

Ye Chen 3261

Chapter 3261

When several people came out of Hamid's command together, Hamid's adjutant had also brought Su Shoudao, who was tied up, out of the bunker.

The war had been going on for the last few days, and Hamid was afraid that Su Shoudao would make trouble or take advantage of the chaos to escape, so he ordered his men to tie him up.

It was also because of the war that Su Shoudao had been locked up in the dark bunker and had not seen the sunlight for several days, and his whole body looked very dishevelled. His face was pale and bloodless.

At this moment, there was only one round of sunset left outside, and the golden sunlight spread on Su Shoudao, making him feel as if he had been reborn.

Stimulated by the light, he did not see Ye Chen clearly, but faced the setting sun, feeling the warmth of the sunlight on his body and feeling a lot of emotions in his heart.

In the past, he had never dreamed that, as the son of the wealthy Su family, he would one day be reduced to the point where even the sight of the sun felt very luxurious.

Before he could enjoy himself for a few seconds, the adjutant behind him urged, "Hurry up! Mr. Ye is still waiting!"

As soon as he heard the word Mr. Ye. Su Shoudao's heart panicked for a moment, and after twisting his head, his eyes adjusted for a few seconds before he saw a smiling Ye Chen not far away.

Seeing Ye Chen with a smile on his face and bathed in golden sunlight. Su Shoudao couldn't help but shiver and thought to himself, "This kid looks so handsome, and he looks even more harmless when he has a smile on his face, but who would have thought that this grandson would be able to do such a fucked up thing and throw me into this shitty place to suffer so much ..... From this alone, this kid is not as good as his old man Ye Changye, Ye Changye He was not as bad as him back then ....."

While muttering in his heart, Su Shoudao had already been brought to Ye Chen by his adjutant, Ye Chen looked at him and asked with a smile, "Mr. Su, how are you feeling this time?"

Su Shoudao cried and said, "Ye Chen, just let me go back ..... this place is fighting every day, it's just unbearable ..... even if you throw me to Changbai Mountain, it's still safer than being here... .."

Ye Chen waved his hand, "You don't have to worry about that haha, Meade is already ready to make peace with the government army, when you come back after the Qingming Festival, there will be no more war here."

After hearing this, Su Shoudao did not know whether to be happy or sad.

Ye Chen looked at the time and spoke, "Let's go Mr. Su, it's already late at night in the country, let's hurry up and leave, we can reach Jinling in the morning."

Su Shoudao asked, "Can you let me meet with Zhiyu and Zhifei when we return to Jinling?"

Ye Chen waved his hand, "Your son has gone all the way to the Da Zhao Temple to atone for your father's sins, and your daughter is busy with work. I don't think she has time to see you, but if you really miss your relatives, I can temporarily arrange for you to meet with your brother, so you two brothers can have a good get-together when you arrive."

When Su Shoudao heard this. Dumbfounded, he asked offhandedly, "My brother?! You mean ..... Su Shoude?!"

Su Shoude had been missing for a long time.

Su Shoudao knew that Su Shoude must be in Ye Chen's hands, he just didn't know where he had hidden Su Shoude.

Once he heard Ye Chen say that he should go to Jinling to reunite with his brother, he could not help but exclaim, "Shoude he ..... he has been in Jinling all this time?"

"Right." Ye Chen said indifferently, "My friend has a dog farm in Jinling, that place not only keeps some fighting dogs, but also occasionally keeps some people."

Su Shoudao couldn't help but shrink his neck and said in his heart, "A dog breeding farm occasionally keeps some people, is this a fucking human statement?"

"Besides. You're asking me to meet with Su Shoudao, are you going to throw me into a dog farm too?"

"I've suffered so much in this shithole, it's only a matter of weeks before I can make a trip back. Can't I be allowed to eat better and live better?"

However, although he had a lot of grievances inside at this moment, he did not dare to say anything more, he knew very well that he did not have any initiative in front of Ye Chen.

So, he could only say resentfully, "Everything is at the disposal of Mr. Ye ....."

Chapter 3262

Ye Chen nodded, "Let's go, we still have to catch a flight to Beirut."

Ye Chen took Chen Zhonglei and Su Shoudao on Saeed's helicopter. He then waved goodbye to Hamid and Said, and the helicopter quickly took off, rushing to the Lebanese capital Beirut.

