

Ye Chen 3251

Chapter 3251

Hearing that Chen Zhonglei was going to show off his muscles to the negotiators sent by Hamid, the entire 15,000 soldiers of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple immediately began to prepare as if they had been beaten by chicken blood.

Apart from a very small number of senior and middle ranking officers of the Dragon Hall who were determined to avenge their dead brothers, the vast majority of the rest of the soldiers of the Dragon Hall had no feelings whatsoever about revenge.

After all, they are all mercenaries, and they come from all over the world to fight for money, so they are not really touched by who died or who was injured.

The issues they really cared about were all closely related to themselves, such as how much money they were paid, whether it was dangerous or not, whether it was tough or not.

Everything else is completely beside the point and above the point.

It is not because of any sense of collective honour that they are so interested in showing off their muscles at the moment, but because they have long been bored of staying in this shitty place and want to get it over with.

Now that the other side has come for peace talks, they should show off their muscles in front of the other side, the better to scare them and make them surrender meekly.

When they heard that the government army had gone to great lengths to draw 20,000 to 30,000 men from elsewhere for this parade, the soldiers of the Palace of the Ten Thousand Dragons were even more excited.

As for the matter of not allowing live ammunition, it's nothing unusual, there are few live-fire parades in this world, only one was the Soviet parade in 1941, where more than 100,000 soldiers participated in the parade on one side, and then immediately marched off to defend the country.

In addition, all parades must be free of live ammunition, otherwise in case anyone leaves a bullet in his gun and kills the enemy representative with a single shot when he comes to the front, the situation would be really unmanageable.

As a result, the soldiers of Wan Long Temple have consciously removed all ammunition from their guns, and orders have been issued by their superiors that officers at all levels must check the firearms of their rank and file twice to confirm.

At the same time, the government troops were also actively preparing, only they were the opposite of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple, who wanted to make sure that all their weapons and ammunition were in a state of readiness.

Soldiers from both sides then began to line up in a large open area in front of the camp.

The government troops who had been fighting alongside the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple were assembled on the right side of the Temple, while the government troops who had been specially deployed from all over the world were arranged to assemble on the left side of the Temple, while a large number of armoured vehicles were all lined up and parked directly in front of them, which was tantamount to wrapping the 15,000 men of the Temple in dumplings.

However, the soldiers of the Hall of Ten Thousand Dragons did not feel anything unusual.

Chen Zhonglei, at Ye Chen's behest, walked out from the meeting room where the negotiations were taking place.

He went straight to the front of his own soldiers' formation, hands behind his back, and repeated one phrase emphatically: "All listen to the order! We must display our strongest posture and strive to overwhelm the enemy from the momentum!"

All the mercenaries of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall responded, each standing as tall as a pine.

At the same time, they also despised the government troops on the left and right, these guys, all of them hanging around, how could they look like soldiers.

But who would have thought that just as the army was assembled and the 15,000 soldiers of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple were waiting for Hamid's negotiators to appear, all the government troops suddenly turned their guns and cannons on the 15,000 soldiers of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple and immediately afterwards, someone shouted through a loud speaker, "All soldiers of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple must surrender unconditionally with their hands raised! Anyone who dares to resist and refuses to surrender will be killed on sight!"

With this, the 15,000 soldiers of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall exploded into a frenzy!

Who would have thought that things would suddenly take such a huge turn for the worse!

Chapter 3252

Who would have thought that friendly troops, who were fighting side by side, would suddenly turn on each other with guns?

Just when everyone was at a loss as to what to do, Chen Zhonglei said loudly, "All soldiers of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple, listen to the order! I order you to surrender unconditionally to the government troops, to wait for the government troops to be sent to you, and not to resist, or else you will suffer the consequences!"

At this moment, the soldiers of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple all collapsed.

If it was a friendly army that had suddenly turned against them, it could barely be justified, but their own supreme commander had also turned against them, what the hell was this? This is one of the four war lords of the Dragon Palace, how could he be in cahoots with the government army?

Xu Yingdong, who had the best relationship with Chen Zhonglei, could not help but ask, "Commander, what the hell is going on here?"

Chen Zhonglei said in a cold voice: "I told you to surrender, but you don't understand human words?"

