

Ye Chen 3201

Chapter 3201

Although the always strong Wan Bajun was extremely angry, at this moment he knew clearly that he could not leave China before the Qingming Festival, otherwise if something delayed his revenge plan, then how could he face his parents who had died tragically for many years?

So he could only continue to pin his hopes on Chen Zhonglei's body.

But. He also knew that there was probably nothing Chen Zhonglei could do to reduce casualties and at the same time completely solve the other side.

Therefore, in order to prevent him from taking the wrong path, Wan Bajun gave his own solution, "Since this bastard, Hamid, has built his base into an iron barrel, then we will completely surround him, leaving him isolated and sitting ducks!"

Siege warfare is actually a very cruel tactic.

As long as the besieging side has enough troops to block everything. At the same time there was a constant supply of food and ammunition as supplies, it could exhaust the opponent indefinitely.

Wan Bajun gritted his teeth and said, "I don't fucking believe that this Hamid can have much strategic reserves. From my point of view, I'm afraid that he will run out of ammunition in three to five months, or one or two months in the short term!"

Speaking at this point, Wan Bajun's face was expressionless as he said in a cold voice, "From now on, Hamid and his men will either starve to death, die of thirst, or walk out and be killed, in short, I will not allow any of them to walk out of their base alive, do you understand?"

Chen Zhonglei immediately said in a loud voice, "Understood, Hall Master! Don't worry, I will definitely not allow a single fly to come out of Hamid's base alive!"

"Good!" Wan Bajun said in a stern voice, "This is your chance to put on your sins and make up for them, if this matter is still not done properly, then you will be dealt with by military justice!"

Chen Zhonglei choked out, "Don't worry, Hall Master, even if I die, I will still complete your mission! I will earn back face for the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall!"

Wan Bajun said, "Remember what you said!"

After saying that. He then simply hung up the phone.

In his opinion, it didn't matter even if Chen Zhonglei couldn't consume the other party, as long as he waited for the Qingming Festival to pass. He himself would personally go to Syria and personally take care of that Hamid.

With his super strength, even if Hamid's defence was strong, he was absolutely sure that he could take his head in the midst of an army of 10,000 people.

After following his orders, Chen Zhonglei immediately did as he was told.

However, he did not immediately go to blockade Hamid. Instead, he waited for the rest of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple to come to his aid before launching a surprise attack on Hamid, so that he could be directly surrounded and caught off guard.

The two defeats for the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple were very quick. The two defeats of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple spread throughout the mercenary world.

The image of invincibility that had been erected was instantly collapsed.

For a while, the whole mercenary world was watching the jokes of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple, and even many western countries had brought the story to the news, mocking the Temple in both explicit and implicit ways.

Chapter 3202

And with the Waterloo of the Hall of Dragons' fame, word of Hamid's exploits spread throughout Syria. It soon even spread throughout the Middle East.

Who would have thought that Hamid would be able to win two big battles in a row when the opposition forces were losing one after the other! In the eyes of others, this was like a god from heaven.

So, as soon as the day dawned in Syria, a large number of stragglers came to defect.

Immediately afterwards. There were also a few leaders of small armies, with their own ranks and formations, who defected.

The vast majority of these men had been worried that they would soon be wiped out, so after seeing Hamid's strength, they came to join him for a change. They came in droves to give themselves a chance to save their lives.

So, after only half a day, Hamid's base had incorporated over 5,000 men.

Two days later. Hamid's base had already enrolled more than eight thousand people, and the total number of people had exceeded ten thousand, so the whole base was overcrowded at once.

Hamid resolutely carried out Ye Chen's instructions, whether it was a small team of 10 people or a large team of 1,000 people, as long as they came to join him, the team had to be broken up and put under the leadership of his men.

Moreover, apart from some old comrades who knew their roots, the rest of them. Almost all of them were temporarily disarmed by his soldiers.

The number of soldiers disarmed was five thousand.

And these five thousand men were all incorporated into a temporary engineering unit, following the construction workers as they continued to open up the mountain.

When automated equipment was not enough, the men used hammers and human wheelbarrows to transport the rubble out.

The main reason for having so many people digging together was that there were simply too many of them. A large number of backslope trenches had to be built in a hurry to ensure that the men had a safe shelter.

Even though they were disarmed, they didn't care at all, they just wanted to dig more trenches as soon as possible so that they could have a place to stay.

Almost all of the 8,000 men who had come to join us were armed and equipped, but the rations they had brought with them were not much. On average, they could only last three or five days, but fortunately Hamid himself had enough strategic reserves, and he had enough food to feed two or three thousand men for two or three years, or even ten thousand men for more than a year.

