

Ye Chen 2841

Chapter 2841

Su Shoudao was completely wilted.

Although he wanted to give Ye Chen an additional US$100 million to give himself at least a decent living condition, he no longer had that much money at his disposal.

Elder Su had a very tight grip on the family's financial power, and although Su Shoudao was the eldest son and also had a lot of real estate as well as various assets, he didn't really have much money at his disposal.

For the entire Su family, the expenditure of funds basically goes through the family grant. It is fine to spend money, but the spending must be within the control of the family financial system.

Even if it is a few hundred million dollars to buy a plane, he is not reluctant to do so, but he must be informed and approved by him before he can spend the money. If the heir of the Su family dares to spend money behind his back, or transfer the money granted by the family to his own coffers, he will certainly be severely punished by the family.

In order to consolidate the financial power, the family's finance team is completely under the command of Su Chengfeng alone, and every once in a while, they will audit the money spent by each of the Su family's sons.

The $100 million that Su Shoudao paid to Hamid, bypassing the old man, would have been a preemptive strike, and if he had engaged in the usual

If he did such an operation, he would certainly be severely punished by the old man.

So Su Shoudao also knew very well that after the first time, there was no way he would have the opportunity to repeat the same trick.

It was possible that the old man had already suspended his family's credit, and besides, he didn't even have a phone, so there was no way he could get the money to give to Ye Chen, so there was no other way but to hold back.

It was warm and rainy in Syria in winter, and just as Su Shoudao was at a loss for words, a heavy rain poured down on him.

He rushed back to his room and watched as the rain poured down outside, drenching the courtyard in mud and despair.

Although winter in Syria is relatively warm, when it rains, the temperature drops straight to about 10 degrees.

The dampness and coldness soon became too much for Su Shoudao to bear, so he hurriedly rolled up his bedding and wrapped himself in his blanket to listen to the rain outside.

In his boredom, Su Shoudao subconsciously looked up at the wall and found that water had seeped out from the top of the wall where it was linked to the roof.

Su Shoudao sighed as he hugged his legs and cursed, "It seems that this stupid house is not only It's dilapidated, it's f*cking seeping, so what if it's seeping, it better not be f*cking leaking!

Just as he finished speaking, there was a sudden chill on his forehead.

It turned out that the rain had seeped out from the roof and gathered into a single drop, which landed on his head.

When Su touched his forehead, it was damp and he cried out in anger, "F*ck! The rain is really leaking, isn't it? ! God, are you done with this? ! Don't play with me all the time! Who can stand it when it's always like this?

Unfortunately, no one could hear his question.

Even if the soldiers standing guard next door could hear him, they wouldn't understand him at all.

Meanwhile, Su Zhiyu, Su Shoudao's older daughter, who had no hope, had made a three-year plan for herself after a day and a night of rest and reflection.

She had always remembered what Ye Chen had said, that she would become the head of the Su family within three years.

Although it sounded like a fantasy, she was not willing to let Ye Chen look down on her.

Therefore, she decided to work hard for this goal from today onwards.

And her first intention was to make the news of her and her mother's safe return to the public completely public.

The reason why she had to do this was, on the one hand, to deter her grandfather, Su Chengfeng, and on the other hand, for the safety of herself and her mother

She was worried that Su Chengfeng would still not let her mother go in the future, so she decided to make the impact of this matter a little bigger - a little more.

In this way, the attention of the whole country would be drawn to this matter.

No one would dare to risk the attention of the whole country.

So, the bigger the matter became, the more passive Grandpa would act in the future, and the safer she and her mother would be.

So she approached her grandfather and offered to ask him to help contact the media, and she was going to hold a conference this evening about what had happened to her and her mother in the Golden Tunnel.

The media, the police and the whole country have been waiting for the whereabouts of Su Zhiyu and Du Haiqing, and Su believes that if the news is released, the conference will definitely generate huge attention.

For this reason, she had also contacted several of the country's hottest live video platforms through her friends.

This time, she planned to broadcast the event directly online.

