

Ye Chen 2621

Chapter 2621

Ye Chen didn't expect this He Zhiqiu to reject him right away, but naturally he couldn't just admit defeat so easily, so he immediately replied, "I thought Miss He was in the United States, but I didn't expect that she was in Syria, I don't know why you went there"

He Zhiqiu replied, "I came over with some of my college friends to make a documentary about the war, and then I'm going to use the documentary as an opportunity to launch an anti-war charity fund.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

The fact that you have graduated in finance and are going to Syria to make a documentary on the war is not the right thing to do. jobs.

He Zhiqiu replied: "Mr Ye, you have a point, but honestly, the situation in Syria is rather dangerous, and even many professional documentary teams are not willing to go to such places and shoot in the front line of the war.

Moreover, we have seen the way some European and American documentary teams do things, they generally stay as far away from the front line as possible and film from a very narrow perspective, even being influenced by the Western mainstream media to glorify and glorify war instead of exposing the cruelty of war."

"It is impossible for such people to film something that will make people in the outside world realise how cruel the war really is, and so it is impossible for people in a time of peace to realise the significance of being anti-war.

Ye Chen immediately said: "Miss He, how about this, do you think it's okay, I can sponsor your team for twenty million dollars, so that you can make this documentary better, but I only have one request, that is, Miss He you personally cannot remain in Syria, the money is given to your team, but you yourself must come to Jinling to help me set up the ocean shipping business, you see How about

As soon as Ye Chen said this, He Yuanjiang immediately gave him a thumbs up and praised him, "What a good move to move the tiger away from the mountain!

Ye Chen laughed and said: "This is not a move to move the tiger away from the mountain, this is a move to move the lamb away from the wolf pack

At this point, He Zhiqiu sent back a message: "Let me leave the team that how can I do that I and my team have promised each other that none of us will back out without permission.

Ye Chen laughed: "This is not asking you to back out without permission, I just gave your team a better option.

As he said that, Ye Chen deliberately changed the subject and asked her, "Miss He, I wonder how your life in Syria is going, whether you are getting enough supplies and whether your personal safety is adequately protected.

He Zhiqiu replied: "We are in relatively difficult conditions here because we are in the middle of a war and there is a serious lack of supplies.

Hearing this, He Yuanjiang, who was on the side, sighed with relief.

Chapter 2622

Ye Chen said with a smile at this time: "According to my understanding, it seems that their government forces and the opposition have been fighting very stalemate, and their government forces, lack of money, food, weapons and ammunition, must be perennially undertrained, the level of combat must be very low, such a situation still sent only a few soldiers to protect your safety, then I guess basically a virtual virtual, and you few are also unarmed high school students, if anything really happens, you won't even have a chance to escape." He Zhiqiu replied with some hesitation: "I don't think it's that serious.

Ye Chen laughed: "That's only what you think, if something really happens, it's useless for you to think.

He remembered something and said, "I heard that mercenaries are very popular in the Middle East, so you can hire dozens of well-equipped and well-trained mercenaries to protect you throughout the trip."

He Zhiqiu said awkwardly, "The cost of mercenaries is too high, we have consulted the American company Blackwater, on the Syrian front, their mercenaries are paid on a daily basis, the cost of one person per day is two thousand dollars, and this does not include the cost of any weapons and equipment, the cost of ammunition has to be calculated separately, if they need to match vehicles, the price is even higher, we are already on a tight budget. We were already on a tight budget and couldn't afford to look after mercenaries.

Ye Chen laughed: "You see, you can now figure out how much the twenty million dollars I promised you just now really means"

As long as you go back to your country and help me, the entire twenty million dollars can be given to your team."

"If one mercenary costs two thousand dollars a day, then your team could hire twenty mercenaries, which would be forty thousand dollars a day."

"Even if your team members have to stay there for another six months, at $40,000 a day, that comes out to $6 million.

"Add to that the cost of hiring some armoured vehicles and so on and the $10 million must have all gone down the drain.

"Only you can use the best camera equipment, the best aerial filming equipment, and even when there are clashes on the ground with local armed men with AK47s, your team can pay to hire American mercenary helicopter gunships to take you up in the sky and shoot from. The effect will definitely shock the world!

