

Ye Chen 3511

Chapter 3511

Ye Tianxiao cursed angrily, "Grass! Tang Sihai, what the f*ck are you pretending to be? Ye Chang Ying was as kind to you as a mountain back then, but now you've turned around and become a dog for the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple.

Tang Sihai shouted angrily, "Someone, slap him!"

As soon as the words left his mouth, Ye Tianxiao's old men rushed forward, grabbed him and slapped him in the face.

Ye Tianxiao was furious and cursed angrily, "You minions, how dare you hit me?"

Tang Sihai said in a cold voice, "Three seconds are up, scrap his legs for me!"

When the many Ye family sidekicks heard this, they looked aghast, no one had expected that Tang Sihai would have such audacity.

At this time, Tang Sihai's men had already lowered Ye Tianxiao to the ground, and one of them took a golf club and swung it so violently that the metal at the head of the club smashed directly into Ye Tianxiao's right leg and knee, instantly smashing his knee to pieces!

Ye Tianxiao wailed in pain, his whole body rolled on the ground in pain, cursing under his breath with gritted teeth, "Tang Sihai! I I'll fucking kill you!"

Tang Sihai said in a cold voice, "From now on, say one more word and I'll have someone smash your other knee to pieces!"

As soon as Tang Sihai's words came out, Ye Tianxiao forced himself to hold back the pain and anger and kept his mouth shut.

The others were also filled with horror, and were basically certain in their hearts that this Tang Sihai must have completely defected to the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, otherwise how could he have the audacity to break the leg of Ye Tianxiao, a member of the Ye family's side lineage!

At this moment, Tang Sihai looked at the crowd and warned in a cold voice, "Listen to me, all of you! Everyone must kneel down honestly and immediately! Otherwise, they will end up just like Ye Tianxiao!"

As soon as the others saw this, they could only fall to their knees one after another.

And everyone's hearts became even more apprehensive, as everyone wanted to know what the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall was going to do to them.

Immediately afterwards, more and more Ye family sidekicks arrived, and when they arrived, they were immediately asked to kneel on the ground, just like the other Ye family sidekicks.

By nine o'clock in the morning, more than seven hundred members of the Ye family had all arrived at Ye Ling Mountain.

And at this moment, the scene of over seven hundred people kneeling in one piece at the foot of Ye Ling Mountain was particularly spectacular.

What they didn't know was that at this moment, on Ye Ling Mountain, there was also a mass of people kneeling down.

Wan Bajun had been kneeling here with unparalleled devotion since yesterday, without the slightest distraction.

Seeing that the kneeling time had already reached 24 hours, he did not get up immediately, but opened his mouth and asked Tang Sihai's men beside him, "This gentleman, please ask Steward Tang if Mr. Ye has any new instructions for us."

Tang Sihai's subordinate immediately contacted Tang Sihai before speaking to Wan Bajun, "The young master has not yet arrived in China, there are no new instructions at the moment."

"Good." Wan Bajun nodded gently, slowly stood up and spoke, "All the generals of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple listen to the order!"

Immediately, a group of Wan Long Hall's men said respectfully, "My subordinates are here!"

Wan Bajun said with a firm face, "All of you take the list of names for the ancestor worship ceremony and follow me down the mountain immediately! According to Mr. Ye's instructions, the people kneeling under the mountain must be made to willingly give half of their family fortune to the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall! But you must remember not to reveal any information related to Mr. Ye, understood?"

The crowd of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall immediately shouted, "Understood!"

Wan Bajun nodded in satisfaction and said in a stern voice, "Good! Go down the mountain!"

Chapter 3512

When Wan Bajun led the generals of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall and walked down from Ye Ling Mountain in great strides, the members of the side branches of the Ye Family who were kneeling on the ground were by now terrified to their cores.

They knew nothing of what had happened on Ye Ling Mountain yesterday, only that the Ye Family had bowed to the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall and had taken out half of their family fortune as compensation.

And now, the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall had turned its guns on them.

In their opinion, the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall was going after their property.

At this moment, Wan Bajun's face was expressionless as he walked in the front, followed by nearly a hundred core generals of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall.

