to cleanse the Su family's name.

However, he surely could not have imagined that all these efforts he made would not only not help the Su family to reverse public opinion, but would instead cause the Su family to die an even worse death!

He took ten minutes to edit out the video in its entirety.

During these ten minutes, the Su family had already bought out almost all of the media software to frantically push that press release just now, and the public opinion on the internet was already completely lopsided in favour of the Su family.

At this point, Ye Chen unhurriedly opened the short video platform, and using his vest number, uploaded his edited video.

Chapter 2505

At this moment, the entire internet is sympathetic to the Su family's plight, and at the same time can't wait to find out who is behind the crime as soon as possible, so that the whole case can be brought to light.

However, at the moment, neither the Su family, nor the police, nor the general public can find any real valuable clues.

So as soon as any so-called clues are released on the internet, they will immediately cause countless people to gather around.

After Ye Chen sent out this video, it immediately attracted many users to click on it because of the title mentioning the big reveal.

This look did not matter, the whole video was clearly and visually displayed in front of the audience.

At the beginning, there is the scene of the tragic car accident.

Liu Zhan is dead, Du Haiqing and Su Zhiyu are seriously injured and their lives are uncertain.

Immediately afterwards, Ma Chongxin faced the camera and introduced himself.

He then reveals the shocking secret that shocks everyone!

It turned out that the reason why Du Haiqing and Su Zhiyu were kidnapped by Liu Zhan was not a coincidence at all.

It was all because Su Chengfeng, the old man of the Su family, was behind it!

The reason was that he was very unhappy about Du Haiqing wanting to divorce his son, and was even more annoyed at her for coming to Jinling to attend the auction.

He even wanted to kill his own granddaughter!

Seeing this, all the audience could not help but feel an extremely strong disgust towards Su Chengfeng.

At this point, Ye Chen's questioning, which had changed his voice, appeared in the video.

Ye Chen questioned him about this old dog, Su Chengfeng, and why he had to create such a horrific and horrible incident for the sake of that shit in his own family.

It was only then that everyone remembered that Liu Zhan had strapped on explosives, stormed into the Treasure Pavilion and shot several hostages, all at the behest of Su Chengfeng!

Not only did several innocent hostages die in vain because of Su Chengfeng's conspiracy.

More importantly, the safety of hundreds of people were constantly threatened by Liu Zhan's explosives!

It almost came close to an exceptionally tragic and major incident!

And behind all this, it was all Su Chengfeng's idea!

This old dog is so bad that he's a bad man to the bone!

Immediately afterwards, everyone saw a video of Su Shoude, a wretched Su Shoude, admitting to the camera that Su Chengfeng, that old dog, not only wanted to harm Du Haiqing and Su Zhiyu, but even Su Ruoli before, was also the victim of Su Chengfeng!

What's even more outrageous is that this old dog, Su Chengfeng, not only harmed his own granddaughter, but also pushed Su Shoudao out to take the fall for the gun, which is simply inhumane!

In an instant, all the netizens who saw this video were all enraged by Su Chengfeng's shameless and extremely shameless act.

These netizens instantly turned into part of the fission propaganda, forwarding this explosive video to all their friends and family around them.

In an instant, the video's traffic skyrocketed by hundreds or thousands of times!

In just 10 minutes, the video had been viewed by tens of millions of people.

Public opinion on the internet immediately shifted 360 degrees.

Netizens have been cursing Su Chengfeng, the old dog, online using every vicious word they can think of.

The police were struggling because they could not find any relevant clues, and after suddenly discovering this video, they were greatly annoyed.

Just an hour ago, the public relations director of the Su Group had made a special phone call to urge the police to solve the case as soon as possible and give the Su family an explanation, as well as to rescue the three missing members of the Su family as soon as possible.

The police were also feeling a lot of pressure, because the Su family is after all the most powerful family in the country. As a result, they never expected that three members of the family would go missing in Jinling one after another, which put pressure on the Jinling police comparable to that of the Tokyo Police Department during the Tokyo chaos.

But they never imagined that just when they were trying their best to solve the case, a video like this would suddenly break out!

It turned out that the whole thing was just a case of the So family crying out for a thief!

The Su family kept saying that they wanted the police to solve the case as soon as possible so that they could give them an explanation, but in fact they were behind all this bloodshed!

