

Ye Chen 3441

Chapter 3441

Ye Chen spoke, "The top ten is still a long way from the first ....."

Gu Yanzhong seriously said, "It doesn't matter if there is a gap, but you must be steady and take one step at a time."

Saying that, Gu Yanzhong instructed Ye Chen: "Chen'er, a family like Rothschild is too strong, at a time like now, I really don't recommend that you make contact with them too early!"

Ye Chen nodded and smiled, "Uncle Gu don't worry, I won't fight them hard this time when I go to Northern Europe, I'll mainly help Helena take back the throne first and contact the Rothschilds by the way, I'll hide my identity then, don't worry."

Gu Yanzhong saw that Ye Chen was determined to go, so he instructed, "Rothschild is commonly known as OldMoney in Europe and America, it's not like a new generation tycoon like Bill Gates, where every property and every stock is on the surface, it's more like a huge iceberg, what we can see now is just the tip of the iceberg!"

"And what makes it really powerful is its pervasive and comprehensive penetration throughout Western society over the past few hundred years!"

"On the surface, it looks like they have ten businesses, but in reality, the number of businesses that they actually control through various means could be as many as several thousand, and this power is quite terrifying, so terrifying that even if your grandfather's family has been ranked as one of the three largest families in the world, the combined assets of your grandfather and the Middle Eastern royal family may not be able to rival Rothschild! "

Speaking of this, Gu Yanzhong admonished, "Chen'er, no matter what time it is, you must be absolutely careful when facing the Rothschild family!"

Ye Chen nodded solemnly and said, "Uncle Gu don't worry, I have it in my heart!"

At this moment, Gu Qiuyi, who was at the side, looked at Ye Chen with an excited face and said excitedly, "Brother Ye Chen! With your strength, I believe that even the Rothschild family will be trampled under your feet!"

Gu Qiuyi was originally Ye Chen's little fan girl, and now she even looked like an avid fan.

Ye Chen nodded gently and smiled, "Don't worry, Nui Nui, this day will come eventually!"

After saying that, Ye Chen poured another glass of wine and said, "Uncle Gu, Auntie Lin, and Nui Nui, I'd like to toast the three of you and thank you once again for your love for me!"

The three members of the Gu family filled their glasses and drank it all together with Ye Chen.

Ye Chen saw the Song family and the Ito family sitting at the same table not far away, so he said to the three members of the Gu family, "There are some other friends over there, I'll go and say hello first."

"Go on!" Gu Yanzhong said with a smile, "Remember to come back later and have a drink with uncle!"

"Okay!"

Ye Chen said goodbye to the Gu family and carried his glass of wine to the table where the Song and Ito families were.

At this moment, Ito Nanaeko, seeing Ye Chen getting closer and closer, although her face was still as gentle as water, the eyes full of love could no longer be hidden.

She had already loved Ye Chen very deeply, and today, when she saw that Ye Chen had made the entire Ten Thousand Dragons Hall kneel before him and beg for forgiveness with his own strength, she only felt that if she could not marry Ye Chen or become his woman in this life, then she could only die alone in this life.

Because she knew that there would never be another man who could completely conquer herself from the point of consciousness like Ye Chen did.

As for the dignified and beautiful Song Wanting, she had always demanded herself as a lady of the house, but deep inside she had also fallen like a little woman long ago.

Just as Ye Chen reached the front, the Song family as well as the Ito family all stood up.

Ito Yohiko and Tanaka Koichi were unable to stand because they had lost their legs, but they also immediately raised their glasses high and looked at Ye Chen with respect.

And the nearly two hundred people that their two families had brought with them all stood up in unison with a swish!

Among them, more than a hundred top ninjas, who were usually regarded as national treasures in Japan, stood straight while their hands hung humbly at the sides of their bodies, and their necks and heads lowered forty-five degrees in respect, their faces full of deference.

This was their instinctive reaction and etiquette when faced with a powerful person they respected and feared.

This scene was seen by Gu Yanzhong, who could not help but exclaim to his wife and daughter, "These Japanese ninjas seem to have been completely convinced by the strength of Chen's son, so much so that they do not even dare to raise their heads in front of him!"

Gu Qiuyi said seriously, "That's right! Brother Ye Chen's strength is much stronger than theirs, so they must be respectful!"

