

Ye Chen 2831

Chapter 2831

At this moment, He Hongsheng was inside the clan ancestral hall, placing three cones of incense in front of the row of his own father.

The ancestral shrine of the He family is dedicated to nearly a hundred ancestors, basically those who have made significant contributions to the He family and are qualified to have their tablets placed here.

Among them, the one with the least seniority was He Hongsheng's own father.

Therefore, he offered incense one by one from top to bottom, until his own father was the last one to be honoured.

When he heard his youngest son's shout outside the ancestral shrine, he was struck by a sudden shock and accidentally broke all three incense sticks.

Seeing this, He Yingxiu hurriedly asked with concern, "Dad, are you all right?"

He Hongsheng closed his eyes and was silent for a moment before he let out a bitter smile and said, "It's alright, it's not unexpected for your big brother to do such a thing."

Saying that, he added with emotion, "To borrow a famous saying from a great man, the sky wants to rain, the mother wants to marry, let him be."

He Yingxiu wanted to say something, but he swallowed hard when the words came to his lips.

The fact that big brother had taken away 40 or 50 family members this time was almost like taking away half of the He family, and it had to be said that this was bound to be a major loss to the He family.

Although they insisted on leaving, if the old master stepped in, with his majesty and strength, he would be able to keep them all even if they were left hard.

But then she turned to think.

"Since these people can be compelled by money, what is the point of keeping them hard?"

"Leaving these forty or fifty people behind is the same as leaving behind forty or fifty, unknowingly exploding gunpowder packets."

"It won't do any good to the future He family, it will only leave more and more hidden dangers."

"On the contrary, this time, through the temptation of money, directly weeding out all these personnel who are not enough for the family, will instead be a good thing for the future He family."

For He Yingxiu, she knew very well that the current He family, after the dramatic changes early this morning, was now different from what it used to be.

The old master had managed to open the fourth meridian, and his cultivation was on par with that ancestor who had the highest cultivation in the He family tree for a hundred years, and was an existence unmatched in the four great martial families.

Coupled with the help of Young Master Ye, a divine and powerful nobleman, behind the scenes, the future He family will definitely be able to grow by leaps and bounds.

Before taking off, weeding out those hidden dangers was a way to help the He family clean up the trash and lay a better foundation for the He family's future.

He Hongsheng was actually thinking the same thing.

He opened his mouth and said to He Yingxiu, "Yingxiu, you Go and tell Young-dong not to interfere with anyone who wants to leave, let anyone who wants to leave, and then tell him to tell those who are left behind to all wait for me in the main hall, after I have finished paying my respects to my ancestors and have an important announcement to make."

"Yingxiu understands!"

He Yingxiu hurriedly went out of the ancestral hall and said to He Yingdong, who was standing at the entrance with an anxious face, "Yingdong, Dad told me to tell you that anyone who wants to leave should do so, but those who don't want to leave should all wait in the main hall."

He Yingdong was busy saying, "Sister! Big brother has dragged forty to fifty family members this time, this is almost half of our He family, if we let them go like this, once word gets out our He family, will definitely fall out of the sequence of the top four martial arts families in the country"

He Yingxiu smiled faintly and said seriously, "Yingdong, what you said may not be true, these people who are leaving today may well be a good thing for our He family, just like cancer, once a person has a malignant tumor the size of a fingernail cap growing in his lung, doctors will advise him to remove the whole lobe, cutting it out is not a bad thing, on the contrary, it is a great good thing. "

"But," He Yingdong was anxious, "Sister, I understand all the so-called axioms you are talking about, but you also said that if a tumour is found in the lung, cutting off one lobe will be fine. Won't we all have to live on oxygen from now on?"

Chapter 2832

5-7 minutes

When He Yingxiu saw that he was deadly serious, he immediately gave up communicating with him normally and scolded him directly, "Where did you get all that nonsense? If I tell you to go back and convey the message, you should go back and convey it obediently. If you keep talking nonsense, do you believe that I will kick you back?"

After saying that, she made a gesture to kick.

He Yingdong was still thinking of arguing with his sister, but when he heard this, he immediately gave up all thoughts and hurriedly replied, "I'll go now, okay?"

After saying that, he slinked away and ran back.

At that moment, the forty to fifty people from the He family who were willing to follow He Yingquan to Suhang had already started to load their luggage onto the car.

