

Ye Chen 2671

Chapter 2671

"Concorde? !

When Ye Chen said these four words, everyone was stunned.

Who would have dared to believe that the legendary Concorde, the super king of speed in civil aviation, which had already fallen 20 years ago, was still in operation today? !

The Chinese boy subconsciously laughed: "You really know how to brag, the Concorde has long since been retired, and there is no airline in the world that still has a supersonic airliner in operation.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

After saying that, he looked at He Zhiqiu and spoke, "The situation is urgent now, the opposition has already declared to the public that they will start killing hostages if the US embassy does not agree to their demands, so we should not continue to delay any longer and leave here now."

He Zhiqiu couldn't help but ask, "Then my friend"

Ye Chen reached out to stop her and spoke, "What kind of stupid birds are your friends, I believe you have seen a lot of them, I put my words here, today only take you one person to go, go or not, I give you 10 seconds to think about it.

"Take only one

One person to go?" The Indian-origin boy disdainfully put his right hand in the air, gestured a gesture of reaching out to twist a light bulb, and skimmed his mouth, "You people really feel good about yourself, to tell you the truth, even if you begged me to go with you, I wouldn't go with you!

Ye Chen ignored him, but looked at He Zhiqiu and said, "Five seconds left."

I

He Zhiqiu was in a dilemma all of a sudden.

She really wanted to follow Ye Chen out of here, after all, he had been entrusted by her father to save her in Syria.

But she also did not want to leave these friends who shared the same ideals here.

Just then, the Chinese boy immediately said, "Zhiqiu, even if there is no problem with her identity, you must not go with him! There are a thousand or two thousand armed opponents out there, the slightest mistake could result in you being shot on the spot, you mustn't play with your life's safety!

"Yeah!" A white boy spoke up, "The best thing we can do now is to wait for the motherland to rescue us! If you go with him now, not only will you die in nine ways, but even if you manage to survive, you will definitely regret it!

At this moment, He Zhiqiu completely understood that it was absolutely impossible for her to convince this group of friends.

So, she opened her mouth, "Gentlemen, I am not trying to to undermine everyone's confidence, but I don't quite believe that the White House will come to my rescue

Having said that, He Zhiqiu hesitated for a moment and finally said firmly: "So I have decided that I will leave with Mr. Ye! Whether I live or die, I won't regret my decision!"

Ye Chen nodded and spoke, "Alright, no more nonsense with them, let's leave now."

Saying that, he walked over to He Zhiqiu, pulled her up from the ground and untied the ropes tied around her hands.

Just then, he suddenly noticed that someone was coming down the stairs outside, so he immediately whispered in He Zhiqiu's ear, "Someone is coming, sit back down first!"

He Zhiqiu hurriedly sat back down on the floor, while Ye Chen took a few steps back and quickly pressed himself against the wall next to the iron door.

A moment later, he heard someone outside speaking in Arabic.

Ye Chen could sense that three people were coming down the stairway at this moment.

The one at the head of the group was saying something loudly.

Immediately afterwards, two of those three people stayed at the doorway of the outermost door, and the one in the lead walked in by himself.

As soon as he entered, Faisal and the others immediately said in a loud voice: "Hello Commander Hamid!"

Hearing this, Ye Chen instantly shot up his spirits

Chapter 2672

At the same time, they were also spitting on the seven highly educated foolish birds in front of them, weren't they waiting for the marines to come to their rescue? The marines hadn't come, but the king of hell had come first!

Then, they heard that Commander Hamid exchange a few words with Faisal and the others outside, probably asking Faisal how the hostages inside were faring.

One of the men in charge of the guards hurriedly said that everything was fine, and then the man at the head of the group spoke up, "Open the door."

With that, the sound of the door opening rang out.

A few moments later, the iron door was pushed open from the outside and a man in desert camouflage stepped in.

Interestingly, the moment he took a step in, his body clearly swayed to the left, which allowed Ye Chen to instantly see that this guy was actually still a cripple with a left leg problem!

When Hamid stepped in and saw that none of the eight hostages were wearing hoods, he instantly became furious and shouted, "Bastards! Why aren't they hooded? Why weren't they hooded? ! Now that they've seen my face, won't I have to kill them all? !"

As soon as the words were out of his mouth, he realised that there was a figure within the range of his right afterimage, so he hurriedly turned his head to look

, and at a glance he saw Ye Chen who was looking straight at him with a smile on his face.

