

Ye Chen 3571

Chapter 3571

When she said this, her eyes smiled into two slits and she held up a gold brick and danced around with her hands, "But to replace this 4 million with gold, it's really quite shocking! This gold glittering look is too festive too!"

Ye Chen nodded and spoke, "I originally wanted to exchange it for cash and bring it back, but then I thought about it, there is no reserve of precious metals at home, so I might as well keep these ten gold bricks at home as a deposit, it can also carry inflation."

Ma Lan nodded her head and said, "That's right! The price of gold is the only thing that's holding up now that house prices are not going up, and stocks are falling like dogs!"

As she said that, Ma Lan looked at Ye Chen with some embarrassment and laughed, "Aiya, good son-in-law, you can see that mum has never played with a gold brick in her life, this thing is shiny and heavy, it feels quite good, why don't you give mum a piece so that she can play with it when she has nothing to do?"

Xiao Churan was in tears and said, "Mom, have you ever seen anyone who has nothing to do with gold ....."

Ma Lan said with a matter-of-fact expression, "Haven't you heard anyone say that? Everything can be dished up! This big gold brick can be used as a dumbbell to strengthen your body when you have nothing to do."

Ye Chen immediately laughed and said, "You're right, you can use it as a dumbbell!"

Hearing this, Ma Lan happily hugged the gold brick in her arms and said happily, "Thank you, my good son-in-law!"

Xiao Churan was busy saying, "Mom, this is a reward for Ye Chen, can't you stop getting involved with it ....."

Ma Lan discontentedly muttered, "Churan, this is a gift from Ye Chen to mum, it's Ye Chen's heart, why are you always spoiling the fun here ....."

Xiao Churan seriously said, "I am not spoiling the fun, I am afraid that you will do something else ....."

Ye Chen persuaded Xiao Churan at the side, "All right Churan, let mum take it and play with it if she likes, you should leave it alone."

Ma Lan hugged the gold brick and said to Xiao Churan, "Churan, people Ye Chen is fine with it, you should not nag here."

After saying that, she turned her eyes and looked at Ye Chen, smiling and said, "Ye Chen ah ..... my good son-in-law ..... that ..... mother to discuss a matter with you? I'd like to discuss a matter with you?"

He didn't wait for Ma Lan to go on, so he asked her directly, "Mom, are you trying to say that it's not convenient to have only one dumbbell, but two, one in each hand, to be suitable for exercise?"

Ma Lan slapped her thigh and said excitedly, "Mom, you are a good son-in-law, you know me best! Don't these dumbbells come in pairs? If I only have one, I might end up with one thick arm and one thin arm after a while ....."

Take it away! Take both of them! You can have them all!"

Ma Lan was so happy that she took a gold brick in one hand and happily sat on the sofa like an unstable man, swaying left and right.

When Xiao Churan saw her like this, she was helpless and could only remind her, "Mom! You can't sell this gold brick secretly!"

Ma Lan was busy agreeing, saying, "Don't worry, I definitely won't sell it!"

Xiao Churan let out a long sigh and said to Ye Chen, "Honey, I suggest you go to the bank tomorrow and rent a safe deposit box and put all these gold bars in the bank, it's not very safe to leave them at home after all."

Ma Lan got angry and said discontentedly, "Churan, you've been insinuating about me all night, am I that unreliable in your eyes? How can I steal these gold bars that Ye Chen keeps at home?"

Xiao Churan said: "Mom, I don't mean that ..... I think it's not safe to keep so many gold bars at home in case of thieves ....."

After saying that, he added: "The two pieces you have, I suggest you also deposit them in the bank, and if you really want to work out, I will buy you a pair of ladies' dumbbells tomorrow."

"I don't!" Ma Lan hugged the two gold bricks and muttered, "I'm going to use them and put them under my pillow at night!"

At this time, Ye Chen winked at Xiao Churan and said, "Alright Churan, Ma can do whatever she likes, so don't worry about it!"

Chapter 3572

That night, Ma Lan's hands never left the two gold bricks that Ye Chen had given her again.

And because the Imperial Hotel project had reached a critical stage, Xiao Churan had been very busy these days.

When Ye Chen returned, he took it upon himself to drive her to and from work again.

Early the next morning, Ye Chen dropped Xiao Churan off at the construction site of the Empire Hotel, and then received a call from Richard Chen.