Among them were He Hongsheng's second brother, He Yingquan's second uncle's entire family, as well as He Yingquan's own brother, He Yingfei's family, and He Yingquan's cousin's uncle, He Hongsheng's cousin's family.

When He Ying Dong ran back, he did not stop these people from loading the car, but ran into the home and said to the rest of the people, "Gentlemen, my father has said that he wants everyone to wait in the main hall, and that he is currently worshipping his ancestors and will return to the main hall later to make an important announcement to everyone."

Someone asked, "Ying Dong, what important announcement does your father have to make?"

He Yingdong shook his head, "I don't know exactly what it is, let's all wait together!"

At ten o'clock in the morning, the Su family's motorcade left on time, carrying He Yingquan and over forty other He family members all the way south.

On the way, these He family members were all in a very excited mood.

It was because Su Anshun had told them that Su Chengfeng, the Su family's lord, was willing to give them an annual reward of one billion RMB.

In fact, it was very meaty for Su Chengfeng to give this amount of money.

The true gods had not been invited, and a bunch of minions had been invited, and half of the budget had to be spent, which was really a loss to the extreme.

However, he did not dare to joke about his own life and safety at this time, even if there was only a small half of the He family, he had to pull them in.

The money would only be paid for a year at most anyway, and when the troubles and crisis were solved, the price would not be the same next year, or even if he found better help and swept the gang out of the house.

Not long after the caravan left the Ho family, He Hongsheng finished paying respects to the ancestors of the Ho family and returned to the Ho mansion.

The remaining 70 to 80 members of the He family were all waiting anxiously in the main hall.

All of them were whispering in small groups, discussing the group of He family members who had just left and what important announcement the old man had to make later.

These people had chosen to stay, partly because they had immense respect and trust for He Hongsheng, and partly because they wanted to be able to practise martial arts properly and did not see money in their eyes.

At this moment, they were all waiting for He Hongsheng to arrive, waiting for him to unveil the mystery for them.

At a quarter past ten, He Hongsheng, accompanied by He Yingxiu, stepped into the main hall.

Seeing the 70 to 80 people left, He Hongsheng's expression was majestic, but also a little relieved.

When the crowd saw him, they were all a little stunned for a moment.

The cultivation level of these people was not as high as that of He Hongsheng, so they could not tell what his cultivation level was now, but they could all feel that He Hongsheng seemed to be younger and more powerful today than before.

At this moment, He Hongsheng looked at the crowd and said indifferently: "Just now some people left, everyone Must have all seen it too."

One by one, the crowd did not dare to say anything, not knowing whether the old man was happy or sad or angry.

He Hongsheng, however, smiled openly and spoke, "The He Family, as a family bent on moving forward, is like a revolutionary team, and in this team, dropping out and quitting are allowed, but only dragging one's feet is not allowed, so the departure of these people is definitely a good thing, not a bad thing, for those of us who are left."

After saying this, he took on a more serious tone and continued, "Now, I formally announce that the He family has officially drawn a clear line with those who have left the He family today, from now on, there will be no more involvement with them, and they will never be allowed to return to the He family in the future. "

The crowd's expressions could not help but be somewhat astonished.

This was tantamount to a complete break with grace and justice?

There were not only the old master's own sons, but also his own brother, as well as his cousin.

Did the old man not feel the slightest bit of pain or desire to redeem himself?

Just as the crowd had not yet recovered from the shock, He Hongsheng cleared his throat and said again, "Next, I have a very important announcement to make!"

The crowd had thought that the decision to draw a clear line with those people just now was the important matter that the old man had mentioned.

Little did they know that what was really important was something else.

So, everyone was in high spirits, waiting for the mystery to be solved.

He Hongsheng could not hide his excitement at this moment and said, "Just this morning, I opened up my fourth meridian!"

At these words, the whole audience was appalled!

Chapter 2833

When the He family heard the announcement that He Hongsheng had broken through the fourth meridian, everyone was first stunned for a moment, and then, immediately afterwards, a near-mad cheer erupted!

Breaking through four meridians meant becoming a four-star martial artist!

To them, hearing this news was as exhilarating as when the people of China heard about the successful explosion of the first - atomic bomb.

Back then, China had successfully developed the atomic bomb, which meant that the sons and daughters of China no longer had to suffer from the nuclear threat of nuclear-armed countries, and at the same time had a strong ability to defend themselves.

