

Ye Chen 3401

Chapter 3401

Ye Chen's words caused Wan Bajun's expression to instantly flinch!

Immediately afterwards, he clenched his teeth to death and said in a cold voice, "Surnamed Ye! Who gave you the guts! How dare you disrespect the spirits of my parents in heaven!"

Ye Chen laughed coldly, "I didn't expect the so-called Hall Master of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall to be nothing more than a double-billed dog!"

After saying that, Ye Chen added, "You are the one who keeps shouting that you want to bury my parents' bones, so you are allowed to disrespect my parents' spirit in heaven, but I am not allowed to do the same to them? Why? Are you fucking tougher than me? Or are you better than me?"

Wan Bajun was at a loss as to how to reply.

He knew that it was he who had first raised the matter of bruising his bones.

But at that time, he really did not expect that the Ye Family would have such top experts.

He had thought that he was in a complete crushing position against the Ye Family.

Now in this situation, it could only be said that he had lifted a stone and smashed his own feet.

Seeing that he didn't know how to reply for a while, Ye Chen sneered, then kicked Lu Haotian, who was kneeling on the ground, and said indifferently, "Come, you come to judge, if I have raised the ashes of your Hall Master his parents, is he to blame?"

Lu Haotian did not dare to disobey Ye Chen, but he also felt that he owed his fate today to Wan Bajun, so he said without thinking, "He is to blame! If he didn't have to cause all this trouble, I wouldn't have ended up in this situation"

Ye Chen looked at Wan Bajun and asked him, "Did you hear that? Even your men are saying that you are to blame!"

Wan Bajun said with a black face and gritted teeth, "Ye Chen! If you insult my parents again, I will fight you to the death today! You may be very strong, but I, the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall, am not a vegetarian either!"

Ye Chen snorted disdainfully and said, "Surnamed Wan, you are not qualified to fight me to the death! Don't blame me for not giving you a chance, leave your parents' coffins behind and I will let you all go, otherwise, one of you will have to die today!"

Wan Bajun only felt his blood welling up and roared through clenched teeth, "A man can be killed but not humiliated! Even if I die, I will never let you insult my parents!!!"

Ye Chen nodded and said indifferently, "Then I can wait until you are dead before insulting them, the result will be the same anyway, and by the way, you can tell your watch, I am a man who holds a grudge, I will return what others want to do to me, or even double it! If I'm in a bad mood, after I kill you, I'll bury you and your parents together!"

At these words, a blond white man next to him said in extremely fluent Chinese, "Hall Master! I've put up with him for a long time! Let's go together and kill him first! If not, let's fight him!"

At that moment, it was the Golden Hair Lion King, one of the Four Battle Kings of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall.

As soon as his words came out, many of the generals of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall who had been suppressing their words immediately spoke out in agreement.

Many of them had received favours from Wan Bajun, and were even Wan Bajun's disciples, so when they saw Ye Chen humiliate Wan Bajun like this, they naturally could not accept it.

At this moment, Ye Chen's face was indifferent as he casually kicked his toe on the ground, and a stone wrapped with powerful aura quickly flew out at a great speed!

Immediately afterwards, that stone directly smashed a bloody hole through the forehead of that Golden-furred Lion King!

In just an instant, the Golden-furred Lion King, one of the Four Battle Kings of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall, died on the spot!

Who would have thought that Ye Chen would suddenly strike, and that he would strike with a deadly blow!

What's more, no one could have imagined!

Chapter 3402

Like Lu Haotian, the Golden-furred Lion King, who was also a six-star martial artist, was actually struck through the brain by a stone kicked up by his opponent's foot!

This instantly caused those generals of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall who wanted to swarm and fight for their lives against Ye Chen just now to subconsciously take a few steps back.

At the same time, the urge in their hearts to fight Ye Chen to the death was instantly stopped by Ye Chen's blow just now!

The group was so shocked in their hearts that they knew that since Ye Chen could kill the Golden-furred Lion King with a flip of his hand, then Ye Chen could also kill any of them in the same way!

Wan Xiaojun was also completely frozen!

At this moment, he finally realised the gap between himself and Ye Chen.

He knew that if Ye Chen made a move, he would probably not be able to survive a single move in his hands!

At this moment, Ye Chen, who had just killed someone, looked at Lu Haotian with a chagrined expression and sighed, "Aiya, impulsive impulsive, I just said that I would be the first to kill you first today, but I didn't expect to hold back for a moment and let someone else steal your number one position, you won't blame me, right?"

