

Ye Chen 3281

Chapter 3281

Hearing He Hongsheng's voice, Ye Chen smiled faintly and spoke, "Master He, there is something I need a favour from you and the rest of the He family."

He Hongsheng said firmly, "Master Ye, we have been waiting to share your worries! If there is anything you want to do, just ask!"

Ye Chen then said, "I have to send two people to Yanjing tomorrow night, and these two people are very important to me. Their identities are sensitive, so when they arrive in Yanjing, they must be closely guarded so that no one can get wind of them."

"Convenient, of course it's convenient!" He Hongsheng said without hesitation, "We came all the way from Desert City to Jinling to share your worries and serve you, Master Ye. I have never had the opportunity to repay you, so I am really sorry for you, so please leave this matter to us. I, He Hongsheng, guarantee with my personality that nothing will go wrong!"

Ye Chen said readily, "Good! Since Master He is so forthcoming, I won't say any more nonsense, please prepare yourself and the rest of the He family, someone will pick you up tomorrow night and take you to the airport."

He Hongsheng was busy saying, "No problem Master Ye! I'll call Ying Xiu right now and ask her to prepare as well."

Ye Chen thought about it and said, "Old man He, it's better not to let Ms. He go over there, someone has to look after Jinling, so why not let her help keep an eye on Hong Wu and the daily training of Chen Zekai's men."

Ye Chen did not want to let He Yingxiu go over, mainly because he was also afraid that after she saw Su Shoudao, her emotions would fluctuate to a certain extent, after all, He Hongsheng still did not know that one of the two people he had asked him to help escort to watch over was Su Shoudao.

When He Hongsheng heard this, he didn't think much of it and immediately said, "Okay Master Ye. Then I will explain to Ying Xiu."

After He Hongsheng ended his call with Ye Chen, he called his daughter, He Yingxiu, directly.

He Yingxiu had recently spent most of her time at Buckingham Palace with her daughter Su Ruoli, and mother and daughter had been unable to see each other for a long time since Su Ruoli was sent to the Su family at the age of eighteen. This recent period has made up for the lack of companionship between mother and daughter.

When she received a phone call from He Hongsheng and heard that Ye Chen needed the family's help in Yanjing, she couldn't help but ask, "Dad, don't you need my help with Master Ye?"

He Hongsheng said, "That's what I'm calling you about. Master Ye wants you to stay in Jinling and take over the training work from Hong Wu and Chen Zekai for the time being. So you won't have to come with us to Yanjing."

Seeing that Ye Chen had already made the arrangements, He Yingxiu spoke, "Okay, then you can go to Yanjing tomorrow without worry. I'll take care of everything over here."

"Good." He Hongsheng instructed, "Come over to the villa early tomorrow and dock with your brother Ying Dong about the specifics of the training, we're leaving in the evening."

"Okay!" He Yingxiu agreed.

When she hung up the phone, Su Ruoli hurriedly asked, "Mom, what did Grandpa say on the phone? Why did I hear you say that it sounded like Master Ye had something to help?"

"Right." He Yingxiu spoke, "Grandmaster Ye asked your grandfather and your brother-in-law to take the others along to Yanjing tomorrow, as if he said there were two rather important people they needed to escort."

Su Ruoli nodded gently. She couldn't help but mutter, "Mom, do you think Master Ye won't run into any trouble? He hasn't approached Grandpa and the others for anything in such a long time, and this time it's to Yanjing, it always feels like a very sensitive matter."

Chapter 3282

He Yingxiu shook his head and said, "I can't say this. Master Ye hasn't asked me to go there either."

Su Ruoli was busy saying, "Mum, I'll go and give Master Ye a call if he needs to. I want to go along with him!"

He Yingxiu said with some difficulty, "Ruo Li, you have forgotten Master Ye's instructions. After all, your identity is very sensitive and he doesn't even want your grandfather and your brother-in-law to know that you are still alive."

Su Ruoli said firmly, "Then I'll ask him too, if not, I can disguise myself and follow him as a maid, or if not, a man dressed as a woman as an assistant."

He Yingxiu said helplessly, "Then you'd better ask Master Ye yourself, but you should also grasp the right proportion, if you are not allowed to go then, you should not insist too much. Lest he thinks you don't know what to do."

"Okay mum."

Su Ruoli answered, hurriedly took out her mobile phone, walked inside to the bedroom and called Ye Chen.

Ye Chen was on his way back to the city by car at this moment.

Receiving Su Ruoli's call made him feel both surprised and as if it was reasonable.

