

Ye Chen 3211

Chapter 3211

Originally, in Ye Chen's plan, all he had to do was to go to Ye Ling Mountain early in the morning of the Qingming Festival on April 5 to attend the ancestral ritual.

After attending the ancestral ritual, he would return to Jinling directly and would not need to have too much contact with the Ye family.

However, since Tang Sihai wanted him to go there early, there was no harm in going there early.

Although Ye Chen was somewhat repulsed by all the Ye family members, he still trusted Tang Sihai very much.

When Ye Chen arrived at the entrance of the VIP lounge with Richard Chen, Su Zhiyu was standing in the corridor on the phone. When she saw Ye Chen coming, they looked at each other and Ye Chen could see that she had a frown on her face and seemed to have something on her mind.

With that, she said into the phone, "Grandpa, I'm a bit busy right now, I'll contact you after the launch."

After saying that, she simply hung up the phone and respectfully said to Ye Chen, "You're here, En Gong."

Seeing that she was not in the right state, Ye Chen opened his mouth and asked, "Miss Su, is something wrong?"

Su Zhiyu hesitated for a moment before summoning up the courage to ask, "Your Grace, can I have a few words with you alone?"

Ye Chen nodded, then said to Chen Zekai, "Old Chen, you go in first, I'll talk to Miss Su."

Chen Zekai said, "Young master, the next few lounges are empty, the place is cleared today, you and Miss Su can find a lounge to talk in detail, we still have half an hour before the launch anyway."

"Okay." Ye Chen turned to Su Zhiyu and said, "Miss Su, let's go to the lounge inside."

Su Zhiyu nodded hastily, "Okay."

Ye Chen and Su Zhiyu went to the innermost lounge, and just after entering, Su Zhiyu said impatiently, "Your Excellency, I saw a press release from CNN two days ago this morning, and they said that the world's top mercenary organisation, the Ten Thousand Dragon Temple, had suffered a big defeat in Syria, losing thousands of men, and the one who caused them great losses was a Syrian opposition group called Hamid Chief, I would like to ask you, is my father in this Hamid's base?"

Ye Chen nodded and graciously admitted, "That's right, your father is indeed at Hamid's place."

Saying that, Ye Chen was a little surprised and asked, "This matter has already passed for several days, and you just learned the news?"

Su Zhiyu said, "This matter has not been reported much in China, only that the situation in Syria is rather volatile, I found out this morning on an overseas news website."

She asked nervously, "Sir, my father is not in any danger in Syria, is he?"

Ye Chen said indifferently, "It's fine, don't worry too much, the defence over in Hamid is still very strong, your father's personal safety is absolutely guaranteed."

Su Zhiyu blurted out, "But I heard that I heard that the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple, made an agreement with the Syrian government to help them purge all of Syria of opposition forces and then set up their own mercenary base in Syria, if that's true, they will definitely spare no effort to wipe out that Hamid"

Chapter 3212

For Su Zhiyu, although she had a lot of criticisms about her father's practices, but after all, her blood kinship was here, so after learning that the situation in Syria was critical, she was most worried about her father's safety.

When Ye Chen heard this, he couldn't help but ask with some curiosity, "Where did you hear that the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple was going to set up a mercenary base?"

Su Zhiyu said, "I called grandpa just now, originally I wanted to ask him in a sideways way how much he knew about Syria and the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple, after all it was the first time I had heard of the words Ten Thousand Dragons Temple, and he was the one who told me this."

Ye Chen was surprised and asked, "Does Su Chengfeng have any other connection with the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple?"

"I'm not sure about that." Su Zhiyu said, "I've never heard him talk about the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall before, but just now on the phone, he seemed to be a little hyper about the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall and was quite emotional."

"Strange." Ye Chen frowned, "The Ten Thousand Dragon Temple has been developing in war-torn areas, and the country has always been peaceful, so ordinary people really don't have much chance to hear of them, how does Su Chengfeng know so much, even what the cooperation between the Ten Thousand Dragon Temple and the Syrian side is about?"

Su Zhiyu said, "Perhaps he has some rather well-informed channels."

Ye Chen nodded and did not continue to dwell on this issue on the surface, but he felt in his heart that Su Chengfeng and the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple must have some kind of connection, so he also reminded himself in his heart that he must be careful and on guard.