With every step Wan Bajun took closer, the hearts of the members of the Ye family's side branches became more frightened and nervous.

Until Wan Bu Jun stood in front of these people, many of them were already trembling with fear.

Wan Bajun looked at the group of people and looked around the week, then asked in a cold voice, "Do you know why you were told to come back?"

The group of people lowered their heads nervously, and no one dared to answer.

Seeing this, Wan Bajun added, "What I, Wan Bajun, detest most in my life is people who are disloyal and unfilial! You are all members of the Ye family's side line, and you are all blood relatives of the Ye family, but when the Ye family is in trouble, you are the first to scurry away, are you worthy of the help and promotion the Ye family has given you over the years?"

When the members of the Ye family's side lineage heard this, they were all full of incomprehension.

They really couldn't understand how Wan Bajun could be here, questioning them as to why they were betraying the Ye Family.

Many of them secretly wondered in their hearts that the reason why they betrayed the Ye Family was because they didn't want to, and didn't dare to, make an enemy of Wan Breaking Jun. Such a simple reasoning, didn't he, Wan Breaking Jun, understand?"

At this moment, Ye Tianxiao, who had one of his legs broken, said with a flattering face, "Hall Master Wan! We are not disloyal or unrighteous, it's just that we know the prestige of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall and you, Hall Master Wan, and we revere it in our hearts, but who would have thought that the Ye Family would go against you, so we can only choose to stay away from"

Wan Breaking Jun sneered, "You are the first one I have met who can talk about holding his head and running away so justifiably."

Ye Tianxiao hurriedly said, "Hall Master Wan! I am also cowed by the majesty of you and the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, which is why I do not want to have anything to do with the Ye Family in this matter"

Saying that, he added, "Moreover, back then, Ye Chang Ying did indeed harm your parents, it is only natural for you to come to the Ye family for justice in this matter, if we were to stand with the Ye family, wouldn't we be an enemy of you and justice?"

Wan Xiaojun looked at him with a smiling face and asked, "Then according to this meaning of yours, I have to thank you instead."

Ye Tianxiao hurriedly shook his head and said, "You have overstated your case, Hall Master Wan, I would be grateful as long as you don't blame me"

Other members of the Ye family's side lineage also expressed their agreement, and someone spoke up, "Yes, Hall Master Wan, it is the Ye family's original family that has a grudge against you, it really has nothing to do with us side lineage, I also beg you to be noble to us, don't involve us in this"

The others also hurriedly echoed, "Hall Master Wan! Now that you have brought the Ye family to its knees, why do you still have to cross us?"

As he listened to the pleas of these members of the Ye family, Wan Bajun said with a cold expression, "In my eyes, you and the Ye family are on the same family tree, so you are naturally a family, and since you are a family, you must also take responsibility for the mistakes of the Ye family."

Saying that, Wan Bajun said in a cold voice, "Don't say I didn't give you guys a chance. As long as you, like the Ye family, obediently take out half of your assets, I will not pursue this matter any further! Otherwise, I will make his entire family pay a painful price!"

As soon as these words came out of Wan Bajun's mouth, a chorus of wails came from the scene.

Taking out half of his family's assets was even more ruthless than Zhou Baiqi.

Chapter 3513

The skin was just a thin layer, but Wan Bajun was going to split them in half!

The group of people kept begging, and Ye Tianxiao even choked back a sob, "Hall Master Wan, we are just the side line of the Ye family, you can't treat us the same way you treat the Ye family's original family! As far as I know, the Ye family's original family only took out half of their assets, how can you ask us on the same terms"

Ye Tianxiao's words immediately triggered the resonance of the others.

They realised that they were afraid that nothing good would definitely come from being ordered by the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall to return to Ye Lingshan today, but they didn't expect the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall's appetite to be so big!

Asking them to take out half of their assets was, to them, simply more frightening than taking their lives.

All of them, the side families, had developed in their respective fields for decades, and had only managed to save up this amount of money, so suddenly they were asked to take out half of it.

