

Ye Chen 2821

Chapter 2821

He Yingxiu's words hit He Hongsheng right where it hurts.

He knew better than anyone else what kind of virtue his eldest son had in his heart.

As early as twenty years ago, he had discovered that his eldest son had lost his ultimate pursuit of the martial arts.

Not only that, he had also become obsessed with materialistic pleasures.

In his own words, after 20 to 30 years of hard work in martial arts, it was time to enjoy life. All those martial arts stars and action stars also suffered when they were young and started to reach the top of their lives when they reached middle age.

Many martial arts stars have even become billionaires by the time they are 30, and their personal status is declining at a rapid rate visible to the naked eye, as they train less and less.

Training less and less, but living a better and better life.

When they were 17 or 18, they might only earn a few hundred dollars for a film, but by the time they were 30, they could earn tens of millions of dollars or more for casual appearances and fancy tricks.

This also deeply stimulates He Yingquan.

He He thought that since those martial arts stars who had only practised some external kung fu could become human beings, why could he not be like them after 20 to 30 years of hard training in martial arts?

From that time onwards, He Yingquan's cultivation almost came to a standstill.

However, the path of martial arts is an exceptionally difficult one, not something that can be compared to those fancy fist and leg tricks.

He Hong Sheng knew that although his eldest son had a great advantage over ordinary people in terms of cultivation, it was still not enough for him to make a living in the martial arts.

Let alone allowing him to lead the entire He family.

However, although He Hongsheng was dissatisfied with He Yingquan's negativity, he had no other options in hand.

His other brothers, with relatively average talent, were all working hard, but their overall strength was not even as strong as that of the passive He Yingquan.

He Yingxiu just said that the He family can be ranked as one of the four great families of martial arts, most of the reason is because of He Hongsheng alone, and this is true. If He Hongsheng dies, with the strength of these offspring of the He family, they will definitely fall out of the four great families quickly, or even a The breath fell out of the top ten.

He Yingxiu was indeed outstanding when she was young, but unfortunately, she was chosen by the Su family just after she reached adulthood and went to the Su family to protect Su Shoudao closely, sort of going out early to make money for the family.

At that time, the He family had to depend on the Su family for survival, and He Hongsheng could only push He Yingxiu out.

It was also since then that He Yingxiu spent the vast majority of her days protecting Su Shoudao, so she rarely had any time left to fully cultivate her martial arts skills.

As a result, her cultivation level grew very slowly later on.

Later, in order to protect Su Shoudao, she lost her right arm and her strength plummeted.

Although her cultivation level was higher than He Yingquan's, after losing her arm, her real combat ability was even worse than He Yingquan's.

Moreover, He Hongsheng also knows very well that even if he is not biased and does not have a patriarchal mindset, it is still difficult for the entire He family to accept a woman as the head of the family, and even more difficult to accept a disabled woman as the head of the family.

Chapter 2822

6-7 minutes

But now, He Yingxiu's words made him realise a crucial point.

His eldest son had indeed been unconcerned about martial arts all these years, and if he were to give him the rest of that divine elixir, it might not have any positive effect at all.

Moreover, even if he was willing to hand over the He family to his eldest son, He Yingquan, in the future, he might not really be able to wholeheartedly develop the He family for the better.

On the contrary, he would probably sell the entire He family to the Su family, and then he would take the huge sum of money given by the Su family and run away to enjoy his life.

In that case, the entire He family would become a tool for him to enrich himself.

Instead of that, it would be better for him to find a way to live for some more years and lead the He family farther with his own hands.

If he could burn up his last energy and push the He family to the number one martial arts family in the country, then he would have no regrets in dying!

With this in mind, he finally made up his mind and said to He Yingxiu, "Yingxiu, you are right, making the He family go higher and further is our most important mission! Since Young Master Ye has given us such a dreamed of creation, then my He family will be guided by him alone from now on!"

He Yingxiu asked, "Dad, have you agreed to work with Young Master Ye?"

He Hongsheng said firmly, "Young Master Ye has given me a divine pill, and I have already taken one, so how can I renege at this point?"

He Yingxiu said excitedly, "That's great! It's really great! As long as we cooperate with Young Master Ye wholeheartedly, what Young Master Ye can bring us will be far more than just five divine pills and 100 million in cash every year! I believe that Young Master Ye can not only make the He Family become the number one martial arts family in the country, and it would even allow the He Family to surpass the martial arts families and become a stronger tier of existence!"

