

Ye Chen 3431

Chapter 3431

Ye Chen's original intention was to take out a rejuvenation pill to give to Helena.

Half of them would be given to Helena to cure her illness, while the remaining half would be for her to bring back to the Nordic Queen whose life was in danger.

As long as she could return to Northern Europe and meet the Queen, she could divide the remaining half of the rejuvenating elixir into two and give one of them to the Queen first, and she would certainly be able to revive her from her deep coma.

The other half could then be used as a condition for the Queen to give up the throne to her.

And when the empress saw the efficacy of the Spring Return Pill, she would definitely do her best to help her to the throne.

Ye Chen believed that for an old man who was already in a deep coma and terminally ill, being able to wake up again would be like living again.

Therefore, she would definitely treasure this opportunity extremely.

If she could obtain a second copy of the Spring Return Pill, her life could continue in good health for at least a few more years or even longer, so I believe she would not be able to resist this temptation.

However, now Ye Chen had suddenly heard that Helena's sister named Olivia was going to intermarry with the Rothschild family.

Therefore, he wanted to go to Northern Europe to see for himself what the purpose of the Rothschild family's marriage with the Nordic royal family was, and to touch the Rothschild family's line in the process.

As soon as Helena heard Ye Chen say that he would go to Northern Europe with her, she was naturally overjoyed.

She had witnessed Ye Chen's strength with her own eyes and knew that if Ye Chen took the plunge, he would definitely be able to get himself to the throne!

Not only would she be able to save her mother, but she would also be able to completely wipe out her past shame!

So, she said to Ye Chen with immense gratitude, "Mr. Ye, thank you!"

Ye Chen waved his hand, looked at the people around him and said, "Thank you all for coming to Mount Yehling today despite the dangers, most of you have come a long way, why don't you go to the Buckingham Palace Hotel to rest later? "

Ito Nana-chan hurriedly said, "Ye Chen-kun, you have business to attend to, don't worry about us, moreover we didn't help this time, how can we afford to thank you personally by hosting a banquet"

Ye Chen said very seriously, "Cai Cai Zi, we Chinese people are concerned about love and righteousness, although today's battle between me and the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple did not bring you all to war with the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple, but this love and righteousness of you all who are still willing to come to help me Ye Chen at such a time is heavier than a thousand gold in my eyes."

Gu Yanzhong stood out at this moment and said with a smile, "Gentlemen, all of you who are gathered here today consider Chen'er to be a good friend, a confidant and even a family member. Since Chen'er has said this, you may as well wait for a while in Yanjing and drink a few cups with Chen'er after the Ye family's ancestral ritual!"

Hearing this, Elder Song immediately said, "Since Grandmaster Ye has said so, I will wait until Grandmaster Ye has finished the ancestral ceremony, and then we can have a drink together!"

Ito Yohiko also said, "Mr. Ye! Please be sure to prepare some more good Chinese wine tonight! I will not return until I am drunk!"

Ye Chen smiled and said, "Don't worry, Mr. Ito, we will have enough good wine!"

Then, Ye Chen looked at Song Wanting and said, "Wanting, please arrange for the bus to take everyone to Buckingham Palace for a short rest."

Chapter 3432

5-6 minutes

Song Wanting immediately agreed and said in a soft voice, "Don't worry, Master Ye, Wanting will get everyone set up."

"Good." Ye Chen once again arched his hand to the crowd and said with a clasped fist, "Gentlemen, later on is the Ye Family Ancestral Ceremony, so I would like to ask you all to go to the hotel to rest first, after the Ancestral Ceremony is over, I will go there at the first opportunity!"

The crowd also knew that the Ye Family Ancestral Ceremony was only held once every twelve years and was solemn, and it was not a public ceremony, so it was not really appropriate for the crowd to stay here and watch.

So, everyone bid farewell to Ye Chen and Ye Zhongquan and left Ye Lingshan on the bus arranged by Song Wanting and Ito Nana-chan, heading for the Buckingham Palace Hotel in Yanjing.

After the number of buses had left, apart from the soldiers of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall who were kneeling on the ground, and the Su family, the rest were all Ye family members and their butler Tang Sihai.

The Ten Thousand Dragons Hall was led by Wan Xiaojun, and nearly a hundred people knelt in a pyramid shape, all of them putting their legs together and bending their arms while knocking their foreheads on the ground.

After all, they were all practitioners, so each of them maintained the same angle and posture as they knelt, looking neat and tidy.

Moreover, they all knelt on the ground one by one in an incomparable state of devotion.