He Zhiqiu was obviously a bit tempted, but she still said with some hesitation: "That is indeed very reasonable, but when we set out, we had already agreed to live and die together, so if I leave at this time, it would be like breaking our initial agreement.

Ye Chen laughed and said: "Don't have such a strong psychological burden, you guys are like a few friends driving together in a... It's like a few friends driving a broken-down car across the desert, and now it's broken down in the middle of no-man's land because there's no fuel, because of the harsh environment and lack of supplies, you people can't stay in the car together, you have to send one person out to find petrol, so that everyone can have a chance of survival.

"Although this person got out of the car and left the group, she was able to get someone to bring back enough petrol for the rest of the passengers, and also bring them better vehicles and equipment, and all sorts of supplies so that they could move on better, faster and safer, don't you think that was a good choice especially for those who were still in the car, greatly improves their survival security."

"So, I think you could talk it over with your companions, and I'm sure they'll think it's a very good deal too"

Chapter 2623

He Zhiqiu, who was far away from Syria, was indeed very moved after hearing Ye Chen's words.

During this period of time, several of their classmates had encountered many difficulties and dangers in Syria, and although they had managed to escape several dangers, they all knew very well in their hearts that it was still very risky to stay in Syria to shoot the documentary.

He Zhiqiu felt that if she could really get a sponsorship of US$20 million from Ye Chen, it would be a qualitative boost to everyone's personal safety and to their filming expenses.

Thinking of this, she replied back to Ye Chen, "Mr. Ye, how about this, I will discuss your proposal with the people in my team and see what everyone wants, if everyone agrees, then I have no problem with it."

Ye Chen smiled, "That's great, when will you probably be able to give me a clear conclusion?"

He Zhiqiu said, "We are now preparing to participate in a military operation of the local government forces, they are going to attack a small military base of the opposition before dawn, the whole attack mission is estimated to last six hours, I will try to give you a final reply before dark today, do you think it is okay?"

As soon as He Yuanjiang heard that He Zhiqiu was going to participate in the military operation, he hurriedly said to Ye Chen, "Ye Chen, you must persuade her properly, you can't let her go! In a real war, bullets don't have eyes, so if she gets hurt, she'll lose half her life if she doesn't die!"

Ye Chen nodded and said, "Then I'll try to persuade her"

After saying that, he continued to send a voice to He Zhiqiu: "Miss He, I personally still suggest that you do not participate in this kind of military operation, or your team should all not go today, we all sit down together for a meeting and carefully consider my proposal, if you all agree, I will immediately give the money over, and your team can also immediately hire a group of mercenaries with Blackwater to protect your security, what do you say?"

He Zhiqiu replied, "Mr. Ye, we started preparing for this operation three days ago, and my companions have already started loading equipment onto the vehicles now, and it will be time to leave soon, so it's better to wait until we have participated in this operation before giving you a clear reply."

Saying that, He Zhiqiu followed up with another message, "Sorry Mr. Ye, we're leaving now! There will be no communication network after we leave the base, let's talk later!"

Ye Chen hurriedly replied, "I still suggest you guys don't go."

However, this time He Zhiqiu did not reply again.

Ye Chen looked at He Yuanjiang and said helplessly, "Uncle He, I reckon she's already departed."

"Ai!" He Yuanjiang let out a long sigh, "I, He Yuanjiang, have been reading for half my life, how did I raise such a rebellious daughter, what a sin!"

Ye Chen shrugged his shoulders and said, "Uncle He, Syria is at least six to seven thousand kilometres away from us, so even if you worry about it, it's hard to actually solve the problem, so why don't you wait patiently for her to write back, I think the conditions I'm offering are so generous this time, they shouldn't refuse."

He Yuanjiang lamented, "Ah Ye Chen, thank you so much, I have to ask you to break the bank for my family matters"

He said, a bit disheartened, "Since I decided to give up my high society job and life and choose to teach, I have donated almost all of my family's money, and gave Zhiqiu some of it for charity. I'll give you all this money and the house first, and then I'll find a way to pay back the rest!"

