

Ye Chen 3481

Chapter 3481

"I'll pay all of it?" When William heard this, he exploded and said in a stern voice, "Olivia, when you said you wanted half of the money before, I didn't complain a word.

At this point Richard said, "William! There's no point in arguing at this point! Both you and Olivia must work together to get through this, or tomorrow, at dawn, will be the day you and our two families will be discredited!"

After that, he looked at George and said through clenched teeth, "Ye Chen asks for five billion euros, we, the Iliad family, can offer at most one billion euros, the rest is up to you."

George sighed.

The Nordic royal family was only willing to pay one billion, that did leave him with a bit of a funding gap.

However, being willing to pay was already very good, after all, he knew the Nordic Royal Family's actual situation, and coming up with a billion in cash was definitely their limit.

However, four billion euros in cash is also an impossible task for him.

Given his family's current financial situation, the most he could come up with today would be three billion euros.

If he wanted to come up with four billion, he would have to get rid of some of his assets first, and that was not something that could be solved overnight.

So he spoke up, "I simply cannot afford to settle for four billion euros right now, that's nearly five billion dollars! Where am I going to get that much cash to give to Ye Chen?"

Richard asked him, "And what is the most you can come up with?"

George blurted out, "At most, it's three billion euros!"

As soon as Richard heard this, he immediately sighed, "George, if you expect us to come up with two billion euros, then I can tell you categorically that it's simply impossible! It's not that I'm not willing to share it with you, but I simply can't come up with that much cash! All the assets of the Royal Family combined are just under three billion euros, and a large part of that is in my mother's name, and until she dies, no one can touch that asset!"

George also knew that what Richard said was true, so he asked him impotently, "What then? Should we just tell Ye Chen that we can't get that much money together?"

"Definitely not" Richard said offhandedly, "If we tell Ye Chen like that, then Ye Chen will turn around and stir up the story and we'll be finished!"

Olivia gritted her teeth and said, "If we can't do it, we should just kill Ye Chen! It's all over!"

"How can we do that" Richard exclaimed, "If we kill Ye Chen, the Ye family will never let us go! Don't you forget that the Ye family people still have the backing of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall now!"

Olivia said with an incomparably gloomy expression, "The best solution to this matter is to kill Ye Chen! Kill him and then find a way to disguise it as an accident, as long as we do it flawlessly and the others can keep the secret, the Ye family people can't possibly do anything to us!"

William also seemed to have grabbed the straw at this point and blurted out, "I think Olivia's solution is very feasible! If we kill Ye Chen, we won't have to pay the 5 billion euros! As long as we handle it cleverly, so that no one can find out any real clues, this matter can be muddled through!"

Olivia's eyes were thick with killing intent as she coldly said, "We have some special talents in the royal family, and many of them are experts in assassination.

Olivia added, "After Ye Chen's death, we'll fake the scene to look like he fell to his death, and then we'll tell the Ye family that Ye Chen was committing adultery with Helena! And when Ye Chen was climbing through the window into Helena's room at night, he lost his footing and fell to his death!"

Speaking of this, the corners of Olivia's mouth rose slightly as she sneered, "Ye Chen didn't even have a bodyguard with him this time, and he was on our turf, so it was as easy as pie for us to kill him!"

Chapter 3482

At this moment.

Ye Chen and Helena, had arrived at the Queen's ward on the top floor of the ancient castle.

The guards at the door originally wanted to stop them, but after asking Olivia for instructions, they immediately let them go.

When they arrived at the ward, Ye Chen sent the medical staff out and took a look at the old woman on the bed.

At the side, Helena looked at Ye Chen with expectation and asked him, "Mr. Ye, can you cure my grandmother and make her wake up?"

Ye Chen said indifferently, "As long as she still has a breath, I can definitely cure her."

Saying that, Ye Chen walked to the bed, put his hand on the old man's pulse, and a trace of spiritual energy quietly passed into it.

A moment later, Ye Chen's brow gradually tightened and he spoke, "Old lady, I guess you should be the loneliest person in this world now, right?"

As soon as Ye Chen said this, he felt the old lady's fingers twitching slightly.

Helena asked in confusion, "Ye Chen what do you mean by that?"