At this time, Ye Zhongquan's man, Han Guangyao, was already waiting anxiously in Beirut.

He knew that Ye Chen's trip to Hamid's base must be very dangerous. Moreover, Hamid was at a standstill with the government forces, and his base was surrounded by tens of thousands of people, and there was no news of any peace talks between the two sides.

Ye Chen after the plane took off. He gave him a call and told him to hurry up and arrange for the crew of the Concorde to be ready for take-off and to take off immediately in an hour.

Han Guangyao was surprised and asked, "Young ..... Master, you came out of Hamid's place?"

"Right." Ye Chen said lightly, "I will arrive at Beirut airport in about fifty minutes. Seize the time to get the plane ready for takeoff without delay."

Han Guangyao subconsciously asked, "Young master ..... you ..... how did you get out?"

Ye Chen said indifferently, "You don't need to ask much about this, it won't take long for you to find out."

"Good ....." Han Guangyao was busy saying, "Then I will go to the airport and wait for you!"

Han Guangyao immediately went to the airport and arranged for the plane to be ready for take-off, and soon, Ye Chen arrived at the airport in a helicopter without any problems.

Han Guangyao had never dreamed that Ye Chen was travelling in a government helicopter, and when he saw Ye Chen and Su Shoudao, his heart fluttered.

He really couldn't understand what kind of magical power this young master of his family had. He was able to bring Su Shoudao out of the tens of thousands of people surrounding him intact.

And accompanying Ye Chen was a middle-aged man, only that Han Guangyao did not know Chen Zhonglei, so he did not know his identity.

Han Guangyao was eager to ask what was going on, but Ye Chen seemed to be in a great hurry and had just come down from the helicopter, just saying to Han Guangyao that he had had a hard time, and then he led the two men onto the Concorde.

Immediately afterwards. Ye Chen then urged the crew to hurry up and take off to get back to China as soon as possible.

When the Concorde took off at Beirut Airport, Wan Bajun, who was far away in Yanjing, was anxious about Chen Zhonglei's loss of contact.

He knew that Chen Zhonglei was going to negotiate with Hamid today, together with representatives of the government army, and he did not want those two parties to shake hands and make peace, so he asked Chen Zhonglei to delay for a few more days, no matter what, until he had taken care of the Ye family, and then he would personally go to the Middle East and settle Hamid.

The fact that he had not been able to wait for Chen Zhonglei's report made him somewhat anxious. So he asked his own man Lu Haotian to try to contact him several times, but he could not get through to him.

Strangely enough, none of the other senior and middle ranking members of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall could be contacted either.

Lu Haotian was worried that something had gone terribly wrong, but Wan Bajun thought that even if something had gone wrong, it was unlikely that all 15,000 people had gone wrong, after all, these 15,000 people were the elites of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall. How could a group of crooked people threaten them?

Therefore, he was more willing to believe that there should be a communication glitch over in the Middle East.

But. After waiting for another two to three hours, there was still no news, which made Wan Bajun feel more and more bizarre.

So, he immediately called for Lu Haotian. In a cold voice, he said, "Haotian, you immediately rush a few people from Jerusalem to see what's going on!"

With that, he added in a stern voice, "No matter what happened, Chen Zhonglei must be held responsible for losing contact for such a long time!"

Lu Haotian was about to speak, when suddenly someone rushed in quickly in a panic and said nervously, "Hall Master, something big has happened in the Middle East!"

Chapter 3263

Seeing that his subordinate had come to report in such a nervous and frantic manner, Wan Bajun immediately questioned, "What's the big fuss about!"

The subordinate almost burst into tears and blurted out, "Hall Master! The government army has just announced to the world that 15,000 of our soldiers have been arrested for crimes against national security!"

Wan Xiaojun's first thought was that it was simply impossible.

With such a powerful elite force of his own, and with the Green-Eyed Wolf King Chen Zhonglei sitting at the helm, how could he possibly be arrested by government troops who lacked guns and medicine?

Who had ever heard of tens of thousands of peasants taking 15,000 regular troops prisoner?

Wasn't this a travesty of the world?

Thinking of this, he could not help but frown and questioned, "Today is the first of April, April Fool's Day, you are not here to tease me, are you?"

