

Ye Chen 3091

Chapter 3091

Xiao Weiwei's accusation made Old Lady Xiao's legs go weak and she almost sat down on her buttocks.

She had never dreamed that the precious person who had brought her family back from the dead was Ye Chen, whom she had always despised and had always wanted to seek revenge on him!

This reality, in the old lady's heart, was as shocking as the Big Bang of the universe.

Because, she thought. Xiao Weiwei's noble person could have been anyone in this world, but the most unlikely one was Ye Chen.

However, the truth of the matter was just like that.

The one who saved Xiao Weiwei from the trap of selling her body and gave the entire Shangmei Etiquette Company to Xiao Weiwei to take care of was him.

At this point, Old Mrs. Xiao was panicked and scared, and deep down she realized: "The tone of voice I used when I spoke to Ye Chen just now was just a bit too arrogant, so I don't have to ask to know that Ye Chen must be particularly angry ..... Will he just kick Weiwei out of Shangmei Etiquette Company because he's angry with me? The hopes of our family of four now rest on her alone! If Wei Wei loses her job, then we will be put back into shape again! Wouldn't I have to go to the supermarket to pull plastic bags for customers again?"

The moment she thought of the consequences of offending Ye Chen. Old Mrs. Xiao was terrified to the extreme, and her expression immediately became very flattering and self-condemning, lamenting guiltily, "Ai ..... Ye Chen ..... It's all grandma's fault for being blind, grandma really didn't expect it. You actually managed to repay your grievances with virtue and helped Weiwei and us so much ....."

The old lady Xiao choked with tears and said, "You helped us with your virtue, but I, a bad old woman, even came here to bark at you on your happy birthday, I'm really blind ..... you don't care about the small people, for the sake of grandma who is already so old, don't be ordinary with grandma, okay? Okay?"

Ye Chen looked at Old Lady Xiao's instant change of posture and could not help but sigh in his heart: "This old lady has no other skills, but her acting skills are really great, she switches between happiness and sadness instantly, she is even better than a veteran actor! If she could devote a little bit of her mind to serious matters, the Xiao Group would not have ended up in such a state."

However, after all, Old Mrs. Xiao was old, and Ye Chen did not want to drive her to extinction and be cold to the end, and since she had given in, he naturally had to give her a step.

So, he said indifferently, "All right, after all, you are Churan's grandmother, so I don't want to be too hard on you, but from now on, you should remember that we should not cross the river. You and your family, don't come looking for any more trouble or discomfort from our family, otherwise, I will not be polite!"

As soon as Old Mrs. Xiao heard these words. At once, she let out a long breath.

Now, she finally realized that the basic security of life for her family of four was all given by Ye Chen, and if she was still unrepentant, I was afraid that the family would have to starve and beg for food in the streets.

So, she hastily nodded her head like a chicken pecking rice and promised, "Don't worry, Ye Chen. Grandma will definitely not find you guys any more uncomfortable in the future!"

Having said that, she at least smiled fawningly and said, "Ye Chen, we are a family after all, there were just some unexplained misunderstandings in the past. You are my son-in-law, Churan is my granddaughter, Chang Kun and Ma Lan are my sons and daughters-in-law, we are actually the closest relatives!"

At this moment, Old Mrs. Xiao's face was full of smiles, and she said in a somewhat subdued tone, "Look, Grandma, you have made amends and apologized. It's time for our two families to reconcile. It's your birthday today, so on this happy day, the two families can get together for a meal and completely resolve their differences, don't you think?"

After hearing her words, Ye Chen said with a cold smile on his face, "There's no need to clear the air, I don't want to have anything to do with you guys anymore. The same goes for my family, so you shouldn't be playing this game."

Saying that, Ye Chen added a serious warning in order to completely put an end to the old lady's thoughts, "What happened today. As well as the matter of me giving Shangmei Etiquette Company to Wei Wei to take care of, if you dare to reveal it to Chu Ran, or my father-in-law and mother-in-law, then sorry. I will take it all back!"

Chapter 3092

When Old Lady Xiao heard this, her heart thudded.

She knew that Ye Chen had sensed her intentions.

To the old lady, after she had learned that Ye Chen was the one who was valuable to Xiao Weiwei, she realised that not only was Ye Chen not a tyrant, but his ability and influence were even far above her previous perception. After realising this, the old lady began to think in her heart of taking the opportunity to repair her relationship with Ye Chen's family, so that the benefits she could get in the future would definitely be much more than what she had now.