Now that He Hongsheng had successfully broken through the fourth meridian, it was almost like the He family had an atomic bomb!

Just a few minutes ago, everyone present was still worried about the future fate of the He family because of the departure of He Yingquan and the others.

But now, they were no longer thinking about He Yingquan's problems at all.

Because from now on, the He Family would take a huge step forward, leaping to become the top martial arts family in the country!

He Hongsheng's little son, He Yingdong, was so excited that he blurted out, "Dad! Did you run to the ancestral shrine early in the morning to report your breakthrough to the ancestors?"

He Hongsheng nodded: "That's right, just now at the ancestral shrine, I have already reported to all the ancestors of the He family, I believe the ancestors of the He family would be proud of the He family if they knew about it.

He Yingdong couldn't help but sigh with emotion: "Dad, why didn't you announce this news earlier, if big brother knew that you had made such a major breakthrough, he probably wouldn't have been tempted by the terms offered by the Su family."

He Hongsheng said indifferently, "Fortunately, I didn't announce it in advance, otherwise how would I have known about his wolf's ambition!"

After saying that, He Hongsheng sighed and said: "So be it, people have their own ambitions, as long as he doesn't threaten to harm our He family's interests in the future, I will not cross river water with him in the future."

He Ying Dong also knew that his father had a point, so he did not insist too much.

He Hong Sheng's elder brother, He Hong Tai, spoke up, "Hong Sheng, when will you announce the news of your fourth meridian breakthrough to the public?"

He Hongsheng thought about it and said, "Let's announce it immediately, and tell all martial artists about it publicly.

After that, the He family stopped accepting solicitations from anyone, and the He House in Desert City was henceforth closed and no longer entertained any visitors.

There is an unwritten rule among martial arts families that once someone in a famous family has broken through three or more meridians, it must be widely publicised among the entire martial arts community.

He Hongsheng was naturally no exception this time.

Moreover, He Hongsheng knew very well that once the outside world knew that he had broken through his fourth meridian, a large number of people would definitely come to Desert City to visit him.

Not only would there be congratulations from fellow martial artists, but there would also be scattered martial artists who would come to pay homage to him, and there would also be many families like the Su family who would come to recruit him.

This is why he had people explain in advance that the He family would no longer accept solicitations and would no longer treat guests to the public.

This was tantamount to turning away the following. All of the above possibilities were turned away.

The reason for this decision was that He Hongsheng had already thought very clearly in his heart that the future of the He family actually rested on Young Master Ye.

Therefore, the most important thing was to serve Young Master Ye with all one's might, and as for others, there was no need to waste one's own and the He family's essence.

Chapter 2834

He Hongtai was puzzled and asked, "Hong Sheng, in the past, when someone broke through three meridians, almost all martial arts families would send their congratulatory gifts.

He Hongsheng said seriously, "Brother, I was able to make such a significant breakthrough thanks to the help of a noble person, and all the He family will look up to this noble person in the future, and this noble person will also give the He family many very scarce cultivation resources in the future. Perhaps in a few years, the next person to break through three meridians will appear in the He family, or perhaps in a few more years, there will be the next person to break through four meridians like me, and by then, the strength of our He family will be unparalleled!

As soon as He Hongtai heard this, he immediately nodded and said excitedly: "Since that is the case, we will naturally do everything you tell us!

Those left behind, both young and old, were very loyal to the He family and to He Hongsheng, so they would embrace any decision He Hongsheng made at this time.

He Hongsheng also realised that after his eldest son had left with that group of people, there was a lot less opposition or questioning when he made major decisions, which also made him realise the importance of having a united team.

The current He family would no longer do endless internal conflicts like before, instead, the He family would now be twisted into a single rope and work together to achieve greater achievements!

Thinking of this, deep inside he couldn't help but get excited and spoke, "Right! There is one more thing to announce to the public, all those who have left the He Family will not be allowed to return, and the doors of the He Family will not be opened for anyone who leaves from now on!"

Just as He Yingquan was leading a - large group of He family members in a car bus to the airport, the martial arts field suddenly caused a huge uproar!

The He Family announced to the public that the He Family Head, He Hongsheng, had successfully broken through the fourth meridian!

This news immediately ignited the entire domestic martial arts domain!