Xu Yingdong was dumbfounded, he didn't want to believe that his closest comrade, the brother he grew up with, would betray everyone, so he couldn't help but ask, "Brother Lei, what the hell is wrong with you? What are you doing this for?!"

Before Chen Zhonglei had become one of the four war kings, Xu Yingdong had always called him Brother Lei, and this had been the title that Xu Yingdong had never changed to Chen Zhonglei since he was a child, and at this moment, he also hoped that he could use this way to wake up his brother and make him come back to his senses.

However, Chen Zhonglei had long since lost control of himself.

His consciousness was about to collapse and he wanted to kill himself, but his body was out of control as he walked up to Xu Yingdong and slapped him across the face, saying angrily, "I'll kill you if you talk any more nonsense!"

Xu Yingdong burst into tears, and he couldn't help but choke back a sob, "Brother Lei! You are one of the most loyal patriarchs of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, the Hall is your lifelong faith, how can you"

Chen Zhonglei's own consciousness was already suffering to the extreme, but his body could not help but pull out his pistol and put the muzzle against Xu Yingdong's head, speaking in a cold voice, "One more word of nonsense and I will shoot!"

Xu Yingdong looked at Chen Zhonglei's murderous eyes, and while his heart was desperate to the extreme, he also gave up struggling.

Although he did not know what Chen Zhonglei had gone through and why exactly he had become like this, he knew that at this moment Chen Zhonglei's determination had already been made up, and nothing he could say would be of any use.

When Chen Zhonglei saw that Xu Yingdong no longer spoke, he then put away his gun and said in a cold voice, "If you surrender obediently, the government troops will not make things difficult for you, but if you dare to resist, you will be killed on the spot immediately!"

At this moment, the government army's armoured vehicles had already surrounded them on all sides, and the muzzles of the guns on the armoured vehicles as well as the guns of the heavy machine guns were all aimed at the 15,000 soldiers of the Ten Thousand Dragon Temple.

Chen Zhonglei paused slightly and added: "You must remember! You are non-government armed forces, and even if you are killed by the other side's army in the territory of another country, the other side can completely define you as a hostile force that has illegally invaded, and no one will say a word for your deaths then!"

These Dragon God Temple generals had completely given up the idea of resisting after hearing Chen Zhonglei's words, coupled with the dark guns and cannons in front of them.

Even though there were still many three-star as well as four-star war generals among them, they did not dare to make a move at all at this moment.

Because they knew that the other side still wanted to solve the problem peacefully, and if they made a move, the other side could simply shoot.

What is the point of a three-star or four-star general?

Even if they were five-star generals, they could not afford to take a single shot from an AK47.

Therefore, they had no choice but to give up their hands!

Chapter 3253

Fifteen thousand elites from the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall were instantly made prisoners.

In order to keep them well under control, the government army tied them up in batches, and once the batches were tied up, they were sent directly onto trucks, which pulled them to the capital.

Long before the army arrived to support them, the top brass of the government army had already decided how the 15,000 prisoners would be housed.

They were transported by truck to various military prisons, barracks and municipal prisons in various cities for splitting and control.

In this way, the 15,000 soldiers of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall could be prevented from uniting to resist or escape from prison.

As the soldiers of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall were being pulled away in batches by trucks, the government commander, Said, approached Ye Chen and respectfully asked, "Master Ye, now that we have captured these 15,000 soldiers of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall, we are at a loss as to what to do with so many prisoners of war, do you have any good suggestions as to our next direction?"

Ye Chen casually said, "The first thing you should do now is to pull out all the officers for surprise interrogation, make sure they confess to the mischievous intentions of the Ten Thousand Dragon Temple towards your country, all the confessions must form a complete chain of evidence, including but not limited to the written version of the confessions signed and pledged by their own hands, as well as the video recording of the entire process. "

After a pause, Ye Chen added: "After you get this evidence, you will immediately make it public, telling the world that your capture of the soldiers of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple is backed up by sufficient legal reasoning and is reasonable and legal, so that the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple will be sitting on the charge of threatening the national security of other countries."

"In this way, on the one hand, you can have the absolute right on the legal level and gain the support of international public opinion; on the other hand, you can also make the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall a target of everyone's shouting, so that the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall will definitely not dare to retaliate against you in any form!"

