

Ye Chen 2681

Chapter 2681

With these words, Ye Chen rendered He Zhiqiu completely speechless.

She finally knew that the biggest difference between herself and Ye Chen.

She herself had thought of human nature too simply and imagined the rules of the world too idealistically.

Ye Chen, however, had already seen through all this.

It was indeed simple to help others, but there must be a proper reason.

Otherwise, even if the developed world wastes enough food to feed all of Africa every day, Africa would still be starving.

For this reason, why should we ask the billion people in developed countries to save the food they waste and send it to Africa?

It's easy to waste it. If you don't want to eat it or can't eat it anymore, you can just throw it into the rubbish.

Why should anyone be asked to give this wasted food to Africans?

No

No sense!

The top 100 richest people in the world have more money than they can spend in a lifetime, but people still die of hunger every day in the world because they can't eat, so can you morally abduct these rich people on the grounds that people are still starving in the world?

Again, it doesn't make sense.

The same goes for those seven companions of hers.

Nothing they had done was worthy of Ye Chen's rescue.

By letting Hamid keep them alive, Ye Chen had already counted himself as benevolent, and had even been considered their saviour.

In this situation, what else did Ye Chen need?

Thinking this through, she slowly lowered her head and stopped speaking.

She felt that she had indeed been a little too emotional just now.

Instead of thanking Ye Chen for saving her life, she had even complained to him

It was typical to return the favor with a grudge.

When Ye Chen saw that she had finally subsided, his mood eased a little.

The other side, Hamid, saw that Ye Chen still seemed a bit unhappy, and even spoke up to persuade him: "Older brother, Miss He may still be too young and has not seen the dangers of the world, so some of her comments do seem a bit childish to us, but you should not take it too personally.

Ye Chen nodded and said indifferently, "Older brother is right, but anyone who has seen the dangers of the world would not come to this kind of hellhole to make some documentary."

Hamid sighed in agreement, "To be honest, I don't fucking understand what these young people are thinking, they are all Americans, but they ended up coming to Syria to make some anti-war documentary, but they don't even realize that the whole Middle East region is in such a mess today because the US is behind it!

"If it weren't for them, we'd be living a much more relaxed life.

Chapter 2682

"But they sent troops to stir things up when they had nothing better to do, and even when they couldn't spare their hands, they didn't leave us alone, but supported behind the scenes to incite one power to target another, which then led to our civil war."

The result? These young men of theirs, coming all the way over here to bash us for fighting a civil war, do you think their brains have been eaten by dogs?

When Hamid said this - out loud, He Zhiqiu was too ashamed to raise his head even more.

In fact, although this group of so-called elites were highly educated, they were essentially a generation that had been brainwashed by the Western media.

They always felt that everything about the West was the truth, while everywhere else but the West was backward.

Every day they are in the West and see media reports on how backward, how troubled and how people are living in misery in other countries, so they can't help but develop a sense of being masters of the world.

So they started to travel to various third world countries, trying to change the whole third world by themselves.

But they often overlooked the most important point, that some Third World countries are suffering, not because of the Third World countries themselves, but because the United States of America, which they are proud of, is behind it.

Therefore, they feel that they are on the moral high ground, but they are actually very stupid.

When Ye Chen saw He Zhiqiu's deeply bowed head, he smiled and said to Hamid: "This kind of practice of theirs is like his pro

The first thing you need to do is to take the clothes away from your father, and not only do they not know about it, but they also run over and tell him righteously that he must be a civilized person in a civilized society, and that he must never be unclothed.

Hamid gave a thumbs up and said with admiration: "Older brother, that's an incisive summary!

Ye Chen said with a smile: "It's not incisive, I can only say that American higher education is too brainwashed, this large group of doctors and post-docs can't even understand the basic international situation."

Hamid sighed, "It's still you, old brother, who has a thorough understanding."

He saw Hamid standing on the ground, his left leg was already atrophied and he had to stand on a rock more than ten centimeters high to keep his balance. He's quite to my liking.

Then he thought of the inconveniences and constraints he must face in a war-torn place like Syria with his limp leg, and a thought came to him.

So he smiled and asked Hamid, "Brother, have you ever thought of getting your left leg cured?"

