

Ye Chen 2511

Chapter 2511

Ye Zhongquan's mockery made Su Chengfeng furious at once!

He really did not expect that he put himself down to beg Ye Zhongquan, Ye Zhongquan more or less must have a superficial courtesy, right?

As a result, this old son of a bitch said he was thinking of eating farts as soon as he opened his mouth!

What an outrage!

But he still gritted his teeth and said: "Brother Ye! If you want to completely turn your back on me today, then when I, Su Chengfeng, get over my strength in the future, you can't blame me for being merciless!"

Ye Zhongquan sneered: "Su Chengfeng ah, if I say that you are a thief fucking meaningless, really have the ability to think of your own moves, running to play tough with me what is the point?"

After saying that, he continued to sneer: "At this time you came to me to delete the video, think with your toes, I can not agree to you ah!"

Su Chengfeng suffered a huge humiliation and said through clenched teeth, "Good! Ye Zhongquan, you do not want to delete the video, then I do not force, since there is no front, then we will talk business directly, I heard that your short video platform was bought for more than 80 billion, how about this, I directly give you 120 billion, you sell it to me, the net profit of more than 30 billion, how about it?"

"Not for sale!" Ye Zhongquan refused without hesitation, "You don't know how bullish I am on the short video industry. The reason why I bought this platform in the first place is to make the short video industry bigger and stronger. How is it possible to make a move so early?"

Su Chengfeng said in a cold voice: "After all, isn't it because the money is too small? I'll tell you what, I'm not going to rub it in with you, 150 billion! As long as you say the word, I will arrange for the finance to make the payment now!"

"Impossible." Ye Zhongquan smiled faintly: "I never have a problem with money in principle, but this matter today is never a problem that can be solved by money, I advise you to die."

After saying that, he did not wait for Su Chengfeng response, directly and simply hung up the phone.

Su Chengfeng on the other end of the phone was so angry that his chest rose and fell violently.

His butler hurriedly asked after him, "Master! This Ye Zhongquan clearly wants to see us laugh, do you think that he is the one who is secretly directing the matter in Jinling? Maybe, the Second Prince is in his hands now."

Su Chengfeng waved his hand with a black face and said in a cold voice: "Impossible, even if Jinling is the Ye family's territory, the Ye family can't be behind all this."

Saying that, Su Chengfeng added: "Don't you forget, Liu Zhan has never been to Jinling before, he exposed himself in Jinling when he just arrived."

"Think about it, he had just arrived in Jinling, and immediately had the sense to be discovered by the police, then he rushed into the Treasure Pavilion, kidnapped Du Haiqing and Zhiyu."

"Immediately after that, he drove carrying Du Haiqing and Zhiyu to rendezvous with Ma Chongxin, then suddenly something happened, which left the Ye family less than an hour to prepare."

"In this less than an hour window of time, they not only have to accurately track down Liu Zhan, but also have the ability to directly take down Ma Chongxin and the four of them, Ma Chongxin's strength is very strong, as far as I know, no one in the Ye family should be able to surpass him."

Speaking of which, Su Chengfeng continued his analysis: "And Shoude's disappearance! Shou De in the hotel, there are more than twenty experts of our Su family protection, but the other party can be in the more than twenty experts unaware of the situation, easily take him away, which proves that the other party's strength, far above our more than twenty experts, the Ye family which has such a powerful person?"

Chapter 2512

"To put it in a bad way, if the Ye family really had this ability, then they could have easily kidnapped me as well, or just assassinated me at home, and how would they have been pressed headlong by our Su family?"

"That's true" The butler hesitated for a moment, then opened his mouth and asked, "Master, then do you think it could be that the Ye family has suddenly befriended some hidden expert?"

"It's also unlikely" Su Chengfeng shook his head and spoke, "The Ye family has never paid as much attention to martial arts masters as we do, old thing Ye Zhongquan only has eyes for making money and will spend a lot of money to raise a large number of martial arts masters, this kind of thing is not interested at all. So how is it possible that such a person can't find a real expert to help?"

