

Ye Chen 2861

Chapter 2861

Ye Chen's hatred for the Su family was only for those who were associated with the Anti-Leaf Alliance back then.

Now, the ostensible head of the Anti-Leaf Alliance, Su Shoudao, had been thrown into Syria by himself, and the ostensible number two, Su Shoude, had also gone into Hong Wu's dog farm.

So right now, there was only one Su Chengfeng left as an enemy of the Su family.

According to the agreement between Ye Chen and Su Zhiyu, Su Zhiyu could voluntarily hand over Su Chengfeng in exchange for her father's return to China when she ascended to the position of Su family head.

If she could do that, then she would get Su Shoudao back, but still make sure that Su Shoudao stayed away from all the real power of the Su family, forcing him to retire.

In this way, both the Ye family and himself can put aside all old grudges with the Su family and never cross the river from now on.

Therefore, Ye Chen naturally hoped that Su Zhiyu would be better and better by that time.

Su Ruoli is also Su Zhiyu's half-sister, and when the two sisters met last time, Ye Chen was there to see what was going on.

He could be sure that Su Zhiyu really had Su Ruoli as her sister in her heart.

And Su Ruoli also had her as her sister in her heart.

More importantly, the current Su Ruoli was no longer cruel and hostile, and she would definitely be able to do her best to follow Su Zhiyu and protect her in the future.

Ye Chen originally thought that his arrangement was very reasonable and very considerate of the two sisters.

However, he never expected that Su Ruoli's eyes would immediately turn red when she heard his words.

She looked at Ye Chen and choked up, "Mr. Ye Ruo Li's life was saved by you Ruo Li's cultivation level also broke through only with your help You are Ruo Li's greatest benefactor in this life, in the future Ruo Li only wants to follow you and serve you to the best of her ability before and after, she does not want to return to the Su family"

Ye Chen explained, "I am also not asking you to return to the current Su family, but after your sister has become the head of the Su family, you can go back."

Su Ruoli gambled and choked, "Then I won't go back either! Although my sister and I share half of the same blood, in the end, I don't owe her anything and don't want to stay by her side in the future"

Speaking here, she subconsciously grabbed Ye Chen's hand and cried, "Sir Ye, please don't drive Ruo Li away in the future, okay?"

Ye Chen said helplessly, "You are only in a sensitive position now, you can't return to your normal life immediately, that's why I keep you around, but in the future this matter will eventually pass, the hatred of the Japanese side of the child towards you will also gradually fade with the passage of time, or even be forgotten, at that time, you can have your own life again, why do you need to consume in my side What?"

Su Ruoli said firmly, "I don't want a life of my own I just want to stay by Sir Ye's side and saddle up"

She said, wiping away her tears, and said with a slight puff of anger, "Mr. Ye, if you don't want Ruo Li to follow you one day, Ruo Li won't stalk you, then Ruo Li will find a nunnery and become a nun and eat fasting and chanting for the rest of her life! You must not think that Ruo Li is scaring you, Ruo Li can swear on his life to the sky, if there is any half-hearted violation, the sky will beat five thunderbolts!"

Chapter 2862

Ye Chen was completely speechless, and only after half a day did he open his mouth and ask, "You What are you trying to do? You are only in your early twenties this year, you have plenty of good times ahead of you! And with your current cultivation level, even if you don't make any further progress in your cultivation from now on, you can still easily live past a hundred years old, which means you've only lived one-fifth, or even one-sixth of your life!"

"I don't care." Su Ruoli said steadfastly, "If I hadn't met Sir Ye, I would have already lived a hundred percent of my life, and I wouldn't be sitting here unharmed as Su Ruoli now! Therefore, no matter how long I have left to live, it was given to me by you, Sir Ye, so all this time, I am willing to spend on Sir Ye!"

When Ye Chen heard these words from Su Ruoli, deep inside his heart, he was both touched and helpless.

He originally wanted to continue to persuade this stubborn girl, but looking at the look in this girl's eyes it seemed that she was simply not something that he could persuade.

So, Ye Chen also gave up on this idea.

As he had just said, there was still a long, long time ahead, and there was absolutely no need for him to seek to make Su Ruoli understand in one step right now.

