

Ye Chen 3301

Chapter 3301

At the same time, in Gu Qiuyi's Volvo.

While driving, Gu Qiuyi asked Ye Chen, "Brother Ye Chen, you just said that Helena was not doing well, is she sick?"

Ye Chen nodded, "Yes."

Gu Qiuyi couldn't help but ask, "What kind of illness is it?"

Ye Chen thought about it and said seriously, "It's not easy to say, it's very complicated, there's a big problem with the whole system related to the heart."

Gu Qiuyi was surprised and asked, "Ah? Is it that serious?"

"Yes." Ye Chen nodded and said, "Very serious."

Gu Qiuyi asked again, "Then is her life in danger?"

Ye Chen explained, "The condition she is in is like walking on thin ice, she could step off and fall into the water at any time."

Gu Qiuyi's eyes widened, "No way, she looks so young."

Ye Chen said blandly, "The disease never cares whether a person is young or old, so there have always been not a few people who die young, or even before they reach adulthood, due to the disease."

"That's true" Gu Qiuyi nodded gently and asked, "Brother Ye Chen, then do you have a way to save her?"

Saying that, Gu Qiuyi asked herself, "You must have a way to save her, don't you? When my father's condition was so serious at the beginning, you were able to cure him, so this Helena must not be a problem either, right?"

Ye Chen graciously admitted, "It's just that it can definitely be saved, the kind of medicine I gave your father only needs half a pill to cure her."

Speaking of this, Ye Chen turned his words and said seriously, "But this medicine is too precious, and I don't have any friendship with her, and this is the first time I've met her today, so naturally I can't help her so much for nothing."

Gu Qiuyi pondered for a moment and nodded, "Indeed, there are too many people on the verge of death in this world, and even the gods cannot save them all."

Ye Chen smiled and said, "But people say that meeting each other is fate, so I have more or less helped her a little bit just now, if she really had a heart attack, as long as she did what I said, she could definitely save her life."

Gu Qiuyi asked in amazement, "Is that what you just said about biting the tip of your right middle finger?"

Ye Chen nodded, "That's right!"

Gu Qiuyi smiled and said, "Is this some kind of trick, could it be that biting the middle finger of the right hand will have a miraculous effect when you have a heart attack?"

Ye Chen shook his head and said blandly, "It's useless for others to bite, but it's fine for her to bite."

"How strange" Gu Qiuyi was puzzled and asked, "People's physiology is similar, so why can her right middle finger save her life but others can't?"

Ye Chen smiled mysteriously and said, "Heaven's truth cannot be revealed!"

After saying that, he immediately admonished her again, "Just don't ask so many questions, okay? Focus on driving!"

Gu Qiuyi spat out her tongue, "Okay"

When the two arrived at the Gu family villa, Gu Yanzhong and Lin Wanqiu had personally cooked and had already prepared a table of meals.

Seeing Ye Chen's arrival, both husband and wife were overjoyed.

The two of them were ready to get drunk with him after pulling him directly to the table and taking out the good wine they had.

Chapter 3302

Lin Wanqiu was in a very good mood, so she took out some wine and wanted to have some with her.

Lin Wanqiu was so happy with Ye Chen that when she looked at him, she no longer treated him as her future son-in-law, but as her own son.

Ye Chen also liked this feeling in the Gu family, and all three members of the Gu family treated him with unparalleled sincerity.

This, coupled with the fact that the two families had been as close as a family for so many years, had made Ye Chen feel truly at home.

While Ye Chen was exchanging glasses with the Gu Yanzhong family, Ye Feng sent Helena back to the hotel and returned to the Ye family to resume his duties.

When Ye Zhongquan saw that Ye Chen had not followed him back, he immediately spoke up and asked, "What's going on? Where is Chen'er? Didn't come back with you?"

Ye Feng was waiting to come back to complain, and when he heard Ye Zhongquan ask, he immediately complained angrily, "Grandpa, this guy Ye Chen is too much! There were so many of us and we went to pick him up, but even if he didn't come, he even spoke rudely to you! I told him time and time again that you were waiting for him at home, but he told me that he loved whoever he was, and that he had no respect for anyone!"

Ye Zhongquan frowned slightly and asked him, "Then where did Chen'er go?"