Immediately afterwards. He picked up the phone and asked with a smile, "Ruo Li, why are you calling me at this time?"

Su Ruoli busily said, "Master Ye, I heard that you are going to Yanjing and have asked my grandfather and the others to go over to help, so I wanted to ask you if you could bring me along?"

Ye Chen thought for a moment and spoke, "Ruo Li, your identity is still very sensitive now. The Japanese are still looking for you everywhere up to now, and I believe they must have many eyes and ears in Yanjing, so it's better for you not to come out and show your face for the time being."

Su Ruoli said in a somewhat anxious tone, "Master Ye, although Ruoli's strength may not be outstanding, it will not hold you back, and it will definitely be able to help you with your worries to a certain extent on the other side! Please just take me with you. I can dress up in disguise and no one will be able to tell, please just take me with you!"

Ye Chen smiled and said, "It's not a big deal for me to go to Yanjing this time. It's just a matter of two or three days and I'll be back, so you don't have to worry about me."

Saying that, Ye Chen added, "I promise you. After the wind has passed some time later, I will definitely take you with me when there is something like this again."

Hearing this, Su Ruoli also knew that Ye Chen would not change his mind, but it was good that Ye Chen had left herself a few moments of hope with these last words, so she hurriedly said, "Then you must not forget! For such a long time, I have been staying in the hotel, boredom is secondary, mainly because I feel that I can't do anything for you, I really have a feeling that I am a waste ....."

"Don't worry." Ye Chen smiled faintly: "There will definitely be a place for you in the future."

Just when Ye Chen had just pacified Su Ruoli, Su Chengfeng, who was in Suhang, suddenly received a phone call from Wan Breaking Army.

These days, Su Anshun had spent every day like a year.

It was not because he was in a bad mood or in a miserable situation that he felt this way, but because he had been looking forward to the Qingming Festival coming soon.

It was because the Qingming Festival would be the day when the Ye family would completely withdraw from the stage.

Once the Ye family fell, the Su family would be able to continue to hold on to its position as the number one family in the country.

Moreover, with a powerful ally like Wan Bajun, he would not only be able to eliminate threats in the future, he would even have the chance to go to the next level.

When he saw Wan Bajun calling, Su Chengfeng picked up the phone with some excitement and said, "Bajun, what do you want to tell me when you call so late?"

Wan Bajun said in a cold voice, "I'm calling to inform you that on the morning of April 5th, I'm going to move my parents' coffin into Wanling Mountain, and then bury my parents on Ye Ling Mountain in front of the entire Ye family, my father has always respected Uncle Su, and you are Uncle Su's father, so I hope that you will preside over my parents' burial ceremony then!"

Hearing this, Su Chengfeng asked with some surprise as a whole, "Broken Jun, didn't we say before that we would wait for the Fifth to settle the Ye family and the Sixth before moving your parents' coffin into Wanling Mountain?"

"It's changed." Wan Breaking Jun said in a stern voice, "The Ten Thousand Dragon Hall is having some trouble overseas, I need to head to the Middle East immediately after settling the Ye family, and I'm getting the impression that on the day of the Ye family's ancestral festival. Moving my parents' coffin in would be even more disgraceful for the Ye Family!"

Su Chengfeng hurriedly said, "That's for sure! The Ye Family's Ancestral Ceremony is dedicated to over a hundred ancestors of the Ye Family over the centuries, if you can make it impossible for them to worship their ancestors on the day of Qingming, and instead worship your parents, then the Ye Family's face will definitely be lost!"

Wan Bajun sneered, "I want more than that! I want the coffins of all the ancestors of the Ye family to be stripped out and their corpses buried in the mountains to make room for my parents! In addition, I want to take out Ye Chang Ying and bury him to the ground! You will witness all this with your own eyes!"

"Oh my! What an honour, what an honour!!!" Su Chengfeng said repeatedly in excitement, "Don't worry, I'll go back to Yanjing tomorrow! First thing in the morning on April 5th. Even if a knife falls from the sky, I will still be there on time!!!"

"Good." Wan Bajun said dryly, "Then I'll see you on the 5th of April!"

Su Chengfeng still wanted to say something else, but Wan Bajun had already hung up the phone early.

At this moment. Su Chengfeng could not hide his excitement and said to his butler Su Anshun at his side, "Anshun! Pack up your things and prepare the plane, we're going back to Yanjing!"

Su Anshun was also extraordinarily excited upon hearing this.

The Su family had originally been born and raised in Yanjing, and Yanjing was the biggest stage for them.

If it wasn't for the many changes that had befallen him some time ago, how could he have followed Old Master Su and hid all the way to the south.