Ye Chen shook his head and sighed, "Your grandmother is still conscious, if I'm right, she should be able to hear us now."

"What?" Helena exclaimed, "Grandma, she can hear us? Then why has she been unconscious?"

Ye Chen said seriously, "What is unconscious is only her body, not her consciousness, it's just that she can't control her body."

Saying that, Ye Chen deliberately lamented in a very regretful tone, "The reason why I said that your grandmother is the loneliest person in this world is because no one knows that she is still conscious, no one knows that she has only lost control of her body"

"Right now, she is permanently trapped inside her body, if she can regain control of her body, she will be able to be conscious in the true sense of the word, otherwise, she will have to live forever inside her closed brain, unable to have any communication with anyone, until her body is declared dead."

"This kind of thing is not alarmist, there are a considerable number of vegetative people, in fact, are not brain dead, on the contrary, their brains are completely fine, they just lost control of their bodies, this kind of people, is the loneliest people in this world, their brains are clear about everything, but they can't express or move, they can only lie here like the living dead"

"Some lucky ones, who are in a coma for a few years or a dozen years still have a chance to be able to wake up, but some, who may lie in a hospital bed for decades, will not be able to wake up until their bodies die"

When Ye Chen said this, he saw the Queen, whose eyes were tightly closed, two lines of tears flowing out of the corners of her eyes, but she still couldn't control herself to open her eyes.

Helena was already in tears by now and choked up, "Mr. Ye, please save my grandmother don't let her suffer this inhuman torture again"

Ye Chen sighed, "Save her, naturally you can but"

As Ye Chen said this, he felt that the old lady was desperately trying to wiggle her fingers.

It was a pity that her intention was strong but her strength was weak, and although she tried with all her might, the extent of her finger twitching was only a mere few millimeters.

Seeing this, Ye Chen thought to himself, "This old lady's desire to live is indeed very strong, since that's the case, then we might as well stimulate her again."

At this time, Helena's family Ye Chen wanted to say something but then asked him hurriedly, "Mr. Ye, since you have a solution, please save my grandmother no matter what, I will do anything in my life to repay your kindness"

Ye Chen spoke, "I do have an ancient Chinese divine medicine that can cure your grandmother, but this medicine is too precious, even just a little bit of it is worth a fortune, and honestly, it is a bit uneconomical to use this medicine for an old man of such an age."

Helena was a little stunned for a moment, she didn't understand, Ye Chen had clearly promised to save her grandmother and help her become the Queen, so why did he seem to regret it now.

But at this time, Ye Chen suddenly turned to look at the unconscious Queen on the bed and spoke, "Old Madam, I do have a way to bring you back to consciousness, and I also have a way to let you live for two, three or even five or ten more years, however, you have to agree to a few conditions, I wonder if you agree?"

Chapter 3483

As he said this, Ye Chen could feel that the old lady's intention to try to control her finger had become even stronger.

So, Ye Chen continued, "This way, I will first let you regain control of your finger for the time being, then I will explain my conditions to you one by one, if you can accept it, you will raise one finger, if you cannot, you will raise two fingers."

Saying that, Ye Chen sent a trace of spiritual qi, into the empress' body, so that she could temporarily control her fingers.

Afterwards, Ye Chen then said, "You can now try to control your right index finger and middle finger."

As soon as the words left her mouth, she saw the Empress's two fingers move up and down a few times.

Helena looked dumbfounded and exclaimed, "Grandma can really hear what we say?"

Ye Chen nodded and spoke, "That's why I said she must be lonely."

Saying that, Ye Chen looked at the empress and asked, "My first condition is that after you wake up, you must immediately announce your abdication, pass the empress's throne to Helena, and at the same time, you must try your best to help Helena sit on the empress's throne, if you agree, I can guarantee that you will live for at least another five years, can you accept?"

The Queen's right index finger was immediately raised high.

According to Ye Chen's previous agreement, by raising one finger, the empress had agreed to this condition.

Ye Chen nodded in satisfaction and said, "Good, my second condition is that you must expel your son Richard and granddaughter Olivia's family, all of them, from the royal family, and at the same time, you must unconditionally accept and cooperate with any punishment I mete out to them, can you accept it?"