"Understood!" Said nodded his head repeatedly and said, "Then what should we do with these 15,000 people?"

Ye Chen said seriously, "Since they have violated your homeland security, naturally they should be tried openly and fairly using your country's laws."

Said said awkwardly, "If we follow our laws, these 15,000 people should be sentenced to life imprisonment, if not death, but with our financial and social resources, how can we afford to feed so many prisoners"

Ye Chen laughed, "This is simple, you guys grab the time to fix the evidence, grab the time to hold a public trial, then negotiate with the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple, demand that the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple must pay enough bail money to bail these fifteen thousand people out, as soon as the bail money is in place, you immediately deport everyone."

"The bail money," Said asked out of the blue, "What do you think is the right amount?"

Ye Chen looked at him and smiled, "I suggest that you first find out the size of the economy of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple, and then get on their nerves and offer a maximum price that they can afford, so that the money from the compensation can be used for some infrastructure."

Saying that, Ye Chen thought about it himself and spoke, "I think a billion dollars up or down should be properly fine."

"Good!" Said said excitedly, "Then I'll report to my superiors right now!"

Ye Chen nodded, looked at the time and said indifferently, "Alright, I still have a lot of things to do, so you guys can handle it yourselves over here, but you have to remember what you promised me, a permanent truce with Hamid, and give Hamid enough freedom to develop on his own, without infringing on each other."

Saeed said without hesitation, "Don't worry, we will keep our promise!"

Ye Chen then said, "How about this, I will leave Chen Zhonglei with you first, you will interrogate him immediately, I will make him cooperate fully, know everything and say everything, after you have fixed all the evidence, send a helicopter to send him to Hamid, meanwhile you will also follow him over there, bring the truce agreement and sign the agreement with Hamid. "

Chapter 3254

Said asked in disbelief, "Master Ye, do you want Chen Zhonglei to go to Hamid?"

"No." Ye Chen said indifferently, "I still have use for this man, I want to take him away."

Sayid knew that with Ye Chen's divine ability, it was impossible for him to be Hamid's military master, he thought it must be a great god-level figure that Hamid had moved from outside, so he hurriedly agreed and said, "Don't worry, we will immediately conduct a surprise interrogation on him, and after fixing the evidence, I will personally send him to you at Hamid's place!"

"Good." Ye Chen nodded and added, "Go and call Chen Zhonglei over, I will instruct him a few words."

"Okay Master Ye, you wait a moment!"

At this moment, Chen Zhonglei was experiencing the greatest pain and suffering of his life.

Watching with his own eyes his own brothers, completely betrayed by himself, and being tied up and dragged away by the enemy by the truckload, with their future uncertain, was too much for him to bear.

Every single soldier of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall threw the most vicious abuse and curses at him, and those pairs of angry eyes pierced his heart deeply.

He even wanted to close his eyes and not look into their resentful eyes, but he simply could not.

For even his eyelids were no longer under his control.

His consciousness was like a parasite inside his own body, able to feel everything, but unable to control anything.

His own body had become his strongest prison.

There was nothing under the sun more painful than this.

Just then, Said came to him and spoke, "Chen Zhonglei, Grandmaster Ye is looking for you, hurry over!"

When he heard the words Master Ye, Chen Zhonglei's consciousness was filled with fear, while his body, however, had already involuntarily moved his feet, and he ran towards the conference room immediately without half a second's hesitation.

Darting to the conference room, Chen Zhonglei felt his body bowing uncontrollably to Ye Chen and said respectfully, "Master Ye, what are your orders for me?"

Ye Chen said indifferently, "Later on, Sayid will take you to make a statement and a statement, you must cooperate with him completely and tell him all the unseemly deeds of your Ten Thousand Dragon Temple, do you understand?"

Although Chen Zhonglei's autonomous consciousness refused for ten thousand times, his body still said uncontrollably, "Yes Master Ye, I will cooperate fully"

Ye Chen nodded in satisfaction and turned to Said, "Said, you remember to make sure to find someone from your team who is proficient in Chinese or English writing, take down all the transcripts in detail and form a paper document, when you send him to Hamid's place, bring me a copy of the transcripts, I want to see them. "

Said agreed without hesitation and said, "Don't worry, Master Ye, we'll try to get this all done in the fastest possible time, then I'll take him and go over to see you!"

