

Ye Chen 3341

Chapter 3341

"Ten Thousand Dragons Hall?!"

Hearing these three words, Ye Zhongquan's younger brother Ye Zhongzhuo's entire body shook into chaff as he panicked beyond measure, "How could How could it be the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall"

After saying that, he looked at Ye Zhongquan with trepidation and asked offhandedly, "Big brother You How could you have offended the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall?!"

Ye Zhongquan originally did not know much about the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, but the news of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall was universally covered low some time ago, so he had also learned a lot about the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall.

Although the Hall of Ten Thousand Dragons had experienced a painful defeat in Syria some time ago, even so, the strength of the Hall of Ten Thousand Dragons could not be underestimated.

The Ten Thousand Dragons Hall had tens of thousands of elite soldiers, and none of the top brass within were martial arts masters. With such strength, some small countries might not be their opponents, not to mention a business family like the Ye Family!

Therefore, everyone present, except for Ye Chen, was so frightened by the name of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall that their legs went weak.

Ye Zhongquan, who had always been calm, was actually a bit flustered at this point, and he said with a bewildered expression, "I don't remember us having any problems with this Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, my Ye family has been in business for so many years, and although we have many assets overseas, we have never been to war-torn places to make money It's a completely different world from this mercenary organization"

Ye Changkong also trembled in his liver in fear and couldn't help but ask, "Dad, as a mercenary organization with tens of thousands of soldiers, why would they come after us?!"

"I don't know either" Ye Zhongquan couldn't help but ask, "Could there be some kind of misunderstanding?"

Saying that, Ye Zhongquan asked again, "Have the rest of you ever had any friction with the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall?"

All of them looked at each other in disbelief.

How had they ever had any dealings with the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall.

Even those like Ye Zhongzhuo, who lived overseas all year round, had only heard more about the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, but had never had any involvement with it.

Ye Feng couldn't help but look at Helena beside him and couldn't help but ask, "Helena, does your Nordic royal family have any conflicts with the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall?"

Helena immediately shook her head and said, "Although I've heard of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple, I've never heard of the royal family having any connection with them, and the royal family would never have any contact with such a grey area organisation in order to maintain their image in front of the people."

"That's really strange" Ye Feng said nervously, "The Ten Thousand Dragons Hall can't just kill people at their door for no reason, they must be targeting something!"

Just as the Ye family was confused, Lu Haotian was no longer prepared to give them time to think.

He said in a cold voice outside the door, "Listen to me, all of you surnamed Ye! You have ten seconds at last, if you don't come out, I'm going to go on a killing spree!"

When the Ye family heard these words, they panicked even more to the extreme.

Everyone looked at Ye Zhongquan, hoping that he, the head of the family, could come up with a solution.

However, Ye Zhongquan did not know what to do at this time.

Just then, Ye Chen stood up and said indifferently, "Let's all go out together, since the other side has already killed at the entrance, it proves that all the Ye family's guards have been settled by the other side, or all of them have fallen back, this house can no longer provide any protection now, instead of waiting passively here, we should go out and see what the other side really wants."

As soon as the Ye family heard this, each one of them panicked even more.

They were no martial arts masters, and even hiding in the villa at such a time made their legs feel weak, let alone asking them to go out and face the fierce stars of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall directly.

Ye Zhongquan also felt that it was not right to go out directly, so he said to Ye Chen, "Chen'er, don't be impulsive!"

Chapter 3342

If you are not willing to go out, if he gives the order and these experts rush in, you will all be lambs to the slaughter and no one will be able to escape! "

After saying that, Ye Chen took a step and walked in the direction of the gate, saying as he walked, "If you are afraid, follow behind me, so that at least if they want to kill, they will kill me first."

Ye Chen's words caused Ye Zhongquan's heart to stutter, and then he said in a deep voice, "Chen's right, Chief Steward Ma is the strongest of the Ye family's guards, the other side can easily kill him, let alone ordinary people like us. It's a blessing, but not a curse! It's better to listen to Chen'er and go out!"

After saying that, he immediately turned around and followed Ye Chen's lead, striding outside.

The others had also completely given up their illusions at this point and could only follow the old man one after another as he walked towards the door.