Lu Haotian was going crazy with fear and blurted out, "No no no Absolutely not"

Ye Chen nodded and turned to look at the group of appalled Wan Long Hall generals and said indifferently, "Anyone who is not afraid of death can come forward voluntarily, I have long been prepared to go on a killing spree in front of my parents' spirits today, even if I kill all of you, I, Ye Chen, will never blink an eye!"

The killing intent in Ye Chen's tone caused a subconscious panic to surge in the hearts of the gang from the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall.

At this moment, Ye Chen thwarted a pebble from the ground with his toe, then he grabbed the pebble in his hand and played with it in his hand while looking at the nearly one hundred generals of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall and said indifferently, "Today is a personal grudge between me and Wan Bajun, it has nothing to do with you people, so all of you must take a step back now, those who don't, die! "

These people panicked all of a sudden, and the crowd looked at me and me at you, not knowing for a moment whether they should stand still or take a step back.

After all, if they really took a step back at this point, it would also signify that they had completely cleared their camp with the Wan Breakers.

However, many of these people were deeply attached to Wan Bajun, so if they were to stand in line at this point, they would not be able to bear it.

So, some of them immediately took a step back, but nearly half of them still chose to stand still.

And this group of people who stood still also had a fluke in mind.

Ye Chen only had a stone in his hand, and there were dozens of people standing still, could he kill everyone with a single stone?

When Ye Chen saw this, he smiled faintly.

He was not surprised by this.

He then looked at one of these people, a black man, and opened his mouth to ask him, "I've heard that there is still a black-faced Panther King in the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, if I'm not wrong, it should be you, right?"

The black man panicked a little at once and subconsciously said, "Yes It's me"

Ye Chen nodded and said indifferently, "Of the four battle kings of your Ten Thousand Dragon Hall, you are now the only one left intact, and you are still standing still, it seems that you also want to be my enemy?"

The Black-faced Panther King was in a panic, and when he thought of the Golden-furred Lion King being pierced through the brain by a stone from Ye Chen just now, he subconsciously took a step back and waved his hands repeatedly, "Mr. Ye, you misunderstood I don't want to antagonize you I'll take a step back here"

Ye Chen shook his head and said indifferently, "It's too late!"

Chapter 3403

Ye Chen's late remark scared the black-faced Panther King out of his wits!

He almost subconsciously took several steps backwards in quick succession, then suddenly turned around and desperately tried to run down the mountain.

He had just seen what Ye Chen had done when he killed the Golden-furred Lion King.

A single stone could take the life of a six-star martial artist.

If he didn't run himself, he was afraid that he would repeat the Golden-furred Lion King's mistake.

However, he had just turned around and before he could run two steps, he only felt an instant pain in the back of his head, followed by the entire person losing all consciousness.

The death of the Black-faced Panther King was very crisp, almost in a flash of lightning, so he did not suffer much pain.

However, in the eyes of the other soldiers of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, the death of the Black-faced Panther King was too miserable!

Ye Chen had used a pebble to strike directly through his brain.

What was even more tragic was that the pebble shot through the back of his head and blasted out of his face, blowing a fist-sized bloody hole right in the middle of his entire face!

His nose was gone and his eyeballs had been pushed out of their sockets by the tremendous force of the pebble!

In this instant, everyone in the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall was completely shocked by Ye Chen!

One of the four battle kings of the Dragon Hall had been killed in the Middle East, and now one was ruined and two were dead!

At this point, all of the Four Great Battle Kings of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall had fallen.

Among the remaining people, apart from Wan Bajun, the strongest one was only a five-star war general, so how could they be Ye Chen's opponent?

At this moment, Ye Chen looked at a group of panicked Wan Long Hall generals and said coldly, "Each and every one of you has trained hard for many years to achieve your current cultivation, if you don't want all your hard work over the years to be ruined, then all of you should take a step back!"

As soon as Ye Chen's words fell, nearly a hundred people backed up almost without hesitation.

The only one who did not move was Wan Bajun.

At this moment, Wan Bajun did not expect that the core layer of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall that he had formed and built with his own hands would fall apart like this.

At this moment, Ye Chen looked at the eight Ten Thousand Dragons Hall generals who were carrying the coffin and said in a cold voice, "You few, put the coffin down and take another step back!"

Upon hearing this, these eight men immediately placed the coffins of Wan Bajun's parents on the ground and honestly retreated backwards.

In front of the formation of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall, only Wan Bajun was left alone at this time.

Ye Chen raised his eyes, looked at Wan Bajun and asked him, "When you banged the gong and came to Ye Lingshan today, did you ever think that things would turn into this situation now?"

Wan Bajun was dismayed and let out a miserable laugh, "There is nothing to say as my skills are inferior to those of others."