The subordinate shook his head repeatedly and blurted out, "How dare I make such a joke, Hall Master! They have even released the video, and all 15,000 of our men have been captured and none have escaped!"

Wan Bajun felt like a thunderstorm! He felt like a child in a nightmare and couldn't wait to wake up and end the dream.

Subconsciously, he stood up, ignoring the intense dizziness, and asked, "What did you say? Fifteen thousand elites, all captured by their gang of third-rate soldiers?!"

The subordinate nodded timidly and whispered, "Yes ..... Yes ..... Hall Master ....."

Wan Bajun almost collapsed, clenching his fists and cursing, "Fuck, then even if it was 15,000 pigs or 15,000 donkeys, in that hilly, wilderness area of the Middle East, their gang couldn't have captured them all so quickly, could they?!"

"Temple Master ....." said the subordinate nervously, "Our 15,000 soldiers have not only been captured, many officers have also given up all our strategic planning ..... The other side has now also released all the evidence, transcripts and video footage, the video footage, including the Green-Eyed Wolf King himself, has admitted it, and now this information has triggered a huge international reaction, many countries are condemning us .....

Saying that, he handed over a tablet computer, opened one of the videos and said, "Hall Master, this video of the Green-Eyed Wolf King admitting his guilt has caused a huge repercussion on the extranet ....."

Wan Bajun held back his anger and clicked play, in the video, Chen Zhonglei was sitting on the interrogation chair, telling all the confidential information of Wan Long Temple about Syria word by word.

Seeing that Chen Zhonglei had completely betrayed the organisation, Wan Bajun grabbed the satellite phone on the table and violently broke it in his hands, crushing it to pieces as he roared in anger, "Chen Zhonglei, as one of the four war kings of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple, was captured, is he a six-star martial artist? He even published our strategic intentions after being captured, doesn't he know that this has violated the death penalty of my Ten Thousand Dragons Hall?!"

Lu Haotian was also baffled and blurted out, "Hall Master, from what I know about the Green-Eyed Wolf King, he would never betray the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, is there some hidden agenda here?"

"A hidden agenda?" Wan Bajun cursed angrily, "Didn't you see the video just now? He told the other side this content, and now they are telling the world, our Ten Thousand Dragons Hall will soon be in a situation where everyone is shouting at us! In the future, who else will cooperate with us in these countries in the Middle East?!"

He said, clenching his fist and gritting his teeth, "Besides! These 15,000 people being captured is simply a heavy loss for my Ten Thousand Dragons Temple!"

Chapter 3264

"Moreover, if the other side were to sentence all 15,000 of these people, we would have to pay compensation to their families based on the length of these people's sentences!"

"You have to know that any country in the world has made crimes against national security the worst and most significant crimes, none of them, with the highest death penalty and the lowest sentence of ten years or more, if that's the case, then I'm afraid we'll have to come up with billions or even tens of billions of dollars just for the compensation!"

Lu Haotian couldn't help but be a little shocked, he also knew that although mercenary organisations like the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall seemed like they were very powerful, a large part of their powerful nature actually came from the power of money.

Now that such a big thing had happened, if the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall did not take out money to settle the matter, then I was afraid that the remaining 30,000 to 40,000 mercenaries would all avoid the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall.

After all, these mercenaries, do not have any loyalty to the mercenary corps.

Unlike the soldiers of every country, who are driven by patriotism and have no complaints even if they die for their country on the battlefield.

Mercenaries are completely a group of wage earners, and it is their basic principle to work only when they are paid and quit when they are not.

If the boss goes bankrupt and doesn't have the money to pay them, most of the employees will just look for a new job and instruct their lawyers to file a lawsuit.

Therefore, these 15,000 people being captured would be a huge test for Wan Long Temple.

Thus, Lu Haotian could not help but ask, "Hall Master, do you have any solutions now?"

Wan Bajun said with an extremely angry expression, "What other solution can there be at the moment? The only solution is to hurry up and negotiate with the government forces and try everything to satisfy their needs so that they will willingly release the people."

Lu Haotian asked again, "What if they don't agree? Should we fight our way in and get the people out?"

"Are you crazy?" Wan Bajun glared at him and questioned, "Do you want the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall to openly declare war with a country? In that case, we would be angering all the sovereign nations in the world, and everyone would turn away from us, so where would we get a foothold then? Are we going to become pirates in Somalia? Don't forget, Somalia is a sovereign country too! If we go to invade a sovereign country, even if their own army can't beat us, the UN will send troops to annihilate us."

