

Ye Chen 2891

Chapter 2891

Meanwhile, Mak Seung-Hsing and Mike, were sitting worriedly in their room at the Buckingham Palace Hotel.

Mike had not yet recovered from his horrific experience and was in a very poor state of mind.

He was holding a few coins in his hand and kept tossing them around on the table.

The trigrams presented by the copper coins were no longer understandable to Mai Chengxing, which made him a little puzzled. The opportunities in the trigrams were always there, but the dangers were never eliminated either, and even that misty sense of the unknown was even stronger than before.

Unconsciously, this old gentleman's mentality also began to change gradually.

Originally, he thought that he was just taking advantage of Su Chengfeng's invitation to come over to China to look for opportunities while making some money on the side.

Even if he didn't find any chance or money, it didn't matter, he just thought of it as a trip back to his homeland.

Even if there is danger, I am afraid it is because I am getting old and my body may not be able to bear the strain.

At the same time. It is also easy to trigger some hidden that are common among the elderly

He had no idea that this matter would come to a head.

However, he never expected that a Xuan Fengnian would emerge from this matter!

This Xuan Fengnian was too dangerous!

In his eyes, killing people was nothing at all.

It had even become a commonplace for him to kill people.

He was suddenly involved in this matter. It did give Mak a strong sense of crisis, so much so that he began to reassess in his mind whether it was worth continuing to invest his energy in this matter.

Having lived to such an advanced age, what he cared about was not Su Chengfeng's money, but the chance to be twenty years younger at once, like Lai Qing Hua.

However, now that the chance is uncertain and the danger factor is elusive, he is worried that he will lose his life in Jinling before he can find it.

After all, he is only a dying feng shui master, so to speak, and so is his great-grandson Mike, who basically has little ability to defend himself.

In front of Xuan Fengnian, the two of them combined could

He could not withstand a single round, and in case he really started to fight, he was afraid that he would only be fed to the parasites.

Mike, who had his heart in his mouth, couldn't help but say, "Grandpa Tai. Why don't we go back to America, that Xuan Fengnian today, is really too evil, in case he wants to target us, we have no chance of winning at all!"

Mac Chengxing sighed, "We can go, but if we go, we will definitely have to offend Su Chengfeng, and if Su Chengfeng asks him to finish us off then, won't we make a mistake?"

Mike said, "We can talk to him and return all the money to him, and we can always break up peacefully, right?"

Mac Chengxing shook his head and said, "Didn't you hear what Xuan Fengnian said? He is good at killing people but not at finding them, so he is still waiting for us to find them out and then he will go for the killings. Now Su Chengfeng thinks that the person he asked us to find is related to his granddaughter Su Zhiyu and asked us to find a breakthrough from Su Zhiyu, if we leave at this time, Xuan Fengnian may not even agree. Didn't you hear what he said before we left? He told me to find her quickly and not to delay his fortune.

Chapter 2892

Speaking of this, Mai Chengxing sighed and said, "We are now on the shelf, to go or not to go. It's not up to us."

"F*ck!" said Mike, unable to resist bursting out an English national curse, exasperated, "What about can we find the people?"

Mac Chengxing lamented, "It's fine to find the person, but the key is, after we find the person. Will there be other troubles Moreover, if we find out the person and that person is killed by Xuan Fengnian, this can be our karma!"

Mike couldn't help but say, "Tai grandpa, now is not the time to care about others, it's most important that we hurry and leave Jinling safely ah, in case we both get fed to that big white bug by Xuan Fengnian, then it will be a total disaster!"

Mai Chengxing hesitated for a moment, nodded gently and sighed, "Hey, you have a point, when you can't take care of yourself. One can only find a way to preserve oneself as well"

After saying that, he added, "Tomorrow, we will try to find a way to contact Su Zhiyu, and see if we can find a breakthrough from her."

.....

The next day. A rumor suddenly came out among the people of Jinling.

It was said that a paranormal event had occurred at the Phoenix Hill Cemetery on the outskirts of the city, and that a security guard guarding the cemetery had been killed by an evil spirit last night.

However, this rumor was soon controlled in a very targeted manner, plus it was said to be too spiritual, so only some superstitious-minded middle-aged and elderly people would believe it, and young people heard the base

Ben all but scoffed.