Lin Wanqiu muttered softly at this moment, "I always think that the girl from the Ito family and the girl from the Song family don't seem to be looking at Chen'er the right way ....."

After saying that, she glanced at another table not far away, sitting at Su Zhiyu as well as the Su Ruoli sisters, and sighed, "There's also that pair of sisters from the Su family ..... The way they look at Chen'er, they both have some problems too ....."

Chapter 3442

4-5 minutes

---

Gu Yanzhong was a man of thunder and lightning and was indeed not a delicate person.

Take the situation at the banquet at this moment, he was just happy and excited, but did not pay attention to those other young girls, what was different about the way they looked at Ye Chen.

But Lin Wanqiu was different.

Women were already delicate-minded, good at observing details, and their intuition was much more accurate than men's, so she had been paying attention to these young girls from early on.

After all, those who could willingly go up to Ye Lingshan to help Ye Chen under the heavy pressure of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall were those who had put their lives and deaths on the line.

And these few girls, taking any one of them out, were also top-notch beauties who were captivating, and the fact that they were all able to ascend Ye Ling Mountain without hesitation was proof enough that Ye Chen was even more important than their own lives in their minds.

Lin Wanqiu, who was also a woman, knew very well that if a woman, who was willing to die for a man of her age, it could never be just the so-called repayment of gratitude, there must be strong personal feelings mixed in as well.

In other words, these women must all have a love for Ye Chen.

Gu Yanzhong did not understand this.

He asked with a puzzled look on his face, "I don't understand, is there something wrong?"

"Of course there is." Lin Wanqiu deliberately pulled Gu Yanzhong aside, avoiding Gu Qiuyi, and said in a firm tone, "The way these little girls are looking at Chen'er, they are obviously all looking at her with full love."

Gu Yanzhong narrowed his eyes and just said with a smile, "I think it's all because of gratitude! You mustn't forget that Chen'er has been extremely kind to all these girls, and it's normal for these girls to be grateful to him."

Lin Wanqiu said very seriously, "For women, it is inherently difficult to deal with inner gratitude objectively, haven't you noticed that in both ancient and modern times, women are prone to fall in love with men who are kind to them?"

Gu Yanzhong was stunned with surprise and said with a smile, "Why, these things are out of our hands."

Lin Wanqiu said in a low voice, "Honey, you can't just ignore everything, these girls are all phoenixes, any one of them may not be inferior to our daughter, these will be her competitors in the future!"

She said, "Look at Su Zhiyu, who is already the head of the Su family at a young age, and who was promoted by Chen'er. If she were to compete with her daughter, she might not be able to beat her."

"And that Ito Nana-chan, she's the heir to the Ito family at such a young age, and she's not only pretty, but she's gentle as water! Although most people in the country are somewhat hostile towards their country, many people have always had extra good feelings towards the women of their country, which is a plus ....."

"Although Su Ruoli and Song Wanting are less powerful themselves, these two are also loyal to Chen'er, and unlike Nui Nui, Song Wanting is right here in Jinling, and Su Ruoli has always been by Chen'er's side, so these two have a great advantage in being close to the water ....."

Gu Yanzhong hesitated for a moment and said, "I don't think there is any need to worry about this, a man as outstanding as Chen'er will naturally have many girls falling for him. You must know very well what kind of virtues these powerful noble families have on a regular basis."

"Yes." Lin Wanqiu sighed and looked again at Helena who was sitting alone in the corner, quietly watching Ye Chen, and sighed, "Chen'er is going to Northern Europe again this time, if he really helps Helena become the Nordic Queen ....." This Nordic girl is afraid that she will fall too ....."

Chapter 3443

---

Gu Yanzhong nodded and said with a smile, "Don't worry, Chen'er is a filial child, no matter how many women like him, in this world, there is only one person, Nui Nui, who is the daughter-in-law handpicked by big brother Ye and sister-in-law Ye during their lifetime."

Although Chen'er now has a wife on a legal level, that is also because he has not been in the Ye family for twenty years, now that Chen'er's life trajectory has started to move closer to the Ye family, in terms of personal relationships, he will definitely return to the track arranged for him by big brother and sister-in-law Ye. "

Lin Wanqiu was slightly relieved and nodded, "I hope things will be as you say, otherwise I really can't bear the thought of waiting for more than twenty years of bitterness for my Nui Nui to end up with no results."

