

Ye Chen 2761

Chapter 2761

At this time, the Su family's butler Su Anshun spoke up at the side: "Master, I always feel that this matter is very fishy, the Ye family 80% still can't get away with it.

Su Chengfeng let out a long sigh: 'Yes. Even if the Ye family is responsible, we do not have any good way this time, after all, from the beginning, Shoudao deliberately avoid the outsiders, there is no evidence to prove that he has been to Buckingham Palace, how can we bite this to determine that he is missing in Buckingham Palace? Even if this matter to the top, it is also we are unreasonable.

Su Anshun depressed said: " Then we can not just eat this dumb loss ah, the second young master is missing, the first young master is also missing, when we Su family has eaten this If word gets out, in the future in front of outsiders, Su family will lose face!

Su Chengfeng clenched his fist, his heart always had nowhere to vent his anger.

Two sons have disappeared one after another, how can he not be angry.

However, the two sons are like stone sinking into the sea, so that people can not find any information and clues, how to look at this is full of strange.

Moreover, although Su Chengfeng also knows that the Ye family must have inevitable involvement, but he still does not want to believe that all this is the Ye family.

Because in his perception of the Ye family, the Ye family definitely does not have the ability to do so.

Take the situation of the second son Su Shoude's disappearance, at that time the Su family's top expert, He Lao, stayed with Su Shoude at the Jinling International Hotel, fully safeguarding Su Shoude's safety.

But even so, Su Shoude still disappeared under the eyes of He Lao.

Afterwards, He Lao not only apologized but also concluded that the person who kidnapped the second young master was definitely stronger than him.

Just this one statement made Su Chengfeng's heart palpitate.

For one thing, he couldn't figure out how someone in Jinling could be stronger than He Lao, and for another, he didn't believe that the Ye family could have such a top expert under them.

So, he coldly said to Su Anshun: "Jinling this place is extraordinary, there may really be some great experts inhabiting here, I do not know if that old man Mai Chengxing can find the relevant clues this time, I have invited a top metaphysical master from the UK, let him quietly go to Jinling, if you can find clues, this person will be able to kill him, to get rid of my heart's trouble!

Su Anshun couldn't help but ask: 'Master, then what do we need Mai Chengxing and his great-grandson for? They have taken so much money from us, and they are not willing to help us kill, the cost performance is too low!"

Su Chengfeng was also inevitably a bit annoyed and said, "This old thing, Mai Chengxing! I was looking at my father's respect for him . On top of that...

If he can help me find the mastermind this time, everything is fine, if not, I think he does not have to think about returning to the United States!

After several hours of flight, He Yingxiu finally arrived in Jinling before dark.

As soon as the plane landed, Richard Chen's men directly used a helicopter to bring her from the airport to Buckingham Palace.

Hearing that she had arrived at Buckingham Palace, Richard Chen immediately came to the door of Ye Chen's room and knocked on the door.

When Ye Chen opened the door, he said respectfully: "Young master, He Yingxiu has arrived, when will you see her?"

Ye Chen opened his mouth and said: "Just now, where is the person?"

Chen Zekai replied respectfully: "I asked my men to send her to my office."

Ye Chen nodded: "Go, go to your office and meet her."

Chen Zekai asked busily: "Young master, should we invite Miss Ruo Li over as well?"

"There is no hurry first." Ye Chen spoke, "I want to talk to her first."

"Good."

Ye Chen and Chen Zekai came to his office together, and Chen Zekai opened the door first. At that moment, on the sofa of the office, there was a middle-aged woman who was 40 or 50 years old and had only one arm

Chapter 2762

This woman, is Su Ruoli's birth mother, He Yingxiu.

He Yingxiu was also a standard lady of the house, her appearance is a first-class beauty, plus years of martial arts training, tall and well-proportioned, but the lack of an arm does look a bit incongruous.

He Yingxiu at this time see Ye Chen and Chen Zekai walked in, hurriedly stood up, expression and attitude more or less a few formal.

In her opinion, the other party is, after all, the young master of the Ye family, noble status, and herself, just a member of a martial arts family, and also a disabled person, so the heart is also a little inferior.

As soon as Ye Chen entered the room, he walked towards her with a smile and spoke, "How do you do, you must be Ms. He Yingxiu He?"

