

Ye Chen 3711

Chapter 3711

In the same way that the two air force planes of the President of the United States of America fly, the other plane follows her wherever she goes.

If there is any problem with the aircraft she is flying, she can continue her flight on the other aircraft without interruption.

If nothing happened to this plane in the days she was in China, the other plane's over ten million dollar flight cost would have been wasted.

But Fei did not care in the slightest.

What she was after was a 100 per cent solution.

Nothing else mattered.

Afterwards, her assistant handed a flat white computer to Fei Ke Xin and said, "Miss, this is the information of the three hotels, please take a look."

Fei Ke Xin nodded, took the tablet and slid it to flip through it, her mouth whispered to herself, "Jinling International Hotel Jinling Buckingham Palace Hotel Jinling Hilton Hotel"

Chen Yinshan said helplessly, "Miss, Jinling's economic development is slightly lagging behind, not as good as several first-tier cities in China, the best local hotel is five-star, the only six-star hotel is still under construction and not yet completed."

Fei Ke Xin hummed expressionlessly, "Well forget it, that's it, it doesn't matter which one we stay at tonight, but we may have to stay in Jinling for a long time this time, so you should communicate with these three hotels as soon as the plane lands, and see which hotel room can stay for a month continuously, I don't want to change places in between."

Chen Ying Shan immediately nodded and said, "Okay Miss, I know!"

Half an hour later, two Boeing 787 airliners landed on the two runways of Jinling Airport at almost the same time.

While Chen Ying Shan arranged for her men to confirm the situation of the pick-up convoy, she called each of the three hotels to ask if they could secure all the rooms for a month's extension.

Fei Kexin usually stays in the best presidential suites when she travels, but most hotels only have one or two presidential suites, so if any of them are already booked for the next month, it would be difficult to guarantee Fei Kexin's extended stay.

After some phone calls, Chen Ying Shan immediately reported to Fei Ke Xin, "Miss, we have asked about all three hotels, the room at the Jinling International Hotel is fine, we can stay for a month, but the presidential suite at the Hilton Hotel is booked for next Saturday, it is said that the client is a foreigner marrying her daughter in Jinling, she wants to use the hotel's presidential suite as her mother's family's wedding. can help us coordinate with the client, but it's not guaranteed to work, also that Buckingham Palace Hotel, doesn't accept all bookings after fifteen days, so booking now can only be for fifteen days."

After hearing this, Fei Ke Xin clapped her hands almost without thinking and said, "Then don't bother, just book the Golden Palace International Hotel."

"Okay Miss." Chen Ying Shan was busy saying, "Then I'll call the hotel right now."

Fei Ke Xin just nodded her head in acquiescence, but soon, a gloomy look appeared on her handsome face.

She hurriedly called out to Chen Ying Shan and said, "Shan Shan, wait a minute!"

Chen Ying Shan asked, "Miss, what else do you want?"

Fei Ke Xin frowned and narrowed her eyes as she asked rhetorically, "What hotel, will not accept the appointment after 15 days? As far as I know, all the hotels, are dying to be able to sell their rooms until 10 years later, and it's the first time I've heard of a hotel that won't allow reservations after 15 days."

"Yes." Chen Ying Shan nodded and said, "This mode of their operation is indeed a bit strange, I also asked them the reason, but their service desk said that it was explicitly requested from above, and they were only carrying out the orders of the hotel's senior management."

Fei Ke Xin snorted coldly and said, "There must be a demon when things go wrong, what would make a hotel give up room sales? There are still nineteen days left in the auction for the Spring Return Pill, the exact address hasn't been announced until now, and this Buckingham Palace won't accept reservations after fifteen days, there must be something fishy about it."

After saying that, she did not hesitate to clap her hands, "Stay at the Buckingham Palace!"

Chapter 3712

In fact, Jiqing Hall has not yet announced the co-hosting of the auction with Buckingham Palace.

This was also Ye Chen's intention.

Some time ago, the outside world thought that the Ye Family had been half eaten up by the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, and many people intended to draw a line in the sand with the Ye Family, so the business of the hundreds of Buckingham Palace hotels around the world had been affected to a considerable extent.

Ye Chen was planning to use this auction this time to give those rich people a good smack in the face, so that they would have to stay at Buckingham Palace in order to attend the auction.

However, he did not intend to announce this news immediately, this was because if the auction venue was announced early, there would definitely be many people with ulterior motives or evil intentions who would step on the auction venue in advance.

