

Ye Chen 3411

Chapter 3411

These generals of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall, although they all greatly feared Ye Chen's strength, at this moment, they could not bear to see Wan Bajun in such a miserable and desperate state.

After all, they had almost all received favours from Wan Bu Jun, and could not sit back and do nothing with peace of mind.

What's more, if Ye Chen never let go, not only would it be difficult for Wan Bajun to escape death, but it would also be difficult for them, his men, to live.

Therefore, one after another, they all knelt down on the ground, hoping to do more for Wan Bajun and plead for Ye Chen's forgiveness.

Seeing so many experts from the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall all kneel down in front of Ye Chen and beg, Ye Zhongquan's heart was incomparably excited.

From this scene, he saw the hope for the Ye family to rise, and this rise was not about making the Ye family the number one in the country, but about leading the Ye family and becoming the number one in the world.

On the opposite side of him, Su Chengfeng, who was standing alone in place, had panicked to the extreme deep inside.

All the people of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall had fallen to their knees, and now, he was the only one still standing in this side of the camp.

He did not know whether he should continue to stand here or hurry up and kneel down along with the people of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall.

It was certainly inappropriate for a person to stand alone.

However, asking himself to kneel down for Ye Chen, this It seemed even more inappropriate.

After all, he was the family head of the Su family, and it was already humiliating to originally wear mourning for Wan Bajun's parents, but now if he were to kneel down for Ye Chen, wouldn't that be even more humiliating?

Just when he didn't know what to do, one of the Wan Long Hall generals beside him directly dragged him down to the ground.

Su Chengfeng fell head first and was just about to get up when he was slapped across the face by that Ten Thousand Dragons Hall general, cursing in a low voice, "You old bastard! We all knelt down to plead for the Hall Master, why don't you kneel down? Hurry up and kneel down for me!"

With this slap, Su Chengfeng's face immediately swelled up and the pain was excruciating.

Although he was a million times furious in his heart, he did not dare to show anything.

After all, in this situation, he didn't have any right to say anything at all, and he could only take it when others smacked him.

At this moment, all the soldiers of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall were watching Ye Chen closely with eyes filled with tears, as they all waited for Ye Chen's final response.

Ye Chen looked at Wan Bu Jun's miserable appearance and said indifferently, "So many people have pleaded for your mercy, I can see that they all truly support you, but you brought them to Ye Ling Mountain to die because of your own selfish interests, don't you, the so-called Hall Master, feel ashamed in your heart?"

Wan Bajun choked back a painful sob, "Shame I am very ashamed now, not only of my brothers in the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, but also of my parents, and of you, Mr. Ye, and your parents"

Saying that, he looked up at Su Shoudao as well as Du Haiqing and choked up, "Uncle Su, Auntie Du, for you two to plead for me, Broken Army also feels very ashamed in his heart"

Su Shoudao let out a long sigh and did not say anything.

At this moment, he did not know what to say in response to Wan Bajun.

Wan Bajun then looked at Ye Chen and said seriously, "Mr. Ye, if you despise me, if you don't need a loser like me to be by your side, then Wan Bajun can thank you with his death. I am willing to die in the wilderness, to be eaten by insects and beasts, but I only hope that you, Mr. Ye, will be so kind as to let my parents be buried in peace!

Chapter 3412

Ye Chen frowned slightly, then looked at He Hongsheng and asked, "Old Mr. He, did you bring a sword with you when you went out today?"

He Hongsheng said respectfully, "Back to Mr. Ye, I did!"

After saying that, he took out an incredibly sharp short blade from his waist and handed it to Ye Chen with both hands.

Ye Chen took the short blade and then threw it in front of Wan Bajun, saying indifferently, "For the sake that you are still a filial son, I promise you! After you die, I will not bury you or your parents' remains or expose them to the wilderness, instead, I will repay your grievances with virtue and bury you and your parents together.

When Wan Bajun heard these words, a relaxed smile finally appeared on his face, while he looked at Ye Chen with an expression of complete gratitude.

Afterwards, he once again bent down and gave Ye Chen a heavy kowtow.

This time, he bent down for a long time before standing up his upper body and said with immense gratitude, "Thank you, Mr. Ye, for your great kindness and for repaying your grievances with virtue, this kindness of Mr. Ye is something I cannot repay in this life, I would like to be a cow and a horse in my next life to repay Mr. Ye's kindness!"

After saying this, he reached out and took the short blade in his hand.

Just as he was about to point the tip of the blade at his heart, intending to stab it hard, a group of generals of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall almost collapsed, and a large group of people cried out, "Hall Master! No, Master!"