Afterwards, Ye Chen said to Su Zhiyu, "As far as I know, your father is still relatively safe at the moment, even if the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall wanted to take Hamid, they would have to prepare for at least half a year or more, while being prepared to sacrifice tens of thousands of people, not to mention that they are only surrounding Hamid but not fighting it right now, so you don't have to worry too much just yet."

Su Zhiyu said with a pleading face, "Your Grace, please let my father come back, although he has done many things wrong, but after all, his crime is not to death, even if you get him back to Jinling and put him under house arrest in Buckingham Palace"

Ye Chen refused without hesitation, "Impossible. In my eyes, Su Shoudao is not guilty to death, just because he organized the Anti-Ye Alliance, I can kill him as a matter of course.

Su Zhiyu said with red eyes, "My father has indeed done a lot of wrong and needs to pay for his faults, but that place in Syria is just too dangerous, the news said that the number of people killed and injured in a battle there is several thousand, I'm afraid that he won't be able to wait until I become the head of the Su family before something bad happens to him"

Ye Chen looked at Su Zhiyu and said with a serious expression, "Everyone has to take risks and pay the price for what they have done. I sent your father to Syria as my punishment for him, and if he encounters any uncontrollable natural or man-made disasters in the process of receiving this punishment, then it can only be said that he has a bad fate himself."

Su Zhiyu wanted to continue to fight with Ye Chen, but she hesitated for a moment and gave up. She looked at Ye Chen and asked, "Your Excellency, you said that you would let my father go to your parents' graves to apologise at Qingming, and that you would let him sign the divorce agreement with my mother at that time, but now that Hamid's base has been heavily surrounded by the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple, and the people of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple hate to kill them all, under such circumstances, can my Can my father still get out?"

"Yes." Ye Chen said indifferently, "If the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall does not stop surrounding Hamid, then I will personally go to Syria and bring him back."

When Su Zhiyu heard this, her beautiful eyes instantly lit up, as if she had seen hope.

She was about to say something when Ye Chen added at this time, "But I will send him back after it is over."

"You," Su Zhiyu couldn't help but complain, "Your Grace, if you have decided to go to Syria yourself to bring him back, why are you risking sending him back? Aren't you afraid of the danger yourself?"

Ye Chen said with a cold expression, "There are dangers everywhere, but I won't change my principles because I'm worried about the dangers! "

Chapter 3213

Su Zhiyu looked at Ye Chen's unwavering eyes and sighed deeply in her heart.

At this moment, there were a few feelings of guilt deep inside her heart.

In fact, she also knew that what Ye Chen said was the truth, if it wasn't for her and Su Ruoli's sake, her father Su Shoudao wouldn't have had the chance to go to Syria to live.

The fact that he was able to go to Syria was already a sign of Ye Chen's openness to him.

It was a bit too much for her to beg Ye Chen to take a step back at this point.

So, she said to Ye Chen in shame, "I am sorry, my lord, it is my fault, when you made this decision, I accepted the terms of your three-year contract, I should not have come back at this time to beg you to take another step back."

Ye Chen waved his hand and said blandly, "He is your father after all, it is only human for you to beg for him."

After saying that, he looked at the time and spoke, "Alright, that's all for now, the launch is about to start, you still have to prepare."

"Good!" Su Zhiyu nodded and said, "I'll go over the speech with Miss Ito again."

At this moment, Ye Chen was also thinking in his heart, "It looks like I'll have to go to Syria again in the next two days!"

Ye Chen thought that it would be easy to go to Syria by himself.

He could still use the same low altitude way of opening his parachute last time, and I was sure he could easily bypass the encirclement of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple.

However, if he wanted to bring Su Shoudao out under the siege of more than 10,000 people, it would definitely not be an easy task.

Therefore, it would be better to go there early and have more time to prepare and see if there was a good way out.

Otherwise, if the ancestral ritual was delayed and Su Shoudao could not be allowed to go to his parents' grave to kowtow to his mistakes, how could he explain to his parents?

Moreover, Ye Chen was more or less worried whether Hamid's defence could withstand the attack of 10,000 to 20,000 soldiers of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple.

If, after a period of time, the Hall of Ten Thousand Dragons saw that the siege was unsuccessful, and became red-eyed, and was willing to pay thousands and thousands of people together with the government army to finish off Hamid, then Hamid might not really be able to withstand it.