Ye Chen sneered, "You may not know, but I have actually been waiting for you for a long time."

Wan Bajun raised his head, looked at Ye Chen and asked in confusion, "What do you mean by that?"

Ye Chen smiled and said, "I had someone bring two people to Yanjing the night before last, these two people, you know them both, next, let you meet them one by one."

Just as Wan Xiaojun wondered what exactly Ye Chen meant by these words, Ye Chen turned his head to look at He Hongsheng and spoke, "Old Mr. He, the younger guy who was kneeling in front of my parents' grave can be brought over."

"Good!" He Hongsheng knew that the younger one Ye Chen was talking about was Chen Zhonglei, who Ye Chen had brought back from the Middle East.

So, he personally walked over to Ye Chen's parents' spirit, pulled Chen Zhonglei, who was wearing a black cloth bag on his head, to Ye Chen's side and said respectfully, "Mr. Ye, the man has been brought here."

Ye Chen nodded his head, looked at Wan Bajun and asked him with a smile, "Hall Master Wan, do you know who this is?"

Wan Bajun looked bewildered.

Chapter 3404

How would he know who this man with the black hood on his head really was?

He didn't have a see-through eye either.

What's more, Chen Zhonglei's own consciousness had long since been sealed within it by Ye Chen, and Wan Bajun couldn't even feel the slightest bit of his cultivation ability.

So, he looked at Ye Chen and opened his mouth to ask, "Who is this person?"

Ye Chen sneered, "What? You can't recognise your own right-hand man with his face masked?"

Wan Bajun was even more confused.

Although Ye Chen had hinted that it was his right-hand man, he could not think of Chen Zhonglei at all.

This was because, in the personal perception of all the generals of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall, Chen Zhonglei was bound to be in the Middle East and could not possibly be in China.

When Ye Chen saw his surprised face, he sneered and ripped the black cloth bag off Chen Zhonglei's head with one hand.

When Wan Bajun and the other generals of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall saw Chen Zhonglei's face, everyone's expressions immediately became appalled beyond belief.

No one could believe that Chen Zhonglei, who had been missing for many days, would be in Ye Chen's hands.

Wan Bajun subconsciously asked, "Zhonglei You How come you are here?!"

Chen Zhonglei's expression at this time stood silently in place, pestled like a fool, and his eyes were in an out-of-focus state, as if he was deaf to Wan Breaking Jun's voice.

Wan Bajun did not know what had happened to Chen Zhonglei, but seeing how dumb he was, he realised that things were probably a bit beyond his imagination, so he hurriedly asked again, "Zhonglei! Don't you recognize me?"

Chen Zhonglei still had no response.

At this time, Ye Chen faintly smiled, "I forgot to tell you, Chen Zhonglei's own consciousness has been sealed within his body by me, the current him is no longer the one you are familiar with, the current him is nothing more than a puppet of mine."

Wan Bajun, as well as the other generals of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall, were dumbfounded.

Sealing a person's consciousness within his body, such a thing was unheard of to them!

Wan Bajun also did not believe that Ye Chen could have such a divine ability, such a tactic was simply unthinkable.

Seeing that they could not understand, Ye Chen pointed at Lu Haotian, who was kneeling on the ground, and said to Chen Zhonglei, "Smoke him for me!"

Without thinking, Chen Zhonglei rushed up, grabbed Lu Haotian's collar and slapped him several times, causing Lu Haotian to scream in agony.

Ye Chen nodded in satisfaction and said, "That's enough, stop."

Only then did Chen Zhonglei stop his movements and rejoined Ye Chen's side.

Wan Bajun looked dumbfounded, completely confused as to what method Ye Chen had used to make Chen Zhonglei look like this now.

When Ye Chen saw his puzzled face, he gently patted Chen Zhonglei's shoulder and smiled, "Come, for the time being, I'll give you the freedom to speak for a minute, just say whatever you want out loud!"

Although Chen Zhonglei's consciousness had been sealed off, his consciousness, however, was still able to pick up all the senses of his body.

He knew everything that had happened around him during this period of time, and he was also very clear about the matter that Wan Breaking Army was going to lead his brothers to kill up Ye Lingshan.

Even just now, as he knelt in front of Ye Chen's parents' spirit, he had not been able to see this scene that had just happened with his own eyes, but he had guessed what had just happened roughly through the sound.

However, his reception of information from the outside world was one-way, and apart from receiving information from the outside world from his physical senses, he could not control his body to make any reaction, even if he just blinked his eyelids.

At the very moment when Ye Chen had just tapped him on the shoulder, his consciousness finally became one with his body again, and this long-lost feeling, like a vegetative person who had been asleep for years finally waking up, instantly brought tears to his eyes.