He Hongsheng subconsciously asked, "Yingxiu, when you say transcend martial arts families and become a stronger layer of existence, what is this stronger layer of existence?"

He Yingxiu shook his head and said frankly, "I don't know either, I originally thought that a martial arts expert, should be the strongest existence in close combat, but after meeting Young Master Ye yesterday, I felt that we are just frogs at the bottom of the well, we simply don't understand how vast the world is outside the well of martial arts ....."

He Hongsheng couldn't help but ask: "Then what kind of strength do you think, that Young Master Ye has?"

He Yingxiu truthfully said, "I can't see Young Master Ye's true strength either ....."

He Hongsheng asked again, "Then how many levels do you think this Young Master Ye is above us?"

"How many levels?" Between hesitations, He Yingxiu suddenly remembered something that his daughter Su Ruoli had told himself about.

The reason why Su Ruoli was able to achieve great success in the Ren Vein was not because she had taken the divine pill given by Ye Chen.

According to her daughter, Ye Chen had only checked her pulse and seemed to have used his internal energy to travel around her meridians, and then directly helped her to achieve the Great Success of the Ren Vein.

This was the same as the vast majority of people who would never be able to reach that level in a lifetime of desperate cultivation, but for Ye Chen, it was just the effort of giving her a pulse, and he could easily raise her directly to that level.

Just by moving his fingers, it was worth a lifetime of effort for others.

Perhaps, it can no longer be described simply by the level, right?

Thinking of this, she looked at her father and said seriously, "Dad, if I were to say it, it might be the same gap between the Sun Wukong and Buddha Ru-lai ..... The Sun Wukong seems to have extraordinary skills, but he can't even escape Buddha Ru-lai's five-finger mountain, in my opinion, the gap between us and Young Master Ye is like this ....."

He Hongsheng listened with a face full of horror, his voice even with a few trembling asked, "When ..... is there really such a gap?!"

He Yingxiu did not hesitate to nod his head and said, "Dad, in my opinion, it is indeed so!"

He Hongsheng could not help but ask after him, "Since this Young Master Ye is so capable, where would he look at us?"

He Yingxiu let out a bitter laugh and said, "Dad, I'm to blame for not making myself clear, in fact, Young Master Ye didn't seek me out this time for the purpose of pulling in the He family at all."

He Hongsheng exclaimed, "What?! It's not to pull in the He family, then what is it for?!"

He Yingxiu thought of her precious daughter Su Ruoli, and thought with a bitter smile in her heart, "In fact, everything is Ruoli's good fortune, being saved by Young Master Ye, who is heartbroken that she has not been able to meet with me, her mother, before stepping in to invite me over to Jinling to reunite with my daughter, all these creations are just him looking after me and the He family for the sake of his daughter ....."

However, she thought of her promise to Ye Chen not to tell the truth about her daughter, so she had to say helplessly, "Dad, there are some things that I promised Young Master Ye not to tell, so you don't have to ask after them, you just need to know that Young Master Ye sought our cooperation, not really fancying our ability, but wanting to send us a creation..."

Chapter 2823

---

He Hongsheng also knew that since the other party had such strength and such divine pills, working with the He family was indeed a lift and a boon.

It was just that he could not understand how such a good thing could have fallen into the He family's lap.

Thus, he subconsciously asked, "Ah Yingxiu, this Young Master Ye, why does he want to cooperate with us? Before you came back, I thought that the young master of the Ye family must want to cooperate with us because he wants to compete with the Su family, but after you came back, I realized that this young master of the Ye family is so powerful that the Su family is nothing in his eyes, if he really wants to compete with the Su family, there is no need to cooperate with us at all ....."

He Yingxiu nodded and said seriously, "That's why I said, this is a creation that Young Master Ye has sent to our He family, we have to seize this opportunity no matter what!"

He Yingxiu had analyzed Ye Chen's motives a long time ago.

She thought, "In terms of strength, Young Master Ye doesn't know how much higher than the He Family, and with his divine ability, the He Family can't even enter his eyes."

"The reason why he is still willing to take the initiative to take money and pills to cooperate with the He family is simply because he sees In Ruo Li's face."

"I think that Young Master Ye must have some subtle feelings for Ruo Li."

"This is not only Ruo Li's own creation, but also the creation of the entire He family."

He Hongsheng also nodded with a look of approval and said with emotion, "Such a heavenly opportunity, naturally, we must seize it firmly!"

