

Ye Chen 2561

Chapter 2561

Su Chengfeng respectfully invited Mai Chengxing to sit down on the sofa, and after sitting down, he let out a long sigh and said painfully: "Hey, Uncle Mai, you must help me this time!"

Mai Chengxing nodded and said seriously: "Since I've come here, I will naturally do my best, so you must tell me everything in its original form."

Su Chengfeng responded and sighed: "In the end, it's all my fault that I'm an old fool and made some not-so-sensible decisions"

The first thing that happened was that the two siblings, Su Zhi Fei and Su Zhi Yu, were kidnapped in Japan, and then Su Ruoli destroyed the entire Matsumoto family, and then he betrayed Su Ruoli and assassinated Du Hai Qing.

After that, he asked with a worried face: "Uncle Mai, do you think I will be retribution"

Mai Chengxing waved his hand and said seriously: Chengfeng, you are my nephew, so I will not come with you to that set of fanciful things, and remember, in this world, whether from the perspective of feng shui, or from the perspective of science, there is no such thing as retribution."

Su Chengfeng asked in surprise: "Why do you believe in these Taoist jurisprudence, what do not say karma reincarnation, retribution?"

Mai Chengxing shook his head and said: "You are talking about the Buddhists, and our Feng Shui metaphysics, is not a lineage of Taoism, we are Yijing Bagua, Qi Men Dun"

Su Chengfeng hurriedly asked: "Then you just said there is no karma, is this true?"

Mai Chengxing laughed: "In my opinion, naturally true, but if you do not believe it does not matter, I will give you a fine comb of our feng shui metaphysics point of view, just as a kind of discussion."

Su Chengfeng said: "You please say."

Mai Chengxing gave a slight beating and said: "Let me ask you, according to the saying of karma, those who do evil must be severely punished, and those who do good will be rewarded, right?"

Su Chengfeng nodded: "According to them, it is indeed so."

Mai Chengxing rhetorically asked: "Then I ask you, some babies are just born and die, he has just started this life, there is no evil, there is no good, why not even a chance to grow up healthy"

Su Chengfeng look embarrassed: "I can not say this"

Mai Chengxing nodded and asked: "Then I ask you again, why do some people do good deeds throughout their lives, but it is ill-fated"

Said, Mai Chengxing some melancholy sigh, Xu Xu said: "I was young, coincided with the Central Plains war, my father to escape the war, so the family moved from the Central Plains to Yanjing."

"At that time, my family lived in Hao'er Hutong, and there was a woman in the neighborhood who ate fasting and chanted Buddha every day, remembering the way of doing good.

"Her husband died early and she worked hard to bring up her three sons and let them start a family, but when she grew old, none of her three sons gave her old age.

"The three daughters-in-law were fighting over the family's assets, taking turns to come to her door and scold her, and every time they came, they would deliberately take away the only rations she had, and even the water tank had to be smashed before they were satisfied, hoping that she would die early so that they could take over the old mansion.

"The three sons did not go so far as to make a move against her, but every time they came over they were sneering and even pointed at her nose when a family next door was having a funeral, scolding her for not being able to behave like the old people in the neighborhood and die soon.

"The old woman not only did not have enough to eat and wear, but also washed her face with tears all day long, although not so much as to cry blind, but her eyesight was deteriorating, plus she could not afford to light the lamp oil, and every time the sun went down, she could not see her fingers.

Chapter 2562

"But she did not expect any of her sons to find a conscience, and eventually froze to death on that extremely cold winter day in Yanjing

"On the day of the funeral, the three sons' cries could be heard across the three alleyways, but everyone could see that it was just a little show for the outsiders to see.

"You say, if there is really karma, this old woman why a lifetime of good deeds and virtue, but also a lifetime of suffering"

Su Chengfeng thought about it and said seriously: "Perhaps it is a debt owed in a previous life, this life to pay the debt

Mai Chengxing snorted, said disdainfully: Only people who can not penetrate the law of events, will use such rhetoric to impose an explanation, if everyone believes in the last life, or the next life, then you might as well lend me all your family's money, I will pay you back in the next life is double, you agree?

"This" Su Chengfeng although he knows that Mc Cheng & It; Xing is just a joke, an example, but he began to agree with Mc Cheng & It; Xing's statement in his heart.