Wan Bajun looked back at his most loyal men and said with a smile, "Brothers and sisters, today I have implicated you all, so please forgive me!"

"Also, remember, after my death, the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall will be automatically disbanded, all of you must not make enemies with Mr. Ye or the Ye family, and if you are still engaged in the mercenary industry, you must not enter China again in your lifetime and must not disturb the peace of China, can you remember that?"

Hearing these words, the crowd had already burst into tears.

They knew that Wan Bajun was ready to die, and that this was his final farewell!

Someone choked up and said, "Hall Master We can agree to everything else, but why don't you let us enter China again? If we can't enter China again, we won't even have the chance to pay our respects to your grave!"

Wan Bajun smiled blandly and said, "It is enough that the brothers have this intention, whether they pay their respects or not, it doesn't matter."

Mr. Ye is kind enough to let us reunite down here today, so I can finally spend some time with my parents and make up for my regrets of the past twenty years. come all the way to see me."

As Wan Bajun said this, nearly a hundred soldiers of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall had already burst into tears.

These top mercenaries, who normally killed without blinking, were all as fragile as children of three or five years old at this moment.

They knew that the momentum of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall had already been lost and the situation had been decided, and Wan Bajun was already bound to die.

Wan Bajun had even regarded Ye Chen's order to kill himself as a great grace, which showed how completely the Hall had lost this time.

Now, no one could save Wan Bajun's life, because everyone's life was in Ye Chen's hands.

Ye Chen, on the other hand, did not look ready to let Wan Bajun live at all.

Wan Bajun smiled faintly and said to his men, "Gentlemen, the world is divided after a long time, and divided after a long time. Today, we have come to the end of our relationship, so let's say goodbye!"

With these words, Wan Bajun raised his blade and thrust it into his heart.

Chapter 3413

Although Wan Bajun's meridians were all destroyed, wielding his blade to kill himself was still more than enough for him.

He used all his strength and ferocity in this slash, because all he wanted was to use it to end his own life in a crisp and quick manner.

The reason he wanted to do it was because he didn't want so many people to see him twitching in place for a long time before he died a miserable death.

At this moment, he was already prepared to die.

The many generals of the Hall of Ten Thousand Dragons also understood that this was a foregone conclusion and that there was nothing anyone could do to stop it.

But at the moment when the short blade in Wan Bajun's hand pierced his mourning clothes, pierced the skin of Wan Bajun's chest, and was almost about to pierce his heart, Ye Chen kicked lightly with his toe, and a surge of spiritual energy poured into the short blade from the tip of his foot.

Immediately afterwards, just as Wan Bajun was actually stabbing the blade towards his heart, the blade suddenly turned into pieces in front of his chest, instantly splitting apart and dissipating into the air!

At this moment, everyone was dumbfounded, and Wan Bajun himself could not believe it!

He found that the blade in his hand had disappeared, and when he looked down, all that was left was a dusty powder on the palms of his hands!

His entire brain did not react, one, he did not know why this good short blade was turned into powder by Ye Chen's empty kick, and two, he did not understand why Ye Chen had suddenly saved himself at this time.

He subconsciously raised his head, looked at the bemused Ye Chen, and subconsciously asked: "Ye Mr. Ye What are you"

Ye Chen said indifferently, "When Lu Haotian killed at his door yesterday, my grandfather had told him about a past incident."

Saying that, Ye Chen looked at Wan Breaking Jun and spoke, "Do you know what my father said back then when he heard that your father had jumped to his death?"

Wan Bajun shook his head gently with a bewildered expression and said in a low voice, "I don't know Please tell me more, Mr. Ye!"

Ye Chen turned to look in the direction of his parents' tomb in the distance and said softly, "My father said that he did not kill Bo Ren, but Bo Ren died because of him, even though he won your father justly, he still felt guilty about it after hearing of your father's death, the so-called compassionate man should be talking about people like him."

Wan Breaking Jun said incomparably ashamed, "Your father he Indeed, he had a heart and a sense of justice Back then, although I was young, I had heard many rumours about him, and many people mentioned him with great admiration"

"Yes!" Ye Chen nodded, and then said lightly, "Wan Bajun, you are considered very filial, but in my eyes, you are only a half filial son, do you know why?"

Wan Bajun shook his head and said, "I would like to hear more about it"

Ye Chen seriously said, "If the word filial piety is only interpreted as avenging your parents, or providing for them in their old age, it is a bit one-sided, because you have overlooked the more important heritage!"