Hearing that the old man was finally going back, Su Anshun was naturally excited and hurriedly said, "Yes, Master! Then I will arrange for my subordinates to pack the luggage and then inform the crew to get ready for take-off, we will leave first thing tomorrow morning!"

"No way!" Su Chengfeng hurriedly waved his hand and said, "We can't leave in the morning, tell the crew to leave tomorrow night."

"At night?" Su Anshun hurriedly said, "Master, it will be very late when you return home after a long journey at night, and it will delay your rest."

"It's alright!" Su Chengfeng said without hesitation, "We must leave at night, I can't let anyone know about my return to Yanjing for the time being, it will definitely lead to unnecessary trouble, let's kill back quietly first, and wait until the day of the Qingming Festival, then we will follow Wan Breaking Army. Go to Ye Ling Mountain and watch a wonderful show that is rarely seen in a hundred years!"

Su Anshun nodded, remembering something, and couldn't help but say, "Right, Master. Recently, the foreign media has been reporting that the Wan Long Temple has suffered a big defeat in Syria and has been greatly wounded. And in case he leaves China by then, will the Ye family make a comeback?"

"I can hold it down, I can definitely hold it down!" Su Chengfeng said with a firm face, "Wan Bajun and his men are all extremely powerful. Even if we lend Ye Zhongquan eight brains, he would not expect that the Ye family would encounter such a powerful enemy at the ancestral festival once every twelve years. When the experts from the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall suddenly arrive at Mount Ye Ling, they will definitely catch the Ye Family off guard!"

Chapter 3284

Speaking of this, Su Chengfeng sneered and said: "At that time, it will really depend on who has the strongest fist. As long as Wan Bajun can beat the Ye family into submission, strip Ye Changye's coffin, raise Ye Changye's ashes, and then strip out the coffins of all the other ancestors of the Ye family, make all of the Ye family kneel on the ground in mourning and welcome his parents' coffin down to Ye Ling Mountain, then the Ye family's reputation and prestige will definitely be decimated!"

"Once he, Ye Zhongquan, brings the Ye family to its knees completely, then he will never be able to get up again in his life!"

Su Anshun pondered for a moment and spoke, "If this matter really develops in the direction you say, then the Ye family's reputation will indeed be completely ruined. But while the reputation is ruined, the Ye family's assets and business are still there, and at most, they will only lose their connections and face. Under such circumstances, I'm afraid that it won't be that easy for us to further suppress the Ye family."

Said. He hesitated for a long time before saying seriously, "Master, I have something to say, and you must not be angry when I say it."

Su Chengfeng waved his hand and said in a cold voice, "I know what you want to say, you are trying to say that the Su family's reputation, too, has already been ruined by me long ago, so I am afraid that both the Ye family and I will have no more shame by then. Everyone is half a catty against eight, right?"

Su Anshun hurriedly knelt down and said with fear and trepidation, "Master, I ..... didn't mean that ....."

Su Chengfeng asked him rhetorically, "Then what do you mean?"

"I ..... I ....." Su Anshun was speechless for a moment.

What he wanted to express was indeed this meaning, but he did not want to use such direct words.

Su Chengfeng said blandly, "Alright, I won't be angry. After all, you are also loyal."

Su Anshun knelt on the ground. He did not dare to answer again.

Su Chengfeng said again at this time, "What problems Wan Long Hall encountered overseas is not something we need to care about, what we need to care about is only one thing, since Wan Bajun wanted to bury his parents' coffin into the Ye family's ancestral tomb, that proves that he must have enough certainty to ensure that the Ye family will not or cannot retaliate in the future, so I reckon she will definitely arrange many people in Yanjing in the future to ensure that his parents' coffin won't in turn be stripped by the Ye family again."

Speaking of this, Su Chengfeng smiled faintly. Based on this, I can be sure that for this Wan Breaking Jun, seeking revenge on the Ye family is only one of his many objectives, deep down in his heart, he must really want to return to China to develop, after all, his parents fell in the country back then. He definitely wanted the Wan family to get back on their feet at home, so as long as Wan Bajun put his focus at home in the future. Then the Ye family will have absolutely no chance of getting ahead."

Su Anshun hastily exclaimed, "Your Lordship is wise! In this way, the Ye family will definitely be tormented by the Wan Breaking Army in the future until they are burnt out or even their family is broken, and at that time. They will naturally not have the ability to go against us in business."

Su Chengfeng sneered, "Ye Zhongquan will soon be unable to take care of himself, what else can he do to go against me?"