At this time, Mc Cheng Xing continued: "The same reason, some people are full of evil, the result is not only their own good beginning and good end, but also the children and grandchildren; generations can be shady

"Just like the old woman I just said, after her tragic death, her three sons have a rainbow of luck, a business to do a prosperous, a warlord to join the flat, and one went to the South Pacific to fight, the offspring is still a well-known entrepreneurs, good people did not enjoy a day of blessing, the bad guys but the blessing of their own family for generations, you say this karma is not the opposite of the Su Chengfeng was speechless for a while.

Su Shoudao on the side could not help but ask: "Grandpa Mai, if, as you say, karma does not exist, then this family has these two extremes, in the end because of what?"

Mai Chengxing smiled slightly: "Shoudao you are asking to the point, why if you can not see the law, you will only look up and curse a sentence, God is not long-eyed, plus a sentence 'good people do not live long, scourge left a thousand years, but have you thought about it, if there really is karma reincarnation, this sentence simply can not be valid, because karma reincarnation will not let good people do not live long, and will not let This is a contradictory paradox in itself."

The first thing you need to do is to get a good understanding of the laws of karma.

Su Chengfeng said: "Uncle Mai, what is the explanation for the fate?"

Mai Chengxing explained: "Fate, is the fate, is the truth of life, or the law of life."

My father once said that the old woman is the fate of the Heavenly Fate, although she spent her days doing good deeds, but she did more good deeds, but it is difficult to change her fate.

To use the simplest analogy, even if you eat more carrots, you can't become a rabbit, because these are two completely different sets of logic."

You can't presume to think that all rabbits like to eat carrots, and that if you eat more carrots as well, you will rightfully become a rabbit.

Su Chengfeng as well as father and son Su Shoudao nodded thoughtfully.

Mai Chengxing continued: "The Heavenly Fate Lone Star not only grams husband, wife, more grams offspring, and most tragic is that she not only grams others, she herself also can not escape the six relatives have no relationship, the end of the lonely years, that is why she has a lifetime of suffering, a lifetime of endless suffering.

"Although her three sons are all unfilial, but in terms of fate, their own prospects of career, invariably also by the old woman's fate grams."

"It is because the old woman died early, the three of them did not die for this, and this has the opportunity to later fly to the sky."

If all three of them were filial sons and took turns to receive their mothers to do their filial duty, then perhaps all three sons would have died early for various reasons, and perhaps all died in front of the old woman in the end."

"This, although it sounds absurd and unbelievable, but this is the true and real fate

Chapter 2563

Mai Chengxing's words made Su Chengfeng and Su Shoudao, father and son, dumbfounded admiration.

In fact, they originally did not have any faith

Master Su did not believe in God, immortality, nor did he believe in any karma or feng shui secret

Power.

He believes in only one thing, and that is the real

However, recently the Su family frequently encountered various troubles, which made him feel that there is a possibility of retribution.

But listening to the analysis of Mak Chengxing, it seems to have nothing to do with retribution.

So, Su Chengfeng could not help but ask: "Uncle Mai, I would like to ask more specific, our Su family, in the end, because of what, recently encountered a variety of problems

Mai Chengxing did not say anything, but recruited his great-grandson Mike. He beckoned.

Mike immediately walked . Up, handed a compass to the hands of Mai Chengxing, and a few dice made of animal bone joints, as well as a few old and mottled copper coins, and handed to Mai Chengxing.

Mai Chengxing stood up, pacing back and forth in the living room, Su Chengfeng and Su Shoudao hurriedly followed, nervously watching his every move, but did not dare to interrupt.

After searching for a moment, Maichengxing pointed at the antique shelf used to partition the space on one side of the hall and said: "Mike, move this shelf!

Mike immediately came forward, reached out and moved the solid wood antique shelf to the side.

Mai Chengxing placed the compass on the ground at the original location of the rack, and then readjusted the orientation of the compass according to the scale and orientation on the compass.

Afterwards, he spoke: "Chengfeng, tell us your birth date and eight characters

"I". Su Chengfeng said awkwardly: "I don't know ah between

"Then say the year, month, day and approximate time of birth

Su Chengfeng thought back for a moment and reported his birth date to Mai Chengxing.

Mai Chengxing finger calculations for a moment, said lightly: from the birth date alone, your life is generally smooth, but the birth date alone is not detailed enough, after all, there are so many people in the world, there are many people with the same birth date, this can only speculate a general direction.