After saying this, he immediately said, "I will go to Su Anshun right now and tell him clearly that the He family rejects the Su family's invitation to cooperate!"

He Yingxiu was busy stopping him and said, "Dad, you'd better take the second divine elixir first as well! What if you can break through the fourth meridian with a flourish?"

He Hongsheng hesitated for a moment before gently nodding his head and saying, "Good! In that case, I will take it and see if I can break through the fourth meridian! If I can, my He family will be able to return to its peak!"

He Yingxiu was equally full of anticipation.

To the He Family, He Hongsheng was not only the navigator, but also the mainstay.

If he could advance one more level of cultivation, it would not only give the He family as a whole a big step forward, but more importantly, it would also give the He family...

A huge incentive for the children and grandchildren.

He Hongsheng was equally looking forward to it.

He picked up the divine pill, examined it for a few seconds and then reached out and put it into his mouth.

As he had already experienced it once, this time he concentrated on preparing his body with his internal energy, so that at the moment when the medicinal power dissipated, he could guide it towards the fourth meridian, the belt vein.

When he took the last divine elixir, his inexperience had caused the medicinal effect to be forcibly absorbed by his dried-up body. Although this could largely improve his physical quality and even make his body younger and live longer to a certain extent, he could not afford to waste the medicinal power on it.

He wanted to use all the medicinal effects of the second divine Pill to impact the Belt Vein.

A moment later, the surging medicinal power surged outwards from his abdomen. He Hongsheng was prepared for this and hurriedly used all his internal energy to wrap the medicinal power to death.

The powerful medicinal power was like a rapid flood, and He Hongsheng's internal energy was like a dam used to resist the flood, desperately controlling the direction of the medicinal power and doing everything possible to direct it to the fourth meridian.

Chapter 2824

---

It was just that the power of the medicine was so fierce that even though he had done his utmost to control it, almost 30% of it was still absorbed by his body.

Although his veins were showing signs of loosening, he had no idea whether he would be able to break through, so he could only concentrate on his last attempt.

He Yingxiu saw her father's body red and his face dripping with sweat, and her left hand could not help but clutch the corner of her coat.

He Hongsheng was equally anxious.

He felt that the medicinal power was depleting in his veins, but there was no sign that the veins were about to be broken through, and as he saw that most of the medicinal power had been lost, there was very little left.

But just when less than 20% of the medicine power was left, he suddenly felt that his spiritual platform was clear and his whole body entered an unprecedented transcendent state, as if he had just woken up from a good sleep that he had never had before in his life, and his whole body felt indescribably comfortable and relaxed.

He was stunned for a moment, then immediately became excited and said excitedly, "A breakthrough! Youngsoo! Dad has really made a breakthrough!"

"Really dad! That's great! It's really ..... great!"

When He Yingxiu heard these words, she was overwhelmed with excitement, and seeing her father's radiant appearance, her heart was even more relieved, and tears came to her eyes at once.

She knew that breaking through the four meridians was her father's lifelong ambition.

Originally, everyone, including her father, had thought that this The day couldn't have come, but to my surprise, it really came true today!

As soon as He Yingxiu's eyes burst into tears, He Hongsheng's eyes were also wet with tears.

He choked with a trembling voice and said, "I really didn't expect that I, He Hongsheng, would still have the day to break through four meridians, so I can finally live up to the ancestors of our He family ....."

After saying this, he became even more emotional and was already in tears.

He Yingxiu asked, "Dad, how many percent of your fourth meridian have been opened now?"

He Hongsheng said, "Only 10%, but there must be a chance to continue to improve in the future! After all, now that the Ren meridian has become a major success and the Du meridian has increased from 50% to 70%, the Ren and Du meridians are the most important part of cultivation, which means that the foundation for future cultivation has been strengthened and future cultivation will be twice as successful with half the effort!"

He Yingxiu nodded repeatedly and said excitedly, "I can see that after you took the second divine pill, your physical condition and mental outlook have improved a lot, so I think it is no dream for you to live a long life.

He Hongsheng said with emotion, "If I really have that day, I will have no regrets in dying!"

After that, he hurriedly said, "Yingxiu, your cultivation has also improved greatly, and you have always been intelligent, although the loss of your arm has really affected your ability to fight, there is actually no discount for your cultivation.

He Yingxiu fell into silence for a moment.

In fact, She had never completely given up cultivating the martial arts.