Seeing that there was a lot of discontent below, Wan Bajun immediately said in a cold voice, "I don't want to talk too much to you, I have also seen the family tree of the Ye family, apart from the 700 or so of you who came to the ancestral ceremony this time, the other descendants of each of your families are also recorded very clearly in the family tree, if any of them don't cooperate honestly, then don't blame me, Wan Long Hall, for being ruthless! "

As soon as these side branches of the Ye Family heard these words, they immediately fell into a deep despair.

They were very clear about the strength of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, and such a top mercenary group with tens of thousands of people under its command would be as easy to mess with as a hand if they really wanted to mess with them.

If they did not cooperate meekly, they might die one day.

Moreover, even the Ye Family's own family, which was far more powerful than theirs, had meekly given in, so how could they have the courage to fight to the end?

After all, all these side families together were not as strong as the Ye Family, and there was a huge difference between them and the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall.

When Wan Bajun saw that these people were all pale with fear, he knew that they basically did not dare to disobey, so he said in a loud voice: "Next, my men will contact each of you according to the roster, if you don't want to be enemies of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, you should contact your family members and gather their funds together, and later, according to the requirements, half of your assets will be transferred to the overseas bank of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall. into my Ten Thousand Dragons Temple's overseas account!"

"Those who cooperate obediently will have peace and quiet with the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, but those who refuse to obey will be the sworn enemies of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall from now on!"

As soon as the crowd heard these words, while they were desperate, they had basically made a decision to compromise with the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall.

They could earn money again if they lost it, but if they lost their lives, they would lose everything.

Moreover, the Ye family tree was in the hands of Wan Breaking Jun, and if Wan Breaking Jun wanted to, he could completely cut off any of their branches from their descendants.

Ye Tianxiao at this point desperately begged, "Master Wan the little family business I have is all saved up penny by penny, every penny is my hard-earned money, I beg you to be noble, at least don't take away that much ah"

Wan Breaking Jun nodded and said in a cold voice, "Since every penny of yours is hard-earned money, then of course I can also not take any of it."

When Ye Tian Xiao heard these words, his heart was so excited that he was about to thank them, when he saw Wan Bajun turn around at this moment and instructed the soldiers beside him, "Find out all the information about this person's entire family, no matter what method you use, within a year, I want their family to be completely extinct!"

Chapter 3514

Wan Bajun's sudden and ruthless words caused Ye Tianxiao's body to tremble in fear.

He did not expect that Wan Bajun would be so ruthless as to make his family completely extinct with a single word.

Moreover, he did not doubt Wan Bajun's attitude in the slightest, after all, this man was the Hall Master of the Hall of Ten Thousand Dragons, and in front of so many ministers as well as the Ye family, he was certainly not just talking.

What's more, all his identity information and family member information were all recorded in detail in the Ye family tree, so he couldn't even run away.

Thinking of this, he instantly said in an incomparably frightened voice, "Hall Master Wan, I am willing to cooperate! Surrender half of the family fortune! I beg you to be merciful!"

Wan Bajun snorted coldly and questioned, "What? Are you afraid now? Didn't you just say that your family's assets were all your hard-earned money? I thought you really had the backbone to die to defend your family's assets!"

Ye Tianxiao choked up and said, "Just now it was my brain that was confused, Hall Master Wan must not take it to heart, in fact money is something outside of my body, even if I am confused, this truth is still understood"

The fact is that money is an external matter, even if I am confused, I still understand this truth." "If you understand, then I will give you another chance, if you actively cooperate and take advantage of it, then Wan Long Temple will not pursue it anymore, from now on, the well will not cross the river, but if you dare to play small with me, beware that I will turn my face at any time!"

Ye Tianxiao's whole body was suddenly astonished, and he hurriedly said, "Don't worry, Hall Master Wan Even if I were given ten thousand guts, I would never dare to play small with you"

Wan Bajun ignored him and instead spoke to all of them, "If you want to be safe and sound, you should honestly transfer half of your respective family assets to the overseas accounts of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, as long as you spend money to eliminate the disaster, I, the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, will also abide by my promise and will not pursue the matter any further."

At this point, the crowd took a stand and expressed their willingness to accept the demands of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple.

