

Ye Chen 2791

Chapter 2791

After Su Zhiyu's accident, the person she missed the most was her brother Su Zhifei.

After all, there were only four members in their small family, and her mother had always been with her, while her father had some stains that she could not accept, so she naturally missed her brother the most.

Moreover, she had experienced life and death with her brother in Japan, so the bond between her siblings was deeper.

Although Su Zhi Fei was disappointed at heart, he still pretended to be heartbroken as he gently patted her back and lamented: "Zhiyu, it's best if you and mum are okay, I've been worried sick this whole time!"

When Grandpa Du Zhenhua heard this, he looked on coldly from the side and was more or less dissatisfied in his heart.

He always felt that this grandson of his had become a bit hypocritical recently.

When something happened to his mother and sister, Su Zhi Fei was indeed very anxious at first, even going so far as to have an argument with his grandfather and drive to Jinling alone overnight.

However, these days, Du Zhenhua felt that Su Zhi Fei seemed to be paying less and less attention to his mother and sister's affairs.

Although he has still been in Jinling, he has rarely been directly involved in the search for the whereabouts of the two, and is busy every day with some concert, feeling as if the concert is more important than his mother and sister .....

The sister was a few points more important.

However, Du Zhenhua naturally did not say anything at this time, and the dissatisfaction in his heart was also suppressed in his heart.

At this time, Du Haifeng spoke up, "Zhi Fei, you and Zhi Yu hurry up and sit down, just as we have just started to eat, so you can also drink together to celebrate the safe return of your mother and sister!"

Su Zhi Fei hurriedly said, "Yes, Great Uncle!"

After sitting down, Su Zhi Fei joined the rest of his family and raised his glass again to celebrate, but he had a question in his mind: who had saved his mother and sister?

But with so many people at the table, he couldn't ask Su Zhiyu in detail, so he could only put this question to the back of his mind for the time being.

While he was having a drink with his family, his mobile phone suddenly received a WeChat message.

He looked down and saw that it was his grandfather, Su Chengfeng, who had sent the message.

He hastily clicked on it and saw the message from Su Chengfeng, which read, "Zhi Fei, I want to know if the person who saved your mother and your sister this time is the Chinese who saved you in Japan, you and Zhiyu have always been close, you must find a way to get the truth out of Zhiyu!"

Su Zhi Fei's heart thudded and he thought, "Why is Grandpa asking that? Could it be that the benefactor really saved Mom and Zhiyu? But .....

How could he suddenly appear in Jinling and save Zhiyu once again when he was in Japan and Zhiyu had searched for him for so long to no avail? Could he be a stalker who has been secretly following Zhiyu? Then why didn't he show up when Zhiyu had been looking for him for so long? It felt strange and unexplainable.

When he thought of the disappearance of his second uncle and father in Jinling, Su Zhi Fei felt even more confused.

I had a feeling that it was unlikely to be Eungyong, otherwise even if he was secretly protecting Zhiyu, there was no need for him to attack my second uncle and my father one after another, right? The Su family had never offended him, and had even received many favours from him, so why would he do it to them?

After thinking about it for a long time, Su Zhi Fei could only put these thoughts behind him for the time being and quietly replied to Su Chengfeng, "Yes grandpa, I will definitely try to ask Zhiyu about it."

While Du Haiqing and Su Zhiyu were reunited with their families, Ye Chen also returned to his home.

This trip to Syria did not take too long, and although Ye Chen had flown tens of thousands of kilometres back and forth, and many more things had happened, in reality it was only one night apart.

Therefore, when he returned home, his wife Xiao Churan and his old husband Xiao Changkun and mother-in-law Ma Lan all found it very surprising.

Chapter 2792

Xiao Churan had just had dinner with her parents, and when she saw Ye Chen return, she hurriedly went forward to help him take off his coat and said with surprise: "Honey, how come you came back in such a short time after going out this time?"

Ye Chen laughed: "This time, it was a relatively simple matter, so I came back straight after dealing with it in the past.

Xiao Churan asked, " Then have you had dinner yet? I made lo mein noodles in the evening, it's quite delicious, why don't I lay some more noodles for you?" Ye Chen asked curiously, "Chu Ran, aren't you quite busy these days? Why do you have so much time today, and you even cooked _on your own."