As for the Su family's father and son, although they didn't dare to be lazy, after all, their body strength couldn't support them, and after kneeling for a short time, their bodies couldn't support them, so they could only let their upper bodies lie on the ground.

The kneeling posture of the two men was almost identical to that of Song Jiang in the old TV series "Water Margin".

On the Ye family's side, Ye Changkong, Ye Feng and the others looked at Ye Chen apprehensively, afraid that he would settle accounts with them at this time.

Ye Chen watched the bus convoy descend the mountain and slowly turned around, staring at the Ye family with a torch-like gaze as he said in a cold voice, "Today, in front of the Ye family's ancestors, I am officially taking over the Ye family's affairs, big and small, and the first thing I will do after taking over is to give the soft-boned Ye family's heirs a good calcium supplement!"

Hearing Ye Chen's words, the faint-hearted crowd could not help but shiver, as they looked at Ye Chen's stance, they knew that he was about to start his liquidation.

At this moment, Elder Ye, who had just had the power of the Ye family taken away by Ye Chen with a single word, spoke righteously, "Chen'er! The Ye family is in such a state now, it really needs to be fixed! Don't be lenient just because you care about your family!"

Ye Chen nodded his head and said coldly, "Of course! Some of the descendants of the Ye family, in order to live on, have left the dignity and interests of the Ye family behind, have given up their ancestral graves and family business, and have even prepared mourning clothes in advance to wear mourning for those who are not their relatives or friends to pray for forgiveness.

All the Ye family members who were carrying mourning clothes were so nervous that their legs were shaking.

Ye Changmin, who was most scornful of Ye Chen, knelt down on the ground with a poof and choked with snot and tears, "Chen'er Auntie is wrong I'm sorry to the ancestors of the Ye family You are now the head of the Ye family, no matter how you chastise me, auntie will have no complaints"

As she cried, she pulled out the mourning clothes hidden in her arms and threw them on the ground, crying in remorse, "Chen'er, please, for the sake of aunt's being the first to know her mistake and admit her punishment, give aunt a lighter sentence, in the future, aunt will definitely not do it again

Ye Changkong, Ye Changyun and the others instantly looked dumbfounded.

They wondered why Ye Changmin, who had the strongest character, was the first to admit her mistake this time, but it turned out that she wanted to steal the top prize in order to get a lighter sentence!

Ye Changkong's teeth itched with hatred and he cursed in his heart, "How in the world did Changmin grow up with this brain? Even a wallflower is not as quick as her reaction!"

Chapter 3433

4-5 minutes

Ye Changmin is indeed very clever.

She knew that when so many people were equally guilty, whoever admitted their fault first would have the upper hand.

Moreover, she knew far more about Ye Chen's deeds than the others and had experienced them first-hand.

She had heard before about the way Ye Chen had acted when he had rectified several experts of the Wu family in Suhang.

At that time, he had Hong Wu carve words on the brains of those few people, and whoever was the first to admit punishment would have the fewest words carved, and for each person that followed, the number of words would be increased by one.

At the end of the day, it is said that the man's head was not even carved with enough words.

With these previous experiences, how could Ye Changmin allow others to kneel in front of her?

Ye Chen also did not expect that Ye Changmin would kneel so quickly, so he spoke, "You are my aunt, a thousand wrongs are still my elders, even if I am now the head of the Ye family, the division between elders and youngsters cannot be messed up, so you should not kneel to me, if you want to kneel, you should kneel to the ancestors of the Ye family!"

Ye Changmin's brain reacted with great speed and immediately adjusted her direction with both knees while kneeling, looking towards the ancestral grave of the Ye family not far away.

Immediately afterwards, she knocked her head on the ground with a bang and cried, "Your ancestors are here! My unworthy grandson, Ye Changmin, failed to put the face of the ancestors and the interests of the Ye family first, and nearly betrayed the ancestors for glory and recognized the thief as his father. I beg the ancestors to condemn me!"

Ye Changmin was now completely convinced.

She knew that the most important thing at the moment was to get Ye Chen's forgiveness, otherwise, one word from Ye Chen could make her, the married Ye family's daughter, get out of the Ye family instantly.

In that case, she would really be left with nothing.

When Ye Chen saw that Ye Changmin had been so good-natured, he was a little amused in his heart.

However, he nodded with approval on his face and said, "You are the first to admit your mistake and take the initiative to confess to the ancestors of the Ye family, which proves that you are more conscious than the others.