"Good." Ye Chen stood up and said indifferently, "You go and arrange for a helicopter to take me to the place where we met before, I will go back and wait for you."

Chapter 3255

When Ye Chen returned to Hamid's base by helicopter, Hamid, who had been informed of his return journey in advance, could not wait to come out to greet him.

As soon as Ye Chen stepped off the plane, he couldn't wait to come forward and ask, "Elder brother! My scouts said that the drones saw that the government troops seemed to have captured all the people of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple, what is going on?"

Ye Chen smiled faintly and said, "The government army has flipped with the Ten Thousand Dragon Temple, now all the soldiers of the Ten Thousand Dragon Temple have been captured, and they have also promised to make a truce with you, in the future, if there are no special circumstances, you try to maintain a neutral stance with them as well as possible."

Hamid was a little confused for a moment and opened his mouth to ask, "How could they turn against the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple, old brother? This this is too sudden, isn't it?"

Seeing that he was shocked, Ye Chen then told Hamid in detail about what had happened.

Hamid was dumbfounded as he listened to the whole story and said offhandedly, "After you left, I envisaged countless possibilities, but I didn't think this would happen either"

Ye Chen laughed, "I didn't expect it either, what I had thought was that I would go there and put Chen Zhonglei under control and then coerce him to escort Su Shoudao and I out, but to my surprise, when he saw the state of affairs at the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall had been revealed, he took the initiative to attack that Sayid, just giving me a chance to wipe them out."

Hamid couldn't help but give Ye Chen a thumbs up and exclaimed, "Elder brother Ye, you've really struck a balance between four and a thousand pounds!"

Saying that, he couldn't help but ask Ye Chen, "Older brother, do you think I should really call a truce with the government forces?"

Ye Chen nodded and said firmly, "Of course we should call a truce, don't think that you have a strong defence force and a lot of strategic reserves now, even more will be depleted at some point, continuing to stalemate will do you absolutely no good."

Hamid said awkwardly, "Actually, I'm not saying that I must fight them to the end, it's just that I'm afraid that their willingness to call a truce now is just a kind of delaying tactic, in case they free up their hands and start hitting me again, what will I do?"

Ye Chen said seriously, "I'm asking you to stop your station, but I'm not asking you to surrender, once the truce is over, you can still continue to expand your armaments and continue to build your defences, and after the truce, they definitely won't surround you anymore, so you can resume the transportation of supplies, and even hire more construction teams to help you build your base again. Even if they flip out one day, you'll have more initiative."

Hamid thought about it carefully and realised that what Ye Chen said did make sense.

No matter how strong one's strategic reserves were, the days when one was under a deadly siege by the enemy were always the most dangerous and difficult. Since the other side would withdraw their troops after the truce, it would be like giving themselves a chance to catch their breath, and they must seize this opportunity to continue to improve their defensive capabilities.

He then said excitedly, "Older brother, I understand, don't worry, I will definitely do my best to build the base even more solidly!"

Ye Chen nodded slightly and spoke again, "I believe it won't take long for Said to personally come over to sign the armistice agreement with you, I have already asked him to send Chen Zhonglei over with him then, when you have signed the armistice agreement, I will take Su Shoudao and Chen Zhonglei back to Huaxia."

Hamid asked, "Older brother, are you in such a hurry? Not staying for two more days?"

Ye Chen waved his hand and said, "No, I still have a lot of things to do back there, especially since the Qingming Festival, which is dedicated to paying respects to our ancestors in China, is coming up, and I have to go back to pay respects to my parents, so I won't delay here any longer."

He said, Ye Chen also unapologetically continued, "Moreover, the conditions of your place are too hard, there is nothing, there is not even a tourist attraction, there is no point for me to stay here for two days, I'd better go back first."

Chapter 3256

But don't worry, after the truce, I will immediately start a new round of infrastructure construction, and then I will definitely dig out some high-class guest rooms inside the mountain.

On the surface, Ye Chen smiled and agreed, but in his heart he was muttering, "I really don't want to come back to this kind of shitty place in the future!"

Three hours later, Hamid's scouts sent word that the government troops had started to retreat.