Said, Su Chengfeng face grim analysis: "I can now think of the possibility, there are three."

The butler hurriedly asked, "Master, which three?"

Su Chengfeng opened his mouth and said, "The first possibility is that the He family is working against me behind my back!"

"The He family?!" The housekeeper hurriedly asked, "Are you talking about Ruo Li's mother's family?"

"That's right!" Su Chengfeng gritted his teeth and said, "Since Su Ruoli's accident, the He family withdrew all the experts in our Su family, but never asked me for a statement, the reason why they didn't ask me for a statement is probably because they plan to secretly seek revenge on me."

"Moreover, the He family is a martial arts family, the family is full of experts, so maybe they are behind this."

The butler asked again, "Master, what about the other two possibilities?"

Su Chengfeng looked very serious and said, "Su Ruoli's life and death are still uncertain, if this girl died, that's all, but if she really escaped back, then with her character, the probability is that she will seek revenge on me!"

The housekeeper said, "Master, since Su Ruoli's whereabouts are unknown, I have been following your instructions to keep an eye on the customs entry situation across the country, but there has been no clue about Su Ruoli."

"That can't be taken lightly!" Su Chengfeng sighed, "Although Su Ruoli is very young, but her strength is really very good. If she is really still alive, it must be a time bomb."

After saying that, Su Chengfeng smacked his lips again and continued, "However, whether it's the whole He family, or counting Su Ruoli, even though their strength is very strong, but really not so strong that they can make our two dozen top experts unaware, so this is also something I have never figured out"

The housekeeper nodded and said seriously, "When the He family did not turn against us before, the situation within the family is almost all very clear to us, the strongest of their generation of young people is Su Ruoli, but she really does not seem to be strong to this extent either"

Su Chengfeng sighed and said, "There is another possibility."

The butler hurriedly asked, "Master, what is the possibility?"

Su Chengfeng spoke, "Do you remember that Zhi Fei and Zhi Yu had an accident in Japan and were saved by a mysterious Chinese man?"

"I remember." The housekeeper said, "Miss Zhiyu has been trying to find the whereabouts of that mysterious person."

Su Chengfeng said, "That man is extremely strong! One person was able to kill many top Japanese ninjas unharmed, which is almost the same as one person being able to kill many Chinese martial arts masters in a row! Absolutely the top of the top! If this person's strength is really that strong, then he quietly kidnapped Shou De under the noses of more than 20 experts of the Su family, there is still a great possibility!"

Chapter 2513

Right now, Su Chengfeng was in complete disarray.

It was precisely because of this that his thinking had begun to diverge, and even jumped around a little.

In the dark, he felt that the mastermind behind this matter was most likely the super expert who had saved Su Zhi Fei as well as Su Zhi Yu in Japan.

The butler, however, felt a little whimsical.

He said politely, "Master, the master that Miss met in Japan at the beginning has not been identified even now, and we don't even know whether he is a Chinese or a Chinese expatriate living in Japan."

"Moreover, Kyoto and Jinling are thousands of kilometres apart, in a vast sea of people, how could these two people overlap so coincidentally, this possibility is there but the odds are just a little too low"

Su Chengfeng shook his head and said seriously, "The basis of my judgment is not chance, it's feeling!"

After saying that, Su Chengfeng analyzed, "This mysterious person in Jinling gave me a feeling of being powerful as hell, a feeling that I had only experienced once before."

"And the last time I had this feeling was after hearing about that super expert in Japan!"

"That guy, just by himself, was able to easily kill a number of top Japanese ninjas in close physical combat, and was himself unharmed... this kind of expert is something I have never heard of in all these years!"

"Although I have heard of many duels between Chinese and Japanese masters, and most of these were won by Chinese masters, but to be honest, I have never heard of a single duel between Chinese and Japanese masters where the Chinese masters were able to win unharmed."

"Even if Bruce Lee were to face off against a Western master, it would be impossible to guarantee that he would win unscathed."