On the phone, Chen Zekai told him that Wan Bajun had already arrived at the Buckingham Palace Hotel with nearly 100 generals from the Wan Long Temple.

Upon hearing this, Ye Chen asked Richard Chen, "Old Chen, has the administration building been cleared out?"

Chen Zekai busily said, "Back to Young Master, it was emptied overnight last night, and the original occupants were compensated with double the room rate and arranged for them to be moved to other buildings."

"That's good." Ye Chen was satisfied and ordered, "In this way, you can tell Wan Bajun and the others to wait for me in the report room of the administration building first, I'll go there now."

"Okay Young Master!"

The Executive Building of Buckingham Palace was itself for large business banquets as well as high-end business meetings, not only did it have a large number of high-end guest rooms, but also a huge report hall as well as numerous meeting rooms.

Among them, the lecture hall was large enough to support an indoor conference with one or two thousand people.

Ye Chen had asked Richard Chen to clear out the administration building, with the intention of using it as the headquarters base for the Dragon Palace in China in the future.

Driving to Buckingham Palace, Richard Chen was already waiting outside the lobby. When he saw Ye Chen arrive, he personally opened the car door for him and led him to the lecture hall in the administration building.

At this moment, nearly a hundred generals of the Ten Thousand Dragons Palace were sitting neatly inside, each with an expression of complete determination.

When Chen Zekai pushed the door of the report hall open and Ye Chen stepped in, Wan Bajun immediately stood up on reflex.

Immediately afterwards, the remaining nearly one hundred generals also rose to their feet, looking in awe at Ye Chen who walked in with giant strides.

When Ye Chen arrived in front of the generals of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, Wan Bajun took the lead and knelt down on one knee, clasped his hands and raised his fist above his head, saying respectfully, "Mr. Ye, I have led the eighty-eight generals of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall to come to Jinling to listen to your orders!"

The other soldiers behind him also knelt down on one knee and said in unison, "At your service, Mr. Ye!"

The only two who did not kneel on one knee were the white-clothed Tiger King, Lu Haotian, who had already been invalidated by Ye Chen, and the Green-eyed Wolf King, Chen Zhonglei, whose consciousness had been sealed by Ye Chen.

Ye Chen nodded in satisfaction, reached out to help Wan Bajun up, and said, "All of you brothers don't need to perform this big salute, get up."

As Wan Bajun got up, the others also stood up one after another.

Ye Chen looked at Wan Bajun and asked him, "How is the aftermath of your parents' death being handled?"

With a grateful face, Wan Bajun said to Ye Chen, "Mr. Ye, thanks to your generosity, my parents' coffins were reburied yesterday in a cemetery in the western mountains of Yanjing, thank you for your concern!"

Ye Chen nodded slightly and said seriously, "Since your parents have been reburied, don't toss them again in the future, and remember to pay respects at their graves every year at Qingming."

Here, Ye Chen sighed and said, "In fact, my situation is very similar to yours, for the past 20 years, I have not been able to go back to my parents' graves to pay respects because of my status."

Wan Bajun nodded his head repeatedly and said ashamedly, "What Mr Ye said is true, when I was overseas all these years, whenever there was a Qingming Festival and the anniversary of my parents' death, I was in great pain and blamed myself, and I will definitely not make the same mistake again in the future."

Ye Chen gave a hmp and asked him, "Have those few generals from the Hall of Ten Thousand Dragons that I sent to Northern Europe returned?"

Chapter 3573

"Not yet." Wan Bajun was busy saying, "They had safely delivered those three to Hamid in Syria an hour ago, and should have started their return journey by now."

"Good." Ye Chen said, "Since we're talking about Syria, I have an idea that I want to share with you."

Wan Bajun said without hesitation, "Mr. Ye, whatever you want to do, you don't need to consult your subordinates, no matter what decision you make, my subordinates will obey it 100%!"

Ye Chen waved his hand, "This matter concerns the future development of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, so I not only need to consult you, but also the other generals of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall."

Saying that, Ye Chen added, "What I want to talk to you about is the question of which direction the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall should go next."

Immediately, Wan Bajun said respectfully, "Please speak, Mr. Ye, my subordinates are all ears!"