As soon as Ye Chen said this, Ye Changkong, Ye Feng, as well as Ye Changyun, Ye Hao and the others, all ran like mad to the front of the Ye family's ancestral tomb, each grabbing the middlemost spot and kneeling on the ground with a poof, without saying a word, they began to kowtow desperately and confess their mistakes.

For a while, the rhythm of these people's desperate kowtowing was just like the Liang's oil pumping machine commonly known as the kowtowing machine used for oil extraction, which looked quite comical.

Ye Chen didn't say anything, but just watched them with expressionless faces as they made this scramble to kowtow and confess.

Ye Chen knew very well in his heart that his aunt Ye Changmin was really convinced, and since she was really convinced, she could naturally still stay and serve the Ye family in the future, but the gang in front of him now, each and every one of them was full of flamboyance, and no one could be forgiven lightly!

This group of people banged for half a day, but the more they banged, the more painful it was, and the more they banged, the more they lost their bottom.

They originally thought that as long as they behaved positively and piously, Ye Chen would definitely be as lenient as he had been with Ye Changmin.

But to their surprise, they had been kowtowing for half a day, but Ye Chen had not even said a word.

None of them dared to stop, they could only kowtow one after another, one after another, their heads turning blue and purple.

It was Ye Chen's sister-in-law, Ye Changxiu, who could not stand it anymore and said, "Chen'er If you keep kowtowing like this, you'll get killed"

Chapter 3434

5-7 minutes

Ye Chen shook his head and said indifferently, "Don't worry, Little Aunt, these people, one by one, are all cowardly and incompetent rats who are afraid of death, otherwise they wouldn't have been able to sneak out to buy mourning clothes last night! Since they are all so afraid of death, how could they knock themselves to death here? It's not logical."

Saying that, he obviously saw that Ye Feng's kowtowing was obviously much less vigorous, and as soon as he saw that he was kowtowing indiscriminately, he said coldly, "Little Aunt, have you seen Ye Feng? That forehead of his is just kissing the ground, it doesn't look like he's making any effort at all!"

When Ye Feng heard this, he was scared and his back broke into a cold sweat, so he hurriedly knocked his head down hard, baring his teeth in pain!

Ye Chen turned to look at Ye Zhongquan and asked, "Grandpa, who is in charge of the various businesses of the Ye family now?"

Ye Zhongquan said, "The core business of the Ye family is basically in the hands of a team of managers, at first your father was worried that the family members were uneducated, so he insisted on setting up a team of elite professional managers. or top venture capital institutions."

"In addition, we have a very professional team of elite lawyers who are responsible for all the legal work of the Ye family."

"Oh yes, in addition to these two boards, there is also a trust team, responsible for putting the portion of cash that the family cannot use into the family trust for investment and management."

Ye Chen was surprised and pointed to the row of people kneeling and kowtowing on the floor and opened his mouth to ask, "Don't any of these people do anything?"

Ye Zhongquan shook his head and said, "If the Ye family was really left in their charge, I'm afraid it would have collapsed long ago! They are all hanging around, with vice chairmen, general managers and directors, but they are not actually responsible for the business and decisions, there are internal decisions by the team of managers for small decisions, and I basically make the big decisions, but you will have to make the decisions from now on."

Ye Chen nodded and said indifferently, "Since these people are of little practical use, then why not just get them all out of Ye's group, out of sight, out of mind."

As soon as Ye Changkong, who was about to faint from kowtowing, heard these words, he immediately got up and asked offhandedly, "Ye Chen You Where are you going to get us?!"

Ye Chen said, "Don't worry, we won't let you guys go far."

Saying that, Ye Chen added, "Don't you guys like to wear mourning? Since you are so filial, I will have someone install some simple houses for you at the foot of Ye Ling Mountain. All of you who are eighteen years old or older, or who are no longer in school, one by one, will stay here to properly observe mourning for the ancestors of the Ye family for three years!"

"During these three years, I will have someone put electronic shackles on your feet and monitor your location 24 hours a day, no one will be allowed to leave Ye Ling Mountain for half a step!"

As soon as Ye Feng heard this, his whole body almost fainted, declining and powerless, he wailed, "Ye Chen You can't be so cruel, Ye Chen! I am your cousin! I'm the eldest grandson of the Ye family! You can't imprison me on Mount Ye Ling!"

After saying that, he immediately said to Su Chengfeng, "It just so happens that you will be going to Madagascar as a landlord soon, so when the time comes, bring this guy along with you and let him work for you as a long servant for three years!"