It's just that she no longer devotes herself to it as she did when she was younger.

The path of martial arts is very similar to that of a professional athlete.

If you really want to make a mark, you have to put martial arts at the forefront of your life and spend at least half of your 24-hour day training systematically and diligently before you can have any chance of success.

It is like a table tennis player who starts training like a madman when he is not even tall enough to reach his peak until he is in his twenties, and during this time, he must train hard and rain or shine.

He Yingxiu has gone straight from being a professional athlete to being a retired athlete since he was injured, and most of his energy is spent on taking care of Su Ruoli every day, so the time he can spend on training is too little and too small.

Although she was able to squeeze in two or three hours a day for training, she was far from the requirements of a professional athlete.

This time, her father asked her to pick it up again, saying that he wanted her to resume training like a professional athlete again.

In fact, she also wanted to train as hard as her father said, but once she thought of her promise to Ye Chen to go to Jinling and that she had to guard her daughter Su Ruoli, she said to He Hongsheng, "Dad, Young Master Ye has said that if he agrees to cooperate, he needs me to take ten of the best experts of the He family to Jinling to follow his orders at all times, so I guess it will be difficult for me to train as intensely as before. "

She added, "But I will take the most time possible to work on my training, don't worry about that!"

Chapter 2825

---

Hearing He Yingxiu's words, He Hongsheng said almost without hesitation, "Since that's the case, then after I settle down the family, I will also go with you to Jinling and wait for Young Master Ye's command."

He Yingxiu nodded, although her father was already old, he was indeed the highest cultivator in the He family, and if he did not go to Jinling, then she did not know how to explain to Young Master Ye.

Afterwards, she asked her father, "Dad, what about the Su family's side?"

He Hongsheng, who had broken through the fourth meridian, becoming the second expert in the centuries-old history of the He family to break through all four meridians, was in a state of excitement at the moment, and upon hearing He Yingxiu's question, he immediately began to make new adjustments to the future of the He family.

He said, "Since Young Master Ye has given us such a blessing, I will naturally terminate my cooperation with the Su Family and completely clear the boundaries with the Su Family, and then immediately start to select the right people to go to Jinling to return to Young Master Ye."

He said, "Young Master Ye, including you, only need eleven people from the He family, so that the old and weak women and children do not have to follow us to leave their hometown, and those who are not quite good enough to cultivate can also stay in Desert City to continue their cultivation ....."

At this point, he could not help but sigh: "Ai! Desert The city is the foundation left by our ancestors, and I am reluctant to give it up. The Su family asked us to move south, so the old house will certainly be abandoned.

He Yingxiu nodded, then thought of something and said, "Dad, let's discuss something with you."

He Hongsheng was busy saying, "Speak!"

He Yingxiu said, "This time when we go to Jinling, we will not consider my elder brother's lineage, although his cultivation is good, he has wasted too much over the years and his mind is not on it, it is better not to let him touch Young Master Ye, as for his two sons even more so, they are not even ranked in the top twenty in the family."

"Yes." He Hongsheng also nodded very seriously, "Your elder brother is full of thoughts of making money, this time Su Anshun came over with a billion cheque, he doesn't know how excited he is, it's really disappointing ....."

He said, and then sighed: "Originally, I wanted to hand over the He family to him after I was 100 years old, but after observing over the years, your big brother is not a competent person ....."

The first time I saw this, I was able to see that the family would flourish under your rule in the next 20 years. As for the future head of the family You don't have to worry about the choice of people now, with you sitting in the town and with Young Master Ye's support, in the next twenty years, the He family will definitely emerge with a better young generation, and there will definitely be a suitable candidate for the head of the family!"

Hearing these words, He Hongsheng felt much relieved and nodded gently, looking forward to the future of the He family a little more.

But as soon as he thought of Su Ruoli, he could not help but sigh, "Ai! If only Ruo Li were still around, the entire He family, your elder brother's ambition is materialistic, your second brother's talent is average, and your situation is special, and there is no one of the younger generation who is ambitious and decisive, but only Ruo Li is truly a great general. ..."

He Yingxiu was surprised, but she couldn't help but say, "Dad, Ruo Li is a girl and a foreigner, even if she were here, many people would be unconvinced if she were to lead the He family."

"Unconvinced?" He Hongsheng sneered and said, "It seems that you, as a mother, don't know Ruo Li well enough. With Ruo Li's style of acting, it's useless to disobey anyone in this family, she will definitely bald all the thorns in those pricks, even your elder brother is no match for Ruo Li."

