

Ye Chen 3501

Chapter 3501

In fact, a quarter of a Spring Return Pill was far from being so powerful, but Helena's mother had indeed had a very difficult time recently, so her whole body was showing some signs of rapid ageing, and someone in her forties who was not yet fifty looked as if she was almost sixty years old.

And these quarter pills of rejuvenating elixir made her look a few years younger on top of that after returning to the state she should be at her actual age, so it looked as if she was just straight up a dozen years younger.

Although Helena's mother didn't have a mirror, she also immediately felt the huge change within her body and she said with immense joy, "This medicine is just too amazing I feel like my body has not only been completely restored, but it's even better than the state it was in a few years ago"

Helena also witnessed the huge change in her mother and was moved to tears as she cried, "Mom you've suffered all these years"

Helena's mother laughed lightly and said, "Don't talk about that, isn't it all suffering now?"

Helena turned and took an exquisite mirror from a century-old side table, ran back and held it up in front of her mother, saying excitedly, "Look, Mom! Not only has your body been restored, but you look much younger!"

Helena's mother looked at herself in the mirror with disbelief, and then she couldn't help but shed two tears.

Since her husband's death, she had been worried about her daughter's health every day and had to face all kinds of ostracism from the royal family, so she was under great psychological pressure.

In the last two years, she has been afraid to look in the mirror because every day she feels that she has aged a little more and has taken on the appearance of an old woman.

But she had never imagined that in such a short time, she would look like she was in her early forties again, her hair, her skin and her whole complexion had improved so much that it was as if she had boarded a time machine and gone back a few years!

To a woman, looks and temperament were too important, so she subconsciously looked towards Ye Chen, and her legs involuntarily knelt on the ground, saying gratefully, "Mr. Ye, thank you for giving me a new life...! Thank you!"

Ye Chen said blandly, "You're overstating it, it's just a hand up, it's not that exaggerated."

Helena's mother choked up, "You may not know how much all this really means to a woman In a way, it makes me more grateful than saving my life"

The queen on the side was envious, but at the same time, she thought of the promise Ye Chen had given herself before and wondered in her heart, "Ye Chen said that he would give me another portion of the rejuvenation pills after two years, but this portion of the rejuvenation pills has already been eaten by Helena's mother, and I don't know if Ye Chen still has any spare rejuvenation pills in his hand In case there is no up, then wouldn't my wish be in vain?"

Thinking of this, she plucked up her courage and respectfully asked Ye Chen, "Mr. Ye you said before that you would let me come to you in two years, I wonder if you still have the Spring Return Pill there by then?"

Ye Chen raised his eyebrows and smiled, smoothly pulled out a handful of dark pills from his pocket and casually laughed, "Here, look for yourself!"

When the Queen took a look, her entire jaw dropped!

Only to see that there were nearly ten pills in Ye Chen's hand!

Only, she didn't know that half of them were Spring Return Pills and half were Yuan Cultivation Pills.

To someone like her who didn't know much, these pills didn't seem too far apart from each other.

So, she then just looked at all these pills as Spring Return Pills.

Seeing that Ye Chen had so many Spring Return Pills, she was naturally so excited that if she could, she would have wanted to rush up and grab one from Ye Chen's hand and eat it immediately.

However, she also knew that she did not possess such strength at all, and even if the entire royal family was counted, it would only be a drop in the bucket in front of Ye Chen.

Therefore, whether or not she could obtain this Spring Return Pill would depend entirely on Ye Chen's mood.

Thinking of this, she did not care about euphemisms and directly stated respectfully, "Please rest assured, Mr. Ye, I will do my utmost to help Helena take the reins!"

Chapter 3502

Seeing that the empress had now thrown away even basic euphemisms, Ye Chen knew that she had been completely taken in by the Spring Returning Pill.

With her previous near-death experience, the Spring Returning Pill would definitely become her only pursuit for the rest of her life.

Therefore, Ye Chen would no longer have to worry that she would have any small thoughts about Helena.

At the handover of the throne in three days' time, she would definitely do her utmost to help Helena take the reins of power, just as she had said.

Ye Chen then said to the Queen as well as Helena, "If the Rothschild family comes to you for people or to negotiate terms with you, make sure not to inform them of the whereabouts of William's family so easily and contact me in time."

The Queen immediately stated, "Don't worry Mr. Ye, if the Rothschilds come looking for me, I will directly use public opinion to suppress them, the evidence of their family's intention to plot against me is overwhelming, once exposed, the impact on the Rothschilds will definitely be very great!"