There might even be people who had their eyes on the Spring Return Pill and wanted to do something about the venue.

Therefore, Ye Chen planned to put this suspense until the end and let those rich people who had signed up for the auction, after they arrived at Jinling, the organizer Jiqing Hall would arrange for them to check in at Buckingham Palace directly, and at that time, the room fee for one night would be one million, ten million, or one hundred million, just make your own price.

Anyway, the Buckingham Palace will be closed in advance, so those who do not stay here will not have the opportunity to participate in the auction.

Moreover, during this period of time, he could secretly prepare for the renovation of the ballroom of Buckingham Palace and the security work to ensure that nothing would go wrong.

But what Ye Chen did not expect was that his intention was detected by a woman he had never met before, who was different.

Like Su Zhiyu, Fei Kexin was a member of the elite class carefully cultivated by the extended family, but the only difference was that Fei Kexin had started her practical work in her teens, while Su Zhiyu had been a student until she was pushed into the high position of head of the Su family by Ye Chen, and had even originally planned to continue her studies in the United States.

So, although there was not much difference in their ages and upbringing, Fei Ke Xin was a great deal better than Su Zhiyu in terms of acting style as well as refinement.

When she realised that something was not quite right at Buckingham Palace, she immediately surmised in her heart that there must be some kind of connection between Buckingham Palace and Jiqing Hall.

She was even 70% sure that Buckingham Palace was the actual venue for the Spring Return Pill auction.

So, she immediately asked Chen Ying Shan to book a room at Buckingham Palace, and the group was then escorted by a pick-up team to Buckingham Palace.

At this time at Buckingham Palace, business was still somewhat depressed.

Although the entire executive wing was closed to the public, the occupancy rate of the remaining half of the rooms was only about 30 per cent.

For a hotel that had an occupancy rate of over 80% most of the time in previous years, it was simply colder than during New Year's Eve.

Inside the hotel's lobby, the number of service staff was even greater than the number of guests.

When Fei Ke Xin stepped into the hotel lobby, she also felt a little surprised that a five-star hotel was doing such a dismal business, which was really a bit unexpected.

As she stood in the middle of the empty lobby, looking around and wondering, two men quickly passed by her.

As they passed, she heard the younger man say, "Take those few people to Hong Wu's place, and as for the researcher, leave him alone and let him do his research."

The older man nodded and said, "Yes, Master Ye."

Immediately afterwards, the young man called Master Ye asked, "Has Wanting arrived yet?"

The older man said, "Miss Song has arrived."

Chapter 3713

As she brushed past them, Fei Ke Xin saw the sides of their faces and the first thought that came to her mind was, "This young guy is quite handsome."

And the two men who brushed past her were none other than Ye Chen and Richard Chen.

Ye Chen had just asked Song Wanting to come over to talk about the next details of the auction with Richard Chen, and when he arrived at the entrance of the hotel, Richard Chen was already waiting at the door.

When they met, Chen Zekai first told him that those Wan Long Temple generals who had been ambushing Jiu Xuan Pharmaceuticals had captured several agents who had infiltrated Jiu Xuan Pharmaceuticals last night and at noon today, and that these people were now under tight control but had not yet been transferred.

At the same time, the Wan Long Temple generals also found a man who was sneaking around Jiu Xuan Pharmaceuticals. Although this man looked like a Chinese, because he had been photographed by Hong Wu's minions when he had just arrived in Jin Ling and left customs before, he was now found at Jiu Xuan Pharmaceuticals and was immediately put under close surveillance.

According to Chen Zekai, the man didn't do much more than digging in the vicinity of Jiu Xuan Pharmaceuticals and collecting a bit of plant specimens, and did not infiltrate inside Jiu Xuan Pharmaceuticals.

Moreover, according to the investigation of the Ten Thousand Dragons Temple, it was found that the man's name was Nakamura Junpei, a microbiologist of Japanese American descent as well as a pharmacologist.

For those agents, Ye Chen's request was naturally to send them to Hong Wu for close supervision.

However, after learning that this Nakamura Junpei was a pharmaceutical research and development worker, Ye Chen was not prepared to have him captured as well.

On the contrary, he also asked Chen Zekai to instruct him to leave the guy alone and let him do as he pleased with his research.

After all, Ye Chen would have preferred the Americans to waste a little more time and energy in the dead end of reverse R&D.