When he saw that Ye Chen was an unfamiliar face, he was horrified and subconsciously had to go to his pocket to take out his gun.

At that moment, Ye Chen pointed the muzzle of his AK47 directly at him, followed by slamming the door shut with a kick, and said with a smile: "Come, kneel on the ground with your hands on your head.

After saying that, he shook his head again and said to himself, "I guess you can't understand Chinese either."

Hamid then blurted out in Chinese, "You're a Chinese? !

Ye Chen asked curiously, "Yo, you can speak Chinese too?"

Hamid said, "I studied Chinese in China, and my father wanted me to trade with China in the future, but I never thought that my father would be killed by the government.

After saying that, he looked at Ye Chen and asked in a cold voice: "Who are you? How did you end up here? ! Are you a member of the government army?"

Ye Chen smiled faintly: "I am not from the government army.

Hamid's expression was shocked and he asked offhandedly, "Then who are you serving?"

Ye Chen pointed at He Zhiqiu and spoke, "I have been entrusted by this girl's father to bring his precious daughter home."

After saying that, he pointed at Hamid again and said in a cold voice: "So that's why you guys are not righteous, fighting a war is fighting a war, but you kidnapped a few students who are stupid in their studies, aren't you afraid of others laughing when you say it out?"

Hamid gritted his teeth and said, "Don't talk nonsense to me here, I kidnapped them because they are with the government army and are my enemies! What kind of place do you think I am when you come to me and say you want to take people away? You can come and go whenever you want?"

Ye Chen laughed: "What else? Do you believe that if I kill you now, I can still evacuate safely?"

Hamid immediately gritted his teeth and said, "The outside is full of my men, there is no way you can escape!"

Ye Chen shook his head: "No, no, no, you're wrong, it's all my men outside.

The two guys outside are under control, and remember not to let anyone in the courtyard hear you!

Faisal nodded without hesitation: "As you command!"

Dumbfounded, Hamid cursed, "Faisal, how dare you betray me! Betray our ambitious goal of overthrowing the government forces!"

'Excuse me!' Faisal pointed his hands respectfully at Ye Chen and said without hesitation, "I am now loyal only to this gentleman!"

Chapter 2673

"Grass.

When Hamid heard this, his heart turned half cold.

After all, he had been leading the army for many years, and his judgment of the strategic situation was very precise.

At this moment, he had realised that he and Ye Chen each held half of the initiative.

"Within this cellar, the initiative is all in the hands of this Chinese man, because he has a gun pointed at me and has bribed my men, he can finish me off in this room at any time

"However, I am not completely passive, after all, even if he is powerful, he cannot bribe a couple of thousand people from the whole base."

"Because, if he was really capable of that, he would have just overthrown me a long time ago, so why would he bother going to such great lengths to sneak into this cellar

Thinking of this, he immediately said to Ye Chen: "Friend, both of us should not be too impulsive, we can talk and chat properly about anything, after all, I have also been studying in China for many years, and it is very kind to see you"

Ye Chen nodded and smiled, "It's simple even if you want to talk, I just have one request, you let me take the person away and I won't make it difficult for you, otherwise, then I will finish you off first."

Saying that, Ye Chen made sure to say seriously, "After taking you out, as long as I run faster, your men may not be able to react, after all, when I came in, your men didn't find me, and I believe that when I leave, it's unlikely that they will find out either.

As soon as Ye Chen said this, Hamid, who was on the opposite side, immediately became nervous.

He was not a fool either.

His own base, which was defended by one or two thousand people, could still allow a Chinese to sneak in silently, thus showing that his defence was nothing in front of the other party.

At this time, Ye Chen continued: "By the time they find your corpse lying in this cellar, I will probably have already left Syria, and you will have to lie down stiffly to receive the funeral prepared for you by one or two thousand of your men, you have such a high status in the military, I am sure your funeral will be grand by then

Hamid's face immediately turned green.

He quickly understood in his heart that he and Ye Chen, were not as 50/50 as he had thought.

Ye Chen was able to make the first move.

If Ye Chen killed himself first, he would be the first to lose.

If he really pissed him off, he could kill himself with a first strike and then escape without any problems, then wouldn't he be at a big loss?

Thinking of this, Hamid's expression became depressed all of a sudden.

Naturally, he was reluctant to let them go.

After all, he was still waiting to use the hostages to extort a sum of money from the US Embassy.