I'm really looking forward to the Qingming Festival, when the coffins of the hundred or so ancestors of the Ye family will be dug out, and I'm even more looking forward to the seventy-aged and eighty-year-old Ye Zhongquan wearing mourning for the Wan Liancheng couple! I will definitely take a picture of his worst face and post it on the internet, so that everyone can see how the head of the Ye family is wagging his tail on his knees like a dog!"

Chapter 3285

The following morning, April 3, Ye Chen simply packed some clothes, said goodbye to his wife and parents-in-law, and set off on his return journey to Yanjing once again.

This time he did not take the Ye family's private plane, but the Boeing business jet that Gu Yanzhong had given him, and together with Richard Chen, he prepared to depart for Yanjing.

After boarding the plane, Ye Chen called Gu Qiuyi and told her that he was about to take off and would land at Yanjing airport in about an hour or so.

Naturally, Gu Qiuyi was overjoyed and said on the spot that she would leave immediately and go to the airport to prepare for the greeting.

Just as the plane was slowly rolling out and about to accelerate at the end of the runway, Ye Chen received a phone call from Ye Zhongquan, Ye's old man.

On the phone, Ye Zhongquan couldn't hide his excitement and asked, "Chen'er, when are you coming to Yanjing?"

Ye Chen said indifferently, "I'm on the plane right now and will be taking off soon."

"Excellent!" Ye Zhongquan said with great excitement, "The entire Ye family is now missing you! Tonight, I will host a banquet at my home for all the heads of the Ye family's collateral and branch families, as well as the Ye family's own spokespersons across the country and even around the world, and then I will introduce you to them in front of everyone and let them know that you are Chang Ying's son!"

Ye Chen said, "Forget it, that would be too high-profile and not quite in line with my habits."

He said, "I will stay at Uncle Gu's house today, and tomorrow I will return to the Ye family to attend the meeting before the ancestral ceremony, and I will also attend the ancestral ceremony the day after tomorrow."

Ye Zhongquan hurriedly said, "Chen'er, you are the son of Chang Ying, my grandson, and the second young master of the entire Ye family in this generation, you must know that the future performance is the world of you young people, in time you will be the number two person of the Ye family, such an important occasion only comes once in 12 years, you must seize the opportunity to make those Ye family's side branches to be convinced of you, ah."

Ye Chen smiled and said, "No need for that, I'm not going to inherit the Ye family's property either, let others do the head-tossing."

Saying that, he heard a roar from the plane's engine and the plane had started to make a full sprint at one end of the runway, so he said to Ye Zhongquan, "The plane is about to take off, let's stop for now, see you tomorrow as well."

After saying this, Ye Chen did not wait for Elder Ye's response, so he simply hung up the phone.

In fact, he didn't deliberately want to be rude to his grandfather, mainly because he knew exactly what was going on in the old master's mind.

He knew that the old master definitely wanted him to take the opportunity of this ancestral ceremony to officially return to the Ye family, thus completely abandoning that orphan status he had had in Jinling for the previous twenty years.

But this was unacceptable to Ye Chen.

Twenty years had passed and in his mind he was no longer the young master of the Ye family named Ye Chen, he was the orphan in Yanjing named Ye Chen.

After all, his parents had already left for almost twenty years, and the bond between himself and the Ye family had been broken for twenty years, so in his opinion, it was unnecessary and impossible to force this bond back.

At this moment, when Ye Zhongquan saw that Ye Chen had hung up his phone, he was more or less unhappy in his heart.

But he was still clear about Ye Chen's reasons for doing so.

He also knew that Ye Chen did not want to officially change back to his status as the young master of the Ye family yet.

Chapter 3286

If only as a grandfather, he really did not want to force Ye Chen when his second son had passed away so many years ago and he could not easily find out his grandson's whereabouts.

It would not be a bad choice to let Ye Chen live his life happily.

That would be a good thing not only for Ye Chen himself, but also for his parents, who would be very relieved if they knew in heaven.

However, he was also aware of his other status: he was not only Ye Chen's grandfather, but also the head of the Ye family.

Since he was the head of the Ye family, he had to put the interests of the Ye family at the core.

As a direct descendant of the Ye family, Ye Chen had to return to the Ye family and serve the interests of the Ye family.

What's more, Ye Chen was the future son-in-law of the Gu family, and from this point of view alone, Ye Chen was even more important to the Ye family.

Therefore, this time, Ye Zhongquan planned to do everything he could to keep Ye Chen as long as he was here, regardless of whether he was willing to return to the Ye family or not.

And this time, Ye Zhongquan had already made preparations.