Chen Zekai had been very careful when reporting these circumstances, using vague terms in many places and not daring to call Ye Chen young master outside, but neither he nor Ye Chen had expected that just this little conversation would still be overheard by someone with an agenda.

What Fei Ke Xin heard wasn't much.

She only heard about sending people to Hong Wu's place, who was Hong Wu, she didn't know, and what Hong Wu's place was, she didn't know either.

However, when she heard Ye Chen mention the word Wanting, she was immediately concerned.

Because, she had a preliminary understanding of the Song Group before, and knew that the person in charge of the Song Group, was named Song Wanting.

Moreover, she had heard the word Miss Song from Chen Zekai's mouth, and combining the words "Wanting" and "Song", she was immediately sure that these two people were talking about Song Wanting.

At this point, she wondered in her mind, "Could Song Wanting be at Buckingham Palace right now? That really matches my previous speculation about Buckingham Palace! In that case, the likelihood of the Jiqing Hall auction being held at Buckingham Palace has risen from 70% to 99%!"

Immediately, she speculated, "That young man, to call Song Wanting by her first name, and to ignore her surname and call her Wanting, that proves that he is very close to Song Wanting, and that his social status is no less than Song Wanting's, and possibly even higher than Song Wanting"

"Another person called him Master Ye but he is young and looks to be in his twenties, that person is even older than him, so why should he respectfully call him Master?"

"And who is that middle-aged man beside him again? Why does it feel as if this place is his home turf?"

Thinking of this, she immediately called over Chen Ying Shan and instructed in a low voice, "Shan Shan, check the information of the person in charge of this hotel for me, preferably one with images!"

Chapter 3714

When Fei Ke Xin checked in to the presidential suite at Buckingham Palace, Ye Chen was finalising the details of the auction with Song Wanting and Chen Zekai.

After all, the lure of the Spring Return Pill, which could exceed US$10 billion in value at any time, was too great, and there was no telling how many people would secretly have second thoughts about it.

Moreover, almost all of those who will come are top tycoons, and in this case, it is even more important to ensure the personal safety of these tycoons.

Otherwise, if something went wrong, who would dare to come to the auction in the future.

Therefore, Ye Chen asked the security system of Buckingham Palace to complete a new round of upgrading within the next fifteen days.

At the same time, he also had to inform Wan Breaking Army to send a large number of additional elite manpower from Wan Long Hall to strictly ensure the security of Buckingham Palace before the auction started.

Although Chen Zekai was under a lot of pressure, he still assured Ye Chen very firmly, “Young master, don’t worry, I will do my best to ensure that the auction is foolproof!”

Ye Chen nodded gently and said, “This year, let’s try to open the door first, I have already instructed Winter Snow to start preparing for the construction of a brand new auction centre, when the auction centre is completed, Hui Chun Tang’s auction will have a dedicated venue.”

The auction centre will become a new industry created by the Ye family and the Song family, and our Hui Chun Dan auction will continue to be held continuously, and this auction centre, apart from the Hui Chun Dan auction, can be used by Ji Qing Tang at any time. Think of it as your own home turf.”

Song Wanting was surprised and happy, but at the same time a little nervous, “Master Ye, this auction has become so influential in high society because of your Spring Return Pill, for Ji Qing Hall to come out and host this auction is already a privilege in three lifetimes for Wanting, for the future auction centre, how would Wanting dare to accept your favours again

This time, being able to borrow Ye Chen’s Spring Return Pill and make a name for herself among the world’s richest and wealthiest class was already a great opportunity that Song Wanting could never have dreamed of, and now Ye Chen was going to bring the Song Group on board for a long-term partnership, which was even more of a huge favour to the Song family.

What’s more, a brand new auction centre, with an investment of at least several billion to start with, Ye Chen only allowed himself to contribute 20%, but the vast majority of this auction centre would be used by Ji Qing Hall, which was even more of a great advantage to Ye Chen, and she dared not accept it no matter what she said.

Ye Chen saw that she did not know what to do, smiled slightly and said seriously: “Wanting, the auction centre is not a big investment, you have seen how hot the Spring Return Pill is, one or two pills a year can harvest tens of billions of dollars from these top tycoons, an auction centre can be done with a few hundred million dollars at most, it is not even worth a quarter of a Spring Return Pill, so you do not need to be so polite with me. polite, we are going to have a long-term strategic partnership in the future, don’t be held back by such a small matter.”

Song Wanting nodded gratefully and said seriously, “Master Ye, at that time, Ji Qing Hall will be responsible for the daily operation of the auction centre, and all the income generated from the operation will be handed over to the Dihao Group!”

