

Ye Chen 3471

Chapter 3471

William said awkwardly, "Mr. Ye, I'm not joking with you, I really think I have a much better chance of winning this game than you do, why don't we just open the cards, just these chips on the table, whoever wins, don't add more, okay?"

Ye Chen laughed sarcastically and said, "I told you you were like a pussy! I didn't wrong you at all! You've already won a f*cking billion, what are you afraid of?"

Then he said to Olivia, "Tell your fiancé to be tough when he needs to be. How can you be the Queen's husband if you are weak at critical moments?"

Olivia panicked too.

She knew that William would win, but she also knew that if William won too much, something would probably go terribly wrong.

Counting the previous ones, if Ye Chen lost in another two billion euros in this hand, that would be three billion euros in cash plus a Concorde.

With this hand alone, Ye Chen would have lost more assets than the entire Nordic royal family owned.

Seriously, how could she not be scared.

What she was thinking was: "What if Ye Chen gets desperate with his loss and has to take revenge on William? What if he recruits the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple?"

But what Olivia didn't know was that Ye Chen wasn't anxious about losing at all, but William was anxious about being scolded by Ye Chen at this moment.

He said with some anger, "Mr. Ye, I hope you can make it clear that I don't want to follow through with this two billion dollar bet, not because I'm not man enough, but I don't want to win too much against you! I'm leaving you a way out, but why do you have to be aggressive again and again?"

Ye Chen laughed: "William, not that I'm talking about you, this kind of thinking of yours is typical of poor hanging thinking!"

He said, "You are just like those poor bastards who, after buying a Rolls Royce, come to me and tell me that it has high fuel consumption and advise me not to drive it. "

When the people around them heard this, they laughed in secret.

Although Ye Chen's behaviour of losing large sums of money all the time was silly to the extreme in their eyes.

But they also had to admit that Ye Chen had a point in that.

People had plenty of money, did they need someone who was much poorer than him to teach him how to save money?

When William heard these words, he was really angry and confused.

He really did not expect that Ye Chen would take the initiative to beg for death.

He had even taken his kindness for an ass's lungs and humiliated himself as a poor man in public!

He could not help but curse in his heart, "Good for you, Ye! I tried to spare your life with all my good intentions, but you just don't appreciate it! Fine, I'll win you a big one today! You'll have no tears to cry!"

With this in mind, he slapped the table and said in a stern voice, "Fine! Two billion, then two billion!"

Ye Chen nodded in satisfaction and laughed, "Come on, before the last card is dealt, just like I just gave you a mortgage agreement, let's each write an IOU for two billion, sign it and put it on the table, whoever wins will take the other one away, how about that?"

William sneered, "Just write it! Do you think I will be afraid of you?"

Ye Chen laughed, "Fine, then hurry up and write it, so many people are witnessing it, no one can be a scoundrel."

"Good!"

William, who was already furious, immediately wrote down an IOU of two billion dollars as Ye Chen had said.

Ye Chen was not ambiguous, and immediately wrote down clearly on the paper that he owed William two billion euros, and at the same time reminded William: "By the way, the payment method must be written clearly, and the full amount must be paid within 24 hours, otherwise it will be regarded as a breach of contract, and the penalty for breach of contract will be one hundred percent a day!"

William didn't have to think about it at this point and sneered, "I'm afraid of you? Come on! I'll write it down right now!"

Ye Chen nodded his head and wrote the same on his own note.

Afterwards, the two signed and drew on their respective IOUs in the presence of everyone, as well as the recording of everyone's mobile phone videos.

Ye Chen put the two IOUs in the chip pile at the same time, looked at the lotus officer and said with a faint smile, "Come on, let's open the cards!"

William's eyes were like those of a Komodo lizard, staring at Ye Chen with a cold smile, "Mr. Ye, today I will let you die a painful death!"

Chapter 3472

At this moment, William was ready to welcome 3 billion euros and a Concorde.

Everyone on the floor, except for Ye Chen, was staring intently at the dealer's hand with bated breath.

And both William and Olivia, were in a position to win.

Ye Chen did not care at all at this point, his expression was not happy, not sad, not slow, as if everything had nothing to do with him.