Saying that, she added: "In fact, the Rothschild's core family, the family's reputation is very important, in the early years they did do a lot of evil in the financial market, in several wars has also been a big enrichment, so much so that their reputation in Europe and America is relatively poor, since the Second World War, the Rothschild's core family has been actively repairing the family's reputation, like William Third Order family, committing such a big thing, the core family will definitely not bail them out."

"Good." Ye Chen nodded and smiled with a playful expression, "I'm not afraid that they will come looking for them, but that they won't."

Saying that, Ye Chen instructed, "If they are willing to look, when the time comes, give them a little information through other channels, so that they know that the Williams family might be in Syria, in this way, it would be better if they can still go to Syria to look for people, that kind of extra-legal place, there is nothing Rothschild can do, there is almost no chance of winning if they go, except to send people's heads. "

The Rothschilds are very strong, but after all, they are in the peaceful world of the West, and when it comes to Syria, the Rothschilds can't make any waves at all.

After all, in a place like the Middle East, there is nothing even the US military can do, let alone a mere Rothschild.

Hamid's base is now so solid that even the Hall of Ten Thousand Dragons cannot be defeated, and Rothschild has even less chance.

This was also the fundamental reason why he had sent William's family to Syria, with Hamid guarding them, absolutely nothing could go wrong.

When the Queen heard Ye Chen's words, she was frightened and jolted.

"I originally thought that Ye Chen might also be worried about the Rothschild family coming over"

"But now, why do I feel as if things are the complete opposite of what I imagined?"

"Ye Chen looks as if he is quite expecting the Rothschilds to come over, and even gives me the feeling that the William family is like the bait he threw to Syria and laid to lure the Rothschilds"

When she thought of this, the empress was also very surprised in her heart, she really did not understand why Ye Chen wanted to make a move on the Rothschild family?

Before the empress could think about it, Ye Chen opened his mouth and said, "It's almost time, I should go now."

After saying that, he looked at Helena and said indifferently, "Helena, I wish you in advance to inherit the throne and become the new empress of the Nordic Kingdom, and I also hope that you will carry forward the Nordic royal family."

Helena nodded her head gratefully and said, "Thank you Mr. Ye"

After saying that, she hurriedly added, "Mr. Ye, if you don't mind, please let me take you to the airport!"

After saying that, she looked at Ye Chen with an expectant face, afraid that Ye Chen would refuse.

This was because she knew very well in her heart that once Ye Chen left today, it would not be so easy to see him again in the future.

Because, in three days' time, she herself would inherit the throne, and at that time, she would be the empress of the Nordic Kingdom, the nominal supreme leader of Northern Europe, and at that time, wherever she went, she would represent the royal family, and she would almost no longer have any private space.

At home, she would have to travel around to offer condolences and raise national support and support for the royal family.

Chapter 3503

Abroad, too, the Queen basically makes state visits to a country on a diplomatic level.

Even if she simply wanted to go to China to see and visit Ye Chen, it would never be possible, because as the Queen, as soon as she decided to leave the country, the Nordic government would definitely inform the destination country, and the corresponding bodyguards, assistants and butlers would definitely accompany her.

At that time, if Ye Chen did not come to see her, she might not have the chance to see Ye Chen in her life.

Therefore, the journey to the airport for Ye Chen could possibly be the last time she spent with him.

Seeing that Helena had said so, Ye Chen naturally couldn't refuse, so he smiled and said, "That's too much to say, if you're willing, it would be hard for you to accompany me on the trip."

Helena was instantly relieved and said with the excitement of a young girl, "Thank you, Mr Ye!"

The empress took Helena's performance in her eyes and already understood Helena's mind in her heart, secretly thinking, "Helena should have her heart set on this Ye Chen and even if she just wants to go and see her off, she has to stoop so low as to ask Looking at her like this, she should like Ye Chen very much"

Thinking of this, deep inside the Queen could not help but feel a little sorry.

This was because she knew very well in her heart that Helena's feelings for Ye Chen were not destined to lead to any results.

In fact, out of her desire for the Spring Return Pill, she hoped very much that Helena could get together with Ye Chen.

In this way, Ye Chen would be her own granddaughter's son-in-law, and with this relationship, the chances of obtaining the Spring Return Pill would naturally be greater.

However, she was also very clear about the future trajectory of Helena's life.

When she inherited the throne in the future, her future fate would already be predetermined.

