

Ye Chen 2661

Chapter 2661

Ye Chen walked through the central square with Faisal, and the roar of the diesel generators grew more and more deafening in his ears.

With such a loud mechanical noise, it was a bit difficult for the average person to talk to each other, so much so that many other sounds around them were muffled. This was a good thing for Ye Chen, even if something unexpected happened later during the rescue and pursuit, it would be difficult for someone to shout out and be noticed by the people outside.

So Ye Chen asked Faisal, who was beside him, "The diesel generator set you have here, how long does it normally work?"

Faisal hastily said respectfully, "As the government army has cut off our electricity supply here, we rely on a fifty kilowatt diesel generator set to supply all our electricity, and with it, there is also a set of electricity storage equipment."

As the overall electricity consumption is low during the day, we generally leave the generators on during the day and use the storage equipment to ensure that the necessary equipment runs properly during the day and only switch on the generator set after dark, mainly as a means of supplying lighting, other electricity-using equipment and additionally charging the storage equipment.

"It's on early today, mainly because the light is too poor on rainy days as well."

Ye Chen asked curiously, "You've got the place all lit up at night, aren't you afraid that the government forces will send planes to bomb it?"

Faisal explained: "In Syria, whether it's the government forces, the opposition or the Kurdish forces, all 90 wars are ground wars, the planes in the hands of the government forces have long been shot down, and the few old warplanes left are guarding Damascus and the southern province of Daraa, so they don't dare to send them out to fight. If they send planes to attack indiscriminately, it will definitely stir up public anger, and then it will be more beneficial to our opposition instead."

Ye Chen nodded gently.

In his understanding of war, it was a modern war based on the Gulf War.

The core of modern warfare was all about air power, supplemented by land and sea forces.

Just like when the United States fought Iraq, there was no need for the two armies to engage in a short battle, first using fighter planes to fight in the air and seize air power, then using bombers with precision-guided bombs to destroy the enemy's key defense forces and military industries, and after the other side was completely paralyzed, a large number of ground troops would go in and be able to drive in and directly occupy.

However, it seems that in a place like Syria, the way of war is basically similar to the Second World War, where the two armies mainly rely on ground troops to kill each other head-on, and the air force can play a very small role.

Ye Chen remembered that Faisal was the leader of the armoured brigade, so he asked him, "Faisal, since the war here is all ground warfare, your armoured brigade must have an extraordinary status and position, right?"

Faisal nodded and said truthfully: "Our two most important forces are the armor brigade and the flight brigade, but the flight brigade only has four helicopter gunships, so the main combat power is still dependent on my armor brigade."

Ye Chen asked curiously, "Faisal, since you are the leader of the armoured brigade, you should be at the top of the ranking of this army."

The reason why I can be the captain is because I know more about tanks, so I act more as an instructor and don't have much real power."

Ye Chen nodded gently, since the armoured brigade was the most core combat force here, it made sense for it to be directly under the command and transfer of the commander."

Under Faisal's leadership, Ye Chen and him arrived outside a yellow mounded courtyard wall, at this time, the courtyard was full of people, and communication between people was basically by shouting.

Some spoke English, some spoke French, and some spoke a language he didn't understand at all, which was probably Arabic."

Ye Chen asked Faisal: "Don't you have a common language here?"

Faisal shook his head: "The unified language should be Arabic, but the composition of our opposition soldiers is rather complicated, so there are many of us who do not speak Arabic."

Chapter 2662

"Some of these people have lived in other countries since they were children, and some of them have lived in former colonies and grew up speaking English or French, so the language is not exactly fluent between everyone."

"Like myself, I actually went to the United States with my parents at a very young age, and also got a green card, served in the US Army for three years, before answering the call and coming back to join the Free Army a few years ago, so my basic Arabic is very poor, and I can only communicate in English basically."

Ye Chen nodded, this multilingual situation is just like India, a significant portion of Indians do not speak Hindi, even each state in India has its own official language, plus it was once a British colony, so English is also one of the official languages."

But this linguistic confusion was relatively friendly to him; the more confused the language, the easier it was for him to blend in."