Moreover, he had purchased large quantities of food from traders in neighbouring countries. This food was being transported by land from the north around the clock.

Ye Chen was relieved to hear that he had so many men.

But just as Hamid's men were expanding several times over and going full steam ahead with their infrastructure, 50 million Dragon Temple soldiers meandered back into northern Syria. Fifty kilometres north of Hamid's base, Hamid was cut off from the north by land.

Hundreds of trucks transporting food to Hamid sent less than thirty in. The rest were all stopped.

Then, Chen Zhonglei led 50 million soldiers from the Dragon Palace to cut off Hamid's land traffic from the south, followed by another 5,000 soldiers from the Dragon Palace, who seized several highlands around Hamid's base and then also began to build fortifications, as if to surround Hamid to death.

By the time Hamid received the news, it was too late.

The soldiers of the Hall of Ten Thousand Dragons had already completed their formation, and if he ventured to break out, he would definitely encounter a powerful attack.

When he reported this matter to Ye Chen, Ye Chen said blandly: "You don't need to worry about this matter for the time being, the cost of their mercenary wages is very high, 10,000 to 20,000 men besieging you in Syria, the military cost for one day may cost several tens of millions of dollars, if it really takes a year, I believe they simply can't stand it, what's more, if they still can't take it down in a year, they are even more disgraced, continuing to spend there is not enough They will definitely retreat by then."

Saying that, Ye Chen instructed again, "Anyway, your current strategic reserve is enough to sustain you for a year, so you don't need to care how they surround you, the most important thing you have to do now is two things, one is to continue to do your infrastructure and strengthen your mountain fortifications, the other is to fight with twelve points, absolutely do not let them have the opportunity to launch a decapitation operation!"

Hamid said, "Honestly, I'm not worried about any of this, but my only worry is that you said you're going to bring that Su back to China in a few days. How am I going to send him out?"

Chapter 3203

Hamid was worried that once his base was besieged by the other side, then he was afraid that it would be very difficult for him to send Su Shoudao out.

He knew very well that Su Shoudao was very important to Ye Chen, and that Ye Chen would have to get him back to his country in a few days. Although Hamid was not sure what Ye Chen was going to do with him, Hamid could feel that Ye Chen attached great importance to this matter.

Hearing Hamid's worry, Ye Chen spoke: "You don't need to worry about this matter for the time being, they have you surrounded and blockaded now, it's not realistic for you to send Su Shoudao out now, so why not get down to business and get your defenses in order first, if there's really no good chance by then, then I'll find a way to go there myself and bring Su Shoudao back. "

This time, Ye Chen had a total of two purposes for the Ye family's Qingming ancestral ritual.

The first, naturally, was to pay good respect to his parents on this very important day for the Ye family.

The second, was to have Su Shoudao kneel in front of his parents' graves and repent to them for the matter of him forming the Anti-Ye Alliance back then.

Therefore, on the day of Qingming, Su Shoudao must appear at Ye Ling Mountain.

When Hamid heard this, he hurriedly said, "Old brother, I am in great danger here, you must not risk your life for this Su, or else I will organize a death squad later and find a night to send him out in the night!"

"No way." Ye Chen replied firmly, "Although I have a grudge against this man, but right now this man cannot die yet."

Ye Chen had promised to keep Su Shoudao alive as a dog long ago, and had promised Su Zhiyu that he would return Su Shoudao after she became the head of the Su family.

Therefore, he definitely could not let Su Shoudao die in Syria, in that case, it would be like breaking his own promise.

So, he said to Hamid, "Don't worry about Su Shoudao for the time being, just do your best to defend your base now, and if the enemy hasn't retreated by the end of March, then I will personally go over there."

When Hamid heard this, he had no choice but to agree, saying, "Then I'll report back to you as soon as there's any situation here!"

Over the next few days, calm was temporarily restored in Syria.

The soldiers of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple no longer fought alongside the government forces, but gathered all their forces to prepare to consume Hamid, while the government forces, deprived of a powerful help, could only slow down the pace of their attacks for the time being.

At the same time, Yanjing was already in a state of darkness.

These days, the other two War Kings of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, as well as nearly a hundred war generals, have been travelling one after another from all over the world to join up with the Ten Thousand Breakers in Yanjing.

They were the mainstay of the entire Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, and were also the candidates that Wan Breaking Army was going to take with him to attack Ye Ling Mountain this time.