Lu Haotian froze for a moment and couldn't help but say, "If that's the case, then the only way we have left is to negotiate ....."

Wan Bajun let out a long sigh and spoke, "Today is already the first of April, only five days left until the Ye family's ancestral festival ....."

Saying this, Wan Bajun added, "Since they announced to the public that they arrested our people, I believe they will follow the basic international jurisprudence and hold a public trial against them ....."

"Once a public trial is held, it will take at least a few months to follow the normal process of collecting evidence, fixing the evidence, prosecuting and trying ....."

"In that case, just wait for me to finish with the Ye family first, then I will personally go to the Middle East to negotiate with them, the best solution to this matter is to compensate the other party a lump sum of money and let them release all of them."

Lu Haotian nodded, and then couldn't help but ask, "Hall Master, then when the time comes, what do you plan to do with the Green-Eyed Wolf King's side?"

"Him?" Wan Bajun clenched his teeth and said in a cold voice, "I will bring him back to the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall and personally interrogate him in front of all the War Kings and War Generals, asking him exactly why he surrendered and why he betrayed the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall!"

Chapter 3265

Just as the government army's capture of 15,000 elites from the Hall of Ten Thousand Dragons in one fell swoop caused a huge stir in international public opinion, the Ye family's slender, white swan-like Concorde airliner landed smoothly at Jinling Airport.

When the plane came to a stop at the end of the runway, a helicopter had been waiting on the parking space for a long time.

The two people Ye Chen brought back from the Middle East this time were both very sensitive in their identities.

Su Shoudao was the son of the Su family. Since his disappearance, the entire Su family, and even the entire society, had been searching for his whereabouts. Once news of his appearance in the country at this time leaked out, it would definitely cause a huge sensation.

As for Chen Zhonglei, not many people at home might know him, but there were far too many people abroad who knew of him. He himself was one of the Four Great Battle Kings of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall and was well known overseas. Moreover, the 15,000 men under his command had just been captured by the Syrian government forces again in their entirety, which made him even more famous in another way. Once it was known that he had appeared in China, it would not only spark great concern, but would also trigger a hunt by the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple.

That was why Ye Chen had asked Richard Chen to arrange for a helicopter in advance, and as soon as the plane landed, he immediately used it to take these two men to Hong Wu's dog farm, without any contact with the outside world during the whole process.

Before these two men even got off the plane, they were already covered with thick black hoods to ensure that even with any surveillance camera system, it would be impossible to capture their faces.

Ye Chen then dragged the two men down from the Concorde and directly onto the long-awaited helicopter.

Immediately afterwards, the helicopter flew away from the airport and headed for Hong Wu's dog farm.

Hong Wu's dog farm had been renovated and expanded time and time again, and now the interior was becoming larger and more functional, and the level of secrecy was also increasing.

The helicopter stopped at the central tarmac of the dog farm. The entire apron then slowly sinks to the ground like a lift, followed by a row of pull-ups above. A row of large folding light shields were pulled up from above, completely blocking the lift entrance.

Hearing that Ye Chen was sending two guests to stay here for a few days, Hong Wu had risen early at dawn to get ready and was now waiting for Ye Chen's arrival at the bottom of the tarmac.

As soon as he saw Ye Chen, Hong Wu immediately stepped forward and said, "Master Ye. The guest rooms you want are ready, and one of them is next to that Su Shoude."

"Very well." Ye Chen nodded and took off the black cloth bag on Su Shoudao's head. He said to Hong Wu, "This is Su Shoudao, Su Shoude's elder brother, the two of them should not have seen each other for a while, so let's arrange for the two brothers to reunite first."

"Good!" Hong Wu immediately greeted his believer and opened his mouth to order, "Bring him to 105!"

"Yes Master Five!" The beloved henchman respectfully responded, then stepped forward and dragged Su Shoudao with him. In a stern voice, he commanded, "Follow me, don't dawdle!"

Hong Wu then looked at Ye Chen's side, another Chen Zhonglei with a black cloth bag over his head, and respectfully asked Ye Chen, "Master Ye, what are the arrangements for this one?"