So he went over there as early as possible to make sure that both things were done, and to avoid a long night's sleep in the future!

Ye Chen and Su Zhiyu arrived at the VIP lounge together, where Ito Nanaezi, Song Wanting and He Zhiqiu were all sitting on the sofa at this moment.

When she saw Ye Chen enter, a sudden burst of joy surged in her eyes and she quickly stood up and said with a smile, "Ye Chen-kun, you're here!"

Ye Chen gestured to her with a faint smile, and He Zhiqiu also stood up, slightly nervous and shy, and said, "Mr. Ye, you're here."

When Song Wanting saw Ye Chen, she likewise rose and said respectfully, "Master Ye, you're here!"

Ye Chen smiled at several people and nodded his head, and said, "Later on, we will have to work hard for you all to organize this conference properly. I'm sure today's launch will be very impressive!"

Chapter 3214

Song Wanting couldn't help but laugh, "Master Ye, you're too good at praising us, if you want to talk about national beauty, all three of them are.

Ito Nana-chan immediately said, "You are too modest, sister Wanting, of the three of us, you are the most feminine.

Song Wanting couldn't help but laugh, "Oh, Nana-chan, you haven't learnt anything else after spending so many days in China, but you've learnt the art of putting on a show!"

Ito Nana-chan winked mischievously and said with a smile, "A famous teacher makes a good pupil, so I must be improving as I learn from you every day!"

Ye Chen laughed, "You guys should stop bragging about each other, if you are still so unorthodox at the launch later, outsiders will definitely think that Iso Shipping is a particularly unreliable company."

Ito Nanaeko laughed, "Ye Chen, with Zhiqiu, the CEO who is extremely capable, people outside will definitely not doubt the strength of Isu Shipping.

Ye Chen said casually, "Then you can go back and discuss with your father, and integrate the Ito family's business in shipping as well, so that all three of us can work together to make Isu Shipping a top shipping group in the world, and perhaps go public in the US in the future."

When Nanae Ito heard this, her eyes lit up and she said, "That's a great idea! Instead of just pretending to be a shareholder, we should really get involved. I'll talk to Father when we get back, I'm sure he won't have a problem with it!"

Su Zhiyu also said seriously, "I also feel that your Excellency's proposal is very feasible. If the three companies have a joint venture, then your Excellency will hold 34% of the shares, and Nana-chan and I will each hold 33%.

He Zhiqiu said with some excitement, "If we can really achieve such a three-way merger, then we will be invincible in the whole of Asia, and such a merger will do all three of us more good than harm, not only will we be able to unite our strengths and unite with each other, but we will also be able to avoid internal conflicts caused by competition between each other!"

The two domestic taxi-hailing software were competing for money every day, but they were both killing a thousand enemies and losing a thousand themselves. Whoever has more blood, who will survive to the end."

"However, this business model, the one that survives to the end, even if the victory month is a miserable victory, I am afraid that by then it will already be dying, it is easy for others to take advantage of the situation, that's why they choose to merge."

"After the two sides merged, not only did they not have to fight to the death, but they were even able to consolidate their resources and form a near-monopoly dominant position, instantly squeezing all other competitors in the industry to the edge of dying, while they themselves were able to use their absolute dominant position to keep raising prices, so their prices have become more and more expensive and their services worse and worse over the years, for this very reason! "

As soon as He Zhiqiu's words left his mouth, Su Zhiyu immediately said, "If we combine our efforts to form an absolute dominant position, we will definitely be able to influence shipping prices to a certain extent as well!"

Ye Chen smiled, "Let Nanaeko go back and talk to Mr. Ito about the feasibility of this matter, and if Mr. Ito is interested, the few of you will work out the details when the time comes, I won't be involved."

Ito Nana-chan was busy saying, "Lord Father hasn't left China yet, he himself is at Buckingham Palace, it's just that because of his health, he doesn't really want to appear in the public eye, so he didn't come down for the launch, later on when the launch is over, I'll go to him first and ask him what he wants."

Ye Chen nodded: "That's better, maybe you can have a lunch date together at noon and talk about this matter while you eat."

Ito Nanaeko asked with a look of anticipation, "Ye Chen-kun, do you want to join us at noon?"

Ye Chen smiled and said, "I have something to do at noon."