---

He Yingxiu thought of Ruo Li in Japan, the entire Matsumoto family extermination, can not help but sigh: "Ruo Li this child, before is too hostile, this also blame Su family, has been using her as a knife, the accumulation of murderous energy is too heavy ....."

"Yes ....." He Hongsheng sighed: "Not to talk about this, Yingxiu ah, I know you are still not willing to give up Ruo Li in your heart, why don't I choose some people from the younger generation of the family, when they are in groups of three or five, take turns to go out What do you think?"

He Yingxiu hesitated for a moment and said, "Dad, I don't think so, let's go to Jinling to see Young Master Ye first, and put the matter of finding Ruo Li on hold."

There were times when He Yingxiu could barely contain herself and wanted to tell her father about her daughter Ruo Li's current situation, to reassure him on the one hand, and to comfort him on the other.

More importantly, if her father really wanted to let Ruo Li inherit the family headship in the future, she, as a mother, would naturally be willing to do so, and if the old man knew about Ruo Li's situation, he would also be able to plan ahead.

However, every time the words came to her lips, she swallowed them back.

She felt that since she had already agreed to Mr. Ye's request for secrecy, it was even her own father She also absolutely could not make an exception, otherwise what integrity was there to speak of.

She thought that after the old man had gone to Jinling, as young master Ye gradually became familiar with the old man, perhaps he would allow Ruo Li to meet with the old man in private.

On the side, He Hongsheng didn't think much about it either, he looked at the time and spoke, "Go, go and find Su Anshun and make things clear before it's too late."

He Yingxiu nodded and asked, "Dad, if the Su family blames you, what are you going to do?"

He Hongsheng said blandly, "When the Su family is using people, naturally they can't spare the energy to deal with us, what's more, since we are siding with the young master of the Ye family, we don't have to worry about the Su family targeting us, if the young master of the Ye family gives an order for us to deal with the Su family, we might even tear our faces off one step ahead of the Su family, after all, people are their masters, this is the rule of the jianghu. "

He Yingxiu sighed in relief and said, "I understand dad."

As he was talking, there was a knock on the door outside the study.

He Hongsheng said, "Come in."

He Yingquan then pushed open the door, gave He Yingxiu a wary look and said to He Hongsheng, "Dad, you haven't finished on your side, have you? Butler Su got up and is having breakfast. He said he wants to ask you about the details ."

He Hongsheng nodded, "Just in time, I am looking for him on an important matter, let's go together."

He Yingquan's heart thudded and he thought to himself, "Something important? What's so important? You're not going to back out after talking to He Yingxiu for a while, are you? That's two billion a year!"

Thinking of this, he hurriedly and tentatively asked, "Dad ..... what is it that you want to see housekeeper Su about? It's not that there's been some change in the cooperation, right?!"

He Hongsheng glanced at him, seeing this eldest son of his with a face full of tension, that look as if he had lost two billion dollars, his heart could not help but feel a little disgusted.

As they say, dragons give birth to dragons, phoenixes give birth to phoenixes. I have been obsessed with martial arts all my life and have never been greedy for so-called glory and wealth, but why did I give birth to such a bastard?

Thinking of this, he said in an unkind tone, "What? Are you worried about a change in cooperation?"

He Yingquan's heart tightened and he hurriedly said, "Dad, the terms of cooperation offered by the Su family this time are once in a lifetime, so you must not make an irrational judgment in the heat of the moment!"

He Hongsheng snorted coldly, "Humph! Unreasonable judgement? To tell you the truth, I've already decided not to cooperate with the Su family, so I'm going to tell Su Anshun face to face now!

Chapter 2827

---

When He Yingquan heard these words, his entire body was struck by lightning!

He hurriedly stopped in front of his father and said in an anxious and even somewhat incoherent tone, "Dad, that won't do, Dad! We can't refuse the Su family's cooperation no matter what, it's a matter of life and death for our family, dad!"

He Hongsheng couldn't help but frown and shout, "Joke! If I don't cooperate with the Su family, how does that make my family's life and death at stake? Since I don't want to cooperate with him, how can he force me to do so? How could he force me to do so?"

He Yingquan almost collapsed and blurted out:

"Oh!

Dad! Why are you so confused? What's the size of the Su family? How can we possibly mess with them? If we don't eat the forfeit wine, then once the Su Family becomes our enemy in the future, how can we still gain a foothold in the jianghu?