Upon hearing this, Ye Feng broke down on the spot and cried, "Ye Chen, I am willing to observe mourning for my ancestors at Ye Ling Mountain! I am the eldest son and grandson, how can I be absent from the mourning service"

Ye Chen waved his hand, "Don't take yourself too seriously, it's perfectly fine to observe mourning without you, without you here to embarrass yourself, the old ancestors' faces look better too."

After saying that, he added in a cold voice, "Ye Feng, from now on, if you bargain with me again, I'll turn three years into six!"

Ye Feng wailed and collapsed to the ground on the spot.

Ye Changkong was heartbroken for his son, but also for himself, so he hurriedly asked, "You're asking us to stay here and observe mourning for the old ancestor for three years, what about our food and drink?"

Ye Chen said indifferently, "I will have your food and drink brought to you regularly."

Ye Changkong asked again, "What about What about if you get sick?"

Ye Chen said expressionlessly, "If you get sick, I will arrange for a doctor from the Ye Family Hospital to come to your home to treat you! If any of you get seriously ill and need surgery or hospitalization, I'll build you a field hospital at the foot of Ye Ling Mountain! In short, for the next three years, even if the sky falls, you cannot leave Ye Lingshan without my permission!"

Chapter 3435

4-5 minutes

The kneeling Ye family members did not expect Ye Chen to be so ruthless and cruel.

They were all family members, the first sons and grandsons of the Ye family, but he was going to imprison them all on Ye Ling Mountain and force them to observe mourning for their ancestors for three years!

To these rich people who were used to enjoying themselves, even three days was unacceptable, let alone three years!

So, the people hurriedly looked at Ye Zhongquan, waiting for him to put in a good word for them.

Ye Zhongquan looked at the pitiful eyes of the group and felt some compassion in his heart.

He did support Ye Chen to punish these spineless sons and grandsons properly, but he did not expect Ye Chen to play so hard as soon as he started.

Thus, he could not help but say to Ye Chen, "Chen'er, making them observe mourning for their ancestors is indeed a good punishment, but three years would be a little too long?"

"Long?" Ye Chen said seriously, "You mustn't forget what ideas they all had in mind! They bought the mourning clothes secretly without communicating with you, clearly wanting to wait until today when you are face to face with Wan Bajun and then turn against them temporarily. What kind of intention is this? They want to put you to death and then step on your corpse to join the enemy after you are dead! Do you think that three years of mourning is too long a punishment for such a person?"

Ye Zhongquan's expression suddenly flinched.

He also understood this truth.

It was just that he had deliberately not thought about it at this level.

But if one really got to the bottom of it, the truth was actually what Ye Chen had said.

At this moment, Ye Changkong said in tears, "Dad! We really didn't mean it, you mustn't misunderstand, dad!"

The others also spoke out and pleaded, hoping that the old man would not be affected by Ye Chen's words.

However, Ye Zhongquan let out a long sigh, waved his hand and said to himself, "I'm getting old, my heart is softer, and I'm getting more and more womanly Forget it, whatever!"

After that, he said to Ye Chen, "Chen'er, whether it's three years or five years, it's all up to you!"

The first option is to not say another word, and if you say one more word, it will be considered not accepted. Those who don't accept have a second option, which is to do the same as Ye Feng and go to Madagascar!"

As soon as these words came out, everyone immediately shut their mouths.

This was because, Ye Chen was not only the head of the Ye family, but also the new master of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, with his comprehensive strength here, no one dared to disobey him.

Seeing that the group of people were all as honest as quails, Ye Chen nodded in satisfaction and spoke, "Since you all have no opinion, then the three years will start today!"

To Ye Chen, this group of kneeling Ye family members had no value to the Ye family.

They were like the second generation of losers from a top-tier rich family, who couldn't do anything, didn't have enough to eat, didn't have much ability and still pretended to be a pussy all day long.

Even though he knew that these people were not capable, he still thought that they were his own bloodline, so of course he should take good care of them.

But in Ye Chen's view, these people were completely the assholes of the Ye family.

Moreover, they were a bunch of spineless assholes.

After Ye Chen took over the Ye family, the first thing he had to do was to find a way to jerk these people off from their respective positions, lest they become indiscriminate and corporeal.

Chapter 3436

4-5 minutes

However, after all, these people were all Ye family bloodlines, all first sons and grandsons, and if they did not make any major mistakes, it was not really easy to jerk them off.

If they were forcibly removed, they would be rejected by everyone in the Ye family and would be perceived very badly by the outside world.

But the beauty of it was that these people had taken the initiative to present Ye Chen with a perfect opportunity to fix things.

If these people had not secretly gone to buy mourning clothes last night, Ye Chen would not have been able to abolish them all in such a justifiable manner.