Immediately afterwards, he looked at Wan Bajun and instantly broke down emotionally, bawling and begging, "Hall Master Please find a way to save me, or Or kill me immediately This feeling of having your consciousness imprisoned inside your body is even more terrifying and desperate than the eighteen levels of hell!!!"

"It's really Life! No! Like! Death! AHHHHH!!!"

Chapter 3405

The tragic appearance of the second expert of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, the Greenwood Wolf King Chen Zhonglei, breaking down and crying like that, seemed to have hammered a heavy blow to the hearts of everyone in the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall!

Although they did not know what it was like to have their consciousness imprisoned in their bodies.

But seeing Chen Zhonglei's current appearance caused them to be terrified to the core of their hearts at this unknown taste.

No one dared to imagine what it would be like for them to be helpless and worse than dead if such a thing happened to them.

It would really be like screaming at the end of the day

It was also at this moment that deep inside their hearts, they were completely filled with hellish fear of Ye Chen.

Originally, I thought that three of the Four Great War Kings were destroyed by Ye Chen's hands, and another one was destroyed in the Middle East.

But who would have thought that these four, it turned out, were all destroyed by Ye Chen's hands!!!

Wan Bajun also panicked, and he subconsciously asked Ye Chen: "What happened in Syria Did you do it?!"

Ye Chen nodded and said very frankly: "That's right, I did it! The reason why Hamid was able to annihilate several thousand of your Ten Thousand Dragon Temple soldiers was all thanks to my guidance; the reason why the government forces were able to capture over ten thousand of your Ten Thousand Dragon Temple soldiers was also all thanks to my help!"

At this moment, Wan Breaking Army's psychological defences completely collapsed.

He finally understood that the revenge he had been preparing for twenty years was nothing more than a farce of hitting a stone with an egg.

Ye Chen's power had far exceeded his perception!

Not to mention that he was not Ye Chen's opponent, the entire Ten Thousand Dragon Hall combined might not be Ye Chen's opponent.

Wan Bajun looked at Chen Zhonglei again, and seeing his tearful, desperate and fearful appearance, his heart was like his death.

Then, he looked at Ye Chen and, holding back his inner humiliation, clasped his fist and begged, "Ye Chen! It is me, Wan Bajun, who is blind to the mountain! Please let Hao Tian and Zhong Lei go, let me take my parents' coffins and leave, and from today onwards, Wan Long Temple will leave China immediately and will never come back again!"

Ye Chen laughed coldly, "You still want to negotiate terms with me when you're so close to death? Who do you think you are? Outside, you are the Master of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, but here, you are just a fucking evil dog that is looking for death!"

Wan Bajun's expression was austere as he asked him, "Then what do you want to be satisfied with?"

Ye Chen smiled and said blandly, "Don't be in a hurry, it's not time for me to say the terms yet, let me introduce you to another old acquaintance!"

With that, Ye Chen gave He Hongsheng another look.

He Hongsheng understood and went back to the spirit of Ye Chen's parents, pulling Su Shoudao, who was kneeling there, over as well.

Wan Bajun didn't know who this man was again, but he was certain that this man must have a close relationship with himself!

Once Su Shoudao was brought over to Ye Chen, Ye Chen looked at Wan Bajun and asked him with a smile, "Wan Bajun, before I unlock the hood of this old acquaintance of yours, there is something I haven't broken up with you properly since you came up the mountain, so we might as well run through this matter first."

Wan Xiaojun cautiously asked, "What is it?"

Ye Chen said indifferently, "I heard that your father was a core member of the Yanjing 'Anti-Ye Alliance' back then, and was bent on following the Su family's side and joining them in targeting my father, but my father never did anything against your father, can you admit this? "

Wan Bajun said in a loud voice: "Back then, in the futures market again, it was your father who made a trap to lure my father into it! My father lost his entire family fortune! Because of this, he chose to commit suicide by jumping off a building! It was also because of his suicide that my mother took the medicine to kill herself! This was all thanks to your father!"

Ye Chen's expression gradually turned cold as he blurted out, "You're fucking bullshitting!"

Chapter 3406

"In business, things change quickly! Your father was incompetent, limited and unaware of his own abilities!"

"Who the hell is to blame if he thought he was going to enter the futures market and try to compete with my father, only to have my father beat him legitimately and lose all his assets?"

"It's his own inability and limited level, what does it have to do with my father?"

At this point, Ye Chen gave a slight pause and continued, "If your father was only incapable, it would be fine, the big deal was to go back to bed and try to rise again, but he didn't even have enough mental strength, he had to go to the top of the building and jump down by himself, so who the hell can blame my father for that?"