Thus, various media, websites and news APPs, all quickly received news that the Du family had declared to the public that Du Haiqing and Su Zhiyu, who had been missing for days, had returned safely to Jinling, more details will be announced to all the people at a conference tonight.

This news instantly swept up and down the country!

Hundreds of millions of people have been following the case, and many netizens have even been discussing all the possibilities about Su Zhiyu and Du Haiqing on the net_.

Most of these people believed that the two of them, mother and daughter, must have been killed.

But a few still believe that miracles can happen and feel that God will definitely look after the poor mother and daughter.

Now, the dust has finally settled on the long-awaited incident!

It turns out that Du Haiqing and Su Zhiyu are really still alive!

So, everyone began to eagerly await the live broadcast of the launch event in the evening.

Everyone wanted to see for themselves that the mother and daughter were safe and sound!

The news that Su Zhiyu was going to hold a launch party reached Su Chengfeng's ears, and it immediately scared him to death.

He guessed that Su Zhiyu must hate himself in his heart, so he could predict that he would definitely be at Su Zhiyu's launch party. He could predict that he would be a target at Su Zhiyu's launch.

Although his reputation was already in shambles, he really didn't want to be targeted by the nation again

The people whipped up

There is a limit to how much mental capacity a person can have.

If only a few people scold themselves occasionally, most people can withstand it.

But if dozens of people scold them day in and day out, then a significant number of people will feel very stressed.

If tens of thousands, millions or even tens of millions of people were to call them names, even the thickest skinned person would not be able to withstand such pressure.

If resentment is also an energy field, the resentment Su Chengfeng carries, I'm afraid, could envelop half of China.

After a long time, this kind of torture has greatly sapped his fighting spirit and made him think several times: "F*ck you, why don't I just go to the Maldives and retire on an island, what do I care so much?"

However, his desire for power is also strong, so these two forces are often at war in his mind, causing him a headache.

Today, Su Zhiyu suddenly wanted to launch a campaign, which immediately made him anxious.

So, he called Su Zhi Fei and asked, "Zhi Fei, do you know what your sister is going to say at the press conference tonight?"

Chapter 2843

Su Zhi Fei had been busy with the concert at the venue recently, and had come out early in the morning to supervise the work. Therefore, although he had seen the news that his sister was going to hold a launch event, he had not been able to ask her what she was planning to do.

So, he said to Su Chengfeng, "Grandpa, I happen to be busy with something today, so I haven't had a chance to talk to Zhiyu in detail, why don't you wait for me for a while, I'll call her and ask her."

Su Chengfeng said, "Don't call, many details can't be detected over the phone, so you should hurry back and talk to Zhiyu face to face, it's better to bypass your mother and your grandfather and ask Zhiyu in private, ask her what her plans are, I also need to make preparations early."

Su Chengfeng was really afraid that Su Zhiyu would turn the tables on himself at the press conference.

If people outside scolded him, it would be a group of people without a head and a mouthful of spittle.

But if Su Zhiyu took the lead in scolding himself, then there would be a very clear path for the anger of hundreds of millions of people across the country to be vented, and there would be people marching on the streets with banners scolding him.

Su Zhi Fei sensed that his grandfather was very nervous about this matter, so he hurriedly said: "Okay grandpa, I'll be right back, I'll report back to you first if there's any progress!"

Su Chengfeng instructed: "I'm not just asking you to inquire Zhiyu's thoughts, you still have to find a way to persuade him that she should let go of her hatred, you have to let him know that she is a member of the Su family, not the Du family, she and the Su family are one, one glory and one loss, now that the Su family is in internal and external trouble, they can't consume themselves anymore!"

Su Zhi Fei hurriedly said, "I know grandpa, don't worry, I will try my best to persuade her!"

Good." Su Chengfeng said somewhat decrepitly, "Make sure to do your best to persuade her to handle this matter gently! As long as you can persuade her, grandpa will definitely not treat you badly!

Hearing these words, Su Zhi Fei agreed inwardly with excitement and hurriedly drove back home.

At the old Du family residence, Su Zhiyue locked herself in her room and was preparing the manuscript for tonight's launch.