He Zhiqiu couldn't help but spit out, "You've dumped your hand too completely, haven't you? Even if you don't get involved in small matters, are you not involved in such big matters?"

Ye Chen spread out his hands and said seriously, "I'm not as professional as you guys in this area, so I won't go and join in the fun."

As he was speaking, Chen Zekai came over and spoke, "Gentlemen, the launch starts in five minutes and the media and guests are already here."

Su Zhiyu then said to the other three women, "Then let's go there first."

Ye Chen then said to them, "You guys go first, I'll talk to Old Chen about something."

Ito Nana-chan was busy saying, "Ye Chen-kun, don't stay hidden in the lounge, remember to come over later to watch the launch!"

"Okay!" Ye Chen agreed, and after seeing the four leave, he immediately said to Chen Zekai, "Old Chen, tell my grandfather that I'm going to Syria first thing tomorrow morning, and ask him to transfer the Concorde to Jinling this evening!"

Chapter 3215

When he had first sent Su Shoudao to Syria, Ye Chen had no idea that Hamid would be in such a big mess.

A small armed leader with only 2,000 to 3,000 men was surrounded by a group of over 10,000 elite soldiers from the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple, which should have been unprecedented in Syria.

Ye Chen also did not expect that he would sneak into Syria for the second time after a short interval.

The last time he sneaked into Syria, it was to bring He Zhiqiu back, but this time, it was actually Su Shoudao instead.

When Chen Zekai heard that Ye Chen was going to Syria again, he said nervously, "Young master, the situation in Syria is not very stable recently, why are you going there again now?"

Ye Chen shrugged his shoulders and sighed lightly, "I want to pick up Su Shoudao before the Qingming Festival, so that he won't be delayed in going to Mount Yehling to thank my parents on Qingming Festival."

Chen Zekai blurted out, "Young master, I heard that that Hamid has now offended the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, and the whole base is surrounded, so even if you can get in yourself, it won't be good for you to come out with that old dog Su Shoudao!"

Ye Chen asked curiously, "Old Chen, you're also following the situation in Syria?"

Chen Zekai nodded and said, "After I went there with you last time, I became more interested in that Hamid, so I paid more attention to it."

Saying that, Chen Zekai added, "Moreover, for so many years in the Ye family, what I did was mainly intelligence gathering, so I have some information channels both at home and abroad."

Ye Chen nodded and asked him, "Then let me ask you, how much do you know about that Ten Thousand Dragons Hall?"

Chen Zekai explained, "The Ten Thousand Dragons Temple was really quite famous overseas last year, they seemed to have started out in South America, there were many drug lords there, and there was constant turmoil, which was very suitable for the development of private armies as well as guerrillas and mercenaries, later on, after they gradually grew bigger, they left South America and started to enter Africa and the Middle East, wherever there was war, they were there, and the scale was getting bigger and bigger these years. "

Ye Chen asked curiously, "Do you know who the actual controller of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple is?"

"Not sure about that." Richard Chen said, "This guy has always been quite mysterious, not much personal information has been circulated, the only thing that can be confirmed is that the founder of this Ten Thousand Dragons Temple is a yellow man who is said to be of Chinese descent."

Ye Chen nodded and said, "Well, the odds are that he is of Chinese descent, otherwise he wouldn't have given such a name."

Chen Zekai added, "Young master, the Ten Thousand Dragon Temple is said to be full of experts, you must be more careful if you meet up with this group of people."

Ye Chen said blandly, "Actually, I am quite interested in this Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, an armed mercenary force of tens of thousands of people, in some extra-legal places, their strength is really not to be underestimated, so it is just as well to take this opportunity to feel out the bottom of this Ten Thousand Dragons Hall and see what level their elites are."

Saying that, Ye Chen slightly narrowed his eyes and said playfully, "I feel that the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall might have some kind of connection with Su Chengfeng, but I can't quite eat it right now,

Su Chengfeng definitely wants to find me out the most right now, so I just happen to want to go and probe the falseness of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall first as well."

Chen Zekai said, "Then I'll go with you!"

Ye Chen waved his hand, "You don't need to come with me, the situation in Syria is special now, you can't even take a helicopter to enter from Lebanon like last time, when I go in, I still have to find my own way out, it's safest to be alone."

Richard Chen sighed, "It's just that that old dog Su Shoudao is too difficult to deal with, you will definitely have no problem getting in and out on your own, but if you bring him out with you, I'm really afraid he will hold you back."