"Gone to the Gu family." Ye Feng said in exasperation, "That Gu Qiu Yi of the Gu family drove to pick him up, and the two of them left together."

Ye Zhongquan nodded gently and said blandly, "Just go, it's good to be close to the Gu family."

As he said that, he looked at Tang Sihai and asked, "Sihai, have you told Chen'er that he should come home tomorrow no matter what?"

Immediately, Tang Sihai stepped forward. Respectfully, he said, "Back to your Lordship, I have already spoken to Young Master Chen, he said he will come to the house early tomorrow morning on time."

"That's good." A stone fell from Ye Zhongquan's heart as he spoke, "Since he wants to come over tomorrow, then let's wait for him."

Ye Feng did not expect that he had just approached the old man to complain and say that Ye Chen had disobeyed his old man, but the old man was not angry at all.

He couldn't help but curse angrily in his heart, "The old man usually pays the most attention to the family rules, but when it comes to Ye Chen, how come he has a two-tier system? Does it mean that Ye Chen can disobey the rules and disobey him directly? Why?"

Ye Feng, who was indignant, immediately said, "Grandpa! I have to ask you to do me justice!"

Ye Zhongquan frowned, "What is it?"

Ye Feng said angrily, "Today at the airport, after Ye Chen met Helena, he actually put his hands on her and did some active and frivolous acts!"

Speaking of this, Ye Feng's emotions grew more and more agitated, and he added offhandedly, "And he even made up some nonsense to Helena! He scared Helena directly! Originally Helena was going to follow him back, but because she was offended by Ye Chen and was in a bad mood, she went back to the hotel early."

Ye Zhongquan couldn't help but frown and asked, "Is there such a thing? What exactly happened, tell me in detail!"

Ye Feng then immediately told the truth about the situation.

Because Tang Sihai was there, he did not dare to add too much fuel to the fire.

However, he felt that the fact that Ye Chen had taken the initiative to grab Helena's hand and babbled about it was already very rude in itself.

After hearing this, Ye Zhongquan did feel a little uncomfortable too.

Helena was Ye Chen's future sister-in-law, so it was natural for Ye Chen to keep his distance, and taking the initiative to touch someone else's hand was indeed a bit nonsensical.

So, he frowned and asked Ye Feng, "What exactly did you say when you said that Chen'er was babbling nonsense at that time?"

Ye Feng said angrily, "He said that Helena wasn't doing well and that she should pay more attention in the near future or something, and he even touched Helena's hand and said that Helena should bite the tip of her right middle finger in a critical situation! Isn't that fucking bullshit? I've never heard of a sudden illness where biting your finger works! I think he's deliberately trying to take advantage of Helena!"

At this moment, Ye Feng's father, Ye Changkong, immediately stepped forward and said with a pained expression, "Dad! Helena is from the Nordic royal family and has a lot of rules and manners. If today's incident makes her harbour ill feelings towards our Ye family, it might lead to an international scandal for our Ye family! In that case, our Ye family will lose face abroad!"

Chapter 3303

Hearing this, Ye Zhongquan could not help but frown and asked Tang Sihai, "Sihai, you were there, do you think that when Chen'er said those words at that time, was he serious or was he just talking out of his mouth?"

Tang Sihai said respectfully, "Back to your Lordship, I think Young Master Chen he did mean it, it was not like he had any frivolous intentions."

Ye Zhongquan nodded gently and spoke, "I think so."

Ye Feng immediately blurted out, "Grandpa! You're not serious, are you? Ye Chen is clearly taking advantage of Helena, how can you think that he doesn't have a light heart?!"

Ye Zhongquan said blandly, "In my opinion, Chen'er should have seen some kind of problem with Helena's body from her, and from what I know about Chen'er, he would not be so idle as to rack his brains and make up stories to take advantage of a girl."

Ye Feng protested, "Grandpa, you are too biased towards him too! As the saying goes, you don't know the heart of a man, and besides, he's been away from home for so many years, you don't know what kind of character he really has in his bones! Besides, it's only natural that many men would have second thoughts about a woman like Helena, but why wouldn't Ye Chen?"

Ye Zhongquan shook his head gently, hummed and laughed, and said seriously, "Feng'er, it's true that I lack understanding of Chen'er, but at least I still know more or less the skinny on him"

Speaking of this, Ye Zhongquan looked at Ye Feng and said seriously, "And your understanding of Chen'er is really a bit too lacking!"