Hamid said with a bitter smile, "Of course I have, and I have used all the means available to me. In order to cure this leg, I have been to Germany, the United States and Japan under another identity, seeking medical help everywhere, spending tens of millions of dollars, but I still cannot cure this leg.

At this point, Hamid let out a long sigh: 'Alas! I've become a cripple before I've accomplished anything, and this is really what I've been doing all my life regret."

The most important thing is that it is not as serious as the biggest regret of your life, it doesn't matter if your leg is lame, just heal it!

The actual fact is that you can find a lot of people who are not able to get a good deal on this kind of things. But the best orthopaedic surgeon in the world told me personally that it was impossible to cure it, so I don't have any hope anymore, maybe this is the fate that God has arranged for me, I am not destined to achieve great things."

Ye Chen smiled, looked at him with a profound expression and asked, "If I said I had a way to cure your leg, would you believe me?"

"I don't believe it!" Hamid subconsciously shook his head.

But the next moment, he suddenly realised something and asked, "Are you kidding me, old man, or do you really have a solution? !"

Ye Chen laughed, "Then you and I are brothers, how would I joke about such a big regret as yours?"

Hamid said excitedly, "Then you mean you really have a way to cure my leg? !"

At this point, Hamid, without hesitation, knelt down on one knee, bowed at the top of his head and said respectfully, "Old man! If you really have a solution, please tell me the way, if my leg can really be restored, I will remember your kindness for the rest of my life!"

Ye Chen nodded and took out a pill from his pocket, it was not a rejuvenation pill, but a blood dispersal and heart saving pill that he had refined before.

This kind of medicine had cured Xiao Changkun, who was paraplegic, and although it could not extend Hamid's life by a decade or two, it would be completely out of the question to cure his leg!

Chapter 2683

To Ye Chen, the Spring Return Pill was still of some value, but this Blood Dispersing and Heart Saving Pill, the cost could really be so low as to be negligible.

Moreover, this kind of elixir no longer had much for the current him. It was no longer of practical use. The reason why he still carried it around with him was only to deal with some special situations.

Now, for example, this blood dispersing and heart saving elixir came in handy.

Hamid's left leg was his greatest regret in his life, and in his opinion, it was impossible to cure it, but for Ye Chen this Blood Dissipating Heart Saving Pill, even if both his legs were crippled, he could still be cured by taking one of them.

So, Ye Chen first handed this pill to Hamid and said with a slight smile: "Old brother, this divine pill of mine is made by an ancient Chinese divine doctor, it can cure all kinds of diseases and is worth a lot of money, I originally paid a heavy price to buy it and carry it with me at all times, in order to save my life in case of emergency.

As he said this, he sighed with some reluctance and lamented: "However, since you need this miracle pill more than I do, I will give it to you today!

When Hamid heard this, he was flattered and surprised at the same time, asking, "Do you mean that my lame leg can be cured if I take this pill? !

Ye Chen nodded and said in a very certain tone: "That's right

The only thing I need to do is to take it and see the effect on the spot.

After saying that, he pointed to the surroundings and laughed: "As long as you take this pill, a minute later, you will definitely run more nimbly than a rabbit on this mountainous terrain.

When Hamid heard him say this, he couldn't believe it any more.

This was because he had indeed expended a huge amount of energy, money, and material resources to cure this leg of his.

He had basically seen all the world's top orthopaedic experts, and the more experts he saw, the more convinced he became that his leg would never be cured.

But now Ye Chen handed him a pitch-black pill and said that this - a pill - could cure his crippled leg, which had turned his perception of medicine upside down.

So, he asked somewhat incredulously: "Old you said that, is it true?"

Ye Chen laughed: "Is it true or not, won't you know if you eat it? Besides, you don't have to worry that I will harm you, because if I want to kill you, it is much easier to use a gun than poison."

Hamid nodded, he wasn't worried at all that Ye Chen would harm him, after so many years in the chaotic world, he trusted his eyesight and judgement very much.

So, he put his heart into it, took the pill and said with an arch of his hand, "Older brother, whether this medicine is effective or not, older brother thanks you in advance! No matter how much you have spent on this pill, I will double, oh no

I'll give it to you ten times!

After saying that, he immediately stuffed the pill into his mouth and chewed it open with force, before he could swallow it into his belly, the pill immediately turned into a sweet medicinal water and flowed into his body.