As soon as Ye Chen's words fell, the Queen once again lifted her right index finger high!

Previously, Olivia had let slip harsh words to Helena in this ward, even admitting that the Queen's present bad condition had something to do with her, but Olivia did not know that the Queen had actually heard it all.

Therefore, the Queen had long been disappointed with her now, and even hated her to the bone.

Hearing this request from Ye Chen, there was naturally no hesitation.

Seeing this, Helena hurriedly said, "Mr. Ye! Grandma has already agreed to your conditions, can you save her now?"

Ye Chen nodded without panic and took out a rejuvenation pill from his pocket, then divided it in two.

Afterwards, Ye Chen handed half of it to Helena and spoke, "Take this half pill and all your illnesses will be cured."

Helena looked at the half of the rejuvenation pill with a look of disbelief!

Her illness could not be cured by many top western doctors.

Even the most powerful modern medicine in this world could not cure her persistent illness.

Yet, Ye Chen said that this half pill would cure her, and her instinct was to disbelieve.

However, she had full confidence in Ye Chen's strength.

Therefore, she immediately took the pill and said gratefully, "Mr. Ye, thank you for saving my life!"

After saying that, she put the pill directly into her mouth.

The Spring Return Pill melted in her mouth, and immediately afterwards, Helena felt that her entire body was wrapped in an indescribable warmth, an experience that was marvellous to the extreme.

At this time, Ye Chen divided the remaining Spring Return Pill into two and put one of them into the Queen's mouth.

The medicinal effects quickly worked within the Queen's dying body, like young leaves growing out of a dry tree, rejuvenating it!

She subconsciously tried to open her eyes, a move she had tried countless times over the days she had been in a coma but had failed countless times.

And this time, just as soon as the idea arrived, her eyes opened a slit without a hitch!

Immediately afterwards, a strong and blinding light poured in through the slit in her eyes, which made the Queen, who had already spent her days in darkness, burst into tears

Chapter 3484

The Queen, who had regained her body's power of manipulation, tried several times to open her eyes, but failed due to the irritation of the bright light.

Seeing this, Helena hurried forward and asked with concern, "Grandma, how are you feeling?"

The Queen spoke with difficulty, "Helena I I'm fine it's just... . it's just that my eyes can't adjust to the bright light yet"

Helena immediately choked with excitement, "Grandma you wait a moment, I will go and turn off the headlights!"

After saying that, she immediately got up and turned off all the headlights in the ward, leaving only the softer lighted strip of lights.

Only then did the Queen finally open her eyes, and immediately afterwards, her vision gradually returned and she could see Helena's face clearly.

At this moment, the Queen couldn't help but choke back a sob, "Helena It's been Grandma's fault all these years If Grandma had known Olivia was such a vicious person, I would never have given her the succession to the throne, no matter what I said! "

Helena exclaimed, "Grandma, you knew all about it?"

The Queen nodded in agony, "I heard everything you and Olivia said in the ward earlier"

Saying that, she looked at Helena with heartache and choked up, "Helena, for so many years, you have suffered!"

The Queen was naturally aware of what Helena had been through all these years.

But in the years before she became seriously ill, she had been very unhappy about Helena's concealment of her health condition and was therefore very prejudiced against her.

So she then placed the future of the entire royal family on Olivia.

Even though she knew that Helena had suffered a lot in the royal family over the years, she chose to turn a blind eye to it.

But how could she have imagined that now, the one who had victimised her was Olivia, whom she valued the most, and the one who had brought people back to rescue her was Helena, who had been stripped of her heirship.

When she heard the Queen's words, Helena's eyes burst into tears and she choked up, "Grandma, it's okay for me to suffer a little, but Olivia not only controlled you, she also kidnapped my mother and used her as a threat to force me to marry the Russian oligarch Aman Ramovich I still don't know where she has hidden my mother"

The Queen gritted her teeth and said sternly, "Don't worry, I will get justice for you and your mother!"

After saying that, she looked towards Ye Chen who was standing not far away and said gratefully, "This is Mr. Ye, right! Thank you for saving me"

Ye Chen said indifferently, "I came to your rescue because of your granddaughter Helena, so you must remember what you promised me before and never go back on your word."