Chapter 3216

Ye Chen laughed and joked, "Then what should I do? I've promised Su Zhiyu to keep him alive as a dog, so I can't just go and bring him back in an urn, right?"

Richard Chen gritted his teeth and said seriously, "If we can't, we'll dump the pot on Hamid or the Ten Thousand Dragon Temple."

Ye Chen waved his hand, "A great man keeps his word, since I said I would keep him alive, I will never kill him."

After saying that, Ye Chen added, "Alright, you don't have to worry too much, I have a way to bring Su Shoudao out safely."

"Good!" Chen Zekai instructed, "Then you must be careful in all things, young master!"

Ye Chen nodded and said, "Right, at eight or nine o'clock in the evening, come to my home, say that I am invited to go out of town to check the feng shui of a friend in the morning, then I will ask you for the location, just say that you are going to Banyan City, as for the reward, just say that you will pay three million."

Chen Zekai was busy saying, "Okay young master, I know."

When Ye Zhongquan heard that Ye Chen was going to Syria again, his first thought was to dissuade Ye Chen as much as possible and not let him go.

After all, the situation in Syria was unstable and the Ye Family Ancestral Ceremony was about to begin, so Ye Zhongquan did not want Ye Chen to risk his life again at this time.

However, after thinking about it, he felt that it would be difficult for him to persuade Ye Chen.

Instead of trying to persuade him, he would still insist on going, so he might as well do it simply and gain some goodwill from him.

So, without saying a word, he immediately told the crew to get ready and take off at night for Jinling, so that he could drive Ye Chen directly to Lebanon first thing in the morning.

Ye Chen returned home and had dinner with his wife and in-laws as if nothing had happened. After dinner the family was watching TV in the living room when the doorbell suddenly rang.

Xiao Churan got up and went to the foyer, and when she saw that the video call screen was actually Richard Chen, she said to Ye Chen with some surprise, "Honey, it seems to be Mr. Chen from Buckingham Palace!"

Ye Chen then said, "Oh, then it's possible that he's here to see me, open the door."

Xiao Churan nodded and pressed the unlock button, and soon, Chen Zekai came to the door and knocked gently on it.

Xiao Churan opened the door and said politely, "Hello, Mr Chen!"

Chen Zekai also hurriedly greeted, "Hello Mrs. Ye, sorry for intruding at this late hour, may I ask if Master Ye is home?"

Ye Chen called out from the living room, "I'm here, what's the matter with Mr. Chen?"

Chen Zekai walked up to Ye Chen with some embarrassment and said seriously, "Master Ye, there is something I would like to ask you for a favour."

Ye Chen smiled and said, "Mr. Chen, you don't have to be so polite, just say what you want."

Chen Zekai then said as Ye Chen had arranged, "Master Ye, I have a friend who is doing business overseas, and recently his company has encountered a bit of trouble in its operation. "

As soon as he heard that someone was going to ask Ye Chen to look at his feng shui, Ma Lan's eyes were immediately rounded and he asked him, "Mr. Chen, I wonder how much your friend can pay to ask my son-in-law to look at his feng shui?"

Chen Zekai said, "That's right, Ms. Ma, my friend means to pay three million as long as Master Ye is willing to go, and five million if the problem can be solved!"

"Boy, that's a lot!" Ma Lan said with delight, "It's so easy for our family Ye Chen to make money!"

At this time, Ye Chen asked Chen Zekai, "Where is your friend?"

Chen Zekai said, "In Rongcheng, it's about two hours if you take a plane there!"

Ye Chen nodded gently and said, "Then how about this, you book a ticket for me to Rongcheng at the earliest tomorrow, and then give me his detailed address."

"That's great!" Chen Zechen busily said, "I'll have someone book the ticket for you, and I'll give you the ticket information after it's booked!"

"Good." Ye Chen then said, "Then it's settled."

Chen Zekai nodded in understanding and said, "Master Ye, then I will leave you alone for now, thank you!"

Chapter 3217

The reason for reading feng shui did not arouse the family's suspicion.

Although Xiao Churan did not want Ye Chen to continue running around reading feng shui, she knew that she could not force him to do so, so she did not say anything more.