Ye Chen said, "Uncle He, don't be so polite, to be honest I'm here to ask you and your daughter to help me make money, this is just a preliminary investment, and don't worry, if Zhiqiu is willing to come back to help, I will definitely give her a generous annual salary; if Zhiqiu can help me put the ocean shipping business on the right track, I can even double the salary! "

Chapter 2624

He Yuanjiang said gratefully, "Ye Chen, I am really so grateful to you, don't worry, I will definitely do everything I can to repay you when the time comes!"

Ye Chen bowed slightly and said, "Uncle He, you and I must not be so polite."

After saying that, Ye Chen looked at the time and said, "Uncle He must have a class later, right? Then I'll leave you alone, we'll talk some other time."

When He Yuanjiang looked at his watch, he hurriedly said, "Oh, I almost forgot if I didn't mention it, there is still a class coming up, how about this Ye Chen, if you don't have anything to do, stay in my office, don't rush to leave first, when I finish this class, we will have a meal together at noon."

Ye Chen said, "Uncle He must be very busy at work, so why don't we have dinner some other time?"

He Yuanjiang waved his hand, "Busy is busy, but there is always time to rest. Besides, we have met again for so many years, honestly, I am really close to you, and I still want to talk to you more."

He said, He Yuanjiang said seriously, "But this also depends on your time, if you have something to do at noon, let's change the day, anyway, we are in Jinling, so we can also find the opportunity."

Ye Chen actually had nothing to do at noon, mainly because he was afraid that staying here would delay He Yuanjiang's work. In fact, he still wanted to talk to He Yuanjiang more, because in the past twenty years, he did not know much about his mother, and it was so easy to meet a classmate of his mother's back then, so he really wanted to take this opportunity to learn more about his mother's story back then from He Yuanjiang.

So, he spoke, "In that case, then Uncle He, you should get busy first, I'll wait for you here."

"Good!" He Yuanjiang nodded excitedly and said, "Feel free to sit and watch at your leisure, I'll come over after this class for fifty minutes."

Ye Chen nodded and watched He Yuanjiang leave with the teaching materials, he had nothing to do alone, so he sat down on the meeting sofa in He Yuanjiang's office.

He had nothing to do, so he searched for information about He Zhiqiu, and found that this girl was really something, her grades at Stanford were extremely good, and she was even published on the official website of Stanford University, and there was also a picture of her on the official website, which showed He Zhiqiu with light blonde curly hair, with a sweet and flawless face, full of femininity.

Ye Chen really couldn't understand, such a beautiful and outstanding girl, there must be many men pursuing her crazily in normal days, but why did she prefer women.

However, Ye Chen did not dwell too much on this kind of thing, he was open-minded about this, and his orientation in this regard was completely personal freedom, even his parents had no right to interfere.

Just when he had turned off He Zhiqiu's search results, he suddenly received a call from Qin Ao Xue on his mobile phone.

When Ye Chen picked up the phone, he heard Qin Ao Xue say nervously on the other end of the line, "Master Ye, someone is asking about Wu Qi at our school and also about Liu Yue at first, it's not like someone is trying to target you, right?!"

Ye Chen was slightly shocked, he remembered that Liu Yue was the girl who was almost killed by Wu Qi's psychological suggestion and jumped into the lake back then.

And this Liu Yue was also Wu Qi's girlfriend at that time before his accident.

Now that someone had inquired about Wu Qi, did they want to find out what happened to Wu Qi?

Chapter 2625

Ye Chen didn't quite understand why someone would investigate Wu Qi's matter now.

After all, Wu Donghai already knew that Wu Qi's accident was his own doing, so the Wu family, as a stakeholder, would certainly not take their trousers off and fart and come to investigate again.

Therefore, the only possibility was that the person who was now here to investigate Wu Qi was not sent by the Wu family.

When Ye Chen thought about it carefully, most of the people he had offended had already cooled off, and the ones who had not yet cooled off were none other than the Su family in Yanjing, and the Hogewitz family in the United States.

Both of these families had suffered heavy losses at their own hands, and as they were in the light and themselves in the dark, if they wanted to find themselves, they could only lift the fog layer by layer.