Tonight's launch was the start of her three-year plan and was extremely significant for herself, so she could not afford to make any mistakes.

Su Zhi Fei knocked at the door and asked, "Zhiyu, can I come in?"

When Su Zhiyu heard her brother's voice, her expression was a little cold all of a sudden.

She had been guessing for the past two days that her brother's private connection with grandfather Su Chengfeng was probably very close, and even his heart had probably fallen to grandfather in full.

But she didn't have any

There is no evidence that can prove it.

So, today was actually a test for her to test Su Zhi Fei.

She knew that Su Zhi Fei had gone to the venue early in the morning to make preparations for Gu Qiuyi's concert.

So she thought that if Su Zhi Fei had suddenly dropped his own business to rush back after he was going to have a launch party, then there was at least a 70% chance that he had fallen back on his grandfather.

Moreover, if Su Zhi Fei had rushed back for this matter, and if he had said good words to grandpa in front of himself and begged for forgiveness for him, then there was a 100% chance that he had already completely turned against him!

If Su Zhi Fei had really turned against him, Su Zhiyu would not only have to be on guard against him, but she would also be unable to forgive him.

Because she felt that what grandpa Su Chengfeng had done this time was inhumane and had almost killed her mother and herself!

In the face of such a great right and wrong, her brother should have stood on the side of justice and affection, on the same side with herself and her mother.

If, in the face of such a great right and wrong, he had instead stood by Grandpa's side, it would prove that in his eyes, the importance of money and status had completely overridden justice and affection.

If that were the case, it would also prove that he, as a brother, had lost the humanity that a normal person should have.

Chapter 2844

At the very least, it was no longer in line with the basic requirements for a brother in her Su Zhiyu's heart.

So, she coldly put away her manuscript and rubbed her cheeks, which had a somewhat cold, even somewhat stiff expression.

Only after trying to make herself look natural did she speak, "Brother, come in, the door is unlocked."

Su Zhi Fei hurriedly pushed the door open and entered.

As soon as he entered, he immediately locked the door behind him and then looked at Su Zhiyao.

When he saw nothing unusual in her expression, he smiled and said, "Zhiyu, why do you suddenly want to start a conference?"

Su Zhiyu said seriously, "That time when such a major incident happened in the tunnel, the whole country was concerned about my mother and I's safety, I felt the need to explain it publicly so that those good-hearted people who care about us can rest assured."

"Su Zhi Fei nodded gently and smiled, "So that's how it is! You're right, ever since you and Mum's accident, the whole country has been very concerned about your comfort!"

"Moreover, there are also many people who have spontaneously gone out to look for various valuable clues, and there are even many analysis groups set up online, where people work together as a group and analyse clues related to the incident, which is really very enthusiastic!"

And we do need to let them know that you and Mum have returned safely!"

"Exactly."

Su Zhiyu nodded and asked, pretending to be curious: "Right, brother, didn't you go to the venue to work? It's just a little thing, it's worth a trip back?"

Su Zhi Fei laughed and said, "Harm! I was worried about you, I was afraid you would get too emotional thinking about the launch, so I came back to check on you."

Su Zhiyu said softly, "Brother, thank you!"

"Brother and sister, why are you so polite."

Su Zhifei patted Su Zhiyu's head and said, "Oh yes, what are you going to say at the launch this time?"

Su Zhiyu said casually, "Actually, there's not much to say, I've summed it up, there are basically three points."

"The first point is definitely to tell everyone that my mother and I are back safely and to reassure everyone."

"The second point is to tell everyone that we were saved by a mysterious benefactor, who also gave us a high level of medical treatment, as an opportunity to thank him on the one hand, and to dispel the curiosity of the general public on the other."

"As for the third point, it is to explain my attitude towards this matter, after all, the whole country knows, this matter is done by the Su family, even it is grandfather's manipulation, I want to be at the launch. I want to shout at him in the air and ask him to apologize and go to the police station voluntarily. Turn himself in, after all, he was already suspected of intentional murder.