At this time, the dealer held up a card and suddenly turned it over and threw it in front of William.

In this instant, before William could see what the card was, his whole body was already struck by lightning!

Because ..... he saw that ..... his own card ..... was red!

Ye Chen's four aces of spades were already there, and if William wanted to win, it had to be a flush.

The ace of spades was already in Ye Chen's hand, so if William wanted to win, the fifth card could and must be the nine of spades!

Anyone who has ever made a golden flush knows that it is extremely rare to get a three card flush, let alone a five card flush.

However, William wasn't worried at all.

Because he knew that his friend, the dealer, could make any card he wanted for himself.

So, he had already concluded that this card was definitely the nine of spades!

However, once the card was red, then William didn't even need to see what point it actually was to be absolutely certain that the hand was his to lose!

Apart from Ye Chen and Helena, the rest of the people at the scene were either William's fiancée or William's friends.

So when they saw that the bottom card was actually a red one, everyone couldn't help but let out an extremely regretful gasp!

Olivia was about to have a heart attack!

She had thought that William had caught a big hand and was thinking about how to celebrate later, but then she turned around and William had lost so much in turn!

All of a sudden, this future Scandinavian Queen, her whole body tense to the extreme, muttered in her heart: "How could this be ..... How could this be ..... Why isn't it the 9 of spades... . why on earth isn't it the 9 of spades!!!"

William was even more confused, the huge difference of billions of euros between the opposite and the positive made his whole mind go blank, he subconsciously roared out of his mouth, "How is this ..... possible? This is absolutely impossible! My card should be the nine of spades, how can it be the six of diamonds!!! Who swapped my card away?"

Ye Chen immediately put away his original look of that scatterbrain and looked at William and sneered coldly, "And by no means ..... is this card your father, huh? You let him be the 9 of spades, he is the 9 of spades?"

William looked at his dealer friend like he was crazy and cursed, "It's you! You're f*cking playing me, aren't you! What did Ye give you? What did Ye give you? How dare you screw me like that?"

Ye Chen said in a cold voice: "William, that's a bit irresponsible of you, isn't it? This is the first time I've met any of you, and I don't even know this friend who's guesting as a dealer. I lost to you so many times just now, did I ever blame the dealer?"

William had lost his mind and was now a broken gambler, gritting his teeth and saying, "Don't give me that f*cking sh*t! I told him to help me with my cards and let me win! But he lost me on the most important hand! There must be a f*cking conspiracy! Ye Chen! It must be you!"

The crowd was frozen at this point, and it was only then that the other runners realized that William had conspired with the dealer.

At this moment, William was also furious and had completely lost his rationality. He was now convinced that this lottery official had cooperated with Ye Chen and eaten himself to death, so he was naturally extremely indignant in his heart.

But how could he have imagined that with a single word, he would have sold himself out.

At this time, Ye Chen stood up and said coldly: "Oh! So you f*cking cheated with others! Do you know the rules at the gambling table, cheating is punishable by chopping off your hand!"

Only then did William wake up with a start!

Realising that he had said the wrong thing, he immediately denied it and said, "I didn't cheat! I was just talking nonsense!"

Ye Chen laughed coldly and said, "You made it up, didn't you? Good!"

After saying that, Ye Chen looked at the lottery official and questioned in a stern voice, "You! Tell us exactly what happened!"

Chapter 3473

The lottery official hurriedly said, "William invited me here today because he wanted me to help him play cards in a gambling game and let him win a sum of money, he has done this more than once, and every time he has at least several hundred to ten million euros in the bank, this time I was also instructed by him, so I helped him cheat ....."

Ye Chen looked at William and asked in a cold voice, "Come on, what else do you have to say?"

William didn't know how to respond for a while, and just then, he suddenly glanced at the IOU on the table.

Today, he had originally won one billion from Ye Chen, and now he had lost in a two billion dollar IOU, which was the same as not only not winning Ye Chen's money, but also owing Ye Chen one billion himself.

But he felt that all the evidence of the debt was on that IOU!

As long as that IOU was gone, the debt would naturally not count!

As long as the IOU was destroyed, then the big deal was that he was playing for nothing for one night!