"If you only knew more about him, you would know that if he wanted to make light of a girl, there is no telling how many girls would line up to send him to his door for him to make light of them."

"Moreover, any one of them taken out would not be worse than Helena!"

Hearing these words, Ye Feng almost didn't spit out the mouthful of old blood he was holding in his chest.

He cursed in his heart, "Crap!!! Old master, what do you mean by that? You mean that he, Ye Chen, is just a bully and has many women, even many women stronger than Helena, who have taken the initiative to throw themselves at him?"

Thinking of this, he was even more depressed: "What the hell does this mean? Is this a deliberate attempt to squeeze me?"

He was almost in tears, and his voice was choked with sobs as he said, "Grandpa Even if you are biased, you can't be so biased! Ye Chen is your grandson, so am I! And Helena is also your future grandson-in-law, so if you don't decide for me, you have to decide for Helena! You can't let her get cold feet before she even gets married, can you?"

Ye Zhongquan didn't have the energy to pay attention to Ye Feng's mood at this time, he saw that Ye Feng was in an emotional state and spoke with some impatience, "Enough! Let's not talk about this matter anymore! I believe that Chen'er is not that kind of person!"

He said, "Since Chen'er said that Helena's condition is not good, I think it's better to arrange for a doctor to do a medical examination on her. And we can't explain to the royal family of the Nordic countries either."

Ye Feng almost collapsed and said, "Grandpa! If you don't do justice to Helena, how can you still listen to Ye Chen's words? If we drag Helena to a medical examination at this time, then Helena will definitely think that we are all crazy!"

Ye Zhongquan ignored him and turned to Tang Sihai, instructing him in a very serious manner, "Sihai, arrange for some experts from our own hospital to come to Buckingham Palace to give Helena a medical check-up, to rule out the risk of cardiovascular disease, and to take some blood samples and do all the biochemical tests on blood in the laboratory. "

Chapter 3304

Tang Sihai immediately said, "Yes Master, I'll go and make the arrangements."

Ye Feng hurriedly stepped forward and said in a very dissatisfied tone, "Grandpa! Do you really want to arrange for a whole bunch of doctors to come to the house to check Helena's health just because of a single word from Ye Chen? Have you ever considered Helena's feelings? What if she personally rejects this? What if she thinks something about our family because of this?"

Ye Zhongquan waved his hand, "It's better to believe something like this than not to believe it. If Helena is very resistant, then we won't force her, but if she doesn't have a problem with it, then we'll do the medical check-up and all will be happy."

Tang Sihai immediately nodded and said, "Then I'll go and make preparations, and try to get a female specialist to go there then, so that Miss Helena shouldn't be too resistant."

Ye Feng was depressed to death in his heart.

But at a time like this, he didn't dare to say anything more, except that the hatred towards Ye Chen in his heart became even stronger.

With that, he hurriedly looked at his father, Ye Changkong, hoping that he could help him out.

Ye Changkong also did not want to just eat a dumb loss for nothing and immediately blurted out, "Dad, I think"

Ye Zhongquan immediately reached out and interrupted him, saying very seriously, "I know what you want to say, hold it back and don't say a word!"

Ye Changkong's expression instantly froze, and he could only turn around and take a few more steps back, hiding behind the crowd without saying a word.

Deep inside, he was so depressed that he couldn't help but curse, "Hey! What the fuck is this!!! Is the old man senile? How dare he be determined to defend that Ye Chen!"

At the side, although Ye Changmin had not said anything, she had already gone through all those twists and turns deep inside her heart, not knowing how many times she had gone back and forth.

In her heart, she thought, "I originally thought that this time when Ye Chen came back for the Ancestral Ritual, big brother and Ye Feng would definitely not let him have an easy time and would definitely do everything they could to suppress him, and in fact big brother and Ye Feng did do so, but who would have thought that both of them combined would not carry as much weight as Ye Chen who didn't even show his face in front of the old man!"

"Originally I was hoping that they would come to help me take my revenge, but now it seems that I was thinking blindly, if even they can't deal with this Ye Chen, then there will really be no one in the Ye family who can deal with him in the future"

Thinking of this, Ye Changmin suddenly felt that he had to hurry to find a way to improve his relationship with Ye Chen.