Xiao Churan laughed: "I went to a meeting with the Dihao Group this afternoon, the first stage of the proposal has completely passed the Dihao Group's review, so I was able to relax a little bit, it just so happens that I came home early today, the garlic moss in our vegetable garden grew quite well, so I picked a little bit and made garlic shoots fried with meat and marinated noodles."

As she said that, she hurriedly took Ye Chen's hand and walked towards the dining room, saying as she went, "You went for such a short time this trip, it must have been hard to travel back and forth, so just do it first and I'll cook the noodles for you!

Seeing that Xiao Churan was so concerned about himself, Ye Chen's heart was filled with emotion, he nodded gently and smiled: " Then it will be hard on your wife.

Xiao Churan smiled sweetly:" Which is not .....

Hard work, not hard work at all."

When he entered the restaurant, his father-in-law Xiao Changkun and his mother-in-law Ma Lan had just finished their meal, and when they saw Ye Chen enter, Xiao Changkun was overjoyed and said, "Aiya! My good son-in-law is back, where did he go this time? You're back so soon."

Ye Chen smiled faintly and said, "Although the time he went out this time was not long, the distance he went was indeed very far, a trip to Syria of 6,000 kilometres was equivalent to a round trip from Jinling to Japan.

But naturally, he could not tell his husband that he had gone to Syria, so he said with a smile, "This time I went to Haicheng, which is not far away, and it is only a three-hour drive.

The city of the sea?

Xiao Changkun asked curiously:

"In that case, your client is Li Tailai, the richest man in Haicheng?

A - side of Ma Lan bristled: "Just that brain of yours, what can't you do, what can't you eat enough, and you still have the face to brag about it?"

Xiao Changkun was furious and blurted out, "I said, Ma Lan! I didn't invite you here, did I? What are you doing with this?"

Ma Lan said disdainfully, "What's wrong? Is it a crime for me to tell the truth? I'm not even in this family yet. ....

What's the point of talking?

The two of you should not always seize the opportunity to argue, it hurts your feelings.

Ma Lan hurriedly said: "Hey hey hey, good son-in-law, I interrupt, I and Xiao Changkun can not have much feelings, after all, are separated.

Xiao Changkun grunted: "Hey, you finally said a human word, I have no feelings with you, we are now at best neighbors."

Ma Lan immediately slammed the table, angrily shouted: Xiao Changkun, give you face is not it? I said a sentence, you have three sentences here bla bla wait, long ability?

Ye Chen hurriedly rounded up: "Aigoo mom, you also do not get angry, Dad is not a joke with you?"

After saying that, and hurried to look at Xiao Changkun, squeezed eyebrows and said: "Dad, you just finished eating, that idle is also idle, why not go out and run it, now the weather has also turned warm, to the riverside running, help digestion, but also to strengthen the body, how happy ah.

The meaning of Ye Chen's words is for Xiao Changkun to find Han Meiqing.

Isn't it true that Han Meiqing likes to go running by the river? It's just as well to let his father-in-law take advantage of his own words to find Han Meiqing.

But when Xiao Changkun heard that he was going to run by the river, he quickly waved his hand and said, "I'm not going. My leg still hurts, and I'm sure it won't get better for another ten days and a half months!

Chapter 2793

4-6 minutes

When Ma Lan heard Xiao Changkun say that her leg stomach still throbbed, she immediately frowned and questioned, "Xiao Changkun, did you even carry me on your back to go running?"

Xiao Changkun refuted, "What do you mean by carrying you? Do I have to report to you for a run?"

Ma Lan coldly snorted, "Half of your body is buried in the yellow earth, and you are still running, running for what? Do you still want to have a second chance at life?"

Xiao Changkun said impatiently, "What does it matter to you? Why do you care so much?"

After saying that, he glanced at the crutches placed by Ma Lan's side against the dining table and sneered, "What, you can't let me go out for a run because your own legs are not working?"

Ye Chen listened with a pounding head and said, "Dad and mum, you two should cut the crap, don't be so tit-for-tat here, no one is letting anyone down.

Xiao Churan said without looking back as she cooked the noodles, "Honey, you don't even know how I've survived this meal, they've been at each other's throats for over an hour and I can't even persuade them!

Ma Lan grumbled, "I didn't mean to pick a fight with Xiao Changkun, but this guy's words are too annoying.

Xiao Changkun said in a cold voice: "What does your broken leg have to do with me? It's not like I broke it for you, and besides, you've just been talking to me for half a day,.....

You didn't mention your leg at that time, so don't get all morally abusive here.