Seeing this, Ye Feng hurriedly pulled his father and said in a low voice, "Dad, a gun is a bird in the head, since Ye Chen is willing to seek death, let Ye Chen rush ahead and we stand back!"

Ye Changkong nodded his head.

He didn't want to take any risks either, so he deliberately hung at the end of the crowd.

One by one, the crowd came out of the villa, only then did they realize that the other side had already surrounded the entire villa.

In the large courtyard, rows and rows of flatbed trucks filled with coffins were parked in a neat and tidy manner.

When the Ye family saw this situation, they all turned pale with fear!

In all their lives, they had never seen anyone send more than a hundred coffins to other people's homes, and the impact and pressure of this scene on them was too strong!

The other members of the Ye family had been stunned by the gesture, but Ye Chen was not surprised by the gesture in front of him, he kept looking at the man dressed in white at the head of the other party, because he could see that he was the strongest among these people.

Ye Chen discovered that this man in white was the same as Chen Zhonglei, who had been captured by himself and brought to China, both were six-star martial artists.

Only, his strength was a little less than Chen Zhonglei's, who was already vaguely about to break through, while this man in white was still in the middle stage of being a six-star martial artist.

As for the others around him, they were all a little weaker.

There were three five-star martial artists, as well as a dozen four-star martial artists, and the remaining dozens of people, almost every one of them was at the level of a three-star martial artist.

Ye Chen also had to admit that the strength of this group of people from the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall was indeed too much stronger than the average martial dao family.

It wasn't easy for an ordinary martial dao family to come up with a three-star martial artist.

But there were as many three-star martial artists in the Hall of Ten Thousand Dragons as there were fucking dumplings, so many dumplings thrown into the pot that could not be finished at once.

At this moment, when Lu Hao Tian saw that everyone in the Ye family looked panic-stricken, he sneered and asked in a stern voice, "Where is the master of your Ye family?"

Ye Zhongquan was panicking in his heart, but he could only stand out with a stiff upper lip and spoke, "I am the Ye family head!"

After saying that, he looked at Lu Haotian and opened his mouth to question, "My Ye Family asks itself that it has no enmity with your Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, why did you bring so many coffins to kill my Ye Family?"

"No enmity?" Lu Haotian laughed and spoke, "Let me tell you, old man, not only are the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall and your Ye Family not without enmity, but they are not in common!"

After saying that, he added, "I am here today to deliver an order to your Ye Family on the orders of the Lord of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, Wan Bajun, so listen to every word I say next with open ears!"

Chapter 3343

When the Ye family heard Lu Haotian say that he had come on the order of the Hall of Ten Thousand Dragons, they were all scared out of their wits.

They had thought that offending the Hall of Ten Thousand Dragons would be troublesome enough, but who would have thought that it would be the Hall Master of the Hall of Ten Thousand Dragons!

This was the head of the mercenaries who had tens of thousands of elite mercenaries under his command!

If he was offended, wouldn't there be no way to live?

At this moment, Lu Haotian said in a cold voice, "The name of my Hall Master of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall is Wan Bajun! He is the only son of the couple, Wan Liancheng and Ma Yuehui!"

After saying that, he looked at Ye Zhongquan and questioned, "Old thing, do you still remember Wan Liancheng's name?"

At these words, Ye Zhongquan's face instantly turned pale!

Naturally, he knew of Wan Liancheng and his wife!

But he had never dreamed that the internationally renowned Wan Long Temple was created by Wan Lian Cheng's son!

The rest of the Ye family's immediate family members were almost fainting from fear at this point!

The five siblings, Ye Changkong, Ye Changyun and Ye Changmin, also knew about the incident when Wan Liancheng had committed suicide by jumping off a building and his wife had subsequently taken poison.

As soon as they heard that the big brother behind the attack was Wan Liancheng's son, they knew that the other party had come to take revenge for their parents!

Although Wan Liancheng and his wife had committed suicide back then, it was also because they had lost at the hands of Ye Changye, and their family was broken before they died.

Therefore, the Ye family knew in their hearts that even if both of them had committed suicide, their children would not be able to accept this reality.

At the same time, the Ye family will certainly be held responsible for this blood debt.

As the saying goes, the revenge of their parents cannot be shared, so these members of the Ye family's direct lineage, hearing this, were already desperate to the extreme.