The purpose is to make her willingly accept the medical examination, we are also doing it for her own good, in case something happens to her, we can't explain it to her family. If anything happens to her, we can't explain to her family."

Ye Changmin hastily agreed and nodded, "Yes dad, then I will go there with housekeeper Tang!"

Chapter 3305

Soon, eight female experts, departed from the Ye family's private hospital for the Buckingham Palace Hotel in Yanjing.

Tang Sihai, together with Ye Changmin, also hurried from the Ye family.

At this moment, Helena was leaning on the soft head of the bed, her face full of weakness.

She hesitated with her mobile phone and sent a request for a video call to her mother, who was far away in Northern Europe.

There was a six-hour time difference between the Nordic countries and Yanjing, and 1pm Yanjing time was exactly seven o'clock in the morning Nordic time.

Knowing Helena's mother, she must have woken up by now.

Soon, the video was connected and Helena's mother was sitting alone at the dining table eating breakfast on the other end of the video.

She looked at Helena and couldn't help but smile, "How are you feeling in China? Is there anything you don't like about it?"

Helena wanted to say that she was not comfortable with everything in China, but for fear that her mother would be worried and distressed, she could only say with a forced smile, "There is nothing to get used to, everything is fine here."

When she finished, she saw that her mother's breakfast was just a glass of milk, a few slices of bread and a small piece of butter, so she said, "Mum, why are you eating bread in your room by yourself? Why don't you go to the dining room to eat."

All of the Nordic countries' direct royal family lived inside the palace, where most people did not cook, and the royal family had their own dining room dedicated to the royal family.

Helena's mother gave a bitter laugh and said, "A widow without a husband has to be looked upon with disdain everywhere here, I'd rather stay in my room by myself and try not to deal with them."

With that, she couldn't resist asking, "Helena, how is your body feeling?"

With a slight hesitation, Helena smiled slightly and said, "I'm quite well, you don't have to worry about me."

After saying that, Helena struggled for a moment, but still couldn't hold back and spoke, "Right mum, I met Ye Feng's cousin today, he seemed to have seen that I wasn't well at first glance."

"Really?" Helena's mother instantly tensed up and blurted out, "If the Ye family knew that you were seriously ill, they would definitely back out of the marriage, right?"

As she said that, her eyes were red and she couldn't stop the tears from flowing down her face as she choked out, "Helena, mum really doesn't want you to come back to this place, coming back here, they will only try to squeeze your value and your life by all means"

Helena hurriedly comforted, "Mom, don't worry too much, that cousin of Ye Feng's, doesn't deal too well with Ye Feng or even the whole Ye family, so I guess he shouldn't tell anyone else."

Helena's mother breathed a sigh of relief and said seriously, "That's good Mum hopes you can live a good life in China, thousands of kilometres away from the royal family, and that you can be free from their control and live a little more freely."

Helena couldn't help but choke up a little too, nodding her head repeatedly, "Mom, you have to take care of yourself, don't worry about me."

"Good" Helena's mother nodded, remembered something and added, "By the way, your grandmother's health is not too good recently, so your uncle said that he and your sister will not be able to go to China to attend your and Ye Feng's engagement ceremony as he and your sister have to take care of them every inch of the way, and will send your grandmother's butler Wilkin to represent the royal family at that time."

Helena let out a bitter laugh and said, "I just promised them a marriage alliance with the Ye family one foot and they don't even bother to come to the engagement party the next, that's too snobbish"

Chapter 3306

Helena's mother shook her head, "It's not them, it's that your grandmother is really not well, she's bedridden now and the medical team has converted her room into an intensive care unit, with several doctors and nurses guarding it every day."

Helena hurriedly pursued the question, "Is it that serious? What exactly is going on?"

"It's very serious," Helena's mother said, "The situation is very complicated, mainly because she is old and many of her organs are on the verge of failure. already."

Helena nodded gently and said seriously, "It would be good for us if Olivia were to ascend to the throne, at least she would be kinder to Mum for the sake of the sisterly love she and I have shared for so many years."

"Let's hope so." Helena's mother smiled bitterly and said, "Ever since your father died, the royal family hasn't treated me like royalty anymore, and Olivia may not change much if she inherits the throne."