Ma Lan was furious and said, "I'm morally abducting you? Xiao Changkun, you're really a heartless person! Have you forgotten how I served you in the hospital when you were hit by Gao Junwei's car and became a paraplegic? I worked so hard for you, and I was so busy.

Xiao Changkun said disdainfully: "Do you think I don't know? When I was injured, who was the one who worked so hard to find me a miracle doctor?"

Xiao Changkun pointed at Ye Chen beside him and said loudly: "It was my good son-in-law, Ye Chen, who found it for me! If it wasn't for him, I would still be lying in bed right now."

Immediately afterwards, Xiao Changkun looked at Ma Lan and asked after him: "You said you were busy, what were you busy with? You're busy cheating your daughter out of a cheque, aren't you? You think I don't know?"

"Don't bullshit! "Ma Lan was exposed and cursed: "Which one of your eyes saw me cheat my daughter's cheque?"

Xiao Changkun brushed aside his mouth, "Still pretending, are you? When I was in the hospital, Dr. Shi cured me and the doctor said I should be hospitalized for two more days for observation and pay less hospital fees, but what happened? If I remember correctly, the amount on that cheque was at least 170,000 to 180,000, right?"

Xiao Changkun then sneered: "If I were to learn from you, then after you broke your leg, the first thing I would do is to find my daughter .....

Xiao Changkun is not that kind of person, but we are a person of quality, quality, understand?"

Ma Lan was so angry that she picked up her cane and slammed it into Xiao Changkun, cursing and swearing, "Quality? I told you to talk to me about quality, see if I don't break your leg!"

Ye Chen hurriedly stopped her and said with a bit of anger, "Oh, come on! You can't even talk about it, can you? Don't forget that Chu Ran and I are still around."

When Ma Lan saw that Ye Chen was a bit angry, he hurriedly smiled and said: "Good son-in-law, don't be angry, it's not against you, it's against that dog Xiao Changkun."

Xiao Changkun was going to fight with her some more, but once he thought that Ye Chen seemed to be unhappy, he simply sat a little further away and muttered, "I won't be ordinary with you."

Ma Lan angry a glare, Ye Chen this time directly spoke: "OK OK, Mom you do not here unforgiving, so, you must be at home these days to recuperate is also to stay bored, or tomorrow I asked a friend in the Buckingham Palace to prepare a VIP card for you, after you go to the Buckingham Palace every day to do a SPA, just as well as relaxation."

The first time Ma Lan heard this, she was overjoyed and cheered: "Oh my God, good son-in-law, is it true what you said? I've heard that the spa at Buckingham Palace is the most expensive and high-end spa in the whole of Jinling, and it costs thousands or tens of thousands of dollars to do just about anything!"

Ye Chen laughed: "Buckingham Palace is after all the best hotel in Jinling, SPA such things are followed by the hotel integrated operation, the grade naturally can not be low, but money is not a problem, they that Chen happens to be my customer, I go to him can also ask for an internal price, maybe even give a free bill.

That's great!" Ma Lan was excited, excitedly said: "Good son-in-law, then you tomorrow - morning to help Mom contact contact? Mom is really tired of staying at home these days, if you can go to a spa early to relax, not only good for physical and mental health, maybe for my leg recovery is also helpful!"

Ye Chen nodded, said: "I will help you ask, but the premise is that you do not fight with Dad here again.

Ma Lan did not hesitate to say: " good son-in-law you do not worry, I do not bother with him in general, I look at him in the future count me Ma Lan lost!"

Ye Chen also did not delay, immediately took out his cell phone, sent a WeChat voice to Chen Zekai, spoke: "Mr. Chen, Ma .....

My mother-in-law wants a VIP card for the spa at Buckingham Palace, see if you can arrange it, preferably one where all the items are free."

Chen Zekai returned the message in almost seconds: "Master Ye, the VIP card is a small matter, you wait a moment, I will personally send it home for you.

Ye Chen then said, "Mr. Chen, you don't need to make the trip yourself, just arrange for one of your men to send it over."

Chen Zekai said: "Master Ye, don't mention it, I'm going out to do something, I'm passing by Townsend One, I'll send it to you right away.

Ye Chen knew that he could not be passing by, but seeing that he insisted on delivering it personally, he did not insist and said to him: "Then it will be hard for you, Mr. Chen.

"You're very kind, Master Ye."