So, he thought he was swift and suddenly grabbed the IOU and shoved it into his mouth like a madman!

But his so-called swiftness was already as slow as an ant in Ye Chen's eyes.

At the very moment William tried to stuff the note into his mouth, he suddenly felt his wrist being grabbed in a deadly grip!

Crack!

He only felt a sharp pain coming from his right wrist, and when he looked up, he found that his wrist was connected to his entire arm, with only a layer of skin and flesh remaining.

That bone had long since broken, and even the broken bone stubble had pierced through the skin, and blood was gushing out in a steady stream.

Ye Chen had already pulled the note away from his hand and said in a cold voice, "You can do it, William, even if you cheat, you have to eat the note after losing money, you are the real f*cking blackmailer!"

Saying that, Ye Chen warned him with murderous intent, "If you want to renege on your debt, the next one to break off like this will be the one in your trousers!"

William's whole body was on the verge of collapse, cold sweat caused by the severe pain, snapping down his whole face.

He knew that he had planted himself hard today, and finally understood that Ye Chen had actually been pretending to be a pig and eating a tiger before.

But he was also really afraid that Ye Chen would scrap his roots.

So, he could only grit his teeth and admit to it, and spoke, "Good! Ye Chen! You're awesome! I submit to you!"

Ye Chen sneered, "Don't concede me, I don't need you to concede either, just pay me the 2 billion euros first! It's written here in black and white, I won't spare you even if there's a single cent missing!"

"What?!" William roared in anger, "I just won you a billion! Now that I've lost two billion to you, at best, I owe you a billion!"

Ye Chen said with a straight face, "You don't have to be a rascal with me here, all the chips on that table are mine now, who did you win a billion from?"

Saying that, Ye Chen smiled contemptuously and added: "Besides, chips are just a kind of plastic toy, not money, while this kind of IOU written on paper and signed, is the real meaning of money, do you understand?"

William was furious and blurted out, "Ye Chen! Are you still a human being? There are so many people here who can testify to me! They are all eyewitnesses!"

Ye Chen nodded, "No problem, you have your witnesses, I have my ironclad evidence!"

After that, Ye Chen said, "Why don't we just do this, tomorrow we'll go to court in Northern Europe, you'll call all your witnesses to court, I'll show this note of yours in court and see how the court will judge!"

He said, "Besides, let's also let the people of Europe judge whether it is justified for you to owe me two billion euros in black and white, or whether it is more justified for you to unite with others to harm me, only to be killed by me in one fell swoop!"

And Ye Chen hadn't finished.

He looked at William and continued, "Oh yes, by the way, let the Nordic justice department also look into it, you cheated on a gambling game and tried to win me three billion euros plus a plane, such a big thing, according to the Nordic law, I wonder how many years will be sentenced?"

Chapter 3474

At this moment, William's entire inner defence had completely collapsed.

He knew very well in his heart that once this kind of matter really came to court, he would definitely be the one to lose, and it would definitely be a miserable defeat!

Not to mention the fact that the IOU he had written with his own hand was in Ye Chen's hand, just the fact that he, as a descendant of the Rothschild family, and as the fiancé of the Nordic Queen's upcoming wedding, would cheat on others in a poker game was enough to ruin his reputation.

What's more, it was three billion euros and a plane!

If word got out, this would be the biggest gambling scam in the world! It would be an absolute disaster for the family's reputation!

In Europe, the royal family and the great families are most concerned with their reputation.

If a member of the royal family, even if he is a prince, does something that the royal family is not allowed to do and it is made public, the royal family will strip him of his royal status and expel him from the palace in order to save its face.

There is one prince in Great Britain who has already been removed from the royal family.

So, if this matter were to break out, it would be absolutely impossible for William and Olivia's wedding to go ahead.

Moreover, if such a humiliating matter were to get out, it would be a disgrace to the entire Rothschild family!

This third-ranking family would not normally be noticed by the core members of the Rothschild family at all.

But if such an international scandal were to occur, the core members of the Rothschild family would be outraged!

And then, William's entire family would be in danger of being destroyed!

But there was something even more terrible.