Helena was busy saying, "When Olivia ascends the throne, I will find a chance to talk to Olivia, or at least restore the monthly standard of living the royal family gave you when your father was alive, and if that doesn't work, I will bring you to China."

"Forget it." Helena's mother said with immense heartache, "You haven't married into the Ye family yet, everything is still unknown, so I won't go and cause you any trouble."

Helena sighed and was about to speak when the doorbell suddenly rang.

She then said to her mother, "Mom, someone is ringing the doorbell, I'll go check."

"Go on." Helena's mother admonished, "You don't have to worry about me, make sure you take care of yourself."

"I know mum."

Hanging up the video, Helena went to the door of her room and peered through the cat's eye and found that standing outside the door were, surprisingly, Ye Feng's aunt Ye Changmin and Tang Sihai, the Ye family's butler.

She hurriedly opened the door and said politely, "Ms. Ye and Butler Tang, what brings you here?"

Looking at Helena, Ye Changmin stepped forward and directly grabbed Helena's hand, saying with a full smile, "Aiya Helena, when Little Feng's grandfather heard that you were not feeling well, he instructed me to hurry over to take a look at you."

Saying that, Ye Changmin asked with a face full of concern, "Helena, how is your condition now? Do you need to go to the hospital? Let me know if you need to, and I'll make the arrangements."

Helena hurriedly shook her head and said, "Thank you for your kindness, Mr. Ye, there is nothing serious wrong with my health, it's just that I haven't been able to adjust to jet lag in the past few days, and I went to the airport today, so I feel a bit tired."

Ye Changmin nodded and smiled, "Yes, yes, jet lag is really the most painful thing, we are also worried that your body will not be able to bear it if you do not get enough rest for a long time. You also know that the day after tomorrow we will be holding the ancestor worship ceremony, the Ye family's ancestor worship ceremony is very tedious, it is not an exaggeration to say that it will take a whole day, you will definitely be more tired then."

Speaking of this, Ye Changmin said with concern, "So Little Feng's grandfather asked me to bring a few medical experts from our own hospital, so that they can do a systematic and comprehensive examination for you first, so that you won't have any sudden symptoms due to exertion on the day of the ancestral ceremony."

As soon as Helena heard this, her whole heart tensed up.

She knew very well that her condition could not be hidden at all in front of a professional doctor, who would only need to do an electrocardiogram to see the huge problems lurking in her body through the abnormalities on the electrocardiogram.

When the Ye family suddenly wanted to send someone to do a medical check-up on her, Helena certainly did not dare to agree.

So, almost without thinking, she blurted out, "Ms. Ye, thank you and Mr. Ye for your kindness, but I really don't have any major health problems, so I don't need to bother you guys!"

Chapter 3307

When Ye Changmin saw that Helena had not hesitated to refuse the doctor's offer to examine her, and that there was a bit of nervousness and apprehension deep in her expression, she was a little suspicious.

Generally speaking, only the poor, or those who are not so well-off, are more afraid of seeing a doctor.

This is because they have known since childhood that whenever they go to see a doctor, it must be in the case of their own sickness.

Precisely because they grew up going to the doctor, either with an injection or with medicine, it can leave a psychological shadow on them about doctors, so much so that they can't help but be a little nervous when they mention them.

Many people from such families, even as adults, have a great fear of doctors and live their lives on the basic principle of trying not to go to hospital if they can.

But Helena was not from a poor family, she was a descendant of Nordic royalty with a history of several hundred years.

Normally, both royalty and members of these large and wealthy families must have developed the habit of frequent dealings with doctors from a young age.

In the case of the Ye family, not only did they have their own team of health care doctors, they even had their own comprehensive private hospital.

Apart from members like Ye Chen, who had left the Ye family when he was a child, other members of the Ye family had at least two to three very in-depth and comprehensive medical check-ups a year.

For those underage offspring in particular, a health practitioner would basically come every month or two to do a medical check-up and growth and development assessment.

If there is any discomfort during the week, you don't have to go to the hospital yourself, but a whole team of doctors come to your door and are absolutely attentive.

Therefore, children growing up in such an environment are not only not afraid of doctors, but also highly dependent on them, and are eager to call their personal doctor to take care of them 24 hours a day for any headache or fever.