Saying that, Ye Chen added: "The 5,000 years of Chinese history, if you have to condense it down, is nothing but the word heritage!"

"Inheritance, taken apart, is inheritance and transmission, and in the end, everyone should do what they can to carry on, not let everything come to you with no successor."

"People say that they should inherit for the past sages, they are passing on the philosophy and wisdom of the old ancestors;"

"Ordinary people may not be able to reach the height of learning for the sake of the saints, but at least they should learn from a teacher, and pass on to your descendants what you have learned from your teachers, your parents and elders;"

"Even if you can't even learn to have a teacher, at the very least, you should continue to pass on the bloodline passed down to you by your parents, instead of breaking your own family's descendants."

When he said this, Ye Chen saw that Wan Bajun was once again in tears, so he gave a slight pause and continued, "Think about it, what flows through you is not just your parents' bloodline, but the bloodline that has been passed down all the way from your parents' two families, for thousands and thousands of years! These bloodlines have survived countless wars and disasters and continue to this day, and now, they are going to be broken in your body. Do you think that if you go to see your parents and accompany them like this, your parents will forgive you if they know in heaven?"

Hearing this, Wan Bajun was already sobbing, so ashamed that he didn't even dare to look up.

Ye Chen took his change in his eyes and continued, "You have no children, if you die, what can you do even if you have these brothers?"

"When they are alive, because you have been kind to them, they might still come to sweep your grave and your parents' graves, and when they die, their children will not even meet you before they will come a long way to sweep your family's graves and pay respects."

"In this way, after a number of years, the grave of your Wan family will become no different from a mass grave."

"If there is further land acquisition, natural or man-made disasters, there will be no one to collect your family's ashes."

"In that case, what would be the difference between that and having your bones thrown to the ground?"

Chapter 3414

Hearing this, Wan Bajun bowed his head deeply, his entire body trembling violently as tears continued to roll and drip onto the ground.

He also wanted to live very much.

However, he was afraid that Ye Chen would not let him live, nor would he let his brothers live, and coupled with the need to preserve his parents' decency and peace of mind, he could only choose to die.

However, a thought suddenly surged in his heart, "Ye Chen just suddenly turned the short blade in my hand into pieces, could it be, could it be that he intended to spare my life?!"

However, soon after, Wan Bajun sighed in his heart, "I'm afraid I'm overthinking it, I've been so disrespectful to Ye Chen's parents, how could he spare my life? If I were in his shoes, then I would have killed myself long ago"

Ye Chen then went on to say, "Wan Xiaojun, you should know that people inherently die, but try to be remembered after death in order to prove that you once existed in this world."

"Those sages and martyrs, thousands of years after their death, are still remembered, this is the highest level of meaning for a person to live one life;"

"Even if ordinary people cannot become sages and martyrs, they can at least leave their names on their family tree so that their children and grandchildren can remember them, just like my Ye family, the family tree has been passed down for hundreds of years and every ancestor has their name on the family tree. "

Speaking of this, Ye Chen looked at Wan Breaking Jun and said indifferently, "However, if you die today, your parents' names will also be buried in the earth with you!"

"Perhaps in the decades after your death as the Lord of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, someone will still remember, but who will remember your parents? How sad is it that they are just thrown into the long river of history, never to be remembered again?"

Wan Xiaojun was ashamed to the core at this moment!

Originally, he had been prepared to die a generous death, but now he suddenly felt that if he died like this, he would not have the face to meet his parents and the ancestors of the Wan family after his death!

To him, Ye Chen's words were like killing a man's heart!

It made him suffer ten thousand times more than death!

Originally, he had felt that death was a kind of relief, a kind of self-salvation.

But now he realises that death is not a relief, not a salvation, but a shame to his parents and ancestors!

Because his death would cause his parents and his ancestors to disappear into the history books!

It would have made the Wan family, which had endured thousands of years of suffering, disappear into thin air!

The entire family would be left with no evidence of its existence and no meaning!

When he thought of this, his heart was worse than death.

So he raised his head and looked at Ye Chen with his extremely red and swollen eyes, looking at him with great devotion, and respectfully pleaded loudly, "Mr. Ye! I am willing to give everything! I only beg you to be generous and give me a chance to do my filial duty! I swear by my parents and the ancestors of the Wan family that I will do my utmost to serve Mr. Ye in this life, and I will not give up until I die!

Ye Chen knew that if he wanted to kill Wan Bajun, he had to do it with a clean slate, but if he didn't kill him, if he wanted to take him for himself, he had to let him break and stand afterwards!