In the morning, Ma Lan made breakfast at home. When Ye Chen and Xiao Churan came down to eat, she said very seriously at the table, "Churan, Ye Chen, you two must try to go out as little as possible in these two days, even if you have to go out for something. You must also come back before it gets dark!"

Xiao Churan looked surprised and asked, "Mom, what's wrong with you?"

Ma Lan said seriously, "I'm telling you, last night at Phoenix Hill Cemetery, someone was killed by a ghost! Even their brains were sucked out! It was said that when he died, he was bleeding from all seven orifices and had a big hole on top of his head, but it turned out to be an empty shell with nothing inside!"

When Xiao Churan heard this, she said with a helpless expression, "Mom, you are at least a university student. How can you believe such rumours? There are no ghosts in the world, they are all lies."

Ma Lan said in a serious manner, "How can this be a lie? It's the real thing! There were photos of it, but I don't know what happened, but the system deleted them. That photo was so scary that my back is still wet."

Xiao Changkun frowned and said, "There seems to be some people in my group discussing it, but I looked through the chat logs and there's no evidence of pictures or anything like that."

Xiao Churan laughed and said, "Even if there are photos, they are not necessarily credible, the computer synthesis technology is so advanced nowadays, any photo can be made."

I don't know what to think."

Ma Lan said fervently, "I'd rather believe it than not believe it. You two should go home early, there's nothing to lose if you go home early anyway, and you can spend more time with me at home."

Xiao Churan said helplessly, "But I have to keep an eye on the project recently, and I'll be busier and busier from now on."

Ma Lan shook her head helplessly. Looking at Ye Chen, who had not said anything, she instructed, "Good son-in-law, you have the ability, remember to pick up Churan at night in the next few days. She's not comfortable going home alone mum."

"Yes mum!"

Although Ye Chen hadn't spoken, he had already made a review in his head of what Ma Lan and Xiao Churan had talked about.

He thought that what Ma Lan said about this matter was not empty talk, it should be inseparable from that Xuan Fengnian.

It was just that ordinary people did not know about such things as compulsions. The place of the incident was in a cemetery, so it was logical to presume that it was an evil spirit that killed someone.

It seems that this Xuan Fengnian is really brutal, killing people just to feed his so-called compulsions.

If he himself waited for him to come to his door unmoved, there was no telling how many people would die under him in the meantime!

Thinking of this, he immediately sent a message to Chen Zekai: "Check if there is any record of a British Chinese named Xuan Fengnian entering the country, and check if there is any information on his stay in the hotel system in Jinling!"

Chapter 2893

When Richard Chen received the message, he immediately replied, "Young master, do you want me to find this person's photo and send someone out to search around for clues about him?"

"Don't!" Ye Chen hurriedly instructed: "This person is very dangerous, your men are definitely not his opponent, even those experts of the He family may not be his opponent.

Chen Zekai hurriedly asked him, "Young master, last night you asked us to track down the pair of grandparents and grandsons who went to Phoenix Mountain, and the strange death of the security guard at Phoenix Mountain Cemetery this morning should be related to this person, right?!"

"Right." Ye Chen replied, "So you

Don't tell anyone else, just check out the clues for me, don't let the wind out and let others go out to find him, that will only send them to their death.

"I know young master!

In the span of one - breakfast, Richard Chen had gotten Xuan Fengnian's immigration records.

The information, which included Xuan Fengnian's

Passport information, electronic photos, and the surveillance video left at customs when Xuan Fengnian entered the country.

However, according to him, there was no record of this Xuan Fengnian staying in a hotel inside the entire hotel system in Jinling.

This meant that this person had not stayed in a hotel in Jinling, so it was impossible to pinpoint his current whereabouts.

With this in mind, Ye Chen made up his mind to go directly to Buckingham Palace and meet with this Mak Chengxing.

If he cooperated honestly, he would let his grandchildren leave China alive on the grounds that he had not done much evil and had not helped the evil-doers.

But if they dare to help Xuan Fengnian hurt anyone in Jinling, then the two of them will never return to America in their lives!

Because of the rumours of ghosts, Ye Chen didn't let Xiao Churan drive himself to work, instead he drove and drove Xiao Churan there.

