

Ye Chen 2691

Chapter 2691

Is this not a fool's errand?

Although people don't read much, but they carry guns and fight every day, they still have basic common sense. In Hamid's case, not to mention in Syria where there is a shortage of medicine, even if we go to the most powerful developed countries in the world, it is simply impossible to cure him. The most important thing is that it is not possible to cure Hamid.

However, the reality before us is that the commander, who has always been lame, is now really fit as a fiddle!

Although he was so excited that he almost wanted to shout out, for the sake of his own image and so that he could better control his team, he still held back his inner excitement and took a big, feignedly calm step forward, all the way into the cellar. The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you're getting into.

Once inside the cellar, he spoke directly, "Faisal, I have sent Mr. Ye and Miss He away, and Mr. Ye has told me about you, don't worry, I promise you on my life, as long as you open the door, I won't make things difficult for you, and you can still go back to your armoured brigade, and the same goes for the others!"

Faisal subconsciously said, "It doesn't matter whether I'm dead or alive, the most important thing is that I want to make sure that Mr. Ye has left safely first! Otherwise, I will confront you to the end!"

Hamid was secretly surprised and thought to himself, "This hypnotic way of Old Brother Ye is really something! This Faisal doesn't even care about his own life, he only wants to be loyal to Elder Brother Ye. If I had this kind of skill, it wouldn't be a problem for me to unify the entire opposition camp"

After a moment of sighing and lamenting, Hamid said, "Faisal, do you still doubt that I will do anything against Brother Ye? You don't even think about it, how could I possibly be his opponent? What's more, why should I go against him? Do you know that Elder Brother Ye is my benefactor, he is the one who cured my leg!"

Faisal questioned, "You said Mr. Ye cured your leg?!"

Hamid instantly said, "How could I lie to you? If you don't believe me, open the door and take a look, don't worry, I'm the only one in the whole corridor."

A few moments later, the iron door opened a crack and Faisal looked through it and saw that Hamid was indeed the only one in the corridor, and that he had no weapons with his bare hands.

Then, slightly relieved, Faisal asked again, "Is it true what you just said?"

Hamid raised his hands and slowly walked down the stairs, saying as he did so, "See for yourself, is my leg completely healed?"

While Faisal was shocked, his heart burst out with reverence for Ye Chen because of the psychological implication, and exclaimed, "In this world, I'm afraid only Mr. Ye can have such a skill!"

Hamid nodded and asked him, "So you believe my words?"

Faisal said, "I believe."

Chapter 2692

If they had known that Ye Chen was capable of taking them out, why would they have bothered to pretend in front of him? If they had been respectful to him just now, they might have followed him out of Syria, a place of right and wrong, by now.

Seeing that these people were about to collapse, Hamid didn't bother to look at them again, and told the soldiers around him: "Let them get up at 5:30 in the morning and start work at 6 after dinner, and rest for half an hour at 12 in the afternoon. Take a rest for half an hour at 6 o'clock, and then work until 11 o'clock in the evening, do you understand?"

A few of the men immediately nodded: "Understood Commander

The company has to work sixteen hours a day, three meals and one and a half hours, leaving only six and a half hours of rest time, not counting washing, dressing, going to the toilet, etc. If you look at it this way, you'd be thanking God if you could rest for five or six hours a day.

Although these people did not have a wealthy family background, their family conditions could at least be regarded as petty, and they had not suffered much since childhood, nor had they been tired.

However, Hamid had no mercy for them, and after giving his orders, he simply turned around and left

Meanwhile, in Beirut, the capital of Lebanon, Han Guangyao was on the line with Ye Zhongquan, Ye's old man, who was far away in Yanjing.

During the video call, Han Guangyao respectfully reported to Ye Zhongquan all about Ye Chen's rescue of He Zhiqiu by parachuting alone and being sent out by Hamid himself.

He asked with a dumbfounded look on his face, "Is Chen's son really so capable of parachuting into the opposition camp by himself and bringing He Zhiqiu out safely?"

The young master's parachute jump was at an altitude of over 5,000 metres, and the height at which he opened his parachute was far below the safe opening height.

I had heard people say that Chen's son was known as a true dragon in Jinling, but I thought he was just exaggerating, but I didn't expect him to have such uncanny skills.

The height that a normal person would shatter his bones, to the young master, it is as easy as a slap on the wrist.

The first thing I want to know is why that Hamid would give so much face to Chen'er, isn't he the commander of that army? Why would he personally send him off?