What's even more unacceptable is that they chose to implicate several innocent hostages in this way, even if their own family members were fighting among themselves!

This is a disregard for the law!

Chapter 2506

The Jinling police immediately reported the situation to higher authorities and asked them to investigate and deal with it severely.

At this moment, the exhausted Su Chengfeng had just fallen asleep.

A sharp knock at the door woke him up from his sleep.

"Master! Master! Something big has happened!"

The one shouting at the door was the Su family's great butler.

Su Chengfeng opened his eyes violently and sat up from the bed in a flash.

At this moment, he was very nervous deep inside, because what had happened today was almost completely out of control for him, so much so that even his own son was unaccounted for, so he was now afraid that there would suddenly be some other bad news.

He hurriedly got up, threw on a robe and stepped to the door to open it.

Outside the door, the housekeeper's face was pale and his face was covered in beads of sweat, and it was clear that he was in a state of high tension and fear.

Su Chengfeng's heart thudded, looking at the stance of the housekeeper, he knew that something very serious must have happened.

So, he hurriedly asked, "What's wrong?"

The big housekeeper said with a tearless voice, "Master Just a few minutes ago, someone suddenly posted a video on top of the short video platform, which was taken of Ma Chongxin and the second son"

"What?!"

Once Su Chengfeng heard that the video was filmed of Ma Chongxin, and his second son Su Shoude, his heart burst into panic!

Both Ma Chongxin and Su Shoude had disappeared, and there were no valuable clues yet.

If a video related to the two of them was exposed on the internet, the matter would definitely not be simple!

So, he hurriedly asked, "What video? Let me see it quickly!"

The big butler shivered and took out his phone, opened the short video platform, and played the video, which was already approaching the 100 million hits mark.

As soon as he saw the crash scene, Su Chengfeng panicked!

The moment Ma Chongxin said in front of the camera that it was Su Chengfeng who wanted to kill Du Haiqing, Su Chengfeng's face was as white as paper!

He had lost control of his emotions and roared in a trembling voice, "This Who the hell filmed this? Who shot this? I I'll kill him! Kill his whole family!"

The butler stammered, "Master, you You can read on"

Su Chengfeng subconsciously swallowed his saliva and continued to look at the back.

At this time, Ma Chongxin was in front of the camera and put the death of Su Zhiyu on Su Chengfeng's head as well.

Su Chengfeng was instantly outraged!

"What is Ma Chongxin babbling about?! When did I try to kill Zhiyu? That son of a bitch! I have raised him for so many years and he betrayed me! I'm going to cut him into pieces!"

"And! The person who took this video must be the one who is working against me behind my back, I will find him and kill him no matter what!"

The first butler spoke up, "Master, the Second Prince is also in the hands of this mysterious person!"

As soon as the words left his mouth, the video also switched to Su Shoude's part.

The Su Shou De in the picture was as miserable as he could be.

He was a fat middle-aged man of fifty, stripped down to a pair of trousers, his body was doused with cold water, and his head was still covered in ice.

His expression, moreover, was full of fear and pleading, where was there any semblance of the aura of the Su family's second son, he was completely a middle-aged iron waste.

Su Chengfeng couldn't help but feel some heartache in his heart.

After all, he was his own son, and after his eldest son had been abandoned by himself, this second son had become the best candidate for the heir in his own mind.

Seeing him being tortured in such a way, Su Chengfeng naturally felt a deep sense of licking his calf.

However, as soon as Su Shoude spoke in the video, the little bit of love Su Chengfeng had for him disappeared without a trace!

A few moments later, he was like an active volcano erupting, roaring in anger, "This beast! How dare you sell your father for glory! I I"

Chapter 2507

Su Chengfeng was so emotional that he couldn't catch his breath, and his body fell straight to one side.

The housekeeper hurriedly stepped forward to hold him up and said, "How are you, Master? Are you all right?"

Su Chengfeng was so angry that he could not even speak, and his chest was heaving rapidly. When the housekeeper saw his state, he hurriedly took out the intercom and shouted, "Where is the doctor?"

Su Chengfeng said with difficulty while breathing heavily, "Quickly Quickly help me to sit on the sofa"

The butler hurriedly helped him up and carefully helped him to the sofa.