Ye Changkong was inwardly fearful, but in order to be able to shake off his involvement, he could not help but come forward and nervously blurt out, "This little brother, we naturally know about Wan

Liancheng's matter, but to be honest, the one who had a conflict with Wan Liancheng back then was my second brother Ye Chang Ying, it had nothing to do with us

Saying that, Ye Changkong swallowed and added: "Moreover, although Wan Liancheng and his wife left early and unfortunately, but my second brother and sister-in-law also died tragically in Jinling shortly after that, as the saying goes, there is a debt for every injustice, my second brother died nearly twenty years ago, this matter, that temple master of yours should not come to us anyway"

Lu Haotian sneered, "Our temple master said, back then, although the matter was done by Ye Changye, but Ye Changye represented your entire Ye family, and called on the resources of the Ye family, so this matter, everyone in the Ye family is responsible!"

Saying this, Lu Haotian gave a slight pause and said in a loud voice, "Now, it's time for your Ye Family to pay the price!"

Ye Zhongquan's mind was in a panic, but he still held himself together and said, "The Ye family is indeed responsible for the death of Wan Liancheng, my son Chang Ying also sighed when he heard the news of his death, saying that he did not kill Bo Ren, but Bo Ren died because of him, so it is hard to take the blame"

At this point, Ye Zhongquan said with a bit of pleading, "But please, for the sake of my son Chang Ying, who has been dead for almost 20 years, please give me a higher hand! If you are willing to forgive the Ye family, the Ye family is willing to give ten billion dollars in cash in return!"

Although Ye Zhongquan felt that Wan Liancheng's suicide was purely his own fault and had nothing to do with the Ye family, the Ye family did not need to take any responsibility for it.

But in his heart, he also understood that it was impossible to be absolutely objective when the death of his parents was placed in the hands of any person.

Wan Liancheng and his wife had lost their entire fortune in a regular casino and then chose to commit suicide.

Although they were willing to gamble and lose, and although the casino was open and honest, their children would have hated the casino.

So, in this situation, it is pointless to try to reason with the other party.

The only thing that could be done was to do everything possible to soothe the hatred within the other party.

Chapter 3344

Even if it means paying tens of billions of dollars as compensation, it would still be a no-brainer.

Hearing this, Lu Haotian said with contempt, "Old thing, our Hall Master's greatest goal in these twenty years is to make your Ye family pay in blood, this kind of unrequited revenge, do you think a mere ten billion dollars can solve it?"

Ye Zhongquan also knew that it was unlikely that the other party would agree in one go, but in business negotiations, no one ever gives a bid in one step, so he immediately said, "If ten billion is not acceptable to your Hall Master, then you can say a figure, as long as it is within the range of my Ye family, I am willing to do it!"

Lu Haotian laughed and said, "I didn't expect that you old thing would be quite agreeable."

After saying that, he hummed and laughed twice and spoke, "Old thing, since you want to settle this matter peacefully, then it is not that our Hall Master does not give your Ye Family a chance, as long as your Ye Family agrees to our Hall Master's three conditions, our Hall Master can spare your dog's life!"

Ye Zhongquan's heart was overjoyed and he hurriedly said, "What are the specific conditions, please state them clearly! As long as my Ye family can do it, I will definitely do it!"

Lu Haotian nodded and spoke, "Then listen carefully."

"First! Tonight, go and dig out all the Ye family members buried on Ye Ling Mountain, leave Ye Chang Ying's coffin behind, and move all the others away overnight! Change the name of Ye Ling Mountain to Wan Ling Mountain, from now on Ye Ling Mountain becomes the tomb of the Wan Family!"

The Ye family's expressions were horrified!

To move all the ancestral graves of the Ye family away overnight and to rename Ye Ling Mountain to Wan Ling Mountain, wasn't this a fucking robbery?

The point is, I've heard of people robbing houses and land, but who has heard of people robbing ancestral tombs?

This is no longer a case of robbing a magpie's nest, this is a case of robbing a magpie's grave!

But if you robbed a graveyard, so be it, why did you leave Ye Chang Ying's coffin behind? What exactly is this Wan Bajun's intention?

While the Ye family was confused, Lu Haotian slowly spoke again.