He was waiting to make a fortune to stabilise his troops, and if he had any extra money left over, he could buy some new weapons from the arms dealers to improve his troops' fighting ability.

Even if he doesn't make any money, he has this team, so he won't have to worry about making a fortune in the future, and if the opposition wins, he can even become a senior official.

Therefore, for him, the most important thing is to live, to live in peace and security.

Chapter 2674

Otherwise, if he were to get himself killed here, it would really be a loss to his grandmother's house.

It was because his own life was more important that he did not quite dare to go head to head with Ye Chen.

After thinking about it, Hamid gritted his teeth and tried to make a last stand, saying: "Brother, it's not easy for you to come all the way here, plus we have a destiny, I can't refuse all your requests, but you have to give me some face, you can't let me end up with an empty basket.

The first thing you can do is to make sure that you have a good understanding of the Chinese language, and you can even give me a couple of hysterics. The last two sentences.

Hamid laughed awkwardly and said: "To use a word to describe it, I was at least a school bully back then.

Ye Chen nodded and asked him: "You said for me to give you a few face, I wonder how you want to keep this face Hamid waved his hand, full of jianghu qi said: "Brother, so these eight people, you half my half, China has an old saying, far to be a guest, so I let you pick first, you pick any four people to take away, the remaining four left for me.

When Hamid said this, the seven people next to him, except for He Zhiqiu, all went crazy.

What the hell is this?

Is this guy who came on the Concorde so fierce?

The opposition commander had come and instead of getting him killed, he had even taken control of him.

What's even more outrageous is that these two are now talking about terms.

What was even more outrageous was that this Hamid, to his surprise, had actually agreed to it.

He let Ye Chen take away four people, wouldn't that mean that four people could be saved by him directly

Since He Zhiqiu was determined to take up one spot, that left three spots left

As soon as he thought of this, the Chinese boy blurted out, "Mr. Ye, save me, we are compatriots, we are compatriots, you can't say anything and not save us!

The first thing you can do is to take a look at the website.

When it comes to this, Ye Chen said helplessly: "See you just said it yourself, you were born and raised in the United States, your homeland is the United States of America, you have said so, I can't either. I can't even say that you're my compatriot. I'm not forcing you to betray your country.

The reason I keep claiming to be American-born is that I don't want to be looked down upon by Americans and want them to know that although I don't have an American face, I was born in the United States and am an American citizen. I want them to know that although I don't look American, I was born in America and I am a true American.

I've realized my mistake now, and I know that what flows in my bones is still;

Ye Chen interrupted offhandedly: "Okay, okay, you don't say anymore, I understand what you mean."

The other party, upon hearing this, felt as if there was hope for survival, and immediately cried and said, "Mr. Ye, thank you so much, I'll be a cow and a horse to repay you in the future."

A white American boy also hurriedly said, "Mr. Ye, I apologise for my rashness and rudeness, please take me with you too.

The Indian boy also cried, whimpering and sobbing as he said, "Mr. Ye, I'm to blame for my ignorance, but I've always admired the dazzling Chinese history and civilisation, and I also admire you as a lone hero, please forgive me and give me a chance.

As soon as the others saw that they all opened their mouths and begged, they also hurriedly cried and begged.

Ye Chen smiled at this time and turned to look at Hamid and said seriously, "That, Commander Ha."

Hamid hurriedly said, "Brother, meeting each other is destiny, destiny is friend, so don't call the commander so uncomfortable. Besides, old brother, to speak from the heart, my surname is 'Hamid, these three words are connected, you can try not to break it up"

After saying that, he hastily added with a smile, "Of course, if you think it's too tiring to say three words, just pretend I didn't say anything!

Chapter 2675

4-4 minutes

Seeing Hamid's stifled look, Ye Chen couldn't help but laugh: "Since Commander Hamid has spoken, then I will say those three words together from now on.

Hamid clasped his fist at Ye Chen, then pointed at the eight people across the table and said with a generous face: "Older brother, feel free to pick

After saying that, he was afraid that Ye Chen was still unwilling to use the slope to get down, so he gritted his teeth and said: "This way, I will give up one more step, you pick five

The seven people's desire for survival was instantly heightened

Ye Chen looked at Hamid, smiled faintly and praised him, "Commander Hamid is indeed very generous, just from this, you can see that you should be a man of honor and keep your promises."