Ye Chen nodded and said seriously, "Back then, when Song Jiang was forced to go to the Liang Shan Mountain and become a bandit, all he could think of was to cleanse his name in the future, although Wan Long Temple is not a bandit, but you have been in the war-torn countries and regions of the world for a long time, fighting battles based on the amount of money rather than right and wrong, so it is inevitable that there will be some acts of aiding and abetting the enemy over the years. reputation is out there, but what is out there is not a good reputation."

Speaking at this point, Ye Chen gave a slight beating and continued, "And now, your Wan Long Hall has all come under my Ye Chen's banner, the road ahead is long and obstructed, and I do not want to see you being spurned by the world in the future, so I hope that Wan Long Hall can complete its transformation as soon as possible and gradually clear its name."

Wan Bajun said without hesitation, "Mr. Ye, what you said, I have also had similar thoughts for a long time, only that there are many generals under the command of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall and the expenses are huge, with my ability, I have never thought of how to lead everyone to a smooth transition, I wonder what good ideas you have, Mr. Ye?"

Ye Chen said seriously, "My current idea is divided into three directions, the first, is to abandon all crooked ways and be reasonable and legal righteous mercenaries; the second, is to engage in shipping security, to guarantee the safe passage of merchant ships in pirate-infested regions; the third, is to engage in team project security, developed countries as well as developing countries' infrastructure projects in the third world to provide overall security services. "

Saying that, Ye Chen then recounted the several directions that he and Gu Yanzhong had discussed that night, one by one, to the crowd.

Among them, the second point of shipping security in particular was the main one.

This was because Ye Chen intended to find a way for the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple to establish a base in Syria, using Syria as the main backbone to support their future work of escorting shipping in the Gulf of Aden.

Once they heard that they would be transformed to defend global merchant ships and the infrastructure projects of various countries in the third world in the future, the generals of the Ten Thousand Dragon Temple were also vaguely excited, as this kind of work was not only reasonable and legal, but even had a very positive and positive effect on society, a huge difference from the previous business direction of the Ten Thousand Dragon Temple.

Wan Bajun was also excited, he had always wanted to have the Hall of Ten Thousand Dragons whitewashed, but had never found a direction, but after hearing Ye Chen's words, he felt a light come on.

He then hurriedly asked Ye Chen, "Mr Ye, the reputation of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple was really not very good before, do you think that if we transformed into shipping security as well as project security, the clients would buy it?"

Ye Chen smiled, "Iso Shipping has already received a ten billion euro capital injection and will then become the world's top shipping company, at that time, I will hand over all the shipping security work to Ten Thousand Dragon Palace, as long as you can take this opportunity to make a name for yourselves in the Gulf of Aden, the clients will definitely be willing to accept your protection."

Saying that, Ye Chen added: "As for the security work for the Third World infrastructure projects, I have already asked an elder to help pull the strings, according to him, the demand for this overseas is very high, by then I'm afraid that your Ten Thousand Dragons Temple won't be able to keep busy!"

Chapter 3574

When Ye Chen first mentioned the idea of transforming the Wan Long Temple, deep down in his heart, Wan Xiaojun raised his hands in approval.

However, the only thing he was worried about in his heart was the profitability after the transformation.

He was not looking to make money now, but there were still tens of thousands of generals in the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall that needed to be fed, and the expenses of this group of people were extremely high, so if the transformed Ten Thousand Dragon Hall could not break even after the transformation, it would be difficult for him to give an account to the generals of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall.

However, after listening to Ye Chen's description of the future, he immediately gained confidence in his heart.

He then asked Ye Chen, "Mr Ye, do you have any knowledge of the pay situation of these two latter international security? I would like to gauge the approximate income fluctuation of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall in the future."

Ye Chen then said, "I'm not very clear about the specifics, I'll make an enquiry now."

Saying that, he immediately took out his mobile phone and called He Zhiqiu first.

He Zhiqiu originally had a deep understanding of international shipping, and now that he had started managing the Isuzu Shipping Line, he knew all the details of the shipping market.

When the call was answered, He Zhiqiu couldn't hide his excitement and asked, "Mr Ye, have you returned to Jinling?"

"I'm back." Ye Chen asked her, "Zhiqiu, I'm calling to consult with you, are you clear about the current international security salaries in the shipping market?"