"Secondly! First thing tomorrow morning, all of you from the Ye family will gather at the foot of Wanling Mountain in mourning, and use the full set of procedures of your ancestral rituals to give our Hall Master's parents a funeral!"

The moment these words came out, the Ye family members were even more devastated.

The Ye Family Ancestral Ritual Ceremony was to pay homage to the many ancestors of the Ye Family over the centuries.

Now, not only did Wan Bajun ask them to rake out the ancestral graves and move them away overnight, but he also wanted them to wear mourning for Wan Liancheng and his wife!

How could he, Wan Liancheng and his wife, be comparable to the ancestors of the Ye family?

If the Ye family really did this, wouldn't they be completely humiliated in front of the whole country, and indeed the whole world, and become a huge laughing stock worldwide?

Just as the Ye family was indignant, Lu Hao Tian spoke again, "Thirdly, your Ye family must willingly take out one-half of the Ye family's assets as compensation for the death of Wan Liancheng and his wife!"

The third condition was not originally within Wan Bajun's consideration.

He had only wanted to humiliate the Ye family with all his might, seize the Ye family's ancestral tomb, and then bruise Ye Chang Ying to death, and had not thought of asking for the Ye family's money.

But this time, the losses incurred by the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall in Syria were extremely heavy.

He also knew that when he went to negotiate with Syria next, Syria would definitely take those 10,000-odd prisoners and knock them off.

Therefore, he had to be prepared to bleed heavily.

So, he put the idea to the Ye family, wanting to transfer this part of the loss to the Ye family to bear completely.

Chapter 3345

Ye Changkong felt shaken by the old man's deadly stare and said hurriedly, "Dad I do think This all things It is not as important as life and safety ah"

Take out half of it, the rest is enough for us to be well clothed and well fed for the rest of our lives, after all, money is something that in itself is not brought in life and not taken away in death, there is no point in needing so much"

"Moreover, our Ye family might be able to rise again in the future in my hands, or in Xiao Feng's hands, and by then, if we lose it today, we can still earn it back!"

Ye Zhongquan stared at him and asked coldly, "To rise again? Just you? Or just the two of you?"

Ye Changkong said awkwardly, "Yes I'm really not very good at it, but I'll take a step back and say that even if I can't make a comeback, so what? Even if we sit on our laurels, this much money is enough to feed us for several lifetimes!"

The more he spoke, the more energetic he became, and even gestured, "If you are worried that your children and grandchildren will not be able to compete, we can take out half of the remaining assets and set up a closed family trust!"

"A trust fund of several hundred billion yuan, with a revenue of at least ten or twenty billion yuan a year, you only need to stipulate that future generations can only take the net profit from the trust fund, and the principal is not allowed to be touched, then our future generations, even if they can't make the Ye family rise again, will at least be able to live a rich and prosperous life!

"In this way, we can ensure the longevity of our Ye family's bloodline and never have to worry about our future children and grandchildren bankrupting the Ye family"

"If you look at it this way, isn't it quite good? Don't you all think so?"

Other than Ye Chen and Helena, everyone else nodded their heads.

To this group of people, no one wanted to put their lives' safety at half risk.

Staying alive was the most important thing to them.

What was a little less money in front of staying alive? Even if they gave up 90 percent of the Ye family's assets, they still had 200 billion dollars, which was enough to live on.

Seeing that the other members of the Ye family were also in agreement, Ye Changkong knew that his proposal had a basic public base.

He then said to Ye Zhongquan, "Dad! I think you should agree to the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall's request!"

"Yes!" Ye Changyun, the third oldest, also hurriedly said, "Dad, big brother is right, it's better to die than to live, we have to think of the Ye family's bloodline and incense!"

Ye Changmin also hurriedly nodded and said, "Dad! There's nothing more important than peace and quiet for the family, don't you think?"

Except for Ye Chen's sister-in-law, Ye Changxiu, who had remained silent, almost everyone else had already made their position clear and agreed to accept the demands of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple.

Ye Chen had not spoken, but instead looked at Ye Changkong and the rest of the Ye family with a cold expression.

At this moment, he was extremely disappointed with the temperament and backbone of the Ye family members.

Somehow disappointed, even a few angry.

Because, these people who wanted to accept the other party's conditions, did not take the other party's desire to leave their parents' coffins seriously at all.