Xiao Churan originally did not want to bother Ye Chen, but after all, Ma Lan had given the word, so she did not dare Objection.

It had to be said that since Ma Lan had suffered some big losses and fallen for some evil tricks, she was indeed a better person than before and knew to care about Xiao Churan's safety.

Ye Chen dropped her off at the hotel under construction by the Empire Group, where construction was in full swing and thousands of workers were here, so I thought there would not be any safety problems.

When Xiao Churan was about to get out of the car, Ye Chen spoke up and reminded: "Wife, don't go home from work alone at night, when you are almost done, give me a call, I will drive over to pick you up.

Xiao Churan nodded and said somewhat apologetically, "Then I might be late today.

"It's okay." Ye Chen smiled faintly: "I'll pick you up no matter how late it is, remember to call me in advance so that you don't have to wait for me.

"Okay!" Xiao Churan smiled sweetly, "I'll get off first then!

After saying goodbye to Xiao Churan, Ye Chen drove straight to Buckingham

Chapter 2894

On the way, he called Richard Chan and asked him, "Old Chan, have they left Buckingham Palace yet?

Chen Zekai said: "Young master, they are having breakfast in the restaurant now. I see that they have already washed up and dressed, so they will probably leave directly after eating.

I'll be there in about ten minutes, so if they want to leave, you can help me hold them off.

Chen Zekai asked: "Young master, where do you want to meet them? Do you want me to arrange for security and bring them to my office?

Ye Chen instructed: "No, this will alert the snake, later you directly arrange waiters with universal room card into their rooms, casually rummage through their things, and then casually take something, and finally open the door, if they want to leave, you let people is their room was burglarized, let them rush to the room to confirm the damage.

Chen Zekai laughed: "Young master, or your idea is much better, I'll arrange it! Think to get such a show, certainly can drag enough for ten minutes!

At this moment, Mai Chengxing drank the last small cup of coffee, wiped his mouth, said to Mike: "All right, let's hurry up and leave, go to the Du family, and guard that Su Zhiyu in the vicinity.

Mai

He asked him, "Grandpa, are we going to follow that Su Zhiyu? We're not very good at stalking either.

If we see her and find a way to get a hair from her, I will be able to trace her movements in Jinling and find out where she has been recently for a longer period of time.

After a pause, Mac Chengxing added: "Hasn't she been missing for a while and badly injured, so I think she should have been with the mystery man that the Su family is looking for for such a long time, so as long as we find the place where she has stayed for the longest time recently, we will be very close to that mystery man!

Mike asked in amazement, "Grandpa, what kind of solution are you talking about? What's so amazing? !

Mike Chengxing said seriously, "These are all tracking methods in the Qi Men Dun Jia, you should learn the I Ching and Bagua well first, and in the future your grandfather and your father will naturally teach you the various methods of the Qi Men Dun Jia."

Mike nodded gently, inwardly full of anticipation.

So he hurriedly shoved half a piece of sliced bread, lumped it into his mouth and then said in a slurred voice, "Okay Grandpa Tai, let's go!

Mai Chengxing nodded and had just stood up when suddenly a waitress

He ran over and asked with a nervous look on his face, "Excuse me, you are the guest in room 1003, right?

Mai Chengxing asked curiously, "I am, what's wrong?"

The waiter said apologetically, "I'm so sorry! Our housekeeping aunt was just cleaning the room and found that the door to your room was ajar. She went in and found that your personal belongings had been tampered with, so it's possible that you may have suffered a theft, so please hurry back to your room to confirm if there is any damage to your property.

Mai Chengxing had never thought that he would accidentally stay in a shady hotel when he was staying in an internationally renowned five-star chain hotel.

When he heard the waiter's words, he didn't have any doubts at all and subconsciously exclaimed, "Oh no! Mike, help me back to my room!

Mai Chengxing had gone out this time, bringing with him quite a few good things passed down from his old ancestors, and he was going to secretly approach Su Zhiyu today, so there were quite a few things he couldn't use so he didn't bring them with him.

Among them, just a piece of feng shui compass from the Song Dynasty was worth a fortune!

Moreover, it had been handed down by the ancestors of the Mak family for nearly a thousand years, so there was no room for error!

With the help of Mike, Mai Chengxing hurried back to his room.