When Su Zhi Fei heard this, he immediately got nervous and said offhandedly: 'Zhi Yu ah, the first two points are fine, but this third point, isn't it a bit radical?'"

"Radical?" Su Zhiyu asked her brother rhetorically, "He poisoned her and nearly killed us both! I just asked him to apologize and to face the law, and that's radical? What about what he did? Is he a callous, heartless, beast?"

Su Zhifei was sweating and said, "Zhiyu, you must know that he is after all your grandfather and mine, and of all the younger siblings, he loves you the most! Look at the names he gave us, which one of them is a reflection of his many requests? Only you, he just wants you to be happy and joyful, nothing else is important".

Su Zhiyu looked at Su Zhifei, deep inside she was already disappointed.

At this moment, she could already confirm that her brother was, in fact, siding with Grandpa, the murderer.

However, she did not show her disappointment, but nodded slightly and said blandly, "Brother, I admit what you said, but when you do something, you must be fair and objective!"

"So many things must be sorted out like items, one piece is one and one size fits all!"

'It's not because he used to be nice to me that I can forgive him for trying to kill my mother!

Chapter 2845

---

Su Zhiyu's rebuke gave Su Zhifei a double headache.

He couldn't help but question Su Zhiyu in his mind, "Grandpa did try to kill mum yes, but doesn't she have any responsibility, mum?"

"As the daughter-in-law of the Su family, she has that dead man surnamed Ye on her mind all the time, and she even publicly went to bid for the mansion where the man surnamed Ye lived back then, isn't this a waste of the Su family's face?"

"Besides, we are all adults now, does it matter whether we hate or not? The Su family has a trillion dollar family fortune, do we have to draw a line with him just because grandpa laid a vicious hand on mum?"

"To draw a line with him is the same as drawing a line with the Su family's trillion dollar fortune, and in the end, we won't be the ones who lose out?"

"If we lose the right to inherit the Su family's property, what will you and I do with our future lives?"

"Don't you forget, our surname is Su, not Du, do you still expect grandparents to give us a share of the inheritance?"

However, these words, Su Zhi Fei could only spit out in his heart, he couldn't say it in front of his sister.

Because he knew very well in his heart

If she said so directly, she would not only not listen, but would turn against her.

Thinking of this, Su Zhi Fei was depressed in his heart and thought, "Hey, you are still more suitable for the name Zhi Fei than me."

While thinking in his heart, Su Zhi Fei's mouth echoed Su Zhiyu's viewpoint with approval, nodding repeatedly, "Zhiyu, you are right, this kind of thing, it is indeed unforgivable, not to mention you, I can't forgive either."

Su Zhiyu didn't say anything, she knew that if her brother said that, there must be more to come.

As expected.

Su Zhi Fei changed his tone and sighed, "But to be honest, we can't get any benefit from turning against Grandpa, nor can we bring him any substantial punishment."

After a pause, Su Zhifei spread his hands, "Take what you just said about subjecting him to the law, it's simply not possible, the old man has always been cautious and there's never more than one firewall.

"As long as we don't have direct evidence, He could have said it was deliberate slander, and if he couldn't, he could have pushed a random person to take the blame!"

"Do you know how many scapegoats and scapegoats Su Anshun has helped Grandpa raise? I can't even count them all! These are all the old man's firewalls!"

"If we didn't have the resources and connections of the Su family, not to mention bringing down grandpa, we couldn't even bring down one Su Anshun!"

Su Zhiyu had been listening silently, and when Su Zhifei had finished, he asked him rhetorically, "When did I say that I was going to take him down?"

Su Zhi Fei also asked, "Then what are you trying to do?"

Su Zhiyu said seriously, "If I accuse him, he may have many ways to evade sanctions, but you should know that if I don't accuse him, he doesn't even need to evade! What I want is justice! Justice on many fronts! Not just outcome justice, but process justice, procedural justice! I know that outcome justice is difficult, but procedural justice is within my reach, so I'm going to start by pressing charges against him today!"

Chapter 2846

---

Su Zhi Fei had a big headache.