He planned to arrange for some photographers to attend the ancestor worship ceremony in plain clothes on the day of the ceremony, and have them take some photos and videos of the ceremony, and then select the ones with the best results and give them to the media for release.

That way, not only could the strength and elegance of the Ye family be shown to the whole country, it would also expose Ye Chen along with other Ye family descendants.

He felt that once Ye Chen's identity as the young master of the Ye family was exposed, then it would be impossible for him to return to his previous identity as the orphaned Ye Chen.

Thinking of this, he gathered his family together and spoke with unconcealed excitement, "Haha, Chen'er has already taken off to Yanjing! He will arrive in Yanjing in just over an hour! He has been away from home for almost twenty years and is finally coming back! This is a great fortune for my Ye family that has not happened in more than ten years!"

Ye Changmin, who originally still had a pleasant face, could not help but shiver when he heard the word Chen'er.

Ye Chen's eldest uncle, Ye Changkong, spoke up at this time, "Dad, that's a bit harsh, of course it's good that Ye Chen is back, but it's not a great fortune for our Ye family that hasn't happened in more than ten years!"

Ye Zhongquan laughed and said indifferently, "You don't understand the potential in Chen's body."

"I don't understand?" Ye Changkong said with some disdain, "In the end, isn't Ye Chen just making a small name for himself in Jinling? It's true, I heard that he has met a few people outside, but in the end, this is still not on the stage, you can see that he seems to be doing well in Jinling, when he comes to Yanjing, he really doesn't have much chance, if Jinling is a river, then Yanjing is the sea, I'm afraid he won't be able to adapt here at all."

"Yes grandpa." Ye Changkong's son and Ye Chen's cousin, Ye Feng, also spoke up at this time, "Grandpa, I know that you want Ye Chen to return to the Ye family and also have high hopes for Ye Chen, but I'll be honest, in this circle in Yanjing, there really isn't much room for Ye Chen to develop."

Saying that, he continued his analysis with a serious face, "You just take the circle I usually play in, which one of us has not studied overseas for many years and seen a lot of things? Most of them have stayed in the United States, the United Kingdom, or at least Australia, and in terms of education, a master's degree is just an introduction, and many of them are PhDs in economics and management, but Ye Chen only went to university for one year and doesn't even have a university diploma, how can he integrate into these circles when he comes to Yanjing?"

Ye Feng's cousin, Ye Hao, who is also Ye Chen's cousin, echoed, "Yes, Grandpa, although Ye Chen is a member of the Ye family, in the end, he is only related to the Ye family in terms of bloodline, but the rest, basically, does not fit in!"

"Let me put it bluntly, he is a complete low-end person in front of the Ye family, I think you should not have too much hope for him, because the greater the hope, the greater the disappointment!"

Chapter 3287

Ye Zhongquan looked at the group of people in front of him and shook his head gently.

He knew that these people all lacked understanding of Ye Chen, and at the same time were worried that Ye Chen would divide their established interests after his return, so they would say such things to try to confuse their own audition.

However, how could an old fox like him be influenced by these people.

There were only two people in the Ye family who knew what Ye Chen was truly capable of.

Of these, Ye Changmin knew some and Ye Zhongquan knew even more.

After Ye Changmin was brutally beaten by Ma Lan in Jinling last time, and then kidnapped by Xiao Changqian and Xiao Hailong's father and son, Ye Chen had said some things about himself in front of her.

These included curing the terminally ill Gu Yanzhong, killing the Eight Heavenly Kings of the Wu family, and even in Japan, helping the Ito family to have the last laugh in the midst of the chaos.

In addition to these things, Ye Zhongquan also knew that Ye Chen was able to go deep into Syria alone and save a woman from an opposition base, and that he was able to capture and throw Su Shoudao to Syria with his own strength.

Ye Zhongquan even knew that Ye Chen had made another trip to Syria two days ago and brought Su Shoudao back in the midst of the chaos.

Moreover, it was reported internationally in the past few days that an organisation called the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple had suffered a major defeat in Syria, and Ye Zhongquan vaguely felt that this might have something to do with Ye Chen.

As far as Ye Chen's kind of skill was concerned, it was comparable to Zhao Yun who had advanced seven times and exited Chang Ban Po.

However, he had never told anyone else in his family about these matters.

The reason for not talking about it was because he had not yet figured out Ye Chen's preferences.

If Ye Chen was so happy and wanted to save face, then he would have told his family about his deeds in advance, and they would have been in awe of him and would have kissed his ass, which would have made everyone happy.

But Ye Chen was the only one who acted in an extremely low-key manner.