Su Chengfeng hurriedly asked: "Uncle Mai, then how to be more detailed it

Mai Chengxing said seriously: "I just said, in the eight trigrams of the I Ching, everything in the world follows a set of invisible, untouchable law, affecting this law, there are many factors, the birth date is only one of them, in addition, there is your own bone phase, the feng shui of your Su family Yang House, Yin House, and even your spouse and children's eight characters, are very important. "

Su Chengfeng asked: "I see many feng shui masters is to use the compass to calculate a calculation, to you, why would be so troublesome"

Mai Chengxing is not angry, said lightly: "Most people's fate and destiny, are constantly changing, which is why some people are so miserable to eat in the first half of their lives, the second half of their lives can be flat thunder, steep and rich, this is because his destiny has shifted, it may be that he married a prosperous wife, it may be that he gave birth to a birth date can bring him Great fortune son, these are difficult to predict for the average person."

"This is like real estate, you develop a residential community in a certain area of a city, the building market price is the average price of 50,000 yuan, but if suddenly one day, the subway is open, the price may rise to 60,000; and suddenly one day, a well-known school in the vicinity of the establishment of the campus, the price may rise to 70,000; if you can then welcome other huge good policy, housing prices can even go all the way through 100,000 as well as higher, put on people, the subway may correspond to a good wife, well-known schools may correspond to a good son, which is good for the party.

Su Chengfeng busy asking: "What about the bad direction?"

Mc Chengxing said: "The bad direction, the possibilities are more, the same with real estate, for example, you may also repeat the mistakes of many so-called ghost cities.

Originally, you think the city is very development, desperately built a large number of buildings, but immediately after, it is possible that the local resources began to deplete, the local economy suffered, housing prices fell; may also be the local production of resources affected by the market, prices continue to fall leading to business have gone bankrupt, housing prices fell; may even be because of the emergence of other competitors, resulting in the entire city's industry suffered a crushing blow. "

Said, Mc Chengxing and said: "Detroit story you should have heard, originally the largest car city in the United States, incomparable glory, but finally depressed to a large exodus of population, local property and even shrinkage of more than 90, but who really defeated the city is Japan's Toyota and Honda, is Germany's Mercedes-Benz and BMW, all these are factors that may change the law .

Su Chengfeng suddenly realized, hurriedly asked again: "Uncle Mai, what information do you need, just say, I will be sure to say everything!"

Chapter 2564

Mai Chengxing nodded and said blandly: "I want the birth date of your wife, as well as the birth date of Shoudao.

Su Chengfeng hastily agreed and immediately reported the specific date of birth.

Mai Chengxing listened while calculating, the more he listened, the more he was puzzled

A moment of hesitation, he spoke: "Your wife and Shoudao are both wood life, it can be said that from this point, they are very prosperous you, and is the kind of burning themselves, for you to add wood to the fire of prosperity.

Said, he added: "And your five elements of wealth is very prosperous, the four heavenly stems are in a prosperous phase, combined with your wife and children, from the fate, you are rich in this life, or even rich and noble."

According to reason, your fate, not to mention one in a million, even one in a million, ten million is hard to find, almost impeccable, according to the development of your fate, your life will be smooth and prosperous, the peak, should not have this ordeal

"Is that so" Su Chengfeng asked excitedly: Uncle Mai, so what is going on with me now?"

Mai Chengxing shook his head and said, "Don't be in a hurry.

Said, grabbed a handful of bone dice, casually thrown on the ground, and a few copper coins also thrown down.

Immediately after, he kept observing the bone dice, as well as the position of the copper coins, the direction, the whole mouth chanting, do not know what to say.

Su Chengfeng more and more nervous, staring at Mai Chengxing, eyes do not even dare to blink.

A minute later, Mai Chengxing suddenly grabbed one of the coins on the ground, eyes dead on him, muttered: "No, if this trigram shows, this piece of heavenly family treasure should not be the head of the word facing up. Ah!

Out.

He said, he threw the coin high again

The four or five million dollar coin fell to the ground with a tinkling sound, and then it spun around several times and finally stopped.

However, this time, this piece of Heavenly Scroll Tongbao, still the word head up.

Out.

He was a little nervous and grabbed the coin and threw it again.

But who would have thought that after the coin landed and spun several times and finally stopped, the word was still facing upwards?

Come on.