"Once the opponent can manage to emerge unscathed, it proves that he is geometrically times ahead of his opponent in terms of strength!"

"In other words, if this mysterious man is able to fight one against seven unharmed, then it is not a problem at all to fight one against ten, even if the number of opponents doubles, perhaps he can still win at a certain cost!"

"One man killing fourteen top ninjas, how many such people do you think there can be in the world?!"

The butler was in deep thought for a moment.

Only after a long time did he nod seriously and said, "Master, you are right He could take out seven Japanese ninjas unharmed, so his ceiling is far from seven, if you count it that way, this man's strength is simply unheard of"

Su Chengfeng continued, "And this time, the mastermind behind Jinling was not only able to easily capture the four Ma Chongxin, but he was also able to quietly take away Su Shoude under the noses of more than 20 experts from the Su family, this strength is also unheard of to me."

"So, this mastermind behind Jinling gives me the same feeling as that mysterious Japanese expert."

"Two mysterious people whose identities are completely unknown, yet they are able to give me the same feeling, which compels me to connect the two together!"

Speaking of this, Su Chengfeng said in a firm tone, "And! The connection between these two mysterious people is not just that they feel the same, what's important is that there is a completely overlapping clue!"

The butler hurriedly asked, "Master, what is the clue?"

Chapter 2514

The butler looked horrified and blurted out, "You mean that last time in Japan, that mysterious expert saved Missy, and this time in Jinling, he still saved Missy?!"

"That's right!" Su Chengfeng nodded and said offhandedly, "I just have this feeling right now! I always feel that Zhiyu is not dead! If she's really still alive, then the person who saved her must be the mysterious person who already saved her once in Japan!"

The housekeeper asked, "Master, if the person behind this incident in Jinling is really the mysterious man in Japan, then I can understand him saving Miss, but what is his intention in kidnapping the Second Prince?"

Su Chengfeng said, "If he kidnapped Shoude, the odds are that he wanted to avenge Zhiyu and her mother's death, right? After all, Shou De is the one who represented the Su family to deal with this matter in Jinling, so it would be the easiest thing to take advantage of him."

The housekeeper hesitantly said, "That mysterious man, why is he so kind to Eldest Miss? Not only did he save her twice, but he also helped her out?"

Su Chengfeng said somewhat despondently, "This, I can't say, if my speculation is true, then I really made a bad move this time"

Saying that, Su Chengfeng sighed and muttered to himself, "If I had known that this mysterious expert had love and righteousness for Zhiyu, killing me, I wouldn't have done it to Du Haiqing, she is after all Zhiyu's own mother, if I kill her, Zhiyu, if she lives, will never forgive me in her life"

In an instant, Su Chengfeng's expression became chagrined beyond belief and said in agony, "If my speculation is correct, then this mystery man, originally had a chance to be available for my Su family! And how could it have developed to this point today!"

The butler hurriedly pursued, "Master, if that's the case, then is there still room for redemption?"

"Redeem?" Su Chengfeng's face was wrinkled in annoyance as he said, "How can I undo it now? I expelled her father and killed her mother, and what's more, Shoude and that damned Ma Chongxin have put the blame on me, how can Zhiyu forgive me? I'll be lucky if she doesn't want me dead"

The butler thought for a moment and hurriedly said, "Master, I do have an idea, I don't know if it's feasible"

Su Chengfeng was busy saying, "Speak quickly!"

The butler whispered, "In my opinion, why don't we hurry up and get the Grand Duke back now! On the one hand, you should apologize to him and explain that you laid your hands on Du Haiqing also to safeguard the family's reputation, and as for the grand miss, this is simply someone trying to plant evidence to frame you! On the other hand, by letting him come back and continue to sit in his previous position, it is tantamount to you taking a step back and showing him a good time."

Su Chengfeng's expression immediately became very odd.