Most of the infantry had already left in their vehicles, and the original artillery and armoured vehicles had also withdrawn to the capital, leaving only a few soldiers to pack up tents, portable shelters and other supplies.

And at this time, Hamid's adjutant came to report, claiming that a helicopter was approaching the base.

Hamid knew that this must be Saeed coming to sign the truce, so he instructed his adjutant to bring the other side directly to his command when they arrived.

Soon, a few soldiers brought Saeed and Chen Zhonglei, both of them, to the command headquarters.

When he saw Ye Chen, the first thing Sayid did was to bow respectfully and said, "Master Ye, I'm really sorry for keeping you waiting!"

Ye Chen smiled slightly, "It's alright, how is the situation on your side?"

Saiyid said, "Most of the officers of the Ten Thousand Dragon Temple have confessed, we have secured a large amount of evidence, and we are sending it to the news agencies to edit the evidence, which will be sent out to the world later."

With that, he hurriedly took out a thick pile of A4 paper and handed it to Ye Chen, saying respectfully, "Master Ye, this is Chen Zhonglei's confession."

Ye Chen took the thick pile of papers and did not rush to open them immediately, but asked him, "Said, have you brought the truce agreement?"

"Yes!" Said hurriedly took out another document, handed a copy to Ye Chen and another to Hamid, and spoke, "This is the template of our armistice agreement, Commander Hamid can read it first, Master Ye does not understand Arabic, let me explain it to you verbally."

Ye Chen nodded and said casually, "OK, you can talk about it."

Said was busy saying, "First of all, I personally, and my leaders, are very grateful to Master Ye, you have not only saved me, but also our country."

Ye Chen waved his hand, "It's just a show of hands."

Said said gratefully, "It is out of gratitude to you, Master Ye, that we have basically no requirements listed in this truce agreement. As long as Commander Hamid also agrees to a ceasefire, both of us will immediately enter into an indefinite ceasefire, and we will also explicitly forbid our soldiers, weapons and vehicles from entering within a thirty kilometre radius of Commander Hamid's base, and in the future Commander Hamid can continue to grow and expand, and we will not interfere."

Saying that, Said added, "Of course, while we respect Commander Hamid, we also hope that Commander Hamid will not take the initiative to attack us again, and if Commander Hamid can manage not to make a move against us, then we will never start a war against Commander Hamid, and both sides will develop peacefully and not violate each other!"

Ye Chen knew that it was impossible for these two very different forces to achieve permanent peaceful coexistence, however, as long as he could lift the status quo of Hamid being surrounded now, it would make it much easier for him and give him more time and energy to improve his own strength.

That way, even if he fought again in the future, he would have more of an initiative.

He then asked Hamid, "Commander Hamid, do you have any comments?"

Naturally, Hamid shook his head repeatedly and stated, "I have no opinion!"

Ye Chen nodded, then said, "Since both have no opinion, then it's settled, you guys can just sign it."

Both of them said in unison, "Good!"

Ye Chen took advantage of the time when the two men were preparing to sign the contract to turn over Chen Zhonglei's transcript in his hand.

Chapter 3257

In Chen Zhonglei's confession, he told all that he had, all that he had about the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, without any reservations.

Regarding the attempts of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall on Syria this time, Ye Chen directly skipped over them, as he had already known about them, and what he was more curious about. What he was more curious about was actually some of the internal circumstances of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple.

Chen Zhonglei's confession revealed that the founder of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall was named Wan Bajun, and the main reason why he was able to form the Hall at such a young age and take it all the way to development and growth was due to a noble person he met overseas back then.

This person's identity was so mysterious that most of the soldiers of the Hall did not know of his existence.

The true identity of this Grandmaster. In fact, he was a top martial arts master.

And Wan Bajun was the direct disciple of this master.

According to Chen Zhonglei, after Wan Bajun had achieved a certain level of strength in the martial arts. Almost all of the War Kings and War Generals of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall were disciples of Wan Bajun.

As the strength of these core members continued to rise, the Dragon Hall soon became famous in the mercenary field.

The first stratum, naturally, was Wan Bajun and the other war kings and war generals, all of whom were disciples of Wan Bajun and knew the vast majority of the secrets of the Hall of Ten Thousand Dragons, and were all very sincere.