There would be plenty of time in the future, and the future would be long, and even if her mind was as solid as a rock, it would definitely change with time.

The first thing I've done is to buy a riverside villa, a second-hand villa with eight rooms and a basement of more than 300 square feet.

Su Ruoli hurriedly said, "Mr. Ye, you don't need to spend so much money, the He family used to serve the Su family, they all lived in the Su family, and they were divided by gender and lived in bunk beds like school dormitories, there is absolutely no need for you to buy a villa, it's too costly"

Ye Chen laughed: "The villa is what I bought to lend to your grandfather and the others, you must not have any psychological pressure, and I bought the house as an investment, mainly to put it there for appreciation."

Su Ruoli added: "But, when Grandpa and his family come, they must be at your disposal 24 hours a day, and even be at your side 24 hours a day, so if you arrange for them to live in the villa, in case something happens to you, they certainly won't be able to arrive in time."

Even Hong Wu and Chen Zekai are not with me 24 hours a day, they have their own affairs and their own lives, they don't surround me 24 hours a day, and the same goes for your grandfather and the others. "

Su Ruoli was busy asking, "Sir Ye, if you don't let Grandpa and the others follow you around, then what are their main tasks after they come?"

Ye Chen spoke, "I've already thought about this, when the time comes, these practitioners from your He family can split up a few people to help Hong Wu and Chen Zekai."

"Although Hong Wu's side has a lot of disciples, they are all untalented and wild, usually fighting with others on the street is fine, but if they really meet a master, they will all give up for nothing."

"So when the time comes, you He family members should help Hong Wu with things that are beyond his ability, and on the other hand, you should also help Hong Wu train his disciples a little bit."

"As for Chen Zekai's side, although the people under his hands are all considered well-trained, they are still a bit inferior compared to you martial artists, so you should also help them improve their overall strength."

Su Ruoli was busy saying, "These are definitely no problem! Grandpa and the others will definitely be able to do a very good job!"

Saying that, Su Ruoli looked at Ye Chen with some shame and stammered as she asked, "Sir Ye, I don't know if you don't know the arrangement you have for me, what is it"

Ye Chen laughed: "You are in a special situation, just continue to stay at Buckingham Palace, and try not to have any contact with other people besides me and your mother."

Chapter 2863

Su Ruoli had no problem with Ye Chen's arrangement.

She was most afraid that Ye Chen would also send herself to Chen Zekai, or Hong Wu, or her own sister.

Since Ye Chen was willing to continue to keep herself at Buckingham Palace, of course she herself was happy to accept.

Anyway, as long as he did not drive him elsewhere and saw him often, he would be satisfied.

Ye Chen said to Su Ruoli, "Right, Ruoli, before, you have not been allowed to contact the outside world, or even have access to outside information, on the one hand because there is still some wariness towards you, and on the other hand, it is also true that your identity situation is too special, in case the news gets out it is easy to get yourself into trouble."

He said, Ye Chen paused and added: "But now it seems that you are not as easily over-excited as you were when the incident first happened, and you have also met your mother, so I believe you must be in a much more stable state of mind now."

Su Ruoli was busy saying, "Sir Ye, I am really very different from before now, there are huge changes in every aspect, and they are all changes for the better."

Ye Chen nodded and said gratefully, "I believe all this because I can see it myself."

Saying that, he took out a new mobile phone and handed it to Su Ruoli, "This mobile phone is the new one I had Lao Chen buy earlier, originally I was going to let your sister take it with her when she left, but Lao Chen still had her own mobile phone over there before her own accident, so she gave her her own mobile phone, and I thought I would simply leave this one for you to use."

Su Ruoli hadn't used a mobile phone for a long time, and hadn't even used the internet to get advice about the outside world for a long time, so when she saw this phone, her whole person looked very excited and thrilled.

Young people who are used to smartphones and the Internet, not to mention leaving their phones for a day, are afraid that if they are awake and cannot use their phones for more than two or three hours, they will be anxious to the point of no return.

She was almost under house arrest at Buckingham Palace and had no access to information, so deep down, she had longed for a mobile phone.