The butler continued, "Master, if you are right, if Missy is still alive, then her mother must also be alive, you expelled the Grand Duke to Australia before, and today you expelled the Young Master from the house, this is almost the same as offending all four members of the Grand Duke's family"

The first thing you need to do is to get rid of the problem. Ruo Li's whereabouts are unknown until now, if this mysterious person is really in Jin Ling, then I reckon Ruo Li might be alive too, and might even be beside him"

"So it seems that it is the five members of their family that you have offended, Master"

"Therefore, the most important thing for you now is to hurry up and break them one by one, try your best to salvage them, as long as there is someone in their family of four who speaks for you, you will have a chance to break the game, instead of being a plate of dead flags ah!"

Su Chengfeng was silent for a long time.

He understood what the steward meant.

He knew that he had indeed offended his eldest son, Su Shoudao's family, too severely.

If Su Shoudao was recalled to Yanjing, confessed his mistakes and showed him goodwill, and then restored to his position as heir, then there would be a possibility of reversing the matter.

Chapter 2515

At this moment, Su Shoudao is on the phone with his son, Su Zhifei.

Su Zhi Fei had driven from Yanjing to Jinling late at night, but once he arrived, he was immediately at a loss as to what to do.

He had come to Jinling to find out the whereabouts of his mother and sister, but the Jinling police had sent thousands of people all over the city to search for them for a whole day, but to no avail, and Su Zhi Fei did not know where to start on his own.

He originally planned to go back to the Du family's old residence in Jinling and ask the old housekeeper for help, so that he would at least have a place to stay.

However, when he thought that he had just offended his grandfather and that he had asked people to look for him everywhere, he was a bit worried again.

So he called Su Shoudao, who was far away in Australia, for help and said to him, "Dad, grandpa knows that grandpa has an old mansion in Jinling, so he might have sent people over there right now to wait for me to go there, and if I go to the old housekeeper for help, I might be caught by the Su family before I even enter the door"

Su Shoudao said in a gruff tone, "There is indeed that risk! I think you should be more cautious and not contact the old housekeeper for now."

Su Zhi Fei hurriedly asked, "Dad, then what should I do now?"

Saying that, he couldn't help but get a little emotional and choked up, "Dad I don't know what to do now Mum and Zhiyu are missing, I want to find them, but I simply don't have the ability to do so, and I don't even have a helper around I I I feel like a complete and utter loser"

Su Shoudao sighed and said with relief, "Zhi Fei, don't blame yourself too much, this kind of thing is far beyond your control, I'll put it bluntly, even your grandfather can't even grasp the whole thing anymore, let alone you."

Su Zhi Fei cried, "I don't want to care about his business! I just want to find Mum and Zhiyu as soon as possible, and they have to be safe and sound, otherwise I will never forgive that old thing in my life!"

Saying that, Su Zhi Fei hurriedly said, "Dad! Please come back and help me, Dad! Without you, my ability is too limited on my own"

Su Shoudao hesitated for a moment and spoke, "Zhi Fei, find a place to settle in Jinling first, but don't reveal your whereabouts to the public, I'll wait for your grandfather's movement and see which flag he is going to take next"

In fact, for Su Shoudao, although he had already seen the news reports, seen the video uploaded by Ye Chen, and also hated Su Chengfeng to the bone, he still did not dare to flip out with Su Chengfeng directly.

The reason for not daring to turn the other cheek was also very simple: he was completely incapable of doing so.

This is just like when Emperor Guangxu faced Empress Dowager Cixi, the entire rivalry, military and political power was in the hands of Empress Dowager Cixi, and although Emperor Guangxu was the emperor, he was no match for her.

What's more, Su Shoudao was not even the head of the Su family now, Su Chengfeng was the real decision-maker of the Su family.

Moreover, modern society is very different from feudal society.

The entire Su Group's assets are almost entirely under the old man's name, and even if the other shareholders hold shares in the Su Group, the voting rights corresponding to the shares are completely given to the old man.

Even if the old man is killed, the shares in the old man's name are all in major trusts, and the rest of the Su family can only take some money from the trusts on a regular basis, but not the control of the Su family.

So even if Su Shoudao knew that the old man was going to kill his wife and incidentally his other daughter, he would not have had the guts to go back to the old man and fight for his life.