Meanwhile, Su Zhiyu was sitting at a table with her mother Du Haiqing, her sister Su Ruoli and He Yingxiu and other members of the He family, and the atmosphere was more or less awkward.

After all, He Yingxiu was the interloper in Du Haiqing's marriage and had secretly given birth to a daughter to Su Shoudao, so now that she was facing Du Haiqing again, He Yingxiu felt guilty inside.

She had always wanted to find a chance to apologise to Du Haiqing, but always swallowed her words.

The moral guilt was so great that she didn't know how to say anything.

On the other hand, the two sisters, Su Zhiyu and Su Ruoli, were chatting and laughing.

Not only did the two sisters share half of the same bloodline, their recent experiences also overlapped very much.

Su Zhiyu looked at Ye Chen, who was chatting with the Song and Ito families, and could not help but sigh, "Ruo Li, your benefactor is so strong, I believe it won't be long before you don't have to hide your identity anymore."

Su Ruoli spat out her tongue and laughed, "It doesn't matter to me, I'll hide if Lord Ye lets me, I won't hide if he doesn't let me, I don't have any other plans anyway, just following him in the saddle."

As she said that, Su Ruoli dragged her chin and lamented, "But my strength is really too poor, those nearly one hundred people in the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall are mostly stronger than me, I'm afraid that in the future, there is nothing that Duke Ye really needs me for."

Su Zhiyu shook her head and said seriously, "Don't worry, I don't think that Your Eminence will treat the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall as his real own people, more like they are just used as black gloves, specialising in less than honorable matters, but you are different from the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall in Your Eminence's eyes, Your Eminence will definitely have better arrangements for you."

Su Ruoli asked in surprise, "Sister, is what you say true?"

Su Zhiyu nodded seriously and said, "I presume so, it should be eight or nine!"

Su Ruoli immediately smiled happily and said, "That's great! I'm not looking for anything else, it's good to be a maid by Mr. Ye's side all the time."

Du Haiqing, who had not spoken much because of the awkward atmosphere, also spoke up at this time, "Ruoli, have more confidence in yourself, Mr. Ye should have high expectations for you, and will definitely not just treat you as a personal maid."

Su Ruoli pursed her lips, although she did not dare to believe it in her heart, she still could not help but look forward to the future.

Chapter 3444

---

After thanking the Song family, as well as the Ito family, Ye Chen carried his glass of wine to the He family, as well as Su Ruoli and Su Zhiyu's mother and daughter.

Before Ye Chen could say his words of thanks, He Hongsheng, the old man of the He family, took a step ahead of him and said to Ye Chen, "Mr Ye! I only found out last night that Ruo Li was saved by you, and that you have been protecting her safety."

Ye Chen smiled faintly and said blandly, "Old Mr. He has spoken too highly, Ruo Li and I are also friends, this is between me and her, you don't need to take it to heart."

He Hongsheng said seriously, "Mr. Ye, Ruo Li is the best of the new generation of the He family and the future helmsman of the He family, if you save her, you are saving the whole He family!"

Hearing these words, Su Ruoli said with some consternation, "Grandpa ..... I ..... I am a foreigner, how can I be the future helmsman of the He family ....."

He Hongsheng said with determination, "Ruo Li, no matter what your surname is, you are still a descendant of my He family, so I will be able to truly feel at ease when I leave the He family to you in the future."

He said, He Hongsheng lamented, "Today when I went up to Ye Lingshan, I realized that in the field of martial arts, there really are people outside of heaven and outside of people, Wan Bajun is not even thirty years old and was able to become an eight-star martial artist, while I am half buried in the yellow earth, but I still rely on Mr. Ye's help to barely reach four stars, compared to that, I am really ashamed of myself. "

Speaking here, He Hongsheng looked at Su Ruoli and said seriously, "Therefore, I would like to hand over all the big and small affairs of the He family to you, so that I can also have more time to cultivate properly and see if I can take another step forward before I die ....."