The only thing I don't understand is why Hamid gave the young master so much face, and Hamid didn't just give the young master face, he even The young master is a brother, and in his words, he is very respectful of him, so I'm not sure if it was the young master who kidnapped him, I'm afraid only the young master himself knows this

I was even prepared to spend money to ransom him, but I never thought that it would end so unbelievably"

After saying this, he could not hide his excitement and said, "It seems that the Ye family has really produced a true dragon this time!

Chapter 2693

The Concorde that Ye Chen and He Zhiqiu were on finally landed at the Jinling Airport when the sky in Jinling was just starting to glow with the white of a fish's belly.

After the plane landed, Ye Chen, He Zhiqiu and Chen Zekai took the helicopter arranged by Chen Zekai and flew directly to Buckingham Palace.

When the plane had just taken off, Ye Chen had asked He Zhiqiu if she was willing to meet with He Yuanjiang immediately. If she was willing, Ye Chen could use the satellite phone on the plane to call He Yuanjiang and tell him that He Zhiqiu had been rescued and that he should meet him at the airport.

However, after careful consideration, He Zhiqiu felt that he was in a rather depressed state of mind and wanted to take a break, or at least take a shower and change into clean clothes before meeting his father.

So Ye Chen decided to first take her to Buckingham Palace to settle in, then give her a few hours to rest and rest, and then go to Jinling University of Finance and Economics to give He Yuanjiang a surprise when she had almost adjusted her state.

As for Ye Chen himself, he hadn't expected that it would only take him a little more than ten hours to go to rescue He Zhiqiu this time, and he had originally said hello to Xiao Churan to go out of town, so it would seem more or less weird if he went home early in the morning, so he planned to go to Buckingham Palace as well, so that Chen Zekai could arrange a room for himself to have a good rest.

Last night in Syria, he had used his aura for mental suggestion one after another, so much so that the aura in his body was already extremely scarce, which did make him more or less feel tired.

By sunrise, the helicopter Ye Chen was travelling in had landed at Buckingham Palace.

After getting off the plane, Ye Chen said directly to Richard Chen, "Old Chen, arrange a room for Miss He and me, we both need to rest.

Chen Zekai said, "Yes, young master.

If not, take the young master to rest there immediately.

The other party immediately replied, "Mr. Chen, our presidential suite has been booked by Mr. Ito from Japan, don't you remember?

After saying that, he then said to Ye Chen:

Young master, the entire east area where the presidential suite is located has been rented out by Yohiko Ito, why don't you go to the west area to rest in the executive luxury suite."

Ye Chen frowned and said, "Isn't Su Zhiyu and her mother and daughter living there, as well as Su Ruoli, to be on the safe side, I'd rather not go there, lest there be any mishaps, just arrange a normal room for me.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of services and services to the public.

Ye Chen nodded slightly: "Good.

Soon, the staff prepared two sets of room cards, and they gave Ye Chen and He Zhiqiu two luxury suites on the second top floor, their rooms were door to door, only separated by a passage.

Before Ye Chen swiped his card to enter the room, he said to He Zhiqiu, "Miss He, have a good rest first, it's just after six o'clock, let's have lunch at 12:30 tentatively.

He Zhiqiu nodded gently and said gratefully, "Thank you, Mr. Ye."

Ye Chen waved his hand, "There is no need to be so polite, we still have plenty of dealings to make in the future.

He Zhiqiu responded and said, "Mr. Ye, then I will go in first to rest."

Ye Chen nodded: "Go ahead.

He Zhiqiu looked at Chen Zekai at the side again and said gratefully, "Mr. Chen, it's been hard for you too.

Without hesitation, Chen Zekai said, "Miss He is too kind, I should do this."

Seeing that He Zhiqiu had entered the room, Ye Chen pushed open the door to his own room, and when Chen Zekai saw that both of them had gone to their rooms to rest, he also immediately returned to his office.

When Ye Chen entered his room, the first thing he did was to lock the door behind him, then he took off all his clothes, stepped into the bathroom and took a cold shower.

After cleaning himself up, Ye Chen sat on the bed. After he had cleaned himself, Ye Chen sat on the bed and felt the aura in his body, seeing that the aura was almost depleted, he was also very distressed in his heart.

When he thought about it, it was the Peaceful and Rich Stone that he had bought from Zhang Ermao that he had discovered the existence of spiritual energy.