He Hongsheng immediately rebuked angrily, "He Yingquan! In your eyes, is it impossible for my family to gain a foothold in the jianghu if we leave the Su family? You must not forget that my family is one of the four major martial arts families in the country! When my family was one of the four great martial arts families in the country, the Su family had nothing to do with it!

He Yingquan did not expect his father's attitude to be so firm. He turned his head and stared at He Yingxiu angrily through clenched teeth, saying in a stern voice, "Yingxiu! What kind of delusion did you put into your father's head when you came back? Do you know what a great opportunity is in front of us? If you miss such a great opportunity because of you, then you will be the sinner of the He family!

He Hongsheng could not bear it any longer and shouted angrily, "Enough! Shut up!

He Yingquan was startled by his father's voice.

He Hong Sheng looked at him with cold eyes and said with hatred, "I never thought that I, He Hong Sheng, could raise such a soft-boned son! He Yingquan, I have made the decision not to cooperate with the Su family and will never change it again. If you say one more word, I will punish you with a month of confinement!

He Yingquan instantly felt like five thunderstorms.

He knew that he was missing out on a huge sum of $2 billion a year.

This amount of money could have allowed himself to live the most luxurious life in this world.

What mansions, yachts and planes were no longer a dream with this money.

What's a villa in Sanya? With two billion, he could buy a villa in Hong Kong, a villa in America, a villa in France and Switzerland!

With two billion, he can buy a luxury cruise ship with everything to go around the world .

With two billion, he could buy a private jet and go wherever he wanted 24/7!

At that time, he would not need to guard a small desert city!

At that time, there was no need for him to stay in this freezing cold place!

This was the pinnacle of his life!

However, all this beautiful dream lasted only for one night, and was completely shattered before the sun came out at dawn this morning.

Seeing him as if he had lost his soul, He Hongsheng sighed with a sigh of relief, then with a flip of his hand, he said to He Yingxiu, "Yingxiu, follow me to Su Anshun!"

He Yingxiu hurriedly nodded, "Yes dad!"

Seeing his father and sister brush their sleeves away, He Yingquan hurriedly followed them, at this moment he had already made a decision deep inside his heart, since his father was stubborn, he would simply split the family with him! At that time, he would take away all those in the He family who were willing to cooperate with the Su family and leave Desert City to enjoy glory and wealth!

At this moment, Su Anshun was leisurely eating his breakfast in the He family's dining hall.

The He family had a large population and a large dining area, so hundreds of people could eat in this dining hall at the same time.

Chapter 2828

---

Su Anshun was holding a bowl of ballast porridge, sucking it into his mouth while chewing on the slightly hard corn ballast with great relish, his mouth reading: "I didn't expect that this porridge made of coarse grains and stew would have a different flavour.

He said, and picked up a fist-sized meat bun, a mouth full of oil, but also bite off the meat filling inside that is bigger than a ping-pong ball.

"Yummy, yummy!" Su Anshun was in a delightful mood with a look of relish.

This time out, he had quickly and smoothly completed the task given by his lord, helping him to solve his pressing problems, so it was considered a victory.

So it was only natural that he was in a good mood.

He was now just waiting for the caravan to arrive and bring all of He's family to Suhan in one go, when Master would surely be able to breathe a complete sigh of relief.

As he was thinking about it, He Hongsheng and He Yingxiu walked over quickly.

As soon as Su Anshun looked up and saw the two, he was a little surprised and smiled with a few flattering smiles, "Aiya, Elder He! Aigoo! Yingxiu is back too! How wonderful! Master will be very happy to have Ying Xiu back this time!"

Su Anshun didn't think much of the He family People, in his eyes, the He family were nothing but the underlings of the Su family, and they were underlings who relied on fighting and killing to get a foothold.

As for himself, although he was also a subordinate, he was at least the head of the subordinates.

In other words, of all the dogs the Su family had raised, he was the one with the most honourable status.

However, he was the only one who had a high regard for He Yingxiu, because after all, He Yingxiu was the woman of Su Shoudao, the youngest master of the Su family, and although she did not have a name, she had at least given Su Shoudao a daughter, so he naturally treated He Yingxiu with a little more courtesy.

What's more, Su Shoudao's hairy wife Du Haiqing had already made up her mind to divorce Su Shoudao, and after the car accident orchestrated by the old man, she would definitely be completely clear of the Su family, so that He Yingxiu would be able to appear in the He family openly and honestly!