He Zhiqiu explained, "If it is in the Gulf of Aden, generally a merchant ship needs to have three to five international security personnel, the helicopter of the security company will send the international security personnel directly to the ship when the merchant ship is about to enter the Gulf of Aden, and then leave the ship via helicopter after the merchant ship has safely and smoothly passed through the Gulf of Aden, the whole process will only take a few days, and the fee is generally in the US$200,000 or more."

"Two hundred thousand dollars?" Ye Chen said in surprise, "Is it that high?"

He Zhiqiu said, "Mr. Ye, this is already the quote from the beginning of the year, the price of international security is now higher than before, the same service will probably go to something like three hundred thousand dollars ....."

"The reason for such a big increase is mainly because from last year to now, the freight prices for international shipping have been rising like crazy, rising to record prices already."

"The freight rate for a standard container departing from our southeastern coastal ports in China to the port of Los Angeles in the United States has skyrocketed to nearly US$20,000 from the previous US$1,000 or so."

"A large cargo ship with a capacity of more than 10,000 standard containers can run the cost of the ship back in one run at US$100,000,000 or US$200,000 for a single full load, and those with a capacity of more than 20,000 containers can run the cost of the ship back in one run, and the shipowners have long been making crazy money, so they are also willing to spend hundreds of thousands of dollars to ensure safety."

Ye Chen asked again, "So is piracy frequent over in the Gulf of Aden now?"

"Frequent." He Zhiqiu explained, "The pirates there have never stopped, the hotter the shipping market is, the more active they are, they hijack a merchant ship, they will hold the ship with the people and demand ransom from the ship owner, usually at least a few million dollars to start with, sometimes even up to tens of millions of dollars, the ship owner does not dare not pay, and a lot of time wasted, waste of a trip to transport Money, may lose is tens of millions or even hundreds of millions of dollars of freight revenue, so now the shipowners to international security this piece of very important, almost large merchant ships will spend this money."

Chapter 3575

Saying that, He Zhiqiu added: "By the way, after the Su Family Shipping Group was incorporated, we have started to send out ships normally, and we will also buy international security services for our own ships."

When Ye Chen heard this, he asked, "Do you know anything about the current international security companies? Where are their bases usually located?"

He Zhiqiu said, "Right now there are at least three hundred security companies in the global shipping market, of course the demand for armed escorts is highest along the Gulf of Aden, so everyone is setting up coastal bases along the Indian Ocean and the Arabian Sea, some will even buy an old ship for renovation and transform it into a sea base capable of landing and taking off helicopters, right now most of the entire market is in the hands of the British, followed by the Americans, relatively few in Asia, and in terms of price, the Western escorts are a little more expensive than the Eastern ones, and their market acceptance is higher."

"I understand." Ye Chen nodded his head and said, "Zhiqiu, send me the information of all our ships at this stage."

At this moment, Ye Chen had already made up his mind in his mind to let the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall strongly cut into the market of armed escorts, since the British could take more than half of the share, then naturally the Chinese could as well.

Since he had made up his mind to do so, he would have to grasp both the ground and the sea, on one hand, he would have Wan Breaking Army find a way to establish bases along the coast of countries like Yemen and Saudi Arabia, and on the other hand, he would also have to be prepared for a sea base, so he intended to give Wan Bre Breaking Army all the information on the ships of the Isu shipping line, so that he could select the most suitable ones for transformation from them.

After hanging up the phone, Ye Chen gave feedback to Wan Brejun on the situation he had gotten from He Zhiqiu.

After listening, Wan Bajun immediately spoke, "Mr. Ye, we can get started with this business almost immediately, our soldiers, whether in terms of training level or combat strength and weaponry, are much better than those ordinary international security, so we can handle this kind of work with ease. It shouldn't be a big problem to set up one or two forward bases of a few hundred people along the coast."

Ye Chen nodded: "That would be great, you guys start preparing these forward bases immediately, I'll provide you with a cargo ship as a mobile base at sea, so that it can be officially launched soon! When the time comes, we will start with the merchant ships of the Isu Shipping!"

After a pause, Ye Chen added: "As for the job of providing armed security in high-risk areas overseas, it should be easier compared to armed escort, as long as you find an employer, you can send a certain number of soldiers over according to the employer's needs, I believe that the combat strength of your Ten Thousand Dragon Hall is certainly fine in that kind of third world country, and there is no need for additional training, so you divide the soldiers who are ready to transform into this field in advance, and send them over directly once you receive the project."