He knew that in fact Su Zhiyu originally had little influence.

This was because the Su family had always kept the personal information of their offspring very well hidden.

The outside world had no idea what the names of the Su family's descendants were, and naturally, they had no idea who Su Zhi Fei or Su Zhi Yu were.

But the current Su Zhi Fei is indeed different.

The Forbidden Mountain Tunnel crash in Jinling has been dubbed the "Princess Diana of China", and the video of the mastermind's confession has been made public before.

You know, Europe's population is only about half of China's, but Princess Diana's affair had a profound impact, while China has almost twice the population of Europe, so of course Du Haiqing and Su Zhiyu's affair had a profound impact.

These days, the internet is becoming more and more developed, and people are increasingly thirsty for all kinds of fairness and justice. Whenever there is a case that can trigger the indignation of ordinary people, even if the person involved is just an ordinary person, it will cause an uproar on the internet.

Whether it is an unscrupulous and vicious nanny or the beautiful accomplice of a murderer, all of these cases have sparked public outcry and condemnation.

What happened to Du Haiqing and Su Zhiyu was not only of a bad nature, a waste of kinship, and dehumanising Sexuality, and also the involvement of enmity between top gentry, naturally the attention is beyond the ordinary.

Therefore, Su Zhifei could almost conclude that once Su Zhiyu launched a condemnation against the old man at the press conference and demanded that he turn himself in, there would definitely be countless people supporting him or even petitioning him.

Thinking of this, Su Zhifei hesitated and said, "Zhiyu, do you want to talk to grandpa?"

Su Zhiyu frowned, "What should I talk to him about?"

Su Zhi Fei said in a very serious manner, "Of course we should talk about compensation! You want to flip-flop with him now, but as an elder brother, I also have to remind you that if it really gets to the point of no return, even if you get the old man into jail, you won't get any substantial benefits."

"Moreover, before the old man goes to prison, he will definitely make good arrangements for the Su family, but the arrangements will definitely exclude all of our family, by then, he is in prison, what will we do?"

"You are the eldest granddaughter of the Su family, if you don't rip your face off with the Su family, then you will still be the top rich second generation in the country, even those so-called famous rich second generation and famous female celebrities, when they see you, they all have to Bi Bi respectfully, as long as you have the aura of the Su family, you will be able to marry the children and grandchildren of the top families in the future, even the European royal family will not be able to find any superiority in front of you."

"But once you draw the line with the Su family, the aura you have disappears completely, what about your life, your marriage, your happiness in the future?"

"And you also have to think that just not having the Su family halo would be fine, but if you turn against the Su family, that would be really troublesome, who would dare to marry you in the future? Marrying you would be making an enemy of the Su family!"

When Su Zhiyu heard this, she suddenly smiled and spoke, "Brother, in this world, I don't care about any man other than my benefactor, whether he is the son of a top family or not, or whether he is the royal family of Europe, they are all worthless in my eyes!"

What Su Zhiyu said was from her heart.

But it was also something she had deliberately said to Su Zhi Fei.

Ever since she was sure that Su Zhi Fei had completely fallen back on his ways, she had already started her plan, a plan that had only four words: to take advantage of a plan.

She knew that Su Zhi Fei would definitely pass on her words to Su Chengfeng, once and for all.

That was her real goal.

Chapter 2847

3-3 minutes

---

Sure enough.

As soon as Su Zhi Fei heard this, his whole body instantly tensed up.

He knew that Su Zhiyu and his mother had been saved by his benefactor this time.

He also knew that this benefactor had a mysterious identity and superb strength.

In the past, the two top experts of the Su family were Elder He and He Hongsheng.

He Lao was infinitely close to breaking through the third meridian.

And He Hongsheng was even more powerful, as he was one of the very few people who could break through the third meridian.

But even He Hongsheng's strength would be on a par with that of a Japanese ninja's upper ninja.

But when he was in Japan, he easily killed several ninjas, including an upper ninja!

If you do the math, you can beat He Hong Sheng by at least two to Three.

And that's with no damage to themselves.

This kind of strength was simply unheard of in the domestic martial arts field.