But she didn't expect that this was what she had in mind. Ye Chen not only rejected her, but even blocked her chances of finding Xiao Churan, Xiao Changkun and even Ma Lan to save her country.

At this moment, she was inwardly regretting a million things: "Ai! If I had known that Ye Chen could be so capable, why should I have kept targeting him and the four members of their family in the first place? Now that I've offended all of their family, it looks like there's not much chance to further repair the relationship in the future ....."

Ye Chen saw Old Lady Xiao's strange expression and did not say a word. Then he questioned, "Did you understand what I just said?"

"Heard and understood ....." How could Old Mrs. Xiao dare to disobey Ye Chen, after all, Xiao Weiwei's current job was the survival guarantee for her family of four, and if she offended Ye Chen, there would definitely be no good end.

So, she could only nod resentfully and said, "Okay ..... I know ....."

Ye Chen nodded in satisfaction and spoke, "It's good that you know, remember what I just said, from now on, well water does not offend river water!"

After saying that, he looked at Xiao Weiwei again and said, "You take her back."

Xiao Weiwei nodded gently and said in a good manner, "Okay brother-in-law. I'll take Grandma back now."

Then, she helped Old Mrs. Xiao and spoke, "Grandma, let's go home."

Old Mrs. Xiao was like a defeated rooster, nodding her head gently.

Seeing this, Ye Chen directly closed the courtyard door and stepped back to the villa.

Outside the door, Old Mrs. Xiao had just turned around to leave. She then saw the Hermes bag Xiao Weiwei was carrying in her hand, the bag was not large and there was a Hermes box inside.

So she subconsciously asked, "Weiwei. Why did you still buy Hermes things? How can our family afford such luxury goods in this economic situation now!"

Xiao Weiwei immediately said in a bit of panic: "Ah, this ..... grandma ..... is something I bought for someone else, so you should leave it alone ....."

"Bought it for someone else?!" Old Mrs. Xiao suddenly said in exasperation, "The whole family is saving money now. I was hoping that your father and brother would get better sooner and be able to go out to work to subsidize the family, but how good are you, you've just earned some money and you've started buying luxury items to give away? Are we the kind of family that can give away Hermes at the drop of a hat?"

As she said that, she reached over and snatched the bag away, pulling out a small ticket straight away and exclaiming, "Oh my god! Almost $10,000 for a belt?! That's crazy, isn't it? You can barely eat, and you're still here poorly burning the bag, hurry up and return it to me!"

Chapter 3093

---

Xiao Weiwei did not expect that the belt she wanted to buy to give to Ye Chen would anger her grandmother again.

Once she saw this temper of her grandmother that wanted to control and decide everything, she also got angry and said offhandedly, "Every cent I spend now is my own hard-earned money, what I want to buy is my freedom, you have no right to interfere!"

"What?! I have no right to interfere?!" Old Mrs. Xiao had just eaten at Ye Chen's place and was disliked back by Ye Chen for all her good manners, so she was very depressed in her heart, and when she saw that even Xiao Weiwei dared to talk back to her, it immediately ignited her anger.

She then stopped in her tracks and angrily rebuked, "Don't forget that I have always been the head of this family, before, now and always! This is a difficult time for our family, and every penny must be spent on a good cause! If you are so wasteful, you are putting the life and death of our family in jeopardy!"

Xiao Weiwei said angrily, "I used to let you take charge of everything because you were in charge of everything in the family, but everything in the family was lost in your hands! Now that everything is back to zero and I've started with nothing, why should I let you be in charge of the money I've worked so hard to earn?"

Xiao Weiwei's voice rose a bit as she spoke, "From now on, I will be the one to decide my affairs! As for the money I earn, I will take out a portion of it for your living expenses, as well as for my father and my brother's rehabilitation, and every cent of the rest will be at my own disposal, you have no right to interfere!"

Old Mrs. Xiao was furious, gritting her teeth and accusing, "You're really wrong! Are you going to follow the example of that heartless Xiao Churan and turn your back on me?"

Xiao Weiwei said with tears in her eyes, "There is nothing wrong with following my sister Churan's example, she did not listen to you, but she is much happier than me now!"