Ye Chen simply packed two pieces of clothing and was ready to go out early in the morning before dawn, but Xiao Churan quietly set an early alarm clock and quickly got up from bed, insisting on taking Ye Chen to the airport.

Ye Chen saw that she was firm, so he did not refuse. The two of them agreed that when they went to the airport Ye Chen would drive, and when they arrived Xiao Churan would drive straight back, Ye Chen's reason being that this would save them from wasting time going to the parking building to park again, and that they could just stop at the entrance to the departure area and leave immediately.

Xiao Churan agreed and the couple left the house together.

Xiao Churan thought that Ye Chen was just going to Rongcheng and had no idea that her husband was going to Syria, so on the way she even introduced Ye Chen to the special snacks of Rongcheng so that he could go and try them if he had time.

When they arrived at the airport, Ye Chen parked the car at the curb of the departure area, and then said to Xiao Churan, "Alright, you hurry up and drive home, while it's still early, you can still catch up on your sleep for a while longer."

Xiao Churan nodded and both of them got out of the car, Xiao Churan changed to the driver's door and asked Ye Chen before getting into the car, "How soon will you be back, husband?"

Ye Chen thought about it and said, "A day or two if fast, two or three if slow, it mainly depends on whether the feng shui situation on their side is tricky or not, if it's tricky, it's possible to be a few days late."

"Alright." Xiao Churan nodded gently and said, "Then you should take care of yourself in the next few days, eat on time and go to bed early."

"Good." Ye Chen agreed with his mouth full and instructed her, "Be safe when you drive back."

"En yet, I know!"

Xiao Churan said, before reluctantly getting into the car and leaving.

Ye Chen watched her car go far away before he stepped forward to the business jet building.

At this moment, the Ye family's incredibly precious Concorde was already ready for all the preparations before take-off.

After Ye Chen went through the security check through the VIP lane and got on the plane, the time was 6am Yanjing time, while Syria was five hours behind China at this time, and it was 1pm at night.

Ye Chen felt that Hamid would probably not sleep so early, so he used the satellite phone on the plane to call Hamid.

Hamid received a call from an unfamiliar number, and when he picked up, he said, somewhat alertly, "hello?"

Ye Chen then immediately said, "Hi what's up, it's me."

Hamid said excitedly, "Aiya, Brother Ye! Why are you calling me at this time?"

Ye Chen said, "I'm on the plane right now, it's about to take off for Beirut airport in Lebanon, after I arrive at Beirut airport, I will immediately change to another plane to Syria, and then I will parachute over your base like last time, if it's quick, I should be able to arrive before dawn in Syria. "

"What do you mean? You're coming to Syria?" When Hamid heard this, his whole person was so excited that he could not attach to it and said offhandedly, "Ye olde brother, are you not teasing me?"

"Of course not." Ye Chen said seriously, "I am going over there this time to bring Su Shoudao back to China, and also to see how things are going over there with you."

"Great! That's wonderful!" Hamid said excitedly, "I've been dreaming of you coming to help me out, but I've never dared to hope, but I never thought I'd get my wish!"

Hamid asked, a little surprised, "Hey, brother, you said you'd be here before dawn? We have more than 5 hours before dawn here, and it will take you 10 hours to fly here from China, at least?"

Chapter 3218

Ye Chen laughed, "A normal plane might take 10 hours, but a Concorde will be enough in 5 hours."

"Grass," Hamid exclaimed, "You have a Concorde, I'm really impressed."

Ye Chen said indifferently, "It's not mine, it's borrowed."

Hamid blurted out, "It's a talent to see such an awesome plane!"

Ye Chen smiled indifferently and said, "Set an alarm clock to wake up in five hours, hurry up and rest, let's see you in five hours."

"Good!" Hamid said with exuberance, "See you in five hours!"

Soon, the Concorde was flying 10,000 metres into the sky under the sunset, heading west at breakneck speed.

More than four hours later, the Concorde landed smoothly at Beirut Airport in Lebanon.

The man waiting to greet Ye Chen at the Beirut airport was the same man who had worked for Ye Zhongquan last time, Han Guangyao.

As soon as Ye Chen stepped off the plane, Han Guangyao hurriedly came forward and said respectfully, "Young master, you have had a long journey."

Ye Chen waved his hand, "No hard work, is the plane ready? When is it leaving?"

Han Guangyao pointed to the twin-propeller transport plane next to the Concorde and said, "Young master, the plane is ready to take off at any time."