So he said to Faisal, "When you go in later, remember to see what you can do, and don't let anyone see what's going on."

Faisal was busy saying, "Please don't worry, I will do my best"

Ye Chen gave a hmph and pointed to the courtyard door, saying, "Go in

"Good

Faisal stepped forward and pushed open the courtyard door.

In the courtyard, a dozen soldiers carrying AK47s were roasting meat around a campfire to keep warm.

When Ye Chen followed Faisal inside, one of the soldiers recognised him and said, "Captain Faisal, would you like to have some roast meat? Ansara's mother has made some pita bread, it will be ready soon."

Faisal waved his hand, "I'll pass, I'm here to check on the hostages."

As soon as the man heard this, he said with a smile, "Captain Faisal, you are interested in the women, but I must make it clear to you that the commander has given orders that no one can do anything without his permission"

Faisal immediately said, "Don't talk nonsense, I'm just here to see what's going on so I can report back to the commander, open the entrance to the cellar!

The man nodded hastily, turned to a soldier and together they leaned down and opened a heavy wooden plank from the ground, and immediately a staircase made of yellow earth appeared underneath it.

Please come in.

Faisal nodded in satisfaction and led Ye Chen to the entrance. The man took out a torch, turned it on and said solicitously, "Captain Faisal, the stairs are dark without lights, I will lead the way, watch your step."

Faisal glanced at Ye Chen and saw him nod quietly at him, so he agreed and said, "OK, you can lead the way!

Chapter 2663

Ye Chen and Faisal, following the man into the cellar, realised that the cellar had been dug very deep indeed, the stairs alone were at least five or six metres deep, almost the height of a two-storey building.

The staircase was dark and damp because of the rainy season in Syria, and the dirt on both sides even had a strong earthy smell.

As he made his way down, the man in front of him said with a flattering face, "Captain Faisal, can I ask you a favour?"

Faisal asked in a cold voice, "What is it?"

The man said, "Captain Faisal, I would like to apply to join your armoured brigade, I can handle a heavy machine gun.

Faisal sneered and asked him, "I think you want to join the armoured brigade because you are afraid of death.

"No, no." The man said in a panic, "I just want to join the armour brigade for a while.

Faisal smiled and said, "I'll think about it and let you know when I'm ready."

The man said with an excited look on his face, "Thank you, Captain Faisal.

With that, he had gone down to the very bottom of the cellar first.

At the bottom of the cellar there was an iron door with a small window above it, and a light could be seen inside.

The man leading the way tapped on the door and said: "Open the door, Captain Faisal is here!

A curly-haired man poked his head out and waved at Faisal, smiling: "Captain Faisal, what brings you here?

Faisal said in a cold voice: "The commander asked me to come and take a look, and also to communicate with the hostages.

The man hurriedly dodged the passage and said with a smile, "Captain Faisal, please come in"

Faisal said again to the man who had just led the way, "Go back, I'll remember that thing I said earlier, and I'll let you know first if there are any results."

Thank you very much Captain Faisal, you go ahead, I'll leave you some roast leg of lamb when you come up.

The man turned and left, so Faisal waved to Ye Chen and the two went into the cellar one after the other.

Ye Chen had expected the cellar to be a small space, but to his surprise, there was something else inside.

There were two rooms in the cellar, the outer one was about twenty square metres, with four soldiers guarding it, and inside there was a wall and a large iron door without even a window. Ye Chen could sense that there were eight other people inside, which must be He Zhiqiu and her friends.

Faisal then told the men to close the door they had come in through, and then looked at Ye Chen, wondering what his next orders would be.

The four soldiers on guard were not very guarded, standing around with their guns dangling, and one of them was wearing headphones and seemed to be listening to a song.

At that moment, the soldier who had opened the door before, came to Faisal's side and asked in a low voice: "Captain Faisal, when is the commander going to do it?"

Faisal said, "The commander has his own plans for them, just carry out his orders and don't say or ask anything else.

"All right." The man sighed helplessly and said, "I really can't, Captain Faisal can talk for us and arrange for us to change shifts, it's too painful to stay in the cellar all the time.