The Queen said without hesitation, "Don't worry, Mr. Ye, tomorrow I will announce my abdication to all of Northern Europe and give the Queen's throne to Helena! At that time, I will personally preside over Helena's coronation ceremony!"

After a pause, the Queen gritted her teeth and said, "As for Olivia, I will make sure that she is duly punished!"

Ye Chen nodded, shook the remaining quarter of the rejuvenation pills in his hand and said indifferently, "The medicine I gave you just now can extend your life for another two to three years, if you take this part of the pills in my hand again, your life will also be able to increase by another three to five years on top of the two to three years of extension, if you can keep your promise, then come to me in China after two years, I will give this part of the pills to you as well give it to you."

Hearing this, the Queen was overjoyed and said offhandedly, "Don't worry, Mr. Ye, I will keep my promise!"

Ye Chen took out another complete rejuvenation pill from his pocket and said with a smile, "As for this complete pill, if you take it, it can increase your life span by at least twenty years, and if you have been very cooperative, I can also consider giving you some more when the time comes, so that you can live to be one hundred and ten years old without any problem at all."

Chapter 3485

"One hundred and ten years old?!" The Queen muttered a dumbfounded repetition, she really couldn't believe that this ordinary pill had such a powerful effect.

However, once she thought of her own personal experience just now, she threw all her doubts to the wind.

At this moment, she thought to herself, "This pill is just too amazing! I just took a quarter of it and woke up completely, if I could take a whole one, the effect would be even more miraculous!"

Thinking of this, she said respectfully, "Don't worry, Mr. Ye, from today onwards, I will definitely assist Helena with all my might and cooperate fully with Mr. Ye's requests!"

Only those who had come back from the dead knew how precious life was.

For this aged Nordic empress, this was exactly the case.

She had already experienced the feeling of being on the verge of death once, of that long darkness and loneliness, so for her now, living was more important than anything else.

Money, power and dignity are all worthless in the face of a healthy existence.

So what if the throne of the Queen? Wasn't she the one who fell into a coma and was on the verge of death several times?

Now she would rather not have the title of Queen, or even any royal title, as long as she could live a long and healthy life, she would be willing to be the most ordinary little old lady.

So now, she immediately had the next most important goal in life, which was to strive to be able to obtain more magical pills from Ye Chen's hands!

"How can another two or three years of life be enough!"

"Say what it takes to live another twenty to thirty years!"

After a few minutes, the Queen gradually regained control of her body, and also felt that her physical condition had indeed improved a lot from before she fell ill this time.

After only a few minutes of simple adaptation, she was able to sit up from the bed by herself and even attempted to complete the movement of getting down to the floor and standing up.

At this moment, the Queen was inwardly thrilled, while her entire aura gradually recovered.

It was because she had personally experienced the miraculous effects of the Revitalising Pill that the Empress already worshipped Ye Chen like a god in her heart. In order to satisfy him, the Empress hastily asked respectfully, "Mr Ye, what are your instructions regarding the punishment of Olivia's family?"

Ye Chen said indifferently, "I want you to use the royal family's energy to expel Olivia from the royal family, and at the same time have them tried by the law, preferably with a life sentence without parole!"

At first, when she heard Ye Chen say life imprisonment, the empress still felt vaguely intolerant in her heart, after all, none of the royal family members had been sentenced for so many years, let alone life imprisonment.

However, when she thought that Olivia had actually brutalised herself to this extent step by step, and even tried to manipulate her life and death, her heart also grew angrier and she spoke in an unkind tone, "Helena, you go and call the head of the Royal Guard over, it's time to settle the score with Olivia!"

Ye Chen smiled faintly and spoke, "Don't bother, Olivia should come over on her own accord soon."

Helena looked at the time and found that Ye Chen had just left Olivia half an hour to think about it, and now twenty minutes had passed.

She then asked, "Mr. Ye, if Olivia agrees to your request, will you be lenient with her?"

Ye Chen waved his hand, "Don't worry, there is no way she would agree to my demands, I believe she would be more willing to take me out than to honestly give me the five billion euros."