After Su Chengfeng sat down, the housekeeper hurriedly helped him comb his front and back.

At this time the family doctor also rushed over, holding an oxygen bag and quick-acting heart pills.

Together with the housekeeper, Su Chengfeng took the quick-acting heart pills and then administered oxygen to him, which helped him to feel better.

At this moment, Su Chengfeng was full of anger, he clenched his fists and cursed through clenched teeth, "This is someone deliberately trying to screw the Su family to death, deliberately trying to screw me to death!"

The housekeeper said, "Master, you should not worry about this, no matter what, your body is the most important, you must not get angry and break your health"

Su Chengfeng said in agony, "I'm finished, I'm all finished now! This video has not only released what happened to Su Ruoli and Du Haiqing, but also put the black pot of Zhiyu on me, and Liu Zhan strapped an explosive and stormed into the Treasure Pavilion to take hostages. This is to portray me as a public enemy!"

At the thought of this, Su Chengfeng's inner despair was unbearable!

He knew too well the quality and character of the Chinese people who were cynical and vindictive.

He knew all too well the cynical nature of the Chinese people.

So what if you are rich?

In front of the people, the richer you are, the less you can be arrogant and domineering and do whatever you want!

Although the Su family is rich and powerful, they only dare to do many dirty things behind the scenes and never dare to come out in the open.

Sometimes when the public accidentally catches a hint of something, they have to spend a lot of money and energy to do crisis PR.

Just like before when many people on the internet suspected that it was Su Chengfeng who wanted to kill Du Haiqing, Su Chengfeng, for the sake of his own image, poured several hundred million dollars in one day to wash his name all over the internet.

The reason was also because he was afraid of exposing himself and provoking verbal criticism from the whole country.

However, Su Chengfeng could never have dreamed that the situation he originally thought he had under control would completely collapse in an instant!

The impact of this video right now is like a huge tsunami that has come crashing down on us.

In the face of a catastrophe like a tsunami, human beings have no chance of escape at all.

The extreme anger of the public opinion was almost like a withering of the earth, leaving no room for him to turn back.

Su Chengfeng muttered to himself in pain, "All the efforts I made before, all the PR, all of a sudden it's all gone to waste"

At this point, he continued sadly, "Not only has it become a sham, but it has backfired! If I had known this would be the case today, I would not have chosen to go after Du Haiqing in Jinling That was lifting a stone to smash my own feet, I was raising a machete and breaking my own hand"

Chapter 2508

The butler also sighed: "Ai! Master, I also didn't expect that Ma Chongxin personally brought someone to Jinling to do this matter, but it still turned out to be this shit, and the Second Prince, I really can't imagine that someone in the small Jinling would dare to lay hands on the Second Prince, is he tired of living?"

Su Chengfeng roared, "Investigate! You must find out who is fighting against me! I want all websites and apps to take down this video within 10 minutes, and no media will be allowed to publish any opinions or views on this video!"

The butler said with difficulty, "Master The other platforms and APPs are fine, but this short video platform, that is the Ye family's ah"

"What the hell?!" Su Chengfeng's eyes widened and he questioned offhandedly, "This short video platform is owned by the Ye family? Since when did the Ye family enter the internet industry?"

The butler spoke up, "Actually, the Ye Family bought this short video platform several months ago, and it seemed to have cost over eighty billion at the time."

"However, I don't know what exactly the Ye family's purpose is in buying this short video platform."

"Moreover, although this short video platform is very hot, because it is basically free for users, so the profit this is rather single."

"Apart from advertising, it's just to let a bunch of weblebrities go up and have a live broadcast to sell goods, and then the platform takes a cut from it, the profit margin is much lower than the industry we usually engage in."

Su Chengfeng said with a desperate look on his face, "What the hell is wrong with the Ye family, buying something but this kind of online platform? It's really fucking evil!"

The Su family and the Ye family were both top-notch big families with a hundred-year history.

This kind of big family, just like the Rothschild family, generally operated in traditional industries.

For example, the energy industry, the financial industry, the manufacturing industry, the real estate industry and the ocean shipping industry.

But the oldest families, basically, do not touch the Internet industry.

This is not to say that they are not interested in the Internet industry, but because they have been working in the traditional industry for many years and all their strengths, contacts and resources are all focused on the traditional industry.