This time, Wan Bajun not only wanted to stamp out the Ye family and avenge his parents, but also wanted to return to the stage in Yanjing as the Heavenly Dragon Descending, representing his parents, the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall and the Wan family.

He still remembered the situation his parents were in back then in Yanjing, because of various reasons, the vast majority of people did not think very highly of his parents and treated them with more or less contempt, and many people even ridiculed and attacked him constantly after his father's death, calling him a loser, saying that he could not even be Su Shoudao's dog, etc. This had always been a pain in Wan Bajun's heart.

So, this time, after stepping on the Ye family, he would become a god in the eyes of all the families in Yanjing! He would make all the big and small dignified families in all of Yanjing grovel in front of him.

Only then would he be able to double back all the lost face for his dead father.

The Ye family, who were also in Yanjing, knew nothing about the actions of Wan Breaking Jun and the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall.

All of Ye Zhongquan's thoughts were recently focused on the upcoming ancestral ceremony.

This ancestral ceremony was also very significant to Ye Zhongquan.

This time, not only was it the ancestor worship ceremony once every twelve years, but it was also the first ancestor worship ceremony after the Ye family's ancestral tomb had been moved to Ye Ling Mountain. More importantly, his eldest grandson Ye Feng, the son of Ye Chen's eldest uncle Ye Changkong, was about to be engaged to a young princess from the Nordic royal family after the Qingming Festival.

The intermarriage with the Nordic royal family was something that the Ye family had been planning for a long time.

Chapter 3204

In any large family, the eldest son, the eldest grandson, is the most important facade.

Therefore, Ye Zhongquan wanted to find a good daughter-in-law for his eldest grandson who was a good match for his family.

However, if we look at the country, there are only two girls in total who can truly be a good match for Ye Feng.

One was the Su family's only granddaughter, Su Zhiyu.

The other was the Gu family's only daughter, Gu Qiuyi.

The daughters of those other families were all more than a notch below Ye Feng.

However, there was no chance for Ye Feng to handle a woman like Su Zhiyu, who was so blind to everything.

As for Gu Qiuyi, it was even more impossible. Who didn't know that Gu Qiuyi had been waiting to marry Ye Chen.

Moreover, the other day, Gu Qiuyi had made such a big fuss at her concert, he knew with his toes that it was for Ye Chen, so there was no chance that he would be able to handle Gu Qiuyi.

Ye Feng is two years older than Ye Chen and will soon be thirty. If he is still not married at thirty, it is not quite right, so his priority now is to get married as soon as possible.

After looking around, the most suitable candidate for his grandson-in-law that Ye Zhongquan could find was this princess of the Nordic royal family.

First of all, in the current world, there are very few royal families left, so royalty is considered very rare in high society, and marrying such a grandson-in-law would naturally be a good way to save face.

Secondly, the royal families of many constitutional monarchies nowadays, although they have long since lost their real power, are still of high status and highly respected.

And because their ancestors have been royalty for generations and held real power back in the day, the royal families all have very considerable assets, and their contacts and resources are very extensive.

If they could marry the princess of the Nordic royal family, it would not only give the Ye family a face and a reputation, but would also give them a breakthrough in the overseas market.

In itself, behind the marriage is the intermingling and interchange of resources and capital.

The Northern European royal family wants to use the Ye family's financial power to seek a bigger cake, while the Ye family also wants to use the Northern European royal family's connections and influence to open up the entire European market.

Therefore, the marriage between the two families will certainly bring many benefits to both sides.

Moreover, this Nordic princess, in terms of age, looks, temperament and education, is the best among European royal princesses. It is said that when she was young, she was still the Crown Prince and the first in line to the future throne, but later, for some unknown reasons, she was replaced by her own cousin and became the second in line to the throne.

As she and her cousin came of age one after another, her cousin was officially made the Crown Prince, which was also tantamount to declaring that she was completely out of touch with the throne, and was only then pushed out by the family for a marriage with the Ye family.

Ye Feng was also very happy with this future wife, after all, marrying a Nordic princess was such an awesome thing that almost no one had ever done in China yet.

Therefore, he had been looking forward to getting engaged as soon as possible, and then choosing a big day to marry the princess in a big way.

Knowing that the Ye family would soon be holding an ancestral ceremony, the Nordic royal family was prepared to make an exception and allow the princess to come to Yanjing a few days early to attend the Ye family's ancestral ceremony as their future daughter-in-law.

After the ancestral ceremony, other members of the royal family will fly to Yanjing to attend their engagement banquet, at which time the marriage will be officially announced to the public.