Because as long as he dared to leave Australia without the old man's permission, he would probably be put under house arrest straight away.

Because of this, although he was very worried about Su Zhiyu's well-being, he still did not dare to leave Australia half a step until the old master gave the word.

He didn't even dare to call to question the old man, because once he angered him, his fate would only become worse on top of his current one.

Su Zhi Fei was not very old and had never really experienced anything. The biggest and most serious thing he had experienced in his life was when he was kidnapped in Japan.

In fact, when he was kidnapped that time, he had already panicked.

The whole time he was like a quail half scared to death, far less calm than his sister Su Zhiyu, so now all the pressure was on his own shoulders and he couldn't breathe at all.

He was desperate for his father to come back and be his backbone, but unfortunately, he dared to disobey the old man, but his father did not dare.

When he heard his father say that he had to wait, Su Zhi Fei could not control his emotions and shouted, "You want to wait a little longer? What the hell are you waiting for? Are you going to wait until the news of Mum and Zhiyu's death and then come back to mourn?"

At this moment, Su Shoudao felt that every word his son said was like a loud slap on his cheek, making his heart feel like it was dripping blood.

However, there was nothing he could do at this time.

He had experienced far more than Su Zhi Fei.

He knew what it meant to "not try to be brave", and he knew what it meant to "plan before you act".

He felt that those who knew that their opponent had a gun and still charged forward with their bare hands were all brave but not resourceful.

Most of these people would become cannon fodder for others, so how could they have a chance to become famous generals who would stand on their swords and fight on the battlefield?

If he disobeyed the old man's wishes again and ran back to his country at this sensitive time, he would definitely touch the old man's scales, and once the old man thought that he had a rebellious bone in his head, he would never have a chance to rise again in his life.

Therefore, he could only explain patiently, "Zhi Fei, you asked me to go back and help you, but do you know that with your grandfather's character, if I go back now, I will already lose my freedom before you even see my face? It's even possible that you'll never have the chance to see me again in your life."

Saying that, he hesitated for a few seconds and said seriously, "Zhi Fei, listen to dad for once, it's too late today, you should first settle down in Jin Ling, tomorrow, while ensuring your safety, contact your grandfather and ask your grandfather and your uncle to send someone to help you find the whereabouts of your mother and your sister, you give me one day, if your grandfather doesn't contact me during this day, then I will go and beg him. No matter what, I'll get him to grant me permission to return to the country."

In his heart, Su Zhi Fei wanted to curse in anger.

However, after calming down, he also understood that what his dad said was not without reason.

On the contrary, his father had given it a lot of thought, but he himself had been a bit too impulsive.

Thinking of this, he said softly, "Dad, I know You just leave me alone for now, I will call Grandpa in a while, I will communicate with you if there are any changes."

Su Shoudao gave a hint and instructed, "Don't call your grandfather tonight, I guess he should be planning how to find your mother and your sister by now, don't bother him, let's talk tomorrow!"

As he was saying that, his phone suddenly popped up with an alert that another call had come in, and he exclaimed, "Your grandfather called me!"

Chapter 2517

When he received Su Chengfeng's call, Su Shoudao felt that it was both within reason and outside reason.

He hurriedly reassured his son a couple of times before hanging up and turning to Su Chengfeng's call, impatient to find out what Su Chengfeng's intentions were.

As soon as the call came through, Su Shoudao said somewhat nervously, "Dad You Why are you calling me so late?"

Su Chengfeng sighed at the other end of the phone and spoke, "Ai, Shoudao, Dad called here to apologize to you."

With that, he asked, "You must have seen the video circulating on the internet, right?"

Su Shoudao said truthfully, "Yes dad, I have indeed seen it."

As soon as the words left his mouth, Su Shoudao hurriedly added, "Dad, I know that you must have some opinions about Haiqing, but I believe that you will definitely not have any bad intentions towards Zhiyu, Shoude and that Ma Chongxin, they must have been coerced by someone, that's why they are talking nonsense in the video and throwing dirty water on you!"