"Good." Ye Chen nodded, "There's no time to lose, hurry up and set off."

Han Guangyao hurriedly led Ye Chen towards that transport plane, while saying very seriously, "Young master, the situation in Syria now has changed greatly from the time you came last time, the government army has now drafted over 10,000 elites from the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall from overseas, and has already fought two or three round trips with Hamid, now they have completely blocked Hamid's base, and are still narrowing the encirclement, you must be sure to control the direction when you jump, never stray from your destination, once you stray out, you will probably land on top of the other side's head."

Ye Chen nodded and said, "I understand, in addition, does the other side have long range ground to air weapons? Will your transport planes flying over their heads be detected by their radar?"

Han Guangyao waved his hand and said, "Don't worry, they don't have anti-aircraft radar, nor do they have surface-to-air missiles, the only few anti-aircraft systems the Syrian military has are deployed at the border, and all the opposition forces in the territory don't have fixed-wing aircraft, so they can't use that kind of anti-aircraft system, and the same goes for the Ten Thousand Dragon Temple, they are good at special warfare and don't have much heavy weapons. "

"Good." Ye Chen praised, "Old Han, you have a good grasp of the situation in Syria."

Han Guangyao was busy saying, "I only knew that you were coming, Young Master, so I improvised and asked around at night."

As he said that, Han Guangyao could not help but ask him, "Young master, the master asked me to ask you for him, have you made a plan to retreat? In Syria now, it's good to get in but not good to get out!"

Ye Chen smiled confidently and said seriously, "Don't worry, I have my own plans."

To Ye Chen, if he took Su Shoudao out of Syria, there were only two ways.

One, was to take him all the way out by sneaking, but that would be too hard and risky, tens of kilometres of mountain road, taking Su Shoudao out and not being discovered by the soldiers surrounded by the other side, tired and difficult.

The other, is to directly let Hamid arrange for the helicopter to fly out, but this is a greater risk factor, because the helicopter flies low and slow, and although the shoulder-launched Stinger missiles have difficulty in hitting fixed-wing aircraft, but if they hit helicopters, almost one hit will be accurate, and they may be targeted by the other side's shoulder-launched missiles just after taking off.

Therefore, after thinking about it, Ye Chen thought that there was only one feasible way for him to bring Su Shoudao out, and that was to capture the opponent's top commander, just like he did last time when he took He Zhiqiu away, and then take the emperor's son to order his vassals!

Chapter 3219

When the sky to the east of Syria was just glimmering with the white of a fish's belly, Ye Chen leapt down from a height of several thousand metres for the second time with his parachute on his back.

Hamid had been waiting at the top of the mountain with Su Shoudao, who was still awake, at the exact moment.

Su Shoudao had been suffering from a nervous breakdown over the past two days due to the commotion of the war, and was not able to eat or sleep well every day.

Su Shoudao was dragged out by Hamid in a confused manner and thought that Hamid was going to shoot him, but after several questions, Hamid did not tell him why.

Seeing that the top of the hill was bare and empty, he felt a pang in his heart and asked Hamid, "Commander Hamid, what are you doing to bring me here so early in the morning?"

Hamid said impatiently, "Cut the crap and stay put all the time! As for what I'm going to do, you'll find out later!"

Seeing Hamid's impatient expression, Su Shoudao could only shrink his neck resentfully and say no more.

At this moment, Hamid was holding a binocular, searching for something in the faintly lit sky.

And under his breath, he muttered, "It's about time, isn't it? Where is it? I don't see it."

The more Su Shoudao looked, the more puzzled he became, and after half a day of thinking, a thought suddenly popped into his head, so he asked nervously, "Commander Hahamid the Qingming Festival is coming up, did Ye Chen ask you to send me back? I can't leave now! Otherwise, it's possible that before the helicopter flies a few kilometres, I'll be taken away by a missile shot from the Man Long Temple"

In fact, Su Shoudao had recently been thinking about this matter of returning to China for the Qingming Festival.

Before the Dragon Hall declared war on Hamid, he was hoping that the Qingming Festival would come soon so that he could return to China sooner, even if it was just for a few days, it would be much better than staying in this shitty place.

But after the two fights with Hamid at the Hall of Ten Thousand Dragons and the heavy losses he suffered, Su Shoudao did not dare to leave.