To Ye Zhongquan, once the news of the wedding was announced, the Ye family's fame would be raised to another level!

But how could he have known that at this moment, a net of heaven and earth was already unfolding towards the Ye family!

Chapter 3205

That princess of the Nordic royal family soon confirmed her itinerary.

She would depart for China in two days' time, and the itinerary was planned to stay with the Ye family for a few days, and wait for the Qingming day to attend the ancestral ritual with the Ye family, after which the rest of the royal family flew to Yanjing. The Princess then stayed at the Buckingham Palace Hotel in Yanjing with the rest of the royal family.

And her engagement ceremony with Ye Feng would also be held at the Buckingham Palace Hotel.

So, Ye Zhongquan brought Tang Sihai to discuss the matter and said, "Sihai, the Nordic princess will be here the day after tomorrow, so you must hurry up and bring people to set up everything at home.

Tang Sihai said, "Don't worry, Master, I'm already working on it."

Ye Zhongquan nodded his head in satisfaction. Smiling, he said, "At this ancestral ceremony, I will announce Feng'er's marriage to her in front of all the Ye family's direct and collateral relatives. As the first domestic family to intermarry with the European royal family, my Ye family will definitely have a great reputation!"

Tang Sihai immediately said respectfully, "This marriage with the Nordic royal family will be a great help to the Ye family's entry into Europe, and may be the next breakthrough point for the Ye family... Congratulations, Master!"

Ye Zhongquan smiled slightly, nodded first, then could not help but shake his head slightly and spoke, "There will definitely be some help, but a breakthrough point is not yet possible, these constitutional monarchies, the royal family has no political rights, what they have is just popularity and some special treatment, to rely on them and bring us a huge breakthrough, the possibility is slim."

The main thing I'm looking for is an additional layer of royal endorsement that will make the European market trust us and be less wary, so that when Feng'er goes to Northern Europe in the future. If Feng's son goes to Scandinavia, he will be regarded as a local son-in-law, which will bring us some convenience, but that's all. If we want to become bigger and stronger, we still have to rely on our own strength."

"Yes." Tang Sihai agreed, "As long as Young Master Feng can make good use of this advantage, our chances of success in Europe will be much better."

Ye Zhongquan nodded slightly, but couldn't help but sigh, "Actually, I think what I'm looking forward to more than Feng's marriage is Chen's acknowledgement of his ancestry!"

"Young Master Chen?" Tang Sihai asked in surprise, "This time. Is it to allow Young Master Chen to acknowledge his ancestors and officially return to the Ye family?"

Ye Zhongquan said without hesitation, "That's right! That is my plan!"

Saying that, Ye Zhongquan added, "The fact that Chen's son is willing to come to the ancestral ritual this time is a signal for him to ease up with the Ye Family. It is also an opportunity for him to return to the Ye family. He has been away from the Ye family for too long and has little affection for the Ye family, which I can understand, but without affection, he has been away from home for almost twenty years. It's time for him to come back."

Tang Sihai was busy saying, "Master, it may not be so easy to let Young Master Chen return to the Ye family now, after all, Young Master Chen still has a wife in Jinling, and his connections and career are basically in Jinling, personally I think it's best to think long and hard about this matter."

"So what if you have a wife?" Ye Zhongquan said with a serious expression, "My original intention was to think about it in the long run. That's why I didn't have a tough attitude at the beginning and ask him to come back, but instead took 200 billion to buy the Dihao Group for him!"

"I originally thought that after he got his identity back and owned the Dihao Group. I originally thought that after he got his identity back and owned the Empire Group, he would be able to realise the difference between him and that Xiao Churan and leave that woman of his own accord!"

Chapter 3206

"But what I didn't expect was that after all this time, he hadn't gotten a divorce yet!"

"You say. Does he plan to live with that Xiao Churan for the rest of his life?"

Tang Sihai hurriedly said, "Master, matters like feelings are not something we can influence, I think you still have to respect Young Master Chen's choice."

Ye Zhongquan waved his hand and said seriously, "As the head of the Ye family, I really can't accept my own grandson, marrying such a woman of bad birth!"

Saying that, Ye Zhongquan said with some emotion, "When I say that that Xiao Churan has a bad origin, it's not just because that Xiao family's segment is really too low! It's even more because, that Xiao Churan's grandfather. Originally, he was still a family slave of our Ye family!"

"You say, what big family would let their grandson, marry the granddaughter of their own slave as his wife? Isn't that smearing the face of the old ancestor!"