Because according to the Nordic tradition, and the wishes of the people, her future other half could only be a member of the royal family of another European country, or a member of a top European family.

Moreover, the other person must be of white blood, and never of any other ethnicity.

This is not racist, but mainly because every country has its own nationalism and wants to preserve the pure blood of its own country.

After all, after she inherits the throne, her child will be the future Nordic Crown Prince, and if her child is of mixed Eurasian origin, it would be tantamount to losing half of the royal bloodline at once.

So, the people could not accept it in any way.

Just as Japan, which also has an emperor, could not allow the emperor to marry a European woman and then have a child of mixed Japanese and European blood as the emperor's son.

Therefore, the empress knew very well in her heart that it was no longer possible for Helena to have a future relationship with Ye Chen.

In fact, in her heart, Helena knew all about these circumstances.

Although her contact time with Ye Chen was very warm, the impact that Ye Chen had brought to her was too great.

Ye Chen had not simply saved her and her mother's lives, but more importantly, he had shown Helena just how powerful a man could be.

So, she was like a young girl in a martial arts novel who saw a great warrior for the first time, and in just a few moments, her heart was captured by the unrivalled aura of the other man's body.

If she could, she would even be willing to give up her position as Queen for the sake of Ye Chen.

After all, her mother was now safe, and she could completely stop being the Queen herself, or even completely leave the royal family and move to live in China.

However, she also knows that Ye Chen has a family in Jinling, and also has many confidantes. In Ye Chen's heart, she is afraid that she is just an insignificant visitor, even if she is willing to give up the throne for him, he may not be willing to keep her around

The Nordic royal family's motorcade sped along the motorway late at night.

At this time, it was 1am Nordic time and 7am Yanjing time.

If things went well, Ye Chen would arrive in Yanjing at noon Yanjing time, and after landing, he would head to Ye Lingshan at the first opportunity to dispose of those members of the Ye family's side line who had deserted the battle.

In the car, Helena was sitting beside Ye Chen.

At this moment, Helena was torn in several places deep inside, she looked at Ye Chen from time to time, from time to time she looked at the night in Northern Europe outside the window, from time to time her vermilion lips were lightly pursed, and from time to time she could not help but to lightly bite her lower lip with her white shellfish teeth.

After hesitating again and again, she finally spoke softly, "Mr. Ye, in fact, Northern Europe is really too small compared to China, the population is not even more than a third of Yanjing, a city"

Ye Chen smiled, "Small yes, but it will soon become your kingdom, you are still very young now, you have at least fifty years of reign ahead, fifty years, there are so many things that can be done, it's still worth looking forward to."

Helena let out a bitter smile and said seriously, "Mr. Ye, I'm not going to lie to you, in fact I actually don't have much interest in the throne"

Saying that, she looked at Ye Chen, her eyes red, "Mr. Ye, in fact, my greatest hope is not to inherit the throne, but to be able to give my mother a peaceful life, you exiled Olivia to overseas, my mother's safety is already guaranteed, whether I can be the empress or not, it doesn't matter to me anymore"

Ye Chen was slightly surprised and asked her, "In three days you will inherit the throne, why are you suddenly beating a retreat at this time?"

Helena pursed her lips and paused awkwardly for a long time before she said stiffly, "Mr. Ye, I think I may not be able to fill the role of empress, to be an empress, there are simply too many sacrifices and compromises to be made and and I am not the kind of person who can be ruthless like Olivia"

Ye Chen thought Helena was simply nervous, so he spoke out to comfort her, "Being the Queen, naturally, is not that easy, but it is not as difficult as you think, after all, you are much more symbolic to Northern Europe than actual rule, and there are not that many decisions that you need to make, even if you do not do so well, it will not affect the actual development of Northern Europe, so you just need to maintain the people's love of the people, and this Queen will have passed muster."

Helena whispered, "Actually actually I do think since grandmother is so obedient to you now, you can totally let her be the queen for a few more years first, in that case, I can also have some more preparation time"

Ye Chen looked at her and spoke, "Helena, if you want to truly have your own life, right now is the opportunity you must seize, the temporary inability to adapt is just a transition, if you can't even cope with this transition, then when you encounter an enemy like Olivia again in the future, how are you going to cope?"

Helena was speechless for a moment.

The reason why she was beating a retreat at this point in time was that, as the convoy was getting closer and closer to the airport, her separation from Ye Chen was getting closer and closer sooner.