When He Yingxiu saw Ye Chen, she also guessed from the details of Chen Zekai opening the door for him that this person should be the young master of the Ye family.

So, she said very humbly: "Young Master Ye, I am just an insignificant female member of the He family, I cannot afford to be so polite to you, Young Master Ye!

Ye Chen smiled faintly: "Ms. He does not need to say that, in terms of age, you are my elder, I naturally have to give respect.

He Yingxiu indeed did not expect Ye Chen was not half

The first impression of the young master's frame, deep inside, was good.

Moreover, she vaguely felt that the young young master in front of her, although she could not see any martial arts cultivation, but always gave a sense of unfathomable, should not be ordinary people.

So, she asked very respectfully: "Young Master Ye, I wonder what exactly you are looking for me for?

Ye Chen smiled and said: "Please sit down first Ms. He, don't stand and talk.

"Good," He Yingxiu nodded and sat back down on the sofa.

Ye Chen also sat down opposite her and said: "I heard that Ms. He's family is a very famous martial arts family in China?

He Yingxiu said: "Young Master Ye, our family does practice martial arts for many years, but it is not very famous, after all, many families in the country crouching tigers hide dragons, there should be many stronger than the He family."

Ye Chen laughed: "Ms. He need not be so modest, as far as I know, the He family is one of the four major martial arts families in China, to be ranked in the top four, proves that it is definitely not a vain name.

He Yingxiu smiled lightly and said: "Martial arts family originally

In the end, it is still necessary to survive with a real top family, otherwise, once a family like ours is without the financial support of a top family, I am afraid that the family's descendants will not even have the conditions to cultivate the martial arts."

She looked at Ye Chen and asked curiously, "Young Master Ye, you asked to see me by name, I wonder what is the matter? Is it because the Ye family is interested in cooperating with our He family?

Ye Chen smiled: "Of course I want to cooperate with Ms. He and the He family in depth, but I do not represent the Ye family, but I represent myself.

He Yingxiu was a bit puzzled for a moment, this young master of the Ye family in front of him, yet he said that he did not represent the Ye family, could it be that he had already set up his own business?

At this time, Ye Chen said again: "Right Ms. He, I invited you over this time, mainly to let you come over to meet an old friend, as for the cooperation, we can talk about it in the long run.

An old friend? He Yingxiu asked in surprise: "Young Master Ye, I wonder which one is the deceased person you are talking about?

Ye Chen smiled and said: "Don't be anxious yet, Ms. He, you will know who it is when she arrives later.

After saying that, he gave a wink to Chen Zekai and spoke: "Old Chen, go and invite the person over

Chapter 2763

Chen Zekai naturally knew that the person Ye Chen had asked himself to invite was Su Ruoli, who had been at Buckingham Palace for a long time.

So, he immediately said respectfully :

Young master, wait for a moment, I will go and invite you now!

Seeing Chen Zekai leave, He Yingxiu was inwardly surprised.

She really could not imagine that she and this young master of the Ye family in front of her could have any common acquaintance.

After all, she had met him for the first time today and did not even know exactly what his name was, let alone which line of the Ye family's young master he actually was.

However, she did not ask any more questions, after all, she knew very well that if she waited patiently for a few minutes, the answer would naturally be revealed.

At this moment, Su Ruoli was waiting anxiously in her room.

Ever since Ye Chen had decided to let her meet her mother, she had been waiting for her mother's arrival.

However, Ye Chen did not communicate with her in real time about the progress of this matter, so she did not know exactly when her mother would arrive in Jinling.

Just as she was thinking about

As she was reading, Chen Zekai rang the doorbell outside the door.

Su Ruoli rushed to the door and opened it. When she saw Richard Chen, she couldn't help but ask, "Mr. Chen, is my mother here?"

Chen Zekai nodded slightly and said, "Ms. He has arrived and is now in my office, chatting with the young master, who asked me to invite you over.

The young master asked me to invite you over." Su Ruoli instantly became excited and said offhandedly, "Then take me there!"

Chen Zekai then said, " Please follow me, Miss Su.

All the way to Richard Chen's office, Su Ruoli's heart, because of her excitement and thrill, was beating much faster and more frequently than normal.