“Don’t.” Ye Chen waved his hand, “The income generated from your operation will be divided normally according to the investment ratio, but if it is for your Ji Qing Hall’s own use, don’t report the income.”

Seeing this, Song Wanting no longer insisted more and said with a vein of affection in her eyes, “Okay Master Ye, Wanting understands!”

Only then did Ye Chen nod in satisfaction, and then asked her, “How is the registration situation now?”

Song Wanting busily said, “Master Ye, there are already nearly seven hundred people signed up.”

As she said that, she opened a document on her tablet and handed it to Ye Chen, saying respectfully, "Master Ye, all the registration information is here, and we have already started to review the assets information they submitted. ."

Ye Chen nodded slightly, and then looked through this registration information.

Chapter 3715

Among the seven hundred people who had registered so far, the person whose data was available and who had the highest assets was Bernard Elnor, who was currently ranked third in the world's wealthy list.

Ye Chen said curiously, "This Bernard Aylneau, how come I've never heard of him?"

Song Wanting pursed her lips and sniggered, teasingly saying, "Master Ye, you don't know Bernard Aylneau, but your wife should."

"Is that so?" Ye Chen asked in disbelief, "Why do you say that?"

Song Wanting smiled, "Because this man, is the godfather of global luxury brands many of France's top luxury brands, are under his group's name, the most famous is Lu Yi Vuitton, also commonly known as LV."

The most famous is Lu Yi Vuitton, commonly known as LV." said Song Wanting, "Moreover, he has made many big moves some time ago, and has acquired a number of French and Italian luxury brands with great fanfare, including the famous Emmas, because of its almost monopoly in the field of luxury goods, his value has also reached a staggering $170 billion, which, when converted into RMB, has exceeded trillion."

Ye Chen nodded and laughed, "So that's how it seems that this old man is known as a global friend of women!"

Saying that, Ye Chen took a closer look at this Bernard Elnor's profile and found that he was now in his seventies, so I guess he was starting to worry about extending his life.

In fact, this had been the case with the top powerful people all over the world since ancient times.

People in their teens to their twenties and thirties are a youthful and ignorant stage, unaware of the preciousness of time.

At this age, people are only concerned with the immediate future and not the future.

That's why some people are willing to sell a kidney for tens of thousands of dollars, or even a mobile phone, or sacrifice their health for a small profit, or even take the risk.

And starting in their 20s and 30s, through to their 50s and 60s, is the stage where the majority of people really lay the foundations of their lives.

For the top tycoons in particular, these precious twenty or thirty years are the most flourishing years of their lives.

It is at this age that almost all the wealthy achieve an exponential surge in their assets.

As their careers become more successful, their personal wealth increases and they grow older, these wealthy people naturally enter a state of “life consciousness” as they become more successful and older, wishing they could live longer and have more time to enjoy their remarkable achievements.

The more successful a person is, the more this is the case.

In ancient times, every emperor in China dreamed of a long life.

In modern times, almost every hundred billionaire is also repeating the mistakes of the ancient emperors, secretly investing huge sums of money to find a way to live forever.

David Rockefeller, the third generation heir to the Rockefeller family in the United States, spent hundreds of millions of dollars and had six heart transplants to live to the age of 101.

In addition to this, there are many other wealthy people who spend over a billion dollars a year on cellular injections just to slow down their ageing.

There are many more tycoons like Fei Jianzhong who have invested billions of dollars in various scientific research projects.

So, right now, the rejuvenation pill is particularly attractive to tycoons over the age of seventy.

As long as one spends money on a rejuvenation pill, all those previous investments with uncertain results and long waits can be completely omitted.

But it was also because of the different stages and different mindsets that neither Bezos, the No. 1 founder of Amazon, nor Musk, the No. 2 founder of Tesla, on the list of the world’s richest people, had signed up for this auction.

Ye Chen was not surprised by this, as neither of them was too old.

Bezos is a bit older, but is not yet sixty years old, while Musk is just over fifty.

These two, in the field of entrepreneurship, are both in their prime.

At this age, all they can think about is making money and doing great things, and they don’t have a particularly pressing need for longevity yet.

Moreover, both of them were bigwigs from the Internet, with avant-garde and radical ideas, and they were definitely sceptical or even negative towards things like rejuvenation pills, so it was unlikely that they would sign up for the auction.