Immediately afterwards, he felt that the medicinal water, like a sweet spring flowing through dry land, seemed to nourish the organs everywhere it went from the moment it entered his mouth

Then, something even more miraculous happened!

He felt that the medicinal power, as if it was guided by someone, converged directly towards his left leg!

He felt his left leg getting hotter and itchier, as if it had been bitten by countless mosquitoes.

Just as the itch was unbearable, he suddenly found that the muscles of his left leg, which had long since atrophied, began to rejuvenate.

Originally, his left leg was not only atrophied and lame, but also because he had been injured, so he could not use much strength in his left leg.

But now it was different.

He could feel that the strength in his left leg was being restored at a rapid pace!

He tried to stand up, and his left leg, which had been very strained, surprisingly exploded with strong strength in an instant, allowing him to go from a one-knee position to a full stand in an instant.

And even more miraculously, he was no longer standing with his body tilted to the left, but standing completely straight

Chapter 2684

Hamid's entire body was so shocked that he could not speak, and he carefully felt on his left leg for half a day, and then compared it to his right leg, before he was surprised to find that his two legs were exactly the same thickness and length!

Immediately, he lifted his left leg in excitement and found that it was more flexible than even before he had been injured!

He then tried jumping in place a few more times, and found that he was as light as a swallow, not only were his legs intact, but he also had inexhaustible strength in his body.

At this moment, Hamid thought he was having a dream!

He pinched his thigh hard, only to find that the pain came so directly and dry!

This made him instantly realise that this scene before him was not a dream!

He was so excited that he was incoherent: "My leg is really healed! My leg is really fine! My leg is really back to normal! My leg is back! !

With this shout, even He Zhiqiu, who had previously kept her head down and did not dare to respond, subconsciously looked towards him.

He Zhiqiu also could not imagine that Ye Chen could really cure Hamid's top orthopedic in the world with a seemingly ordinary pill disabled left leg that none of the doctors could cure.

However, that was the reality!

Ye Chen looked at Hamid, who was unbearably excited, and said with a smile: "Older brother, come on, take two steps without illness!

Without hesitation, Hamid nodded heavily: "Yes! Take two steps!"

With that, he took a step on the pile of rocks at the top of the hill.

It was a quick, steady and easy step!

Hamid followed up with another step, again with ease, and his body didn't even happen to half change from side to side.

These two parts gave Hamid so much confidence that he suddenly accelerated, and with a hard stomp of his left leg, his whole body had leapt out!

And so, a figure as mad as a psychopath ran in circles on this dimly lit hilltop.

As he ran, he shouted in excitement, his loud shouts and laughter echoing around the deserted valley.

Fortunately, this is a no-man's-land for ten or twenty kilometres, otherwise he would have scared the living daylights out of people.

Hamid could not have cared less.

He felt like he was running around naked in a sudden downpour in the summer heat, and the feeling of being uninhibited made him not by himself to tears.

After running and shouting several times, Hamid came to Ye Chen with a big stride, clutching his hand, excited to the point of near madness, and at the same time with a million pious gratitude, saying: "Old brother! My leg is all healed! It's completely healed! You are really my new parent! You have cured my leg and given me a second life!"

After saying that, he hurriedly asked: "Brother, how much did this medicine cost? I'll definitely give you ten times as much!"

Ye Chen smiled lightly and said seriously: "We are all brothers, talking about money is out of place, and to put it mildly, if you really want to give me ten times, old brother, you may not be able to afford it, as far as I know, there is a miracle pill that is slightly stronger than it, which fetched a sky-high price of two billion RMB, if you really give me ten times, I am afraid your army will have to smash the pot and sell the iron.

Hamid's face rolled with embarrassment as he said, "Older brother, it's my fault for being so abrupt, such a miracle drug is not even expensive at 100 million dollars! It's just that I'm really strapped for cash right now, so how about this, I'll pay you $10 million first, and I'll slowly pay you the rest later!"

Ye Chen waved his hand and said indifferently, "Old brother, since you and I are brothers, then this medicine is my gift to you, you don't need to be so polite with me, just if there is anything you need to help me in the future, don't forget about me.

Chapter 2685

To Ye Chen, a single Blood Dispersing Heart Saving Pill was indeed nothing.