Currently, out of the hundreds of thousands of martial artists in the country, ninety percent of them had only opened one meridian.

Those who could open two meridians accounted for 9.999% of the remaining 10%!

Only five people are known to have opened three meridians and become three-star martial artists in the country!

Moreover, these five were all in the ranks of the four great families.

Apart from the Huo family in the northwest, which had two three-star martial artists, the remaining three major clans, including the He family, all had only one.

As for those who had opened up four meridians, before He Hongsheng, there was not a single one.

In other words, He Hongsheng is currently the only one among martial artists in the country to have broken through four meridians.

This also meant that He Hongsheng became the number -one person in the martial arts field in the country.

Originally, the crowd in the bus was still looking forward to their new life after arriving in Suhang, when at that moment, it was unknown who shouted out, "Second Uncle, he has broken through four meridians!"

"What?!"

Everyone knew that He Hongsheng was second in line among the brothers, and this voice of Second Uncle was naturally referring to him!

In an instant, the He family in the bus suddenly exploded into a frenzy!

Before He Yingquan had even recovered, his mobile phone exploded at once!

A large number of people from the same family sent messages to him and his father, and when He Yingquan saw the news, his whole body was struck by lightning!

He never dreamed that he would break up with his father on the one hand, and then his 80-year-old father would have a breakthrough on the other!

Being very sensitive to money, he realised almost immediately that the He family was set to soar from here on in!

Thinking that he had just left before his father announced the news, He Yingquan was furious in his heart and thought to himself, "No wonder the old man has gone back on his word! So it was a martial dao breakthrough! I'm his eldest son, and he didn't tell me about such an important matter as his breakthrough! How outrageous!

Chapter 2835

Just as He Yingquan's heart was filled with indignation, someone else in the car shouted angrily, "The He family has announced to the public that anyone who leaves will not be allowed to go back!"

For a moment, everyone's face was filled with horror.

They had never thought that they would abandon the Ho family and climb up the ladder, but they had never thought that the Ho family would give them a kick in the teeth.

Now, they were the outcasts of the He family.

Far away in Suhang, Master Su was also very depressed.

This morning, he heard almost all bad news one after another.

At first, it was He Hongsheng who suddenly went back on his word. Then, it was that He Hongsheng had suddenly become the number one martial artist in the country.

There is nothing more painful than when something that originally belongs to you becomes better after it does not belong to you.

For example, if a girl's ex-boyfriend, who she once despised, suddenly becomes a man after breaking up and then marries a rich white woman, then the girl might be depressed about it for the rest of her life.

Although Su Chengfeng had nothing to break his back to He Hongsheng, He Hongsheng was originally a subordinate of the Su family, serving the Su family, or to put it bluntly, a dog of the Su family.

But now, he has turned against the Su family, and as a result, his strength has multiplied after the turn of events, so how can this not be depressing?

Now, Su Chengfeng felt as if the world was against him.

He wanted to betray Su Ruoli, but Su Ruoli disappeared. The Japanese had almost searched the sea off Japan, but there was no sign of her.

He wanted to kill Du Haiqing, but Du Haiqing was saved by a powerful mystery man. He wanted to kill her to protect his family's reputation, but he didn't expect that his family's reputation would be upheld, but instead he became a disgraced and disgraced man.

Now the He family is making such a big fuss, which makes me feel uncomfortable.

In addition to these, his second and eldest sons have disappeared one after another, and the Chinese master who saved his grandson and granddaughter in Japan has also become a huge potential threat to himself.

Thinking about all this, Su Chengfeng muttered in a depressed voice: "I have lifted a stone and smashed my own feet, a stone fell from the sky and smashed my own fucking feet, there is another expert in the dark who keeps lifting stones and smashing them against my feet.

I've been tossing and turning, but I'm not getting anything out of it.

It was a strange call from Jinling.

I'll stay in Jinling for the next seven days to try to find the so-called expert you're looking for.

If I can't find him within, I'll go straight back to England, and I won't refund any of the deposit you've paid!

As soon as Su Chengfeng heard the voice, he blurted out excitedly, "Oh my, Master Xuan! You've finally arrived in Jinling! You must be very tired after all the travelling from England, right? Why don't you rest in Jinling for a few days first?"

The other side said coldly: "No need, I'll start working immediately, if you have any valuable clues, you can tell me.