So Ye Chen immediately deduced that the person who was investigating information related to the Wu Qi incident at this moment must be inextricably linked to one of these two families.

He then asked Qin Ao Xue, "What kind of person is investigating Wu Qi's matter? Have you seen them?"

"Seen." Qin Ao Xue said, "It was two people, an old man and a young man."

Ye Chen asked again, "Then where are these two people now?"

Qin Ao Xue said, "I met them just now in the small square outside the teaching building, but I'm not sure where they are now."

Ye Chen thought of the teaching building just across the street, so he went to the window and looked downstairs.

Sure enough, on the small square opposite, he saw two people, an old man and a young man, walking out.

The old man looked immortal and had a slightly unusual aura about him, a feeling that Ye Chen had felt in Mr. Lai Qing Hua's old man, but this man's aura seemed to be weaker than Lai Qing Hua's.

Since Ye Chen had obtained the Nine Mystical Scriptures, he was particularly sensitive to this feeling, so he immediately realised that this old man was either a Feng Shui master like Lai Qing Hua, or a master of metaphysics like Yu Jinghai from Hong Kong.

So he took out his mobile phone and called Chen Zekai, and said, "Old Chen, there are an old man and a young man at the Jinling Finance and Economics College, and they seem to be visiting something related to Wu Qi, you should arrange for people to keep an eye on them, but you must remember to choose the most capable people to observe from a distance, do not alert the snake, and report to me in time if there is any movement. "

Chen Zekai was busy saying, "Yes young master, I will send some of my men who have been scouts in the special forces over there."

Meanwhile, the small square in front of the school building.

After questioning a number of students one after another, Mike could not help but ask Mai Chengxing in a low voice, "Grandpa Tai, if I just inquire about that Wu Qi openly and honestly, if that big shot is really at this university or has eyes and ears laid in this university, won't that be a quick exposure?"

Mac Chengxing nodded and said indifferently, "Defeat is right, the other party is a true dragon, an existence far beyond my ability to see through, if his real father is not willing to come forward, it would be a waste of effort for us to try any harder, instead of that, it would be better to directly disclose our purpose, if we catch his attention, it is possible that he will take the initiative to show himself."

Mike asked again, "Grandpa, will the other side be angry with us for this and treat us as enemies?"

Mac Chengxing said, "If it is a vindictive or suspicious person, he will definitely treat us as an enemy, but such a person, with a narrow belly, is usually not likely to have the True Dragon Fate."

"And for a true True Dragon Destiny, the person must be broad-minded and clear of grudges, and would never hold malice against us just because we came to investigate Wu Qi's matter."

Chapter 2626

Saying that, Mac Chengxing continued, "Besides, we are not coming here this time to disadvantage him per se, the Su family wants us to find out his identity, but I am not prepared to get involved in the fight between the Su family and him, so even if we find him, I will not reveal his identity to the Su family."

Mac couldn't help but ask, "Grandpa Tai, we answered the Su family's request and came over to investigate the enemy behind the Su family, so if we don't help the Su family with their work, wouldn't that be like breaking the spirit of the contract?"

Mai Chengxing glared at him and said angrily, "Foolish! The moment we intend to come to Jinling, we are no longer working for the Su Family!"

Saying that, Mai Chengxing continued, "The reason I came to Jinling was indeed to find this great man, but I wanted to see if we could find a chance from this great man, otherwise, if it was just the Su Family who wanted to deal with this great man and asked me to find this great man out, how would I have agreed? Asking me to go against a person with a true dragon destiny, even if I were given more money, there is no way I would agree to it."

Then, Mac Chengxing added, "If we really find this big shot, although I won't divulge his situation to the Su family, I will definitely return every penny of the money the Su family gave me, and this matter will be regarded as me doing half of the work for the Su family for free."

Mike said awkwardly, "Temporarily breaking a contract is also a form of expression of the lack of contractual spirit ah, a person who has no credibility, how can he still gain a foothold in society in the future"

Mike Chengxing shook his head helplessly and reminded, "You have to remember, the more you believe in feng shui destiny, the more you should not go against the destiny, the other party is a true dragon destiny, people like us are in no way his opponents, so no matter what, you can't stand against him, understand?"