Ye Chen walked up to the man, patted him on the shoulder and said with a smile: "This brother, we are all working for the commander, don't have so many complaints.

As he said that, a trace of spiritual energy was transferred into the other man's body and went straight to his brain.

Immediately afterwards, this person, just like Faisal, was given a psychological suggestion by Ye Chen, and upon hearing this, he hurriedly said:

You are absolutely right!

Chapter 2664

4-4 minutes

Ye Chen nodded in satisfaction, pointed to another person and said: "This brother must also be discontented, right?"

That man said: "I don't dare, I will do whatever the commander asks me to do, I have no second thoughts!

Ye Chen smiled, walked up to him, patted him on the shoulder as well and laughed: "Your awareness is very high, I will definitely put in a good word for you in front of the commander in the future.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

At this time, a guy with a face full of cross flesh, pointing at the eight hostages in the corner, cursed and said, "The commander said that the killing will start when the time is up, I think it's about time, when the time comes, I will be the one to carry out the execution"

Ye Chen looked at this man, sneered and asked, "You like killing people"

The guy stared at Ye Chen and said disdainfully: "Yes, I do like it, why do you have a problem with it or do you want to speak for these Yanks

Ye Chen laughed: "Why should I speak for them I just think that killing quality is really not on the stage, if you really have the ability, why not wait for the government army to fight over, go to the battlefield and kill a few more enemies.

The guy took three or two steps in front of Ye Chen, reached out and grabbed him by the collar, cursing angrily: "You sarcastic"

Ye Chen laughed shamefully, "You don't seem to be stupid."

The guy was so angry that he raised his hand and his fist was ready to smash down towards Ye Chen's face.

This voice scared the other man into instant stagnation.

He did not know that in that instant just now, his own brain had been inflicted with a powerful psychological suggestion by Ye Chen.

His entire body was stunned, and the next thing he knew, he fell to his knees with a poof, and said with fear and trepidation: "Dad, I was wrong!"

Ye Chen pushed him away, and at this time, the man wearing the headphones was a little surprised as he took them off and said offhandedly, "Camille, why are you kneeling down?"

The burly man called Camille blurted out, "Yes, he is my father"

The man was dumbfounded and said, "Are you out of your mind? Didn't your father die last year? I even helped carry the fucking coffin."

Ye Chen looked at him and said, "I'm not just his father, I'm your father too."

With this one sentence, this man was scared out of his wits as well.

He felt a wave of dizziness in his head, and immediately afterwards, he subconsciously knelt down beside Camille, choking back a sob, "Dad, I was wrong!"

At this time, Ye Chen also felt a sharp pain coming from his brain, and when he checked his body carefully, there was only a trace of aura left, which made him realise that he had just given psychological suggestion to five people in a row, and his aura was indeed too much consumed.

In the past, he had rarely used his aura in a concentrated manner, but in this short while, his aura had been consumed more than in the past few months.

However, the good thing was that the five people, including Faisal, had all been given psychological suggestion by himself, and these five people had become his most loyal puppets.

He then pointed to the door of the room inside and said to the five men, "Who has the key to open the door?"

Chapter 2665

Hearing Ye Chen's order, someone immediately took out the key and prepared to open the iron door inside.

Ye Chen instructed: "In a while, you guys will stand guard outside the door, and try to detach it if someone comes.

I reckon your commander will have to come over in a while, so if he wants to come in, let him in, and you guys just act naturally and don't let him see anything.

"Yes!" The five of them agreed in unison.

With that, the door to the room opened.

When the door opened, there was an earthy smell from inside, and when we stepped inside, we found that there was nothing in the room but a lamp hanging alone on the top of the room, and the wattage of the bulb was very low and the light was very dim.

There were some signs of artificial reinforcement on the top of the room, but the walls were still surrounded by mud, so in a room like this, there was basically no chance of suicide, not even by hitting the wall.

In the corner, eight people, wearing black hoods and with their hands tied behind their backs, sit in rows against the wall, on the floor

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

When they heard the door open, all eight of them were nervous, and a few had even started to unconsciously curl up and shiver.