If he wanted to mass produce this kind of thing, he didn't dare to say that he could just move it onto the production line, but it was easy to refine a hundred or eighty pills a day, or even three or two hundred.

The main reason why he didn't make so many was to ensure that this item would appear to be a curiosity and worth a lot to outsiders.

So to give one to Hamid casually, to him, it was almost like an orchard farmer with 10,000 acres of orchards, giving someone an apple casually, which was not worth mentioning at all.

However, it meant extremely much to Hamid.

In a peaceful world without war, a man with a disabled leg would have many inconveniences, and he would even see restoring his health as his greatest wish in life.

Not to mention Hamid, a general seeking to survive in the midst of war.

By healing his leg today, Ye Chen had saved his life.

With a healthy body, Hamid would be able to better lead his troops into battle, and even lead them first, thus keeping them obedient.

Therefore, he was excited and said to Ye Chen, "Older brother! You are my greatest benefactor in this life, apart from my parents! If there is anything you need from me in the future, I will die for you!"

Ye Chen nodded and smiled, "With this word from old brother, this divine pill of mine is not in vain."

Hamid seriously said, "Since I lost this leg, the team was reduced from more than 10,000 to 2,000, at that time I actually did not have the same fighting spirit as before, I always thought that as long as I could barely survive, I could choose a reliable power to join in the future, so I could have a guarantee"

His voice became unusually firm as he shouted, "But! Since God has given me this opportunity, let me meet you, my dear brother, and let you heal my leg! From now on, I, Hamid, will never sink like I did before! I must do my utmost to make the team bigger and stronger again, and perhaps one day, I, Hamid, will be able to become a real king and marquis!"

After saying this, he looked towards Ye Chen and said reverently, "Old brother! If old brother really has the day when I become a king and marquis, when I am crowned, old brother must come to witness for me!"

Ye Chen nodded and smiled, "I see that your face has the destiny of great wealth and prosperity, I think it won't take long to wait for this day."

Hamid laughed and extended his hand to Ye Chen, saying excitedly, "Older brother, then I'll lend you my good advice!"

Ye Chen smiled slightly, stretched out his hand and shook it firmly, and said, "Old brother, apart from fighting, you also need to have more economic acumen, nowadays, in this society, the economic foundation determines the superstructure, as long as you have enough money, not to mention 10,000 people, even 100,000 or a million people under your hands, it is not a problem at all."

Hamid said seriously, "Old brother is right, from now on I must bring out 120% of my fighting spirit, and properly bring the size of the team back up again!"

As he spoke, the sound of a helicopter whistled in the distance.

A few dozen kilometres away in mid-air, two bright lights flew closer.

Hamid knew that these were the helicopters that had come to pick up Ye Chen, so he said with a little sigh, "Brother, you left in such a hurry, so I can't do my best to treat you well, I'm really ashamed!"

Ye Chen laughed, "It doesn't matter, there will be plenty of opportunities later."

As he said that, Ye Chen remembered something and said, "By the way, old brother, Faisal and the others did not really betray you, but I used some tricks to give them some psychological hints in their subconscious, so when you go back, don't be angry and make things difficult for them, just don't let them work in important positions for the time being."

Hamid suddenly realized, nodded and said, "No wonder they all listen to your command one by one, so it's like this"

After saying that, he immediately assured Ye Chen, "Don't worry, old brother, I will definitely not make things difficult for them, and those seven Americans, I will also leave them alive as you said."

Chapter 2686

3-4 minutes

Ye Chen clasped his fist, "Then thank you, old brother."

Soon, a heavy civilian helicopter, slowly landed at the top of the mountain.

Before the plane had fully landed, Han Guangyao and Chen Zekai jumped down left and right and hurriedly went up to ask, "Are you alright, Young Master?"

Ye Chen laughed, "Do I look like I'm alright standing here?"

Saying that, Ye Chen pointed at Hamid and said to the two men, "Come, let me introduce you to the highest commander of this opposition army, Commander Hamid, he studied in China and his Chinese is very good."

The two men looked astonished and hurriedly said in unison, "Greetings, Commander Hamid!"

Hamid greeted the two politely.

Ye Chen looked at the time and spoke, "Old brother, it's getting late, I still have to fly all the way back to China, so I won't talk to you anymore, let's catch up next time!"