In Europe, cheating while gambling is the same as fraud! It is punishable as fraud!

And the amount of money William had cheated was so huge that it would have put him behind bars!

As soon as he thought of this, he immediately fell to his knees, crying and begging, "Ye Chen ..... I was wrong ..... I shouldn't have cheated to hurt you ..... please! For the sake of my wedding tomorrow, please spare me ..... If this matter is really exposed, my life will be ruined!"

Ye Chen nodded and casually said, "Then it's ruined, what does it have to do with me?"

William knelt on the ground and kowtowed repeatedly, crying, "Ye Chen ..... beg you to give me another chance for the sake of my first offense ..... I really know that I am wrong, and I will definitely ask my family to find a way to help me repay this gambling debt, just beg you to give me a break ....."

Ye Chen laughed: "You have to understand one thing, now you owe me this 2 billion is written clearly in black and white, as long as I go to the court to sue you, you also definitely have to pay me back, in that case, then why should I hold my hand high to you?"

William was nearly desperate and cried, "Ye Chen ..... what on earth do you have to do to forgive me? What exactly do you have to do to keep this matter from going to court?"

Ye Chen smiled blandly and said, "This matter depends on your family's sincerity."

After that, he looked at Olivia and said, "Olivia, William's parents should be in the banquet hall on the ground floor drinking with your parents, now that William has caused such a big trouble, I think he can't solve it, so you should go and call William's parents up and see how William's family is going to solve this matter."

Olivia was also on the verge of a breakdown at this point.

She was getting married tomorrow, and the whole country, and indeed all of Europe, would be watching her wedding ceremony tomorrow.

If at this time, her fiancé spread such a big scandal and was arrested by the judiciary, then her reputation as the future queen would be ruined in advance!

Therefore, like William, she said that nothing could be done to make this matter public.

Chapter 3475

So, she hurriedly said to Ye Chen, "Mr Ye, please wait a moment, I'll go and invite William's parents up!"

After saying that, she hurriedly ran out.

At this moment, inside the banquet hall.

Aman Ramovich, who had been slapped by Ye Chen, had long since gone to his room unhappily, and their wives had also gone to their rooms first because they were not up to the task of drinking.

In the banquet hall, these two men were left to drink freely, one cup for each of you and one cup for each of me.

After all, tomorrow is the day of their children's wedding, and it won't be long before Olivia is crowned Queen.

William, her husband, will also be officially crowned Prince.

By then, with the title of Prince, William would have made a name for himself in the Rothschild family.

Perhaps the whole family would be able to rise to the second rung of the Rothschild ladder.

Just as the two of them were happily drinking, Olivia came running down, panting, "Dad! Uncle George! You guys get up to the second floor! William's in big trouble!"

"Trouble?" George, William's father, asked with a surprised look on his face, "Didn't you youngsters go to play cards? What kind of trouble could William be in?"

Olivia cried, "William was so intent on setting up a game for Ye Chen that he joined forces with a friend of his to cheat on Ye Chen, but he was caught out by Ye Chen and lost two billion euros to Ye Chen, and now Ye Chen is making a scene and wants to take him to court ....."

"What?!" George felt a dizzy spell and blurted out, "What kind of courage did he have to eat, how dare he cheat on Ye Chen? And to make such a big ..... deal, didn't I tell him not to mess with that Ye surname?"

Olivia also said with immense regret, "William was thinking that this matter could definitely be done unnoticed, and that he could win a sum of money from Ye Chen and also have a chance to win Ye Chen's Concorde over, but he never thought that he would still lose two billion to Ye Chen in the end ....."

George was about to collapse after hearing this.

Two billion euros is how big a huge amount of money naturally need not be said, the key is that this matter has come to this situation, if Ye Chen really want to stab him out, then his son will be completely finished.

In Europe, if a person's reputation goes bankrupt, then everything he has will also go bankrupt with him.

He had only one son, so he couldn't let him go to jail!

Therefore, the first thing George realised was that the most important thing right now was that he could not let Ye Chen stir up this matter!

He had to do everything he could to reconcile with Ye Chen!

So, he hurriedly got up and said, "Take me there! I'll go and talk to Ye Chen!"