Hearing this, Ma Lan's whole face turned red with excitement and said excitedly, "Damn, my son-in-law just has face, boy, with this one phone call, Richard Chen of Buckingham Palace personally gave the VIP card, it's amazing!"

After saying that, she hurriedly asked Ye Chen .....

: "Good son-in-law, is this card something that you can just use and not spend money on?"

Ye Chen smiled faintly : "I think so, we still have to wait for Mr. Chen to come to know exactly."

Ma Lan has been happy to fly, two hands a moment to the left, a moment to the right, but also forgot to throw out the wave-like curve, full of joy said: "Buckingham Palace SPA, the average person can not go once a year, if I can have a free VIP card, I will go every day, simply every morning. After dinner on the go, and then back at night!

Xiao Changkun said: "You can simply move over to live.

Ma Lan also did not fight with him, smiling and said: " You think I do not want to ah? If you were the only old bastard in the house, I would have moved there and not come back."

After saying that, she turned her words, flattering smile: "But there are still my good son-in-law and my good daughter at home, not to mention that I have to cook breakfast for my good son-in-law every day, which is like you, just know to reach out and open your mouth, never see you do something for your good son-in-law

When Xiao Changkun heard this, he instantly became a little anxious and wanted to say something, but when he opened his mouth, he felt as if he couldn't find a suitable reason to retort.

"In this family, although I have not been a demon all day long like Ma Lan, I really have not done anything to contribute ....."

"Earlier I did make a fortune from Zhang Ermao by pouring antiques, I thought it would be a way to make a fortune, but who would have thought that there would be nothing more after that ....."

"This little bastard Zhang Ermao is also very confused, he used to be there every time I went to the antique street, but recently, every time I go to the antique street, I can't find this guy's figure!"

"I couldn't find Zhang Ermao's silhouette, not to mention that I later bought a little bit of antiques with the mentality of picking up a leak, but basically I lost everything, although I didn't lose any big money, but the things I bought for several thousand dollars, once I went to a professional institution for a quote, people would give a dollar or two with their mouths open, basically I lost everything."

"Later joined the calligraphy and painting association, every day is busy with the association, although in the association mixed well, but that kind of association is mainly to mix a reputation and seniority, to say make money, it is really no game ....."

So, Xiao Changkun pondered and pondered, and found with emotion in his heart: "....."

Gee, when you put it that way, I do seem to be lacking, good son-in-law Ye Chen bought me a car, helped me pretend, helped me beat my face, and followed me every day to wipe my ass, but what about me? I haven't done anything for him either ....."

For a moment, Xiao Changkun also felt more than a little guilty in his heart.

He looked at Ye Chen and said awkwardly, "Ah Ye Chen, what do you think is suitable for Dad to do in this situation now?"

Ye Chen laughed, "Dad, aren't you doing quite well in the Calligraphy and Painting Association?"

Xiao Changkun sighed, "I'm doing quite well, but I can't make any money after all."

Ye Chen waved his hand, "You and mum don't need to bother about making money, this family is supported by me and Churan, you two can retire at ease, or do something you like to do."

Xiao Changkun was a bit ashamed and said, "It's not easy for Dad to eat at home all the time."

At the side, Ma Lan brushed aside and sneered, "Oh, Xiao Changkun, you still know you're eating for free? I thought you didn't have any self-awareness at all!"

Ye Chen hurriedly spoke up, "Mom, we are all family, there is no such thing as eating for nothing, is .....

Do you have to go out with dad to be self-reliant and self-sufficient in the future?"

When Ma Lan heard this, she hurriedly waved her hand and said, "Aiya good son-in-law, mum didn't mean that, mum just thinks that it's not appropriate that Xiao Changkun doesn't earn money all day long, and he doesn't even do household chores, just like a hands-off master ....."

The company's main goal is to provide the best possible service to its customers.

Xiao Changkun also hurriedly said, "In this way, in the future, I will be responsible for mopping and sweeping the floor, wiping the table and taking out the rubbish, all belong to me!"

Ye Chen shook his head helplessly, but he didn't bother to be polite with Xiao Changkun, it just so happened that the villa was large and cleaning up was a bit of a hassle, and Ye Chen wasn't used to having a live-in aunt, after all, he had been living in an orphanage since he was eight years old, and he didn't have the problems of a young master, so now he wasn't used to having someone to wait around.