This time, Mai Chengxing cold sweat has flowed down

The side of the Su Chengfeng see this, the heart is also hanging tightly, can not help but cautiously ask: "wheat this copper coin in the end is what is going on even three times, are the word up, too evil it"

Mai Chengxing's forehead is already full of dense beads of sweat

He stretched out his hand, wiped a handful of cold sweat with the cuff, murmured: "This piece of heavenly scroll pass treasure, in my eight trigrams, represents the dry sky, and the dry is the sky, it should have been the word down, but now I even throw three times, it is the word up, which means that this trigram has the change of heaven

Heavenly change" Su Chengfeng heart thumped, secretly thinking: "Although I do not know exactly what the f*cking meaning of heavenly change, but I can clearly feel, this is definitely not a good f*cking thing!

So he hurriedly opened his mouth and asked: "Mai uncle, the sky change in the end what is the meaning"

Mai Chengxing stared at the ground full of bone dice and copper coins, dumbfounded, said: "From the trigrams, it is a divine dragon descending into the world

Chapter 2565

"Divine Dragon Descending

Su Chengfeng's expression was shocked and at the same time, it was tinged with a bit of doubt.

In his heart, he thought, "What kind of divine dragon descends into the world, this word sounds unreliable!

However, he soon thought that the coin had been thrown several times by Mai Chengxing, and the word ended up facing upwards.

So, he tentatively asked Mai Chengxing: "Uncle Mai, what is the meaning of the divine dragon descending into the world?"

He said in a stammering voice: "If you look at this trigram, a divine dragon descending into the world means that a great person with the destiny of a divine dragon will appear in your destiny.

Su Chengfeng frowned: "Then is this big person an enemy or a friend to me?"

Mai Chengxing said seriously, "At the moment, it seems that the possibility of being an enemy is far greater than that of being a friend

"How is it possible" Su Chengfeng blurted out: "But I haven't provoked any powerful figures recently, so why would such an enemy suddenly appear?"

Mai Chengxing shook his head and said, "I can't tell this, maybe I don't have enough Dao, or maybe my fate is not enough, the rest I can't see through."

He said, "But this trigram is really bad for you, it is likely that all the problems you have encountered recently originated from this"

He pointed to the coin in Mai Chengxing's hand and asked, "Is it true that as long as this coin has its head facing upwards, it means that the so-called divine dragon has descended into the world?"

"Yes.

Su Chengfeng asked again, "Could the trigram be wrong?"

Mak Cheng Hing said seriously, "This is what the trigrams say, they are not wrong.

Su Chengfeng was undeterred and said, "Uncle Mai, can you please throw the coin a few more times, in case the head of the word is facing downwards, does it mean that the trouble is far away or gone?"

Mai Chengxing sighed and said, "I'll throw it a few more times, but the result will be the same.

After saying this, he grabbed the Heavenly Scroll Tongbao and threw it upwards again.

Everyone was staring at the coin, but the coin was still facing upwards. Upwards.

Su Chengfeng gritted his teeth: "Please try again, Uncle Mai

The coin came out.

Mai Chengxing did not say anything, picked up the coin and threw it again.

This time, the result was still from the head up.

The trigrams are a form of manifestation of destiny, it only shows your destiny as it is, if you want to change your destiny, you must solve the problem at the root, it is definitely not something that can be solved by throwing the coins a few more times.

Su Chengfeng was already drenched in cold sweat.

His mouth couldn't help but mutter, "It's really fucking evil This is obviously a 50/50 chance, how can it be five times in a row that all the words are facing upwards"

As he said that, a trace of ruthlessness flashed in his eyes as he rushed over and grabbed the Heavenly Scroll Tongbao, then threw it in front of him.

This time, the coin spun on the ground for a long time, and when it finally stopped, Su Chengfeng said excitedly, "The head of the word is facing down this time!

Mai Chengxing shook his head helplessly and said: "I started the trigram, only my roll counts, it's meaningless for you to roll it.

As he said, he picked up the coin again and threw it out with his hand.

The coin still had the head of the word facing upwards

Su Chengfeng's heart was a little hairy.

Chapter 2566

He looked at Mai Chengxing and asked after him, "Uncle Mai, how much effect will this so-called divine dragon descending have on me"

"This, I can't say." Mai Chengxing said truthfully: "The other party's destiny is too strong, I can't see through it.

Su Chengfeng asked with a bit of defiance, "Could it be that this person's destiny is even stronger than mine"

Mai Chengxing nodded and said solemnly, "This kind of destiny is the strongest, three words to describe it is strong and invincible, there is no way anyone can beat him in destiny."

Su Chengfeng was shocked, but his heart was also filled with mutterings: "I have been suspecting before that Zhiyu and Du Haiqing are probably still alive, and most likely saved by that mysterious person in Japan, and now Master Mai is talking about the divine dragon descending into the world."