Wan Bajun said with some excitement, "Don't worry Mr. Ye, my subordinates will immediately start making arrangements, and we will be able to solve all the preparations within two weeks!"

"Good!" Ye Chen said with satisfaction, "As for the 10,000 or so captives you have in Syria, I will find a way to mediate to get them to release them, in addition, I also intend to help you seek to raise a 10,000-man rear base in Syria."

When Wan Bajun heard this, he was even more excited, and even his voice trembled a bit as he asked incredulously, "Mr. Ye ..... you ..... can really get them to release the captives, and also get them to allow us to prepare a rear base?"

Ye Chen nodded and said seriously, "You need a place, they need protection and help, this kind of thing, it is just a matter of both sides taking what they need, as long as the terms can be negotiated, there is nothing impossible."

Chapter 3576

After hearing Ye Chen's words, Wan Breaking Jun couldn't help but ask, "Mr. Ye, how are you going to talk to them about this matter? I am worried that they no longer trust the Ten Thousand Dragon Temple now ....."

Previously, when Ye Chen was in Syria to negotiate with the government forces on behalf of Hamid, he had branded the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple with the intention of being a parasite within Syria, so the Syrian side hated the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple once and for all, otherwise they wouldn't have arrested all those 15,000 Ten Thousand Dragons Temple generals.

Ye Chen, however, did not feel that this was a problem and said blandly, "As long as we capture the other side's psychological expectations, the odds are that we will be able to negotiate, after all, there are no permanent enemies in this world, everything also depends on the size of the benefits involved."

Saying that, Ye Chen added: "Now, the situation on their side has changed a lot, the opposition forces like Hamid, their defenses are now skyrocketing, not to mention them, even if it's your Ten Thousand Dragon Temple, without super heavy weapons, it's a fool's errand to try to bring down Hamid."

"Moreover, the other opposition armies have now started to follow suit and imitate Hamid's ways, and have started digging deep and accumulating food, strengthening their internal defences while building large permanent fortifications to store large amounts of supplies and ammunition."

"So in the future, it is foreseeable that the government forces have no way to take the opposition, but the opposition is also unable to leave the fortified fortress and conduct offensive battles on the outside, so they will definitely enter a state of mutual checks and balances where they can do nothing to each other."

After all, they can't cower in the mountainous fortifications, they have to hold on to the capital, the major cities and the transportation choke points, which are all easy to attack and difficult to defend, so they will definitely be surrounded by insecurity for a long time. need some extra security."

Wan Bajun asked him, "Mr Ye, what you mean is that the Ten Thousand Dragon Temple will provide some security protection for the government troops in exchange for the use of their land?"

"Right." Ye Chen nodded and said, "If they have this need, then they can absolutely provide us with a piece of land, we will use it as a base and develop and build it vigorously, and also sign an agreement with them that if they are attacked, we will fully help them fight against the enemy, in this way, it will also be a protection for them."

Saying that, Ye Chen added, "The recent incident in Afghanistan has shocked the whole world, so I think they must be very nervous in their hearts too."

There was a regime change in Afghanistan some time ago, and the opposition had officially unified the entire territory, and with this kind of previous experience, the pressure on the Syrian side's defence must be very high.

Therefore, this kind of situation would definitely be beneficial to them if they cooperated with Wan Long Temple.

Wan Breaking Jun naturally knew the situation in Afghanistan very well, and nodded his head repeatedly, "Like you said, I also think that Syria is in dire need of a greater sense of security right now, and if we talk to them properly, the matter of the base should be able to land."

Saying that, Wan Bajun said with incomparable emotion, "In these recent years, my subordinate has been trying to find a suitable place for the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall to put down its roots, only that after trying for so many years, this wish has not come true ....."

Ye Chen smiled faintly and spoke, "Then let's try to help you guys get this problem solved this time."

Chapter 3577

The generals of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall were all excited.

They had been longing for a rear base for a long time, only that due to their special nature, their many attempts had ended in failure, and the vast majority of countries and regions could not accept them building their base on their homeland no matter what.

So, even though they already have tens of thousands of men, they still have to scatter their soldiers around, and if they are expelled in one place, they must immediately move to the next place to set up temporarily.