These words of Su Shoudao instantly moved Su Chengfeng deep inside.

He really did not expect that his eldest son, at such a time, could still be so sensible and objective, and had even revealed the truth of the matter that he wanted to shout out in his heart!

This truth was: "I never wanted to kill my own granddaughter! The only person I wanted to kill was Du Haiqing!"

"But with Ma Chongxin and my own son all identifying me in the video, throwing all the blame and trumped up charges onto me alone, and with over a billion people across the country seeing it, I'm at a f*cking loss to defend myself!"

Human emotions are so subtle.

Even if you have quite a preconception about someone, when you are not understood by anyone but this person, your attitude towards him is bound to change 180 degrees.

Because he is your only confidant.

Su Chengfeng felt this way at this moment!

I didn't expect that the eldest son, who was least likely to understand him, would reveal the truth in one word, which not only touched him, but also surprised him in a few ways.

Su Shoudao's words were actually intentional.

In his heart, he actually hated Su Chengfeng very much because, even if Su Zhiyu really wasn't killed by the old man, Su Ruoli would always have no more room for sophistry, right?

Moreover, Su Shoudao's own being put in a sh*tty position and thrown to Australia was also the work of the old man himself. Under such circumstances, the hatred for him in Su Shoudao's heart would not have diminished in the slightest.

However, he still cleverly hid all his negative emotions and showed complete understanding to the old man right from the start, which instantly won him over deep inside.

The old master sighed and spoke, "Shoudao, it's still you who understands me Zhiyu is my most beloved granddaughter, how could I possibly lay a cruel hand on her? This group of netizens outside are really confused! They just listened to the false accusations of villains!"

He hurriedly added, "Right, Shoudao, now that there are so many major incidents happening in the family, you can't stay in Australia alone and enjoy your happiness, hurry back and help Dad to tide over the difficult times!"

As soon as Su Shoudao heard the old man's words, his expression was worse than eating sh*t.

Chapter 2518

"The old man does have a way of doing things."

"Obviously he sent me to Australia and then disguised me under house arrest, now that he needs my help back, he even said that I am now enjoying my blessings in Australia, what the f*ck am I enjoying in this sh*tty place?"

Although he thought so, Su Shoudao immediately obeyed the old man's words and said, "Dad, I'm really sorry, I've been idle for a while, if you need me to go back to help, then I'm always at your disposal."

Su Shoudao wanted to go back, but he couldn't immediately take a stand and say, "If you need me, then I'll leave right now."

Even if the old man had said the words to this extent, he still had to put the initiative in the old man's hands and say one last time that he was at his disposal at all times.

In this way, on the one hand, he would appear to have absolute respect for the old master, and on the other hand, he would also appear to have a humble stance in front of the old master.

In this way, it would also lower the old master's defensiveness towards himself.

Hearing this, the old master really felt refreshed and said hurriedly, "In this way, I will have the plane prepared over in Australia, so you can hurry back as soon as possible!"

After saying that, he added, "By the way, I plan to leave Yanjing as soon as possible and go to Suhang to hide from the wind, otherwise, before dawn, I am afraid that both the police and the Du family will come to my door, and it will definitely be a big trouble then."

Su Shoudao hurriedly asked, "Dad, where do you plan to go when you leave Yanjing?"

Su Chengfeng said, "I want to go to Suhang, where we have a part of our property and a large estate.

Su Shoudao then asked, "Dad, should I fly to Yanjing or Suhang?"

"Let's fly to Suhang." Su Chengfeng said, "I'll take the helicopter to the airport after I hang up the phone, I can get to Suhang in about three hours, you can fly directly to Suhang later, I'll wait for you in Suhang."

"Good!" Su Shoudao immediately said, "Then I'll get ready right now."