Thinking of this, Su Chengfeng's heart was in a panic, if all this was as he had guessed, then this mysterious master would definitely become a great enemy to himself and even the Su family

In his panic, he suddenly remembered Wu Donghai and hurriedly asked his butler Su Anshun, "Where is Wu Donghai?"

Su Anshun hurriedly said, "Master, Wu Donghai has already arrived, I have arranged for him to rest in the parlour and wait for your orders."

Su Chengfeng blurted out, "Get Wu Donghai over here quickly!"

Su Anshun said, "Yes, sir, I'll go now."

After Su Anshun left, Su Chengfeng said to Mai Chengxing, "Uncle Mai, this Wu Donghai is the patriarch of a large local family in Suhang, and a very strange thing happened to their family some time ago."

As he said that, Su Chengfeng explained Wu Qi's glorious deeds to Mai Chengxing.

After listening to it, Mai Chengxing's expression was shocked beyond belief and he asked offhandedly, "Is there really such a thing?"

"The first time I saw the video, I believed it, and it made me sick to my stomach."

Mai Chengxing frowned and analyzed: "According to common sense, even if a person has had some changes and has suffered some psychological damage, his episodes should be random, there can't be such a strict uniform frequency"

"Yes" Su Chengfeng spoke up: "That's why I suspect that someone is probably behind this but that Wu Donghai didn't find out on his own so I want you to take a look at it for him, see if you can find any clues and if these clues can be merged and unified."

Mai Chengxing nodded gently and said, "I'll give it a try"

At this time, Su Anshun walked in with Wu Donghai.

Su Chengfeng immediately greeted Wu Donghai to his side and introduced him, "Mr. Wu, this is the famous Feng Shui master in the United States, Master Mai Tianshui!"

Wu Donghai said respectfully, "Greetings, Master Mak!"

Mr. Wu, has your son's condition improved?"

Wu Donghai shook his head and sighed, "No, there is no improvement, it is still the same as before."

Mai Chengxing said: "In this way, you can bring him here for me to look at.

Wu Donghai was overjoyed and hurriedly said: "Master Mai, wait for a moment, I will inform the people at home and send my son over here.

Su Shoudao, who was at the side, hurriedly pulled him aside and instructed: "Mr. Wu, remember to instruct your family to let your son have a meal before he goes out, and never have a fit in front of Master Mak Wu Donghai said awkwardly, "Yes, Mr. Su, don't worry.

After saying that, he hurriedly walked to the side and took out his mobile phone to call his family's butler.

Ten minutes later, a helicopter slowly landed in the courtyard of the lakeside villa, and Wu Qi, who had just finished refilling his meal, walked down from the helicopter with the help of his brother Wu Xin.

Su Anshun handed Wu Qi a mask and a bottle of chewing gum and instructed: "Chew this bottle of xylitol, don't leave any of it behind, then put on the mask before you go in!

Wu Qi knew that the other party disliked him, and while he was depressed, he did not dare to delay, so he hurriedly opened the bottle and poured the whole bottle into his mouth.

After chewing for half a day, until his cheeks hurt, Su Anshun greeted him, "Put on the mask and come in with me!

Wu Qi could only obediently put on the mask and, together with his brother Wu Xin, stepped into the villa.

Chapter 2567

Since the accident, Wu Qi had not left his home or seen outsiders for a long time.

Originally, he had also been so repulsed by going out that he wanted to stay away from home for the rest of his life, but when he heard that there was a high achiever today who might be able to cure him of his unspeakable illness, hope was instantly rekindled in his heart.

Once inside the villa, Su An Shun led the two brothers to the parlour.

Wu Donghai hurriedly introduced them to the crowd: "Master Su, Master Mak, this is my youngest son Wu Qi, and next to him is my eldest son Wu Xin

Qi.

The Su father and son both looked at Wu Qi with great interest.

Because Wu Qi is indeed a strange person as his name suggests, because he was as famous as any celebrity when he burst onto the short video platform.

When Wu Qi was stared at by the Su family, he felt uncomfortable all over his body and unconsciously lowered his head.

At this time, Wu Donghai hurriedly said to Mai Chengxing, "Master Mai, please also take a look at my youngest son and see what is wrong with him."