Wan Bajun turned his words around and said in a stern tone, "But don't think of fooling me, the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall! After the money is collected, we will also arrange for professional financial auditors to assess each of your family assets, and if anyone is found to have paid an amount that is less than half of their assets, they must then compensate the difference three times!"

As soon as these words were spoken, sorrow was written all over the faces of every branch of the Ye Family.

They originally thought that they could completely conceal the actual situation of their family's assets to a certain extent, and if their assets were ten billion, they could completely lie and claim that they only had two or three billion, and then take out a billion or so to put things to rest.

However, according to Wan Bajun, even if he had given a billion or so, after the auditors of the Ten Thousand Dragon Palace had assessed the true size of his family's assets and found that he had underpaid by more than three billion, they would demand three times the amount of compensation, and in that case, the compensation alone would be ten billion!

At this moment, Ye Tianxiao said with trepidation, "Master Wan, my family's net worth is about eight billion, but the cash stocks that I can call on only add up to about two billion, how should I handle this situation?"

Wan Breaking Jun coldly said, "If this is the case, first exchange all the stocks for cash, then credit all the two billion in cash to the designated account of Wan Long Temple, and when you return, immediately sell some of your other assets to pay the remaining two billion in place!"

Ye Tianxiao choked up and said, "Wan Hall Master, I'm not going to lie to you, many of our industries are long term investments, some projects are invested for many years one after another and many funds are invested before we finally start to see returns, if we sell them at this time, it would be like killing the chicken and taking the eggs, the loss to us would be very heavy"

Chapter 3515

These words of Ye Tianxiao triggered the resonance of other members of the Ye family's side lineage.

They were already willing to take out half of their assets at this point, but if this was the way to kill the chicken to get the eggs, the loss to them would be greater than taking out half of their assets.

If it was only to complete the task given by Ye Chen, then he did not care about the three or seven, he would sell all of them if he had to. He would have to give up half of the eggs he took out.

However, he was still unclear about Ye Chen's attitude towards these clansmen, so he was not sure of the scale, so he said, "First, you should give a clear account of your assets, and if you have less than half of the cash, you should first pay the cash in place, and we will give you a solution for the remaining part later."

The crowd had no choice but to agree to this.

The generals of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall then began to register these branches of the Ye family's side line in batches, first asking each of them about their specific assets as well as their cash, and once the registration was completed, they were asked to pay all the cash first.

As this money began to flow into the account of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple, the Concorde that Ye Chen was on finally landed at Yanjing Airport.

As soon as it landed, Tang Sihai picked him up and took him to Ye Lingshan.

On the way, Tang Sihai gave Ye Chen a brief report on the situation at Ye Lingshan, and also reported the question that Wan Bajun couldn't decide, asking, "Young Master, when I came here, Wan Bajun asked me to ask you about those who have less than half of the family's assets in cash, and most of their assets are in the real estate as well as fixed assets, what exactly should be done with them? "

Ye Chen said indifferently, "Treat those who admit their mistakes and admit their punishments with a good attitude, of course, we should not push too hard, we can collect part of the cash first, as for the rest of that part, let them pay in installments."

Speaking here, Ye Chen paused slightly and added: "This is according to normal, the installment payment will definitely have to pay interest, however, since they are all Ye family members, I will also give them a little face and not charge them interest for the installment payment, but it will be the same as the bank, plus a certain percentage of handling fee."

"For example, if the other party owes us one billion, he can pay it in twelve installments a year, or thirty-six installments in three years, or sixty installments in five years, and as for the handling fee, just charge him six thousandths of a percent per installment, which is six million per installment."

Tang Sihai was stunned and exclaimed, "Young master, if we go by this rate, the commission for one installment will be six thousandths, and the total commission for 60 installments will be 36%! One billion principal, the commission will be 360 million, isn't that a bit too high"

Ye Chen laughed: "Isn't it true that bank credit card installment payments are six percent per installment? I'm not charging more, I'm just aligning myself with the banks."