Hamid nodded his head and said seriously, "I am a man of honor, whether I am doing business and trade or leading troops to war, I will keep my promises, and when I say I will let you take five, I will never be ambiguous!

Ye Chen waved his hand at this time: "I am also a person who is most concerned about the morality of the jianghu, and I have always believed in the rule that if you respect me a foot, I will respect you a foot.

The other seven cried out at the sound of these words.

The young man of Chinese descent cried out, "Mr. Ye, we are all compatriots, you can't set me up in an unkind and unjust way!

The Indian and other young men were also in tears, begging and pleading for mercy.

He Zhiqiu could not stand it and begged: "Mr. Ye, they are really frogs in the well, they are not aware of the mountains, so I hope you will not treat them in a normal way.

Ye Chen said indifferently, "He Zhiqiu, this is not the way things are done, I came to save you because I gave face to your father, you asked me to save them, who did you ask me to give face to?"

He Zhiqiu was ashamed, but for the sake of his friend's life, he gritted his teeth and said, "Mr. Ye, please give me face, I know this request is very abrupt and inappropriate, and it is very selfish, but please save them for my sake.

Ye Chen shook his head and firmly refused, "I don't give you face because from the beginning to the end, this group of American friends have never given me face.

After saying that, he looked at Hamid, pointed at He Zhiqiu, and said seriously, "I will only take her alone."

In that case, I'll tell my men that you two can leave at will and no one can stop you."

After saying that, Hamid dodged to the side to make way for the door and said, "Older brother, please do."

Ye Chen waved his hand: "No, I'm not being petty, this is your territory after all, I have to be more cautious, you arrange a helicopter to park directly in the courtyard, the helicopter must not carry any ammunition, in addition to let everyone except the pilot to withdraw, then you personally accompany the two of us, when the people who pick me up arrive, I will let you leave, what do you think? "

Hamid looked puzzled and said, "What if you change your mind when we get there? What if you want to kidnap me? What if the government offers millions of dollars for my head?"

"I flew a few hundred million dollars on a Concorde, tossed all the way from China to this shithole of yours in a few hours, and would do it for a few million dollars on your head? A reward for your money

Hamid swallowed hard and blurted out, "Concorde. Old you're a Chinese Ye"

Chapter 2676

Ye Chen asked curiously, "How come Commander Hamid has also heard of the Ye family?"

Hamid immediately said with a look of admiration: "I really have heard of it too I was in Yanjing when I studied at university ah, the Ye family, Su family, are the top families in China, at that time I have heard of it.

After saying that, Hamid asked complimentingly: "Older brother, I wonder if my guess is right Ye Chen didn't hide, nodding his head and saying: "That's right, I'm from the Ye family.

When these words came out, almost all the other seven people were stunned.

They were all high achievers in the field of finance and had a deep understanding of the economic conditions of various countries, so they naturally knew the strength of these few mega-rich families in China.

As soon as they heard that Ye Chen was a descendant of the Ye family, they immediately understood why Ye Chen was able to arrive in Syria in such a short period of time on a Concorde.

This is what the Ye family is capable of

It was just a pity that they, a group of so-called high achievers, could also be blinded by a leaf and not see the mountain

The Hamid at the side immediately gave a thumbs up and said offhandedly: "I didn't expect that old brother was really a Ye family member, being a Ye family member and still being able to break in here alone, it's really admirable, admirable!

Ye Chen smiled faintly: "Commander Hamid is too polite.

Hamid couldn't help but say excitedly: "I really didn't expect to meet the descendants of the Ye family today, it's really fate

After saying that, he looked at Ye Chen and said from the bottom of his heart: "Older brother, there is an old Chinese saying that we don't fight, we don't get to know each other, which is apt when applied to you and I. If you don't mind, from now on, you and I are friends.

Ye Chen nodded his head and said seriously, "Since old brother said so, then we are friends from now on"

Hamid laughed and said: "Brother, I know you came all the way here to save this lady, so I think she must be very important to you, so I won't waste time with you here.

Ye Chen saw that he was really sincere, so he said without hesitation: "No problem, if you come to China in the future, you can contact me at once, and I will treat you well.

As he was saying that, the Chinese boy cried, "Young Master Ye, you are a billionaire, please don't be so mean to us ordinary people, it's not easy for my family to bring me up today, please give me a chance and save my life, I kowtow to you."

He said, ignoring the fact that his hands were still tied behind him, he desperately struggled to kneel down and kowtow.