When she arrived at the door, her whole body was already a bit pressed.

Without waiting for Chen Zekai to open the door for her, Su Ruoli pushed the door in impatiently.

As soon as she entered, she saw He Yingxiu sitting on the sofa, and tears rolled down her face as she choked out:"

When He Yingxiu heard the sound of her daughter, her whole body immediately froze on the spot as if she had been struck by lightning.

She subconsciously looked at the sound of the voice, and suddenly found her daughter Su Ruoli, whose fate was uncertain and whose fate was unknown, and who had been longing for her, standing in the doorway!

At this moment, she was so excited that she exclaimed, "Ruo Li? It's really you? Is it really you? !

After saying that, she hurriedly ran to Su Ruoli's front, lifted her left arm, reached out and touched her face, choking back a sob, "It's really you, Ruoli, my baby girl.

Su Ruoli grabbed her mother's hand and cried, "Mom, you're not dreaming, it's really me.

He Yingxiu at this moment, emotions completely out of control, she took Su Ruoli into her arms, crying and said: "Ruoli, mum looked for you so hard ah mum thought I would never see you again in this life

Su Ruoli hugged her mother tightly with both hands and said sadly, "Mom, I also thought I would never have the chance to see you again in my life.

After she finished, she looked at Ye Chen, who was not far away, and choked up, "Thanks to Mr. Ye's rescue in Tokyo, otherwise, I would have been punished.

Chapter 2764

He Yingxiu hurriedly turned around and looked at Ye Chen with shock and emotion, asking, "Young Master Ye, did you save Ruoli? !

Ye Chen smiled faintly and said indifferently: "When Ruo Li's accident happened, I happened to be on a boat back to China at the time, so I saved her and brought her back.

After saying that, Ye Chen added: "Right Ms. He, during this period of time, I let Ruo Li stay at Buckingham Palace, and did not allow her to contact the outside world, so I'm really sorry for making you worry for such a long time, please don't take offense.

He Yingxiu hurriedly said, "Young Master Ye, what are your words? You saved my only daughter, I can't thank you enough, how could I be so surprised."

As she said that, He Yingxiu suddenly realized that her daughter Ruo Li seemed to be a bit different from before.

She had been practicing martial arts for many years and noticed that Su Ruoli's aura was much more stable and vaguely stronger than before, so she asked in surprise, "Ruoli, your martial arts cultivation has broken through? !

Su Ruoli nodded her head and said, "Thanks to Mr. Ye's enlightenment, he helped me to completely open up my Ren Vessel, allowing me to become a great success.

He Yingxiu said, dumbfounded, "What? Your Ren Chakra has become great and thorough

The bottom is open?!

He Yingxiu, who had practiced martial arts for half of his life, understood very well what it meant to have the Ren meridian completely opened up.

People had eight channels, and those who could open the Ren and Du channels were already top experts to ordinary people.

If one can open more meridians, then one is definitely a master of martial arts.

But even for a martial arts master who can open half of the eight odd meridians, each meridian can only open up to 50-60% on average.

Moreover, in all these years, one had hardly heard anyone talk about anyone being able to completely open up Qing Mai to the Da Cheng realm.

In the past, even the top expert of the He family did not have the chance to completely open up the Ren lineage; at most, he could only open up to 80%, and he was the tip of the pyramid of the entire He family for so many years.

According to him, the main reason for his achievement was that he had opened up 80% of the Ren meridian.

To martial arts masters who practise internal martial arts, these two meridians are the two most important arteries in the human body.

Their importance to the human body is equivalent to the two most important strategic transport railways of a country. The greater the capacity of these two railways, the stronger the country's war reserve strength.

Once the war is over, whether such arteries can transport 10,000 people a day, or 100,000 or 200,000 people a day, will play a role in the victory or defeat of the war

It plays a decisive role!

Therefore, having a meridian that is able to reach a level of 80% or more of smoothness is the same as having a very powerful strategic artery for a martial arts expert, and with it as the foundation, the whole person's strength will be greatly enhanced.

If this meridian could become completely great, then the subsequent path of the martial dao could be said to be twice as successful with half the effort!

For so many years, the entire He family had not produced a single person who had achieved great success in the Ren meridian, so He Yingxiu's entire being was completely afraid to believe that such a huge breakthrough would happen to her own daughter.