"So, no matter what, Chen'er must divorce that woman!"

Tang Sihai spoke up and advised, "Master, this matter cannot be rushed. I think you should give Young Master Chen a little more time and let him work this matter out on his own."

Ye Zhongquan said seriously, "I originally thought the same thing, considering that Chen'er and I hadn't seen each other for so many years and lacked a normal foundation of affection between grandparents and grandchildren, that's why I didn't force him to divorce and return to the Ye family at the very beginning, and I gave him the Dihao Group just to let him leave Xiao Churan on his own initiative, but now it seems that I've made a fool of myself!"

Originally. In Ye Zhongquan's perception, once a huge class gap had been created between a man and a woman, it was only a matter of time before they separated.

Once Ye Chen had money, power and status, he would probably lose interest in Xiao Churan himself, and would probably just give Xiao Churan a severance payment to get rid of her, and then end the marriage between them completely.

But how could he have imagined. Ye Chen had dragged his feet for so long, but he hadn't divorced Xiao Churan yet.

Moreover, according to some scattered information he had received. It seemed that Ye Chen had no intention of divorcing Xiao Churan either.

Even though Gu Qiuyi had already identified with him, he still had not divorced Xiao Churan.

This made Ye Zhongquan feel somewhat uncomfortable.

Thinking of this, Ye Zhongquan said in a somewhat depressed manner, "I was watching the entertainment news the other day. She went all the way to Jinling for a concert, and it was also on Chen's birthday, so she didn't have to think about it to confess her love for Chen's son. But what about Chen'er? Isn't he still not divorced from Xiao Churan? The Gu family girl and Chen'er are married! The fact that Chen'er doesn't even care about this is proof that he doesn't want to divorce at all!"

Tang Sihai naturally knew what Ye Chen was thinking, so he spoke up, "Master, I understand your feelings, but have you thought about it, Young Master Chen's character is very much like Young Master Chang Ying's, if you force him to do something he doesn't want to do, chances are he will resist to the end."

Ye Zhongquan said in a cold voice, "I am just afraid that he will resist, that is why I have never forced him, but this time I cannot continue to go along with him, I have to put some pressure on him no matter what for this Ancestral Ritual, otherwise, this matter may never go as I want it to!"

Speaking here, he stood up, gazed out of the window and said seriously, "Feng'er marrying the Nordic Princess and Chen'er marrying the Gu family's only daughter, once these two marriages take place, the Ye family's strength will completely surpass that of the Su family and become the number one family in China, so I must not allow anything to go wrong in either of these two matters!"

Chapter 3207

In Ye Zhongquan's eyes, this time at the Ancestral Ceremony, although he was looking forward to Ye Feng and his marriage, what he valued most, in the final analysis, was Ye Chen.

The royal family did have money, and they did have status and face, but both their property and status. All of them could only be considered moderate to high.

So, all things considered, the royal family was a jack-of-all-trades, quite good in all aspects, but nothing particularly outstanding or exceptional.

If we really want to compare the overall strength, ten Nordic royal princesses may not be able to compare to Gu Qiuyi.

After all, although the European royal family is not as large as the Middle East, there are at least a few children in a family, but Gu Qiuyi is a proper only daughter, how can a royal princess compare?

Tang Sihai had followed Ye Zhongquan for many years and of course knew what Ye Zhongquan was planning. But for so many years, Ye Zhongquan had little understanding of Ye Chen and did not know Ye Chen's character and style of action, but Tang Sihai did.

For so many years. Ye Chen had grown up almost under Tang Sihai's watchful eye.

Although Tang Sihai had never interfered with Ye Chen's upbringing, nor had he deliberately made any arrangements for Ye Chen's education, he was very clear about Ye Chen's situation.

With his understanding of Ye Chen, he knew very well that Ye Zhongquan's plans for Ye Chen would hardly go as he wished.

However, he was also vaguely worried in his heart and could not help but wonder, "If Young Master Chen keeps failing to give the master what he wants, will the master turn against Young Master Chen and will he take the Dihao Group back from Young Master Chen?"

"If the Ye family takes away the Dihao Group and Young Master Chen is unwilling to marry Gu Qiuyi, then the Gu family's assets will also rub shoulders with him, what should he do then?"

Thinking of this, Tang Sihai's heart grew more and more apprehensive.

So, he looked at Ye Zhongquan and asked tentatively, "Master, after going to such great lengths to find Young Master Chen, is it because you want him to marry that little girl from the Gu family?"