Now, just when Ye Chen couldn't find a good way to strip them out of the Ye family, they all took the initiative to send them to his door.

This, in a similar vein to Wan Breaking Army taking the initiative to come to his door.

At this moment, Ye Changmin looked at Ye Chen with a frightened heart and asked nervously with apprehension, "Chen'er What about What about auntie Auntie was at least the first to admit her mistake You also said just now that you want to give auntie a chance to be sentenced lightly"

"Of course." Ye Chen gently nodded and said, "Of all of them, you are the one with the best attitude to admit your mistakes and also the fastest, so naturally, you should be given a leniency this time."

Saying that, Ye Chen was silent for a moment and added, "How about this, you stay here and observe mourning with them for three days, and after three days go back to the Ye family to take good care of grandfather."

As soon as Ye Changmin heard this, two lines of hot tears flowed out from her excitement.

Everyone else was given three years, but she was only given three days!

At this moment, Ye Changmin, who already completely regarded Ye Chen as the savior, was already a little incoherent with excitement, and even her voice trembled a little as she said, "Chen Chen'er Thank you Thank you for being generous to your aunt Don't worry From now on, I will will definitely cleanse her heart and become a new person!"

Ye Chen's expression was calm as he nodded his head.

It was not that he really wanted to take care of Ye Changmin, but at times like this, it was to create a huge gap for the others.

As the saying went, those who obeyed me prospered and those who disobeyed me perished.

The one who prospers and the one who dies is the biggest gap.

This was also giving the Ye family's gang, a clear signal.

In the future, in the Ye family, they must obey their own words.

Ye Chen also knew very well that if he wanted to ensure that nothing like this would happen to the Ye Family in the future, he had to use strong power and firmly control the entire Ye Family!

After everything was disposed of, Ye Chen said to Ye Zhongquan, "Grandpa, things are almost settled, it's time to start the ancestral ritual!"

Ye Zhongquan nodded heavily, "Good!"

The ancestral rituals of the Ye family were originally very grand.

Before the ancestral ritual, the four forms of rituals, namely music, song, dance and rituals, were not in any way inferior to the Confucius Temple's Confucian rituals.

And the variety of offerings prepared for use as sacrificial offerings was also extremely rich.

In order to organise the ancestral rituals, the Ye family has to hire a professional director and a full choreography team every time, with costumes, props, actors and sound, all of which are top-notch.

Chapter 3437

6-7 minutes

But today, none of the staff members who had agreed to do the job came.

Everyone knew that the Ye family was going to suffer a disaster today, so everyone avoided it.

Not to mention these paid actors and actresses, even the 700-odd members of the Ye family branch had all run away, leaving only Ye Zhongzhuo alone.

So, this time, the ancestral ritual had to cut out many processes.

Ye Zhongquan held the sacrificial text he had written overnight for many days, and while shedding tears, he sighed: "This sacrificial text, written all about the Ye family's prosperity, unity and renewed glory, is a report I have prepared to the Ye family's ancestors"

At this point, Ye Zhongquan let out a long sigh and said with a sigh of relief, "But who would have thought that today, all 700 members of the Ye family's side line would be absent! And my first son and grandson, Ye Zhongquan's first son and grandson, are even wearing mourning for others! I I am so ashamed of my ancestors that I don't even have the face to read out this sacrificial text"

"Moreover, the process of ancestor worship that was originally prepared has now almost come to a halt, and I don't know how to explain to the ancestors"

Ye Zhongquan said, suddenly a little emotional, a few times choked up, it is difficult to continue.

He was a man with deep family feelings, at least much stronger than those sons of the Ye family who were kneeling in place.

It was particularly hard for him to think of the once-in-12-years ancestral ritual being so shabby and depressed.

When he thought of the more than 100 ancestors of the Ye family lying here, his feelings were even more painful.

He had long since passed the age of knowing his destiny, and at this age, an old man cherishes life more and reveres his deceased ancestors more.

Even for those who were fearless and faithless when they were young, when they reach the end of their lives, they can't help but think of their parents and their ancestors, and whether they will see them in the other world after they die, and if they do, how they should face them.

The Ye family almost bowed their heads in shame when they saw the way the old man was choking up.

On the other hand, Ye Chen took the sacrificial paper he had written and tore it to shreds, speaking with a resolute face, "Grandpa, since the sacrificial paper is inappropriate, then just tear it up, there is no need to blame yourself too much."

As he said, Ye Chen added, "As the saying goes, many difficulties make a nation, and the same is true for a family! This ancestral ritual is a bit shabby and simple, but it has also allowed us to recognize the true nature of many of our so-called relatives!"