After all, this man was the head of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, and he had been overseas for twenty years, and had managed to build a foundation of this size, so he was definitely a dragon among men.

If one only relied on strong pressure and intimidation to subdue him, then the pride and disobedience in his bones must still be there, and after lying in wait for a number of years, he would definitely still release it and stand against himself again.

Therefore, the best way is to shatter this person's confidence all together!

Don't you think you are very powerful? Then my strength can force you to break your own meridians without a fight!

Don't you think that it doesn't matter if you fail, that a single death will solve a thousand sorrows? Then I will show you that death is the most painful, most remorseful, most defeated and most cowardly choice in this world!

When you have no way out, all your pride and self-confidence will vanish.

As they say, a hundred refinements make a steel! Only by repeatedly quenching, repeatedly hammering, repeatedly destroying and rebuilding, can it be made into a sharp blade!

So, Ye Chen waved his hand at Wan Bajun and said indifferently, "It's just that! I have just taken over the affairs of the Ye family, and there is a real shortage of manpower in the future. Since you have such a heart, I can spare your life and give you a chance to fulfil your filial duty, but you and all of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall must be loyal to me! In this life and in this world, you must not disobey any of my orders!"

After saying this, Ye Chen looked at Wan Bajun and the generals of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall behind him and asked in a stern voice, "Are you, willing?"

Chapter 3415

Hearing that Ye Chen was willing to let him go, Wan Bajun's emotions were so great that he almost collapsed.

However, he still resisted the urge to cry out in pain and shouted without hesitation, "Mr. Ye, I am willing!"

A group of generals from the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall reacted and shouted out in excitement at the same time, "We are also willing!"

In an instant, the response was a mountainous roar!

Everyone else on the scene looked dumbfounded!

No one had expected that Ye Chen would spare Wan Bajun's life and at the same time take the entire Ten Thousand Dragon Hall under his wing!

Many people did not understand why Ye Chen did not relent until the very last moment when he had cut his own veins and was about to commit suicide.

Moreover, before letting go, he also slammed Wan Xiaojun's decision to die a generous death.

In fact, what Ye Chen was playing was a typical psychological tactic.

The same bowl of rice, given when the opponent was hungry, had a very different effect from giving it when the opponent was about to die of hunger.

Moreover, the reason why Ye Chen slammed his decision to go to his death was to destroy his last piece of confidence and dignity.

Because, at the moment when he decided to commit suicide, Wan Bajun's heart, was relieved, and even deep inside his heart, there must have been a sense of sadness in going to his death generously.

If this sense of sadness is not completely knocked out of him, then he will still consider going to his death as a kind of glory in the future.

In some ways, Wan Bajun is very much like a Japanese samurai, a samurai who truly believes in the spirit of Bushido, in the same way as Don Giovanni, who, regardless of his strength, is proud and unafraid of death at heart.

If a man is not afraid of death, it is easy to defeat him, but not so easy to convince him.

For at any time he will feel that although I am not strong and have lost a battle, the big deal is that I will be cut open and afterwards, I will still have a reputation that will be celebrated.

So, in this case, it is necessary to make him understand one core truth: do you think you are a great hero if you cut open your belly?

No, even if you cut open your belly, you're still a big douche!

Once he knew that even death would not solve the problem at hand, all his pride would completely collapse.

This was also the fundamental reason why, Ye Chen had to push him to the extreme.

From now on, Wan Bajun and his Ten Thousand Dragons Hall would definitely be loyal and obedient to Ye Chen's orders.

All of Ye Chen's men and friends were already extremely excited.

Today was truly the most memorable day for them in their lives.

This was no longer a simple matter of setting themselves up for death, this was a matter of becoming a Buddha, a saint or a dragon!

Gu Yanzhong was so excited that he burst into tears. He looked at Ye Changye's tomb and murmured, "Brother Ye, today, Chen's son has turned into a dragon when he met the wind, and not only has he conquered the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, but he has also become the head of the Ye family in a matter of minutes.

Tang Sihai's feelings were no different from Gu Yanzhong's.

He was a loyal servant of Ye Chang Ying and had lived until now for this day, so his whole body was already full of tears without realising it.

The Ye family, on the other hand, had mixed feelings at this time.

The joy was that a great crisis had completely dissipated.

The sad thing was that it probably seemed as if Ye Chen had just sent himself to the throne of the Ye family head with just a casual remark?

Especially Ye Changkong and the others, they immediately smacked out something different from what Ye Chen had just said to Wan Breaking Jun.