Su Ruoli was somewhat flattered, but also said with some apprehension, "Grandpa, I don't know if I'm up to the task ..... Moreover, my identity is sensitive now, if the Japanese know that I am still alive, it will definitely bring trouble to the He family ....."

Ye Chen spoke at this time, "Ruo Li, you don't need to be afraid of this matter, I have already thought of a countermeasure, after tomorrow, you can resume your identity openly and honestly, and the Japanese, will never come to trouble you again."

"How is this possible ....." Su Ruoli said subconsciously, "I am the most wanted criminal in Japan ..... They ..... They definitely won't let me off easily ....."

Ye Chen laughed, "Don't worry, starting tomorrow, I will have the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall announce to the public that you, Su Ruoli, are officially a part of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall! The Japanese definitely won't dare to go against the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, so they will definitely choose to give up their wanted on you."

"Even if face is not good enough to directly withdraw the wanted notice, they definitely won't make any substantial arrests against you, so that you will be able to regain your free status openly and honestly."

Speaking of this, Ye Chen added, "Of course, the freedom I'm talking about, in terms of geographical concept, is anywhere in the world except Japan, you can go anywhere, as long as you don't go to Japan to stimulate their nerves, there will definitely not be any problem."

Hearing this, Su Ruoli's eyes were red with gratitude, "Mr. Ye, thank you ..... I don't want to go anywhere from now on, I just want to be by your side to serve you! As long as you don't drive Ruo Li away ....."

Ye Chen smiled slightly and said, "You don't have to keep saddling up for me either, your sister will officially become the Su family heir tomorrow, you can stay by her side and help her."

Su Zhiyu hurriedly said, "Your Grace ..... Ruo Li she definitely still wants to stay by your side ....."

Su Ruoli was also nervous and apprehensive at this time, fearing that Ye Chen would really not allow her to follow her around.

Ye Chen took in her performance, so he said with a smile, "In that case, then Ruo Li will return to Jinling with the He family, Mr. He and the others will still go back to that villa, and Ruo Li will still stay at Buckingham Palace for the time being."

Ye Chen nodded and looked at Su Zhiyu and Du Haiqing again and said seriously, "Miss Su, Auntie Du, tomorrow after Su Chengfeng and Su Shoudao finish kneeling at Ye Lingshan, they will cooperate with the two of you to complete all the formalities that need to be done, at that time Su Chengfeng will have to depart for Madagascar, which may require some preparation time in between, but I don't want him to remain in the country, so I will first arrange for him and his entourage, as well as Ye Feng from the Ye family, to travel to Madagascar by ship, which may take about twenty days."

Chapter 3445

Saying that, Ye Chen also said to Su Zhiyu, "In these twenty days, Miss Su can arrange for an investment team to fly to Madagascar first to identify a piece of land for him and set up some other hardware, so that when he arrives, he can be his landlord in Madagascar in a down-to-earth manner."

Su Zhiyu nodded hastily and said, "Yes, my benefactor, I understand!"

Ye Chen continued, "As for Su Shoudao, I would like to ask Old Mr. He to bring him back to Jinling to monitor his residence, so that nothing goes wrong."

He Hongsheng immediately arched his hand and said, "Don't worry, Mr. Ye, I'll make sure it's done!"

After briefly thanking all his friends and relatives, Ye Chen asked Tang Sihai to prepare the car before he came to the lonely Helena alone and said, "Helena, are you ready? We'll leave when we're ready."

Helena nodded obediently, stood up and said softly, "Back to Mr. Ye, I am ready."

Ye Chen nodded slightly, beckoned and said, "Let's go then, the car and plane are waiting."

Ye Zhongquan stepped forward and asked with concern, "Chen'er, are you just going by yourself? Don't you want to bring some people with you?"

Ye Chen shook his head and said, "No, I'll be fine on my own."

Seeing Ye Chen's firm attitude, Ye Zhongquan nodded and said, "Then you must be careful, we will wait for you in Yanjing."

Ye Chen instructed, "When the relatives of the Ye family come tomorrow, just let Wan Bajun come out, the Ye family members don't need to show up, especially you."

Ye Zhongquan was busy saying, "Don't worry, I know."

Ye Chen said goodbye to everyone, and then he joined Helena and got into the Rolls-Royce car prepared by Tang Sihai.