Tang Sihai was busy saying, "Young master, say so, but this interest oh no, this fee percentage is actually still very high I'm afraid they simply can't sustain such a high fee"

Ye Chen looked like a treacherous businessman and said seriously: "It doesn't matter if they can't hold up, I can give them another option to convert this money they owe into the corresponding equity of their business according to a certain concession, for example, his business is worth five billion, but he still owes us one billion, normally, this one billion converted into equity is 20%, but because they owe us money, I don't charge him an installment fee, how can I also charge a cash discount percentage, so how can we be given a 20% discount on the total valuation, in this way, for a five billion dollar enterprise, a 20% discount would count as four billion for him, and a billion dollar debt converted into equity would be 25%!"

Chapter 3516

For these treacherous Ye family's side lines, Ye Chen had long thought of a full set of plans to deal with them, and the reason he had rushed back from Northern Europe without stopping was to settle all these side branches in one step.

When Tang Sihai heard this series of Ye Chen's plans, he was shocked and felt extraordinarily relieved at the same time.

Although he was not a member of the Ye family, he was furious to see that the Ye family's collateral branches, who usually relied on the Ye family for help, had fled in the night at a time when the Ye family's life and death were at stake.

However, Tang Sihai did not expect that Ye Chen would be so ruthless, and according to this situation, he was really going to cut off half of the family's assets.

Seeing Tang Sihai's complicated expression at this moment, Ye Chen asked him, "Housekeeper Tang, do you think I have been too harsh to them?"

Tang Sihai pondered for a moment and spoke, "Back to young master, if we are talking about the severity of the punishment alone, it is indeed a bit harsh, after all, it is half of the family fortune, which is hard for any person to accept"

The young master's assets have been accumulated by the Ye family, and since they have betrayed their trust at a critical moment, it is only right that the Ye family should take back a portion of their assets. supplement."

Ye Chen smiled lightly and said seriously, "Housekeeper Tang, in fact, I am not really punishing them this time for the sake of the assets they are holding, I mainly think that the loyalty of these people to the Ye Family is too low, so low that it is outrageous, so I must take this opportunity to fix them properly with a heavy hand."

Speaking of this, Ye Chen said with a serious expression, "This time, I have to make them understand that when they take up this bowl of rice from the Ye Family, they have to be like those ancient vassal kings and have a sufficient sense of loyalty to the king! Anyone who dares to play with me by picking up the bowl to eat and putting down the chopsticks to curse his mother, I will make him pay a painful price!"

Tang Sihai nodded with deep understanding and sighed, "Your Lordship has been too lenient with these side branches, always thinking that they have been loyal enough to the Ye family, so he has not seldom given them a share of the profits, but in the end, it is all an illusion in a peaceful and prosperous time, when things really go wrong, their true nature will be seen immediately. "

The Ye Chen said: "They are just like the ancient emperor's vassal kings in the various fiefdoms, if you want to be a qualified vassal king, you must have the basic consciousness of eating the king's salary and sharing the king's worries, but also have a good grasp of the scale and proportion, not to threaten the ruling position of the monarch, and not to retreat when the monarch needs it. "

Said, Ye Chen added: "Every one of them is in a similar situation, cash can only account for a maximum of 20% of all assets, and there are even some branches that have less than 10% of their total assets in cash reserves, even if they hand over all their cash, they are still a long way from the 50% I require, so this time I will let the Hall of Ten Thousand Dragons go first and force them to sign an agreement for installment payments , and then use that agreement to tie them up deeply."

"However, I won't force them to death, as long as they hand over their cash assets and sign an installment agreement as I ask, the Ye family can still give them some of their resources and let them continue to follow the Ye family to make money."

"At that time, when they try to follow the Ye family to make money, they are essentially trying to pay back the debt they owe me. "

When Tang Sihai heard this, he exclaimed with a look of admiration, "Young master, this is indeed a very clever move of yours! In this way, these side branches will no longer be defeated children who only reach out to the family, forcing them hard and making them start to do something for the family!"

Chapter 3517

"That's right." Ye Chen sneered, "This time, to put it bluntly, we want to take the opportunity to cut down the clan, to bring down the strength of these clan kings, in this way, in the future, they will have a hard time, but our good days, are just beginning!"

Just as Ye Chen was about to arrive at Ye Lingshan, a group of Wan Bajun's men had already taken over two hundred billion RMB in cash from the hands of over seven hundred Ye family side branches.