It was a pity that the spiritual energy in that stone had been absorbed by himself. Since then, although he had seen many heavenly treasures, he had not come across anything containing spiritual energy.

Moreover, there is hardly any trace of spiritual energy in the skyscrapers of this city, so it would take at least a few months to replenish the spiritual energy. It would take at least a few months to replenish it.

Chapter 2694

This also gave him a slight sense of crisis in his heart.

A thing like aura was quick to use, but it was far from easy to accumulate.

If there wasn't a consistent and effective way to replenish aura, I was afraid that it would be difficult in the future. It would be even more difficult.

Thinking of this, he could not help but recall, in his mind, the contents of the Nine Mysterious Heavenly Scriptures.

In the Nine Xuan Heavenly Scriptures, it was recorded that there was an even more advanced elixir than the Spring Return Pill, called the Peiyuan Pill.

Don't look at the name of the Peiyuan Dan which seems to be less arrogant than the Spring Return Pill, but this kind of pill is directly a big level higher than the Spring Return Pill.

It is the most pure energy in heaven and earth, and is one of the best types of power.

Although it was at the most elementary entry level among pills containing spirit energy, the ingredients it required were, without exception, all extremely rare heavenly treasures.

Among the most demanding, it requires a Lingzhi of at least a thousand years old, a snow ginseng of over a thousand years old, and an ambergris of over ten thousand years old.

I didn't know if the thousand year old Lingzhi was good to find, but the thousand year old Snow Ginseng, Ye Chen did have one, when Wei Liang was ostracised by his biological father and his half-brother in the Wei family, in order to gain a foothold in the Wei family, he gave himself the thousand year old Snow Ginseng that his mother had passed down to him, that Snow Ginseng he had kept for himself and hadn't used yet.

However, this 10,000 year old or more ambergris was indeed too much of a worry.

As we all know, ambergris is the secretion from the body of a sperm whale, and is the finest spice ingredient, and likewise a medicinal herb.

But to buy 10,000-year-old ambergris is like a dream.

The sperm whale itself does not have a lifespan of 10,000 years, and the longest it can live is about 70 years. If we extrapolate this time, the 10,000 year old ambergris must have been grown by a sperm whale that died 10,000 years ago before it died.

The history of human civilization is not as old as 10,000 years, where can one find a piece of secretion left in the body of a sperm whale 10,000 years ago?

When he thought of this, Ye Chen couldn't help but feel a headache again.

Such a difficult preparation could only make the most elementary aura pills, and if he were to make more advanced aura pills, wouldn't it be even more impossible?

Thinking of this, Ye Chen couldn't help but sigh and secretly thought, "I might as well say hello to Qin Gang, he has always been in the medicinal herb business, he might not be able to find a 10,000 year old ambergris, but a 1,000 year old lingzhi should not be a problem, as for the ambergris, we can take our time to find it.

So, he immediately sent a WeChat to Qin Gang, asking him to try to find these two items for himself.

I know a Hong Kong herbalist who collects a lot of old herbs, and there are stocks of 1000 year old lingzhi, 100 year old Chenpi and 100 year old Pu'er.

As for ambergris, there are actually often people who offer it, but most of them are of relatively ordinary quality. The best I remember is a 1,000-year-old piece of white ambergris that was auctioned at Sotheby's a few years ago, but a 10,000-year-old ambergris is something I have never heard of in all my years as a medicinal herb.

Ye Chen did not feel disappointed after hearing this, and with a faint smile, instructed, "Then I'll have to ask you to help me get the thousand year old Lingzhi done first, and as for the ten thousand year old ambergris, just keep an eye out for me."

"No problem." Qin Gang agreed without hesitation.

Ye Chen said thank you, and then did not continue communicating with Qin Gang.

Just as he was about to rest, someone rang the doorbell of the next room.

Su Shoudao, who was wrapped in a sleeping robe, saw that it was one of his own men, so he opened the door of the room and let the other party in.

When he came in, he said in a low voice, "Master, I have found out that Ito Yohiko's men have booked a golf course at Hichun Lake, five kilometres from here.

Su Shoudao said excitedly, "The golf course is so good that it avoids Buckingham Palace, it's a great opportunity to meet Yohiko Ito quietly.

Chapter 2695

The excited Su Shoudao could not even imagine that Ye Chen was next door to him at this moment.