I didn't have any clues about the mystery man, but now I know that he is of Japanese Chinese descent, not very old, at most around 27 or 28 years old, but his strength is extraordinary, it is said that even Japanese ninjas are no match for him, he can handle several by himself! Master Xuan must be careful!

The other party said disdainfully, "What's the big deal about Japanese ninjas? I think there was a Japanese ninja who had offended me back then. He was poisoned by my compulsion, and in his sleep he used a ninja sword to cut open his own belly, and when he died his insides flowed all over the bed.

Su Chengfeng said with surprise, "I've heard that Master Xuan has extraordinary skills, since you have such skills, then I can rest assured that I'll be waiting for Master Xuan's good news in Suhang.

Chapter 2836

The other party grunted and said: "I, Xuan, like killing people invisibly, and I like killing experts the most, I like to see those so-called experts, unaccountably and tragically die in my hands, but never know what caused their death until they die, this feeling, like God, can sway everything!"

Su Chengfeng was so excited that he asked offhandedly, "Master Xuan, can you kill a four-star martial artist?"

"A four-star martial artist?" The other party asked in surprise, "Do you know a four-star martial artist? As far as I know, there are no more four-star martial artists in the country, right?"

Su Chengfeng gritted his teeth and said, "Yes, one just came out this morning!"

The other party laughed and said: 'Four-star martial artists are not easy to kill, if you want me to give it a try, then double the money for me.

The extreme depression and anger in Su Chengfeng's heart had long been burning all over his body, and when he heard this, he did not hesitate to say, " Master Xuan, money is not a problem, but you have to finish off that expert in Jinling first.

The other party gave a hint and said, "Don't worry, I'll kill him first and then come back to talk to you about the four-star martial artist."

After saying that, the other party simply hung up the phone.

The Master Xuan that Su Chengfeng spoke of was a Chinese-born master of metaphysics that he had asked someone to bring from the UK, his full name was Xuan Fengnian.

There has been a lineage of metaphysics in Chinese since ancient times, with secret feng shui techniques, qigong insect compulsions and even The Eight Trigrams of the I Ching and the Qi Men Dun Jia are all part of the metaphysical - chakra.

However, because of the vast expanse of China, customs, habits and preferences vary from place to place, and so esotericism is generally more prevalent in the south.

Hong Kong, in particular, has been a bridgehead for the development of metaphysics over the past one to two centuries.

In Hong Kong, feng shui masters and masters of metaphysics are not feudal superstitions that only the poor believe in.

On the contrary, the richer the people, the more they believe in feng shui and metaphysics.

There are many top tycoons in Hong Kong who are worth over US$100 billion or even US$100 billion, and all of them, without exception, believe in metaphysics.

Not only do the top tycoons believe in feng shui, but even the celebrities in the entertainment industry are also very keen on feng shui metaphysics.

It was in Hong Kong that Xuan Fengnian started out as a teacher and grew to become the most famous metaphysical master on Hong Kong Island, even becoming the royal master of the Li family in Hong Kong.

More than ten years ago, the Li family wanted to shift their capital and business to the UK, so they invited Xuan Fengnian to the UK.

In the past ten years or so in the UK, relying on the resources of the Li family, Xuan Fengnian had indeed grown considerably, not only making a lot of money, but also taking on a wide range of disciples.

But he did not expect that the Li family would make one major mistake after another in its strategic direction in the past few years, so that its wealth kept shrinking. At the same time, the reputation is getting worse and worse, and it has become a street rat.

This led to Xuan Fengnian being implicated as well.

He does not know feng shui, but specialises in Miaojiang compulsions and some underhanded things that harm others and benefit himself. After the Li family started to keep their tails between their legs, they immediately drew a line in the sand with him.

This time, Su Chengfeng asked someone to find him and offered him 100 million pounds to come to Jinling to kill a man, so Xuan Fengnian had never used his learned poisonous methods to harm people in his life.

However, although the pay was high, the mission was also relatively tricky.

The most ridiculous thing was that he still didn't know who he was going to kill.

When he used to do things for people, they would just give him information about the competitor they wanted to target.

For example, who the other person's surname was, his birth date, his ancestors. Where their ancestors were, or even where their ancestral graves were, would all be investigated first, and then he would make his move directly after getting this information.

This time, Su Chengfeng also did not know the exact clues of that mysterious expert, so he could only let Xuan Fengnian come over and let him use his metaphysical methods to find out the person first, and then finish him off!