Half an hour later, the Rolls-Royce drove straight into the airport and headed straight for the hangar where the Concorde was parked.

Helena did not know until now what kind of method Ye Chen was going to use to help her reclaim the throne. She could not help but ask several times, but seeing that Ye Chen kept his eyes closed, she could only hold back her impulse.

As the Rolls-Royce was about to drive into the hangar, Ye Chen slowly opened his eyes, looked at Helena beside him and opened his mouth to ask, "Helena, do you usually play short video software?"

"Play ....." Helena didn't know why Ye Chen asked that, but she still said respectfully, "That short video software that exploded in China is also very, very famous overseas, men and women like it a lot, and I'm no exception."

"Good." Ye Chen nodded, handed her a mobile phone and said, "Login to your short video software account, take a video, and say that you are very happy now because you are ready to take the Concorde and rush back to Northern Europe to attend your sister Olivia's wedding!"

"Huh?!" Helena was startled and said nervously, "Ye ..... Mr. Ye ..... If I send the video now, then ..... wouldn't that be throwing myself into the net?"

Ye Chen smiled faintly, "What you want is to throw yourself into the net, don't worry, as long as you release this video, Olivia will definitely not dare to make a move against you before her big wedding tomorrow, because if you don't show up at her wedding tomorrow, then everyone will ask her after your whereabouts."

Speaking of this, Ye Chen continued, "There is a famous saying from Eutyptides in ancient Greece that says: if the gods want to bring about their destruction, they must first make them mad, if you want Olivia to lose a bit more, you must first make her feel like she is winning!"

Chapter 3446

---

Twenty minutes later, the Concorde whistled off in the night of Yanjing and flew at breakneck speed towards Northern Europe.

What lay before Ye Chen and Helena was an 8,000-kilometre-long flight path.

An ordinary airliner would take at least nine hours to fly there, but the Concorde would take only four hours to reach the Nordic capital, Ossuary.

The woman in the video is Helena Iliad, who is known as the most beautiful woman in Northern Europe.

Although Helena has been disinherited from the throne, she is still the most popular and loved member of the royal family in the whole of Northern Europe.

That is why she has over eight million followers on the short video software.

The Nordic countries have a population of just over six million, at least half of which are Helena's fans.

In the past, Helena's video account was often updated with clips of her daily life, and many of her fans used these videos to get a glimpse of her life.

However, after the rumour of Helena's trip to China and her marriage with a Chinese family, her video account stopped updating.

A few days later, she suddenly updated a video in which she is sitting in a car with an excited look on her face, saying: "Friends! I'm super excited right now! I'm about to take a Concorde back to Scandinavia to attend my sister Princess Olivia's wedding! Not only will I be attending her wedding, but I'll be her bridesmaid, and I'll be seeing her enter into marriage! God, I'm so excited! I'm so excited that I've almost cried a few times! Please join me in wishing her a happy wedding!"

The Scandinavian nation was delighted to hear that Princess Helena was returning to her home country, and all of them commented on her video: "Welcome home, Princess Helena!"

In addition to this, there were many messages wishing Olivia a happy wedding and the comments section was full of warmth and peace.

It was midday local time in Northern Europe.

Olivia, who was having lunch with her parents, suddenly received this video from Helena, and after watching it, she pushed her plate to the floor in anger and said in a cold voice: "This Helena is really looking for death! I have told her clearly that she is not allowed to return to Scandinavia for the rest of her life, but I never thought that she would dare to come back! And to come back with such fanfare! By posting this video, she is blatantly provoking me! Does she think I won't dare to do anything to her just because she sent this video? Then she's underestimating me, Olivia!"

With that, she immediately picked up her phone and called Helena.

However, the call alerted Helena that her phone was switched off.

Olivia left a message on her voicemail and said in a cold voice, "Helena! Who gave you the audacity to disobey my orders! If you dare set foot on Nordic soil, I will kill ....."

Before Olivia could finish her sentence, her father Richard grabbed the phone from her hand and immediately terminated the message before blurting out, "Olivia are you crazy?! If you say something on your voicemail threatening Helena to kill her mother, once Helena releases the recording, you're done!"

Olivia burst into a cold sweat and asked nervously, "What was I saying?!"