If Ye Chen's story was made known to everyone in the Ye family, it would cause him to reject the Ye family in case he had any misgivings about it.

As for Ye Changmin, although she obviously knew a lot about it, the reason she did not talk about it to her other siblings was because deep down she deliberately wanted the rest of the Ye family to despise Ye Chen.

As Ye Changmin has not divorced her husband, whose family has also fallen on hard times, what she desires most now is to get a share of the Ye family's assets.

The more this happens, the more she can't wait to see the few brothers in the family, and their children, fighting each other.

If all these people knew what Ye Chen was capable of and feared him early on, how would they still be able to fight with him?

If they didn't fight, how could she, a daughter who had married out long ago, have a share in the Ye family?

Just then, Ye Zhongquan had had enough of the gang's slanderous words and said in an icy manner, "Alright, I'll pretend I didn't hear what you just said, from now on, whoever says such nonsense in front of me, or in front of Chen'er, don't blame me for being unkind to him!"

Seeing that the old man remained unmoved, Ye Feng couldn't help but speak up, "Grandpa, I know how much you owe Ye Chen in your heart, but let me say something from the bottom of my heart, you can't be too spoiled with Ye Chen!"

He has been away from the Ye family for so many years, not only has he not attended any school, but he also lacks basic rules and upbringing. He put my aunt under house arrest in a shanty town in Jinling during the New Year, does he still have respect for elders and children? If you want him to return to the Ye family, you have to set the rules for him!"

After saying that, he looked at Ye Changmin and deliberately urged, "Aunt Ye Chen is so rude to you, he doesn't regard you as an elder at all, do you think we should properly set rules for him?"

When Ye Changmin heard this, she hurriedly waved her hand and said, "Little Feng, don't say that, last time I went to Jinling, it was my fault in the first place, I can't blame Chen'er for that matter, if I want to blame myself, I should blame myself for not thinking it through ....."

Ye Feng's eyes were about to fall to the ground.

Chapter 3288

He looked at the terrified Ye Changmin and sighed in his heart, "Is this still my f*cking aunt who is so arrogant and domineering that no one in Yanjing knows about her? In the past, she would fight for her life even if a hair was missing, but after taking such a big loss from Ye Chen, how come she doesn't even have the slightest thought of revenge?"

Thinking of this, he asked reluctantly, "Auntie, don't you think it was too much for Ye Chen to treat you that way at first? Aren't you angry with Ye Chen in your heart?"

Ye Changmin took a step back and said with a serious face, "I'm not, I'm not, don't talk nonsense ....."

Ye Feng's jaw dropped and he looked at Ye Changmin dumbfounded, never dreaming that he would try to set her up and rekindle her anger towards Ye Chen with a provocative method, but who would have thought that she would directly give himself a denial triple .....

Naturally, Ye Feng was quite depressed at this point and hurriedly looked at his father, Ye Changkong, hoping that Ye Changkong would step forward and make another effort.

However, Ye Zhongquan did not give him a chance.

At this moment, Ye Zhongquan's expression already had a clear displeasure and he said in a cold voice, "Little Feng, Ye Chen is your younger brother, I don't care what you think of him in your heart, you must show yourself as a brother and treat him well and get along well."

After saying that, he looked at the others and said in a stern voice, "The same goes for you all!"

Ye Feng did not dare to say anything more and could only nod resentfully, "Grandpa I understand."

Ye Zhongquan said coldly, "Chen'er will arrive in a little over an hour, so you should hurry up and get ready, and personally go to the airport to pick up your brother and return!"

"Me?" Ye Feng asked with a surprised look on his face, "You want me to go to the airport to pick him up?"

"Of course!" Ye Zhongquan said, "Chen'er said on the phone that he was going to the Gu family first, but he's been away from home for so many years and now that he's finally back, he should naturally come to the Ye family first thing when he lands, so how can he go to the Gu family! So you take someone to meet him at the airport, talk nicely to him and get him to the Ye family!"

When Ye Feng heard that he was told to pick up Ye Chen, he was upset in his heart.

He felt that he was the eldest son and grandson of the Ye family.

The status of the eldest grandson was equal to that of the Crown Prince, and all the other sons and grandsons had to be respectful when they saw him, so why should he, the eldest son and grandson, be allowed to pick him up when he, a Ye Chen, had been away from home for so many years?

Thinking of this, Ye Feng said somewhat reluctantly, "Grandpa, Ye Chen will be back as soon as he returns, I'll arrange a motorcade later and have Butler Tang take the motorcade to greet him, won't that be grand enough? There's no need for me to go too, right?"