Chapter 2837

Meanwhile, Su Shoudao finally arrived in Syria after a day and night of flying.

Unlike Ye Chen, who had the privilege of flying on the Concorde, he could only fly all the way towards the Middle East. After landing in Turkey, he crossed the country and entered northern Syria by road traffic overnight.

The moment Su Shoudao set foot on Syrian soil, he even wanted to die.

As he had been smuggled into the country, he was immediately struck by the desolation of the country as the vehicles pulled him through the cities.

A country full of holes, full of deserts, hills, and decaying villages and towns.

The endless desert and mountainous terrain immediately reminded him of an old poem about the lonely smoke of the desert.

After going hundreds of kilometres deep into the Syrian border, he had a deep-seated knowledge that if Ye Chen did not nod, it would be impossible for him to leave Syria in his life, not to mention the fact that he did not know anyone here, and that his face alone, which was so different from those around him, was destined to make it difficult for him to get out of the country.

Thinking of this, his inner Deep in his heart then despair was overwhelming.

He had thought that his despair was too deep into the Marianas Trench to be more desperate when he finally arrived at the armed strip occupied by Commander Hamid.

As the car drove into the valley, the fortifications on the hills on either side were in full swing.

Hamid's friend from the construction team in Iraq, who had arrived in Syria in just over ten hours for the sake of money, was now directing his workers and the engineering company Hamid had just formed last night to work together and build the fortifications.

As Su Shoudao looked at the desolate valley in front of him, the soldiers with loaded guns and the permanent fortifications being actively built, he wailed inwardly.

"What the hell is this place?!"

It's in the middle of a million mountains, extremely isolated and not nearly as developed as a small mountain village in China

"If you don't know, you'll think this is a base area behind the enemy lines during the Anti-Japanese War".

Su Shoudao wanted to cry and thought, if the TV series "Bright Sword" was filmed here It was definitely more realistic than the version that is hot on TV now!

Just when he wanted to cry, the convoy had already stopped in front of Hamid's command headquarters, led by a military open-top jeep.

No sooner had the car stopped than Hamid, dressed in camouflage, stepped out in excitement.

The men who escorted Su Shoudao were Chen Zekai's men, but Hamid didn't know any Chen Zekai, he only knew that one of them was the guy Ye Chen wanted to "foster" here, and the rest were definitely Ye Chen's men.

Ye Chen was not only his valued man, but also his god of wealth and his strategic commander-in-chief, so he was full of enthusiasm and respect for Ye Chen's men, and hoped that through his practical actions, he could make Ye Chen's men bring this enthusiasm and respect back to him.

He thought to himself, "This guy looks so imposing, he should be the boss here.

When Hamid came out, Su Shoudao was also dragged down by a few of Chen Zekai's men

Chapter 2838

Seeing a few yellow men with East Asian faces, Hamid immediately said with a smile in his skilful Chinese: "A few of you must be Ye Chen Ye's oldest brother's men, what a welcome, a warm welcome!

Several people looked at each other and could not help but look at each other.

In their impression, such slogans as welcome, welcome, warm welcome were all slogans shouted by the pioneers with blush on their faces, red scarves tied around their necks and flower garlands in their hands.

But it was never expected that this would come from a big, bearded Middle Eastern warlord.

The man at the head of the group was a member of Chen Zekai's inner circle, named Zhao Yinsheng.

Seeing how polite and warlord-like Hamid was, he asked with a polite smile, "You must be Commander Hamid!"

Hamid nodded and laughed, "We are all family members, why call me commander so polite, just call me Hamid!

After that, he said politely, "You must have worked very hard to come all the way here, come on, come on, go in and have a cup of tea and rest!

Zhao Yinsheng pointed at Su Shoudao and said to Hamid: "Commander Hamid, this is Mr. Su Shoudao Su, whom our young master asked us to bring here to experience life.

Saying this, he took a handful of Su Shoudao's collar, pulled him to himself and said to Hamid: "Commander Hamid, our young master has instructed me to convey to you to keep this Mr. Su well here no matter what, and besides, you don't have to take too much care of him, just keep an eye on him and don't let him wander off, and also stuff him into the bunker fortifications when the battle is on, so that he doesn't get hurt by stray bullets.