Su Chengfeng spoke, "Shoudao, there are some things that dad has to do, you must not blame dad, especially the matter of Haiqing, dad also had no choice but to consider the reputation of the Su family"

Su Shoudao did not hesitate to say, "Dad, don't worry, I understand you 100% on this point"

The fact is that the woman, Du Haiqing, has not been able to forget about Ye Changye for so many years! She hasn't divorced me yet, and she went to Jinling to buy the mansion where Ye Chang Ying lived, which is a slap in the face of Su Shoudao and the entire Su family. Even if you don't want to solve this trouble, once I go back, I won't let her go!"

After listening to this, Su Chengfeng said with great satisfaction, "Shoudao, I am very pleased that you can have this kind of knowledge, worthy of being the son of the Su family, in front of the big issues of right and wrong, you can see much more clearly than ordinary people!"

Saying this, he continued, "It's getting late, you should hurry up and prepare, we'll talk about the details when you return."

"Good." Su Shoudao said respectfully, "Dad, you've been travelling all night, take care of your health!"

"Okay, I know." Su Chengfeng answered, remembering something, he added, "Right Shoudao, when the video first came out, Zhi Fei came to my place and made a big fuss, then he disappeared, if he contacts you, you remember to apologize to him on my behalf, I, being a grandfather, do have a bit of a hot temper, tell him not to take it personally."

Su Shoudao really didn't expect that the old man would take the initiative to apologise to his son, so he hurriedly said, "Dad, Zhi Fei just called me again, the biggest problem with this child is that he is not mature enough and has not encountered enough things, he is easily confused by the messages from the outside world, so he cannot see the essence of things. I will definitely bring him to you to kowtow in front of you when I return."

Su Chengfeng was very satisfied with Su Shoudao's words and said, "In that case, then I am relieved, you should hurry back, I will wait for you in Suhang!"

Chapter 2519

The one thing that made Elder Su superior to Su Shoudao was that he had constructed a rough framework in his own brain through traces, and at the same time calculated the existence of Ye Chen, a mysterious person, within this framework.

In fact, Su Chengfeng had always been a very shrewd old fox, and many of the things he had planned were almost flawless, except that on several occasions, it was because he could not anticipate the existence of a variable like Ye Chen that he had missed the mark by a hair's breadth.

This time, he surmised that Su Zhiyu was not dead, and that Su Zhiyu must have been saved by someone of high calibre, which is why he decided to try his best to save Su Shoudao's family.

The phone call just now not only pacified Su Shoudao, but also expressed his apology to Su Zhi Fei in front of Su Shoudao.

If this father and son believed what he said, then he had at least salvaged half of this family of four.

Although Su Shoudao could not possibly forgive Su Chengfeng so easily, at this moment, his heart, too, was indeed slightly eased because of Elder Su's active admission of fault just now.

After all, Su Chengfeng had never bowed his head and admitted his mistakes to anyone in his life, and suddenly apologising in person did surprise him.

Moreover, Su Chengfeng could not calculate the existence of Ye Chen, a mysterious factor, so he was not sure of the old man's true motive for yielding.

Coupled with the fact that he himself had been sent to Australia, there was absolutely no need for the old master to bow down to him even if he had done something wrong to him, or even, the old master could have completely put him under house arrest for eternity, which was also the old master's usual style of action.

But instead of choosing this way, he took the initiative to bow his head and admit his mistakes and plead for forgiveness, which made Su Shoudao think that the old man might have really come to his senses and had thoughts of reforming and making amends.

The fact that the old man was willing to make amends and agree to let himself return to China was tantamount to being prepared to restore his status as the heir.

No one would have a problem with the trillion dollar family fortune, so Su Shoudao's heart was not only surprised, but also excited.

However, on the one hand, there was the grief and worry of his own daughter's death, and on the other hand, the excitement and thrill of a salted fish turnaround, and the mix of these different emotions made Su Shoudao feel a little ashamed.

He was also ashamed because, as he found out, he could not stop the excitement he felt deep down in his heart under such circumstances.

This also made him understand one thing completely.

Why was it that in ancient times there was a succession of battles for the throne and great power between flesh and blood of the closest relatives?

Brothers killing brothers, brothers killing brothers, fathers killing sons, sons killing fathers, and so on and so forth are commonplace in history.