However, she was naturally too embarrassed to ask Ye Chen for such a thing, so she could only hold back that longing.

Now that she saw that Ye Chen had taken the initiative to give her a new mobile phone, she did not know how happy she was in her heart.

Seeing her excited look as she accepted the phone, Ye Chen said with a smile, "It has been activated and a mobile phone card has been put in it, the phone bill is unlimited overdraft, you can use it to contact me, or your mother, or Old Chen, others should try not to."

"Besides, with this phone, you can always know what is happening outside, and if you are really bored, you can also use it to brush up on the news, catch up on dramas or whatever, it's not that boring."

Su Ruoli said with red eyes, "Mr. Ye, thank you so much, I've been using my phone even when I'm dreaming this time, I've been scratching my heart and liver for a long time"

Ye Chen nodded and said, "I was more or less distrustful of you before, so I didn't dare to let you have a direct way of contacting the outside world, and I need you to understand that."

Su Ruoli hurriedly nodded and said, "Don't worry, Lord Ye, I understand this very well!"

"That's good." Ye Chen smiled faintly and said, "There is another piece of good news to tell you."

Su Ruoli was busy asking, "What good news?"

Ye Chen explained, "According to your mother, there are eleven people from your He family this time, including her, and of these eleven people, only your mother is a woman, so I plan to not arrange for her to stay at that riverside villa on the grounds that it might not be too convenient for her to be a woman, and let her stay at Buckingham Palace."

Saying that, Ye Chen added, "To be more specific, just arrange for her to stay in the same room with you."

"Really!?" Su Ruoli was thrilled to the core when she heard this!

She originally thought that if her mother came with Grandpa and the others, it must not be that convenient to see herself anymore, after all, every time she came to see herself, there must be a risk of exposure, she was not afraid of anything, but she was afraid that if her identity was exposed out, it would bring trouble to Ye Chen.

Now, Ye Chen was planning to arrange for her mother to come to her room directly, which was simply a big surprise to Su Ruoli.

Ye Chen smiled faintly, "Of course I won't lie to you, they should arrive in the evening, I will make the arrangements then, just wait at ease."

Chapter 2864

Su Ruoli was thrilled and said respectfully, "Thank you, Sir Ye!"

Ye Chen waved his hand, "Such a small matter, no need to thank me."

Saying that, he looked at the time and said, "Alright, I will stop talking to you for now, I will go and explain to Old Chen, Hong Wu and the others so that they can also be prepared."

Then, Ye Chen stood up and said, "I'm leaving."

"Ye Gongzi" Su Ruoli called out to him busily and asked blushing, "Can you wait a bit, I'll register a new WeChat first and then add you as a friend!"

Ye Chen nodded and promised, "Good."

Su Ruoli hurriedly opened her phone, downloaded a WeChat from the app shop, and then quickly registered an account.

She gave her new WeChat a name and then said to Ye Chen with a red face, "Sir Ye, let me sweep you"

Su Ruoli was busy sweeping it with her phone, and immediately afterwards, Ye Chen received a request to add a friend.

He clicked on the request and found that the nickname of the account requesting to add himself as a friend was: "Not going anywhere".

But when he thought of how she had just said that she wanted to stay by his side and asked him not to kick her out, Ye Chen understood her intention of naming her "Nowhere to Go".

"I think she wanted to say that she would stay by my side and not go anywhere, right?"

Ye Chen was touched in his heart, but did not ask more questions about this issue, he directly passed the friend add request, and then said to Su Ruoli, "Then I'll leave first."

Su Ruoli nodded and busily said, "I'll walk you to the door!"

Su Ruoli sent Ye Chen to the door, and then Ye Chen said goodbye and left.

After talking with Su Ruoli this time, he suddenly felt Su Ruoli's firmness and softness, it was really a bit surprising to him that these two very different feelings could appear so naturally and harmoniously in the same person.

Moreover, at the bottom of his heart, he had a little more recognition for Su Ruoli.

There was no shortage of die-hard followers around himself, but Su Ruoli was the strongest one among these people.

Although she was still a long way behind himself, Ye Chen still felt a closeness to her that the others did not.