Hamid nodded his head and said with a fist, "Brother, no thanks for your kindness, let's leave a contact information for each other, I will give you my satellite phone number, if you need anything, you can reach me anytime."

Ye Chen then said, "That's good, let's leave each other's phone numbers, so we can contact each other directly by phone."

After they left their contact information, Ye Chen said to He Zhiqiu, "All right, Miss He, we should go now."

Only then did He Zhiqiu raise her head, her expression full of shame, and nodded her head.

Ye Chen once again said goodbye to Hamid and cupped his fist, "See you later, old brother!"

Hamid also said very reverently, "See you later!"

Afterwards, Ye Chen took He Zhiqiu and boarded the helicopter arranged by Han Guangyao.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

Inside the helicopter returning to Lebanon, Han Guangyao, Chen Zekai and Vasily all looked at Ye Chen with shocked faces.

Especially Han Guangyao, he had thought that Ye Chen would be captured this time when he went deep into Hamid's sphere of influence all by himself, and would definitely have to ask the Ye family to pay for his ransom when the time came.

In fact, after knowing these circumstances, Master Ye had already prepared to spend money to ransom him, and the company registered by the Ye family outside the country had already prepared tens of millions of dollars, so as long as Hamid gave an account number, the money could be paid over immediately.

But what Han Guangyao did not expect was that Ye Chen not only rescued the man, but also Hamid personally sent him to the joint location.

What made him feel even more incredible was that Hamid even called him a brother and treated him very respectfully.

Just when Han Guangyao was shocked to the point of being unable to attach, Ye Chen spoke up and asked him, "Old Han, is the Concorde ready?"

Han Guangyao came back to his senses and hurriedly said, "Back to Young Master, it is ready and can take off at any time."

Ye Chen nodded in satisfaction and spoke, "Fly straight to the airport and transfer to the Concorde back to China immediately upon arrival!"

Chapter 2687

The long, slender Concorde took off from Beirut International Airport in the Lebanese capital.

The plane took off and went straight into the clouds, sailing at top speed towards China.

On the plane, He Zhiqiu sat at the window, gazing out alone in a daze.

Up until now, she still felt as if she had dreamt the experience of the past hour or so.

However, she quietly looked at Ye Chen, who was sitting not far away with his eyes closed, and could again clearly feel that all this was not a dream, but real.

Thinking that Ye Chen had gone deep into Syria alone and saved herself from the brink of death, He Zhiqiu felt nothing but gratitude and guilt in her heart.

She felt that after so many years of reading and studying economics and finance, in the end, she was naive enough not to even see through human nature.

At first, she felt ashamed of herself for abandoning her companions, but now, when she thought about it, it was her friends who really had no good intentions.

As far as they were concerned, they would rather die with them than have a chance to live themselves.

Even they, too, had a chance to live, but they squandered it recklessly themselves.

As a result, having squandered their chance, they began to feel extraordinarily angry that they had the chance to leave.

Such people made her fully appreciate the evil of human nature.

Thinking of this, she silently stood up from her seat, then paced to Ye Chen's side and gently sat down.

Ye Chen, who was resting his eyes closed, felt someone sitting beside him, opened his eyes and saw that it was He Zhiqiu, so he smiled slightly and asked her, "Why don't you take advantage of these few hours of flight time to rest and relax?"

He Zhiqiu said somewhat awkwardly, "My heart is particularly confused, and I can't sleep either"

Saying that, she looked at Ye Chen and said in shame, "Mr. Ye, I'm really too embarrassed today."

Ye Chen smiled faintly, "You are about those few friends of yours, right?"

"En," He Zhiqiu nodded gently and lamented, "I really didn't expect them to be such people, you are right, I don't know enough about human nature, perhaps my social experience is still lacking a lot."

Ye Chen laughed: "The more social experience you lack, the more it proves that you have been well protected since you were a child, many children who are a few years old or a teenager have a great deal of social experience very early on, which instead proves that their families of origin have not given them enough protection."

Saying that, Ye Chen added: "Moreover, this matter you have experienced is indeed rather special, a normal person, under normal circumstances, would not be able to experience such a thing as being kidnapped by another country's armed forces, the world's population of six or seven billion people, it is estimated that there are not even six or seven thousand people who have this kind of experience, translating into an average of one in a million people would have this kind of experience, so to congratulate you, after tonight, you'll have a hands-on experience that 9999 people, don't have the chance to have, and all of a sudden you've left the vast majority behind."