Chapter 3346

They, for one, just want to live.

At this moment, when Ye Zhongquan saw that so many of his sons and daughters had fallen on their sword, his heart was even more painful.

He did not expect that none of his sons and daughters could put the family's dignity first.

All they wanted was to live.

This made him feel incomparably sad.

When he thought of this, he could not help but rebuke with a face full of pain, "You all persuaded me to agree one by one, but have you ever thought that they want Chang Ying's casket? Chang Ying was your brother, how could you give his coffin to others and allow them to trample on it? If that's the case, even if you can live on for a few more years or decades, how will you have the face to meet Chang Ying when you die?"

Lu Haotian puffed on his cigar, then yawned again and said with a smile, "Aiya, it's still the old man who has the insight, the main thing of our temple is to bruise Ye Chang Ying to dust!"

Hearing these words, Ye Chen had a strong urge in his heart to rip Lu Hao Tian's dog's head off his neck!

However, he still held back the impulse in his heart, and at the same time admonished himself in his heart, "Hold on, you must hold on! A little intolerance is a big mistake! If I move against Lu Haotian today, that Wan Bajun will never bring his parents' coffin up to Ye Ling Mountain early tomorrow morning!"

At this moment, Ye Changmin, once he heard Lu Haotian's words, lowered his head in embarrassment.

However, Ye Changkong said with a serious face, "Dad! Chang Ying is already dead! As the saying goes, a person's death is like a lamp going out, there is nothing left but a coffin and a tombstone, but we are still alive! We are all still flesh and blood, shouldn't we think of the living?!"

Ye Feng also said, "Yes, Grandpa! It was my second uncle who caused the trouble, and now that he's seeking revenge, there's no reason for us to take the blame for him!"

After saying that, he was even more righteously indignant and looked at Ye Chen, gritting his teeth and said, "Even if someone really has to take the blame, it should be Ye Chen, after all, he is my second uncle's"

Before Ye Feng finished speaking, Ye Zhongquan angrily raised his hand and slapped him across the face, shouting angrily, "Bastard! You shut up!"

After saying that, he said with a look of hatred, "All of you are greedy and afraid of death! If my son Chang Ying were still alive, he would never be as spineless as you are!"

As he said this, two hot tears rolled down Ye Zhongquan's face.

At this moment, he was completely disappointed in these sons and grandsons of his.

Ye Feng had just deliberately wanted to expose Ye Chen's identity as Ye Chang Ying's own son so that he could lead the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall to divert hatred, but he didn't expect to be slapped fiercely by the old man before he could finish his words.

He was so indignant in his heart that he almost blurted out Ye Chen's identity, but his father, Ye Changkong, glared at him from the side and shouted sternly, "You rebellious son! Shut your mouth now!"

Ye Changkong knew very well in his heart that even if he sold Ye Chen out in public at this point, it was unlikely that the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall would let the rest of the Ye family off the hook for it.

But it was likely that it would completely anger the old master as a result.

Don't look at the fact that the old man had rejected the other side now, but the only way back was still in the old man's hands.

In case the old master figured it out and agreed to the conditions of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall with a bite of his teeth, then when the storm had passed, the old master, as the head of the Ye family, would still hold half of the Ye family's assets.

But at that time, Ye Feng, who had betrayed Ye Chen, would never be able to gain the old master's reappointment again, and even he would be dragged down by him.

Therefore, he did not want his son to break his own back at this time.

Ye Feng was reprimanded by his father and immediately did not dare to say anything more.

Ye Zhongquan didn't even bother to look at him at this moment, he turned to Ye Chen and asked: "Chen'er What do you think should happen in this situation today?"

Chapter 3347

Ye Zhongquan knew that the only person who might have a chance to save the Ye family at the moment was Ye Chen.

Apart from Ye Chen, no one else had any chance of saving the day.

However, he was not sure if Ye Chen could carry the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall or not.

Moreover, Ye Chen had never stated his position from the beginning to the end.

Therefore, he was curious to know what exactly Ye Chen's attitude was now.

At this moment, Ye Chen sighed softly and muttered, "How do I think it should be, huh?"

As he said this, he raised his head and looked at the arrogant Lu Haotian indifferently, gritting his teeth in his heart, "I think I should immediately rush up and rip this dog's head off!"