If they could have a fixed base, it would be the same as having a home for them.

Ye Chen spoke at this time, "Right Broken Army, I think you can go to the Gulf of Aden tomorrow first, to determine the situation of the forward base, and also do a specific division of the overall team with your core team, as for the Syrian side, when I finish the matter at hand, I will personally go there and talk to them, you can join me then. "

Wan Bajun immediately said respectfully, "My subordinate obeys!"

Ye Chen added: "Before you go, pick one of the five-star war generals from the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall, and give him a dozen or twenty stronger men, and let them be based in Jinling from now on."

"Alright Mr. Ye, I'll make the arrangements before I leave!"

At this time, Ye Chen received a document from He Zhiqiu, which listed all the information and photos of all the ships of Isuzu Shipping, in addition to the new ships that Isuzu Shipping had already ordered, as well as the information of the second-hand ships acquired from other companies.

Ye Chen handed the phone to Wan Brejun and spoke, "Look at the specific information of these ships and choose one that is suitable to be used as a sea base."

Wan Bajun took the mobile phone with both hands and, after carefully examining it, said to Ye Chen, "Mr. Ye, there is a 30,000-ton bulk carrier that I think is very suitable. With a payload of 30,000 tons, it can also carry a sufficient amount of fuel and ammunition, which is more than enough to deal with those pirates."

Ye Chen laughed: "This is the longest and smallest cargo ship in the hands of the Isuzu Line, and it is already standardized to be dismantled after three years.

Wan Bajun was busy saying, "Mr. Ye, saving money is only part of the reason, the main thing is, we really don't need to occupy a bigger and better cargo ship, 30,000 tons are actually a bit wasted, to deal with pirates, I think it doesn't matter if the ship is smaller."

Ye Chen nodded and said seriously, "This ship is not just for you to use as a sea base, when you start to take on security work in high-risk areas in the future, the transport of personnel and supplies can also be done using this ship."

Saying that, Ye Chen reminded again, "You should try to be prepared, when the time comes, in addition to helicopters, with a few high-performance speedboats, although the vessels used by pirates are not big, but fast and maneuverable, you have to set some proven strategies to deal with them."

Wan Bajun solemnly said, "Mr. Ye don't worry, at that time we will develop a complete operation mode, integrate the armed escort personnel on the merchant ships, the sea base, the coastal base and the rear base through the best way, at that time never let any of the cargo ships escorted by Wan Long Temple encounter any danger!"

Ye Chen laughed, "I absolutely believe in the strength of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, when the time comes, just expect you to encounter pirates a few more times and fight a few beautiful defensive battles at sea, at that time, business will keep coming to you!"

Chapter 3578

The blueprint that Ye Chen had drawn up for the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall made Wan Bajun extremely excited.

Apart from leaving some of his elites based in Jinling at Ye Chen's disposal, he himself planned to lead the others back to the Middle East immediately, intending to use his connections to build a few forward bases along the Gulf of Aden.

A forward base does not require a large area or a high investment. Generally speaking, it is sufficient for a few dozen people to rest and standby for the time being, while at the same time storing some equipment and supplies and parking helicopters and speedboats.

The size of a beach house is, at best, the size of a villa, and the requirements are not as high as for a villa, so it can be built very quickly and can be put into use almost immediately if a ready-made house can be found.

Many overseas security companies have set up their own forward bases and transit bases along the Gulf of Aden, and there are even special companies that provide transit vessels in the Gulf of Aden to help different security companies transit their personnel in the Gulf of Aden.

The entire armed escort industry was already very mature, and under this mature model, Wan Long Temple was spared the preliminary preparation work of expanding into the market, and by cutting in now, with Wan Long Temple's powerful one-man strength, it would definitely be able to quickly gain a firm foothold.

He then said to Ye Chen, "Mr. Ye, if you have no other requests here for the time being, my subordinate will first take his men to the Middle East and hurry up to get the plan off the ground!"

Ye Chen nodded and asked, "When do you plan to leave?"

Wan Xiaojun was busy saying, "The sooner the better!"

Seeing his impetuosity, Ye Chen didn't hold back much and said, "If you are sure of your destination, I will arrange for an official plane to request a route now and send you there directly."