Chapter 2895

By now the room was a shambles.

Both his and Mike's suitcases had been opened and searched, and the feng shui compass, which he had wrapped in satin and placed in his suitcase, had disappeared.

He and Michael had exchanged some of the RMB and some emergency dollars when they came to China, and they were still in the suitcase.

He said to Mike, "The money is not missing, nor is anything else, but the compass is missing!

Although Mike was not a master of his art, he knew very well that the compass was a family heirloom of the Mak family, which was said to have been passed down to this day from the ancestor of the first generation of the Mak family who practiced feng shui metaphysics.

Not to mention how much it could be worth, the significance of this inheritance alone could not be measured in monetary terms.

What's more, this feng shui compass, because of the continuous enchantment of the ancestors over the generations, can already be described as a magic weapon, and using it to check feng shui and divide gold and set points is far more accurate than a normal compass!

Successive generations of Mai family heirs have relied on this compass to become feng shui masters, if this compass is lost

In the future, the Mai family heir's ability to read feng shui would also be greatly reduced.

So, he hurriedly said to Mai Chengxing, "Grandpa Tai, let's hurry up and call the police!

Mai Chengxing nodded his head and said, "Yes, call the police! Hurry up!

At that moment, Richard Chen walked in and said, "Don't be too nervous, I've already called the police.

The two grandchildren turned their heads to look at the man, and saw that he was dressed in a suit and did not look like an ordinary person, so Mak Chengxing asked, "This gentleman, I wonder if you are?

Chen Zekai was busy saying: "Oh, I forgot to introduce myself, my humble self, Chen Zekai, is the general manager of the Buckingham Palace Hotel.

He said with a shameful face, "I am really sorry and ashamed as the manager of the hotel for what happened.

When Michael heard that Richard Chen had called the police, he gave up the idea of calling the police.

At this point, Mac Chengxing had some difficulty in hiding his anger

I have stayed at your hotels around the world not once or twice!

Even the waiters are very disciplined in taking tips, they only take the cash that is placed on the bed, and don't touch any cash anywhere else!

"But, the only thing that happens in this hotel of yours is that there is a nasty incident of burglary! And to steal one of my most valuable family heirlooms! This is outrageous!"

Richard Chen smiled awkwardly and hurriedly apologised: "Aiya Mr. Mak, I'm really very, very sorry, I'm also surprised that such a thing could happen to our hotel, to be honest, this is an unprecedented first time since our hotel opened!"

He said, "Mr. Mak, I wonder if that family heirloom of yours is worth a lot of money? Could it be that someone has come to steal your family heirloom?"

With this kick, Chen Zekai immediately kicked the ball to Mai Chengxing's feet.

Chapter 2896

This was exactly what Ye Chen had taught him.

In Ye Chen's words, this move is called "the return of the curse".

You're questioning me? Fine, then I will directly question you in turn.

You accuse me of having bad security here, and I will in turn vaguely say that you might have been targeted, and as for who targeted you, you can think for yourself if you have ghosts in your heart.

And the funny thing is, even going into Mak Seung-xing's room to steal something, it was Chen Zekai who took a live video feed from his phone to show Ye Chen, who selected this compass.

Sure enough!

Mak Seung-hing was instantly caught off guard by Richard Chan's rhetorical question.

He also found the matter very strange.

Why did he steal it from himself?

Why did he choose to steal his own family's compass?

Who would take an old compass of unknown age and value if they didn't know what they were doing and would choose to take cash?

Thinking of this, the first person who came to Mai Chengxing's mind was surprisingly Xuan Fengnian.

He doubted that it could be Xuan Fengnian who had secretly stolen his ancestral compass?

This Xuan, surnamed Xuan, was originally

He was not good at feng shui secret arts, so he might have set his eyes on his family's ancestral compass in order to make up for his shortcomings in this area!

Thinking of this, Mai Chengxing did not dare to question Xuan Fengnian directly, so he could only hope for the police, so he hurriedly asked Chen Zekai: "May I ask how long it will take for the police to arrive?"

Chen Zekai looked at the time and said, "I guess three minutes at most, you can wait a bit longer.

Okay!"

Mai Chengxing could only nod his head in agreement.

Three minutes later, an imposing young man stepped into his room.