Mai Chengxing walked up to Wu Qi, reached out and touched her forehead as well as the back of her head, carefully for a moment, then grabbed the coins, and with a few words on his lips, murmured a few words in a low voice, then dropped the coins on the ground, staring at each one with unblinking eyes.

A moment later, he spoke: "Mr. Wu, your son's problem should not lie in himself."

Su Chengfeng, who was at the side, hurriedly asked, "The problem is not with him, so that means it is with someone else."

"Right." Mai Chengxing nodded and said seriously, "I suspect that your son should have been hypnotised or implied by someone on a subconscious level."

Wu Donghai was not surprised by this conclusion at all, because he knew that the reason why his son had become like this was because of Ye Chen.

Even the Eight Heavenly Kings were no match for Ye Chen at all, let alone his own young son who was defenceless.

So, he hurriedly asked, "Master Mak, since you can see the root of my son's problem, I wonder if there is a way to cure him."

After thinking about it, Mai Chengxing said, "It just so happens that I have some research on hypnotic suggestion, so I can try it for your son, but I can't give you a guarantee on whether he can be cured or not."

Wu Donghai said, "Naturally, as long as you are willing to try, I would be grateful."

When he finished, he saw Wu Qi's head standing in place without saying a word, he hurriedly spoke up and scolded, "Don't hurry up and thank Master Mai!"

Wu Qi hurriedly bowed repeatedly and said nervously, "Thank you, thank you, Master Mai."

Mai Chengxing nodded slightly and took out a red rope from his pocket, took another ancient coin and threaded it with the red rope.

Immediately afterwards, he put the internal energy in his body, pooled it into his fingertips, and placed it on Wu Qi's forehead. He gave Wu Qi's forehead a strong and violent tap.

The force of this blow was relatively strong, so Wu Qi immediately felt a little dizzy.

Afterwards, Mai Chengxing placed the ancient coin with a rope in front of Wu Qi and kept shaking it slowly, while saying, "Look at this coin, from now on, whatever I ask, you answer, absolutely no lie to me, got it?"

Wu Qi nodded repeatedly: "I know!"

Mai Chengxing asked him again, "So tell me now, what kind of hypnosis and suggestion did the other party give you?"

Wu Qi stammered, "He told me that I had to eat every hour."

Before he could say the last word, Mai Chengxing immediately said, "That's enough, you don't have to say the last word."

After that, he said, "Wu Qi, from now on, no matter what people have asked you to do or what kind of hints they have given you, you have to completely forget about it, do you understand?"

Wu Qi nodded in confusion and stammered, "I understand."

Chapter 2568

Mak Chengxing gave a hint and asked in a deep voice, "Do you remember what hints the other party gave you now?"

Wu Qi nodded expressionlessly and said, "Yes, he told me to do it every hour."

Mai Chengxing hurriedly blurted out, "Don't say anything else, keep a close eye on the coin in my hand, and from now on, forget all the orders given to you by everyone, do you understand?"

Wu Qi continued to nod his head: "Yes, I understand."

Mai Chengxing wiped his sweat and asked with some uncertainty: "Then do you remember any hints given to you by the other side now?"

Without thinking, Wu Qi said, "Yes, he told me to"

Mai Chengxing's expression was very ugly and he shouted out, "You, you shut up!"

Wu Qi was startled and immediately snapped out of his hypnotic state and shut his mouth immediately.

Wu Donghai looked on in confusion and asked nervously, "What the hell is going on here, Master Mak?"

The person who gave your son the hypnotic suggestion seems to be far more capable than I. The hypnotic suggestion he applied, I can't erase it at all, and I can't even shake it for a minute.

Come on.

"What?" Wu Donghai was speechless with shock.

He could not believe that a ninety-year-old master of feng shui and metaphysics would be unable to do anything in front of Ye Chen's tricks

What was even more unbelievable was that Mai Chengxing would voluntarily admit that Ye Chen's ability was far greater than his

Su Chengfeng was even more shocked and said out of the blue: "Uncle Mai, what do you mean by that? If you look at the whole country, there is absolutely no other master of metaphysics who is as good as you!"

Mai Chengxing's face. He was already envious and jealous of the divination he had just done, but now there was another mysterious master who was one step ahead of him in terms of professional skills, which made him feel even more devastated.

So, he said resentfully, "This can only be said that there is a heaven outside of heaven and a man outside of man.

Su Chengfeng was horrified in his heart

He had already deduced that in Jinling, there must be an extremely strong expert working against him.