"In the future, the Ye family will no longer believe in bloodlines, only in practical actions! All members of the direct line, as well as the side branches, will have to show practical actions if they want to gain benefits from the Ye Family in the future!"

"If anyone still wants to share the wealth but not the hardship, then sorry, I, Ye Chen, will make him pay the price!"

At this point, Ye Chen looked at Tang Sihai and asked him, "Housekeeper Tang, those members of the side line that fled overnight, can they still not be contacted?"

Tang Sihai said awkwardly, "Back to Young Master, they are all still switched off or not in the service area, I guess they won't switch on their phones until the outside world receives a definite message about today's incident."

Ye Chen frowned and spoke, "In that case, when the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall releases the news to the public later and tells the outside world about the Ye Family's admission of defeat today, they will definitely want to draw a clear line with the Ye Family even more, right?"

"I suppose so." Tang Sihai said respectfully, "Young master, in fact, most of the side branches you don't need to pay too much attention to, they don't make any real contribution to the Ye family, on the contrary, they have to share some of the benefits from the Ye family, to the Ye family, these people are just like those small bullet countries back in the days when the ten thousand nations came to pay their respects, every time they rushed to pay their respects, it seemed like they were very pious, but each one of them wanted to eat and drink enough in our heavenly kingdom to go to court, and then take some benefits to leave before they were satisfied. It would be good for the Ye family to draw a clear line with them instead."

Ye Zhongquan also spoke up at this time, "What Sihai said is correct, many side families have been relying on our Ye family's resources to support them. The same business, if given to someone else, may only cost 100 million, but if given to a side family of the Ye family, it may cost 120 million."

Ye Chen said in a cold voice, "Draw the line for sure, but by no means should we let them just walk away without any loss."

Saying that, he looked at Wan Bajun and spoke, "Bajun, have your people put out the word again later on! Say that the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall has gotten the entire list of the Ye Family's ancestral ritual this time, and that all Ye Family members who are not present today must gather at the bottom of Ye Ling Mountain by eight o'clock tomorrow morning, and that anyone who dares not come will be responsible for the consequences!"

Chapter 3438

4-5 minutes

When he heard Ye Chen's order, Wan Bajun immediately said in a loud voice, "Don't worry, Mr. Ye, I will arrange it immediately!"

Ye Chen nodded and smiled coldly, "They think the Ye family is finished and want to clear the air with the Ye family, so if the Ye family had asked them to come, they definitely wouldn't have come, but if it was the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall that asked them to come, I believe they definitely wouldn't dare to act rudely."

Tang Sihai busily asked, "Young Master, what about after they come? As you said, let them kneel and go up to Ye Ling Mountain to repent?"

"It's impossible to spare them so simply." Ye Chen waved his hand and spoke, "Later today, news will be received outside that the Ye family has lost and accepted the harsh conditions of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, so when that time comes, the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall will directly ask them to each take out half of their family assets as well, I believe they wouldn't dare not give it!"

Ye Chen said with an expressionless face, "I am going to drink their blood and eat their flesh, but not from me, but from the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall!"

Saying that, Ye Chen added: "After Wan Long Temple gets their assets, then through the channels of offshore companies, the money will be given back to the Ye family with one hand, it just so happens that I recently want to do ocean shipping, get some money from them, and also buy a few dozen more cargo ships, this gang is more than enough, not to mention, it should still be no problem to take out two to three hundred billion."

Ye Chen spared the death of Wan Breaking Army and took Wan Long Temple under his command, in order to let Wan Long Temple do the dirty work for him.

He had to admit that the deterrent power of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall was still very strong.

Other than that, Wan Bajun had asked Lu Hao Tian to put forward so many harsh conditions yesterday, including giving up half of his family fortune and the entire Ye Ling Mountain, and he had to wear mourning and kneel down to greet them.

But didn't Ye Changkong and Ye Changyun, a bunch of cowardly and fearful incompetent rats, still rush to agree one by one?

Now, if the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall was asked to make the same request as the other Ye family's side lines, the odds were that they would not dare to disobey either.

Ye Zhongquan hesitated for a moment with a complicated expression, but quickly figured it out and spoke: "Fine! Just go ahead and do it! Most of these ungrateful things rely on the Ye family's support to get to where they are today, but when the Ye family is in trouble and they all run away so fast, it's only right to make them pay a price!"