He Zhiqiu was even more ashamed and said with a red face, "You just don't make fun of me, I know I ran this thing quite stupidly from start to finish."

Chapter 2688

Ye Chen said approvingly, "If I were to comment realistically, you guys did run this thing stupidly, rightly and not wrongly anyway, but you are wrong in taking the wrong stand, if you really want to reduce war for the world, you should not be propagating anti-war in Syria, but in front of the White House in Washington, because your homeland, at least, is responsible for modern responsibility for about 50 wars around the world."

He Zhiqiu nodded gently, and then hurriedly said, "Mr Ye, actually I want to say that I am not the kind of banana man who comes"

Ye Chen asked curiously, "What is a banana man?"

He Zhiqiu busily said, "A banana man is a Chinese person like us who was born and raised in the United States, with the body and genes of a yellow man, but the thinking and outlook of a white man in the West."

Ye Chen asked with interest, "Don't you think like a Western white man?"

He Zhiqiu shook his head and said, "Although I was born and raised in the United States and took American citizenship, my parents taught me from a young age that my roots were in China and told me to remember that wherever I went, I was a Chinese creed."

Ye Chen nodded gently and asked again, "But I heard your father say that you don't seem too willing to return to China?"

He Zhiqiu explained, "It's mainly because I have some communication problems with him, in fact, this problem has always existed between us, father and daughter, when I was small, he was always busy making money, flying all over the world all day long, rarely giving me attention, and rarely allowing me to experience fatherly love, so the relationship between the two of us was rather stiff, later after my mother died, the relationship it became even more strained, and my reluctance to return to China was just an excuse to reject him."

Saying that, He Zhiqiu sighed and added: "In fact, I have thought about it myself, even if I don't go to ease up with him now, when he is really old, I still have to find a step to his side to take care of him, it's just that I have always thought before that he is only in his fifties, it's not yet that time when we must ease up"

Ye Chen nodded with understanding and spoke, "If you think it's really hard for the two of you to de-escalate, there's actually no need to necessarily go to Jinling right now, that is, your father's greatest hope is also that you can be safe, and if you still want some privacy for the time being, I believe he will be able to understand."

He Zhiqiu said offhandedly, "But I have already promised you ah"

Saying that, she realised something and said shamefacedly, "But you may now find it difficult for me to take up your post, after all, I made such a big mistake in judging the situation, which proves that my ability and fire are not enough"

Ye Chen waved his hand: "It's not the same thing, just because a person misjudges a friend doesn't mean he'll make mistakes in other things too, I've always believed that genius definitely doesn't follow the barrel effect."

"A person who is balanced in everything is not a talent, he is a mediocrity!"

"Only people who are extremely strong in one area are truly talented!"

"If it's someone who is extremely strong in certain aspects, then it's a genius!"

Saying that, Ye Chen said seriously, "You should have seen many Hollywood inspirational movies, there are people who look like idiots but are extremely talented in mathematics; there are people who can't do anything but can just play basketball like a pro; there are people who can't even speak well but are top physicists, or astronomers;"

"Even a top genius like Einstein doesn't do everything right."

"So, to me, as long as you can do this piece of business well, all the other shortcomings are not much of a problem in my eyes."

He Zhiqiu nodded gently and said seriously, "Mr. Ye, as long as you are willing to give me the opportunity, I will definitely do my best and do my best to help you get this piece of business up and running!"

Ye Chen smiled and said, "That's really great, besides I think you can ease up with Uncle He this time when you go to Jinling, he really cares about you a lot, if it wasn't for him, I wouldn't have been able to come to Syria to save you."

Chapter 2689

While Ye Chen and He Zhiqiu were rushing back to Jinling, Hamid was also rushing back to the valley in northern Syria.

At this moment, his men were talking a lot, and all of them did not understand why Hamid suddenly wanted to send a hostage out.

And, in addition to the woman hostage, there was another guy, whom no one had ever seen before, who appeared out of nowhere and followed Hamid.

At least it was a heavily guarded military compound, and it was the first time that someone who was unknown to anyone had appeared out of nowhere, something so unbelievable that it could be said to be somewhat bizarre.