Even a four-star martial artist would not be enough, not to mention a three-star martial artist.

What made Su Zhi Fei feel even more worried was that he also didn't know what kind of relationship Su Zhiyu had with that benefactor.

Or, whether there was any substantial progress or not.

He also realised that Su Zhiyu was hiding something from herself regarding the matter of her benefactor saving her this time, in case she and her benefactor really had an affair, that would be the end, with his help, even if she couldn't bring down the Su family, it could still kill the old man!

Moreover, Su Zhiyu has said herself that she will only marry her benefactor in her life and will not look at any other men, so it is possible that the two of them may really have something.

What!

"This is bad. This is bad," Su Zhi Fei said, panicking in his heart.

He thought to himself, "I should have thought that that benefactor might have taken a liking to Zhiyu!

Otherwise, he couldn't have saved Zhiyu once in Kyoto and then come to Jinling to save her again!

"This is really bad

Thinking of this, Su Zhi Fei asked tentatively, "Zhiyu, do you know the exact identity of your father-in-law? You two wouldn't be together, would you?"

Su Zhiyu was silent for a moment and said seriously, "Brother, there are some things I promised my benefactor not to say to the public, not even to you, you must understand.

There was no exaggeration in what Su Zhiyu said.

She had indeed promised Ye Chen not to reveal his identity to the public, as well as the specific details of how she had saved her.

Chapter 2848

However, Su Zhiyu was clever in that she deliberately tried to be vague.

The phrase "something" immediately left a lot of room for the listener's imagination.

Su Zhi Fei could not help but think a lot about it.

"What exactly is the matter that Zhiyu is talking about? Could it be that she is really with the benefactor?!"

So he hurriedly said, "Look at you, you're still being so formal with me, if you two are really together, then in the future, Eunuch will be my brother-in-law, our father doesn't know where he is now, in case we can't find him when you two get married, then maybe I'll have to hand you over to Eunuch myself at the wedding. '

Su Zhiyu said very seriously: "Brother, if I am fortunate enough to step into the marriage hall with my benefactor like you said, then naturally I won't hide it from you, but now is not the time after all.

Realizing that his sister was unlikely to tell the specifics, Su Zhi Fei sighed curtly: "In fact, it is very understandable that in literary themes since ancient times, heroes are indispensable in saving beauty, after all, which woman can withstand the shock of saving her life.

Su Zhiyu followed his words, nodded and said with a smile: "Yes, you see I have been back from Japan, all day and night the soul is trying to find the benefactor, just the airport surveillance video almost looked blind. In the end, the gift of saving a woman's life, indeed too deep in the marrow!

said, she could not help but feel: "God is still kind to me, I originally thought I could not meet the benefactor in this life, I did not expect, the benefactor can save me once again in Jinling

Su .....

When Zhi Fei heard this, he couldn't help but ask: 'By the way Zhi Yu, I've always been curious in my heart, is our benefactor a Chinese or a Japanese Chinese? Is it because he was in Jinling when he saved your life, or has he been quietly watching you?

Su Zhi Fei asked this question because he wanted to get more information about his benefactor, if he was originally from Jinling, that would narrow it down a lot at once.

But she pretended to be blushing and shy, and said shyly, "Brother, I can't tell you this, so why don't you guess for yourself?

Su Zhi Fei thought: "You have become so shy all of a sudden, with the look of a young girl in love, do I still need to guess?

"I don't know why that benefactor appeared in Kyoto last time and this time in Jinling, so this time he's here for Zhiyu.

"Yes! The timing is also right. Yes! It was only after she followed her mother to Jinling and stayed there for a few days that something happened.

"Otherwise, it would not have been possible for your father to save Zhiyu in such a short time.'

Thinking of this, Su Zhi Fei's heart became even more panicked.

Originally, both he and his grandfather were worried that this launch would deal an even more fatal blow to the old man's personal reputation.

But now, it seemed that the "benefactor" who was hiding in the shadows, yet was so powerful, was the real danger to be wary of!