Now Mai Chengxing said that the person who had made Wu Qi look like this was someone stronger than him in feng shui and metaphysics, and Wu Qi happened to have his accident in Jinling, which meant that the feng shui and metaphysics expert was also in Jinling

If these two were the same person, wouldn't it be even more difficult for him?

So he hurriedly asked Wu Donghai: Mr. Wu, who did your son offend in Jinling in the first place?

"This

Although Wu Donghai knew that his son had offended Ye Chen, he did not dare to say anything at the moment.

After thinking about it, he could only explain in a stammering manner, "Mr. Su, I'm not going to lie to you, my son looks harmless, but in fact, he's not a good person either

"I sent him to school, but he was so good that when he went to school, he didn't learn the good things, but he wanted to have some pua with his female classmates, so much so that several girls were hurt because of him

"So I always suspected that he had offended some big shot because of this, or made some big shot look bad, and that's why he ended up like this."

Su Chengfeng hurriedly pursued the question, "Could it be that that expert is hiding in the university in Jinling"

Wu Donghai said awkwardly, "I don't know.

The first time I saw him, I was in the middle of the room, and he was in the middle of the room.

The great-grandson Mike, who hadn't spoken much, spoke up at this time: "Grandfather, haven't you always wanted to have another breakthrough?"

Chapter 2569

Mike's words made Mak Chengxing's whole body feel a sense of relief

He had studied I Ching and Bagua and Feng Shui metaphysics all his life and seemed to be at the top of his game, but in fact he had just crossed the entry level in the Feng Shui metaphysical school at most.

True metaphysics is much more than just feng shui and bagua, but a large school of thought that combines the wisdom of our Chinese ancestors.

Many of these profound esoteric disciplines have been lost and are almost unknown.

In his lifetime, although he was quite accomplished in feng shui, he was always under the pressure of several other masters, the one who pressed him the hardest being Lai Ching Wah, who was ten years older than him.

Among them, the one who pressed him the hardest was Lai Ching Wah, who was ten years older than him. Lai Ching Wah was considered to be the one who had the highest attainment in the field of feng shui among the Chinese Americans.

There were two other masters of a higher standard, but they are no longer alive.

Mak Cheng Hing had always hoped that he would become a leading figure in feng shui after Lai Ching Wah was buried.

However, seeing that he was already in his nineties, it was surprising that Lai Ching Wah, who was over 100 years old, had not yet died.

A few years ago, Lai Ching-hua left the United States and returned to China for three years.

And those three years were the three years in which Mak Cheng-hsing had the greatest sense of achievement.

Because no one could find Lai Ching-hua, he temporarily became the most powerful one in the field of Feng Shui metaphysics in the United States.

He once thought that the reason why Lai Ching Wah had to leave the United States and return to China was that he had calculated that his life expectancy was over, so he wanted to return to his roots and spend the last days of his life in his home country, and would not return to the United States alive.

But what he did not expect was that some time ago, Lai Qing Hua had returned to the United States.

What he did not expect, and could not accept, was that Lai was in excellent condition, and although he was already over 100 years old, he looked even better than him.

At that time, Lai, who was almost 20 years younger, became the focus of discussion in the Chinese community in the United States, and countless people regarded him as an old god, and legends about him spread throughout the Chinese community.

During that period of time, Mai Chengxing was depressed.

Although he was depressed, he was also very curious and eager to see the changes in Lai, so he made a humble trip to visit him.

During the visit, he tentatively asked Lai about the reason for his rejuvenation, and Lai only told him eight words: "There is a world outside the sky, and there are people outside the sky."

Mai Chengxing also understood the meaning of his words, and he knew that Lai Ching-hua was telling himself that he had met a superior person in China, and so had also met a heavenly creation.

Although Mai Chengxing did not know exactly what kind of creation Lai Qinghua had encountered, he surmised that the fact that Lai Qinghua could suddenly be twenty years younger at the age of his death was probably because he had mastered a higher level of metaphysical techniques.

Apart from feng shui techniques, there are also symbolic and seal formations. The nine words of truth spoken by the old ancestors: "To face, to fight, to fight, to fight, to all, to form, to line up, to go forward, to walk" are the core of symbolic and seal formations.

However, these are not the real top techniques in the field of esotericism.

For there is an unproven legend in the field of esotericism today, and that is Reiki

Ancient literature often mentions auras and cultivation techniques based on them.

It is even recorded in many folk legends and famous stories.

It is said that Reiki is the highest of all powers, and that if one has mastered it, one can master everything.