Chapter 3447

5-6 minutes

---

Richard said heartily, "Thank goodness I reacted quickly! I terminated the message just as you finished killing it!"

Olivia let out a long breath, rubbing her chest as she cursed through gritted teeth, "Helena the bitch! She's ruined my sanity!"

Richard didn't say anything but finished watching Helena's video with his wife before speaking up, "What the hell is Helena trying to do back here at this time? Is it to get her mother out?"

Olivia's mother, Wendy, said, "Helena is not a fool, she must know that with her ability, there is no way she can find her mother's whereabouts. So, as I see it, she is likely to come back this time to show us some goodwill and take the opportunity to ease the relationship."

Olivia said coldly, "I don't care what her purpose is, but she has gone back to Northern Europe without my permission, which is clearly disobedient to my orders!"

Olivia added, "I asked her yesterday to go to St. Petersburg, Russia, but she didn't listen to me, she even dared to come back to Northern Europe.

"And she had the audacity to say in a short video that she was going to be my bridesmaid! I won't let her be my bridesmaid! She's not going to be allowed to jump out and steal the limelight at my wedding!"

Richard frowned and said, "I heard that the Ye family has surrendered to the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple, but although they surrendered, the Ye family should still have half of their assets left, counting at least at least one to two hundred billion euros in asset size, and this strength should not be underestimated."

"Moreover, the Concorde that Helena is flying on is also an asset of the Ye family, thus it can be seen that although the Ye family has suffered heavy losses, they have not completely fallen, and she is still valuable to us."

Speaking here, he persuaded Olivia, "So, I think you don't need to be too angry first, or see what Helena really wants to do first. If she really wants to come and repair her relationship with you, and at the same time leave Northern Europe on her own after your big wedding, then let her go back and cooperate with us properly and attract the Ye family's funds to Northern Europe, why do you need to be at loggerheads with her? "

Olivia said with a disgusted expression, "Because I don't like to be on equal footing with Helena!"

Saying this, she continued through gritted teeth, "For so many years, I have been overpowered by her in whatever I do, and in terms of inheritance laws, she ranks ahead of me! In terms of looks, she's prettier than me too! In terms of achievements, she was always better than me! Even in terms of popularity, she was far more beloved by the people than I was!"

"Later, I managed to get the first succession, but she still has the highest popular support!"

Speaking of this, Olivia roared low in anger, "What I couldn't stand the most was! After I was crowned first heir, nearly a million Nordic citizens with nothing better to do went to the US White House website and petitioned the White House to intervene in the Nordic royal family and reinstate Helena as first heir! This has been number one in the news in Europe and America and is a lifelong shame for me!!!"

"So what I want is for her to bow down to me permanently! Any time she sees me, she will bow down and respectfully call me Olivia, Your Highness!"

Her mother, Wendy, hurriedly spoke up, "Olivia, don't be so angry yet, now that Helena has sent out a video and publicly announced her return, we will have to accept her for the time being and let her attend your wedding in order to keep the public from picking on her."

At the same time, she will have to be your bridesmaid, because that's the only way to ensure that there are no questions from the public, and as soon as the wedding is over, she will be forced to leave Scandinavia on her own and never be allowed to stay in the household again."

Olivia said with a twisted expression, "She's deliberately using the public to get at me! I'm just going to let her come and go as she pleases! If she gets away with it this time, it won't be long before she gets away with it again! If she does it again on the day of my enthronement, what will I do? This is outrageous!"

Wendy said, "Olivia, don't worry about that, Helena has already sent the video and got on the plane, so we'll let her come back this time, but when she does, we'll keep her under control and tell her that if she dares to return to Northern Europe without permission next time, then we'll kill her mother immediately and let her decide for herself! "

Chapter 3448

---

For although she was angry, she was also well aware of the current situation.

Since Helena had already played a game on herself, it would be difficult to counteract it now.

The only way was to wait for her to arrive and use her mother's life as blackmail to make her not do the same things or make the same mistakes from now on.