Ye Changkong thought to himself at this moment: "Ye Chen just told Wan Breaking Jun that he had just taken over the large and small affairs of the Ye family and that there would be a shortage of manpower in the future. Could it be that Could it be that he wants to sit directly on the position of the Ye family's head today? But But the old man clearly asked him to take over the affairs of the Ye family for the time being, and when this crisis is over, he will have to meekly hand over the power to the old man! This son of a bitch is ready to go along with the water and directly take the throne?!"

Chapter 3416

The other Ye family members, too, had penetrated this layer of meaning, and for a while, everyone's hearts were depressed to the extreme, except for Ye Chen's youngest aunt, Ye Changxiu.

To Ye Changkong, he would rather have Ye Lingshan be trampled down by the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall.

If the old man would rather die than give in, he would also rather Wan Breaking Army simply kill the old man, and then as the first in line heir to the Ye Family, he himself would immediately announce his acceptance of all of Wan Breaking Army's conditions.

That way, he could become the head of the shrunken Ye family by half.

But even if the Ye Family shrank by half, it was still one of the top three in the country.

With the Ye family shrinking and himself on top, the deal felt worth it.

Because he thought the same as Ye Chen, the Ye family had been peaceful for so many years, the old man had sat in the head of the family for so many years, and without a strong external force to break the Ye family's structure, it would be difficult for others to influence the old man's position.

However, the last thing he wanted to see was this current situation.

Wan Breaking Jun had cooled off, and as a result, Ye Chen had come up.

Moreover, Ye Chen's methods were so strong that when he became the head of the Ye family, everyone else, including Ye Changkong, would instantly lose all the power of speech.

In the future, they would only be able to beg for food under Ye Chen's hand!

Elder Ye was also feeling a little hard in his heart at this time.

He was a human being, so how could he not know what Ye Chen meant by those words just now.

Now that Ye Chen had returned to the Ye Family and defeated the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall on Ye Ling Mountain with his own strength, no one dared to say a word against Ye Chen taking charge of the Ye Family's affairs and becoming the Ye Family's head, including him, Ye Zhongquan.

However, he was directly pulled down by Ye Chen's words, so naturally, Ye Zhongquan was more or less depressed in his heart.

He thought sadly in his heart, "When Song Taizu Zhao Kuangyin was releasing his military power with a cup of wine, he at least invited everyone to a meal and gave them a toast, but when it comes to me, a conversation with someone else has taken away my position? At least say hello to me directly can ah"

Ye Zhongquan felt like he was entertaining his grandson who had been away from home for many years, telling him to treat this place as his own home and never be polite, but this grandson of his, in the blink of an eye, found a maid and said, "From now on this is my own home, it's too big for me to manage, so you can stay and help me"

This feeling, indeed, was hard for him to accept.

Although he had already made up his mind to pass the Ye family to Ye Chen in the future, he would prefer it to be after this matter had passed, to gradually reuse Ye Chen and gradually cultivate him himself, and to help him on his horse a little bit while letting go of power to Ye Chen himself a little bit.

In this way, the transition of power would be smooth and he would be able to continue to sit firmly in the position of the Ye family head for a few more years.

However, Ye Zhongquan also knew that Ye Chen, with his strength, did not need him to help him on his horse.

In the midst of his sighing and lamenting as well as his depression and displeasure, Ye Zhongquan, however, gradually thought out of the box.

He knew that only Ye Chen could bring the Ye family to the top of the world.

In the face of this goal, what was the point of continuing to hold the position of family head?

Rather, it would be better to simply let Ye Chen take over as soon as possible!

That way, one could also win more favour with Ye Chen!

After all, those ancient emperors who lived to abdicate did not have a good life, so if he could make Ye Chen feel better, even if he could not take over the reins of the Ye family in the future, he would have to be a number two person who could exist like a good luck charm!

Thinking of this, Ye Zhongquan's heart finally felt more comfortable.

However, before Ye Zhongquan's expression relaxed along with his mood, Ye Zhongquan, who had been quietly observing his father's face, noticed that his father seemed a bit depressed and immediately knew that the old man must have a problem with Ye Chen in his heart.

So, he immediately stepped forward and said in a low voice: "Dad! Ye Chen is trying to usurp the throne! When did he take over the affairs of our Ye family? Isn't this a clear attempt to take away your power?!"

Ye Zhongquan turned his face around and glared at him with eyes wide with anger, slapping him directly across the face!

With a slap, it directly smacked Ye Changkong in both eyes!

At that moment, he could only hear the old man's righteous anger roar, "Bastard! How dare you provoke my relationship with Chen'er! What the hell is your intention? I'll put it right here today! All of you Ye family descendants listen to me clearly: from today onwards, the position of Ye family head is Chen'er's!"