Ye Chen said indifferently, "This one is more obedient, so let him learn how to clean up after Jiro Kobayashi, and let him work well here for the next two days. The day after tomorrow I will take him and Su Shoudao to Yanjing together."

"Okay!" Hong Wu nodded and said to another henchman, "Go, call Kobayashi Jiro over."

Chapter 3266

Soon. Jiro Kobayashi, who was wearing a waterproof apron and holding a large broom in his hand, came running over and when he saw that it was Ye Chen who had arrived, he said with an excited look on his face, "Mr. Ye! It's been a while since you've been here!"

Ye Chen smiled faintly. He asked him, "Little Lin Jiro, how have you been these days?"

Kobayashi Jiro was busy saying, "Very well, very well, very well! Master Five and his men have been treating me very well, only serving that Walter is indeed a bit troublesome, but it doesn't matter, it can be overcome!"

"Walter ah ....." The corner of Ye Chen's mouth rose slightly, this Walter, was the dog bastard who had previously poisoned Wang Dongxue's father and caused him to nearly die of kidney failure.

When he saw Jiro Kobayashi mention him, Ye Chen asked, "How is that Walter's situation now?"

Kobayashi Jiro said with a smile, "That dog. Now he can only lie on a hospital bed every day, he can't eat, drink, shit or even dialysis without a hospital bed, his old man Steve is sharing a kennel with him, but this old guy is old and can't really take care of Walter."

"Hmm." Ye Chen nodded slightly and spoke, "You behave well here. Let Hong Wu raise your standard of living a little later on, and lighten your work load some more by the way."

When Jiro Kobayashi heard this, he immediately said with immense excitement, "Mr. Ye, you ....." are you telling the truth?"

Hong Wu reached out and gave him a not-so-gentle slap on the head, saying in a spirit of face, "Jiro, do you still need to doubt Master Ye's words? When has he ever not kept his word?"

Covering the back of his head, Kobayashi Jiro laughed heatedly, "Master Five is right, Master Five is right!"

After saying that, he hurriedly looked at Ye Chen and gratefully mixed Chinese and Japanese. Bowing deeply to Ye Chen, he said, "Haichi! Mr. Ye, thank you so much! Thank you! Aligado Guaymas!"

Ye Chen smiled and said to Hong Wu, "Ah Hong Wu, I see that you are indeed running this place well, the formerly arrogant and domineering Kobayashi Ichiro has now become so polite, so it is evident that he has indeed undergone a baptism and reshaping of his soul here. Keep up the good work in the future!"

Hong Wu was a little embarrassed, smiled and spoke, "Master Ye. You flatter me, I've learnt this from you... to be both gracious and Those who are obedient. If they are obedient, we will treat them better; if they are not, we will treat them more harshly, so that each one of them will be able to change their minds and become a new person."

The Kobayashi Jiro, who was depressed, couldn't help but think, "Damn, this is not a baptism and reshaping of my soul, it's just that I have to bow down under the eaves of the house. .... If you could let me go back to Japan and let me inherit Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals again, I wouldn't be able to be so lowly!"

When he thought of this, Kobayashi Jiro's hatred for Ye Chen grew a few degrees stronger.

Ye Chen looked at him as if he had insight into his mental activities, so he said to Hong Wu, "It's really not easy for Jiro to reach this point today, we should reward this kind of advanced individual who is actively reformed more often."

Saying that, Ye Chen thought for a moment and then said in a serious tone, "This way Hong Wu, from now on, arrange two bottles of beer for Jiro every day, and then arrange sushi takeaway for him once a week, Jiro has been in Jinling for quite some time now, he also needs to find out the feeling of home."

Jiro Kobayashi, who had just been hating Ye Chen in his heart, somehow burst into tears as soon as he heard these words.

He looked at Ye Chen with an unbelievable face and couldn't help but choke up in his heart, "Damn it ..... I ..... what's wrong with me ..... obviously hated Ye Chen a lot asshole! Why ..... why do I now feel ..... again that he is full of the love and care of a loving father and the glory of humanity ..... this... ..Is this the damn Stockholm Syndrome?"

Chapter 3267

Seeing that Jiro Kobayashi was full of tears, Ye Chen gently patted him on the shoulder and said in a serious tone, "Jiro, work well here, neither Hongwu nor I will treat you badly."