He had learned about the current situation in the past two days, and knew that Hamid's base had been surrounded, and also knew that Hamid was prepared to fight a protracted war with powerful fortifications and a large amount of strategic reserves, so he was afraid that this guy Ye Chen would insist on getting himself back to his country.

He knew that at this time, it was safest to stay at Hamid's base.

Now, Hamid had brought him to the top of the mountain and was looking around in the sky with his binoculars, as if he was looking for something, which made Su Shoudao mistakenly think that Hamid was waiting for a helicopter and wanted to send himself away by helicopter.

Therefore, he was in a very frightened mood.

Hamid heard him buzzing at his ears and kicked him in the face with great dissatisfaction, cursing, "Chattering chattering chattering, I told you to cut the fucking crap, but you don't understand, do you?"

Su Shoudao was angry and scared, but he didn't want to risk his own life, so he could only plead bitterly, "Commander Hamid, listen to me, since the enemy has blocked us, they will definitely try to block our ground and air routes by all means. I don't care if I die, but if I die and you have to take a valuable helicopter, it's not worth it, do you think?"

Hamid grabbed him by the collar and slapped him twice, "I told you to bullshit, I told you to bullshit!"

Chapter 3220

Two slaps to Su Shoudao's eyes and ears, and before Su Shoudao could recover, Hamid took off his own Stallone beret from the top of his head, rolled the hat into a ball with both hands, pinched Su Shoudao's cheeks on both sides, and shoved the hat into his mouth, cursing, "One more word of bullshit, and I'll have you fed shit!"

Su Shoudao almost collapsed.

He really wanted to kill Hamid, but he knew in his heart that it would be very difficult to kill Hamid with his own abilities.

Even if he was still the Su family's Grand Duke, it would be meaningless. With all of the Su family's guards, it would not be enough to fire up a reinforced company of Hamid, and he was no match for Hamid.

Therefore, this kick plus two slaps, and a beret of revenge, I am afraid that this life will never have a chance to revenge.

At the thought of this, Su Shoudao only felt that his life was a grey one.

However, he did not dare to touch Hamid's bad luck, so he shut his mouth and stood aside without making a sound.

At this moment, Hamid suddenly saw a large black umbrella suddenly blossom above his head, and upon closer inspection, he saw a parachute had opened less than a hundred metres above his head, and then descended rapidly.

The one controlling this parachute was Ye Chen, who had come all the way from China!

Hamid said to himself in excitement, "I'm here! At last!"

When Su Shoudao looked up, he saw that the parachute was already less than 50 metres above the ground.

Su Shoudao was dumbfounded and thought to himself, "This man is looking for death, isn't he? At such a fast speed and at such a low distance, it would be strange if he didn't fall to pieces!"

Just as he finished speaking, he saw that the rapidly falling parachute suddenly seemed to be cut off, and then the parachute lost its tension and instantly flew backwards, while another black dot fell directly to the ground at a fast speed.

The huge acceleration of gravity seemed to have no effect on him, and as soon as he landed, he took off his parachute bag and threw it aside as if nothing had happened.

At that moment, Hamid arrived with Su Shoudao in tow, and when he was still a few dozen metres away from Ye Chen, he was already excited and shouted, "Brother Ye! We've finally met again!"

Ye Chen looked at Hamid as he ran all the way, and couldn't help but tease him, "Older brother, your legs are really sharp."

Hamid came to stand in front of Ye Chen and said with a smile, "It's all thanks to you!"

With that, Hamid threw Su Shoudao over and pointed at him and said to Ye Chen, "Brother Ye, I've brought this guy along to greet you, and I'd like to review his fate with you, he hasn't lost an arm or a leg during the time he's been with me, you can check the goods!"

Su Shoudao was dumbfounded.

He really did not expect that the person who had jumped by suicide was Ye Chen.

This made him think in his heart, "What kind of strength is this guy Ye Chen? Jumping from such a height without a scratch, this is no longer something that a martial arts expert can fucking match, right?"

On top of that, he didn't expect that this guy Ye Chen would come to Syria at this time.

In his heart, he was puzzled and thought, "Could it be that Ye Chen came to Syria this time to bring me back to China and attend the Ye Family Ancestral Ceremony? This guy this guy is too desperate, right? Risking so much to bring me back? What's the need for you to let me cat out in a cave in Syria alone?"