So she asked Su Ruoli with a shocked look on her face: "Ruoli, you're not joking with your mother, are you? ! I've never heard of a person who has achieved great success in the Ren Pulse in my life Su Ruoli said firmly: "Mom! I'm not joking with you! After he helped me to completely open up my Ren Vessel, my strength has improved by leaps and bounds, and now my Governor's Vessel has broken through 20% and 30% one after another, and now it's faintly about to break through 40%, when my Ren Vessel was only 40% and my Governor's Vessel was even less than 20%!

He Yingxiu subconsciously used her hand to squeeze Su Ruoli's pulse gate, and then used her internal energy to investigate, and a moment later, her entire expression immediately became incomparably horrified!

Immediately afterwards, she came back to her senses, let go of Su Ruoli, turned around to look at Ye Chen, and suddenly she fell to her knees with a poof, choking up and said, "Young Master Ye's great kindness, the He family will never forget it!"

Chapter 2765

He Yingxiu had searched for Su Ruoli for so long, and although she had been unwilling to give up, deep down she also felt that the chances of finding her daughter were very slim.

She had even accepted the fact that her daughter had been killed, but the core of her mother's love drove her to keep looking because it was her only hope.

During this time, He Yingxiu felt that as long as her daughter was alive, she could accept whatever price she was asked to pay, even if it cost her an injury and paralysis, as long as her daughter was still alive, she would be satisfied.

However, she never dared to dream that not only was her daughter standing in front of her intact, but she had even made a huge breakthrough in her cultivation.

This is like a blessing from a disaster, and a blessing from a disaster that killed her!

The mere fact that the Ren Vessel had become a great success was a height that countless martial arts masters would not dare to reach in their lifetime!

Other than that, the Great Success of the Ren Vessel at least allowed Su Ruoli's cultivation to leap forward by five to sixty years from her original cultivation speed.

Even, allowing the previous her to cultivate again

Even after 50 to 60 years of training, she might not be able to cultivate the Ren Chakra to its full potential.

How could she, as a mother, not be thrilled that her daughter had received such a blessing?

The one who had saved her daughter's life and made her cultivation soar was the young master of the Ye family, so deep down in her heart, He Yingxiu was even willing to use her own life to repay Ye Chen's great kindness.

When Ye Chen saw He Yingxiu kneeling in front of him, he was about to go forward to help her when Su Ruoli, who was at the side, also hurriedly knelt down next to her mother.

How could she stand when her mother knelt down for herself to her benefactor.

She knelt by her mother's side and choked up, "Sir Ye, it is thanks to your kindness that Ruo Li can see her mother again, and from now on, Ruo Li would like to follow your side and to devote herself to you!"

When Su Ruoli said these words, she actually had some selfishness in her heart.

She knew that Ye Chen was not the kind of person who would bind her with favours, so she was worried that after Ye Chen had let herself meet with her mother, she would simply let her mother take her away.

Although Su Ruoli missed her mother, wanted to see her and let her know that she was still alive, but she did not want to go back to the He family with her mother.

This was because she wanted more than anything to be able to stay by Ye Chen's side in the future.

On the one hand, it was indeed to repay her gratitude, while on the other hand, it was simply because she had already fallen in love with him.

Moreover, she also knew very well that an illegitimate daughter like herself was not worthy of Ye Chen's status, just as her mother He Yingxiu and father Su Shoudao had been back then, and although they had feelings for each other, there was ultimately a division between master and servant, so she hoped that she could stay by Ye Chen's side just like her mother had stayed by her father's side back then.

That was why she said to Ye Chen that she was willing to stay by his side and follow him.

When He Yingxiu heard these words, she understood her daughter's choice in her heart.

At this moment, she was struggling a little deep inside.

She did not know what her daughter was thinking.

It was just that she recalled her own sinful relationship with Su Shoudao and the hardship of raising Su Ruoli on her own, and she was afraid that Su Ruoli would follow in her footsteps in the future.

If she could, she would never want her daughter to end up in the same situation as herself.

Chapter 2766

Just as a stabbing pain ran through her heart, Ye Chen suddenly spoke, "Ruo Li, when I saved you, I didn't expect you to spend your life repaying me, so you don't have to follow me all the time in the future, you can change your face and start a new life with a clean identity."