When Ma Lan saw that Xiao Changkun had taken the initiative to take over the household chores, the balance in her heart was slightly more balanced, so she did not bother to continue fighting with him.

Now she was looking forward to the arrival of Richard Chen, who had said that he would send Ye Chen a VIP card to the Buckingham Palace, which was her main concern.

---

A few minutes later, Xiao Churan finished cooking the noodles, fished them out and after a quick pass in cold water, she served them in a bowl, and topped them with her own fried pork marinade with garlic moss, and set them in front of Ye Chen along with chopsticks, saying with a smile, "Honey, try my handiwork!"

After saying that, he immediately took a taste.

This taste really did not disappoint Ye Chen.

The taste of the stir-fried pork with garlic moss was very good, the garlic moss was fresh and the fire was very well controlled, so the taste was excellent, while the five-flowered pork was diced by Xiao Churan and stir-fried in the pot to produce a rich meat flavour, which mixed with the original fragrance of the garlic moss and was very appetising.

The noodles were also cooked just right, soft and firm, and at first glance, they were cooked at a precise point, and then passed through the cold water very accurately, so they were fragrant and strong.

As he ate, Ye Chen couldn't help but praise: "Honey, your noodles are really great! How come I didn't know you had such a good hand before!"

Xiao Churan was a bit ashamed and said, "You used to be the one who cooked, I rarely got involved in the kitchen. ...."

Since you like it, I'll definitely find the opportunity to cook for you more often in the future!"

Ye Chen nodded gently and smiled, "That's really great! But wife, you shouldn't be too busy cooking too often, aren't the projects over at the Imperial Group quite busy, it's better to take care of your career."

Xiao Churan busily said, "I will arrange for the transfer, just don't worry!"

After saying that, she also instructed, "You hurry up and eat, there are still noodles in the pot if you don't have enough."

"Okay!"

Ye Chen ate two big bowls of noodles in a row, wiped his mouth and exclaimed with a satisfied face, "The lo mein noodles made by my wife are really the best I've ever eaten!"

Xiao Churan smiled sweetly with relief and said, "Next time I'll make you other halogen noodles to try!"

Ye Chen laughed, "That's great."

As he was talking, the doorbell suddenly rang.

Ma Lan was the first to react and said excitedly, "Aiya! It must be General Manager Chen coming to deliver the VIP card, I'll go and open the door!"

After saying that, the person had already run out.

Xiao Churan then said to Xiao Changkun, "Dad, there's a guest at home .....

people up, come along and say hello in the living room."

"Okay." Xiao Changkun also wanted to get to know Chen Zekai, so he hurriedly followed behind Ye Chen and walked out.

Just as the three of them reached the living room, Ma Lan had already opened the door to the room and the one who came in was indeed Chen Zekai.

At this moment, Richard Chen said very politely, "Hello, Ms. Ma, I am Richard Chen from Buckingham Palace."

Ma Lan was so excited that she hurriedly gave up space, made an inviting gesture and said with a smile, "Aiya Mr. Chen, please come in, please come in!"

Chen Zekai hurriedly said, "Then I'll bother you Ms. Ma."

Saying that, just as he stepped in, he saw Ye Chen also walking over, so he hurriedly said respectfully, "Master Ye!"

Ye Chen nodded slightly and said, "I'm sorry for the hard trip you've made."

Chen Zekai was flattered and said, "What are your words, don't be so polite with me."

With that, he hurriedly took out two Buckingham Palace custom-made premium envelopes from his pocket and handed them to Ye Chen, saying respectfully, "Master Ye, these are two Buckingham Palace unlimited SPA VIP cards, a small token of appreciation for Ms. Ma and your wife."

Seeing the two envelopes, Ma Lan's eyes went straight.

To put it bluntly, it is nothing but skin care for the whole body and body management.

Body management is a tricky business for many middle-aged women, after all, they have to work out themselves to get in shape, and many of them are lazy or not persistent enough, so they slowly lose track of it.

But skin care is much easier. When you go to a beauty salon and lie down on a bed, you don't have to worry about anything, and a lot of young girls with light hands and tender skin will greet you with all kinds of high-end skincare products, so you can enjoy the process of massage and have your whole body skin care done.

That's why rich wives of wealthy families generally love to go to beauty salons and health spas.

However, the cost of this high-end beauty spa is extremely high.

Generally speaking, it costs at least five thousand dollars to go in for a full body treatment.