However, this was still only one-fifth of all the net assets of the Ye Family's side branches.

According to statistics, the assets of all the Ye Family branches combined were almost one trillion.

In this way, almost all of the side branches of the Ye Family had taken out all of their cash, but still owed at least 30% of the personal assets of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple.

Just when these people didn't know what to do with the rest of this portion, Wan Xiaojun had already received Ye Chen's instructions and spoke, "I see that you all still have a big gap in cash, what are you going to do next to pay for the rest of this portion?"

The crowd was instantly silent.

No one dared to take him up on his words, because everyone knew that there was only one way left, and that was to sell their assets to raise money to save their lives.

Selling assets was easy to say, but it was the least cost effective way.

The reason is that any asset that is sold has to be sold at a significant discount in order to be sold quickly.

It may take a month to sell a property with a market value of $10 million at $10 million, but if you want to realise it in a day, you have to get the price down to at least $900, or even $8 million, to make it possible.

The assets would be discounted, but not the debt, so that would cost them far more than the original 50%!

Moreover, what's even worse about selling off the assets is that it would seriously damage their original income structure.

In the case of Ye Tianxiao, he had a building materials enterprise that was very famous in the country, and most of the various construction materials it produced were directly supplied to the Ye family's property projects as well as production bases across the country.

With the help and support of the Ye family, this enterprise now has annual sales of more than ten billion yuan and a net profit of more than one billion yuan, so it can be said that it is a hen that can lay golden eggs.

But if they were forced to sell, not only would the price of the assets be greatly reduced, but Ye Tianxiao himself would also lose this source of revenue, which would be like killing a chicken to get its eggs.

Everyone else's situation was not far off, no one could afford to pay out that much cash to Wan Long Temple, and no one wanted to sell their core assets at a low price.

Wan Bajun took in the performance of these people and knew in his heart that what they feared the most was forcing them to sell their assets to come up with enough compensation, so he spoke up, "You guys don't say that I don't leave you alive, now, all the funds you owe can be paid in instalments on a cycle of one to five years."

As soon as they heard that they could pay in instalments, everyone breathed a huge sigh of relief.

The fact that they could pay in instalments meant that they did not need to sell their assets and could use their assets to make money to slowly pay off their debts, so that it would not hurt them.

But to no one's surprise, Wan Breaking Jun added immediately afterwards, "However, the instalment payments are not free! For every instalment you make, you must pay six thousandths of the total amount as a service fee for the instalments!"

Chapter 3518

Wan Xiaojun's words immediately caused a commotion amongst the seven hundred or so members of the Ye Family's side lineage!

Although these members of the Ye family's side lineage were not the top entrepreneurs, they were still much more savvy than those brainless youngsters who had indiscriminately swiped their credit cards in instalments.

Those brainless youngsters thought that paying in instalments was a very cost-effective thing to do, but little did they know that the bank had already eaten into their mindset long ago.

The interest rate for each instalment is six per thousand. It may seem that if you pay $10,000 in twelve instalments, you only need to pay an extra $60 a month, but twelve instalments a year is $720!

The annual interest rate for one year's instalment is 7.2% relative to the principal amount of $10,000!

This is only a rough calculation, you know, the $10,000 is not repaid in one year, but in twelve monthly instalments, with each instalment decreasing the principal amount, but the interest rate is calculated on the $10,000 principal amount, if you calculate it, the actual interest rate is even more than 13%,!

This interest rate, in the financial market, was considered to be a huge profit.

If they really wanted to take out a loan, they could easily get a large loan with an effective annualised interest rate of less than 5%, so when they heard this instalment plan given by Wan Bajun, they could not help but curse its black heart.

So, someone spoke up and said, "Hall Master Wan I am still two billion short after giving out all my cash, please give me a day's grace, only one day I will be able to get the two billion, through a mortgage, into your account!"

The others echoed, "Yes, Master Wan, just give us one day and we can get the mortgage! Please give us a little more time!"

Wan Bajun said in a cold voice, "There is no way to be lenient, each of you must make up all the money owed within an hour, or else you will have to sign an agreement to pay in instalments!"

Each and every one of these members of the Ye family's side lineage instantly rose up with a sad face.