The design of the luxury suite at Buckingham Palace is very uniform, and the overall shape of the house is a four-square field shape, with the two rooms on the left being the living room and the study, and the two rooms on the right being the bathroom and the bedroom.

In other words, the bedroom that Ye Chen was in happened to be next to Su Shoudao's study next door.

Under normal circumstances, the rooms in five-star hotels would have sound-deadening as well as sound-proofing construction to ensure the guests' quietness, privacy and comfort, so it was impossible for ordinary people to hear the conversation next door, even if it was separated by a wall.

But to someone like Ye Chen, whose senses were extremely sharp, just such a wall was a bit of a sham.

Therefore, even though he had no intention of eavesdropping on the conversations of the people next door, he still listened to the movements in Su Shoudao's room, word for word.

However, even at this moment, Ye Chen did not know who the person next door really was.

Because Su Shoudao's men, addressed him as Master, it was impossible for Ye Chen to surmise Su Shoudao's identity just by the word Master.

However, Ye Chen clearly heard the four words Ito Yohiko.

When he heard that the person next door, surprisingly, wanted to meet with Ito Yohiko, he was a little curious in his heart.

Ito Yohiko's visit to Jinling was still relatively low-profile and was actually not known to the outside world, plus the fact that he was staying at the Ye family's hotel, not to mention the fact that there was no leakage of information about his stay.

Therefore, the person who could feel Ito Yohiko's whereabouts under such circumstances must have come from a very unusual source.

So, he immediately sent a text message to Richard Chen, asking him to do everything he could to find out who was staying in the room next to his own, while definitely not alerting the snake.

Chen Zekai had just taken a break in his office when he suddenly received a text message from Ye Chen, and immediately realised that there might be a more serious situation, and then he hurriedly got up and opened his computer, using his privileges to check the information of the tenants staying in the room next to Ye Chen.

But the occupancy information showed that the person staying next to Ye Chen was an ordinary person with no special status.

So, he immediately replied to Ye Chen: Young master, the person you asked me to check is a middle-aged man of Yuzhou origin, from the information, there is nothing special, no criminal record, no background.

Chen Zekai operated in front of the computer for a while and said, "I can't find out here for the time being, there is no work unit in his file, it is possible that he is self-employed, or he may be working in a relatively small private enterprise."

Ye Chen asked again, "Can you find out if he has paid social security?"

Chen Zekai thought about it and said, "I do have a rather secret channel to find out this information."

Ye Chen then said: "Then you can help me find out now whether this person is paying social security or not, and if so, which company is paying it for him."

"Good Chen Zekai hurriedly began to check, after checking for half a day, said to Ye Chen: "Young master, I found it, he does have social security, and the social security base is very high, the company that pays him social security, is a local financial investment enterprise in Yuzhou."

The company that pays him social security is a local financial investment company in Yuzhou.

Chapter 2696

4-4 minutes

"Good

Chen Zekai followed Ye Chen's instructions and continued to inquire, while checking, he spoke: "Young master, I see that behind this company is wholly owned by another technology company in Yuzhou, and behind this technology company, there is also an investment fund as well as a partnership, this investment fund is Yanjing Si Wu Capital"

Ye Chen asked him curiously: "Who's Si Wu Capital"

The company is one of the many capital operating companies of the Su family, and this Si Wu, which is the Chinese pinyin for Si Wu Su

"Su Family" in Chinese Pinyin Siwusu, Ye Chen frowned, and said, "I heard someone call another person next door. Called the master, so, maybe the old dog that I live next door is Su Chengfeng.

"This" Chen Zekai said with some disbelief, "Young master, Su Chengfeng wouldn't have come to Jinling by himself, right?"

Ye Chen laughed, "If it's not Su Chengfeng, then it's probably Su Shoudao.

"Su Shoudao" Chen Zekai couldn't help but say: "Even if this guy wants to take the opportunity to get close to Ito Yohiko, he shouldn't sneak into Buckingham Palace, isn't this a sheep into a tiger's mouth?"

The first thing you should know is that in ancient times, the oil lamps were placed on the table, just like candles. The reason for this is that although this small area is the closest to the lamp, it is the darkest and most concealed part of the room.

The most important thing is that you can't even notice it, and if you can't even notice it, you and your men will be even less likely to notice it, so from this point of view, Su Shoudao has done this thing successfully, and has indeed used his brain.

Chen Zekai hurriedly asked: "Young master, if it really is Su Shoudao, then what should we do?"