In case Su Shoudao returned one day, it was possible that there would be a follow-up with He Yingxiu.

It was because of this that Su Anshun had a few ingratiating words for He Yingxiu.

When He Yingxiu saw Su Anshun, he greeted him in a nonchalant tone: " Hello, housekeeper Su.

Su Anshun smiled and said, "Yingxiu, we haven't seen each other for some years.

He Yingxiu nodded: "Yes, it's been some years."

Su Anshun laughed: "I didn't expect that even you would be reappearing this time, what an unexpected surprise!

On the side, He Hongsheng said indifferently: "Anshun, please report to Master Su when you return, the He family can't cooperate with the Su family this time, and please forgive me, Master Su.

When Su Anshun heard this, he asked, dumbfounded, "Elder He, what are you singing again? ! The bus convoy will be arriving soon!"

He Hongsheng handed back the one billion yuan cheque to Su Anshun's hand and said seriously, "I have just made it very clear that the He family, this time, cannot cooperate with the Su family, which means that we will not be going to Suhang, so this money, please take it back to Master Su."

Su Anshun immediately became anxious and blurted out, "Elder He, you can't go back on your word! We've made a deal, how can we change it at the drop of a hat?

At this time, He Hong Sheng's eldest son, He Ying Quan, also said with a sigh of relief, "Dad! Butler Su is right, our He family has always been true to its word and has never broken it, so we can't go back on our word this time!

He Hongsheng said coldly, "Yingquan, you don't have to go to all this trouble to encourage me, I have made up my mind and will never change it!

After saying that, he looked at Su Anshun and cupped his fist, saying: "Anshun, when the car comes later, please go back with the car yourself.

Chapter 2829

---

Seeing He Hongsheng's resolute attitude, Su Anshun's heart was in a panic. He didn't know why this old man, He Hongsheng, had suddenly changed his mind, and he didn't know how he should go back to Master Su to report his orders.

He cried and pleaded, and said, "Old man He, it's not that you're not satisfied with the money, it doesn't matter, if you're not satisfied, you can just ask for it. "

"Three billion?!" He Yingquan, who was on the side, was on the verge of going crazy.

He no longer had time to think about what exactly three billion was, he could only tell himself inwardly that by adding half directly to the original two billion illusion, all the mansions located all over the world could be bought bigger, the luxury yachts could be half as big, and the private jets could be half as big!

He Yingquan stared at his father with bloodshot eyes and blurted out, "Dad! Why are you still hesitating? It's three billion!"

He Hongsheng coldly shouted, "Even if it's 30 billion, I still refuse!"

Su Anshun was stunned.

He was still The thought was that if He Hongsheng was still not satisfied with the offer of three billion, he would go up a bit more himself.

But now, it seemed that there was no longer any need to increase it at all.

With a gradually gloomy expression, he nodded heavily and said, "Fine! Fine! You He's are really good!"

After saying that, he pointed at He Hongsheng and said through clenched teeth, "Old man He, you don't want to eat the penalty wine in respect of the wine, I'll put this account down for the master first, if you are made to pay it back with interest in the future, then you must not regret it, don't blame me for not reminding you today!"

He Hongsheng said in a stern voice, "If you want to write it down, then write it down, I, He Hongsheng, have never been a person who is afraid of trouble!"

After saying that, he slapped the table and said in a cold voice, "Someone! Send the guests away!"

"No need!" Su Anshun gritted his teeth and blurted out, "I'll go by myself!"

After saying that, he glared at He Hongsheng with hatred and left the dining hall without looking back.

He Yingquan stomped his feet in anxiety and blurted out, "Dad! Are you out of your mind? We can't afford to offend the Su family!"

He Hongsheng said coldly, "I am the head of the He family, and I will bear all the consequences."

He Yingquan knew that he could not persuade his father, so in his desperation, he turned around and ran out after Su Anshun.

Su Anshun arrived at the outside of the He family's mansion in anger and resentment, and a convoy of several buses and trucks just happened to be driving over in a big way.

The bus at the front of the line had just stopped, so Su Anshun stepped up and said directly to the driver, "Just myself, to the airport!"

As the driver was surprised, He Yingquan flew all the way to the bus, holding the door frame of the bus, and said to Su Anshun on top, "Housekeeper Su, please calm down!"

"Calm down?" Su Anshun looked at He Yingquan angrily, "I'm not angry at all! Your He family is now capable! We'll see about that!"