"Of course not." Ye Zhongquan waved his hand and said with some emotion, "After all, Chen'er is my grandson and the bloodline of my Ye family! As the head of the Ye family, I must allow him to return to the Ye family, so that I can be worthy of Chang Ying and the ancestors of the Ye family. As for whether or not he marries that girl from the Gu family, in the end, it is only about his own future, and everything I, as a grandfather, start from, is to wish him the best."

Said. Ye Zhongquan let out a light sigh and said seriously, "I hope he can understand my good intentions."

When Tang Sihai heard this, his heart suddenly became a little nervous.

He could tell that Ye Zhongquan had just said these words. In fact, it was all an act.

But what he was nervous about was that Ye Zhongquan had actually acted out in front of himself.

What was the purpose of acting this out?

Naturally, he hoped that he would be fooled by him and then relay what he had just said to Ye Chen.

Therefore, Tang Sihai immediately understood that Ye Zhongquan already had doubts about himself.

At least, in his heart, he must have already thought that his position was more biased towards Ye Chen. Instead of him.

Thus, Tang Sihai could only sigh stiffly, "What you say, Master, I am sure that Young Master Chen he will understand you."

Ye Zhongquan nodded in satisfaction, and then waved his hand at him, "It's alright. You stand down, I'll rest for a while."

"Good." Tang Sihai immediately bowed respectfully and said, "Master, you can call me anytime you need something."

Ye Zhongquan watched Tang Sihai leave the room, his face gradually becoming wooden in expression.

Chapter 3208

When he thought of Ye Chen, he didn't really have any feelings.

After all, Ye Chen had been away from home for so many years that the love of his grandfather and grandson had long since faded for him.

Moreover, he had always been a little worried about Ye Chen in his heart, worried that Ye Chen would be angry with him because of his parents' death.

So. Bringing Ye Chen back would actually only do him harm, not good.

He himself knew very well in his heart that finding Ye Chen back would most likely be getting back a white-eyed wolf.

However, the reason why he insisted on having Ye Chen come back to acknowledge his ancestors, knowing full well that this was the case, and even begged Ye Chen in a lowly manner to do so. The main reason was actually because of an experience he had in Singapore three years ago.

Three years ago, Ye Zhongquan went to Sweden to attend an entrepreneurial summit.

It was an event for the world's top entrepreneurs. There were no more than five entrepreneurs in China who were really qualified to be invited, and he was one of them.

Those who came from other countries were also representatives of the top big families with trillions of dollars in assets, and Ye Zhongquan at that time. In that summit, the strength could only be ranked as medium.

Apart from him, the top conglomerates from the US and Japan, the historic super families from Europe and the financial giants from Russia, any one of them, were above him in strength.

The reason why so many top tycoons went to this summit is because there are three managing directors behind it.

All those who attended the summit did so in the name of these three Managing Directors, and all of them were eager to get closer to them.

These three Managing Directors are the representatives of the world's top three plutocrats.

One is a representative of the Middle East royal family, one is a representative of the Rothschild family, and the other is a representative of the An family.

One from each of the three families serves as the executive director of the summit. Each of the three families is the managing director of the summit, and each has a veto power.

With their strength and influence, the three families have gathered a lot of resources, and because of this, all the entrepreneurs want to mix in this summit.

Ye Zhongquan also wanted to mix some resources and contacts in the summit, and coincidentally, the person sent over by the An family to be the executive director happened to be Ye Chen's own uncle, An Kaifeng.

Naturally, Ye Zhongquan knew that the An family had always despised him, but after all, they were once relatives, and he knew that Ye Chen's uncle, An Kaifeng, was extremely close to Ye Chen's mother, so he cheekily tried to get close to An Kaifeng.

When Ye Zhongquan, who was a generation older, took the initiative to ask for a meeting with An Kaifeng, An Kaifeng didn't even give him a chance to meet him, but only asked his men to tell him that of all the people surnamed Ye, he only knew one, and that was his sister An Chengqing's flesh and blood, Ye Chen! Apart from him. He would not meet anyone surnamed Ye!

An Kaifeng's attitude made Ye Zhongquan realise that his grandson, who had disappeared for many years, was actually the only remaining link between the Ye family and the An family.

Originally, he had thought that the An family had always looked down on the Ye family in a million ways, and were not even willing to acknowledge the in-laws relationship between them.

He had even thought that. The An family must not look up to Ye Chen either, after all, they had always opposed An Chengqing's marriage to Ye Changye, and it was normal for them to have little affection for An Chengqing and Ye Changye's child.

However, he really didn't expect that. An Kaifeng had actually left a silver lining for the Ye family.