Chapter 3417

No one expected that the aged Elder Ye would suddenly say something like this like a thunderbolt.

When these words came out, everyone knew that it must have been Ye Changkong who had backstabbed the old man and wanted to say something bad about Ye Chen to sow discord, but he had not expected to be slapped by the old man in a righteous manner.

What was even more shocking was that Elder Ye had suddenly announced that he would formally pass on the Ye family's headship to Ye Chen!

In this instant, Ye Chen's men and friends were all incomparably excited and were even on the verge of cheering out.

The vast majority of the Ye family, on the other hand, were all in tears, much uglier than the moment when Wan Bajun had Lu Hao Tian killed at his door with his coffin.

With the old man in power, each of them could make a lot of oil and water from the Ye family's business, and with the huge annual dividends and bonuses, everyone was living comfortably.

However, everyone knew that once Ye Chen became the head of the family, it was basically the end.

How could Ye Chen, with his iron-blooded personality, allow them to make money? When the time came, he would be like Zhu Yuanzhang back then, keeping an extremely tight eye on the finances and not leaving them any extra room.

Ye Changkong was even more grief-stricken as he choked in his heart, "What the fuck is this? I came here with good intentions to remind the old man that power was slipping away, but the old man gave me a slap in the face and gave the family headship to Ye Chen straight away.

Ye Zhongquan looked at Ye Changkong at this moment, and what he was thinking was: "I was robbed of the family headship by Chen's son without a word, and I didn't even earn the title of giving up the position.

"So what if you are my own son? Do you think I don't know what you have in mind? I knew about you asking Ye Feng to buy mourning clothes overnight last night! You bastard, you want me to beg for forgiveness after I'm killed by the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, right? In the future, when Chen'er is in charge of the Ye family, you'll have your work cut out for you!"

Ye Changkong had no idea what was in the old man's mind, he only knew one thing, he was afraid that he would be finished in the future.

At this moment, when Ye Chen heard that the old master was going to pass the family headship directly to himself, he was also slightly surprised.

However, after thinking carefully, he probably figured out what was in the old man's mind.

The reason he had just told Wan Xiaojun that was to directly name himself as being in charge of the Ye family's affairs, which was tantamount to becoming the actual person in charge.

The old man must know that he is powerless to return to heaven, and now he is taking the initiative to give way to show his goodwill and earn a favor.

In the end, they are all human beings.

As for Ye Changkong, he must have been used as a stepping stone by the old master.

He himself stepped on Wan Breaking Jun to the throne this time, and the old master stepped on Ye Changkong to step down, and it had to be said that both had a similarity.

So, Ye Chen said, "In the future, with me, the Ye family will be able to continue to develop and create further glory!"

Ye Zhongquan stepped forward, grabbed Ye Chen's hand and said excitedly, "Chen's son, from now on, you alone will be in charge of all the affairs of the Ye family, I believe that in your hands, the Ye family will definitely stand at the top of the world!"

Ye Chen nodded heavily and said seriously, "I will do my best!"

After saying that, he looked at the Ye family's uncles and brothers and said lightly, "Moreover, the Ye family has lived in peace for so many years that many of their bones have gone soft, so I have to take this opportunity of the Ancestral Ritual to give them a good calcium supplement!"

After that, Ye Chen said to He Hongsheng, "Old Mr. He, please keep an eye on everyone in my Ye family for me, anyone who dares to quietly throw something out of their body, especially something like mourning clothes, will be tied up on the spot for me!"

Chapter 3418

When the vast majority of the Ye family heard this, they were all instantly frightened.

Because they were all still carrying their mourning clothes in their clothes, the process of Ye Chen subduing the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall just now was so shocking that the gang had completely forgotten about the mourning clothes.

Only when they were told by Ye Chen, did they remember that they still had a bomb tugged on them.

The gang instantly panicked, not knowing what Ye Chen planned to do to them next.

At this time, Ye Chen paid no further attention to the Ye family, but looked at the crowd of Ten Thousand Dragon Hall generals kneeling before him.

In the middle of the crowd of generals, there was also a shivering old man mixed in. Although this old man was also kneeling on the ground, he had been looking to his left and right, as if he was looking for an opportunity to bolt.

This man, was the Su family head, Su Chengfeng.