And, five thousand yuan is only the basic level, firstly, the length of time will not be too long, and secondly, the brand of skin care products used in the treatment will be relatively ordinary.

Generally speaking, a full body spa with a first-tier skincare brand will cost at least ten thousand dollars, and if you use a super first-tier brand, such as the kind of caviar skincare products that Ye Chen gave to Ma Lan at the beginning, the price of that one time will probably be close to one hundred thousand dollars.

Even when Ma Lan was at her best, she did not have the courage and strength to go to Buckingham Palace for a spa treatment.

The limited amount VIP card is a one-step solution to all of Ma Lan's skincare needs, so how could she not be excited?

It was Xiao Churan who was embarrassed and said: "Mr Chen, I am really embarrassed about such an expensive gift

But Master Ye has helped us a lot. If it wasn't for Master Ye's feng shui adjustment, Buckingham Palace would have gone bankrupt and collapsed.

Chen Zekai's words were nothing but nonsense, but Xiao Churan, Xiao Changkun and Ma Lan heard it with conviction.

After all, in their opinion, the reason why Ye Chen had become Master Ye in Jinling was because he could read feng shui, so many rich and big families had sought his help.

However, Xiao Churan still felt that he did not get paid for his work, so he said politely: "Actually, I am particularly busy every day and don't have much time to go to a spa, so why don't you take this card of mine back, and as for the other one, I will thank you for my mother first!"

Ye Chen said with a smile at this time, "Wife, this little thing you don't have to excuse, whether or not you have time first, the card you and mum each have one first, in case you are free at some time in the future, you can go there directly."

After saying that, he deliberately said to Richard Chen, "Mr. Chen, next time you go to see the feng shui of Buckingham Palace, you don't have to pay me anymore."

Chen Zekai immediately understood and was busy saying politely: 'How can I be so kind then Master Ye!

I'll take the card, so don't put it off any longer.

Chen Zekai then took advantage of the slope and said :

In that case, then I will respectfully accept it!"

At this moment, Xiao Changkun, who had not said anything, said with some embarrassment, "By the way, Mr. Chen, I would like to ask you a favour, I wonder if it is possible?"

Chen Zekai was busy saying, " Mr. Xiao, please speak!

"It's like this". Xiao Changkun coughed twice and said, "Our Jinling Painting and Calligraphy Association wants to hold a painting exhibition in the near future, but we haven't decided on a venue, originally we wanted to go to Jumbo Court, but after the kidnapping and bombing case in Jumbo Court some time ago, the public is a bit scared of the place, if we still choose Jumbo Court, I'm afraid there won't be many people there. I wonder if there is a suitable venue at Buckingham Palace that we can work with?"

The company has a number of banquet halls and a sky garden, so if you don't want to use the sky garden, you can use it.

Xiao Changkun said excitedly, "Oh, didn't the Sky Garden say it was not open to the public? Will it be a problem for Mr. Chen if we choose to use it there?

Chen Zekai said, "It's no trouble, the Sky Garden is a big place with high quality decoration, so it can be used for a painting exhibition.

Xiao Changkun was excited and said, "Oh, thank you! Thank you so much, Mr. Chen!"

After saying that, he asked, "By the way, Mr. Chen, do you know if there is an approximate amount for the cost of the sky garden?"

Chapter 2798

Chen Zekai smiled and said, "Mr. Xiao, I heard that you are now the executive vice president of the Calligraphy and Painting Association?"

Xiao Changkun smiled shyly and said, "It's just a false position, not worth mentioning, not worth mentioning."

Chen Zekai said seriously, "It is already remarkable to be in this position, Mr. Xiao does not need to be so modest."

He said, "Since Mr. Xiao is the executive vice-president of the Calligraphy and Painting Association, this matter is my part of the job."

Xiao Changkun said with surprise: "Mr. Chen, you are really helping us a lot."

Chen Zekai took out a business card and handed it to Xiao Changkun, smiling, "In the future, if the Painting and Calligraphy Association needs a venue or even sponsorship for any activities, Mr. Xiao can contact me directly."

"Aiya, thank you so much!" Xiao Changkun was flattered and thanked him repeatedly.

At this point, Chen Zekai looked at the time and said, "Oh yes, Master Ye, I have some business to attend to, so I won't bother you any longer."

Ye Chen nodded and smiled, "Then I'll send you."

Ma Lan said with a flattering face, "Aiya Mr. Chen, you have met the door this time, you must come often in the future!"