"And your mother! Even if your father killed himself, she left you behind and took the poison herself to die, did my father have anything to do with that?"

Wan Bajun was not convinced and angrily blurted out, "This is all your father's conspiracy!"

Ye Chen stared at him and asked coldly, "If you say so, you are just as self-righteous, narrow-minded, weak, limited and unaware as your father was back then! You even took the initiative to come to Mount Yeh Ling and shamelessly said that you wanted to raze my parents' graves! And now I've killed them! Is all this a conspiracy by me, Ye Chen?"

Wan Bajun's expression instantly froze, Ye Chen's words struck right into his soul, making it impossible for him to refute them!

Ye Chen looked at him and said coldly, "Wan Bajun! You are the same today as your father was back then! You are all to blame! Even if you die ten thousand times, you are still to blame!!!"

Wan Bajun was already in tears by now.

He knew that what Ye Chen said was right.

The current version of himself, like his father back then, had taken the initiative to provoke a figure he could not afford to provoke at all, and had subsequently suffered a complete defeat.

The so-called revenge of his parents was just a blind hatred that had been pent up deep inside his heart for many years as he had voiced his own injustice for them.

Just as his inner faith began to crumble, Ye Chen pointed at Su Shoudao beside him and said in a cold voice, "Come, let you meet the great benefactor of your Wan family back then!"

After saying this, Ye Chen ripped off the black cloth bag that was over Su Shoudao's head.

In this instant, Wan Bajun's entire body was struck by lightning!

Naturally, he recognized Su Shoudao.

Although so many years had passed, Su Shoudao's appearance as an adult had not changed much, he was just a little older than normal, so Wan Bajun recognised him almost at first.

Subconsciously, he blurted out, "Su Uncle Su?!"

Su Chengfeng, the old man of the Su family, was also completely dumbfounded at this time, his eldest son had been missing for such a long time without any news, but he didn't expect to be in the hands of this Ye Chen!

Su Shoudao saw his father as well as Wan Breaking Army at this time, he was also wide-eyed and wanted to say something, but his mouth was still gagged with a towel, so not a single word could come out.

Ye Chen pulled the towel from his mouth, and Su Shoudao hurriedly said to Wan Bajun, "Bajun, you're confused!"

Wan Bajun was already in tears by now and choked up, "Uncle Su, it's really you For so many years, Broken Jun has never forgotten your great kindness to the Wan family, but for so many years Broken Jun has not gotten in touch with you for various reasons, please forgive me"

Su Shoudao's eyes were also red and he choked up, "What a time to talk about this"

Ye Chen then spoke up and said to Su Shoudao, "Mr. Su, Wan Liancheng was your man back then, and no one knows more about the Anti-Leaf Alliance than you, so in front of Wan Breaking Jun, tell us what really happened back then, and who was really responsible for the whole thing."

Saying that, Ye Chen instructed one more thing: "You must start from objective facts! As long as what you say is indeed the objective truth, I won't hold you responsible for anything you say! But if you dare to tell half a lie, I will kill you with my own hands in front of my parents' spirit!"

Chapter 3407

At this moment, Su Shoudao let out a long sigh and said very seriously to Wan Bajun: "Bajun What Ye Chen just said is correct The death of your parents really had nothing to do with his father"

Wan Breaking Jun questioned tearfully, "Uncle Su, my father went against Ye Chang Ying back then to defend you, and today his and my mother's coffins are here, aren't you afraid that they will be chilled if you say that?"

Su Shoudao lamented helplessly, "Even if I were to die today and go over there and see your parents, I would still say that."

At this point in the conversation, Su Shoudao gave a slight beat and continued, "Back then, the Anti-Ye Alliance, itself, was an immoral existence, Ye Changye has always been decent, and this person is not only decent, but also extremely capable, so much so that so many of our families have been under his shadow for a long time"

"Therefore, those of us who are inferior to him have formed the Anti-Yeh Alliance in order to contain him, so from this point of view, we have been at fault in the first place"

"Moreover, back then, your father was extremely attached to the Anti-Yeh Alliance in order to cater to me, and always wanted to find an opportunity to prove himself by striking at Ye Chang Ying"

"It just so happened that those years foreign trade, as well as the entire international futures market were extremely volatile, food, crude oil and various precious metals were all in great turmoil, many people got rich overnight and many went bankrupt overnight, your father thought he had a good grasp of the international situation, so he took the initiative to join the futures market and prepared to snipe Ye Chang Ying, but the result was simply not Ye Chang Ying's match"