It was for this reason that Ye Changmin was a little suspicious.

She always felt that there must be something hidden in Helena's fear of doctors.

So, she said with a smile on her face, "Helena, you don't have to be so nervous, the doctor is just doing some routine tests for you, no injections or medication, what is there to be afraid of? At most, a few tubes of blood will be drawn to check if there are any abnormalities in the biochemical indicators, so don't worry, it will be fine!"

Without waiting for Helena to make a statement, she immediately turned around and ordered Tang Sihai, who was at the side, "Housekeeper Tang, hurry up and ask the doctors to come up, let's move at a faster pace so as not to disturb Helena's rest."

Without hesitation, Tang Sihai spoke, "Yes Miss, I will ask them all to come up now."

Helena was so nervous that she said, "Ms. Ye, I'm really fine, I just need to rest more, so there's no need to bother you with all this fuss!"

Ye Changmin smiled and said, "Harm! You'll be my niece-in-law soon, so what's the point of being polite to your own aunt? Besides, I'm here, and so are the experts, so don't think too much, just relax and let them check you out, it won't take long."

Saying that, Ye Changmin said thoughtfully, "Helena, you must not have any psychological pressure, we have all female experts here today, when you are examined later, Tang butler and I will avoid it."

The more Ye Changmin acted in an impeccable manner, the more nervous Helena became in her heart.

She knew very well in her heart the consequences of this matter.

"With the Ye family's strength and status, if they knew that I was terminally ill and would live for a few more years at most, then they would never agree to this marriage"

"To put it bluntly, as long as I let the expert brought by Ye Changmin do a medical examination today, then I will definitely be withdrawn from the marriage by the Ye family"

"To be fair, I don't have any feelings for Ye Feng and have absolutely no desire to marry him or be his wife"

"But I simply don't have any choice now, if I don't marry Ye Feng, then my mother won't have any security in her old age"

"She has married into the royal family for more than 20 years, she has not done any work, nor does she have any social insurance, medical insurance, or even any personal assets under her name, if she stays in the royal family, she can at least have the royal family's arrangement of food, clothing, accommodation, free medical care and living allowance, but if she is kicked out by the royal family, then she will lose all security in her old age"

Chapter 3308

Thinking of this, Helena could only harden her attitude and said with a little bit of dissatisfaction, "Ms. Ye, I know that you also have good intentions, but it's a bit unjustified for you to suddenly bring a bunch of experts here and forcefully give me a medical examination, isn't it? Although I am about to marry Ye Feng and become the daughter-in-law of the Ye family, I must at least have my basic human rights."

Ye Changmin said with a smile, "Aiya Helena, that's too serious, how does it rise to human rights? No one is trying to deprive you of your human rights, they just want to give you a check-up so that you don't have any health problems."

Helena said very seriously, "The most direct response to human rights is that if I don't want to undergo a medical examination, then no one can force me to do so. If I don't even have this freedom and this basic human right is not respected, then I really have to think carefully about this marriage!"

Seeing Helena's strong reaction and the escalating nature of the matter, Ye Changmin could not help but say in his heart, "This Helena, she's even playing with me, she's even trying to put me on the spot, she's so clever! It seems that she is determined not to undergo a medical examination!"

Thinking of this, Ye Changmin also knew that he definitely couldn't force himself now either.

Otherwise, it was possible that this princess of the Nordic royal family would simply shake it off and go home.

And Helena's attitude also made her more and more firm in her judgement.

"It seems that this Helena, might really still have some kind of hidden body condition"

Thinking of this, she didn't dare to make a rash decision, and could only apologise to Helena: "Aiya, Helena, I really didn't expect you to be so sensitive about this matter, sorry! But don't be angry, I didn't mean to force you, the medical examination is for your health, but the premise is to respect your personal wishes, since you don't want to be examined, then we won't do it!"

Helena was finally relieved and her expression eased a bit as she said, "Sorry, Ms. Ye, I'm not angry, I just feel that I deserve to be respected in this matter, and I hope you can understand that I was a bit rude just now."

"Understand understand!" Ye Changmin nodded her head repeatedly and smiled, "I certainly understand what you mean."