If you are willing to accept it, then do as I say, I will give you monthly living expenses from now on, and you don't care about the rest, nor do I have the right to do so, but if you don't accept it, then I will go out tomorrow and rent a room. It's not a problem at all!"

When Old Mrs. Xiao saw Xiao Weiwei's determined attitude, she panicked and blurted out, "Aiya Weiwei, what are you talking about ..... we have come this far as a family of four, we have suffered all kinds of hardships and seen all kinds of waves, how can we just break up?"

At this point, she immediately assured, "Weiwei, don't worry, from now on Grandma will definitely not interfere with your personal decisions, you can just peacefully earn money outside and leave the rest of the family matters to Grandma!"

Xiao Weiwei immediately said, "Good! Then it's a deal!"

Old Mrs. Xiao was busy saying, "Fine, fine, it's a deal, it's a deal!"

She smiled and asked, "Weiwei, how much will you give me for living expenses in a month? You said I'm getting old, I need to eat a lot of good food to replenish my body, the food standard must be a little bit more, how about this, you give me 6,000 yuan a month, this is my living expenses with your father and your brother, in addition you give me an extra 2,000 yuan as your father and your brother's rehabilitation expenses, a total of 8,000 yuan a month, what do you think?"

Naturally, Xiao Weiwei knew very well that one month, three people, and eight thousand yuan for living expenses was a bit too high a standard.

However, she didn't bother to argue much with Old Mrs. Xiao, after all, as long as she could make Old Mrs. Xiao willingly give up the idea of taking control of herself, this would already be a huge victory.

Chapter 3094

As for the 8,000 yuan, although it is a little bit more, the company's income is very good now, and I already get more than 10,000 yuan every month.

Moreover, when the company is developing well, the profit is naturally high, and in the future, after the company has filed its tax return every quarter, there will be a small portion of its own commission in the net profit, so when you do the calculation, you can get 300,000 to 400,000 a year, or even more.

So, giving the old lady 8,000 a month is not a big burden.

What's more, her father and brother would be able to recover in a month or two, and they would then be able to find a job to support their family, which would relieve their own pressure.

So she nodded and said, "8,000 is fine, but remember your promise not to interfere with my life and my freedom anymore! Also, after my father and my brother can work, I will only pay my family three thousand dollars a month! If you don't agree, I'll move out!"

Old Mrs. Xiao assured her repeatedly, "Okay, grandma will definitely not interfere with your freedom in the future!"

Xiao Weiwei took the Hermes belt back from her hands and looked at it in her hands for half a day.

She originally wanted to quietly put it in the mailbox of Ye Chen's house and then tell Ye Chen on WeChat.

However, her grandmother was around now, and she did not want to do this in front of her grandmother.

Moreover, Ye Chen's attitude just now had really made her realise how distant Ye Chen felt from herself and her family.

It occurred to her that Ye Chen should only be helping himself out in passing, but at the same time, in his heart, he kept a distance from himself at all times.

Since this is the case, I am afraid that if I send him a birthday present, I will make a mistake and turn him off.

Thinking of this, she sighed quietly and said to Old Mrs. Xiao, "Come on, Grandma, let's go home."

Old Mrs. Xiao nodded resentfully and followed behind Xiao Weiwei as she walked towards her villa, while sighing and complaining, "Weiwei, I'm not talking about you, why didn't you tell Grandma earlier about Ye Chen helping you? If you had told grandma earlier, grandma wouldn't have had to run into this nail ....."

Xiao Weiwei walked ahead, looking at the Hermes belt in her hand, and said distractedly, "Brother-in-law won't let me tell anyone."

"Ai ....." Old Mrs. Xiao sighed and sighed, "This Ye Chen is still wary of us at every turn in his heart ....."

Hearing this, Xiao Weiwei's heart felt even harder, so she took two quick steps on her feet and went back to the villa where her family lived first.

The two of them arrived at the bedroom upstairs, where Xiao Changqian and Xiao Hailong, who were lying on the bed, had long been a bit impatient, while Xiao Hailong asked Old Mrs. Xiao with an expectant face, "Grandma, have you seen Ye Chen?"

Old Mrs. Xiao said with a despondent expression, "I have seen ....."

Xiao Hailong was busy asking, "Then what does it say? Is this guy really about to burst into flames?"

Old Mrs. Xiao let out a lamenting sigh and lamented, "What kind of thunderstorm is there? What a whimsy, it's impossible for Ye Chen to burst the thunder ....."