Chapter 3486

Ye Chen became an orphan at the age of eight, and after so many years in society, he had experienced the cruelty and gloom of society.

He knew very well that in the real world, the four words "money comes first" had always been an unchanging truth for many people.

Therefore, when he offered William and Olivia 5 billion euros, he did not expect them to agree.

The reason why he left them half an hour to think about it was to force them to move to kill.

He had deliberately chosen this time to save the Queen, in order to push William and Olivia to the breaking point.

If they decided to accept his terms and come up honestly, then he would show them some mercy for the sake of the five billion euros.

But if they decided to kill themselves, then in front of the Queen, they would definitely go out of their way to kill her as well.

In that case, they would be pushing themselves into the abyss of eternal doom with their own hands.

The Queen did not know the exact situation, and when she heard Ye Chen's words, she asked with a shocked expression, "Mr. Ye, why did Olivia make a move against you? What is this all about?"

Ye Chen was about to speak when he suddenly heard the sound of footsteps coming rapidly from far and near, a smile wiped across his face and he faintly said, "They are already here, why don't we let Olivia tell you the reason herself."

Neither Helena nor the Queen had heard the footsteps at that moment, and both of them had a slightly puzzled expression.

A few moments later, the footsteps grew louder and louder, and both the grandchildren were filled with shock when they heard them.

At that moment, the door of the ward was kicked open and a dozen men in black came rushing in with great force!

But when they came in and saw the Queen standing on the floor, who did not look sick at all, they were all dumbfounded.

At that moment, Olivia also rushed into the room and ordered in a cold voice, "Tie up that Ye!"

As soon as the words left her mouth, she suddenly saw the empress standing with Ye Chen and was struck by lightning.

The father and son, Richard and George William, who followed closely behind, also saw the rosy-cheeked empress, who looked like a healthy old man, and were shocked speechless.

After a few seconds, Richard came back to his senses and subconsciously said, "Ma you how did you wake up?!"

The Queen questioned in a cold voice, "What? Are you surprised that I'm awake? Or do you simply not want me to wake up?"

Richard hurriedly explained, "Mom how could you think that I am your son, all these days when you were in a coma, I was looking forward to you waking up sooner"

Olivia also reacted, and although in her heart she was extremely annoyed about the Queen's awakening, her mouth still pretended to be excited and said, "Grandma! You don't know how much Daddy and I have been worried about you all this time We've been afraid that you would never wake up again"

The Queen's eyes were sharp as a knife, staring into Olivia's eyes, and her voice was cold as she said, "Olivia, stop acting, for so many days, did you think I was really in a coma? In fact, I know everything that happened around me, I remember every word that everyone said around me!"

Olivia's face went instantly white!

Chapter 3487

She hadn't really thought that the old lady had been conscious the whole time she was unconscious!

In that case, every word she had said to Helena earlier had been heard by her

Thinking of this, Olivia hurriedly and nervously explained, "Grandma, listen to my explanation, many things are actually misunderstandings, some of the things I said to Helena were actually just deliberately scaring her and trying to force her to trade for the royal family, it's not the truth"

The Queen said contemptuously, "Olivia, I have already been deceived by you once and nearly died by your hands, do you think I will still believe what you are saying now?"

Olivia was instantly nervous.

She really didn't expect that the old lady would wake up at this juncture, and she didn't know what to do for a while.

At this time, Ye Chen looked at her with a smile on his face and asked, "Olivia, how have you considered the things I just said? I'm a person with really limited patience, if you guys don't give me a solution, then don't blame me for being rude to you."

Olivia did not expect that he would still dare to talk to himself like this at this time even though she had led her men to surround Ye Chen, so she gritted her teeth and looked at Ye Chen, saying in a cold voice, "Surnamed Ye! Do you really think that I am made of clay, that you are provoking me again and again? Let me tell you, this is Northern Europe, not China! Believe it or not, I can have these people finish you off at any time!"

Ye Chen laughed and did not get angry, but raised his eyebrows and asked, "Seeing how arrogant you are, you must be planning to renege on your debt, right?"