The second stratum, the middle ranking officers of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall, these officers played an important role in the structure of the tens of thousands of personnel of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall, these people all knew that the first stratum of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall was practising martial arts, but they only knew that, if they also wanted to practise martial arts, they had to pass the test of the first stratum, so the loyalty of this group of officers was also very high;

As for the third stratum. They were the mercenaries hired by the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall from all over the world. These mercenaries actually did not know the core secrets of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, they were just paid the high salary of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall. If they performed very well, they could be promoted to the rank of officer and become the second tier of the Dragon Palace.

It was because of this division of ranks and the attraction of the martial arts as a ladder of advancement that the first and second ranks of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall were extremely solid. The overall strength was also getting stronger and stronger.

What shocked Ye Chen the most was that Chen Zhonglei's confession stated that Wan Bajun's greatest wish for so many years. It was actually to return to China to avenge his parents, and for this goal, he had been carefully preparing for years.

Originally, that ancestor was not prepared to let him return to China to take revenge, although Wan Bajun had been persistent over the years. But the ancestor had never given his nod.

It was not until last year that the ancestor decided to leave the Middle East and travel the world, no longer asking about any of the matters of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple, that Wan Bajun was finally able to put his revenge plan on the agenda.

In order to take revenge this time, Wan Broken Army had to raise a large number of people, the four great war kings and a hundred war generals all had to rush to China.

Now. The Four Great War Kings had already arrived at three of them, leaving only Chen Zhonglei himself still in the Middle East.

And Chen Zhonglei, this time, was originally going to take down Hamid. As well as the other opposition forces, he would immediately rush to Huaxia and rendezvous with Wan Breaking Army.

Ye Chen saw this. Looking up at Chen Zhonglei, he asked in a cold voice, "What is Wan Bajun seeking revenge from when he returns to China this time?"

Chen Zhonglei blurted out, "According to him, the enemy who killed his parents is the Ye family in Yanjing!"

"The Ye family?!" Ye Chen could not help but frown as he questioned, "How could the Ye family have killed his parents?"

Chen Zhonglei said with a bewildered expression, "I don't know exactly what the situation is, the Hall Master has never revealed the details of it to me, he only said that he would make the Ye family pay in blood. But what exactly is the grudge between the Ye family and him, we are not too sure."

Ye Chen asked again, "Have you heard Wan Xiaojun say what his enemy is and what his name is in the Ye family?"

Chen Zhonglei shook his head, "I haven't heard of it ....."

What was on Ye Chen's mind at this time was that this Wan Breaking Jun was looking for revenge against the Ye family, and what kind of person did he have to do with the Ye family.

Chapter 3258

Is it the old man Ye Zhongquan? Or is it eldest uncle Ye Changkong or someone else from the Ye family?

In Ye Chen's opinion, this Wan Bajun was of a similar age to himself. If it was really someone from the Ye family who had killed his parents, then it must have happened at least ten or twenty years ago.

At that time, apart from his grandfather and his eldest uncle, there was still a mainstay of the Ye family, his own father, Ye Chang Ying.

Therefore, he also wondered in his mind if this Wan Breaker's enemy would be his own father.

Only, this question. Chen Zhonglei definitely did not know, and there was no point in asking him.

Immediately afterwards, Ye Chen thought of the Ye family's upcoming ancestral ritual.

If Wan Bajun suddenly wanted to seek revenge on the Ye Family at this point in time, could it be that he had chosen this moment for the Ancestral Ritual Ceremony?

After all, this was a grand ceremony that the Ye Family only had once every twelve years, and if one had an unbreakable grudge against the Ye Family. Then it would be logical for him to choose this day to lash out at the Ye family.

Thus, he asked Chen Zhonglei, "Did Wan Bajun not make any demands of you, such as the day before which you must arrive in Yanjing?"

Chen Zhonglei nodded repeatedly and said, "I did. I was told that I must arrive in Yanjing by the third of April."

"April 3rd .....", Ye Chen's eyes narrowed slightly, with a hint of coldness in his eyes, "April 5th is the Qingming Festival, according to you. This Wan Breaking Jun must be trying to make something happen on the Qingming Festival."

Chen Zhonglei said respectfully, "What exactly is Wan Bajun's intention, this is something I am really not too sure about."