However, in recent modern times, the occult world has not been able to find any gong method that can cultivate aura.

Countless people in the occult world have searched desperately, but have not found any tangible and useful clues.

Although Mai Chengxing was also full of yearning, he knew very well in his heart that he certainly did not have this kind of creation.

He.

However, great-grandson Michael's words reminded Jinling that it might be his chance

As soon as he thought of this, he immediately said to Su Chengfeng: "Chengfeng, your second son, eldest daughter-in-law and eldest granddaughter all disappeared in Jinling, and Mr Wu's son was also hypnotised by an expert in Jinling, in my opinion, this Jinling must be hiding dragons and tigers, in that case, I will personally go to Jinling to see if I can find any clues

If that is the case, I will go to Jinling myself and see if I can find any clues.

Chapter 2570

As soon as Su Chengfeng heard this, he became excited

What he was most worried about now was that he could not get a clear picture of the situation in Jinling.

Since Mai Chengxing was willing to go, of course he was eager to go.

So he said excitedly, "Uncle Mai, if you are willing to go to Jinling, it would be great to go there. If there's anything I need to prepare in advance, just ask!

Mai Chengxing waved his hand: "You don't have to prepare anything specifically for us, the more you prepare, the more likely it is that someone with an interest will find out about our connection.

Su Chengfeng said, "Uncle Mai, then I will help you arrange for food, clothing and accommodation for Jinling in advance."

"No need no need." The first thing I need to do is to take the train to Jinling with Mike in the morning, and when we get there, we'll find a hotel.

Su Chengfeng saw that Mai Chengxing was resolute, so he did not insist any more, arching his hand and saying: "Then everything will be fine with Uncle Mai

An hour later, a Gulfstream g650 private jet landed at Jinling Airport.

The excited Nana Ito was already overwhelmed at the thought that she was finally in the city where Ye Chen lived again.

After passing through customs, the group arrived at the exit of the business jet building, where a convoy of several luxury cars had been waiting for a long time.

When Song Wanting saw Nanaiko Ito pushing Yohiko Ito out of her wheelchair, she smiled and waved at her, "Nanaiko!

Ito Nanaeko was happy to see her, so she hurriedly responded, "Sister Wanting, why did you come to pick us up yourself?

Song Wanting smiled, "You and your uncle came all the way over here, so if I didn't come to greet you personally as the host, wouldn't it be a breach of etiquette?

Saying that, she hurriedly bowed slightly at Ito Yuuhiko and politely said, "Uncle Ito, welcome to Jinling"

Ito Yohiko put his hands together, bowed slightly and said with a smile, "It's hard for Miss Song to come all the way to pick us up."

Song Wanting said, "Uncle Ito, you're welcome. I'll make sure to stay in Jinling for a few more days.

I've prepared a dinner for you in the evening.

Ito Yohiko said, "Miss Song, I've already booked a hotel, I'm staying with Megumi and Tanaka, so I won't bother you."

Song Wanting hurriedly said, "Uncle Ito, you have arrived in Jinling, as the host, I can't let you stay in a hotel, I have all the rooms at home, there are plenty of rooms, you can stay in peace"

Ito Yohiko said with a smile, "Miss Song, we don't want to cause any trouble to anyone until we have to, this little girl, Nanaeko, is a good friend of yours, so I don't have any problem with her staying at your home, but we won't be bothering you at home, otherwise, I would not feel comfortable with a dozen people bothering your home.

Although the Japanese are polite and courteous on the surface, they are in fact somewhat indifferent at heart. This indifference is not really considered to be a lack of human kindness, but they do not like to cause trouble to others.

So, Ito Yohiko prefers to stay in a hotel, free and easy, without having to restrain himself or cause trouble to others.

Song Wanting wanted to persuade him again, but Nanaiko Ito said hurriedly, "Sister Wanting, you don't have to persuade my father, he is very stubborn, you won't be able to convince him.

When Song Wanting saw this, she stopped insisting.

At that moment, Emi Ito came forward and took the wheelchair from Nanaeko Ito and said to her, "Nanaeko, leave your father to me, and you can talk to Miss Song."

Nanaeko Ito nodded her head repeatedly and smiled, "Then please, Aunt-sama"

After saying that, she hurriedly took Song Wanting's arm and ran quite far away, leaving the crowd 20 to 30 metres behind, before asking excitedly, "Has sister Wanting seen Ye Chenjun lately? How is he doing and how is he?"