The reason for this is that the interests before them were so great that they put blood and kinship behind them.

Not many people in the world would agree to sacrifice their next of kin if they could only get a hundred dollars in return.

But what about sacrificing one's next of kin, if one could get back ten billion, or even a trillion?

I am afraid that many people would be completely overwhelmed by this huge profit.

Su Shoudao is also a mortal, with seven emotions and six desires.

After being sent to Australia, he experienced the feeling of losing all his power, and this sense of loss was etched in his bones.

Now, when he finally saw a chance to turn the tide against him, how could he not be excited?

So he called Su Zhi Fei and briefly explained the situation to him, and then instructed him, "Zhi Fei, I think your grandfather has really realised his mistake this time, so don't resist him too much in your heart, understand?"

Chapter 2520

Su Zhi Fei said angrily, "Dad! Mum and Zhiyu are now in limbo because of him, and you're telling me not to resist him too much? Didn't you see the video circulating on the internet? What happened to Mum and Zhiyu in that car!"

"Stupid!" Su Shoudao shouted angrily, "It's already happened, what can you undo by fighting for your life with your grandfather?"

"Not only will you not be able to undo anything, you yourself will also be doomed!"

"You must know that I am the eldest son of the Su family, you are the eldest son and grandson of the Su family, your grandfather will live at most another ten years or so, and by then, if I fail to be the head of the Su family, I will have to get the hell out far away!"

"If your second uncle, your third uncle or your fourth uncle sits as the head of the family, will they let our family have a good time?!"

"Let me ask you, do you know what happened to each and every one of your grandfather's brothers after your grandfather became the head of the family?"

"Not even one of these uncles and grandfathers of mine could live in the country! The day they failed to seize the throne was the beginning of raising their families to go overseas!"

Speaking of this, Su Shoudao said with some emotion, "Those who failed to take over the throne, leaving China and going overseas, were able to get less than one hundredth of the Ye family's assets, and the unluckiest ones, couldn't even get one ten thousandth! Do you want to wait for ten years to be expelled from China, take back all the positions, all the funds and assets given to you by the family, and go overseas with a few hundred million dollars of assets for the whole family to live on?"

Su Zhi Fei's entire body fell into silence.

As the saying goes, it is easy to go from frugality to luxury, but difficult to go from luxury to frugality.

Now he didn't care about money at all, he had a private jet, he had his own properties all over the world, he could do whatever he wanted, but once he failed to take over the throne and was sent overseas, as his father had said, he would really lose everything in an instant.

A better private jet would cost several hundred million RMB, so if he really deprived his family of all their assets and left them with only a few hundred million, how would he be able to live?

Su Shoudao was also very clear that his words had touched his son's heart, so he wisely chose to stop at the right moment, rather than rushing into it.

The first thing you need to do is to find a place to stay in Jinling tonight and drive to Suhang in the morning, I'll be in Suhang tomorrow afternoon.

Su Zhi Fei was silent for a moment, not showing his rebellion and confrontation, and said in a low voice, "I know dad, send me a weibo message after you take off, I'll calculate the time to pick you up."

"Good, take care of yourself!"

This night, the reality was incredibly calm, while the online world continued to boil.

The bashing and trolling of Su Chengfeng had intensified.

Su Chengfeng's actions even began to be reported by overseas media.

Su Chengfeng himself had quietly gone into hiding in Suhang overnight.

Su Shoudao, on the other hand, boarded the Su family's private jet and flew straight from Australia to Suhang.

As for Su Zhi Fei, for the sake of caution, he did not go to join anyone, nor did he go to a hotel, but lay in his own limousine with the heating on all night.

This night, the three generations of the Su family, the grandchildren, all had a sleepless night.

In stark contrast to them, Du Haiqing and Su Zhiyu, mother and daughter, lay in the hotel's incomparably comfortable bed and slept peacefully all night long.

At eight in the morning, Su Zhiyu was the first to wake up and opened her eyes slightly