Ye Chen gave a hmph, then he asked Hamid for a satellite phone and called Tang Sihai.

As soon as the call came through, Tang Sihai spoke up and asked, "Hello, who is this?"

Ye Chen said, "Housekeeper Tang, it's me, Ye Chen."

"Young master!" Tang Sihai asked in surprise, "Why are you calling from an overseas phone? Oh yes, I heard that Master's Concorde has gone out again, so I suppose it's sending you to the Middle East?"

"Right." Ye Chen spoke, "Housekeeper Tang, I'm calling for you because I want to consult with you about something."

Tang Sihai was busy saying, "Young master, you can ask, I will answer everything and say everything!"

Ye Chen asked him, "Have you ever heard of a man called Wan Bajun?"

"Wan Broken Army?" Tang Sihai pondered for a moment and spoke, "Young master, I don't think I've heard of it."

Wan Bajun's father, Wan Liancheng, was not even famous in Yanjing, just a dog who followed Su Shoudao, and when Wan Liancheng had his accident, his son, Wan Bajun, was still a child, so not many people knew about him.

Ye Chen asked him again, "Then let me ask you, did the Ye family ever have any conflicts or clashes with people surnamed Wan a decade or two ago?"

"Those surnamed Wan?" Tang Sihai thought for a moment and spoke, "Yes! At the beginning, there was a person named Wan Liancheng beside Su Shoudao, he had some conflicts with your father in order to stand up for Su Shoudao, and later on, he fought with your father in the futures market, but in the end, he lost all his money, and then he committed suicide by jumping off a building, and his wife also followed suit by taking poison ....."

"This matter, your father was still very guilty at that time, although it was Wan Liancheng who took the initiative to provoke, and your father also beat him in the futures market squarely, but your father still felt that he was responsible for Wan Liancheng's death ....."

Chapter 3259

Hearing Tang Sihai's words, Ye Chen couldn't help but frown and asked rhetorically, "Since it was that Wan Liancheng who took the initiative to provoke my father, and since my father defeated him in an open and fair way, what does it have to do with my father if he chose to commit suicide because he couldn't handle his own mental capacity?"

Saying that, Ye Chen said firmly, "My father is not even half responsible for his death! As for his wife taking poison to commit suicide, it has even less to do with my father! If he hadn't been so cowardly and chose to die, his wife wouldn't have gone with him, so his wife's death should be counted on him! What does it have to do with my father?"

Tang Sihai sighed and said, "Young master, your father has always been benevolent and righteous, and very often, he demands a little more of himself than morality."

Saying that, he couldn't help but ask, "Why did you ask about this matter?"

Ye Chen said casually, "It's not much, it's just that I met a Chinese overseas who happened to know something about the Wan family."

Saying that, Ye Chen asked, "By the way, do you know the current situation of the Wan family?"

Tang Sihai then said, "The Wan family has long been broken, after the death of Wan Liancheng and his family, the Wanlong Group also went bankrupt and liquidated, not only did they not have any assets left, but they also owed a large amount of debt, and some of their friends avoided them and all cut off relations with them."

After your father learned that his wife had committed suicide by taking poison, he thought about adopting the child, but he couldn't find him, and those relatives of the Wan family knew that the Wan family was defeated, so they all turned away from the Wan family, so the Wan family basically fell into ruin. hadn't asked just now, I wouldn't have remembered about the Wan family for over ten years."

Hearing this, Ye Chen already had a basic speculation in his mind.

"This Wan Broken Jun of the Wan Long Hall should be Wan Lian Cheng's son ....."

"Moreover, Wan Long Group and Wan Long Hall, these names also sound very similar, further confirming my speculation ....."

"This Wan Breaking Jun, must think that it was my father who killed his parents ....."

"That's why he's bent on seeking revenge on the Ye family ....."

"However, since his Wan Long Temple has developed to this point today, it is impossible for him not to know that my father has passed away, and knowing that my father has passed away, he still wants to seek revenge from the Ye Family, either he wants to take the anger of the entire Ye Family, or he wants to take revenge from his father who has passed away."

In association with the Ancestral Ritual that would soon be held, Ye Chen's eyes suddenly turned extremely cold!

He clenched his fists and secretly swore in his heart, "If this Wan Bajun dares to hit on my parents, I will definitely break him into pieces!"