The more this happened, the more clearly she could ascertain that she did not want to say goodbye to Ye Chen in this way.

It was like two straight lines that intersected, only to meet at the only point of intersection, and then they went their separate ways, further and further apart.

She wanted to make the straight line of her destiny change direction at the intersection point where she met Ye Chen, preferably from this point onwards, so that Ye Chen's straight line would be tightly entwined, so that Ye Chen would have herself with him for the rest of his life.

However, such words kept blocking her throat, calling out several times, but she was forced to suppress them again.

It was not that she did not dare to confess her love to Ye Chen, it was just that she was afraid of being rejected by Ye Chen.

If she kept the suspense, she would at least have a ray of hope to look forward to in the future.

Ye Chen, however, did not know the real reason why she was backing out of the battle.

He looked at Helena and said with feeling, "In fact, the me a year or so ago was the same as the you now, both at the lowest point in their lives, at that time, the Ye family suddenly approached me and wanted to give me a group with a market value of a hundred billion dollars, while giving me ten billion dollars in cash, at that time, I had also retreated"

Chapter 3505

Helena nodded gently and said softly, "I heard Ye Feng talk about it, he was very angry every time he mentioned this matter"

"Yes" Ye Chen smiled lightly, "He must have been very angry, otherwise he wouldn't have been hostile to me."

Helena looked at Ye Chen and asked, "Mr. Ye, how did you later convince yourself to accept these gifts from the Ye family?"

Ye Chen laughed to himself, "I was penniless, my saviour was waiting for money to cure his illness, and my wife had been bullied in the family, so even if I had some poor boy ambition myself, reality simply wouldn't allow me to refuse."

Saying that, Ye Chen sighed lightly and lamented, "I thought at that time, even if not for myself, even for the sake of my life-saving benefactor and my wife, I still had to accept the gift from the Ye family, so I took over that group, and used that ten billion cash from the Ye family to pay the medical bills of my life-saving benefactor, and then I went step by step to where I am today, and I am where I am today, thanks to that initial gift."

Helena said seriously, "Mr. Ye, the Ye family only gave you a group and ten billion dollars in cash at the beginning, but your current strength is far beyond this amount of assets, so I think that you will be able to succeed with or without this gift from the Ye family!"

"It's not really possible." Ye Chen shook his head and said seriously, "Helena, fate is something that is sometimes very magical and subtle. ..."

Saying that, Ye Chen added: "Have you ever thought about the possibility that your usual insignificant decision could subconsciously change yourself, or change other people's lives?"

Helena said blankly, "Mr. Ye, I don't know much about fate and destiny"

Ye Chen said blandly, "If you see a person crossing the road and being hit by a taxi, you can try to push the life trajectory of the person who was hit and killed, and the driver who hit him forward by ten seconds, ten minutes, ten hours, or even ten days."

Helena asked in confusion, "Mr. Ye, what does it mean to push the life trajectory forward?"

Ye Chen said blandly, "It means what both of them were doing before the incident."

After a pause, Ye Chen added, "It's possible that ten seconds before the accident, you happened to pass by the roadside and that driver was distracted because he was attracted by your beauty, thus causing that car accident."

"It's also possible that ten minutes before, you took a taxi with another person and that driver chose to stop right in front of you because he saw that you were prettier, and you got in and told him to drive the car near where it happened, and that's how he got into that accident."

"It could also be that ten hours earlier, you uploaded a video of you on a short video platform and this pedestrian's friend saw it and forwarded it to him, and after he watched it he thought you were pretty, so he couldn't get you out of his mind and even crossed the road with that short video of you in his head, and that's what caused him to get distracted and get hit by a car. "

Speaking of this, Ye Chen shrugged his shoulders and said, "This is the fate I'm talking about, but the actual situation may be far more complicated than this kind of what I'm talking about, for example, if I hadn't taken the money from the Ye family back then, there's no way I could have afforded to buy a BMW car to give to my wife, if I hadn't bought that car, my father-in-law wouldn't have hijacked it, and if he hadn't hijacked it, he wouldn't have asked me to be his driver and let me drive him to see an expensive antique vase"

When he said this, Ye Chen shook his head and smiled, naturally omitting the incidental acquisition of the Nine Mystic Scriptures at Jiqing Hall, and continued, "Without that, you and I would never have crossed paths in our lives, much less sit in the same car as we are at this moment."

It seemed to him that fate was so magical.

Everything, in the dark, influences each other, and no one knows how one's decision will affect one's future.