Ye Zhongquan said categorically, "Only if you go can you show the Ye family's sincerity!"

Ye Feng frowned and said, "Ye Chen is my second uncle's son, even if he has been away from home for so many years, he is still a family member, so there is no need to be so rude between family members and family members, what kind of sincerity is there?"

Ye Zhongquan said seriously, "What do you know, Ye Chen left home at the age of eight and has never officially returned to acknowledge his ancestors, in the end he is now treating us as outsiders, so we must let him feel the sincerity of the whole Ye family, so that he can willingly acknowledge his ancestors!"

Ye Feng did not expect Ye Zhongquan to attach so much importance to Ye Chen, his heart was even more upset, he could not help but secretly sigh, "This Ye Chen, he has been gone for almost twenty years, now he suddenly comes back cold, what exactly is his intention? "Could it be that he wants to steal the qualification of the new generation heir of the Ye family from the old man?"

"And the old man, defending Ye Chen at every turn, does he want Ye Chen to stay in the Ye Family to check and balance each other with me?"

"A mere trash who has been hanging around outside for twenty years, is he also worthy of calling me Ye Feng's brother?!"

"I don't know why grandpa thinks so highly of him, is it because he has a marriage contract with the Gu family?"

At this moment, although Ye Feng was full of displeasure and anger, he did not dare to directly disobey his grandfather's wishes.

So, he could only forcefully hold back his anger and agreed, saying, "Alright grandpa, then I'll go and get ready and go over to pick him up."

Ye Zhongquan nodded gently and looked at Ye Hao, the son of the oldest three Ye Changyun, and instructed, "Hao Hao, you go along too!"

Chapter 3289

Hearing that the old man had asked him to pick up Ye Chen as well, Ye Hao was reluctant in his heart.

But there was nothing he could do even if he was reluctant, even his cousin Ye Feng had compromised, so how could he dare to continue to resist.

So, he could only agree honestly.

At that moment, a servant came running over to report, "Master, Young Master Feng, Princess Helena is here."

When Ye Feng heard that Helena had arrived, his gloomy face eased slightly.

This Princess Helena was Ye Feng's fiancée, the princess of the Nordic royal family, Helena Iliad.

Although the Ye family and the Iliad family had reached an agreement on marriage, they were not yet officially engaged, so for reasons of etiquette and fear of gossip from the paparazzi, the Ye family did not arrange for Helena to live in the Ye family villa.

After arriving in Yanjing, Helena stayed at the Buckingham Palace Hotel in Yanjing, but during the day she would often visit the Ye family and sometimes she would travel around Yanjing with Ye Feng.

Ye Feng was very fond of Helena, not only because of her title as the Nordic royal princess, which made him look good, but also because Helena herself was a European beauty with an excellent image, temperament and figure.

At that moment, a tall white girl, dressed in a long white dress with long blonde hair cascading down her shoulders, walked in.

Her skin was whiter than snow and glowed with a crystal lustre. Her large azure eyes were as deep and moving as the sea, and her high nose and thin red lips were like a finely carved work of art, both in appearance and figure, a rarity in the world.

Her appearance made the entire Ye family living room seem to brighten up in an instant.

Helena was five years younger than Ye Feng, and had just turned twenty-four this year.

She was the eldest princess of the Nordic royal family and was originally also the first in line to the throne, but for some unknown reason, she was later wiped out of the heirship by the royal family, which was why she was brought into marriage with the Ye family.

If she was still the heir to the throne, there was no way the Nordic royal family would have allowed her to come to Asia to join in marriage, and would have definitely chosen a prince among the royal families of other European countries who had no hope of succeeding to the throne for intermarriage.

When Ye Feng saw Helena, he immediately greeted her with a soft smile on his face and gently spoke up and asked, "Have you had breakfast, my dear?"

Helena nodded shallowly and replied in very skilful Chinese, "I have already eaten."

After saying that, he looked at Ye Zhongquan and slightly saluted, "Hello, Mr Ye Lao."

Then, he greeted Ye Feng's father Ye Changkong, third uncle Ye Changyun, fourth uncle Ye Changjun and aunts Ye Changmin and Ye Changxiu one by one.

When Ye Zhongquan saw that she was so knowledgeable and reasonable, he smiled gratefully and said, "Helena, you don't really need to be so formal at home, let alone calling me Old Mr. Ye, just be like Little Feng and call me Grandpa!"

Helena asked somewhat awkwardly, "I heard that according to the Chinese custom, it is only after marriage that you officially change your name ....."