Ye Chen said with an indifferent expression at this moment: "All right, no need to act here, no matter what you say, I will not take you away.

After saying this, he looked towards He Zhiqiu and said indifferently, "Miss He, let's go."

When the Chinese boy heard this, he looked at He Zhiqiu with a grimace and yelled out, "He Zhiqiu I came here for your fucking sake can you bear to leave me here alone and run for my life? Do you have any semblance of humanity left?"

The other two girls also choked up and said, "Zhiqiu, we are all good friends, how can you leave us here?"

The Indian boy also cried, "Zhiqiu, I don't want to die, my parents have saved their whole life to pay for my education, I can't just die in this place without a word!"

He Zhiqiu's eyes burst into tears, looking at Ye Chen with incomparable pity, her beautiful eyes filled with pleading.

At this time, Ye Chen said in a cold voice, "Don't worry, the marines will come to save you."

After saying that, he looked at He Zhiqiu and reminded in a loud voice, "It's time to go Miss He"

Chapter 2677

Hearing these words, He Zhiqiu's entire body was at a loss for words.

She could tell that Ye Chen was not joking.

So he did not know what he should do if Ye Chen was really unwilling to take his companions.

She also did not expect that her friends would be so anti-intellectual, having already offended Ye Chen to death long before he had revealed his identity, and now, no matter how much they pleaded with him, it was reasonable for him not to save them.

Although she wanted to leave this place and go to Jinling to reunite with her father, she could not bear to leave so many friends and escape alone.

At one point, He Zhiqiu even thought that she might as well not leave and stay with her friends, so that even if she faced the worst outcome, she would still be able to live with a clear conscience.

Otherwise, if she left alone and the seven of them died here, then she would never be able to get rid of the guilt deep inside her heart for the rest of her life.

Ye Chen had not expected that this group of anti-intellectual, highly educated people would now start desperately trying to drag He Zhiqiu into the water.

They used all sorts of tactics, using either insults, reprimands, begging, or selling out, to repeatedly stimulate He Zhiqiu's psychological defences, with only two objectives:

Either to make He Zhiqiu take them with her

Either that, or He Zhiqiu would stay and die with them.

Ye Chen couldn't help but look at He Zhiqiu and saw that her expression was torn, and she even had the slightest hint of breaking her heart, so he said inwardly, "No!"

Young people are most likely to get carried away by so-called righteousness and sentimentality, just like some condemned prisoners who take the blame for their so-called friends and are unwilling to betray them even to their death, thinking they are doing it for righteousness when they die, not knowing that the other party only sees him as a scapegoat.

So, Ye Chen didn't give He Zhiqiu a chance to react, he directly opened the door and said to Faisal outside: "Come and take Miss He out

Yes

Faisal, who had just brought four other men to control Hamid's two guards, agreed without hesitation and immediately walked up to He Zhiqiu, saying in a cold voice: "Miss He, please come with me!

He Zhiqiu was still wavering, but when Ye Chen asked Faisal to take her out by force, her sense of resistance was immediately aroused and she said almost immediately, "I'm not going.

As soon as He Zhiqiu said this, the other seven people's expressions instantly eased up a bit, and some even unintentionally showed a hint of excitement.

Ye Chen took in the performance of these people and inwardly had no hope at all for the humanity and character of this group of people.

At a critical moment, he did not want his companions to escape even though he did not have a chance to escape, and he wanted them to stay and die with him, this was the most dirty side of human nature.

So, Ye Chen immediately said to Faisal, "Gag her and take her out."

When He Zhiqiu heard this, she became even more emotional and shouted, "Don't touch me, I won't leave!

After that, she looked at Ye Chen and shouted, "Mr. Ye, please tell my father that I can't pay my respects to him, so he won't blame me.

Ye Chen frowned at her and asked rhetorically, "Your brain is also infected by the seven stupid birds."

"I didn't" He Zhiqiu said in a loud voice: "I've thought it through, I'm willing to bear all the consequences, and I definitely won't regret it.

Ye Chen was furious and pointed at her, shouting sternly, "Shut up! Before I came here, your death had nothing to do with me, but now that I'm here, you can only live.

Chapter 2678

He Zhiqiu questioned, "Why should I have the right to choose not to let you take me away"

Ye Chen pointed at Hamid and asked, "Why didn't you say that to him when they kidnapped you?"