However, Ye Chen felt that if he waited for another ten to twenty years, they would definitely also be eager for the Spring Return Pill.

Because in his opinion, no one could escape such a law!

Chapter 3716

Ye Chen continued to look down.

On the list, there was another person named Fei Jianzhong that caught his attention.

This person, Fei Jianzhong, had registered a*sets of US$100 billion when he signed up, but this person's information had never appeared on the Forbes list.

There are several other people in a similar situation to him.

These were all people whose names could not be found on the Forbes list, and who rarely made any news on the internet, but one by one, they all declared a*sets of around US$100 billion.

Ye Chen had a vague feeling that the actual a*sets of all these people should be far more than US$100 billion.

The reason why they all declared their a*sets at US$100 billion was that they probably did not want to be too obvious and wanted to firmly lock in a place, so they only took out part of their a*sets for capital verification.

What surprised Ye Chen the most was that in this list, the British royal family had even appeared!

He couldn't help but sigh, "I thought the British Royal Family wasn't coming this time."

Song Wanting laughed, "They just submitted their application a few minutes ago, and the one that Britain has signed up for the auction this time is not the Queen herself, but the Queen's eldest grandson, Prince Arthur."

Saying that, Song Wanting was also a little surprised and puzzled, "Prince Arthur seems to be in his eighties, his age is just around forty, I don't know why he is here to participate in the auction for the Spring Return Pill."

This Prince Arthur, who had married a commoner princess in a high-profile manner a few years ago and was the number two heir to the throne of Britain, had been a topic of great conversation and very high profile for the past few years.

The fact that he had suddenly signed up to attend the auction did take Ye Chen a little by surprise.

However, Ye Chen quickly figured out the motives of the British royal family as well.

He said with a smile, "I think the British Royal Family must not have thought of coming to compete for the Spring Return Pill this year, the reason why they let Prince Arthur sign up is probably because they want to send him over to see for themselves what kind of miraculous effects the Spring Return Pill has, to get a feel for it first."

After saying that, Ye Chen added, "And to be honest, with the little money the British royal family has, getting a bid is enough, but if they really want to bid for the Spring Return Pill, they simply don't have the strength to do so, it's just a way to get a buzz."

Ye Chen was not averse to this kind of hustle and bustle, because he knew very well in his heart that the majority of the seven hundred applicants knew that they did not have the strength to compete with the top tycoons.

However, this still did not stop them from signing up.

Ye Chen reckoned that these people's motive should be to come and open their eyes and gain insight.

After Ye Chen looked at the list of the top 300, he said to Song Wanting, "Wanting, take my grandfather's name and take it out of the list, there is no need to rank him."

Song Wanting busily asked, "Master Ye, are you not going to let your grandfather participate?"

Ye Chen smiled, "Not so much, attending is definitely something he should be allowed to do, I've reserved a few VIP seats at the venue, so I'll save one for him when the time comes."

Speaking here, Ye Chen gently lamented, "Recently many people have been treating the Ye family with some contempt because of the matter of the Ten Thousand Dragons Hall, it's time for them to treat the Ye family with more respect."

Song Wanting immediately said, "Okay Master Ye, then I will make the arrangements."

Ye Chen asked again, "Right Wanting, I haven't seen any information about the Nordic Royal Family, what is their current ranking?"

Song Wanting said awkwardly, "Lady Eliza Iliad of the Nordic Royal Family is ranked sixth from the bottom of the list of seven hundred."

Eliza Iliad, that was the name of the former empress and Helena's grandmother.

Ye Chen immediately pulled the list to the end, and immediately understood the embarrassment of the Nordic royal family.

Even if the old Queen had submitted proof of all the Nordic royal family's assets, it would only translate to more than ten billion yuan, which was just enough to meet the basic threshold for registration eligibility.

Chapter 3717

So out of the seven hundred people, she was almost at the bottom of the list.

Two hundred out of seven hundred people, according to this ranking, she was definitely not qualified to come to this auction.

Seeing this, Ye Chen couldn't help but lose his smile, "Hey, it seems that the Nordic royal family is indeed a bit embarrassed, their assets are not even a tenth of the British royal family."

"It's" Song Wanting said helplessly, "I always thought that all the royal families in Europe were very rich, I really didn't think that the Nordic royals would be so miserable... .."

In fact, the old queen in northern Europe knows in her own heart that the Nordic royal family has not seized any development opportunities over the years, and with only a small amount of assets passed down from the ancestors, it is indeed a bit too much to handle.