In a sense, Ye Chen felt that Su Ruoli and himself were, in fact, the same kind of person.

Both of them were aliens among ordinary people, both running in a very different direction from the others.

The only difference was that Ye Chen was running much further than Su Ruoli.

Seeing him enter, Chen Zekai hurriedly asked, "Young master, have you finished chatting with Miss Su?"

"Finished chatting." Ye Chen nodded and spoke, "Old Chen, call Hong Wu and tell him to come over as soon as possible, I have something to explain to you two!"

Chapter 2865

Hearing that Ye Chen was looking for him on an important matter, Hong Wu immediately put down the work at hand and came to Buckingham Palace as fast as he could.

In Richard Chen's office, as soon as Hong Wu entered, he saw Ye Chen, so he hurried forward and asked respectfully, "Master Ye, what do you want to see me about?"

After saying that, he also greeted Chen Zekai, "Old Chen, you sit down too."

Chen Zekai and Hong Wu then sat next to each other across from Ye Chen.

Immediately afterwards, Ye Chen spoke, "I have already reached a cooperation with the He family, and starting today, the He family will send ten of its top experts to Jinling to be at my disposal at all times."

Chen Zekai said joyfully, "Young master, this is a good thing! Although we both have a lot of men at our disposal, our strength is indeed much inferior to that of martial artists, and sometimes we will not be able to help you, but will even hold you back."

At this moment, what Chen Zekai thought of was that time when he went to the Forbidden Mountain Tunnel with Ye Chen to rescue Su Zhiyu as well as her mother Du Haiqing in an emergency.

On that occasion, Ye Chen had leapt off the helicopter when it was still a dozen metres above the tunnel entrance in order to rush for time, but how could his men have such ability?

Even though they immediately carried out an emergency rappel, they were almost a minute behind Ye Chen because the overall process of throwing the rope, checking, hooking and sliding down was missing, and by the time they chased him in, Ye Chen had already solved all the crises.

On top of that, there was the time two days ago when he went to Syria to rescue He Zhiqiu, Ye Chen was able to infiltrate Hamid's heavily guarded base silently by parachuting in a way that was beyond normal human limits, and on that occasion, none of himself or his men were able to accompany Ye Chen and provide him with direct assistance.

The reason why this kind of failure to keep up with the pace happened repeatedly was, at its root, too great a gap in strength.

The difference between the strength of our gang and yours is indeed too great. You can definitely improve this awkward situation."

Ye Chen waved his hand and smiled, "I am not really needing the He family to do anything for me when I talk to them about cooperation."

As Ye Chen said, he added, "In fact, my intention is to divide these ten people from the He family between the two of you, so that they can complement your shortcomings, and also help you train a group of men and improve the overall strength of your men."

Upon hearing this, Chen Zekai became excited and blurted out, "Young master, if that's the case, that's really great! Although my men have all undergone the same high intensity military training as the special forces, they are still unable to break through the upper limit of ordinary people, and their own strength is indeed still a huge gap compared to martial artists."

Ye Chen nodded and spoke, "The close combat strength of martial artists, especially the strength of physical combat, is indeed far superior to that of special soldiers, however, once special soldiers have thermal weapons to augment them, their overall strength is still far superior to that of martial artists, so this time, I intend to integrate the two properly and let the He family use martial arts to help you and Hong Wu's men to bring their own abilities, their melee combat strength up, and then pair it with hot weapons, so that the overall strength will be more balanced."

Saying that, Ye Chen added: "In addition, Old Chen, your side's men who have undergone special forces training should in turn help the He family become familiar with thermal weapons as well as other advanced technology, this piece is their shortcoming, if they don't improve it, their overall combat power will still be greatly limited."

Chapter 2866

Immediately afterwards, Ye Chen sighed, "When I went to Japan before, I also fought with Japanese ninjas."

"There were some Japanese ninjas who were similar to Chinese martial artists, still stuck in the era of physical combat as well as cold weapon attacks, but there was also a group of Japanese ninjas who were able to keep up with the times and integrate a lot of modern technology."