"Why ah grandma?" Xiao Hailong was amazed and hurriedly said, "Isn't this all your analysis? You said something about a leaf knowing an autumn, and also said something about the market being gated before, and then said something about the door being open now, and you clicked on a whole bunch of four-word idioms, why are you now saying that I am whimsical?"

Old Mrs. Xiao said angrily, "What's wrong with me saying a few idioms? It's not a crime to speak idioms!"

Xiao Changqian said in a roundabout way, "Mum, don't be so mean to Hai Long, he grew up naughty and didn't read much, he can count the number of idioms he knows with four words on his two hands, so he can't compare with you."

After saying this, she saw Mrs. Xiao's expression soften a bit and asked hurriedly, "Mom, you should tell us. Why is it impossible for that son of a bitch Ye Chen to explode?"

Old Mrs. Xiao sighed and said quietly, "In the end, I was wrong in my estimation of this matter, this kid Ye Chen really has some ability.

Chapter 3095

---

When Xiao Changqian and Xiao Hailong heard this, the two of them, father and son, lay on the bed and froze for more than a minute.

Xiao Hailong was still a bit incredulous as he opened his mouth and asked, "Grandma ....." you shouldn't be joking with me and teasing me, right?"

"I do hope it's a joke!" Old Mrs. Xiao said resentfully, "I never dreamed that the noble man for Weiwei would be him, if I could choose, I would rather choose any man than him ah."

Xiao Hailong was full of doubts, "But ....." but why would Ye Chen help Weiwei? It is reasonable to say that he has a grudge against us and is eager to see us laugh, so how could he help us?"

Xiao Weiwei spoke up, "Brother, you should not judge a gentleman's belly with a small man's heart, brother-in-law did have a grudge against us before, but that was also because we had found trouble with brother-in-law and his family time and time again, brother-in-law had never taken the initiative to find fault with us!"

Xiao Hailong said sullenly, "We are looking for trouble with them because they are always against us, let's say Xiao Churan. They didn't even agree to move to their villa, and they even put her in a guardhouse!"

Xiao Weiwei reprimanded in a stern tone, "Why haven't you figured it out by now? Don't you realise that we've been wrong all along? Since Sister Chu Ran is unwilling to divorce Ye Chen, who are we to force her? Freedom of marriage and freedom of love, this is what the country has been saying for years, why can't we respect her choice?"

"There's also the matter of Sister Churan setting up her own business, don't you still know clearly in your heart why she wanted to set up her own business in the first place?"

"Sister Churan took the initiative and got the contract with the Empire Group, so by rights Grandma should have kept her promise and given her the position of director, but what have you done? You bad-mouthed Sister Churan in front of Grandma, and slandered her for having an affair with Zhang Wenhao, and finally fooled Grandma into giving you the directorship.

Xiao Hailong's face turned red and black, he wanted to refute something but couldn't find a point to refute, so he said stiffly, "Let's leave this matter aside for now, let's just say that after they moved to the new villa, a family of 4 lives in such a big villa, shouldn't they invite their grandmother there to enjoy themselves?"

"On what grounds?" Xiao Weiwei said, "To be honest, Grandma has never treated them well, she has never given them any favours, she even makes them feel uncomfortable every now and then and even kicks them out of the house, why should they invite Grandma to their villa? Put yourself in their shoes, if you were in their shoes, would you do that?"

Although Old Mrs. Xiao was very upset in her heart, she couldn't refute directly, after all, Xiao Weiwei was now the pillar of the family, and she had almost turned against herself just now, so she didn't dare to confront her now, so she just sat on the side like an aggrieved person and didn't say anything.

Xiao Hailong was speechless by Xiao Weiwei and said with a red face, "Then our mother's revenge is always understood, right? He sent our mother to the black coal kiln, can you forgive him for that?"

Xiao Weiwei asked, "Then tell me why Ye Chen sent our mother to the black coal kiln?"

Xiao Hailong was speechless.

In fact, he knew very well in his heart that this matter at the beginning boiled down to Mom and Dad having ill intentions towards Ye Chen's family, and that they had joined forces with others to set a trap for Ma Lan, only that they had not expected to be cracked by Ye Chen.

So, in the end, Mom was to blame for what happened, and it was pointless to wash one's hands of the matter.