In his opinion, no matter whether Ye Chen's grandparents cared for Ye Chen or not, having this word from An Kaifeng was enough.

This was because, An Kaifeng had long been designated as the successor of the next generation of the An Family. Taking care of him would be the same as taking care of the An family!

Ye Zhongquan had been dreaming of the overseas market for years, but really relying on the Ye family itself, it would be difficult to go overseas to develop.

The An family is dozens of times stronger than the Ye family, and it is also very powerful and well-established overseas, so if it can have the help of the An family, it will naturally be able to walk on smooth ground.

Therefore, from Ye Zhongquan's point of view, if he could let Ye Chen acknowledge his ancestors, let him marry Gu Qiuyi, and even let him go to America to establish a link with the An family, then the Ye family's future would be bright.

This was the core motivation for Ye Zhongquan to get Ye Chen back, but he had not told anyone about this, even Tang Sihai did not know.

Chapter 3209

The matter of Wan Breaking Army's return to Yanjing was not known to anyone else in the outside world other than Su Chengfeng.

However, long before Wan Bajun returned to Yanjing, he had already sent dozens of informants from the Ten Thousand Dragons Palace to infiltrate Yanjing. These informants had infiltrated all walks of life in Yanjing and were well aware of the movements of all the major families in Yanjing.

When the Nordic royal princess' trip was set, news soon spread through Yanjing.

Many large families were envious of the Ye family's upcoming marriage with the Nordic royal family. It was thought that the Ye family had seized a good opportunity to enter Europe.

Lu Haotian, the white-clothed Tiger King under Wan Breaking Army, hurriedly came to him and said respectfully, "Hall Master, news has just been received that the Ye Family has entered into a marriage alliance with the Nordic Royal Family, and their eldest son and grandson, Ye Feng, will be married to the eldest princess of the Nordic Royal Family, and in two days' time, that eldest princess will arrive in Yanjing, and it is said that this princess will also attend the Ye Family's ancestor worship ceremony!"

"The Nordic Eldest Princess?" Wan Bajun disdainfully skimmed his mouth and said, "If I remember correctly, this Eldest Princess seems to have been secretly disinherited from the throne a long time ago, right?"

Lu Haotian nodded. We have a very clear grasp of all the information on the royal families in Europe. It is true that she should be the first in line of succession, but I don't know exactly what the reason is that she was abandoned by the royal family a long time ago."

Wan Bajun scoffed, "An abandoned Crown Prince is, to put it bluntly, a phoenix in distress, such a commodity in Europe, not much of the big families can even look at it, but I never thought it would become a treasure when it was sent to China."

Lu Haotian said at the side, "It seems that the Ye family wants to use this princess to open up some channels in Europe."

Wan Bajun said disdainfully, "With me around, the Ye family's assets and business will only get smaller and worse, and will never let them find the opportunity to enter Europe!"

After saying that, Wan Bajun said in a cold voice, "Haotian, you immediately arrange for someone to procure a batch of the cheapest and most inferior coffins, when the time comes, I want to give a big gift to the Ye family!"

"Yes, Hall Master! I'm on my way!"

"Wait a moment." Wan Bajun called out to him and spoke, "You tell Chen Zhonglei that before April 1st, if there is no progress on the Syrian side, have him come to China immediately and make sure to report to me in person in Yanjing on April 2nd!"

Killing Ye Lingshan on Qingming Festival was the most important thing for Wan Bajun right now, bar none.

At that time, one of the four battle kings under his command would be missing.

That was why he had asked Chen Zhonglei to arrive in Yanjing on the 2nd of April again.

Although the matter of Syria was important. But in front of this matter, it was nothing at all.

Lu Haotian said without hesitation, "Don't worry, Hall Master, I will contact the Green-Eyed Wolf King later and relay your orders to him!"

.....

Hall of Ten Thousand Dragons' full-frontal blockade of Hamid. It had already lasted for several days.

During this period of time, the Hall of Ten Thousand Dragons did not send any troops to invade, the government army did not organise any new shelling, and Hamid did not send any troops to test the truth, the two sides were completely stuck in a stalemate stage where the well did not cross the river.

Hamid's work these days is very busy, while he has to command several thousand engineering teams to step up construction, and at the same time, he also has to organise his full-fledged officers to attend officer training, according to Ye Chen's explanation. He was actively training middle-ranking officers to strengthen his grip on the entire team.

On Ye Chen's side, he was relieved to hear that Hamid had now entered a truce phase. Following this, he focused on the preparations for the ocean-going transport group.