Helena naturally did not understand the relationship behind Ye Chen's remark.

She said with a bewildered expression, "Mr. Ye, I don't understand why you have to link your fate to a BMW car or even an antique vase"

Ye Chen smiled faintly, "All you need to know is that without that BMW car and without that antique vase, it would have been enough for us to have never met in this life."

Helena was confused, but looked at Ye Chen with some shame and gathered the courage to ask him, "Mr. Ye, each of the three analogies you just made seems to have triggered that car accident because of my looks, Do you really think I am beautiful?"

Ye Chen didn't think much about it and said casually, "Yes it's pretty, whether from the aesthetics of Westerners or Easterners, you should be considered very pretty."

Helena turned sideways and stared closely at Ye Chen from close range, her big eyes rippling in the night as she gathered the courage to ask him softly, "Mr. Ye, If, you really think I'm beautiful, then you, willing, to kiss me?"

Chapter 3506

Ye Chen was stunned by Helena's sudden question.

He didn't understand why, when he was sincerely talking to Helena about fate, Helena suddenly made this ridiculous request.

He subconsciously asked, "This, doesn't seem to be next to the topic we are talking about, does it?"

Helena winked wryly and smiled, followed by her body suddenly leaning forward and placing her red lips, tightly kissing Ye Chen on the mouth.

Immediately afterwards, Helena bit her lower lip lightly and said somewhat shamefacedly, "Ye if it wasn't for that BMW and that antique vase, we wouldn't have met at all, I wouldn't have been saved by you, I wouldn't have fallen in love with you in such a short time, and I wouldn't have had that kiss just now, and my first kiss wouldn't have been taken away by you, so you're right Mr. Ye, fate is really amazing, I understand! Got it!"

Ye Chen was speechless for a moment.

He didn't expect Helena to wind herself up with the logic of fate that she was talking about.

Not daring to linger on the sweetness of his lips, he shook his head helplessly and spoke, "Although your behaviour is not quite appropriate, I have to admit that your basic logic is right."

Helena avoided his eyes, blushing and smiling slightly as she spoke, "It seems I have to thank the BMW car, if it wasn't for it, I might not have had the chance to meet my beloved in my life."

Ye Chen said helplessly, "I'm already married."

Helena nodded, "I know, so what?"

Ye Chen hummed and said, "So you don't need to invest any feelings in me, we've only just met for two or three days, the odds are that you are grateful for my help to you and may not really like it."

"Not true." Helena said firmly, "I know myself, I know I really like it, and am never overwhelmed by gratitude."

Ye Chen laughed blandly, "How can feelings be cultivated in a day or two? Maybe in a few days you'll come around and realise that you were just impulsive."

"Not true!" Helena denied again, "People you don't like, you won't like even if you spend a lifetime together, and people you like, sometimes it may only take one look back. You tease Olivia with Romeo and Juliet, but you should know that Romeo and Juliet also fall in love at first sight, and the two go from meeting to falling in love and getting married, to Romeo's escape, Juliet's fake death and finally the two were both martyred, only five days had passed in total."

After saying that, she looked at Ye Chen and said with a red face, "If we were the same as Romeo and Juliet, then we had known each other for three days and would have gotten married by now."

Ye Chen coughed twice in embarrassment and spoke, "That's a drama after all, not reality."

Helena said stubbornly, "The fact that theatre has been celebrated as a classic for hundreds of years proves that it comes from life and is above life, otherwise, why would people celebrate it as a classic?"

And then Helena added, "And the modern classic Titanic! That ship set off from England on April 10th and hit the iceberg on April 14th, but in just five days, Jack and Rose met, fell in love and were separated from each other."

Ye Chen did not expect that Helena would suddenly become a little aggressive in order to refute his words.

He could only helplessly digress and said, "Look, Romeo and Juliet has a total of five days, and Titanic also has five days, this should be a kind of convention for Western playwrights, it can't be taken seriously."

Helena looked at Ye Chen and said with immense seriousness, "I don't know if these two stories are true, but I know that the story of me falling in love with you in just a few days is true."

Saying that, Helena asked Ye Chen again, "Mr. Ye, yesterday at Mount Yehling, so many of your confidantes went up to Mount Yehling to help you despite the danger to their lives, did they all fall in love with you after a long time? Did none of them fall in love with you in just a few days, like I did?"

Chapter 3507

Ye Chen was speechless for a moment.