Su Ruoli hurriedly shook her head and said, "Mr. Ye, Ruo Li's current situation, Ruo Li knows it well, without your shelter, Ruo Li is afraid that sooner or later, Ruo Li will still fall into the hands of the Japanese, and by then I am afraid that no one in the world will be able to protect me"

At this point, Su Ruoli whispered somewhat sadly: "So Ruoli hopes to stay by your side, on the one hand, to do what I can for you, and on the other hand, I hope to continue to be sheltered by you... .."

He Yingxiu suddenly realised at this time that her daughter and herself were, in fact, still very different.

Back then, as Su Shoudao's bodyguard, she had been serving Su Shoudao wholeheartedly, and it could even be said that she had dedicated her entire youth to him, and one arm to him as well.

And then she gave birth to Ruo Li for him, which is tantamount to dedicating the rest of her life to him in disguise as well.

But what is different about her daughter is that this young master, Ye, is her saviour, and if she stays by his side in the future, it is not as if her daughter is devoting herself all the time.

In this way, her life would naturally not be as sad as her own.

So, she also hurriedly said: "Young Master Ye, Ruo Li has caused a great disaster in Japan, the Japanese will never let her go easily. After you help her open up the Ren vein, her strength will definitely be considered the best among her peers in the country, and having her by your side will definitely help you solve a lot of problems, so please keep her by your side!"

Ye Chen actually knew very well in his heart that as long as Su Ruoli's body was not found, the Japanese would definitely not give up.

Once Su Ruoli's identity was exposed, she would definitely face the scourge of death.

Therefore, staying by her side should be the best outcome for her.

Moreover, Ye Chen also felt that he did lack some truly powerful assistants by his side.

Although Qin Ao Xue's current strength is not bad, she is still a young girl who is still in school, so she certainly cannot ask her to help her do some fighting and killing.

Therefore, keeping Su Ruoli and training her to be a beloved one is also a matter of great practical significance to himself. Su Ruoli not only has strength, but when she was in the Su family, she was able to lead dozens of experts to cause chaos in Japan, which proves that she also has strong leadership abilities, and if she is allowed to step in and train a strong force for herself in the future, it will be of great benefit in the future.

If you decide to leave one day, you can tell me openly and frankly, and I will never force you to stay. But you must remember that until you have officially left, you must not be subservient or take advantage of the situation, do you understand?"

Su Ruoli said without hesitation, "Please don't worry, as long as you don't mind, Ruoli will follow you to the end of her life and will never leave you!"

Chapter 2767

Ye Chen helped the mother and daughter up, looked at He Yingxiu and spoke: "Ms. He, this time when you came to Jinling to see Ruo Li, please also make sure you keep it 100% confidential, never tell anyone, including the people of the He family!"

He Yingxiu naturally understands that the best way to keep a secret is not to tell anyone, otherwise once the opening is made, no matter how small the opening is, there is a possibility that outsiders will know in the future.

Ruo Li is his own daughter, so He Yingxiu can ensure that he absolutely do not leak to the public, but the rest of the He family can not say, even his own father, may not be 100% can believe, so, for the safety of his daughter, she will naturally keep her mouth shut.

So, she said very firmly: "Young Master Ye, you can rest assured that this matter I will keep my mouth shut, after leaving here, never tell anyone!"

The other side of Su Ruoli heard this, hurriedly asked: "Mom, when do you plan to leave ah?"

He Yingxiu thought about it and said: "I told your grandfather that I would go to the Jiaodong Peninsula tomorrow to find your whereabouts, so I will go there tomorrow."

Su Ruoli was full of reluctance, hugging He Yingxiu's one arm like a little girl and pouting: "Mom, you haven't seen me for so long, can't you stay here with me for one more day?"

He Yingxiu sighed and said seriously: "Ruo Li, of course mum wants to stay with you, not to mention stay with you for one more day, even if I stay here with you in the future, mum is also willing to".

I also told your grandfather that no matter what Young Master Ye talked to me about, I must go to the Jiaodong Peninsula tomorrow to continue looking for you.