So, Su Zhi Fei sighed and said, "Ai , if the matter between you and your benefactor can be repaired, I, as a brother, am ten thousand times happy for you, as for grandfather's side, I can't advise you much more, but I still suggest you think twice before you do it, there is still some time before the launch, you should think -think about it again."

Su Zhiyu knew that when her brother said this, this was to terminate this conversation for the time being.

Most likely, he was planning to hurry up and report the situation to the old man.

After all, he had just brought out his benefactor and released another smoke bomb, and now his brother must have been bluffed and his cognition carried away by himself.

This, in fact, was Su Zhiyu's purpose.

She knew that she was not capable of doing anything, let alone powerful, so she could only bring up the banner of her benefactor to falsely claim power.

Although she was somewhat ashamed of herself, it was a good thing that she was only pretending to be a tiger and did not reveal any information about her benefactor to the public.

So, she said to Su Zhi Fei, "Brother, you should not get involved in this matter, let me grasp it myself.

Su Zhi Fei saw Su Zhiyu's resolute attitude, so he did not persuade her any more. He intended to first report the important information he had just found out to the old man and see what his attitude was.

He did not say anything to death, but sighed: "You should think about it on your own first, if you have any ideas, you can also talk to me, I will not go to the arena today, go to my room to lie down for a while.

"Good."

Su Zhiyu sent Su Zhifei out of the room, as soon as the door closed, her expression instantly became very cold, while Su Zhifei, who could no longer suppress the worry inside, rushed back to his

---

Su Zhiyu's guess about Su Zhifei was indeed accurate.

The first thing Su Zhi Fei did after she returned to her room was to immediately report the conversation she had just had with her, one by one, to Su Chengfeng.

When Su Chengfeng heard Su Zhifei say that Su Zhiyu had decided to subject herself to legal sanctions at tonight's conference, his entire body felt overwhelmed with anxiety.

He naturally had a way to save himself from legal punishment, but what he was really worried about was that he would never be able to make a comeback after being messed up by her like this.

Because, as long as he did not ambush the law, the people of the country will not easily forget this matter, then, as long as he still appears in the public eye, the public will feel that he is a criminal who should go to jail.

In this way, no matter where you go, you will be shouted at as if you were a street rat.

In the piece of fame, one will never be able to turn over a new leaf.

Just when he didn't know how to stop Su Zhiyu from denouncing himself at the launch, Su Zhi Fei said another piece of information that made his jaw drop.

Su Zhi Fei said: "I have probed Zhiyu's mouth, it seems, she is likely to have a private affair with that mysterious expert, I think, that mysterious expert should know that Zhiyu came to Jinling, so he rushed over, so that also explains why he was able to save Zhiyu and my mother together in the first moment of the incident!

He found that things had indeed been going in the worst direction.

I was afraid that Su Zhiyu and Du Haiqing survived, but both of them came back as if they were fine;

I was afraid that Su Zhiyu was saved by the Japanese Chinese master, and it turned out to be him;

I was afraid that Su Zhiyu has been backed by this person, the results did not expect, the two people really seem to have male and female love affair of children.

Now this situation, Su Chengfeng can think of the best solution, is to hurry and Su Zhiyu repair relationship.

In addition, there seems to be no better choice.

If you can repair the relationship with Su Zhiyu as soon as possible, you can temporarily stabilize Su Zhiyu's emotions and behavior, not only hair.

The trouble of the announcement can be saved, and the threat of that mysterious expert will be much lessened.

In that case, you can also win more initiative.

It is possible to let Su Zhiyu down completely, so that through her to find out the specific information of the expert, then find a way to completely solve the expert, and then find an opportunity to send Su Zhiyu abroad under house arrest, all the crisis can be lifted.

Thinking of this, Su Chengfeng made up his mind and said to Su Zhifei, "I'll call Zhiyu right away and see if I can persuade her."

Su Zhifei said, "Grandpa, if you call Zhiyu at this time, won't she know that I'm secretly communicating with you?"

Su Chengfeng said lightly: "With Zhiyu's intelligence, even if I do not call her, you suddenly go back to ask her this, she should have guessed.