Wan Bajun also knew that time was money, so he did not hesitate to say, "Thank you, Mr. Ye, for your help in making the arrangements! My subordinate intends to go to Yemen first, after all, Yemen has the longest coastline in the Gulf of Aden and is most suitable for preparing forward bases, and I also have some local connections available."

"Good." Ye Chen immediately said, "Then I'll have the crew apply for a route to send you to Yemen."

Wan Bajun nodded, turned around and looked at Lu Haotian, who was sitting on a chair, and Chen Zhonglei, whose eyes were empty and dull, and hesitated, but said to Ye Chen: "Mr. Ye, I dare to ask for a favor, I hope Mr. Ye can grant it ....."

Ye Chen asked indifferently, "You are talking about your two battle kings, right?"

Of the four Battle Kings of the Ten Thousand Dragon Hall, two had died in Ye Chen's hands, and the other two had become invalids.

This was a great blow to the fighting strength of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall.

At this moment, Wan Bajun said in shame, "Mr. Ye, I know that I have sinned deeply and am ashamed of you, and the two of them, Hao Tian and Zhong Lei, were also under my orders before they offended you. "

Lu Haotian sat down on the chair and choked with difficulty, "Mr. Ye ..... will do anything for you! Please give my subordinates a chance!"

Although Chen Zhonglei could not say a word, his heart, too, had already turned to Ye Chen with all his heart, only hoping to get rid of this feeling of being a living death as soon as possible and prove his worth in front of Ye Chen.

Ye Chen nodded slightly at this point and spoke, "Since the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall has already done its duty to me, I naturally cannot let the two of them live worse than death."

After saying that, Ye Chen said to Chen Zhonglei, "Chen Zhonglei, come here."

Upon hearing Ye Chen's order, Chen Zhonglei's body immediately came forward on reflex.

Chapter 3579

Ye Chen looked into Chen Zhonglei's eyes and said indifferently, "I sealed your consciousness because you were too arrogant and domineering in the Middle East, thinking that with more than ten thousand generals under your command you were already invincible, so not only did you bury yourself, you also sent all of the more than ten thousand soldiers under your command to the prison of the other side, I hope you have learned your lesson during this time, otherwise, in the future you leading troops in the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, sooner or later you will make the same mistakes again!"

Although Chen Zhonglei could not speak, deep inside he was already ashamed to the core.

At the beginning, it was because he had despised Ye Chen that 15,000 of his soldiers had been captured. He had always been extremely ashamed in his heart, and now that he had been mentioned by Ye Chen, he was even more ashamed, only that he was completely unable to make any substantial response.

Without further ado, Ye Chen reached out his hand and gently tapped his finger on the top of his head, the aura that had originally sealed his consciousness was withdrawn, and Chen Zhonglei instantly regained his freedom.

This was the first time Chen Zhonglei realised that the feeling of breathing on his own was so wonderful.

The control of his consciousness over his body returned instantly, even to the extent that he was unable to adapt at once.

He moved his fingers slightly clumsily, and immediately afterwards, he couldn't control the tears that were welling up.

He looked at Ye Chen and took the initiative to kneel down on both knees, kowtowing to the ground with one head and choked up, "Mr. Ye, thank you for your kindness. From now on, Chen Zhonglei will follow your lead and do his best to be loyal to you!"

Ye Chen nodded and said, "Now is a critical time for the transformation of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, I hope that you can properly assist your Hall Master and help the Hall complete this strategic transformation as soon as possible."

Without hesitation, Chen Zhonglei said, "Please don't worry, Mr. Ye, my subordinates will do their best!"

Ye Chen said blandly, "That's enough, get up."

Only then did Chen Zhonglei get up and stand behind Wan Bajun.

Ye Chen then looked at the paralyzed Lu Haotian, stepped in front of him and said indifferently, "Lu Haotian, you brought a coffin to kill my Ye family mansion, and you repeatedly said that you wanted to bury my parents to the ground, and you also killed my Ye family's guards, so I should not have spared you, don't you think?"

Lu Haotian was in tears and choked up, "Mr. Ye, you are right ..... I know I deserve to die for my sins ..... You are already being extraordinarily kind to me by keeping me alive until now... .."

Ye Chen nodded and spoke, "Nowadays is the time when the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall needs people, since Chen Zhonglei has regained his freedom, I won't punish you too much, I will spare you once and see how you perform in the future."