Chapter 2897

This man was Ye Chen, who had just arrived at Buckingham Palace.

Ye Chen stepped in, looked around the room, then focused his gaze on Mai Chengxing and asked, "This is Mr. Mai, right?"

Seeing that Ye Chen's eyebrows were full of heroism, Mai Chengxing thought that he was a plainclothes law enforcement officer, so he hurriedly said, "Hello officer, I am Mai Chengxing, I have a very important item that has been stolen!

Ye Chen nodded and said to Chen Zekai, who was beside him, and the other staff, "I need to investigate the scene, other relevant people should go out first."

Chen Zekai pretended that he did not know him, and busily said: "Okay.

After saying that, he greeted the other staff members and exited the room, closing the door behind him as he left.

In the room, only Ye Chen and Mai were left.

Cheng Xing's grandparents and grandchildren.

Seeing that Chen Zekai had closed the door, Mai Chengxing could not help but ask Ye Chen, ""Mr. Constable, are you the only one on your side who has gone to the police this time?""

Ye Chen looked at Mai Chengxing, his expression suddenly With a bit of coldness, he said:" Since there are no outsiders either, then I'll open up the sky and say something, I'm not a police officer, I've come to you because there are some things I want to ask you for a confirmation.

I'm not a police officer. You're not a police officer? Then who are you? Do you have my compass? !

Ye Chen said in a cold voice: "Still concerned about your compass? I'm telling you, the next question I'm going to ask, you'd better answer truthfully, or else not to mention the compass, even your life will remain in my hands!

A - side of Mike heard this, at once 怒斥说 : " I don't care

You are what you are, but please watch what you say! Otherwise, don't blame me for not being polite!

Ye Chen gave Mike a glance, and a finger directly pointed at the door of his head!

Immediately afterwards, a trace of aura blocked his central nerve, and Mike lost all control of his body without even being able to grunt, and his whole body was like a paraplegic, unable to move a bit.

Mike's expression was terrified and he tried to speak.

But he felt that he was unable to open his mouth!

Ye Chen didn't bother to pay attention to him, but looked at the horrified Mai Chengxing and said coldly: "Master Mai, I know your background and the purpose of your visit to Jinling, I even know that you met Xuan Fengnian at the Phoenix Hill Cemetery last night, so you'd better not play any tricks with me, or else I'll have both of your grandchildren stay at the Phoenix Hill Cemetery tomorrow!"

Chapter 2898

Ye Chen's words had struck the whole of Mai Chengxing like a thunderbolt!

Just now, with a single finger, Ye Chen had directly turned Mike into a living death, and this had completely shocked Mai Chengxing.

The strength that Ye Chen had just displayed was far beyond his own ability to match.

Now, Ye Chen had told him about his background and his meeting with Xuan Fengnian last night, which made Mai Chengxing even more nervous!

His eyes were incomparably tense as he stared at Ye Chen and asked, "Who the hell are you?"

Ye Chen sneered, "My surname is Ye. I have a single name, the character Chen."

Mai Chengxing blurted out, "I have never known you before, why are you secretly investigating and following me, and stealing my family compass?"

Ye Chen asked him rhetorically, "You are a feng shui master who is over a hundred years old, since you have settled in the United States for many years, what are you doing here in China at such an old age instead of retiring properly in the United States? You're also hanging out with Xuan Fengnian's kind of sinful beast, aren't you afraid

Smashing the reputation and signboard of your Mai family for nearly a thousand years?!"

With a slightly embarrassed expression, Mai Chengxing stammered, "Old man old man old man did not mix with Xuan Fengnian! Old man's hands have never been stained with blood either!"

Ye Chen asked again, "Then why did you go to Phoenix Hill Cemetery to meet him last night? Also, the security guard who died at Phoenix Hill Cemetery, haven't you seen him before? Did his death have anything to do with you?"

Mai Chengxing said offhandedly, "The reason why I went to see him was that he had something to discuss with me, and I did not want to have a grudge against this person. As for the security guard, he was already dead when I got there, so naturally I had nothing to do with him!"

Ye Chen stared at him and asked, "What exactly did he want to discuss with you?"

Mai Chengxing said in a cold voice: "This is a private matter between me and him, it has nothing to do with you!"