Richard also said nervously, "I'll come with you!"

Soon, the two men joined Olivia and ran into the chess room on the first floor.

As soon as they entered the room, they saw William, who had broken one of his hands, was now kneeling on the floor crying in pain.

Ye Chen, on the other hand, was at that moment standing in front of him with his shoulders clasped and an arrogant look on his face.

As soon as George entered, he did not dare to care for his son and hurriedly came to Ye Chen and said in a low voice, "Mr. Ye, this matter is my fault for not teaching my son properly, I did not expect this rebellious son to do such a treacherous thing anymore, I still hope you can forgive me ....."

Ye Chen asked him rhetorically, "He is your son, not my son, why should I forgive him?"

Chapter 3476

Seeing that Ye Chen did not buy his plea, George hurriedly added, "Mr. Ye, my son has made a mistake, I as a father will definitely try to make up for it, I will do my best to solve the problem, please don't be so angry!"

Ye Chen nodded and said, "Since you have this attitude, then I won't talk nonsense with you. Your son dares to set me up, and he wants to cheat me with 3 billion euros and a Concorde at once.

George's face was filled with cold sweat.

He also did not expect that his son would be so bold.

Three billion euros, a Concorde ..... This is not f*cking gambling coming, this is eating people coming!

Before he could think of how to give Ye Chen a satisfactory reply, Ye Chen shook the two billion euro IOU in his hand and said indifferently, "And this IOU is written by your son himself, he owes me two billion euros, how are you going to settle this debt?"

George immediately wiped his head full of sweat, such a large amount, and the other party is also the Ye family, he immediately realized, if this matter is not resolved properly, his son will probably be in jail!

Moreover, tomorrow was also the day of his wedding to Olivia, and if William went in, it would be all over.

Therefore, everything has to be in the interest of the greater good, so George clenched his teeth and said: "Mr. Ye ..... this two billion euro debt, I ..... will pay it for my son! Please be generous and give me a hand!"

George was already bleeding profusely this time!

Two billion euros, which was 20% of his family's entire assets, was taken out to Ye Chen in one go, and the loss was already extremely heavy.

But now in this situation, it was no longer possible for George to hesitate.

Ye Chen did not look satisfied at all at this time, but said with a face full of disdain, "Even if you pay me 2 billion euros, it will only solve the matter of the debt, how will he solve the matter of cheating to trap me?"

"You should know that this note is written in black and white by your son himself, and there is also his hand seal, even if you sue to the court, you are still going to return this money to me, and I believe that the court in Northern Europe, is definitely able to help me to get justice."

After saying that, Ye Chen deliberately looked at Olivia, and then said aloud, "And I still don't know if there are any of William's accomplices in your gang! I'll hand this matter over to the Nordic judicial authorities, and I'm sure they'll be able to find out everything!"

Seeing that Ye Chen wanted to tell the truth, George's blood pressure rose and his brain became dizzy.

Not only him, but also Olivia was on the verge of collapse!

In her heart, she thought nervously and incomparably: "This time to make a game to pit Ye Chen, although it was William's idea, but I also knew about it from the beginning, and also discussed it with William, even the venue to carry out the criminal act was provided by me, and even I had long ago clarified with William the ratio of one person to half of the spoils, so at the legal level, I am definitely considered his accomplice ....."

"If Ye Chen really exposes this matter and leaves it to the judicial system to solve, then the judicial system will definitely try William first!"

"And a stinking fool like William, who is not useful in appearance, will surely give me up very quickly at that time ....."

"If it becomes known that the future Queen of Northern Europe has set up a trap to bilk people out of huge sums of money, then I definitely won't have a chance to inherit the throne ....."

Olivia, whose heart was beating in her throat, rushed to her father Richard's side and whispered in his ear, crying, "Dad ..... this matter must not leave this room no matter what, because this matter was planned by me and William together, once he is caught he will definitely give me up, then I It would be the end of me ....."

When Richard heard this, his eyes went black and he almost fell to the ground.

Chapter 3477

He could not easily recover, gritting his teeth and staring at Olivia, asking in a low voice, "What is your brain made of? A person who will soon inherit the throne and become the Queen, how dare she participate in this kind of cheating gambling game, you ..... you are trying to make me die!"