On the side, Ye Zhongzhuo's expression was tense as he spoke, "Chen'er My son and grandson were let go by my hard will, I am old and I will die by my big brother and old ancestor's side, but they are still young, I really can't bear for them to stay and take risks, so I also ask you to be noble to them for the sake of me not running."

Ye Chen nodded and said seriously, "It is indeed touching that second grandfather can stay, as you wish, on your family's side, I will not pursue the matter."

Saying that, Ye Chen said with a cold expression, "But no one else can be exempted except for the second grandfather's family!"

Ye Zhongzhuo was completely relieved and wiped his sweat while saying, "Chen'er, thank you so much"

Ye Chen waved his hand, and then said to Wan Bajun, "Bajun, I have to go to Scandinavia tonight, I definitely won't be back in time at eight o'clock tomorrow morning, at that time, you will put on a one-man show for them under the Ye Ling Mountain, first make them each willingly take out half of their assets to the Wan Long Temple, you can't let them go even after the money is given, let them continue to kneel, until I return! "

Wan Bajun arched his hand and said, "Don't worry, Mr. Ye, my subordinates will definitely get it done!"

Chapter 3439

5-6 minutes

After saying that, he hurriedly asked again, "Mr. Ye, I know more about the situation in Europe and America, do you want me to accompany you when you go to Northern Europe?"

Ye Chen waved his hand, "No need, you still have parents who need to be buried, tomorrow let those foreign relatives of the Ye family kneel honestly while you take care of the burial of your parents."

Wan Bajun said respectfully, "My subordinate follows orders!"

Ye Chen nodded slightly, "Good, then all the matters of the Ye family's foreign relatives will be left to you."

After saying that, he looked at Ye Zhongquan and said indifferently, "Grandpa, for this ancestor worship ceremony, let's skip all those tedious and pompous processes! Ancestor worship is mainly about sincerity of heart, if the heart is not sincere, what is the point of making the ceremony as grand and magnificent as possible?"

Ye Zhongquan nodded and agreed, "You are right, Chen'er, ancestor worship is not about pomp and circumstance, but about piety, before all the people were so excited to hold ancestor worship, but when they encountered some danger, most of them turned around and sold out the old ancestor, the old ancestor now knows how angry he would be, what is the point of holding all those pomp and circumstance."

The kneeling Ye family members were all ashamed and did not dare to raise their heads.

Ye Chen ignored them and walked to the front of the ancestral graves of the Ye family, kneeling on both knees, looking at the hundreds of tombs of the ancestors of the Ye family and Ye Chen's parents, and said in a loud voice, "The ancestors of the Ye family are above, my unworthy grandson, Ye Chen, has been wandering away for the past twenty years and has not been able to come to pay respects to the ancestors, I hope the ancestors will forgive me!"

After a pause, Ye Chen added, "Today is the beginning of a new era for the Ye family in the midst of crisis. The unworthy grandson, Ye Chen, has also officially returned to the Ye family today and taken over the position of the Ye family head!"

"Here, Ye Chen promises the ancestors of the Ye Family! From today onwards, no one will be allowed to infringe upon the interests of the Ye Family! Even more, no one will be allowed to desecrate the ancestors of my Ye Family! All of us in the Ye Family shall act in the highest interest of my Ye Family!"

"My unworthy grandson, Ye Chen, makes a vow before all the ancestors today! I will do my utmost to make the Ye Family the number one family in the world and the top of the world!"

After saying this, Ye Chen bent down and faced the ancestors of the Ye family, bowing three times in respect.

Ye Zhongquan also came to Ye Chen's side and knelt on the ground, facing the ancestor's tomb, and spoke, "Ye family ancestors are above, today my Ye family's wandering son, Ye Chen, has finally returned! From today onwards, there is no longer any direct lineage of the Ye family left outside, and all direct lineages are finally together! I have also fulfilled the promise I made to our ancestors at the last ancestral ritual!"

Saying this, Ye Zhongquan added, "Chang Ying, Cheng Kui! I can finally give you and your wife a satisfactory explanation for the return of Chen's son to the Ye family and his succession as the head of the Ye family. I'm sure your spirits in heaven will be able to see the extraordinary achievements of Chen's son! Today, he has turned the entire Ye Family into a safe and secure place! In the future, he will definitely be able to lead the Ye family to glory again! I'm sure you and your wife must be very happy on the other side at this time!"

At this moment, Ye Chen stood up and went straight to the front of his parents' spirit, kneeling on the ground and looking at the six big words "Ye Chang Ying" and "An Cheng Qing" on the tombstone, his eyes were already filled with tears.