"Rascal?!" Olivia sneered, "Ye Chen! Don't forget that this is my place, in my place, everything is my call, I said that between me and you, and between William and you, there is no debt at all, do you dare to say a word of no in front of me?"

Ye Chen laughed: "There is nothing yet that I dare not do, today I put my words here, if you two really decide to renege on your debts, I will definitely make your lives worse than death."

Olivia said with murderous intent in her eyes, "Ye Chen! You Chinese people always say that a fierce dragon can't be overcome, so since you have repeatedly spilled your guts in front of me, don't blame me for being rude to you!"

After saying that, she immediately yelled to the men in black around her, "Arrest this Ye Chen and throw him out of the window to his death!"

As soon as Olivia's words fell, a group of black-clothed men closed in on Ye Chen in unison.

Ye Chen was full of smiles at this moment, not putting these black-clothed men in his eyes in the slightest.

The empress beside him, however, was greatly enraged at this moment and rebuked angrily out of the blue, "How dare you! Mr. Ye is my saviour, how dare you treat him rudely!"

Although these men in black were all Olivia's men, they had always served the royal family and had great respect for the empress.

When Olivia saw this, she gritted her teeth and shouted, "Ignore this old woman! She is no longer the Queen of Northern Europe! I am the new Queen of Northern Europe! Do you want to take the blame for disobeying orders?"

The men in black were at a loss as to what to do.

Although they had always obeyed Olivia's orders, they did not dare to disobey the Queen's orders directly.

Seeing this, William yelled out from the sidelines, "What are you all still doing frozen? Don't forget who your master is! If you can finish off this Ye, I can give you each a million euros, no! It's two million euros each!"

William's words tilted the scales in the hearts of these men in black.

Two million euros would definitely allow them to achieve financial freedom, and no one would give up such a great opportunity to make a fortune!

Thus, a group of men in black immediately pressed towards Ye Chen.

The Queen did not expect that her orders would have no effect on the gang of black-clothed men, so she roared in anger, "Olivia! If you insist on hurting Mr. Ye, I will definitely not spare you! When the time comes, I will make you face the law!"

Olivia was slightly stunned, then her expression immediately turned fierce as she said in a cold voice, "I originally just wanted to kill Ye Chen, but now it seems that you are forcing me to take you, the old thing, down with you!"

After saying that, she sneered and said with a face full of murderous anger, "Fine! This old thing of yours should have died long ago anyway! Why don't we go on the road with this surnamed Ye tonight!"

Chapter 3488

For Olivia, there was only one way to go now.

Otherwise, not only would She have to pay Charlie wade billions of dollars in compensation, but she would also be imprisoned for plotting against the Queen!

Right now, she only wanted to finish off Ye Chen and the Queen!

As long as they were taken care of, not only would she save money, she would also be able to inherit the position of the Queen!

The Queen did not expect that this granddaughter of hers would openly try to kill herself in front of so many people, so she roared in anger, "Olivia! How dare you kill the monarch! Do you know that the crime of regicide is the worst crime of all?"

Olivia was no longer afraid of the Queen's status and said coldly, "What regicide, if I kill you, I am the King!"

Helena blurted out, "Olivia! As your sister, I advise you to stop before you make a big mistake! Seek leniency from your grandmother and Mr. Ye, or else your life will be over!"

Olivia said with contempt as if she had heard a big joke, "Helena, you don't really think that with just the two of them, you can still turn the tables today, do you?"

Helena said coldly, "Aren't you afraid of the Royal Guard?"

Olivia laughed with a sinister expression, "So you still think the Royal Guard will come to your rescue, do you? I'm telling you Helena, all the Royal Guard soldiers have been transferred to the ground floor and this ward has been soundproofed, so whatever happens here, there's no way they can hear you!"

Although Olivia had her own group of dead soldiers, she did not have control over the entire royal family.

Especially the Royal Guard that guarded the palace.

The Royal Guard owed their allegiance to the Queen, but also to Nordic law, and they were soldiers trained by the state and specially placed to guard the palace.

So, even if Olivia had the power to do so, she could not buy them all off.

However, as long as she could solve the problem within this ward, she did not have to worry about the Royal Guards.