Ye Chen entered the room and closed the iron door with his hand, then he paced up and down to the eight men and took the black hoods off their heads one by one.

Ye Chen took off the hoods of seven people in a row, from left to right, but the five boys and two girls were of different skin colours.

It was only when the last one was removed that a yellow female with short, floppy hair and delicate features was finally seen.

These eight people had been in darkness because they had been covered with thick black heads, so their vision had been in darkness. Now that they suddenly got light, even if it was only a dim, light bulb made them feel unusually blinding, so one by one they subconsciously used their hands to block out the light in front of them.

It was only a few moments later that the crowd's vision finally gradually returned to normal.

What they found frightening was that in front of them stood a man wearing a black mask and dressed as a standard terrorist.

The man also had an AK47 in his hand, and he was a bandit at first glance.

Ye Chen then looked at the yellow girl who looked a bit like Gao Yuanyuan and asked directly in Chinese: "Are you He Zhiqiu?"

At these words, the girl's body jerked up.

She looked at Ye Chen and subconsciously asked in Chinese, "How do you know me? How do you know me? Are you a Chinese? !

Ye Chen reached out and took off his mask, saying indifferently, "I was entrusted by your father to bring you home.

The moment these words came out, He Zhiqiu's whole body was struck by lightning!

She looked at Ye Chen with an unbelievable face and asked out of the blue, "What did you say? ! My father commissioned you to take me home? How did he know I was here? How did he know I was here? ! And how did you get here? Are you part of the armed opposition?"

Chapter 2666

Ye Chen smiled faintly: "Miss He, you have too many questions, but I can tell you clearly that I am not an armed opposition, I received your father's commission a few hours ago, so I hurriedly came here from China.

At this point, a yellow male spoke with a shocked face: "This how is this possible it's only been just over half a day since we were captured, in such a short time you couldn't have rushed over from China at all!

Ye Chen laughed: "What you think is impossible, may not really be impossible."

After saying that, he looked at He Zhiqiu and said indifferently, "Time is short, - I will prepare a pair of opposition clothes for you, so you can put them on and come with me."

He Zhiqiu asked him out of the blue, "What about my friends?"

Ye Chen shrugged his shoulders and said, "I don't have a particularly good way to get all eight of you out yet, so you come with me first, I'll get you to a safe place first, and I can consider coming back to save the others if conditions allow.

At this point, a blonde man blurted out in less than skilful Chinese: "I think you're a credulous liar! There are a couple of thousand oppositionists stationed here, what way do you have to get us out?"

Ye Chen nodded and said: "You said is right, I have no way to save you, so just stay honestly.

When the blond man heard this, he coldly snorted and angrily rebuked: "I don't need you to save me either! There are so many people outside, if I go out with you, I will be shot by machine guns! I'd rather stay and wait for my country to save me! Maybe my country will agree to the opposition's demands or just send in the Navy Seals to rescue us!

'That's it!' Another blonde girl said in Chinese: "Our US Navy SEALs, the top special forces in this world, are always on the most difficult missions around the world, including killing terrorist leaders around the world, I am sure they will come to save us!"

The most important thing is that the US will definitely send the Navy Seals to save you. Who gave you that confidence?"

A dark-skinned American boy next to him said without hesitation, "We in the US have always been strong and will not allow any foreign armed to harm our own citizens!"

"And don't you forget that we in the US have a large number of military bases around the world, several in the Middle East alone!"

"Turkey, Syria's neighbour to the north, has several of our military bases;"

"South of Syria

Saudi Arabia in the south, also has our military bases!"

"So, our motherland will probably send in Navy Seals from these two countries, to rescue us!"

When Ye Chen heard this, he couldn't help but exclaim: "I find that one of you is quite powerful, ah, speak Chinese so smoothly, specifically studied is it?"

Another Indian-American boy said with a proud face, "To tell you the truth, we are all top students in the United States, each of us has several master's and doctoral degrees, each of us is fluent in several languages, what's the point of knowing Chinese? Japanese, French, German, it's not a big deal!"

Ye Chen couldn't help but give him a thumbs up and asked him with a smile:

"You're really something."