Su Zhiyu complied with the terms of cooperation agreed with Ye Chen and brought over the entire resources of the Su Family Shipping Group as a package.

Chapter 3210

In order to cooperate with Ye Chen, Nanae Ito also personally stepped in and set up a joint venture with Su Zhiyu. Ye Chen then borrowed a word from each of their surnames and gave the company the name Isu Shipping.

This joint venture company was ostensibly a joint venture between the Ito family and Su Zhiyu, with the Ito family holding 51% of the shares. Su Zhiyu held 49%, but in reality, the 51% stake held by the Ito family was being held on behalf of Ye Chen.

The Su family's ocean shipping group had previously been sanctioned and had all its business qualifications revoked.

However, as the Ito family is a foreign-owned company and has perfect qualification documents, the nature of Isuzu Shipping, this time, has also become a foreign-led joint venture. All previous sanctions were bypassed for the Su family.

As He Zhiqiu has more experience in business management than Su Zhiyu, and her father, He Yuanjiang, is behind the decision, He Zhiqiu is the CEO of Isu Shipping.

Su Zhiyu, on the other hand, is the COO, or Chief Operating Officer, of Isu Lines. He and He Zhiqiu work together to manage the company.

Although Ye Chen is the controlling shareholder of the company, he still intends to be a hands-off person and does not interfere with the company's operations under normal circumstances.

As the Ito family is currently the number one family in Japan, and Su Zhiyu is also the granddaughter of the Su family, the number one family in China, and was previously the subject of much national attention because of what happened to her, the news of her taking out the Su family's shipping group to work with the Ito family this time immediately hit the front page of all the major news media as soon as it was released.

He Zhiqiu felt that this was a good opportunity to take advantage of the opportunity to launch a wave of free advertising, so she took the initiative to approach Ye Chen and planned to pick a good day. He took the initiative to approach Ye Chen, planning to pick a good day to hold a press conference to officially announce the establishment of the Isuzu Shipping Line, so as to make a name for itself first.

Ye Chen naturally had no problem with this, so He Zhiqiu discussed with Su Zhiyu and decided to strike while the iron was hot and hold the press conference as soon as possible.

It so happened that Nanaiko Ito had not left yet, so the women sat down to discuss the matter. So, after the women sat down and discussed the matter, they decided to let Nana Ito and Su Zhiyao take the lead and organise a huge launch event at the Buckingham Palace Hotel.

Many domestic and international media were invited to the launch event, and Ye Chen, as the hidden boss, was asked by the women to be there to support the event.

So, on the day of the launch, Ye Chen arrived at Buckingham Palace early to prepare for today's press conference.

For this conference, Richard Chen had specially redecorated the banquet hall of Buckingham Palace, with enough space to accommodate several hundred journalists and guests.

Apart from media reporters, many prominent figures in Jinling were also invited to the venue.

When Ye Chen arrived at Buckingham Palace, it was not yet time for the journalists and guests to enter. Richard Chen came to the main entrance to greet him, and after handing Ye Chen's car to the parking attendant, he said to Ye Chen, "Young Master, Miss Ito, Miss Su, Miss Song and Miss He are all in the VIP lounge, shall I take you there now?"

Ye Chen nodded and said, "Take me there."

Chen Zekai hurriedly led the way, whispering to Ye Chen as he walked, "Young master, butler Tang called me just now. He wanted me to confirm with you the time of your arrival in Yanjing."

Ye Chen then said, "The Qingming Festival is on the 5th of April, so wouldn't I just arrive in Yanjing on the 4th of April?"

Chen Zekai was busy saying, "Butler Tang was afraid that you would only be willing to leave on the 4th, he said that the ancestor worship ceremony would be early in the morning on the 5th of April, and such a big ancestor worship ceremony. Usually you have to confirm all the ancestral rituals two or three days in advance, and then a family meeting will have to be held, and you will also have to attend then."

Ye Chen thought about it and said, "Just let them set the ceremony. I'll stay out of it and book how I should come when the time comes."

Richard Chen explained, "Young Master, Steward Tang knows that you don't really want to go there early, but he still asked me to convey to you that he hopes you can come to Yanjing on the 3rd of April, and that you don't have to attend the previous family meetings, but the 4th of April is the last meeting before the Ancestral Ceremony, so you'd better be there, there are a lot of particularly tedious rituals and processes involved, and if we don't communicate well in advance, we're afraid that things will go wrong then."

Ye Chen hesitated for a moment, nodded and said, "OK, then I'll go there on April 3!"