Chapter 3096

Xiao Weiwei said: "Brother, you are also almost 30 years old, do not look at the problem now still like a child, you have to distinguish right from wrong, recognize the reality!"

Xiao Weiwei said with a bit of sorrow: "Our family has long been different from the past, the current situation, when you and Dad recovered, you both must go out to find a job to support the family, if you are still so immature, still so lack of sense of right and wrong, how will you get a foothold in society? You also need to start a family in the future, also need to establish a career, also need to have children to pass on the family ah! You can't be as confused as you are now, right?"

Xiao Weiwei's words directly hit the biggest pain deep inside Xiao Hailong's heart.

He also knew very well that he had always been just a straw man, not being able to do anything and not having enough to eat anything.

In the past, with the halo of the Xiao family above his head, he was considered to have no worries about food and drink, and could barely be considered a rich second generation.

But now, everything has gone to zero.

In the future, he does not have any aura to rely on, and there is no mountain to sit on, if you continue to muddle along, it is likely to be the same as those 40 or 50-year-old street yo-yo who can not find a date, wasting their lives.

He suddenly remembered Wang Baoqiang's movie called Mr. Tree, in which Wang Baoqiang played the role, it seems like some magical realism, but in real life, you can often see such people, you can even say, there are such people everywhere.

Poor, pathetic, and hopeless.

Thinking of this, Xiao Hailong's heart was suddenly very uncomfortable, and he realized at this time that he simply could not see where his future was, his future, was bleak.

He thought desperately in his heart, "My sister now, with the help of Ye Chen, is considered to have a career, and also a career with a bright future ....."

"But what about me?"

"Xiao's group is no more, when I recover, what can I do?"

"I also have not learned any professional skills, no skills, and also never looked for a job outside, not even a good resume, how can I find a job in the future? What kind of job can I find?"

"Will I just be eliminated from society?"

"And I'm so old, I don't even have a date, and now my family is not doing well, if I can't even find a decent job, how can I find a date? To really have been bachelor, to 40 years old when this life has no chance to turn over ....."

The more Xiao Hailong thought about it, the more desperate he became, and when his despair reached the extreme, he couldn't control it and cried alone, choking while crying: "What can I do in the future ah I ....."

Xiao Changqian, who saw Xiao Hailong's appearance, could not help but sigh and said, "Okay, let's not talk about this, your mother was really our fault in the first place. Give us some leeway ....."

Said, he looked at Xiao Hailong, consoled: "Hailong ah, you do not like a woman in that cry, and after the body is well, go to a serious class, really can not, we send couriers together, send delivery can also earn a few thousand a month, as long as you are willing to suffer, hard work, we can always find a way to live! "

Xiao Hailong cried and nodded.

Xiao Changqian then said: "When the time comes, ah, you save some money yourself, Dad also help you save some, also let your sister help a little, to put together a few hundred thousand bride price, you will be entrusted to say a daughter-in-law, no matter what, can also give our family a back!"

Chapter 3097

Xiao Changqian's words didn't really comfort Xiao Hailong.

On the contrary, what he said was too pragmatic, which immediately made Xiao Hailong despair about his future life.

He had always been pretentious and always felt that he would definitely become a great big shot in the future, and even his future wife would have to be a first-class woman, not only with top-notch looks and a perfect body, but also with a strong family history and an overwhelming background.

That's why he was so intent on pursuing Dong Ruolin and becoming the Dong family's son-in-law.

But now, his father's words made him realize that he has no relationship with a woman like Dong Ruolin in the future.

I'm afraid I can only be a blue-collar worker who works hard to earn money, and I'm afraid I'll have a hard time finding a woman of my choice, and I may even have to pay a high bride price to get a wife.

According to this blueprint to conceive their own future, Xiao Hailong felt that his future is simply a gloomy, just like falling into a black hole is no different.

So, he cried more fiercely.

As he cried, Xiao Changqian's heart also felt very painful.

He wanted to help his son, but he knew very well that his own future would not be much easier than his son.

The only good thing was that he had at least gotten married and had a pair of children, while Xiao Hailong might not even be able to get married in the future if he didn't work hard.

So, he also could not help but lament, and the whole person was much more disheveled.

Sensing the extreme depression of the two, Xiao Weiwei rubbed her temples and spoke, "I'm going to the kitchen to cook."

After saying that, she fled and walked out of the bedroom with quick steps.