At this moment, Ye Tianxiao said offhandedly, "Hall Master Wan, I am willing to pay in installments!"

The crowd did not expect that Ye Tianxiao would be the first to give in, and they were about to despise it in their hearts when they heard Ye Tianxiao continue, "I am willing to divide all the money owed into two installments, and within two months, I will definitely make up this amount in full."

When the others heard this, they immediately slapped their thighs.

They had been so intimidated by the six-thousandths installment fee that they had forgotten that they could choose the least number of installments.

If they split it into two installments, they would only have to pay two six-thousandths, which added up to 1.2 per cent.

In this way, it is naturally much more comfortable.

Thus, a group of people began to actively state their position, some wanting to split it into two installments, others wanting to split it into three installments, and at most they would be willing to split it into six installments, and no more.

Wan Bajun could not help but frown, and in his heart, he guessed the intentions of this group of people. They definitely wanted to start with as few instalments as possible, and then seize the time to raise funds to fill up the hole in this instalment.

This way, they could get out of the trap of high interest rates on instalments.

However, Wan Breaking didn't know exactly what to stipulate at this point, and Ye Chen hadn't told himself exactly what to do in terms of the specific number of instalments required for this route of instalment payment.

Just when he didn't know how to define it, he only heard a familiar voice say loudly, "Hall Master Wan, I suggest you still give a fixed percentage of installments, all those who can't pay cash and choose to pay in installments must choose a minimum of sixty installments, with no cap on it!"

Everyone immediately followed the sound, only to see Ye Chen, accompanied by Tang Sihai, already striding over.

Chapter 3519

These members of the Ye family's side lineage recognised Ye Chen, and someone immediately cursed out, "Damn Ye Chen! What the hell do you mean? Joining forces with others to pit your own family, right?"

"Grass! I really didn't expect that you, as the son of Ye Chang Ying, would become someone else's lackey!"

"Ye Chen! Are you a f*cking Ye family member or not! You're not even a member of your own family, who the hell are you!"

It was no wonder that these members of the Ye family's side line were angry.

Originally, they wanted to settle the matter within two or three instalments, in which case the interest would not be much.

But the moment Ye Chen opened his mouth, he suggested that Wan Breaking Jun start with sixty installments, which was simply killing people.

The interest rate for one instalment was six thousandths, and for sixty instalments, that was thirty-six percent!

Calculated according to the method of the principal being paid back less and less, the actual interest rate for these sixty instalments would be over 100%!

Therefore, they naturally did not have any good attitude towards Ye Chen.

At this moment, this group of members of the Ye family's side lineage all regarded Ye Chen as a traitor to the Ye family, plus they had been kneeling here since early in the morning, and Ye Chen, who was the first son and grandson of the Ye family, had even strutted over and shouted that he wanted to cut flesh from them, so they naturally did not have any good attitude either.

Seeing that these people had dared to scold Ye Chen, Wan Bajun was immediately furious and was about to greet the generals of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall and slap their mouths.

However, Ye Chen shook his head slightly at him and said indifferently, "Hall Master Wan doesn't need to pay attention to the filthy words of this bunch of villains first, let's let them sign the sixty installment agreement first."

Knowing that Ye Chen was trying to put on a show, Wan Bajun nodded his head cooperatively and said, "You are right, in that case, I will then order someone to prepare the contract!"

I happen to know a barrister back from the US, why don't I ask him to make a model contract, then we only need to fill in the information of Party A and Party B, make an electronic signature and it will be effective, saving time and effort, and it is also Green!"

When the members of the side branches of the Ye family heard this, they all exploded in anger.

Ye Tianxiao couldn't help but curse angrily, "Ye Chen! You you beast! You are simply heartless and beastly to help outsiders to trap your own people!"

Ye Chen sneered, "Who is one of our own with you? Are you worthy?"

Ye Tianxiao gritted his teeth and said, "We are all descendants of the Ye family! What are we if not our own people?"

Other members of the Ye family's side lineage were also filled with righteous indignation, some cursed Ye Chen for being shameless, others cursed Ye Chen for recognizing a thief as his father.