Richard was really going crazy.

Although the Nordic royal family is well loved by the people in Northern Europe, but to put it bluntly, it is a family of mascots, in law, there are no privileges.

And the actual running of the Nordic country is all in the hands of the Nordic government team.

The cabinet and parliament are the real administrators of the country, the royal family has no real power whatsoever, and once the royal family breaks the law, it is the Nordic judiciary that will not cover them up.

Thinking of this, Richard hurriedly intervened and said, "Mr. Ye, of course William was wrong! Of course he should be punished! But please don't take George's attitude of solving the problem so positively. ...."

The Rothschild family should pay you a portion of the compensation as a private settlement, what do you think?"

Once George heard this, he also immediately nodded his head repeatedly and begged, "Mr. Ye, name a figure, as long as it is within our affordability, we will never hesitate!"

Ye Chen grunted and bristled, "Do you think this matter can be solved by taking money? Do you think my Ye family is short of money? We have given hundreds of billions of euros to the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall, what is money to me?"

As he said that, Ye Chen's expression gradually turned cold as he said in a stern voice, "I just want to take my f*cking revenge now! No one has dared to screw me like this since I was a kid! Last time, an unscrupulous person stole my bank card and transferred more than 20 billion RMB from me, I thought she was already daring and unmatched, but today someone wants to cheat me out of 3 billion euros and a Concorde! Your William has a lot of nerve!"

The next thing he knew, George had kicked the kneeling William to the ground, then rushed up to him, took him by the collar and slapped him back and forth across the face seven or eight times.

As he did so, he cursed, "You're a bastard who's not good enough to do anything, but not good enough to do anything! I must beat you to death today to give Mr. Ye a taste of his own medicine!"

William's eyes were burning and tears were flowing, but he didn't dare to say a word.

He knew that he had caused a big trouble, and if he didn't satisfy Ye Chen today, he would be all finished.

After George had slapped him seven or eight times, he looked up at Ye Chen and saw that Ye Chen's expression did not care at all, so he knew that he must not be relieved yet.

So, he gritted his teeth and slapped him a dozen more times, causing William's cheeks to fill with blood.

Seeing that William was almost unconscious, George had to stop and turn to Ye Chen and begged, "Mr. Ye, you can't beat him anymore ..... If you keep on beating him, William won't be able to hold his wedding tomorrow ..... Please, for the sake of him being in this state, spare him. For the sake of his condition, please spare him once ....."

Ye Chen sneered, "Your son stirred up such a big thing, and you still think about having a wedding? You've got a big heart! I advise you to hurry up, while it is not yet the wedding day, just announce the wedding postponed, wait for William to be released from prison and then make up for it, then Olivia can still have a reputation of being infatuated with absolute love!"

Speaking of this, Ye Chen said with a longing expression, "Think about it! A young girl who waits for her lover to be released from prison until she is seventy or eighty years old! What a touching love story is that?"

"And in the end, when two grey-haired couples walk hand in hand into the hall of marriage and announce to the world that they have finally made it, everyone will be touched by them!

"There is no other example of this kind in the world, is there? In my opinion, it will become a love story comparable to Romeo and Juliet!"

Chapter 3478

Olivia was so embarrassed by this burial by Ye Chen that she wanted to snap a hole in the floor with her toes and burrow to the ground floor.

How could she possibly wait for William to be released from prison?

Otherwise, if he goes to prison, she won't be in a good position either!

George, William's father, could hear Ye Chen's sarcasm and ridicule, and seeing that Ye Chen was now completely unwilling to go private, his heart was already terrified to the extreme.

He looked at Ye Chen and pleaded bitterly, "Mr. Ye, this matter is my fault for not teaching my son properly, as long as you name your conditions, no matter how difficult it is, I will find a way to meet your demands!"

Ye Chen ignored him, but looked at William and said in a cold voice, "William, if you want me to give you a higher hand, you must first give an honest account of the whole matter, including who you made this decision with, and how many other people were your accomplices besides the dealer at the scene!"