If she were to talk about her ancestral assets, she could still add a few hundred million dollars to her collection of antiques and paintings in the palace.

However, those things are in good order and have no market value, so they cannot be valued, otherwise if they are shown, the world will know that the Nordic royal family has started to sell their ancestral property.

Moreover, even if all those assets were discounted, it wouldn't help their ranking substantially, and choosing two hundred out of seven hundred, whether it was the sixth from the bottom, or the sixteenth from the bottom, or even the sixtieth from the bottom, would basically have the same result.

In order to prevent her from being unsuccessful, she specifically approached Helena and pleaded, "Helena, when it's convenient for you, can you call Ye Chen for Grandma and ask him if he can accommodate a place for me to attend the auction?"

Helena said with some difficulty, "Grandma, Mr. Ye has helped us so much, this favor has never had the opportunity to return to him, this kind of thing, how can I still have the heart to ask Mr. Ye for help again"

Helena's mind, the old Queen naturally knew clearly in her heart.

Ye Chen had a renewed kindness to Helena, turning her from a pawn used by the royal family to intermarry directly into the new Nordic empress, saving not only her, but also her mother.

Moreover, Ye Chen had not treated herself too badly. Without his rejuvenation pills, she would have let Olivia die long ago.

No matter how they looked at it, the two of them owed Ye Chen a lot of favours, so if they asked for Ye Chen's help again at this time, it would be a bit cheeky.

The old queen could not help but sigh: "This auction, I think there will be many top big shots gathered in China, I happen to have abdicated now, there is nothing sensitive in my status, if I can have the opportunity to meet and expand my network resources for our Nordic royal family, it is also a good thing"

Helena looked at her grandmother who had a sad face, her expression wanting to say something.

In her heart, she knew very well what the old lady was thinking, she just wanted to take this opportunity to go to Ye Chen to claim credit, or go to sell face in front of Ye Chen to see if there could be any unexpected harvest.

Although Helena was more grateful to Ye Chen than anyone else in her heart, she also had her own pride in her bones and did not want her grandmother, like an elderly beggar, to appear in front of Ye Chen, that way, she was afraid that it would make Ye Chen look down on her even more.

So, she then advised in a soft voice, "Grandma, Mr. Ye's auction this time, the threshold is indeed too high, we, the Nordic Royal Family, do not have the strength to do so, and if we insist on moving up, it will also look like we are out of our depth, instead of that, we should keep a low profile."

Saying that, Helena added, "Now that Mr. Ye's youngest aunt is representing the Ye family and actively working with the royal family, this is also a wonderful opportunity for the royal family, our energy now should be used to properly cooperate with the Ye family, as for the auction of the Spring Return Pill, I think it's better not to go for now."

The old Queen wanted to say something, but after thinking about it, she held back.

No matter what Helena said, the yearning for the Spring Return Pill deep inside her heart could not be erased.

Only, Helena's words were true in every sense, making her unable to refute them, so she could only accept them in silence.

At this moment, when she saw that the pupils of Helena's stunningly beautiful eyes were actually filled with melancholy, she could not help but ask her, "Helena, do you miss Ye Chen?"

Chapter 3718

Hearing her grandmother's question, Helena's whole being was instantly struck.

Before the shyness inside her could make her blush, it was immediately crushed by the sadness.

Originally, Helena instinctively wanted to deny it.

But somehow, something inside her suddenly felt like she couldn't let it out, so she let out a soft sigh and said quietly, "What can I do if I think of him? Since I ascended to the throne, my identity has become extremely sensitive. I can no longer decide where to go, who to see, what to say and what to do. I dream of going to China to see him, but there is no way I can bypa*s the diplomatic channels to go to China now, and he won't be coming to Northern Europe anytime soon. I'm afraid I won't even be able to see him in the future

At this point, Helena's eyes were already filled with tears, and they had even spilled out of the corners of her eyes.

She hurriedly turned her head and quietly wiped away her tears before she added, "Grandma, to be honest, the biggest reason why I wanted to be the Queen was to save my mother, and secondly, I wanted to take revenge on Olivia, and now that my mother is safe and Olivia has received the punishment she deserves, the position of Queen no longer means anything to me now"

The old queen said evenly, "Don't you think nonsense! The royal family now has no direct blood heirs to the throne! You can't even abdicate if you want to!"

Helena looked at the old Queen and subconsciously asked, "Grandma, do you still want to be Queen again?"