Su Chengfeng's intestines were turning blue at this time, and he lamented in his heart, "If I had known that this Wan Breaking Jun was so unbearable in front of Ye Chen, I would never have come to Ye Lingshan even if I had been invited in a palanquin"

"As a result, I followed so far in mourning by myself, and ended up here and jumped into the fire"

"Now I don't know how to end it, I don't know if I can find a chance to quietly bail out"

Just when Su Chengfeng was inwardly depressed, Ye Chen pointed at him in the crowd, who was also kneeling there in mourning and indiscriminately, and said indifferently, "Su Chengfeng, you old dog don't think of slipping away either, give me an honest kneeling, I still have to settle accounts with you slowly!"

Hearing this, Su Chengfeng was frightened and pleaded, "Mr. Ye Mr. Ye This I have nothing to do here, I I just came to pay my respects to Mr. and Mrs. Wan Liancheng, I don't mean anything else!"

Ye Chen frowned: "Come, explain to me, you worship the Wan Liancheng couple, why did you come to my Ye family ancestral tomb?"

"I I" Su Chengfeng didn't know how to explain all of a sudden, panicking and trembling as if he instantly got Parkinson's.

Ye Chen questioned him, "What? You dare to come to my Ye family's ancestral tomb in mourning and don't have the guts to admit that you came to watch the show?"

Su Chengfeng wept and forced himself to defend, "Mr. Ye, you really misunderstood me, I didn't mean it"

Ye Chen sneered, "You didn't expect to come to see a big show, but the stage collapsed, right? Let me ask you, do you regret it now?"

Su Chengfeng's expression was even worse than his dead father's, and he stammered, "Mr. Ye I I really didn't come to watch the show I My son Su Shoudao was very close to Mr. and Mrs. Wan Liancheng, so I came to pay my respects out of affection, but I just didn't expect something like this to happen This is all a misunderstanding, a misunderstanding"

"Misunderstanding?" Ye Chen questioned in a cold voice: "At this kind of time, you still think of strong words, I see that you, the Su family head's IQ is not high either!"

Su Chengfeng had the heart to die and lamented in his heart, "It's not a matter of my IQ, it's that I really don't have any good reasons anymore"

Seeing his uncomfortable expression, Ye Chen pointed at the soldier of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall beside Su Chengfeng and said coldly, "You, slap his mouth for me fiercely!"

"My subordinate follows orders!" After that man finished speaking, he grabbed Su Chengfeng's collar and slapped him several times with his mouth from left to right.

Su Chengfeng was not used to this and cried out, "I am the head of the Su family! I am a global business elite! I am the head of the Su family! How can you treat me with such impunity!"

Ye Chen sneered and said indifferently, "The Su family head? Sorry, you used to be, but now you're not!"

Chapter 3419

Ye Chen's words startled Su Chengfeng.

The more frightened he was, the louder he roared, "On what grounds?! I have been the Su family head for so many years, why should I not be if you say I am not anymore?! Who are you to interfere with the affairs of my Su Family? I am the master of the Su Family, and I have to be the one to decide on all the affairs of the Su Family!"

Ye Chen said disdainfully, "Of course I'm not qualified to meddle in the affairs of your Su Family, but you're now in Ye Lingshan, I can't control the Su Family, but I can control you!"

Su Chengfeng stiffened his head and said, "You can't control me either! I'm free to come and go, who are you to control me?"

Ye Chen said in a cold voice: "Just because you came to my Ye Ling Mountain of the Ye Family today in mourning! If you hadn't come, I wouldn't have given you a hard time, and if the Su family still had any discontent in the future, we would have had plenty of opportunities to have a real competition in various fields, but your mistake is that you took the initiative to send yourself to the door, and since you are here, everything is up to me!"

With that, he shouted sternly he pointed his finger towards Su Zhiyu and said to Su Chengfeng, "Su Chengfeng! I now give you two choices, first, legally pass the family headship to Su Zhiyu, then you yourself go to the Maldives and find an island to retire, when you die, when you come back in a coffin!"

At this point, Ye Chen's voice rose sharply and he sneered, "The second option is that I will immediately send you to Syria with your eldest son Su Shoudao, but I have to remind you that the quality of life there is no match for the Maldives, and don't worry, with my connections there, you won't be able to come back alive, and even if you die, you won't be able to return. ."

Su Chengfeng's heart suddenly stuttered and he subconsciously blurted out, "You You're kidnapping! Do you know that I am an elite figure of great renown all over the world? You dare to kidnap me?"

Ye Chen laughed, "I don't care to kidnap a bad old man like you."

After saying that, he looked at Wan Bajun and spoke, "Go back and arrange for someone to send him to Hamid, and I will also say hello to the government forces at that time, so that they can release the captured generals of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall."