He Zhiqiu was dumbfounded by the question, and stammered:"

If you really want to die here, you can come back when you return to China and Jinling, after I have handed you over to your father safely.

Ye Chen coldly snorted: "You don't want to you don't want to more, you don't want to go, I'm going to take you away

After saying that, he said to Faisal, "Gag her, I don't want to hear her talk now."

Faisal immediately picked up the hood He Zhiqiu was wearing from the ground, twisted it into a cylinder shape in his hand, and then shoved it directly into He Zhiqiu's mouth.

She could only grunt desperately while staring at Ye Chen with tear-filled eyes.

Ye Chen didn't look at her and waved his hand at Faisal: "Take her out."

Faisal immediately took He Zhiqiu to the room outside.

The seven people in the room watched He Zhiqiu being taken away, and their faces. Anger and resentment resurfaced on their faces.

Ye Chen looked at them and said expressionlessly, "No matter how long you seven will live, I hope you will remember seven words, the righteousness of the world is the vicissitudes of the world.

After saying that, he looked at Hamid and spoke: "Commander Hamid, it will be hard for you to see us off."

Without saying a word, Hamid immediately made a gesture of invitation and spoke, "Older brother, please do so

Ye Chen nodded and went out of that room inside with Hamid, and then had the iron door locked again, no matter how much the seven people inside wailed, Ye Chen's heart had no pity.

Afterwards, Hamid also kept his promise and used the intercom to issue orders to his men to unload all the ammunition from one of the helicopter gunships, then removed all the guards from the courtyard above his head, and then had his most trusted pilot fly that helicopter and land it in the courtyard again.

After all this was done, Hamid said to Ye Chen, "Older brother, the plane is ready, let's go up now."

Ye Chen nodded and said to Faisal and the others, "You few stay on here.

Without hesitation, several people said, "Yes, sir.

Ye Chen pulled He Zhiqiu, whose hands could be tied behind him, over and said to Hamid, "The three of us will go up.

He Zhiqiu could not speak and could only keep shedding tears. Hamid took the initiative to take out his own gun and threw it on the ground and said to Ye Chen, "Older brother, I will walk in front, you have a gun in your hand and my leg is handicapped, you don't have to worry that I will escape."

Ye Chen had a little more appreciation for Hamid's character and nodded slightly, "Thank you, old brother.

Chapter 2679

Seeing Hamid limping up the stairs, Ye Chen was somewhat curious, so he casually asked, "Brother, have you been wounded in this leg?"

Hamid looked back at him and then at his left leg and said, "My left leg was severely injured in a battle, hit by debris from a bomb explosion. The leg was also irreversibly damaged, so after recovery the muscles atrophied severely and the function deteriorated so much that it became lame.

He said, "In a place like Syria, the difficulties of a crippled commander are inexplicable!"

Although a cripple is not a serious disability, Hamid is, after all, the supreme commander of an armed force, and limping a leg has a great impact on his personal image, his prestige, and all.

The biggest impact, however, was that his self-confidence suffered considerably as a result.

There was a time when Hamid was an ambitious general, eager to make his mark in the chaos of war and even to become the supreme commander of the entire opposition.

But since his leg went lame, his influence has declined considerably, and his self-confidence has been battered.

Originally, he was one of the strongest opposition groups with nearly 10,000 men, but when a few of his inner circle saw that his leg was crippled and his confidence was badly damaged, they took the opportunity to incite some of his men to go out and set up their own groups, causing his strength to plummet.

When a man has enough authority to intimidate his men, they will seem as docile as cats and as loyal as dogs.

However, once the man's own strength and health decline, his men will develop the hearts of tigers and wolves.

Those who set themselves up are already considered to be more kung-fu-minded, while those who have no decency will even take the opportunity to kill off their own bosses and take their place.

Such things are indeed commonplace in ancient and modern times.

Song Taizu Zhao Kuangyin was originally a member of the Later Zhou

After the death of Zhou Shizong, who had just passed on the throne to his seven-year-old son, Emperor Zhou Gong, Zhao Kuangyin turned around and started the Chenqiao Mutiny, taking over his young master's reign.

History is full of similar events.

The same is true of Hamid, who was in Syria.

The economic development of the region was very poor, and the mountainous terrain was such that the troops were poorly motorised, relying mostly on their legs and mules and horses for transport, a situation that magnified Hamid's physical disability.

When the soldiers were fighting in the mountains, he was unable to go to the front to cheer them on;

When the troops began to manoeuvre across the mountains, he could not take part in them at all.