Jiro Kobayashi bowed repeatedly with immense gratitude and choked up under his breath, "Mr. Ye! Thank you! I will definitely! Will definitely work well! I will definitely not let you and Master Five down! Please don't worry!"

Seeing Jiro Kobayashi keep bowing, his long, unkempt hair tossed back and forth, Ye Chen smiled in satisfaction, "Not bad, not bad, I've felt your sincerity."

After saying that, he looked at Hong Wu and said offhandedly, "Hong Wu, give Jiro another two thousand yuan allowance, whatever Jiro wants, or whatever he wants to eat or drink, you can arrange for someone to buy it for him, and the money will be deducted from the two thousand yuan, as long as the things bought do not violate the principle, it is all right!"

Hong Wu smiled and said, "Okay Master Ye!"

After saying that, Hong Wu looked at Kobayashi Jiro and asked him, "Jiro, Master Ye gave you a two thousand dollar bonus, take a look at what all you want and I'll arrange for someone to buy it back for you."

Excited and excited, Kobayashi Jiro said, "Thank you so much Mr. Ye, thank you too, Master Five ..... I ..... want two cigarettes ..... want a few pairs of clean underwear ..... want a little sweet snack ....."

Speaking of this, Kobayashi Jiro lowered his head and his voice had become as literal as a whisper, "That ..... I ..... also want ..... also want some magazines that adults ..... adults read ....."

When Hong Wu heard this, he laughed, "Jiro, look at you, you're such an adult, what's there to be ashamed to say about this? Don't worry, I'll arrange all this for you if you want!"

Kobayashi Jiro once again burst into tears and said with unbridled excitement, "Thank you Mr. Ye and thank you Master Hong Wu!"

Just as Xiao Lin Jiro's heart couldn't help but be filled with gratitude towards Ye Chen.

Several of Hong Wu's men had already arrived at the "room" where Su Shoude and the others were staying, carrying a heavy red carpet.

The so-called room was just a cage made entirely of thumb-thick steel.

There were ten of these steel cages in each row.

There was no privacy in them, as they were only separated by steel bars, and anyone who farted could spread from the east end to the west end.

So, when Su Shoudao first came in, he saw all the people living here at once.

Among them was his lecherous brother, Su Shoude.

Su Shoude, who was originally very obese, had lost more than twenty pounds of flesh during this period of time, and although he was living a hard life, he looked good, and even the heavy fatty liver he had originally had was estimated to have disappeared.

When he first came in, Su Shoude was really devastated. He was a proud son of the gods and had grown up in a privileged position, so he had never experienced such a life.

But after a long time, he slowly got used to everything.

Steve and Walter, father and son, had also become accustomed to the way of life here, and although there was still resentment in their hearts, they were generally able to manage to accept their fate.

At this point, everyone was surprised to see Hong Wu's men start to roll out the long red carpet in the corridor again.

When these men finished rolling out the red carpet, they turned around and walked away. Seeing this, Su Shoude could not help but stand up and say with a sarcastic smile through the steel fence, "Aiya, this is going to be another new neighbour!"

After saying that, he looked at Walter's dad Steve in the next room and asked, "Hey, old Steve, could it be another relative from your family?"

Steve gave him a blank look and said disgruntledly, "Why should it be my relatives again? Couldn't it be one of your Soo's?"

Chapter 3268

Su Shoude said with a smirk, "Harm! Our Su family's situation is different from yours, under normal circumstances, how can our Su family be caught by that surnamed Ye? After all, our family is the number one family in the country, this Ye surname hasn't even claimed his ancestors, he's just a landlord of Jinling, he's nothing."

Steve couldn't help asking, "If you're so good, how come you're my neighbour?"

Su waved his hand, "It's because I was careless when I came to Jinling and got caught in the tiger's mouth! The man named Ye has many henchmen in Jinling, so I have entered his lair by mistake."

I guess he had the heart to kill me, so how could he have sent someone to save me? "

Steve tensed up when he heard this.

He was the one who came to look for his son Walter at that time, and ended up being caught by Ye Chen.

Su Shoude's flirtatious words had instantly poked him in the heart.

Thinking of this, he couldn't help but mutter softly, "It's not good to say that it's really one of our Hogwarts family ....."