Originally, she still wanted to find the opportunity to give Ye Chen's belt to the mailbox at his door, but, once she thought of her family's current downtrodden appearance, she couldn't help but gush a strong inferiority complex deep inside.

After thinking about it, she still decided to go to the store tomorrow to return that belt, from now on, down-to-earth efforts to make money.

Meanwhile, Ye Chen returned to the villa living room, his wife and father-in-law and mother-in-law were still busy together in the kitchen.

Just now the old lady Xiao in the courtyard door together with the noise, they simply did not hear any sound, which also let Ye Chen relieved.

However, I think with today's play, old lady Xiao and Xiao Changqian, Xiao Hailong, the two masters, the future can certainly be completely calm.

This family, also Xiao Weiwei is considered to know the mistakes can change, Ye Chen with a hand to help her, is also considered to be the most benevolent.

As for the remaining three people in the Xiao family, Ye Chen did not want to take care of them, as long as they do not come looking for trouble, is dead or alive and he does not have any relationship.

Half of the afternoon, Xiao Churan and her parents worked together to make a large table of delicious food.

Xiao Churan brought Ye Chen to the dining room, the dining table set a variety of a total of twelve dishes.

Ye Chen really did not expect that the three of them had cooked so many dishes and said in surprise: "Churan, Dad, Mom. There are only four of us, is it too wasteful to cook so many dishes, and how hard it must be for you to cook so many dishes."

Xiao Churan wiped the beads of sweat on her forehead and said with a smile, "The dishes look like a lot, but they don't look like a lot when you eat them, and it's a birthday dinner for you, so it's natural to be grand, and it's not hard work at all."

Xiao Changkun smiled and said, "Ye Chen ah, let's drink some?"

Ye Chen nodded and said, "Then of course I have to drink with you, I will go to the storage room to get the wine."

Chapter 3098

Ma Lan said, "Ye Chen, by the way, bring a bottle of red wine over, Chu Ran and I will also drink with you."

"Okay." Ye Chen agreed and asked Xiao Churan, "Wife. Can you drink?"

Xiao Churan nodded and said with a smile, "I have to drink even if I can't, but if we both drink, we won't be able to drive to the concert later."

Ye Chen said, "It's okay, I have a way to metabolize all the alcohol in a short time."

Xiao Churan laughed helplessly: "You just blow it off, and metabolize the alcohol, you know that it takes more than ten hours to metabolize the alcohol, drinking and not driving, this is a matter of principle, you can't just because you are good at drinking, you can't take the risk."

Ye Chen can actually use aura to metabolize all the alcohol, but he also knew that his wife would not believe him, in that case, he did not have to explain too much.

So, he then smiled and said, "Or the wife is right, drinking is not driving, let's do this in a while, let's drink first, and use the phone to call a car when we go to the concert."

"That's more like it!" Xiao Churan laughed: "not to drive today is good, Gu Qiuyi's concert at least tens of thousands of people, then the entire venue parking must be very troublesome, we might as well take a taxi, and after the concert, you can walk back, from the venue to our home, it is estimated that 30 to 40 minutes to walk back, just as a walk? "

Ye Chen nodded and smiled: "Okay, listen to you."

Xiao Changkun at this time hastily and cheekily laughed: "Aiya good son-in-law, later you go down remember to take two bottles of good Maotai, I crave those Maotai for many days!"

Ye Chen laughed: "Good, just take the best Maotai!"

Ma Lan said: "Ye Chen, our family's best Maotai are hundreds of thousands of dollars a bottle, it's too wasteful to give Xiao Changkun to drink, why don't you take a bottle of the best Maotai for yourself, and then just give him a bottle of the most inferior."

Xiao Changkun was depressed and protested, "Ma Lan, what do you mean by that? It's all in the stomach, into whose stomach is not the stomach, why into my stomach is a waste?"

Ma Lan said, "Go, go, go, go, go to the bathroom and take a good look in the mirror! Take a good look at your old face! Just like you, you deserve to drink hundreds of thousands of bottles of Maotai? If you drank hundreds of thousands of Maotai wine, the news spread, Maotai wine stocks will immediately fall tomorrow morning!"

"You ....." Xiao Changkun anxiously just threw his hands, jumped twice in place, said angrily: "This stupid mouth is really too damaging! Piss me off you!"