Wan Breaking Jun immediately said respectfully, "My subordinate obeys my orders!"

Ye Chen then looked at Su Chengfeng and spoke, "As you can see, I, Ye Chen, have always been law-abiding, how could I possibly kidnap a bad old man like you? But if the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall strikes, then you'll have to fend for yourself."

"I" Su Chengfeng instantly trembled with fear and blurted out, "Ye Chen You You are simply shameless! You are not as bright and open as your father Ye Chang Ying was back then! If your father were here today, he would certainly not make things difficult for an old man like me!"

Ye Chen said sternly with a cold expression, "My father was too open and honest back then, that's why he was targeted by your gang of trash."

After saying that, Ye Chen said with some impatience, "Since you're so fucking full of crap, I'll assume that you'll choose the second one."

Then, he said to a few of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall soldiers, "You guys give him to me, tie him up, and when you get to Syria and hand him over to Hamid, tell Hamid not to untie him either, just set up a pillar at the top of the mountain and trap him naked on it, and eat, drink, shit and sleep on it!"

Several generals of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall immediately said respectfully, "My subordinates obey my orders!"

When Su Chengfeng heard this, he couldn't help but shiver and blurted out, "I'm not going to Syria! I won't go!"

Ye Chen said impatiently, "Gag him first, and then tie him to the Chinese white jade pillar of the pagoda! Tomorrow, pack him up and send him away with Su Shoudao!"

When Su Shoudao heard this, he was terrified and said hurriedly, "Dad! You can't go to Syria, that place is a poor mountain nest and there's constant fighting every day, it's 10,000 times more painful than going to jail!"

Chapter 3420

To Su Shoudao, he did not want to go back for the millionth time.

However, he also knew very well in his heart that even if he begged Ye Chen as much as he could, it was impossible for Ye Chen to change his mind.

The only way to save him from having to return to Syria was to hurry up and let his daughter Su Zhiyu become the head of the Su family.

This was because Ye Chen had said that once Su Zhiyu became the head of the family, Su Shoudao could return.

Just now, when he heard that Ye Chen wanted the old man to give up his position, the first and only possibility that came to his mind was that Ye Chen wanted his daughter Su Zhiyu to take the position of the Su family's head.

But just when he felt that his time was about to come, he didn't expect that the old man would dare to disobey Ye Chen's wishes, wasn't this asking for trouble?

Su Chengfeng was also in disarray at this point.

He had previously thought that he was at least the head of the top family in China, so Ye Chen could not get himself sent abroad, otherwise if word of this got out, the Ye family would definitely become a target.

However, Ye Chen was no fool, he certainly could not blatantly kidnap Su Chengfeng himself, so he simply let the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple do the job.

A mercenary organisation like the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall would dare to fight even the civil wars of other countries, not to mention a mere Su Chengfeng.

Therefore, at this time, Su Chengfeng's heart was already panicked to the extreme.

Su Shoudao was afraid that Su Chengfeng would annoy Ye Chen and end up in a wooden boat, so he shouted out of the blue, "Dad! You must not think that Ye Chen is joking with you! I've been sent to Syria for a long time! Look at me now, I'm so fucking skinny! And not only did he kidnap me, but Shoude has been held in a dog pound for months, and he hasn't even had a chance to release me yet! If you don't give in, Ye Chen will definitely send you to Syria. If you're really sent to Syria, you'll be lucky to live for a year and a half!"

Hearing this, Su Chengfeng felt his liver tremble.

It was only then that he finally understood that Ye Chen was able to subdue the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple and kidnap even his own two sons, so he could not have just scared himself.

If he was really sent to Syria, he would not be able to escape even if he had the strength to do so. He had heard of that Hamid's ability, and even the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple could not attack him.

In that case, the only thing that awaited him would be death!

At that moment, the soldiers of the Ten Thousand Dragons Palace had already grabbed him by the arms and one of them took out a towel for some unknown purpose and tried to stuff it into his mouth.

At this moment, Su Chengfeng's face turned pale with fear, his eyes widened and he said desperately, "Don't tie me up! I'll take the first one! I'll choose the first one!"

After saying that, he looked at Ye Chen and choked up, "Mr. Ye, I am willing to give up the family headship to Zhiyu, so I beg you to be noble and let me go! I'll sign all the paperwork and move to the Maldives!"

"Also the Maldives" Ye Chen said in a cold voice: "I told you to choose earlier but you didn't, now the conditions have changed! Maldives you don't think about it, there is a country in Africa called Madagascar, do you want to know about it in advance?!"