However, the dog's master had not yet arrived, and beating the dog at this time would only disturb the ten thousand broken soldiers behind it.

So, Ye Chen said to Lu Haotian, "For such a big matter, after all, we should be given some time to discuss and consider it."

After saying that, he smiled faintly and asked, "For such a big matter, I wonder why your Hall Master didn't come over personally? Since there is a reason for injustice, he should also mention this to us face to face, so that if we have any ideas, we can also communicate and negotiate with him face to face, and it is not quite appropriate for him to keep not showing up, right?"

Lu Haotian said in a cold voice, "Let our Hall Master personally come and talk to you, you are not worthy of it at all!"

Ye Chen was not angry and nodded, "Since we are not worthy of the Hall Master coming over in person, I wonder if we could be given a chance to come to the door and talk to the Hall Master face to face?"

Lu Haotian took a puff of his cigar, exhaled a thick circle under his eyes, and impatiently waved his hand at Ye Chen: "Kid, don't fucking bullshit me here, just a small character like you is not even a chicken feather in the eyes of our Hall Master, how can you be worthy to talk to our Hall Master face to face?"

The corners of Ye Chen's mouth twitched slightly, and the urge to slap Lu Hao Tian to death here surged up inside him again, but once again, he suppressed himself when he thought that Wan Bajun had not yet shown up.

He then spoke up and said to Lu Haotian, "In that case, how about giving us a night to think about it, and we'll get back to you tomorrow?"

Lu Haotian continued to smoke his cigar, shrugged indifferently and sneered, "It's not impossible for you guys to drag your feet and make a dying struggle if you want to."

Saying that, he sneered, "Our temple master has said that he will give your Ye family at most one night to think about it!"

"At eight o'clock tomorrow morning, he will bring his parents' coffin up to Ye Ling Mountain!"

"If you are sensible and willing to accept our Hall Master's conditions, you should dig out all your Ye family's ancestral graves tonight, leave the coffins of Ye Chang Ying and his wife, and then all of you should wait for our Hall Master on your knees under Ye Ling Mountain in mourning by eight o'clock tomorrow morning!"

At this point, he turned his words and said in a cold voice with a murderous intent in his tone, "If at eight o'clock tomorrow morning, you have not dug out the Ye family's ancestral graves and kneeled under the Ye Ling Mountain in mourning, then don't blame us, the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, for exterminating your Ye family's entire family!"

Ye Chen nodded and said indifferently, "In that case, then please go back and tell your Hall Master that we will see you at eight o'clock tomorrow morning at Ye Ling Mountain!"

Lu Haotian looked at Ye Chen and sneered, "Kid, you seem to have some backbone, I'll remember you, if you don't kneel under Ye Ling Mountain tomorrow in mourning, I'll be the first to take your life!"

Ye Chen also smiled and nodded, "Good, then it's a deal!"

Chapter 3348

Lu Haotian looked at him with contempt and didn't say anything more, but turned around and shouted to the group of men around him, "Brothers, unload all the coffins sent by the Hall Master for the Ye family!"

As soon as the words fell, dozens of three-star experts rushed onto the flatbed truck and directly kicked these coffins vigorously to the ground after they were untied, and the pile of inferior coffins, the moment they hit the ground, fell into a pile of coffin slabs.

Afterwards, Lu Haotian looked at the Ye family and sneered, "Remember, tomorrow morning at eight o'clock, if our temple master doesn't see what he wants to see at Ye Lingshan, all of you will have to die! When you die, use these coffin boards to make up for the coffin!"

At this time, the Ye Family's courtiers had long since run away.

After seeing Lu Hao Tian's strength and learning about the prestige of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, they all decided that the Ye Family was doomed, and no one was willing to stay and work for the Ye Family.

Once the Ye Family rejected the Vandal Dragon Hall, everyone in the Ye Family would become the target of the Vandal Dragon Hall's execution.

At that time, they, the guards and bodyguards, were the first unlucky ones to be killed.

One, was Ye Feng's nominal fiancée, Helena.

Seeing that all the people from the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall had left, Ye Zhongquan looked at Ye Chen and asked him, "Chen'er, the delaying tactic can only last until tomorrow morning at most, what exactly is your specific plan?"