Chen Zekai said politely, "Okay, okay, Master Ye and Ms. Ma please stay, I'll just go by myself."

Ye Chen was not polite either and smiled, "I won't see you off then."

As soon as Richard Chen left, Ma Lan said to Ye Chen impatiently, "Good son-in-law, quickly take one of the VIP cards and show it to me?"

Ye Chen handed her an envelope.

Ye Chen saw her smiling face and shook his head helplessly. The mother-in-law's pattern seemed to stop at this small profit.

Late at night.

Su Zhiyu stayed with the excited family until late, before finally returning to the room she had prepared for herself to rest.

As soon as she lay down, her mind could not help but think of Ye Chen. Her girlish heart quickly overflowed at the thought of Ye Chen, filled with girlish shyness and fantasies and expectations for the future.

Although Ye Chen has a lot of connections with his own family, although Ye Chen's own situation is also .....

It was very special, but Su Zhiyu was still not half discouraged, because for her, being able to find Ye Chen was already half successful.

No matter what, it was a good thing.

Only, if one wanted to succeed completely, there might still be a long road ahead.

However, it didn't matter if it was long.

Su Zhiyu felt that she could take her time and wait, or take her time to fight for it.

Just when her mind was racing, a knock on the door suddenly sounded.

She subconsciously asked, "Who is it?"

Su Zhi Fei's voice came out, "Zhiyu, it's me.

"Brother?" Su Zhiyu said, "Wait a moment.

After saying this, she hurriedly got up and put on her robe before opening the door to her room.

She looked at Su Zhi Fei outside the door and asked curiously, "Brother, is there something wrong at this late hour?"

Su Zhi Fei looked around and deliberately lowered his voice and asked, "Zhiyu, is it convenient for brother to come in and talk?"

"It's convenient." Su Zhiyu nodded, thinking that her brother had something to say to her out of concern for her, so she hurriedly made room and invited Su Zhifei in.

She didn't know that during the time she was rescued by Ye Chen, this brother of hers had undergone a radical change

Su Zhifei quietly came to find Su Zhiyu in the middle of the night with one purpose in mind: to find out what Su Zhiyu and her mother had gone through this time, and who had saved them.

At the dinner table, he also listened to his mother talk about the specific process of the experience, which is the so-called mysterious person to save, but never showed up the version of the story.

Although there are no obvious holes in the logic, however, Su Zhi Fei always felt that something was not quite right.

In addition, his grandfather, Su Chengfeng, felt that the incident was probably related to the benefactor who had saved him and his sister in Japan, so he thought he would ask Su Zhiyu in private to see if he could get her words.

As soon as he entered Su Zhiyu's room, Su Zhifei asked with concern, "Zhiyu, you haven't suffered much these days, have you?"

"No ....." Su Zhiyu moved a smile, said: "brother, at the dinner table, did not all said, did not eat what suffering, but rather every day eat, sleep, sleep, eat, grow a lot of meat. "

"No is good ....." Su Zhi Fei sighed in relief and sighed: "Brother is afraid that you suffer suffering, after all, after such a big car accident, casual injuries are also very difficult to suffer." .....

Su Zhiyu nodded and followed his words, "Actually, that's a small thing, after all, they have arranged a very professional medical team."

Su Zhifei asked curiously, "Zhiyu, what is the origin of the mysterious people who saved you and mom? Why would they quietly save you? And also quietly give you treatment, did not let the outside world receive any news at all."

"I don't know." Su Zhiyu said, "This I can not say ....." after all, I have not seen anyone, they have not told us to the end, why in the end to save us ....."

Su Zhifei looked at Su Zhiyu, said seriously: "Zhiyu, you tell brother the truth, is there something hidden you did not say at the dinner table in front of Grandpa and the others?"

Su Zhiyu was busy saying, "No, what I said was the actual situation."

Su Zhifei frowned and suddenly asked, "Zhiyu, the person who saved you and mom, wouldn't be the benefactor, right?!"

Su Zhifei's sudden remark immediately made Su Zhiyu a little surprised, and only after a moment did she come back to her senses and hastily denied: "How could it be ....." I tried everything to find my benefactor before but couldn't find .....

He also said that she was in Japan and would not have come to Jinling."

Su Zhi Fei had been observing Su Zhiyu's expression, and he noticed that when he had just talked about her grandfather, Su Zhiyu's expression was obviously a bit stunned and nervous, and her denial immediately afterwards also smelled like she was trying to cover up the truth.