Hearing this, Su Shoudao's eyes welled up with tears.

"Is that a fucking human statement? I spent 100 million dollars, and all I got was a statement that I didn't have to take too much care of him, you son of a bitch!"

However, Su Shoudao dared not speak out in his heart, not even daring to put his displeasure on his face.

After all, this Hamid was Ye Chen's friend and sounded like he was quite loyal to Ye Chen, so if he upset him and he then deducted his treatment or even tortured himself, it would really be more than worth the loss!

When he thought that he would have to be "taken care of" by this Hamid for a long time to come, or that he would have to show him mercy, Su Shoudao had no choice but to say, "Greetings, Commander Hamid, I have heard a lot about you, and I am honoured to meet you today!

After saying that, he quietly looked at Hamid himself.

I think: "Roughly speaking, although the hardware of Hamid's place is very dilapidated and backward, but there are at least a thousand soldiers, and after coming in, I also saw a lot of relatively modern weapons and equipment, how to say that this The gang was also a warlord who cut one side of the border, and definitely had a few points of hard power.

However, according to reason, this kind of people who put their heads on the waistband of their trousers to make a living should be arrogant by nature, even the President of the United States of America may not look at them, so how come they would nod to that young kid Ye Chen? It didn't make any fucking sense.

Hamid then glanced at Su Shoudao and said with a leathery smile:" You don't have to kiss my ass, in the future, the kind of treatment you have here and the kind of life you lead is not my decision, but Elder Brother Ye's. If Elder Brother Ye lets you live in a small courtyard alone, you can live in a small courtyard alone, but if Elder Brother Ye lets you sleep in a sheep pen, you can only go sleep in a sheep pen!

Su Shoudao could only keep a smile on his face and nod his head and say, "That's right, that's right, everything is naturally up to Mr. Ye. It's up to you. take away Hamid didn't bother to pay attention to him and said to Zhao Yinsheng with a smile, "Please tell Brother Ye, don't worry about this guy after he is handed over to me, as long as I am still alive, I will not let him die.

Su Shoudao was on the verge of cursing in his heart, cursing to himself, "What the hell is your level of education? Even your words are contradictory! On the one hand, you say you won't let me die as long as you live, but on the other hand, you say that if something goes wrong, you'll kill me first before you die.

Chapter 2839

4-4 minutes

Hamid didn't bother to pay any attention to Su Shoudao.

He smiled and said to Zhao Yinsheng, "Gentlemen, I've made some good black tea, come in and have a few cups! "

People in the Middle East love to drink black tea, which is usually made by boiling a particularly large amount of tea leaves into a very strong tea broth, and then served with a large amount of white sugar, and tea desserts with a very high sugar content.

This, in turn, is very different from the Chinese.

When they saw how hospitable Hamid was, they could not refuse for a while.

So, Zhao Yinsheng said, "Commander Hamid, then I would like to ask you to arrange for your men to take this Mr. Su to his place of residence first.

"Yes, no problem!" Hamid patted his chest and said, "I've had the courtyard prepared since Elder Brother Ye ordered it, that courtyard is right next door to my guard battalion, the rest of the people living around it are all soldiers of the army except for my guards, there are people patrolling and standing guard 24 hours a day, definitely won't let him get away!

After saying that, he added with a smile: "And I've already had someone re-pack that small set of courtyard, the condition is also good.

Su Shoudao was only slightly relieved when he kept hearing this.

He hadn't thought about escaping since he got on the plane.

Because it was simply impossible to escape.

In a place like this, there was no way he could run away, even if he was exhausted.

What's more, there were loaded soldiers all around, so if the other side found out and fired a few bullets, he wouldn't even have a chance to leave his body intact.

So, he could only force himself to adapt to the situation and take what he could get.

As for the future, he could only hope that his daughter, Su Zhiyu, would inherit the Su family soon.

But then he turned to think.

"The possibility of letting Zhiyu inherit the Su family is almost nil, not to mention my old man, who will never let go of his power until he dies. I'm afraid that this will lead to an unprecedented family feud.

When he thought of this, his heart became more and more desperate.

He wondered when his "Syrian journey" would end.

The small family home.

From the outside, the courtyard is almost entirely made of yellow earth, with earthen walls and houses made of earth, and apart from the roof tiles, which appear to have been fired, there is little sign of modern processing.