"Although I don't doubt that your grandfather will have the intention to harm you, but the He family is crowded, there are too many uncontrollable factors, and although we have broken with the Su family, I have always suspected that the Su family is secretly watching our movements, in case the Su family knows that you are still alive, it is possible that they will continue to target you."

The moment Su Ruoli heard He Yingxiu mention the Su family, her expression immediately became indignant, saying coldly: "Mom! We, the He family, have dedicated ourselves to the Su family for so many years, but in the end, not only did the Su family disregard old feelings and family ties, they even sold me to the Japanese Self Defense Force."

He Yingxiu said with a bitter smile: "In the eyes of the Su family, we are the bodyguards they pay for, in ancient times, that is the housekeeper's servant, they think that as long as they pay us, we

It is right to fight for them, in their eyes, we would not have been worthy of what they invest in feelings."

She said, she sighed lightly, and said: "revenge thing, Mom suggested that you do not think about it for the time being, the strength of the Su family, the He family in any case can not compare, you will follow the young master Ye, down-to-earth in the young master Ye side saddle, do not think about looking for Su family revenge again."

Su Ruoli red eyes choked: "revenge thing I will not give up, not a year, three years five years, three years five years can not, on ten years eight years, really can not, on twenty years, thirty years, but one day, I will make the Su family pay for all this!

He Yingxiu helplessly said: "the heart of the matter, Mom persuade you also has little meaning, but you must control their emotions, now is the critical stage of your cultivation, do not let the hatred become your heart demon!

Su Ruoli nodded gently.

Ye Chen spoke at this time: "Ms. He, you and Ruo Li have not seen each other for a long time, why don't you go back to your room and rest, I believe you must have a lot to say to each other, I will have someone bring you dinner later, if there is anything else you need, feel free to contact the service staff.

He Yingxiu bowed slightly and said, "Then thank you, Young Master Ye!"

Chapter 2768

Ye Chen smiled faintly and added: "Right Ms. He, if you are interested with the He family, we can also talk about a cooperation in the future, and then I will hire you to work for me, so you and Ruo Li will not have to be separated.

Before He Yingxiu could say anything, Su Ruoli said excitedly, "That's great! Mom, when the time comes, you can move to Jinling!"

He Yingxiu expression more or less embarrassed said: "Young Master Ye, if according to what you just said, I should not tell others about Ruo Li, then naturally I can not bring the He family over, and Ruo Li together with you, but if I can not bring the He family over, then I am a disabled person, my ability is really limited, and then I do not know what I can do for you!

Ye Chen smiled faintly and said: "Ms. He, I understand what you mean, but this issue does not seem contradictory to me.

After a slight pause, Ye Chen opened his mouth and explained: "First of all, I am indeed interested in deep cooperation with the He family, this cooperation is based on me and you and the rest of the He family, so about whether to accept cooperation on this point, you do not need to consider at all if...

I'm not sure if I'm going to be able to get to the bottom of this, even if the He family sends over dozens of people to come to Jinling with you in the future, in principle, they won't even know about Ruo Li's existence.

He Yingxiu nodded gently and said: "I understand young master Ye, even if the entire He family has established a deep cooperation with you, but still can not let other He family members other than me, know the situation of Ruo Li, I understand so no problem, right?"

"No problem.

' Ye Chen said with a smile: Now that the He family has broken with the Su family, they also need a stable source of income, and I am now thinking of expanding my sphere of influence a bit more, it is the time when I need to use people, so I very much hope that the He family can cooperate with me, moreover, the remuneration that I can give to the He family is definitely something that the He family cannot refuse.

He Yingxiu bowed slightly and said respectfully: "Young Master Ye, the decision of whether the He family will cooperate with you is up to my father, so I have to take the liberty of asking you, what kind of condition can you give the He family? If it's convenient, you can tell me directly, I will convey it to my father, and he will make the decision.

Ye Chen smiled and asked: "What conditions did the Su family give you before?"

He Yingxiu said: "The Su family will give the He family a fixed amount of contract money every year, this amount is 600 million RMB, converted into 50 million RMB per month paid monthly, in addition, there will be an accounting at the end of the year, if the He family in the year to complete the amount of tasks to meet the standard, there will be an additional one to two hundred million bonus.