Mike nodded gently, "I understand Tai Grandpa"

Mac Chengxing gave a hmph and said, "Alright, let's find a place to eat at noon and then come around in the afternoon."

For Mai Chengxing's grandfather and grandson, Ye Chen didn't put too much thought into it.

Whether it was a feng shui master or a metaphysical master, as long as they were hostile to him, then he would let them have no return the first time.

Moreover, he knew very well in his heart that although these two people were much stronger than ordinary people, they were still too far behind himself, and if they really started fighting, their strength would not be much stronger than that of Yu Jinghai.

Therefore, his attention was now focused on He Zhiqiu's body.

He was expecting He Zhiqiu to give him a clear reply as soon as possible.

In that case, as soon as He Zhiqiu came to Jinling, he could immediately set up an ocean shipping company and quickly build up this business, which would definitely make things more difficult for the Su family.

When He Yuanjiang returned to his office after class, he hurriedly asked Ye Chen when he saw him, "Ye Chen, did Zhiqiu return your message?"

Ye Chen shook his head, "Not yet, Uncle He, didn't she say that there was no internet after she left the base, so she can't contact the outside world until she gets back."

He Yuanjiang nodded and sighed, saying, "When I was in class just now, my right eye kept jumping, it didn't feel like a good sign, so this heart was worried."

Ye Chen smiled and said, "Uncle He, don't worry so much now, just wait patiently for Zhiqiu's news, they are six hours behind us, if they go back at 8pm local time, it will be early morning here, so just wait for now, I will contact you first when there is news in the evening."

He Yuanjiang said helplessly, "There's nothing we can do now, we can only wait."

After saying that, he hurriedly said to Ye Chen, "Let's go Ye Chen, I've booked a table at the Jinling Pagoda near the school, we'll eat there at noon!"

Chapter 2627

Jinling Pailou, an authentic local restaurant brand in Jinling, has several branches in Jinling, specialising in authentic Jinling cuisine, which is well-loved by the locals.

When I arrived at the entrance of Jinling Pailou, He Yuanjiang introduced himself to Ye Chen, "My ancestors have been authentic Jinling locals for three generations, and I have lived in Jinling from my birth to my teenage years, then I went to the United States to study and took root there. the school's teachers' canteen provides all kinds of food for free, then I still run here every day at noon to have a bite of authentic Jinling cuisine."

After saying that, he asked Ye Chen, "But you've lived in Jinling for so many years, would you have gotten tired of eating it long ago?"

Ye Chen smiled faintly and said, "I actually have never had much pursuit of food, during the ten years in the orphanage, I didn't feel anything wrong when I was fed light soup and water every day, and then I went to work at a construction site, and I felt fine with plain water and steamed bread every day."

He Yuanjiang couldn't help but sigh: "The life you lived before you were eight years old, not many people in this world can compare to that, so how did you adapt to it after falling to the bottom all of a sudden for so many years?"

Ye Chen laughed, "My parents taught me at a very young age not to be happy with things and not to feel sorry for myself, so for me, there is nothing to adapt to, it's just a matter of being comfortable with what I have."

When we were undergraduates, your mother not only won a full scholarship on her own merit, but also worked outside the school every day in a restaurant, and was very frugal with her food and clothing, never being wasteful."

"I remember at that time, at the end of each semester, your mum would use the money she had saved for the semester to go out and travel, and to be a poor backpacker, at that time we all thought your mum's family conditions must be very poor, only later did we know that the strength of your mum's family, can be called the world's most Chinese"

Ye Chen said with a smile, "The her I remember was indeed very frugal as well, she always taught me to learn to be frugal and not to be wasteful during the day, not even a grain of rice was allowed to be left over during meals, this was also very similar to my father, both of them actually had little pursuit of material things."

He Yuanjiang said approvingly, "That's why your mother and your father were able to get together, they were already free from materialistic pursuits and low-class interests when they should have been young and frivolous, unlike us, when we were young, all we thought about every day was making money and amassing wealth and fame."

Saying that, He Yuanjiang went into the restaurant first and made a gesture of invitation to Ye Chen.