After saying that, he suddenly turned his words around and sighed: "Aiya, I really don't understand how a person with no brain like you can learn so many languages? Is it possible that people with a lack of heart have a talent for learning languages?"

The man shouted, "What did you say? ?

Ye Chen sneered, "You said you have military bases in several surrounding countries, so why have I travelled all the way from China to here, but your Navy Seals are so close, yet there is no sign of them yet?"

Chapter 2667

When he heard Ye Chen's question, the boy dismissed it out of hand, "First of all! I don't believe that you came from China at all! Because that's simply unrealistic!"

After saying that, he looked at the crowd and said very seriously, "Everyone has studied world geography and also studied the geography of China, so they must all know the distance from China to here!"

"If you fly from the central part of China, the straight line distance is at least six thousand kilometres, right?"

"If you fly over from the western part of China, the straight-line distance won't be less than five thousand kilometres.

Ye Chen gave a thumbs up and laughed, "You're really fucking smart! You know everything!"

After saying that, Ye Chen turned his words around and said playfully, "But you guessed wrong big smart, I didn't come from Central China or West China, I came from East China."

"Huadong?!" The Indian-origin boy whom Ye Chen called Big Smart said disdainfully, "East China is even less likely! How did you fly here in such a short period of time? A rocket ride?"

He added with a sneer, "And, as everyone

If you want to travel from China to Syria, you must first fly to the neighboring countries, and then transfer to land transport to come in. You have the power of foresight? So, if you ask me, you are simply lying!

Ye Chen shook his head helplessly, looked at He Zhiqiu and asked: "Has this guy always been this two-faced?"

He Zhiqiu's expression was a little embarrassed for a moment, and at the same time a little hesitant.

In fact, she wasn't quite sure of Ye Chen's identity, and she also didn't quite dare to believe what Ye Chen said.

Moreover, hearing Ye Chen's voice face to face was more or less not the same as what she had heard with Ye Chen in the WeChat exchange and through her mobile phone.

In addition, Ye Chen did not identify himself, so she was a little bit confused at once.

After all, the speculation made by the Indian-origin boy just now was not unreasonable, and Ye Chen's statement, whether in terms of time_or or spatially, more or less defied logic.

At this point, that Indian-origin big smart continued: "For your information, our Navy Seals always strive for 100% success whenever they go on a mission, so they will definitely make a well thought out rescue plan before they conduct a scalpel rescue operation! I'm sure they'll have us out in no time at all!

Ye Chen sneered, "Come on, stop fucking around, you're the only one with a long mouth who can bullshit, right?"

'I'll tell you the truth, the news of your gang's capture was not even reported by the European and American media!

"Do you know what it means when it's not reported? It means your fellow Americans don't even know you've been captured!

"So your army won't bother to send troops to rescue you, not to mention sending troops to rescue you in such a big way, the opposition has refused to ask your embassy for $80 million ransom, and you expect them to send troops to rescue you? Do you think your father is Warren Buffet or Bill Gates?

"I don't believe you!" Several young Americans retorted in unison, "You must be spreading

Chapter 2668

The Indian boy from earlier looked at He Zhiqiu and said loudly, "Zhiqiu, you must be careful of this man, I seriously suspect that this man is a member of the opposition! Otherwise, even if he had great skills, he couldn't have arrived here in such a short time, and don't you forget, there are still a couple of thousand opposition soldiers guarding this place, if he wasn't part of them, there's no way he could have got in alive! Look at him, wearing opposition clothing and holding opposition weapons, this man must be a part of the opposition!

Then he stared at Ye Chen and said in a cold voice: "This guy is here to act with you and slander our motherland, I wonder what his intentions are! Maybe it's because the opposition knows that you're an American of Chinese descent, so they found him from the team to set up a trap with you. You must not trust him!