Ye Chen nodded gently and smiled: "This is basically the same as the base salary plus performance bonus model at work.

"Right."

' He Yingxiu said helplessly: "In order to earn more money, the He family in the past can only do their best to serve the Su family, this is mainly because, among the direct descendants of the He family, there are more than fifty people practicing martial arts, so many people practicing martial arts need a variety of medicinal materials, accounting for more than half of the He family's income, after the accident of Ruo Li, we broke with the Su family. Su family immediately stopped the cash payment, even last month's 50 million did not pay again, this period of time, the financial situation of the He family can not make ends meet, everyone's cultivation progress has been greatly affected.

Hearing this, Ye Chen raised both eyebrows and asked curiously: Ms. He, I take the liberty to ask, what herbs do you need for cultivation

Chapter 2769

Faced with Ye Chen's inquiry, He Yingxiu did not hide anything and opened his mouth to introduce: "Young Master Ye, our He family's internal boxing method has a large demand for temperature and medicinal herbs, and the medicinal herbs are mainly qi-supplementing herbs and body-strengthening herbs, such as ginseng, ganoderma lucidum, deer antler and cordyceps, and body-strengthening herbs are mainly used for bathing. Chinese herbs."

He Yingxiu said, and then introduced: "Our family has two prescriptions, one is named Qi tonic, one is named awakening soup, Qi tonic is the ginseng, ganoderma lucidum and other precious herbs, according to a special way to boil the Chinese medicine, oral consumption can replenish the qi and blood and internal energy, to enhance internal strength, enhance the role of meridians;"

"As for the Awakening Body Soup, it is a soup made from a variety of herbs and medicines, which can strengthen bones and muscles and enhance the strength of the body when a person is immersed directly in the soup."

Ye Chen asked curiously, "Then how much does your entire family need to invest in medicinal herbs every month?"

He Yingxiu said: "In the past, our investment at its peak, at least twenty to thirty million per month, basically to ensure that every family member who cultivates martial arts, every month can get a pair of Qi replenishing powder and a pair of body awakening soup, if it is a key cultivation target, even two to three pairs per month."

Speaking of this, He Yingxiu sighed and said:

"But in recent times, because the family's economic situation is somewhat stretched, so my father has temporarily cut most of the input of medicinal materials."

"At present, the family's monthly tentative cost of medicinal materials, is three to five million up and down, most ordinary qualified family members can no longer receive medicinal materials, only a few key training targets, can still barely use, but the medicinal materials are also greatly discounted, the effectiveness of the medicine naturally weakened a lot."

Ye Chen asked again, "How is the effect of your two medicinal herbs?"

He Yingxiu shook his head and said helplessly: "In fact, even if the herbs are not discounted, the effect is not very good, mainly because the effect of the remedies we use is relatively general, the loss of herbs is great, for ordinary people may soon have immediate results, but for people who already have a certain cultivation base, the effect can only be said to be better than nothing, and can play a certain auxiliary role."

Ye Chen nodded gently and said blandly: "Speaking of prescriptions, I happen to have an elixir that can enhance the internal and external strength of the body, I personally feel very good with it, I just don't know if it's suitable for your He family's internal heart technique, Ms. He, you can try the efficacy of this medicine together with Ruo Li."

Saying that, Ye Chen from his pocket, took out two blood dispersal heart saving pills.

This kind of elixir was actually not worth much to him,.....

If you want, you can refine it in large quantities.

This kind of elixir to the current Ye Chen, already can not play much effect, but for the general population, the effect is very impressive.

Spare half-body paralysis, paraplegia, with this kind of elixir can be cured.

If ordinary people take it, the physical quality can even be greatly improved, so as to achieve the effect of prolonging life to a certain extent.

The medicinal power contained in this elixir is extraordinary, and for martial artists like He Yingxiu and Su Ruoli, who practice internal martial arts, not only can they strengthen their bodies and meridians, but more importantly, they can significantly increase their internal strength, which is definitely an elixir that they would never dare to dream of.

The first time, the little pepper Qin Ao Xue, is relying on a grain of blood rescue pills, strength in a short period of time by leaps and bounds, with only a pill, from a large behind Ito Nanaiko, to overtake Ito Nanaiko a large, so it can be seen how strong the effect of this to ordinary martial artists.