Ma Lan said seriously: "I'm not damaging you, I'm telling the truth, people say that a good horse can only be matched with a good saddle, you are at best a donkey pulling the mill, not even a saddle, at best a donkey sleeve! So you do not drink so expensive Maotai wine, go to the supermarket at the door to buy a bottle of more than ten dollars of two pot head, fully afford you!"

Xiao Changkun covered his heart and said to Ye Chen and Xiao Churan: "See, today is Ye Chen's birthday, but your mother is trying to kill me alive! Maybe in the future, Ye Chen's birthday is my Xiao Changkun's death anniversary, good son-in-law, sorry, Dad gave you a hard time!"

Xiao Churan was so helpless that she said, "Oh mom, you should stop talking about it. Why are you always nagging him?"

Xiao Changkun's eyes lit up and he said excitedly, "Yes! Ma Lan! You said my old face is not worthy of drinking hundreds of thousands of dollars of Maotai wine, so does your old face deserve hundreds of thousands of dollars of skin care products? Don't forget, we are two people! If I, Xiao Changkun, am the donkey that pulls the mill, then you, Ma Lan, are the mule that humped the goods, who is better than who?"

Ma Lan felt greatly humiliated and cursed angrily, "Damn you old mule fart! How can you compete with me with that wimp look? Look at your old face, wrinkled like a shaggy dog, which is so tender and white and smooth like me? How dare you say you're half a catty and half a catty with me?"

Xiao Changkun was furious and looked at Ye Chen in anger, and said, "Look, I said you gave her such expensive skin care products is pure waste, that skin care products on the dog's face, even more suitable than touching her face, you should have listened to me in the first place, directly change a set of fake to her, anyway, she this old hat can not even see it!"

Chapter 3099

---

As soon as Xiao Changkun finished saying this, he instantly regretted it.

He was just a momentary excitement, blurted out, finished only to realize that he had stirred up a hornet's nest.

As a matter of fact, when Ma Lan heard this, she stretched out her hand to tear him up, cursing: "Xiao Changkun, you son of a bitch, my good son-in-law gave me something, you don't even fucking send it, but still fucking have bad ideas, see if I don't gouge your old face to shreds!"

Xiao Churan didn't expect the two people to talk and tear up, so he hurriedly stepped forward to block the middle and said helplessly, "Aiya Dad! Mom! How long are you two going to keep this up? Don't forget that today is Ye Chen's birthday! Don't forget that today is Ye Chen's birthday!"

Ye Chen also spoke at this time: "Mom, you do not be so harsh on Dad, we are a family, do not spend all day because of this little thing unhappy, you say we see the days getting better and better, but the two of you are getting worse and worse, if so, I think we should just move back to the previous set of broken house, the family can be more harmonious! "

As soon as Ye Chen said this, Ma Lan immediately stopped all movements and said: "No! Good son-in-law, don't! We can talk about anything, move back to the old house, this joke you can open a big ....."

Ye Chen shook his head helplessly and said, "In that case, please cherish the happy life that we have now, and stop quarreling and quarreling."

"OK!" Ma Lan said without hesitation, "No problem! Absolutely no problem! Mom listened to you, not with this old dog in general!"

Xiao Changkun bristled and just wanted to speak back, but Ma Lan glared at him and he immediately shut his mouth.

In fact, he had no serious fighting ability in front of Marashi.

If Marashi was the steel flood of Nazi Germany during World War II, Xiao Changkun would be a Polish at best, and would not last more than a few rounds under Marashi's iron hooves.

Therefore, he chose to shut his mouth after being called an old dog by Ma Lan, a fight finally ceased.

Ye Chen saw the two finally stop, then turned to take the elevator to the first floor, from the storage room, take out two bottles of Maotai, two bottles of red wine.

Ye Chen's family's wine collection, whether white wine or red wine, are very top brands, mainly they are sent back at the New Year, has not been much to drink.

Xiao Changkun really coveted these for a long time, but the value of each bottle of wine is more than 100,000, Ma Lan said nothing to let him drink.

In order to prevent him from stealing and drinking, Ma Lan even gave these wines to do inventory statistics, every now and then to go down to take stock of some, so that Xiao Changkun although thinking about, but also has always had the heart of a thief without the courage.