Out of his knowledge of his sister, he was almost certain that she was lying.

The person who had really saved her and her mother was the benefactor who had saved her and her sister in Kyoto, Japan!

Thinking of this, Su Zhi Fei suddenly felt a pang of nervousness!

"That benefactor was already a top expert with superb strength, he easily killed several top ninjas by himself, while he himself was unharmed, this kind of strength is almost an existence that the Su family can't even resist ....."

"If it's true that he saved mum and Zhiyu, then it proves that he himself is in Jinling! In that case, there would be an answer to the disappearance of second uncle and dad, and apart from him, no second possibility can be thought of ....."

"If we do the math like that, then although he saved mum and Zhiyu, he himself is probably on the opposite side of the Su family ....."

So, Su Zhi Fei decided to set out some more details.

Chapter 2800

He sighed lightly at this time, looked at Su Zhiyu, some lost said, "Zhiyu, we both grew up together, the relationship has always been very good, and also together in Japan experienced life and death, I, as a brother, heart a thousand thousand for your good, and what do you have to hide from me?"

When Su Zhiyu heard this, she couldn't help but feel a little guilty in her heart, and her tone of voice became even more bottomless as she stammered, "Brother ..... I didn't ....."

Su Zhi Fei asked her, "Do you really think brother is a fool? I still can't see through you after all these years, ah? In this state, you are clearly lying."

He said, Su Zhi Fei said with a helpless face, "Hey, what do you think you have to hide from me about this matter, the benefactor is not only your benefactor alone, he is also my benefactor, my life was also saved by him, I know you want to find him to repay your kindness, I also want to find him to repay my kindness! If he really saved you and mum this time, then our Su family owes him four lives. If I have the chance, I must thank him on my knees.

This was because she did not realise that her brother Su Zhi Fei had already started a moral abduction.

In one fell swoop, it put her in a contradictory situation of being in a dilemma between left and right.

On one side, she had promised Ye Chen not to reveal his identity; .....

But on the other hand, my brother seemed to have guessed the outline of the matter, and put words into his mouth so that he did not know how to refuse.

After thinking about it, Su Zhiyu thought, "Since brother has guessed here, I will affirm his guess, and save him the pain in his heart, as for more news about my benefactor, I will just not reveal it."

So, she had to speak, "Brother, you guessed right, the one who saved me and mum was indeed the benefactor ....."

Su Zhi Fei's heart stuttered.

"It's really true ....."

"Ginger is still old and spicy ah ..... Grandpa had never met En-Gong, he could even guess that it was him, if he hadn't reminded me, I'm afraid I wouldn't have thought of this layer at all ....."

So, he deliberately pretended to be excited and said excitedly, "Oops! Surely it's the benefactor! How wonderful! Zhiyu, when will you take me to meet your benefactor, I must thank him properly in person!"

Su Zhiyu said, "Brother, I don't know where my benefactor is. ...."

Su Zhi Fei was surprised and asked, "What do you mean? Haven't you seen your father-in-law?"

Su Zhiyu said, "I did meet him, but he didn't reveal anything and told me and my mother to keep it a secret, I don't even know his last name, and it's true that my mother and I had our personal freedom restricted by him before, so we don't know any more information."

Said .....

The first time he saved us, not to mention his identity information, he was not even willing to say a word to the two of us. ..."

When Su Zhi Fei heard this, he couldn't help but get disappointed.

He didn't doubt it when Su Zhiyu said this.

Because, that benefactor was indeed very low-key and cold-looking, not willing to leave the slightest clue to others.

Thinking of this, he hurriedly said, "In my opinion, the benefactor he must be in Jinling, then we can continue to look for his whereabouts, this time the scope is much narrower than before, I think we should be able to find a little clue!"

Su Zhiyu was afraid that his brother would see the truth, so he pretended to agree and nodded, "You are right, brother! I was just thinking about this, since we can narrow it down to a single city in Jinling this time, it should be much easier to find our benefactor!"

After saying that, she hurriedly added, "But we must keep a low profile, we can't make a big fuss about it, after all, it's right under the eyes of our benefactor, and he doesn't want us to find him, if he finds out, he might get angry and might even leave Jinling!"

Su Zhi Fei agreed with Su Zhiyu's words and hurriedly said, "Don't worry about that, I will think of a way.