When her father Richard saw that she had finally calmed down a bit, he said, "Olivia, since Helena is on a Concorde, I reckon she must be at the airport by late afternoon, so I suggest you go with William to the airport early to meet her, and when she gets off the plane, use the royal convoy to take her to the palace and control her. "

"I know!" Olivia said coldly, "To keep this bitch from speaking out in front of the outside world, I'll have to control everything she does throughout her trip and confiscate her mobile phone when the time comes, giving her no chance to pass on information to the outside world!"

Richard nodded appreciatively and said, "You have indeed become more comprehensive in your thinking now, the only problem is that you are too quick-tempered and impulsive, if you can change that as well, you will definitely be stronger in the future!"

Olivia said with an expressionless face, "I can control my temper once I get rid of Helena! She has brought me so many shadows over the years! When it comes to anything to do with her, my emotions are like a powder keg, one point and I explode!"

Richard patted her shoulder and said comfortingly, "Don't worry Olivia, this time, we will definitely solve Helena's problem once and for all, so that she can honestly help us pull resources together in the Ye family."

Olivia said with a grim expression, "Actually, I don't want her to marry into the Ye family anymore, I still want to give her to the Russian Aman Ramovich."

Olivia said seriously, "But Amanramovich is willing to pay the royal family 500 million euros directly, if Helena marries him successfully."

Richard laughed, "Five hundred million euros is a one-off buyout, but hasn't the Ye family already agreed to invest two billion euros with us in Northern Europe? And that's only preliminary, there's no telling how much room there will be in the future, so it's certainly not cost effective to give Helena to Aman Ramovich."

Olivia looked at Richard and said very seriously, "Father, you mustn't forget that Helena's congenital disease is very serious and she may not live long, and if she only lives for a few months, then the Ye family's funds may only come to a few hundred million euros in start-up capital, and she will already be dead before even the start-up capital is in place! If she dies, there's no way the Ye family will continue to invest in us!"

Richard's expression was stunned as he muttered, "Damn it ..... Why didn't I think of this layer ....."

Olivia's brow flashed with a hint of viciousness as she coldly said, "Helena is, right now, a terminally ill, dying pet dog, if we don't want to smash her in our own hands, we still need to find the seller who will pay the quickest money at this stage and grab her off!"

"Hand her over to Aman Ramovich, 500 million euros immediately, and by the time Helena dies in St Petersburg, what does it matter to us?"

"Aman Ramovich can't drag a corpse and come to Northern Europe and ask us to return it, can he?"

Richard said with an air of awe, "Olivia, you're the one who's thinking more holistically, in that case, find a way to get Helena to Amanramovich!"

Olivia nodded and sneered, "Since she is here, her fate will be at my mercy!"

A cruel smile crossed her lips as she said, "I've heard that Amanramovich is a bit of a pervert at heart and loves to torture women in bed by all sorts of inhuman means. "

Chapter 3449

With that, Olivier sneered and said: "Then we could still condemn Aman Ramovic severely and force him to pay another pension, or else make public the news that he abused the royal princess! I don't see how another 500 million euros would be required by then, would it? After all, it wasn't easy for the royal family to raise Helena, so it would be reasonable for me to ask him for 500 million euros in compensation!"

Richard looked at his daughter, gave her a thumbs up and praised her, "Olivia, you are truly a man of the world! When you inherit the throne, the royal family will surely see a spurt of growth!"

Olivia nodded and said in a cold voice, "The news of my marriage to William is being watched throughout Europe, and many other European royals and nobles and tycoons are coming to attend the wedding of the two of us. I'll let him take Helena away!"

Richard laughed, "Amanramovich loves to attend gatherings of European aristocrats, you call him now and he'll fly over from St Petersburg right away tonight!"

Olivia nodded and said with a sneer, "I'll give him a call in a moment."

After saying that, Olivia added, "Right Dad, I see no point in letting the old lady continue to languish after my big wedding, so let's inform the doctor and quietly remove all the tubes then."

When Ye Chen and Helena boarded the plane in Yanjing, it was already evening in the eye locality, but four hours into the flight, when they arrived in the Nordic capital of Oslo, it was only just dusk in Northern Europe.

Immediately after landing at the end of the runway, the plane was guided by ground guidance vehicles all the way to the hangar at the far end of the airport.

While the plane was still in taxiing phase, Helena heard a voice message Olivia had left for herself.

Although Olivia had not finished her sentence, Helena could still hear the strong anger and threat in her words.