So Olivia said victoriously to Helena, "My good sister, about your downfall, I have also made arrangements for you! Don't worry, we are sisters, nothing I can say will make you die in vain! After all, Aman Ramovich has been obsessed with your body! When I've finished with them, I'll spare your life and give you to him in a package, so that he can keep you in St Petersburg for the rest of your life as his plaything! And when he's tired of playing with you, he'll kill you!"

Olivia sneered and said, "Oh yes, I'm sure he'll be furious with Aman Ramovich for beating him just now, and he'll take it out on you when he brings you back to St Petersburg!"

Helena was so shocked by Olivia's viciousness that she couldn't speak, and by now Olivia, having lost her patience, yelled at the group of men in black, "What are you still standing there for? Why don't you do it now! Kill that surnamed Ye first!"

The Queen said angrily, "I am the Nordic Queen! I want to see who dares to touch me!"

The men in black were hesitating when William immediately shouted from the back, "Whoever can kill this old bastard, I'll give him an extra 20 million euros! Whoever can kill Ye Chen, I'll give a hundred million!"

Originally, these men in black were still somewhat scornful of the Queen's identity, but when they heard these words, all they could think of was nothing but money!

Immediately afterwards, one of the men in black shouted, pulled out a dagger and rushed towards Ye Chen.

At this moment, in his eyes, Ye Chen was 100 million euros in cash!

If he killed Ye Chen, the money would be enough for him and his family to live out their lives in glory and fortune!

The others also snapped awake at this moment, and many of them went straight for Ye Chen, while a few chose to strike directly at the empress because they were closer to her!

The Queen did not expect this group of people to really dare to make a move against her, and for a moment, she was scared and did not know what to do.

At that moment, Helena, who was beside her, immediately pulled her behind herself.

The Queen had never dreamed that her eldest granddaughter, who had always been sickly, could stand in front of her at a critical moment, and her expression did not show the slightest sign of panic.

However, she did not know that the reason why Helena was not afraid in the face of danger was because she knew Ye Chen's strength!

Chapter 3489

The Four Battle Kings of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall could not even last a single round under Ye Chen!

Wan Bajun even led the core of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall to kneel before Ye Chen and pray for forgiveness!

With Ye Chen's unparalleled strength, how could these men in black possibly hurt him!

However, Olivia and William and the others did not know Ye Chen's ability.

They were already red with rage and felt that they would simply kill Ye Chen and the Queen today!

When the time came, they would throw the dirty water of adultery with Helena on Ye Chen, and then put the Queen's body into the freezer for the time being, and then declare to the public that the Queen died of natural causes in a few days, so that the outside world would have absolutely no suspicion.

As for Helena, the eyewitness, she would never see the light of day again in her life after being reduced to Aman Ramovich's plaything, so Olivia was not worried at all that she would leak out what had happened today.

Just as Olivia saw Ye Chen surrounded by the men in black and thought she had the victory in her hands, a black figure suddenly flew out from the crowd!

The man in black who had first rushed towards Ye Chen with a dagger had already had his hands broken by Ye Chen and was thrown out of the crowd!

Immediately afterwards, a different frequency occurred!

One after another, the men in black wailed and flew out from the centre of the crowd, each one without exception having his hands broken!

After only ten seconds or so, all the men in black fell to the ground in agony, their hands broken like William's, in a miserable state!

And Ye Chen was still standing in place with an arrogant face, not even a single crease in his clothes.

These men in black, with their combined strength, were no match for a four-star martial artist.

Therefore, in front of Ye Chen, they were no different from a group of vegetable chickens.

Olivia, as well as William and the others, were all dumbfounded with fear at the sight of this situation!

None of them had thought that Ye Chen's strength was so powerful!

The dozen or so well-trained men in black were completely unbeatable in front of him!

The first time William came back to his senses, he turned around and tried to run outside, but before he could run out the door, he felt his collar being grabbed by someone, and before he could look back, his whole body was thrown out, hitting the wall heavily and rolling to the ground.

At this moment, Ye Chen had already closed the door of the ward and looked at Olivia as well as the others, smiling blandly, "Olivia, do you think I count as a flop now?"

Olivia looked at Ye Chen's playful look and turned pale with fear as she asked in a trembling voice, "Who the hell are you how could How can you be so powerful?!"