Ye Chen sneered: "Whether he is Su Shoudao, are certainly Su family will not be wrong, since it is Su family, it is the same as a sheep into the tiger's mouth, if I do not chew him down, is not sorry Su family so radical and bold tumult operation

The first thing you need to do is to get ready and listen to my orders. When you activate the shield, cut off the CCTV footage of my floor at the same time, got it?"

Chen Zekai did not hesitate to say: "Yes, young master, I understand

At this moment, the next room.

Su Shoudao sent his men away and went to the bathroom alone to take a shower.

After showering, he wrapped himself in a bathrobe and stood in front of the mirror, carefully using hairspray to back his hair to the back of his head, and in his mind, he had already started to think about how to get Ito Yohiko to agree to cooperate with the Su family when he met him.

The impact of the suspension of the Su family's ocean shipping licence was too great. The loss of revenue was not enough, as a large number of ships could not be started, and the daily maintenance, depreciation and leasing costs were astronomical, plus there were a large number of seafarers and employees to feed.

To Su Shoudao, this was his first battle to turn around after returning from Australia. Only by winning this battle could he impress the old man and win back his appreciation for him.

Therefore, this is of great significance to him.

Even whether he could successfully inherit the Su family's headship and the entire family fortune in the future would depend on the success or failure of this battle.

Chapter 2697

Just when Su Shoudao was expecting that he could save the Su family with his own strength, he was completely unaware that a big net had already wrapped around him.

Ye Chen already had a two-handed plan at this point.

If the person next door was Su Shoudao, then he had a special package for Su Shoudao;

But if the person next door was not Su Shoudao, but someone else from the Su family, then he would be tied up directly to Hong Wu's dog farm to be a companion to Su Shoude.

Chen Zekai filtered out the rooms next door one by one based on when they were booked, as well as the rooms that were booked out around that time and that had not been checked out by now, followed by further screening, and basically concluded that the Su family had come to Buckingham Palace this time with four henchmen in addition to the one who lived next door to Ye Chen, and of these four, two lived opposite the room next to Ye Chen, and the other two, next to Ye Chen of the next room.

At this moment, one after another, many of Richard Chen's men were already in ambush in the nearby rooms, so that once Ye Chen gave the order, they would be the first to control these four men.

In addition, Chen Zekai also had people prepare to shield and cut off the network signals, so that when Ye Chen gave the order, he could immediately ensure that the room next to Ye Chen, as well as several surrounding rooms, would lose all communication networks at the same time. The signal of mobile communication will be blocked, the wireless wifi network will be cut off, and even the traditional network, cable interface, will be disconnected from the network.

The people in this room will not be able to respond to the call of the day or the call of the ground.

In order to meet this "master" from the Su family, Ye Chen dressed up and then stepped out of the room.

At this moment, a waiter arranged by Richard Chen immediately walked over and handed Ye Chen a room card.

Nowadays, almost all hotels have adopted an electronic room card system for ease of management, where the door locks require an authorised room card to be opened at the front desk of the hotel, and the room card is normally authorised for as long as you stay, and automatically expires after the expiry date, which makes it easy to manage and also eliminates being used.

In other words, the locks on each room are actually controlled within the hotel management system.

Although it is not possible to directly control a particular door to open or close, it is possible to write the administrator's highest authority directly into the room card, so that this room card is able to open all the doors in this hotel.

There are exceptions to this, however, if the occupant of the room, opens the security latch in the room, then the door cannot be opened even if the room is swiped open.

However, many people do not have such a sense of security and so rarely use this latch of their own accord.

Su Shoudao did use the latch last night, but after his men came in to report just now, he did not lock the latch shut again, but hurried to the bathroom to wash up.

This was also mainly because he was more or less sloppy and careless and did not know that he had been exposed.

Therefore, when Ye Chen got his room card and swiped it on Su Shoudao's room door, the door lock opened with a sound.

At that moment, Su Shoudao was still in the cloakroom, arranging his clothes and instruments.

When Ye Chen pushed the door and entered, he was still completely unaware of it.

And Ye Chen had long ago used his supernatural perception ability to feel out his position in the room.

Chapter 2698

Su Shoudao was dressed in the upper right and would need to return to his bedroom later before he could walk through this door in front of Ye Chen.

So Ye Chen simply sat, on the sofa directly opposite the door, with his legs crossed and his hands stretched out, resting on the sofa backrest, waiting for him to appear.

At the same time, the signal shield had been turned on, and all the mobile phones around were in a state of no service because they could not search for a signal.