"When your father's loss reached 80 percent, Ye Chang Ying even called him and advised him to stop, but your father felt at that time that Ye Chang Ying was deliberately forcing him to cut his meat and leave the market, so in order to be able to win, he even financed a lot of money outside at high interest rates and wanted to fight Ye Chang Ying to the death"

"In the end, the result was that your father lost all of his assets, while also owing billions of dollars in outside debts, he couldn't afford such a major defeat, that's why he chose to commit suicide"

Speaking of this, Su Shoudao let out a light sigh and added, "As for your mother The reason why she took poison and committed suicide on the day of your father's first seventh day was because the debt collectors at that time had already chased your mother to your father's grave in order to force her to pay back the money, billions of dollars of debt, to be honest I could not do anything about it, in the end your mother was desperate and chose to take her own life"

Su Shoudao paused for a moment, looked at Wan Bajun and sighed with emotion, "Bajun, as a witness, I can say something absolutely fair, the death of your parents really had nothing to do with Ye Chang Ying! The only thing to blame is that your father was too greedy and adventurous, even I was no match for Ye Chang Ying, yet he misjudged the situation and thought he could defeat Ye Chang Ying, to put it mildly, he was just like you who think you can defeat Ye Chen today"

Speaking of this, Su Shoudao said with an extremely painful and regretful expression, "Broken Jun, you've been able to make it as far as the head of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall overseas, you're already quite good, why don't you do well overseas and continue to create your own career? Why were you blinded by your so-called hatred and ran back to your country to continue your fight with the Ye family? If you hadn't come back, how could you have suffered this calamity"

Wan Bajun had completely collapsed at this point.

He fell to the ground with a poof and cried out loudly, "These twenty years I have fought hard every day, and all that has kept me going is to come back and avenge my parents' death"

"But who would have thought that my father was defeated by Ye Changye back then, and I am defeated by Ye Changye's son today"

"What's even more ridiculous is that according to what you said just now, Uncle Su, not only was Ye Chang Ying not my father's enemy, but he even tried to persuade my father to return to the right path, but it was my father himself who lost all of his strength and threw himself at it, and even indirectly dragged my mother to her death"

At this point, Wan Bajun propped his hands on the ground, tears and snot streaming down his face as he said in despair, "I can't figure it out! I really can't understand! I've been lying in wait overseas for the past twenty years What was it all for"

"In these twenty years, I dare not go back to my country, I dare not go to my parents' graves to pay respects, whenever there is a Qingming Festival or their death anniversary, I can only burn some paper money abroad and cry a lot as a tribute"

Chapter 3408

"The reason why I didn't dare to come back for so many years was that I wanted to wait until I had the strength to win for sure, and then I would avenge them and wipe out their shame"

"But now, everything is surprisingly this situation again"

At this point, Wan Bajun raised his head and looked at Su Shoudao with red eyes as well as desperate eyes, breaking down and crying, "I can't understand I really can't understand it Uncle Su It feels as if I have lived all these twenty years for nothing"

Su Shoudao's heart was saddened and he could not help but cry.

He was able to understand the multiple pains of Wan Breaking Jun.

The hatred back then, the defeat now, and the misunderstanding behind this, were all tormenting Wan Bajun madly, making his life worse than death.

So, Su Shoudao spoke out to comfort him, "Broken Jun Think about it, your parents' death has long been a foregone conclusion, and your efforts over the past twenty years have not been in vain, I have also heard of the reputation of Wan Long Temple, you have done very well, as long as you can clear up the misunderstanding with Mr. Ye and the Ye family, and seek Mr. Ye's forgiveness, your future future will still be unlimited!"

As he said that, Su Shoudao looked at Ye Chen and begged, "Mr. Ye, please forgive him this time for the sake of Broken Jun's filial piety and the suffering he has endured in the past twenty years!"

Ye Chen sneered, "If he is only here to seek justice for his parents, then I can let him go if he can admit his wrongdoing and apologise to my parents after the matter is cleared up."

At this point, Ye Chen changed his tone and said in a harsh and cold voice, "But! He thought he was the Master of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall and thought he had achieved something extraordinary and was extremely powerful, so he dared to say that he wanted to bury my parents to the ground! I can never forgive him for this! If he is to blame, he can only blame himself for being too crazy!"

Upon hearing these words, Wan Bajun hurriedly asked him, "Mr. Ye, what exactly do you want to be satisfied with this matter?"

Ye Chen said indifferently, "I said it! I want to return the favour of others by doing the same to them! It just so happens that he himself took the initiative to bring his parents' coffin, so this is his own humiliation!"