Ye Chen sneered, "Old man, it is reasonable to say that someone as old as you should not be so tough-mouthed. I only

It's because you're old that I don't want to put some tricks on you, but if you're thinking of relying on your old age, then I won't be polite!"

Mak Seung-Hsing was panicking, but he said, "You're unreasonable! I have no grudge against you, what does it matter to you who I met or what I talked about?"

?? Ye Chen said with some impatience, "Don't bite my words here, I can tell you clearly, if you don't tell me clearly about Xuan Fengnian and his specific movements, then don't blame me for not respecting the old and the young!"

Mai Chengxing grunted, "You're not a law enforcement agency, so naturally, I won't tell you."

"Not telling me?" Ye Chen snorted coldly and said in a stern voice, "Since you have already met him yesterday, you know that his native parasite has to feed on human brains, if you don't catch him one day earlier, he may kill more innocent people, if you don't tell the exact truth. If you don't tell the truth, you'll be harbouring and conniving! For every person Xuan Fengnian kills next, you are responsible!"

Chapter 2899

"What a joke!" Mai Chengxing said arrogantly, "I have stood up straight and acted right all my life, I have never done anything harmful to God, and you can't even think of putting someone else's shit on my head! Even if it comes before the police all over the world, old man is definitely innocent!?"

Ye Chen sneered with contempt on his face, "I know what old things like you think, people like you, what you most often hang on your lips must be 'each one sweep the snow in front of the door, don't care about the frost on others', you think that just because someone else killed someone, it has nothing to do with you? Let me tell you, with others, you may be able to muddle through with your bastard thinking, but with me, you are as hateful as the murderer!"

At this point, Ye Chen coldly shouted, "I'll put my words here today, if Xuan Fengnian kills another person in Jinling, I won't bury you in the Phoenix Hill Cemetery, because it's too cheap to just let you die, then I'll put your grandparents and grandchildren in a dog farm and in a dog cage for the rest of your lives!"

When Ye Chen said these words. The whole person did not hide his killing intent in the slightest, and his stern eyes made Mai Chengxing inwardly fearful!

Although he did not know Ye Chen's background, he did not doubt Ye Chen's words in the slightest at this moment.

As he was nervous, he could not help but open his mouth to explain, "I don't know exactly where Xuan Fengnian is either. This person's whereabouts are erratic and he keeps to himself, and he was the one who contacted me yesterday to go to Phoenix Mountain and asked me to go there."

Ye Chen said in a cold voice, "In that case. You should have his contact information, then find a way to ask him out for me."

Mai Chengxing couldn't help but say, "This matter has nothing to do with me, I don't want to get involved, if you have any grudge against him, that's between the two of you, please don't involve me in it either, at worst we will leave China tonight and have nothing more to do with it."

Mai Chengxing had seen what Xuan Fengnian was capable of, so he did not want to make an enemy of him at all.

If he really helped this young man to find out the whereabouts of Xuan Fengyan, but it turned out that this young man was no match for Xuan Fengnian, then not only would this young man die, but he would also be in a bad situation.

Since he was a child, his most abiding credo in life was to stay out of the way. He did not want to get involved in anything that did not concern him, so he did not want to get involved in the feud between Ye Chen and Xuan Fengnian.

Ye Chen saw that this old fellow was too oily to be involved. He laughed coldly and said: "No wonder when China was in trouble, all of you who knew about feng shui ran off abroad! As the saying goes, it's you unscrupulous people who don't care about anything! What about national righteousness and good morals, they are all bullshit in your eyes!"

Mai Chengxing was reprimanded by Ye Chen, and although his face was a bit bashful, he still said with a stiff tongue, "As the saying goes, when the tree falls, the rats scatter. Back then, so many people ran away to foreign countries, also people

Each has his own ambition, there is no talk of who is right or who is wrong, let alone. Today is a society under the rule of law, as long as everything follows the law and within the framework of the law, you are a good citizen!"

After saying that, Mai Chengxing looked at Ye Chen and said in a stern voice: "On the contrary, it's you! If you dare to restrict my personal freedom, then you know the law and violate it!"