Ye Chen smiled blandly and said, "I don't have any plans, I'll just go up to Ye Ling Mountain in the morning on time!"

Hearing this, Ye Feng was overjoyed and hurriedly said, "Then we must hurry to prepare our mourning clothes! Didn't that Hall Master of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall ask us to wear mourning clothes? Don't let anyone pick on us later!"

Ye Chen stared at him and said in a cold voice, "I'm putting my words here, if any of you dare to wear mourning clothes for the one surnamed Wan, don't blame me for disregarding the love of my clan!"

Ye Feng did not expect that Ye Chen's explanation of going up to Ye Ling Mountain early in the morning was not to compromise with the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall, so he angrily rebuked, "Ye Chen! What on earth do you have in mind? Do you want to get the whole Ye family killed before you are satisfied? Do you know what the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall is? How can we possibly mess with them?"

Ye Chen said in a cold voice, "I will naturally deal with the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, all you have to do is to prepare for the ancestral ritual normally!"

When Ye Feng heard this, he immediately exploded, jumping to his feet and cursing, "You're fucking sick in the head, aren't you? You're going to take on the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall all by yourself? Who do you think you are? When the time comes, you'll have to drag us down with you!"

After saying that, he looked at Ye Zhongquan and blurted out, "Grandpa! Ye Chen is a madman! If he's this good, when he goes up to Ye Lingshan tomorrow, they'll knock the shit out of him with one punch! It doesn't matter if he dies, we can't accompany such a madman to raise the soil!"

Ye Zhongquan looked angrily at Ye Feng with a grim face and coldly scolded, "Bastard! You don't have the right to speak here!"

"I don't have a say?!" Ye Feng looked at Ye Zhongquan with a dumbfounded expression and roared in anger, "I am the eldest son and grandson of the Ye family! If even I am not qualified to speak, Ye Chen is even less qualified! Why is it that he can make decisions for the Ye family, but I can't even say a word?!"

Ye Zhongquan pointed at Ye Feng and cursed in a cold voice, "A gutless rat! How can you compare yourself to Chen'er? This matter will be decided by Chen'er, and anyone who dares to oppose it will be expelled from the Ye Family immediately!"

Chapter 3349

With this roar, the old master made all those who wanted to speak have the sense to shut their mouths.

Although they could not accept leaving their fate in Ye Chen's hands, they were also very clear that the old master still had a way back so far.

Therefore, the most important thing they could not do at such a time was to openly turn against the old master.

Otherwise, in case the old master really accepted the other party's demands and broke the bank, he would naturally look for these people who had openly turned against each other and settle scores afterwards.

Even the eldest, Ye Changkong, gave up struggling and took the initiative to step forward, slapping Ye Feng fiercely and scolding him angrily, "You uncultured thing! Who told you to talk to your grandfather like that? Why don't you hurry up and apologise to your grandfather!"

Ye Feng knew that he had failed to incite the others, so he could only say in a jarring voice, "I'm sorry grandpa, I was wrong"

Ye Zhongquan ignored him and instead looked at Ye Chen, asking him with a grave face, "Chen'er, do you really not have any specific plans? Do you want to find a way to get some help? Or maybe I should go and try to find a way to move around?"

Ye Chen waved his hand and said indifferently, "No need, when the time comes, the soldiers will come and the water will cover up."

After saying that, Ye Chen looked at the time and said, "After such a long delay, we haven't started the process of the ancestor worship ceremony, so let's go back and discuss our business."

Each and every one of the Ye family members now had the heart to die.

The way they looked at Ye Chen was like looking at a severe mental patient.

To still think about the ancestral ceremony at this time, what was the difference between that and thinking about what to drink at night when the gun was at the back of your head?

However, when Ye Zhongquan saw that Ye Chen was thinking about the ancestral ritual at this time, he felt a lot more relaxed.

He felt that Ye Chen was by no means a person with a brain problem.

If he was still so relaxed at this time, then he must have a bottom card that he had not revealed.

So, when he saw that the crowd did not react, he immediately opened his mouth and roared, "Did you all not hear what I said just now? This is a special time, from now on, the Ye family will listen to Chen'er in all matters! Everyone must follow Chen's lead!"

The corners of Ye Chen's mouth smiled faintly.

What he wanted was for the Ye family to obey his orders.