Ye Chen was busy following him in, and at that moment the hall on the ground floor of the restaurant was already full of people.

The local cuisine restaurants in Jinling were quite similar to the teahouses in Yanjing, basically the 1st floor was a hall with many tables and many people, so the environment was relatively noisy, but most people liked this kind of chaotic feeling.

Moreover, in the middle of the 1st floor, there is a small stage dedicated to playing and singing local operas, and at this moment, there are two actors singing Kunqu on the stage.

When He Yuanjiang came in, he pointed to the stairs and said to Ye Chen, "Ye Chen, I've booked a seat on the first floor, it's a bit more peaceful upstairs, let's go up."

"Okay."

Moving to the first floor, the environment was slightly cleaner, a waiter saw the two coming up and hurriedly came to the front, saying politely, "Professor He is here!"

He Yuanjiang nodded and smiled, "The same old seat, I've said hello to your manager."

The waiter said, "Our manager has already told me, you two come with me."

The seat He Yuanjiang chose was a small square table made of logs, with four seats for four people, so the two of them sat opposite each other against the window.

He Yuanjiang pushed over a menu and said to Ye Chen, "Ye Chen, take your order and see what you like to eat."

Ye Chen waved his hand and smiled, "Uncle He, it's better for you to do it, I'll follow whatever you order."

After saying that, he suddenly spotted two familiar figures not far away, also by the window.

These two figures, an old man and a young man, were the same grandfather and grandson duo he had seen in He Yuanjiang's office.

Chapter 2628

Ye Chen was slightly surprised in his heart, but did not show any end, just naturally withdrew his eyes.

At this moment, Mai Chengxing and Mike did not know that the person they were looking for was sitting not far behind them.

They had arrived a little early, the food had already been served and they had started eating for a while.

As Mike ate, he asked Mac Chengxing, "Grandpa Tai, do you have any initial plans for how long you will stay in China this time?"

Mac Seung-Hsing shook his head and said, "Let's take one step at a time, I have a vague feeling that this visit to Jinling will be a chance, so I don't plan to leave until the chance appears."

Mac nodded gently and wanted to say something, but after looking at the surroundings, he held back.

At this time, Mac Chengxing's mobile phone rang.

He glanced at the screen and saw that it was Su Chengfeng calling, so he pressed the answer button.

On the phone, Su Chengfeng opened his mouth and asked, "Uncle Mai, have you found out who that divine dragon descended from the world really is?"

Mai Chengxing said helplessly, "We just arrived in Jinling a few hours ago, it is impossible to be so fast."

Su Chengfeng asked again, "Uncle Mai, then after you find him, are you sure of finishing him off?"

Mai Chengxing's expression changed and he said seriously, "I just agreed to help you check it out, I won't do such things as you mentioned."

Su Chengfeng said in a somewhat anxious tone, "What's the use of just checking, if you can't solve it by finding out, won't the result be the same? I had a nightmare last night, I lost all my coins all night, all the fucking words were facing upwards, my fucking anxiety is driving me out, if I don't get rid of this big problem in my heart, I won't be able to sleep a sound sleep in the future!"

Mai Chengxing said in a somewhat cold tone, "Chengfeng, I only do three things in my life, and these three things are to see, to calculate and to change! Seeing and calculating are to discover problems, while changing is to use what I can to help you improve the problems I discover, which in no way includes the kind of things you just said! If you want to find someone to do that kind of dirty work, then you'd better find someone else!"

Su Chengfeng on the other end of the phone suddenly fell silent.

After about half a minute, Su Chengfeng spoke in a somewhat cold tone as well, "Since that's the case, then I'll have to ask Uncle Mai to help me find out who that divine Dragon Descendant really is, and then give me the other party's name and information, and the rest, it's not something you need to worry about."

Mai Chengxing was a little annoyed, but quickly suppressed the anger in his heart and said indifferently, "Okay, if there is nothing else, I will hang up first."

Su Chengfeng said coldly, "Be my guest, Uncle Mai."

When Mai Chengxing hung up the phone, Mike on the other side hurriedly asked, "Grandpa Tai, what happened?"