William hurriedly said, "No no no ..... only the dealer is my accomplice ..... he previously worked as a dealer in Las Vegas casinos for many years, gambling skills, so I often teamed up with him to win at similar parties Some pocket money ..... This matter was conspired by the two of us from the beginning to the end, there was no third person's involvement anymore."

Ye Chen said in a cold voice: "Is every word you say true? I'm warning you, if you don't tell the truth in half a word, I'll immediately call the police to deal with it! When the time comes, I will also have the Ye family put pressure on the Nordic judicial system and demand that you be sentenced severely!"

Saying that, Ye Chen added: "And think carefully, if you are taken away by the police, then you may have to stay in jail for the rest of your life! At that time, I don't care who the person you want to defend is, but you might not even have a chance to see her, and by then others will still be able to live their own dashing lives, while you, you will only be able to live with a barred window."

Hearing Ye Chen's words, George took three or two steps to William and slapped him hard on the face again, shouting angrily, "What time is it that you still don't tell the truth, do you really want to go to jail? It doesn't matter if you go to jail yourself, but don't drag our whole family down with you!"

Deep inside, William was so panicked that he cried out, "I'm telling you! I'm telling you! I'm telling you now! The mastermind of this matter is also Olivia, and the two of us have discussed this matter together ....."

When Olivia heard this, she burst into a rage, "William! Don't you spit in your blood! This was all your idea alone, what has it got to do with me?"

William said aggressively, "I did come up with the idea, but you were very supportive! And you also said that no matter how much money I earn 10%, I have to share half of it with you, and if I can win that Concorde from Ye Chen, you will have half of that plane too ....."

"You're talking nonsense!" Olivia didn't expect that William would sell himself all out for fear of being investigated deeper!

She was furious and yelled, "William! You're still trying to bring me down at a time like this, I've lost my mind! There is no need to tie the knot tomorrow, I have nothing to do with you from now on!"

Ye Chen looked at Olivia and said with a cold smile, "Olivia, if your Scandinavian police decide that you are indeed William's accomplice, then you can't get married even if you want to, even if you are an accessory, I'm afraid you will have to go to jail for a few years!"

When Olivia heard this, she burst into tears and begged, "Mr. Ye, we have no enmity, there is no need to ruin my future, right? Or else you can name a price! No matter how much it is, as long as it's within the royal family's affordability, the royal family is willing to pay you back!"

Chapter 3479

Seeing that Olivia had said so, George also hurriedly said, "Mr. Ye, that's what I mean too. As long as we can afford it, we will do it!"

He pointed at William and Olivia and choked up, "Look, these two children are still very young, and Olivia will soon become the Nordic Queen, if this gets out, these two children's lives will be ruined!"

Ye Chen rubbed his chin in silence for a moment and laughed, "You are right, they are indeed still very young, so if I really want to ruin their future, I feel a bit sorry for them."

Saying that, Ye Chen sighed and said, "Ai! Looking at how pious you all are, I can choose to settle this matter privately, but it will depend on the attitude of your two families in solving the problem."

As soon as Ye Chen said this, the two families immediately understood the meaning of his words.

Since it depended on the attitude, then naturally they had to show their sincerity.

So, William's father, George, immediately said, "Mr. Ye, don't worry, as long as you are willing to give me a hand, I will immediately pay you the two billion euros!"

As he said this, George's heart was dripping with blood.

Their family only had a total of ten billion euros in assets, and they had originally promised the Nordic royal family that they would invest a large amount of money into the Nordic royal family's properties after their marriage.

Now, William had stirred up such a big mess, and the two billion euros had far exceeded their family's cash flow reserves.

George could only take the money he was going to invest in the royal family after the wedding and pay Ye Chen first.

Hearing this, Ye Chen could not help but frown and asked him, "Your son already owes me two billion, it's written in black and white, it's only natural for you, as his father, to pay this debt for him, so why are you still licking your face and begging me for a higher hand?"

George did not expect that two billion euros would not satisfy Ye Chen, so he could only ask him stiffly: "Ye ..... Mr. Ye ..... what exactly will satisfy you?"

Ye Chen said indifferently, "If you want me to raise my hand, then in addition to this two billion, how can you also show some more sincerity in order to say."