Ye Chen was so angry at this stupid bird that he wanted to laugh, and asked him back: "Since you are so adamant that I am part of the opposition, then you are pretending so much in front of me, aren't you afraid that I will use the AK47 in my hand to raid you?" 精英小说网最快章节更新 : m.jyyxs.com

The Indian-origin boy was obviously a little nervous, but still put on a tough face and said, "I don't believe you dare to lay a hand on me! You opposition took so much trouble to take us prisoner

I don't believe you'd dare to kill me! If you kill me, how else can you negotiate with our country? And if our motherland takes revenge on you, it will be the end of you! At that time, just a few missile shots will level this place to the ground!

Ye Chen sneered: "These eight of you, one by one, are just schoolboys with better academic results. In terms of background, can any of you have parents who can become state legislators in the United States?"

"No money, no power, and you're licking your chops waiting for a Navy SEAL to save you? I don't mean to look down on you, but a small to medium sized conventional missile costs millions of dollars and a surface to surface missile starts at tens of millions of dollars, do you deserve to be avenged with such an expensive weapon?"

The Indian-origin boy's expression was very ugly, he wanted to say something but could not find the words to retort at once.

At this moment, another Chinese boy said, "Don't be so sarcastic. As we all know, the United States of America has always placed the utmost importance on the safety of its citizens. I know your tricks, as long as the United States people scold America, you guys get so excited that you can't sleep and hate to send the video to the whole world!

Ye Chen put away his teasing smile just now, looked at this young man with a Chinese face and asked seriously, "Let me ask you, are you an American or a Chinese?"

"Of course I am an American!" The boy said offhandedly without hesitation, "My passport was taken away by you, if you go and look at my passport now, you can see very clearly that I am a citizen of the United States of America!

Ye Chen nodded, deep inside he was already disappointed with this group of people, especially this boy of Chinese descent, although what he said could not be considered wrong, but it made Ye Chen feel very uncomfortable.

So, he turned light and cold and said, "Good, in that case, then you should also wait for your country to come to your rescue."

After saying that, he looked at He Zhiqiu again and said seriously, "Miss He, I don't want to ask you the same question again, I was entrusted by your father to come and rescue you, so no matter which country you consider yourself to be, as long as you are willing to come with me, I will rescue you and bring you back to China."

"But! If you really don't want to come with me, I, Ye Chen, will never do anything to force others, so please record a video for me and say that you don't want to go, I will bring the video back to your father, even if it is to give your father an explanation

When Ye Chen said his name, He Zhiqiu was instantly struck by lightning and was only left with a face full of shock.

She had not met Ye Chen in person, but had only had a voice chat on WeChat once. As she had not chatted many times and the content was not much, she did not have a deep impression of Ye Chen's voice, so she had never connected the man in front of her with the Ye Chen on WeChat.

But now, after hearing him say his name, He Zhiqiu immediately matched the two people together

At this moment, she excitedly asked, "Mr. Ye, how come you are here?"

Ye Chen shrugged his shoulders and said with a helpless sigh, "I told you a long time ago that this place was not safe, right?"

When He Zhiqiu heard this, she couldn't stop her tears at that moment.

The Indian boy beside her said subconsciously, "Zhiqiu, don't fall for his tricks, this guy is not a good person."

The Chinese-American boy also took over and said in agreement, "Yes Zhiqiu, don't believe him, you have to be convinced that the White House will get us out."

I believe that if we hold on, when we are rescued, we will be heroes in the eyes of the media who have sworn to die in front of the opposition forces, and then when we return to the United States, we will definitely become heroes in the limelight. If you are now cheated and turned by him, then not only will you not be a hero, but you may even become a street rat that everyone will shout at!

Ye Chen saw that this guy's brain circuit was incomprehensible, so he sneered and asked him, "Buddy, you must have been born and raised in America since you were a kid."

The Chinese-American boy nodded his head gently.

With a smile on his face, Ye Chen said, "No wonder

The man hurriedly asked after him, "Weird what?"

Ye Chen laughed, "No wonder you are so talented, we really can't cultivate talents like you in our native China."