Saying that, Ye Chen stared at Wan Bajun with a stern look in his eyes and said word by word, "And I can put my words here now, no matter what I, Ye Chen, want to do, you, Wan Bajun, can't stop me! If you are not convinced, you can compete with me first! If you lose, I won't kill you, I'll waste you and let you see with your own eyes how your parents were battered to death as you said before!"

Wan Bajun's body subconsciously shivered as he turned his head to look at his parents' coffin and then at Ye Chen, his heart was deadly grey.

A moment later, he suddenly clenched his fists and fiercely mobilised all the internal energy in his body.

Just when the others thought that he was about to rush up and fight for his life with Ye Chen, Wan Bajun shattered all eight of his meridians in an instant!

Immediately afterwards, Wan Bajun spat out a large mouthful of blood and looked at Ye Chen, saying weakly, "Mr. Ye, I have severed all my meridians, and from now on, I can only be a useless person with no power to tie my hands.

Chapter 3409

At this moment, the expressions of everyone at the scene were shocked.

No one had expected that Wan Bajun, as an eight-star martial artist, would completely admit defeat by cutting his own meridians without even fighting Ye Chen!

Even Ye Chen himself was slightly taken aback.

He had expected Wan Bajun to fight to the death, but to his surprise, he had simply cut his own meridians.

At this moment, Wan Bajun once again knocked his head hard on the ground and said in a loud voice, "A thousand wrongs are my fault alone, I beg Mr. Ye to arrange for my parents to be reburied, and I also beg Mr. Ye to spare these men who have followed me in battle for many years, as for myself, as long as you say the word, I am willing to kowtow to death in front of you!"

To Wan Bajun, he had realized long ago that he could not possibly be Ye Chen's opponent, nor could these men of his own be Ye Chen's opponent.

Those helpers behind Ye Chen hadn't even made a move yet, and his own side had lost three Battle Kings. Not to mention that his men were now scared out of their wits by Ye Chen, even if they still dared to fight Ye Chen to the death, there was no way they could have any chance of winning.

The greatest possibility was that they would all be wiped out.

At that time, neither he nor his men would be spared, and his parents' coffin would also fall into Ye Chen's hands.

That was why Wan Bajun decided to cut his own meridians and kowtow to Ye Chen, just to save his parents' coffins and also to spare the lives of the other soldiers of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall.

As for his own life, he had already put it aside.

As long as he could satisfy Ye Chen and make him spare his parents and the rest of his men, he would have no complaints even if he died here.

Su Chengfeng almost fainted at this moment.

He was hoping that Wan Bajun would become his solid backing in the future, but now, Wan Bajun had already destroyed his own meridians and turned into a ruined man.

On Ye Chen's side, many people felt that this scene was a great pleasure, but Du Haiqing's expression was filled with a bit of intolerance.

She had grown up watching Wan Bajun, and seeing him in such a miserable state, she could not help but feel sympathy for him, and even hoped that Ye Chen would be able to forgive him and not pursue the matter any further.

However, when she thought of what Ye Chen had told herself before Wan Bajun went up to Mount Ye Ling, she did not know how to say anything at once.

At this moment, Ye Chen looked at Wan Bajun with an expressionless face and said in a cold voice: "The reason you broke your own meridians was because you were too weak and wanted to beg for my forgiveness, which seems to be quite courageous to say, but in fact, it was just a way to break your wrist! All you've done is to save your parents' bodies and coffins! I won't buy it from you!"

Upon hearing these words, Wan Bajun's whole body collapsed even more as he bowed violently and knocked his head to the ground!

By now, his forehead was already covered in blood, and several large cuts were bleeding continuously, but even so, he still held himself up and begged loudly, "Mr. Ye, please spare my parents!"

Ye Chen was still unmoved.

When he raised his head, blood was already flowing all over his face, and he continued to plead loudly, "Mr. Ye! Please be merciful! Let my parents go!!!"

Ye Chen looked as normal, not looking at the bloodied Wan Bajun in the slightest.

After all, Wan Bajun had previously threatened to bruise his parents to death, so even if he did die here, Ye Chen would not have the slightest sympathy.

When Wan Bajun saw this, he once again kowtowed his head, this time smashing his head full of blood almost gushing out, and said weakly under his breath, "Mr. Ye Please I beg you to please Please Let go of Let go of my Let my parents go"

Ye Chen's expression was still as cold as ice as he opened his mouth and asked, "Wan Bajun, you still don't understand the situation, why do you ask me to raise my hand? And why should I be noble to you?"