A frail Walter, lying on the hospital bed, couldn't help but choke out, "Dad, if it really is someone from our family that's coming, then who do you think it could be ....."

"I don't know!" Steve shook his head, "It could be anyone as long as it's not your mother, preferably your grandmother ....."

Walter said in surprise, "Huh? Why preferably my grandmother?"

Steve said coldly, "In our family, your grandmother is the only direct Rothschild family member, and the Rothschilds won't take it personally if you disappear with me in Jinling, but if your grandmother disappears in Jinling, the Rothschilds will definitely take care of it! In that case, we'd be saved!"

Su Shoude had become familiar with Steve and Walter these days, and when he heard this, he couldn't help but say with a look of anticipation, "Old Shi, if it's really your mother who's coming, when the Rothschilds come to rescue you, don't forget to rescue me as well!"

Su Shoude saw the current situation more clearly.

The first thing he knew was that the Su family could not possibly go to all the trouble of finding himself, after all, the old man had always been selfish, and he had a big brother, Su Shoudao, ahead of him, and they both would certainly not waste their energy for himself.

So if one wanted to be saved in this situation, the only way was to follow Steve in the light.

Although Steve Hogwitz was not a top tycoon and his actual financial resources were a hundred thousand miles behind the Su family, but who let him be related to the Rothschild family.

If the Rothschilds were willing to take care of him, with the strength of the Rothschilds, finding such a dog farm should not be a problem in his opinion.

When the Rothschilds see their distant relatives locked up in a kennel, they will certainly feel humiliated and will be angry enough to wipe out the kennel.

That way, he could be saved.

But while he was dreaming of being saved, at the end of the corridor, some of Hong Wu's men came running with a hand-pulled firecracker.

Immediately afterwards, a man slowly approached, holding a handful of plastic flowers under the close encirclement of two men in black.

Su Shoude couldn't help but mutter in a low voice: "Holding flowers this dude, looks like he looks a bit familiar ....."

After saying that, he hurriedly rubbed his eyes, waiting for the other party to come closer before fixing his eyes, almost did not stare out of his eyes: "Big ..... brother?!"

Chapter 3269

Su Shoude, who had just analysed the situation with the Hogwarts and their son and concluded that the visitor could not be a member of the Su family, now had a look of utter disbelief on his face.

He had never dreamed that the "new neighbour" brought in by Hong Wu's men would be his elder brother, Su Shoudao!

Steve Hogewitz was a little disappointed.

He had been looking forward to his elderly mother coming down the aisle.

As a son, it did seem a bit unreasonable to expect that in his heart.

But Steve also knew in his heart that no one but his mother could get himself and Walter out of there now.

After all, he was not a Rothschild and his mother had no standing with the Rothschilds, so they would not care about him or his son.

The only possibility of getting the Rothschilds to step in was for Old Mother to be captured by Ye Chen as well.

But now, it seemed that this hope was completely dashed.

So, he couldn't help but sarcastically talk about Su Shoude, bristling, "Old Su, in the words of your Chinese people, you're a fucking crow's mouth!"

Su Shoude laughed twice and ignored him.

He was still in shock from seeing his elder brother, Su Shoudao, and he had no time to talk to him.

Of course, apart from the shock, Su Shoude could not help but have mixed feelings in his heart at this moment.

When he was originally locked up here, what he thought about most every day was that he had come in at the expense of Su Shoudao, which made his heart very unbalanced, but now Su Shoudao had become a prisoner, just like himself, so he was a standard difficult brother.

The worry is that even big brother Su Shoudao I was caught here, that proves that the Su family has no resistance at all in front of this guy Ye Chen, and it will be even more hopeless for him to leave here .....

Steve saw Su Shoudao, and his whole person was a bit broken.

He didn't know Su Shoudao, but since the person who came wasn't from his own family, it proved that his family wasn't looking for him right now, or hadn't found the right clues yet.

In that case, it would be even more difficult to know when and how long it would take to get out of here.

At this time, Hong Wu walked over with big strides and said to Su Shoude with a smile on his face, "Su Shoude, you have been here for quite some time and have not been in touch with your family, now that your big brother has come over to keep you company, are you happy?"

When Su Shoude saw Hong Wu, although his heart hated him to the bone, he still obeyed Hong Wu's words very respectfully on the surface and said, "Happy ..... happy ....."