Seeing that everyone was still questioning Ye Chen's identity, He Zhiqiu hurriedly said, "You all misunderstood, Mr. Ye is definitely not a member of the opposition, he is what I told you before I left, the chairman of China's Empire Group, Mr. Ye Chen Ye

"How is that possible" the other seven retorted almost simultaneously

One of the American girls said, "Zhiqiu, you must be out of your mind, think about it, how can a big boss with over a hundred billion dollars be so young"

She didn't wait for He Zhiqiu's answer and added, "It's just as well to be so young, but have you ever thought about how a big boss worth over 100 billion dollars could come to Syria to do such a thing?"

"Besides, Soneji has just analysed it for you, if he really is the big boss, how could he have arrived here from China in such a short time? You think he is Iron Man?"

The Chinese boy said, "That's right Zhiqiu, think about it carefully, you've never even met Mr. Ye, so how can you tell that this guy in front of you is him?"

He Zhiqiu shook his head and said firmly, "I can be sure that he is Mr. Ye. Just now I didn't match his real voice with his voice in the voice chat, but now I can be sure that they are both the same person."

Everyone else thought He Zhiqiu must be crazy.

Chapter 2670

The Chinese boy shook his head while saying: "Zhiqiu, I know you're a girl who must be afraid of death, but you have to believe that in this world, no one dares to kill an American citizen at will. We will definitely be saved in the end."

Ye Chen, who we will be rescued, will eventually be rescued by him. Amused, I couldn't help but ask him: My buddy, I'll say something that's not blatant and objective. There are various shootings in the United States all day long, and many, even dozens of innocent civilians are killed at every turn. You still said that no one would dare to kill an American citizen at will, don't you feel contradictory?

The Chinese-American boy retorted with a red face and a thick neck: "All those situations you mentioned happened on home soil, not overseas. How can what happened on home soil be counted?"

Ye Chen smiled and asked, "Do you mean to say that what happens in the country is an internal conflict within the people?"

"That's right," the Chinese boy immediately agreed: "It's an internal conflict within the people."

Ye Chen nodded, looked at He Zhiqiu and said, "In my opinion, if your father knew that you were hanging out with these idiots all day long, he wouldn't know how sad he would be."

He Zhiqiu's expression was incomparably embarrassed.

She also felt that these friends of hers, who were usually smarter than one another, were all schoolmasters and human beings, but now for some reason, they all seemed very anti-intellectual.

Ye Chen wasn't sure if He Zhiqiu really believed in his identity, so he took out his phone and opened the dialog box between him and He Zhiqiu from WeChat, then turned the screen towards her, pulled up the chat history, and said, "This kind of chat history is definitely impossible to fake, so you believe in my identity, right?"

He Zhiqiu said almost without hesitation, "I do!"

When the other few people saw this scene, they were so shocked that they couldn't speak.

Here they were, you and I attacking Ye Chen for half a day, wasting so many words, just to prove that Ye Chen was a fake.

For this reason they had brought out all sorts of arguments and packaged their points, from the inside out, in a seamless manner.

But now, with just a mobile phone, Ye Chen had completely overturned all the judgments made by this group of self-righteous high achievers, leaving these seven people with their jaws dropped for a moment.

The boy of Indian descent couldn't help but exclaim, "This is impossible. Even if you really are that Chairman Ye, you couldn't have arrived in Syria from eastern China in such a short period of time."

"Yes," the Chinese boy also spoke up: "This is not logical even the fastest civilian airliner could not do it."

Ye Chen sneered and asked: "You two are the most capable, let me ask you, what is the fastest civilian airliner you know of?"

The Chinese boy said with an arrogant look on his face: "Of course I know, I have studied a lot about flying machines, and the fastest civilian airliner at present is the Gulfstream G650. It's impossible for the wealthy to afford it."

Ye Chen applauded: "You are really a good fucking student, it seems that your recitation of texts must be very good, I used to see all kinds of keyboard car gods on the internet who don't even have a driving licence, but I didn't expect to meet another keyboard machine god now."

The Chinese kid said in exasperation: "Don't you sneer here even if you really came in a Gulfstream g650, you couldn't have arrived in Syria in such a short time so you must be hiding some unspeakable secret"

Ye Chen smiled: "Sorry, I really didn't come in any g650."

Speaking of this, Ye Chen put away his smile and said blandly: "I came on a Concorde."