"One point that impressed me was their use of a paraglider made of super black paint, with a silent lithium battery propulsion fan, flying fast through the air at night, not only fast, but impossible for ordinary people on the ground to notice, this is an organic combination of traditional ninja and modern technology, I think this is a way of thinking worth learning from. "

Chen Zekai immediately nodded and said excitedly, "Young master, I understand what you mean, that both sides should work together and come to each other to fill each other's shortcomings."

"Right." Ye Chen said seriously, "You two, make sure to pick your most trusted men and let them follow the He family to practice martial arts, and when the time comes, I will give them some Blood Dispersing Heart Saving Pills regularly to help them improve their strength quickly."

The Scattered Blood Heart Saving Pill was not worth mentioning to Ye Chen, but for ordinary people, as well as martial artists, the boosting effect was very obvious.

Ye Chen intended, when the time came, to first select forty or fifty people from Chen Zekai and Hong Wu's men who had potential and could be completely trusted, and let them practice martial arts while he himself then used some Dissipated Blood Heart Saving Pills to improve their physical quality as well as their strength.

With forty or fifty people, it was not necessary to give each of them one Blood Dissipating Heart Saving Pill at a time.

It was only necessary to dissolve four or five Blood Dissipating and Heart Saving Pills in water and let them take them evenly to get a good effect.

In this way, every once in a while, they can use the Blood-Scattering Heart-Saving Pill to help them improve step by step, and I believe that in less than a year and a half, they will be able to reach the level of a two-star martial artist, or even a three-star martial artist.

If I really had 40 to 50 three-star martial artists under my belt, I would definitely be a force to be reckoned with, and I could easily wipe out a ninja family in Japan.

Moreover, he had a Su Ruoli by his side, who was now already the best of the three-star martial artists, and if he helped her again, she could soon become a four-star martial artist like He Hongsheng.

In the near future, Ye Chen would be able to make Su Ruoli surpass He Hongsheng and become the only five-star martial artist in the country.

In this way, he would put the newly trained team, as well as the martial artists sent by the He family, under the unified command of Su Ruoli, and with Su Ruoli's ability, he would be able to make the most of these people's abilities.

Ye Chen used to be used to fighting alone, but after experiencing so many things, as well as meeting Hamid, he realised that even if he was strong in fighting alone, there would be times when he would be unable to split up.

So now is the perfect opportunity for a complete change of mind!

At that point, not only would it be a deterrent to Japan, but even if it were to be dropped remotely into Europe and America, combat power would not be a factor!

The Rothschild family is indeed very powerful, with countless hidden assets and private armies all over the world, but if they were to drop dozens of three-star martial artists who are skilled in using heat weapons, I'm afraid the Rothschild family couldn't afford it!

Chapter 2867

As the sun set and the evening sun filled the sky, a Gulfstream airliner, clad in golden sunlight, landed at Jinling Airport.

On board the plane were the eleven people sent over by the He family this time, including He Hongsheng and He Yingxiu.

As soon as these people stepped off the plane, they were immediately received by a convoy arranged by Chen Zekai to the riverside villa that Chen Zekai had bought in advance.

This villa happened to be in the same villa area as He Zhiqiu's father, He Yuanjiang's riverside villa, except that this one was much larger than He Yuanjiang's.

The reason why he had arranged for He's family to stay here was actually a bit selfish on Ye Chen's part.

He hoped that He's family could keep an eye on He Yuanjiang and He Zhiqiu's father and daughter, because if He's family lived here, in case someone made a move on them, I'm afraid there would be no return.

At this moment, Ye Chen, Chen Zekai and Hong Wu were already waiting in the villa.

When the caravan arrived, it was not yet dark. Chen Zekai's men led He Hongsheng, He Yingxiu and the rest of the He family into the courtyard, and Ye Chen also greeted them with Chen Zekai and Hong Wu.

When He Yingxiu saw Ye Chen, he said respectfully, "Greetings, Young Master Ye!"

Ye Chen smiled faintly and said, "There is no need to be so polite, Ms. He, just call me Ye Chen directly from now on."

"How can that be" He Hongsheng, who was at the side, opened his mouth and said, "Young Master Ye is the benefactor of the He family and the future master of the He family, the distinction between respect and inferiority must still be there!"