Moreover, this kind of people's way of thinking is also relatively conservative in comparison, so they generally do not take the initiative to go into the Internet.

This is why the bigwigs of the Internet all over the world are basically emerging tycoons, and it is rare to hear of any of the top big families with a hundred-year history that have created any outstanding results in the Internet industry.

The Su family is naturally no different.

Su Chengfeng basically has no contact with the Internet, so the Su family is hardly in the business of the Internet either.

Therefore, he basically had little understanding of short video platforms either, only knowing that they were some of the more popular platforms for young people to spend their leisure time.

In his impression, the Ye family seemed to be no different from the Su family.

But he really did not know that the Ye family had actually bought the short video platform.

If this short video platform was owned by the Ye family, then the possibility of trying to get the Ye family to get rid of this video in public relations would be almost nil.

But Su Chengfeng was not willing to give up.

He knew that the most important thing he could do now was to hurry up and delete this video so that no one else could watch it anymore and completely interrupt its spread.

So to achieve this, he could only seek help from the Ye family.

So he covered his chest and spoke with difficulty, "Go and bring my mobile phone over, I want to call Ye Zhongquan!"

After hearing the news of Su Shoude's disappearance, Ye Zhongquan immediately summoned his sons and Tang Sihai to a meeting overnight.

In this meeting, Ye Zhongquan as well as several sons were overflowing with excitement.

The Su family's losses this time were indeed heavy.

The last round sacrificed the eldest son and preserved Master Su's reputation, but in the blink of an eye, the second son was also folded in, which will definitely make the whole Su family's military heart in turmoil.

And the shortage of manpower is the next most serious problem for the Su family.

But at this time, Tang Sihai suddenly received a message, look down at the phone, suddenly excited to say: "Master, it seems that someone in the short video platform exposure Su family! Now the netizens are discussing very fiercely!"

"Oh?!" Ye Zhongquan hurriedly asked, "What is the content of the exposure? Quickly let me take a look!"

Tang Sihai immediately opened the short video platform, ranked in the 1st place of the algorithm recommendation, is the video that Ye Chen uploaded.

The crowd hurriedly gathered around, and just after watching a few dozen seconds, all of them were excited beyond attachment.

After watching the video, Ye Zhongquan was so excited that his speech trembled a little: "This This This is really God's help to me! God help me! Su Chengfeng, that old man, this time will not be fiercely pressed to the ground hammering? The Su family is finished this time! Hahahaha!"

Ye Chen's eldest uncle Ye Changkong also could not help but feel: "Once this video is released, the Su family will basically have no room to turn back, not only will the people of the country crush them, the police will also crush them, and the Du family will not let them go!"

"Yes!" Ye Changyun said with a smile, "As I see it, it won't take long for the Su family's strength to be weakened one after another from multiple aspects, and maybe we won't have to do anything and become the number one family in the country again in a few days!"

Ye Zhongquan nodded and said, "This time is not ordinary, this old thing Su Chengfeng dare to joke with the life and safety of hundreds of people this time, the people at the top can not easily forgive him! This time he is really in trouble with the fire!"

The eldest, Ye Changkong, couldn't help but ask, "Dad, how do you think the top will punish the Su family?"

Ye Zhongquan said seriously, "Such a major matter, and it has caused such great public anger, someone from the Su family may have to take criminal responsibility, otherwise it is not good to give an explanation to the general public."

Ye Changkong exclaimed, "Criminal liability? Could it be that Su Chengfeng that old thing to go to jail?"

Ye Zhongquan shook his head and said, "Su Chengfeng is more than seventy and almost eighty years old, basically unlikely to go to jail, even if sentenced, it should also be executed outside of prison."

Ye Changkong asked again, "Dad, then you think, Su Chengfeng will be arrested and sentenced this time?"

Ye Zhongquan smiled: "It depends on whether Su Chengfeng can still find a scapegoat this time."

Here, he said with a sneer: "But I think, this time, if Su Chengfeng still want to find someone to take the blame, the entire nation is unlikely to agree, after all, he has already had a precedent of dumping the pot to Su Shoudao, in this case, even if he pushed another son out to take the blame, the public will not buy."

Ye Changkong smiled and said, "If you say so, then he, Su Chengfeng, will not be able to escape this time."