"That's good." Helena said, "Ms. Ye, I'm a bit sleepy and would like to rest and sleep for a while, so if there's nothing else, I'll go back to my bedroom."

Ye Changmin smiled and said, "Fine, fine, go back and rest, have a good bath and a good sleep, I'll ask Little Feng to come and pick you up for dinner at home tonight."

Helena smiled reluctantly, "Let's talk about it in the evening."

"Okay, let's talk about it in the evening." Ye Changmin spoke, "In that case, then I'll leave you alone for now, you have a good rest."

"Good." Helena then said, "Then Ms. Ye, take care, I won't see you off."

Ye Changmin waved her hand, "No need to send off, no need to send off, you go back quickly, I'm leaving too."

With that, she watched Helena return to the room and close the door behind her before turning around.

Just as she turned around, the smile on her face instantly disappeared.

Taking a few steps out, she happened to meet Tang Sihai, who had come from the lift with eight experts.

She then immediately said to Tang Sihai, "Housekeeper Tang, don't come over, just go straight down with this lift."

Tang Sihai was surprised and asked, "Miss, what's wrong? Aren't you going to do the medical examination?"

Ye Changmin had just spent half a day laughing with Helena and was feeling depressed, so she said in an unpleasant tone, "What the hell! Her Highness has said that we should respect her human rights, and her human rights are that she doesn't want to undergo a medical examination."

Saying this, Ye Changmin spat and muttered discontentedly, "A princess from a small European country is just a princess, and she's still putting up a fucking fight with me! I think she's so vain, she must have something to hide that she doesn't dare to let us know!"

Tang Sihai nodded and asked respectfully, "Miss, what should we do now?"

Ye Changmin waved her hand impatiently, "What else should we do? I think there must be a fraud on this princess from Northern Europe, I have to go back and talk to the old master face to face!"

At this point, Ye Changmin continued with an unhappy expression, "It's good to marry the royal family, but if they bring us a sick child, we can't just take it! If she dies after three or two years, the Europeans will scold us to the heavens!"

Chapter 3309

The first thing Ye Changmin did when she returned to the Ye family was to go and complain to Master Ye.

When Elder Ye saw her, he was still a little surprised and asked, "Changmin, why are you back so soon? Have you finished giving Helena a medical check-up?"

Ye Changmin said in an unhappy tone, "This Nordic princess didn't give me a chance at all, ah, I said I was kind enough to give her a medical check-up, she said I was violating his human rights and gave me this uproar, I saw that she was very determined, if I insisted on giving her a medical check-up, then she would go back to her Nordic country."

Hearing this, Ye Zhongquan could not help but frown and muttered coldly, "This Helena is so resistant to medical check-ups, which in turn makes me more convinced of Chen'er's judgement that there must be something wrong with her body, and she knows it herself."

Ye Changmin immediately said in annoyance, "Dad! This Nordic royal family is too bullying, isn't it? What are their intentions in sending a sick child to marry us? If Helena dies in the future, how will the Ye family explain to the public?"

Ye Zhongquan nodded approvingly and said seriously, "What you say is indeed very difficult! If we really let Helena marry into the Ye family with her illness, there will be endless problems in the future!"

At once, Ye Changmin said, "Dad! Why don't you call Big Brother and Little Feng to come over now, and let's make this clear to them, and if Helena insists on not wanting a medical examination, then let's withdraw from the marriage!"

Ye Zhongquan immediately waved his hand and said, "Forget it, don't make any noise about it first, the day after tomorrow is the Ancestral Ceremony, whether we force Helena to undergo the medical examination or we directly withdraw from the marriage at this time, it's just a matter of waiting until after the Ancestral Ceremony!"

Ye Changmin nodded his head and said, "You've been more considerate, Dad! I'm so impatient that I can't wait to set things straight with Helena and the Nordic royal family, so I've lost sight of the fact that the big picture is the most important thing."

Master Ye nodded slightly and said, "All right, you have also worked hard, go and rest, don't talk to your elder brother and Little Feng about this matter yet."

"Okay." Ye Changmin answered and said respectfully, "Dad, I'll go first then."

.....

At this moment, Helena was still having heart palpitations because she had managed to escape from a robbery.

She knew that the Ye family was now suspicious of her, and if the Ye family insisted on seeing her medical test results, then she would just be able to get past the first day but not the 15th.