Mai Chengxing sighed and said, "It's not convenient to talk about it here, so I'll tell you later when I get out."

Mike nodded, and at that moment, he did not ask any more questions and lowered his head to eat.

Ye Chen, who was not far away, had already caught the conversation between Mac Chengxing and Su Chengfeng in his ears because his senses were unusually keen.

Hearing Mai Chengxing call the other party Chengfeng, he knew that the person on the other end of the phone was Su Chengfeng.

So, it seemed that this grandfather and grandson duo were the ones sent by Su Chengfeng to find him!

Chapter 2629

What made Ye Chen feel a little surprised was that Su Chengfeng would still find someone who reads feng shui to investigate himself.

Although this old man had spoken cryptically on the phone just now, the few key points he mentioned still had a very clear point.

For example, he said he was only responsible for reading, calculating and changing, which sounds like the path of a feng shui master.

The role of a feng shui master, to put it in a larger way, is like that of the ancient Chancellor of the country, who is able to identify problems with the rivers and mountains and can provide solutions to them, but he is not a military general and cannot kill people or lead troops into battle.

Perhaps thousands of people will die as a result of a single word from the Chancellor, but the Chancellor's own hands will never be stained with blood.

Of course, not all chancellors in history were decent people, so naturally, there were also feng shui masters who schemed for money and killed people.

However, in Ye Chen's opinion, this old man in front of him seemed to have some persistence.

It was also this attitude of his that made Ye Chen decide to wait and see and let him off the hook for the time being.

Otherwise, he would choose to make the first move.

Mak Cheng

Xing also didn't know that the true dragon destiny he was looking for, his original father, was actually in a restaurant with him.

As they had arrived early and their meal was served early, so when Ye Chen and He Yuanjiang had just started to eat their meal, he and Mac had already finished their bill and the two grandchildren left the restaurant together.

Ye Chen did not focus too much on the grandparents and grandsons, but kept asking He Yuanjiang about some of his mother's exploits back then.

All along, Ye Chen had only known the wife and mother side of his mother, but not what the other side of her was really like.

Now, through He Yuanjiang's introduction, he was finally able to make the image of his mother in his memory become more three-dimensional.

The meal lasted for more than an hour, with He Yuanjiang talking endlessly about the events of Ye Chen's mother, An Chengqing, back in the day, and Ye Chen never tired of listening to him, even wishing he could sit here and listen to him without going anywhere all day.

He Yuanjiang's throat was smoking, and when he saw that it was getting late, he took a sip of water and said to him, "Oh, about your mother's story, it may not be finished in a few months, so I'll tell you here today."

"I have classes in the afternoon, I have to go back early."

"The first thing you need to do is to get back to work."

He Yuanjiang nodded and instructed, "You must keep an eye on Zhiqiu's side for me, once there is any news from her side, you must tell me at the first opportunity, no matter how late it is, please."

Ye Chen agreed without hesitation: "Don't worry, Uncle He, I will inform you as soon as there is any news!"

He Yuanjiang then said: "Then it will be hard for you!"

When the two of them came out of the hotel, He Yuanjiang asked Ye Chen, "Ye Chen, what are your plans for this afternoon?"

Ye Chen said, "I'm going to Buckingham Palace to meet someone."

Ye Chen intended to go to Buckingham Palace to meet with Chen Zekai. Since Su Chengfeng wanted to get rid of himself now, he would definitely have other tricks up his sleeve, so he had to take precautions and find opportunities to kill trouble before it happened.

He Yuanjiang didn't think much about it, so he said, "Then I'll go back to school first, let's keep in touch!"

Chapter 2630

"Okay Uncle He."

He Yuanjiang was just about to leave when he suddenly glanced at a fortune-telling stall by the roadside not far away.

Jinling itself is an ancient city, and most people here have the habit of reading fortunes, so there are many people reading fortunes at the end of the streets.

If it is springtime and the flowers are in bloom, you can find a fortune telling stall every ten paces in any street in the old city.

In addition to this, there are also a number of Daxians who sit at home and wait for customers to come to them.

They usually use the gimmick of inviting the gods into their bodies and specialise in reading people's fortunes and sometimes helping them to exorcise evil spirits.