Ye Chen really did not expect this old thing to be so stubborn, he had met him once before. He did not look like a bad person, but today he found out that this old man was not a bad person who hurt people openly, but he was far from being a good person. And once this guy got down to business, he was still an old bastard who was selfish to the extreme, full of thoughts of getting himself out in one piece, as for the lives and deaths of others, he wouldn't look at it!

So, Ye Chen nodded with a cold face and said indifferently, "Interesting, you are afraid to mind your own business, I love to mind my own business, so if you fall into my hands, there is no possibility of getting out in one piece, I will take you to the dog farm first, after the tour, you can come back and tell me if you want to get involved!"

Mai Chengxing was furious and stomped his feet, but seeing Ye Chen's unwavering look, he was more or less afraid in his heart. So his tone softened and he said with a bit of a pleading tone, "Mr. Ye, I'm old and I don't have many years left to live. Why do you have to make things so difficult for me?"

Ye Chen snorted contemptuously, "Come on, save your breath, I'll put my words here, as long as Xuan Fengnian kills one more person. I want you to die in Jinling!"

Chapter 2900

Ye Chen's unquestionable tone and unyielding threat made Mai Chengxing very nervous.

In his life, his greatest fear was to get into trouble, and the first thing he did was to slip away at the first sign of trouble, which was the true reflection of his 70 to 80 years of adulthood.

If he hadn't been so impressed by Lai's chance, he wouldn't have come to China to risk his life at a hundred years old.

But now, seeing that he had provoked such a ruthless character as Ye Chen, there was only one thing on his mind, and that was to hurry up and withdraw.

So, his tone softened and he looked at Ye Chen and pleaded: "Mr. Ye, I really don't know that Xuan Fengnian well, and I'm old and have a lot of problems, so don't make things difficult for me.

Ye Chen didn't look at him, but said loudly through the door: "Old Chen, prepare the car and send Mr. Mai to visit Hong Wu's dog farm!"

Okay young master! Chen Zekai, who had been standing outside the door, agreed without hesitation when he heard this.

Mai Chengxing's face turned white with fear and was about to continue begging for mercy when Ye Chen's mobile phone suddenly rang.

When Ye Chen saw that the call was from the United States, he knew that it must be Lai Qing Hua Lai Lao

Sir, so he pressed the answer button straight away.

On the other end of the line, Lai Qing Hua's voice came through and asked, "Young Master Ye, I wonder how things are going on your end? Have you caught that Xuan Fengnian?"

Ye Chen smiled lightly and said: "I am grateful that your elder is still thinking about it, Xuan Fengnian has not been found yet, I am looking for a breakthrough from the others.

Once Lai Qing Hua heard this, he couldn't help but ask, "The other people Young Master Ye is talking about should be Mai Chengxing, right?"

'Right.

Ye Chen said: "That's him.

At this moment, Mai Chengxing's expression instantly became horrified.

He you couldn't hear Lai Qing Hua's voice on the phone, but when Ye Chen said earlier that he was looking for a breakthrough from the others, he knew that the others Ye Chen was talking about were himself.

And now, Ye Chen had said that it was him, did the person on the phone also know him? !

When he thought of this, he thought to himself nervously, "I didn't expect that I would have a mutual acquaintance with this Ye, I wonder who this person really is?"

Just then, Lai Qing Hua said to Ye Chen over the phone, "Young Master Ye,

I know him very well, he is not bad in nature, but he is opportunistic by nature and lacks some commitment, so if anything upsets you, young master Ye, please take care of him.

Ye Chen looked at the nervous-looking Mai Chengxing, turned on the speaker and said, " Mr. Lai, your old friend is not simply lacking in commitment, I already plan to leave him in Jinling for a good reflection.

Lai Qing Hua exclaimed:" Young Master Ye, what's going on here? Can you let me have a word with Old Mac?"

Ye Chen said blandly: "I have the speakers on, you can say whatever you want.

Lai Qinghua blurted out, "Lao Mai! What have you done to offend Young Master Ye? !

!" said Mai Chengxing subconsciously: "Brother Lai? ! How do you know this Ye Chen? !

Lai Qing Hua said vaguely, "Young Master Ye is a friend of mine who has forgotten his youth.

I don't want to get involved in his affair with Xuan Fengnian, so he should let me and Mac leave Jinling for the sake of the two of us knowing each other for many years!"