Helena was worried about what would happen to her mother's future if she was withdrawn from the Ye family.

Once she was no longer of any use to the royal family, it was unlikely that the royal family would be able to cover her future medical expenses, much less her mother's retirement.

If one died, one's mother would definitely be expelled from the royal family.

However, if she wanted to stay with the Ye family and complete her marriage to Ye Feng, she would have to go past this hurdle of the medical examination, otherwise, the Ye family would never let herself through the door in a casual manner.

Thinking of this, Helena's heart somewhat grumbled against Ye Chen.

It was because of Ye Chen's words that both her own future and her mother's were likely to be ruined.

However, she also knew very well in her heart that Ye Chen had not been malicious in speaking out about her problems, so she could at most complain, and there was no way she could hold it all against him.

Chapter 3310

Helena was in a state of deep depression.

She had even prepared herself for the worst: if she was to be betrayed, she would have to return to Northern Europe and beg her cousin Olivia to give her and her mother a way out, for the sake of her sisterhood.

However, in a trance, an idea that seemed to her somewhat absurd also sprang up in her mind.

She thought to herself, "Could that Ye Chen really be an expert in medical skills? He was able to see my illness at a glance, so maybe he also has the ability to cure me"

Thinking of this, Helena seemed to have grasped the only straw that saved her life and thought to herself, "When I go to Ye's house tomorrow and meet him, I must find a way to ask him privately if he has the ability to save me or not."

At this moment, Ye Chen was still at Gu's house, exchanging glasses with Gu Yanzhong.

The two of them were so excited to drink that they didn't want to leave the table even after all the food was finished.

Lin Wanqiu had no choice but to let the two men sit at the dinner table and drink, so she could only hurry to arrange for someone to go to the hotel and bring back a table of food.

Gu Yanzhong was in a very good mood, and after he had drunk too much, he patted Ye Chen's shoulder and said seriously: "Chen'er, uncle is so happy today! There are two reasons why I am in such a good mood! Do you know which two?"

Ye Chen laughed, "Is my visit to the door considered one?"

Gu Yanzhong laughed, "That's for sure! It's my greatest pleasure that you can come!"

Saying that, he asked, "Then the second reason, do you know?"

Ye Chen couldn't help but shake his head and asked him, "Uncle Gu, you might as well say it straight."

Gu Yanzhong said seriously, "The second reason is that you are returning to the Ye family this time to participate in the ancestral ritual! With your ability, I believe you are absolutely qualified to be the future heir of the Ye family, and as long as your grandfather hasn't turned into an old fool, he will definitely hand over the Ye family to you! Only you are also qualified to inherit your father's legacy and carry the Ye Family forward!"

Ye Chen was silent for a moment and spoke, "Uncle Gu, I'm not going to lie to you, but I'm actually not interested in inheriting the Ye family."

Gu Yanzhong asked with a surprised look on his face, "Why is that?"

Ye Chen gave a bitter smile and said, "When my father took me away from Yanjing, there was a lot of grudges against the Ye family in his heart, I was young at that time and didn't understand many things too well, but I knew that my father was disappointed in the Ye family, so I didn't have any good feelings towards the Ye family either."

Gu Yanzhong sighed and said seriously, "Ah Chen'er! Your father is disappointed with the Ye family because the Ye family is simply not on the same level as him, what your father wants to do is to revitalise the Ye family and make the Ye family stand on top of the world, but what the Ye family is worried about is your father's overly aggressive development strategy, which will cause the entire Ye family to suffer great losses if it fails."

This is like a group of people planning to climb Mount Everest, your father's goal is to reach the top, while the others, for fear of dying at the top, are making plans to go down when they are halfway up. indignant and displeased."

At this moment, Gu Yanzhong picked up his glass of wine, gulped down the strong wine in it and said with red eyes, "Before your father decided to leave Yanjing, we also sat together and drank wine all day, just like today, only at that time we were in the opposite mood from now"

Saying that, Gu Yanzhong looked at Ye Chen and said seriously, "Chen'er, your father was full of reluctance when he left Yanjing, and I believe he was still reluctant in his heart at the last moment of his accident, you must inherit your father's legacy, even if it's just to fight for him, you must become the head of the Ye family!"