Among his confidants, apart from Gu Qiuyi, whom he had known since childhood, the others, Song Wanting, whom he had known for the longest time, was actually only a year or so.

The time he had known Nanae Ito, Su Zhiyu and Su Ruoli was actually even shorter.

Seeing Ye Chen's silence, Helena said emotionally, "Mr. Ye, the reason why I am backing out of the battle is not that I am really afraid of being the Queen, I am just afraid that after being the Queen, I will not have the chance to meet you again Instead of that, I would rather not be this Queen, I would rather take my mother to live in China, so that at least I can still be closer to you!"

The most important thing is that you should focus more on how to revitalize the Nordic royal family, just like my biggest goal now is no longer to live a good life with my wife, but to inherit my father's legacy and bring the Ye family to flourish."

Saying that, Ye Chen asked her, "If I'm not wrong, when your father was alive, he would have wanted you to inherit the great lineage, right?"

As soon as Ye Chen said this, Helena's psychological defences instantly broke and tears rolled down her eyes.

She thought of her own ill-fated father.

In order to be able to inherit the throne and achieve the highest goal of a member of the royal family, he had gone out of his way to hide his congenital disease for twenty years.

In his mind, he would have considered his life complete even if he could be queen for one day.

And now, he himself was only three days away from the fulfilment he had in mind.

Thinking of this, she also finally understood that the Ye Chen in front of her had also long ago stopped putting her children's love in the first place.

Shame and loss were caught in the mix, causing Helena to burst into tears.

She looked towards Ye Chen and nodded her head while shedding tears, "Mr. Ye, I understand don't worry, I will definitely follow my father's legacy and carry the royal family forward just like you"

Ye Chen nodded and spoke, "Helena, you just said that I have so many confidants, but fundamentally speaking, every one of them is different from me, but you are the only one who is in the same category as me."

Saying that, Ye Chen said with a serious expression, "We were all once raised in a big family, but then suffered a lot of hardships that ordinary people didn't; we were all once extremely sheltered by our parents, while watching them die with hatred; and now, we are all carrying the banner left by our father, ready to charge up the positions that our father failed to charge up before"

When Ye Chen said this, he paused slightly, looked at Helena and said seriously, "The only difference between the two of us is that I am ready to charge, as the saying goes, although millions of people, I will go on! No matter what or how many people you are standing in my way, I, Ye Chen, will never take another step back when I carry this banner left behind by my father! You, on the other hand, still seem to be cowering in front of the line, hesitant as to whether or not you should charge!"

Seeing the righteousness in Ye Chen's eyes, Helena's heart lit up with the same hot flame.

Wiping away her tears, she said loudly to Ye Chen, "Mr Ye, I have made up my mind! I will carry my father's banner just like you did! Like you said, I will go on despite the millions of people!"

Ye Chen nodded with a smile on his face, extended his hand to Helena and smiled, "Helena, now we are comrades!"

Helena subconsciously extended her hand and shook Ye Chen's, then asked with a red face, "Comrade, what about what I like about you?"

Chapter 3508

"The matter of liking me?"

Ye Chen faintly froze and said casually, "The matter of liking me is put aside for now, it's not too late to talk about it when you have first secured the throne."

Helena could not help but ask, "Mr. Ye, is this matter of liking you directly related to the matter of the throne?"

Ye Chen nodded and said indifferently, "Of course it is related, I am a person who does not like weak people, even those those red-headed friends of mine that you mentioned just now, they are mostly the heads of the families of the major clans, we all hold certain resources and connections, there is still a lot of cooperation that can be carried out between each other."

Hearing this, Helena immediately understood Ye Chen's meaning in her heart and secretly thought, "Mr. Ye is so strong and has just become the head of the Ye family, if I don't sit firmly on the throne, I'm afraid I won't even be qualified to be his friend"

Thinking of this, Helena immediately said firmly and unswervingly, "Mr. Ye, don't worry, I will definitely sit firmly on the position of empress and keep the royal family's strength rising!"

When Ye Chen made friends, he actually did not care about the other party's strength, and many of his friends even had to rely on him for help.

The reason why he said this to Helena was that on the one hand, he wanted to deal with Helena's confession first, and on the other hand, he also hoped that Helena would do her best to revitalise the Nordic royal family.

As for these childish sentiments, there was absolutely no need to worry too much about them, at least, not yet.