Lu Haotian was overwhelmed with emotion and said gratefully, "Don't worry, Mr. Ye! This life of my subordinate will be yours in the future!"

Ye Chen gave a hint and reminded, "But remember, you and Chen Zhonglei made the same mistake, you are both too confident, confident that you are unmatched, or that the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall is unmatched, but in fact, there are many hidden dragons and crouching tigers in this world, even I dare not be arrogant enough to think that I am invincible, so you must learn a lesson and remember not to be as arrogant and cocky as you were before."

Lu Haotian and Chen Zhonglei spoke almost simultaneously, "Thank you, Mr. Ye, for your kindness! I understand!"

Chapter 3580

Seeing that Lu Haotian was genuinely repentant, Ye Chen nodded in satisfaction and took out a Spring Return Pill from his pocket, then divided the Pill in half and handed half of it to Chen Zhonglei and spoke, "Take this half pill and put it into Lu Haotian's mouth, his injuries will soon be healed."

Everyone, including Wan Xiaojun, was dumbfounded when they heard Ye Chen's words!

Earlier on Ye Ling Mountain, Ye Chen had used his spiritual qi to repair Wan Bajun's meridians.

At that time, Wan Bajun understood in his heart that Ye Chen was someone with great divine powers.

At the same time, Wan Bajun also understood that the energy system within Ye Chen's body was already very different from the energy system of a martial artist.

It was because of this that Ye Chen could use that higher level of energy to repair Wan Bajun's already irreversibly broken meridians.

The other Ten Thousand Dragon Hall generals probably guessed this logic as well, so they all thought that Ye Chen should treat Lu Haotian in the same way that he had treated Wan Breaking Jun last time.

However, no one expected that this time, Ye Chen would take out a pill to treat Lu Haotian.

Moreover, this pill was even only half a pill.

Everyone was asking themselves a question in their hearts: what kind of medicine was it that only needed half a pill to cure a six-star martial artist who was seriously injured?

Although Chen Zhonglei was also amazed, he still followed Ye Chen's instructions and stuffed that half of the Spring Return Pill into Lu Haotian's mouth.

To Lu Haotian's amazement, although the pill was solid, it instantly melted in his mouth and not the slightest trace could be found, completely turning into a warm stream flowing down his throat all the way to his abdomen.

Immediately afterwards, the medicinal power began to spread rapidly to his limbs.

Subconsciously, he tried to straighten his legs to fight the cramps, but with a little effort, he stood up from his seat!

This scene completely shocked all the generals of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall.

No one had expected that the pills Ye Chen had taken out would all have such powerful effects.

Lu Haotian was even more shocked, subconsciously moved his limbs and found that they had completely recovered, he could not help but exclaim: "I ..... I ..... have actually recovered all... . my meridians have all recovered too ....."

Wan Bajun was filled with horror!

He couldn't help but marvel in his heart, "I thought that Mr. Ye had already mastered a higher level of mysterious energy, but I never thought that even the pills that Mr. Ye casually took out would possess such unbelievable energy... this ..... is simply too strong... .."

Lu HaoTian was also shocked to the core at this moment, and when he thought back to how he had been so insolent and arrogant in front of Ye Chen, his heart was even more ashamed.

At this moment, he finally realised that the difference between himself and Ye Chen was like the light of a firefly and the glory of a white moon, and for Ye Chen to spare his life and even heal his injuries was already a great gift to him!

So, he hurriedly knelt on the ground and said repentantly, "Mr. Ye, you have forgiven my subordinate despite your past grudges, and even helped me to heal my wounds.

Ye Chen nodded and said indifferently, "You should indeed be grateful to me, because this half of the rejuvenation pill that I just gave you will fetch at least several billion RMB at the upcoming auction soon!"

This light-hearted statement from Ye Chen caused the generals of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall present to be even more struck by lightning!

Even Wan Breaking Army was stunned silly.

Half a pill was worth at least a few billion RMB?

At first, he thought it was a little unlikely.

But when he thought about the miraculous effects of that Spring Return Pill, what were billions?

If it were him who had been seriously injured and destroyed his cultivation, he would be willing to spend even billions of dollars, not to mention billions of RMB!

What made him even more grateful in his heart was that Ye Chen was willing to give this multi-billion dollar pill to Lu Haotian at his leisure.