The hotel's wireless network was still connected to Su Shoudao's mobile phone, but the wireless network itself had already cut off the network, which meant that he was still connected to the .jyyxs

He took a look at his suit and tie in front of the mirror to make sure he was properly dressed, then fished out a fake beard and glued it under his nose.

He then pulled out a pair of gold-rimmed glasses from his pocket and put them on to look like a returned Chinese.

Next, he put on a bowler hat of the same colour as his suit, which he thought would make it even more foolproof.

When he was ready, Su picked up his mobile phone and prepared to go out, but when he looked down at his phone, he found that it was not in service, which made him wonder, "Why is there no mobile phone signal in this hotel?"

He then opened his WeChat and found that it was not connected. He was even more surprised and said to himself in a low voice, "No, the wifi label is on, the network is connected, why can't I connect to WeChat?"

Puzzled, he hurriedly walked out of the cloakroom and through the bedroom to the living room to call his men on the hotel's landline.

However, when he stepped out of the bedroom, his whole body suddenly became stunned and the speed of his heart beat doubled in an instant.

The reason was that he saw a person sitting on the sofa in the living room.

Moreover, this person's appearance was indescribably familiar.

Su Shoudao, who was alarmed, asked, "What are you doing in my room?"

Ye Chen looked at Su Shoudao with a smile and said with a laugh, "You are Su Shoudao, right?"

Su Shoudao saw that the other party gave his name directly and asked with extreme caution, "Who are you? You know me?"

Ye Chen laughed and said, "Actually, we have met before, but you are probably too old and your brain is not working, so you can't remember.

I've seen you before" Su Shoudao frowned, his heart was extremely nervous, but his mouth pretended to be calm and said: "How come I don't remember seeing you before?"

Ye Chen smoothly picked up an apple from the coffee table, took a bite and said: "Think carefully, we met at the lift of Tokyo Hospital, does it ring a bell?"

Su Shoudao squinted his eyes and looked at Ye Chen warily while speedily recalling the memories in his mind.

Soon, he recalled the scene Ye Chen had described

He pointed at Ye Chen and exclaimed, "You're the kid who made me feel familiar in Tokyo."

Ye Chen nodded slightly and asked him with a smile, "Why do you think I look familiar?"

Su Shoudao said in a cold voice, "Because you look like a short-lived ghost that I used to know, but has been dead for a long time"

Ye Chen's expression instantly became incomparably cold and he said in a cold voice: "Su Shoudao, if you kneel down and slap yourself right now, I'll pretend that you didn't say that just now, otherwise, I'll smash your mouth in the face"

When Su Shoudao saw Ye Chen's cold expression, he couldn't help but be a little appalled, and couldn't help but ask: "Who are you and who are you to Ye Chang Ying?"

Ye Chen stood up and said word by word: "Ye Chang Ying is my father"

Chapter 2699

Hearing these words, Su Shoudao's entire body was struck by lightning and he stood motionless in front of Ye Chen.

He had never dreamed that Ye Changyang's son would still be alive.

He did not expect that Ye Chang Ying's son would appear in front of him.

At this moment, his heart was not only nervous, but also a little more annoyed

The three words "Ye Chang Ying" have been a nightmare for me ever since I met Du Hai Qing, until a few days ago when Du Hai Qing was involved in a car accident and his whereabouts were unknown. jyyxs

The most important thing is that the person who is the son of Ye Changye is the one who is the son of Ye Changye.

He stared at Ye Chen and asked in a cold voice: "Even if you are Ye Changyang's son, then what is the meaning of your appearance in my room now?"

"What do you mean" Ye Chen sneered, "I've come to settle a score with you, what do you think I mean?"

Settlement of accounts" Su Shoudao saw that Ye Chen was coming from a bad place, and when he thought that he was in the Ye family's hotel and had no one around to help him, he couldn't help but feel even more panicked.

So, he said nervously, "Your father and I are just acquaintances at most, no friendship or hatred, what kind of debt are you looking for me?"

Ye Chen said coldly, "Today, I'm going to settle the score with you for the Anti-Ye Alliance."

Su Shoudao excused himself and said, "The Anti-Leaf Alliance was just an expression at the beginning, just like the airline companies have the Sky Alliance and the Star Alliance, we are competitors, so what's the big deal if we are targeting each other"

Ye Chen questioned: "Then how did my parents die?"