He murmured softly, "Dad, mum, my son is finally able to come back to see you both openly and honestly"

When the Ye family heard this, they all couldn't help but be a little surprised in their hearts, they weren't quite sure what Ye Chen meant by this, could it be that Ye Chen had been here before?

At this moment, Ye Chen didn't care about the Ye family's surprise, he looked at the young picture of his parents on the tombstone and said with a firm expression, "Dad, Mom, from now on, I will inherit Dad's legacy and lead the Ye family to the top of the world! At the same time, I will also find your murderers, no matter who they are or what their abilities and backgrounds are, I will kill them myself to avenge your deaths!"

Chapter 3440

5-7 minutes

When Ye Chen and the Ye family had briefly paid homage to their ancestors, and together with his grandfather Ye Zhongquan and his youngest aunt Ye Changxiu, they arrived at Buckingham Palace to prepare a banquet for the friends and relatives who had climbed Mount Ye Ling today, the outside world, which had been following the movements of Mount Ye Ling, had already received the news.

Learning that the Ye family had finally given in to the Ten Thousand Dragons Palace, none of those who did not know the inside story doubted the authenticity of the news.

After all, it was the basic consensus of everyone that even if these wealthy families were powerful, they could not possibly defeat the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall.

What's more, the Hall Master of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall had a deep hatred for the Ye family, so he would not be able to spare the Ye family members.

Those branches of the Ye family who had fled overnight were incomparably thankful after receiving the news.

They were thankful that they had reacted quickly and run even faster, thus escaping a calamity.

However, apart from being thankful that they had escaped death, they were all worried about the future.

These collateral families were all dependent on the Ye family for their survival, and the main source of income for many of the branches was the business rewarded to them by the Ye family.

After all, every side family is a step-by-step division from the main family. It was as if Ye Zhongquan had become the head of the family and his younger brother, Ye Zhongzhuo, had to leave the Ye family and set up his own business.

On the contrary, he had to give him as many resources as possible, so that he would not have the desire to compete for the head of the family, and to maintain the family ties, and to help these distant relatives in case of need.

The reasoning behind this is similar to that of the ancient times when the crown prince ascended to the throne and arranged his other brothers to be vassal kings in various places.

For these side families, once they lost the Ye family, their own future development would also be greatly affected.

However, before they could take a breath, the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall released a message to the public: "All Ye family members whose names appear on the list of the Ye family's ancestral ritual will be asked to kneel at the foot of Ye Ling Mountain by 8am tomorrow morning.

Once this news came out, these great families of the country were even more shocked.

Everyone did not expect that the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall was not satisfied with conquering the Ye Family, but even these side branches of the Ye Family were not spared.

And these side branches of the Ye family were desperate to the core.

The feeling of survival after the calamity did not last long before it was immediately replaced by the despair of a monk who could not run away from the temple.

The grand list of the Ye family's ancestral rituals had long ago recorded each of their names and identity information in great detail.

For example, who the person's surname was, how old he was, what generation he was, where his family was, who his father was, who his grandfather was, and then which branch of the Ye family his ancestors were from, all these were written clearly with a brush dipped in vermilion.

Because this big list, after the ancestral ritual, as long as it was burnt for the ancestors to see, no one dared to have any muddle on it.

Now, this list has fallen into the hands of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, so this is the same as everyone's background being firmly grasped by the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, so even if they run away, there is no way they can escape.

The strength of the Hall of Ten Thousand Dragons was clear to these people, and if they really wanted to assassinate them, it would be as easy as a handful, so no one dared to disobey the Hall of Ten Thousand Dragons' orders.

So, the group could only rush back with a stiff upper lip and anxiety.

Ye Zhongzhuo's children and grandchildren were on a private plane back to Canada when they received the news via the satellite network.

Ten minutes after receiving the news, the plane drew a circle directly at a height of 10,000 metres and turned around to return to Yanjing.

Meanwhile, Ye Chen had already filled his glass and was in the ballroom of Buckingham Palace, thanking all his friends and relatives present one by one.

The first person to whom Ye Chen toasted was Gu Yanzhong, his father's best friend, who looked at him as if he were a god.

The first person Ye Chen saluted was Gu Yanzhong.

In his eyes, Gu Yanzhong was the eldest person who deserved his respect and had treated him the best.

Therefore, Ye Chen was grateful from the bottom of his heart that his family could go up to Ye Ling Mountain today.

After a few glasses of wine, he said to Ye Chen, "Chen's son, now that you have taken the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall under your wing, the Ye family's strength is already number one among all the families in China! If we look around the world, we can at least be among the top ten!"