The courtyard is not large, and when you enter it is the size of a basketball court. A cattle shed has been built on the right hand side of the entrance, but no animals are kept inside.

In the middle of the courtyard, there is not even a blade of grass, apart from the earth.

The only houses in the courtyard are the three adobe houses facing the courtyard.

Unlike the rural areas of China, where at least there is a room or something, here there are three side by side earth rooms, which together are probably not more than forty square metres.

What made him even more devastated was that the central room contained nothing but a broken wooden chair.

To his left, there was an extremely simple bedroom, which he would not have known was used for sleeping if it had not been for the pile of straw in the middle of the room.

Like the room in the middle, this so-called bedroom contains only a pile of straw and a pile of rolled-up quilts.

Chapter 2840

Su Shoudao went forward and spread out the bedding, inside was a quilt, a mattress and a pillow.

As soon as he saw the humble three-piece set, he couldn't help but stomp his foot and curse: " Damn it! I spent 100 million dollars, but how come all the bedding is second-hand? I spent 100 million dollars, but how come the bedding is second-hand?"

Su Shoudao was furious and kicked the pillow far away from him and rushed out to the room on his right.

As soon as he entered, he smelled a long-standing stench.

When he looked down, he saw that this was not a fucking room, it was a dry toilet with a roof!

There was nothing in the room but a deep pit dug in the middle, two wooden planks and a hole in the middle, which was the shit pit.

Su Shoudao almost collapsed.

"Who the hell can stand it if we have to shovel the pit every once in a while from now on?"

"The point is, there's only one broken window in this shitty house, and the ventilation isn't very good, so if we get a big one here, how long will it take for the stench to dissipate?"

In this instant, Su Shoudao felt that his future life was already full of darkness.

Here, he had no personal belongings, no mobile phone, no computer, no internet, not even a cup to drink water. In the future, he would only be able to sleep on the straw every day, and when he woke up, he could only sit on the worn out wooden chair, or in this empty Yard.

There was nothing to put in the yard.

It's even more miserable than prison, come to think of it.

After all, when you're in prison, you can at least use a flush toilet, you can talk to your cellmates, you can occasionally watch TV in the canteen, and you can read the newspaper when you're back in your cell.

But what can I do here? There is no one to talk to.

When he thought of this, Su Shoudao, an old man in his fifties, couldn't help but shed tears.

He was not like the average middle-aged man.

But Su Shoudao was born with the golden key more than 50 years ago.

He had never suffered any hardship in his life, nor had he ever been tired, and the worst thing he had done was to be sent to Australia.

However, even during the time he was sent to Australia, he lived in a large villa by the sea every day.

It was a paradise compared to here.

Just when he was extremely miserable, someone opened the courtyard door and entered the courtyard.

Su Shoudao hurriedly went out and saw Zhao Yinsheng, led by a few soldiers, striding in.

When Zhao Yinsheng saw Su Shoudao, he said, "Mr. Su, we are going to leave for China soon, so we came to see you before we leave.

Su Shoudao said without tears, "Brother Zhao, the condition of this place is really too bad.

Zhao Yin said "Mr. Su is an old comrade, you can overcome some difficulties by gritting your teeth.

Su Shoudao said, "No, old brother, the conditions are really too bad. Even the donkeys of the production team in earlier years were in better condition than mine!

Zhao Yinsheng waved his hand and said apologetically, "Sorry Mr. Su, I'm in a hurry, I have to leave soon, so I won't go in and take a look."

After saying that, he asked with a smile, "I wonder if you have anything else to explain?"

Su Shoudao was tempted to say, "Please go back and tell Ye Chen that I, Su Shoudao, have to grass his eight generations of ancestors!

But such words, he would never dare to say.

He could only choke back a sob and ask, "Old Brother Zhao, can you please give a message to Mr. Ye?"

Zhao Yinsheng nodded: "Go ahead, as long as the words are not personal attacks, I will try my best to bring them.

Su Shoudao said: " Can you ask him to give a message to Commander Hamid, at least give me some furniture, I can't just sleep in a haystack all the time.

I don't even have a teacup or a toothbrush. Can you give my daughter a chance to send me some daily necessities from China?

Zhao Yinsheng said with a sarcastic smile, "Mr. Su, I'm not trying to discourage you, you are quite knowledgeable, but which domestic courier company do you see that dares to take Syrian shipments?"