Ye Zhongquan nodded and said, "This time he wants to dump me is certainly impossible, but this kind of thing you also know, people are not his kill, and that Liu Zhan has also died, this kind of thing now dead, if Su Chengfeng then sophistry, bite the bullet and say they just want Liu Zhan to help teach Du Haiqing, and did not instruct Liu Zhan to kill, then it is not It is possible to directly set him a crime of intentional homicide."

Said, Ye Zhongquan added: "Su family, after all, still has a very strong strength, Su Chengfeng must have a way to help themselves as much as possible to reduce the strength of punishment, plus he is really old, this kind of person court is not really sentenced him a felony, so I estimate that he is likely to fall a not light or heavy crime, and then sentenced to a few years in prison, the age is really very old The court will then apply for an extra-penitentiary sentence, basically even if you get over it."

Ye Changkong could not help but feel: "Hey! If only that Liu Zhan had not died, if he had been captured alive, then let him tell the truth in court, that Su Chengfeng death can not escape."

Ye Zhongquan smiled faintly: "Changkong, you, in front of Su Chengfeng, or too naive."

Ye Changkong asked in confusion, "Dad, what do you mean by that?"

Ye Zhongquan lightly said, "If Liu Zhan really didn't die, Su Chengfeng would have fled the country overnight by now!"

Chapter 2510

"How can a man like him let himself stay in the country and become a prisoner?"

"You have to know that he doesn't have more than ten years to live, in case he is sentenced to another 10 years or more in prison, then he can only end up in prison for the rest of his life!"

"If that's the case, why not just escape?"

"As long as he escapes, with his level of assets, he can live extremely prosperous in any place in the world!"

"The big deal is to give up the Su family's headship, then retire early himself and enjoy a decade or so of his later life."

"When he dies, then let his family transport his remains back to China and bury them in the Su family's ancestral tomb, which is also considered returning to his roots, in this way, he doesn't have to sit in jail for a day."

Only when Ye Changkong heard this did it dawn on him.

So, he said with some embarrassment, "Dad, still you think more comprehensively"

Ye Zhongquan sighed softly and thought in his heart, "I have to say, these few sons of mine, only Chang Ying is really the one with great wisdom, the remaining three, are really lacking in goodness."

While he was sighing inwardly, his cell phone suddenly rang.

With Ye Zhongquan's identity, those who know his cell phone number and can call him directly, except for his own family, may not be more than 10 people.

So the moment the phone rang, he was more or less surprised.

When he looked down, Ye Zhongquan burst out laughing.

"Haha! Surprisingly, it's Su Chengfeng calling, this old thing, calling me at this late hour, I don't know what kind of idea he's playing!"

Several other people were also immediately curious.

You should know that the Su family and the Ye family, usually have almost no contact, especially the two family heads, each seeing the other as a thorn in each other's side.

Previously, some negotiations on the division of territory were not negotiated by the two personally, but each handed over to their own next generation.

Now, Su Chengfeng suddenly called Ye Zhongquan, everyone was curious about what Su Chengfeng wanted to do.

Ye Zhongquan picked up the phone and turned on the speaker by hand, and Su Chengfeng's voice immediately came from the other end of the phone: "Aiya, Brother Ye! I haven't seen you for many days, I wonder what Brother Ye has been up to lately?"

Ye Zhongquan grunted and laughed, "Aiya Su Chengfeng, at this time, do not engage in polite pleasantries, what is the matter you say."

Su Chengfeng hesitated for a moment, then said, "Okay! Since Brother Ye is so quick, I won't bother with you, I'm calling here because I hope Brother Ye can help me with a favor!"

Ye Zhongquan laughed: "Looking for my help? What kind of help?"

Su Chengfeng sighed and said seriously: "Brother Ye, I know that in the past, I did have a lot of offenses, but this time I really encountered a little trouble, so I hope that you can forget about the past, help me to delete the video about our Su family on your short video platform."

Ye Zhongquan pretended to be surprised and said, "Aiya, you want me to delete that video, huh?"

"Right!" Su Chengfeng was busy saying, "I wonder if Brother Ye can help? If it is possible, Brother Ye just name a price!"

Ye Zhongquan laughed and said exaggeratedly, "Aiya, Su Chengfeng, I'll say it from the bottom of my heart, you're thinking of fart eating!"