Ye Chen could tell from the strength of Su Ruoli as well as He Yingxiu that although they are relatively top existence in the martial arts family, but their strength in front of themselves, the difference is still very far indeed, simply not yet on the stage, so it can also be deduced from this that the He family's way of medicinal tonic, the effect must be minimal, probably not even a thousandth of the blood dispersal heart saving pills.

So, he had a fight in his heart

Chapter 2770

"Didn't the Su family use purely money to bribe the He family in the past?"

"Then I will change the way today!"

"I will use money as a supplement and medicine as the main method to deeply bind the He Family!"

"Doesn't your He family want to cultivate more experts? Just by relying on your current method, even if we give you ten billion a year, what can we do? Even if you let your clansmen eat ginseng as food every day, what can you do? Using that method of piling up medicinal herbs, no matter what, the effect is definitely not as good as one of my blood dispersal heart saving pills!"

"I believe that the He family will definitely worship the Blood Dispersing and Heart Saving Pill as a standard after feeling its efficacy firsthand!" "At that time, only a few pills need to be given to the He family every year, and I will be able to make the entire He family follow me with a dead heart!"

He Yingxiu still didn't know what Ye Chen had in mind.

When she saw Ye Chen pull out two pills and hand them to herself and her daughter respectively, she couldn't help but ask, "Young Master Ye, is this medicine for us to take directly?"

"Yes." Ye Chen nodded and said seriously, "This medicine is made using a special technique, it melts in your mouth, and the medicinal effect is released very quickly, nothing toxic, you can try it now."

Although He Yingxiu didn't know exactly how effective this elixir was, she also phase

Believing that Ye Chen would certainly not harm himself and Ruoli, he said without hesitation, "Thank you, Young Master Ye, then I will try it here!"

After saying that, without hesitation, he put the pill into his mouth.

Su Ruoli at the side also did not think much and swallowed the pill as well.

As soon as the pill entered the mouth, both of them were amazed to feel that the pill melted as quickly as ice in hot water after entering the mouth, and then it turned into a warm stream into their bodies.

This is the first time both mother and daughter have tried this feeling, so they naturally feel very new.

Although the blood dispersing and heart saving pills are not as strong as the rejuvenation pills, they are also refined using the method above the Nine Mysterious Heavenly Scriptures, and by nature, they are completely different from all the Chinese medicine pills at this stage.

The pills made by other crafts are boiled in the ordinary way, and then the boiled medicinal juice and mud are made into wax pills, so it is relatively difficult to swallow, and after the pills are swallowed into the abdomen, it takes a long time to slowly digest and release the medicinal power.

However, the pill given by Ye Chen is different.

This pill in the mouth will be turned into a warm stream into the body, and then feel an extremely pure internal force in the body along the body meridians quickly dispersed!

Mother and daughter have never encountered such a powerful and pure internal force, all of a sudden they were a bit caught off guard, or He Yingxiu was the first to come back to her senses

She couldn't hold back her inner ecstasy and said, "Ruo Li, the internal energy contained in this elixir is extremely amazing, quickly guide it to run in the dantian, don't waste this great opportunity!"

All martial artists who practiced the internal heart method were basically able to run internal energy in their bodies and knew how to channel it through their meridians and finally sink it into their dantian.

However, the vast majority of martial artists are able to run their internal energy in their bodies, just like collecting dew on top of grass leaves every morning, because the volume is too small, so every drop seems precious to them.

He Yingxiu and Su Ruoli have always been the same, daily struggle to run a small amount of internal energy, a little nourishment to improve their own strength, the progress is very slow.

However, Ye Chen's Blood Dissipation Heart Saving Pill was like a downpour of rain in their bodies, and the surging internal force completely exceeded their perceptions!

He Yingxiu even felt that the He family's most precious qi replenishment pills, in front of Ye Chen's pill, were simply different from clouds and mud, not worth mentioning at all!

If the internal energy contained in Ye Chen's elixir was a powerful heavy bomb, then a pair of Qi-supplementing pills in front of it was, at best, just a cannon that even a child dared to hold in his hand and set off.

Even if a thousand or ten thousand pairs of qi-supplementing pills are added together, they cannot be compared with Ye Chen's pills.