The old Queen immediately waved her hand and said, "No! I don't want to! Besides, there is no such thing in the world, to clearly abdicate and then regain the throne, if that were to happen, the royal family would not even have to lose face"

Helena sighed and said sadly, "And when will there be a suitable heir to the throne?"

The old Queen said awkwardly, "This depends on you" Our Nordic royal family is not prosperous in the first place, you don't even have a first heir to the throne now, if you abdicate, then I will have to go to another country's royal family to borrow an heir"

Said the old queen with a straight face and admonished, "Helena, if you want to get rid of the throne early, the best way is to hurry up and have a child, then make him the crown prince, and when he comes of age, you can abdicate."

"I" Helena said with the expression of a P*ssed off little daughter-in-law, sulking, "If Ye Chen is willing, I am willing to give him a son, and then raise him within the palace, and when he comes of age, he will inherit the throne!"

The old queen's expression was stunned, and then she covered her forehead and sighed with a stifled sigh, "You are crazy If you are unmarried and have children first, how will the royal family explain to the people of the country?"

Helena said seriously, "What's wrong with that? As long as Ye Chen is really willing, when I get pregnant, I will personally go and tell the people clearly ah, I will tell everyone frankly that I am willing to have a child for the man I love, this is my freedom, no one has the right to interfere."

Speaking of this, she sighed despondently, "The only thing I'm afraid of in this matter is just that Ye Chen won't agree, if he does, so what if I will be laughed at by the whole world, I simply don't care."

"Okay, okay" the old queen pressed her temples while sighing alas, "I think it's better to be realistic and start next year to find you a marriage partner of similar age in the royal families of various countries."

"No." Helena flatly refused without thinking, "I will not marry unless I marry Ye Chen."

The old queen asked her rhetorically, "Ye Chen has been married for a long time, and you said yourself that he has more confidantes than you can count, and all of them have known him for a longer time than you. You'll be single for the rest of your life, won't you?"

Helena said seriously, "It's better to be single for the rest of your life than to marry someone you don't love and have children for someone you don't love."

The old queen said with a sad face, "If you don't get married, when I die, the whole Nordic royal family will be left on your own! Have you ever seen a royal family so miserable"

Chapter 3719

Helena said seriously, "It's better to be single for the rest of your life than to marry someone you don't love and have children for someone you don't love."

The old queen said with a sad face, "If you don't get married, when I die, the whole Nordic royal family will be left on your own! Have you ever seen a royal family so miserable"

Helena said seriously, "Grandma, if there is no suitable successor for the royal family, then the Nordic countries can abolish the royal family and change the constitutional monarchy to a presidential republic after my death, as for us, we can just employ ourselves, why worry too much about the afterlife?"

The old queen let out a long sigh and said, "If the royal family is forced to be abolished because of lack of successors, then I would rather you have a child with Ye Chen, unmarried and first!"

Helena smiled and said, "You see, Grandma, we have finally reached a consensus on this issue."

“Yes, yes, yes” the old queen said quietly as if she had given up resistance, “You’re right about everything, but the question now is, how can you get pregnant with Ye Chen’s child? If you get pregnant and then give birth to a Eurasian hybrid, how will you explain to the people if half of the royal bloodline is lost?”

Helena said seriously, “How to conceive, we have to have the chance to meet Ye Chen first, and as for the latter, we have to wait until after we conceive.”

“Ai!” The old queen lamented, “I don’t care you can look after yourself”

After saying that, remembering the auction, she couldn’t help but mutter to herself, “It would be nice if I could have the opportunity to go to the auction for the Spring Return Pill, and by the way, I can also help you ask Ye Chen when he is free to come to Northern Europe”

Helena shook her head helplessly and was about to speak when her phone suddenly rang.

She looked down and saw that it was actually Ye Chen calling, and immediately said excitedly, “Ye Chen is calling me!”

“Is that so?” The old Queen was also a little excited and hurriedly asked, “Can you talk to him about the auction?”

Helena casually coped, “I’ll see what he wants to see me about first.”

With that, she stood up and pressed the answer button as she walked over to the window.

She didn’t really want her grandmother to hear what she was talking about with Ye Chen, so she still avoided it slightly.

When she picked up the phone, she forced down the excitement deep inside her heart and asked in a soft voice, “Mr Ye, why are you suddenly calling me?”

Ye Chen casually laughed, “Oh, it’s nothing really, I just saw the registration information for the Spring Return Pill auction and found that the Nordic royal family had also registered, so I just called to tell you about it.”