After saying that, he clasped his hands and bowed deeply, saying, "Young Master Ye, my name is He Hongsheng, the head of the He family, I have been greatly indebted to Young Master Ye and have no way to repay him, so I, together with the sons of the He family, would like to serve Young Master Ye with all my heart and soul!"

Ye Chen hurriedly stepped forward and helped him up with his arms, saying seriously, "Master He does not need to be so formal, I am too young to accept such a big gift."

"What's more, nowadays, my identity is still a secret in Jinling, the vast majority of people only know that I am a feng shui master who reads feng shui, not knowing that I was originally the son of the Ye family in Yanjing."

"If you guys call Young Master Ye long and Young Master Ye short all day long, it will instead easily give away my identity."

"It might be better to just call me by my name, my full name is Ye Chen, the leaf of Ye Zi, the star of stars."

He Hongsheng was surprised and hesitated all of a sudden, saying, "This This He has received a mountain of favors from you, so how can I call my benefactor by his name? If the ancestors knew about this, I'm afraid my legs would be broken!"

At the side, Hong Wu smiled heatedly and said, "Old Mr. He, why don't you just do what we do and call Young Master Ye Master Ye in front of outsiders! Anyway, this name of his is very famous in Jinling!"

"Master Ye?" He Hongsheng repeated subconsciously.

"Right!" Hong Wu laughed, "Master Ye, the True Dragon of the Earth, is basically known to all the really dignified people in our Jinling."

As soon as He Hongsheng heard this, he immediately nodded solemnly and arched his hand at Hong Wu, saying, "Thank you for this brother's advice, then from now on, He will address his benefactor as Grandmaster Ye!"

Ye Chen's head swelled as he listened.

These people were calling themselves Grandmaster Ye all day long, and they had already gotten a bit of a headache from listening to them.

However, he thought that the title Master Ye did not matter, as he had heard it so many times that he had become numb to it anyway.

So, he smiled helplessly and said to He Hongsheng, "Since the old master insists, I won't say any more."

He Hongsheng immediately clasped his fist and said, "He Hongsheng, meet Grandmaster Ye!"

Chapter 2868

Once these words were spoken, the rest of the He family followed suit.

Ye Chen nodded and said, "That's it for these trivial matters, let's talk about the serious matters."

As he spoke, Ye Chen pointed to the large villa in front of him and said, "Master He, this villa is prepared by me for you, for your daily accommodation and cultivation, the house is large and has many rooms, the ground floor is open, enough for daily cultivation, if you need any equipment, you can mention it to Lao Chen when the time comes, let Lao Chen arrange someone to implement it for you. "

He Hongsheng said, "Master Ye, you are really too kind, in fact, we can just stay in an ordinary dormitory, we don't have any requirements for living conditions."

Ye Chen smiled, "I am not talking to the He family about cooperation in order to drain the value of the He family, so you have come all the way here, and I will not make you do this and that all day long."

"In the future, you still need to have plenty of time to enjoy your lives, especially to continue your cultivation, if you are given a dormitory and not a venue for your cultivation, that would basically also kill your future growth."

These words from Ye Chen moved the He family inwardly beyond measure.

They hadn't been treated this well when they worked with the Su family before.

The Su family, that is, had them on call 24 hours a day like servants at home.

Even during sleeping hours, an order was given at any time and no matter what they were doing, they had to set off immediately.

Moreover, even during normal times, there are no holidays, and most of them have their own protection targets, so they basically have to guard in the shadows during the day to do their security work, and have little time to strengthen their own training.

But because she was Su Shoudao's illegitimate daughter, and because Su Shoudao needed a personal bodyguard, she started working as Su Shoudao's bodyguard at the age of 18.

In the past few years of being a bodyguard, her cultivation had almost stopped, simply because there was simply no time or space for her to cultivate properly.

Therefore, Ye Chen prepared a villa for He's family, gave them time to cultivate on a daily basis, and also made it clear that they must continue to cultivate and improve themselves, which was indeed a world of difference from the Su family.