He Yingquan said, "Steward Su, listen to me, my father is a stubborn old man, give me some time, I will persuade him properly. I will definitely give you a satisfactory answer!"

Su Anshun said disdainfully, "Come on He Yingquan, what kind of character is your family's old man? I know very well, if you could persuade him, then you would be the head of the He family now instead of him! The fact that he is still unwilling to pass the throne to you in his eighties is a clear sign of distrust in your abilities! Since he doesn't even trust you, how could he possibly listen to you?"

He Yingquan blushed at Su Anshun's words.

Although Su Anshun had the intention to sow discord, his words were not without some truth.

Chapter 2830

---

The reason why He Hongsheng has not passed the family headship to He Yingquan until now is, well, because he does not have enough trust in his ability and even less trust in his determination.

He Yingquan had also had his say on this for a long time.

He knew very well that if he were in ancient times, he would be the Crown Prince, but what emperor has ever spent until he was in his eighties and still not abdicated?

Wasn't this a clear attempt to force the crown prince to rebel?

Therefore, when he heard Su Anshun's words, a surge of anger rose up in his heart.

Immediately afterwards, he spoke with a cold face, "Steward Su, you are right, I really can't persuade my father."

With that, He Yingquan turned his words around and blurted out, "But I can persuade my own legs!"

When Su Anshun heard this, his eyes lit up and he asked, "Yingquan, what exactly do you mean by that?"

He Yingquan blurted out, "It's simple, my father is not willing to cooperate with the Su family, but I am willing, my cultivation level is second only to the old master in the He family, plus I still have two sons and a group of men who are willing to follow me, as long as Master Su looks up to us, I am willing to take my men to Suhang and resume my orders to Master Su!"

Su Anshun was overjoyed in his heart.

The old man, He, is too stubborn, it is impossible to persuade him to turn back, but this He Yingquan seems sincere, if he really has a group of followers and can bring them to Suhang to serve his master, then I This mission wasn't a complete failure."

Thinking of this, he immediately changed his attitude to a very happy one and said to He Yingquan with a smile, "Haha, Yingquan, come, come up and talk!"

With that, he even took the initiative to extend his hand and pulled He Yingquan.

At this moment, inside the He family mansion.

The company has already announced to the whole family that the cooperation with the Su family has been completely terminated, and the He family members who were originally prepared to leave for Suhang early in the morning did not have to toss and turn anymore.

After this announcement, He Hongsheng took He Yingxiu with him and went to the ancestral shrine located at the He family's ancestral tomb.

He wanted to personally tell the ancestors of the He family the happy news that he had broken through four meridians.

However, once the news of his non-cooperation with the Su family came out, the entire He family was happy and sad for several families.

In fact, it was impossible for any family to be united.

Each small family, or even each individual, has its own set of petty calculations.

The reason why there had never been any conflicts over the years was also mainly because Master He was more capable of managing and more authoritative, and no one in the entire He family dared to disobey him.

But as the saying goes, taking away people's money is equal to killing their parents.

In this world, there are many people who regard money as much more important than kinship.

In other words, the vast majority of people will sell out their affection as long as the price is given at the right level and meets psychological expectations.

It's just that everyone has a different price tag deep down.

Some people who are not so well-off may turn their backs on their siblings for the sake of their parents' monthly pension of a couple of thousand dollars.

As for those who are too well-off, they may look peaceful on the surface, but when the time comes to fight for the huge family fortune, everyone will use every possible means to deal with their relatives.

Now, He Hongsheng's rejection of the Su family's offer of a two billion or even three billion dollar partnership is tantamount to directly separating the entire He family from this huge sum of money.

Some people don't care about this money, but some care more than anything else.

And those who cared could not wait to drink Master He's blood and eat his flesh now.

However, Master He had the highest majesty and the highest cultivation level, so no one could afford to mess with him, so they could only dare to speak out in anger.

However, in the midst of this situation where everyone was harbouring ulterior motives, He Yingquan took the quickest time to meet with several brothers and a few uncles.

After some lobbying by him, almost half of them were willing to join him and go to Suhang to serve the Su family.

Just as He Hongsheng was personally lighting three sticks of sandalwood incense in front of each ancestor's spirit, his youngest son, He Yingdong, ran over and reported loudly from outside the door, "Dad, it's not good! Big brother has brought forty to fifty family members and is ready to get on the bus with Su Anshun to go to Suhang!"