Moreover, it was never just some special time.

Rather, from now on, the Ye Family would be under his own control!

Thus, he immediately looked at Ye Feng and Ye Hao and said in a cold voice, "You two, dispose of the bodies of the two guardians!"

Ye Feng blurted out with a look of anger, "Why should I be allowed to?!"

Ye Chen frowned slightly and raised his hand to slap Ye Feng's face fiercely as he said coldly, "Get lost if you don't go!"

Ye Feng cursed furiously, "You How dare you hit me! You're f*cking tired of living! I am the eldest grandson of the Ye family! You're nothing, you!"

Today, Ye Feng had already received several slaps, but they were all from his grandfather and father, but he didn't expect Ye Chen to dare to slap himself as well, which made him indignant deep inside.

However, at this time, Ye Zhongquan suddenly raised his hand and slapped him across the face, cursing angrily, "You're an accomplished bastard! Did you take what I just said as a deaf ear? If you don't want to do it, get the hell out of the Ye Family! At a time of life and death for the Ye Family, I won't show mercy to anyone who dares to act rudely, even if they are my own son!"

Just now, Ye Feng was thinking of theorising with Ye Chen, but he didn't expect to receive a slap from the old man immediately afterwards, at this time, tears of aggression rolled down his eyes, but he didn't dare to say one more word.

Seeing this, Ye Hao at the side was also flustered in his heart, so he hurriedly took a stand and said, "Grandpa! I'll go now!"

Ye Changkong saw that Ye Hao had taken a stand, but his stupid son was still in tears of grievance.

Ye Feng completely collapsed and could only wipe his tears while running after Ye Hao towards the gate.

At this time, Ye Chen said, "Please move to the main hall, let's get on with our business!"

The rest of the Ye family could do nothing at this point, and even though they were terrified deep down, they could only follow Ye Chen's request and return to the main hall of the villa to continue discussing the ancestral ritual.

However, everyone else was distracted the whole time.

Ye Chen was the only one who followed the steps that the Ye family had previously laid out, confirming clearly with the people in charge step by step, asking them to make sure that they did their jobs according to the prescribed process, or else they would be severely punished!

Just as Ye Chen was still forcibly leading the Ye family to sort out the process of the Ancestral Ritual Ceremony, word of what had just happened to the Ye family had already spread through Yanjing.

When they heard that someone had brought hundreds of coffins to kill the Ye family and had killed the Ye family's guards, none of the entire Yanjing clans were extremely shocked!

Everyone wanted to know what the origins of this group of people who had killed into the Ye family were, that they did not even put the top families in the country in their sights.

At this time, Lu Haotian also returned to the Wan Family's old residence and reported the situation at the Ye Family just now, to Wan Breaking Jun in detail.

Wan Breaking Jun sneered and asked him, "According to your observation, are the Ye family people afraid?"

Lu Haotian hurriedly said, "Naturally, they were scared, the majority of the Ye family were so scared that their faces were blue, they almost pissed their fucking trousers."

I don't know if he's prepared to kneel in mourning, or if he's prepared to risk his life and fight us hard. "

"Whatever." If the Ye family kneels, we'll bury my parents in a big funeral. If the Ye family does not kneel, then we will break their legs and make them kneel, then we will bury my parents in a beautiful funeral!"

After saying that, Wan Bajun sneered and said, "Hao Tian, by now the whole Yanjing must be wondering who is behind everything that happened to the Ye family today, so you should order someone to spread the word throughout Yanjing that Wan Bajun, the son of Wan Lian Cheng and his wife and the master of the Wan Long Hall, has returned!"

Lu Haotian nodded, "Yes, Hall Master! I'm on my way!"

Wan Bajun called out to him, "Come back, there is one more thing."

Lu Haotian said respectfully, "Speak, Hall Master!"

Wan Bajun said coldly, "Put the word out that whoever dares to help the Ye family out will be my deadly enemy, Wan Bajun! Let all the great clans in Yanjing, and even the whole country, weigh themselves before they decide to help the Ye family! If there is anyone who is not afraid of death, stand out and try!"

At this point, Wan Bajun smiled coldly and said playfully, "I want the Ye Family to be isolated and helpless!"

Lu Haotian immediately said, "I understand, Hall Master! I'll go do it now!"