Ye Chen then added: "My two men, Old Chen and Hong Wu, each of them also have quite a few die-hard brothers in their hands, but these people have not been exposed to martial arts and their overall melee strength is relatively poor, so in the future, they will also need more help from Master He and all of you to spare some energy and help me give them a good training to improve. "

Upon hearing this, He Hongsheng said, almost without thinking, "Don't worry, Master Ye! You have shown me and the He family a great deal of gratitude, so I will do this for you wholeheartedly! Although my family's internal martial arts are not quite complete, they are still very practical for those who are new to the profession, so I will pass on the family's internal martial arts to them and do my best to improve their strength!"

When He Hongsheng said this, all the other members of the He family, except for He Yingxiu, looked shocked.

With these words, the old man was giving away the most precious and valuable thing of the He family!

The He family's internal martial arts were the greatest reliance on which the He family had built its life for centuries!

Giving it away like that would definitely have a huge impact on the He Family in the future.

However, although everyone was worried, none of them dared to raise any significance.

After all, after the eldest son, He Yingquan, had led a defection, those remaining in the He family had followed He Hongsheng to the death, and although they didn't quite understand what he was doing, they wouldn't have any disobedient intentions.

He Yingxiu knew Ye Chen's strength and knew that whether the He family could go to the next level in the future all depended on Ye Chen, so the He family's internal martial arts were not worth mentioning in front of this.

Moreover, this was also a way for her father to represent the He family and show Ye Chen his heart!

Chapter 2869

Ye Chen also did not expect that He Hongsheng would simply want to take out the He family's suppressed internal martial art in one face-to-face and in two or three sentences.

Moreover, from what he knew about Su Ruoli, Su Ruoli would definitely not immediately reveal in advance that she would possibly give the He family a complete internal martial art just because she gave her a mobile phone.

So, one could tell that He Hongsheng, as a person, not only had a grateful heart, but was also really able to make trade-offs.

This is a very rare thing.

As China has come a long way from feudal society, countless folk skills have eventually been lost, and the reason for this is simply that many people who have mastered the skills are so shabby that they are unwilling to pass them on to outsiders to start a new branch, even if they take the skill to their graves.

To some extent, this has indeed cost the traditional folk culture and skills a great deal over the thousands of years of development.

It is like the internal martial art that the old ancestor of the He family obtained by chance, if its previous owner had been able to branch it out, it would not have turned out to be a scrap of scroll instead in the end.

So, based on this from the old master

The first impression Ye Chen had of him was very good.

So, Ye Chen arched his hand at him and said seriously, "With these words from Master He, I can rest assured about this matter, I hope that in the future Master He can train more personal experts for me, I also have some retired special soldiers on my side who are good at hot weapons, they have strong expertise in hot weapons, in sneaking and in tracking, at that time if you all in the He family are interested, you also can learn more about it, combining tradition with modernity in order to achieve a stronger fighting force."

Upon hearing this, Elder He said excitedly, "That's really great! We actually had this idea a long time ago and mentioned it to the Su family's family members at the time, but the Su family head was very afraid that we would grasp too much of automatic weapons as well as modern scientific equipment and never allowed us to touch them, so we never found the right opportunity either."

Modern weapons were extremely strictly controlled.

Although the Su family as well as the Ye family's bodyguards all had top special soldiers who had retired down, the piece of weaponry was still very sensitive indeed, and it was impossible to solve it without extremely strong abilities.

Although the He family was a top martial arts family, they could not manage to give modern weapons training to their family members with much fanfare, and without external support, it would indeed be difficult to achieve.

But on Ye Chen's side, it was good to say that after all, Chen Zekai himself had a certain amount of energy and could solve the problem of modern weapons to a certain extent.

If he couldn't, he could send the people directly to him for a period of closed training, and he might even have the chance to participate in actual combat to sharpen his skills, so he could definitely get twice the result with half the effort.

Thinking of this, Ye Chen then said to Elder He: "I will let Old Chen arrange this matter and implement it as soon as possible."

After saying that, he turned to Chen Zekai and said, "Old Chen, try to get a piece of land in the outskirts of Jinling, and we will build a closed training base."