At this moment, Tang Sihai asked Ye Chen, "Young master, did you hear about something from the Wan family?"

Ye Chen then said, "I've heard a little rumour, but it doesn't matter."

Saying that, Ye Chen added, "Housekeeper Tang, I still have some business on my side, so I will not talk to you first, I will talk to you in person when I get to Yanjing."

"Good." Tang Sihai smiled, "All of the Ye family's collateral family heads have arrived in Yanjing, and your cousin Ye Feng's fiancée, Princess Helena, has also arrived in Yanjing, so the master is looking forward to you coming over soon!"

"Princess Helena?" Ye Chen asked curiously, "Where's the princess from?"

"From Northern Europe." Tang Sihai said, "This is the marriage partner that the master negotiated for your cousin some time ago, after considering many marriageable girls from many families, this Helena is the most suitable overall, after your cousin marries her, the Ye family's future development in Europe will also receive a great boost, as soon as the Qingming Festival is over, they will immediately hold an engagement ceremony."

"Understood." Ye Chen said casually, "I will only attend the ancestral ritual this time, I will not attend such a thing as an engagement, you help me to say hello to them in advance."

Tang Sihai hesitated for a moment and advised, "Young master, if you're not that busy, it's best for you to attend, otherwise I'm afraid it's a bit hard to save face."

"No." Ye Chen said firmly, "I don't want to get too involved with the Ye family, this ancestor worship ceremony is non-public, plus I can pay respect to my parents, that's why I agreed to attend, other things, I won't follow and get involved."

Chapter 3260

"Alright." Tang Sihai knew that it would be difficult for him to persuade Ye Chen, so he asked, "Young master, when will you come over then?"

Ye Chen said indifferently, "I will arrive in Yanjing on the third day of April."

"Good!" Tang Sihai said excitedly, "I will pick you up at the airport then!"

Ye Chen said casually, "Let's talk about it then, butler Tang, I still have something to do, so I'll hang up now."

After saying goodbye to Tang Sihai, Ye Chen immediately stood up and said to Hamid and Said, "Both of you must co-exist peacefully in the future, this is the most beneficial situation for both sides."

Saying that, Ye Chen added, "In addition, these 15,000 people from the Hall of Ten Thousand Dragons will definitely bring in a lot of revenue for the government army, which will also be a big boost to the government army's economy, so from now on, both of you can completely bury your heads in developing your infrastructure and economy, there is no need for you to fight each other anymore."

Hamid nodded his head without hesitation and said, "Don't worry, old brother, I will remember your teachings!"

Said also said, "In fact, we don't want to fight all the time, it would be good to have peace talks!"

Ye Chen nodded and said, "Then you guys should hurry up and sign the peace agreement, I have some important things to do and I must go back to my country immediately, Hamid, prepare the helicopter for me and bring Su Shoudao out for me as well, I want to take him back."

Hamid said with some reluctance, "Older brother, are you in such a hurry to leave? Look at old brother, I haven't been able to properly receive you until now!"

Ye Chen waved his hand, "Another time, this time it is indeed urgent and cannot be delayed."

Hamid nodded with understanding and said seriously, "Fine! Big matters are important! I won't keep you!"

After saying that, he immediately called his adjutant and ordered, "Arrange for a helicopter to take Mr. Ye to Beirut as soon as possible!"

As the adjutant was about to follow his orders, Said hurriedly said, "Master Ye, why don't you take my helicopter? After all, our current peace talks have not yet been announced to the public, and it would be bad if someone recognises General Hamid's helicopter and attacks it in a moment of enthusiasm."

Ye Chen was Sayyid's life-saving benefactor and had helped Sayyid achieve great feats in the army, so Sayyid could say that he was incomparably grateful to him in his heart.

This was even more than Hamid, who had been cured of his crippled leg by Ye Chen.

Ye Chen nodded gently and spoke, "Then let's go in your helicopter."

Said was busy saying, "Master Ye, I will see you off!"

Hamid also said without hesitation, "Elder brother Ye, I'll go too!"

Ye Chen nodded, looked at Chen Zhonglei and said in a cold voice, "You come with me."

Chen Zhonglei said without hesitation, "Yes! Everything is at your command ....."