Su Shoudao said offhandedly, "How do I know that I didn't cause your parents' death either?"

Ye Chen smiled and said, "I really can't say if you have anything to do with it, but it doesn't matter, since you are in my hands, I can arrest you first and then slowly investigate clearly."

Su Shoudao subconsciously reprimanded in a stern voice: "Kid, since you are Ye Chang Ying's son, you should call me uncle, I am at least your elder, how dare you be so reckless in front of me!"

I just said that if you don't kneel down, I'll break your mouth, and I haven't kept my promise to you yet."

Su Shoudao took a step back in fear and said nervously, "You think that because you are a member of the Ye family, you can just make a move on me? Have you weighed up what will happen if you mess with me?"

Ye Chen sneered, "I don't know what will happen, but I usually like to mess with it first."

As soon as the words left his mouth, Ye Chen suddenly stood up from the sofa, and before Su Shoudao knew it, Ye Chen rushed to him, grabbed his collar, and slapped him on the face with his other hand.

The slap!

At this moment Su Shoudao was directly blinded by the blow, and he roared hysterically: "You dare to hit me!"

Ye Chen asked with a surprised look on his face: "Why don't you know the answer to this question?"

After saying that, he directly slapped Su Shoudao with another slap, which directly caused him to spit out blood.

At this time, Ye Chen smiled and asked him, "Do you know the answer now? If you don't know, I can answer you again."

Since Su Shoudao had been slapped twice by the night, his whole body had been smacked to the point that his mind was dizzy.

The pain was so intense that his whole body was on the verge of collapse, growing up, he had only ever been beaten by the old man, but even the old man had never beaten him so hard.

Chapter 2700

4-4 minutes

He shouted at Ye Chen in anger: "Do you know what the Su family can do? Do you believe that I can kill you in a minute?"

Ye Chen waved his hand and said disdainfully: "Su Shoudao, save your breath, you have already fallen into my hands, so don't pretend to be strong and vicious in front of me, and don't think you can overpower me with the Su family, because my goal is not as simple as slapping you twice."

Su Shoudao asked nervously, "What is your goal?"

Ye Chen laughed: "My goal, is to trample your entire Su family underfoot, not only big slap your face, but also big slap your father Su Chengfeng's face"

"Su Shoudao had never met anyone in his life who spoke so arrogantly like Ye Chen."

However, he also knew that he was now a turtle in someone's jar, there was no chance to escape, and if he really angered the other party, the other party might really kill him painfully.

So, his entire aura instantly weakened and he explained: "Eldest nephew, you really misunderstood me about your parents' matter, this matter has nothing to do with me, nor does it have anything to do with my Su family."

Ye Chen said, "It's not up to you to say whether there is a relationship or not, it's up to me"

Su Shoudao asked nervously, "Then... Then what do you want?"

Ye Chen laughed, "What I want, I have just said it, I want to smack your face first, then your father's face, and then trample your whole Su family under my feet"

Su Shoudao's heart was horrified beyond belief, he never dreamed that Ye Chang Ying's son would come to seek revenge on him, and this guy's murderous aura was even so heavy

At this moment, he suddenly thought of his brother Su Shoude who disappeared in Jinling, so he subconsciously asked, "Is my brother in your hands?"

Ye Chen nodded: "You are talking about Su Shoude, that dead fat pig, right, he is indeed in my hands, do you know how he is living now?"

Su Shoudao's face turned a little white as he inquired, "What have you done to him?"

Ye Chen smiled and said, "Oh, I locked him up in a dog cage, by the way, I took a video of him at that time, he was stripped naked wearing only a pair of trousers, and also told the video of your Su family's... You should have seen this."

Su Shoudao immediately thought of the two videos that had completely ruined the Su family's reputation before.

Su Shoudao had racked his brains to think what kind of person could be behind it, but to his surprise, this person was Ye Chang Ying's son

He couldn't help but swallow his saliva and looked nervously at Ye Chen, asking: "Then what do you really want today

At this moment, what he feared most was that he too would be locked up in a dark dog cage like his brother.

Ye Chen smiled lightly and said, "I know what's in your mind, but don't be nervous yet, putting your brother directly into a dog cage at first was indeed a bit too simple and rough, it really lacked some sense of art, so I have designed a whole set of super gift package for you this time, it's definitely a new design and a new experience

"If you enjoy the whole thing, you'll remember it for the rest of your life, and it'll be a trip you'll never forget."