George was so nervous that his voice trembled a little and asked softly, "How much do you want, Mr. Ye .....??"

Ye Chen lightly said: "I also do not want much, in addition to this two billion euros owed, and then take three billion euros as spiritual compensation, five billion also sounds better."

George's eyes blackened and said offhandedly, "Mr. Ye ..... five ..... five billion euros ..... is ..... not ..... too much ....."

Ye Chen asked rhetorically, "Is it much?"

George almost collapsed and choked out, "Mr. Ye ..... five billion euros is indeed too much ..... we ..... where can we get that much money ....."

Ye Chen looked at Olivia and said indifferently, "Olivia, since you are also involved in this matter, then the five billion euros will be paid by both of your families together! As for how much each family will contribute, you will negotiate a percentage yourselves! In half an hour, I want to see five billion euros in my account!"

Olivia froze at the sound of it and blurted out, "Ye Chen ..... this matter, the William family is already willing to pay, how can we still ask our royal family to pay as well ..... one thing, you can't make double money, right? "

Chapter 3480

Ye Chen has now taken these two people to their knees.

Neither William nor Olivia could bear the consequences of this matter coming to light.

Although five billion euros was a lot, for them, if they tightened their belts, they would be able to get it out.

Therefore, Ye Chen felt that there were times when he just had to push his enemies, and if he didn't, they wouldn't know how much money they could actually come up with.

Olivia's father, Richard, at this point, his whole person was incredibly nervous.

He knew that Ye Chen had now caught the soft underbelly of his family, and if this matter really came to light, the royal majesty would be gone.

At that time, it would be impossible for the nation to allow Olivia, a member of the royal family suspected of committing a crime, to inherit the throne.

By the same token, it is unlikely that they will allow themselves to inherit the throne, as they are Olivia's biological father.

At that time, the one most qualified to inherit the throne would instead become Helena, who had been by Ye Chen's side without saying a word!

So, he said without hesitation, "Mr. Ye! This matter is indeed my incompetence in teaching my daughter, we are willing to actively resolve this matter, please wait for a moment while I discuss it with the Rothschild family!"

Ye Chen nodded and said indifferently, "Go ahead and discuss, I'll give you half an hour, and tell me the result in half an hour."

Richard hurriedly said, "Yes, yes! Mr. Ye you please wait a moment ....."

After saying that, he immediately looked at William's father, George, and spoke, "George, let's talk about this matter in private!"

George also agreed in a panic, so he said to Ye Chen respectfully, "Mr. Ye, let's go out and discuss it first, and give you a satisfactory answer as soon as possible!"

Ye Chen waved his hand, "You guys just discuss it here, I'll go with Helena to see the Queen, she wants to spend more time with the old man."

All they could think of now was to hurry up and get the solution settled.

Richard then said without hesitation, "Mr. Ye, you and Helena can go straight up, and I will personally meet you in the ward after we have negotiated a result here!"

"Good!" Ye Chen nodded slightly, and then said to Helena, "Helena, let's go."

As soon as Ye Chen left, William went crazy and rushed up to beat up his lottery friend, cursing angrily as he did so, "How dare you fucking cheat me! I'll kill you!"

His father, George, rushed to stop him and yelled out, "William! It is imperative that we find a solution as soon as possible! You don't want to make a scene here!"

William had to stop moving.

At this point Richard said to the others, "Gentlemen, please give us some space to be alone, we have some matters to discuss."

Naturally, the crowd knew the huge problems these two families were currently facing, so they left.

The lotus officer who had been psychologically implicated by Ye Chen was as if he had lost his soul, so he was taken out by the others.

After there were only four members of the two families left, George said, "Gentlemen, we must first reach a consensus, that is, we must stabilise Ye Chen tonight, and we must not let him tell anyone about this matter, otherwise our two families will all be ruined!"

Richard sighed, "Ye Chen is asking for 5 billion euros, that's 10,000 times scarier than a bandit! Where are we going to get so much money for him?"

Olivia looked at William and said in exasperation, "William! This matter is all your fault for being greedy! Now Ye Chen wants five billion euros in compensation, and I think you'll have to pay it all!"