Ye Chen nodded and said to Old Master He, "Old Master, it's better to come in and take a look at the house first, if there's anything you're not satisfied with, you can bring it up

Chapter 2870

He Hongsheng was busy saying, "Master Ye is too polite, such a big villa, even if it's a rough house, we are quite satisfied!"

Ye Chen laughed, "That's more than that, come on in and have a look!"

The villa that Ye Chen had Chen Zekai buy was second-hand, but after all, it had been lived in by rich people before, so both the decoration and the furniture and appliances were very elaborate, and it was naturally much more luxurious than the He family's old mansion in Desert City.

At this time, Ye Chen said to He Yingxiu, "Right Ms. He, I see that all the people here this time are men except you, so I think it's not too convenient for you to stay here, it just so happens that Old Chen is in charge of the entire Buckingham Palace Hotel, why don't we let Old Chen arrange a room for you at the hotel?"

As soon as He Yingxiu heard this, she immediately understood that Ye Chen was trying to arrange for herself to stay with her daughter Su Ruoli.

She was naturally willing to do so, and had even been a bit impatient for a long time.

So she hurriedly agreed and thanked him, "Thank you, Master Ye!"

Ye Chen smiled faintly, "There is no need to be polite."

He Hongsheng didn't think much of it either and said with emotion, "Master Ye, you are so kind! It's not really appropriate for Ying Xiu to stay with us, and as she has a disability, her daily life is also inconvenient, so staying in a hotel will be relatively easier."

Ye Chen nodded and said to He Yingxiu again, "Ms. He, it just so happens that I have to go back to Buckingham Palace later, so you can come with me later."

He Yingxiu was naturally excited at the thought of seeing her daughter later, and nodded repeatedly, "Yes Master Ye!"

Ye Chen saw that it was getting late, so he took out his mobile phone and called He Yuanjiang, He Zhiqiu's father.

He Yuanjiang's house was only two to three hundred metres away, so Ye Chen wanted him to bring He Zhiqiu over, so that they could get to know He Hongsheng and He Yingxiu, so that if there were any emergencies in the future, they could contact the He family for help.

He Yuanjiang had taken the last two days off to stay at home with He Zhiqiu to recuperate.

During these days of being held hostage, He Zhiqiu's body had really suffered a lot. The basement was dark and damp, and it was basically difficult to fill up on a full stomach, so her mind as well as her body had suffered a lot of torture and stress.

Although her spirit was relatively exuberant when she was first brought back by Ye Chen, immediately after returning home, she had a strong feeling of exhaustion.

In the past two days, she felt like her whole body was like a completely dead battery, and her body and spirit were extraordinarily weak.

He Yuanjiang had been at home with her, and fortunately, today He Zhiqiu then began to show some improvement, eating more meals and improving her mental state to a certain extent.

When he received Ye Chen's call, He Yuanjiang urgently

He said politely, "Ye Chen, why do you have time to call uncle?"

Ye Chen smiled and said, "Uncle He, I happen to be in your neighbourhood, some of my friends have moved here, I came over to help settle in, I thought you and Zhiqiu also live here, so I wanted to ask you to come over and get to know each other, I wonder if you are home?"

He Yuanjiang said, "I am at home, and Zhiqiu is also here, but she has just recovered in the past two days, so why don't you leave her alone and I will come over to you?"

"Okay." Naturally, Ye Chen had no problem with this, and busily said, "I'm at villa 32, come over if it's convenient for you, my friends here are all very strong martial arts masters, if you have any trouble over here in the future, you can always ask them for help."

As soon as He Yuanjiang heard this, he knew that this must have been carefully arranged by Ye Chen, and while he was touched in his heart, he was also quite looking forward to it, so he said, "Then wait for a while, uncle will go over there now."

When he hung up the phone, He Zhiqiu walked over and asked curiously, "Dad, is that Ye Chen calling?"

"Yes." He Yuanjiang nodded and said, "Ye Chen happens to be in our neighborhood, and he has a friend moving over, so he asked me to go over and meet him."

After saying that, he then said to He Zhiqiu, "You're not feeling well, so just wait for me at home."

He Zhiqiu, who was still a bit lethargic, suddenly spoke excitedly, "I'm going too!"