So, Ye Chen nodded in satisfaction and spoke: "There are ten countries in the whole of Europe that have royal families, except for the royal family of Great Britain, the others do not have a strong presence, especially outside of Europe, if you can run the Nordic royal family into the same kind of popularity as the royal family of Great Britain, then this influence alone can bring a lot of unexpected benefits to the Nordic royal family. "

Helena sighed: "The royal families of other countries are really no match for Great Britain. The Queen of Great Britain has been on the throne for decades and has a strong global reputation, and Great Britain was previously a strong country, known as the Sunset Empire, and their prince's wedding before made headlines around the world, compared to that, the Nordic royal family is so much worse. "

Ye Chen laughed: "Great Britain is indeed a strong country, but the royal family has been constantly negative in recent years, the popularity of the public is also declining, work hard not to say that you can replace them, at least become the popularity of the royal family second only to Great Britain, there is certainly no problem."

Helena nodded gently and said seriously, "I will do my best."

Ye Chen added: "When I return, I will also try to facilitate cooperation between the Ye family and Northern Europe in various fields, especially some basic livelihood areas that the people are more concerned about, so that it will also be considered as your Northern European royal family helping Northern Europe to do investment attraction."

Helena hurriedly asked, "Mr. Ye, if the royal family cooperates with the Ye family, then won't we have the chance to meet again?"

Ye Chen said indifferently, "Of course."

Helena said with some concern, "I'm afraid that after I ascend the throne, I won't be able to go to China casually."

Ye Chen nodded slightly, "When the time comes and the cooperation goes smoothly, if time allows, I might come over as well."

Although Ye Chen did not explicitly promise that he would definitely come, Helena nodded her head repeatedly in delight and said excitedly, "That would be really great!"

After saying that, she couldn't help but sigh, "I'm suddenly so happy inside! It's been a long time since I've had this kind of happy feeling in all these recent years"

Three days later, Helena would become the Iliad Empress of Northern Europe, by then, she would no longer be able to travel to China as an individual, much less go to Ye Chen, the only possibility would be for Ye Chen to come to Northern Europe to meet her.

Chapter 3509

At that time, Ye Chen could still visit the palace as a guest of the royal family, as he did this time.

However, originally Helena felt that Ye Chen would not come to Northern Europe again, but now since Ye Chen had said that he might come, she was already very content in her heart.

At this moment, the motorcade drove quickly into the airport and arrived at the hangar where the Concorde was parked.

Once the convoy was parked next to the plane, Ye Chen said to Helena, "Alright, that's all for now, I'm leaving."

Helena said with a reluctant look on her face, "Mr. Ye, let me get out of the car and see you off."

Ye Chen shook his head and said seriously, "There is no need to get out of the car, this is a public place after all, you will soon be enthroned as the Queen, if other people see you here at this time, it will not be very good to explain after all."

Helena hesitated for a moment, but still nodded, her voice choked with a few sobs as she dictated, "Mr. Ye, take care of yourself then!"

Ye Chen smiled faintly and spoke, "You too, you have my number, if you need any help, call me directly."

Helena's eyes were red as she said, "I know, Mr. Ye, thank you!"

"You're welcome." Ye Chen smiled and nodded, pushing open the car door and striding onto the Concorde.

After boarding the plane, he took a seat on the spacious sofa seat in the passenger cabin, and through the porthole window, he could see Helena still sitting in the car, looking up at himself.

At this moment, Helena's eyes were already filled with tears, and she almost couldn't control crying out several times.

But when she realised that Ye Chen was also looking at her, she resisted the urge to cry, quietly wiped away her tears and smiled and waved at Ye Chen.

Ye Chen also gave him a slight nod of greeting, and in his heart, he felt more or less sympathetic towards Helena.

If she hadn't been born into an imperial family, Helena probably wouldn't have gone through the trials and tribulations she had experienced before in her life.

However, Ye Chen knew very well in his heart that if he wanted to wear a crown, he would have to bear its weight, so he could only wish Helena in his heart that she could grasp this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity and become an outstanding empress.

At this moment, the steward of the Ye family crew came to Ye Chen's side and said respectfully, "Young master, it is ready for take-off, do you think we should launch now?"

Ye Chen nodded and said, "Push out."

"Okay young master." The steward bowed respectfully before turning around and returning to the cockpit to inform the two pilots of Ye Chen's decision.

Immediately afterwards, the aircraft engines began to start.

At that moment, the tractor towed the front wheels of the plane and slowly dragged it out of the hangar.

Helena's eyes followed the aircraft until it was out of her sight and heading for the runway.

It was then that Helena's eyes finally burst into tears.