Seeing that Ye Chen was not moved at all, Wan Bajun's heart was ashen, and he suddenly turned his head to look at his parents' coffin and bawled: "Dad Mum My son is unfilial My son is sorry for you two, you two have to suffer from my son after so many years I'm sorry I'm really sorry"

Chapter 3410

At this moment, Du Haiqing in the crowd had a sour nose and could not stand to see it, so she immediately stepped out from the crowd and looked at Ye Chen, pleading, "Chen'er, for the sake that Broken Jun truly knows his mistake, please forgive him this time"

When Wan Bajun saw Du Haiqing, he instantly recognized her and was dumbfounded: "Du Auntie Du Why are you here too"

Du Haiqing looked at him with a sympathetic face and sighed, "Ye Chen saved me and Zhiyu before, we mothers heard that you were going up to Ye Ling Mountain, we were worried that Ye Chen was in danger so we rushed over here overnight, originally we wanted to go out of our way to beg you for a favorable hand, but we didn't expect Hey"

Wan broke the army tears completely can not stop, said miserably: "Sorry Aunt Du I'm sorry for giving you trouble I don't ask Mr. Ye to let me go, I only ask him to let my parents go, a thousand mistakes, it's all my fault, it's my fault, it's my mistake, it's my inability to distinguish between right and wrong, it's also my wild words, I want to bury Mr. Ye's parents to the ground"

At this point, Wan Bajun lowered his head and said, choking to the point of trembling, "I also know that I deserve what Mr. Ye has done to me Even if he wants to return the favor to others, it is still my fault"

"But But I am so ashamed of my parents"

"All these years All these years I haven't been able to come back to kowtow and burn incense to them"

"Now that I've finally returned, I've disturbed their spirits, removed them from the tomb, and now I've dragged them down to their bones after death"

"I I can't forgive myself Even if I die, I can't forgive myself"

Su Shoudao was in tears as he turned around and knelt in front of Ye Chen, begging, "Mr. Ye, Broken Jun has already paid the price for his arrogance, just please spare him this time!"

Su Zhiyu, who could not bear to look at this moment, spoke up, "Dad! Mum! Today's matter is a personal grudge between your Excellency and Wan Bajun! And it was Wan Bajun who provoked him in the first place, so don't kidnap him here now!"

Su Zhiyu had always been clear about right and wrong.

Wrong, is wrong!!!

If one does something wrong, one has to bear all the consequences!

You, Wan Bajun, provoked first, and now you want to kowtow and beg for forgiveness after losing, why should others have to forgive you just because you kowtow?

Du Haiqing's expression was even more confused when Su Zhiyu said this, she let out a light sigh and spoke, "Zhiyu, of course Broken Jun was at fault, but he has already paid the price for his mistake"

Su Zhiyu nodded and said seriously, "It is true that he has paid the price, but whether the price paid is enough or not is not up to you and Dad, it is up to the benefactor!"

Wan Breaking Jun also choked in despair at this point, "Uncle Su, Auntie Du, you two don't have to plead for me, everything I've done today is self-inflicted, I can't blame anyone"

Ye Chen, who had not spoken, saw that Wan Bajun had become completely desperate, and at this time suddenly spoke indifferently, "Wan Bajun, whether to kill you and your men or not, or whether to bruise your parents to ashes, all is at my whim! I can reject you in a ruthless manner, or I can let you go, but why should I do so?"

Wan Bajun was still kneeling on the ground at this moment, his whole head was already broken and bleeding, and the rough mourning clothes on his body were soaked with blood, which was unbearable, but he still forced himself to endure the severe pain and blurted out, "If Mr. Ye can give me and my parents a higher hand, I, Wan Bajun, swear to heaven and to the spirits of my parents in heaven! I will follow Mr. Ye's side and work as a cow and horse for him! I will be your servant for the rest of my life! Even if Mr. Ye asks me to jump off of Ye Ling Mountain now, I will not complain!"

Those generals of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall who were originally scared out of their wits were all heartbroken at the sight of Wan Bajun looking so miserable.

One of them suddenly knelt on the ground and kowtowed to Ye Chen, raising his head and shouting with a tear-stained face, "I beg you, Mr. Ye, to be more generous to the Hall Master's parents, I, Shen Hanqing, would like to be a cow and a horse for Mr. Ye in this life, to repay your great kindness!"

Immediately afterwards, another person knelt down and kowtowed, followed by a loud shout, "I, Li Quanbin, am also willing!"

"I, Zhang Haixin, am also willing!"

There was even a female warrior from the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall who also knelt down and kowtowed and choked, "I, Hu Kexin, am also willing!"

With these few people at the beginning, almost all of the other Ten Thousand Dragon Hall soldiers knelt down, and the sound of clear and vigorous kowtowing resounded throughout Ye Ling Mountain!