The opposition's soldiers were already from reckless backgrounds and needed their commanders to lead or integrate, but Hamid's legs were a huge disadvantage.

At this moment, Hamid, limping, walked out of the cellar, followed by Ye Chen and He Zhiqiu.

When they came out, they saw a - helicopter gunship parked in the courtyard, and all those armed men from before had already withdrawn.

The weapons and ammunition hanging underneath and on both sides of the helicopter had basically been dismantled, and the machine guns, which were the main firepower, had also been unloaded with all their ammunition.

The reason why Ye Chen had asked them to take off all the ammunition was also to ensure that Hamid would not suddenly backtrack after he arrived at the rendezvous point.

After all, the Ye family had arranged for civilian planes, and when they came to pick themselves up, they would definitely be civilian helicopters. In front of armed helicopters, civilian helicopters were just paper mache, and a casual burst of machine guns would directly turn them into sieves.

At this moment, there was a pilot standing next to the helicopter. When he saw Hamid coming out with Ye Chen and He Zhiqiu, two strangers, he immediately felt something bad and subconsciously tried to touch the pilot's gun on his waist.

Hamid immediately said, "Drop the gun, these two are my friends!"

When the pilot heard this, although he was suspicious, he did not dare to make a move and immediately dropped his gun on the ground.

Hamid commanded again, "Hurry up and start the helicopter!"

The pilot hurriedly climbed into the cockpit to start the propellers, while Hamid, together with Ye Chen and He Zhiqiu, sat in the cabin.

Once inside the cabin, Ye Chen used the watch Vasily had given him to press the emergency call button.

The infrastructure in Syria itself was poor, and the war was a mess. Apart from the cities, there were almost no communication signals, so even international roaming mobile phones had no service here, and the only medium available for calls was satellite.

It was a good thing that this kind of watch, specially equipped for paratroopers, had its own satellite call function.

As soon as the call went through, Ye Chen heard Han Guangyao's voice: "Young master, is everything going well on your end?"

Ye Chen replied, "Everything is going well and ahead of schedule, you should arrange for the helicopter to arrive at the scheduled location now, I will arrive in about 15 minutes.

Han Guangyao said dumbfounded: "Young master, how can you get there so quickly when there are dozens of kilometres of mountainous terrain?"

Ye Chen laughed: "Commander Hamid of the opposition personally arranged for a helicopter to take us there.

Han Guangyao - hearing this - instantly realised that Ye Chen must have taken control of Hamid, and his whole person had been so shocked beyond attachment that he didn't know how to reply to Ye Chen for a while.

On the side, Chen Zekai hurriedly asked him: "Mr. Han, how long will it take if we fly there now?"

Only then did Han Guangyao come back to his senses and said offhandedly, "I'll have the helicopter ready now, we'll leave in five minutes, it's estimated to take about forty minutes." "Good." Ye Chen then said, "Then I'll wait for you at the scheduled location."

Han Guangyao was busy saying, "Okay Young Master, we're leaving right now!"

After hanging up the phone, Ye Chen told Hamid the GPS coordinates of his destination and asked him to tell the pilot. After the pilot set the coordinates, Hamid then said to Ye Chen, "Elder brother Ye, the pilot is ready and ready to take off, everything is at your command.

Ye Chen nodded and said, "Then let the pilot take off."

"Good!"

Hamid immediately instructed the pilot to take off through the intercom on his head.

Chapter 2680

The helicopter immediately began to ascend, and then headed towards the coordinates Ye Chen had agreed with Han Guangyao and the others.

A few dozen kilometres of mountainous terrain might not be reached by ordinary people on foot in a day, but the helicopter only took ten minutes.

Soon, the helicopter arrived at the coordinates, which were on top of a relatively gentle mountain, not too high in elevation and not too steep in terrain, but there were no roads for several kilometres around, so there was hardly any human traffic.

After the helicopter landed at the top of the mountain, Ye Chen said to Hamid: "Older brother, it's still hard for you to wait here for a while, you can leave again when the plane that will pick me up arrives.

Hamid did not hesitate to say: "Should be should be, this is also a bit more reassuring for you!

After saying that, he then ordered the pilot, " Turn off the engine and lights, we will wait here for a while!

The pilot immediately did as he was told.

When the plane's engine stopped turning, the surroundings were instantly quiet. Once it was quiet, He Zhiqiu's sobbing could be heard, and at this moment, she had no idea how many tears she had shed.