Ye Chen came back with the wine, Xiao Changkun was excited to receive the wine, carefully opened the wine, the smell of soy sauce full of wine smell immediately wafted out, Xiao Changkun could not help but exclaim: "This good wine is good wine ah! Just sniffing two mouthfuls makes me feel like I'm going to get a headache."

Ma Lan gave him a blank look and muttered, "Seventy-five degrees of sterilized alcohol is even more topsy-turvy, don't believe you try it!"

"What do you know." Xiao Changkun muttered and hurriedly picked up a cup to pour wine for Ye Chen and himself.

Ma Lan also knew that talking too much Xiao Changkun was also spoiling the atmosphere, so he did not say more, but took the red wine from Ye Chen's hand and took the initiative to open it with the wine opener.

The family of four filled up the wine, and Xiao Churan moved the cake first, and said to Ye Chen: "Honey, you blow out the candles and make a wish first, and then we'll eat!"

Ye Chen smiled and nodded, this is the standard process for birthdays, noon is like this, the evening is still like this.

Chapter 3100

This is basically the same as classmates and colleagues party, regardless of the city, the party process is generally first dinner, and then KTV.

So, when Xiao Churan took out the cake from the refrigerator and lit the candles, Ye Chen was ready to make a wish and blow out the candles in a familiar way.

On the side of Xiao Churan, also sang a happy birthday song for Ye Chen, her voice is not loud, but very gentle, a pair of big eyes looking at Ye Chen sang out: "Happy birthday to you, happy birthday to you ....."

Ye Chen in Xiao Churan's song silent wish, blow out the candles.

Then, Xiao Churan spoke: "Honey, you close your eyes, I have a gift for you!"

Ye Chen nodded his head and gently closed his eyes.

Xiao Churan took out a gift box from behind him, held it up with both hands, put it in Ye Chen's hands, and said with a smile, "Okay, open your eyes!"

Ye Chen looked down and saw that what was in his hand was a watch box.

On the top of the box was simply written a line of English letters, Ye Chen recognized at a glance, but it was Patek Philippe.

He looked at Xiao Churan in surprise and said, "Wife, why did you buy such an expensive gift for me?"

Xiao Churan said shyly: "It's not expensive, open it quickly to see if you like it!"

Ye Chen nodded, opened the package, and there was a Patek Philippe Nautilus watch lying quietly inside.

At this time, Xiao Churan said in a soft voice: "This Nautilus, in the Patek Philippe, is a relatively entry-level model, and after I finish the project of the Empire Group and settle all the upstream and downstream payments, I will buy you a better one!"

Ye Chen said, "My good wife, a Nautilus now costs at least half a million, right? Now the price of the watch is speculated too outrageous, from now on it is better not to buy me such an expensive watch, even if it is a good mechanical watch, it is not as accurate as the time on the phone."

Xiao Churan said with a smile, "How can it be the same? Men wear a watch is not to see the time, mainly a temperament, now the more sophisticated men have several watches, to attend different occasions, with different clothes, but also to choose a different watch, I do not want my husband to go out in the future to be picked on, especially your customers are rich people, always see you do not even wear a watch, certainly think that the wife did not spare you to buy!

Ye Chen heard this, the heart can not help but be a little touched, said with a smile: "Thank you, wife! Or wife is the most considerate."

Ma Lan on the side heard staggering, exclaimed: "Boy, just such a watch, its appearance, want more than 500,000?"

Xiao Churan seriously said, "Mom, this is a classic model, not only is it expensive in our country, it's the same all over the world."

Ma Lan touched her heart and said, "This is a BMW on the wrist!"

Xiao Churan laughed: "If you say so, there is also a luxury villa worn on the wrist."

Ye Chen said seriously: "Wife. Just buy a watch, never buy another one in the future."

Xiao Churan said with a smile: "Buy or not, look at my mood, two to see if I can earn money, anyway, you do not say."

Ye Chen smiled and nodded: "Good, good, all listen to you."

Xiao Churan said with satisfaction: "This is more or less the same!"

After saying that, she hurriedly took out the watch and said to Ye Chen, "I'll help you put it on, from now on you try to wear it every day, don't stop wearing it after a few days."

Ye Chen laughed: "From my wife, of course I have to wear it every day!"

Xiao Churan nodded, and while examining the watch on Ye Chen's wrist, she exclaimed, "Nice! Low-key and connotative, much better than the big gold watches that the tycoons like most! Honey, don't take it off, and wear it when you go to see the singing later!"