The most common work done by this kind of Daxian is to exorcise children.

Older people believe that children will be scared and cry when they see something unclean, so they need to get a visit from a Daxian.

Generally speaking, young people do not believe in such things, including some old intellectuals, who also disdain them.

He Yuanjiang was originally the same.

He had never believed in feudal superstitions for so many years abroad, but today, his right eye kept jumping and his daughter was participating in military operations with the Syrian government forces, so he was really worried, so he suddenly had the idea of telling a fortune.

So, he said to Ye Chen, "Ye Chen, if you have something to do, go ahead and get busy, I'll go over there and take a look."

Ye Chen saw that the direction his afterglow was pointing at was the fortune telling stall, so he asked, "Uncle He, are you going to get someone to tell your fortune?"

He Yuanjiang nodded and sighed, "Ai, I kind of know now why people have zong religious beliefs, it must be because when they are as helpless as I am now, they really don't know what to do, so they can only put their hopes on religious beliefs, or feudal superstitions, mainly to seek a psychological comfort as well."

Ye Chen smiled faintly and said, "I don't have anything important to do anyway, so I'll go with you.

He Yuanjiang didn't think much about it, so he nodded and went with Ye Chen to the fortune-telling stall.

At this moment, sitting in front of the fortune-telling stall was an old man with dark skin, white hair and beard, and somewhat lean.

This old man looked about 70 or 80 years old, sitting alone in front of the stall, unhurriedly wiggling the beard on his chin, quite a bit of an aura of an immortal.

When He Yuanjiang arrived in front of him, before he could speak, the old man asked him: "Does this gentleman wish to ask about good fortune?"

He Yuanjiang nodded and said, "I would like to ask for my daughter to see if she is safe.

The old man said, "Come, think of your daughter in your heart and shake a stick out.

He Yuanjiang hurriedly did as he was told, thinking of his daughter in his mind while shaking the bamboo barrel, and dozens of bamboo sticks kept poking out with his shaking until one of them fell out of the barrel first.

He Yuanjiang opened his eyes and hurriedly picked up the bamboo sticks, looked down at the words on them and said, "I heard that this night is the first night of the Chinese New Year, the silver lanterns and the fire trees shine in the long sky; a gale of wind and rain for no reason, the lights of ten thousand families are extinguished, but what does this mean?"

The old man smiled faintly and said in a profound manner, "This is the 32nd sign of the Che Kung Spiritual Sign, if you need to interpret the sign, please follow the fortune of 500 yuan, it is also considered to buy a blessing.

As soon as Ye Chen heard this, he concluded in his heart that this old man was a fraud.

Asking for a sign to tell one's fortune is a Taoist concept, and as for randomness, or blessings, this is a Buddhist saying.

A Daoist disciple would never be able to say such words as casually, or blessed. This feeling is like a monk opening his mouth and saying that if he donates money, he can. The logic itself was flawed.

However, He Yuanjiang did not know this.

When he heard the other party say he wanted 500 yuan, he took out his mobile phone without any hesitation and asked, "Can you scan the code to pay?"

The old man took out a long-printed code and smiled, "Come on, scan this, WeChat Alipay is fine."

He Yuanjiang hurriedly wanted to scan the code to pay, Ye Chen wanted to stop him, but on second thought, he was now like an ant on a hot pot, he could not stop himself, so he did not say much and just waited and see what would happen.

The old man's pocket was filled with a "WeChat 500 Yuan" alert. He smiled with satisfaction and said, "The text of your signature is: 'I heard that this night is the first night of the Chinese New Year, the silver lanterns and fire trees shine in the long sky. It means, 'Tonight is the first day of the first month of the year, when the trees and lanterns should be ablaze, but suddenly a violent rainstorm blows out the lights of all the houses, and the original festival of playing and singing is gone.'"

Speaking of this, he sighed and said, "This is really the most inauspicious of all the downward sticks, and whatever you want to ask when you draw this one, it can be summed up in four words."

He Yuanjiang was in a hurry and opened his mouth to ask after him, "Which four words?!"

The old man shook his head and sighed, "'All things are unlucky'"