So, after Hamid left, everyone couldn't wait to find out what had just happened.

Hamid's deputy personally went to the cellar and tried to find someone to ask what had happened, but Faisal and the others, who were loyal to Ye Chen, took advantage of the fact that there was only a narrow entrance to the cellar and that there was an iron gate that was easy to guard and hard to attack, and held a dead guard inside the iron gate to prevent anyone from entering.

Hamid's deputy had not expected Faisal's betrayal, and in his desperation he wanted to use a bomb to blow up the cellar, but the thought of the seven hostages inside, who could be exchanged for ransom, temporarily dissuaded him.

However, he knew in his heart that although the cellar was difficult to defend, the cellar itself was also a dead end, so as long as he held the exit, it would not be long before Faisal surrendered.

So he immediately deployed nearly 100 additional armed men in the courtyard, all with their guns trained on the exit of the cellar, ensuring that anyone who came out of it would be beaten to a pulp in an instant.

Just then, the helicopter roared into the sky, making everyone tense up.

Everyone recognised the helicopter as the one that Commander Hamid had just been in.

But no one knew now if Commander Hamid would step out of this aircraft later on after it landed.

The helicopter descended slowly, and when Hamid's deputy saw that the helicopter was going to land in the courtyard, he immediately told the soldiers around him: "Everyone move out of the way to make room for the helicopter to land!"

The soldiers in the courtyard, which had been full of soldiers, quickly spread out in all directions, leaving a clear space for the helicopter to land.

Immediately afterwards, the helicopter landed slowly.

After the aircraft landed, the hatch opened instantly and Hamid jumped straight out of the aircraft, seeing such a fight, he asked, "What are you all doing?"

The second-in-command hurriedly stepped forward and said, "Commander, where are you going?"

Hamid said indifferently, "Both of them are my friends, so don't ask any more questions.

The deputy didn't dare ask any more questions and said, "Commander, Faisal and the others have defected and they are now in the cellar, ready to resist.

"No," Hamid said, "I left Faisal down there, don't speculate!"

With that, he immediately took a step towards the entrance to the cellar.

It was only then that the deputy suddenly came to his senses and exclaimed, "Commander, what happened to your leg?"

Hamid smiled slightly and asked him, "You are the one who wants to ask how my leg is not lame, aren't you?"

The deputy nodded gently.

The soldiers around him also looked shocked, they too realised that Hamid's left leg had become completely normal, and deep inside each one of them was extremely curious as to what had happened to Hamid.

Hamid laughed: "My benefactor has given me a miracle pill that has cured my leg, from now on, I, Hamid, am no longer a cripple!

The soldiers around him were dumbfounded!

A magic pill to cure a crippled leg that has been irreversibly damaged!

Is this not a dream?

Chapter 2690

Although we don't read much, but we carry guns and fight every day, we still have basic common sense. In Hamid's case, even in the most powerful developed countries in the world, it is impossible to cure him, not to mention the lack of medicine in Syria.

However, the reality before us was that the commander, who had been crippled, was now walking like a man!

Hamid naturally took the crowd's reaction in stride.

He was so excited that he almost wanted to shout, but for the sake of his own image and his ability to control his team, he held back his excitement and took a calm step forward, all the way into the cellar.

Once inside the cellar, he spoke directly: "Faisal, I have sent Mr. Ye and Miss He away, and Mr. Ye has told me about your situation, don't worry, I promise you on my life, as long as you open the door, I won't make things difficult for you, you can still go back to your armoured brigade, and so can the others

Faisal subconsciously said, "It doesn't matter whether I live or die, the most important thing is that I want to make sure that Mr. Ye has left safely first otherwise I will confront you to the end"

Hamid was secretly surprised and thought to himself, "This hypnotic approach of Ye Laozi is really impressive. This Faisal doesn't even care about his own life, he only wants to be loyal to Ye Laozi, if I had this kind of skills, it wouldn't be a problem for me to unify the whole opposition camp

After a moment of sighing, Hamid said, "Faisal, do you still suspect that I will do anything against Ye?"

Faisal questioned, "You say Mr. Ye cured your leg?"

Hamid immediately said, "I can't lie to you, don't believe me, open the door and see, don't worry, I am the only one in the whole corridor.