Ye Chen had gone, leaving her with the throne of Northern Europe.

But in her heart, she wanted to give up the Nordic throne for Ye Chen.

It was a pity that there was not an equal sign between giving up the throne, and getting Ye Chen.

Thinking of this, she asked the driver to drive the car out of the hangar, and then drove it along the internal road at the edge of the airport, to the end of the runway.

At that moment, the Concorde Technology in which Ye Chen was travelling took off from the end of the runway and flew towards the east.

Ye Chen on the plane was unaware that Helena was watching his plane from the end of the runway below.

He was about to take a short break when he received a call from Nanaiko Ito, speaking, "Ye Chen-kun, three billion euros have been credited to our account one after another."

Ye Chen asked her, "Do you know who is calling respectively?"

Ito Nana-chan said, "The funds were transferred from many overseas accounts, at least ten thousand of them."

"I see." Ye Chen smiled, "It is estimated that another two billion euros will be credited tomorrow, when that time comes I will credit your account with the equivalent of 100 million euros in US dollars, and together we will invest in Isuzu Shipping!"

Chapter 3510

When Ye Chen returned to China in the Nordic night, the members of the Ye family's side branches, who had previously been scattered, were returning to Yanjing one after another with apprehensive hearts, heading to Ye Ling Mountain with the rising sun, ready to collect their sins from the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple.

Because the Hall of Ten Thousand Dragons had announced that they had obtained the roster for the Ye Family Ancestral Ceremony, and that all those on the roster had to return, these members of the side line could only return to Yanjing in disgrace.

Earlier, when they had fled overnight, they did not feel that there was anything wrong with them leaving Yanjing overnight.

This was because in their eyes, they were merely members of the Ye family's side lineage and should not be implicated in the hatred between the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall and the Ye family.

However, in Ye Chen's eyes, each and every one of these side members relied on the Ye Family's resources to survive and develop, and some had even followed the Ye Family and eaten meat for decades.

At such a critical moment, this group of people not only did not have any semblance of fellow clan love, but even disregarded the basic lip and teeth, they were simply worse than strangers.

Since they were heartless and unrighteous in the first place, don't blame yourself for being ruthless and ruthless in the second.

At this moment, all these members of the Ye family, one by one, were disillusioned and dejected, not knowing what was in store for them next.

After all, the prestige of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple was so widespread that no one dared to offend such a top mercenary organisation.

It was just after dawn in Yanjing when many members of the Ye family's side lineage had already rushed back to the bottom of Ye Ling Mountain.

However, at this moment, there was no one from the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall sitting at the bottom of Ye Ling Mountain, as all the generals of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall were still kneeling in repentance on Ye Ling Mountain and in front of the Ye Family's ancestral tomb.

When many members of the Ye family's side branches arrived at Ye Ling Mountain and saw Tang Sihai, someone immediately came forward and asked, "Steward Tang, where are the people from the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall? Are they going to let us go up?"

With a disgusted expression, Tang Sihai said in a cold tone, "Wan Breaking Jun, the Hall Master of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, has already instructed that you should all kneel and wait at the foot of the mountain once you arrive!"

The man hurriedly asked, "Steward Tang, what exactly does it mean that the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall has asked us to come back?"

Tang Sihai said with an expressionless face, "I don't know this, what Hall Master Wan means is for you all to kneel first, and you'll know exactly what to do when he comes."

Another man said in a depressed voice, "Steward Tang, why does the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall have to let us come back? We have nothing to do with them, and we have no grudge against them, so why do they not even let us go? Is it just because we are also surnamed Ye?"

Tang Sihai said disdainfully, "Ye Tianxiao, are you thinking of clearing up your relationship with the Ye family at this point? Last month, when you came here to beg Master to give you some new business, you said that you would follow Master for the rest of your life, and that you would help him with his problems.

The representative of the Ye family called Ye Tianxiao said discontentedly, "Tang Sihai, you are a lackey of the Ye family, why are you pretending with me here? I know, don't you just want to mock me for betraying the Ye Family? I did betray the Ye Family, how about you? You are now standing at the bottom of Ye Ling Mountain, delivering a message to us for the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, what? Have you also betrayed the Ye Family and become a lackey of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple?"

Tang Sihai sneered, "Whose lackey I am has nothing to do with you, but the most important thing now is that you must listen to whatever I say, and if you don't kneel down honestly on the spot within three seconds, then I will have someone break your dog's legs!"