Helena said, “Sorry, Mr. Ye, my grandmother was the one who did the registration, and she didn’t discuss it with me before.”

Ye Chen smiled, “It’s alright, I’m calling mainly to tell you that according to the normal approval process, the Nordic royal family’s a*set amount didn’t reach the first two hundred.”

“It’s” Helena said more or less awkwardly, “The Nordic Royal Family’s financial resources are not exactly strong, so I guess they just meet the minimum threshold for registration, so there is definitely no way to enter the top two hundred. ”

Ye Chen hummed and said, “It doesn’t matter if you can’t get into the top two hundred, I’ve reserved a few VIP seats at the venue, I’ll leave one for your grandmother at that time, I’ll have the invitation sent to the palace at that time, let your grandmother pay attention to check the receipt.”

Chapter 3720

Helena had not expected that Ye Chen had called to arrange a VIP seat for her grandmother.

She knew that with that strength of the Nordic royal family, they couldn't even get into the top two hundred of the registration, so what qualification would they have to occupy the even rarer VIP seats.

Therefore, she said with some trepidation, "Mr. Ye will this make it too difficult for you actually you don't have to go to such trouble"

Ye Chen on the phone smiled lightly and said seriously, "Your grandmother has done a lot of publicity work for me, so I naturally need to show my appreciation, but it depends on her old man's mood, if she is willing to come it would be best, if she is not willing to toss so far, then I won't force it."

Helena was busy saying, "No no I won't hide it from you Mr. Ye, my grandmother was just telling me about this matter, she thinks that it might be difficult for our Nordic royal family's financial resources to be selected in the end, but she wants to go to the auction for a long time, she is very frustrated in her heart, I believe that after she knows about this matter, she will be very happy!"

Ye Chen smiled, "That would be perfect, you tell her about it, let her be happy too, as for the invitation, I will have someone send it over in a few days."

"Okay!" Helena said joyfully, "Thank you Mr. Ye!"

Ye Chen laughed: "It's all a small matter, what's the point of talking about thanks."

Helena subconsciously asked, "Mr. Ye, can I go then?"

Ye Chen was a little surprised and asked in return, "Your status should be rather sensitive, right? Like your current status, you should have to go through diplomatic channels to go to other countries, and coming to the auction, I'm afraid it's not very good in terms of the process."

Helena said in a somewhat frustrated voice: "Actually, I know I can't go just subconsciously want to ask"

Ye Chen laughed: "It doesn't matter, if this Echo Spring Dan auction is successful, in the future when the time is ripe, you can hold one in Northern Europe, and then you can hold it jointly with the Nordic royal family, then you, as the Nordic Queen, can attend as a VIP in an honorable manner."

Helena wanted to go to the Spring Return Pill auction, not because she wanted to see what was different about the auction, but mainly because she wanted to meet Ye Chen.

She didn't know whether Ye Chen hadn't understood or whether he had understood and deliberately played dumb, and had even brought the conversation to the topic of holding an auction in Northern Europe in the future.

Helplessly, she could only ask, "Mr Ye, if you really want to hold an auction in Northern Europe, then will you come over in person?"

Ye Chen said with great certainty, "Of course, for such a major event, I will definitely come over in person."

Only then did Helena's heart feel a little more comfortable, if that was the case, then she still had a chance to meet Ye Chen.

Thus, she hurriedly said, "Mr. Ye, then this matter is agreed, you must not forget anything"

"Don't worry." Ye Chen said seriously, "I will definitely honor this matter."

"Good" Helena's mood brightened up and she said cheerfully, "Then I'll wait for your good news in Northern Europe!"

Ye Chen agreed, and after the two of them exchanged a few more pleasantries, Ye Chen said goodbye to Helena and hung up the phone.

Helena pressed her hands on her chest, her mood was overwhelmingly joyful, her whole body did not have the aura of the previous beauty queen, she was completely a young girl in love.

The old queen hurried up to her and asked curiously, "Helena, did Ye Chen call you for something?"

Helena said joyfully, "Grandma, Mr. Ye called to tell me that he has reserved a VIP seat for you at the auction."

"Really?!" When the old Queen heard this, her entire body immediately cheered and asked her with unbridled excitement, "Mr. Ye he really said that?!"

"Yes." Helena nodded seriously and added, "Mr. Ye said that he will send the invitation over in a few days, so you will be able to go to the auction in Jinling then, and you will attend as a VIP."