"Grass ....." Hong Wu frowned and pointed at Su Shoude, saying with disgust, "You are really unkind as a younger brother, seeing that your brother is now a prisoner too, and you are still happy?"

Su Shoude's expression instantly became embarrassed, thinking in his heart, "If I say I'm not happy, you will definitely scold me for taking your good intentions for a donkey's liver and lungs, you old rascal's style of action, I've already fucking figured it out ....."

Thinking about this layer, Su Shoude simply lowered his head and played the goose, not answering Hong Wu's words.

Chapter 3270

How could Hong Wu let him off so easily? He immediately walked forward, tapped a rubber stick against the iron bars and coldly questioned, "What? You, Su Shoude, have hardened your wings now, huh? How dare you ignore me when I talk to you?"

"No no ....." Su Shoude shivered in fear and hurriedly said, "You were right to blame me just now, Fifth Master, I am reflecting on myself, I must be unhappy in my heart to see my brother appearing here ....."

"Unhappy?" Hong Wu raised his eyebrows and asked in a very irritated manner, "Your fifth master I was kind enough to bring your brother here to meet you, to reunite the two of you brothers, and you say you are unhappy, you are taking my kindness for a donkey's liver and lungs, ah."

Su Shoude instantly looked as ugly as a dead father and cursed angrily in his heart, "Shit! I fucking knew you had to say that! I guessed what you guessed, and not a fucking word of it was wrong! You treat me like a rat in a sewer, you're blocking me at both ends! If I ever get a chance to get out of here, I won't be Su if I don't kill you!"

When Hong Wu saw Su Shoude's depressed face, he laughed disdainfully and didn't say anything more to him, but said loudly, "Congratulations to the Su family, Su Shoudao and Su Shoude, for reuniting after a long time! Come on, let's get the atmosphere going!"

As soon as the words left his mouth, a group of minions immediately pulled the firecrackers, spraying out all kinds of colourful sequins and ribbons, making Su Shoudao and Su Shoude look very messy.

Looking at Su Shoudao who had a depressed expression, Hong Wu reached out and pulled him to the metal cage, opened the door and pushed him inside, saying with a smile, "Su Shoudao, your brother has been missing for so long, you two should have quite a lot to talk about, so I will not disturb you two brothers to catch up."

After saying that, he waved at his men and said, "All right, let's disperse, Little Fei, send these two two bottles of two-pot head later, I think they must have a lot to talk about today."

The little brother called Little Fei said in a hurry, "Yes Master Five, I'll go and get them now."

Hong Wu and his men left, while the two brothers, Su Shoudao and Su Shoude, looked at each other in disbelief.

Feeling bad luck, Su Shoudao reached out and threw the bunch of fake flowers on the ground, and cleaned the ribbons and sequins off his body.

While Su Shoudao stepped forward to help, he asked him, "Big brother, what's going on with you? Didn't you go to Australia to escape the storm?"

Su Shoudao said in an unhappy voice, "What's going on? I want to know what the fuck is going on too, after you disappeared, Ye Chen exposed the matter of the old man trying to harm Du Haiqing, including the video of you and Ma Chongxin admitting it was also exposed, the old man was scolded like a dog, he really couldn't take it anymore, so he called me back from Australia to take the blame."

Su Shoudao asked in surprise, "You ....." were caught here by Ye Chen because you were taking the blame for the old man?"

Su Shoudao sighed with a depressed look and said, "Damn, I've been unlucky for a while, I was originally arranged by the old master to meet with Ito Yuhiko of the Ito family, but who would have thought that Ito Yuhiko didn't meet him, but ended up being caught by Ye Chen, and immediately after that I was thrown to Syria by Ye Chen .....

"What?! Syria?!" Su Shoudao asked, dumbfounded, "Went there for what?"

Su Shoudao, annoyed in his heart, spat and cursed, "Bah! It's really fucking bad luck to say that! Ye Chen has a friend who is a warlord in Syria, and he threw me into his base and imprisoned me.

As he said that, Su Shoudao was like pouring out rubbish, he told all his experiences in Syria during this period.

These words, in his heart is really unbearable, has not even a person to talk to, and Su Shoude and his relationship is not very good, but after all, is also two brothers, so at this time, he can no longer hold back, a brain to tell all the things .....