"Yes!" Ye Feng's father, Ye Changkong, couldn't help but laugh, "Helena, according to custom, it's true that you have to change your name after you officially get married, but we don't have to be so particular about it in private, sooner or later we'll be family, so changing it early also seems closer."

At the side of the room, Ye Changmin said with a smile, "Big brother, you haven't even paid Helena to change her name yet, and you want her to call you dad first?"

Ye Changkong immediately said, "Even if I call her Dad now, I will definitely pay for the change of mouth when the time comes!"

After saying that, he looked at Helena and said seriously, "Helena, Little Feng's mother and I have already discussed it, when the time comes, we will each give you 18.8 million dollars for the change of mouth! US dollars!"

Chapter 3290

Helena was a bit taken aback and said hurriedly, "This is also a bit too much ..... Chinese people say that no merit is rewarded, I ..... I ....."

Ye Zhongquan laughed: "How can you still get into the no merit, in our Chinese tradition, the change of mouth on the wedding day is to pay for the change of mouth, not only your future in-laws will give you, but also me as a grandfather, as well as other uncles and aunts, will give you."

Helena was slightly stunned and said seriously, "Although I don't mean to offend, I don't think this custom seems to suit me very well ....."

Saying that, Helena hurriedly explained, "The main thing is that in Europe, most young people basically don't reach out to their families for money after they go to university, myself as well as many of my friends, went through university on scholarships and student loans, and usually I don't quite reach out to my family, so can't I omit this kind of change of mouth fee?"

At the side, Ye Feng was dumbfounded and hurriedly stepped forward, gently grabbed Helena's hand and spoke, "Honey, how can you omit such a thing!"

Helena's good-looking eyebrows unconsciously wrinkled slightly the moment Ye Feng touched herself, and immediately afterwards, she immediately pulled her hand back.

She didn't have any feelings for Ye Feng, she just couldn't fight against the family's arrangement and that was why she had to accept the union.

And she had her own final struggle in her heart, and that final struggle was that she would definitely not have any intimate contact with Ye Feng as long as she had not yet officially consummated her marriage with him.

During the days she came to Yanjing, Ye Feng always wanted to go further with her, intentionally or unintentionally, and even sent her back to the hotel several times and tried to enter her room, but she politely refused.

Although Ye Feng was anxious, he did not dare to press too hard.

So, he could only pretend to be a gentleman and pass by with a smile.

But in fact, deep inside his heart, he had already scolded Helena's reserve dozens of times.

At this moment, seeing that Helena wouldn't even let him hold hands with her, Ye Feng was even more furious in his heart.

He couldn't help but secretly gnash his teeth and sigh: "This Nordic bitch doesn't know if she's really serious or not! All day long, she acts like she's so precious, she won't even let me fucking touch her hand!"

"If you're really a virgin, I'll put up with you, but if you've been with someone else for a long time, then you'll be waiting for me to fucking fix you up after the wedding!"

The scene of Ye Feng and Helena holding hands and being dodged fell on the eyes of the other Ye family members, and each of them had their own thoughts in mind.

As Ye Feng's father, Ye Changkong was also more or less displeased in his heart, feeling that Helena was not giving face to her son.

However, Ye Zhongquan felt more and more that Helena was a rare and good girl, born in Europe with an open mind, but she had never expected to be so firm in her principles, which was rare.

If he married a woman who was a watery woman and then caused a scandal of cheating, the Ye family would really be ashamed of itself.

Ye Feng was embarrassed in his heart, so his mouth could only hurry to change the subject and divert everyone's attention.

He then said to Helena, "Dear, whether it's the bride price or the change of mouth fee, this is the start-up money for the family after we both get married, this is a kind gesture from the elders of the family, how can we refuse it? So you, ah, better get into the country and follow the customs, don't care about these details."

Helena, however, said righteously, "If it's the start-up money given by the elders of the family, then it's definitely not fair for us to receive only your family's, but if both families receive it, we don't have this tradition there, and I can't open up to my parents about it, so I think we might as well be flexible and omit these customs. "

Ye Feng's head was all over the place and he cursed angrily in his heart, "Have you been kicked in the head by a donkey? When you get married, you can get tens of millions of dollars just for the change of mouth fee, which translates to 400 to 500 million RMB, and you just don't want to fucking say no?!"

Just as Ye Feng was depressed, Ye Zhongquan looked at the time and said, "All right, Feng, hurry up and go to the airport to pick up Chen'er, or we'll be delayed, we'll talk about these things later."

"Okay." Ye Feng could only agree, looked at Helena, thought for a moment in his head and said with a smile, "Honey, if you don't have anything to do, you can come with me to the airport!"