The reason why she told you this is that she wanted to use your mouth to pass these words to me and then come to negotiate terms with me.

Su Chengfeng still knows this granddaughter of his very well

Chapter 2850

---

The fact that Su Zhiyang has been smart since she was a child is no match for her other grandchildren, and she can't really be led by Su Zhifei's nose.

When Su Zhi Fei heard his grandfather say this, he felt his cheeks roll over the phone.

Su Zhi Fei knew that his sister was indeed smarter than himself, but the old man's words did hurt his pride a little.

At the same time, he could not help but ask in his heart: "Is Zhiyu really using my mouth to send a message to the old man? !"

At this time, Su Chengfeng did not have the time to care about Su Zhifei's mood and said, "Okay, let's do this first, I'll give Zhiyu a call.

He hung up the phone and called Su Zhiyu.

Su Zhiyu is sitting in front of the desk at this time, eyes fixed on the phone on the desktop.

Seeing that the phone suddenly rang, and that it said "grandpa" second, she was relieved.

However, she did not immediately pick up the phone to connect, but when the phone rang for the fourth time, only then pressed the answer button.

As soon as the call came through, Su Zhiyu asked in a cold voice, "What are you calling me for?"

Hearing her question, Su Chengfeng hurriedly explained, "Zhiyu, grandpa is calling to apologize to you. About what happened to you and your mother, grandpa is indeed fully responsible, but grandpa wants to make it clear to you that he never wanted to hurt you either, what happened to you was just an accident.

Su Zhiyu gave a hollow sound and said silently: I believe what you said, but the matter that you want to kill my mother, it can't be an accident, right?

Su Chengfeng knew that at this time there was no need for any explanation as well as cover-up.

We are all smart people, this kind of thing that we know by heart, naturally there is no way to wash it away.

So, he sighed and said ashamedly: "Hey! I admit, I do have a big problem with your mother, especially this time she went to Jinling and publicly participated in the auction of Ye Chang Ying's old house, causing our entire Su family to lose face, I was also angry for a while, so I made that irrational decision, and I hope you can somewhat understand my hardship

Su Zhiyu said, "Yes. This matter is certainly inappropriate, but I think she is not wrong, after all, it was my father who betrayed the marriage in the first place!"

He had already cheated on my mother when she was pregnant with me, and had an illegitimate daughter, which you also know about!

"In contrast, my mother came to Jinling only after she explicitly asked my father for a divorce!" What's more, I don't think there's anything wrong in principle with what she did, and it's a bit too much for you to kill my mother because of such a little thing!

"Yes, you're right!" Su Chengfeng said with a very sincere attitude: "After this matter came out, I also regret and blame myself very much, so I also hope that you two mothers can give me a chance to make amends.

Su Zhi .....

My mother will never want to see you again in her life, and I may not want to see you for a long time to come.

With that, Su Zhiyu added: "Although I am your granddaughter, deep down, I still hope that you will be used to take responsibility and consequences and turn yourself in to the police."

Extremely.

Hearing these words, Su Chengfeng was so annoyed in his heart that

However, his mouth did not dare to show anything, but only said helplessly: "Zhiyu, after all, I am the head of the Su family, not only to lead the Su family to continue to move forward, but also to represent the image and status of the Su family, if I really go to prison not only is it not good for the Su family, it is also not good for you.

Su Zhiyu said: "I just want a just outcome.

"Justice?" Su Chengfeng sighed and said, "Zhiyu, how about this, you're a smart kid, we don't need to beat around the bush, just tell me what you want me to do so that you can let bygones be bygones?"

Su Zhiyu said, "As I said earlier, I hope you will turn yourself in to the police!"

Su Chengfeng smiled and sighed, "Zhiyu, if I'm not mistaken, after all you've said to Zhi Fei, you want to negotiate some terms with me on this matter, right? To be honest, grandpa doesn't blame you for having such a mind, after all, I have to compensate you both for your feelings and reason, so whatever you want, just say it, as long as it's acceptable to me, I'll agree to it!