She looked at Ye Chen somewhat nervously and spoke, "Mr. Ye, Olivia should be very angry right now, and I presume she will definitely put me under tight control the moment I get off the plane ....."

Ye Chen smiled and said, "The odds are that she will take you to the palace and put you under house arrest, and I will probably be treated the same way."

Helena was busy asking, "What then?"

"Never mind." Ye Chen said indifferently, "Since we have come all this way, it is only natural that we should be treated as our guest, this is the proper etiquette, everything will be discussed when we arrive at the palace."

Helena was relieved to see that Ye Chen had his mind made up, and then asked him, "Mr Ye, how should I introduce you to Helena?"

Ye Chen smiled, "Just say that I am Ye Feng's younger brother, because Ye Feng has not yet consummated his marriage with you, and according to our Chinese rules, it is not convenient for Ye Feng to directly participate in this kind of thing of going back to his mother's family for the wedding, so this time the Ye family arranged for me to escort him all the way."

"Okay." Helena nodded gently and asked again, "Then does your name need to be circumvented?"

Ye Chen shook his head and casually smiled, "No need, it's the first time in my life that I've come to Northern Europe, so naturally I should come openly and honestly!"

Chapter 3450

---

Inside the hangar, Olivia, dressed to the nines in a Chanel dress, was holding the arm of a young white man as she watched the Concorde approach.

This young white man is the eldest son of the Rothschild collateral family, William Rothschild.

William's family has its roots in Denmark, across the sea from four northern European countries.

Over the years, Wilhelm's family has always wanted to be on the second rung of the Rothschild ladder and so has been hiding its light and lying in wait.

Within the Rothschild family, the overall structure is similar to that of the Ye family, but at the actual execution end, it is much more cumbersome than the Ye family.

The Rothschilds are an old capitalist family who started out in finance and banking, so they are extremely strict in the allocation of internal resources.

The lifeblood of the Rothschild family is in the hands of the core families in the United States, who differentiate the allocation of resources to different families through the practice of scoring ratings for other families.

A second-tier family can get two or three times more resources from the core family each year than a third-tier family, so every second- and third-tier family has its head in the clouds trying to move up the ladder, while the first-tier family at the top has to do everything it can to hold its position and not be outdone by other families.

So, this strong internal competition makes the internal barriers of a family like the Rothschilds so strong that it is not easy to move up the ladder.

William's family has, in recent years, been doing everything they can to increase their own rating weighting.

Realising that the young Olivia, would soon become the youngest empress in Northern Europe and indeed the whole of Europe, they immediately negotiated with the Nordic royal family in the hope of reaching a marriage union.

But Olivia had already been up for sale for a long time.

Many wealthy people in Europe, in fact, realised that she was about to become empress, so many of them wanted to marry Olivia.

Throughout Europe, there was a strong sense of power and nobility and a residue of feudalism. Almost everyone considered royalty and nobility to be superior, and those wealthy people who did not have a noble title would immediately be ennobled as princes and made dukes at the same time if they could marry the Queen, which was the same as making an instant class leap.

William was able to stand out from the rest because his family decided to invest two billion euros with a billion euros in cash as a bride-price, which put the other competitors at bay.

William's family hopes to increase its influence throughout Europe with the support of the royal family, so that it can be given more weight in the next internal rating of Rothschild and thus move up to the second rung of the ladder.

At this moment, Olivia looked at the white swan-like Concorde and said with a bored expression, "The Ye family is really something, even this supersonic airliner can be obtained."

William nodded and said with an envious expression, "As the fastest airliner in the world, the Concorde was snatched up by the top families as soon as it was retired from service. also have one ....."

William smacked his lips and said resentfully, "I haven't flown either, I heard that the Ye family has suffered heavy losses this time, I wonder if they are willing to sell this plane at a low price, if they are, I will buy it!"

By this time, the plane had slowly pulled into the hangar, then the hatch opened and Helena, accompanied by Ye Chen, stepped down from the spiral staircase.

At the bottom of the spiral staircase, Olivia looked at Helena with a cold smile on her face. Seeing that only she and Ye Chen had stepped out of the whole plane, Olivia frowned and asked, "Helena, where are your two attendants? Why didn't they come back with you?"