Ye Chen did not take these insults lightly, and asked back with a bemused expression, "You are saying that I have betrayed my own people, but since you are your own people, why did you run away the night before last?"

With a single sentence, Ye Chen asked the 700 people present, frozen on the spot, not knowing how to respond.

Ye Chen then asked rhetorically, "If you are your own people, why did you all run away in one night, despite the ancestral ceremony and the love of the Ye family, and even despite the fact that someone wanted to rob the Ye family's ancestral tomb? I would have f*cking let out over seven hundred pigs in Yanjing City, they couldn't have all run out of Yanjing before one night!"

"On the other hand, you shameless people are all running faster than dogs! They all ran out of Yanjing in one night, and the fastest of them even took a f*cking plane out of China overnight!"

"I ask you, when you ran away overnight, why didn't you think we were your own people?"

Chapter 3520

Ye Chen's rhetorical question rendered Ye Tianxiao speechless.

The others who had just been filled with righteous indignation also instantly wilted at this moment.

In their hearts, they knew very well that when they had fled Yanjing overnight the day before, they had completely disregarded their kinship and did not want to be dragged down by the Ye family at all.

Therefore, when Ye Chen had pitted them in front of Wan Xiaojun, they could only gulp their teeth down in their stomachs.

However, at this moment, they were already madly hating Ye Chen in their hearts.

Seeing the expressions of this group of fellow clansmen, all as if they wanted to eat themselves, Ye Chen didn't feel awkward at all, but instead had a pleasant expression on his face, which even made the group so angry that they vomited blood.

Many of them were even secretly calculating in their hearts that after this matter had passed, they would have to find a way to teach Ye Chen a good lesson!

Wan Bajun spoke up at this time and stated, "I think a 60 installment payment is a very good choice, this way, you gang won't have to have too much financial pressure!"

Without hesitation, he waved his hand and said, "In that case, all of you should sign a 60 instalment contract, and the contract should be signed electronically, so that it is convenient and quick! It's settled, hurry up and land!"

The members of the Ye family's side lineage present in the room were instantly wailing.

Sixty instalments, at an effective interest rate of nearly 100%, so that what was actually handed over to the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall in the end was not 50% of the assets, but at least 70%!

The only good thing was that a large part of this was paid in instalments, and although the interest rate was high, the time given was more generous, which was equivalent to making money while paying off the bill.

In that case, they would basically be helping Wan Long Temple make money within the next 5 years, with absolutely no hope of turning over in a short period of time.

Ye Tianxiao looked at Wan Bajun and could not help but lament, "Master Wan, why do you have to ask us to sign another contract? Even if there was no contract, we wouldn't dare to rely on the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall!"

Ye Tianxiao's words were actually asked in the heart of Wan Breaking Jun.

He also wondered in his heart, since Ye Chen wanted Wan Long Temple to do this kind of unseen thing, then he should just hand it all over to Wan Long Temple, and if Wan Long Temple came forward to demand the debt, these people would definitely not dare not pay.

However, the strange thing was that Ye Chen had asked the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall to do this kind of coercion, yet he still had to ask them to sign an agreement, which made Wan Bajun somewhat confused.

Ye Chen could also see Wan Breaking Jun's puzzlement, so he spoke, "Hall Master Wan, in the future, their debts will have to be continuously repaid for five years, and during these five years, all kinds of changes could easily occur."

Saying that, Ye Chen added, "If there was no contract, all of this would have to be personally collected by the Wan Long Hall, whereas with a contract, apart from the Wan Long Hall personally collecting the debt, it can also be collected through legal means, so that both hands can be used together."

Subsequently, Ye Chen looked at the members of this group of Ye family's side branches and spoke, "I am worried that they will be poorly run in the next few years and thus unable to continue paying this instalment, and when that time comes, there is nothing that the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall can do if they break the pot."

"In addition, I am also worried that they will quietly transfer their assets and flee and run away, and if they do run away, I am afraid that it will be really difficult for the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall to settle them for a while."

"However, if there is a contract, as long as they have any wind, I can defend the rights of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall through legal means, at that time I can directly submit the contract to the court and apply to freeze all their assets, so that they can't take a single dime away!"