Ye Chen sneered and questioned, "Didn't I introduce myself to you at the airport? What, have you forgotten my name so quickly?"

Olivia said fearfully, "No haven't forgotten"

Ye Chen coldly snorted, "Say, what is my name?"

Olivia, inwardly terrified to the core, said in a panic, "Ye Ye Chen"

Ye Chen once again pursued, "Who's name is Ye Chen?"

Olivia subconsciously blurted out, "You your name is Ye Chen"

Ye Chen stared at her and said in a cold voice: "Speak louder, I can't hear you! Who is called Ye Chen?"

Olivia's heart and soul were all over the place, but she could only stiffen her head, raise her voice a few notches, and say loudly with a face full of fear: "You are called Ye Chen!"

Chapter 3490

At this moment, Olivia was already scared out of her wits.

The moment she faced Ye Chen and called out Ye Chen's name herself, she felt that her entire being had completely collapsed.

Under Ye Chen's pressure, she subconsciously kneeled down in front of him with her legs going limp and choked up, "Mr. Ye was my mistake I had bad thoughts because of money, please forgive me and give me a Chance I'll make up for it!"

Olivia's father, Richard, also realized that the situation was over and hurriedly knelt down on the ground, begging, "Mr. Ye, Olivia is young and impulsive, don't treat her like that"

The Rothschild family is willing to give four billion euros to the Rothschild family. We, the Rothschild family, are willing to put up four billion euros! We only beg that you will give us a higher hand!"

Ye Chen smiled, looked at Richard and asked him, "They are offering four billion, so the remaining one billion will be paid by you?"

"I I" Richard was nervous all of a sudden and didn't know what to do.

A few minutes ago, a billion euros he gritted his teeth can still come up with, that is because, Olivia before has been basically equal to the uncrowned queen of Northern Europe, only waiting for the death of the current queen will be successfully crowned, so basically can control the entire royal family's financial power.

But now that the Queen has awakened, neither Richard himself nor Olivia will have the right to mobilise the royal funds, so it would be a fool's errand to ask Richard to take out a billion euros.

After thinking about it, Richard could only say stiffly, "Mr. Ye Our own family's assets, cash and various real estate combined, amount to about 500 million euros, if you don't mind, I am willing to give all the assets to you as compensation!"

Ye Chen grunted and said, "Then that's only four and a half billion, it's not enough."

After saying that, he looked at George and asked with a smile, "Old Joe, why don't you burden yourself with a little more?"

George almost collapsed and said with a bitter face, "Mr. Ye four billion euros is already our limit we simply don't have that much cash, and to raise four billion euros we will have to wait for the stock market to open tomorrow and sell all the large number of stocks in our hands to be able to raise enough"

If you have enough money, I can spare your lives, otherwise, you will be killed on the spot as regicide tonight, and tomorrow the Queen will announce to the public that you have united to plot a rebellion tonight and were killed by the Royal Guard! Then the pictures of your deaths here will be made public, and by then, the whole world will think you deserve it!"

When George heard these words, his heart fluttered violently!

He didn't expect that Ye Chen had actually laid down his killing heart on himself!

Moreover, he also believed that Ye Chen did have the strength to kill them all at any time.

What's more, even if Ye Chen really killed them, according to the reason Ye Chen had just said, the world would definitely not suspect.

After all, they did lead people into the Queen's ward today, and if Ye Chen really killed them and then claimed to the public that they were killed on the spot for regicide, it would be logically sound.

Even if the Rothschilds knew about it, they would not suspect anything.

In that case, Ye Chen would not need to take any risk when he killed them

Thinking of this, George looked at the empress and cried and begged, "Your Majesty, you are the ruler of a country and have to uphold the country's legal system, even if you send us to court, you can't let Ye Chen kill us ah"

When the Queen heard this, she said without hesitation, "I owe my life to Mr. Ye, and I will do everything Mr. Ye tells me to do. If Mr. Ye wants to let you go, I will personally send you out of the palace immediately; but if Mr. Ye wants to kill you, I will immediately announce your crime of regicide and rebellion as Mr. Ye said!"