Ye Chen reached out to remove the hood from her mouth, and He Zhiqiu's first words were, "Send me back! Or you can go on your own and let them take me back!"

Ye Chen said slightly mockingly, "Your father told me that you were a very smart person and a very good businessman and manager, but I really didn't think that you would be so stupid." He Zhiqiu begged, "You don't understand, if I leave like this, it will become a lifelong demon, a lifelong nightmare for me, I beg you to let me go back, if all my friends die and I am the only one alive, I will be tortured and tormented for the rest of my life, instead of that, let me stay!

Ye Chen realised that this mentality of He Zhiqiu's was perhaps not stupidity, but a characteristic of her own personality.

Most could easily forgive themselves, but some would not, and such people would not only not forgive themselves easily, but would suffer for the rest of their lives.

If those seven people were really just that

The first thing you need to do is to get rid of the problem.

The actual fact is that you'll be able to get over this hurdle in your heart as long as your friends survive?"

He Zhiqiu nodded gently and asked after her, "Can you save them?"

Ye Chen looked at Hamid and spoke, "Older brother, let me be honest, those seven people, even if you killed them all, the White House would not give you a single penny.

Hamid also realized, nodded and said, "Indeed, they don't have half a mind to give money, and have already blocked the news in the western world, even if I kill them all, the western media will not report it, it won't serve the purpose of forcing them."

Saying this, he sighed and gritted his teeth, "OK, old brother if you need to, then I will release them or send another helicopter to bring them over.

He Zhiqiu was instantly surprised.

But at this time, Ye Chen immediately waved his hand and said: "No, I just need them to survive, I don't want to take them away with me."

Hamid was busy asking, "Older brother, then what do you mean?"

Ye Chen said: "How about this, you don't kill them, let them stay as laborers, in your troops to do odd jobs, cooking, digging trenches, transporting goods and so on, I believe they are still capable of doing this, keep them a life, let them stay in Syria for the rest of their lives to work for you, it is also considered that you did not kidnap them back for nothing.

Hamid immediately understood Ye Chen's meaning.

He knew that Ye Chen did not want to save those guys, but only wanted to save their lives for He Zhiqiu's sake.

So he immediately agreed and said, "Since old brother has said so, then don't worry, I will put them to good use, give them a mouthful of food, let them live, and honestly work for me as hard labourers."

Ye Chen nodded and asked He Zhiqiu rhetorically, "They won't be killed, is that satisfactory to you?"

He Zhiqiu questioned with some anger: "You can obviously

Why did you have to do this?"

Ye Chen also asked her rhetorically, "Joke, I've already given you enough face by leaving them alive, why should I save them from leaving?"

He Zhiqiu couldn't help but say, "It's clear that with just one word from you, they can regain their freedom, but why are you unwilling to help them?"

"Help them?" Ye Chen sneered and asked her: "On what grounds? There are millions of refugees in Syria and over 700 million people in Europe, so if each person in Europe donated a fist-sized loaf of bread a day, they would be able to feed them and make them fat, but why do these refugees still have no place to live and no food to eat?"

Saying that, Ye Chen asked, "There are 400 million extremely poor people in Africa, while the world's developed countries have a combined population of nearly one billion, so if only these people from developed countries, if every two people from developed countries feed one African, there will be no more extremely poor people in the whole of Africa, but why don't they do that?"

He Zhiqiu was dumbfounded by the question, his face turned red but he could not find a suitable reason to retort.

Ye Chen asked in a cold voice at this time, "You always think it's easy for me to save him with a single word, so you think I have to, which is a brainless paradox in itself! Bill Gates is so rich, it's easy to come up with ten billion dollars, why don't you let him pay a ransom of seventy million dollars to get these seven of his compatriots back?"

He Zhiqiu blurted out, "You're stealing the concept!"

Ye Chen snorted: "Stealing concepts?"

"Fine, let me ask you, among the seven of them, is one of them my kin?"

"I ask you again, among the seven of them, is one of them my brother or sister?"

"Is one of them my friend?"

"Is one of them my kinsman?"

"Not my kinsman, not my brother, not my friend, not my countryman, not my kindred!"

If I help such a person who has nothing to do with me, it is a matter of love; if I do not help him, it is a matter of nature!

"Even if I could help them with just one word, but who am I to! What! Why! To! Help!
